Labourers.

By 5 Eliz. c. 4.

NO perſon ſhall hire, or be hired, to work for leſs than one year, in the arts of clothiers, woollen cloth weavers, tuckers, fullers, clothworkers, ſheermen, dyers, hoſiers, taylors, ſhoemakers, tanners, pewterers, bakers, brewers, glovers, cutlers, ſmiths, farriers, curriers, ſadlers, ſpurriers, turners, cappers, hatmakers or feltmakers, bowyers, fletchers, arrowhead makers, butchers, cooks or millers. ſ. 3.

Every perſon unmarried, and under the age of thirty, having been brought up in the ſaid arts, or that hath uſed any of them three years, and not having lands, copyhold, freehold, or for life, of the yearly value of 40 s. nor being worth 10 l. and ſo allowed by two juſtices, or by the mayor or head officers of the city, or where ſuch perſon hath dwelt one year, and two aldermen (or other diſcreet burgeſſes if there be no aldermen), under their hands and ſeals, nor being retained in huſbandry or in any art, nor in houſehold or office with any other, nor have a convenient holding in tillage, whereupon he may imploy his labour, ſhall upon requeſt made by any perſon uſing the art wherein the perſon required hath been exerciſed, be retained. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall put away his ſervant, and no perſon retained ſhall depart before the end of his term, unleſs for reaſonable cauſe, or allowed before a juſtice or mayor, &c. to whom the parties grieved ſhall complain. ſ. 5.

No maſter ſhall put away ſuch ſervant at the end of his term, or any ſervant depart, without one quarter's warning. ſ. 6.

Every perſon between twelve years and ſixty, not retained, nor apprentice with any fiſherman or mariner, nor being in ſervice with any kidder or carrier of corn or meal for the city of London, nor with any huſbandman, nor in any city, &c. in any of the arts limited by this ſtatute to take apprentices, not being retained by the year, or half the year, for digging or working of ſilver, tin, lead, iron, copper, ſtone, ſea-coal, ſtone-coal, moor-coal or cherk-coal, nor being occupied in making glaſs, nor being a gentleman, nor ſcholar in the univerſities or any ſchool, nor having lands for life, &c. of the yearly value of 40 s. nor being worth 10 l. nor having a father or mother living, or other anceſtor, whoſe heir apparent he is, having lands of the yearly value of 10 l. or goods of the value of 40 l. nor being officer or ſervant, nor having a farm, &c. nor being otherwiſe retained, ſhall be compelled to ſerve in huſbandry by the year, where required. ſ. 7.

If any perſon ſhall put away the ſervant before the end of his term, unleſs for cauſe to be allowed as aforeſaid, or without one quarter's warning; ſuch maſter, unleſs he prove by two witneſſes ſuch cauſe, or warning, before the juſtices of oyer and terminer, juſtices of aſſize, juſtices in quarter ſeſſions, or before the mayor, &c. ſhall forfeit 40 s. ſ. 8.

If any ſervant retained, &c. depart before the end of his term, unleſs for cauſe, &c. or at the end of his term without a quarter's warning before two witneſſes; or if any perſon bound to ſerve in huſbandry, &c. refuſe to ſerve for the wages limited, or promiſe and do not ſerve; ſuch ſervant upon complaint to two juſtices, or to the mayor, &c. the juſtices, &c. may commit him to ward until he be bound to the party, to ſerve for the wages limited, and to be diſcharged without fee to the gaoler. ſ. 9.

No retained perſons in huſbandry, &c. ſhall depart forth of one city or pariſh to another, nor out of the hundred, nor out of the county, to ſerve in any other city, &c. unleſs he have a teſtimonial under ſeal of the city, &c. or of the conſtables or other head officers and two houſeholders of the city or pariſh; which teſtimonial ſhall be delivered to the ſervant, and regiſtered by the parſon of the pariſh, taking 2 d. ſ. 10. And the form ſhall be as followeth, viz.

> Memorandum, That A. B. ſervant to C. D. of E. huſbandman or taylor, &c. in the county, &c. is licenſed to depart from his ſaid maſter, and is at his liberty to ſerve elſewhere according to the ſtatute in that caſe made and provided. In witneſs whereof, &c. Dated the day, &c. of the making.

No perſon that ſhall depart out of a ſervice ſhall be retained into any other, without ſhewing ſuch teſtimonial to the chief officer of the town, and in every other place to the conſtable, curate, church-warden or other head officer, where he ſhall be retained, upon pain that ſuch ſervant ſhall be impriſoned until he procure a teſtimonial, which if he cannot do within twenty-one days, he ſhall be whipped and uſed as a vagabond. And every perſon retaining ſuch ſervant without teſtimonial ſhall forfeit 5 l. And if ſuch perſon be taken with a forged teſtimonial, then to be whipped, &c. ſ. 11.

All artificers and labourers, being hired by the day or week, ſhall betwixt the midſt of March and September be at their work at five in the morning, and continue until betwixt ſeven and eight at night; except the time of breakfaſt, dinner, or drinking, which ſhall not exceed two hours and a half, viz. at drinking one half hour, for his dinner one hour, and for his ſleep when he is allowed to ſleep, which is from the midſt of May to the midſt of Auguſt, half an hour, and at every breakfaſt one half hour. And the ſaid artificers and labourers, between the midſt of September and the midſt of March ſhall be at work from the ſpring of day until night, except in time for breakfaſt and dinner, upon pain to forfeit 1 d. for every hour's abſence, to be deducted out of his wages. ſ. 12.

Every artificer and labourer retained in building or repairing any church, houſe, ſhip, mill or other work taken in great, ſhall continue and not depart, unleſs it be for not paying of wages, or taken to ſerve the queen, or for other lawful cauſe, or without licence of the owner, before finiſhing the work; upon pain of impriſonment one month, and 5 l. to the party, for which he may have his action, &c. beſides coſts. ſ. 13.

No artificer or labourer retained to work with the queen, or any other, ſhall depart, until the work be finiſhed, if the perſon retaining ſo long will have him, and pay him his wages, upon pain of impriſonment one month. ſ. 14.

The juſtices of peace, &c. and the ſheriff if he conveniently may, and every mayor or other head officer within within any city or town corporate, ſhall yearly at every general ſeſſions firſt after Eaſter, or within ſix weeks next following the feaſt of Eaſter, aſſemble, and calling unto them ſuch perſons as they think meet, may limit the wages of all labourers, workmen, or apprentices, and ſhall yearly before 12 Jul. certify the ſame ingroſſed in parchment, with the cauſes thereof, into chancery, whereupon the lord chancellor, upon declaration thereof to the queen, or to the privy council, may cauſe to be printed and ſent before 1 Sept. into every county to the ſheriff and juſtices, and to the mayor, &c. ten or twelve proclamations, containing the rates appointed, with commandment to obſerve the ſame; upon receipt whereof the ſheriffs, &c. ſhall cauſe the ſame to be entered by the clerk of the peace; and ſhall in open markets, upon the market days before Michaelmas, cauſe the ſame to be proclaimed, and fixed in ſome convenient place. ſ. 15.

If the ſheriffs, juſtices, &c. ſhall think convenient to keep for the year to come the rates certified the year before, or to change them, they ſhall before the 12 July certify into chancery their determinations therein; and if there be no alteration, the proclamations for the year paſt ſhall remain until new proclamations be ſent down. ſ. 16.

If all the juſtices of peace, mayors, &c. do not yearly aſſemble and limit the wages, or be negligent in the certificate thereof, every juſtice, mayor, &c. in whom ſuch default ſhall be found, not having good excuſe, to be allowed by the juſtices upon oath, ſhall forfeit to the queen 10 l. ſ. 17.

If any perſon ſhall retain any ſervant or labourer, or give greater wages, contrary to this ſtatute, every perſon thereof convicted before the juſtices, &c. ſhall ſuffer impriſonment ten days, and forfeit 5 l. ſ. 18.

Every perſon ſo retained that ſhall take wages contrary to this ſtatute, and be convicted before the juſtices, &c. ſhall ſuffer impriſonment 21 days. ſ. 19.

Every retainer, promiſe or payment of wages, contrary to this ſtatute, and every writing for that purpoſe, ſhall be void. ſ. 20.

If any ſervant or labourer ſhall wilfully or maliciouſly make any aſſault or affray upon his maſter, or upon any that have the overſight of ſuch ſervant, and being thereof convicted before two juſtices, &c. by confeſſion, or oath of two men; ſuch offender ſhall ſuffer impriſonment one year, or leſs, by the diſcretion of two juſtices, &c. and receive other open puniſhment, ſo as it extend not to life or limb, as the juſtices in ſeſſions, &c. ſhall think convenient. ſ. 21.

In time of hay or corn-harveſt, the juſtices, and alſo the conſtable or other head officer of every townſhip, upon requeſt, may cauſe all ſuch perſons as be meet to labour, to ſerve by the day, for mowing, reaping, ſhearing, getting or inning of corn and hay; and none ſhall refuſe, upon pain to ſuffer impriſonment in the ſtocks two days and one night: and the conſtable, upon complaint, ſhall have authority to ſet the offender in the ſtocks, upon pain of 40 s. ſ. 22.

All perſons of the counties where they have accuſtomed to go into other ſhires for harveſt-work, and having no harveſt-work ſufficient in the county where they dwelt in the winter paſt, bringing with them a teſtimonial of one juſtice or other head officer, for which he ſhall pay not above 1 d. (other than perſons retained in ſervice), may repair into any other county for harveſt works. ſ. 23.

Two juſtices, &c. may appoint any woman of the age of 12 years, and under 40 years, and unmarried, and forth of ſervice, meet to ſerve, to be retained by the year, week or day, for ſuch wages as they ſhall think meet; and if ſhe refuſe to ſerve, the juſtices, &c. may commit ſuch woman to ward, until ſhe be bound to ſerve. ſ. 24.

See the other clauſes under title APPRENTICES.

The juſtices dividing themſelves into ſeveral limits, and every mayor, &c. of any city, &c. ſhall yearly between Saint Michael and the nativity of our Lord, and between the annunciation and St. John Baptiſt, make diligent inquiry of the articles of this ſtatute, and of the execution of the ſame, and where they find any defaults to ſee the ſame corrected. ſ. 37.

Every juſtice, mayor, &c. for every day that he ſhall ſit about the execution of this ſtatute ſhall have 5 s. of the fines and forfeitures due unto the queen by this ſtatute, in ſuch manner as the juſtices have been paid for their charges at the quarter ſeſſions, ſo that the ſitting be not at one time above three days. ſ. 38.

One half of all penalties, other than ſuch as are otherwiſe appointed, ſhall be to the queen, and the other to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame by action of debt, &c. and the juſtices, or two of them (1 Qu.), and the ſaid mayors or other head officers of cities or towns corporate, may hear and determine all offences againſt this ſtatute, as well upon indictment in ſeſſions, as upon information, action of debt or bill of complaint, and ſhall yearly in Michaelmas term certify by eſtreat the fines and forfeitures into the exchequer. ſ. 39.

The inhabitants of Godalming in the county of Surrey, within the limits of the watch of the ſaid town, may uſe ſuch occupations, and take apprentices, as the inhabitants within market towns by this ſtatute. ſ. 44.

All forfeitures within any city or town corporate ſhall be levied to the uſe of the ſame city, &c. as other forfeitures have been. ſ. 45.

If any ſervant or apprentice of huſbandry, or of any occupation aforeſaid, unlawfully depart into any other ſhire, the juſtices and the mayors, &c. of cities, &c. may grant writs of capias, directed to the ſheriffs or other head officers, to take their bodies, returnable before them, ſo that if they come by ſuch proceſs, they be put in priſon till they find ſurety to ſerve their maſters. ſ. 47.

High conſtables of hundreds may hold petty ſeſſions, called ſtatute ſeſſions, where ſuch have been uſed. ſ. 48.

By 1 Jac. 1. c. 6.; The ſtatute 5 Eliz. c. 4. and the authority by the ſame given for aſſeſſing of wages, ſhall be conſtrued to rate wages of any labourers, weavers, ſpinſters, and workmen or workwomen whatſoever. ſ. 3.

The juſtices reſiant in any ſhire, &c. where ſeſſions by diviſions have been uſually kept, may at any general ſeſſions, or at ſuch time of rating of wages as is limited by the ſaid act, rate all manner of wages within ſuch diviſion as if the ſame were done in the general ſeſſions for the county. ſ. 5.

After the rates made for wages and engroſſed, the ſheriff, or the mayor, &c. may cauſe proclamation to be made of the rates, as if the ſame had been ſent down printed by the lord chancellor. ſ. 6.

If any clothier or other ſhall refuſe to obey the order of wages, and ſhall not pay ſo much to their workmen, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit to the party grieved 10 s. and if the offence ſhall be confeſſed or proved by two witneſſes before the juſtices of aſſize, or two juſtices (1 Qu.), ſuch perſon ſhall ſtand convicted; which forfeiture of 10 s. ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods by warrant from the juſtices. ſ. 7.

No

No perſon ſhall incur any penalty for not making certificate unto the chancery of any rates of wages, ſo as the ſame be proclaimed according to this law; but the rates ingroſſed in parchment and ſealed ſhall be kept by the cuſtos rotulorum, and in any city or town corporate, amongſt the records. ſ. 8.

No clothier being a juſtice ſhall be rater of wages for any weaver, tucker, ſpinſter or other artiſan, that dependeth upon the making of cloth; and in caſe there be not above two juſtices within ſuch precinct but ſuch as are clothiers, the wages ſhall be rated by the common council of ſuch precinct, and ſuch juſtices (if any be) as are not clothiers. ſ. 10.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 19. All complaints and diſputes between maſters or miſtreſſes, and ſervants in huſbandry, hired for one year or longer, or between maſters and miſtreſſes, and artificers, handicraftſmen, miners, colliers, keelmen, pitmen, glaſſmen, potters, and other labourers employed for any certain time, or in any other manner, ſhall be heard and determined by a juſtice, although no rate of wages has been made that year; which juſtice may examine upon oath any ſuch ſervant, &c. or any witneſs, and make ſuch order for payment of ſo much wages as ſeems juſt; provided the ſum in queſtion do not exceed 10*l.* with regard to any ſervant, nor 5*l.* with regard to any artificer, handicraftſman, &c.; and in caſe of refuſal or non-payment for 21 days after ſuch determination, ſuch juſtice ſhall iſſue his warrant to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch maſter or miſtreſs, or perſon employing ſuch artificer, handicraftſman, &c. rendering the overplus to the owner after payment of the charges of diſtreſs and ſale. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice upon complaint made upon oath, by any maſter, miſtreſs, or employer, againſt any ſuch ſervant, artificer, handicraftſman, miner, collier, keelman, pitman, glaſſman, potter, or labourer, concerning any ill-behaviour, to determine the ſame; and to puniſh the offender by commitment to the houſe of correction, there to be corrected and held to hard labour for a reaſonable time not exceeding one month, or by abating ſome part of his wages, or by diſcharging him from his ſervice: in like manner it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice upon any complaint upon oath, by any ſuch ſervant, artificer, &c. againſt ſuch maſter, &c. concerning any miſuſage, refuſal of neceſſary proviſion, cruelty, or ill-treatment, to ſummon ſuch maſter, &c. and whether he appear or not (proof being made upon oath of his being ſummoned) and upon proof of the complaint upon oath, to diſcharge ſuch ſervant, artificer, &c. which diſcharge ſhall be given under the hand and ſeal of ſuch juſtice gratis. ſ. 2.

If any perſon think himſelf aggrieved by the determination or warrant of ſuch juſtice (except any order of commitment) he may appeal to the next general quarter ſeſſions; which ſeſſions is finally to determine the ſame, and to award ſuch coſts to the appellant or reſpondent, as they judge reaſonable, not exceeding 40*s.* to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale. ſ. 5.

No certiorari, or other proceſs, ſhall iſſue to remove any proceedings into any court of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 6.

By 31 Geo. 2. c. 11. ſ. 3. The 20 Geo. 2. c. 19. ſhall extend to all ſervants employed in huſbandry, though hired for a leſs time than one year.

By 6 Geo. 3. c. 25. If any artificer, callicoe printer, handicraftſman, miner, collier, keelman, pitman, glaſſman, potter, labourer, or other perſon, ſhall contract with any perſon whomſoever, for any time whatſoever, and ſhall abſent himſelf from ſervice before the term ſhall be completed, or be guilty of any other miſdemeanor; then any juſtice where ſuch artificer, &c. ſhall be found, upon complaint thereof made upon oath to him by the perſon with whom ſuch artificer, &c. ſhall have ſo contracted, or by his ſteward or agent, may iſſue his warrant for apprehending every ſuch artificer, &c. and examine into the complaint; and if it ſhall appear to ſuch juſtice that any ſuch artificer, &c. ſhall not have fulfilled ſuch contract, or hath been guilty of any miſdemeanor, ſuch juſtice may commit ſuch perſon to the houſe of correction, not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one month. ſ. 4.

Any perſon aggrieved by ſuch determination, order, or warrant, of any juſtice, except an order of commitment, may appeal to the next general quarter ſeſſions, giving ſix days notice of ſuch appeal, and of the cauſe and matter thereof, to ſuch juſtice and the parties concerned, and entering into a recognizance within three days after ſuch notice, before ſome juſtice, to try ſuch appeal, and abide the order, and pay ſuch coſts as ſhall be awarded by the quarter ſeſſions; which ſaid ſeſſions, upon due proof of ſuch notice and recognizances, ſhall determine ſuch appeals; and ſhall give ſuch relief and coſts to the parties, as they ſhall judge proper, and their judgments ſhall be concluſive to all parties concerned. ſ. 5.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the ſtannaries in Devon and Cornwall. ſ. 6.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 6. All officers, mariners, ſoldiers, and marines, who have been at any time employed in the ſervice of his preſent majeſty, ſince the 1 April 1763, and have not ſince deſerted, and alſo the wives and children of ſuch officers, &c. may exerciſe ſuch trades as they are apt and able for, in any town or place within this kingdom, without any moleſtation; nor ſhall ſuch officers, &c. or their wives or children, during the time they ſhall exerciſe ſuch trades, be removable from ſuch place, to their laſt legal place of ſettlement, until actually chargeable to ſuch pariſh; and if any ſuch perſons ſhall be ſued, or indicted, for uſing ſuch trades, then upon making it appear to the court, that they have ſerved his preſent majeſty as aforeſaid, or that they are the wives or children of ſuch officers, &c. who ſhall have ſo ſerved his preſent majeſty, ſhall, upon the general iſſue pleaded, be found Not guilty; and ſuch perſons who, notwithſtanding this act, ſhall proſecute the ſaid ſuit, and have a verdict paſs againſt him, or become nonſuit, or diſcontinue, ſhall pay double coſts. ſ. 1.

Two juſtices may cauſe ſuch officer, mariner, ſoldier, or marine, to be ſummoned before them in the place where he ſhall ſet up and exerciſe ſuch trade as aforeſaid, in order to make oath of the place of his laſt legal ſettlement; and ſuch officers, &c. are to obey ſuch ſummons, and make oath accordingly; and ſuch juſtices are to give an atteſted copy of ſuch affidavit, to the perſon making the ſame, that he may produce it when required; which atteſted copy ſhall at any time be admitted as evidence, as to ſuch laſt legal ſettlement, before any juſtices at any general or quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 2.

In caſe any ſuch officer, &c. ſhall again be ſummoned to make oath as aforeſaid, then, on ſuch atteſted copy of the oath by him formerly taken being produced, he ſhall not be obliged to take any further oath with regard to his ſettlement, but ſhall leave a copy of ſuch atteſted copy of his examination, if required. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall extend to all officers and ſoldiers who have been drawn by ballot, and have perſonally ſerved in the militia, or any of the fencible regiments, from the 1 Apr. 1763, for three years, and have been honourably diſcharged. ſ. 4.

Leaſes.

By 32 Hen. 8. c. 28. All leaſes made of any manors, lands, &c. by writing indented for term of years or life by perſons of full age, having any eſtate or inheritance either in fee-ſimple or in fee-tail, in their own right or in the right of their churches or wives, or jointly with their wives, ſhall be good in law. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not extend to any leaſes to be made of any manors, lands, &c. being in the hands of any farmers by virtue of an old leaſe, unleſs the ſame old leaſe be expired, ſurrendered, or ended, within one year after the making of the new leaſe; nor ſhall extend to any grant of any reverſion, nor to any leaſe of lands which have not moſt commonly been letten to farm by the ſpace of twenty years next before ſuch leaſe made, nor to any leaſe to be made without impeachment of waſte, nor to any leaſe to be made above the number of twenty-one years, or three lives, from the day of making; and upon ſuch leaſe there ſhall be reſerved yearly ſo much rent, or more, as hath been moſt accuſtomably paid for the lands ſo letten within twenty years next before: and every perſon, to whom the reverſion ſhall appertain after the deaths of ſuch leſſors, ſhall have like remedy againſt the leſſees as the leſſor might have had. ſ. 2.

Provided that the wife be made party to every ſuch leaſe made by her huſband of any lands being the inheritance of the wife, and that every ſuch leaſe be made by indenture in the name of the huſband and his wife, and ſhe to ſeal the ſame, and that the rent be reſerved to the huſband and wife, and to the heirs of the wife, according to her eſtate; and that the huſband ſhall not alien the rent longer than during the coverture, without it be by fine levied by the huſband and wife. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall not give power to any perſon to take more farms than he might have done, nor give power to any parſon or vicar to make any leaſe of any of their meſſuages, lands, tithes, &c. belonging to their churches or vicarages, otherwiſe than they might have done. ſ. 4.

No fine or other act done by the huſband only, of the inheritance or freehold of his wife, ſhall be any diſcontinuance thereof, or prejudicial to the wife or her heirs, but they may enter according to their rights; fines whereunto the wife is party and privy only except. ſ. 6.

This clauſe ſhall not give liberty to ſuch wife or her heirs to avoid any leaſe made of any inheritance of the wife according to this act. ſ. 7.

By 1 Eliz. c. 19. ſ. 5. All grants made by any archbiſhop or biſhop of any honours, lands, &c. parcel of the poſſeſſions of his biſhoprick, to any perſon (other than to the queen) whereby any eſtate ſhould paſs, other than for twenty-one years, or three lives, and whereupon the old rent or more ſhall be payable yearly, ſhall be void.

By 13 Eliz. c. 10. All leaſes, conveyances or eſtates, to be made by any maſter and fellows of any college, dean and chapter of any church, maſter, or guardian of any hoſpital, parſon, vicar, or any other having eccleſiaſtical living, of any hereditaments, being parcel of the poſſeſſions of ſuch ſpiritual promotion, other than for one and twenty years or three lives, whereupon the accuſtomed yearly rent or more ſhall be payable yearly during the term, ſhall be void. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall not make good any leaſe to be made by any college for more years than are limited by the private ſtatutes of the college. ſ. 4.

This act ſhall not extend to any leaſe to be made upon ſurrender of any leaſe heretofore made, or by reaſon of any covenant contained in any leaſe now continuing, ſo that the leaſe to be made do not contain more years than the reſidue of the years of the former leaſe, nor leſs rent than is reſerved in the ſaid former leaſe. ſ. 5.

By 13 Eliz. c. 20. made perpetual by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. No leaſe to be made of any benefice or eccleſiaſtical promotion with cure, or any part thereof, not impropriated, ſhall endure longer than while the leſſor ſhall be ordinarily reſident, and ſerving the cure of ſuch benefice without abſence above fourſcore days in any one year; but every ſuch leaſe immediately upon ſuch abſence ſhall ceaſe; and the incumbent ſo offending ſhall loſe one year's profit of his benefice, to be diſtributed by the ordinary among the poor of the pariſh. [And by 18 Eliz. c. 11. ſ. 7. After complaint to the ordinary, and ſentence given upon any offence committed by the incumbent, whereby he ought to loſe one year's profit of his benefice, the ordinary within two months after requeſt by the churchwardens, ſhall grant the ſequeſtration to ſuch inhabitants as to him ſhall ſeem meet; and upon default by the ordinary every pariſhioner may retain his tithes, and the churchwardens may take the profits of the glebe lands and other duties of ſuch benefice to be employed to the uſe of the poor, until ſequeſtration ſhall be committed; and they to whom ſequeſtration ſhall be committed ſhall employ the profits as by the ſtatute is appointed; upon pain of double value, to be recovered in the eccleſiaſtical court by the poor.] And all chargings of ſuch benefices with cure, with any penſion, or with any profit out of the ſame, other than rents to be reſerved upon leaſes according to this act, ſhall be void. ſ. 1.

Provided that every parſon allowed to have two benefices may demiſe one of them, upon which he ſhall not be reſident, to his curate only; but ſuch leaſe ſhall endure no longer than during ſuch curate's reſidence without abſence above forty days in any one year. ſ. 2.

By 14 Eliz. c. 11. All bonds, contracts, promiſes, and covenants, to be made for ſuffering any perſon to enjoy any benefice or eccleſiaſtical promotion with cure, or to take the profits thereof, other than ſuch bonds and covenants as ſhall be made for aſſurance of leaſes heretofore made, ſhall be of ſuch force, and not otherwiſe, as leaſes by the ſame perſons made of ſuch benefices and eccleſiaſtical promotions with cure. ſ. 15.

All leaſes, bonds, promiſes and covenants, concerning benefices and eccleſiaſtical livings with cure, to be made by any curate, ſhall be of no other force, than if the ſame had been made by the beneficed parſon himſelf, that demiſed the ſame to ſuch curate. ſ. 16.

The 13 Eliz. c. 10. ſhall not extend to any leaſe of houſes in any market-town, ſo that ſuch houſe be not the dwelling-houſe uſed for the habitation of the perſons in that act mentioned, nor have ground to the ſame belonging above ten acres. ſ. 17.

No leaſe ſhall be made in reverſion, nor without reſerving the accuſtomed yearly rent at the leaſt, nor without charging the leſſee with the reparation, nor for longer than forty years; nor any houſes ſhall be permitted to be aliened, unleſs in recompence thereof there ſhall be aſ-

ſurance made in fee-ſimple to ſuch colleges of lands of as great yearly value. ſ. 19.

By 14 Eliz. c. 14. ſ. 2. The words [maſter or guardian of any hoſpital] in 13 Eliz. c. 10. ſ. 3. were intended of all hoſpitals, maiſon dieus, bead houſes, and other houſes for relief of the poor.

By 18 Eliz. c. 6. No maſter, provoſt, preſident, warden, dean, governor, rector or chief ruler, of any college, cathedral church, hall or houſe of learning, in the univerſities, nor any provoſt, warden, or other head officer of the colleges of Wincheſter or Eaton, nor the corporation of any of them, ſhall make any leaſe for life or years of their lands or other hereditaments to the which any tithes, arable land, meadow, or paſture, ſhall appertain, except one third of the old rent be reſerved in corn, viz. in good wheat, after 6*s.* 8*d.* the quarter, or under, and good malt at 5*s.* the quarter, or under, to be delivered yearly at the ſaid colleges, &c. and for default thereof, to pay to the ſaid colleges, &c. in ready money, at the election of the leſſees, after the rate of the beſt wheat and malt in the market of Cambridge, for the rents there; and in the market of Oxford, for the rents there; and in the market of Wincheſter, for the rents there; and in the market of Windſor, for the rents to be paid to the houſes at Eaton; the next market day before the rent ſhall be due, without fraud. And all leaſes otherwiſe to be made, and all collateral bonds or aſſurances to the contrary, ſhall be void. The ſame wheat, malt, or money, to be expended to the relief of the commons and diet of the colleges, &c. only; and by no fraud let or ſold away from the profit of the ſaid colleges, &c. and the fellows and ſcholars in the ſame, and the uſe aforeſaid; upon pain of deprivation of the governor and chief rulers of the ſaid colleges, &c. and all other conſenting. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not extend to any leaſe to be made by the preſident and ſcholars of the college of St. John Baptiſt in Oxford, to any heir male of Sir Thomas White, late knight, and alderman of London, founder of the ſaid college, which leaſe ſhall be made according to the meaning of the foundation and ſtatutes of the ſaid college of the manor of Fifield, and no other hereditaments. ſ. 3.

By 18 Eliz. c. 11. All leaſes to be made of eccleſiaſtical hereditaments, whereof any former leaſe for years is in being, not to be ſurrendered or ended within three years, ſhall be void. ſ. 2.

Every bond and covenant for renewing of any leaſe contrary to this act, or 13 Eliz. c. 10. ſhall be void. ſ. 3.

By 43 Eliz. c. 9. ſ. 8. All judgments to enjoy any leaſe contrary to 13 Eliz. c. 20. 14 Eliz. c. 11. and 18 Eliz. c. 6. ſhall be void.

By 29 Geo. 2. c. 31. Where any perſon under the age of twenty-one, or any lunatic, or feme covert, is intereſted in, or intitled to, any leaſe for lives, or years either abſolute, or determinable upon death, or otherwiſe, ſuch perſon under age, or his guardian, or other perſon on his behalf, and ſuch lunatic, or his guardian or committee, or other perſon on his behalf, and ſuch feme covert or any perſon on her behalf, may apply to the court of chancery of Great Britain, the court of exchequer, the courts of equity of Cheſter, Lancaſter, and Durham, or the courts of great ſeſſion of Wales, by petition or motion in a ſummary way; and by the order of the ſaid courts made upon hearing all parties, ſuch perſon under age, and ſuch lunatic or perſon appointed by the ſaid courts, and ſuch feme covert, by deed only, without levying any fine, ſhall be enabled to ſurrender ſuch leaſe, and accept in the name and for the benefit of ſuch perſon under age, lunatic, or feme covert, new leaſes of the premiſes ſurrendered, for ſuch lives, or term determinable upon lives, or term abſolute, as was mentioned in ſuch leaſe ſo ſurrendered, at the making thereof, or otherwiſe, as the ſaid courts ſhall direct. ſ. 1.

All money and other conſideration advanced by ſuch guardian or perſon, as a fine for renewal of ſuch leaſe, and all reaſonable charges, ſhall be paid out of the effects of the infant or lunatic for whoſe benefit the leaſe is renewed, or ſhall be a charge upon the leaſehold premiſes, with intereſt as the courts direct; and concerning leaſes to be made upon ſurrenders by femes covert, unleſs the fine and charges be otherwiſe paid or ſecured, the ſame with intereſt ſhall be a charge upon ſuch leaſehold premiſes, for the uſe of ſuch perſon who advances the ſame. ſ. 2.

The leaſes renewed ſhall be to the ſame uſes, and liable to the ſame truſts, charges, diſpoſitions, deviſes, and conditions, as the leaſes ſurrendered. ſ. 3.

Every ſurrender, and leaſe granted thereupon, ſhall be as valid as if made by a perſon of full age, ſane mind, or not married. ſ. 4.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 17. All leaſes for one, two, or three lives, or twenty-one years, made or granted of any tithes, tolls, or other incorporeal hereditaments, ſolely, and without any lands or corporeal hereditaments, by any archbiſhop or biſhop, maſter and fellows, or other head and members of colleges or halls, deans and chapters, precentors, prebendaries, maſters and guardians of hoſpitals, and every other perſon and perſons, who are enabled to make leaſes of any lands, tenements, or other corporeal hereditaments, ſhall be as good and effectual in law againſt ſuch archbiſhop and other perſons, as leaſes of any lands or other corporeal hereditaments, by 32 Hen. 8. c. 28.

Nothing herein ſhall enable any maſter and fellows, or other head and members of colleges or halls, deans and chapters, precentors, prebendaries, maſters and guardians of hoſpitals, or other eccleſiaſtical perſons as aforeſaid, to grant leaſes for any other terms than, by the local ſtatutes of their ſeveral foundations, they are now enabled to do. ſ. 2.

In caſe the rent reſerved by leaſes, in purſuance of the ſeveral acts already in being, or by this preſent act, ſhall be unpaid by the ſpace of twenty-eight days after the days whereon payable; then it ſhall be lawful for ſuch archbiſhop and other perſons, or their executors, adminiſtrators, and ſucceſſors reſpectively, to bring actions of debt againſt the leſſees or their heirs, executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, for recovering the rent in arrear. ſ. 3.

Of thieves that ſteal cloths out of windows. Of ſuch as go in meſſage for thieves. Of hue and cry levied and not purſued. Of bloodſhed and of frays. Of eſcapes of thieves or felons. Of perſons outlawed and returned not having the king's warrant. Of women raviſhed not preſented before the coroner. Of clippers and forgers of money. Of treaſure found. Of the aſſiſe of bread and ale broken. Of falſe meaſures. Of falſe balances. Of ſuch as have a double meaſure, and buy by the greater and ſell by the leſs. Of ſuch as haunt taverns, and no man knoweth whereon they live. Of ſuch as ſleep by day and watch by night, and fare well and have nothing. Of cloth-ſellers and curriers of leather dwelling out of market-towns. Of perſons impriſoned and let go without warrant. Of ſuch as take doves in winter by doorfalls or engines.

By 1 Jac. 1. c. 5. No ſteward of any court leets or court barons ſhall take benefit to his own uſe in money, goods or other thing, to the value of 12*d.* by colour of any grant to be made of the profits of ſuch courts; upon pain to forfeit 40*l.* and be diſabled to be ſteward of ſuch court or of any other; half to the King, the other to any ſubjects that ſhall complain in any courts of record by action of debt, &c.

Liberties and Rights.

By Magna Charta, 9 Hen. 3. c. 9. The city of London ſhall have all her ancient liberties and cuſtoms; and all other cities, boroughs and towns, and the barons of the five ports, and all ports, ſhall have all their liberties and free cuſtoms.

By Magna Charta, 9 Hen. 3. c. 29. No freeman ſhall be taken or impriſoned, or diſſeiſed of his freehold, or of his liberties or free cuſtoms, or be outlawed, baniſhed or otherwiſe deſtroyed, nor ſhall the king paſs or ſend upon him, but by the lawful judgment of his peers, or by the law of the land. The king ſhall ſell to none, or deny or delay to none, right or juſtice. See 25 Edw. 3. ſtat. 5. c. 4. and 42 Edw. 3. c. 3.

By Stat. Marleb. 52 Hen. 3. c. 22. None may diſtrain his freeholders to anſwer of their freehold, or of any thing thereunto appertaining, nor make them ſwear againſt their will, without the king's command.

By Stat. confirm. chart. 25 Edw. 1. c. 2. If any judgment be given contrary to the great charters, it ſhall be undone and holden for nought.

By Stat. confirm. chart. 25 Edw. 1. c. 3. The ſame charters ſhall be ſent under ſeal to the cathedral churches, and ſhall be read before the people two times by the year.

By Stat. confirm. chart. 25 Edw. 1. c. 4. All archbiſhops and biſhops ſhall pronounce ſentence of excommunication againſt thoſe that by word, deed or counſel, do contrary to the ſaid charters, or that in any point break them; and the ſaid curſes ſhall be twice a year denounced; and if the prelates be remiſs in the denunciation of the ſentences, the archbiſhops of Canterbury and York ſhall compel them to the execution of their duties.

By Stat. confirm. chart. 25 Edw. 1. c. 5. The aids and taſks which the people have given of their own good will ſhall not be drawn into cuſtom.

By Stat. confirm. chart. 25 Edw. 1. c. 6. The king ſhall not take ſuch aids or taſks but by the common aſſent of the realm, and for the common profit thereof, ſaving the ancient aids and priſes.

By Artic. ſuper chart. 28 Edw. 1. ſtat. 3. c. 1. The great charter of liberties, and the charter of the foreſt, ſhall be delivered to every ſheriff to be read four times in the year before the people in full county, viz. the next county after the feaſt of St. Michael, and the next after Chriſtmas, and at the next after Eaſter, and the next county after the feaſt of St. John. And there ſhall be choſen in every ſhire-court by the commonalty three ſubſtantial men, knights or other, which ſhall be juſtices ſworn and aſſigned by the king's letters patent to hear and determine (without any other writ but their commiſſion) ſuch plaints as ſhall be made upon thoſe that offend againſt any point in the charters, and to hear the plaints from day to day without the delays allowed by the common law; and the ſame knights ſhall have power to puniſh all ſuch as ſhall be attainted of any treſpaſs done contrary to the charters (where no remedy was by the common law) by impriſonment, or by ranſom or amercement; nevertheleſs the knights ſhall not hold plea where there hath been remedy provided after the courſe of the common law by writ, nor ſhall any prejudice be done to the common law, nor to the charters aforeſaid; and if all three cannot attend to do their office, two of them ſhall do it; and the king's ſheriffs and bailiffs ſhall be attendant to do the commandments of the ſaid juſtices.

By Stat. de tallag. non concedend. 34 Edw. 1. ſtat. 4. c. 1. No tallage or aid ſhall be taken without the aſſent of archbiſhops, biſhops, earls, barons, knights, burgeſſes and other freemen of the land.

By 34 Edw. 1. ſtat. 4. c. 4. All clerks and laymen ſhall have their laws, liberties and free cuſtoms, as they have uſed to have the ſame at any time when they had them beſt; and if any ſtatutes have been made, or any cuſtoms brought in, contrary to them, ſuch ſtatutes and cuſtoms ſhall be void.

By 34 Edw. 1. ſtat. 4. c. 6. All archbiſhops and biſhops for ever ſhall read this charter in their cathedral churches twice in the year, and in their pariſh churches ſhall openly denounce accurſed all thoſe that willingly procure to be done any thing contrary to this charter.

By 1 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2. c. 9. Cities, boroughs, and franchiſed towns, ſhall enjoy their franchiſes, cuſtoms and uſages.

By 2 Edw. 3. c. 8. It ſhall not be commanded by the great ſeal or the little ſeal, to diſturb or delay common right; and though ſuch commandments come, the juſtices ſhall not ceaſe to do right.

By 5 Edw. 3. c. 9. No man ſhall be attached by any accuſation, nor forejudged of life or limb, nor ſhall his lands or goods be ſeized into the king's hand, againſt the great charter and the law of the land.

By 14 Edw. 3. ſtat. 1. c. 1. Holy church ſhall have her liberties in quietneſs; and the city of London, and all other cities and boroughs, ſhall have all their franchiſes and cuſtoms which they have reaſonably uſed in time paſt.

By 14 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2. c. 1. The ſubſidy given to the king ſhall not be had in example, nor ſhall the prelates, earls, barons and commons, citizens, burgeſſes and merchants, be charged to make any aid, if it be not by the common aſſent of the great men and commons in parliament.

By 14 Edw. 3. ſtat. 5. The realm of England ſhall not be put in ſubjection of the king, his heirs or ſucceſſors, as kings of France.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſtat. 5. c. 4. None ſhall be taken by petition or ſuggeſtion made to the king or his council, unleſs it be by indictment of lawful people of the neighbourhood, or by proceſs made by writ original at the common law. And none ſhall be put out of his franchiſes or freehold, unleſs he be duly brought to anſwer, and forejudged by courſe of law; and if any thing be done to the contrary, it ſhall be redreſſed and holden for none.

By 28 Edw. 3. c. 3. No man ſhall be put out of land, nor taken, nor impriſoned, nor diſherited, nor put to death, without being brought in anſwer by due proceſs of law.

By 42 Edw. 3. c. 3. No man ſhall be put to anſwer without preſentment before juſtices, or matter of record of due proceſs or writ original, according to the ancient law of the land. And if any thing be done to the contrary, it ſhall be void in law, and held for error.

By 1 Ric. 2. c. 2. Peace ſhall be firmly kept, ſo that all loyal ſubjects may ſafely go, come and abide, according to the laws and uſages of the realm; and good juſtice and equal right ſhall be done to every one.

By 11 Ric. 2. c. 10. Letters of the ſignet or privy ſeal ſhall not be ſent in prejudice of the realm or diſturbance of the law.

By 15 Ric. 2. c. 12. None of the king's ſubjects ſhall be conſtrained to appear before the council of any lord, to anſwer for his freehold, nor any other thing real or perſonal which belongeth to the law of the land; and if any find himſelf grieved contrary to this ordinance, he ſhall ſue to the chancellor, who ſhall give remedy.

By 16 Ric. 2. c. 2. If any lord, or other the king's ſubject, do contrary to the ſtatute 15 Ric. 2. c. 12. he ſhall incur the pain of 20*l.* to the king.

By 2 Hen. 4. c. 1. Holy church ſhall have her rights and liberties; and all the lords ſpiritual and temporal, and all cities, boroughs and towns enfranchiſed, ſhall enjoy all their liberties which they have duly uſed; and all the lieges may in ſafe protection of the King go and come to his courts; and full juſtice and right ſhall be done, as well to the poor as the rich, in the ſaid courts.

Petition of right, 3 Car. 1. c. 1. No man ſhall be compelled to yield any gift, loan, benevolence, tax or ſuch like charge, without common conſent by act of parliament; and none ſhall be called to make anſwer, or take oath, or to give attendance, or be confined, or otherwiſe diſquieted concerning the ſame, or for refuſal thereof; and no freeman ſhall be impriſoned or detained without cauſe ſhewn, to which he may make anſwer according to law; and the people ſhall not be burthened, to ſuffer ſoldiers and mariners to ſojourn in their houſes againſt their wills; and no commiſſions ſhall iſſue, to proceed within the land according to martial law.

The late proceedings in the premiſes ſhall not be drawn into conſequence; and all the king's officers ſhall ſerve him according to the laws of the realm, as they tender the honour of his majeſty, and the proſperity of the kingdom. ſ. 11.

By 16 Car. 1. cap. 10. The court called the ſtar-chamber ſhall be diſſolved, and neither the lord chancellor, lord treaſurer, keeper of the privy ſeal or preſident of the council, nor any biſhop, temporal lord, privy counſellor or judge, ſhall have power to hear or determine any matter in the ſtar-chamber, or to do any judicial or miniſterial act in the ſaid court; and all acts of parliament, by which any juriſdiction is given to the ſtar-chamber, ſhall, for ſo much, be repealed. ſ. 3.

The like juriſdiction uſed in the court before the preſident and council in the marches of Wales, and in the court before the preſident and council in the northern parts, and alſo in the court of the duchy of Lancaſter, and in the court of exchequer of the county palatine of Cheſter, held before the chamberlain and council of that court, ſhall be alſo repealed; and no court or place of judicature ſhall be erected within England or Wales, which ſhall have the like juriſdiction as hath been uſed in the ſtar-chamber. ſ. 4.

Neither his majeſty, nor his privy council, have any juriſdiction, power or authority, by Engliſh bill, petition, articles, libel, or any other arbitrary way whatſoever, to examine, or draw into queſtion, determine or diſpoſe of, the lands or goods of any ſubjects of this kingdom; but the ſame ought to be tried and determined in the ordinary courts of juſtice, and by courſe of law. ſ. 5.

If any lord chancellor, lord treaſurer, keeper of the privy ſeal, preſident of the council, biſhop, temporal lord, privy counſellor, judge or juſtice, ſhall offend contrary to this law, they ſhall forfeit 500*l.* unto any party grieved, his executors or adminiſtrators, who ſhall proſecute for the ſame, and firſt obtain judgment, to be recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter; and if any perſon, againſt whom any ſuch recovery ſhall be had, ſhall offend again in the ſame, he ſhall forfeit 1000*l.* unto any party grieved, who ſhall proſecute, &c. and if any perſon, againſt whom ſuch ſecond recovery ſhall be had, ſhall offend again in the ſame kind, and ſhall be convicted by indictment, information, or any other lawful way, ſuch perſon ſhall be incapable to bear his office, and ſhall be likewiſe diſabled to make any gift or diſpoſition of his lands or goods, or to take any gift or legacy to his own uſe. ſ. 6.

Every perſon ſo offending ſhall likewiſe forfeit unto the party grieved his treble damages, to be recovered in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 7.

If any perſon ſhall be reſtrained of his liberty by order or decree of any ſuch court, as afore, or by command of the king's majeſty in perſon, or by warrant of the council-board, or of any of his majeſty's privy council, every perſon ſo reſtrained, upon demand or motion made unto the judges of the king's bench or common pleas, in open court, ſhall without delay have a habeas corpus directed generally unto all and every ſheriffs, gaoler, miniſter, officer or other perſon, in whoſe cuſtody the party ſhall be; and the ſheriffs or other perſon ſhall at the return of the writ (upon due notice given, at the charge of the party who procureth ſuch writ, and upon ſecurity by his own bond, to pay the charge of carrying back the priſoner, if he ſhall be remanded, ſuch charges to be ordered by the court, if any difference ſhall ariſe) bring the body of the party before the judges in open court, and ſhall certify the cauſe of his detainer, and thereupon the court, within three court-days after ſuch return made, ſhall proceed to determine whether the cauſe of commitment be juſt, and ſhall thereupon do what to juſtice ſhall appertain. And if any thing ſhall be wilfully done or omitted by any judge, officer, &c. contrary to the direction hereof, ſuch perſon offending ſhall forfeit to the party grieved his treble damages, to be recovered as aforeſaid. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall extend only to the court of ſtar-chamber, and to the ſaid courts holden before the preſident and council in the marches of Wales, and before the preſident and council in the northern parts, and to the court of the duchy of Lancaſter, and the court of exchequer of the county palatine of Cheſter, and all courts of like juriſdiction to be hereafter erected, and to the warrants and directions of the council board, and to the commitments of any perſons made by the king in perſon, or by the privy council. ſ. 9.

No

No perſon ſhall be moleſted for any offence againſt this act, unleſs he be impleaded within two years after the offence committed. ſ. 10.

By the Bill of rights, 1 Will. & Mar. ſtat. 2. c. 2. ſ. 1. Whereas the lords ſpiritual and temporal and commons aſſembled at Weſtminſter, repreſenting all the eſtates of the people of this realm, did upon the 13th of February 1688, preſent unto their majeſties, then prince and princeſs of Orange, a declaration, containing that

The ſaid lords ſpiritual and temporal, and commons, being aſſembled in a full and free repreſentative of this nation, for the vindicating their ancient rights and liberties, declare;

That the pretended power of ſuſpending of laws, or the execution of laws, by regal authority, without conſent of parliament, is illegal.

That the pretended power of diſpenſing with laws, or the execution of laws, by regal authority, as it hath been aſſumed and exerciſed of late, is illegal.

That the commiſſion for erecting the late court of commiſſioners for eccleſiaſtical cauſes, and all other commiſſions and courts of like nature, are illegal and pernicious.

The levying money for or to the uſe of the crown, by pretence of prerogative, without grant of parliament, for longer time, or in other manner than the ſame is or ſhall be granted, is illegal.

That it is the right of the ſubjects to petition the king, and all commitments and proſecutions for ſuch petitioning are illegal.

That the raiſing or keeping a ſtanding army within the kingdom in time of peace, unleſs it be with conſent of parliament, is againſt law.

That the ſubjects which are proteſtants may have arms for their defence, ſuitable to their conditions, as allowed by law.

That election of members of parliament ought to be free.

That the freedom of ſpeech, and debates or proceedings in parliament, ought not to be impeached or queſtioned in any court or place out of parliament.

That exceſſive bail ought not to be required, nor exceſſive fines impoſed, nor cruel and unuſual puniſhments inflicted.

That jurors ought to be duly impanelled and returned, and jurors which paſs upon men in trials for high treaſon ought to be freeholders.

That all grants and promiſes of fines and forfeitures of particular perſons before conviction, are illegal and void.

And that for redreſs of all grievances, and for the amending, ſtrengthening, and preſerving of the laws, parliaments ought to be held frequently.

And they do claim, demand and inſiſt upon, all and ſingular the premiſes, as their undoubted rights and liberties; and that no declarations, judgments, doings or proceedings, to the prejudice of the people in any of the ſaid premiſes, ought in any wiſe to be drawn hereafter into conſequence or example.

All and ſingular the rights and liberties aſſerted and claimed in the ſaid declaration are the true, ancient and indubitable rights and liberties of the people of this kingdom, and ſo ſhall be eſteemed, allowed, adjudged and taken to be; and all the particulars aforeſaid ſhall be firmly holden as they are expreſſed in the ſaid declaration; and all officers ſhall ſerve their majeſties according to the ſame in all times to come. ſ. 6.

No diſpenſation by non obſtante of any ſtatute ſhall be allowed, but the ſame ſhall be void, except a diſpenſation be allowed of in ſuch ſtatute; and except in ſuch caſes as ſhall be ſpecially provided for during this ſeſſion of parliament. ſ. 12.

No charter granted before the 23d of October 1689, ſhall be invalidated by this act, but ſhall remain of the ſame force as if this act had never been made. ſ. 13.

By 12 & 13 Will. 3. c. 2. ſ. 3. Whereas it is neceſſary that further proviſion be made for ſecuring our religion, laws and liberties, after the death of his majeſty and the princeſs Anne of Denmark, and in default of iſſue of the body of the ſaid princeſs, and of his majeſty reſpectively; it is enacted,

That whoſoever ſhall hereafter come to the poſſeſſion of this crown, ſhall join in communion with the church of England, as by law eſtabliſhed.

That in caſe the crown and imperial dignity of this realm ſhall hereafter come to any perſon, not being a native of this kingdom of England, this nation be not obliged to engage in any war for the defence of any dominions or territories which do not belong to the crown of England, without conſent of parliament.

That from the time that the further limitation by this act (ſee title King, &c.) ſhall take effect, no perſon born out of the kingdoms of England, Scotland, or Ireland, or the dominions thereunto belonging, although he be naturaliſed or made a denizen (except ſuch as are born of Engliſh parents), ſhall be capable to be of the privy council, or a member of either houſe of parliament, or to enjoy any office or place of truſt, either civil or military, or to have any grant of lands, tenements or hereditaments from the crown to himſelf, or to any other in truſt for him. See 1 Geo. 1. c. 4. title Naturalization.

That after the ſaid limitation ſhall take effect, judges commiſſions be made quamdiu ſe bene geſſerint, and their ſalaries aſcertained and eſtabliſhed; but upon the addreſs of both houſes of parliament, it may be lawful to remove them.

That no pardon under the great ſeal of England be pleadable to an impeachment by the commons in parliament.

Whereas the laws of England are the birth-right of the people thereof, and all the kings and queens who ſhall aſcend the throne of this realm ought to adminiſter the government of the ſame according to the ſaid laws, and all their officers and miniſters ought to ſerve them according to the ſame; all the laws and ſtatutes of this realm for ſecuring the eſtabliſhed religion, and the rights and liberties of the people, and all other laws and ſtatutes now in force, are by his majeſty, with the advice and conſent of the lords ſpiritual and temporal, and commons, ratified and confirmed. ſ. 4.

Libraries parochial.

By 7 Ann. c. 14. In every pariſh or place where a library is erected, the ſame ſhall be preſerved for ſuch uſes as the ſame ſhall be given, and the rules of the founders of ſuch libraries ſhall be obſerved. ſ. 1.

Every incumbent or curate of a pariſh, before he be permitted to uſe ſuch library, ſhall enter into ſuch ſecurity for preſervation of ſuch library, and due obſervance of the rules belonging to the ſame, as the ordinaries ſhall think fit; and in caſe any books belonging to the library ſhall be taken away, the incumbent or curate, or any other perſon, may bring an action of trover in the name of the ordinary, dinary, whereupon treble damages ſhall be given with coſts, as if the ſame were their proper books; which damages ſhall be applied to the uſe of the library. ſ. 2.

The ordinary or his commiſſary, or the archdeacon, or by his direction his official (if the archdeacon be not the incumbent of the place), in their viſitation, may inquire into the condition of the ſaid libraries, and amend defects; and the ordinary may appoint perſons to view the condition of ſuch libraries. ſ. 3.

Where any library is appropriated to the uſe of the miniſter, every miniſter or curate, within ſix months after his induction or admiſſion, ſhall make a new catalogue, and ſhall ſign the ſame; which catalogue ſhall be delivered to the ordinary within the time aforeſaid, to be regiſtered in his court, without fee. ſ. 4.

Where any library ſhall be given to the uſe of any pariſh or place, where there ſhall be a miniſter or curate, ſuch miniſter or curate ſhall make a catalogue, and deliver the ſame, as aforeſaid, within ſix months after he ſhall receive ſuch library. ſ. 5.

Immediately after the death or removal of any miniſter or curate, the library belonging to ſuch place ſhall be ſhut up and ſecured by the churchwardens, or by ſuch perſons as ſhall be appointed by the ordinary or archdeacon, ſo that the ſame ſhall not be opened till a new miniſter or curate be inducted. ſ. 6.

In caſe the place where ſuch library is kept ſhall be uſed for any public occaſion, the place ſhall be made uſe of as formerly, and after ſuch buſineſs diſpatched, ſhall be locked up as before. ſ. 7.

A book ſhall be kept within the library for the regiſtering of all benefactions, and the miniſter or curate ſhall enter ſuch benefactions. ſ. 8.

The ordinary (with the donor of ſuch benefaction, if living) may make rules concerning the ſame, which ſhall be entered in the book. ſ. 9.

None of the books ſhall be alienable, nor any book that ſhall be given by any benefactor ſhall be alienated, without the conſent of the ordinary, and then only when there is a duplicate of ſuch book; and in caſe any books be taken or loſt out of the library, any juſtice may grant his warrant to ſearch for the ſame; and if found, ſuch books ſhall immediately, by order of ſuch juſtice, be reſtored to the library. ſ. 10.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to a public library lately erected in the pariſh of Ryegate in Surrey, for the uſe of the freeholders, vicar, and inhabitants, and of the gentlemen and clergymen inhabiting in parts adjacent. ſ. 11.

Life Eſtates.

By 19 Car. 2. c. 6. If ſuch perſons, for whoſe life any eſtates ſhall be granted, ſhall abſent themſelves ſeven years, and no proof be made of the lives of ſuch perſons; in any action commenced for recovery of ſuch tenements by the leſſors or reverſioners, the perſons, upon whoſe lives ſuch eſtate depended, ſhall be accounted as dead; and the judges ſhall direct the jury to give their verdict, as if the perſon abſenting himſelf were dead. ſ. 2.

In any action wherein the life or death of ſuch perſon ſhall come in queſtion between the reverſioner and the tenant in poſſeſſion, the reverſioner may take exception to any of the jurors, that the greateſt part of the real eſtate of ſuch jurors is held by leaſe or copy for lives. ſ. 3.

If any perſon ſhall be evicted out of any lands by virtue of this act, and afterwards ſuch perſon upon whoſe life ſuch eſtates depend ſhall return again, or ſhall, on proof in any action to be brought for recovery of the ſame, be made appear to have been living, the leſſee may re-enter and enjoy the lands in his former eſtate ſo long as the ſaid perſon ſhall be living, and alſo ſhall recover for damages the profits of the land, with intereſt for the time that they were outed. ſ. 5.

By 29 Car. 2. c. 3. any eſtate pur auter vie ſhall be deviſable by will in writing, ſigned by the party, or by ſome other perſon in his preſence and by his expreſs directions, ſubſcribed in the preſence of the deviſor by three witneſſes; and if no ſuch deviſe be made, the ſame ſhall be chargeable in the hands of the heir, if it ſhall come to him by reaſon of a ſpecial occupancy, as aſſets by deſcent; and in caſe there be no ſpecial occupant, it ſhall go to the executors, and be aſſets in their hands. ſ. 12. See 14 Geo. 2. c. 20.

By 6 Ann. c. 18. Any perſon who ſhall have any claim to any remainder, reverſion or expectancy, in any eſtate after the death of any perſon within age, married woman or any other perſon, upon affidavit made in chancery by the perſons claiming ſuch eſtate, of his title, and that he hath cauſe to believe that ſuch minor, married woman or other perſon, is dead, and that the death is concealed, may once a year move the lord chancellor to order ſuch guardian, truſtee, huſband, or other perſon, ſuſpected to conceal ſuch perſon, to produce to ſuch perſons (not exceeding two) as ſhall in ſuch order be named by the party proſecuting, ſuch minor, married woman or other perſon; and if ſuch guardian or other perſon ſhall neglect to produce ſuch infant, &c. on whoſe life ſuch eſtate doth depend, according to the directions of the order, the court of chancery is required to order ſuch guardian, &c. to produce ſuch minor, &c. in court, or before commiſſioners, as the court ſhall direct, two of which commiſſioners ſhall be nominated by the party proſecuting; and in caſe ſuch guardian, &c. ſhall neglect to produce ſuch infant, &c. in court or before ſuch commiſſioners, whereof return ſhall be made by ſuch commiſſioners, and that return filed in the petty bag office, the ſaid minor, &c. ſo concealed ſhall be taken to be dead, and it ſhall be lawful for any perſon claiming title after the death of ſuch infant, &c. to enter upon ſuch lands as if ſuch infant, &c. were dead. ſ. 1.

If it ſhall appear to the court by affidavit that ſuch minor, &c. for whoſe life ſuch eſtate is holden, is at ſome certain place beyond the ſeas, it ſhall be lawful for the party proſecuting ſuch order, to ſend over the perſons appointed by the ſaid order to view ſuch minor, &c. and in caſe ſuch guardian, &c. ſhall neglect to produce to ſuch perſons a perſonal view of ſuch infant, &c. ſuch perſons are required to make return of ſuch neglect, which return ſhall be filed in the petty-bag, and thereupon ſuch minor, &c. ſhall be taken to be dead. ſ. 2.

If it ſhall afterwards appear upon proof in any action that ſuch infant, &c. were alive at the time of ſuch order made, ſuch infant, &c. or other perſon having any eſtate determinable upon ſuch life, may re-enter upon the ſaid lands, and maintain an action againſt thoſe who received the profits, or their executors or adminiſtrators, and therein recover damages for the profits received. ſ. 3.

If any ſuch guardian, &c. having any eſtate determinable upon the life of any other perſon, ſhall to the ſatisfaction of the court make appear, that they have uſed their utmoſt endeavours to procure ſuch infant, &c. to appear in court, or elſewhere, according to the order; and that they cannot procure ſuch infant, &c. to appear, and that ſuch infant, &c. were living at the time of ſuch return made and filed; ſuch perſon may continue in poſſeſſion of ſuch eſtate. ſ. 4.

Every perſon who as guardian or truſtee for any infant, and every huſband ſeiſed in right of his wife, and every other perſon having any eſtate determinable upon any life, who after the determinantion of ſuch particular eſtates, without the expreſs conſent of them who are next entitled upon the determination of ſuch particular eſtates, ſhall hold over and continue in poſſeſſion of any lands, ſhall be adjudged treſpaſſers; and every perſon, his executors and adminiſtrators, who ſhall be entitled to ſuch lands upon the determination of ſuch particular eſtates, ſhall recover in damages againſt every perſon ſo holding over, and againſt his executors or adminiſtrators, the value of the profits received during ſuch wrongful poſſeſſion. ſ. 5.

By 14 Geo. 2. c. 20. Eſtates pur autre vie, in caſe there be no ſpecial occupant thereof, of which no deviſe ſhall have been made, according to 29 Car. 2. c. 3. or ſo much thereof as ſhall not have been ſo deviſed, ſhall be diſtributed in the ſame manner as the perſonal eſtate of the teſtator or inteſtate. ſ. 9.

Limitations.

By Stat. Weſtm. 1. 3 Edw. 1. c. 39. In conveying a deſcent in a writ of right, none ſhall declare of the ſeiſin of his anceſtor beyond the time of king Richard.

By 32 Hen. 8. c. 2. No perſon ſhall have any writ of right, or make any preſcription, title or claim, to any lands or hereditaments of the poſſeſſion of his anceſtor or predeceſſor, and declare any further ſeiſin of his anceſtor, &c. but within threeſcore years before the teſte of the writ, or before the preſcription, title or claim, had. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall have any aſſiſe of mortdanceſtor, coſinage, aiel, writ of entry upon diſſeiſin done to any of his anceſtors, &c. or any other action poſſeſſory upon the poſſeſſion of his anceſtors, &c. of any further ſeiſin, but only of the ſeiſin of his anceſtor, &c. within fifty years before the teſte of the writ. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall have any action for lands upon his own ſeiſin above thirty years before the teſte of the writ. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall make avowry or cognizance for any rent, ſuit or ſervice, and alledge any ſeiſin of his anceſtors, &c. or in his own poſſeſſion, or in the poſſeſſion of any other whoſe eſtate he ſhall claim to have, above fifty years before the making of the avowry or cognizance. ſ. 4.

All formedons in reverter, formedons in remainder, and ſcire facias upon fines, ſhall be ſued within fifty years after the title fallen. ſ. 5. See 21 Jac. 1. c. 16. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſue any of the ſaid writs, or make any avowry, cognizance, title or claim, for any rent, ſuit, ſervice, or other hereditaments, and cannot prove that he or his anceſtors, &c. were in actual poſſeſſion or ſeiſin of the ſame lands, &c. within the years before limited, if the ſame be traverſed by the party, after trial therein had, ſuch perſons ſhall be barred for ever. ſ. 6.

If any falſe verdict be given in any of the ſaid actions or claims, the party grieved ſhall have his attaint in like manner as heretofore. ſ. 11.

By 1 Mar. ſtat. 2. c. 5. The act 32 Hen. 8. c. 2. ſhall not extend to any writ of right of advowſon, quare impedit, or aſſiſe of darrein preſentment, nor jure patronatus. ſ. 4.

By 21 Jac. 1. c. 16. All writs of formedon in deſcender, in remainder and in reverter, ſhall be ſued within twenty years after the title and cauſe of action firſt fallen; and no perſon ſhall make any entry into lands but within twenty years after his right or title ſhall firſt accrue. ſ. 1.

If any perſon that ſhall be entitled to ſuch writs, or ſhall have ſuch right or title of entry, be at the time of the ſaid right or title firſt accrued within the age of 21 years, feme covert, non compos mentis, impriſoned or beyond the ſeas; ſuch perſon and his heirs may bring action, or make entry, within ten years after their full age, diſcoverture, coming of ſound mind, enlargement out of priſon, or coming into this realm, or death. ſ. 2.

All actions of treſpaſs quare clauſum fregit, all actions of treſpaſs, detinue, action ſur trover and replevin, all actions of account, and upon the caſe, other than ſuch accounts as concern the trade of merchandize between merchant and merchant, their factors or ſervants, all actions of debt grounded upon any lending or contract without ſpecialty, all actions of debt for arrearages of rent, and all actions of aſſault, menace, battery, wounding and impriſonment, ſhall be ſued within the time hereafter expreſſed, viz. the ſaid actions upon the caſe (other than for ſlander), and the ſaid actions for account, and the ſaid actions for treſpaſs, debt, detinue and replevin, and the ſaid action of treſpaſs quare clauſum fregit, within ſix years after the cauſe of action; and the ſaid actions of treſpaſs of aſſault, battery, wounding or impriſonment, within four years after the cauſe of action; and the ſaid actions upon the caſe for words within two years after the words ſpoken. ſ. 3.

If in any of the ſaid actions judgment be given for the plaintiff, and the ſame be reverſed by error, or a verdict paſs for the plaintiff, and upon matter alledged in arreſt of judgment the judgment be given againſt the plaintiff, that he take nothing by his writ or bill; or if any the ſaid actions be brought by original, and the defendant therein be outlawed, and ſhall after reverſe the outlawry; the plaintiff may commence a new action within a year after ſuch judgment reverſed or given againſt the plaintiff, or outlawry reverſed. ſ. 4.

In all actions of treſpaſs quare clauſum fregit, wherein the defendant ſhall diſclaim any title to the land, and the treſpaſs be by negligence or involuntary, the defendant ſhall be admitted to plead a diſclaimer, and that the treſpaſs was by negligence or involuntary, and a tender of ſufficient amends before the action brought; and if the iſſue be found for the defendant, or the plaintiff be nonſuited, the plaintiff ſhall be barred from the ſaid action, and all other ſuit concerning the ſame. ſ. 5.

If any perſon entitled to any ſuch action of treſpaſs, detinue, action ſur trover, replevin, actions of accounts, actions of debt, actions of treſpaſs for aſſault, menace, battery, wounding or impriſonment, actions upon the caſe for words, ſhall be at the time of ſuch cauſe of action accrued within the age of 21 years, feme covert, non compos mentis, impriſoned or beyond the ſeas, ſuch perſon ſhall be at liberty to bring the ſame actions within ſuch times as are before limited after their being of full age, diſcovert, of ſane memory, at large, and returned from beyond the ſeas. ſ. 7.

By 10 Will. 3. c. 14. No fine or common recovery, nor any judgment in any real or perſonal action, ſhall be reverſed or avoided for error, unleſs the writ of error, or ſuit for the reverſing ſuch fine, recovery or judgment, be brought and proſecuted with effect within twenty years after after ſuch fine levied, or ſuch recovery ſuffered, or judgment ſigned or entered of record. ſ. 1.

If any perſon entitled to ſuch writ of error ſhall at the time of ſuch title accrued be within the age of 21 years, or covert, non compos mentis, impriſoned or beyond the ſeas, ſuch perſon, his or her heirs, executors or adminiſtrators, may bring their writ of error within five years after full age, diſcoverture, coming of ſound mind, enlargement out of priſon, or returning from beyond the ſeas, or death. ſ. 2.

By 4 Ann. c. 16. No claim or entry to be made upon any lands ſhall be of force to avoid any fine levied with proclamations, or ſhall be a ſufficient entry or claim within the ſtatute 21 Jac. 1. c. 16. for limitation of actions, unleſs an action ſhall be commenced within one year after the making of ſuch entry or claim, and proſecuted with effect. ſ. 16.

All ſuits in the admiralty for ſeamen's wages ſhall be commenced within ſix years after the cauſe of ſuch ſuits ſhall accrue. ſ. 17.

If any perſon entitled to ſuch ſuit for ſeamen's wages be within the age of 21 years, feme covert, non compos mentis, impriſoned, or beyond the ſeas, ſuch perſons ſhall be at liberty to bring the ſame actions, ſo as they take the ſame within ſix years after their being of full age, diſcovert, of ſane memory, at large, and returned from beyond the ſeas. ſ. 18.

If any perſon againſt whom there ſhall be any ſuch cauſe of action for ſeamen's wages, or againſt whom there ſhall be any cauſe of action of treſpaſs, detinue, action ſur trover or replevin, or of action of account, or upon the caſe, or of debt grounded upon any lending or contract without ſpecialty, debt for arrearages of rent, or aſſault, menace, battery, wounding and impriſonment, be, at the time of any ſuch cauſe of action accrued, beyond the ſeas, ſuch perſon who is entitled to ſuch action ſhall be at liberty to bring the ſaid actions againſt ſuch perſons after their return from beyond the ſeas, ſo as they take the ſame after their return from beyond the ſeas within ſuch times as are limited for the bringing of the ſaid actions by this act, and by the act 21 Jac. 1. c. 16.—ſ. 19.

By 9 Geo. 3. c. 16. The king ſhall not ſue, impeach, queſtion, or implead, any perſon or perſons, bodies politick or corporate, for any manors, lands, tenements, rents, tythes, or hereditaments whatſoever (other than liberties or franchiſes), or in any wiſe concerning the revenues, iſſues, or profits thereof, or make any title, claim, challenge, or demand, of, in, or to the ſame, by reaſon of any right or title which hath not firſt accrued within ſixty years next before the commencing of ſuch action, bill, plaint, information, commiſſion, or other ſuit, for recovering the ſame, unleſs his majeſty, or ſome of his progenitors, heirs or ſucceſſors, or ſome other perſon, under whom his majeſty, his heirs, or ſucceſſors, claimeth, have or ſhall have been anſwered by force of any ſuch right or title to the ſame, the rents, revenues, iſſues, or profits thereof, or the rents, iſſues, or profits of any honour, manor, or other hereditament, whereof the premiſes in queſtion ſhall be part, within the ſaid ſpace of ſixty years; or that the ſame have been duly in charge; or have ſtood inſuper of record within the ſaid ſpace of ſixty years: and all perſons, and all claiming under them, according to their eſtates, ſhall, at all times hereafter, quietly hold and enjoy, againſt his majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, claiming by any title which hath not firſt accrued within the ſaid ſpace of ſixty years, all manors, &c. (except liberties and franchiſes), which they, or thoſe under whom they claim, have enjoyed, or taken the rents or profits of, by the ſpace of ſixty years next before the commencing ſuch ſuit for recovering the ſame; unleſs his majeſty, his progenitors, heirs or ſucceſſors, or ſome other perſon, under whom his majeſty, his heirs, or ſucceſſors claim, have been anſwered, by virtue of ſuch title, the rents, iſſues, or profits thereof, within the ſaid ſpace of ſixty years; or that the ſame have been duly in charge, or ſtood inſuper of record as aforeſaid, within the ſaid ſpace of ſixty years: and furthermore, all perſons, and all claiming under them, according to their ſeveral eſtates and intereſts, ſhall, for ever hereafter, quietly hold and enjoy all ſuch manors, &c. (except liberties and franchiſes), as they now or hereafter ſhall or may have, claim, or enjoy (whereof his majeſty, his anceſtors, heirs, or ſucceſſors, or they under whom his majeſty, his heirs, or ſucceſſors, ſhall claim, by force of ſome title to the ſame, have not been anſwered, the rents or profits thereof, within ſixty years next before the commencing of ſuch ſuit for recovering the ſame, nor the ſame have been duly in charge, or ſtood inſuper of record as aforeſaid, within ſixty years), againſt all perſons claiming to have any eſtate, right, title, intereſt, claim, or demand whatſoever, of, in, or to the ſame, by letters patents or grants, upon ſuggeſtion of concealment or wrongful detaining, or not being in charge, or defective titles, or under any patentees, or grantees, or any letters patents or grants, upon ſuggeſtion of concealment or wrongful detaining, or not being in charge, or defective titles, of or for which ſaid manors, &c. no verdict, judgment, decree, judicial order upon hearing, or ſentence of any court now ſtanding in force, hath or ſhall hereafter be had or given, in any courts at Weſtminſter, within ſixty years next before the commencing of ſuch ſuit for recovering the ſame. ſ. 1.

Where the rents, iſſues, or profits of any manors, &c. are in charge, by, to, or with any auditor, or other proper officer of the revenue, ſuch rents and profits ſhall be deemed to be duly in charge within this act. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not extend to bar his majeſty, his heirs or ſucceſſors, of any manors, &c. whereof any reverſion or remainder now is in his majeſty; nor of any reverſion or remainder, or poſſibility of reverſion or remainder, in any of his majeſty's progenitors, or predeceſſors, or anceſtors, which by the determination of any limited eſtate of fee-ſimple, fee-tail, or other particular eſtate, hath fallen or ſhall hereafter fall or come in poſſeſſion, within ſixty years next before the commencing of any ſuit for recovering the ſame; nor of any right or title firſt accrued to his majeſty, his anceſtors, heirs, or ſucceſſors, of any manors, &c. within ſixty years next before the commencing of any ſuit for recovering the ſame. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall not extend to any manors, &c. mentioned to be granted by any of his majeſty's anceſtors, or by any other under whom his majeſty claimeth, to any perſon, of any limited eſtate in fee-ſimple, any eſtate in tail, or other particular eſtate, which ſeveral eſtates (if good in law) have or ought to have firſt fallen or become in poſſeſſion, or will or ought firſt to fall or come in poſſeſſion, within ſixty years next before the commencing of any ſuit for recovering the ſame; nor to any manors, &c. mentioned to be granted by any of his majeſty's anceſtors, or by any other under whom his majeſty claimeth, to any perſon in fee-tail, or other particular eſtate, whereof the reverſion or inheritance (if ſuch eſtate tail, or other particular eſtate, had been good in law), ſhould have continued in his majeſty, or any of his anceſtors, ceſtors, or ſhould or ought hereafter to be and continue in his majeſty, his heirs or ſucceſſors, at any time within ſixty years next before the commencing any ſuit for recovering the ſame. ſ. 4.

All the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, ſhall hereafter be holden of his majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, and of other perſons, by the ſame tenures, ſervices, fee-farms, chief rents, heriots, and other duties, as the ſame ought of right to have been holden, if the eſtates, rights, and intereſts eſtabliſhed by this act, had been before firm, good, and effectual in law. ſ. 5.

Saving to every perſon, bodies politick and corporate, their heirs and ſucceſſors (other than his majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, and other than all patentees or grantees of concealments, or defective titles, and all perſons claiming under them), all ſuch rights, title, intereſt, eſtate, rents, commons, cuſtoms, duties, profits, and other claims and demands whatſoever, in, to, or out of the ſaid manors, &c. as they had or ought to have had before this act. ſ. 6.

Where any fee farm rent, or other rent, has been paid to the king, his predeceſſors, heirs, or ſucceſſors, within ſixty years next before ſuit ſhall hereafter be commenced, for recovering the ſame, out of any manors, &c. of which the eſtates, rights, or intereſts, being defective, are eſtabliſhed by this act, the king, his heirs, and ſucceſſors, ſhall from henceforth for ever have and enjoy the ſaid rents, and arrearages, as amply as the ſame are or were enjoyed at any time within the ſaid ſpace of ſixty years. ſ. 7.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the right, title, or claim, of any perſon, in or to any manors, tenements, or hereditaments, under any grants, or letters patents, from any of his majeſty's predeceſſors, or under any grants or letters patents, from his majeſty, paſſed before 1 Jan. one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine; ſo as ſuch right, title, or claim, be proſecuted with effect, in ſome of his majeſty's courts of record at Weſtminſter, within one year from 1 Jan. one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine. ſ. 8.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend or be prejudicial to any right, title, or claim, which his majeſty now hath to any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, within the manor of Eaſt Greenwich, in Kent; or to any meſſuages, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, within The Savoy, in Middleſex; or to any the manors, meſſuages, advowſons, buildings, lands, tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances, being the eſtate and poſſeſſion of the late hoſpital of the Savoy, or of the maſter and chaplains of the ſaid hoſpital; ſo as ſuch title be proſecuted with effect in ſome of his majeſty's courts of record at Weſtminſter, within two years from 1 Jan. 1769. ſ. 9. Enlarged as to the Savoy to two years from 1 Jan. 1771, 11 Geo. 3. c. 4.

No putting in charge, nor ſtanding inſuper, nor taking or anſwering the farm rents, revenues, or profits of any of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, by force, or pretexts of any letters patent or grants of concealments, or defective titles, or of manors, &c. out of charge, or by pretext of any inquiſitions, preſentments, by reaſon of any commiſſion to find out concealments, defective titles, or lands, out of charge, ſhall be deemed to be a putting in charge, ſtanding inſuper, or anſwering the farm rents, revenues, or profits by or to his majeſty, his predeceſſors, heirs or ſucceſſors; unleſs thereupon ſuch manors, &c. have been or ſhall be upon verdict or demurrer in law adjudged, or upon a hearing, decreed for his majeſty, his predeceſſors, heirs or ſucceſſors, within ſixty years next before the commencing ſuit. 9 Geo. 3. c. 16. ſ. 10.

By 27 Geo. 3. c. 44. No ſuit for defamatory words ſhall be commenced in any of the eccleſiaſtical courts within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, unleſs the ſame ſhall be commenced within ſix months from the time when ſuch words ſhall have been uttered. ſ. 1.

No ſuit ſhall be commenced in any eccleſiaſtical court, for fornication or incontinence, or for ſtriking or brawling in any church or church-yard, after the expiration of eight months from the time when ſuch offence ſhall have been committed, nor ſhall any proſecution be commenced or carried on for fornication after the parties offending ſhall have intermarried. ſ. 2.

Statutes reſpecting the City of London in general.

By Magna Charta, 9 Hen. 3. c. 9. The city of London ſhall have all her ancient liberties and cuſtoms. Confirmed by 14 Ed. 3. ſtat. 1. c. 1.

By ſtat. civ. London, 13 Ed. 1. ſtat. 5. None ſhall be found walking the ſtreets of the city, after curfew rung at St. Martins le Grand, with ſpear or buckler, or other arms, unleſs he be a lord, or other man of known worth, or their meſſenger, for whom they will warrant; and if any man be found walking to the contrary, he ſhall be taken by the keepers of the peace, and the morrow he ſhall be carried before the mayor and aldermen. None ſhall keep a tavern open of wine or of ale after curfew; and none ſhall receive any in his houſe for whom he will not anſwer to the king's peace; and if any taverner do otherwiſe, he ſhall be attached by good pledge, and be amerced 40*d.* and for the ſecond offence he ſhall be amerced half a mark, and the third time 10*s.* and the fourth time 20*s.* and the fifth time he ſhall be forejudged the trade for ever. None ſhall keep ſchool or teach to fence with buckler within the city, on pain of impriſonment of 40 days. None that is arreſted for treſpaſs or other miſdemeanour againſt the king's peace, or for evil ſuſpicion, ſhall be delivered by the ſheriff without the award of the warden or of the mayor and aldermen, unleſs the treſpaſs be very ſmall, and then good bail ſhall be taken, that he appear before the warden, or the mayor and aldermen. And every alderman in his wardmote ſhall inquire of ſuch miſdoers, and if any be found by indictment or evil ſuſpicion, they ſhall be attached, and brought before the warden, or the mayor and aldermen; and if they cannot acquit themſelves, they ſhall be puniſhed by impriſonment or otherwiſe. ſ. 1.

No man ſhall keep an inn, or harbour others, within the city, unleſs he be a freeman, and have good teſtimony from whence he came, and find good pledges to the bailiffs of the city. And no broker ſhall be within the city, but thoſe who are received and ſworn before the warden, or the mayor and aldermen. (See Brokers, poſt.) And if any other inn-keeper or broker be found within the city, or any other of whom there is evil ſuſpicion, he ſhall be arreſted by the warden or mayor, or the ſheriffs, or the alderman of the ward, and puniſhed, viz. inn-keepers and brokers ſhall be incapable of the freedom and adjudged to priſon, and the others ſhall be puniſhed by impriſonment or otherwiſe. And the officers ſhall not be ſued for any puniſhment of miſdoers or ſuſpicious perſons, unleſs it be done by open malice. ſ. 2.

By 7 Ric. 2. c. 11. All vintners and victuallers, as well fiſhers as others, coming with their victuals to London, ſhall be under the rule of the mayor and aldermen.

By 1 Hen. 4. c. 16. The merchants of London ſhall be as free to pack their cloths as other merchants within the city, or within other cities and boroughs.

By 3 Hen. 7. c. 9. Every freeman and citizen of London may go with his victual or merchandize to any fair or market within this realm; and the ordinance made in London to the contrary ſhall be void: and if any perſon be prejudiced by occaſion of the ſame, he that putteth any perſon to ſuch prejudice ſhall forfeit to the king 40*l.* and he that will ſue for ſuch forfeiture ſhall have therefore an action of debt; the king to have execution of the one half, and he that ſueth the other half.

By 19 Car. 2. c. 3. The ſecond day of September (unleſs the ſame be Sunday, and then the next day) ſhall be for ever obſerved as a day of public faſting and humiliation within the ſaid city. ſ. 28.

By 2 Will. & Mar. ſtat. 1. c. 8. The mayor, commonalty, and citizens of the city of London, ſhall for ever hereafter be, and preſcribe to be, a body corporate and politick, without any ſeizure or forejudger of the ſaid franchiſe for any pretence of forfeiture or miſdemeanour hereafter to be committed; and the ſaid mayor and commonalty ſhall enjoy all their rights, franchiſes, cuſtoms, immunities, markets, duties, tolls, lands and hereditaments. ſ. 3.

Aldermen.

By 17 Ric. 2. c. 11. The aldermen of London ſhall not be elected yearly, but remain until they be put out for reaſonable cauſe.

Aſſizes.

By Stat. Glouceſt. 6 Edw. 1. c. 14. Whereas thoſe who were diſſeiſed of freehold in London could not recover their damages before the coming of the juſtices to the Tower, from henceforth they ſhall have their damages by recognizance of the aſſiſe whereby they recover their tenement. And the diſſeiſors ſhall be amerced before two barons of the exchequer, who once a year ſhall come into the city to do it.

Attaint.

By 11 Hen. 7. c. 21. ſ. 2. An attaint may be ſued by bill in the huſtings of London, upon any falſe verdict given in any of the courts of that city; and thereupon the mayor ſhall award a precept to every alderman, or his deputy, to preſent unto the ſaid mayor, at the next huſtings, the names of four indifferent and diſcreet citizens out of each of their wards, each of them worth in eſtate 100*l.* at leaſt; out of which the mayor and ſix aldermen, or more, ſhall impanel forty-eight, whom the mayor ſhall cauſe to be ſummoned, together with the tenants or defendants in the attaint, to appear at the next huſtings: and if upon default of appearance, or otherwiſe, there ſhall need a tales, the panel ſhall be ſupplied out of the reſt preſented, or by other ſuch citizens, at the diſcretion of the mayor and ſix aldermen. And all pleas in ſuch attaints ſhall be tried there by inqueſts of the ſame city, and not elſewhere. And in an attaint there, no challenge ſhall be for lack of ſufficiency in eſtate. Provided that the judgment in ſuch attaint ſhall not extend to lands or tenements, nor to other puniſhment of the petty jury, or other proceſſes, than ſuch as are limited by this act. And in ſuch an attaint, if the petty jury be attainted, judgment ſhall be againſt the defendant, as at the common law; and againſt the petty jury, to forfeit each of them 20*l.* or more, at the diſcretion of the court, to ſuch uſe as other penalties forfeited before them, and to ſuffer ſix months impriſonment, or leſs, at the like diſcretion of the court, and to be for ever diſabled to be a juror. But if the verdict be affirmed, the grand jury ſhall inquire into the corruption of the petty jurors; and if any of them be found to have taken any reward, &c. he ſhall forfeit ten times the value thereof to the plaintiff, and ſhall ſuffer impriſonment, and diſability to be a juror, as aforeſaid. The like forfeitures alſo, and impriſonment, ſhall be inflicted on the tenant or defendant that ſhall give ſuch reward or promiſe. And if a debt, coſts or damages, are recovered in the firſt action (whereupon the attaint is brought) and that verdict found falſe, the plaintiff in ſuch attaint may ſue an action of debt for reſtitution of ſuch debts, coſts and damages, by writ, bill or plaint, in any of the king's courts. And in ſuch attaint, if the plaintiff be nonſuit, or the firſt verdict affirmed, the plaintiff ſhall be impriſoned, and make fine (to the uſe of the city) at the diſcretion of the court. And where there are two or more plaintiffs, if any of them die, or be nonſuit, and albeit all the tenants or defendants, and ſome of the petty jury die, yet ſhall not the attaint abate, ſo that two of that jury remain in life. And the grand jurors that make default, ſhall forfeit for the firſt default 40*s.* for the ſecond 5*l.* and for every other afterwards 10*l.* And like proceſs ſhall be made againſt the jurors and parties in this attaint, as is uſually made in attaints at the common law, and ſhall be returnable at every huſtings. And the attaint ſhall not remain to be taken after the firſt ſummons returned, for the default of the tenant or defendant, or any of the petty jury; neither ſhall any protection or eſſoign be allowed in the ſame. Provided that on attaints in the ſaid city upon any record wherein the trial was per medietatem linguæ, the mayor and aldermen ſhall impanel half ſtrangers, worth 100*l.* a-piece.

By 37 Hen. 8. c. 5. ſ. 3. Citizens of London, being worth four hundred marks in goods, may be impanelled and returned by the ſheriffs of London upon attaints there. And the juſtices ſhall hereafter ſit upon attaints in London at Guildhall, or ſome other convenient place in that city, and not elſewhere; neither ſhall the citizens there be compellable to appear upon any ſuch attaint in any other place, notwithſtanding 23 Hen. 8. c. 3. (See general title Attaint, Part I. page 40.)

Ballaſtage.

By 6 Geo. 2. c. 29. (amended by 32 Geo. 2. c. 16. and continued until June 24, 1794, by 23 Geo. 3. c. 8.) All maſters of ſhips lying in the river Thames ſhall pay to the Trinity Houſe, for all ballaſt demanded and entered at the ballaſt-office, the rates following, viz. for every tun conſiſting conſiſting of twenty hundred weight, carried to any ſhip employed in the coal trade, 12 d. and for every tun carried to any other Britiſh ſhip, 15 d. and for every tun carried to any foreign ſhip, 19 d. and the corporation of Trinity-houſe ſhall pay for the raiſing and carrying every tun of ballaſt, 9 d. whereof 6 d. ſhall be paid to the two ballaſt men, and 3 d. for the uſe of the lighters. ſ. 1.

Nothing in this act ſhall alter the price of waſhed ballaſt. ſ. 2.

If any ballaſt man ſhall deliver any ballaſt, which ſhall fall ſhort of quantity; or ſhall neglect to deliver to any ſhip ſuch quantity as the rulers of the ballaſt office ſhall by their uſual tickets direct; or ſhall deliver more or other ballaſt than ſhall be directed: every ballaſt man ſo offending, and oath being made of the fact within ten days after the offence, or within ten days after the next return of ſuch ſhip by the maſter or other officer of any ſuch ſhip, before any ſuperviſor of the ballaſt office, being an elder brother, ſhall for every tun which ſhall appear to fall ſhort, and for every tun directed by the ballaſt rulers, which ſuch ballaſt man ſhall neglect to deliver, and for every tun delivered contrary to the directions of the ſaid rulers, forfeit 2 s. 6 d. ſ. 3.

The ſaid maſter wardens and aſſiſtants ſhall make good to the maſter of ſuch ſhip the quantity or value of the ballaſt which ſhall be found deficient; and in caſe ſuch recompenſe ſhall not be made within ten days after the ſame ſhall be demanded, the corporation ſhall forfeit 50 l. one moiety to the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame; which recompenſe the corporation are impowered to ſtop out of the wages due to ſuch ballaſt men, over and above the penalties. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall oblige any ballaſt man to deliver ballaſt which ſhall be directed by the rulers of the office to be carried to any other ſhip: and if any perſon ſhall fraudulently receive any greater quantity of ballaſt than they ſhall enter and pay for at the office, every perſon ſo offending, and being thereof convicted upon oath of one witneſs before a juſtice of peace for the city of London, or the counties of Middleſex, Eſſex, Kent or Surrey, within their reſpective juriſdictions, ſhall for every tun of ballaſt forfeit 2 s. 6 d. ſ. 5.

If any ballaſt man ſhall refuſe to work for the wages herein mentioned, or having contracted to ſerve for any term ſhall quit ſuch ſervice, or ſhall depart from the ſervice of the corporation without giving three months notice in writing to the ſuperviſors of the ballaſt office, or ſhall refuſe to work, or ſhall not work in ſuch ſtations in the river Thames as the corporation ſhall appoint, or ſhall work in any ſtation contrary to the orders of the rulers of the office given in writing; or ſhall join in any combination to raiſe wages, or obſtruct the ſervice of the corporation, or the navigation of the river; every perſon ſo offending, being convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 6.

The corporation of Trinity-houſe ſhall cauſe marks to be ſet on the ſtem and ſtern of every lighter between every two gauge marks now placed on the ſtem and ſtern, that the tunnage of every ſuch lighter may be diſtinguiſhed by a gradual progreſſion of two tuns and a half. ſ. 7.

It ſhall be lawful for the maſters of ſhips taking ballaſt, to meet in the ſquare at Billingſgate on the 3d Monday in June in every year, and to adjourn as the majority of them ſhall think fit, and, by writing under the hands and ſeals of the major part of them, to appoint perſons, having been maſters or mates of ſhips, to inſpect the ballaſt lighters; which perſons are impowered to examine the marks; and in caſe ſuch perſons ſhall ſuſpect that any of the marks have been altered, and ſhall at the ballaſt office require the ſame lighter to be re-weighed, the corporation ſhall within ten working days after ſuch requeſt cauſe ſuch lighter to be re-weighed; and in caſe the ſame ſhall be found to be of as great tunnage as by the marks ſhall be noted, the charge of ſuch re-weighing ſhall be paid by the perſons requiring the ſame; and in caſe ſuch perſons ſhall not pay the charge within ten days after ſuch re-weighing, they ſhall forfeit 5 l. but if ſuch lighter ſhall be found of leſs tunnage than the marks denote, the charge of ſuch re-weighing ſhall be born by the corporation; who ſhall cauſe the marks on the ſtem and ſtern of ſuch lighter to be placed in ſuch manner as to denote the true tunnage; and in caſe the corporation ſhall neglect to have ſuch lighter re-weighed, or to mark the ſame according to this act, the corporation ſhall forfeit 50 l. one moiety to the poor of the pariſh where the offence ſhall be committed, the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 8.

No more than two lighters ſhall be required to be re-weighed in any one week. ſ. 9.

Any maſter of a ſhip may appoint two perſons belonging to ſuch ſhip (whereof the mate to be one), to go on board any lighter bringing ballaſt to ſuch ſhip, to inſpect the marks at which ſuch lighter ſwims, before and after the delivery of ſuch ballaſt; and every ballaſt man ſhall immediately before the delivery of ballaſt to any ſhip trim ſuch lighter, ſo as to make the ſame ſwim at equal marks at the ſtem and ſtern, and pump all the water out; and if any perſon working on board ſuch lighter ſhall hinder any perſon ſo appointed from going on board ſuch lighter, or ſhall begin to deliver the ballaſt before ſuch lighter ſhall be trimmed to ſwim at equal marks, and the water pumped out, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 10.

If any ballaſt man ſhall work or deliver ballaſt in any lighter not weighed, marked, numbered and allowed by the corporation, or ſhall alter or counterfeit the gauge marks, or the number of ſuch lighter, he ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 11.

If any ballaſt man ſhall demand and receive from any maſter or officer of any ſhip, any money on account of ballaſt, or the delivery of the ſame, every ballaſt man ſo offending, ſhall forfeit 40 s. ſ. 12.

The ballaſt men employed in the ſervice of the corporation ſhall be ſubject to the regulations of the corporation, provided ſuch regulations do not extend to the lowering the wages. ſ. 13.

Any maſter of a ſhip may carry as ballaſt from London, or any part of the river Thames, any dung, chalk, ſoap-aſhes, flints, clay, or other goods now claimed to be furniſhed as ballaſt, ſubject to the reſtrictions herein after mentioned. ſ. 14.

The maſter of every ſuch ſhip ſhall firſt make entry at the ballaſt office, or with the officer of the ſaid corporation at Graveſend, of the ſaid goods, and the name of ſuch ſhip, and of the maſter. ſ. 15.

At the time of ſuch entry the maſter of ſuch ſhip ſhall pay for ſuch licence to the corporation, 1 d. for every tun of the ſaid goods. ſ. 16.

If any maſter of any ſhip ſhall put on board any of the ſaid goods before ſuch entry and payment, or ſhall ſhip any greater quantity than ſhall be ſo entered and paid for, every perſon ſo offending, and convicted before one juſtice, ſhall forfeit forfeit 5 l. one moiety to the poor of the corporation, and the other to the perſon who ſhall inform for the ſame. ſ. 17.

Provided that the whole quantity of dung and compoſt licenſed to be ſhipped for the uſe of the coaſters and colliers do not exceed three thouſand tons in any one year, to commence from the firſt of June; and that the whole quantity of chalk and chalk rubbiſh do not exceed three thouſand tons; and that the quantity of ſoap-aſhes, and all other commodities herein licenſed, do not exceed two thouſand tons in any one year. ſ. 18. (See 32 Geo. 2. c. 16. ſ. 2.)

All entries of the goods ſo licenſed, which ſhall be ſhipped in the laſt ſeven days of May, ſhall be made at the Trinity-houſe in London, and not at Graveſend. ſ. 19.

Any maſter of any ſhip may carry as ballaſt from any part of the river Thames, any bricks, tiles or lime, or other merchandizable commodity, without paying any thing to the corporation. ſ. 20. (See 32 Geo. 2. c. 16. ſ. 5.)

The pecuniary forfeitures impoſed by this act ſhall be applied in the firſt place for the paying the loſſes that the corporation ſhall ſuſtain by ſhort or fraudulent tunnage, or by reaſon of ſuch ſhips being not ſupplied with the ballaſt directed, and afterwards for the benefit of the poor of the corporation. ſ. 21.

Two juſtices of peace for the city of London, or any of the four counties above mentioned (not being members of the corporation) may hear and determine the offences puniſhable by pecuniary penalties by this act, except ſuch as are particularly directed to be otherwiſe determined; and ſuch juſtices are required, upon information within ten days after ſuch offence committed, to ſummon the party accuſed and the witneſſes, and after oath made of the facts, to iſſue a warrant for apprehending the party offending, and to proceed to the examination of witneſſes, and to give judgment accordingly; and where the party ſhall be convicted, to iſſue warrants for levying the penalties on the goods of the offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made, in caſe they ſhall not be redeemed in five days; and where goods cannot be found, to commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for three months, or until ſuch penalties ſhall be paid. ſ. 22.

Such juſtices may mitigate the penalties, one moiety. ſ. 23.

Any perſon may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 24.

Any ſuit brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act ſhall be commenced within three months after the fact, and ſhall be laid in the county where the cauſe of action ariſes: and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if judgment ſhall be given againſt the plaintiff, the defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 25.

By 32 Geo. 2. c. 16. for amending 6 Geo. 2. c. 29. Any maſter or owners of any ſhip may ſhip and carry in his ſhip as ballaſt, from London, or any part of the Thames, any dung, compoſt, earth, or ſoil, or any chalk rubbiſh, ſope aſhes, ſope waſte, flints, tobacco pipe clay, or other clay, or any other goods claimed to be furniſhed as ballaſt by the corporation of Trinity-houſe (ſubject to the payment of the rates and under the reſtrictions after mentioned), ſo that the whole quantity allowed to be ſhipped for ballaſt, doth not exceed in one year, to be computed from the 1ſt of June inclusive in every year, 3000 tons, beſides 2000 tons of dung, compoſt, earth, or ſoil, allowed to be ſhipped in any coaſting ſhips in the Thames, by the leſſees or occupiers of the lay-ſtalls of the city of London; and ſo that the whole quantity of chalk and chalk rubbiſh ſhipped as ballaſt, for the uſe of coaſters and colliers in the Thames, doth not exceed 3000 tons in one year; and ſo that the whole quantity of ſope aſhes, and all other commodities claimed to be furniſhed as ballaſt by the ſaid corporation, and licenſed by this act to be ſhipped as ballaſt for the uſe of coaſters and colliers in the ſaid river, doth not exceed 2000 tons in one year. ſ. 2.

Before the maſter or owners of any ſhip permit any of the ſaid commodities claimed to be furniſhed as ballaſt by the ſaid corporation to be ſhipped, every ſuch maſter or owners ſhall make a due entry at the ballaſt office of the Trinity-houſe in London, or with the officer of the ſaid Trinity-houſe at Graveſend (unleſs any of the ſaid commodities be ſhipped in the laſt ſeven days of May in any year, and then every entry thereof ſhall be made at the office of the Trinity-houſe in London) of all commodities ſhipped as ballaſt, and of the name of the ſhip or veſſel, and of the maſter, and at the time of making ſuch entry, ſhall pay to the ſaid corporation for ſuch licence one penny for every ton ſo entered. ſ. 3.

If any maſter or owners or officer of any ſhip, ſuffer to be ſhipped any of the commodities before-mentioned, before ſuch entry and payment, or ſhip any greater quantity than ſo entered and paid for, every perſon ſo offending and convicted, ſhall forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 4.

Any maſter or owner of any ſhip, may ſhip as ballaſt, from London, or any part of the Thames, any quantity of bricks, tyles, or lime, or any other merchandizable commodities, except ſuch as are before enumerated, without paying any thing to the ſaid corporation for the ſame. ſ. 5.

No lighter or veſſel ſhall be employed for carrying any dung, compoſt, earth, or ſoil, on board any ſhip in the Thames, for the uſe of coaſters or colliers there, until ſuch lighter, &c. be firſt weighed, marked, and numbered, by the corporation of the Trinity-houſe, and at their coſts, or by ſome agent appointed by them; and the ſaid corporation or their agent is in the day-time to weigh every ſuch lighter, &c. employed in the Thames for the carrying any dung, &c. on board any coaſter or collier in the ſaid river; and to affix a gauge mark in ſome conſpicuous place at the ſtem and ſtern of every ſuch lighter, &c. higher than the ſame ſinks into the water when loaded, denoting the tonnage; and the number of every ſuch lighter, &c. in large white capital letters and figures: and if any one offend in the premiſſes, or remove, alter, deface, or counterfeit, any gauge mark or number affixed by the ſaid corporation, he ſhall forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 6.

In caſe the ſaid corporation ſuſpect that the gauge mark of any lighter, &c. hath been removed or altered, the ſaid corporation or their agent in the day-time, and at the coſts of the ſaid corporation, may reweigh any ſuch lighter, &c. (ſo as no more than one lighter, &c. be reweighed in any week) and in caſe upon reweighing the ſame be found of greater tonnage than by the mark, the perſon to whom it belongs ſhall, on being convicted, forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 7.

If any ſhip or veſſel come into the Thames with any ballaſt, no part of ſuch ballaſt ſhall be unloaded into the ſaid river, but all ſuch ballaſt ſhall be laid at the expence of the owners or maſter of ſuch ſhip, on ſome common wharf near the river, or on ſome ground above high water mark; or otherwiſe ſhall be unloaded at the coſts of the owners or maſter of ſuch ſhip, &c. into lighters belonging to the ſaid corporation, which the ſaid corporation are required to furniſh and ſend, on demand made or left in writing at the ſaid ballaſt office; and in caſe the ſaid corporation neglect to ſend ſufficient lighters within three days after ſuch application, they ſhall forfeit 50*l.* unleſs ſuch neglect be occaſioned by

froſty or tempeſtuous weather preventing ſuch lighters from being navigated; to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter; one moiety to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where the offence is committed, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall ſue. ſ. 8.

The owners or maſter of every ſhip out of which any ballaſt is taken by any lighter belonging to the ſaid corporation, ſhall pay to the ſaid corporation 6*d. per* ton, for every ton of ballaſt received by the ſaid corporation out of ſuch ſhip, within 24 hours after ſuch ballaſt is carried away; which money ſhall be for the uſe of the poor of the ſaid corporation; and in caſe of nonpayment the ſame may be recovered by action of debt in any court of record at Weſtminſter, in the name of the ſaid corporation, againſt any ſuch owners or maſter. ſ. 9.

If any ballaſt be unloaded into the Thames, or laid on any place below the high water mark, the maſter of ſuch ſhip being convicted ſhall forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 10.

If any perſon unload or throw into the Thames, any rubbiſh, earth, aſhes, dirt, or ſoil, from any wharf or bank adjoining to the Thames, or out of any barge or lighter; being convicted he ſhall forfeit 40*s.* ſ. 11.

No dung, compoſt, earth, or ſoil, ſhall be put on board any coaſter or collier immediately from any place on ſhore, adjoining to the Thames; and all dung, &c. put on board any coaſter or collier for ballaſt, ſhall be taken from the layſtall or place on ſhore, whereon the ſame lies, and therefrom be carried to ſuch coaſter or collier, in ſome lighter or veſſel marked as by this act is directed, and ſhall be put on board ſuch coaſter or collier from ſuch marked lighter or veſſel only: and if any perſon offend in the premiſſes, being convicted, he ſhall forfeit 5*l.* one moiety to the informer, and the other moiety to the treaſurer of the corporation of the Trinity-houſe, for the uſe of the poor of the ſaid corporation. ſ. 12.

No perſon ſhall put any rubbiſh, earth, ſand, aſhes, dirt, filth, or ſoil, in any ſtreet or paſſage within the city of London, or the liberties thereof, or in the ſuburbs thereof in the county of Middleſex; or in any ſtreet or paſſage, in the city of Weſtminſter, or the liberties thereof; or in ſuch part of the duchy of Lancaſter, as lies in Middleſex; other than ſuch as is allowed by law to be laid to drain, ready for the ſcavengers to carry away; or ſweep or put any rubbiſh, &c. into any kennel in London or Weſtminſter, or ſuch part of the duchy of Lancaſter, other than ſuch as is ſwept away by the inhabitants before their reſpective habitations: and if any one offend in the premiſes, and be convicted, he ſhall forfeit 10*s.* ſ. 13.

Nothing in this act ſhall prevent any inhabitant within the limits before-mentioned from ſweeping immediately after ſnow, thaw, or rain, into any kennel, any ice, ſnow, dirt, or ſoil, which by means of ſuch ſnow, thaw, or rain, is before his houſe (except rubbiſh caſt out, in any ſtreet or paſſage, within the limits aforeſaid, from repaired or decayed buildings, or otherwiſe), or to inflict any penalty on ſuch inhabitant, or his ſervant, in reſpect of ſo doing. ſ. 14.

The leſſees or occupiers of the layſtalls of the city of London ſhall, either in perſon or by ſome ſervant at their charges, inſpect the ſtreets and common paſſages in the city of London, and the liberties thereof, every day (Sundays excepted), and give information to the mayor, or ſome alderman, of every perſon offending in the premiſes. ſ. 15.

And in caſe ſuch leſſees or occupiers, or their ſervant, duly make the inſpection hereby directed, and give information againſt the perſons offending, ſuch leſſees or occupiers may beween the firſt of June 1759, and the firſt of June 1760, ſhip from any layſtall of the city of London as ballaſt, but on no other account, on board any collier, or coaſting ſhip in the river, any quantity of dung, compoſt, earth, or ſoil, not exceeding 2000 tons in the whole; and after the ſaid firſt of June 1760, may yearly ſhip from any layſtall of the city of London, for ballaſt, but on no other account, on board any collier or coaſting ſhip, any quantity of dung, &c. not exceeding 2000 tons. ſ. 16.

Provided that ſuch leſſees or occupiers of the ſaid layſtalls, or the inſpectors employed by them, yearly, after the firſt of June 1760, before the ſhipping of any part of the ſaid additional 2000 tons of dung, &c. obtain a certificate thereof, under the hand of the mayor of London, and deliver ſuch certificate at the ballaſt office of the maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants of the Trinity-houſe, before the firſt of June in every year, which additional 2000 tons of dung, &c. ſhall be excluſive of the 3000 tons allowed by 6 Geo. 2. c. 29. ſ. 18. but ſuch 2000 additional tons ſhall be ſubject to the like penalties and regulations as by the ſaid act are enacted, other than ſuch as are altered by this act. ſ. 17.

Any juſtice of peace of the county or place in which any offence for unloading ballaſt into the Thames, or throwing into the Thames any rubbiſh, &c. or putting any rubbiſh, &c. in any ſtreet in London or Weſtminſter, or ſuch part of the duchy of Lancaſter in Middleſex, except as before is excepted, or ſweeping the ſame into any kennel in London, &c. except as before is excepted, whereby the ſame may be carried down ſuch kennel into the Thames, is committed, or wherein any ſuch offender is found, ſuch juſtice (not being a member of the corporation of the Trinity-houſe) is required to convict ſuch offender on the proper knowledge or view of ſuch juſtice; and every ſuch juſtice is to hear all the offences puniſhable by this act by pecuniary penalties, other than ſuch as are directed to be recovered in the courts at Weſtminſter; and upon an information exhibited, or complaint, ſo that ſuch information or complaint be exhibited upon oath before ſuch juſtice within ſeven days after ſuch offence committed, ſuch juſtice is to iſſue warrants for the apprehending the party accuſed, and bringing him before any juſtice within his juriſdiction, to anſwer the complaint; which warrants the perſons to whom the ſame are directed are to execute upon the Thames, or on any ſhore adjoining; and for that purpoſe they are required, in the day-time, to go on board any veſſel in the ſaid river; and on ſuch offender being apprehended, he ſhall be carried before ſome juſtice having juriſdiction in the premiſes; and ſuch juſtice within his juriſdiction is to ſummon witneſſes as deſired on either ſide, and examine them on oath, and to give judgment: and in caſe the party accuſed be convicted, upon the proper knowledge or view of the juſtice, or upon the oath of any witneſs, or by confeſſion, and the penalty be not immediately paid, the ſame ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale, as penalties incurred by the 6 Geo. 2. cap. 29. and in caſe ſufficient diſtreſs cannot be found, ſuch juſtice ſhall by warrant commit the perſon convicted to the houſe of correction of the county or place where apprehended, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one month, or until payment of the penalties or compoſition for the ſame. ſ. 18.

Any inhabitant of the pariſh in which any offence is committed, ſhall be a competent witneſs. ſ. 19.

If any perſon ſummoned as a witneſs before any juſtice neglect to appear, and no juſt cauſe be offered for ſuch neglect; then (after proof on oath of ſuch ſummons having been ſerved) every ſuch juſtice is to iſſue his warrant, to bring ſuch witneſs before any juſtice; and if ſuch witneſs on his appearance, or on being brought before any juſtice, refuſe to be examined on oath, without offering ſome juſt excuſe, ſuch juſtice may by warrant commit any perſon ſo refuſing to be examined, to the houſe of correction of the county or place where apprehended, for any time not exceeding one month nor leſs than one week. ſ. 20.

Every perſon ſummoned to appear and give evidence concerning any offence cognizable by this act, and neglecting to appear, or appearing and refuſing to give evidence, without juſt cauſe to be allowed of by ſuch juſtice, ſhall, being convicted by ſuch juſtice, forfeit 40*s.* to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods as any other penalty under this act; and all money ſo forfeited ſhall be applied for the uſe of the poor of the pariſh or place in which ſuch neglect or refuſal is made; but no warrant ſhall be ſigned by a juſtice of the peace for committing to any houſe of correction any perſon convicted of ſuch neglect or refuſal, until it be proved by oath that the money forfeited by ſuch neglect or refuſal hath not been paid; and that no ſufficient diſtreſs can be found, within the juriſdiction of ſuch juſtice, whereon it may be levied. ſ. 21.

In caſe any perſon againſt whom a warrant is iſſued by any juſtice before or after conviction for any offence againſt this act, eſcape or be in any other county or place out of the juriſdiction of ſuch perſon granting ſuch warrant; or if the goods of any offender be in a different county, &c. than where the ſaid party was convicted, or warrant of diſtreſs granted; it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of the county, &c. into which ſuch perſon eſcapes, before or after conviction, or where his goods are after conviction, and they are required, upon proof upon oath of the hand writing of any juſtice granting ſuch warrant, to indorſe their name on ſuch warrant; and the ſame, when ſo indorſed, ſhall be a ſufficient authority to all peace officers to execute ſuch warrant in ſuch other county, &c. out of the juriſdiction of the perſon granting the ſaid warrant; and any juſtice, on the offender being brought before him, may determine the complaint as if it had originally aroſe within his juriſdiction, or may direct the offender to be carried to the juſtice who granted the original warrant. ſ. 22.

The juſtice before whom any perſon ſhall be convicted, ſhall cauſe ſuch conviction to be drawn up in the form or to the effect following: ſ. 23.

'To wit, Be it remembered, That on the ——— day of '——— in the ——— year of his preſent majeſty's 'reign, A. B. is convicted before ——— of his majeſty's 'juſtices of the peace for the county of ——— or for the 'city of ——— (as the caſe ſhall be) for ——— 'and ——— do adjudge him, her, or them (as the caſe 'ſhall be) to pay and forfeit for the ſame the ſum of ———

'Given under the day and year
'aforeſaid.'

No certiorari or other proceſs for removal of any ſuch conviction, or any proceedings thereon, into any court of record at Weſtminſter, ſhall be allowed; and no perſon proſecuted under this act, and convicted, ſhall be proſecuted or convicted for ſuch offence by any other law. ſ. 24.

All pecuniary penalties payable under this act (the application whereof is not before directed) ſhall be applied in manner following, viz. Where any perſon is convicted under this act, on the view of any juſtice, the whole money forfeited ſhall go to the poor of the pariſh or place; and where any perſon is convicted by the oath of witneſſes, or confeſſion, for any offence not done on the Thames, one moiety of the penalty ſhall go to the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence is committed, and the other moiety to the perſon on whoſe information ſuch offender is convicted; and where any party is convicted for any offence on the Thames, one moiety of the penalty ſhall go to the poor of the corporation of Trinity-houſe, and the other moiety to the perſon on whoſe information any perſon is convicted. ſ. 25.

Any juſtice who convicts any offender, may mitigate the penalties, one moiety. ſ. 26.

If any perſon remain unſatisfied in the determination of any juſtice, ſuch perſon may appeal to the juſtices of peace at the next general quarter ſeſſions for the county or place wherein ſuch offence is committed, who are to ſummon and examine witneſſes upon oath, and to determine ſuch appeal; which determination ſhall be final, and not be removable by certiorari, or otherwiſe, into any other court; and in caſe of conviction, to iſſue a warrant for levying the penalties and charges on ſuch appeal, if ſuch charges at ſuch ſeſſions be awarded; and in caſe of nonpayment, to commit the offender on whoſe goods no ſufficient diſtreſs can be made, to the houſe of correction of the county or place where apprehended, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one month, or until payment or compoſition for ſuch penalty and charges. ſ. 27.

Suit for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſhall be commenced within ſix months, and ſhall be brought in the county where the cauſe of action ariſes; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue: and if the plaintiff ſhall be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 29.

Blackwell-hall.

By 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 9. The governors of Blackwell-hall, and their deputies, ſhall ſtrictly keep the following times and rules, viz. the public market of Blackwell-hall ſhall be held every Thurſday, Friday and Saturday, from eight of clock in the forenoon till twelve, and from two in the afternoon till five. The ſaid hours of beginning and ending the ſaid market ſhall be known by ringing the market bell in the hall; the ſame to be continued weekly through the year, except days of humiliation or thankſgiving; and the keepers of the hall ſhall not permit any buying or ſelling of any woollen cloth at the hall upon any other days or hours, upon the penalty of 100 l. ſ. 1.

The ſaid governors, &c. ſhall appoint to the country clothiers the moſt convenient room in the hall for the ſale of their cloth, and warehouſe-room for keeping the ſame, paying the ancient duties of the hall. ſ. 2.

No factor, or other perſon, other than the owner of the cloth, ſhall ſell or expoſe to ſale, out of the ſaid market of Blackwell-hall, any cloth directed to be brought to the ſaid market, or to any factor there, upon penalty of 5 l. for every cloth ſo ſold. ſ. 3.

The hall-keepers, clerks, and maſter-porters, ſhall take care that the rules and orders appointed by this act be put in execution, and ſhall diligently keep their books and weekly regiſters of all the cloths bought and ſold there; in which books they ſhall enter the names and habitations of the owners, buyers and ſellers, and times of ſale, and factor, or other perſon, buying or ſelling of every cloth; to which books it ſhall be lawful for the clothiers, their agents or ſervants, at all convenient times, to have recourſe without fee. And any hall-keeper, clerk, or maſter-porter, neglecting his duty herein, ſhall, for every offence, forfeit 10*l.*; and if any perſon buy any cloth of any perſon (except the owner) otherwiſe than for ready money, the perſon ſelling ſhall, within twelve days after ſale and delivery of the ſame, take or demand of the buyer a note, teſtifying under the buyer's hand the cloth ſold, and the ſum of money ſold for, payable to the owner, and ſhall deliver ſuch note on demand, with notice of the buyer's place of abode thereon ſubſcribed, to the owner, or any perſon authoriſed by him to receive the ſame, on pain to forfeit to the owner of the cloth ſold, double the value thereof, for every neglect of ſo doing. And if any woollen-draper, or perſon trading in the woollen manufacture, buying woollen cloth upon truſt, ſhall refuſe or neglect to give ſuch note upon requeſt at any time next after eight days, after ſale and delivery, he ſhall forfeit 20 s. for every cloth ſo ſold, to the owner; and every piece of cloth not returned within eight days after delivery of the ſame, ſhall be deemed to be paſſed and approved of by the buyer as a merchantable cloth; and all contracts for allowing a longer time for the paſſing of any cloth ſhall be void. ſ. 4.

All penalties impoſed by this act may be ſued for by action of debt, &c. in any of his majeſty's courts of record; and if not otherwiſe herein before diſpoſed of, one moiety to the king, and the other to the informer. ſ. 5.

If the owner of the cloth neglect to ſue for any of the penalties by the ſpace of ſix months, then any other perſon may ſue for the ſame, and one moiety ſhall be to the king, and the other to the informer. ſ. 6.

Bridges.

By 29 Geo. 2. c. 40. If any perſon wilfully or maliciouſly break, throw down or extinguiſh any lamp ſet up to light London bridge, or wilfully damage the poſts, irons, or furniture thereof, being convicted by the oath of one witneſs before a juſtice of peace for the city of London or borough of Southwark, or county of Surry, as the caſe may happen, he ſhall be ſubject to ſuch pains and penalties as are inflicted by 17 Geo. 2. c. 29. ſ. 29. (an act ſince repealed) viz. for the firſt offence 40 s. for each lamp broken, for the ſecond offence 2 l. 10 s. and for the third offence 3 l.

No houſe or other building ſhall be erected on the ſaid bridge (except ſuch gates and toll-houſes as are herein directed) and all carriages paſſing over the ſaid bridge from London ſhall go on the eaſt ſide, and all carriages paſſing to London ſhall go on the weſt ſide; and no one ſhall ſtand for hire with any coach or other carriage upon the ſaid bridge, or leave any empty coach or carriage there; and no carman or driver of any carriage ſhall wilfully remain with any cart or carriage on the ſaid bridge, longer than ſhall be neceſſary for going over the ſame, or leave any empty cart upon the ſaid bridge; and no perſon ſhall put any filth or rubbiſh on the ſaid bridge, or do any act which may be an annoyance there; and if any coachman or driver offend herein, or any perſon annoy any part of the ſaid bridge, any perſon may take ſuch perſon offending before the mayor of London, or ſome other juſtice for the ſaid city, or before ſome juſtice for Southwark, or Surry; and ſuch offender being convicted by the oath of one witneſs, or by confeſſion, ſhall forfeit not exceeding 20 s. nor leſs than 2 s. 6 d. to be applied between the parties informing againſt and apprehending ſuch offender, as the mayor or juſtice ſhall direct; and in default of immediate payment, the offender ſhall be committed, if in London, to the London workhouſe, and if in Surry, to a houſe of correction for the ſaid county, to hard labour for not exceeding three days, or until he pay the money directed to be paid. ſ. 17.

Immediately after the pulling down any tenements on or contiguous to the ſaid bridge, in the pariſh of Saint Magnus, or Saint Olave Southwark, all tithes and cuſtomary payments in lieu of tithes now payable to the rector of the ſaid pariſhes, from ſuch tenements or the occupiers thereof, ſhall for ever be charged upon the lands and hereditaments belonging to or in the account of the bridge-houſe eſtate of the city of London; and ſhall be paid to the rectors of the ſaid pariſhes for ever, clear of all taxes, &c. by the ſaid mayor, commonalty and citizens of London, or ſuch perſon as the common council ſhall appoint, out of the rents of the ſaid bridge-houſe eſtates, at Lady-day and Michaelmas by equal payments in every year. ſ. 18.

Such ſhare which any houſe (now on the bridge, or contiguous thereto, which ſhall be pulled down) uſed to contribute towards the land-tax, ſhall be paid by the mayor, commonalty and citizens of London, out of the revenues belonging to the ſaid bridge; and there ſhall likewiſe be paid out of the ſaid revenues to the overſeers of the poor of the ſaid pariſhes of Saint Magnus and Saint Olave's, all ſuch ſums as the ſaid pariſhes ſhall be chargeable with on account of any perſons who have gained or ſhall gain any ſettlement, or become chargeable in either of the ſaid pariſhes, on account of ſuch part of the ſaid pariſhes wherein the houſes which ſhall be pulled down now ſtand. ſ. 19.

No order made by any juſtice, or other proceedings touching the conviction of any offender, ſhall be quaſhed for want of form only; or be removed by certiorari. ſ. 39.

In caſe any perſon think himſelf aggrieved by any orders or proceedings of any juſtices, ſuch perſon may appeal to the next general quarter-ſeſſions; and ſuch ſeſſions are finally to determine ſuch appeal, and award to the party for whom ſuch appeal is determined reaſonable coſts, and levy by their order or warrant ſuch coſts by diſtreſs and ſale of goods. ſ. 40.

If any action be brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſuch action ſhall be brought within ſix months in the

the city of London or county of Surry; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue, and if the plaintiff be non-ſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 43. (See Tolls, poſt.)

Brokers.

By 1 Jac. 1. c. 21. The ſale of goods wrongfully taken to any broker or pawn-taker in London, Weſtminſter, Southwark, or within two miles of London, ſhall not alter the property. ſ. 5.

If a broker having received ſuch goods ſhall not upon requeſt of the owner diſcover them, how and when he came by them, and to whom they are conveyed, he ſhall forfeit the double value thereof to the ſaid owner, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any of the king's courts of record at Weſtminſter, or within London. ſ. 7.

This act ſhall not prejudice the ancient trade of brokers in London between merchants and traders, being ſelected and ſworn for that purpoſe. ſ. 8.

By 6 Ann. c. 16. All brokers within London ſhall be admitted by the court of mayor and aldermen under ſuch reſtrictions for their good behaviour as the court ſhall think fit; and ſhall upon their admiſſion pay to the chamberlain 40 s. and ſhall alſo yearly pay 40 s. upon the twenty-ninth of September for the uſe of the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London. ſ. 4.

If any perſon ſhall act as a broker, or employ any under him to act as ſuch within the ſaid city, not being admitted: every ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit to the mayor and commonalty, &c. for every offence 25 l. to be recovered by action of debt in the name of the chamberlain in any of her majeſty's courts of record. ſ. 5.

Buildings.

By 14 Geo. 3. c. 78. All buildings whatſoever heretofore built, or which ſhall hereafter be begun or built, within London and Weſtminſter, the Bills of Mortality, and the Pariſhes of St. Mary-le-bone, Paddington, Pancras, and Chelſea, ſhall be diſtinguiſhed by, and divided into ſeven rates or claſſes herein after deſcribed. ſ. 1.

I. Every church, chapel, meeting-houſe, and other place of public worſhip; and every building for diſtilling and brewing of liquors for ſale; for making of ſoap; melting of tallow; dying; boiling or diſtilling turpentine; caſting braſs or iron; refining of ſugar; making of glaſs for chymical works for ſale, of what dimenſion ſoever, and alſo every warehouſe and other building not being a dwelling-houſe (except buildings of the fifth, ſixth, or ſeventh rate), which ſhall exceed three clear ſtories above ground, excluſive of rooms in the roof, or of the height of thirty-one feet from the ſurface of the pavement, ground, or way, above the area before either of the fronts to the top of the blocking-courſe or coping on the parapet; and every dwelling-houſe, which, with the offices thereto belonging and adjoining, or connected otherwiſe than by a fence or fence-wall, or covered paſſage, open on one or both ſides, when finiſhed, ſhall exceed the value of eight hundred and fifty pounds; and alſo every dwelling-houſe, which ſhall exceed nine ſquares of building on the ground floor, each ſquare containing one hundred ſuperficial feet, ſhall be the firſt rate or claſs of building. ſ. 2.

Every external wall (not being a party-wall) which ſhall be built to any firſt rate building, or to any addition thereto, ſhall be built at the foundation of the thickneſs of two bricks and an half in length, or one foot nine inches and an half at the leaſt; and ſhall from thence gradually diminiſh on each ſide of the wall two inches and a quarter to the top of the footing, except any adjoining building will not admit of ſuch footing being made on the ſide of ſuch wall next ſuch adjoining building; in which caſe ſuch footing ſhall be made as near to the dimenſions as the caſe will admit; which footing ſhall be nine inches high, and wholly below the upper ſurface of the pavement and flooring-boards of the cellar ſtory two inches at the leaſt; and every ſuch wall ſhall, from the top of ſuch footing, be of the thickneſs of two bricks in length, or one foot five inches and an half up to the under ſide of the one pair of ſtairs floor; and from thence one brick and an half in length, or thirteen inches at the leaſt, up to the under ſide of the plate under the roof or gutter; and from thence one brick in length, or eight inches and an half at the leaſt, up to the under ſide of the blocking-courſe or coping on the parapet; except ſuch parts of every ſuch wall as ſhall be wholly of ſtone, which ſhall be of the thickneſs of fourteen inches below the ground-floor, and nine inches above the ground-floor; and except all receſſes above the ground-floor in the walls, which ſhall be arched over in every ſtory, ſo as the arch, and the back of ſuch receſs, ſhall be of the thickneſs of one brick in length, or eight inches and an half. ſ. 3.

Every party-wall which ſhall be built to any firſt rate building, or to any addition thereto, ſhall be built, and remain at the foundation, of the thickneſs of three bricks and an half in length, or two feet ſix inches and an half; and ſhall, from thence, gradually diminiſh on each ſide four inches and an half to the top of the footing of every ſuch wall, which footing ſhall be one foot high, and wholly below the upper ſurface of the pavement and flooring-boards of the cellar ſtory two inches at the leaſt; and every ſuch party-wall ſhall, from the top of ſuch footing, be of the thickneſs of two bricks and an half in length, or one foot nine inches and an half up to the under ſide of the ground-floor; and from thence two bricks in length, or one foot five inches and an half up to the under ſide of the floor of the rooms (if any) in the roof of the higheſt building adjoining; and from thence of one brick and an half in length, or thirteen inches up to the top of ſuch party-wall. ſ. 4.

II. Every warehouſe, ſtable, and other building, not a dwelling-houſe, except ſuch as are declared to be of the firſt, fifth, ſixth, or ſeventh rate, which ſhall exceed two clear ſtories, and contain more than three above ground, excluſive of rooms in the roof, or which ſhall be of the height of twenty-two feet, and not thirty-one feet from the ſurface of the pavement, &c. above the area before either of the fronts, to the top of the blocking courſe or coping; and every dwelling-houſe, which, with the offices thereto belonging, ſhall exceed the value of three hundred pounds, and not amount to more than eight hundred and fifty pounds; and alſo every dwelling-houſe, which ſhall exceed five ſquares of building on the ground plan, and not amount to more than nine ſquares, ſhall be the ſecond rate. ſ. 5.

Every external wall (not a party-wall) which ſhall be built to any ſecond rate building, ſhall be at the foundation of the thickneſs of two bricks in length, or one foot five inches and an half, and ſhall from thence gradually diminiſh on each ſide of the wall two inches and a quarter to the top of the footing; which footing ſhall be nine inches high, and wholly below the upper ſurface of the pavement and flooring of the cellar ſtory two inches at the leaſt; and every ſuch wall ſhall, from the top of ſuch footing, be of the thickneſs of one brick and an half in length, or thirteen inches, up to the under ſide of the one pair of ſtairs floor; and from thence one brick in length, or eight inches and an half, up to the under ſide of the blocking-courſe or the coping; except ſuch parts of every ſuch wall, above the ground-floor, as ſhall be wholly of ſtone, which ſhall be of the thickneſs of nine inches; and except all receſſes above the ground-floor in the walls, which ſhall be arched over, ſo as the arch, and the back of each receſs, ſhall be of the thickneſs of one brick in length, or eight inches and an half. ſ. 6.

Every party-wall which ſhall be built to any ſecond rate building, ſhall be at the foundation of the thickneſs of three bricks and an half in length, or two feet ſix inches and an half, and ſhall from thence gradually diminiſh on each ſide four inches and an half to the top of the footing, which ſhall be nine inches high, and wholly below the upper ſurface of the floor of the cellar ſtory two inches; and every ſuch party-wall ſhall, from the top of ſuch footing, be of the thickneſs of two bricks and an half in length, or one foot nine inches and an half, up to the under ſide of the ground floor; and from thence two bricks in length, or one foot five inches and an half, up to the under ſide of the floor of the two pair of ſtairs ſtory; and from thence one brick and an half in length, or thirteen inches, up to the top of every ſuch party-wall. ſ. 7.

III. Every warehouſe, ſtable, and other building, not a dwelling-houſe, except buildings of the firſt, fifth, ſixth, or ſeventh rate, which ſhall exceed one clear ſtory, and contain more than two above ground, excluſive of rooms in the roof, or which ſhall be of the height of more than thirteen feet, and not twenty-two feet from the ſurface of the pavement, &c. above the area before either of the fronts, to the top of the blocking-courſe or coping; and every dwelling-houſe, which, with the offices, &c. ſhall exceed the value of one hundred and fifty pounds, and not amount to more than three hundred pounds; and alſo every dwelling-houſe, which ſhall exceed three ſquares and an half on the ground plan, and not amount to more than five ſquares, ſhall be the third rate. ſ. 8.

Every external wall (not being a party-wall) which ſhall be built to any third rate building, ſhall be at the foundation of the thickneſs of two bricks in length, or one foot five inches and an half, and ſhall from thence diminiſh on each ſide two inches and a quarter, to the top of the footing, which ſhall be ſix inches high, and wholly below the upper ſurface of the pavement and flooring boards of the cellar ſtory two inches; and every ſuch wall ſhall, from the top of ſuch footing, be of the thickneſs of one brick and an half in length, or thirteen inches up to the under ſide of the ground-floor; and from thence one brick in length, or eight inches and an half, up to the under ſide of the blocking-courſe or coping. ſ. 9.

Every party-wall to any third rate building ſhall be at the foundation of the thickneſs of three bricks in length, or two feet two inches, and ſhall from thence diminiſh on each ſide, four inches and an half to the top of the footing, which ſhall be nine inches high, and wholly below the upper ſurface of the pavement, &c. of the cellar ſtory two inches; and ſuch party-wall ſhall, from the top of ſuch footing, be of the thickneſs of two bricks in length, or one foot five inches and an half, up to the under ſide of the ground-floor, and from thence one brick and an half, or thirteen inches, up to the top of ſuch party-wall. ſ. 10.

IV. Every warehouſe, ſtable, and other building, not a dwelling-houſe, except of the firſt, fifth, ſixth, or ſeventh rate, which ſhall not exceed one clear ſtory above ground, excluſive of rooms in the roof, or which ſhall not be of the height of more than thirteen feet from the ſurface of the ground, above the area before either of the fronts, to the top of the blocking-courſe or coping on the parapet; and every dwelling-houſe, which, with the offices, &c. ſhall not exceed the value of one hundred and fifty pounds; and alſo every dwelling-houſe which ſhall not exceed three ſquares and an half of building on the ground plan thereof, ſhall be the fourth rate. ſ. 11.

Every external wall which ſhall be built to any fourth rate building, ſhall be at the foundation of the thickneſs of two bricks in length, or one foot five inches and an half, and ſhall from thence gradually diminiſh on each ſide of the wall two inches and a quarter to the top of the footing of ſuch wall, which footing ſhall be ſix inches high, and wholly below the upper ſurface of the pavement, &c. of the cellar ſtory two inches; and ſuch wall ſhall, from the top of ſuch footing, be of the thickneſs of one brick and an half in length, or thirteen inches, up to the under ſide of the ground-floor; and from thence one brick in length, or eight inches and an half, up to the under ſide of the blocking-courſe, &c. ſ. 12.

Every party-wall built to any fourth rate building ſhall be at the foundation of the thickneſs of two bricks in length, or one foot five inches and an half; and ſhall from thence gradually diminiſh on each ſide of the wall two inches and a quarter to the top of the footing; which footing ſhall be nine inches high, and wholly below the upper ſurface of the pavement, &c. of the cellar ſtory two inches; and ſuch party-wall ſhall, from the top of ſuch footing, be of the thickneſs of one brick and an half in length, or thirteen inches, up to the under ſide of the ground-floor; and from thence one brick in length, or eight inches and an half, up to the top of ſuch party-wall. ſ. 13.

Every houſe or building to be built of the firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth rate, and not having each a ſeparate ſide-wall on the part where they ſhall be contiguous, ſhall have party-walls between houſe and houſe, &c. as ſhall not reſpectively have ſuch ſeparate walls; and ſuch party-walls ſhall extend to the outer ſurfaces of the external incloſures of each of the adjoining houſes, &c.: and all party-walls, chimneys, and chimney-ſhafts, hereafter to be built, ſhall be built wholly of bricks or ſtone, or of bricks and ſtone together, except timber, wood, lead, or iron work, laid therein, according to the directions herein-after contained, and alſo except piling, bridging, or planking, neceſſary for the foundation, and ſuch party-wall ſhall be coped with ſtone, tile, or brick, and ſhall be of the dimenſions herein-before directed; and one half of ſuch party-wall between houſe and houſe, &c. ſhall be built on the ground of one of the adjoining houſes, and the other half on the ground of the other; and the firſt builder of ſuch party-wall, and the workmen employed, may enter upon the ground adjoining thereto to build ſuch party-wall. ſ. 14.

Every party-wall which ſhall be built to any dwelling-houſe, exceeding four ſtories in height from the foundation, excluſive of rooms in the roof of either of the buildings adjoining thereto, ſhall be built according to the directions herein-before contained with reſpect to party-walls of the firſt rate, though ſuch houſe ſhall not be of the firſt rate; and every party-wall which ſhall be built to any dwelling-houſe containing four ſtories in height from the foundation, excluſive of rooms in the roof of either of the buildings adjoining thereto, ſhall be built according to the directions with reſpect to party-walls of the third rate, though ſuch houſe ſhall be of the fourth rate. ſ. 15.

Every

Every internal incloſure to be made for ſeparating any building of the firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth rate from any other building where ſuch buildings ſhall be in ſeparate occupations, and every addition to ſuch internal incloſure, ſhall be of brick or ſtone, or artificial ſtone or ſtucco, or of brick and ſtone, or artificial ſtone and ſtucco together; except timber, wood, lead, or iron work laid therein, according to the directions hereinafter contained for external incloſures to ſuch firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth rate or claſs of building, and alſo except ſuch piling, bridging, or planking, as may be neceſſary for the foundation. ſ. 16.

In valuing the buildings of the firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth rate, for the purpoſe of aſcertaining the rate, ſuch valuation to be made by the ſurveyor for the diſtrict; and ſuch building ſhall, notwithſtanding any decay, be valued as if the materials were ſound, and the work new; and ſhall be eſtimated at the prices the like materials and workmanſhip ſhall be worth at the time ſuch valuation ſhall be made; but neither the ſoil whereon any building ſtands, nor any fence or fence-wall (except the railing to areas, and ſteps before or behind, made for incloſing the building, with the offices, &c. thereto belonging, from any neighbouring ground), nor any brick or ſtone arched vault, under ground, either before or behind ſuch building, nor any lead, covering, or pavements over ſuch vaults, nor ſuch parts of the party-wall as ſtand upon ground not belonging to ſuch houſe, ſhall be included in ſuch valuation; and in aſcertaining the ſquares contained in ſuch building, being a dwelling-houſe, the ſame ſhall be taken by the ſurveyor on the level of the floor, at the principal entrance to ſuch dwelling-houſe, and no more than ſuch parts of the party-walls as belong to ſuch dwelling-houſe ſhall be included in ſuch admeaſurement: and in caſe the owner, or other perſon intereſted, ſhall apprehend himſelf to be injured by the admeaſurement or valuation, he may apply to the mayor, or any two juſtices for the city of London, if ſuch building, or any part thereof, is within the city, or otherwiſe to any two juſtices within whoſe juriſdiction the ſame is; and the ſaid mayor or juſtices ſhall inquire into the matter, and, by order, declare ſuch building to be of ſuch rate as the ſame ſhall appear to be of, according to the deſcription of the rates herein before contained; and any of the parties between whom ſuch order ſhall be made may appeal to the general quarter ſeſſions of the peace, whoſe determination ſhall be concluſive. ſ. 17.

V. Every dwelling-houſe, warehouſe, ſtable, and other building (except buildings, not being dwelling-houſes, of the firſt or ſeventh rate), which is or ſhall be at the diſtance of four, and not eight feet, from any public road, ſtreet, or cauſeway, and is, or ſhall be, detached from any other building not in the ſame poſſeſſion therewith, ſixteen, and not thirty feet, or connected with any other building only by a fence or fence-wall, ſhall be of the fifth rate, and may be built of any dimenſions whatever. ſ. 18.

VI. Every dwelling-houſe, warehouſe, ſtable, and other building (except buildings, not dwelling-houſes, of the firſt rate), which is or ſhall be at the diſtance of eight feet from any public road, ſtreet, or cauſeway, and is, or ſhall be, detached from any other building not in the ſame poſſeſſion therewith, at leaſt thirty feet, or connected with any other building only by a fence, or fence-wall, ſhall be of the ſixth rate, and may be built of any dimenſions, and with any materials whatever. ſ. 19.

VII. Every cranehouſe, now built, or hereafter to be built, on any wharf or quay, and every ſhamble, windmill or watermill, and alſo every building which is or ſhall be ſituated without London and Weſtminſter, and the liberties thereof, uſed for workſhops or drying-places for tanners, fell-mongers, glue-makers, ſize-makers, callico printers, whitſters, whiting-makers, curriers, leather-dreſſers, buckram-ſtiffners, oil-cloth painters, wool-ſtaplers, throwſters, parchment-makers, and paper-makers, ſo long as they are uſed for thoſe purpoſes, and no longer, ſhall be the ſeventh rate, and may be built of any dimenſions whatever. ſ. 20.

Such cranehouſe erected after 24 June, and every addition to any cranehouſe already built, or hereafter to be built, and every new external incloſure thereof, ſhall be of ſtone, brick, ſlate, tile, oak, elm, ſteel, iron, or braſs; but every other building of the ſeventh rate may be erected of any materials whatever; and no cranehouſe or other building of the ſeventh rate, or any external part thereof, ſhall, after 24 June, be covered with pitch, tar, or any other inflammable compoſition, or be converted to any other uſe than as aforeſaid. ſ. 21.

Every office which ſhall be entirely detached from the building to which the ſame belongs, or connected therewith only by a fence or fence-wall, or covered paſſage open on one or both ſides, ſhall be of the rate ſuch office would be of, if it did not appertain to any dwelling-houſe. ſ. 22.

Every wall may remain as a party-wall until both the buildings to which it belongs, or the remaining houſe, where one has been already rebuilt, ſhall be rebuilt (if ſuch wall ſhall ſo long continue ſound), and no longer: and in caſe either of the houſes to which ſuch party-wall does belong has been, or ſhall hereafter be rebuilt with a wall againſt ſuch party-wall (without making uſe of ſuch party-wall) of the heights and thickneſſes before preſcribed, the proprietor of ſuch remaining houſe, &c. ſhall not, when ſuch remaining houſe, &c. or when ſuch old party-wall ſhall be taken down, be entitled to more than one half of the materials of ſuch old party-wall, nor to more than one half of the ground on which ſuch old party-wall was erected; nor ſhall ſuch proprietor build on more than one half of the ſaid ground, unleſs he ſhall have ſatisfied the owner of ſuch adjoining rebuilt houſe for the other half; and in caſe the parties cannot agree concerning the ſame, and both or either of them ſhall be deſirous of buying or ſelling; the price, and the matters in difference, ſhall be ſettled by a jury, to be ſummoned, returned, and impannelled as hereafter mentioned concerning mixed property: but if ſuch remaining houſe, &c. be of the firſt, ſecond, or third rate, or four ſtories high from the foundation, excluſive of rooms in the roof, and if in that caſe ſuch old party-wall ſhall not be of the thickneſs of two bricks in length, or one foot five inches and an half, from the foundation to the under ſide of the ground-floor, and from thence upwards to the top, of the thickneſs of one brick and an half in length, or thirteen inches; then ſuch old party-wall ſhall, when either of the houſes, &c. to which the ſame belongs ſhall be rebuilt, be conſidered as if the ſame had been condemned, or adjudged ruinous, purſuant to the directions herein-after contained; or if ſuch old party-wall ſhall have any timber of any adjoining building lying through the ſame, and if, when either of the houſes, &c. to which the ſame belongs ſhall be rebuilt, the owner of ſuch adjoining or remaining houſe, &c. will not permit ſo much of ſuch timber to be cut off as ſhall leave full ſix inches of clear brick work beyond the end of ſuch timber, then ſuch wall ſhall be conſidered as if the ſame had been condemned, or adjudged ruinous, purſuant to this act, and the ſame ſhall be taken down and rebuilt, as herein-after directed concerning party-walls condemned, &c. ſ. 23.

Every timber partition may remain until one of the adjoining houſes to which the ſame belongs ſhall be rebuilt, or ſhall have one of the fronts which ſhall abutt on ſuch timber partition, or two third parts of one of ſuch fronts, taken down to the breſſummer or one pair of ſtairs floor, and rebuilt, or until ſuch timber partition ſhall be condemned, &c. ſ. 24.

No wall of the firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth rate of building, which ſhall not be a party-wall on 24 June 1774, ſhall ever become a party-wall, unleſs the ſame ſhall be of the heights and thickneſſes above the footings, and of the materials herein-before directed. ſ. 25.

Every party-wall which ſhall be built after 24 June, and every addition to any party-wall then built, or thereafter to be built, ſhall be one foot ſix inches above the roof of the higheſt building which ſhall gable againſt, or adjoin to ſuch party-wall, in every part, meaſuring at a right angle with the back of the rafters of ſuch roof; and ſuch party-wall ſhall be one foot above the gutters of the higheſt of ſuch buildings, except the height of ſuch party-wall, where ſo carried up, ſhall exceed the height of the blocking-courſe or parapet of either of the fronts abutting on the ſame of the higheſt building adjoining thereto, in which caſe, the end only of every ſuch party-wall next ſuch blocking-courſe or parapet may be leſs than one foot above the gutter, for the diſtance of two feet ſix inches from the front of ſuch blocking-courſe or parapet; and in caſe any dormer or other erection is in the flat or roof of any building, within four feet of any party-wall, then ſuch party-wall ſhall be carried up againſt every ſuch dormer or other erection, and ſhall extend for the breadth of at leaſt two feet wider, and to the full height of every part of ſuch dormer or other erection as ſhall be within four feet of ſuch party-wall: and no receſs ſhall be made in any party-wall hereafter to be built to any building of the firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth rate (except for chimnies, flues, girders, and beams, and other timbers, and for the ends of walls or piers, as after directed), ſo as to reduce ſuch wall in any part thereof under the thickneſs required: and there ſhall not be any opening whatever made in any party-wall, except for communication from one ſtack of warehouſes to another, and from one ſtable building to another; all which communications ſhall have thereto iron doors, in ſuch manner as is after directed; and alſo except ſuch paſſages or ways on the ground for foot paſſengers, cattle, or carriages as may be neceſſary; all which paſſages or ways ſhall be arched over with brick or ſtone, or brick and ſtone together, throughout, of the thickneſs of thirteen inches in every building of the firſt and ſecond rate, and eight inches and an half of the third or fourth rate: and if there be any cellar or vacuity under ſuch paſſage, ſuch cellar, &c. ſhall be arched over throughout with brick or ſtone, or brick and ſtone together, as the paſſage over ſuch cellar is directed to be arched, ſ. 26.

No timbers ſhall, after 24 June, be laid into any party-arch, except for bond, nor into any party-wall, other than ſuch templets, chains, and bond-timbers, as ſhall be neceſſary, and other than the ends of girders, beams, purlings, and of binding or trimming joiſts, or of other principal timbers; all which timbers ſhall have eight inches and an half of ſolid brickwork between the ends and ſides of every piece of timber and the timber of any building adjoining thereto; and the end of every girder, &c. and of every other piece of principal timber, may be laid beyond the centre of any party-wall, ſo as there be left eight inches and an half of ſolid brick or ſtone work at the end of ſuch piece of timber, except in places where any part of the ends of ſuch timber ſhall lie oppoſite to and level with any part of the ends of any timber of any adjoining building; in which caſe, no part of ſuch timbers ſhall approach nearer than four inches to the centre of the wall. ſ. 27.

No perſon ſhall cut any party-arch, nor the ſhaft of any chimney built on any party-wall, for any purpoſe whatſoever: and no perſon ſhall cut any party-wall, other than for the purpoſes and in the manner after mentioned; viz. when the front or back wall of any houſe, &c. being in a line with the front or back wall of the houſe or building adjoining thereto, ſhall at any time hereafter be built, it ſhall be lawful to cut a break not more than nine inches deep from the external face of ſuch front or back wall, and to the centre of ſuch party-wall, for the purpoſe of inſerting therein the end of ſuch new front or back wall; and in every ſuch caſe where a breſſummer and ſtory-poſts ſhall be fixed in the ground-ſtory of ſuch new front or back wall, ſuch break may be cut from the foundation of ſuch new front or back wall to the top of ſuch breſſummer, fourteen inches deep from the external face of ſuch front or back wall, and the ſame may be four inches wide in the cellar ſtory, and two inches wide in the ground ſtory, for the purpoſe of placing therein ſuch ſtory-poſts and breſſummers, agreeable to the directions of this act: and it ſhall be lawful to cut into any party-wall for the purpoſe of tailing in ſtone ſteps, or ſtone landings, or for placing in ſuch party-wall timber for bearers to wood ſtairs, ſo as no timber bearer be laid into any party-wall nearer than eight inches and an half to any chimney or flue, or to any timber of the adjoining houſe, or nearer than four inches to the internal finiſhing of ſuch adjoining houſe, and for the purpoſe of laying therein ſtone corbels, for the ſupport of chimney jambs, girders, beams, purlings, binding or trimming joiſts, or of other principal timbers; and it ſhall alſo be lawful to cut perpendicular receſſes into any party-wall, not being leſs than thirteen inches thick, for the purpoſe of inſerting walls and piers therein, ſo as no ſuch receſs be more than fifteen inches wide, or more than four inches deep, and no ſuch receſs be nearer than ten feet to any other receſs; and it ſhall be lawful to cut off the footing on the ſide of any party-wall where either of the adjoining buildings ſhall be rebuilt with a wall againſt ſuch party-wall; but every perſon who ſhall cut into any party-wall for any of the purpoſes aforeſaid, ſhall immediately make good, and effectually pin up, with brick, ſtone, ſlate, tile, ſhell, or iron, bedded in mortar, every defect which ſhall be occaſioned by the cutting of ſuch party-wall: and no party-wall ſhall be cut for any of the purpoſes aforeſaid, if the cutting thereof will injure, diſplace, or endanger the timbers, chimnies, flues, or internal finiſhings of the adjoining buildings. ſ. 28.

The back of every chimney in every party-wall, ſhall be thirteen inches thick in the cellar ſtory, and eight inches and an half in every other ſtory from the hearth to the height of twelve inches above the mantle, and no chimney which ſhall be built in any party-wall where either of the buildings adjoining is of the firſt rate, ſhall be built with the back againſt the back of any other chimney, unleſs the back of each in the cellar ſtory be eight inches and an half, and in the upper ſtories four inches inches and a quarter from the centre of ſuch party-wall: and no chimney built in any party-wall, where either of the buildings adjoining is of the ſecond, third, or fourth rate, ſhall be built with the back againſt the back of any other chimney, unleſs the back of each in the cellar ſtory be ſix inches and an half, and in the upper ſtories four inches and a quarter from the centre of ſuch wall: and no flue ſhall be built oppoſite to another flue in any party-wall, unleſs the back of each be two inches from the centre of ſuch party-wall: the breaſt of every flue which ſhall be built, whether ſuch flue be in a party-wall or not, ſhall be of brick or ſtone eight inches and an half thick in every cellar ſtory, and four inches thick in every other ſtory: all the withs or partitions between any flues which ſhall be built, ſhall be of brick or ſtone, and half a brick thick: and every breaſt and back of every chimney, and every breaſt, back, and with or partition of any flue, ſhall be rendered or pargetted within and without, except the outſide thereof which ſhall be next to vacant ground, in which caſe, the back of every chimney and flue next ſuch vacant ground ſhall be by lime, or in ſome durable manner, marked, except in a fore-front, back-front, or ſide-front of any building not likely hereafter to be built againſt; and every back of ſuch chimney and flue ſo being againſt ſuch vacant ground ſhall be rendered or pargetted as ſoon as any building ſhall be erected to ſuch wall. ſ. 29.

If any perſon poſſeſſed of, or entitled unto, any part of the ground whereon a party-wall is intended to be built, ſhall be deſirous of having chimney-jambs, breaſts, and flues of chimnies, made in ſuch party-wall on his part thereof, or ſhall be deſirous of having a receſs left in the ſaid party-wall, of the breadths and depths by this act allowed, or for any purpoſe allowed by this act, and of ſuch deſire ſhall give notice in writing under his hand, particularly deſcribing ſuch chimney-jamb, breaſt, and flue, and receſs, to the builder of ſuch party-wall, before ſuch party-wall ſhall be begun to be built; then ſuch builder of ſuch party-wall ſhall, after ſuch notice, erect ſo many chimney-jambs, &c. in all ſuch parts of ſuch party-wall as ſhall be, by the perſon giving notice, required; and ſhall alſo leave ſuch receſſes in ſuch party-wall, not being in any reſpect contrary to the rules in this act; and, after erecting ſuch jambs, breaſts, and flues, the perſon giving notice, ſhall be deemed to have made uſe of ſuch party-wall, and ſhall be liable to pay the whole expence of erecting ſuch jambs, &c. erected in purſuance of ſuch notice, and alſo ſuch proportional part of the expence of erecting ſuch wall, as herein-after directed concerning party-walls to be built after 24 June, to be recovered, in caſe of non-payment, with coſts, as any proportion of any party-wall is by this act made recoverable by the builder thereof, from any other perſon liable to contribute thereto. ſ. 30.

When any houſe, &c. except as after excepted, built, in any part, over a public way or any houſe, &c. except as after excepted, having any rooms the property of different perſons and intermixed without being ſeparated by any party-wall, ſhall be rebuilt, there ſhall be a party-wall for the higheſt rate of building adjoining, with a party-arch of the thickneſs of one brick and an half in length, or thirteen inches in every building of the firſt and ſecond rate, and of one brick, or eight inches and an half, in every building of the third and fourth rate, between houſe and houſe, or between the different rooms or floors, ſo being the property of different perſons. ſ. 31.

The laſt-mentioned clauſe ſhall not extend to chambers in Serjeant's Inn in Chancery Lane, or in any of the four inns of court, or to any of the inns of Chancery, or any other inns ſet apart for the ſtudy or practice of the law; ſave that the walls or diviſions between the chambers in ſuch inns, belonging to, and communicating with each ſeparate ſtaircaſe, ſhall be deemed to be party-walls within this act, and ſhall be ſubject to the regulations. ſ. 32.

When any owner of any houſe or building within the limits, built over any public way, or intermixed as aforeſaid, ſhall be deſirous of rebuilding ſuch houſe, &c. and the owner of the adjoining building, or other parts of ſuch intermixed building, ſhall not be willing, or ſhall not, by reaſon of ſome legal diſability, or otherwiſe, be able to join in ſuch rebuilding, then the party deſirous of rebuilding ſhall give notice, in writing, to the owner of ſuch adjoining buildings, &c. that he, ſo intending to rebuild, will apply to the court of mayor and aldermen of the city of London, when ſuch building is within the ſaid city or liberties, or to the juſtices for the county of Middleſex, Surrey, Weſtminſter, or the liberty of the Tower of London reſpectively, within whoſe juriſdiction ſuch building is ſituated, in their reſpective general or quarter ſeſſions to be next holden after fourteen days from the delivery of ſuch notice, in order to obtain the determination of the ſaid court of mayor and aldermen, or of the ſaid court of ſeſſions (as the caſe may be), touching the rebuilding ſuch buildings, or ſuch party-walls or arches, to be deſcribed in ſuch notice, and for aſcertaining the ſcite of a party-wall, or the ſituation of any party arches to be built according to this Act, by delivering a true copy of ſuch notice to the owner of ſuch adjoining buildings; or in caſe ſuch owner ſhall be under the diſability of coverture, infancy, idiocy, or lunacy, then to the huſband, guardians, truſtees, or committees of ſuch owners being under ſuch diſability, or by leaving the ſame at his laſt or uſual place of abode, or by delivering a true copy of ſuch notice to the tenant in poſſeſſion of ſuch adjoining buildings, or in caſe ſuch building ſhall be uninhabited, then by fixing ſuch copy upon the door, or ſome notorious part of ſuch building; and in every ſuch caſe, the ſaid court of mayor and aldermen, and the ſaid ſeſſions reſpectively, upon application to them by the party deſirous to rebuild, and upon proof of ſuch notice, may iſſue their warrant or precept to the ſheriffs of London, or to the ſheriff of Middleſex, Surrey, or ſheriff or bailiff of the liberty of the Tower, requiring them reſpectively to impanel and return a competent number of perſons, qualified to ſerve on juries, not leſs than twenty-four, nor more than thirty-ſix; and out of ſuch perſons ſo impanelled, ſummoned, and returned, a jury of twelve perſons ſhall be drawn by ſome perſon by the ſaid court of mayor and aldermen, or ſeſſions, appointed, in ſuch manner as juries are directed to be drawn by 3 Geo. 2. c. 25. (ſee title Juries) which perſons ſo impanelled, ſummoned, and returned, are to appear before the court of mayor and aldermen, or before the ſeſſions for Middleſex, Surrey, Weſtminſter, or the liberty of the Tower of London, at ſuch time and place as in ſuch warrant or precept, ſhall be appointed, and there to attend from day to day, until diſcharged by the court; and all parties may have their lawful challenges againſt any of the jury, but ſhall not challenge the array; and the court of mayor and aldermen, and any of the ſaid courts of ſeſſions, are by precept to call before them all perſons neceſſary to be examined as witneſſes before them, on oath; and either of the ſaid courts, may likewiſe authoriſe the jury to view the place in queſtion, and ſhall have power to command ſuch ſuch jury and all ſuch witneſſes and parties as ſhall be neceſſary to attend, until all affairs for which they are ſummoned ſhall be concluded; and the ſaid jury, upon their oaths (which oaths, as alſo the oaths to the evidence, the ſaid courts are to adminiſter), ſhall inquire and determine by their verdict, whether the premiſes ought to be rebuilt or not; and if the ſame ought to be rebuilt, ſhall determine the ſcite of a party-wall, and alſo what party-arches may be neceſſary over or under any rooms of ſuch buildings intended to be rebuilt, or ſhall aſcertain the quantity of the ſoil or ground, or other parts of the premiſes (if any), neceſſary to be laid to or taken from the houſe of the perſon deſirous to rebuild, permitting ſuch perſon to erect a party-wall or party-arch; and ſhall award what (if any) compenſation ſhould be made, by either of the parties in difference to the other, in lieu of the leſſening either of the ſaid buildings by ſuch party-wall, &c. or as a ſatisfaction for ſuch other injury as ſhall be occaſioned thereby to either of the parties; and ſhall alſo aſcertain what proportion of the expence of building ſuch party-wall, &c. ſhall, when built, be repaid by either of the parties to the perſon ſo rebuilding: and the ſaid court of mayor and aldermen, and the ſaid court of ſeſſions reſpectively, ſhall give judgment according to ſuch verdict, and (if they ſee fit) award to either of the parties coſts; which verdict, and judgment thereupon, ſhall be concluſive againſt all perſons whomſoever; and all verdicts, judgments, and other proceedings of the ſaid court of mayor and aldermen, and court of ſeſſions, ſhall be, by the town clerk of the city of London, or by the clerk of the peace for Middleſex, Surrey, or Weſtminſter, or the proper officer of the liberty of the Tower (as the caſe may be) filed as of record of the ſaid court; for the filing whereof, and for every order of court, and copy thereof, the ſaid town clerk, &c. ſhall be paid after the rate of twelve pence for every one hundred words; and the ſaid town clerk, &c. is to make and deliver to any perſon requiring the ſame, an exemplification, under his hand and ſeal, of any ſuch verdict, judgment, &c. being paid twelve pence for every one hundred words; and ſuch exemplification ſhall be evidence in all courts of law and equity: and after the expiration of fourteen days after obtaining ſuch judgment, and payment, or tender, as after directed, of the money awarded, or, where no money ſhall be awarded, after the expiration of fourteen days after obtaining judgment, the perſon who ſhall have obtained ſuch judgment, may pull down his building, and rebuild the ſame, &c. in the manner aſcertained by ſuch judgment; and to that end may, in the preſence of a conſtable, or other officer of the peace, enter upon the ſcite of the ground ſo aſcertained for a party-wall or party-arch, and into the building adjoining to the houſe or party-wall or party-arch, intended to be rebuilt, between ſix in the morning and ſeven in the afternoon (Sundays excepted); and if the outer door of ſuch building be ſhut, and the occupier refuſe to open the ſame, being thereunto required, or if ſuch building be empty, may break open ſuch outer door, and remove to ſome other part of the ſame premiſes, or in caſe there be no room on the premiſes ſufficient for that purpoſe, to any other place any goods, furniture, ſhelves, or other thing obſtructing the building of ſuch intended party-wall or party-arch, or the pulling down any wall, partition, or other thing neceſſary to be pulled down and removed, in order to the building ſuch intended party-wall, &c. and after ſuch entry, and at all uſual times of working, the builder, and all others employed by him, may enter upon the premiſes, and abide therein the uſual times of working for the ſhoring up the ſaid building ſo broke into, and for taking down and removing any party-wall, partition, wainſcot, or other thing neceſſary to be taken down and removed for the purpoſe aforeſaid, and build ſuch intended party-wall, &c.: and if any owner, occupier, or other perſon, ſhall in any manner obſtruct any workman, or wilfully damage the works, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit ten pounds. ſ. 33.

Within ten days after ſuch party-wall or arch ſhall be built, the perſon who ſhall have rebuilt the ſame, ſhall leave a true account in writing of the expence of building the ſame with the party awarded by the jury to contribute to the expence thereof, or at his or their laſt or uſual place of abode; who ſhall pay to the perſon who ſhall have rebuilt ſuch party-wall or arch, the proportion of the expence of building the ſame ſo awarded by the ſaid jury, within twenty-one days after demand thereof; or, in caſe the ſame be not ſo paid, the tenant of the building chargeable therewith, may pay the ſame, and deduct the money ſo paid out of the next rent which ſhall become due to the owner of ſuch building; or the ſame may be recovered from the party by action, &c. in any of the courts of record at Weſtminſter, with double coſts. ſ. 34.

All the powers and authorities by this act veſted in the court of mayor and aldermen, may be exerciſed by the court of mayor and aldermen, to be holden in the outer chamber of the Guildhall of the ſaid city. ſ. 35.

Upon every application to the general quarter ſeſſions of the peace for Surrey, concerning any matter to be by ſuch ſeſſions done, in purſuance of this act, the jury (if any) to be impanelled, and all parties required to attend the quarter ſeſſions for the ſaid county, purſuant to ſuch application, ſhall be impanelled and required to attend at ſome general or ſpecial adjournment of the ſaid quarter ſeſſions, within ſix weeks next after ſuch application, at ſome place in the borough of Southwark, to be appointed by the ſaid ſeſſions; and every further meeting ſhall be within three weeks from the laſt meeting; which adjournments the juſtices are empowered to make, as there ſhall be occaſion. ſ. 36.

The court of mayor and aldermen, and either of the aforeſaid courts of ſeſſions, may impoſe any reaſonable fine on any of the ſheriffs, or their deputies, making default in the premiſes, and on any perſons who, ſummoned and returned on ſuch jury, ſhall not appear, or, appearing, ſhall refuſe to be ſworn, or give their verdict, or in any manner wilfully neglect their duty therein, contrary to this act; and on any of the perſons having notice to attend to give evidence, who ſhall not attend, or attending ſhall refuſe to be ſworn, and give evidence; and in default of payment thereof on demand, may levy ſuch fine as other fines ſet by the ſaid courts have been uſually levied; ſo that no fine ſhall exceed ten pounds upon one perſon for one offence; and ſuch fines, when recovered, ſhall be applied to the uſe of the perſon applying to the ſaid court; and if ſuch perſon having notice to attend and give evidence, ſhall not attend and give evidence accordingly, having had ten days previous notice in writing thereof, and having been tendered his reaſonable expences for attendance, he ſhall be liable to an action on the caſe, to be brought againſt him by the party on whoſe behalf ſuch notice ſhall have been given; in which the plaintiff ſhall recover the damages occaſioned by ſuch non-attendance, with coſts; and ſuch excuſe ſhall be allowed for non-attendance, as is allowable in any of the courts of record at Weſtminſter: provided, the court where ſuch witneſs ſhall appear may (if they ſhall think fit) order ſuch further ſum to be paid to ſuch witneſs for attendance, as to them ſhall ſeem reaſonable; and ſuch witneſs ſhall not be compelled to give evidence before ſuch further ſum ſhall be paid. ſ. 37.

Every owner of any building within the limits, who ſhall think it neceſſary to repair, pull down, or rebuild any party-wall or party fence-wall, or any part thereof, between any ſuch building, or the ground thereto adjoining, and the next adjoining building, or the ground thereto adjoining, ſhall (in caſe the owner of ſuch adjoining building, or ground, will not, or by reaſon of any legal diſability, or otherwiſe, cannot agree, touching the ſame) give three months notice in writing to the owner, if he is known, and can be met with, or if ſuch owner be under coverture, to her huſband, or if under the diſability of infancy, idiocy, or lunacy, to the guardian, truſtee, or committee, or otherwiſe, to the occupier of ſuch adjoining building, of ſuch his intention to repair, &c. by delivering a copy of ſuch notice to ſuch owner or occupier, or by leaving the ſame at his laſt or uſual place of abode, or, if ſuch adjoining building be unoccupied, by fixing a copy of ſuch notice on the door of ſuch laſt-mentioned building; which notice ſhall be in the form or to the effect following:

'Apprehending the party-wall, party-arch, or party fence-wall, or ſome part thereof (as the caſe ſhall be), between the houſe or building, or ground (as the caſe ſhall be) thereto adjoining, ſituate —— inhabited or occupied by —— and my houſe or building, or ground (as the caſe ſhall be), adjoining thereto, to be ſo far out of repair as to render it neceſſary to repair or pull down and rebuild the ſame, or ſome part thereof: take notice, that I intend to have the ſaid party-wall, party-arch, or party fence-wall (as the caſe ſhall be), ſurveyed, purſuant to an act of parliament made in the fourteenth year of the reign of king George the third; and that I have appointed —— of —— and —— of —— my ſurveyors, to meet at —— in —— (being at ſome place within the limits aforeſaid), on my behalf, on the —— day of —— next, at —— of the clock in the —— of the ſame day (being between the hours of ſix in the morning and ſix in the afternoon): and I do hereby require and call upon you to appoint two other ſurveyors or able workmen on your part, to meet them at the time and place aforeſaid, to view the ſaid party-wall, party-arch, or party fence-wall (as the caſe ſhall be), and to certify the ſtate and condition thereof, and whether the ſame, or any part thereof, ought to be repaired or pulled down and rebuilt. Dated this —— day of ——

And ſuch perſons as aforeſaid, or the occupier to whom ſuch notice ſhall be given, ſhall appoint two ſurveyors or able workmen to meet at the time and place in ſuch notice mentioned; and they, together with the two ſurveyors, &c. named by the party giving notice, and whoſe names ſhall be expreſſed in ſuch notice, may view ſuch party-wall, &c. and certify the condition thereof, and whether the ſame, or any part thereof, ought to be repaired, or pulled down and rebuilt; and ſuch ſurveyors, ſo named, or, in caſe the owner or occupier of ſuch adjoining building, or other perſons aforeſaid, having notice, ſhall refuſe or neglect to name two ſurveyors, &c. then the two ſurveyors, &c. named in ſuch notice, together with two other ſurveyors, &c. alſo to be named by the party giving notice, ſhall, within ſix days after the time appointed in the notice, view the party-wall, &c.; and ſhall certify, in writing, under their hands, to the court of mayor and aldermen, or to the ſaid juſtices, in their next ſeſſions, the condition of ſuch party-wall, and whether the ſame, or any part, ought to be repaired, &c.: and in caſe the major part of the ſurveyors, &c. ſhall not, within one month next after ſuch appointment, ſign ſuch certificate in writing; then one juſtice for London, Middleſex, Surrey, or Weſtminſter, or the liberty of the Tower of London, may, and ſuch juſtice is required, upon application to him for that purpoſe by the party giving notice, to appoint one other able ſurveyor to be added to the ſurveyors, &c. appointed; and all the ſaid ſurveyors ſo appointed, or the major part of them, ſhall meet (ſix days notice having been given to each) and ſhall view the party-wall, &c.: and, in caſe the major part of ſuch ſurveyors, &c. ſhall certify, in writing, under their hands, that the ſame, or any part thereof, is decayed and ruinous, or not ſufficiently ſecure againſt fire, if any ſhould happen, and that the ſame ought to be repaired or pulled down; then, within three days next after ſuch certificate, a copy thereof ſhall be delivered to the owner or occupiers of, or left at ſuch adjoining building, or fixed on the door thereof, if unoccupied; and ſuch certificate ſhall be immediately filed with the clerk of the peace, paying ſuch clerk one ſhilling for filing thereof: and ſuch laſt-mentioned owner or occupier may (if he think fit) appeal from ſuch certificate to the next ſeſſions, and the juſtices, at the ſaid ſeſſions, ſhall ſummon before them one or more of ſuch ſurveyors, &c. and ſuch other perſons as they think fit, and ſhall examine the matter upon oath; and upon ſuch examination, the ſaid juſtices are to make ſuch orders as they think juſt; which orders ſhall be filed of record by the clerk of the peace, in like manner as the judgments of any court of ſeſſions concerning intermixed property are before directed to be filed of record; and the determination of the ſaid juſtices ſhall be concluſive to all parties, without any appeal from the ſame: and, on default of appealing to ſuch next ſeſſions; or if, upon any appeal, there be no order made to the contrary; then the party intending to repair, &c. after the expiration of fourteen days after delivering or leaving the copy of ſuch certificate, as aforeſaid; or after the determination of ſuch appeal, may cauſe ſuch party-wall, &c. or any parts thereof, to be repaired or pulled down, and may exerciſe the like power of entry into the adjoining buildings, or of breaking open the ſame, in the preſence of a peace officer, in caſe the ſame be unoccupied, or refuſed to be opened, and of removing wainſcot, ſhelves, furniture, and other things, and of ſhoring up the ſaid adjoining buildings, as is allowed to the owners of intermixed buildings by this act; and may erect a new party-wall, &c. or any part thereof, in manner by this act preſcribed. ſ. 38.

If the owner of any houſe or building of the firſt, ſecond, or third rate, to which any old party-wall belongs, ſhall be deſirous of pulling down and rebuilding ſuch building, or ſo much thereof as ſhall ſubject the ſame to the regulations of this act; and ſhall give three months notice, in writing, to the owner or occupier of the next adjoining building of his intention, in three months from the date thereof, to pull down ſuch party-wall, and inſtead thereof, to build a party-wall agreeable to this act; then, after the expiration of the three months expreſſed in ſuch notice, the owner may pull down the ſaid party-wall, and exerciſe the like power of entering into the adjoining building, or of breaking open the ſame, in the preſence of a peace officer, in caſe the ſame be unoccupied, or refuſed to be opened, and of removing any wainſcot, &c. and of ſhoring up the ſaid adjoining building, as by this act is given to the owners of intermixed buildings; and may, in the place of ſuch old party-wall, build a new party-wall, in manner by this act preſcribed. ſ. 29.

If the owner of any houſe or building to which any timber or wood partition, or wooden fence belongs, ſhall be deſirous of pulling down and rebuilding ſuch building, or ſo much thereof as may ſubject the ſame to the regulations in this act; and ſhall give three months notice to the owner or occupier of the next adjoining building, of his intention to pull down ſuch partition after the end of three months after the date of ſuch notice, and inſtead thereof to build a party-wall, agreeable to this act; then, after the expiration of the three months expreſſed in ſuch notice, the owner may pull down the ſaid partition, and the walls under or over the ſame, if any ſuch there be, and the ſaid wooden fence, and may exerciſe the like power of entry into the adjoining building and ground, or of breaking open the ſame in the preſence of a peace officer, if unoccupied, or refuſed to be opened, and of removing any wainſcot, &c. and of ſhoring up the adjoining building; and ſhall and may, in the place of ſuch partitions, and of the walls under or over the ſame, or of ſuch wooden fences, build a new party-wall, &c. ſ. 40.

The perſon at whoſe expence any party-wall or party-arch ſhall be built agreeably to the directions of this act, ſhall be reimburſed by the owner, who ſhall be entitled to the improved rent of the adjoining building or ground, and who ſhall, at any time, make uſe of ſuch party-wall, &c. a part of the expence of building the ſame, in the proportion after mentioned; viz. if the adjoining building be of the ſame rate as, or ſuperior to, the building belonging to the perſon at whoſe expence the ſaid party-wall was built, then the owner or occupier of ſuch adjoining building or ground ſhall pay one moiety of the expence of building ſo much of the ſaid party-wall or arch, as ſuch owner or occupier ſhall make uſe of; and if of an inferior rate, then a ſum of money equal to one moiety of the expence of building a party-wall or party-arch, of the thickneſs by this act required for the rate whereof ſuch adjoining building ſhall be, and of the height and breadth of ſo much of the ſaid party-wall or party-arch as ſuch owner or occupier ſhall make uſe of: and, in the mean time, the ſole property of ſuch whole party-wall or party-arch, and of the whole ground whereon the ſaid party-wall ſhall ſtand, ſhall be veſted in the perſon at whoſe expence the ſame ſhall be built: and ſuch moiety, or other part of the expence of building ſuch party-wall, &c. ſhall be paid to the perſon at whoſe expence the ſame ſhall be built, or in whom the property thereof ſhall be veſted at the times herein-after mentioned, viz. in reſpect of every ſuch party-wall to any building whereunto, at the time of building the ſame, no other building was adjoining, ſo ſoon as ſuch party-wall ſhall be firſt cut into or made uſe of; and in reſpect of ſuch party-wall, &c. as ſhall be built againſt, or adjoining to, any other building, ſo ſoon as ſuch party-wall or party-arch ſhall be finiſhed: and in reſpect of ſuch laſt-mentioned party-wall, &c. the owner or occupier of ſuch adjoining building ſhall, together with ſuch proportional part of the expence of building, alſo pay a like proportional part of all other expences which ſhall be neceſſary to the pulling down the old party-wall, or timber or wood partition, and the whole of all the reaſonable expences of ſhoring and of removing any goods, &c. and of pulling down any wainſcot or partition, and alſo all ſuch coſts, as may have been awarded by the court of mayor and aldermen, or ſeſſions; but not any part of the expence of pulling down and clearing away any ſuch old party-wall or party-arch, or old partition, if any ſuch there was: and the expence of building ſuch party-wall or party-arch ſhall be eſtimated after the rate of ſeven pounds fifteen ſhillings by the rod, for the new brick-work, deducting thereout after the rate of twenty-eight ſhillings by the rod for the materials (if any) of ſo much of the old wall or arch as did belong to ſuch adjoining building or ground, and alſo after the rate of twopence by the cubical foot for the materials (if any) of ſo much of the old timber partition as did belong to ſuch adjoining building or ground: and within ten days after ſuch party-wall, &c. ſhall be ſo built, or ſo ſoon after as convenient, ſuch firſt builder ſhall leave, at ſuch adjoining building, a true account, in writing, of the number of rods in ſuch party-wall, &c. for which the owner of ſuch adjoining building or ground ſhall be liable to pay, and of the deduction thereout, on account of ſuch materials, and alſo an account of ſuch other expences and coſts as aforeſaid; whereupon the tenant or occupier may pay one moiety, or ſuch proportional part, to ſuch firſt builder, and alſo for ſhoring, &c. and for all other expences herein directed to be paid by the owner, and may deduct the ſame out of the rent which ſhall become due from him to ſuch owner, under whom he holds the ſame, until he ſhall be reimburſed: and if not paid within twenty-one days next after demand thereof, then the ſame may be recovered, with coſts, from ſuch owner, by action in any courts of record at Weſtminſter: and if the plaintiff in ſuch action ſhall, three months before the commencement thereof, give notice in writing to the perſon againſt whom ſuch action is intended to be brought, of his intention to bring the ſame, or leave the ſame at his abode, and ſhall in ſuch notice ſpecify the ſum for which it is to be brought, and alſo annex a bill of the expences; then ſuch plaintiff, if he recover the full ſum ſpecified in ſuch notice, ſhall alſo recover double coſts. ſ. 41.

Every party-wall, and addition thereto, ſhall be built agreeable to the directions concerning the party-wall of the higheſt rate to which ſuch party-wall ſhall adjoin, when ſuch additions are completed; and no party-wall ſhall, after the ſame and the buildings adjoining thereto are completed, be raiſed, unleſs the ſame, when raiſed, be of the full thickneſs ſuch party-wall is of in the ſtory next under the roof of the higheſt adjoining building; nor ſhall any party-wall hereafter be raiſed, unleſs the ſame can be done with ſafety to ſuch wall, and the ſeveral buildings adjoining thereto; but all ſuch party-walls as will, when raiſed, be of the materials, heights, and thickneſſes herein-before required, or as can be ſafely raiſed, may, together with the ſhaft, be raiſed at the expence of the proprietor or occupier of any building to which the ſame belong, to any height he ſhall think proper; but if the proprietor or occupier of any building adjoining, ſhall make uſe of any part of ſuch party-wall and chimney-ſhaft, other than the uſe he makes of the chimney flues therein, which ſhall be ſo raiſed, then ſuch perſon, for the part uſed, ſhall be chargeable with a proportionable ſhare of the expence of raiſing ſuch party-wall and chimney-ſhafts; and in computing ſuch charge, the ſame ſhall be rated in manner herein-before mentioned, and the proportion ſuch perſon ſhall be liable to pay ſhall be recovered as is before declared concerning the firſt building of a party-wall. ſ. 42.

Any

Any party fence-wall may be raiſed by and at the expence of the proprietor or occupier of the ground on either ſide adjoining thereto; but no party fence-wall ſhall hereafter be built upon, or againſt, or uſed as a party-wall, unleſs the ſame be of the materials, height, and thickneſs, herein-before directed for party-walls, to the rate of building ſo to be erected againſt or upon the ſame: and in caſe of the inſufficiency of ſuch wall for the purpoſes aforeſaid, or if inſtead of ſuch party fence-wall, there be only a wooden fence, the proprietor or occupier of either of the adjoining premiſes may, at his own expence, take down ſuch wall or fence, and erect a new party-wall in lieu thereof, making good every damage that may accrue to the adjoining premiſes by ſuch rebuilding, ſo nevertheleſs as that ſuch new party-wall ſhall not extend on the ſurface of ſuch adjoining ground more than ſeven inches beyond the centre line of ſuch party fence-wall or fence; but no proprietor or occupier of ſuch adjoining premiſes ſhall make uſe of ſuch party-wall, otherwiſe than as a party fence-wall, unleſs he pay a proportionable ſhare of the whole expence of erecting ſuch parts of ſuch wall, according to the uſe he ſhall make of the ſame, at the rates aforeſaid. ſ. 43.

In caſe ſuch party-wall ſhall extend further upon the ground of the party building the ſame than the party fence-wall did, yet the party rebuilding the ſame ſhall not thereby loſe any part of the ſoil whereon ſuch party-wall ſhall be built; nor ſhall the owner of the other part of ſuch party-wall be entitled to any right of ſoil, more than what he was before entitled to. ſ. 44.

If the fore-front and back-front of any building now built, ſhall be rebuilt as low as the breſſummer, or one pair of ſtairs floor, within five years from each other, the party-walls of ſuch building ſhall be ſubject to the regulations concerning party-walls: and for the further prevention of fire, the back of every chimney to be built in any building of the firſt rate, not being in a party-wall, ſhall be in the cellar ſtory thirteen inches thick from the hearth, to the height of twelve inches above the mantle; and eight inches and an half thick from the hearth to the height of twelve inches above the mantle in every other ſtory, except where ſuch chimney ſhall be built againſt a wall, in which caſe the back may be half a brick thinner: and the back of every chimney of the ſecond, third, or fourth rate, not in a party-wall, ſhall be in every ſtory eight inches and an half thick, from the hearth to the height of twelve inches above the mantle, except where ſuch chimney ſhall be built againſt a wall, in which caſe the back may be half a brick thinner: and there ſhall be no timber whatever over the opening of any chimney, for ſupporting the breaſt; but there ſhall be an arch of brick or ſtone, or an iron bar over the opening: and no timber ſhall be laid in any wall under the hearth of any chimney, unleſs the ſame ſhall be in every part eighteen inches lower than the ſurface of ſuch hearth; and the hearth ſhall be laid wholly on brick or ſtone, except the ſame be in a cellar or ground ſtory, and be laid on the ſolid earth; and ſuch chimney ſhall have a ſlab, or foot paces before the ſame, of tile, ſtone, marble, or iron, at leaſt eighteen inches broad, and one foot longer than the opening; and ſuch ſlab or foot paces, ſhall be laid on brick or ſtone trimmers, at leaſt eighteen inches broad from the opening of ſuch chimney, or from the perpendicular face of the arch over the opening which ſupports the breaſt, except the ſame be in a cellar or ground-floor, and be laid on the ſolid earth: and no timber or wood-work whatever ſhall be laid in the brick-work of any oven, ſtove, copper, ſtill, boiler, or furnace, nor within two feet of the inſide of any ſuch oven, &c.; nor ſhall any timber whatever be laid in the brick-work of any chimney, nearer than nine inches to the opening, or five inches to the inſide of the flue of any chimney, oven, &c. or than nine inches to the inſide of the flue of any ſuch oven, &c. where ſuch timber ſhall lie nearer than five feet above the mouth of the ſame: and no wood-work whatever ſhall be affixed to the front of any jamb or mantle, or to the front or back of any chimney or flue, except affixed by iron nails or holdfaſts, or other iron faſtenings; and no iron nail, holdfaſt, or other iron faſtening, ſhall be drove more than three inches into the wall againſt ſuch chimney or flue, or nearer than four inches to the inſide of the opening: and no chimney ſhall be erected on any timber-work whatever, except on ſuch piling, bridging, or planking, as may be neceſſary below the foundation; but every chimney ſhall be erected on ſuch piling, bridging, or planking, or on ſolid ground, or on a brick or ſtone foundation, or ſhall be ſet upon brick or ſtone corbles, or iron brackets, or upon iron ſhores, ſupported by brick or ſtone foundations. ſ. 45.

Every external wall of every building of the firſt, ſecond, third, fourth, or fifth rate, and of every addition or enlargement to be made to ſuch building, ſhall be of brick, ſtone, artificial ſtone, lead, copper, tin, ſlate, tile, or iron, or of brick, ſtone, and ſuch artificial ſtone, lead, copper, tin, ſlate, tile, and iron together, except the neceſſary piling, bridging, and planking, for the foundation, and alſo the neceſſary templets, chains, bond-timbers, and alſo except the doors, ſaſhes, window-ſhutters, and door and window-frames to ſuch buildings, and the tiers or ſtories of door-caſes and doors to all ſuch warehouſes as are or ſhall be of the firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth rate; all which window-frames and door-frames ſhall be ſet in reveals, and receſſed four inches from the front of the building; and alſo except the breſſummers, ſtory-poſts, and plates, which may be made on the ground-ſtory only; and alſo except all ſtall-boards for the conveniency of any ſhop on the ground-ſtory only; which breſſummers, ſtory-poſts, and plates, and the tiers or ſtories or door-caſes and doors to ſuch warehouſes, are not required to be fixed in reveals; but no ſtory-poſt or breſſummer ſhall be fixed more than two inches deep in any party-wall, or be placed in any front nearer than ſeven inches to the centre line of the party-wall of ſuch building, if ſuch party-wall be of the thickneſs of two bricks, or nearer than four inches and an half to the centre, if ſuch party-wall ſhall not exceed one brick and an half in thickneſs; but no timber-work whatever, other than ſuch breſſummer, ſtory-poſts, and plates, and ſuch tiers or ſtories of door-caſes and doors, ſhall be laid in ſuch external wall nearer than four inches to the external ſurface; and ſuch ſtory-poſt which ſhall be fixed as a ſupport to two fronts, being the corner of any ſtreets, ſquare, place, court, or way, ſhall be of oak or ſtone, and at leaſt twelve inches ſquare. ſ. 46.

Every flat, gutter, and roof, of the firſt, ſecond, third, fourth, or fifth rate, which ſhall be built hereafter, and every turret, dormer, and lanthorn light, or other erection, which ſhall be placed in the flat or roof of ſuch building, and every external part of any flat, gutter, roof, turret, dormer, and lanthorn, in ſuch rate of building, now built, and which ſhall hereafter be ripped or uncovered, ſhall be covered with glaſs, copper, lead, tin, ſlate, tile, or artificial ſtone; except the doors, door-frames, windows, and window-frames, &c. ſ. 47.

Every coping, cornice, facia, window-dreſſing, portico, balcony, baluſtrade, or other external decoration or projection whatſoever, to any building of the firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth rate; and alſo every frontiſpiece to any building of the firſt rate, or to any addition or enlargement of ſuch building, ſhall externally be of brick, ſtone, burnt clay, or artificial ſtone, ſtucco, lead, or iron; except the cornices and dreſſings to ſhop-windows; and alſo except ſuch covered ways as may hereafter be made to any building, ſo as the ſaid covered way ſhall not extend beyond the original line of the houſes in the ſtreet where erected; and ſuch covered way ſhall be covered with ſtone, lead, copper, ſlate, tile, or tin; and neither the ſaid covered way, nor the cornice or dreſſings to ſhop-windows, nor the roof of any ſuch portico, ſhall be higher than the under ſide of the ſill of the window-frame of the one pair of ſtairs window of the builing to which the ſame belongs: and no water ſhall drip next to any public ſtreet, ſquare, place, court, or way, from the roof of any firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth rate building, except from the roofs of porticoes or entrances; but all water from ſuch roofs ſhall be conveyed by lead, copper, tin, or iron gutters or pipes, or by wooden trunks, or brick or ſtone funnels, to the drains or channel ſtones, on or below the ſurface of the ground, or to ſome ciſtern or reſervoir, or to any front of ſuch building not abutting upon any public ſtreet or way; and no ſuch brick or ſtone funnel ſhall hereafter be made unleſs the ſame ſhall be in every part thereof below the ſurface of the foot pavement before the ſame, nor ſhall ſuch wooden trunk hereafter be fixed, unleſs the ſame be below the tops of the windows of the ground ſtory. ſ. 48.

No bow-window or other projection ſhall hereafter be built with, or added to, any firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth rate building, next to any public ſtreet, &c. ſo as to extend beyond the general line of the fronts of the houſes; except ſuch projections as may be neceſſary for copings, cornices, facias, door and window dreſſings, or for open porticoes, ſteps, or iron palliſades; and alſo except ſuch window to any ſhop on the ground-floor ſtory, the ſtall-boards of which ſhall not, in any ſtreet thirty feet wide, project above ten inches, nor in any ſtreet leſs than thirty feet wide, above five inches from the upright line of the building: and no cornice or covering thereof to ſuch ſhop-window ſhall, in any ſtreet thirty feet wide, project more than eighteen inches, nor in any ſtreet leſs than thirty feet wide, more than thirteen inches from the upright line of the building: and no bow-window or other projection, except as before, ſhall hereafter be built with, or added to, the front of any firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth rate building, unleſs built of the materials directed to be uſed in external walls. ſ. 49.

Nothing herein contained ſhall prejudice the powers granted to any commiſſioners for paving any ſtreets within the limits, by act of parliament, or to the commiſſioners of ſewers for London. ſ. 50.

Every external wall, or incloſure to any building, built, or begun to be built, not being of the materials by this act required for external walls, hereafter to be built, may be at all times repaired with the ſame ſort of materials as of which ſuch wall is erected (except the external incloſures of roofs, flats, gutters, and of the dormers, turrets, and lanthorn lights or other erections on the ſame, which ſhall be repaired with the materials before directed); but in caſe ſuch wall be taken down, or otherwiſe demoliſhed to the breſſummer or one pair of ſtairs floor, or the place where the breſſummer is uſually fixed, then the ſame, not being built of the materials by this act required for external walls, ſhall be taken down, and entirely rebuilt of ſuch materials, and in ſuch manner, as by this act required for external walls, according to the rate of building to which ſuch wall belongs. ſ. 51.

No bow-window, or other projection, ſhall be rebuilt, except ſuch as are by this act allowed, unleſs the ſame was built at the time the houſe was built, or unleſs it be within the original line of the ſtreet, &c. ſ. 52.

No ſtack of warehouſes to be erected hereafter (the warehouſes belonging to the Eaſt India Company are diſcharged from theſe regulations, by 27 Geo. 3. c. 48.) ſhall contain more than thirty-five ſquare of building on the ground plan, including all external, internal and party-walls; and no enlargement ſhall be made, ſo as to increaſe the ſame beyond the ſaid thirty-five ſquares, except ſuch ſtack of warehouſes be ſeparated by party-walls (built according to the directions herein) into diviſions of not more than thirty-five ſquares each; and no ſtack of warehouſes ſhall communicate with any other warehouſe or building through a party-wall, unleſs the door-caſe and ſill of ſuch communication be of ſtone, and unleſs there be to ſuch communication a door of wrought iron, of the thickneſs of a quarter of an inch in the pannels; and no timber, bond, or lintel, ſhall be laid into the brick-work of any wall in ſuch warehouſes nearer than eighteen inches to the opening of ſuch communication. ſ. 53.

No building for ſtables ſhall contain more than twenty-five ſquares, including all walls; and no enlargement ſhall be made thereto, ſo as to increaſe the ſame beyond the twenty-five ſquares, including walls, except ſuch building be ſeparated by party-walls (built according to the directions herein) into diviſions of not more than twenty-five ſquares each, including walls: and no ſuch building ſhall communicate through a party-wall with any other ſtables or building, unleſs the door-caſe and ſill of ſuch communication be of ſtone, and unleſs there be to ſuch communication a door of wrought iron, of the thickneſs of a quarter of an inch in the pannels; and no timber, bond, or lintel, ſhall be laid into the brick-work nearer than eighteen inches to the opening of ſuch communication. ſ. 54.

If any firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth rate building (except in the Inns of Court or Chancery, the Royal Exchange, Companies Halls, and except warehouſes and dwelling-houſes let at a rack rent for not more than twenty-five pounds by the year), be hereafter converted into two or more dwelling-houſes, work-ſhops, ſtables, or other buildings, which ſhall be in diſtinct tenures on the ground-floor thereof, then each ſuch tenement ſhall be conſidered as a ſeparate building, and the ſame ſhall be divided from each other by a party-wall, and ſuch party-wall ſhall be of the materials, height, and thickneſs, and under the regulations reſpecting party-walls. ſ. 55.

This ſhall not prevent any proprietor or leaſeholder of any ſtack of warehouſes, from dividing the ſaid warehouſes into diviſions for the convenience of letting the ſame to under-tenants; ſo that the ſame be ſeparated by party-walls into diviſions of not more than thirty-five ſquares each, as before directed. ſ. 56.

Nor ſhall it prevent the proprietor or leaſeholder of any ſtable yard, or livery ſtables, from dividing the ſaid ſtables, ſo that the ſame be ſeparated by party-walls into diviſions of not more than twenty-five ſquares each, as before directed. ſ. 57.

If any fifth or ſixth rate building be hereafter divided into two or more diſtinct tenures, and the ſeveral parts in ſuch ſeparate tenures be not at the diſtances from each other herein-before directed for every fifth or ſixth rate building; then ſuch ſeveral part in ſuch diſtinct tenure, being nearer to each other than the ſaid diſtances, ſhall be deemed a public nuiſance, and ſhall be immediately taken down as ſuch. ſ. 58.

No iron, tin, copper, or other pipe or funnel for conveying ſmoak or ſteam, ſhall be fixed next any public ſtreet, or on the front of any firſt, ſecond, third, or fourth rate building; nor on the inſide of ſuch building nearer than fourteen inches to any timber, or other combuſtible material whatever; nor ſhall any brick funnel be built or placed on the outſide of any front next to any public ſtreet, &c. ſo as to extend beyond the general line of houſes. ſ. 59.

Every church, chapel, meeting-houſe, dwelling-houſe, or other building, and every party and other wall which ſhall be built within the limits of this act, ſhall be built purſuant to ſuch regulations, and with ſuch materials, as are herein appointed; and if any perſon preſume to build, or to begin building, or to alter any building in any reſpect contrary thereunto, and be thereof convicted by the oaths of two witneſſes before the mayor of London, or any two juſtices of London, or counties of Middleſex or Surrey, Weſtminſter, or liberty of The Tower of London reſpectively, then the ſaid houſe, building, or wall, ſo irregularly built, or begun to be built or altered, ſhall be deemed a common nuiſance, and the builder and the owner thereof, or one of them, as the ſaid mayor, &c. ſhall require, ſhall enter into a recognizance in ſuch ſum as the mayor, &c. ſhall appoint, for demoliſhing the ſame; or otherwiſe to amend the ſame according to the regulations herein: and in default of entering into ſuch recognizance, the perſon ſo making default ſhall be committed to the common gaol, until he ſhall have demoliſhed or amended the ſame; or until ſuch irregular building ſhall be abated or demoliſhed by order of ſuch mayor, &c. which order the ſaid mayor, &c. are to make; provided that ſuch conviction be had within three months after ſuch building ſhall be finiſhed. ſ. 60.

It ſhall be lawful for the mayor of London, or two juſtices for London, Middleſex, Surrey, Weſtminſter, or the liberty of The Tower of London reſpectively, where any building contrary to the regulations ſhall be ſituated, to order every houſe or building ſo irregularly built, begun to be built, or altered, as is by this act declared to be a common nuiſance, to be taken down, and to order the perſon authoriſed to take down the ſame, to ſell the materials, and thereout to pay the charges of taking down; and to pay the ſurplus (if any) to the owner of ſuch materials; and if the monies ariſing by ſuch ſale be not ſufficient to pay ſuch charges, the deficiency ſhall be made good by ſuch owner, and may be levied as is directed concerning the expence of taking down ruinous buildings, and putting up hoards for the ſafety of paſſengers. ſ. 61.

The mayor and aldermen of London ſhall appoint ſo many perſons, ſkilled in building, as they think fit, to be, during their will and pleaſure, the ſurveyors to ſee the regulations obſerved throughout London, and the liberties thereof: and the ſaid mayor and aldermen in their court of aldermen, are to adminiſter to the ſaid ſurveyors an oath for the true and impartial execution of their office; and to appoint the diſtricts which ſhall be under their ſurveys: and the juſtices for Middleſex, Surrey, Weſtminſter, and the liberty of The Tower of London, in their general quarter ſeſſions reſpectively, are to appoint ſo many perſons ſkilled in building, as the ſaid quarter ſeſſions think fit, to be, during their will and pleaſure, the ſurveyors to ſee the regulations obſerved throughout Weſtminſter, and the ſeveral pariſhes, precincts, and places aforeſaid: and the ſaid juſtices, in their reſpective quarter ſeſſions, ſhall adminiſter to the ſaid ſurveyors an oath for the impartial execution of their office, and ſhall appoint the diſtricts which ſhall be under their ſurveys; which oath ſhall be in the form following:

'I A. B. being one of the ſurveyors or ſuperviſors appointed in purſuance of an act of parliament, paſſed in the fourteenth year of the reign of king George the third, for the further and better regulation of buildings and party-walls; and for the more effectually preventing miſchiefs by fire within the cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the liberties thereof, and other the pariſhes, precincts, and places within the weekly bills of mortality, the pariſhes of Saint Mary-le-bone, Paddington, Saint Pancras, and Saint Luke at Chelſea, in the county of Middleſex; and for indemnifying, under certain conditions, builders, and other perſons, againſt the penalties to which they are or may be liable for erecting buildings within the limits aforeſaid, contrary to law, do ſwear, that, upon receiving notice of any building or wall to be built, or other builder's work to be done, within the diſtrict under my inſpection, not being by illneſs or otherwiſe lawfully prevented, I will, diligently and faithfully, ſurvey the ſame, and, to the utmoſt of my abilities, endeavour to cauſe the rules and regulations in the ſaid act preſcribed, to be ſtrictly obſerved; and that without favour or affection, prejudice or malice.

'So help me GOD.'

And ſuch ſurveyor ſhall leave notice in writing with the clerk of the peace, in his diſtrict, of the place of his uſual abode. ſ. 62.

Before any building or any wall, on new or old foundations, or on foundations partly new and partly old, within the limits of this act, ſhall be begun to be built, the maſter workman, or perſon cauſing ſuch building to be built, ſhall give twenty-four hours notice thereof to the ſurveyor within whoſe diſtrict the ſame ſhall be; and ſuch ſurveyor ſhall view the ſaid building, and ſee that all the regulations are obſerved; and ſuch ſurveyor, for his trouble therein, ſhall be paid by ſuch maſter workman, or perſon cauſing ſuch building to be built, ſuch ſum of money as a ſatisfaction for his trouble therein, as two juſtices ſhall, by any writing under their hands, order, not exceeding

And, in default of payment of the ſaid ſeveral ſums, or ſuch other ſums as the ſaid juſtices ſhall appoint, the ſame ſhall, by warrant of one juſtice, be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods and chattels of ſuch maſter workman, or other perſon, together with the coſts of diſtreſs. ſ. 63.

If any perſon ſhall begin ſuch building, or wall, or cut into any party-wall, without firſt giving notice to the ſurveyor, or ſhall refuſe ſuch ſurveyor admittance at reaſonable hours, for the purpoſe of viewing the ſame; then, every perſon perſon ſo neglecting or refuſing admittance, ſhall forfeit to the ſurveyor treble the ſatisfaction which ſuch ſurveyor would have been intitled to for viewing ſuch building, and ſeeing the regulations of this act obſerved, in caſe notice had been given; and ſhall alſo forfeit twenty pounds, to be recovered by any action, &c. in any courts of record at Weſtminſter, by any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame; and ſuch building, if not built agreeably to the regulations, ſhall be demoliſhed or amended by order of the ſaid mayor, or two juſtices, in manner before directed. ſ. 64.

In caſe the workmen employed in building ſuch building or wall, or in the cutting into ſuch party-wall, ſhall not obſerve the rules in this act, and conform thereto, the ſurveyor ſhall give information thereof to the mayor, or to two juſtices, who thereupon ſhall hear the matter, and if any breach of this act is found to have been committed, they ſhall cauſe ſuch irregular building or wall to be demoliſhed or amended. ſ. 65.

If any workmen, or ſervants to any maſter workman, or other perſon cauſing ſuch building to be erected within the limits of this act, ſhall wilfully or negligently, and without the direction or conſent of ſuch maſter workman, do any thing about ſuch building contrary to this act, ſuch workman or ſervant upon conviction before the mayor of London, or other juſtice for the city of London, or before one juſtice for Middleſex, Surrey, Weſtminſter, or the liberty of The Tower of London, upon the oath of one witneſs, or his own confeſſion, ſhall forfeit fifty ſhillings, one moiety to the overſeers of the poor, for the uſe of the poor only, and the other moiety to the informer; and if not paid upon conviction, the offender ſhall, by warrant under the hand and ſeal of ſuch mayor or juſtice, be committed to the houſe of correction not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one month. ſ. 66.

Every maſter workman, or other perſon, who ſhall build any houſe or building, or any addition thereto, or any party or other wall, or who ſhall be employed to cut into any party-wall, ſhall, within fourteen days after ſuch building is covered in, or ſuch wall finiſhed, or the cutting into any party-wall made good, cauſe the ſame to be ſurveyed by the ſurveyor; and in caſe he ſhall refuſe, neglect, or ſhall, by illneſs, &c. be prevented ſurveying, then the ſame ſhall be ſurveyed by any other ſurveyor appointed and ſworn within the city, county, or liberty, wherein the ſaid building, &c. is ſituated; and if ſuch ſurveyor ſhall, upon ſuch ſurvey, find that the ſame is built, or made good, agreeably to this act, then ſuch ſurveyor ſhall, within fourteen days after, make oath thereof, by affidavit in writing, before the mayor of London, or ſome juſtice for the ſaid city, or for Middleſex, Surrey, Weſtminſter, or the liberty of The Tower of London: and the ſaid affidavit ſhall be filed with the clerk of the peace for the county, &c. within ten days after the making thereof; and the ſaid clerk of the peace ſhall, for his trouble therein, receive one ſhilling; and if any maſter workman, or other perſon cauſing ſuch building, &c. make default in the premiſes, by neglecting to cauſe ſuch ſurvey to be made, or ſuch affidavit to be made and filed, he ſhall forfeit ten pounds; and if not made and filed within one month next after the recovery of ſuch penalty, ſuch maſter workman, or other perſon as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit ten pounds further, and ſo toties quoties for every month, until ſuch affidavit ſhall be made and filed; and each of the ſaid penalties ſhall be recovered and applied as the penalty herein after inflicted on perſons diſtilling or boiling turpentine. ſ. 67. viz. with treble coſts by action, &c. in any of the courts of record at Weſtminſter, and to be applied one moiety to the poor, and the other to the informer, ſ. 72*.

If any ſurveyor ſhall wilfully neglect his duty, or behave negligently or unfaithfully in the diſcharge thereof, and the ſame being, upon complaint thereof, made appear to the mayor and aldermen, or to the court of ſeſſions by whom he was appointed; ſuch ſurveyor ſhall be forthwith diſcharged, and for ever afterwards be incapable of being again appointed a ſurveyor. ſ. 68.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any of his majeſty's royal palaces, or to any building in the poſſeſſion of his majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, or employed for his uſe or ſervice; or to her majeſty's palace, or to any building in the poſſeſſion of her majeſty, or employed for her uſe or ſervice. ſ. 69.

If any preſentment ſhall be made by an inqueſt or grand jury in London, or by any annoyance jury within Weſtminſter, or by the jury ſworn at the court leet held by the ſheriff in his turn, or by any other jury or inqueſt ſworn within any other part of the limits aforeſaid, that any building or part thereof, is in a ruinous condition, it ſhall be lawful for the court of mayor and aldermen within London, and the liberties thereof, or for the churchwardens or overſeers of the poor (not in London, or the liberties) and the ſaid court, and ſuch churchwarden and overſeer are, on notice of ſuch preſentment being made, and a copy thereof being laid before them, to cauſe a ſufficient hoard to be put up for the ſafety of all paſſengers paſſing thereby, and to cauſe notice in writing to be given to the owner, if he can be found; and if not, to cauſe ſuch notice in writing to be affixed to the door, or other notorious part of ſuch building, to repair or pull down the ſame, as the caſe may require, within fourteen days then next enſuing: and if ſuch owner do not begin to repair or take down the ſame, within the ſaid fourteen days after ſuch notice, and complete ſuch repairs, or take down the ſame as ſoon as the caſe will admit; then, oath being made before the ſaid mayor, or a juſtice of the peace, of ſuch notice having been given, or affixed, the ſaid court of mayor and aldermen, out of the caſh in the chamber of London, and ſuch churchwarden and overſeer, out of the monies in his hands, are to order and cauſe ſuch building, or ſo much thereof as the ſaid court, or the ſaid churchwardens or overſeers, find neceſſary for the ſafety of paſſengers, to be taken down and ſecured; and to ſell ſuch of the materials as the ſaid court, or churchwardens or overſeers, ſhall judge neceſſary; and out of the monies ariſing by the ſale to reimburſe themſelves all the charges of putting up ſuch hoard, and of taking down and ſecuring ſuch building, and of ſelling the ſaid materials, or ſo much thereof as the monies ariſing by ſuch ſale will extend to pay; and ſhall pay the ſurplus to the owner, upon perſonal demand thereof made by ſuch owner; and if no ſuch demand be made of any ſuch overſeer before another be appointed, then ſuch overplus ſhall be added to the rates made for the relief of the poor, and accounted for as ſuch. ſ. 70.

But ſuch owner may, at any time within ſix years afterwards, be entitled to receive ſuch overplus from the churchwardens or overſeers, within ten days after demand thereof perſonally; and ſuch churchwarden or overſeer is to pay the ſame out of the poor rates, and ſhall be allowed the payment thereof in his account: and if the monies ariſing by ſuch ſale, are deficient to repay all ſuch charges,

* Section 72 was repealed and amended by 25 Geo. 3. c. 77. which act is abridged under title Fire and Fireworks.

then ſuch deficiency ſhall be paid by the owner of ſuch building, if known; and if he, on demand thereof, neglect or refuſe to pay the ſame, then ſuch deficiency may be levied by warrant under the hand and ſeal of the mayor, or any other juſtice for London; or under the hands and ſeals of two juſtices for Middleſex, Surrey, Weſtminſter, or the liberty of The Tower of London, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch owner: and if no ſuch owner can be met with, or ſhall not on demand pay the deficiency, and no ſufficient diſtreſs can be met with, then the perſon who ſhall at any time then after occupy ſuch building, or the ground where the ſame ſtood, is to pay and deduct the ſame out of the rent thereof; and if he neglect or refuſe to pay ſuch deficiency of charges, then the ſame ſhall, by warrant under the hand and ſeal of the ſaid mayor, or any other juſtice for London, or under the hands and ſeals of two juſtices as aforeſaid, be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of his goods, together with the coſts of ſuch diſtreſs; and the owner is to allow to ſuch occupier ſuch deficiencies and charges which he ſhall ſo pay, or which ſhall be recovered by diſtreſs, &c. out of any rent which ſhall become due for the premiſes; and every occupier paying ſuch deficiency and charges ſhall be diſcharged for ſo much money, as if the ſame had been actually paid to ſuch perſon to whom his rents were due: And all money received or recovered on the account aforeſaid, for any building within London, or the liberties thereof, ſhall be paid to the chamberlain of the city, and placed to the credit of the caſh of the ſaid city; and in any part of the limits aforeſaid, other than the ſaid city of London, and the liberties thereof, it ſhall be paid to the churchwardens and overſeers of the poor, and placed to the account of the ſaid pariſh, in aid of ſuch rate, out of which the expences ſo received or recovered were originally diſburſed. ſ. 71.

The churchwardens of every pariſh, and the overſeers of the poor of every precinct, not having any churchwarden within the limits aforeſaid, are required to make, place, and fix, at the charge of ſuch pariſh, precinct, or place, upon the mains and pipes belonging to any waterwork whatſoever within the limits ſo many ſtopblocks of wood, with a wood plug, or ſo many firecocks to go into each main or pipe, and to be placed at ſuch diſtances in every ſtreet, as ſuch churchwardens or overſeers ſhall direct; and the top of every ſtopblock or firecock ſhall be even with the pavement, to the intent ſuch plugs or firecocks may, upon any fire, be opened to let out the water without digging down to the pipes; and ſuch churchwardens or overſeers ſhall fix any mark on the front of any houſe, over againſt or neareſt to the place where ſuch ſtopblocks, plugs, or firecocks, lie, for making the ſame known; and ſhall alſo keep an inſtrument in every ſuch houſe where ſuch mark ſhall be, to open the plug; and ſhall keep in ſuch houſe a pipe for the water to come thereout, to be made uſe of as occaſion may require; and ſuch ſtopblocks and firecocks ſhall be kept in repair at the charge of the pariſh; and ſuch plugs ſhall be kept in repair by the owners of the mains and pipes; and whenever the owners of waterworks ſhall afterwards remove, change, or alter the ſaid mains or pipes, then the owner of ſuch main or pipe ſhall, at his own coſts, fix the ſame, or the like ſtopblocks, plugs, and firecocks upon every new main or pipe, to be placed where the churchwardens or overſeers ſhall direct; and in ſuch caſe, the inſtrument or key, and pipe, ſhall be removed to the houſe oppoſite or neareſt to the place to which ſuch ſtopblock, &c. is removed; and ſuch churchwarden or overſeer ſhall cauſe a like mark to be fixed againſt ſuch houſe. ſ. 74.

Every pariſh within the limits aforeſaid ſhall have, and keep in good repair, in ſome public place within each pariſh, a large engine, and alſo an hand engine, to throw up water for extinguiſhing fires; and alſo ſhall keep one leather pipe at leaſt, with a ſocket of the ſame ſize as the plug or firecock, and a ſtand-cock or ſuction-pipe, to the intent the ſocket may be put into the pipe, to convey the water without loſs, and without the help of buckets, into the engine; and ſhall alſo keep in ſome public place within each pariſh, three or more ladders, of one, two, and three ſtory high, for aſſiſting perſons in houſes on fire to eſcape therefrom; and in default of making, placing, fixing, and continuing ſuch ſtopblocks or firecocks on the mains, as alſo in default of having and keeping in good repair ſuch large engine, hand engine, and leather pipe, ſocket and ſtand-cock, and ſuction-pipe, and ſuch ladders as aforeſaid, every churchwarden, and every overſeer of a place not having a churchwarden, making default in any of the premiſes, and being convicted thereof before two juſtices, ſhall forfeit ten pounds; one moiety to the informer, and the other to the ſurveyor for the diſtrict; to be recovered by diſtreſs and ſale of their goods. ſ. 75.

The turncock belonging to the waterwork, whoſe water ſhall be found on, or ſhall firſt come into the main where any plug ſhall be opened, at any fire within the limits aforeſaid, ſhall be paid not exceeding ten ſhillings by the churchwardens or overſeers; and the engine-keeper which firſt brings a pariſh or other large engine, to help to extinguiſh any fire, if in good order and complete, with a ſocket, hoſe, leather pipe, ſtand-cock, and ſuction-pipe, ſhall be paid not exceeding thirty ſhillings; the keeper of the ſecond engine brought, not exceeding twenty ſhillings; and the keeper of the third engine brought, not exceeding ten ſhillings; every ſuch payment to be made by the churchwardens or overſeers where ſuch fire ſhall happen; and in default of payment thereof, ſuch reward ſhall be recovered by diſtreſs and ſale of their goods, in the ſame manner as the penalty of ten pounds is. ſ. 76.

But no ſuch reward ſhall be paid to any turncock or engine-keeper, by the churchwarden or overſeer, without the approbation and direction of the alderman of the ward, or his deputy, or of two of the common councilmen of the ward, if ſuch fire happens within London, or the liberties thereof; or without the approbation and conſent of one juſtice, reſiding within the pariſh or place where ſuch fire happens; and if there be not any juſtice in ſuch pariſh, then of ſuch juſtice reſiding in the pariſh next adjoining, if ſuch fire happens within the limits of this act, out of London. ſ. 77.

Where any reward by this act payable, ſhall be paid by any churchwarden or overſeer for any fire in a chimney only, or firſt beginning in and occaſioned by the taking fire of any chimney only, the inhabitant or occupier of any room or apartment to which ſuch chimney belongs, being a lodger with any tenant of any building, of which ſuch room is part, or if ſuch chimney belong not to ſuch lodger, then the tenant or occupier wherein ſuch fire as laſt-mentioned firſt begins, ſhall repay to the churchwarden or overſeer the reward by him made, purſuant to this act, or ſuch part thereof, as the mayor, or other juſtice of London, or juſtice for Middleſex, &c. upon the application and complaint of ſuch churchwarden or overſeer, and hearing the party complained againſt, ſhall under his hand and ſeal award: and the ſaid mayor, and ſuch juſtice, ſhall ſummon before him, after ſuch complaint, the parties complained againſt, and all perſons fit to give evidence, and ſhall examine them upon oath, without without fee; and if the party complained againſt, being ſummoned, do not appear, the ſaid mayor and ſuch juſtice, ſhall examine the matter of complaint, and ſuch evidence as is produced, and make ſuch award as ſhall be juſt, and as if the party had been preſent, and heard in his defence; and if any money awarded to be repaid to ſuch churchwarden or overſeer, be not repaid within fourteen days after demand, ſuch churchwarden or overſeer, by warrant under the hand and ſeal of ſuch mayor, or other juſtice, may levy ſuch reward by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the party making default, or of any goods found in the room to which ſuch chimney where ſuch fire began belongs, or in any other part of any building whereof ſuch room is part. ſ. 78.

Pariſhes within the city of London, united, ſhall, for the purpoſes of this act, be deemed one pariſh only. ſ. 79.

In caſe the veſtries of any of the ſaid united pariſhes, or of any other pariſh within the limits, conceive it neceſſary to have more than one great engine, or hand engine, they may provide two or more, at the pariſh charge; and the ſame ſhall be under the like regulations and encouragements as the other engines directed to be provided by this act. ſ. 80.

The churchwardens and overſeers, within the limits of this act, or the major part of them, with the conſent of the majority of ſuch inhabitants as ſhall be at any veſtry, or other public meeting of the pariſh aſſembled, ſhall and may (as often as there may be occaſion), out of the poor rates, or by any eſpecial rate to be made for the purpoſes of this act, pay ſuch money as may be requiſite for providing engines, ſtop-blocks, ladders, and paying rewards, in like manner as they may do for the relief of the poor; and ſuch eſpecial rate being allowed and confirmed as the poor rates are, ſhall be levied as the poor rates, and ſubject to the like appeal; and the officers ſhall be accountable for the ſame, and liable to the like pains for not accounting, and to the like diſtreſs and penalties for not paying the monies collected and remaining in their hands, as overſeers of the poor are. ſ. 81.

The watermen retained by, and belonging to, every inſurance office, within the limits aforeſaid, not exceeding thirty for each office, ſhall be free from being impreſſed, or liable to be compelled to go to ſea, or ſerve as mariners, or as ſoldiers on land, their names and places of abode being regiſtered and entered with the ſecretary, or other officer of the admiralty office. ſ. 82.

The governors or directors of the inſurance offices for inſuring buildings againſt loſs by fire, upon the requeſt of any perſon intereſted in, or intitled unto, any buildings burnt down, demoliſhed, or damaged by fire, or upon any grounds of ſuſpicion that the owner or occupier, or other perſon, who ſhall have inſured ſuch buildings, have been guilty of fraud, or of wilfully ſetting their buildings on fire, may cauſe the inſurance money to be laid out as far as the ſame will go, towards rebuilding, reinſtating, or repairing ſuch buildings; unleſs the party claiming ſuch inſurance money ſhall, within ſixty days next after his claim is adjuſted, give ſecurity to the governors or directors, that the ſame ſhall be laid out as aforeſaid; or unleſs the ſaid inſurance money ſhall be, in that time, ſettled amongſt all the contending parties, to the ſatisfaction of ſuch governors or directors. ſ. 83.

If any menial, or other ſervant, through negligence or careleſſneſs, ſhall fire, or cauſe to be fired, any dwelling-houſe, or out-houſe, or houſes, or other buildings, whether within the limits, or elſewhere within Great Britain, ſuch ſervant being thereof convicted by the oath of one witneſs, before two juſtices, ſhall forfeit one hundred pounds unto the churchwardens or overſeers, to be diſtributed amongſt the ſufferers by ſuch fire, in ſuch proportions as to them ſhall ſeem juſt: and in caſe of default to pay the ſame immediately after conviction, the ſame being demanded by the ſaid churchwardens, then ſuch ſervant ſhall, by warrant under the hands and ſeals of two juſtices, be committed to the common gaol, or houſe of correction, as the juſtices think fit, for eighteen months, there to be kept to hard labour. ſ. 84.

Upon the breaking out of any fire within the limits, all conſtables and beadles, upon notice thereof, ſhall immediately repair to the place where the fire ſhall happen, with their ſtaves, and other badges of authority; and ſhall be aiding as well in extinguiſhing the fires, and cauſing people to work at the engines, as alſo in preventing goods being ſtolen; and ſhall apprehend all ill-diſpoſed perſons that they ſhall find ſtealing from the inhabitants; and ſhall give their utmoſt aſſiſtance to help the inhabitants to remove their goods. ſ. 85.

No action ſhall be proſecuted againſt any perſon in whoſe houſe, chamber, ſtable, barn, or other building, or on whoſe eſtate any fire ſhall accidentally begin, nor ſhall any recompence be made by ſuch perſon for any damage ſuffered thereby: and in ſuch caſe, if any action be brought, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and in caſe the plaintiff become non-ſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts; but no contract or agreement made between landlord and tenant ſhall be hereby defeated. ſ. 86.

Where any diſtreſs ſhall be made by virtue of this act, the diſtreſs itſelf ſhall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party making the ſame a treſpaſſer, on account of any defect of form in any proceedings relating thereto; nor ſhall the party be deemed a treſpaſſer ab initio, on account of any irregularity afterwards done by the party making diſtreſs; but the perſon aggrieved may recover ſatisfaction by action on the caſe. ſ. 87.

But no plaintiff ſhall recover in any action for ſuch irregularity, if tender of ſufficient amends be made before ſuch action be brought; and in caſe no ſuch tender ſhall have been made, the defendant, by leave of the court, may pay into the court ſuch ſum of money as he ſhall ſee fit. ſ. 88.

No order made by the mayor of London or by any juſtice under this act, or any other proceeding touching the conviction of any offender, ſhall be removed by certiorari, or other writ. ſ. 95.

Perſons aggrieved by any conviction, commitment, diſtreſs, order, or judgment of the mayor or juſtices, made out of ſeſſions, may appeal to the juſtices at their general quarter ſeſſions next after ſuch conviction, &c. who ſhall examine on oath into the cauſes of ſuch appeal, and ſhall determine the ſame, and award ſuch coſts to the party appealing or appealed againſt, as they think proper; and the order of the ſaid ſeſſions ſhall be concluſive. ſ. 96.

The perſon intending to appeal ſhall, immediately after conviction, or within two days after, enter into a recognizance to the party appealed againſt, before ſuch juſtice, with two ſecurities, conditioned to try ſuch appeal, and to abide the order of, and pay ſuch coſts as ſhall be awarded againſt him by the ſeſſions. ſ. 97.

The pariſhioners and inhabitants where any offence ſhall be committed, ſhall be allowed to be competent witneſſes concerning any offence againſt this act. ſ. 98.

No

No action, &c. ſhall be brought for any penalty incurred by this act, unleſs commenced within ſix months. ſ. 99.

No action ſhall be commenced againſt any perſon for any thing done in purſuance of this act, until twenty-one days after notice, in writing, of an intention to bring ſuch action has been given, nor after the expiration of three months next after the fact committed; and ſuch action, the cauſe whereof ſhall ariſe within London, ſhall be laid and tried in London, and in any part of the limits aforeſaid out of London and liberties thereof, in the county of Middleſex, and not elſewhere; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict be found for the defendant, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 100.

Butchers.

By 4 Hen. 7. c. 3. No butcher ſhall ſlay beaſt within the wall of London, upon pain to forfeit for every ox 12 d. and for every cow and other beaſt 8 d. the one half to the king, and the other half to any that will ſue by action of debt, &c.

Butter and Cheeſe.

Carriage.

By 21 Geo. 2. c. 28. If any common carrier ſhall demand and take any greater price for the bringing of goods to London, or to any place within the bills of mortality, than is allowed by the juſtices for the county or place from whence ſuch goods are brought, for the carrying of goods from London to the ſaid county or place, every ſuch carrier ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 5 l. to the party grieved, to be levied as by 3 Will. & Mar. c. 12. ſ. 24. (ſee general title "Carriage"), is directed, or by diſtreſs and ſale of his goods by warrant under the hands and ſeals of two juſtices for Middleſex or Surrey, or the city of London, or the city and liberty of Weſtminſter. And the clerk of the peace for every county and place ſhall immediately after Eaſter ſeſſion yearly certify to the lord mayor of London, and the clerks of the peace for Middleſex and Surrey, and the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, the rates made for the carriage of goods in purſuance of the ſaid act, in their reſpective counties and places; which certificate, or an atteſted copy thereof ſigned by the officer to whom the ſame ſhall be tranſmitted, ſhall be ſufficient evidence of the rates ſet for the carrying of goods to any county or place. ſ. 3.

Carts.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 57. If any perſon driving any cart, dray or waggon, in the ſtreets of London and Weſtminſter, Southwark, and other ſtreets and lanes within the bills of mortality, ſhall ride upon ſuch cart, &c. not having ſome other perſon on foot to guide the ſame, every ſuch offender being convicted before the alderman of the ward or a juſtice of peace, by oath of one credible witneſs, ſhall forfeit 10 s. to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale by warrant of ſuch alderman or juſtice; one moiety to the informer, the other to the poor of the pariſh; and in default of payment, the offender to be ſent to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for three days. ſ. 8.

Nothing in this act ſhall deprive the mayor, &c. of London, and the governors of Chriſt's Hoſpital of the power they have to puniſh the ſaid offences, ſuch offender not having been puniſhed before for the offence. ſ. 9.

By 18 Geo. 2. c. 33. No perſon ſhall drive any cart within the bills of mortality, unleſs the owner place upon ſome conſpicuous part the name of the owner and the number of ſuch cart, in order that the driver may be the more eaſily convicted for any diſorder. ſ. 4.

Every owner of ſuch cart reſiding within the limits aforeſaid, ſhall enter his name and place of abode, with the commiſſioners for licenſing hackney-coaches, for which entry he ſhall pay 1 s. and no more. ſ. 5.

If any perſon drive any cart within the limits aforeſaid, not numbered and entered as before directed, he ſhall forfeit 40 s. and it ſhall be lawful for any perſon to ſeize and detain the cart, or any of the horſes, till ſuch penalty be paid. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon uſing any cart as aforeſaid, having the wheels of the breadth of ſix inches when worn, to have the ſame bound with ſtreaks of iron, provided ſuch ſtreaks be of the breadth of ſix inches, and made flat, and not ſet on with roſe-headed nails. ſ. 7.

By 24 Geo. 2. c. 43. If any carter or other driver ride upon his cart, dray, car or waggon, in the city of London, or within ten miles thereof, not having ſome other perſon on foot to guide the ſame; being thereof convicted according to 1 Geo. 1. c. 57. he ſhall forfeit 10 s. in caſe ſuch driver be not the owner of ſuch carriage; and in caſe the offender be the owner of ſuch carriage, then any ſum not exceeding 20 s. to be recovered and applied as by the ſaid act is directed. ſ. 8.

Any perſon though not a peace officer may apprehend ſuch offender, and carry him before a juſtice of peace for the county or place where ſuch offence is committed. And in caſe any perſon reſiſt, abuſe, or prevent any perſon endeavouring to apprehend ſuch offender, or when he is apprehended, endeavour to reſcue him, every perſon ſo offending ſhall for every ſuch offence incur the penalty of 20 s. to be recovered and applied as aforeſaid. ſ. 9.

By 30 Geo. 2. c. 22. One moiety of the money forfeited by the driver of any cart, under 18 Geo. 2. c. 33. ſhall be paid to the perſon who apprehends and proſecutes to conviction any offender; and the other moiety to the overſeers of the poor of the pariſh or place in which the offence is committed; and if there be no overſeers, then to ſome other officer for the uſe of the poor of ſuch pariſh: and if the offender on being convicted before any juſtice of peace within his juriſdiction, ſhall not within twenty-four hours pay the 40 s. forfeited, the ſame ſhall be raiſed by ſale of the cart or horſe ſeized; and every juſtice of peace within his juriſdiction is to iſſue his warrant directed to the conſtable or ſome other peace officer of the pariſh, &c. in which the cart, &c. or horſe ſeized ſhall be, to cauſe ſale to be made thereof; rendering to the offender the overplus, after deducting the charges of ſale and expences of detaining or houſing ſuch cart, &c. or keeping any horſe ſeized until ſale be made, or the money forfeited be paid. ſ. 1.

Every time the property of any cart, &c. entered with the commiſſioners for licenſing hackney-coaches is altered, the new owner ſhall within ſeven days after he becomes owner, cauſe the name of the former owner to be taken off, and the name of the new and real owner to be put or painted in large characters upon ſome conſpicuous part thereof, and alſo to be entered with the commiſſioners for licenſing hackney-coaches; and if any omiſſion be made in doing thereof, and any perſon drive any ſuch cart, &c.

within the cities of London and Weſtminſter, and ſuburbs thereof, the borough of Southwark, and other ſtreets within the bills of mortality, not having the name of the owner painted or put thereon, and entered with the commiſſioners for licenſing hackney-coaches, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit for every offence 40*s.* on being convicted, either by confeſſion or by oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice of peace of the county or place where ſuch offence is committed; and the money ſo forfeited ſhall be applied as the 40*s.* forfeited for any offence againſt the 18 Geo. 2. c. 33. and every ſuch cart, &c. and any horſe drawing the ſame, is hereby made liable to be ſeized by any perſon and to be ſold, to raiſe the money forfeited in purſuance of this act, with the charges of ſale, and of houſing the cart, &c. and keeping the horſe until ſale be made, or the money forfeited be paid. ſ. 2.

The juſtices of peace of the city of London ſhall at the general ſeſſions of the peace holden for the city of London next after the 24th of June in every year, aſſeſs prices for the carriage of goods taken up in the city of London, and carried by any licenſed carts, cars or carrooms, as well in the city of London, as from the city of London into the city of Weſtminſter, or any other place not exceeding the diſtance of three miles from the city of London; and make rules for governing ſuch carts, &c. and the drivers, and compel payment for carriage of goods by ſuch licenſed carts, &c. according to the prices aſſeſſed, and annex penalties for breach of any ſuch rules, not exceeding 5*l.* for any one offence, as to the major part of the juſtices at ſuch ſeſſions ſhall ſeem meet; and at any other ſuch ſeſſions of the peace in London alter ſuch rules and make new rules. ſ. 3.

All rules ſo made ſhall within thirty days after be printed and affixed in ſome public places of the city of London, and be made public in ſuch manner as the ſaid juſtices in ſeſſions ſhall order. ſ. 4.

No perſons ſhall wilfully obſtruct the paſſing and repaſſing in any public ſtreets, lanes, or paſſages, within the limits before mentioned, or ſet any empty caſks or other veſſels in any ſuch ſtreets, &c. (except for ſuch time only as is neceſſary for the removing thereof to or from any place, or for the trimming thereof) or ſet any empty cart, or other carriage in any ſuch ſtreet, &c. except only during ſuch time as any ſuch cart, &c. is plying for hire in the places appointed by the perſons authoriſed to appoint the ſtandings thereof, and except during ſuch time as any ſuch cart, &c. is waiting in any ſuch ſtreet, &c. to load or unload goods or commodities, or to take up or ſet down a fare; and every perſon offending and convicted by confeſſion, or by oath of one witneſs before any juſtice of peace of the county, &c. where ſuch offence is committed, ſhall for every offence forfeit any ſum not exceeding 20*s.* and not leſs than 5*s.* or be committed to the houſe of correction or ſome other priſon of the county, &c. in which the offence is committed, or the offender apprehended, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one calendar month, as ſuch juſtice ſhall order. ſ. 5.

No perſon ſhall ply for hire with any hackney-coach, cart, or other wheel carriage, in Bridge-ſtreet, Parliament-ſtreet, Great George-ſtreet, Saint Margaret's-ſtreet, or Abingdon-ſtreet, in the city of Weſtminſter, or ſtay in any of the ſaid ſtreets with any wheel carriage longer than is reaſonable to wait to take up or ſet down his fare, or to load and unload goods; and every perſon having the care of ſuch wheel carriage offending, and being convicted either by confeſſion or by oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice of peace for Weſtminſter, ſhall for every offence forfeit any ſum not exceeding 20*s.* and not leſs than 5*s.* or be committed to the houſe of correction in Weſtminſter, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one month, as ſuch juſtice ſhall order. ſ. 6.

If the driver of any carriage in the cities of London or Weſtminſter, or in any public ſtreet or common highways within the weekly bills of mortality, by negligence or wilful miſbehaviour interrupt the free paſſage in any of the public ſtreets in London or Weſtminſter, or in any public ſtreets or common highways within the ſaid weekly bills of mortality; every ſuch driver being convicted either by confeſſion or by oath of one witneſs before any juſtice of the county, &c. wherein ſuch offence is committed, ſhall for every offence forfeit not exceeding 20*s.* or be committed to the houſe of correction or ſome other priſon of the county, &c. in which the offence is committed or the offender apprehended, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one month, as ſuch juſtice ſhall order. ſ. 7.

If any perſon apprehended for any offence againſt this act refuſe to diſcover his name and place of abode to the juſtice before whom he is brought, he ſhall be delivered over to a conſtable or other peace officer, and by him be conveyed to the common gaol or houſe of correction of the county, &c. where the offence is committed, there to remain until he declare his name and place of abode to the ſaid juſtice, or to ſome other juſtice of the county. ſ. 11.

The pecuniary forfeitures by this act incurred, and for levying whereof no proviſion is before made, ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of every ſuch offender (rendering to him the overplus after the charges deducted) by warrant of the juſtice before whom the offender was convicted. And one moiety of all forfeitures whereof the application is not before directed, ſhall be paid to the perſon who proſecutes to conviction, and the other moiety to the overſeers of the poor of the pariſh or place in which the offence is committed, or the offender apprehended; and if there be no overſeers then to ſome other officer for the uſe of the poor of ſuch pariſh. ſ. 12.

Any perſon who ſhall ſee any of the offences before mentioned committed, may by authority of this act, and without any other warrant, apprehend the offender, and ſhall with all ſpeed convey ſuch offender to a conſtable or ſome other peace officer of the county, city, or place, in which the offence is committed or the offender apprehended, in order to be conveyed before ſome juſtice of peace of ſuch county, &c. ſ. 13.

In all actions, &c. any inhabitant of the pariſh or place in which any offence is committed contrary to this act, or 18 Geo. 2. c. 33. ſhall be a competent witneſs. ſ. 14.

No perſon by this act puniſhed for any offence ſhall be puniſhed for the ſame offence under any other law: and if any action be commenced for any thing done in purſuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue, and if the plaintiff be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover double coſts. ſ. 15.

By 7 Geo. 3. c. 44. All perſons having cauſe to inſpect the regiſter books of carts, cars, or drays, kept by the commiſſioners, ſhall and may inſpect the ſame; and the commiſſioners, or their clerks keeping ſuch regiſter, are upon requeſt to produce the regiſter books, and to give to ſuch perſon a true copy of ſuch entry therein as ſhall be required; and the clerk is to receive for every ſuch ſearch, and a copy of every entry, the ſum of fourpence, and no more; and the like ſum where only ſearch ſhall be made, although no copy ſhall be required. ſ. 20.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 27. No perſon whatſoever ſhall drive any cart, car, dray, or other ſuch carriage, within London or Weſtminſter, and the ſuburbs thereof, the borough of Southwark, and other ſtreets and places within the bills of mortality, or five miles of Temple Bar, except the owner of ſuch cart, &c. ſhall have entered his name and place of abode with the commiſſioners for licenſing hackney coaches; and ſhall, upon ſome conſpicuous part of ſuch cart, &c. have the name of the owner, and the number of ſuch cart, &c. in order that the driver may be the more eaſily convicted for any diſorder or miſbehaviour committed by him; and in caſe of neglect or refuſal of entry, and affixing ſuch number on ſuch cart, &c. the owner or driver of ſuch cart, &c. reſiding out of the bills of mortality, and driven within five miles of Temple Bar, ſhall be ſubject to all the penalties relative to ſuch owners or drivers, within the cities of London or Weſtminſter, and the ſuburbs thereof, the borough of Southwark, and other ſtreets within the bills of mortality; which ſhall be recovered and applied in ſuch manner as forfeitures are recoverable from the owners of carts driven within London or Weſtminſter, and the ſuburbs thereof, the borough of Southwark, and other ſtreets within the bills of mortality. ſ. 8.

Cattle.

By 31 Geo. 2. c. 40. No ſaleſman, or other broker or factor, employed to buy or ſell any ſort of cattle for others, by commiſſion, or for reward, ſhall by himſelf, or any ſervant or agent, directly or indirectly, on his own account, buy any live ox, bull, cow, ſteer, bullock, heifer, calf, ſheep, lamb, or ſwine, in London, or within the weekly bills of mortality, or at any place whilſt any ſuch cattle ſhall be on the road, or coming up for ſale in London, or within the weekly bills of mortality (other than ſuch cattle which he ſhall actually purchaſe for the uſe or proviſion of his family, and ſhall actually uſe accordingly); and no ſuch ſaleſman, broker, or factor, ſhall ſell or offer for ſale, on his own account, in London, or within the weekly bills of mortality, either by himſelf, or his ſervant or agent, any live ox, bull, cow, ſteer, bullock, heifer, calf, ſheep, lamb, or ſwine; upon pain to forfeit double the value of any live cattle, which he ſhall ſo buy or ſell on his own account. ſ. 11. For the mode of recovering the penalty, ſee this act, ſec. 15. under § Hay, poſt.

By 21 Geo. 3. c. 67. If any perſon employed to drive any cattle within the cities of London or Weſtminſter, or the liberties thereof, or the bills of mortality, ſhall, by negligence or ill uſage in the driving ſuch cattle, be the means that any miſchief ſhall be done by ſuch cattle, or any of them, which ſhall be committed to his care; or if any driver of cattle ſhall miſbehave himſelf, in the driving, care, or management of ſuch cattle, by improper driving, treating, or uſing of ſuch cattle; then any conſtable, or other peace officer, upon view thereof, or information of any perſon (who ſhall declare his name and place of abode, to the ſaid conſtable), may ſeize and ſecure, and, without warrant, convey ſuch offender before ſome juſtice; and the party accuſed being brought before ſuch juſtice, ſuch juſtice ſhall examine upon oath any witneſs touching ſuch offence; and if the party ſhall be convicted, either by his own confeſſion, or upon ſuch information as aforeſaid, he ſhall forfeit not exceeding twenty, nor leſs than five ſhillings, to the perſon who ſhall proſecute; and if he ſhall not forthwith pay the ſum forfeited, ſuch offender ſhall, by warrant of the juſtice, be committed to the houſe of correction, or ſome other priſon, there to be kept to hard labour not exceeding one month. ſ. 1.

And if any perſon, not employed to drive cattle, ſhall pelt with ſtones, brickbats, or by any other means drive or hunt away, or ſhall ſet any dog at any ox, heifer, cow, ſteer, or other cattle, without the conſent of the owner, or his ſervant; then any conſtable, or other peace officer, upon view thereof, or information of any perſon who ſhall declare his name and place of abode to the ſaid conſtable, may ſeize and ſecure, and without warrant convey ſuch offender before ſome juſtice; and the party accuſed being brought before ſuch juſtice, ſuch juſtice ſhall examine upon oath any witneſs touching ſuch offence; and if the party ſhall be convicted by his own confeſſion, or upon ſuch information, he ſhall forfeit not exceeding twenty, nor leſs than five ſhillings, to the perſon who ſhall proſecute; and if he ſhall not forthwith pay the ſum forfeited, ſuch offender ſhall, by warrant of the juſtice, be committed to the houſe of correction, or ſome other priſon, there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month. ſ. 2.

And in caſe the perſon giving ſuch information ſhall not attend (without ſome excuſe, to be allowed by the juſtice) ſuch conſtable, within ſix hours from the time of making ſuch information, he, ſo offending, ſhall (upon proof being made on the oath of ſuch conſtable, that ſuch perſon had given ſuch information as aforeſaid) forfeit not exceeding forty, nor leſs than ten ſhillings, to ſuch conſtable, &c. which if not paid upon demand by ſuch conſtable, &c. the ſame ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant of ſuch juſtice. ſ. 3.

The court of mayor and aldermen of the city of London, may make and ſet down in writing, ſuch reaſonable rules, orders, or ordinances, for governing and regulating all perſons who ſhall drive any cattle, ſheep, calves, or lambs, within the ſaid cities of London or Weſtminſter, and liberties thereof, or the bills of mortality, and annex reaſonable penalties and forfeitures for the breach of ſuch rules, &c. not exceeding forty, nor leſs than ten ſhillings, for any one offence; and ſuch rules they may amend. ſ. 4.

Nothing in this act ſhall impower the ſaid court of mayor and aldermen to ſhorten the time for keeping Smithfield market open; but the ſame ſhall be kept open from twelve o'clock at night till three o'clock in the afternoon on the ſeveral market days, and at no other hours, unleſs the ſaid court ſhall judge it proper to enlarge the time for keeping it open. ſ. 5.

One juſtice of London or Weſtminſter, or the bills of mortality, ſhall have power to hear and determine in a ſummary way, complaints of offences that ſhall be committed contrary to any of the rules, orders, or ordinances, hereafter to be made by the court of mayor and aldermen, in purſuance of this act; and the ſaid juſtice is upon view, or upon complaint made, on oath, of any offence committed contrary to ſuch rules, &c. within ſix days, to iſſue his warrant, directed to ſuch conſtables, &c. as the juſtice ſhall think fit, thereby requiring him to apprehend ſuch offender, and to bring him before the ſaid juſtice, to anſwer the matters of complaint to be contained in ſuch warrant; and if ſuch offender ſhall be convicted, either by confeſſion, or the oath of one witneſs, ſuch juſtice may impoſe a fine upon him, for the ſaid offence, not exceeding the penalty which ſhall be inflicted by the ſaid rules, &c.; and if the perſon convicted, ſhall not forthwith pay the penalty, ſuch juſtice may commit him to the houſe of correction, or other priſon, there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month, unleſs the penalty ſhall be ſooner paid; which penalties ſhall go to the perſon who ſhall proſecute. ſ. 6.

If any perſon apprehended for any offence againſt this act, ſhall refuſe to diſcover his name and place of abode, to the juſtice before whom he ſhall be brought, ſuch perſon ſhall immediately be delivered over to a conſtable, and conveyed to the common gaol, or houſe of correction, there to remain for one month, or until he ſhall declare his name and place of abode. ſ. 7.

An abſtract of this act, and all ſuch rules, &c. ſo to be made, by the court of mayor and aldermen, ſhall, within fourteen days after making of ſuch rules, &c. be printed and affixed upon ſuch of the moſt conſpicuous places within London and Weſtminſter, the liberties thereof, and bills of mortality, as the ſaid court ſhall think proper and order. ſ. 8.

In caſe any perſon againſt whom a warrant ſhall be iſſued by any juſtice, either before or after conviction, for any offence againſt this act, or againſt ſuch rules, &c. ſhall eſcape, go into, reſide, or be in any other county, &c. out of the juriſdiction of the perſon granting ſuch warrant; or if the goods of any offender ſhall be in a different county than where the ſaid party was convicted, or the warrant of diſtreſs granted, it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of the county, &c. into which ſuch perſon ſhall eſcape, or where his goods ſhall be after conviction, upon proof made, upon oath, of the hand writing of the juſtice granting ſuch warrant, to indorſe his name on ſuch warrant, and the ſame, when ſo indorſed, ſhall be a ſufficient authority to all peace officers to execute ſuch warrant, in ſuch other county, &c.; and the ſaid juſtices, after indorſing the ſaid warrant, may, on the offender being apprehended and brought before the ſaid juſtices, hear and determine the complaint in the ſame manner as if it had originally aroſe within their juriſdictions, or may direct the offender to be carried to the perſon who granted the warrant. ſ. 9.

No perſon ſhall ſuffer any puniſhment for any offence againſt this act, unleſs the proſecution be commenced within fourteen days; and when any perſon ſhall ſuffer impriſonment, in default of payment of any penalty, ſuch perſon ſhall not be liable afterwards to pay ſuch penalty. ſ. 10.

Any perſon aggrieved by the order or judgment of any juſtice, may appeal to the next general or quarter ſeſſions, firſt giving ſecurity, in the ſum forfeited, before ſuch juſtice, to proſecute ſuch appeal with effect, and abide by the order made on ſuch appeal; and giving fourteen days notice, in writing, of ſuch intention to appeal, to the party on whoſe proſecution ſuch conviction was founded, if there are ſo many days between the conviction and ſuch general or quarter ſeſſions; and if not, then to the next ſubſequent general or quarter ſeſſions; and the general or quarter ſeſſions are to hear and determine ſuch appeal, and to make ſuch order therein, and to award ſuch coſts as to them ſhall appear juſt; and to cauſe to be levied, under the order of ſuch ſeſſion, the coſts awarded, together with the money they adjudge to be forfeited, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the perſon who ſhall refuſe to pay, or of the perſon who ſhall have become ſurety. ſ. 11.

No order or proceedings before any juſtice, ſhall be quaſhed for want of form; and the order of ſeſſions ſhall be final; and no proceedings in purſuance of this act ſhall be removable by certiorari. ſ. 12.

The juſtice may cauſe the conviction to be drawn up in the following form. ſ. 13.

Actions for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſhall be brought within ſix months, and laid in the county, &c. in which offence ſhall have been committed; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff ſhall become nonſuit, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 14.

Churches.

By 1 Ann. ſtat. 2. c. 12. No building ſhall be erected on any part of Saint Paul's Church Yard, London, except a place for the meeting of the chapter, and for keeping ſtores for repairs of the church; and if any other building be erected there, the ſame ſhall be eſteemed a common nuiſance. ſ. 4.

By 9 Ann. c. 22. The money ariſing by the duty on coals imported into the Thames, of 2*s. per* chalder, from 14 May 1716 to 29 September 1716, and 3*s.* till 28 Sept. 1724, is to be paid into the exchequer, and appropriated for building fifty new churches of ſtone and other materials, with towers or ſteeples to each, and for purchaſing ſites of churches and church-yards, and burying places, in or near London and Weſtminſter, and for making ſuch chapels as are capable thereof pariſh churches, and for purchaſing houſes for miniſters, and for applying 4000 l. per ann. out of the ſaid duties, towards the repairing the collegiate church of St. Peter Weſtminſter, and 6000 l. per ann. towards the finiſhing Greenwich Hoſpital.

There ſhall be fifty churches built, whereof one ſhall be in the pariſh of Greenwich. ſ. 3.

Chapels already built, if fit, may be converted into pariſh churches. ſ. 4.

The queen, by letters patent, may nominate commiſſioners, who ſhall inform themſelves in what pariſhes the new churches are moſt neceſſary to be built, and of proper places to build them, and of church-yards and burying-places to be bought; and ſhall limit the diſtinct pariſhes, &c. ſ. 5.

By 10 Ann. c. 11. The commiſſioners for building fifty new churches, or any five of them, are required to meet as often as they ſhall have occaſion. ſ. 1.

The commiſſioners may purchaſe lands, &c. as they ſhall think proper for the ſaid new churches, and for church-yards, and for miniſters houſes. ſ. 2.

The

The lands ſo purchaſed ſhall be conveyed to five or more of the commiſſioners and their heirs; and they are to cauſe the churches to be built, and chapels already built to be made pariſh churches, and to provide houſes for miniſters, and church-yards to be made and incloſed. ſ. 3.

They may provide more than one cemetery for a new pariſh church, and without the bounds of the pariſh; and the ground purchaſed for that uſe ſhall be taken as part of the pariſh, after the purchaſe and conſecration thereof, and ſhall be diſcharged from any rates to the other pariſh out of which it was taken. ſ. 4.

The treaſury may iſſue out of the monies ariſing by virtue of this or the former act 9 Ann. c. 22. ſuch ſums as five of the commiſſioners ſhall think neceſſary for purchaſing lands, &c. which money ſhall be paid to ſuch perſon as the crown ſhall appoint treaſurer thereof, not being a commiſſioner; and ſhall be accounted for by ſuch treaſurer, and diſburſed according to ſuch orders as he ſhall receive from the commiſſioners for the ſaid uſes; ſuch treaſurer to be accountable to the exchequer, and to give ſecurity approved by the treaſury. ſ. 7.

The commiſſioners may by a parchment writing inrolled in chancery, aſcertain the bounds of the ſite of each new church and miniſter's houſe and church-yard, and alſo the diſtrict of each pariſh for every new church; and after the inrolment of ſuch writing and conſecration of the church, ſuch diſtrict ſhall be a diſtinct pariſh, except touching church rates, relief of the poor, and rates for the highways. ſ. 8.

The commiſſioners may by writing inrolled in chancery take a part of any of the large pariſhes in and about London and Weſtminſter, where any new church ſhall be made, and unite the ſame to any other leſſer pariſh next adjoining, wherein a church is already built. ſ. 9.

There ſhall be a rector in every new church. And where there is a morning preacher in any chapel which ſhall be converted into a pariſh church, ſuch preacher ſhall after the conſecration be the firſt rector without any admiſſion, inſtitution, or induction; and in every other new church the firſt rector ſhall be appointed by the queen: and he and his ſucceſſors are incorporated, and ſhall be called the rector of ſuch new church, by the name that ſhall be given to it in the act of conſecration; and the freehold of the new church, &c. ſhall be in him and his ſucceſſors; and he and they may purchaſe lands, not exceeding the yearly value of 200*l.* for each church. ſ. 10.

The commiſſioners may enquire of the right of patronage, &c. of any church from which any part ſhall be taken as aforeſaid, and treat with the perſon who hath the right, for the dividing ſuch pariſh, and the tythes and dues thereunto belonging, to take effect after the firſt avoidance; and for ſettling the right of patronage of each new church. ſ. 11. Such ſettlement ſhall bind infants, &c. ſ. 12. Until ſuch ſettlement can be made of the right of patronage in every new pariſh, the crown ſhall preſent upon any avoidance. ſ. 14.

The rectors of every new church (except the preſent preacher in a chapel) ſhall be preſented, inſtituted, collated and inducted, as other rectors are; and they and the church-wardens ſhall be ſubject to the ordinary. ſ. 15.

This act ſhall not deprive the ſucceſſors of the rectors or vicars of the pariſh churches out of which any part ſhall be taken, of any tythes or other profits, until ſuch agreement for dividing the pariſh be made and inrolled. ſ. 16.

This act ſhall not prejudice any proprietor of a chapel made a pariſh church, or his intereſt in the pews, without his conſent under hand and ſeal. ſ. 17.

If any proprietor ſhall ſell his intereſt in a pew in any chapel, it ſhall be ſold only to an inhabitant of the pariſh. ſ. 18.

The firſt church-wardens, overſeers of the poor, and ſurveyors of the highways, and other pariſh officers of every new pariſh, ſhall be elected by the commiſſioners out of the inhabitants, within a month after the conſecration of the church; and all ſucceeding pariſh officers ſhall be choſen and ſworn yearly in every new pariſh, according to law. ſ. 19.

The commiſſioners, with the conſent of the ordinary, may by writing inrolled in chancery name a number of the inhabitants of each new pariſh to be veſtrymen, who ſhall have the ſame power as the veſtrymen of the pariſh out of which the new pariſh is taken; and if there are no ſelect veſtrymen in that pariſh, then as the veſtrymen of the pariſh of St. Martin in the Fields in Middleſex now have; and upon the death or removal, &c. of any veſtrymen, the reſt may chuſe another, being an inhabitant and houſeholder. ſ. 20.

All parochial cuſtoms, &c. uſed in any pariſh ſhall, notwithſtanding ſuch diviſion, continue in both pariſhes. ſ. 21.

The commiſſioners, with the conſent of the miniſters, church-wardens, and overſeers of the poor, and of the veſtry, or of twenty of the principal inhabitants where there is no ſelect veſtry, from which pariſh any part ſhall be taken, and of the pariſh to which it ſhall be appointed, or elſe the reſpective miniſters, pariſh officers, veſtrymen, or principal inhabitants, with conſent of the ordinary, by writing inrolled in chancery may make a perpetual diviſion of ſuch pariſhes as to church rates, the poor, highways, and other pariſh rates, and may ſettle any annual ſum or conſideration in reſpect thereof, or for equality of ſuch diviſion. ſ. 22.

Until ſuch agreement be made, the pariſh rates ſhall be aſſeſſed and levied through all parts which belong to ſuch preſent pariſh. ſ. 23.

The pariſh officers, with the veſtry or principal inhabitants of each pariſh, may meet every year on Tueſday in Eaſter-week, or oftener, upon notice given on the Sunday before, and after morning ſervice, aſſeſs the rates for the poor, &c. and other pariſh rates, and apportion the ſaid rates upon every part of ſuch preſent pariſh ſo divided; which rates ſhall be aſſeſſed and collected in each diſtrict by the proper officers, who ſhall diſtribute the rates in reaſonable proportions for every diſtrict, for the relief of the poor, &c. and other pariſh rates within ſuch diſtrict. ſ. 24.

When ſuch yearly agreements ſhall not be made for diſtributing ſuch rates, the pariſh officers for the diſtrict then remaining to ſuch preſent church may aſſeſs and collect of the inhabitants, through the limits of ſuch pariſh, all rates and taxes, as they might have done before any diviſion. ſ. 25.

This act ſhall not invalidate any eccleſiaſtical law of the church of England, or deſtroy any of the rights of the biſhop of London, or any other local ordinary, or any archdeacon, chancellor or official. ſ. 26.

He and they may viſit, inſtitute, and exerciſe eccleſiaſtical juriſdiction in all pariſhes to be erected or divided, as in any other pariſh. ſ. 27.

The monies to be iſſued in purſuance of this and the former act for building churches, ſhall be iſſued without fee. ſ. 30.

No

No burial ſhall be in or under any of the churches intended to be built. And the commiſſioners may ſettle what ſum ſhall be paid to the rector and church officers for burials in the church yards. ſ. 31.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 23. All monies which ſhall be raiſed by the duty of 3 s. per chalder upon coals imported into the Thames, from the 27th of September 1724 to the 28th of September 1729, by virtue of this act, ſhall be brought into the exchequer, and are appropriated for the providing maintenances for the miniſters in the new churches to be erected in and about London and Weſtminſter, and ſhall be iſſued in ſuch manner as ſhall be directed by parliament. ſ. 2.

The king may by letters patent appoint commiſſioners, who, or any five of them, ſhall have power to execute all the powers, &c. in the ſaid acts; and alſo to inform themſelves in what manner a due maintenance may be provided for the ſaid miniſters. ſ. 4.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 9. and 1 Geo. 2. ſtat. 2. c. 29. 360,000*l.* were granted by parliament, towards building of churches, &c. repairing Weſtminſter Abbey, finiſhing Greenwich Hoſpital, making proviſion for miniſters, &c.

Coaches and Chairs.

By 9 Ann. c. 23. made perpetual by 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. the crown may nominate under the great ſeal commiſſioners for regulating and licenſing hackney-coaches, not exceeding five, who ſhall regulate and licenſe all hackney-coaches within the bills of mortality. ſ. 1.

The commiſſioners may, under their hands and ſeals, or of the major part of them, licenſe not exceeding 800 hackney-coaches, and upon every licenſe there ſhall be reſerved the weekly ſum of 5 s. to be paid monthly. ſ. 2. By 11 Geo. 3. c. 24. 200 more may be licenſed.

The commiſſioners may licenſe 200 hackney-chairs within the bills of mortality, reſerving to the crown the yearly ſum of 10 s. to be paid quarterly. ſ. 3. By 12 Geo. 1. c. 12. 100 more may be licenſed.

No perſon ſhall drive or let to hire any hackney-coach or coach-horſes within the weekly bills, &c. without a licenſe from the commiſſioners, upon forfeiture of 5 l. nor carry any hackney-chair for hire without ſuch licenſe, upon forfeiture of 40 s. And no horſe ſhall be uſed in any hackney-coach under the ſize of fourteen hands. And every licenſed coach and chair ſhall have a mark or figure on each ſide; and if one perſon ſhall be licenſed to keep ſeveral hackney-coaches or chairs, he ſhall have diſtinct figures; and no perſon ſhall put the ſame figure on his coach or chair which is appointed for another, or ſhall deface the figure; upon forfeiture of 5 l. one moiety to the informer, and the other to the crown. ſ. 4.

Commiſſioners licenſing more than eight hundred coaches or two hundred chairs, ſhall forfeit 100 l. to be recovered in the courts at Weſtminſter by any who will ſue. ſ. 5.

Any hackney coachman or chairman exacting more than the fare, or refuſing to go at that rate, forfeits 40 s. ſ. 6.

The commiſſioners ſhall appoint under-officers, and they are not to take for their licenſes any gratuity or any fee, other than what is to be paid to the crown; upon pain to forfeit their offices, and to be incapable of any grant thereof, or of any other office. Only the clerks may take 2 s. 6 d. for ingroſſing each licenſe. ſ. 9.

The commiſſioners and other officers ſhall take an oath for the due execution of their offices. ſ. 10.

The commiſſioners ſhall pay the money into the exchequer, and upon oath deliver to the treaſury books of accounts, containing all the licenſes granted and the names and ſurnames of the perſons to whom granted, &c. once in every year. ſ. 11.

The weekly and other rents and ſums of money, and all forfeitures and penalties by this act, or by any by-laws made by the commiſſioners (the penalties to be incurred by the commiſſioners excepted) ſhall be levied by warrant of three of the commiſſioners, by diſtreſs of the goods of the offender, which ſhall be ſold within ten days after the diſtreſs, &c. and if no diſtreſs can be had, the offender ſhall be committed by like warrant till the penalty paid; and if the rent be behind fourteen days, the commiſſioners (without demanding the arrear) may revoke the licenſe. ſ. 12.

Offences againſt the act may be heard and determined by three commiſſioners in a ſummary way, upon the oath of one witneſs, or upon confeſſion (the party being ſummoned) one moiety to the crown, the other to the informer. ſ. 13.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue; and if judgment be againſt the plaintiff, the defendant ſhall have double coſts. ſ. 14.

No certiorari ſhall ſuperſede execution or other proceeding upon any order of the commiſſioners. ſ. 15.

The commiſſioners may make by-laws to bind the perſons who have licenſes, and annex penalties for the better putting in execution this act, and for the good government of the perſons licenſed. ſ. 16.

The by-laws ſhall be approved by the lord chancellor and the two chief juſtices and chief baron, or any three of them, and then printed; and the breach of ſuch by-laws ſhall be puniſhable by any juſtice of peace, mayor or head-officer, where the offence ſhall be committed. ſ. 17.

That part of the penalties which belongs to the queen ſhall be tranſmitted to the receiver-general of the revenues of the hackney-coaches, and certified to the commiſſioners within ten days after levied; upon forfeiture of double the ſum; two thirds to the crown, the other third to the informer. ſ. 18.

Upon complaint to the commiſſioners that a coachman or chairman hath offended, he ſhall be ſummoned; and if he refuſe to appear, or is found guilty of a miſbehaviour, they may revoke his licenſe, for giving abuſive language, or otherwiſe. ſ. 19.

Coachmen or chairmen licenſed may ply on the Lord's day, notwithſtanding 29 Car. 2. c. 7. ſ. 20.

An account of the profits ariſing by licenſing coaches and chairs ſhall be made annually before the auditors of the impreſts. ſ. 21.

If any refuſe to pay a coachman or chairman his juſt hire, or ſhall cut or break any coach or chair wilfully, any juſtice of peace may grant a warrant againſt the offender, and, upon proof on oath, award ſatisfaction; and upon refuſal to make ſatisfaction, may bind him over to the next ſeſſions, which ſhall finally determine, and for non-payment levy by diſtreſs. ſ. 22.

If any perſon driving a coach or carrying a chair for hire under the licenſe of another perſon as his ſervant, ſhall be guilty of any miſbehaviour, by demanding more than his fare, or giving abuſive language, or other rude behaviour, and being convict by oath of one witneſs before the commiſſioners or one juſtice for London, Weſtminſter, Middleſex, or Surrey, he ſhall forfeit not exceeding 20 s. to the poor of the pariſh; or if not able to pay, ſhall be ſent to Bridewell or ſome houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for ſeven days, and have the public correction of the houſe. ſ. 49.

By 10 Ann. c. 19. made perpetual by 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. ſ. 1. The commiſſioners for hackney-coaches may licenſe (over and above the number of chairs by the former act) any additional number not exceeding one hundred hackney-chairs, ſo that the number of all the chairs ſhall not exceed three hundred at one time. ſ. 158.

Hackney-chairs thus licenſed ſhall pay the yearly rent of 10*s.* quarterly, and be ſubject to the ſame rules as other hackney-chairs and chairmen by the former act. ſ. 159.

By 12 Ann. ſtat. 1. c. 14. The commiſſioners for licenſing coaches and chairs, ſhall in the firſt place licenſe the widows of hackney-chairmen who die poſſeſſed of any licenſes, unleſs ſuch widows ſhall neglect to take licenſes, &c. within a reaſonable time to be limited by the commiſſioners, but not leſs than twenty days. ſ. 1.

Such widows, and their chairs and ſervants, ſhall be liable to ſuch rules, penalties and orders, as any other licenſed chairmen are by the acts 9 Ann. c. 23. and 10 Ann. c. 19.—ſ. 2.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 57. The commiſſioners authoriſed to put 9 Ann. c. 23. in execution, may make ſuch by-laws to bind perſons licenſed to keep hackney-coaches, the renters of ſuch licenſes, and drivers of ſuch coaches, and annex ſuch penalties as they ſhall think fit; ſo as ſuch by-laws be agreeable to the intent of this and former acts, and for the good government of the perſons licenſed, the renters and drivers. The ſaid by-laws to be put in execution, as by the act 9 Ann. c. 23.—ſ. 1.

If any hackney-coachman or driver ſhall refuſe to go at, or ſhall exact more for his hire than ſhall be appointed, he ſhall forfeit a ſum at the diſcretion of the commiſſioners, not exceeding 3 l. nor under 10*s.* the ſaid offences to be determined and the penalties levied as by the ſaid act is directed concerning the 40*s.* penalty. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall ply or drive for hire with any coach, herſe or coach-horſes, to attend on any funeral in London, Weſtminſter, or the bills of mortality, except perſons licenſed by the commiſſioners; on pain to forfeit 5 l. as by 9 Ann. c. 23.—ſ. 3.

If any perſon ſhall drive a mourning coach or herſe to any funeral, except the ſame have a number fixed on the fore-ſtandard, or in ſome other place to be appointed by the commiſſioners, or except the ſame be the coach of ſome gentleman attending the maſter or any of the family, the commiſſioners upon information may ſummon the driver, againſt whom not appearing they are impowered to proceed; and though no expreſs hiring ſhall be proved, yet unleſs the party appear and prove a previous order from the owner of ſuch coach, &c. to attend at ſuch funeral, it ſhall be adjudged a driving for hire; and the party ſhall forfeit 5 l. to be recovered of the driver or the undertaker of ſuch funeral, to be levied and applied as aforeſaid. ſ. 4. See further, 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 27. ſ. 7.

If any perſon be ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, he may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall have double coſts. ſ. 5.

No certiorari ſhall ſuperſede execution or other proceeding upon any order of the commiſſioners, in purſuance of this act. ſ. 6.

The alderman of every ward of the city, and every juſtice of peace in the ſaid cities and counties, may inflict and levy the like penalties for any offences contrary to this act, as the commiſſioners may. Provided that no perſon be puniſhed twice for the ſame offence. ſ. 7.

By 12 Geo. 1. c. 12. continued by 33 Geo. 2. c. 25. ſo long as any act for licenſing hackney-coaches. The commiſſioners for hackney-coaches are to licenſe an additional number of hackney-chairs not exceeding one hundred, ſo that the number of all the chairs to be licenſed ſhall not exceed four hundred. ſ. 15.

On every of the licenſes to be granted in purſuance of this act for keeping any hackney-chair, there ſhall be reſerved to his majeſty the annual ſum of 10*s.* to be paid quarterly at the four uſual feaſts; and the chairs ſhall have the ſame rates, and be ſubject to the ſame rules, as are by the former acts preſcribed. ſ. 16.

See 30 Geo. 2. c. 22. ſ. 6. under "Carts." Part II. p. 34.

By 4 Geo. 3. c. 36. Every juſtice for the counties of Kent and Eſſex ſhall have the ſame power and authority, within his juriſdiction, to put the laws in execution againſt the drivers of licenſed hackney coaches, for any offence committed againſt the laws, as the commiſſioners, aldermen and juſtices of London, Weſtminſter, Middleſex, and Surrey, now have. ſ. 2.

By 7 Geo. 3. c. 44. Upon every information before the commiſſioners, againſt any perſon, for driving for hire, or letting to hire, any hackney coach, contrary to 9 Ann. although no expreſs hiring ſhall be proved; yet unleſs the party accuſed ſhall appear, and make proof to the commiſſioners, that no money or other gratuity was paid, or agreed to be paid, for the uſe of ſuch coach, the ſame ſhall be deemed a driving for or letting to hire; and every perſon offending ſhall incur the like penalty as if money, or other gratuity, was actually proved to be paid. ſ. 10.

Every coachman, licenſed by the commiſſioners, plying for hire within London or Weſtminſter (or within the weekly bills of mortality, and the ſuburbs of the ſaid cities of London or Weſtminſter, by 12 Geo. 3. c. 49. ſ. 1.) ſhall be obliged on every day of the week, at ſeaſonable times, to go any where within the diſtance of ten miles from London or Weſtminſter; and in caſe of refuſal, ſhall be liable to the like penalty and puniſhment, as in caſes of refuſal to carry for hire. ſ. 12.

Every perſon licenſed by the commiſſioners to keep and uſe for hire any hackney chair, within London and Weſtminſter, and the ſuburbs thereof, and within the weekly bills of mortality, or any perſon legally acting under ſuch perſon, ſhall be entitled to, and may take the rates and fares herein-after mentioned. ſ. 13.

For any diſtance not exceeding one mile, twelve pence:
Above one, and not exceeding one mile and four furlongs, one ſhilling and ſix pence:
And for every further diſtance not exceeding four furlongs, ſix pence:
And by the hour, eighteen pence for the firſt hour, and ſix pence for every half of an hour after.

The ſaid fares may be recovered in like manner as the fares ſettled by 9 Ann. ſ. 14.

In every caſe where any perſon, for offences mentioned in any law relating to hackney coaches and chairs, ſhall be liable to be committed to priſon, it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners, or three of them, either to commit ſuch offender to priſon, for not exceeding one month, or, by warrant under their hands and ſeals, to commit ſuch offender fender to his majeſty's workhouſe of Bridewell in London, or ſome other houſe of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month; and alſo to receive the correction of the ſaid houſe, if the commiſſioners ſhall ſo think fit to order. ſ. 15.

If any perſon duly licenſed to let or drive for hire any hackney coach, ſhall be guilty of miſbehaviour in his employment, it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners, or three of them, either to revoke ſuch coachman's licenſe, or to inflict a penalty not exceeding three pounds, upon conviction for every ſuch offence, to be paid to the poor of the pariſh where offence committed; and if any perſon ſo convicted ſhall not be able, or ſhall refuſe to pay, he ſhall be committed to Bridewell, or ſome other houſe of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for thirty days. ſ. 16.

Every licenſed hackney coachman, or his driver, who ſhall drive with any hackney coach on the Lord's day, ſhall be liable to do the like work, as well without the weekly bills of mortality as within, as on any other day of the week. ſ. 18.

No writ of certiorari ſhall ſuperſede execution or other proceeding upon any order made by the commiſſioners in purſuance of this act. ſ. 21.

If any perſon ſhall be ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, he may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict ſhall paſs for the defendant, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 22.

By 10 Geo. 3. c. 44. The commiſſioners, or three of them, in all caſes where they may now, by law, commit any offender convicted before them to Bridewell, or any other houſe of correction, may commit ſuch offender, by warrant, immediately to Bridewell in London, or ſome other houſe of correction; there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month, and alſo to receive the correction of the houſe, if the commiſſioners think fit. ſ. 5.

Every perſon licenſed to carry or let for hire a hackney-chair, who ſhall neglect or refuſe (being ſummoned) to appear before the commiſſioners in perſon, or by his renter, upon any complaint made, without ſome reaſonable excuſe to be approved of by the commiſſioners, ſhall forfeit ten ſhillings; and if ſuch perſon ſhall not appear, together with his renter, upon the third ſummons, without ſuch reaſonable excuſe, the commiſſioners may determine the complaint, notwithſtanding the abſence of the party offending, upon the oath of one witneſs, and impoſe the penalty. ſ. 6.

All the offences mentioned in 7 Geo. 3. or this act, may be determined, and all the forfeitures recovered and levied, not only by the commiſſioners, but alſo by any juſtice, mayor, bailiff, or other magiſtrate, as directed by 9 Ann. ſ. 7.

His majeſty's part of all penalties which ſhall be levied by any juſtice, mayor, bailiff, or other magiſtrate, ſhall be tranſmitted by him to the receiver general of the revenues ariſing by hackney coaches and chairs, and alſo a certificate thereof to the commiſſioners for licenſing and regulating the ſame, within ten days after the levying any ſuch penalty, upon pain of ten pounds; one moiety to his majeſty, and the other to him that will inform. ſ. 8.

For any thing done in purſuance of this act, defendants may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 9.

By 11 Geo. 3. c. 24. The commiſſioners are over the eight hundred hackney coaches authoriſed to be licenſed by 9 Ann. to licenſe any additional number of hackney coaches, not exceeding two hundred, to be employed for hire within the cities and limits, ſo that the number ſhall not exceed one thouſand; and upon every licenſe, there be reſerved and made payable unto his majeſty, &c. the like weekly ſum of five ſhillings, to be paid from the commencement of every ſuch licenſe, during the continuance thereof, in like manner, and with like penalties, &c. therein inſerted, as in other licenſes granted; and the ſame hackney coaches, and the perſons licenſed under that act, ſhall have the ſame rates, and be ſubject to all the orders, rules, regulations, bye-laws, penalties, matters, and things, preſcribed before the making this act: and all perſons who ſhall drive or let to hire any hackney coach or coach horſes, or carry any perſon for hire in any hackney coach, within London and Weſtminſter, or the ſuburbs of the ſame, or within the weekly bills of mortality, without ſuch licenſe, ſhall be liable to all forfeitures for ſo doing, as if this act had not been made. ſ. 1.

Out of the monies to ariſe by rents of hackney coaches, three commiſſioners of the treaſury may reward the ſaid commiſſioners, and the clerks, officers, and others employed, and diſcharge incident expences. ſ. 3.

If any action be commenced againſt any perſon for any thing done in purſuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict, &c. for the defendant, he ſhall recover double coſts. ſ. 4.

By 11 Geo. 3. c. 28. All the new ſquares, buildings, and ſtreets, within the ſeveral pariſhes of Saint Mary le Bone; Saint George Hanover Square; Saint George the Martyr Queen Square; and Saint George Bloomſbury, within the county of Middleſex, and alſo all the burying grounds within five miles of London or Weſtminſter, belonging to any of the pariſhes within the ſaid cities, or the pariſhes before mentioned, ſhall be deemed to be within the cities of London or Weſtminſter, or the ſuburbs thereof, according to 9 Ann.; and the juriſdiction and authorities of the commiſſioners, and of juſtices, and all the proviſions, penalties, and forfeitures therein, ſhall extend thereto. ſ. 1.

The commiſſioners may order the perſons who take out licenſes for uſing hackney coaches, to provide cheque ſtrings or wires, to be placed in every coach; and every hackney coachman plying for hire without ſuch cheque ſtring or wire, ſhall forfeit five ſhillings; to be recovered in ſuch manner as other penalties. ſ. 2.

If any action be commenced for any thing done under this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue, &c. and may recover treble coſts. ſ. 5.

By 12 Geo. 3. c. 49. The commiſſioners or any other perſon having authority to put any of the laws in execution, ſhall not be compelled to fine or puniſh any licenſed hackney coachman, his renter or driver, for refuſing to carry a fare out of the ordinary courſe of his ſtage-work or duty, who ſhall regularly uſe and employ his coach, ſo licenſed, as a ſtage coach to and from any of the towns or places in the neighbourhood of the cities of London and Weſtminſter; and who ſhall alſo, by painting in legible characters on the door of ſuch coach, or by a board, to be painted in legible characters, and affixed on the door of ſuch coach, plainly denote the ſame to be a ſtage coach to and from ſuch town or place. ſ. 2.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 27. There ſhall be paid unto his majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, from all perſons licenſed to drive or keep a hackney-coach or coach horſes, within London and Weſtminſter, or the ſuburbs of the ſame, or within the weekly bills of mortality, the additional weekly duty of five ſhillings, for each coach licenſed; to be paid monthly from 4 Sep. 1784, without any abatement. And all powers and other matters preſcribed by any former act, ſhall be of full force with relation to the additional duty hereby impoſed, and ſhall be put in execution for levying the ſame. ſ. 1.

When any of the licenſes already granted ſhall become void, the commiſſioners or three of them may grant ſuch licenſes anew to any perſon under payment as well of the weekly rent of five ſhillings, reſerved by ſuch licenſes, as of the additional weekly rent, and with ſuch covenants therein as the commiſſioners ſhall think fit. ſ. 2.

If the owner of any licenſed coach ſhall not appear before the commiſſioners, upon any complaint exhibited before them, and with his proper driver, upon the third ſummons left at the uſual place of abode of ſuch owner entered with the ſaid commiſſioners, the ſaid commiſſioners may revoke ſuch hackney coach licenſe, and licenſe another perſon in the room of ſuch owner. ſ. 3.

Perſons licenſed ſhall be ſubject to all the orders, rules, regulations, bye-laws, penalties, matters, and things, as are, or heretofore have been preſcribed (except ſuch parts as are hereby repealed). ſ. 6.

If any perſon ſhall drive a mourning coach or hearſe to any funeral within London or Weſtminſter, or the ſuburbs of the ſame, or within five miles of Temple-bar in the ſaid city of London, except the ſame ſhall have a number fixed on the fore-ſtandard of ſuch mourning coach or hearſe, ſhewing it to be a licenſed coach or hearſe let to hire, and information ſhall be given to the commiſſioners of ſuch fact, the ſaid commiſſioners may ſummon the party driving ſuch mourning coach or hearſe before them, and, on default of ſuch party appearing on ſuch ſummons before the commiſſioners, the ſaid commiſſioners are to proceed againſt him, and although no expreſs hiring ſhall be proved, it ſhall be adjudged a driving for hire, and the party offending ſhall forfeit for ſuch offence five pounds, to be recovered and applied as the penalty for driving without licenſe. ſ. 7.

The ſaid additional weekly duty (the charges of raiſing and accounting for the ſame excepted) ſhall be paid into the exchequer, apart from other branches of the public revenue; and in the office of the auditor there ſhall be kept a book, in which all monies ariſing from the ſaid additional duty, ſhall be entered. ſ. 9.

If any perſon ſhall be ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſuch perſon may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 10.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 72. Every perſon licenſed, or any one acting under ſuch licenſed perſon, ſhall be intitled to, and may demand, and take, for the hire of any hackney coach, the rates and fares herein after mentioned. ſ. 1.

For every diſtance within, and not exceeding one mile and two furlongs, twelve pence:

And for every further diſtance within, and not exceeding ſix furlongs (computed as beyond the ſaid firſt mentioned diſtance of one mile and two furlongs) ſix pence:

And for every further diſtance within, and not exceeding four furlongs (beyond the ſaid ſecond diſtance) ſix pence:

And ſo in like manner the ſum of ſix pence for every further diſtance within and not exceeding four furlongs, to be computed through the whole diſtance which ſuch coach ſhall be driven or go.

And, as reſpecting ſuch coaches as ſhall be conſidered to be kept in waiting, the following rates and fares may be demanded, and taken:

For any time, not exceeding three quarters of an hour, one ſhilling; and for any time exceeding three quarters of an hour, and not exceeding one hour, one ſhilling and ſix pence:

For any time exceeding one hour, and not exceeding one hour and twenty minutes, two ſhillings; and for every period of time, not exceeding twenty minutes, to be computed from the expiration of the ſaid firſt hour and twenty minutes, the ſum of ſix pence, to be computed through the whole time during which ſuch coach ſhall be engaged or employed:

And for a day's work or hire, reckoning twelve hours to the day, the ſum of fourteen ſhillings and ſixpence; and for any time, to be computed from the concluſion of the ſaid twelve hours, ſuch coach ſhall be conſidered as a coach in waiting, the ſame ſhall be paid for in the manner, and according to the rate aforeſaid.

If any hackney coachman, his renter or driver, ſhall exact or take more than the rates limited, he ſhall be ſubject to the like penalties and puniſhments, as now are in being, reſpecting ſuch hackney coachmen, &c. and the fares may be recovered as fares are now recoverable. ſ. 2.

If any hackney coachman, or his renter, ſhall be in arrear of payment of any rent reſerved by any licenſe, for any longer time than is expreſſed in ſuch licenſe, the commiſſioners, or the major part of them, may revoke ſuch licenſe, and levy the rents reſerved, either upon the goods and chattels of ſuch owner, or renter, in ſuch manner as they may do with reſpect to ſuch owner. ſ. 3.

Any perſon ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict paſs for the defendant, &c. ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 4.

 For further regulations in reſpect to hackney coaches plying for hire within the ſtreets of the city of London, ſee 11 Geo. 3. c. 29. ſ. 113, 114, and 115, under "Paving, &c." infra.

Coals.

By 16 & 17 Car. 2. c. 2. Made perpetual by 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 36. ſect. 2. All ſea-coals brought into the Thames and ſold ſhall be ſold by the chalder, containing thirty-ſix buſhels heaped according to the buſhel ſealed for that purpoſe at Guildhall; and all other coals commonly ſold by weight ſhall be ſold after the proportion of a hundred and twelve pounds to the hundred avoir du pois; upon pain of forfeiture of all coals otherwiſe ſold or expoſed to ſale by any woodmonger or retailer, and double the value thereof; to be recovered by any perſon in any court of record, or by complaint unto the lord mayor and juſtices of peace of London, or any two of them, or to the juſtices of peace of the places where ſuch coals ſhall be expoſed to ſale; who are upon due proof to convict the offenders, and to give warrant for levying the forfeitures; the one half for the uſe of the perſon proſecuting, and the other half for the poor, or repairing of the highways within the ſame or any adjoining pariſh; and the lord mayor and court of aldermen, and the juſtices of peace of the ſeveral counties or three of them (1 Qu.), are to ſet the prices of coals ſold by retail from time to time. ſ. 1. See 17 Geo. 2. c. 35. ſ. 1. under the general title "Coal Trade." Part I. 104.)

If any retailer of coals ſhall refuſe to ſell as aforeſaid, the lord mayor and aldermen and juſtices of peace reſpectively are to appoint perſons to enter into any place where ſuch coals are ſtored; and in caſe of refuſal, taking a conſtable, to force entrance; and the ſaid coals to ſell at ſuch rates, rendering to ſuch retailer the money, charges deducted. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſued by virtue of this act ſhall be ſued upon any other law for the ſame offence; and if any action ſhall be commenced for any thing done by colour of this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the verdict be found for him, &c. ſhall have his damages and double coſts. ſ. 4.

No perſon having intereſt in any wharf uſed for the receiving or uttering of coals, or that ſhall trade in the ſale of coals, ſhall act in the ſetting the price of coals. ſ. 5.

By 3 Geo. 2. c. 26. It ſhall be lawful for any perſons who ſhall keep wharfs on the Thames, or any branch thereof, and for any other perſons who ſhall deal in coals or other goods, to employ their own lighters and other craft, in carrying of coals and goods to and from any ſhip in the Thames, and to and from any wharf where ſuch goods might be lawfully landed or ſhipped off, ſo as the perſons employed in navigating ſuch lighter, &c. be duly qualified to row the ſame on the Thames. ſ. 1.

All perſons (not being lightermen) who by virtue of this act ſhall become entitled to uſe their own lighters, ſhall before their working the ſame make before the company of watermen, or ſome officer whom the company are required to appoint for that purpoſe, an entry of their lighters or their craft; for each of which entries the officer ſhall receive for the company 5 s. and thereupon he ſhall regiſter the ſame, with the owner's name and place of abode, and the number or mark intended to be affixed on ſuch lighters or other great craft; and after the entry, the owner ſhall affix ſuch number in metal or colours on the outſide of the lighter, viſible above water when loaded, there to remain without alteration (except with conſent of the company, or in caſes of involuntary accidents), and afterwards ſuch lighter and the owners thereof ſhall be ſubject to the rules of the company, in regard to the entries, numbers or marks. ſ. 2.

No lighterman or buyer of coals for ſale, nor any of their partners, agents or ſervants, or any in truſt for them, ſhall act as a crimp, agent or factor, for any maſter of any ſhip importing coals into the port of London, on forfeiture of 200 l. and every maſter, &c. who ſhall employ them to act as ſuch, ſhall forfeit the like ſum. ſ. 3.

Every perſon, who ſhall take any premium or allowance from any coal owner, fitter or maſter of a ſhip, for buying, vending, or diſpoſing of any particular ſort of coals, or ſhall otherwiſe offend, contrary to 9 Ann. c. 28. ſ. 3. (ſee Part I. 104.) ſhall, above the penalty inflicted by that act, forfeit 500 l. and every coal owner, or fitter, who ſhall give, or agree to give, to any ſhipmaſter, lighterman, crimp, or buyer of coals, or to any perſons in truſt for ſuch ſhipmaſter, &c. any premium, &c. for buying, vending, &c. any particular ſort of coals, or for the loading of any veſſel with ſuch coal owners coals, or for the diſpatch, delivery, or diſpoſal of ſuch coals from ſuch coal owners collieries or ſtaiths, and every perſon who ſhall knowingly ſell one ſort of coals for another, ſhall forfeit 500 l. ſ. 4.

Nothing in this act ſhall hinder any coal owner from employing or giving any ſalary or reward to any fitters for the vending of his coals from his colliery and ſtaiths; or to prevent any maſter or owners of any ſhip, uſing the coal trade, from employing crimps or factors (not being lightermen or buyers of coal for ſale, or any of their partners, agents or ſervants, or any in truſt for them) to ſell or diſpoſe of their loadings of coals, or pay them the crimpage or factorage as uſual. ſ. 5.

All bargains or contracts for coals between buyer and ſeller at the market of Billingſgate, or other place of ſale within the bills of mortality, ſhall by the crimp or factor be entered, with the conditions thereof, in the book of ſuch crimp, ſubſcribed by the ſeller and buyer, and witneſſed by the crimp, who ſhall at the ſame time deliver gratis a copy atteſted by him of ſuch bargain to the ſeller and buyer; and the entries ſo made, and the copies ſo given, ſhall be admitted as evidence on trials in any court of law; and if any crimp or factor ſhall neglect to enter ſuch contract, and to ſubſcribe and atteſt the ſame, or to give copies thereof, he ſhall forfeit 50 l. ſ. 6.

All lightermen and other buyers of coals on board any ſhip in the port of London, ſhall at the time of the delivery of ſuch coals pay for the ſame in ready money; or for ſuch part thereof as ſhall not be ſo paid for, ſhall give their promiſſory notes, expreſſing the words value received in coals, payable at ſuch days as ſhall be agreed upon; and all ſuch notes may be proteſted as inland bills of exchange; and in default of ſuch proteſting, and notice by the indorſee to the indorſer within twenty days after failure of payment, the indorſer ſhall not be liable to pay ſuch money as ſhall be mentioned in ſuch note. ſ. 7.

All lightermen and other buyers of coals, who ſhall refuſe to give their notes for coals to them delivered, and to inſert the words value received in coals; and every maſter who ſhall take ſuch note from any dealer in coals, in which note the ſaid words are not inſerted, ſhall forfeit 100 l. ſ. 8.

Every maſter of a ſhip uſing the coal trade ſhall be ſubject to the direction of the owners of the major part of his ſhip, and ſhall keep, and once a year tender to ſuch owners, if required, a true account in writing of the produce and expence of every voyage; and if he ſhall refuſe to obey the owners directions given under their hands, or to give ſuch account, being required by order under their hands, he ſhall forfeit 100 l.: provided that in ſuch directions there be nothing which ſhall relate to the reſtraining or inhancing the price of coals in the Thames, or to keeping of turn in delivering of coals there. ſ. 9.

All lightermen and others dealing in coals, who ſhall ſell any parcel of coals for pool meaſure, including the ingrain, &c. one chalder, which by an ancient cuſtom in the port of London is allowed in every ſcore bought on board ſhip, and ſhall not deliver to the buyers the full quantity meaſured to the lighterman, &c. by the maſter, together with the ingrain, ſhall forfeit 100 l. ſ. 10.

All coals which ſhall be landed at any place on the Thames, or on any branch near thereto, and which ſhall be carried to any place within the cities of London or Weſtminſter, or the bills of mortality, in any cart or carriage, ſhall be carried to the buyers in linen ſacks, ſealed and marked with white paint in oil at Guildhall, London, or at the exchequer office at Weſtminſter; which ſacks ſhall be four feet and two inches in length, and ſix-and-twenty inches in breadth, after they ſhall be made; which ſacks all dealers in and carriers of coals ſhall uſe for carriage of coals within the ſaid limits; and all makers of coal ſacks ſhall make them of the ſaid dimenſions at leaſt; and every dealer in, and carrier of coals, who ſhall make uſe of any other ſacks for carriage of coals within the limits aforeſaid, ſhall for every ſack forfeit 20 s. ſ. 11.

This act ſhall not extend to hinder any conſumer of coals from fetching home his coals by porters, or in his own or hired carts, without being obliged to uſe ſuch ſacks. ſ. 12.

All dealers in and ſellers of coals by the chalder, or leſſer quantity, within the cities of London and Weſtminſter, or ten miles of the ſame, ſhall keep and uſe at their wharfs, and other places for ſale of coals, a buſhel, as deſcribed in 12 Ann.

Ann. ſtat. 2. c. 17. ſ. 11. (ſee Part I. 104.) with which buſhel ſellers of coals ſhall meaſure all the coals they ſhall ſell by the chalder or leſſer quantity, and ſhall put three buſhels of coals into each ſack: and all dealers in coals who ſhall offend in the premiſes, ſhall forfeit 50 l. and if any ſervant of ſuch dealer in coals ſhall fill coals into ſacks without meaſuring the ſame by ſuch buſhel, he ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction to hard labour not exceeding thirty days nor leſs than fourteen days. ſ. 13.

All perſons dealing in coals, and uſing coal buſhels and ſmaller meaſures, ſhall before they uſe them have them fitted for work and uſe with iron or copper; and after they are ſo fitted, ſhall carry them to Guildhall, or to the exchequer office, to be ſealed with a ſteel inſtrument on the uppermoſt iron or copper hoop and ſtrap; which meaſures ſhall be kept by them, without alteration, at their places of ſale; which places of ſale are declared to be the wharfs, warehouſes, docks, ſheds, cellars, or other repoſitories for coals of ſuch as are dealers therein: and all dealers in coals who ſhall offend herein ſhall forfeit 50 l. and all perſons who ſhall alter any ſuch buſhel or other meaſure, or any of the ſacks, after they have been ſealed or marked, ſhall forfeit 50 l. ſ. 14.

Any perſon who ſhall be guilty of any of the offences declared by this act, and ſhall within ſix calendar months after ſuch offence make diſcovery of any coal owner, proprietor of a colliery, or of their agents or ſervants, or of any of their fitters, officers or clerks, or of any maſter of a ſhip, or of any lighterman, crimp, coal factor, or ſeller or retailer of coals, or other perſon concerned in the coal trade, who ſhall have committed any offence contrary to this act, ſo as they be convicted, the perſon making ſuch diſcovery ſhall be diſcharged from the penalties for all ſuch offences by him before that time committed, and ſhall be entitled to the ſame benefit from ſuch diſcovery and conviction as any other perſon. ſ. 15.

All penalties in this act above 5 l. ſhall be one moiety to the crown, and the other to him who ſhall ſue for the ſame within ſix months after ſuch offences committed, to be recovered with double coſts, by action of debt, &c. in any of his majeſty's courts of record; and all penalties in this act under 5 l. ſhall be recovered by complaint made to the lord mayor of London, or one juſtice of peace within the city of London, or one juſtice of the ſeveral places where ſuch offenders ſhall live; who are to call the parties before them, and examine ſuch complaint upon oath, and on due proof thereof made to his ſatisfaction, to grant a warrant for levying ſuch forfeitures; one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall be committed; and if ſuch forfeitures ſhall not be forthwith paid, the ſame ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods by warrant of the lord mayor, or ſuch juſtice of peace; and for want of ſufficient diſtreſs, the offender ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction for any time not exceeding thirty days, and not leſs than fourteen, to be kept to hard labour. ſ. 16.

By 4 Geo. 2. c. 30. It ſhall not be lawful for any owners of any ſhip employed in the coal trade, or any other perſon, to give any directions to any maſter of ſuch ſhip, or to any agent employed in the ſelling of coals, which ſhall relate to keeping turn in ſelling or delivering coals in the Thames; and no maſter or other perſon having command of ſuch ſhip ſhall obey ſuch orders, or keep turn as aforeſaid; upon pain to forfeit 100 l. one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to him who ſhall ſue for the ſame within ſix months after the offence committed, to be recovered with treble coſts by action of debt, &c. ſ. 1.

The maſter of every ſhip loaded with coals, or other perſon having charge thereof, ſhall deliver to the proper officer of the cuſtoms at London, the cocquets containing the lading of ſuch ſhip, within four days after the arrival of ſuch ſhip as high as Graveſend; on pain of forfeiting 50 l. to be recovered and diſpoſed of in manner before directed. ſ. 2.

By 11 Geo. 2. c. 15. If any buyer or ſeller of coals at Billingſgate, or other place of ſale within the bills of mortality, being required, ſhall neglect to ſign the contracts as by 3 Geo. 2. c. 26. is directed, every ſuch buyer and ſeller ſhall forfeit 50 l. one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to ſuch as ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts of record at Weſtminſter, within ſix months after ſuch offence. ſ. 6.

Every maſter of a ſhip carrying coals as aforeſaid, ſhall after every voyage produce to his owners (when required) a copy of ſuch contracts ſigned by the crimp; and in caſe of refuſal, ſuch maſter ſhall forfeit 50 l. as aforeſaid. ſ. 7.

It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners appointed in purſuance of 6 Will. 3. c. 10. (ſee Part I. 104.) or any three of them, to admeaſure and mark all waggons, barrows and other carriages, uſed in loading ſhips with coals in the port of Newcaſtle and members thereunto belonging. ſ. 8.

By 7 Geo. 3. c. 23. (in force by 17 Geo. 3. c. 13. until 1 June 1798.) For preventing frauds in the meaſurement of coals, ſold by wharf meaſure, within the city of London, and the liberties thereof; and between Tower Dock and Limehouſe Hole, in the county of Middleſex, there ſhall be erected and continued within the city of London, in or near Thames Street, one public office, which ſhall be called 'The Land Coal Meters Office for the city 'of London, and between the Tower of London and Lime- 'houſe Hole, in the county of Middleſex;' which ſaid office ſhall be kept open every day (Sundays excepted) from the twenty-fifth March to the twenty-ninth September, from five in the morning till nine in the evening; and from twenty-ninth September to twenty-fifth March, from ſix in the morning till ſix in the evening. ſ. 1.

The principal coal meter, and his deputies or ſervants, acting in the admeaſurement of coals, by virtue of this act, ſhall be ſubject to the comptrol of the court of lord mayor and aldermen of London; and may be diſmiſſed and ſuſpended by the ſaid court, from the execution and emoluments of their offices, upon complaint and proof of fraud, neglect, or other miſbehaviour, which complaints may be determined by the ſaid court in a ſummary way. ſ. 2.

In caſe John Evans (the principal coal meter hereby appointed) ſhall happen to die, the ſaid office ſhall be managed by ſuch perſon as ſhall be appointed by the lord mayor, aldermen, and commons, of the city of London, in common council aſſembled. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall be capable of acting as principal land coal meter, until he ſhall, before two juſtices for London, take an oath, "That he will truly and faithfully, accord- "ing to the beſt of his judgment and ability, execute the "office." ſ. 4.

The juſtices, who ſhall adminiſter the oaths directed to be taken, are to certify the taking thereof to the next general quarter ſeſſions for London, there to remain on record. ſ. 6.

If the principal coal meter, or any perſons under him, ſhall, during his continuance in office, be directly or indirectly concerned in the ſale of any coals, otherwiſe than in their offices, he ſhall forfeit twenty pounds; and being convicted before the ſaid court of lord mayor and aldermen, ſhall be diſmiſſed from his employment, and be for ever disabled from executing the same or any other under this act. s. 7.

The stations for the labouring coal meters, shall be frequently varied by the principal coal meter, as he shall think fit. s. 9.

All coals sold for wharf measure, within London, or at any of the wharfs, warehouses, or other places, between the Tower and Limehouse Hole, shall be measured in the presence of one of the labouring meters, as directed by 16 & 17 Car. 2. who shall fill up any bushel, as shall appear to be deficient in measure, out of the stock of the person vending. s. 10.

Fourpence for every chaldron which shall be sold and delivered, shall be paid by the person who keeps the place, where such coals are carted from, or by the seller, to the principal land coal meter, or the labouring coal meters, for the purposes following; that is to say, part for the use of the principal coal meter, as a recompence for his labour and trouble, and for defraying the charges of clerks, messengers, house rent, fire, candles, and other expences, and the other part for the hire of the labouring coal meters; and thereupon such principal land coal meter shall deliver to every seller, or the carmen, a ticket, signed by the principal land coal meter, and countersigned by the labouring coal meter delivering the same, in which shall be contained as well the christian and surname of the sellers, as the consumers, the quantity, and day, month, and year of delivery and admeasurement, the amount of the metage charge, and the names of the carmen; and also shall contain a notice to the purchaser, that if he is dissatisfied with the measure, which must be expressed to the carman before any part are shot from the cart; which said ticket shall be delivered unaltered by the labouring coal meter countersigning the same, to the carman; which said ticket, the carman is to deliver to the consumers therein named, or to their servant, who shall thereupon pay the seller the metage: and if the labouring coal meter, countersigning such ticket, shall, after payment of the metage, refuse to deliver such ticket to the carman, he shall forfeit forty shillings: and if such carman shall, after the ticket shall have been delivered to him, either alter, or neglect or refuse to deliver the same to the consumer, or servant, he shall likewise forfeit ten shillings. s. 11.

If any wharfinger, or dealer in coals, shall directly or indirectly give to any labouring coal meter, any sum of money, or other fee, reward, or gratuity whatsoever, over the fourpence per chaldron herein allowed for metage, being convicted thereof by the oaths (or affirmation) of two witnesses, before one justice, shall forfeit twenty pounds. s. 14.

If any labouring coal meter shall use, or permit sacks to be made use of, for the measuring or carrying of coals, of less dimensions than four feet in length, and two feet in breadth, being convicted thereof by the oaths (or affirmation) of two witnesses, before one justice, shall forfeit forty shillings. s. 15.

This act shall not extend to the owners of works for raising water by fire, nor to the owners of any coals to be bought, sold, and delivered, as pool measure, but they may have one chaldron, or more, delivered under the inspection of their own agent (in the absence of a meter) and in that case, such persons are exempted from payment of metage; but if such persons shall require the attendance of any meter, then they shall pay the fourpence as other consumers. s. 17.

If any such labouring coal meter shall wittingly suffer any coals sold as wharf measure (exceeding seventeen bushels) to be sent without being measured in the manner before directed, and shall not give information thereof to the principal land coal meter, or his deputies, within two days after, and shall be duly convicted thereof by the oaths of two witnesses; such labouring coal meter shall from thenceforth be for ever incapable of acting as a coal meter, and forfeit five pounds. s. 18.

Where any cart shall be stopped for re-admeasuring, the owner shall be entitled to two shillings and sixpence per hour, for every hour the cart shall be detained, over the usual cartage; which two shillings and sixpence per hour shall be paid by the vendor of the coals, in case the same shall be deficient; or by the purchaser, in case the same shall be found to amount to the quantity for which the same were sold. s. 20.

No seller of, or dealer in coals, within the limits aforesaid, shall, for any offences under this act, be subject to any other penalty, forfeiture, or disability, than what are herein inflicted or enacted, notwithstanding 3 Geo. 2. c. 26.— s. 21.

The several forfeitures and penalties under this act, shall be recovered and applied in the manner, and for the purposes following; viz. such as exceed five pounds, in any of his majesty's courts of record at Westminster; the one moiety to the use of the king, and the other (with full costs) to the use of such person who shall inform; and all other forfeitures and penalties shall be recovered by complaint made unto one justice, who is to call the parties before him, and to examine such complaint on oath, or affirmation, and upon proof, to grant a warrant for levying such penalties accordingly; the one moiety to the use of the informer, and the other to the use of the poor of the parish in which such offences shall have been committed; and in case such penalties shall not be forthwith paid, then the same shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the offenders, by warrant of such justice; and for want of distress, such offender shall be committed to hard labour, for not exceeding thirty, and not less than seven days. s. 22.

Any person convicted, may appeal to the general quarter sessions held for London or Middlesex, next after conviction; and that sessions, when appealed to, shall at the then next sessions after finally determine the same; and if the appellant shall not succeed in his appeal, or prosecute the same with effect, the said court shall award costs, to be then in open court, with the penalty, paid to the prosecutor; and for want thereof, to commit the person appealing to the common gaol, there to remain until payment; but in case the appellant shall succeed, and be acquitted of his conviction, the same court shall award to such appellant costs, to be then paid by the person on whose information such conviction shall have been founded; and for want of payment, the said court shall commit such informers to the common gaol, until they pay; but no conviction shall be quashed for want of form only. s. 23.

No writ of certiorari shall remove any conviction, or proceedings under this act, into courts at Westminster. s. 24.

Action, information, or suit, for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within two months, and shall be laid in London; and the defendant may plead the general issue: and if judgment shall be given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall have full costs.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 83. The act 7 Geo. 3. c. 23. other than and so far as altered by this act, shall be enforced during the continuance of this act; and also this act shall take effect, and be in force, until the first day of June 1798, and from thence to the end of the then next session of parliament. s. 1.

The

The principal land coal meters, within the limits of this act, or one of them, are to appoint a ſufficient number of labouring coal meters, within the ſaid limits; one or more of which ſhall attend every day (Sundays excepted) at ſuch of the coal wharfs, warehouſes, or other places of ſale, within the limits at which he ſhall be ſtationed, at ſuch times as is required by the wharfinger, or dealer in coals, to meaſure out, or ſee meaſured, the coals which ſhall be ſold at any of the wharfs, warehouſes, or places, where ſuch meters ſhall be ſtationed. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall be capable of acting as one of the labouring coal meters, until he ſhall, before one juſtice for London, take and ſubſcribe an oath, or affirmation, "That "he will duly and faithfully, to the beſt of his ſkill and "knowledge, execute the office, &c.; and that he will "truly and impartially meaſure, or ſee meaſured, all coals, "between buyer and ſeller, without favour or hatred." ſ. 3.

Upon notice in writing, or otherwiſe, being given to any of the labouring coal meters, or left at the principal land coal meter's office, for a labouring coal meter to attend at any wharf, warehouſe, or place named in ſuch notice, in order to meaſure, or ſee meaſured, the coals of the perſon giving notice, ſuch labouring coal meter ſhall attend, within the ſpace of one hour, or ſooner if poſſible, and do his duty according to this and the former act; and in caſe of neglect or refuſal to attend accordingly, ſuch labouring coal meter ſhall forfeit twenty ſhillings; and the principal land coal meters or coal meter, neglecting to ſend ſuch labouring coal meter, ſhall alſo forfeit twenty ſhillings. ſ. 4.

If any cart loaded, or any quantity of coals, exceeding ſeventeen buſhels, ſhall be ſent from any place within the limits, without having been meaſured under the inſpection of the principal coal meters, or of ſuch labouring coal meter, or without having firſt obtained a ticket (ſee 7 Geo. 3. c. 23. ſ. 11.), then, the vendor of the coals, being convicted thereof, by the oaths or affirmation of two witneſſes, before one juſtice for London or Middleſex, ſhall forfeit ten pounds. ſ. 5.

No ſacks for the carriage of coals, which ſhall not be full four feet four inches in length, and full twenty-ſix inches in breadth, after they are made, ſhall be ſealed or marked, at any office, or by any officer. ſ. 6.

If any wharfinger or carrier of coals ſhall uſe any ſack or ſacks for the carrying of coals, of leſs dimenſions than four feet in length, and two feet in breadth; or ſhall wilfully make, or procure to be made or uſed, any falſe buſhel or other meaſure, and be convicted thereof by oath or affirmation of two witneſſes, before one juſtice for London or Middleſex, he ſhall forfeit five pounds. ſ. 7.

If any labouring coal meter ſhall deliver a falſe or counterfeit ticket to any dealer, conſumer, carman, or other perſon, with intent to prejudice or defraud, or ſhall take from any dealer any fee, over the fourpence per chaldron, for the metage charge; or ſhall wilfully make, or ſuffer to be made, falſe meaſure of coals, or ſhall deliver a ticket for any quantity of coals, the whole of which he ſhall not have ſeen meaſured, and ſhall be, in any of the caſes, convicted thereof by the oaths or affirmation of two witneſſes, before one juſtice for London or Middleſex, he ſhall be incapable of ever ſerving thereafter in the office of a land coal meter; and the principal land coal meters ſhall, for every offence of ſuch labouring coal meters, ſo convicted, forfeit forty ſhillings. ſ. 8.

If the driver of any cart or carriage ſhall take or deliver, or ſuffer to be taken or delivered, from ſuch cart, &c. any coals under his care, otherwiſe than to or for the uſe of the owner or purchaſer, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings; and in caſe of non-payment, be committed, by warrant of the juſtice before whom conviction ſhall be had, to the common gaol of London or Middleſex, not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one, unleſs the penalty be ſooner paid. ſ. 9.

If any perſon ſhall be diſſatisfied with the meaſure of any coals ſold to him by wharf meaſure, and ſhall, upon delivery of the meter's ticket, ſignify his deſire to have the ſame re-meaſured, then the carman ſhall continue at the houſe or lodging of the purchaſer, with the ſaid coals and cart, until they are re-meaſured, under the penalty of five pounds on the owner or proprietor, and twenty ſhillings on the driver of the ſaid cart; and the ſaid purchaſer ſhall immediately ſend to the vendor, or to his wharf, &c. notice in writing that the coals are going to be re-meaſured, and alſo ſend notice thereof to the land coal meter's office; and thereupon a principal meter, or one of the labouring meters (not being the meter under whoſe inſpection the coals were originally meaſured), ſhall, within two hours after ſuch notice left at the meter's office, re-meaſure the ſame, ſack by ſack, in the preſence of the vendor and purchaſer, or their ſervants, and alſo in the preſence of one of the principal or labouring land coal meters for Weſtminſter; or for that part of the county of Surrey lying between Putney and Rotherhithe; if ſuch purchaſer ſhall require the attendance of ſuch laſt-mentioned coal meter; who ſhall attend within the two hours after notice in writing left at ſuch laſt-mentioned coal meter's office; and in caſe ſuch laſt-mentioned coal meters or coal meter ſhall neglect or refuſe to attend purſuant to ſuch notice, he or they ſhall forfeit five pounds: for which re-meaſurement, the purchaſer ſhall pay the principal coal meters or coal meter, appointed under 7 Geo. 3. and alſo ſuch other land coal meter from Weſtminſter, or from Surrey aforeſaid, as ſhall attend ſuch re-meaſurement, ſixpence each, for every chaldron re-meaſured; and in caſe the coals thus re-meaſured ſhall not amount to the quantity for which they were ſold, then the vendor ſhall forfeit for every buſhel deficient, five pounds, and alſo every chaldron deficient in meaſure, to the uſe of the poor where the coals ſhall be re-meaſured; and the labouring meter, under whoſe inſpection the coals were firſt meaſured, ſhall, for every buſhel deficient, forfeit five pounds, which ſum, if not paid within five days after conviction, ſhall be recovered from the principal land coal meter: and the coal porters who ſhall meaſure for the vendor, ſhall, for every buſhel wanting, forfeit two ſhillings and ſixpence. ſ. 10.

The penalties under this act, ſhall be recovered and applied as the penalties under 7 Geo. 3.—ſ. 11.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 14. For preventing frauds in the meaſurement of coals, ſold by wharf meaſure, between Putney and Rotherhithe, in Surrey, there ſhall be continued, near Blackfriars Bridge, in Surrey, one public office, which ſhall be called, The Land Coal Meter's Office for the ſeveral pariſhes of Putney, Wandſworth, Batterſea, Saint Mary at Lambeth, Chriſt Church, Saint Saviour's, Saint Olave, Saint Thomas, Saint John, Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondſey, and Saint Mary Rotherhithe, all in the county of Surrey; and likewiſe five ſubordinate offices, (viz.) one at Putney, one at Wandſworth, one at Batterſea, one at Lambeth, and the other in or near Tooley Street, in Southwark; which offices ſhall, from 1 June 1786, for twenty-one years then next enſuing, be managed by David Evans and John Burnett, and the ſurvivor of them, who are hereby appointed to be the managers of ſuch offices: which ſhall be kept open every day (Sundays excepted) from 25 March

March to 25 Sept. from five in the morning till nine in the evening, and from 29 September to 25 March, from ſix in the morning till ſix in the evening. ſ. 1.

The ſaid principal land coal meters, and their ſervants, ſhall be ſubject to the control of any general courts of quarter ſeſſions to be holden within Surrey, and may be diſmiſſed and ſuſpended by the ſaid courts, upon complaint and proof of fraud, or miſbehaviour, in a ſummary way. ſ. 2.

In caſe of the death of either the ſaid David Evans or John Burnett, before the expiration of the ſaid term of twenty-one years, the ſaid office ſhall be managed by the ſurvivor of them (unleſs previouſly diſmiſſed or ſuſpended as aforeſaid) during the remainder of the ſaid term; and in caſe both ſhall die, or be diſmiſſed or ſuſpended, then, as often as any vacancy ſhall happen, the ſaid office ſhall be managed by ſuch perſon as ſhall be appointed in manner following; (viz.) the churchwardens for Putney, Wandſworth, Batterſea, Lambeth, Chriſt Church, Saint Saviour's, Saint Olave, Saint Thomas, Saint John, Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondſey, and Saint Mary Rotherhithe, in Surrey, ſhall by notice in writing ſpecify the occaſion, and ſigned by one of the deputies in the meter's office, and left at the place of abode of each churchwarden, be ſummoned to aſſemble at the ſaid office, at twelve o'clock, on a day mentioned in the notice, not exceeding ſix days from the date, at which meeting ſome perſon ſhall be choſen to ſucceed to the office; and ſuch perſon as ſhall, at the hour of three of the clock of that day, be elected by the majority of churchwardens there aſſembled, ſhall be the principal land coal meter, and veſted with the powers in this act. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall act as principal land coal meter under this act, until he ſhall, before two juſtices for Surrey, take and ſubſcribe an oath or affirmation, "That he will truly "and faithfully, according to the beſt of his judgment and "ability, execute the office." ſ. 5.

The perſon appointed to manage the ſaid office, is to appoint labouring coal meters at the wharfs within the limits (not leſs than thirteen, between Nine Elms and Dock Head), and one deputy coal meter, and one labouring coal meter at each of the ſubordinate offices; one of which labouring meters ſhall attend every day (Sundays excepted) at the wharfs, at ſuch times as is required by the wharfinger or dealer, to meaſure, or ſee meaſured out the coals which ſhall be ſold by wharf meaſure. ſ. 6.

If the ſaid principal land coal meters ſhall not appoint labouring meters, ſuch principal meters ſhall forfeit twenty pounds; and if any labouring meter ſhall not attend and perform his duty, he ſhall forfeit five pounds. ſ. 7.

No perſon ſhall act as labouring coal meter, until he ſhall, before one juſtice for Surrey, take and ſubſcribe an oath or affirmation, "That he will duly and faithfully, to "the beſt of his ſkill and knowledge, execute the office, "and impartially meaſure, or ſee meaſured, all coals be-"tween buyer and ſeller, without favour or hatred." And the ſaid juſtices are to certify the oaths or affirmation to the next general quarter ſeſſions for Surrey, after taking, there to remain on record. ſ. 8.

If the principal meters or perſons under them, be directly or indirectly concerned in the ſale of coals, otherwiſe than in their offices, ſuch principal meters ſhall forfeit one hundred pounds, and ſuch deputy meter, and labouring meter, twenty pounds; and being convicted before the quarter ſeſſions, ſhall be diſmiſſed from employment, and be for ever diſabled from executing the ſame. ſ. 9.

Upon notice in writing to labouring meters, or left at their ſubordinate office, ſuch labouring meter ſhall attend within one hour, or ſooner, and do his duty, upon pain of twenty ſhillings; and the deputy, to whoſe office notice ſhall have been given, neglecting to ſend ſuch meter, ſhall alſo forfeit twenty ſhillings. ſ. 10.

The ſtations of labouring meters ſhall be frequently varied by the principal meters. ſ. 11.

All coals ſold for wharf meaſure, ſhall be meaſured in the preſence of one of the ſaid labouring meters, according to 16 & 17 Car. 2. and he is to fill up any buſhel deficient in meaſure, out of the ſtock of the perſon vending. ſ. 12.

Coal meter's fee 4*d.* Tickets to be delivered to the ſeller or carman. Tickets to be delivered by labouring meter to carman, and by him to the conſumer; and a penalty of 40*s.* is inflicted on labouring coal meter's refuſing to deliver ticket to the carman; and 10*s.* on the carman refuſing to deliver it to the conſumer. ſ. 13. (See 7 Geo. 3. c. 23. ſ. 11. which is in the ſame words.)

Penalty of 10*l.* on vendor for ſending coals unmeaſured or without a ticket. ſ. 14. (See 26 Geo. 3. c. 83. ſ. 5.)

Any wharfinger or dealer uſing any ſack of leſs than four feet in length, and two feet in breadth, or any falſe buſhel, convicted on oath or affirmation of two witneſſes, before one juſtice, ſhall forfeit five pounds. ſ. 15.

Any wharfinger or dealer giving to any labouring meter, any money, over the fourpence per chaldron for metage, ſhall forfeit fifty pounds. ſ. 16.

Any labouring meter uſing, or permitting to be uſed, ſacks leſs than four feet in length and two in breadth, ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings. ſ. 17.

Any labouring meter delivering a falſe or counterfeit ticket to any dealer, conſumer, carman, or other perſon, with intent to prejudice or defraud, or receiving any money, over the fourpence per chaldron, or making falſe meaſure, or delivering a ticket for any coals, the whole of which he ſhall not have ſeen meaſured, ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings, and be rendered incapable of ever ſerving as a coal meter; which if not paid within one month after conviction, ſhall be recovered from the principal coal meters. ſ. 18.

This act ſhall not extend to the owners of works for raiſing water by fire, nor to the owners of any coals bought, ſold, and delivered as pool meaſure; but if ſuch perſons require the care of any meter, then they ſhall pay the metage charge of fourpence a chaldron. ſ. 19.

If any labouring meter ſhall willingly ſuffer any coals ſold for wharf meaſure (exceeding ſeventeen buſhels) to be ſent from any wharf without being meaſured, without information thereof to the principal land meters or deputies at the office, within two days, ſhall be for ever incapable of acting as a labouring meter, and forfeit five pounds. ſ. 20.

The driver of any cart, delivering or ſuffering to be delivered or taken from ſuch cart, any coals, otherwiſe than to the owner or purchaſer, ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings; and in caſe of non-payment, ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction of Surrey, for not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one month. ſ. 21.

Coals may be re-meaſured by a principal meter, or one of the labouring meters, in the preſence of the vendor and purchaſer, and alſo in the preſence of one of the principal or labouring meters of London or Weſtminſter, in the ſame manner as coals may be re-meaſured in London, under 26 Geo. 3. c. 23. ſ. 10. this clauſe being framed in the ſame words.—ſ. 22.

Where any cart ſhall be ſtopped for re-meaſuring coals, the owner ſhall be entitled to two ſhillings and ſixpence per hour, over the uſual cartage, which ſhall be paid by the vendor, in caſe the coals be deficient, or if not, by the purchaſer. ſ. 23.

Dealers offending under this act not liable to penalties of 3 Geo. 2. c. 26.—ſ. 24.

Penalties may be recovered if exceeding five pounds, by action, &c. in courts of record at Weſtminſter, one moiety to the king, and the other moiety (with coſts) to ſuch perſon who ſhall ſue, and all other forfeitures, by way of complaint, made unto one juſtice for Surrey, who for this purpoſe hath the ſame powers as magiſtrates in London and Middleſex, this clauſe ſ. 25. being in the ſame words, mutatis mutandis, as ſec. 22. in 7 Geo. 3. c. 23.

By ſ. 26. perſons aggrieved may appeal to the quarter ſeſſions, in the ſame manner as under 7 Geo. 3. c. 23. ſ. 23.

No certiorari ſhall remove any conviction or proceedings. ſ. 27.

Actions againſt perſons, for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſhall be commenced within two months, and laid in Surrey, and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff ſhall become nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall have full coſts. ſ. 28.

Nothing in this act ſhall prejudice or take away any right, property, or juriſdiction of the mayor, commonalty, and citizens of the city of London, within the borough of Southwark, in Surrey. ſ. 29.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 108. For preventing frauds in the admeaſurement of coals within the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, and that part of the dutchy of Lancaſter adjoining thereto, and the pariſhes of Saint Giles in the Fields, Saint Mary le Bon, and ſuch part of Saint Andrew Holborn, as lies in Middleſex, there ſhall be provided and continued within the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, one public office, called The Land Coal Meters Office for the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, and ſhall be managed by John Paulin and John Arbuthnot, or in caſe of their death or removal, by ſuch other two perſons as ſhall be nominated by his majeſty; which two perſons ſhall be the principal land coal meters for the city and liberty of Weſtminſter; and ſuch office ſhall be kept open every day (Sundays excepted), from 25 March to 29 Sept. from five in the morning till nine in the evening, and from the 29 Sept. to 25 March, from ſix in the morning till ſix in the evening. ſ. 1.

The principal land coal meters ſhall, before two juſtices for Weſtminſter, take an oath or affirmation, "That "they will truly and faithfully, according to the beſt "of their judgment and ability, execute the office." ſ. 3.

The principal land coal meters are to appoint labouring coal meters, within the limits of this act; to attend every day (Sundays excepted), at ſuch of the coal wharfs, warehouſes, or other places of ſale, within the limits, at ſuch time as is required by the wharfinger or dealer, to meaſure out, or ſee meaſured, the coals ſold at any of the ſaid wharfs. ſ. 4.

The labouring coal meters ſhall, before one juſtice for Weſtminſter, take and ſubſcribe an oath or affirmation, "That he will duly and faithfully, to the beſt of his ſkill "and knowledge, execute the office, and truly and impar- "tially meaſure, or ſee meaſured, all coals between buyer "and ſeller, without favour or hatred." And the ſaid juſtice is to certify the oaths, &c. to the next general quarter ſeſſions of the peace for Middleſex, to remain on record. ſ. 5.

If the principal land coal meters, or any under them, ſhall be directly or indirectly concerned in the ſale of coals, ſuch principal land coal meter ſhall forfeit one hundred pounds, and ſuch labouring meter twenty pounds, and alſo being thereof convicted before the quarter ſeſſions, ſhall be diſmiſſed from his office, and for ever diſabled from holding the ſame, or any other, under this act. ſ. 6.

Upon notice in writing, or otherwiſe, given to any labouring meters, or left at the meters office, for a labouring meter to attend at any wharf to meaſure, or ſee meaſured, the coals of the perſon giving notice, ſuch labouring meter ſhall attend within one hour or ſooner, and do his duty, upon pain to forfeit twenty ſhillings, and the principal meters neglecting to ſend ſuch labouring meter, ſhall forfeit twenty ſhillings. ſ. 7.

The ſtations for the labouring meters ſhall be frequently varied by the principal meters. ſ. 8.

Coals ſold for wharf meaſure, ſhall be meaſured in the preſence of one of the labouring meters according to 16 & 17 Car. 2. c. 2. and the ſaid meters are to fill up any buſhel that ſhall appear deficient, out of the ſtock of the perſon vending. ſ. 10.

Fourpence for every chaldron ſold and delivered, ſhall be paid by the perſon who keeps the wharf, &c. where ſuch coals are carted, from or by the ſeller of ſuch coals to the principal meters, as a recompence for their trouble, and for defraying the charges of clerks, meſſengers, houſe rent, fire, candles, and other expences incident to the execution of the office, and for the hire of the labouring meters; and thereupon ſuch principal meters ſhall deliver to every ſeller, or the carman who ſhall cart, a ticket, ſigned by one of the principal meters, and counterſigned by the labouring meter attending and delivering the ſame, in which ſhall be contained the Chriſtian and ſurname of the ſellers and the conſumers, the quantity, and day, month, and year of delivery and admeaſurement, the amount of the metage charge, and the names of the carmen; and alſo ſhall contain a notice to the purchaſer, that if he is diſſatisfied with the meaſure, ſuch diſſatisfaction muſt be expreſſed to the carman before any part thereof is ſhot from the cart; which ticket being thus made complete, and metage paid, ſhall be delivered, unaltered, by the labouring meter counterſigning to the carman; which ticket, unaltered, the carman ſhall deliver to the conſumers, or their ſervant; and thereupon they are to pay to the ſeller, the metage therein ſpecified; and if the labouring meter counterſigning ſuch ticket ſhall not, after payment of the metage charge, deliver ſuch ticket to the carman, ſuch labouring meter ſhall forfeit 40*s.*; and if ſuch carman ſhall, after the ticket ſhall have been delivered to him, either alter, or neglect or refuſe to deliver the ſame to the conſumer, or ſervant, ſuch carman ſhall likewiſe forfeit 10*s.* ſ. 10.

If any cart loaded, or any quantity of coals exceeding ſeventeen buſhels ſhall be ſent from any wharf, without having been meaſured under the inſpection of the meters, or without ſuch ticket, then the vendor being convicted thereof by the oaths (or affirmation) of two witneſſes, before one juſtice for Middleſex or Weſtminſter, ſhall forfeit 10*l.* * ſ. 11.

No ſacks not full four feet four inches in length, and twenty-ſix inches in breadth, after made, ſhall be ſealed or marked at any office. ſ. 12.

If any wharfinger or carrier of coals ſhall uſe any ſack,

* The mode of conviction for penalties in the ſubſequent clauſes is the ſame.

leſs than four feet in length, and two feet in breadth, or ſhall wilfully make any falſe buſhel, he ſhall forfeit five pounds. ſ. 13.

If any wharfinger or dealer ſhall, directly or indirectly, give to any labouring meter, any money, or other reward, over the fourpence per chaldron, for metage, he ſhall forfeit fifty pounds. ſ. 14.

If any labouring meter ſhall uſe, or permit ſacks to be made uſe of, leſs than four feet in length, and two in breadth, he ſhall forfeit 40 s. ſ. 15.

If any labouring meter ſhall deliver a falſe or counterfeit ticket to any dealer, conſumer, carman, or other perſon, with intent to prejudice or defraud; or ſhall take any gratuity over the fourpence per chaldron, for metage; or if any ſuch labouring meter ſhall wilfully make, or ſuffer to be made, falſe meaſure of coals, or ſhall deliver a ticket for any quantity, the whole of which he ſhall not have ſeen meaſured, in any of the caſes, he ſhall be rendered incapable of ever ſerving thereafter in the office of a coal meter; and the principal meters ſhall, for every ſuch labouring meter ſo convicted, forfeit 40 s. ſ. 16.

This act ſhall not extend to the owners of works for raiſing water by fire, nor to the owners of any coals bought, ſold, and delivered for pool meaſure; but if ſuch perſons ſhall require the care or attendance of any meter, they ſhall pay the metage charge of fourpence the chaldron hereby laid. ſ. 17.

If any labouring meter ſhall willingly ſuffer any coals ſold for wharf meaſure (exceeding ſeventeen buſhels) to be ſent from any wharf, without being meaſured, as before directed, and ſhall not give information thereof to the principal meters, or their deputies at the office, within two days after, ſuch labouring meter ſhall be for ever incapable of acting as a labouring meter, within the limits, and forfeit five pounds. ſ. 18.

If the driver of any cart, or other perſon belonging thereto, or employed therewith, ſhall take or deliver, or ſuffer to be taken or delivered, from ſuch cart, any coals, otherwiſe than to the owner or purchaſer, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings; and, in caſe of nonpayment thereof, may be committed, by warrant under the hand and ſeal of the juſtice, to the houſe of correction, for not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one month. ſ. 19.

If any perſon, diſſatisfied with the meaſure of any coals ſold to him by wharf meaſure, ſhall, upon delivery of the meter's ticket, ſignify his deſire to have the ſame re-meaſured, then the carman ſhall continue at the houſe or lodging of the purchaſer, with the coals and cart, until they are re-meaſured, under the penalty of five pounds on the owner or proprietor, and 20 s. on the driver of the cart; and the purchaſer ſhall immediately ſend to the vendor, or to his or her wharf, notice in writing, that the coals are going to be re-meaſured, and alſo ſend notice thereof to the meters office; and thereupon a principal meter, or one of the labouring meters (not being the meter who meaſured), ſhall, within two hours after ſuch notice in writing left at the meters office, re-meaſure the ſame, ſack by ſack, in the preſence of the vendor and purchaſer, or their ſervants, and alſo in the preſence of one of the principal or labouring meters for the city of London, or for Surrey, between Putney and Rotherhithe, if ſuch purchaſer ſhall require the attendance of ſuch coal meter; who ſhall attend accordingly, within two hours after notice in writing left at ſuch laſt mentioned coal meters office; and ſuch laſt mentioned meters not attending purſuant to ſuch notice, ſhall forfeit five pounds: for which re-meaſurement the purchaſer ſhall pay the principal meters appointed by this act, and alſo ſuch other meter, from London or Surrey, as ſhall attend ſuch re-meaſurement, ſix pence each, for every chaldron of coals re-meaſured; and in caſe the coals re-meaſured ſhall not amount to the quantity for which they were ſold, then the vendor ſhall forfeit for every buſhel deficient, five pounds, and alſo every chaldron deficient, to the uſe of the poor where the coals ſhall be re-meaſured; and the labouring meter, under whoſe inſpection the coals were firſt meaſured, ſhall for every buſhel deficient, forfeit five pounds, which, if not paid within five days after conviction, ſhall be recovered from the principal land coal meter; and the coal porters, who ſhall meaſure for the vendor, ſhall, for every buſhel ſo wanting, forfeit 2 s. 6 d. ſ. 20.

Where any cart ſhall be ſtopped for re-meaſuring the coals, the owner ſhall be entitled to two ſhillings and ſix pence per hour for every hour the cart ſhall be detained (over the uſual cartage), to be paid by the vendor, in caſe the coals be deficient in meaſure; or by the purchaſer, in caſe they amount to the quantity for which they were ſold. ſ. 21.

No ſeller of or dealer in coals, ſhall be ſubject to any other penalty, than what is herein inflicted; any thing in 3 Geo. 2. notwithſtanding. ſ. 22.

The juſtices for Middleſex or Weſtminſter, in general or quarter ſeſſion, are to inquire into, hear, and determine any complaint of fraud, neglect, or miſbehaviour of the principal land coal meters; and if any ſuch meter ſhall be found guilty of any fraud, neglect, or miſbehaviour, he ſhall forfeit for the uſe of his majeſty, ſuch fine as the court before whom ſuch complaint ſhall be made ſhall think fit, not exceeding forty pounds, together with ſuch coſts as the court ſhall award, and in default thereof, be committed to the houſe of correction for the ſaid county till ſuch fine and coſts are paid. ſ. 23.

The penalties (the manner of recovering whereof is not otherwiſe directed) ſhall be recovered and applied, where they exceed five pounds, by action of debt, &c. in any courts of record at Weſtminſter, one moiety to the king, and the other (with full coſts) to ſuch perſon who ſhall inform; and all other penalties ſhall be recovered by way of complaint made unto any one juſtice, who is to call the parties before him, and examine ſuch complaint, on oath, or affirmation, and upon due proof thereof made, to his ſatisfaction, to grant a warrant for levying ſuch penalties; one moiety whereof ſhall be applied to the uſe of the informer, and the other moiety to the uſe of the poor; and, in caſe ſuch laſt penalties ſhall not (after conviction) be forthwith paid, then the ſame ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale, &c.; and when paid or recovered, ſhall be immediately tranſmitted by the juſtice to the overſeers of the poor of the pariſh where the perſon complaining ſhall reſide, for the uſe of the poor; and, for want of diſtreſs, ſuch offender ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction, for not exceeding thirty, nor leſs than ſeven days, there to be kept to hard labour. ſ. 24.

Perſons aggrieved may appeal to the quarter ſeſſions. The court to award coſts, &c. Conviction not to be quaſhed for want of form only. ſ. 25. See 7 Geo. 3. c. 23. ſ. 23.

No certiorari ſhall remove the record of any conviction or proceedings, into any courts of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 26.

This act ſhall be in force until the twenty-fourth day of June 1795, and from thence to the end of the then next ſeſſion of parliament. ſ. 27.

Actions againſt any perſon for any thing done in purſuance ſuance of this act, ſhall be commenced within 2 months, and ſhall be laid in Middleſex; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue: and if a verdict ſhall paſs againſt the plaintiff, &c. the defendant ſhall have full coſts. ſ. 28.

To indemnify the London coal buyers from actions brought againſt them under 9 Ann. c. 28. and 3 Geo. 2. c. 26. for receiving allowances from the owners of collieries, and which had been the exiſting cuſtom when they imbarked in trade; and to prevent the ruin which would attend many perſons, if the informers ſhould ſucceed in ſuch actions: IT WAS ENACTED, by 28 Geo. 3. c. 53. that all perſons againſt whom any action or information hath been brought, or ſhall be brought, for any penalty incurred before the paſſing of this act, by reaſon of 9 Ann. c. 28. ſ. 3. and 3 Geo. 2. c. 26. ſ. 4. ſhall be hereby indemnified and diſcharged from all penalties incurred by reaſon of the proviſions of the ſaid acts: provided that all coſts incurred in proſecuting ſuch action or information, ſhall be borne and diſcharged by the perſon againſt whom ſuch action, &c. hath been brought: but this act ſhall not indemnify any perſon againſt whom final judgment ſhall have been given. ſ. 1.

A number of coal buyers having formed a ſociety at the Coal Exchange, London, to regulate the trade, IT IS ENACTED by the ſame act, that any number of perſons united in covenants or partnerſhips, or in any way whatſoever, conſiſting of more than five perſons, for the purchaſing of coals for ſale, or for making regulations as to the manner of carrying on the ſaid trade in coals, ſhall be deemed to be an unlawful combination to advance the price of coals; and every perſon concerned therein, ſhall be puniſhed by indictment or information in the court of king's bench at Weſtminſter. ſ. 2.

Coopers.

By 23 Hen. 8. c. 4. The wardens of the myſtery of coopers in London, taking with them an officer of the mayor's, ſhall have power to ſearch and gauge all barrels and other veſſels to be made for ale, beer and ſoap, to be put to ſale in London, and within two miles without the ſuburbs; and to mark every ſuch barrel and other veſſel with St. Anthony's Croſs. The ſame wardens to have for the ſearch and gauging of every ſuch barrel and other veſſel one farthing, of the owners or makers; and ſhall have authority to retain every ſuch veſſel as they ſhall ſo gauge and mark, until they be ſatisfied thereof: and in caſe they ſhall find any of the ſaid veſſels defective, they may ſeize and retain every ſuch veſſel, and cauſe the ſame to be marked or amended, or elſe to be burned. ſ. 7.

The owner of ſuch veſſel ſhall forfeit for every ſuch veſſel not being of the full contents, 12 d. to be recovered and employed as aboveſaid. ſ. 8.

Corn.

By 21 Geo. 3. c. 50. The common prices of Engliſh corn or grain, viz. wheat, rye, peaſe, beans, barley, malt, beer, bigg, and oats, as well within the city of London and port thereof, as within the counties of Kent and Eſſex, wherein foreign corn, &c. ſhall be imported, ſhall, for regulating the duties payable on importation, be regulated by the prices of Engliſh corn within London, by the proviſions herein-after contained in this act. ſ. 2.

The perſon who ſhall be under this act appointed inſpector of the returns of corn, in manner after mentioned, ſhall demand and receive from every corn factor, dealing by commiſſion in the ſale of corn or grain, within the Corn Exchange, in Mark Lane, within the city, a true weekly account or return (which ſhall be weekly demanded, and received, within three days after the expiration of every week) of the quantities of corn or grain (each quantity and ſort being diſtinctly marked and claſſed) by him bona fide ſold and delivered during ſuch week; in which return ſhall be inſerted, as well the price for which each quantity ſhall have been by the perſon ſo dealing bona fide ſold and delivered during ſuch week, as alſo the real name of the purchaſers; and which ſaid weekly return ſhall be ſigned or atteſted by each corn factor delivering the ſame, or by the perſon uſually employed by him: and the ſaid inſpector thereupon is within three days thereafter, from the ſeveral and ſeparate weekly returns by him demanded and received, to make up and diſtinguiſh the aggregate quantity of each ſort of corn or grain in the ſeveral and ſeparate weekly returns contained; and alſo compute the prices for which ſuch aggregate quantity of corn or grain hath been bona fide, during ſuch week, ſold and delivered; and alſo compute therefrom the average prices of each ſort of corn or grain during ſuch week bona fide ſold and delivered; the amount of which aggregate quantities and prices, and alſo the average prices ſo computed, ſhall be written in a book for that purpoſe: and the ſaid inſpector is to publiſh once in every week, a tranſcript of the amount of ſuch aggregate quantities and prices, and alſo the average prices thereof, in the London Gazette; which average prices, ſo publiſhed, ſhall be deemed the real average prices of each ſort of corn or grain, as well in the public markets within Kent and Eſſex, as in the city of London, and port thereof, whence the corn or grain may be exported, and whereby the bounties payable on corn or grain exported ſhall henceforth, within Kent and Eſſex, and the city of London and port thereof, be governed. ſ. 4.

The ſecretary or clerk at the Corn Exchange, is, upon requiſition of the inſpector, to deliver to him in writing the names of every corn factor dealing by commiſſion in the ſaid market, and alſo his place of abode, if known and demanded; and upon refuſal thereof, or wilful delay or negligence therein, and complaint made upon oath before the lord mayor, or one alderman, the ſaid ſecretary or clerk ſhall be ſummoned to appear and anſwer touching the complaint; and in caſe he ſhall not obey ſuch ſummons, or on hearing of the complaint ſhall be adjudged guilty thereof, the ſaid lord mayor or one of the aldermen may fine the ſaid ſecretary or clerk, not exceeding twenty nor leſs than ten ſhillings; which fine is to be paid to the uſe of the inſpector. ſ. 5.

The ſaid inſpector ſhall provide a book, wherein he ſhall inſert a liſt of the names of every corn factor dealing by commiſſion in the corn exchange, and alſo his place of abode (ſuch liſt to be corrected, as occaſion ſhall require); which ſaid book ſhall be kept in his cuſtody, and may be produced as herein-after directed. ſ. 6.

The ſaid ſeparate and ſeveral weekly returns, by him demanded, and received, ſhall be filed and depoſited in the office of the ſaid inſpector; which ſaid returns, or ſo many thereof as may be neceſſary and are required, may be taken therefrom, and produced by the inſpector for the purpoſes herein after directed, and none other, and ſhall, after production, be by him again filed; and no perſon, except as above excepted, and except the corn-factor who ſhall have delivered ſuch return ſhall inſpect the ſame. ſ. 7.

In caſe any perſon ſhall, within one month after the delivery of any return, ſuſpect the ſame to be fraudulent, the perſon ſo ſuſpecting may ſpecify in writing to the inſpector, whoſe return and in what week made, and wherein he ſuſpect the ſame to be fraudulent; whereupon the ſaid inſpector is by reference had to ſuch weekly return, the ſame, either in the whole or in part, as may be neceſſary, to tranſcribe, and to deliver ſuch tranſcript, ſigned with his name, to the perſon making ſuch ſpecification as aforeſaid, from the ſaid perſon receiving, upon delivery thereof, one penny for every word therein contained, for his own uſe. ſ. 8.

The perſon receiving ſuch tranſcript may, at any quarter ſeſſions for London that ſhall next enſue the receipt thereof, exhibit informations againſt any corn dealer who ſhall have delivered in to the inſpector any ſuch weekly return ſuſpected to be fraudulent; and if the corn dealer be convicted of the offence, by the oath of one witneſs, or by his own confeſſion, then the party convicted ſhall immediately pay to the informer not exceeding ten nor leſs than five pounds, for the uſe of ſuch perſon who ſhall have exhibited ſuch information. ſ. 9.

The ſaid inſpector ſhall make up, compute, and diſtinguiſh, from the whole number of weekly accounts of the weekly aggregate quantities of each ſort of corn or grain by him made up, and alſo of the prices and average prices thereof, that ſhall have been ſo made up, from the firſt weekly accounts or returns by him from every corn factor taken, to thoſe incluſively which ſhall have been by him made up, to the end of the laſt entire week that ſhall immediately precede the ſeſſions to be holden for London for April 1782; and ſo thenceforward from time to time, ſeſſion to ſeſſion, as herein-after directed, in like manner make up, form, compute, and properly diſtinguiſh (and the ſame being made up, to inſert in a book for that purpoſe), the general aggregate quantity of each ſort of corn or grain that ſhall appear to have been bona fide ſold and delivered, during the whole number of ſuch ſeveral weeks, and alſo the prices and average prices thereof. ſ. 10.

On the firſt day of every ſeſſions that ſhall be holden for the ſaid city in July, October, January, and April, yearly, in open court, to the lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices for the ſaid city, there aſſembled, the ſaid inſpector ſhall deliver the ſaid book (the ſame to him being afterwards re-delivered) into which the ſaid accounts of the general aggregate quantities of corn or grain, the prices and average prices thereof, have been inſerted; and upon ſuch delivery verify upon oath, that the ſame are fairly made up, to the beſt of his power, ſkill, and judgment, and according to this act. ſ. 11.

The general average prices of each ſort of corn or grain, ſo thereby formed and diſtinguiſhed, on the whole number of ſuch weekly ſtates or returns of average prices, ſhall be deemed to be the common prices of middling Engliſh corn or grain, of the ſorts therein mentioned, during the time to which the prices ſhall refer, as well within Kent and Eſſex, as within London, wherein foreign corn or grain may be imported; and which ſaid general average prices, the lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices are to cauſe to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, once in four ſeveral weeks immediately ſucceeding ſuch ſeſſions reſpectively, the expence of which publication ſhall be paid out of any monies in the hands of the ſaid inſpector; and alſo to certify the ſame unto the chief officer and collector of the cuſtoms for London; who ſhall thereupon tranſmit copies thereof to the chief officers and collectors reſiding in the ports in Kent and Eſſex, wherein foreign corn or grain may be imported; and which ſaid certificate, and copies thereof, ſhall be hung up in ſome public place in the cuſtom-houſes thereto belonging, to which all perſons may reſort for information; and according to which general average prices ſo publiſhed and certified, ſhall be paid the duties payable on the importation of foreign corn or grain, in Kent, Eſſex, and London, and by no other rule. ſ. 12.

The proprietors of the Corn Exchange in Mark Lane, or the major part of them, entruſted with the management and direction thereof, are within ſix weeks after paſſing this act, by writing under their hands and ſeals, to appoint a perſon to perform all matters and things by him required to be performed by this act; which perſon ſhall in ſuch appointment be ſtyled Inſpector of Corn Returns for the City of London; and within one month after ſuch appointment, and acceptance thereof, ſhall deliver the ſaid appointment, under the hands and ſeals of the ſaid proprietors, or the major part of them, to the lord mayor, or one of the aldermen, who ſhall receive and deliver at the ſeſſions next following thereto, ſuch appointment, to be regiſtered and preſerved during the continuance of ſuch perſon in office; and before whom the ſaid inſpector ſhall take an oath, that he will, during his continuance in office, diligently, faithfully, and honeſtly execute the ſame; a certificate of which oath ſhall alſo be delivered at the ſaid ſeſſions, and there regiſtered: and the ſaid proprietors, or the major part of them, are to fix upon, and diſpoſe, furniſh, and complete, out of the monies ariſing from the ſaid eſtate, and to keep in repair, a proper office, either within the Corn Exchange, or near thereunto, for the uſe of the ſaid perſon; wherein all books, papers, and returns, ſhall be filed or depoſited, and in or over which ſhall be written or printed, Office of Corn Returns. ſ. 14.

In caſe of removal by death or otherwiſe, or by reſignation of the inſpector, the ſaid office ſhall become vacant, the proprietors are within one month after to appoint a fit perſon, under their hands and ſeals (except in the caſe herein-after mentioned) to execute the office; who, on delivering the appointment, and taking ſuch oath as aforeſaid, ſhall be enabled to execute the office, and entitled to the ſalary in manner after mentioned. ſ. 15.

The proprietors may, during any extreme ſickneſs of the inſpector, whereby he may be unable, for one week, to execute the duties of his office, either at the requeſt of any corn factor, or other perſon, in writing, or without, under their hands and ſeals, appoint a fit perſon to execute the office during ſuch diſability; who ſhall thereupon deliver the appointment to the lord mayor, or one of the aldermen, and ſhall before him make oath, that he will faithfully execute, during ſuch diſability, all the duties of the office of inſpector, and deliver all accounts, returns, books, or papers to the inſpector, when he ſhall be again able to execute the ſame, or to ſuch other perſon who may be appointed to the office; and which ſaid appointment, and alſo a certificate under the hand of the lord mayor, or one of the aldermen, before whom the ſaid oath ſhall have been made, of having taken ſuch oath, ſhall, at the ſeſſions next enſuing thereto, be preſented to the ſaid court, and then and there recorded; whereupon the ſaid perſon may demand and receive, for his trouble, from the ſaid inſpector, out of the ſalary to the ſaid office hereby appropriated as hereafter directed, ſuch ſum as the lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices ſhall by order under their hands and ſeals direct. ſ. 16.

In caſe the proprietors ſhall neglect for one week (after the diſability of the inſpector to execute his office has been ſignified as aforeſaid, or otherwiſe come to their knowledge, ſufficient proof thereof being given to the lord mayor) ſo to appoint a perſon as aforeſaid, then the lord mayor may appoint a perſon who ſhall, within three days thereafter, take ſuch oath as aforeſaid; and upon the certificate thereof, and the ſaid appointment being delivered to and entered at the ſeſſions next enſuing thereto, the ſaid perſon ſhall receive a compenſation for his trouble as aforeſaid. ſ. 17.

In

In caſe the proprietors ſhall not, within the time by this act required, meet and elect, and under their hands and ſeals appoint a perſon for the execution of the office, the ſaid lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices are at the ſeſſions to elect and appoint a proper perſon to execute the office of inſpector; whoſe appointment ſhall be then and there regiſtered; and who ſhall take ſuch oath as is before directed, for the faithful execution of his office; a certificate of having taken which oath ſhall alſo be then regiſtered. ſ. 18.

No inſpector (except the perſon appointed to execute the office during ſuch diſability through ſickneſs as aforeſaid) ſhall be removable, but upon complaint of miſbehaviour in his office to the ſeſſions made, and then and there heard and adjudged; in which caſe the lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices may, unleſs they ſee cauſe to the contrary, remove the ſaid perſon from his office; and they ſhall thereupon ſignify ſuch removal to the ſecretary or clerk of the Corn Exchange in caſe the appointment of the inſpector be in the ſaid proprietors, in order to proceed to the election of ſome other perſon in the room of the inſpector removed, and to which election they ſhall proceed, as before directed, within one week after the ſignification of ſuch removal; but in caſe the proprietors ſhall neglect ſo to do, or in caſe the appointment of the inſpector ſhall be by the lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices, then the lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices, ſhall proceed to ſuch re-appointment and re-election within the ſaid ſeſſions, or at an adjournment of the ſame held within one week thereafter. ſ. 19.

The lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices may examine the inſpector of corn returns, upon the delivery thereof, in open court at any of the ſeſſions, whether any and what corn factor has neglected or refuſed to deliver (the ſame having been demanded) ſuch weekly returns of ſale and delivery as are by this act directed; and in caſe of any neglect or refuſal, the perſon ſo charged ſhall be ſummoned to appear on a certain day within the ſeſſions, in caſe the ſame ſhall continue longer than one day; but if not, then on the firſt day of the next enſuing ſeſſion, to anſwer touching the ſame; and if it ſhall then appear, that the perſon ſummoned hath refuſed or wilfully neglected to deliver ſuch weekly return, or in caſe the ſaid perſon ſummoned ſhall not appear, on proof of the ſervice of the ſummons, then, the lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices, ſhall fine the perſon offending, for every neglect or refuſal, not more than ten nor leſs than five pounds; one moiety to be applied to ſuch uſe as in the diſcretion of the court ſhall be thought fit; the other moiety thereof to the uſe of the inſpector; unleſs the perſon ſummoned was by ſome ſufficient cauſe prevented from appearing. ſ. 20.

The inſpector, or perſon executing the office, may demand and receive from every corn factor, one halfpenny per laſt, on all corn and grain which ſhall appear by the weekly returns to have been by him ſold and delivered; the groſs amount of which ſums collected ſhall, by the ſaid inſpector, be twice in every year, that is to ſay, at the ſeſſions in October and April yearly, to the lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices, in writing, ſtated and preſented; and the lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices are, under their hands and ſeals, to empower the ſaid inſpector, out of the ſaid ſums collected, to retain to his own uſe not exceeding one hundred and twenty pounds per annum, nor leſs than one hundred pounds; from which ſaid ſum ſhall always be firſt deducted ſuch ſums as ſhall by the ſaid lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices, be directed to be paid to any perſon then executing, or who hath executed the office during ſuch diſability as aforeſaid; and the reſidue of the money ſo collected ſhall be paid over to the proprietors of the Corn Exchange, for the benefit of the eſtate, and to repay thereunto all ſuch monies as may have been expended in providing and keeping in repair ſuch office; and the inſpector ſhall, after ſuch payment, be for ever exonerated therefrom. ſ. 21.

The lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices, at any ſeſſions in April, July, October, and January yearly, may examine, and the inſpector is to declare, whether any of the corn factors have neglected or refuſed to pay (the ſame having been demanded) any money from him due upon his weekly returns of corn by him ſold and delivered; and in caſe it ſhall ſo appear and be adjudged, then, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the party offending, ſhall be levied ſuch money as ſhall be thereupon due; and after rendering the overplus (if any) to the party (the charges of ſuch diſtreſs and ſale being firſt deducted), the ſums levied ſhall be paid over to the inſpector, and applied as before enacted. ſ. 22.

No perſon appointed inſpector (except ſuch who ſhall, during any diſability as aforeſaid, execute the ſame) ſhall hold the office, or be entitled to any compenſation therefrom, unleſs, at the ſeſſions next after appointment, he ſhall render to the lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices, ſufficient ſecurity, not leſs than two hundred, nor more than three hundred pounds, for the faithful accounting and payment of all monies received by him by virtue of this act. ſ. 23.

All penalties and forfeitures may be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant from the lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices, or under the hand and ſeal of the lord mayor or aldermen, before whom any offender ſhall be convicted, which warrant they are to grant upon information of one witneſs, upon oath, rendering the overplus (if any), after payment of the penalties, when demanded, to the party whoſe goods ſhall be diſtrained; the charges of diſtreſs and ſale being firſt deducted. ſ. 24.

The lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices, or the lord mayor or alderman, may cauſe the conviction to be drawn up in the following form:

City of London, to wit. } 'Be it remembered, That on the ——— 'day of ——— in the ——— year of 'his majeſty's reign, A. B. is convicted before ——— 'by virtue of an act, made in the twenty-firſt year of the 'reign of his majeſty king George the third, for further 'regulating and aſcertaining the importation and exporta- 'tion of corn and grain, within ſeveral ports and places 'therein mentioned. [Specifying the offence, as the caſe 'ſhall be.]

'Given under our hands and ſeals, [or hand and 'ſeal], the day and year firſt above mentioned.'

No proceedings ſhall be quaſhed for want of form, or be removable by certiorari into any courts of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 25.

Nothing in this act ſhall alter, leſſen, or defeat, any privilege or franchiſe, which the mayor and commonalty and citizens of London have, claim, or enjoy, of appointing any market for the ſale of corn within the city and liberties thereof. ſ. 26.

By 29 Geo. 3. c. 58. Every corn factor, from whom any return is required by 21 Geo. 3. c. 50. ſhall, within one month next after paſſing of this act, or within one month from the time he ſhall begin to deal by commiſſion in the ſale of corn and grain, take the following oath, or (being quaker) affirm;

" I A. B. do ſwear [or affirm], that the returns of the " prices and quantities of Britiſh corn and grain, which " henceforward ſhall be by or for me ſold and delivered, ſhall, " to the beſt of my knowledge and belief, contain the whole " quantity, and no more, of the corn bona fide ſold and deli- " vered by or for me within the period to which they ſhall " refer, with the prices and names of the buyers reſpectively, " and to the beſt of my judgment, conformable to the di- " rections of an act paſſed in the twenty-firſt year of the " reign of his preſent majeſty, intituled, An act for further " regulating and aſcertaining the importation and export- " ation of corn and grain, within the ſeveral ports and places " therein mentioned."

Which oath or affirmation the lord mayor is to adminiſter, and to grant a certificate thereof, to be regiſtered by the inſpector; and in caſe any perſon ſhall carry on the buſineſs of a corn factor without taking the ſaid oath, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit fifty pounds, to be recovered by warrant of diſtreſs and ſale, and applied as the penalties impoſed by the ſaid act. ſ. 1.

The inſpector ſhall and may demand, and receive, from every corn factor in the city of London, or in the ſuburbs thereof, a true weekly account or return of the quantities of corn or grain that ſhall be brought into the river Thames, eaſtward of London Bridge, of the ſorts (mentioned in the ſaid act) by him bona fide ſold and delivered during the preceding week; in which return ſhall be inſerted the price per quarter, and the amount of every parcel, with the total quantity and value of each claſs, as alſo the names of the purchaſers; the ſaid returns to be charged with one halfpenny for every laſt or ten quarters contained in them, and be delivered to the inſpector at the Corn Exchange, or ſent to his office within the time limited by the ſaid act. ſ. 2.

All foreign corn and grain, when delivered out of any ſhip in the port of London, ſhall be charged with one penny for every laſt or ten quarters, and the inſpector may demand and receive the ſame from every corn factor, or importer, on whoſe account ſuch foreign corn, &c. ſhall be delivered out of the ſhip in which the ſame was imported; and the corn factor or importer ſhall deliver a true account of the quantity of the ſaid corn to the inſpector, within one week after delivery from the ſhip; and the inſpector may be paid not exceeding eighty pounds per annum more than he is at preſent allowed, as the lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices at quarter ſeſſions, ſhall order out of the monies collected by virtue of this act. ſ. 3.

The general average prices of Britiſh corn or grain ſo thereby computed, on the whole number of weekly returns, ſhall be deemed the common price of middling Britiſh corn, during the time to which the ſaid general average prices ſhall refer, as well within London, as within Eſſex, Kent, and Suſſex; and which ſaid general average prices, the ſaid lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices, are to cauſe to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, once in each of the four ſeveral weeks immediately ſucceeding ſuch ſeſſions reſpectively; the expences of which publication ſhall be paid out of any monies in the hands of the inſpector; and alſo immediately to certify the ſame unto the collector, or other chief officers of the cuſtoms for the port of London, who ſhall thereupon tranſmit a copy thereof to the collectors and other chief officers for the ports, within Eſſex, Kent, and Suſſex: a copy of which certificate ſhall be hung up in ſome public place in the cuſtom houſes thereto belonging, to which all perſons may reſort for information; and whenever it ſhall appear, from ſuch returns ſo publiſhed, or certified, that the prices of grain are at or above the prices ſpecified in 13 Geo. 3. c. 43. then it ſhall be lawful to import, where uſual, within London and Eſſex, Kent and Suſſex, all ſuch ſpecies of corn and grain as ſhall be certified to be at or above ſuch rates, upon payment of the low duties; and the duties payable on importation ſhall be paid according to ſuch general average prices ſo publiſhed in the London Gazette, or certified as aforeſaid, and by no other rule. ſ. 4.

The inſpector ſhall every week ſend to the collector, or other chief officer of cuſtoms, for London (who ſhall thereupon tranſmit copies thereof to the officers for the ports, within Eſſex, Kent, and Suſſex) the week's account which by this act he is directed to take; and whenever any Britiſh corn or grain ſhall be exported from London, or from Eſſex, Kent, and Suſſex, the entry for exportation may be made, and the bounty thereon ſhall be paid, according to the weekly average of the price of ſuch corn within the ſaid city, as the ſame ſhall appear from the accounts tranſmitted to the officer, by the inſpector, until a new average ſhall be formed and tranſmitted to ſuch officers, and by them received. ſ. 5.

The inſpector ſhall make up, compute, and diſtinguiſh upon the ſix weekly accounts immediately preceding each ſeſſions, the general aggregate quantity, and price thereof, of each ſort of Britiſh corn or grain (oats only excepted) that ſhall appear to have been bona fide ſold or delivered during the ſaid ſix weeks, and alſo the average prices thereof; and the ſame being made up, &c. as preſcribed by the recited act for the quarterly returns by him required to be made, ſhall deliver to the lord mayor, aldermen, and juſtices, whenever ſuch ſeſſions ſhall be held, and ſhall alſo verify the ſame upon oath, as preſcribed by the ſaid act. ſ. 6.

All corn factors, or ſellers of corn, in the port of the city of London (the duty upon rape ſeed imported from Ireland being regulated by the prices of corn) ſhall include and return the quantities and prices of Britiſh rape ſeed ſold and bought in their weekly accounts, to the receiver of corn returns in London, who ſhall thereupon compute the average price of ſuch rape ſeed at the port of London, and tranſmit accounts of the ſame at the periods and times herein-before directed for the tranſmitting of the returns of corn and other grain to the collectors or chief officers of the cuſtoms, for the purpoſes aforeſaid. ſ. 19.

Debt and Debtors.

By 3 Jac. 1. c. 15. Every citizen and freeman of London, and every other perſon inhabiting within the city or liberties, being a tradeſman, victualler, or a labouring man, which ſhall have any debt owing to him not amounting to 40 s. by any citizen or other perſon being a victualler, tradeſman or labouring man, inhabiting within the city or liberties, may cauſe ſuch debtor to be ſummoned by the beadle of the court of requeſts, called the court of conſcience, in Guildhall, by writing left at the dwelling-houſe, or other reaſonable warning, to appear before the commiſſioners of the court of requeſts; and the commiſſioners, or any three of them, ſhall have power to ſet down ſuch orders between ſuch parties as ſhall ſtand with equity and good conſcience; ſuch orders to be regiſtered. ſ. 2.

The commiſſioners may miniſter an oath to the plaintiff or defendant, and alſo to witneſſes. ſ. 3.

If in any action for debt, ſued againſt any the perſons aforeſaid, in any the king's courts out of the court of requeſts, it ſhall appear to the judges, that the debt doth not amount to 40 s. and the defendant ſhall prove by his own oath that ſuch defendant was inhabiting in the city of London, the ſaid judges ſhall not allow the plaintiff any coſts, coſts, but ſhall award that the plaintiff ſhall pay coſts to the defendant. ſ. 4.

If any ſuch creditor or debtor, after warning given, ſhall without cauſe or excuſe refuſe to appear in the ſaid court, or ſhall not perform ſuch order as the commiſſioners ſhall ſet down, the officer of the court, or any of the ſerjeants at mace, by order of the commiſſioners, may commit ſuch party to the counter, until he perform the order of the commiſſioners. ſ. 5.

This act ſhall not extend to any debt for rent, or other real contract, nor to any debt by reaſon of any cauſe concerning teſtament or matrimony, or any thing belonging to the eccleſiaſtical court. ſ. 6.

By 14 Geo. 2. c. 10. Every citizen and freeman of London, and every other perſon inhabiting within the ſaid city or liberties, and every perſon who rents or keeps any ſhop, ſhed, ſtall or ſtand, or ſeeks a livelihood in the ſaid city or liberties, which have any debt owing to him not exceeding 40*s.* by any perſon inhabiting or ſeeking a livelihood within the ſaid city or liberties, during their reſpective inhabiting there, may cauſe ſuch debtor to be ſummoned by any of the beadles or officers of the court of requeſts, by writing left at the dwelling houſe, lodgings, ſhop, ſhed, ſtall, or ſtand, or any other place of ſeeking a livelihood of ſuch debtor, or by any other reaſonable notice, to appear before the commiſſioners of the court of requeſts holden in the Guildhall of the ſaid city. And the ſaid commiſſioners, or three of them, ſhall after ſummons ſet down ſuch orders between ſuch parties as ſtand with equity and good conſcience; all ſuch orders to be regiſtered in a book as they have been accuſtomed to be. ſ. 1.

If any perſon contemptuouſly affront any of the commiſſioners of the ſaid court during the time of their ſitting, the commiſſioners then ſitting, or three, may certify under their hands and ſeals the name of the perſon offending, and the nature of his offence, to the lord mayor of London; who ſhall ſummon ſuch perſon before him; and upon his appearance, and the fact alledged being proved upon the oath of one or more witneſſes, or in default of his appearance, ſhall puniſh the perſon ſo offending by fine or impriſonment, or both; provided the fine do not exceed 20*s.* and impriſonment be for no longer than ten days. ſ. 2.

Upon the non-payment of the ſaid fine, the lord mayor may iſſue a warrant for levying the ſaid fine on the goods and chattels of every offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made thereof, in caſe they be not redeemed in five days; which fine when levied ſhall be paid over to the churchwardens or overſeers of the poor of the pariſh, wherein ſuch offender inhabits or ſeeks a livelihood. ſ. 3.

The number of beadles or officers employed in the execution of the orders of the ſaid commiſſioners, may, by the court of lord mayor and aldermen of London, be enlarged to two or more, not exceeding four. ſ. 4.

The act 3 Jac. 1. c. 15. and all things therein not hereby altered, ſhall continue in force, and extend to all perſons to whom this preſent act doth extend. ſ. 5.

If any action be brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act, or 3 Jac. 1. c. 15. the action ſhall be brought within ſix months; and ſhall be laid in the city of London: and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff become nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover double coſts. ſ. 6.

By 22 Geo. 2. c. 47. Such pariſhioners of the pariſhes within Southwark, and of the pariſhes of St. Saviour, St. Mary at Newington, St. Mary Magdalen Bermondſey, Chriſt Church, late part of St. Saviour, St. Mary Lambeth, and St. Mary at Rotherhithe, in Surrey, as have a right to aſſemble in veſtries, ſhall on every Tueſday after Eaſter in every year, nominate 132 perſons within their reſpective pariſhes, to be commiſſioners for the purpoſes after mentioned, viz. St. Olave Southwark twelve; St. John Southwark twelve; St. George Southwark twelve; St. Thomas Southwark ſix; St. Saviour eighteen; Newington twelve; St. Mary Magdalen Bermondſey, eighteen; Chriſt Church, ſix; Lambeth eighteen; and Rotherhithe eighteen: and the churchwardens of each pariſh, or one of them, ſhall, within two days after ſuch nomination, cauſe two liſts to be made of the perſons nominated; and cauſe one liſt to be fixed on the church door, and deliver the other to the chief bailiff of Southwark, or his deputy, who ſhall cauſe a copy of ſuch liſts to be ſtuck up in the town hall of Southwark; which perſons nominated are hereby conſtituted commiſſioners to hear and determine all ſuch matters of debt as are after mentioned, and are conſtituted a court of juſtice by the name of The Court of Requeſts for the town and borough of Southwark in the county of Surrey; and three or more commiſſioners are to hold the ſaid court twice in every week, viz. on every Tueſday and Friday, in the court houſe of the ſaid borough at St. Margaret's Hill, or ſome other place near; ſo as not to interrupt the buſineſs to be done before the juſtices of aſſize, oyer and terminer, gaol delivery, or juſtices of the peace, or the courts leet or courts of ſewers, uſually held in the ſaid court houſe. And the commiſſioners have power to give judgment, and award execution with coſts, againſt the bodies or goods of all perſons againſt whom they give judgment. ſ. 1.

The chief bailiff or his deputy ſhall, within two days after ſuch liſts returned to him, ſummon the firſt three perſons in each liſt containing eighteen, the firſt two in each liſt containing twelve, and the firſt perſon in each liſt containing ſix, to attend as commiſſioners of the ſaid court for one month; and the like number out of every liſt as they ſtand in order from month to month. ſ. 2.

Nothing herein before contained ſhall exclude any of the commiſſioners (although they be not in rotation) from ſitting in the ſaid court; but all ſuch commiſſioners may, as often as they think fit, ſit and give judgment. ſ. 3.

Every inhabitant of the ſaid borough, and the ſaid ſeveral pariſhes, and all perſons renting or keeping any ſhop, ſtall or ſtand, or ſeeking a livelihood within the ſaid borough, or any of the pariſhes aforeſaid, who have debts owing unto them not exceeding 40*s.* by any perſon inhabiting or ſeeking a livelihood within the ſaid borough, &c. may cauſe ſuch debtor to be ſummoned by the chief bailiff or his deputy (who are to execute all warrants, precepts, and proceſs of the ſaid court), by writing left at the place of abode, ſhop, or place of dealing of ſuch debtor, or by any other reaſonable notice, to appear before the commiſſioners; and the commiſſioners after ſuch ſummons have power to make ſuch orders between ſuch parties plaintiffs and their debtors defendants, touching ſuch debts, as they find to ſtand with equity and good conſcience; and all ſuch proceedings ſhall be regiſtered by the clerks of the court or their deputies; and ſhall be performed, as well by the plaintiff as the debtor. ſ. 4.

The commiſſioners may adminiſter an oath to the plaintiff or defendant, and to witneſſes, and to all the officers of the court, concerning any buſineſs relative thereunto, if they think it meet. ſ. 5.

If in any action of debt, or on the caſe upon an aſſumpſit for any debt, to be ſued againſt any perſon aforeſaid, in any court court at Weſtminſter or elſewhere, out of the ſaid court of requeſts, it ſhall appear to the judge that the debt to be recovered by the plaintiff doth not amount to 40 s. and the defendant in ſuch action prove, that at the time of commencing ſuch action, ſuch defendant was inhabiting within the ſaid borough, or any of the pariſhes aforeſaid, and was liable to be ſummoned before the ſaid court of requeſts, the judge ſhall not allow to the plaintiff any coſts; but ſhall award that the plaintiff pay ſo much ordinary coſts to the defendant as ſuch defendant ſhall prove it hath coſt him in defence of the ſuit. ſ. 6.

If any perſon contemptuouſly affront, inſult, or abuſe any of the commiſſioners during their ſitting in court; the chief bailiff, or his deputy or officer, by order of the commiſſioners then ſitting, may take ſuch perſon into cuſtody, and carry him before a juſtice of peace for the county of Surrey; and upon the fact alledged being proved upon the oath of one witneſs, the juſtice ſhall puniſh ſuch perſon by fine or impriſonment, or both; provided the fine on one perſon do not exceed 20 s. and the impriſonment be for no longer than ten days. ſ. 7.

Upon non-payment of the fine, the juſtice may iſſue a warrant for levying the fine upon the goods of ſuch offender, then inhabiting within the ſaid limits, and to cauſe ſale to be made thereof, in caſe they be not redeemed in five days; which fine ſhall be paid over to the churchwardens or overſeers of the poor of the pariſh, wherein ſuch offender at the time of ſuch offence inhabits or ſeeks a livelihood, towards the ſupport of the poor; and if ſuch offender be not inhabiting within the ſaid limits, or have not goods within the ſaid limits, then upon non-payment of ſuch fine, the juſtice by warrant may commit ſuch offender to the county gaol of Surrey, until he pay the fine, not exceeding one month; and ſuch fine ſhall be paid over to the juſtice who granted ſuch warrant, to be diſtributed among the poor priſoners for debt in the ſaid priſon. ſ. 8.

The clerks of the ſaid court ſhall fix up in the moſt public part of the court houſe of the ſaid borough, or other place where the commiſſioners ſhall ſit, a copy of the two laſt preceding clauſes of this act. ſ. 9.

In caſe any perſon make oath or give evidence in any cauſe in the ſaid court, whereby he ſhall commit wilful or corrupt perjury, and be convicted, he ſhall incur the like pains and penalties as any other perſon convicted of wilful perjury. ſ. 10.

The act appointed two clerks of the ſaid court during their reſpective good behaviour; who ſhall iſſue all ſummonſes and proceedings of the court, and keep books wherein ſhall be entered all acts of the ſame court. ſ. 11.

The commiſſioners in court, or the major part of them, on the next court day after the death, reſignation, or legal removal of the clerks, or ſo ſoon after as the ſame is publicly known, are to cauſe the whole number of commiſſioners to be ſummoned to meet at the place aforeſaid, within twenty days after their being ſummoned; and ſuch commiſſioners at ſuch meeting are by ballot to elect another perſon; and ſo upon every vacancy of the ſaid office of clerk. ſ. 12.

No perſon ſhall act as commiſſioner until he ſhall have taken an oath to the effect following:

'I A. B. do ſwear, that I will faithfully, impartially, and honeſtly, according to the beſt of my judgment, hear and determine ſuch matters and things as ſhall be brought before me by virtue of an act of parliament, intituled, An act for the more eaſy and ſpeedy recovery of ſmall debts, within the town and borough of Southwark, and the ſeveral pariſhes of St. Saviour, St. Mary at Newington, St. Mary Magdalen Bermondſey, Chriſt Church, St. Mary Lambeth, and St. Mary at Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, and the ſeveral precincts and liberties of the ſame; without favour or affection to either party.'

Which oath one of the clerks is to adminiſter; and ſhall cauſe a memorial thereof to be entered among the records of the court. ſ. 13.

The fees hereafter, and no more, ſhall be taken for the reſpective ſervices of the bailiff and clerks; viz.

For every ſummons, to the bailiff 3 d. to the clerk 3 d.

For every hearing, to the bailiff 1 d. to the clerk 3 d.

For an attachment againſt the defendant for not appearing to the ſummons, to the bailiff 1 s. 2 d. to the clerk 6 d.

For giving notice to the complainant of the ſervice of the attachment, to the bailiff 4 d.

For an execution, to the bailiff 1 s. 2 d. to the clerk 10 d.

For paying money into court, to the bailiff 1 d. to the clerk 7 d.

For acknowledging ſatisfaction in full, to the bailiff 2 d. to the clerk 4 d.

For acknowledging ſatisfaction in part, to the bailiff 1 d. to the clerk 3 d.

For ſearching the books, to the clerk 2 d.

For calling the defendant before the court when he refuſes to appear, to the bailiff 2 d. to the clerk 2 d.

For the complainant's marking his appearance, to excuſe his attendance the firſt court day, to the clerk 4 d.

For a nonſuit on the plaintiff not appearing, to the clerk 2 d.

A table of which fees ſhall be hung up by one of the clerks in ſome conſpicuous part of the court houſe, or place where the commiſſioners meet; and if the chief bailiff or any of his officers take any greater fees than above mentioned, or otherwiſe miſbehave in his office, for every ſuch offence he ſhall forfeit 20 l. to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any court of record at Weſtminſter, with coſts, by action of debt, &c.; ſo that ſuch action be commenced within three months. ſ. 14.

Upon complaint of the miſbehaviour of any clerk, or of any clerk taking any greater fees than above-mentioned, the commiſſioners then ſitting may inquire into ſuch complaint; and if it appear that ſuch complaint deſerves the conſideration of the whole number of commiſſioners, they are to cauſe the whole number to be ſummoned to meet as ſoon as may be, by public notice in the ſeveral pariſh churches by the pariſh clerks, immediately after divine ſervice, on the Sunday morning next before ſuch meeting, ſuch Sunday being at leaſt four days before ſuch meeting; and if it then appear to the major part of the commiſſioners that ſuch clerk hath been guilty of a groſs miſbehaviour, it ſhall be lawful for them to ſuſpend or remove him, and to elect another. ſ. 15.

This act ſhall not extend to any debt for any rent upon any leaſe of lands or tenements, or any other real contracts, nor to any other debt that ſhall ariſe by reaſon of any cauſe concerning teſtament or matrimony, or any thing properly belonging to the eccleſiaſtical court, albeit the ſame be under 40 s. ſ. 16.

If any action be brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act; ſuch action ſhall be brought within three months; months; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 17.

The affirmation of quakers ſhall be allowed where any oath is directed to be taken by this act, inſtead of ſuch oath; and every perſon convicted of wilful and falſe affirming, ſhall incur the ſame penalties as are inflicted by law upon perſons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury. ſ. 18. The juriſdiction of the court of requeſts eſtabliſhed by this act is extended by 32 Geo. 2. c. 6. which ſee poſt.

By 23 Geo. 2. c. 27. All the pariſhioners of the ſeveral pariſhes within the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, and that part of the duchy of Lancaſter which adjoineth thereto, who have a right to aſſemble in veſtry, ſhall meet on the firſt of May in every year, if not a Sunday, and then upon the next day, at ten in the afternoon, in the veſtries in their reſpective pariſhes, and nominate 242 ſubſtantial perſons reſiding within their reſpective pariſhes, to be commiſſioners for the purpoſes hereafter mentioned; to be appointed in manner following; viz. of the pariſh of St. Margaret thirty; St. John the Evangeliſt twenty; St. James forty-two; St. George Hanover Square thirty; St. Anne twenty-four; St. Martin in the Fields forty; St. Clement Danes, as well within Weſtminſter as without, twenty-four; St. Mary-le-Strand twelve; and St. Paul Covent Garden twenty: and the churchwardens of each pariſh, or one of them, ſhall within two days after ſuch nomination cauſe two liſts to be made of the perſons nominated, and cauſe one of the liſts to be fixed up on the church door of each pariſh; and deliver the other to the high bailiff of the city or his deputy, who ſhall cauſe a copy of ſuch liſts to be ſtuck up in the places where the commiſſioners ſhall aſſemble; which perſons ſo nominated ſhall be commiſſioners to hear and determine all matters of debt hereafter mentioned; and are conſtituted a court of juſtice, by the name of The Court of Requeſts for the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, and that part of the duchy of Lancaſter which adjoineth thereto; and they, or three of them, are to hold the ſaid court in manner herein after mentioned (altered by 24 Geo. 2. c. 42. ſ. 2 & 3.); and ſuch commiſſioners, or any three of them, ſhall have power to hear and determine in their reſpective diviſions, all ſuch cauſes as are after mentioned, and to pronounce judgment and award execution thereupon, with coſts, againſt the bodies or againſt the goods of all perſons againſt whom they ſhall give judgment; ſo as no perſon ſhall remain in priſon upon an execution longer than forty days. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a commiſſioner in the execution of the powers given by this act, unleſs at the time of his nomination, and during the time he ſhall ſo act, he be ſeiſed of lands or hereditaments of the yearly value of 20*l.* clear of all incumbrances, or be poſſeſſed of a perſonal eſtate of the value of 500*l.* ſ. 2.

If any perſon ſummoned by virtue of this act, ſhall not perform ſuch order as the commiſſioners make concerning ſuch debts as aforeſaid, the commiſſioners, or five of them, after perſonal ſervice of the ſaid order, and proof thereof, may commit ſuch perſon to one of his majeſty's gaols within Weſtminſter, until he perform ſuch order, ſo as no perſon remain in priſon longer than forty days. ſ. 3.

The high bailiff ſhall, within two days after ſuch liſts returned to him, ſummon the firſt ſeven perſons in each liſt containing forty-two and forty, the firſt five in each liſt containing thirty, the firſt four in each liſt containing twenty-four and twenty, and the firſt two in each liſt containing twelve, to attend as commiſſioners in their reſpective diviſions for the month of May, and the like number out of every liſt as they ſtand in order to ſerve from month to month. ſ. 4.

Nothing herein before contained ſhall exclude any of the commiſſioners (although they be not in rotation) from ſitting in the ſaid court, in each reſpective diviſion, but all ſuch commiſſioners may, as often as they think fit, ſit and give judgment therein. ſ. 5.

Every inhabitant within the ſaid city and liberty, or the ſaid part of the ſaid duchy, and all perſons renting or keeping any ſhop, ſtall, or ſtand, or ſeeking a livelihood within the ſaid city of Weſtminſter, or in the ſaid part of the ſaid duchy, who have any debts owing unto them not amounting to 40*s.* by any perſon inhabiting or ſeeking a livelihood within the ſaid city, or that part of the duchy aforeſaid, may apply to one of the clerks of the ſaid court, who ſhall cauſe ſuch debtor to be ſummoned by the high bailiff or his officer (who are to execute all proceſs of the ſaid court of requeſts) by writing left at the place of abode, ſhop, or place of dealing of ſuch debtor, to appear before the commiſſioners for ſuch diviſion where ſuch debtor inhabits; and the commiſſioners, or three of them, ſhall, after the return of ſuch ſummons, have power to make ſuch orders between ſuch parties plaintiffs and their debtors defendants, touching ſuch debts, as they find to ſtand with equity and good conſcience; and all ſuch proceedings ſhall be regiſtered by the clerks of the court; and ſhall be performed as well by the plaintiff as by the debtor. ſ. 6. See 24 Geo. 2. c. 42. ſ. 7. infra.

The commiſſioners may adminiſter an oath to the plaintiff or defendant, and to witneſſes produced by each party; and to all the officers of the ſaid court concerning any buſineſs relative thereunto, if they think it meet. ſ. 7.

If in any action of debt, or on the caſe upon an aſſumpſit, againſt any perſon aforeſaid, in any court at Weſtminſter or elſewhere, out of the ſaid court of requeſts, the plaintiff ſhall declare for any ſum not amounting to 40*s.* the defendant may plead in bar of ſuch action, that at the time of commencing ſuch action he was inhabitant within the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, or that part of the duchy aforeſaid, and was liable to be ſummoned before the ſaid court of requeſts, without pleading any matter ſpecially; and in caſe the plaintiff declare for 40*s.* or any greater ſum, the defendant may plead generally (over and above ſuch matters as aforeſaid) that he was not at the commencing ſuch action indebted to the plaintiff, in any ſum amounting to 40*s.* without pleading any other matter ſpecially, whereunto the plaintiff may reply generally, and deny the matters pleaded as aforeſaid; and if the plaintiff be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall have full coſts. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for the plaintiff in ſuch action, afterwards to proſecute the defendant for the ſaid debt in the court of requeſts. ſ. 9.

Sect. 10, 11, 12, 13. are to the ſame effect as ſect. 7, 8, 9, 10. of 22 Geo. 2. c. 47. except that the fines for contempts on perſons not reſiant within the juriſdiction, as well as on reſiants, are to be paid to the churchwardens or overſeers of the poor of the pariſh in which the offender dwells or ſeeks a livelihood.

The act appointed four clerks of the ſaid court during their good behaviour, to iſſue and regiſter all ſummons and proceedings of the court, and keep books wherein ſhall be entered all acts of the ſame court; and no clerk of the court ſhall act as a juſtice of peace within the limits of the juriſdiction of the ſaid court. ſ. 14.

The commiſſioners ſitting on the next court day after the death, reſignation, or removal of any of the ſaid clerks, or or ſo ſoon after as the ſame is publicly known, or the major part of them, are to cauſe the whole number of commiſſioners to be ſummoned to meet at ſome place appointed within four days after their being ſummoned; and at ſuch meeting the major part preſent are to elect another clerk; and ſo upon every vacancy of the office of clerk. ſ. 15. See 24 Geo. 2. c. 42. ſ. 5 & 6.

No perſon ſhall act as commiſſioner in the execution of this act, until he ſhall have taken an oath to the effect following:

'I A. B. do ſwear, that I will faithfully, impartially, and honeſtly, according to the beſt of my judgment, hear and determine ſuch matters and things as ſhall be brought before me by virtue of an act of parliament, intituled, An act for the more eaſy and ſpeedy recovery of ſmall debts, within the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, and that part of the duchy of Lancaſter which adjoineth thereto; without favour or affection to either party; and that I am now ſeiſed of lands, tenements or hereditaments, of the yearly value of 20*l.* clear of all incumbrances; or that I am poſſeſſed of a perſonal eſtate of the value of 500*l.*'

Which oath the clerks, or one of them, are to adminiſter in open court; a memorial whereof ſhall be entered in the regiſters of the ſaid court. ſ. 16.

For the fees of the court, ſee 24 Geo. 2. c. 42. ſ. 4. infra.

If the ſaid high bailiff, or any of his officers, or any of the clerks, take any greater or other fee than as above mentioned, or otherwiſe miſbehave, upon complaint to the commiſſioners in court, and proof thereof by the oath of one witneſs, the commiſſioners ſhall puniſh ſuch perſon by fine not exceeding 5*l.* for one offence, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant of the commiſſioners, or three of them, and to be applied to the uſe of the ſick in the Weſtminſter infirmary. ſ. 18.

If upon complaint of the miſbehaviour of any clerk, or of any clerk's taking any greater or other fees than as above-mentioned, it appear to the commiſſioners preſent, that ſuch offence deſerves a greater puniſhment than is before provided, it ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners then ſitting, to cauſe the whole number of commiſſioners to be ſummoned to meet, by public notice in the ſeveral pariſh churches aforeſaid (which notice the pariſh clerks are to give without fee) immediately after divine ſervice, on the Sunday morning next before ſuch meeting (ſuch Sunday to be at leaſt three days before the day of meeting), to examine into ſuch complaint; and if it then appear to the commiſſioners, being not leſs than ſixty, preſent, or to the major part of them, that ſuch clerk hath been guilty of a groſs miſbehaviour in his office, it ſhall be lawful for them to ſuſpend or remove ſuch clerk from his office, and to elect another. ſ. 19.

This act ſhall not extend to any debt for any rent upon any leaſe of lands or tenements, or on any other real contracts, nor to any debt which ſhall ariſe by reaſon of any cauſe concerning teſtament or matrimony, or any thing properly belonging to the eccleſiaſtical court, albeit the ſame be under 40*s.* ſ. 20.

No action for any debt not amounting to 40*s.* and recoverable by virtue of this act in the ſaid court, ſhall be brought againſt any perſon reſiding within the juriſdiction thereof in any other court. ſ. 21.

If any action be brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſuch action ſhall be brought within three calendar months after the fact committed, and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff become nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 23.

By 23 Geo. 2. c. 30. Such pariſhioners of the ſeveral pariſhes and places within the Tower hamlets (the precinct of the Tower-within only excepted), as have a right to aſſemble for the choice of officers in their reſpective veſtries or places for tranſacting public buſineſs, ſhall on every Tueſday next after Eaſter in every year, nominate 240 ſubſtantial perſons reſiding within their reſpective pariſhes, &c. each ſeiſed of lands or hereditaments of the value of 20*l.* per annum, clear of all incumbrances, or poſſeſſed of a perſonal eſtate of the value of 500*l.* or more, clear of all incumbrances, to be commiſſioners for the purpoſes after mentioned, in manner following, viz. ſuch pariſhioners of St. Mary Whitechapel, to nominate thirty-one; of Chriſt Church twenty-one; of St. Leonard Shoreditch twenty; of St. John Hackney eighteen; of St. Matthew Bethnal Green eight; of St. Mary Stratford Bow four; of Bromley St. Leonard three; of St. Anne eight; of St. Paul Shadwell ſixteen; of St. George eighteen; of St. John Wapping ſeventeen; of St. Botolph without Aldgate, commonly called the liberty of Eaſt Smithfield fifteen; of Trinity Minories three; the hamlet of Mile End Old Town eight; the hamlet of Mile End New Town three; the hamlet of Radcliff fifteen; the hamlet of Poplar and Blackwall ſeven (which laſt mentioned four hamlets are within the pariſh of St. Dunſtan Stepney in Middleſex) the precinct of the Tower-without ſix; the precinct of St. Katharine's ſeven; the precinct of Well Cloſe three; the precinct of the Old Artillery Ground four; the liberty of Norton Falgate five. And the churchwardens of each of the pariſhes or hamlets, and the overſeers of the poor of each of the liberties, precincts, or places aforeſaid, or one of them, ſhall, within two days after ſuch nomination, cauſe two liſts to be made of the perſons ſo reſpectively nominated; and the reſpective churchwardens ſhall cauſe one of the ſaid liſts to be fixed up at the church door of each pariſh; and the overſeers of the poor of each liberty not being a pariſh, ſhall cauſe one of the ſaid liſts to be fixed up in ſome public place in each of their liberties; and ſuch churchwardens and overſeers ſhall forthwith give notice to all the commiſſioners nominated, of their being ſo appointed; and ſhall, within two days after every nomination, cauſe a copy of ſuch liſts to be wrote in one complete liſt, taking the ſeveral pariſhes, &c. in order as they ſtand in this act, and ſhall ſtick up the ſame in ſome part of the court-houſe to be provided by the commiſſioners at ſome general meeting; which perſons ſo nominated by the ſaid ſeveral pariſhes, &c. reſpectively are hereby conſtituted commiſſioners to hear and determine all matters of debt hereinafter mentioned; and are conſtituted a court of juſtice by the name of The Court of Requeſts for the Tower Hamlets; and the ſaid commiſſioners, or three of them, are to hold the ſaid court twice in every week, viz. on every Tueſday and Friday, or oftner if need be, in a court-houſe to be provided for that purpoſe in the pariſh of St. Mary Whitechapel, or in ſome other convenient place adjoining. And the commiſſioners ſhall have power to give judgment, and award execution, with coſts, againſt the bodies or goods of all perſons againſt whom they give judgment, ſo as no perſon remain in cuſtody upon execution longer than forty days. ſ. 1.

If any plaintiff or defendant (after being ſummoned to appear in the ſaid court, by one of the beadles hereinafter mentioned) ſhall, without juſt cauſe to be allowed by the commiſſioners in court, refuſe to appear, or ſhall not perform ſuch order as the ſaid commiſſioners make concerning ſuch debts as aforeſaid, the commiſſioners, or three of them, may commit ſuch perſon to the common gaol or houſe of correction for the county of Middleſex, or to the gaol for the liberty of the Tower of London, if ſuch perſon ſhall reſide in the ſaid liberty, until he perform the order of the commiſſioners, ſo as no perſon remain in cuſtody longer than forty days. ſ. 2.

The ſaid beadles, or one of them, ſhall yearly ſummon the firſt five perſons out of the firſt ſixty named in the ſaid complete liſt, the firſt five perſons out of the ſecond ſixty, the firſt five perſons out of the third ſixty, the firſt five perſons out of the fourth ſixty (making in all twenty perſons), to attend as commiſſioners for one month, to commence the firſt day of May in each year; and ſo the like number of five perſons next ſtanding in each of the ſaid ſixty names, as they ſtand in order upon the ſaid complete liſt, to ſerve as commiſſioners from month to month. ſ. 3.

Nothing herein ſhall exclude any of the commiſſioners being duly qualified from ſitting in the ſaid court, although they be not in rotation; but all ſuch commiſſioners may, as often as they think fit, ſit and give judgment therein. ſ. 4.

Any perſons who ſhall have any debts owing to them, not amounting to 40*s.* by any perſon inhabiting or keeping any ſhop, ſtall, or ſtand, or ſeeking a livelihood within the diſtrict before deſcribed, may cauſe ſuch debtor to be ſummoned by one of the ſaid beadles, who is to execute all proceſs of the ſaid court, by perſonal ſervice, or by writing left at the place of abode, ſhop, or place of dealing of ſuch debtor, to appear before the commiſſioners in the court-houſe; and the commiſſioners ſhall after ſuch ſummons have power to make ſuch orders and proceedings between ſuch parties plaintiffs and their debtors defendants, touching ſuch debts, as they find to ſtand with equity and good conſcience; and all ſuch proceedings ſhall be entered in a book by the clerks of the court, or one of them, and ſhall be performed as well by the plaintiff as the debtor. ſ. 5.

The commiſſioners may adminiſter an oath to the plaintiff or defendant, and to witneſſes, and to the officers of the court concerning any buſineſs relative thereunto, if they think meet. ſ. 6.

If any action of debt, or on the caſe upon an aſſumpſit, be ſued againſt any perſon aforeſaid, in any court at Weſtminſter or elſewhere, out of the ſaid court of requeſts, and it appear to the judge that the debt to be recovered by the plaintiff doth not amount to 40*s.* and the defendant prove, that at the time of commencing ſuch action ſuch defendant was inhabiting within the diſtrict before deſcribed, and was liable to be ſummoned before the ſaid court of requeſts for ſuch debt, then the judge ſhall not allow to the plaintiff any coſts, but ſhall award that the plaintiff ſhall pay ſo much ordinary coſts to the defendant, as ſuch defendant ſhall prove it hath coſt him in defence of the ſaid ſuit. ſ. 7.

Where the plaintiff ſhall upon any action in any of the king's courts at Weſtminſter, or in any of the courts of great ſeſſion of Wales or counties palatine, obtain a verdict for leſs than 40*s.*; if the judge who tries the cauſe certify that there was a probable cauſe of action for 40*s.* or more, the plaintiff ſhall not be liable to pay coſts, but ſhall recover his coſts. ſ. 8.

If any perſon ſhall contemptuouſly affront, inſult, or abuſe any of the commiſſioners during their ſitting in court, one of the ſaid beadles may, by order of the commiſſioners ſitting, being three or more, take ſuch perſon into cuſtody, and carry him before a juſtice of peace for Middleſex, if the offence be committed within the ſaid county; or before a juſtice of peace for the liberty of the Tower of London, if the offence be committed within that liberty; and upon the fact alledged being proved upon the oath of one witneſs, the juſtice ſhall puniſh ſuch perſon by fine not exceeding 20*s.* which ſhall be immediately paid into the hands of the juſtice; and if ſuch offender pay not the fine, the ſaid juſtice may by warrant commit him to the common gaol or houſe of correction for the county of Middleſex, or to the gaol for the ſaid liberty, for any time not exceeding one month, or until he pay the fine; and ſuch fine, when received by the juſtice, ſhall be paid over to the churchwardens or overſeers of the poor of the pariſh, &c. where ſuch offence is committed, or where the party reſides, towards the relief of the poor. ſ. 9.

One of the clerks of the ſaid court ſhall cauſe to be fixed up in the moſt public part of the court-houſe, a copy of the preceding clauſe of this act. ſ. 10.

In caſe any perſon make oath or give evidence in any cauſe in the ſaid court, whereby he ſhall commit any wilful or corrupt perjury, and be convicted, he ſhall incur the like pains and penalties, as any other perſon convicted of wilful perjury. ſ. 11.

The commiſſioners were by ballot to chooſe clerks not exceeding four nor leſs than two; and beadles of the ſame court not exceeding four; who were to continue clerks and beadles, during ſo long as they behaved themſelves well. ſ. 12.

No commiſſioner ſhall be capable of holding the office of clerk, or any other place of profit belonging to the ſaid court. ſ. 13.

The commiſſioners in court, or the major part of them preſent, on the next court day after the death or reſignation of any of the ſaid clerks or beadles, or ſo ſoon after as the ſame is publicly known, are to cauſe the whole number of commiſſioners to be ſummoned (by giving them four days notice at leaſt) to meet at the place aforeſaid, within twenty days after their being ſummoned; and ſuch commiſſioners, at ſuch meeting, are by ballot to chooſe another clerk or beadle; and ſo upon every ſuch vacancy of the office of clerk or beadle. ſ. 14.

No perſon ſhall act as a commiſſioner in the execution of this act, until he ſhall have taken an oath to the effect following:

'I A. B. do ſwear, that I will faithfully, impartially,
'and honeſtly, according to the beſt of my judgment, hear and
'determine ſuch matters and things as ſhall be brought be- 'fore me, by virtue of an act of parliament (intituled, An 'act for the more eaſy and ſpeedy recovery of ſmall debts,
'within the Tower Hamlets), without favour or affection
'to either party; and that I am now ſeiſed of lands, tene-
'ments, or hereditaments, of the value of 20*l.* per annum,
'clear of all incumbrances, or that I am poſſeſſed of a per-
'ſonal eſtate of the value of 500*l. clear of all incumbrances*
'whatſoever.'

Which oath three of the commiſſioners are to cauſe to be adminiſtered; and a memorial thereof ſhall be entered in the regiſter of the court. ſ. 15.

The fees hereafter limited, and no more, ſhall be taken for the ſervices of the clerks and beadles. ſ. 16.

For every ſummons, to the clerks 3*d.* to the beadles 2*d.*

For every hearing, to the clerks 3*d.*

For calling the defendant before the court, when he or ſhe refuſe to appear, to the clerks 2 d. to the beadles 1 d.

For an attachment againſt the defendant for not appearing to the ſummons, to the clerks 6 d. to the beadles 1 s.

For an execution, to the clerks 8 d. to the beadles 1 s.

For paying money into court, to the clerks 6 d.

For acknowledging ſatisfaction in full, to the clerks 4 d.

For acknowledging ſatisfaction in part, to the clerks 2 d.

For ſearching the books, to the clerks 2 d.

For a nonſuit on the plaintiff's not appearing, to the clerks 2 d.

A yearly account ſhall be given upon oath by the clerks and beadles, before the commiſſioners ſitting in court, or three of them, of the amount of the fees by them ſeverally received; and if the fees in any one year exceed 200 l. to each clerk clear of all charges, and 60 l. to each beadle clear of all charges; the commiſſioners at a general meeting, may order the ſurplus to be divided between the clerks and beadles, in proportion to their reſpective ſums of 200 l. and 60 l. per annum, and to order for the future that the fees be reduced, ſo as to bring in as near as may be 200 l. a year to each of the clerks, and 60 l. a year to each of the beadles; and if after ſuch reduction the buſineſs of the court decline, ſo as not to produce 200 l. a year to each clerk, and 60 l. a year to each beadle, the commiſſioners at a general meeting are to reduce the number of clerks, or increaſe the fees, ſo as they do not exceed the preſent ſettled fees. ſ. 17.

A table of the aforeſaid fees ſhall be hung up by one of the clerks in ſome public part of the court-houſe; and if any of the clerks or beadles take any greater or other fees than as above mentioned, or otherwiſe miſbehave, he for every ſuch offence ſhall forfeit ſuch fine not exceeding 20 l. as the commiſſioners or three of them ſhall aſſeſs, to be applied to the uſe of the ſick in the London Infirmary. ſ. 18.

Upon complaint of the miſbehaviour of any of the clerks or beadles, or of their taking any greater or other fees than as above-mentioned, if it appear to the commiſſioners or the major part preſent, that ſuch complaint deſerves a greater puniſhment; ſuch commiſſioners are to cauſe the whole number of commiſſioners to be ſummoned, by public notice in writing to be given to all the commiſſioners, at leaſt four days before ſuch meeting; and the commiſſioners ſo ſummoned, being not leſs than ſixty, ſhall examine into the complaint; and if it appear that ſuch clerks or beadles have been guilty of miſbehaviour, or in taking any greater or other fees than above mentioned, the commiſſioners or the major part of them are to ſuſpend or remove ſuch clerks and beadles from their office; and to call another general meeting of the whole commiſſioners, by giving two days notice in writing, and within eight days after the removal of ſuch clerks or beadles; at which meeting the commiſſioners ſhall chooſe by ballot a clerk or beadle in the room of him ſo removed. ſ. 19.

This act ſhall not extend to any debt for any rent upon any leaſe of lands or tenements, or any other real contract, nor to any other debt that ſhall ariſe by reaſon of any cauſe concerning teſtament or matrimony, or any thing properly belonging to the eccleſiaſtical court, albeit the ſame be under 40 s. ſ. 20.

No action for any debt not amounting to 40 s. and recoverable by virtue of this act in the ſaid court of requeſts, ſhall be brought againſt any perſon reſiding within the juriſdiction thereof, in any other court. ſ. 21.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to reſtrain the ancient court of record within the liberty of the Tower of London, from holding plea of any perſonal action, the cauſe of which ſhall ariſe within the precinct of the Tower within, or from holding plea of any perſonal action (other than actions for debts not amounting to 40 s. the cauſe of which ſhall ariſe in any part of the liberty of the ſaid Tower, out of the precinct of the Tower within) or to take away any juriſdiction or exemption, which the chief governor of the ſaid Tower, or his deputy, or any officers or inhabitants within the ſaid liberty ought to enjoy. ſ. 23.

If any action be brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſuch action ſhall be brought within three calendar months after the fact; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 24. (See 19 Geo. 3. c. 68. infra.)

By 23 Geo. 2. c. 33. The ſuitors of the county court of Middleſex, together with the county clerk in county court aſſembled, or the major part of them, upon any plaint entered in the ſaid county court, where the debt or damages ſhall not amount to 40 s. may proceed in a ſummary way, and make ſuch orders or decrees as ſhall ſeem agreeable to equity and good conſcience; and it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid ſuitors and county clerk in the county court, to examine the plaintiff or defendant, and their witneſſes, viva voce, upon oath. ſ. 1.

The ſheriff of Middleſex may, by his county clerk, hold his county court, for the proceeding in purſuance of this act, on Thurſday in every week, at ſome place within the hundred of Oſſulſton, in the county of Middleſex, and on the firſt Tueſday in every month, at ſome place within the hundreds of Iſleworth or Elthorne, and on the laſt Tueſday in every month, at ſome place within the hundred of Edmonton; provided the monthly court of the ſaid ſheriff be held as has been accuſtomed. ſ. 2.

Such perſons only ſhall be deemed ſuitors of the ſaid county court to be held under this act, as are qualified to ſerve on juries on trials at niſi prius, in the king's bench, common pleas, and exchequer, at Weſtminſter. ſ. 3.

No plaint entered in the ſaid county court, nor any order or other proceedings thereupon by virtue of this act, ſhall be removed out of the ſaid court, by any writ of recordari facias loquelam, certiorari, or falſe judgment or otherwiſe; but ſuch order made by the ſaid ſuitors and county clerk ſhall be final; provided all plaints in replevin be proceeded in, and removable in the ſame manner as if this act had not been made. And no perſon ſhall be liable to be ſummoned to the ſaid county court at the ſuit of any plaintiff, other than ſuch perſon as was liable to be ſummoned to the county court of Middleſex, before this act; and this act ſhall not extend to give the ſaid county court any juriſdiction to hold plea of any action, other than ſuch as the county court of Middleſex might have held plea of by plaint before this act. ſ. 4.

If after any plaint entered as aforeſaid, and the defendant being ſummoned, either the plaintiff or the defendant ſhall neglect to perform ſuch order as the ſaid ſuitors and county clerk ſhall make and ſet down in writing, the county clerk, by warrant in writing under his ſeal, may commit ſuch plaintiff or defendant to the county gaol, or any other common gaol within the ſaid county, for three months or any ſhorter time, at the diſcretion of the ſaid ſuitors and county clerk; provided that if the perſon ſo committed before the expiration of the time for which he is committed perform ſuch order, he ſhall forthwith be diſcharged. ſ. 5.

Where the ſaid ſuitors and county clerk make any order for payment of money, the ſaid county clerk, at the prayer of the party proſecuting ſuch order, may iſſue a precept under his ſeal, in the nature of a fieri facias, directed to one of the bailiffs attending the court, who is to levy the ſum mentioned in ſuch precept, as any ſheriff may levy money by any fieri facias out of any court at Weſtminſter. ſ. 6.

The under ſheriff of Middleſex ſhall, ſix days before the end of every month, deliver to the county clerk of the ſaid county, three liſts, each containing the names and places of abode of twelve perſons, taken from the freeholders book of the county of Middleſex, as ſuitors to attend the ſaid county court for the ſucceeding month, for the ſeveral diviſions hereafter named; viz. one liſt for the hundred of Oſſulſton, one for the hundred of Iſleworth and Elthorne, and one for the hundred of Edmonton; and the county clerk ſhall cauſe the perſons in the ſaid liſts named, to be ſummoned to attend the ſaid court at the time and place mentioned in the ſummons; for each of which liſts the county clerk ſhall pay the ſaid under ſheriff 4 d.; and no other ſuitor, except the perſons ſo ſummoned, ſhall have any voice in the county court held under this act; and no perſon ſhall be liable to be put upon ſuch liſt, oftner than once in every year. ſ. 7.

If any ſuitor ſo qualified, after having been duly ſummoned, neglect to attend, and there be not a ſufficient number to proceed in the buſineſs of the court, it ſhall be lawful for the county clerk to amerce ſuch ſuitor as ſhall not attend, in any ſum not exceeding 20*s.* to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where the court ſhall ſit, to be recovered by any one of the overſeers of the poor by plaint in the county court. ſ. 8.

No perſon reſiding within the hundreds of Goare, Elthorne, Spelthorne or Iſleworth, ſhall be liable to attend the ſaid county court either as a ſuitor or defendant, in any other place than within the hundreds of Iſleworth or Elthorne; and no perſon reſiding within the hundred of Edmonton, ſhall be liable to attend the ſaid court in any other place than within the hundred of Edmonton. ſ. 9.

Every ſuitor attending the court, before he enters on the hearing any matter in controverſy, ſhall take the following oath, to be adminiſtered by the county clerk or his deputy. ſ. 10.

'I ſwear, that I will impartially and truly hear and determine the ſeveral matters in controverſy which ſhall be brought before me, as a ſuitor of this court, according to the evidence, and the beſt of my ſkill and judgment.

'So help me GOD.'

If any perſon ſhall be guilty of any contempt or diſturbance of the ſaid court, ſitting the court, it ſhall be lawful for the ſuitors and county clerk to order ſuch perſon to be taken into the cuſtody of any officer attending the court, which officer is to detain ſuch perſon during the ſitting of the court; and the ſuitors and county clerk may amerce ſuch perſon in any ſum not exceeding 40*s.* to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where the court ſhall ſit, to be recovered by any of the overſeers of the poor, by plaint, in the county court. ſ. 11.

The county clerk, and the other officers of the court, ſhall take the fees under-written, and no other or greater fees; viz.

The county clerk for entering the plaint 4 d.
For every warrant 4 d.
For every ſummons 4 d.
For every order 8 d.
For entering every order 4 d.
For hearing 6 d.
For execution 4 d.
For entering the appearance of the defendant or defendants 6 d.
The crier for every call 1 d.
The officer for ſummoning 4 d.
The officer for execution on the goods 2 s.
On the perſon 3 s.

a table of which fees ſhall be hung up in every place where the county court ſhall be held. ſ. 12.

So often as the office of county clerk ſhall become vacant, the ſheriff of Middleſex ſhall appoint the county clerk, who ſhall be a barriſter of three years ſtanding, and be approved by the lord chancellor, the lord chief juſtice of the king's bench, and the lord chief juſtice of the common pleas, or two of them; which perſon ſhall continue county clerk ſo long as he ſhall behave himſelf well. ſ. 13.

Every county clerk, within one month after appointment and approbation, ſhall take the following oath in the county court; viz.

'I A. B. do ſwear, that I will well and truly execute the office of county clerk of the county of Middleſex, according to the beſt of my ſkill and knowledge, and that I will not deny or delay juſtice, and will not by myſelf, or knowingly by any deputies, clerks, or ſervants under me, or by any other perſon or perſons, receive or take, or cauſe or permit, or ſuffer to be received or taken, any greater or other fees in my ſaid office of county clerk, than ſuch as are directed to be taken in and by an act made in the twenty-third year of the reign of his majeſty king George the Second, intituled, An act for preventing delays and expences in the proceedings in the county court of Middleſex, and for the more eaſy and ſpeedy recovery of ſmall debts within the ſaid county court.

'So help me GOD.'

Which oath ſhall be adminiſtered by any two ſuitors preſent, and ſhall be entered in the county court book, and ſigned by the county clerk, and atteſted by the ſuitors preſent. ſ. 14.

The county clerk may appoint his deputy, who, in the abſence of the county clerk, ſhall have the ſame authority as if himſelf was preſent, provided ſuch deputy be a barriſter of three years ſtanding, and nominated by the county clerk in open court, three weeks at leaſt before his appointment, and the majority of the ſuitors preſent aſſent thereto; and the deputy ſhall at every court before he proceeds to the hearing any matter in controverſy, take the oath before directed to be taken by the ſuitors, except the words, "as a ſuitor of this court;" which oath ſhall be adminiſtered by any two ſuitors preſent. ſ. 15.

If the county clerk ſhall not behave himſelf well in his office, twenty-four or more freeholders of the county may apply by petition to the lord chancellor, complaining of the miſbehaviour of the county clerk; and upon ſuch petition, the lord chancellor, the lord chief juſtice of the king's bench, and the lord chief juſtice of the common pleas, or two of them, may meet and hear the ſaid complaint in a ſummary way; and in caſe the county clerk be found upon proof to have been guilty of miſbehaviour, it ſhall be lawful for the lord chancellor, and the ſaid chief juſtices, or two of them, to amove the county clerk from his office. ſ. 16.

If any perſon make oath or give evidence in any cauſe in the ſaid county court, whereby he ſhall commit wilful and corrupt perjury, and be convicted, he ſhall incur the like pains and penalties as any other perſon convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury. ſ. 17.

If any action be brought againſt any member, officer, or miniſter of the ſaid county court, or againſt any other perſon, for acting in purſuance of this act, ſuch perſon may plead the general iſſue; and the warrant or precept under the ſeal of the ſaid county clerk, being proved, ſhall be ſufficient proof of the authority of the ſaid county court, and of all other proceedings in the ſaid court, previous to the iſſuing of ſuch warrant or precept; and in caſe the plaintiff have a verdict paſs againſt him, be nonſuit, or diſcontinue his action, the defendant ſhall be allowed double coſts. ſ. 18.

In caſe any action of debt, or upon aſſumpſit, be proſecuted in any court of record at Weſtminſter, and the defendant at the time of ſuch action brought, ſhall live in the county of Middleſex, and be liable to be ſummoned to the ſaid county court, and the jury upon the trial find the damages under 40*s.* unleſs the judge in court certify on the back of the record, that the freehold or title to the plaintiff's land principally came in queſtion, or that an act of bankruptcy principally came in queſtion, no coſts ſhall be awarded to the plaintiff, but the defendant ſhall recover double coſts. ſ. 19.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to his majeſty's Tower of London, or the Tower Hamlets. ſ. 20.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, and the precincts of the ſame, and ſo much of the pariſhes of St. Clement Danes, and St. Mary le Strand, in the county of Middleſex, as lies without the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, and alſo in the precincts of the Savoy adjoining thereto. ſ. 2.

By 24 Geo. 2. c. 42. All perſons admitted as attornies or ſolicitors, ſhall be ſubject to all the proceſſes of the court of requeſts for the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, and that part of the duchy of Lancaſter which adjoineth thereto.

So much of 23 Geo. 2. c. 27. as relates to the dividing the ſaid city and liberty of Weſtminſter, and that part of the duchy of Lancaſter which adjoineth thereto, into three diſtricts, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 2.

The commiſſioners nominated by virtue of the ſaid act, are to hold the ſaid court in two diviſions only; viz. the pariſhes of St. Margaret, St. John the Evangeliſt, St. Martin in the Fields, St. Paul Covent Garden, St. Clement Danes, St. Mary le Strand, and that part of the duchy of Lancaſter which adjoineth to the liberty of Weſtminſter, to be one of the diviſions; and the pariſhes of St. George Hanover Square, St. James and St. Anne, to be the other diviſion; viz. the commiſſioners for the pariſhes of St. Margaret, St. John the Evangeliſt, St. Martin in the Fields, St. Paul Covent Garden, St. Clement Danes, St. Mary le Strand, and that part of the duchy of Lancaſter which adjoineth to the liberty of Weſtminſter, on every Thurſday, or oftner if neceſſary, in ſome part of the ſaid diviſion; and the commiſſioners for the pariſhes of St. George Hanover Square, St. James and St. Anne, on every Tueſday, or oftner if neceſſary, in ſome part of the ſaid diviſion. ſ. 3.

Inſtead of the fees limited by the former act, the fees hereafter limited, ſhall be taken for the reſpective ſervices of the high bailiff of Weſtminſter, and the clerks of the ſaid court; viz.

For iſſuing every ſummons, to the clerks 4*d.*

For the ſervice of ſuch ſummons, to the high bailiff 4*d.*

For every hearing, to the clerks 6*d.* to the high bailiff 3*d.*

For an execution, to the clerks 1*s.* to the high bailiff 1*s.* 6*d.*

For paying money into court, to the clerks 7*d.*

For acknowledging ſatisfaction in full, to the clerks 6*d.*

For every ſearch, to the clerks 2*d.*

For calling the defendant before the court, to the clerks 2*d.* to the high bailiff 2*d.*

For every order upon hearing, and the entry thereof, to the clerks 4*d.*

For the ſervice of every ſuch order, to the high bailiff 2*d.*

For a nonſuit on the plaintiff's not appearing, to the clerks 4*d.*

A table of which fees ſhall be hung up by one of the clerks in the two court houſes, where the commiſſioners meet. ſ. 4.

Upon the death, reſignation, or removal of any one of the four clerks, the remaining three clerks ſhall continue to act; and upon the death, reſignation, or removal of any one of the ſaid three clerks, the remaining two ſhall act; nor ſhall the commiſſioners chooſe another clerk in the ſtead of any one ſo dying, reſigning, or being removed, until the number of the clerks be reduced to one; at which time the commiſſioners ſhall elect another clerk, to be joined with the remaining clerk, according to the directions in the former act, ſo as ſuch number of clerks ſhall not at any time exceed two. ſ. 5.

No clerk of the ſaid court ſhall act as a juſtice of peace in any matter relative to the proceedings of the ſaid court, or the juriſdiction of the ſame: but nothing in this or the former act ſhall exclude any clerk of the court from acting as a juſtice of peace, in any matter not relative to the buſineſs or juriſdiction of the ſaid court. ſ. 6.

All perſons reſiding within the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, or that part of the duchy of Lancaſter adjoining thereto, ſhall be ſubject to the proceſs and juriſdiction of the ſaid court, although the plaintiff ſuing out ſuch proceſs ſhall not inhabit within the ſaid city and liberty of Weſtminſter, and that part of the duchy of Lancaſter which adjoineth thereto. ſ. 7.

By 32 Geo. 2. c. 6. All perſons inhabiting within the limits of the juriſdiction of the court of requeſts, conſtituted by 22 Geo. 2. c. 47. ſhall be ſubject to the juriſdiction of the ſaid court, for debts owing to any perſons not exceeding 40*s.* although the plaintiffs ſhall not reſide within the borough of Southwark, or any of the pariſhes mentioned in the ſaid act. ſ. 1.

The ſaid act ſhall extend and be executed with reſpect to the pariſhes of Streatham, Clapham, and Camberwell, and the manor of Hatcham, in the pariſh of St. Paul Deptford, in the county of Surrey, being the remaining part of the eaſtern half of the hundred of Brixton, which is not included in the ſaid act, and to all the inhabitants and perſons renting or keeping any ſhop or ſtand, or ſeeking a livelihood within the ſaid pariſhes and manor, and to all other perſons, in the ſame manner as if the ſaid pariſhes and manor were part of the borough of Southwark. ſ. 2.

Such of the pariſhioners of the reſpective pariſhes of Streatham, Clapham, and Camberwell, and of ſuch part of the pariſh of St. Paul Deptford, as lies within the manor of Hatcham, as have a right to aſſemble in veſtries, are required on every Tueſday next after the feaſt of Eaſter, to nominate in the whole twenty ſubſtantial perſons reſiding within the pariſhes of Streatham, Clapham, and Camberwell, Camberwell, and ſuch part of the pariſh of St. Paul Deptford, who, together with the perſons nominated in manner directed by the ſaid act, are to be commiſſioners for putting the ſaid act and this act in execution; which perſons ſhall be nominated in the manner following; viz. ſuch pariſhioners of the pariſh of Streatham to nominate ſix; of Clapham ſix; of Camberwell ſix; and ſuch part of the pariſh of St. Paul Deptford as lies within the manor of Hatcham two; and the churchwardens of each pariſh, or one of ſuch churchwardens, ſhall within two days next after every ſuch nomination, cauſe two liſts to be made of the perſons ſo nominated; and one of the ſaid liſts, or a copy thereof, to be fixed on the church door of each reſpective pariſh; and ſhall deliver the other to the chief bailiff of Southwark, or his deputy, who ſhall forthwith cauſe a copy of ſuch liſts to be ſtuck up in ſome convenient part of the town hall of Southwark; and the perſons ſo nominated ſhall, together with the perſons appointed by virtue of the former act, be commiſſioners for putting the ſaid act and this act in execution; and the commiſſioners ſo nominated, or three of them, are authoriſed to put the ſaid act and this act in execution; except only as to the ſuſpenſion, removal, or election of any clerk of the ſaid court, which may be made by the major part of the commiſſioners aſſembled at a court to be ſummoned in manner preſcribed by the ſaid act. ſ. 3.

The ſaid chief bailiff or his deputy ſhall, within two days next after ſuch liſts returned to him, ſummon the two firſt perſons in the liſt for the pariſh of Streatham, the two firſt for the pariſh of Clapham, the two firſt for the pariſh of Camberwell, and the firſt perſon named for ſuch part of the pariſh of St. Paul Deptford as aforeſaid, to attend as commiſſioners for one month; and the like number out of every liſt as they ſtand in order, to ſerve as commiſſioners from month to month. ſ. 4.

If any ſuit be brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſuch ſuit ſhall be brought within three calendar months after the fact; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 5.

By 19 Geo. 3. c. 68. It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners for the recovery of ſmall debts within the Tower Hamlets, to take cognizance of any debt under forty ſhillings, for rent of any tenement, or part of a tenement, within the Tower Hamlets, let by parol demiſe (except the precinct of the Tower Within); and alſo for the ſaid commiſſioners to hear and determine on ſuch debts, and to award execution, in the ſame manner as they may for any other cauſe of action. ſ. 20.

Provided that the commiſſioners ſhall not take cognizance of any ſuch demand for rent, unleſs the perſon making ſuch demand, &c. hath been in the actual poſſeſſion of the ſaid tenements, or in receipt of rent for the ſaid tenements, during twelve months immediately preceding the time for which ſuch rent ſhall be demanded; and provided alſo, that no recovery of rent in the ſaid court be given in evidence in ſupport of the title to any lands. ſ. 21.

Nothing herein ſhall prevent any perſon from making diſtreſs for, or bringing any action for rent, although the ſame ſhall not amount to 40*s.* ſ. 22.

In all caſes whatſoever, whenever any debtor or defendant, reſiding within the juriſdiction of the ſaid court, ſhall have been duly ſummoned to appear before the commiſſioners in the ſaid court, according to the uſual manner, and ſhall not appear, the ſaid commiſſioners, or three of them, when aſſembled in the ſaid court, upon due proof that ſuch defendant was duly ſummoned, may proceed to hear the complaint, touching ſuch debt, on the part of the plaintiff only, and may make or pronounce ſuch order or judgment, in reſpect of the debt demanded, as to them ſhall ſeem equitable: and the ſaid commiſſioners, or three of them, ſhall then appoint ſome certain time and place, for every ſuch defendant to ſhew cauſe before the commiſſioners, or three of them, againſt ſuch order or judgment; at which time and place, or at any other ſubſequent court, the ſaid commiſſioners, or three of them, ſhall (whether ſuch perſon appear to ſhew cauſe, or not) upon proof, on the oath of one of the beadles of the ſaid court (that ſuch order or judgment, or a copy thereof, had been delivered to ſuch debtor, or left at his uſual place of reſidence, or abode, or working) award execution thereupon, as in other caſes: and the clerks and beadles of the ſaid court are to take the like fees, for the call of the defendant, and making and ſerving or leaving of every ſuch order as aforeſaid, as they are to take upon any attachment, by virtue of this or the former act. ſ. 23.

No privilege ſhall be allowed to exempt any perſon from the juriſdiction of the ſaid court of requeſts, on account of his being an attorney or ſolicitor of any of the courts at Weſtminſter, or of any other court whatſoever, but they ſhall be ſubject to the proceſſes of the ſaid court of requeſts as others. ſ. 24.

No general meeting ſhall be held for any of the purpoſes in this or the former act, without the order of three of the commiſſioners, made upon one of the court days in the former act mentioned, whilſt they ſhall be in court; which order ſhall be in writing, and ſhall ſpecify the time and place, and alſo the purpoſe of ſuch general meeting, and ſhall be regiſtered by the clerks then preſent in court, and notice thereof in writing, or in print, ſhall be delivered to, or left at the uſual place of abode of all the commiſſioners, by the beadles, or by any other perſon, the commiſſioners requiring ſuch meeting ſhall direct, four days before the holding of ſuch general meeting. ſ. 25.

No victualler, or perſon who ſhall ſell ale, beer, or ſpirituous liquors by retail, ſhall be capable of acting as a commiſſioner in the execution of this or the former act. ſ. 26.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to the precinct of the Tower Within; nor to reſtrain the ancient court of record held for and within the liberty of the Tower of London, from holding plea within the ſaid liberty, or to take away, or abridge, any juriſdiction, or privilege, &c. of the chief governor of the Tower, or his deputy, or any officer or miniſter, or any inhabitants within the ſaid liberty. ſ. 28.

No action ſhall be commenced againſt perſons for any thing done in purſuance of this act, or on account of any order or decree of the commiſſioners, until twenty days notice ſhall be given thereof in writing, to be left at the office of the clerks of the ſaid court, or after ſufficient ſatisfaction or tender thereof hath been made to the party aggrieved, or after three months after the cauſe of action; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff ſhall become nonſuited, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have double coſts. ſ. 29.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 45. No debtor or defendant committed to any priſon, by order of any court, or commiſſioners authoriſed by virtue of any act, to conſtitute or regulate any court for the recovery of ſmall debts, in the city of London, in the county of Middleſex, and town and borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, where the debt does not exceed twenty ſhillings, ſhall be kept in cuſtody on any pretence whatſoever, more than twenty days from the time of commitment, and where the debt does not exceed exceed forty ſhillings, more than forty days from the time of commitment; and all gaolers are to diſcharge ſuch perſons accordingly. ſ. 1.

When the time ſhall expire for which ſuch perſons ſhall have been committed, ſuch perſons ſhall immediately be diſcharged without paying any fees, or other reward or gratuity whatſoever, to the gaoler, by way of gaol or diſcharge fees, or otherwiſe, on any pretence whatſoever; and every gaoler, or others, demanding, taking, or receiving any fee, or ſum of money whatſoever, upon the diſcharge of any ſuch perſon, or keeping or detaining any ſuch perſon priſoner, after the time for which he ſhall be committed as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit five pounds. ſ. 2.

Two juſtices may hear and determine any offence againſt this act; and upon information or complaint before them of ſuch offence, are to ſummon the party accuſed, and alſo the witneſſes on either ſide, and to examine into the matter of fact; and upon due proof made thereof by the oath of one witneſs, or by the confeſſion of the party, to give judgment for the penalty, and to iſſue their warrant for levying the ſaid penalty of five pounds on the goods of the offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made thereof, if not redeemed in four days, rendering to the party the overplus (if any); and where goods cannot be found ſufficient, to commit ſuch offender to priſon, for two months, unleſs ſuch penalty ſhall be ſooner paid. ſ. 3.

All forfeitures by this act (the charges for recovery being deducted) ſhall be divided, one moiety to the churchwardens or overſeers of the poor, for the ſupport of the poor, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall ſue. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall be convicted, unleſs complaint or information ſhall be made or exhibited againſt ſuch perſon within two months. ſ. 5.

It ſhall not be lawful for any ſuch court of commiſſioners to iſſue any proceſs againſt the body of any perſon, where the party entitled to the benefit of any judgment, ſhall, at the ſame time, have obtained any warrant againſt the goods of the ſame perſon. ſ. 6.

No perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a commiſſioner in the execution of the acts before mentioned, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall be a houſeholder within the diſtrict, city, liberty, or place, for which he ſhall act, and ſhall be poſſeſſed of a real eſtate of the annual value of twenty pounds, or of a perſonal eſtate of the value of five hundred pounds: and if any perſon, not ſo qualified, ſhall act, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit twenty pounds to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame; to be recovered in any of the courts of record at Weſtminſter, with full coſts, by action of debt, &c.; and the perſon ſo proſecuted ſhall prove that he is qualified, or otherwiſe pay the penalty, upon proof being given of his having acted as a commiſſioner, provided ſuch action be commenced within ſix months. ſ. 7.

(See alſo the general title "Debt and Debtors" in Part I.)

Dyers.

By 17 Geo. 3. c. 33. The 5 Eliz. c. 5. reſtraining perſons from exerciſing any craft, myſtery, or occupation, except brought up therein ſeven years, &c. as to journeymen or ſervants being employed in the trade of a dyer, ſhall be repealed, with reſpect to Middleſex, Eſſex, Surrey, and Kent; and perſons who carry on the trade of a dyer, within any of the ſaid counties, may employ ſo many journeymen, ſervants, and labourers, as they ſhall have occaſion for, without incurring any penalty under the ſaid act.

By 23 Geo. 3. c. 15.* To prevent frauds in dying woollen goods, the maſter, wardens, and court of aſſiſtants of the company of dyers of London, under the common ſeal of the ſaid company, together with John Barchard, John Cole, Samuel Farmer, Chamberlain Goodwin, Chamberlain Goodwin junior, Jacob Mills, John Platt, Edward Seward, Joſeph Seward, Richard Still, Thomas Vincent, and Thomas Whitehead, or any three of them, ſhall appoint ſuch number of perſons as they think proper, to be ſearchers of all ſhops, warehouſes, workhouſes, and tenter-grounds or drying-places, of all perſons, companies and corporations, uſing the trade of dying of cloths, bays, or other woollen goods of every kind whatſoever; and alſo of all perſons concerned in the dying, drying, or packing of any ſuch cloths, bays, or other woollen goods, and alſo all public warehouſes, and other public places where any cloths, bays, or other woollen goods, packed up for exportation, ſhall be depoſited, ſituate within London, and within ten miles of the ſaid city; and from time to time to appoint others in the room of ſuch as ſhall die, reſign, or be removed; and every ſearcher ſo appointed is empowered, in the day-time, to enter into any ſuch ſhop, warehouſe, workhouſe, tenter-ground, or drying-place, and other places as aforeſaid, and to ſearch for and examine all cloths, bays, and other woollen goods dyed black or blue, whether packed or unpacked, and alſo to cut and take away a pattern or ſample from either end of every piece, for the purpoſe of trying and proving the ſame, ſuch ſearcher taking to his aſſiſtance a conſtable, or other peace officer, who is required to be aiding to ſuch ſearcher in the execution of this act, whenever application ſhall be made to him. ſ. 5.

When any of the perſons herein before named, or to be appointed as herein after mentioned, to act in the appointment of ſearchers, ſhall die, or refuſe to act, the ſurviving perſons, or three of them, ſhall, by writing under their hands, appoint another perſon (uſing the trade of a dyer of woollen goods, and reſiding within the limits), in the room of the perſon dying or refuſing to act; and every perſon ſo appointed ſhall have the like power to act in the appointment of ſearchers as aforeſaid. ſ. 6.

The ſaid company of dyers, and the perſons herein before authoriſed to act in the appointment of ſearchers, or three of them, ſhall hold their firſt meeting for the appointment of ſearchers, at Dyers Hall, in London, upon the ſeventh day after the paſſing of this act, and may then, and from time to time afterwards, adjourn themſelves, and meet at the ſame or any other place within the city, as often as neceſſary, for the appointment of ſearchers within the limits aforeſaid; but if at any meeting, a ſufficient number of perſons authoriſed to appoint ſearchers, ſhall not attend, or ſhall omit to adjourn ſuch meeting, then any one of ſuch perſons may adjourn ſuch meeting to ſuch time and place within the ſaid city as he ſhall think proper. ſ. 7.

In caſe, at any meeting for the appointment of ſearchers, the ſaid company of dyers ſhall not attend, the perſons herein before named, or to be appointed to act in the appointment of ſearchers, or any three of them, are to appoint ſuch perſons as they think proper, to be ſearchers within the limits. ſ. 8.

If the ſaid company of dyers, and the ſeveral perſons herein before authoriſed to act in the appointment of ſearchers, or three of ſuch perſons, ſhall refuſe or neglect to appoint and continue a proper number of ſearchers, any two perſons uſing the trade of a dyer of woollen goods, may apply to the juſtices, at any general quarter ſeſſions within the limits, and make complaint of ſuch refuſal or neglect; and the juſtices at ſuch ſeſſions may make inquiry touching ſuch complaint; and if it ſhall appear to them that a proper number of ſearchers ſhall not be appointed, the ſaid juſtices ſhall appoint ſuch perſons as they judge neceſſary to be ſearchers within the limits. ſ. 9.

Searchers are to take an oath, which ſee under the general title DYERS, in Part I.

Elections.

By 11 Geo. 1. c. 18. ſ. 1. Upon every election of citizens to ſerve in parliament for the city of London, and upon all elections of mayors, ſheriffs, chamberlains, and other officers, for the ſaid city by the liverymen, and upon all elections of aldermen and common council men, the preſiding officers ſhall, in caſe a poll be demanded by any of the candidates, or two of the electors, appoint clerks to take the ſame; which clerks ſhall take the poll in the preſence of the preſiding officer, and be ſworn by him, truly and indifferently to take the ſame, and to ſet down the name of each voter, and the place of his abode, and for whom he ſhall poll, and to poll no perſon who ſhall not be ſworn, or being a quaker, ſhall not affirm, according to this act: and every perſon, before he is admitted to poll at any elections of citizens to ſerve in parliament, or of any officers uſually choſen by the liverymen, ſhall take the following oath; or being a quaker, ſhall ſolemnly affirm the effect thereof; viz.

'You do ſwear that you are a freeman of London, and 'a liveryman of the company of ———, and have been 'ſo for the ſpace of twelve calendar months, and that the 'place of your abode is at ——— in ———, and that 'you have not polled at this election.

'So help you GOD.'

And at the election of any alderman or common council man, no perſon ſhall be admitted to poll before he hath taken the oath following, or being a quaker, hath affirmed; viz.

'You do ſwear, that you are a freeman of London, and 'an houſeholder in the ward of ———, and have not 'polled at this election.

'So help you GOD.'

All perſons having right to vote at ſuch elections, ſhall (if required by any of the candidates, or any two of the electors) take the oaths in the act of 1 Geo. 1. c. 13, for the ſecurity of his majeſty's perſon and government, &c. (ſee oaths), or being a quaker, affirm the effect thereof; and the preſiding officers at ſuch elections, and ſuch ſworn clerks, are impowered to adminiſter the above mentioned oaths; and if ſuch preſiding officer or clerk offend in the premiſes, he ſhall forfeit 60 l. beſides coſts. ſ. 2.

If any perſon ſhall falſely and corruptly take the ſaid oaths or affirmations, and be thereof convicted by indictment or information; or if any perſon ſhall corruptly procure or ſuborn any other perſon to take the ſame, and ſhall be thereof convicted, the offender ſhall ſuffer as perſons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury at common law. ſ. 3.

If a poll ſhall be demanded at any of the above mentioned elections, the preſiding officer ſhall begin the poll the day it ſhall be demanded, or the next day, and ſhall proceed therein from day to day, until ſuch poll be finiſhed; and ſhall finiſh the poll at elections by liverymen within ſeven days, and the poll at the wardmote within three days after the commencing the ſame; and ſhall, upon adjourning the poll on each day, ſeal up the books with the ſeals, and in the preſence of ſuch of the candidates or perſons deputed by them, as ſhall deſire the ſame; and the poll books ſhall not be opened but at the time and place of meeting; and after the poll is finiſhed, the poll books ſhall within two days be publicly opened at the place of election, and caſt up; and within two days after the numbers of the votes ſhall be declared at the place of election: and if a ſcrutiny be demanded, it ſhall be granted, and the candidates ſhall nominate to the preſiding officers any number of perſons qualified to vote, not exceeding ſix, to be ſcrutineers, to whom the preſiding officers ſhall within ſix days, upon requeſt and at the charge of the candidates or ſcrutineers, deliver a copy, ſigned by ſuch officers of the poll; and the ſcrutinies upon any election by liverymen, ſhall begin within ten days after the delivery of the copies of the polls, and be proceeded upon day by day, and ſhall be finiſhed within fifteen days after commencement; and the preſiding officers ſhall within four days after the finiſhing ſuch ſcrutiny, declare at the place of ſuch election, which of the candidates is duly elected, and the number of legal votes for each candidate. And on the election of any officers at the wardmotes, if a ſcrutiny be demanded, the candidates or ſcrutineers ſhall, within ten days after the receipt of the copies of the poll, deliver to the preſiding officer the names in writing of the perſons againſt whoſe votes they ſhall object, with the particular objections againſt each name; and the preſiding officer ſhall within three days, at the requeſt and charges of any candidate, or the ſcrutineers, deliver copies ſigned of the paper containing ſuch names, and within ten days after having heard ſuch of the candidates as ſhall deſire it, or ſome perſons appointed by them, ſhall at the place of election declare which of the candidates are duly elected, and the number of legal votes; and if the preſiding officer, or any other perſon, ſhall offend in the premiſes, ſuch offender ſhall forfeit 200 l. with coſts, over and above all other penalties. ſ. 4.

After any election and ſcrutiny, the preſiding officer ſhall deliver under his hand, a liſt of the voters by him diſallowed, to any of the candidates who ſhall demand the ſame, within ſix days after ſuch demand, ſuch candidate paying for the ſame; provided that no ſuch liſt ſhall be given in evidence. ſ. 5.

The mayor of London, on requeſt made by any candidates or their agents, at any election of citizens to ſerve in parliament, or of a mayor or other officer to be choſen by the liverymen, where a ſcrutiny is granted, ſhall iſſue his precepts, requiring the maſters and wardens of the livery companies to cauſe their clerks to return two liſts of the liverymen of their companies; and the clerks ſhall return ſuch liſts upon oath within three days after the receipt of ſuch precepts; one of which liſts the mayor ſhall deliver to the candidates on each ſide, or their agents. ſ. 6.

The right of election of aldermen and common council men ſhall belong to freemen, being houſeholders, paying ſcot and bearing lot. ſ. 7.

Provided that the houſes of ſuch houſeholders be of the value of 10 l. a year; and that ſuch houſeholders be the ſole occupiers, and have been in poſſeſſion of a houſe of ſuch value in the ward twelve calendar months. ſ. 8.

The rates are declared to be, to the church, to the poor, to the ſcavenger, to the orphans, and to the rates in lieu of watch.

watch and ward, and to ſuch other annual rates as the citizens ſhall be liable to, except the annual aids granted by parliament; and if ſuch houſeholder ſhall have paid his ſcot to all the ſaid rates, or 30*s.* a year to all or ſome of them, he ſhall be deemed a perſon paying ſcot. ſ. 9.

Provided that ſuch houſeholder ſhall have paid his ſcot to all the ſaid rates, or 30*s.* a year in the whole, within the ſpace aforeſaid; and if any partners carry on a joint trade in any ſuch houſe, ſuch partners ſhall have votes, ſo as the houſe be of the value of as many ſums of 10*l.* a year as there are partners. ſ. 10.

Where two perſons, not being partners, ſhall have ſeverally inhabited in the ſame houſe, ſuch perſons ſhall have votes, ſo as the houſe be of the yearly value of 20*l.* and each of them pay the yearly rent of 10*l.* ſ. 11.

This act ſhall not oblige any perſons to pay ſcot, or bear lot, from which they are exempted by act of parliament, charter, or writ of privilege. ſ. 12.

Perſons aggrieved by aſſeſſments for the orphans, or for watch and ward, may appeal to the mayor and court of aldermen. ſ. 13.

No perſon ſhall have right to vote at any election by the liverymen, who have not been upon the livery twelve calendar months, and who ſhall not have paid their livery fines, or who ſhall have received ſuch fines back again in part, or in all, or ſhall have had any allowance in reſpect thereof; and no perſons ſhall have a right to vote who have within two years next before requeſted to be, and have been diſcharged from paying taxes, or have within that time received alms. ſ. 14.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any election in common council, of any common ſerjeant, town-clerk, judges of the ſheriffs court, coroner, common cryer, commiſſioners of ſewers, garbler, and the governor and aſſiſtants of London, of the new plantation of Ulſter in Ireland. ſ. 16.

All the forfeitures hereby enacted ſhall be diſtributed; one third to the king, one other third to the chamberlain for the uſe of the city, and the remaining third to the proſecutor, who will ſue within ſix calendar months after the ſame ſhall be incurred. ſ. 20.

Error.

By 28 Edw. 3. c. 10. The mayor, ſheriffs and aldermen, which have the governance of the city, ſhall cauſe to be redreſſed errors, upon a certain pain, viz. the firſt default 1000 marks to the king, and the ſecond default 2000 marks, and the third default, that the franchiſe of the city be taken into the king's hand: and if they do not cauſe to be made due redreſs, it ſhall be inquired of their defaults by inqueſts of foreign counties, viz. of Kent, Eſſex, Suſſex, Hertford, Buckingham, and Berks, as well at the king's ſuit as others. ſ. 1.

If the mayor, ſheriffs, and aldermen, be by ſuch inqueſts indicted, they ſhall be cauſed to come before the king's juſtices aſſigned, out of the city: and if they put themſelves in inqueſts, the inqueſts ſhall be taken by foreign people: and if they be attainted, the pain ſhall be levied of the mayor, ſheriffs, and aldermen; and the plaintiffs ſhall recover treble damages againſt them. And the conſtable of the Tower, or his lieutenant, ſhall ſerve in the place of the ſheriffs to receive the writs: and proceſs ſhall be made by attachment and diſtreſs, and by exigent if need be; ſo that at the king's ſuit, the exigent ſhall be awarded after the firſt capias returned, and at the third capias returned at the ſuit of the party: and if the mayor, ſheriffs, and aldermen, have lands out of the city, proceſs ſhall be made againſt them by attachments and diſtreſſes in the counties where the lands be: and every of the ſaid mayor, ſheriffs and aldermen, ſhall anſwer particularly for himſelf, as well at the peril of other which be abſent as of himſelf: and this ordinance ſhall extend to all cities and boroughs where ſuch defaults be uſed, and not duly corrected; ſaving that the inqueſts ſhall be taken by foreign people of the county where ſuch cities or boroughs be; and the pain of thoſe of the ſaid boroughs and towns ſhall be judged by the juſtices aſſigned. ſ. 2.

By 1 Hen. 4. c. 15. The penalty in ſtat. 28 Edw. 3. c. 10. as well of the 1000 marks, as of the 2000 marks, and of the ſeiſure of the franchiſe, ſhall not be limited in certainty, but be by the diſcretion of the juſtices aſſigned.

Eſtrepement.

By ſtat. Glouceſt. 6 Edw. 1. c. 13. After a plea is moved in London by writ, the tenant ſhall have no power to make waſte or eſtrepement of the tenement, hanging the plea; if he do, the mayor and bailiffs ſhall cauſe it to be kept ſafe at the ſuit of the demandant: and the ſame ſhall be obſerved in other cities and boroughs, and throughout the realm.

Any

Any perſon who ſhall buy fiſh in the ſaid market, may ſell the ſame again in any other place in London, or elſewhere, by retail; except that none but fiſhmongers ſhall ſell in public or fixed ſhops or houſes. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall not alter any law concerning fiſh caught by foreigners. ſ. 4.

Any perſon taking or demanding any toll or ſample, or other impoſition or ſet price of any ſea fiſh of Engliſh catching, contrary to 5 Eliz. c. 5. (ſee the general title "Fiſh, &c." in Part I.) ſhall forfeit 10 l. one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to ſuch as ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 5.

Whereas an evil practice hath been uſed by the fiſhmongers, in imploying one or two perſons to buy up the fiſh brought to Billingſgate, and afterwards dividing the ſame amongſt the fiſhmongers by lots; no ſuch practices ſhall be hereafter uſed. ſ. 6.

No perſons ſhall imploy, or be imployed by any other in buying at the ſaid market any quantity of fiſh, to be divided, in order to be afterwards put to ſale; nor ſhall any fiſhmonger ingroſs or buy in the ſaid market, any quantity of fiſh, but what ſhall be for his own ſale or uſe, and not for any other fiſhmonger, under pain of forfeiting for each offence 20 l. one moiety to the poor of the pariſh, and the other moiety to his uſe who ſhall ſue for the ſame. No perſon ſhall bring on ſhore, or put to ſale, any lobſters that are not eight inches from the peak of the noſe to the end of the middle fin of the tail, under pain of forfeiting for every lobſter 1 s. the one moiety to the poor of the pariſh, the other moiety to the proſecutor, to be recovered upon conviction before the chief magiſtrate of any city or town corporate, or before the next juſtice of peace. ſ. 7.

No fiſh (except ſtock-fiſh and live eels) taken by foreigners (except proteſtant ſtrangers inhabiting within this kingdom) ſhall be imported in any foreign bottom, not being wholly Engliſh property, and ſold or expoſed to ſale in this kingdom, under pain of forfeiture of ſuch ſhip, and of all ſuch fiſh ſo imported and ſold; one moiety to the poor of the pariſh where the ſame ſhall be ſeiſed, the other moiety to his uſe who ſhall ſeiſe the ſame. ſ. 8.

Nothing in this act ſhall prohibit the importation of anchovies, ſturgeon, botargo or cavear; nor ſelling of mackarel before or after divine ſervice on Sundays. ſ. 9.

Nothing in this act ſhall take away an ancient duty of cod and ling, payable to the king for the ſervice of his houſehold, by ſuch merchants as trade to Weſtmoney and Iſeland. ſ. 10.

By 9 Ann. c. 26. The court of aſſiſtants of the company of fiſhermen of the river Thames, may make bye-laws and ordinances for the government of the ſaid company, ſo as the ſame be firſt approved of or amended by the court of the lord mayor and aldermen of London, and likewiſe allowed and confirmed according to the ſtatute; and there ſhall be yearly elected by the next court of lord mayor and aldermen, after the 10th of June, out of the ſix wardens of the ſaid company, to be nominated by the court of aſſiſtants, one perſon to be maſter of the ſaid miſtery of fiſhermen; and out of twelve aſſiſtants to be nominated as aforeſaid, ſix wardens of the ſaid art (whereof the water-bailiff of London ſhall be one), and in like manner out of ſixty of the commonalty, to be nominated as aforeſaid, thirty aſſiſtants; which maſter, wardens and aſſiſtants, or ſixteen of them, with three of the ſaid wardens, ſhall be the court of aſſiſtants of the ſaid company, and ſhall meet on the firſt Thurſday in every calendar month, in the hall of the ſaid company, for reforming abuſes in the ſaid fiſhery, and for the governance of the company; to which court the water-bailiff ſhall be always ſummoned; and the ſaid court of aſſiſtants ſhall call before them all ſuch perſons as ſhall uſe to fiſh or drudge within the limits of the ſaid fiſhery, as common fiſhermen or drudgermen, or cauſe every ſuch perſon, being duly qualified, or having ſerved on board her majeſty's navy for two years, to have his name regiſtered by the court of aſſiſtants, with his place of abode, and the name of every apprentice or ſervant belonging to him in the trade; and ſhall cauſe ſome mark to be placed on every boat and craft which ſhall be uſed in fiſhing or drudging within the limits aforeſaid; which figure or mark ſhall not be changed. And every perſon duly ſummoned by direction of the court of aſſiſtants, to appear before them, in order to ſerve on board her majeſty's navy, who ſhall without lawful cauſe neglect to appear, ſhall be ſent on board her majeſty's navy, and be diſabled from fiſhing on the Thames for two years. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall wilfully kill or expoſe to ſale any ſpawn, fry, or brood of fiſh, or ſpat of oyſters, or any unſizeable, ſmall, or unwholeſome fiſh, or catch or deſtroy any fiſh out of ſeaſon, or expoſe ſuch fiſh to ſale, or knowingly buy, receive or uſe any ſuch; and no perſon ſhall fiſh for, or wilfully hurt or deſtroy any ſalmon or ſalmon-kind fiſh within the ſaid limits, betwixt the 24th of Auguſt and the 11th of November; and the lord mayor, upon application by the court of aſſiſtants, may order ſtakes to be driven in any place within the river, betwixt the London mark-ſtone, above Stains Bridge and London Bridge, for preſerving the fry, ſpawn, and brood of fiſh, ſo as the ſame be no ways prejudicial to the navigation; and no perſon ſhall without lawful authority remove the ſame. ſ. 2.

No fiſh ſhall be ſold more than once within the market, or within 150 yards of Billingſgate dock; nor ſhall any perſons, other than free fiſhmongers, in their houſes and ſhops within 150 yards of the ſaid dock, and not in the market of Billingſgate, and other than fiſhermen, or the firſt importers of, or perſons bringing up ſuch fiſh to the market, their wives, apprentices, factors or ſervants, hired for that purpoſe, ſell or expoſe to ſale any fiſh at the ſaid market, or within 150 yards of the ſaid dock. ſ. 3.

The court of aſſiſtants ſhall yearly, by equal portions, on the feaſt days of Eaſter and Michaelmas, pay to the water-bailiff, or his aſſigns, 30 l. free from taxes, in lieu of ſuch ancient fees as were due to him, and which will be diminiſhed by this act, except the granting licenſes for taking fiſh in their ſeveral ſeaſons, the benefit whereof is intended to be continued to the water-bailiff. ſ. 4.

No fiſh ſhall be ſold or expoſed to ſale on board or on ſhore (within the limits of the ſaid market, or within 150 yards of the dock) before three o'clock in the morning from Lady-day to Michaelmas, and before five o'clock from Michaelmas to Lady-day; and the proper officer ſhall ring the bell at the time aforeſaid. ſ. 5.

The lord mayor and aldermen of London, or any one of them, for all offences committed within the juriſdiction of the lord mayor as conſervator of the river, and the juſtices of peace of the reſpective counties, or one of them, for all offences committed out of the juriſdiction of the conſervator, ſhall have power upon view or complaint, to examine, hear, and determine, by the oath of any perſon, or by confeſſion of the party, all offences committed againſt this act; and upon conviction, to impoſe a fine not exceeding 10 l. nor leſs than 5 s. to be levied on ſuch offender's goods, at the diſcretion of the lord mayor, aldermen, or juſtices, unleſs ſuch offender pay ſuch fine, or give ſecurity to ſuch magiſtrate to abide ſuch order as ſhall be made by the court of conſervancy upon ſuch conviction made by the ſaid lord mayor and aldermen, or at the quarter ſeſſions upon conviction made before the juſtices, in caſe the offender ſhall appeal; and in caſe no diſtreſs can be found, the offender ſhall be ſent to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding two months; and all penalties ariſing by this act for offences committed within the juriſdiction of the conſervator ſhall be paid, one moiety to the informer, the other to the lord mayor as conſervator; and all penalties for offences committed out of the juriſdiction of the conſervator, ſhall be paid, one moiety to the poor of the pariſh, and the other moiety to ſuch perſon who ſhall proſecute. ſ. 6.

Saving to the queen, and all courts and perſons, all fines, &c. ſ. 7.

This act ſhall not prejudice the rights of the city of London exerciſed by the lord mayor as conſervator of the river of Thames, and waters of Medway, or elſewhere, or the rights of the admiralties or vice-admiralties of Kent or Eſſex, or the fiſhings appertaining to the city of London, or any other city or town corporate, or any lords of manors, owners of rivers or fiſheries, or the rights of any other perſon. ſ. 8.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any fiſhermen or drudgermen who ſhall dwell in any of the cinque ports, or their members, or in the city of Rocheſter, or towns of Strood, Chatham, Finſbury, Gillingham, Milton, Queenborough, Feverſham, Whitſtaple, or the places adjacent. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall be a public act; and in caſe any action be proſecuted againſt any perſon for what he ſhall do in purſuance of this act, ſuch perſon may plead the general iſſue. ſ. 10.

The 22 Geo. 2. c. 49. appointed a free and open market to be held in the city of Weſtminſter for all ſorts of fiſh, with various regulations, but it does not appear to have been carried into execution.

Any perſon entering into any contract for buying up fiſh to be ſold again by retail, before ſuch fiſh be brought to an open market, and there expoſed to public ſale, ſuch contract is declared to be void; and every party ſo contracting, as well the buyer as the ſeller, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch offence fifty pounds, to be levied in manner after-mentioned; one moiety to be paid to the truſtees appointed by this act, or their order, to be placed to the general account, and the other moiety to ſuch perſon as ſhall inform and ſue for the ſame. ſ. 9.

If either of the parties ſo contracting, before any information againſt him, inform againſt the other, ſuch party ſo informing, ſo as ſuch other party may be duly convicted, ſhall not only be acquitted from the ſaid penalty, but alſo be entitled to ſue for in his own name, and recover the whole forfeiture incurred by the other; one moiety to be paid to the truſtees, and appropriated as aforeſaid, and the other moiety to ſuch perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 10.

Nothing in this act ſhall make void any contracts already made, or prevent any contracts to be made by any perſon in regard to freſh ſalmon or ſoles brought by land carriage, or to oyſters, or ſalt, or dried fiſh. ſ. 11.

If any perſon, natives or foreigners, keep any fiſh at Queenborough, Graveſend, or other place, in any well-boat, ſtore-boat, or any other manner, ſo as not to ſell off their whole cargo within eight days from their arrival on the Britiſh coaſt, between North Yarmouth and Dover, every perſon ſo offending, and convicted by confeſſion or the oath of one witneſs, ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit his whole cargo of fiſh, and the veſſel with her furniture, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale, by warrant of any juſtice of peace for the county where the offence is committed; and the produce thereof ſhall be applied, one moiety to the uſe of the informer, and the other moiety to the poor of the pariſh where the offence is committed. ſ. 12.

By 30 Geo. 2. c. 21. The court of mayor and aldermen of London, ſhall before the 29 Sept. 1757, make rules for the governing all perſons who ſhall fiſh or drudge in the river of Thames, and waters of Medway, within the juriſdiction of the ſaid mayor as conſervator; and for declaring in what manner they ſhall demean themſelves in fiſhing, and with what nets and engines, and at what times they ſhall uſe fiſhing in the ſaid river and waters of Medway, within the juriſdiction aforeſaid; and for aſcertaining the aſſize of fiſh to be there taken, and for the preſervation of the ſpawn and fry of fiſh; and for obliging every perſon who ſhall fiſh with a boat, veſſel, or craft in the Thames and Medway, within the juriſdiction aforeſaid, to have in his boat, &c. both his chriſtian and ſurname, and the name of the pariſh or place in which he dwelleth, painted in large characters, in ſome place where any one may read the ſame; and for preventing ſuch name from being altered or defaced, and to annex penalties for the breach of ſuch rules not exceeding five pounds for any one offence, and ſuch rules from time to time to alter, and new rules to make, ſo as the ſame be approved of by the lord chancellor, the lord chief juſtice of the king's bench, the lord chief juſtice of the common pleas, the lord chief baron of the exchequer, or any two of them, and they or two of them are to allow or alter the ſame as they think fit; and for the doing thereof no fee ſhall be paid. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall within the juriſdiction of the ſaid mayor, wilfully take, deſtroy, or expoſe to ſale, or exchange any ſpawn, fry, or brood of fiſh, or ſpat of oyſters, or any unſizeable or unwholeſome fiſh, or fiſh out of ſeaſon, or bring ſuch fiſh on ſhore for ſale, or uſe or keep any net, engine, or other device prohibited by ſuch rules, upon pain of forfeiting for every offence ſuch ſum as by ſuch rules ſhall be appointed, to be recovered as is after-mentioned. ſ. 2.

Such rules ſhall within thirty days after the ſame ſhall be approved as aforeſaid, be printed and made public. ſ. 3.

The ſaid court of mayor and aldermen ſhall, between the 25th of June and 29th of Sept. next (and ſo yearly, if occaſion require) order to be ſummoned before them, ſuch and ſo many perſons who fiſh in the Thames or Medway, within the juriſdiction aforeſaid, as common fiſhermen or drudgermen (not exceeding twelve) as to them ſhall ſeem meet, to be examined upon oath (if the court think fit) touching the fiſhery; and if any ſuch fiſherman or drudgerman being perſonally ſummoned by writing to attend the court of mayor and aldermen by the ſpace of fourteen days at leaſt, neglect ſo to do, or refuſe to be examined upon oath, not making appear before the ſaid court ſome juſt excuſe, he ſhall on proof by oath in ſuch court, of the ſervice of the ſummons, forfeit 40*s.* to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of the ſaid mayor, or the recorder, or any alderman of the ſaid city, directed to any aſſiſtant of the water-bailiff, or any conſtable, headborough, or peace officer; and the ſaid diſtreſs ſhall be ſold after five days from the making ſuch diſtreſs, rendering the overplus to the offender; which penal ſum ſhall be paid to the treaſurer of Greenwich hoſpital, for the benefit of the hoſpital. ſ. 4.

The deputy of the ſaid mayor as conſervator, called The Water

Water Bailiff, and his aſſiſtants, appointed by warrant under the hand and ſeal of the mayor, and all perſons authoriſed by warrant of the mayor, may enter into any veſſel of any perſon fiſhing upon the Thames or Medway, within the juriſdiction aforeſaid, and there ſearch for and ſeiſe all ſpawn, fry, brood of fiſh, ſpat of oyſters, and unſizeable, unwholeſome, or unſeaſonable fiſh, and all unlawful nets, engines, and inſtruments, for taking or deſtroying fiſh, and to ſeiſe on the ſhore adjoining, within the juriſdiction aforeſaid, all ſuch ſpawn, fry, brood of fiſh, ſpat of oyſters, unſizeable, unwholeſome, or unſeaſonable fiſh; and ſuch deputy and aſſiſtants, or other perſons authoriſed, ſhall with all ſpeed, after the ſeiſing any ſuch unlawful nets, &c. or any ſpawn, &c. cauſe the ſame to be brought before the mayor of London, or the recorder, or one of the aldermen, if ſeiſed within the limits of the city of London and liberties thereof, either upon the ſaid river or on ſhore, or before the mayor of the ſaid city, or the recorder, or one of the aldermen, or a juſtice of peace of the county in which ſuch ſeiſure ſhall be made, if made upon the ſaid river or waters out of the limits of the ſaid city or the liberties thereof, but within the juriſdiction of the ſaid mayor as conſervator, or before a juſtice of peace of the county in which the ſame ſhall be ſeiſed on ſhore; who ſhall cauſe ſuch nets, &c. or ſpawn, &c. ſo ſeiſed to be examined; and if the ſame upon examination, or on proof on oath, appear to be unſizeable, unwholeſome, or unſeaſonable, or unlawful, and that the ſame were ſeiſed as aforeſaid, the ſaid mayor, recorder, or any alderman of the ſaid city, or juſtice, within their reſpective juriſdictions, ſhall cauſe to be burnt or deſtroyed, as well all ſuch unlawful nets, &c. as alſo all ſuch ſpawn, &c. ſ. 5.

If any perſon obſtruct the ſaid water-bailiff, his aſſiſtants, or any of the ſaid officers, or any conſtable, headborough, or other peace officer, in the execution of any of the powers veſted in them by this act, or of any warrant iſſued by the ſaid mayor, recorder, or any alderman of the ſaid city, or juſtice reſpectively, in purſuance of this act, or if any perſon reſcue any perſon apprehended by virtue of the powers given by this act, the perſon offending ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 10*l.* on conviction by the oath of one witneſs, before the ſaid mayor, recorder, or one of the aldermen of the ſaid city, within the ſaid city and liberties, or the juriſdiction aforeſaid, or before a juſtice of the county where the offence ſhall be committed, or the offender apprehended. ſ. 6.

The mayor, recorder, or any one alderman of the ſaid city, within the ſaid city and juriſdiction aforeſaid, and the juſtices of peace of the reſpective counties within the juriſdiction aforeſaid, or any one of them, ſhall have power to hear in a ſummary way complaints touching any unlawful fiſhing, or other offences contrary to the rules made in purſuance of this act; and the ſaid mayor, recorder, aldermen, and juſtices, and each of them, ſhall upon view or upon complaint on oath of any ſuch offence within their reſpective juriſdictions within ten days after the commiſſion of ſuch offence, iſſue his warrant directed to the water-bailiff of the ſaid city, or ſuch his aſſiſtants as aforeſaid, or to ſuch conſtables, headboroughs, or other peace officers, as the mayor, recorder, aldermen, or juſtices, or any one of them, ſhall think fit, requiring him to apprehend ſuch offender, and to bring him before the ſaid mayor, &c. within their reſpective juriſdictions, to anſwer the complaint contained in ſuch warrant; which warrant the perſons to whom the ſame ſhall be directed, and their aſſiſtants are to execute on the Thames or Medway, within the juriſdiction aforeſaid, or on any ſhore adjoining; and they and every of them are to go on board any veſſel in the ſaid rivers, or in the day-time, with a peace officer, to enter any houſe wherein any ſuch offender ſhall be, for the apprehending him, and to carry him as ſoon as may be before the ſaid mayor, recorder, or one of the aldermen of the ſaid city, if apprehended in the city of London, or the liberties thereof; and if apprehended out of the city of London, or the liberties thereof, then before a juſtice of the county where the ſaid offender ſhall be taken; and the ſaid mayor, &c. within their reſpective juriſdictions, is to ſummon witneſſes on either ſide, and to examine them on oath, and thereupon to determine the ſame; and in caſe any offender ſhall be convicted, he ſhall incur ſuch penalty as ſhall be by ſuch rules impoſed; and ſuch warrant or other act of the ſaid mayor, &c. and the acts of the water bailiff and his aſſiſtants, and of all perſons in obedience to ſuch warrant, ſhall be as valid as if the ſame were executed within the limits of their own city or juriſdiction. ſ. 7.

If any witneſs ſummoned in purſuance of this act neglect to appear, or refuſe to be examined on oath, and no juſt excuſe be offered, every perſon ſo offending, on proof on oath of ſuch ſummons having been ſerved on him, ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit not exceeding five pounds, nor leſs than 20*s.* as the ſaid mayor, &c. ſhall by warrant direct. ſ. 8.

If any aſſiſtant of the water-bailiff of the ſaid city, or any peace officer, ſhall willingly neglect to ſerve or execute any warrant to him directed in purſuance of this act, or otherwiſe wilfully omit the performance of his duty in the execution of this act, and be convicted by the oath of one witneſs, before the ſaid mayor, &c. he ſhall forfeit not exceeding five pounds, as the ſaid mayor, &c. ſhall direct. ſ. 9.

If the ſaid water-bailiff, or any of his aſſiſtants, receive any money or reward from any perſon to delay or hinder any proſecution, or compound for or wilfully conceal any offence, and be convicted by the oath of one witneſs before the ſaid mayor, recorder, or aldermen of the ſaid city, or one of them, for every ſuch offence he ſhall forfeit five pounds. ſ. 10.

The mayor of London, recorder, and aldermen of the ſaid city, or one of them, within the ſaid city or liberties, or within the juriſdiction aforeſaid, and any juſtice within their reſpective counties, on the conviction of any perſon, for any offence contrary to this act, the forfeiture not being paid, may iſſue a warrant directed to the aſſiſtant or aſſiſtants of the water-bailiff, or any peace officer, within their juriſdictions, impowering him to make diſtreſs of the goods of the offender for the ſum to be levied by ſuch warrants, and to cauſe ſuch goods after five days from the diſtreſs taken to be ſold, rendering the overplus, after deducting the forfeiture and charges, to the owners; which charges ſhall be aſcertained by the magiſtrate before whom ſuch offender is convicted; and for want of ſuch diſtreſs and non-payment, the ſaid mayor, &c. may by warrant commit ſuch offender to the common gaol or houſe of correction of the city or county where convicted for three months, unleſs payment be made before; and one moiety of all ſuch penalties ſhall be paid to the informer, and the other moiety to the treaſurer of Greenwich Hoſpital for the uſe of the hoſpital; but in caſe any ſuch offender ſhall think himſelf aggrieved by ſuch conviction, and within the ſaid five days, enter into a recognizance with two ſureties in twenty pounds, before ſuch magiſtrate before whom he is convicted (which recognizance ſhall be returned within fourteen days to the court of the mayor and aldermen) conditioned for his perſonal appearance at ſome court of the mayor and aldermen, within ſix weeks after the acknowledging ſuch recognizance, or at the next court of conſervancy for the county in which ſuch offence is committed, and to abide ſuch order as ſhall be made by ſuch court, then the goods ſo diſtrained ſhall be returned; and the court of mayor and aldermen, or court of conſervancy, is upon a petition of appeal to appoint a time for the hearing ſuch appeal, and to cauſe notice to be given to the parties, and to ſummon witneſſes, and to examine ſuch witneſſes upon oath, and finally to determine the matter; and the ſaid courts reſpectively ſhall order all or any of the penalties incurred by any of the parties complaining to be mitigated, or ſet aſide ſuch conviction, or confirm the ſame, and award reaſonable coſts to be paid by the appellant; and the ſaid court of mayor and aldermen, or court of conſervancy, may, on forfeiture of any ſuch recognizance, eſtreat the ſame into the exchequer, there to be proceeded upon as eſtreats from any court of conſervancy held by the mayor of the ſaid city. ſ. 11.

The mayor, recorder, or any alderman or juſtice, ſhall cauſe ſuch conviction to be drawn up in the form following; viz.

to wit. } Be it remembered, That on this ——— day of ——— in the ——— year of his majeſty's reign, A. B. is convicted before me, one of his majeſty's juſtices of the peace for the city or county of ——— [as the caſe ſhall be] for ——— [here ſet forth the offence] and I do adjudge him to pay and forfeit for the ſame the ſum of ———.

Given under my hand and ſeal, the day and year aforeſaid.

And the ſaid mayor, &c. ſhall cauſe the ſame ſo drawn up to be written upon parchment, and tranſmitted to the court of mayor and aldermen, or court of conſervancy, to be filed amongſt the records of the court to which the ſame is tranſmitted; and in caſe any perſon ſo convicted appeal from the judgment of the ſaid mayor, &c. to the court of mayor and aldermen, or court of conſervancy, the ſaid court of mayor and aldermen, or court of conſervancy, ſhall, upon receiving the conviction, proceed to the hearing the appeal. ſ. 12.

No certiorari or other proceſs for removal of any ſuch conviction, or any proceedings thereon, into any court at Weſtminſter ſhall be granted. ſ. 13.

In caſe any perſon againſt whom a warrant ſhall be iſſued by the ſaid mayor, &c. either before or after conviction ſhall eſcape, or be in any other county or place out of the juriſdiction of ſuch perſon granting ſuch warrant, or if the goods of any offender convicted in purſuance of this act ſhall be in a different county, &c. than where the ſaid party was convicted, or the warrant of diſtreſs granted, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid mayor, recorder, or alderman, or any juſtice of peace of the county, &c. into which ſuch perſon ſhall eſcape, or where his goods ſhall be after ſuch conviction, upon proof upon oath of the hand-writing of the ſaid mayor, &c. granting ſuch warrant, to indorſe his name on ſuch warrant; and the ſame, when ſo indorſed, ſhall be a ſufficient authority to all peace officers to execute ſuch warrant in ſuch other county, &c. out of the juriſdiction of the perſon granting the ſaid warrant; and the ſaid mayor, &c. after indorſing the ſaid warrant, may on the offender's being brought before him, within his juriſdiction, proceed to hear the complaint, as if it had originally aroſe within his juriſdiction, or direct the offender to be carried to the perſon who granted the warrant. ſ. 14.

Nothing in this act ſhall prejudice the rights of the city of London, or any rights exerciſed by the mayor of the ſaid city as conſervator; or alter any power which at the time of making this act, the mayor, commonalty, and citizens of London, or the mayor of the city of London, as conſervator of the Thames and Medway, did or might lawfully claim or exerciſe; and it ſhall be lawful for the mayor of the ſaid city as he hath uſed to do in other caſes, to inquire of and determine by preſentment or indictment taken before him as conſervator of the ſaid rivers, all unlawful fiſhing, and all other offences contrary to ſuch rules as ſhall be made by the court of mayor and aldermen, and approved of as aforeſaid; and upon conviction of any offender, to impoſe a fine not exceeding the penalties inflicted by the ſaid rules; which fine ſhall be applied as the penalties inflicted by the court of conſervancy; but no perſon ſhall be puniſhed twice for the ſame offence. ſ. 13.

All actions and informations for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſhall be commenced within ſix months after the cauſe of action ſhall accrue; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff become nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall recover double coſts; and this act ſhall be taken as a public act. ſ. 16.

The 24 Geo. 2. c. 44. (See the general title "Juſtices of "Peace,") ſo far as it relates to the rendering juſtices of peace more ſafe in the execution of their office, ſhall extend to the mayor, recorder, and every alderman of London, and to every juſtice acting in the execution of this act: and no action ſhall be commenced againſt, nor any writ ſued out, or copy of writ ſerved upon the water-bailiffs, his aſſiſtants, or any officer, for any thing done in execution of this act, until notice in writing be given him, or left at his uſual place of abode, by the attorney for the party, one month before the commencing ſuch action, &c. which notice ſhall contain the name and place of abode of the perſon who is to bring ſuch action, together with the cauſe of action, and the name and place of abode of the ſaid attorney ſhall be under-wrote or indorſed thereon; and the ſaid water-bailiff, his aſſiſtants, and the other officers may at any time within one month after ſuch notice, tender amends for the injury complained of to the party complaining, or to the ſaid attorney; and if the ſame is not accepted, the defendant may plead ſuch tender in bar of ſuch action, together with the general iſſue, or any other plea, with leave of the court; and if upon iſſue joined upon ſuch tender, the jury find the amends tendered to have been ſufficient, they ſhall find a verdict for the defendant; and in ſuch caſe, or if the plaintiff become nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall be entitled to double coſts; and if the jury find that no ſuch tender was made, or that the amends tendered were not ſufficient, and alſo find againſt the defendant on ſuch other plea, they ſhall find a verdict for the plaintiff, and ſuch damages as they think proper; for which the plaintiff ſhall have judgment together with his coſts. ſ. 17.

Saving to the king and all bodies politic, and to the high court of admiralty, and all other courts and perſons, all fines, forfeitures, penalties, amerciaments, and wreck of ſea, payable in reſpect of the ſaid fiſhery or drudging, or otherwiſe, and all rights; and all ſuch right and conſervation, and inquiry and puniſhment for the offences aforeſaid, as they lawfully have or ought to have. ſ. 18.

This act ſhall not prejudice any of the rights of the admiralties or vice-admiralties of Kent or Eſſex, or any piſcaries belonging to the city of London, or any other city or town corporate, or any lords of manors, owners or occupiers of any rivers, creeks, ſtreams or fiſheries adjacent jacent to, or within any part of the ſaid limits, or the rights of any other perſons within the limits aforeſaid. ſ. 19.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any fiſherman or drudgerman, who do or ſhall inhabit in any of the cinque ports, or their members, or in the city of Rocheſter, or the towns or places of Strood, Chatham, Frindſbury, Gillingham, Milton, Queenborough, Feverſham, Whitſtaple, or the places adjacent; but ſuch fiſhermen and drudgermen may uſe their trades of fiſhing, and drudging, and ſelling, as they have heretofore lawfully done. ſ. 20.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to impower the ſaid mayor, court of mayor and aldermen, the water-bailiff, or any other perſon, to grant any licenſe, or to make any rules whereby any licenſe ſhall be required to be taken by any fiſherman, drudgerman, or other perſon, for going out to fiſh, fiſhing or drudging, or whereby any gratuities ſhall be paid by any fiſherman, &c. to the water-bailiff or his ſucceſſors, or to any other perſon; or whereby any ſuch fiſherman, &c. ſhall be obliged to appear before the ſaid mayor, water-bailiff, or other perſon, to enter his name in any regiſter, or whereby any ſuch fiſherman, &c. ſhall be reſtrained from keeping any number of boys in any one boat, notwithſtanding 9 Ann. c. 26. or any other law. ſ. 21.

By 29 Geo. 2. c. 39. If any fiſherman, maſter, or owner of any fiſhing veſſel, coming from ſea, or other perſon having the conduct of ſuch fiſhing veſſel, natives or foreigners, employed either in catching, bringing, or vending of fiſh, for the ſupply of London and Weſtminſter, break bulk, or make ſale of any part of their fiſh, between Harwich and the Nore, or between Margate and the Nore, to any perſon to ſell again, or keep any ſhell fiſh or other fiſh in their fiſhing veſſel, or in any well-boat or ſtore-boat, after their arrival, ſo as not to ſell off their whole cargo within eight days from the day of their arrival at the Nore, and thereof be convicted before a juſtice of peace for the counties of Kent or Eſſex, or before the mayor, recorder, or ſuch aldermen who have power to act as juſtices within Queenborough or Graveſend, on his own confeſſion under his hand, or on the oath of one witneſs (which conviction ſhall be final and without any appeal), ſuch fiſhing veſſel, ſtore-boat, or other boat, into which the ſaid fiſh are unloaded, with all furniture, together with the whole cargo of fiſh, ſhall be forfeited by the owners; ſuch forfeitures to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale, by warrant of any juſtice of peace within the counties of Kent or Eſſex, or of the ſaid mayor, recorder, or aldermen acting as magiſtrates within the towns of Queenborough and Graveſend, or ſuch mayor, recorder, or aldermen of any other corporate town, between Queenborough and Graveſend, and Weſtminſter; which warrant the ſaid juſtice or mayor, &c. is to iſſue accordingly, directed to the high conſtable, petty conſtable, headborough or tythingman, of either of the ſaid towns of Queenborough or Graveſend, or any other towns as aforeſaid, near unto where any ſuch offences be committed, or where ſuch fiſhing veſſel, ſtore-boat, or other boat then is, to ſeiſe and ſell the ſame within fourteen days; and one moiety of the produce of ſuch ſale, after charges deducted, ſhall be paid to the informer or informers, as the ſaid juſtices appoint *, and the other moiety to the truſtees appointed to put the 22 Geo. 2. c. 49. and this act in execution, to be placed by them, or five of them, or their order, to the general account of ſurplus of profits ariſing from the fiſh market in the ſaid act mentioned, and to be appropriated as the ſaid ſurplus. ſ. 1.

In caſe any ſuch fiſhing veſſel is loaded with lobſters, or whoſe part-loading may be lobſters, and the fiſhermen, or other perſons, natives or foreigners, who are owners of ſuch lobſters, or have the power to ſell the ſame, ſell off her whole cargo of lobſters within twelve days after the arrival of ſuch veſſel at the place herein before appointed, and in all other reſpects conform to the directions of 22 Geo. 2. c. 49. and this act; then the ſale of the whole cargo of lobſters ſhall be as good a ſale as if ſuch ſale had been completed within eight days. ſ. 2.

Every fiſherman, maſter, or owner of any fiſhing veſſel coming from ſea, and every perſon having the conduct of ſuch fiſhing veſſel, may, as often as need requires, during their voyages at ſea, and before their arrival at the Nore, remove any part of their cargoes of fiſh into any other veſſel, for the eaſe of their wells, the preſervation of their fiſh, and the ſeparating ſuch as are dead, dropt, or ſickly, from thoſe which are ſound; ſo that no part of ſuch cargo of fiſh be ſold until their arrival at or above the Nore. ſ. 3.

Any fiſherman or owner of any Peter-boat, or other ſmall fiſhing veſſel employed for ſerving the inhabitants of any city, town, or village, or the neighbourhood thereof, on or near the banks of the ſaid river, between the mouth of the river and the towns of Queenborough or Graveſend, may ſell their fiſh as hath been heretofore uſed, in caſe ſuch boats or fiſhing veſſels are only employed for the conſumption of ſuch fiſh within ſuch city, towns, or villages, and the inhabitants thereof, or of the neighbourhood. ſ. 4.

The truſtees for putting the ſaid former and this act in execution, ſhall appoint inſpectors of the fiſhing veſſels, to ſearch every fiſhing veſſel between the Nore and Billingſgate Dock; to take account, as well of the arrival of ſuch veſſel as of the time of ſelling the whole cargo of fiſh, and of the breaking bulk and unloading ſuch veſſel, and ſhifting the cargo or part into well-boats, and of the delivery or ſelling off ſuch cargo in ſuch manner as directed by 22 Geo. 2. c. 49. or this act; and remove ſuch officers at their pleaſure: which inſpectors are to enter and examine ſuch fiſhing-veſſels, well-boats and ſtore-boats; and every perſon on board is to give to the ſaid inſpector ſuch account thereof; and in caſe any perſon refuſe to give ſuch account, or moleſt ſuch inſpector, every one ſo offending, being convicted before a juſtice, by confeſſion, or oath of one witneſs, ſhall forfeit 10 l. to be recovered and applied as the other penalties in this act. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for the high conſtable, petty conſtable, headborough, or tythingman of Queenborough, Graveſend, or any other towns being corporations, or of any county, city, or liberty, to whom warrant of diſtreſs is directed, to execute the ſame in any part of the river Medway or river Thames, or any creek thereof, between the Nore and the city of Weſtminſter; and ſuch warrant or other act of the ſaid mayors, recorders, aldermen, or juſtices of peace, and the acts of the conſtable, headborough, tythingman or other perſon in obedience to ſuch warrant, ſhall be as good in law as if the ſame were executed within the proper limits of their own juriſdiction. ſ. 8.

Sect. 9. inflicted a penalty on ſelling fiſh within 500 yards of the Weſtminſter fiſh market.

Such part of the penalties which by 22 Geo. 2. c. 49. are to be paid to the poor, ſhall be paid to the truſtees mentioned in the ſaid act, to the increaſe of the ſurplus of the tolls and profits thereby appropriated to the putting out apprentices to fiſhermen, maſters of ſhips, or other perſons employed in the ſea-

* As 22 Geo. 2. c. 49. for erecting a fiſh market in Weſtminſter does not appear to have been carried into execution.—Quere therefore as to the effect of this act.

ſea ſervice. And all the truſtees under the ſaid act ſhall execute this. ſ. 15.

Actions for any thing done in purſuance of this act ſhall be brought within ſix months, and in the county where the offence is committed; and the defendant may plead, the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff become non-ſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 16.

By 33 Geo. 2. c. 27. The maſter, owner, chief officer, or mariner, who ſhall have the care of any veſſel made uſe of for the catching or importing fiſh (for the ſupply of London and Weſtminſter) ſhall within three days after the arrival of ſuch fiſhing veſſel at the Nore with any ſuch fiſh, report the time of ſuch arrival to the perſon who ſhall act as deputed clerk in the coaſt office, under the collector outward in the port of London at the cuſtom houſe in London; who is to enter the ſame in a book to be kept for that purpoſe, and to give a certificate thereof if required to ſuch maſter, &c.; and there ſhall be paid to ſuch deputed clerk for entering ſuch report, and giving a certificate two ſhillings, which ſhall be applied in manner following; viz. ſixpence ſhall be retained by ſuch deputed clerk, and one ſhilling and ſixpence ſhall be paid by ſuch deputed clerk to the truſtees of the fiſh market in Weſtminſter, or ſuch perſon as they or five of them ſhall by writing appoint; and the receipt of ſuch perſon ſhall be a diſcharge to ſuch deputed clerk: and the money received by ſuch perſon ſhall be applied by the ſaid truſtees to the like uſes, as the money by the 29 Geo. 2. c. 49.* to be paid them by the ſearchers at Graveſend, was directed to be applied (viz. to pay the inſpectors of the fiſhing veſſels mentioned in the ſaid act for their trouble and the charges of a boat, ſuch yearly ſum as the ſaid truſtees or nine of them ſhould think fit, and the ſurplus to be applied as the ſurplus ariſing from the tolls and duties of 22 Geo. 2. c. 49. viz. in apprenticing boys to the ſea ſervice). ſ. 2.

If the maſter, &c. of any ſuch fiſhing veſſel ſhall not within three days next after his arrival at the Nore, enter ſuch fiſhing veſſel with ſuch deputed clerk at the ſaid coaſt office, then on information on oath before any juſtice of the counties of Kent, Surrey, Eſſex, or Middleſex, or of the cities of London or Weſtminſter, or before the mayor, recorder, or aldermen acting as magiſtrates within the towns of Queenborough and Graveſend, or before the mayor, recorder, or aldermen of any other corporate town between Queenborough and Graveſend, and the city of Weſtminſter; and on ſuch maſter, &c. being convicted of having neglected to make ſuch entry, either on confeſſion or by the oath of one witneſs, the owner of every ſuch fiſhing veſſel ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit fifty pounds. ſ. 3.

Every maſter, &c. ſhall, at the time of his making the report hereby required, give to the ſaid deputed clerk at the ſaid coaſt office, an account, either in writing or printed, of all freſh ſalmon, ſalmon trouts, turbots, and large freſh cod, and half freſh cod fiſh, haddock, ſcate fiſh, freſh ling, lobſters, ſoles, and whitings, brought alive to the Nore in ſuch fiſhing veſſel, upon pain that the owner of every ſuch fiſhing veſſel whoſe maſter, &c. ſhall neglect to give ſuch account, or ſhall give any falſe account, ſhall on ſuch maſter, &c. being convicted either on confeſſion or by the oath of one witneſs, before any ſuch juſtice, forfeit twenty pounds. Or if any ſuch maſter, &c. or any perſon on board ſuch fiſhing veſſel, after her arrival at the Nore, ſhall wilfully deſtroy or throw away any fiſh, which the ſaid fiſhing veſſel ſhall have brought from the ſea, that is not unwholeſome or unmarketable, ſuch maſter, &c. ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction to be kept to hard labour, for any time not exceeding two months nor leſs than one month. ſ. 4.

All the above mentioned forfeitures ſhall be levied by warrant of any juſtice of peace as aforeſaid, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the owners of the fiſhing veſſel, whoſe maſter, &c. ſhall be convicted of any ſuch offence, or by diſtreſs and ſale of the fiſhing veſſel, or of any nets, tackle, or furniture belonging to ſuch fiſhing veſſel, with the coſts of ſuch diſtreſs and ſale. ſ. 5.

The perſon who ſhall act as deputed clerk at the ſaid coaſt office, under the collector outward, ſhall receive at the ſaid coaſt office, every report of the time of the arrival of every ſuch fiſhing veſſel at the Nore, and enter the ſame in a book; and ſhall receive at the ſaid coaſt office every account of the freſh ſalmon, ſalmon trout, turbot, and large freſh cod, and half freſh cod fiſh, haddock, ſcate fiſh, freſh ling, lobſters, ſoles, and whitings, brought in any ſuch fiſhing veſſel to the Nore; and ſhall with all convenient ſpeed cauſe the ſame to be entered in a book; which book ſhall be kept at the ſaid coaſt office, and may be in office hours inſpected by any perſon. ſ. 6.

Such deputed clerk ſhall on Monday, Wedneſday, and Friday in every week, return unto the mayor of London in London, and to ſuch perſon as the truſtees of the fiſh market at Weſtminſter ſhall appoint in Weſtminſter, and to the inſpector as aforeſaid, at ſuch place as the ſaid truſtees ſhall by any writing appoint and give notice thereof to the deputed clerk, an account of the time when every fiſhing veſſel ſhall have been entered at the ſaid coaſt office, as having arrived at the Nore, and alſo of the aforeſaid fiſh entered at the ſaid coaſt office as brought to the Nore; upon pain that if ſuch deputed clerk offend in the premiſes, and be convicted either on confeſſion, or by the oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice as aforeſaid, he ſhall forfeit five pounds. ſ. 7.

No live ſalmon, ſalmon trout, turbot, large freſh cod, half freſh cod, haddock, ſcate, freſh ling, ſoles, or whitings, ſhall, after the arrival thereof at the Nore, be put into any well-boat or ſtore-boat, out of any ſuch fiſhing veſſel in which the ſame is brought to the Nore, upon pain that every perſon offending ſhall forfeit twenty pounds; and no ſuch fiſh ſhall be unloaded out of any fiſhing veſſel, unleſs by retail, into any other veſſel after her arrival at the Nore, but into a veſſel or boat employed to carry the fiſh directly to the market of Billingſgate or Weſtminſter; and no ſuch boat after ſuch fiſh put therein ſhall loiter or keep from going on directly to the market to which ſuch boat is appointed; and in caſe ſuch boat remain above one tide with her fiſh in her way between the place of ſuch taking in and the market at Billingſgate or Weſtminſter, or remain without delivering her fiſh there at or before the next market (accidents of winds and weather excepted), every perſon acting contrary to the ſaid prohibitions, ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding two months, nor leſs than one month. ſ. 8.

The inſpector appointed under 29 Geo. 2. c. 39. ſhall employ himſelf as the ſaid truſtees ſhall direct, in examining whether the entries made at the ſaid coaſt office (and whereof copies ſhall be tranſmitted to him) were made within the time the ſame ought to have been, and according to the account tranſmitted from the ſaid coaſt office to ſuch inſpector, ſo as the better to diſcover and prevent the frauds deſigned to be remedied by the ſaid act and this act; and ſee that no fiſh be put in any ſtore or well boats contrary to this act; and if any ſuch inſpector be negligent or wilfully miſbehave himſelf, being convicted either on confeſſion, or the oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice as aforeſaid, he ſhall forfeit for every ſuch neglect or wilful miſbehaviour twenty pounds. ſ. 9.

No perſon who ſhall ſell or be concerned in the ſale of any freſh fiſh by commiſſion, ſhall directly or indirectly buy any freſh fiſh to ſell again for his own ſeparate account, or for the joint account of himſelf and any other perſon. And if any perſon offend, and be convicted either on confeſſion, or by the oath of one witneſs, by any ſuch juſtice as aforeſaid, he ſhall forfeit fifty pounds. ſ. 10.

Bret or turbot, brill or pearl, although under the dimenſions mentioned in 1 Geo. 1. c. 18. ſ. 7. (ſee general title "Fiſh, &c." in Part I.) may be expoſed to ſale in England, ſo as the ſame be not ſold by retail at a price exceeding ſixpence a pound for every pound any ſuch bret or turbot under the dimenſion of ſixteen inches, or any ſuch brill or pearl under the dimenſion of fourteen inches ſhall weigh: and if any perſon aſk, or take for any ſuch bret, turbot, brill or pearl, under the dimenſions aforeſaid, any higher price than at the rate of ſixpence the pound, or refuſe or neglect to weigh and meaſure any ſuch bret or turbot, brill or pearl, expoſed to ſale, when required, every ſuch bret or turbot, brill or pearl, ſhall be forfeited: and any perſon may ſeize and deliver the ſame into the hands of a conſtable, and charge ſuch conſtable with the party who aſked or took any higher price: and ſuch conſtable is to carry the party ſo charged, and alſo the bret or turbot, brill or pearl, ſo ſeized and delivered to him, with all convenient ſpeed before ſome juſtice of peace, within whoſe juriſdiction any higher price than as aforeſaid was aſked or taken: and if the perſon charged with ſuch offence be convicted either on confeſſion or by the oath of one witneſs, he ſhall forfeit twenty ſhillings for every ſuch offence, and the bret or turbot, brill or pearl, ſo ſeized, ſhall, by order of ſuch juſtice, be given to the perſon who ſhall proſecute to conviction ſuch offender; and the money paid for ſuch bret or turbot, brill or pearl, ſhall be returned to the party who paid the ſame. ſ. 11.

No perſon ſhall ſell or expoſe to ſale at the firſt hand, at any fiſh market within the limits of the weekly bills of mortality, or within one hundred and fifty yards of any ſuch fiſh market, and during the market hours, any freſh ſalmon, ſalmon trout, turbot, large freſh cod fiſh, or half freſh cod fiſh, haddock, ſcate fiſh, freſh ling, lobſters, ſoles, or whitings, before he has firſt placed up in ſome conſpicuous manner on or over the place at which he ſhall expoſe ſuch fiſh to ſale, an account wrote or printed of all ſuch fiſh which he then has to ſell; diſtinguiſhing the ſorts and the quantity of every ſort: and if at any time of the day, in which ſuch account has been ſo placed up, and before the fiſh market of that day be ended, any other freſh ſalmon, &c. be brought to ſuch ſaleſman to ſell, before he expoſes to ſale any of ſuch other freſh ſalmon, &c. he ſhall add an account thereof to the account before put up; and ſhall take care that every ſuch account continue up where firſt placed, until all the fiſh ſpecified therein be ſold, or the fiſh market of the day be ended, without being defaced; upon pain that every one offending, and convicted (except of the taking down, or defacing ſuch account) on confeſſion, or by oath of one witneſs, before any ſuch juſtice as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit 10*l.* and every perſon convicted of taking down or wilfully defacing any ſuch account whilſt the ſame ought to have continued up, ſhall forfeit 40*s.* ſ. 12.

No perſon ſhall take or deſtroy, or knowingly have in his poſſeſſion, either on the water or on ſhore, or bring to ſhore, or cry, carry about, or expoſe to ſale, or exchange for any goods, any ſpawn, fry or brood of fiſh, or any unſizeable fiſh, or any fiſh out of ſeaſon, or any ſmelt which ſhall not be full five inches in length from the noſe to the utmoſt extent of the tail; and if any offend, any perſon may ſeize all ſuch ſpawn or unſizeable fiſh, &c. wherever found, with all baſkets and package in which found, and charge a conſtable or other peace officer with ſuch offender; and after ſeizure the ſpawn or fiſh with the baſkets ſhall be delivered to ſome conſtable or peace officer; and ſuch conſtable, &c. is to carry ſuch offender and ſuch ſpawn or fiſh with the baſkets, &c. before ſome juſtice to be dealt with according to law; and on conviction ſuch offender ſhall forfeit all ſuch ſpawn, fry or brood of fiſh, unſizeable fiſh, and fiſh out of ſeaſon, and every ſmelt of leſs ſize than five inches ſo ſeized, with all baſkets or package in which ſeized; and all ſuch ſpawn or unſizeable fiſh, &c. with the package, ſhall, by order of the juſtice, be delivered to the perſon who ſeized the ſame; and every offender convicted ſhall beſides forfeit for every ſuch offence 20*s.* ſ. 13.

The under water-bailiff of London, and the officers of the city of London called The yeomen of the waterſide, ſhall take care that the proviſions hereby made concerning the ſale of freſh fiſh in the fiſh-market at Billingſgate, and for puniſhing perſons who ſhall have there any ſpawn, brood or fry of fiſh, or unſizeable fiſh, or fiſh out of ſeaſon, or ſmelts of leſs ſize than five inches, be carried into execution; and ſhall take care that the proviſions made by 9 Ann. c. 26. againſt regrating of fiſh at the market of Billingſgate or within 150 yards of Billingſgate dock be obſerved; and lay information from time to time before ſome juſtice of peace of the city of London, againſt every perſon whom the ſaid under-bailiff, or any yeoman of the waterſide at any time finds to offend: and the perſons appointed by the truſtees to ſuperviſe the fiſh-market of the city of Weſtminſter ſhall take care that the proviſions hereby made concerning the ſale of freſh fiſh in the fiſh-market at Weſtminſter, and for puniſhing perſons who have there any ſpawn, brood or fry of fiſh, or unſizeable fiſh, or fiſh out of ſeaſon, or ſmelts of leſs ſize than five inches, be carried into execution: and if the under water-bailiff, or any yeoman of the waterſide of the city of London, or perſon appointed to ſuperviſe the fiſh-market of Weſtminſter, be negligent, or offend in the premiſes, and be convicted, either on confeſſion or by the oath of one witneſs before any juſtice of peace within whoſe juriſdiction any ſuch neglect or offence is committed, every ſuch offender ſhall forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 14.

Any juſtice of peace as aforeſaid within his juriſdiction ſhall on application grant his warrant to levy any money forfeited by this act, on the conviction of any offender, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the perſon convicted, with the coſts of diſtreſs and ſale (except in the caſes before provided to charge the owners of ſuch fiſhing veſſels), and one moiety of all the money forfeited for any offence againſt this act (the application whereof is not before appropriated) ſhall be paid to the perſon who proſecutes, and the other moiety, except where the conviction is for any offence in the city of Weſtminſter, or for not making the entry at the coaſt office at the time of the arrival of any ſuch fiſhing veſſel at the Nore, ſhall be paid to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh in which the offence is committed; and where any conviction is for any offence in the city of Weſtminſter, or for not reporting the time of the arrival of any ſuch fiſhing veſſel, the moiety of the money forfeited ſhall be paid to the truſtees appointed to put the recited acts in execution, to be placed to the general account of ſurplus of profits ariſing from the fiſh-market in Weſtminſter, and to be appropriated as the ſaid ſurplus in the 22 Geo. 2. c. 49. is directed: and if ſufficient diſtreſs cannot be found, every ſuch offender, ſhall by warrant of one juſtice directed to ſome peace officer be committed to ſome houſe of correction of the county or place where apprehended, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding three months, unleſs the money forfeited be ſooner paid. ſ. 15.

No perſon ſhall be puniſhed for any offence againſt this act, unleſs a proſecution be commenced within two months after ſuch offence, or who has been puniſhed for ſuch offence under any other law; and where any perſon is committed to any houſe of correction for default of payment, or for want of ſufficient diſtreſs, and remains there during the time for which he is committed, no ſuch perſon ſhall be liable afterwards to be proſecuted again for non-payment of ſuch money forfeited. And any perſon inhabiting any pariſh in which any offence againſt this act is committed ſhall be a competent witneſs. ſ. 16.

Any juſtice before whom any offender is convicted may mitigate any of the penalties under 5 l. not above one half; and ſuch mitigation ſhall be a diſcharge to the perſon offending for ſo much. ſ. 17.

The juſtice ſhall cauſe ſuch conviction to be drawn up in the form following: ſ. 18.

To wit, Be it remembered, That on this ——— day of ——— in the ——— year of the reign of ——— A. B. is convicted before ——— of his Majeſty's juſtices of the peace for the county of ——— or city of ——— or corporation of ——— (as the caſe ſhall be) for ——— and ——— do adjudge him, her or them, (as the caſe ſhall be) to pay and forfeit the ſum of ———.

Given under our hands and ſeals (or my hand and ſeal) the day and year aboveſaid.

Any perſon who thinks himſelf aggrieved by the conviction of any juſtice againſt this act, or 29 Geo. 2. c. 39. may appeal to the next general or quarter ſeſſions, firſt entering into a recognizance in double the ſum forfeited before ſuch juſtice, to proſecute ſuch appeal with effect, and abide by the order made on ſuch appeal, and giving eight days notice in writing of ſuch intention to appeal to the party on whoſe proſecution ſuch conviction was made; and the juſtices are in their next general or quarter ſeſſions after ſuch appeal to determine ſuch appeal, and make ſuch order, and award ſuch coſts as ſeems reaſonable; and to levy by their order or warrant the coſts with ſuch money as they adjudge forfeited by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and for want of diſtreſs to commit the party to the common gaol of the county, &c. in which he is apprehended, to be kept to hard labour for ſix months, unleſs the money adjudged forfeited as well as the coſts be ſooner paid; and ſuch order of ſuch ſeſſions ſhall be final. And no proceedings of any juſtices out of or in ſeſſion ſhall be removable by certiorari. ſ. 19.

If any action be commenced againſt any perſon for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſuch action ſhall be brought within ſix months, and laid in the county or place in which the offence is committed; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall be paid treble coſts. ſ. 20.

By 2 Geo. 3. c. 15. It ſhall be lawful for any perſon, although not brought up a fiſhmonger, to buy at any market, ſea coaſt, creek, port, haven, bank of any river, or place, in Great Britain, any fiſh in ſeaſon, not unſizeable, or under the dimenſions, by the laws now in force, allowed to be ſent to the city of London, paying the uſual dues at the places where purchaſed; and afterwards to ſell again in public or fixed ſhops, ſtalls, or houſes, in any other market where fiſh or fleſh are uſually ſold, paying the ſtallage or market dues, without incurring any penalty. ſ. 1.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to permit any perſon to ſell fiſh in Covent Garden market, or the precincts thereof. ſ. 2.

No fiſh allowed to be bought as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſold again by the firſt purchaſer, before conveyed to the cities of London or Weſtminſter, or ſuch other places in Great Britain, as the proprietor ſhall think fit to conſign the ſame, under pain of twenty pounds for every offence. ſ. 3.

All ſuch fiſh ſhall be permitted to be conveyed to the place to which the proprietor ſhall think fit to conſign the ſame, without being ſubject to be ſtopped in any place, in order to be ſold there. ſ. 4.

Every carriage uſed for the conveyance of ſuch fiſh, ſhall only carry fiſh, and ſhall be marked on the outſide fiſh machine only; and ſhall have the name and abode of the owner entered at the office for licenſing hackney coaches; and for every ſuch entry only one ſhilling ſhall be paid; and afterwards the number of ſuch carriage ſhall be marked on ſome conſpicuous part of the outſide, in large figures, painted, or elſe put on lead or other metal, fixed on ſome conſpicuous part; and no fiſh carriage ſhall be deemed a common ſtage waggon: and if any one ſhall neglect what is herein before directed, touching the marking, regiſtering, numbering, and keeping the number of ſuch carriage on ſome part thereof, he ſhall forfeit for every neglect forty ſhillings. ſ. 5.

Every ſuch fiſh carriage, numbered and marked as aforeſaid, ſhall be permitted to travel by horſes in pairs not exceeding four, or by a ſingle horſe, or by horſes at length not exceeding three, although the fellies of the wheels ſhall not be nine inches from ſide to ſide; and every ſuch fiſh carriage ſhall only pay toll, as chaiſes drawn by a like number of horſes, or by a ſingle horſe. ſ. 6.

Every ſuch fiſh carriage ſhall be allowed to travel on Sundays and holydays, laden or empty. ſ. 7.

No toll ſhall be paid for any ſuch carriage returning without fiſh, or for any horſes which ſhall draw the ſame back empty, or for any horſes returning from drawing any ſuch fiſh carriage laden, although rode on by any driver. ſ. 8.

If any perſon ſhall put any game, or other thing except fiſh, and the neceſſary package and implements of ſuch carriage, into any ſuch fiſh carriage to be conveyed thereby; every perſon, other than the driver, ſhall, on being convicted thereof, forfeit for every offence, five pounds: and if the driver take up, or ſuffer any paſſenger, game, or other thing except fiſh, to be at any time carried in or by any ſuch fiſh carriage; every driver thereof convicted ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings: and if, on the conviction of any driver, the ſum forfeited ſhall not be forthwith paid, the juſtice ſhall, by warrant, commit every ſuch driver to the houſe of correction, there to remain and be kept to hard labour, for not exceeding one month, as any juſtice ſhall order, unleſs the money forfeited ſhall be ſooner paid. ſ. 9.

If the owner or other perſon who ſhall have the care of any ſuch fiſh carriage loaded with fiſh, and conſigned for London or Weſtminſter, ſhall break bulk before brought within within the bills of mortality, or ſell, or expoſe to ſale, any of the fiſh loaded in ſuch carriage, before brought to London or Weſtminſter, or within the bills of mortality, and expoſed there to ſale, as after directed, he ſhall forfeit for every offence ten pounds. ſ. 10.

All fiſh brought by land carriage to London or Weſtminſter, or within the weekly bills of mortality, ſhall, with all convenient ſpeed, after brought, be ſorted, and the next morning ſhall be publicly expoſed to ſale in ſome public market within the bills (except ſuch next day ſhall be Sunday, and then on Monday) and until ſuch fiſh ſhall be ſo expoſed to ſale, no part thereof ſhall be ſold, or offered to ſale, by retail; upon pain that every perſon thereof convicted ſhall forfeit for every ſuch offence ten pounds. ſ. 11.

Nothing in this act ſhall prohibit the ſelling any mackrell brought by ſuch carriage, before or after divine ſervice on a Sunday. ſ. 12.

If any perſon ſhall enter into any contract for buying up any fiſh, except ſalmon and lobſters, before brought to open market, or ſome uſual place for the ſale of fiſh, and before the ſame ſhall be there expoſed in the ordinary manner, and for the uſual time, ſuch contract to be void, and every party thereto ſhall forfeit for every ſuch contract fifty pounds. ſ. 13.

No contract for the buying of ſalmon or lobſters taken in Great Britain, ſhall be in force for longer than one year, from the date of ſuch contract, and if not entered into writing, then only for one year, from the time of making ſuch parol contract. ſ. 14.

No perſon ſhall employ or be employed by any other perſon in buying, or to buy, at any market in London, or in the city of Weſtminſter, or elſewhere within the bills of mortality, any fiſh brought there to be ſold, to be divided by lots amongſt fiſhmongers or other perſons, in order to be afterwards put to ſale again, or ſold by retail; nor ſhall any fiſhmonger or other perſon buy in any market any fiſh, but what ſhall be for his own ſale only; upon pain of twenty pounds for every offence. ſ. 15.

If any proprietor of fiſh, or any ſaleſman, ſhall refuſe to ſell, or enter into any agreement or confederacy not to ſell to any particular perſon, any fiſh which ſhall be expoſed to ſale in any public market; every perſon for every ſuch offence ſhall forfeit twenty pounds. ſ. 16.

All fiſh of the ſorts after ſpecified brought for ſale to London or Weſtminſter, or within the bills, ſhall be publicly expoſed for ſale at the firſt hand, and ſhall be ſold in no greater number or quantity, or by any greater weight in any one lot, in Billingſgate market, or within one hundred and fifty yards of Billingſgate dock, or in any other market within the weekly bills of mortality, than herein after directed, and every lot ſhall conſiſt only of one ſort of fiſh.

Freſh ſalmon, ſturgeon, large freſh cod, ſkaite, pike, turbot, bret, bril, pearl, kingſton, ling, and doreys	by the ſingle fiſh.
Half freſh cod,	two in a lot.

And if any perſon or perſons ſhall ſell or buy any of the fiſh aforeſaid, at the firſt hand, in any market in London, or within one hundred and fifty yards of Billingſgate dock, or in any market in Weſtminſter, or within the bills, in any lot, any greater number, or any greater weight in any lot than directed; or if any one ſhall ſell, or offer for ſale, in any ſuch lot, more than one ſort of fiſh; he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit five pounds. ſ. 17.

Notwithſtanding any thing herein before contained, it ſhall be lawful for any perſon to expoſe to ſale, and to ſell in Billingſgate market, or in any other market within the bills, any of the ſaid fiſh, where more than one is in any lot, in any ſmaller number, or any eels by any leſſer weight than herein before preſcribed. ſ. 18.

No perſon ſhall a ſecond time ſell or expoſe to ſale in Billingſgate market, or within one hundred and fifty yards of the dock, or within any other market in London, or within the weekly bills of mortality, any fiſh which in the ſame day ſhall have been before ſold in the ſame market; but any buyer may ſell the ſame again, whilſt ſound and wholeſome, in any other place, upon pain that every one who ſhall offend ſhall, for every offence, forfeit ten pounds. ſ. 19.

No perſon ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, at the firſt hand, in any market, any of the ſorts of fiſh before ſpecified, before he ſhall have firſt placed in ſome conſpicuous manner, on or over the place at which he ſhall expoſe for ſale ſuch fiſh, a true account, and in a large and legible character, either wrote or printed, diſtinguiſhing the ſeveral ſorts of all ſuch fiſh, and the quantity which he ſhall then have, or have been employed to ſell, except as to the number of flounders, plaice, dabs, mackrell, maids, herrings, and pilchards: and if at any time of the morning or day in which ſuch account ſhall have been placed up, and before the market ſhall be ended, any other fiſh ſhall be brought to ſuch market to be ſold, the perſon employed to ſell the ſame, before he ſhall expoſe to ſale ſuch other fiſh, ſhall add a true account thereof to the account before put up; and the party hereby directed to put up ſuch account ſhall take care that ſuch account ſhall continue up where firſt placed, until all the fiſh ſpecified therein ſhall be ſold, or the market ended, without being defaced; upon pain that every one who ſhall neglect to put up, or continue ſuch account, ſhall, for every offence, forfeit five pounds; and every perſon wilfully taking down, defacing, or altering, or cauſing to be taken down, &c. any ſuch account hereby directed to be placed up, ſhall, for every laſt-mentioned offence, forfeit forty ſhillings. ſ. 20.

No fiſherman, mariner, or other perſon, employed on board any fiſhing ſhip, ſloop, ſmack, veſſel, or boat, ſhall, after her arrival from fiſhing, wilfully deſtroy, or throw away fiſh, which any ſuch veſſel ſhall have brought from ſea, or caught in any navigable river, that is not unwholeſome, periſhed, or unmarketable, except ſprats, which ſhall remain unſold, when the market, to which the ſame ſhall be ſent for ſale, ſhall be ended; and ſuch fiſherman, mariner, or other perſon thereof convicted, ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction, there to remain and be kept to hard labour, not exceeding two months, nor leſs than one week, as the juſtice ſhall order. ſ. 21.

All perſons within the four degrees after ſpecified, employed in the fiſheries of theſe kingdoms, ſhall be exempted from being impreſſed, except in the caſes after excepted; that is to ſay, Firſt, every maſter of any fiſhing veſſel employed on the ſea coaſts of Great Britain, or in any navigable rivers, and who, or ſome owner of which fiſhing veſſel, ſhall have, or within ſix months before applying for any protection herein-after allowed, ſhall have had one or more apprentices, under ſixteen years each, bound to him, or to ſuch owner, for five years; and which apprentice actually ſhall be, or have been, in the ſervice of ſuch maſter or owner, in the buſineſs of a fiſherman. Secondly, every ſuch apprentice, not exceeding four, to every maſter or owner of any fiſhing veſſel, of or above the burthen of thirty tons, and two under thirty tons, during the time ſuch apprentice ſhall continue in actual ſervice, in the buſineſs of a fiſherman, and in no other ſervice, and until the age of twenty years. Thirdly, one mariner, beſides the maſter and apprentices as aforeſaid, who ſhall be employed to navigate or fiſh, in any veſſel, of ten tons or upwards, during the time ſuch mariner ſhall continue and be actually employed in the fiſhing ſervice. And, Fourthly, any landman who ſhall enter on board any ſuch fiſhing veſſel, of the burthen of ten tons or upwards, and be actually employed therein for two years, to be computed from his firſt going to ſea, employed as aforeſaid in any ſuch fiſhing ſhip, ſloop, ſmack, or veſſel, of the burthen of ten tons or upwards, as aforeſaid, and to the end of any fiſhing voyage he may then be engaged in, and if he ſhall continue ſo long really employed in ſuch ſervice. ſ. 22.

On an affidavit ſworn before ſome juſtice, making out that the perſon deſcribed in ſuch affidavit is within one of the deſcriptions before ſpecified, and inſerting therein the tonnage of every ſuch veſſel, and the port to which ſhe belongs, and the deſcription of every maſter, and the age of every apprentice, and the term for which ſuch apprentice ſhall be bound, and the date of his indenture, and the deſcription of every ſuch mariner and landman reſpectively, and the time of ſuch landman's firſt going to ſea, being offered to the commiſſioners of the admiralty, or any three or more of them, or left at the office of admiralty, the commiſſioners are with all convenient ſpeed (unleſs they have cauſe to ſuſpect the truth, and in ſuch caſe they are to cauſe inquiry to be made into the truth of ſuch affidavit), from time to time, to grant a ſeparate protection to every ſuch perſon without fee; and every perſon impreſſed contrary to this act, ſhall, on producing the protection to the commanding officer, be diſcharged. ſ. 23.

If, during any protection, any perſon ſhall be impreſſed other than in the caſe of an actual invaſion of theſe kingdoms, or imminent danger thereof, ſignified by ſome order of his majeſty, or privy council, to the admiralty, and on producing the protection to the commanding officer, or if offering to produce the ſame for the inſpection of ſuch commanding officer, any ſuch commanding officer ſhall refuſe or neglect to examine ſuch protection, or ſhall detain the ſame protection from the party entitled thereto, and ſhall not forthwith diſcharge the party; or if the party impreſſed ſhall be carried on board any veſſel in the ſervice of his majeſty, and the captain, or any officer, who ſhall command ſuch veſſel, ſhall not, on any ſuch protection being produced; or if ſuch protection ſhall have been taken away, then, if on an affidavit being made before ſome juſtice, that ſuch protection was granted, and in force, and was taken away from the party to whom granted; and being tendered to the captain or officer who ſhall have the command on board any ſuch ſhip or veſſel as aforeſaid, ſuch captain or officer ſhall not forthwith diſcharge the party impreſſed and brought on ſhipboard; or if any captain or officer having command, or any of the crew under him, ſhall take away or detain ſuch protection; then every perſon in any of the ſaid caſes ſhall forfeit to the party impreſſed, if not an apprentice, and if an apprentice, then to the maſter, twenty pounds. ſ. 24.

If any maſter or owner of any fiſhing veſſel ſhall knowingly harbour or employ any ſeaman or landman who ſhall have deſerted from his majeſty's ſervice; every ſuch maſter or owner ſhall, for every ſuch offence, forfeit twenty pounds. ſ. 25.

All juſtices of the peace ſhall hear and determine all offences againſt this act; and all pecuniary forfeitures, whereof the time for payment is not directed, ſhall be paid within twenty-four hours after the conviction of the offender, either by confeſſion, or by the oath of one or more witneſſes; and any juſtice may iſſue a warrant, directed to any peace officer, to levy the ſame by diſtreſs of the goods of the perſon convicted within the juriſdiction of ſuch juſtice; and if within five days from diſtreſs taken, the money ſhall not be paid with the coſts, the goods ſhall be appraiſed and ſold, rendering the overplus, after deducting the penalty, coſts and charges, to the owner; which charges ſhall be aſcertained by ſome juſtice; and if ſufficient diſtreſs cannot be found (other than the driver of any fiſh carriage as aforeſaid), then on proof thereof upon oath before ſome juſtice, ſuch juſtice ſhall, on the application of any proſecutor, iſſue a warrant, directed to ſome peace officer, to apprehend ſuch offender, if he can be found, and to convey and commit every ſuch offender to the houſe of correction, there to remain and be kept to hard labour for not exceeding two months, as ſuch juſtice ſhall order, unleſs the money forfeited ſhall be ſooner paid. ſ. 26.

No perſon ſhall ſuffer puniſhment, unleſs the proſecution be commenced within three months after offence committed; and where any perſon ſhall ſuffer impriſonment, ſuch perſon ſhall not be liable afterwards to pay ſuch penalty. ſ. 27.

If any perſon who ſhall contract for fiſh contrary to this act, ſhall, before information made againſt him, inform againſt any other party who ſhall have entered into any ſuch contract, and the party informed againſt ſhall afterwards, on ſuch information, be convicted, then the perſon who ſhall have ſo informed againſt and proſecuted to conviction ſuch other perſon, ſhall be releaſed from all penalties and forfeitures, and ſhall be intitled to one moiety of the penalty. ſ. 28.

If it ſhall be made out by the oath of any credible perſon to the ſatisfaction of any juſtice, that any one, within the juriſdiction of ſuch juſtice, is likely to give material evidence on behalf of the proſecutor, or the perſon accuſed, and will not voluntarily appear and be examined, every ſuch juſtice is required to iſſue his ſummons, to convene every ſuch witneſs at ſuch time as in ſuch ſum-mons ſhall be fixed; and if any perſon ſummoned ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear, and no juſt cauſe ſhall be offered for ſuch neglect or refuſal, then, after proof by oath of ſuch ſummons having been duly ſerved upon the party ſummoned, every ſuch juſtice is required to iſſue his warrant to bring ſuch witneſs before him; and on the appearance of ſuch witneſs, every ſuch juſtice is empowered to examine upon oath every ſuch witneſs; and if ſuch witneſs on his appearance, or being brought before ſuch juſtice, ſhall refuſe to be examined on oath concerning the premiſes, without juſt cauſe, ſuch juſtice may, by warrant, commit any perſon ſo refuſing to priſon, there to remain for not exceeding fourteen, nor leſs than three days, as ſuch juſtice ſhall direct. ſ. 29.

In caſe any perſon againſt whom a warrant ſhall be iſſued ſhall go into any other county, it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of the county into which ſuch offender ſhall go or be, to indorſe his name on ſuch warrant (proof being firſt made, on oath of ſuch warrant having been ſigned by ſuch other juſtice), and every warrant ſo indorſed ſhall be ſufficient authority to all perſons to execute ſuch warrant, out of the juriſdiction of the juſtice who firſt granted ſuch warrant; and every ſuch juſtice, after indorſing ſuch warrant, may, on the offender being apprehended, and brought before ſuch juſtice, hear and determine the matter, in the ſame manner as if the complaint originally aroſe within the juriſdiction of ſuch juſtice who ſhall have backed ſuch warrant; or may direct the offender to be carried before a juſtice, within whoſe juriſdiction the offence was committed. ſ. 30.

One moiety of all money forfeited (not appropriated) ſhall go to the perſon who ſhall proſecute to conviction any offender; and the other moiety ſhall go to the treaſurer of Greenwich hoſpital for the benefit of the hoſpital. ſ. 31.

Perſons aggrieved may appeal to the general or quarter ſeſſion of the peace next after conviction, firſt giving ſecurity in double the ſum forfeited, before ſuch juſtice, to proſecute ſuch appeal with effect, and to abide by the order made on ſuch appeal, and giving eight days notice in writing of his intention to appeal, to the party on whoſe proſecution conviction ſhall be made, if there ſhall be ſo many days within the conviction and ſeſſion; and if not, then the party may appeal to the next general or quarter ſeſſion but one after conviction; and the juſtices in their general or quarter ſeſſion are to determine the appeal, and make ſuch order therein, and award ſuch coſts, as ſhall appear juſt, and to cauſe to be levied, under the order of ſuch ſeſſion, the coſts awarded, with ſuch money as ſuch ſeſſion ſhall adjudge to be forfeited, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the perſon who ſhall refuſe to pay ſuch coſts and money forfeited; and if ſufficient goods cannot be met with, then by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the perſons who ſhall have become ſureties for the party who ſhall have appealed. ſ. 32.

No order or proceedings had before any juſtice ſhall be quaſhed for want of form only; and the order at general or quarter ſeſſion ſhall be final; and no proceedings in purſuance of this act ſhall be removable by certiorari, or otherwiſe. ſ. 33.

Actions for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſhall be brought within ſix months after cauſe accrued, and ſhall be brought, laid, and tried in the county, city or place, in which the cauſe ſhall have ariſen, and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if judgment ſhall be for the defendant, then ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 34.

All the proviſions and regulations herein-before contained with reſpect to the weekly bills of mortality, ſhall extend to the pariſh of Saint Mary le Bone in the county of Middleſex. ſ. 35.

Nothing in this act ſhall make void any contract, in regard to ſalt or dried fiſh, oyſters, carp, or tench. ſ. 36.

No juſtice ſhall receive any information againſt any perſon, by reaſon of being a party to, or concerned in, any contract for buying up fiſh to be ſold again contrary to this act; but all money forfeited by reaſon of ſuch contract ſhall be recoverable only, with double coſts, by the perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame in one of his Majeſty's courts of record at Weſtminſter, and one moiety of the money forfeited ſhall go to the treaſurer of Greenwich hoſpital for the benefit of the hoſpital, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall inform. ſ. 37.

If any action ſhall be brought againſt any perſon for any thing which he ſhall do in putting in execution this act, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſon to plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff become nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 3.

Any owner of trees may cut billet of what aſſiſe he pleaſes, for the private uſe of the ſaid owner only. ſ. 4.

By 10 Ann. c. 6. No perſon ſhall ſell billet made of beech wood by retail within London and Weſtminſter, or the weekly bills of mortality, unleſs the ſame be aſſiſed according to the uſage of marking beech billet before 9 Ann. c. 15. or by weight, if the buyer ſhall require the ſame to be weighed. ſ. 2.

Fuſtians.

By 11 Hen. 7. c. 27. No iron inſtruments, or other untrue ſlight, ſhall be uſed upon any fuſtian within this realm, but only by the broad ſhears, upon forfeiture of 20 s. the one half to the king, and the other half to them that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, &c. And the mayor and wardens of ſhearmen of London, ſhall have authority to enter and ſearch the workmanſhip of all perſons occupying the broad ſhear, as well fuſtians as cloth.

By 39 Eliz. c. 13. The lord mayor of London, or his deputy, and the maſter and wardens of the myſtery of cloth-workers of London, or ſuch diſcreet perſons as the ſaid maſter and wardens ſhall appoint, may enter and make ſearch, as the mayor of London and wardens of ſhearmen might have done by 11 Hen. 7. c. 27. upon pain that the perſons which ſhall make reſiſtance ſhall forfeit 20 s. the one half to her majeſty, and the other half to them that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, &c. after the courſe of the common law. ſ. 3.

Gauging.

By 31 Eliz. c. 8. No brewer ſhall put to ſale any beer or ale in veſſels brought from beyond the ſea, within the city of London or ſuburbs of the ſame, or within two miles compaſs without the ſuburbs, before the ſame be gauged, and the true content of every ſuch veſſel ſet upon the ſame, by the gallon appointed for beer and ale according to the ſtandard by the maſter and wardens of the coopers of London; nor ſhall put to ſale any beer or ale in any ſuch veſſels, in any other place within England and Wales, before the ſame be gauged, and the content ſet upon the ſame, by ſuch as by 23 Hen. 8. c. 4. (ſee Coopers) are to have the gauging of barrels, kilderkins, and firkins, made for beer or ale in ſuch other place, upon pain to forfeit all ſuch veſſels, and the beer or ale therein contained, to them that will ſeize the ſame, and upon pain alſo to forfeit for every ſuch veſſel 10 s. the one moiety of which forfeitures ſhall be to the queen, and the other moiety to him that will ſue for the ſame. And there ſhall be taken for the gauging of every ſuch veſſel in London, and within two miles compaſs without the ſame, by the maſter and wardens of the coopers of London; for every butt 1 d. for every pipe 1 d. for every puncheon one halfpenny, for every hogſhead one halfpenny, and for every tierce one halfpenny, and for every other veſſel after like rates; and there ſhall be taken for the gauging of every ſuch veſſel in all other places, after ſuch rates as are herein appointed to be taken within the city of London. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall extend to all which uſe the myſtery of brewing, as well Engliſh born as ſtrangers; and it ſhall be lawful to every perſon which ſhall have authority to gauge any veſſel, to retain every veſſel gauged until the money due for gauging be paid. ſ. 2.

The maſter and wardens of coopers, or their deputies, within eight-and-forty hours after requeſt made, ſhall come to any place in the city of London and ſuburbs, or two miles diſtance of the ſame; and with all reaſonable expedition ſhall gauge and mark the caſks, upon pain for every default to forfeit to the party for whom ſuch requeſt ſhall be made, 20 s. to be recovered againſt the corporation of coopers, by action of debt, &c. ſ. 3.

If any ſtranger ſhall bring from beyond the ſeas to the ſaid brewers, any foreign caſk, and ſhall require to have beer put into the ſame, and will tranſport the ſame over the ſeas, there to be drunk, it ſhall be lawful for the brewer to fill ſuch caſks at ſuch rate as he and his merchant can agree, without having them gauged or marked. ſ. 4.

Hay.

By 2 Will. & Mar. ſtat. 2. c. 8. Every truſs of old hay offered to be ſold in the cities of London and Weſtminſter, ber, and within the bills of mortality, between the laſt of Auguſt and the firſt of June, ſhall contain 56 pounds; and every truſs of hay offered to be ſold between the firſt of June and the laſt of Auguſt, being new hay of that ſummer's growth, ſhall contain 60 pounds, and being old hay 56 pounds; and the perſons bringing the ſame ſhall forfeit for every truſs of leſs weight 18*d*. ſ. 16.

No perſon ſhall ſuffer his waggon or cart to ſtand in the Hay Market or Southwark, or other place within the bills of mortality, with hay or ſtraw to ſell, from Michaelmas to Lady-day, after two in the afternoon, and from Lady-day to Michaelmas, after three in the afternoon, on pain of 5*s*. ſ. 17. See 31 Geo. 2. c. 40. ſ. 13 & 14.

Every juſtice within Middleſex and Surrey, and Weſtminſter, &c. ſhall have power upon his own knowledge, confeſſion of the party, or proof of one witneſs, to convict any perſon of the offences aforeſaid, whereby ſuch perſon ſhall incur the penalties; one moiety whereof ſhall be for relief of the poor, and the other moiety for him that ſhall proſecute the ſame; and if the conviction ſhall be by the view of any juſtice, one half of the penalty ſhall be to the relief of the poor, and the other moiety, if for a default of payment, to be imployed for the repairing the ſtreets, to be paid to the ſcavengers, or otherwiſe to the relief of the poor; and all the ſaid penalties ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of any juſtice of peace directed to the conſtables and headboroughs of the pariſh where the offence was done; and in default of diſtreſs or nonpayment of the penalties within ſix days after demand, or notice left at the dwelling-place, by the ſaid conſtable, &c. the offender, not being a peer, ſhall be committed to the common gaol, by warrant of any ſuch juſtice, until payment. ſ. 18.

By 8 Will. 3. c. 17. The owner of every cart-load or parcel of hay which ſhall ſtand to be ſold in the ſtreet called the Haymarket, ſhall pay to ſuch perſons as ſhall be appointed by the juſtices of peace of Middleſex and Weſtminſter 3*d*.; and the owner of every cart load or parcel of ſtraw which ſhall ſtand to be ſold in the ſaid ſtreet, ſhall pay 1*d*. in eaſe of the pariſhioners of St. Martin's in the Fields and Saint James Weſtminſter, towards the paving and amending the Haymarket. ſ. 1.

The owner of any ſuch cart load or parcel of hay or ſtraw having paid the ſums aforeſaid, and the ſame being not ſold, ſuch cart load or parcel of hay or ſtraw ſhall not pay again the next market-day for ſtanding there. ſ. 2.

In caſe any owner of ſuch cart load or parcel of hay or ſtraw ſhall refuſe to pay the 3*d*. and the 1*d*. it ſhall be lawful after demand to levy the ſame upon the goods of the offenders, by warrant of diſtreſs, which any juſtice of peace of Middleſex or Weſtminſter is authoriſed to grant, on oath made before him by the party who demanded the ſame; which goods may be ſold within three days after the diſtreſs made. ſ. 3.

The ſaid ſtreet ſhall be conſtrued to extend in length from the old toll-poſt at the upper end of the Haymarket, over-againſt Coventry Houſe, to the Phœnix Inn, at the lower end, and in breadth from the kennel by the houſes on the eaſt-ſide to the kennel on the weſt-ſide, at which places poſts or ſtones ſhall be ſet up by direction of the ſaid juſtices. ſ. 4.

The perſons appointed to collect the toll ſhall twice on every market-day, viz. on Tueſday, Thurſday, and Saturday, ring a bell round the Haymarket, before any forfeiture of 5*s*. upon the ſtat. 2 Will. & Mar. ſtat. 2. c. 8. ſect. 17. ſhall be incurred, whereof the firſt time to be an hour before, and the laſt time at the expiration of the hours in the act 2 Will. & Mar. ſtat. 2. c. 8. appointed for perſons uſing the ſaid market to leave the ſame; on default of ringing ſuch bell twice, no perſon uſing the Haymarket the next market-day after ſuch default, ſhall be liable to pay any toll. ſ. 5.

All forfeitures for ſtaying longer in the ſaid market than is by the ſaid act appointed, ſhall be demanded in the market-place, by the perſon ringing the bell, the ſame day on which ſuch offences ſhall be committed; and complaint ſhall be made of every ſuch offence to ſome juſtice of the quorum within the ſaid county or city of Weſtminſter before the next market-day, of which complaint notice ſhall be given to the party offending the next time he comes to the market, or elſe no perſon uſing the Haymarket ſhall be liable to any forfeiture for ſtaying longer in the market than by the ſaid act is limited. ſ. 6.

The perſons that ſhall collect and diſpoſe of the money ariſing by the toll, ſhall yearly every Eaſter ſeſſions, give the juſtices of the ſaid county and city a particular account upon oath of all monies collected by virtue of this act, and how the ſame is diſpoſed of; and in caſe on the foot of any ſuch yearly account any money ſhall remain undiſpoſed of, ſuch remainder ſhall be diſpoſed of for the benefit of the county of Middleſex, as the juſtices at ſuch ſeſſions ſhall think fit. ſ. 7.

By 31 Geo. 2. c. 40. All ſtraw ſold or delivered in, or brought to or expoſed for ſale in London, or within the limits of the weekly bills of mortality, ſhall be ſold and delivered in bundles or truſſes, each whereof ſhall be tied up, and be the weight of 36 pounds of good and ſound ſtraw, excluſive of any other thing put therein; and if any perſon ſhall ſell or deliver, or bring into, or expoſe for ſale, in London, or within the bills of mortality, or within 30 miles from the extent of any part of the limits of the ſaid weekly bills of mortality, where ſtraw is ſold in truſſes, any truſs of ſtraw of leſs weight than thirty-ſix pounds of good and ſound ſtraw, or in the inſide of different goodneſs from what the ſame by the outſide appears to be, being convicted, he ſhall forfeit every time any ſuch ſtraw is brought for ſale, or ſold or delivered in London, or within the bills of mortality, not in truſſes, twenty ſhillings; and one ſhilling for every truſs which he ſhall ſell, or bring into, or expoſe for ſale in London, or within the bills of mortality, or within thirty miles from the extent of the bills of mortality, where ſtraw is uſually ſold by the truſs, not being of the ſaid weight of thirty-ſix pounds of good and ſound ſtraw, or proved to be in the inſide, of different goodneſs from what the ſame, by the outſide, appears to be. ſ. 1.

Every truſs of hay ſold in, or brought into, or expoſed for ſale in London, or within the bills of mortality, or ſold within thirty miles from the extent of the bills of mortality, where hay is ſold in truſſes, ſhall be made up with good and ſound hay only, and ſuch as the ſame appears to be by the outſide; and ſuch hay only as is good and ſound ſhall be deemed to be the hay which is to make up the weight every truſs by law ought to be. ſ. 2.

The pair of bands with which any truſs of hay is bound, ſhall not exceed the weight of five pounds, upon pain that every perſon ſelling any truſs of hay with bands of a greater weight ſhall, for every ſuch offence, forfeit one ſhilling. ſ. 3.

If any perſon employed to bind hay or ſtraw, ſhall not bind up the ſame into bundles or truſſes of ſuch weight and quality as is directed by this act, he ſhall forfeit threepence for every truſs of hay or ſtraw, not being of ſuch weight and quality: provided the ſame be objected to by the owner:

owner within twenty-four hours after the ſame ſhall be ſo bound up, and before the ſame be removed. ſ. 4.

No perſon acting as a common ſaleſman in ſelling hay or ſtraw for any other perſon, for gain or by commiſſion, in London, or within the bills of mortality, ſhall directly or indirectly buy any hay or ſtraw on his own account, other than to ſpend for his own uſe; and if any ſuch ſaleſman buy any hay or ſtraw on his own account to ſell again, or ſell in London, or within the bills of mortality, any hay or ſtraw bought by him on his own account, being convicted, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 1*s.* for every truſs ſo ſold by or for him. ſ. 5.

There ſhall be kept in the Haymarket in the city of London, and at every other hay-market within the bills of mortality, where hay or ſtraw is allowed to be ſold, a regiſter for entering an account of all hay and ſtraw ſold in ſuch hay-market; and ſuch regiſter ſhall be kept in London by the hay-weigher, appointed by the mayor, commonalty, and citizens of London, or his deputy; and out of the city of London within the bills of mortality, by the clerk or toll-gatherer of every hay-market, or his deputy; and every perſon ſelling any hay or ſtraw in London, or within the bills of mortality, his ſervant or agent, ſhall within ſix hours after any hay or ſtraw ſold in any public hay-market in London, or within the bills of mortality, and within ſeven days after every ſale of hay or ſtraw in London, or within the bills of mortality, out of any ſuch hay-market, make an entry in the regiſter of the hay-market in which ſuch hay or ſtraw is ſold, or where the ſame is not ſold in any ſuch hay-market, then in the regiſter of the hay-market moſt contiguous to the place of ſale; diſtinguiſhing therein the names and places of abode of the owners and ſellers, and the names and places of abode of the buyers, and of the perſons for whom bought, and the day, and the price; and every perſon ſelling ſuch hay or ſtraw, his ſervant or agent, ſhall ſign his name, or ſet his mark to ſuch entry, and pay for the ſame to the hay-weigher, clerk, or toll gatherer, of the market, who keeps ſuch regiſter, one penny: and every ſuch hay-weigher, &c. or his deputy, ſhall, at all ſeaſonable times in the day, and during the market hours, permit any perſon to inſpect ſuch regiſter, paying one halfpenny. And if the ſeller of any ſuch hay or ſtraw in London, or within the bills of mortality, his ſervant or agent, ſhall not make ſuch entry within ſix hours after any ſale in any public hay-market in London, or within the bills of mortality, and within ſeven days after every ſale in London, or within the bills of mortality, out of any ſuch hay-market, or not ſign his name or put his mark thereto, or refuſe to pay for ſuch entry, or cauſe to be entered any falſe account of the quantity of hay or ſtraw ſold, or of the price, or of the name or place of abode of any buyer, every owner or ſeller, his ſervant or agent, ſo offending, ſhall on being convicted for every ſuch offence, forfeit any ſum not exceeding 20*s.* nor leſs than 10*s.*: and if any hay-weigher in London, or clerk, or toll-gatherer of any hay-market within the limits aforeſaid, or his deputy, ſhall neglect to keep ſuch regiſter, or delay or refuſe to let any entry hereby directed be made therein, or demand any greater price than one penny for ſuch entry, or one halfpenny for permitting ſuch regiſter to be peruſed, or knowingly ſuffer any untrue entry to be made, or refuſe at any ſeaſonable time in the day, in market hours, to permit any perſons to inſpect any entry; every ſuch perſon ſhall for every ſuch offence on being convicted, forfeit any ſum not exceeding 20*s.* nor leſs than 10*s.* ſ. 6.

Nothing in this act ſhall oblige any perſon to regiſter hay or ſtraw ſold within the limits aforeſaid, in leſs quantity than four truſſes in a day to one perſon. ſ. 7.

Nothing in this act ſhall oblige any perſon to regiſter any hay or ſtraw which he ſhall deliver in London, or within the bills of mortality, on ſpecial contract; but ſuch hay and ſtraw only brought into London, or within the bills of mortality, to be ſold, and accordingly there ſold, ſhall be regiſtered. ſ. 8.

There ſhall be provided by the hay-weigher of the city of London, and by every clerk or toll gatherer of every hay-market within the bills of mortality, and kept at every ſuch hay-market in London, and within the bills of mortality, proper ſcales and weights, or engines for the weighing all hay and ſtraw there brought for ſale, or required to be there weighed; and ſuch hay-weigher, clerk, or toll-gatherer of the hay-market, or his deputy, ſhall on application, cauſe all hay or ſtraw there brought and required to be weighed, to be weighed with all convenient ſpeed after requeſt; and ſuch hay-weigher, clerk, or toll-gatherer of the market, or his deputy, ſhall be paid by the party requiring ſuch hay or ſtraw to be ſo weighed, one ſhilling for weighing every load; and if leſs than a load be weighed, then one halfpenny for every truſs. And if any doubt ariſe, whether any hay or ſtraw brought into London, or within the bills of mortality, and not weighed at any ſuch hay-market, is of the due weight, it ſhall be lawful for the buyer, on the delivery of ſuch hay or ſtraw, where agreed by the ſeller to be delivered, to cauſe the ſame to be weighed in the preſence of the ſeller, or his ſervant, who delivers the ſame; and if the buyer or ſeller, or his ſervant, be diſſatisfied with ſuch weighing, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch buyer or ſeller, or his ſervant, with all convenient ſpeed to apply to the hay-weigher, clerk, or toll-gatherer of the hay-market, or his deputy, neareſt to the place where ſuch hay or ſtraw is delivered, to ſee the ſame weighed over again; and on ſuch application, the hay-weigher, &c. ſo applied to, or his deputy, ſhall with all convenient ſpeed come to the place where ſuch hay or ſtraw ſhall be, within the limits aforeſaid, and there ſee ſuch hay or ſtraw again weighed; and the weight aſcertained by ſuch hay-weigher, &c. ſhall be concluſive to all parties; but the perſon requiring ſuch hay-weigher, &c. to attend and weigh ſuch hay or ſtraw out of any ſuch hay-market, ſhall pay to ſuch hay-weigher, &c. two ſhillings, before ſuch hay-weigher, &c. be obliged to go to ſee ſuch hay or ſtraw weighed out of any ſuch hay-market; and if any hay or ſtraw weighed out of any ſuch hay-market, be found of the due weight, then the two ſhillings paid to ſuch hay-weigher, &c. ſhall be forthwith repaid by the buyer to the ſeller, in caſe the ſeller paid ſuch two ſhillings; and if the hay or ſtraw ſo weighed, be found not to be of the due weight, then if the buyer paid the ſaid two ſhillings, the ſame ſhall be forthwith repaid to him by the ſeller; and if any hay-weigher, clerk, or toll-gatherer, or his deputy, omit to keep proper ſcales and weights, or engines for the weighing hay or ſtraw at ſuch hay-market, or neglect to weigh any hay or ſtraw required to be there weighed, or to attend to ſee the ſame weighed out of ſuch hay-market, at any place within the limits aforeſaid, when required, at any ſeaſonable time in the day-time, and ſo as the ſaid ſum of 2*s.* be paid or tendered, ſuch hay-weigher, &c. ſhall for every ſuch offence, forfeit any ſum not exceeding 20*s.* nor leſs than 10*s.* ſ. 9.

All hay or ſtraw ſold within thirty miles from the extent of the limits of the bills of mortality, and touching which there is any doubt of want of weight, ſhall on the delivery at the place where delivered by the ſeller, be weighed; and no no perſon ſhall incur any penalty for ſelling, or expoſing to ſale, any hay or ſtraw of leſs weight, or worſe quality than the ſame ought to be, unleſs ſuch hay or ſtraw be weighed either at or before the delivery, with the privity of the buyer, his ſervant, or agent, or complained of in reſpect of the quality, at the time and place agreed to be delivered at by the ſeller, in the preſence of ſuch ſeller, his ſervant, or agent; unleſs ſuch ſeller, his ſervant, or agent, on requeſt or on notice to attend to ſee ſuch hay or ſtraw ſo weighed, neglect to attend. ſ. 10.

No perſon ſhall permit his waggon, cart, or car, loaden with hay or ſtraw for ſale, to ſtand in the hay-market in Smithfield in London, or in any hay-market within the bills of mortality, from Lady-day to Michaelmas, after four in the afternoon, and from Michaelmas to Lady-day, after three in the afternoon; upon pain to forfeit for every ſuch offence 5 s.; but before any forfeiture be incurred, the hay-weigher, clerk, or toll-gatherer of the hay-market, or his deputy, ſhall on every market-day, (to wit) Tueſday, Thurſday, and Saturday, in every week, ring a large hand-bell round the hay-market one hour before the expiration of the time above appointed for perſons bringing hay or ſtraw for ſale into ſuch hay-market to leave the ſame; and on any default of ringing ſuch bell, no perſon uſing ſuch hay-market ſhall the next market-day after ſuch default be liable to pay any toll for any waggon, &c. ſtanding in ſuch hay-market, to ſell hay or ſtraw; and every ſuch hay-market is, in that caſe, and on the next market-day in which any ſuch default of ringing ſuch bell is made, declared to be toll-free. ſ. 12.

No perſon ſhall inour any penalty for ſuffering his waggon, &c. loaden with hay or ſtraw for ſale, to be in any ſuch hay-market from Lady-day to Michaelmas, after three in the afternoon, and from Michaelmas to Lady-day, after two in the afternoon. ſ. 13. (See 2 Will. & Mar. ſtat. 2. c. 8. ſ. 17.)

No perſon ſhall be convicted for any of the before-mentioned offences, unleſs proſecution be commenced within three days after the offence. ſ. 14.

On complaint on oath to any juſtice of peace of any offence againſt this act within his juriſdiction, ſuch juſtice is to iſſue his ſummons to convene the perſon charged, and any witneſſes for any of the parties, at a time and place in ſuch ſummons ſpecified; and if any one ſo ſummoned ſhall not appear, or offer ſome reaſonable excuſe for the default, then ſuch juſtice ſhall iſſue his warrant for apprehending the party ſo making default within the juriſdiction of ſuch juſtice; and upon the party complained againſt appearing, or being brought before ſuch juſtice on his warrant, or in caſe the party complained againſt ſhall not appear on ſuch ſummons being ſerved on him or left at his uſual place of abode, and proof be made thereof by oath before ſuch juſtice, then ſuch juſtice is to make enquiry touching the matters complained of by the oaths of any perſons requiſite, and to determine ſuch complaint; and, upon confeſſion or proof of one witneſs upon oath, to convict or acquit the party againſt whom complaint is made; and if the money forfeited be not paid on conviction, ſuch juſtice ſhall iſſue his warrant for levying thereof within his juriſdiction by diſtreſs on the goods of ſuch offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made of ſuch goods, in caſe the money forfeited with the charges be not paid within five days after ſuch diſtreſs, rendering the overplus to the owner, after deducting the charges of diſtreſs and ſale; and if any ſuch offender have not goods within the juriſdiction of ſuch juſtice, any juſtice within whoſe juriſdiction ſuch offender ſhall be, ſhall iſſue a warrant on the application of any informer to apprehend ſuch offender, and to commit him to ſome public priſon or houſe of correction of the county or place in which ſuch offence is committed, for any time not exceeding one calendar month, nor leſs than ten days, unleſs ſuch offender ſooner pay the money forfeited: and if any witneſs refuſe to be examined, he may be committed by ſuch juſtice to ſome priſon of the county, &c. where ſuch witneſs ſo makes default, for any time not exceeding ten days. ſ. 15.

If any perſon convicted of any offence puniſhable by this act, or for ſelling any truſs of hay of leſs weight than the ſame ought to be, ſhall think himſelf aggrieved by the judgment of any juſtice, ſuch perſon may appeal to the general or quarter ſeſſions of the peace of the county or place in which ſuch conviction is made, next after ſuch conviction, unleſs ſuch next ſeſſions ſhall be held within ſix days after ſuch conviction, and then ſuch perſon may appeal to the ſecond general or quarter ſeſſions next after ſuch conviction; but the party ſo appealing ſhall, before ſuch appeal be received, enter into a recognizance with two ſureties, before ſuch juſtice, in double the ſum which ſuch perſon is adjudged to forfeit, to proſecute ſuch appeal with effect, and to abide by the judgment of the ſeſſions; and ſhall alſo give three days notice in writing of ſuch appeal to, or leave the ſame at the uſual place of abode of the perſon who proſecuted to conviction the party ſo appealing; and the juſtices at ſuch ſeſſions are finally to determine ſuch appeal, and to make ſuch order, and award ſuch coſts, as they deem meet; and the determination of ſuch ſeſſions on every ſuch appeal ſhall be final; and no certiorari ſhall be allowed to remove any ſuch proceedings or determination. ſ. 16.

One moiety of all money forfeited by this act ſhall be paid to the perſon proſecuting to conviction any offender, and the other moiety to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh or place where the offence is committed. ſ. 17.

Any inhabitant of the pariſh or place in which any offence is committed againſt this act, ſhall be a competent witneſs. ſ. 18.

If any action be commenced for any thing done in purſuance of this act, the ſame ſhall be commenced within ſix months after the offence committed, and ſhall be laid in the county or city where the offence is committed; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict be found for the defendant, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 19.

By 11 Geo. 3. c. 15. The hay-market in the High Street, in the pariſh of Saint Mary Matfellon, otherwiſe Whitechapel, ſhall be held from Lady-day to Michaelmas, from ſeven in the morning till one in the afternoon; and from Michaelmas to Lady-day, from eight in the morning till twelve at noon, and at no other time; and if any perſon ſhall at any time continue or ſuffer his waggon, wain, cart, or car, laden with hay, ſtraw, or fodder, to ſtand or be in any part of the ſaid High Street or hay-market, otherwiſe than as above mentioned, he ſhall forfeit 5 s.; to be recovered and applied as 31 Geo. 2. directs.

Horners.

By 4 Edw. 4. c. 8. repealed by 1 Jac. 1. c. 25. and revived by 7 Jac. 1. c. 14. No alien ſhall buy any Engliſh horns unwrought, gathered or growing within the city of London, and 24 miles on every ſide of the ſaid city; and no perſon ſhall ſell any Engliſh horns unwrought to any ſtrangers, or cauſe them to be ſent over the ſea, upon pain of forfeiture of all ſuch horns. And the wardens of the myſtery myſtery of horners ſhall have power to ſearch all ware pertaining to their myſtery within the ſaid city of London, and 24 miles on every ſide; and if they find any ſuch ware within London and 24 miles next adjoining, to ſell, that is defective, it ſhall be lawful to them to take the ſame ware, and bring it before the mayor of London, the ſame there being proved defective, to be forfeit, the one half to the king, and the other half to the ſaid wardens.

Inſurance.

By 43 Eliz. c. 12. The lord chancellor may award under the great ſeal, one ſtanding commiſſion, to be renewed yearly at leaſt, for the hearing and determining of cauſes ariſing on policies of aſſurance entered within the office of aſſurances in London; which commiſſion ſhall be directed unto the judge of the admiralty, the recorder of London, two doctors of the civil law, two common lawyers, and eight diſcreet merchants, or to any five of them; which commiſſioners, or the greater part of them which ſhall ſit, ſhall have power to hear, examine, and decree all ſuch cauſes concerning policies of aſſurance in a ſummary courſe, without formalities of proceedings. ſ. 1.

The commiſſioners as well may warn the parties as examine upon oath any witneſs, and commit any perſon that ſhall contemn their decrees; and they ſhall once every week at leaſt ſit upon the execution of the commiſſion in the office of aſſurances, or ſome other place; and no perſon by this act may claim any fee. ſ. 2.

Any perſon grieved by ſentence of the commiſſioners, may within two months of the decree made, exhibit his bill in chancery for the re-examination of ſuch decree, ſo as every complainant before he exhibit ſuch bill, do either execute the ſentence or lay down in depoſito with the commiſſioners ſuch money as he ſhall be awarded to pay; and the lord chancellor in every ſuch ſuit brought, by ſuch aſſurers, and decreed againſt the aſſurers, ſhall award double coſts. ſ. 3.

No commiſſioner ſhall intermeddle in the execution of ſuch commiſſion in any cauſe where himſelf ſhall be a party; nor any commiſſioner (other than the judge of the admiralty, and the recorder of London) ſhall proceed in the execution of any ſuch commiſſion, before he have taken his oath before the lord mayor and court of aldermen, to proceed uprightly and indifferently between party and party. ſ. 4.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 23. It ſhall be lawful for the lord chancellor to iſſue yearly or oftener, one ſtanding commiſſion, impowering the commiſſioners, or three of them (whereof a doctor of the civil law, or a barriſter of five years ſtanding to be one), to make a court, and proceed, as by the act 43 Eliz. c. 12. five might have done. And the commiſſioners are impowered to ſummon parties and witneſſes, and in caſe of contempt in the witneſſes upon the firſt ſummons and tender of reaſonable charges, and in the parties upon their ſecond ſummons, to puniſh the offenders by impriſonment or coſts; and it ſhall be lawful for every ſuch commiſſioner to proceed in the execution of the commiſſion, having firſt taken an oath before the lord mayor of London, to proceed uprightly and indifferently between party and party; and no perſon ſhall proceed in the execution of the commiſſion before he be ſworn before the lord mayor. ſ. 2.

In caſe the commiſſioners find cauſe to examine witneſſes beyond the ſeas, or any remote parts of his majeſty's dominions, like commiſſions or proceſs ſhall iſſue out of the court of admiralty, as have formerly been for the purpoſes aforeſaid, returnable before the commiſſioners; and the commiſſioners ſhall have power to give their final ſentence and executions, as well againſt the body of the party evicted or his goods, as alſo againſt the executors and adminiſtrators of ſuch party, and to aſſeſs coſts. ſ. 3.

One commiſſioner may adminiſter an oath to any witneſs legally ſummoned, timely notice being given to the adverſe party, and ſet up in the office before ſuch examination. ſ. 4.

The commiſſioners ſhall in no caſe proceed both againſt perſon and goods for one debt; and nothing in this act ſhall prejudice the appeal to chancery. ſ. 5.

By 6 Geo. 1. c. 18. It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty, by two charters, to grant that ſuch perſons (who ſhall be named therein) and admitted as members into the ſaid corporations, ſhall be each a ſeparate body politic and corporate, for the aſſurance of ſhips and merchandiſes at ſea, or going to ſea, or for lending money upon bottomry. And the ſaid corporations ſhall have power to chooſe their governors, directors, and other officers; and the governors and directors ſhall continue in their offices for three years; and in caſe of death or removal be ſupplied as ſhall be preſcribed in the charters; and each of the ſaid corporations ſhall be capable in law to purchaſe lands not exceeding 1000 l. per annum. ſ. 1.

Each of the two corporations ſhall be obliged to cauſe ſuch ſtock of ready money to be provided, as ſhall be ſufficient to anſwer all juſt demands for loſſes, and ſhall ſatisfy all ſuch demands; and in caſe of refuſal or neglect, the parties aſſured may bring action of debt, &c. in any of his majeſty's courts of record at Weſtminſter, in which the plaintiffs may declare that the ſame corporation is indebted to them in the monies demanded, and have not paid the ſame according to this act. ſ. 4.

The corporations in general courts may raiſe ſuch capital ſtocks, either by taking ſubſcriptions of particular perſons, or by call of money from their members, or by ſuch other ways, as to ſuch general courts ſhall ſeem expedient; and all ſubſcribers ſhall have a ſhare in the capital ſtock, and ſhall be admitted members; but no perſon ſhall be entitled to any greater ſhare in the ſtock than the money which they ſhall have paid. ſ. 6.

The corporations ſhall have power in their general courts to call in from their members any farther ſums as ſhall be judged neceſſary; and in caſe any member ſhall refuſe to pay his ſhare at the times appointed by notice in the Gazette, and upon the Royal Exchange, the corporation may not only ſtop the dividends payable to ſuch member, but alſo ſtop the transfers of the ſhares of ſuch defaulter, and charge him with intereſt at 8 l. per cent. per ann. and if the principal and intereſt ſhall be unpaid three months, the corporations, or their courts of directors, may authoriſe perſons to ſell ſo much of the ſtock of ſuch defaulter as will ſatisfy the ſame; and the money ſo called in ſhall be deemed capital ſtock. Nevertheleſs the corporations, in a general court, may cauſe any ſums called in to be divided amongſt the then members, and the ſhares in the capital ſhall be proportionally abated. ſ. 7.

For enabling the corporations to lend money on parliamentary ſecurities, they ſhall have power to borrow money upon bonds, under their common ſeal, at ſuch intereſt, for any time not leſs than ſix months, as they ſhall think fit, ſo as the principal ſhall not exceed the principal monies then owing to them on ſuch parliamentary ſecurities; and ſuch bonds ſhall not be chargeable with ſtamp-duties. ſ. 8.

The ſhares in the capital ſtock ſhall be transferable and deviſable; deviſable; and their bonds ſhall be aſſignable and recoverable as his majeſty by the charters ſhall preſcribe; and the capital ſtock ſhall be adjudged a perſonal and not a real eſtate, and ſhall go to the executors, and not to the heir. ſ. 9.

The ſtock ſhall be exempted from taxes; and no governor, director, or other officer of the corporations, ſhall for that cauſe be diſabled from being a member of parliament, nor in reſpect of ſuch ſhare be liable to be a bankrupt; and no ſtock in the corporations ſhall be ſubject to foreign attachment by the cuſtom of London or otherwiſe. ſ. 10.

His majeſty by the ſaid charters may grant to each of the corporations power to make bye-laws, and ſuch farther powers relating to the aſſurance of ſhips, &c. or lending money upon bottomry, as to him ſhall ſeem meet. ſ. 11.

All other corporations, and all partnerſhips for aſſuring ſhips or merchandiſes at ſea, or for lending money upon bottomry, ſhall be reſtrained from under-writing any policies, or making any contracts for aſſurance of ſhips or merchandiſes at ſea, or going to ſea, or for lending money by way of bottomry. And if any corporation, or perſons acting in ſuch partnerſhip (other than one of the two corporations to be eſtabliſhed), ſhall under-write any ſuch policy, or make ſuch contract for aſſurance of ſhips, &c. or agree to take any premium for ſuch policies, every ſuch policy ſhall be void, and every ſum ſo under-written ſhall be forfeited, and may be recovered, one moiety to the uſe of the crown, the other to the perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame, in any court of record at Weſtminſter; and if any corporation, or perſons acting in ſuch partnerſhip, agree to lend money by way of bottomry, contrary to this act, the ſecurity ſhall be void, and ſuch agreement ſhall be adjudged an uſurious contract: nevertheleſs, any particular perſon ſhall be at liberty to under-write policies, or may lend money by way of bottomry, ſo as the ſame be not on the account or riſque of a corporation, or of perſons acting in partnerſhip. ſ. 12.

Forging their ſeal, policies, &c. felony without benefit of clergy. ſ. 13.

No perſon ſhall be capable of being elected governor, ſub-governor, deputy-governor, or director, of either of the ſaid corporations, during the time he ſhall be governor, &c. of the other corporation; and if any governor, &c. or member of either of the ſaid corporations, having any ſhare in the capital ſtock of that corporation, ſhall in his own name, or in the name of any other, purchaſe any ſhare in the ſtock of the other corporation, the ſhare ſo purchaſed ſhall be forfeited, one moiety to the uſe of his majeſty, the other to the proſecutor, to be recovered as before mentioned. ſ. 14.

Upon three years notice to be printed in the Gazette, and affixed upon the Royal Exchange, by authority of parliament, at any time within 31 years, to be reckoned from the dates of the two charters, and upon payment by parliament to the corporations of the ſums of 300,000 l. which the corporations were to pay to his majeſty without intereſt, the corporations ſhall ceaſe; and any vote of the houſe of commons, ſignified by the ſpeaker in writing, to be inſerted in the Gazette, and affixed on the Royal Exchange, ſhall be deemed ſufficient notice. ſ. 15.

After the expiration of 31 years, if his majeſty ſhall judge the farther continuance of the ſaid corporations to be hurtful to the public, it ſhall be lawful, by letters patent under the great ſeal, to make void the ſame corporations; and the ſame ſhall become void accordingly, without any inquiſition, ſcire facias, &c. ſ. 16.

In caſe the corporations ſhall be redeemed within 31 years, or be revoked by letters patent after 31 years, the ſame corporations, or any corporation with like powers, &c. ſhall not be grantable again. ſ. 17.

It ſhall be lawful for the South Sea company, and for the Eaſt India company, to lend on the bottom of any ſhip, and on the goods on board any ſhip, in the ſervice of the ſaid companies reſpectively, to any captains or other perſons imployed in the ſervice of the companies, any money by way of bottomry, this act notwithſtanding. ſ. 26.

If any governor or member of either of the corporations ſhall, on account of the ſaid corporations, lend to his majeſty, money by way of loan or anticipation, on any part of the revenues, other than ſuch funds on which a credit of loan ſhall be granted by parliament, the ſaid governor, &c. or other members conſenting to ſuch loan, being convicted thereof, ſhall forfeit treble the value of the ſums ſo lent; one fifth part to the informer, to be recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter, by action of debt, &c. and the reſidue to be diſpoſed of to public uſes, as ſhall be directed by parliament. ſ. 29.

By 7 Geo. 1. c. 27. The corporation called The London Aſſurance, having paid into the exchequer 111,250 l. in part of 300,000 l. and having covenanted to pay 38,750 l. farther part thereof in three months; and the corporation called The Royal Exchange Aſſurance of houſes and goods from fire having done the like, the reſidue of the ſaid ſums, amounting together to 300,000 l. ſhall be releaſed. ſ. 26.

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 15. Where the Royal Exchange Aſſurance, and the London Aſſurance, are ſubjected to pay double damages beſides coſts, the plaintiffs ſhall recover againſt them only ſingle damages and coſts. ſ. 25.

By 11 Geo. 1. c. 30. On all actions of debt againſt either of the corporations called The Royal Exchange Aſſurance, and The London Aſſurance, upon any policies under the common ſeal for the aſſuring of any ſhip or merchandiſes at ſea, or going to ſea, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid corporations to plead generally, that they owe nothing to the plaintiff; and in all actions of covenant againſt either of the ſaid corporations upon any policy under the common ſeal, for the aſſuring any ſhip or merchandiſes at ſea, or going to ſea, it ſhall be lawful for each of the corporations to plead generally, that they have not broke the covenant in ſuch policy contained; and if thereupon iſſue be joined, it ſhall be lawful for the jury to give ſuch part only of the ſum demanded, if it be an action of debt, or ſo much in damage, if it be an action of covenant, as it ſhall appear upon the evidence that the plaintiff ought in juſtice to have. ſ. 43.

When any veſſel or merchandiſes ſhall be inſured, a policy duly ſtamped ſhall be iſſued or made out within three days at fartheſt; and the inſurer neglecting to make out ſuch policy, ſhall forfeit 100 l. to be recovered and divided as other penalties may be by the laws relating to the ſtamp-duties; and all promiſſory notes for aſſurances of ſhips or merchandiſes at ſea, or going to ſea, are declared void. ſ. 44. (See the general title "Stamps.")

Juries.

By 7 Hen. 7. c. 5. The challenge called riens deins le gard ſhall be of no effect.

By 11 Hen. 7. c. 21. No perſon ſhall be impanelled in any jury in London, except he be of lands or chattels to the value of forty marks; and no perſon ſhall be impanelled in any jury in the ſaid city for lands or tenements, or action perſonal wherein the debt or damages amount to forty marks, except he be in lands and goods to the value of a hundred marks, and the ſame cauſe of challenge ſhall be admitted as a principal challenge; and every ſuch perſon ſummoned to appear in any jury before any of the judges of the ſame city, making default at firſt ſummons, ſhall loſe in iſſues 12 d. and at the ſecond default 2 s. and ſo at every ſuch default the iſſues to be doubled; and all ſuch iſſues loſt in the mayor's court ſhall be levied to the uſe of the mayor and commonalty; and all ſuch iſſues loſt in the ſheriffs courts ſhall be levied to the uſe of the ſheriffs toward their fee-farm. ſ. 1. See the reſt of this act under Attaint, Part II. p. 13.

By 4 Hen. 8. c. 3. For all iſſues to be loſt in the mayor's court, according to 11 Hen. 7. c. 21. it ſhall be lawful to the mayor to diſtrain; and in like manner it ſhall be lawful to the ſheriffs to diſtrain for ſuch iſſues loſt in their courts. ſ. 2.

The ſheriffs of London ſhall have power to return in panels or arrays of all actions in the courts of king's bench and common pleas, or exchequer, perſons being citizens, having goods to the value of 100 marks, to try the iſſues joined in ſuch action, as other perſons having lands of the yearly value of 40 s. ſ. 4.

The ſheriffs of the ſaid city ſhall return upon the firſt diſtreſs upon every of the jurors 20 d. and upon the ſecond diſtreſs 40 d. and upon every diſtreſs after that the double, till a full jury appear; and the ſheriffs that ſhall make any return contrary to the form aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit 10 l. the one half to the king, and the other half to the party that will ſue. ſ. 5.

By 5 Hen. 8. c. 5. The act 4 Hen. 8. c. 3. ſhall be expounded, that the ſheriffs be bound to return at every firſt diſtreſs of niſi prius, to be had at Saint Martins, upon every of the jurors 20 d. and upon the ſecond diſtreſs of niſi prius, 40 d. and upon every diſtreſs of niſi prius after that the double, till a full jury appear; and no ſheriff ſhall forfeit by force of the ſaid ſtatute for any return, except only upon writs of diſtreſſes before juſtices of niſi prius within the ſaid city; and upon all other proceſſes awarded out of the ſaid courts or exchequer, it ſhall be lawful to the ſheriffs to make their returns as they were wont to do. ſ. 2. See further, 7 Will. 3. c. 32. 29 Geo. 2. c. 19. under the general title "Juries," in Part I.

Juſtices of Gaol Delivery.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 18. When any ſeſſion of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery of the gaol of Newgate for the county of Middleſex, ſhall have been begun to be holden before the eſſoign day of any term, the ſame ſeſſion may be continued to be holden, and the buſineſs thereof finally concluded, notwithſtanding the happening of ſuch eſſoign day of any term, or the ſitting of the court of king's bench at Weſtminſter, or elſewhere in Middleſex; and all proceedings at ſuch ſeſſion ſhall be valid, any law, uſage, or cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding. ſ. 1.

Leather.

By 5 and 6 Edw. 6. c. 15. No ſadler, girdler, cordwainer, or other artificer, within London and the ſuburbs, which ſhall cut tanned leather (to the intent to make wares thereof), ſhall curry or dreſs any of the aforeſaid tanned leather in his own houſe, or by his ſervants; upon pain of forfeiture of all the ſaid tanned leather to be curried; the one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to him that will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 7.

By 1 Mar. ſtat. 3. c. 8. No perſon (occupying the myſtery of currying tanned leather) within London or the ſuburbs, ſhall occupy about currying the ſame any ſtuff or tallow but his own, upon pain of forfeiture of all leather ſo curried. ſ. 3.

By 1 Jac. 1. c. 22. Every artificer uſing to convert tanned leather into made wares, as well ſtrangers born as others, may lawfully buy tanned leather to make the ſame into made wares, at Leadenhall in London upon every Monday, the ſame being firſt ſearched, ſealed and regiſtered. ſ. 9.

The maſter and wardens of the myſteries of cordwainers, curriers, girdlers, and ſadlers of London, upon pain to forfeit 40 l. for every year they make default, the one half to the king, and the other half to him that will ſue for the ſame, ſhall four times in the year, viz. once every quarter or oftner, make ſearch for all boots, ſhoes, and other wares made of tanned leather, in all places as well within the city of London and ſuburbs, as in every other place within three miles of the ſame, where any artificer uſing cutting, working or dreſſing leather ſhall dwell; and the ſaid maſters and wardens may ſeize and carry away to their common halls, all ſuch boots, ſhoes, or other things, which they ſhall find in their ſearches inſufficiently made, curried or wrought. ſ. 29.

None of the ſaid maſters and wardens ſhall ſearch any perſons but ſuch as uſe the occupation of the ſaid maſter and wardens; and the coachmakers of London, or three miles from the ſame, ſhall be under the ſurvey of the maſter and wardens of the company of ſadlers. ſ. 30.

The mayor of London, and the aldermen, upon like pain of 40 l. ſhall yearly appoint eight perſons, being freemen of ſome of the companies of cordwainers, curriers, ſadlers, or girdlers, whereof one ſhall be a ſealer, and keep a ſeal for ſealing leather, who ſhall be ſworn before the mayor and aldermen: which ſearchers and ſealers ſhall ſearch every tanned hide, ſkin or leather, which ſhall be brought as well to Leadenhall as to any other fair or market within three miles of the city; and finding it ſufficiently tanned and dried, ſhall ſeal the ſame. ſ. 31.

The mayor of London, within ſix days after notice of any ſeizure within the city, or three miles from the ſame, either by the owners or the ſeizors of the ſaid leather, ſhall appoint ſix men, whereof there ſhall be of the better ſort of cordwainers two, of curriers two, and other two of the better ſort of tanners uſing Leadenhall market, who ſhall be no kin to the owners, who upon their oaths, ſhall, on the ſecond or third market-day, upon the Monday, for leather next after the ſeizure, in the afternoon, try whether the leather ſo ſeized ſhall be ſufficient or not. ſ. 33.

If the mayor of London ſhall make default in the nomination of triers, he ſhall forfeit 5 l. the one moiety to the king, and the other to him that will ſue for the ſame in any of the king's courts of record. And the perſons elected for trial of the ſaid leather, ſhoes, boots, or other wares, ſhall proceed therein without delay, upon pain to forfeit 5 l. ſ. 35.

Four of the ſaid ſearchers and ſealers in London ſhall be every year changed, and ſo many new choſen: and no perſon ſhall continue in the office of ſearching or ſealing of leather in London above two years together; and they, which ſhall ſerve in the office two years, ſhall not be choſen again until the end of three years; upon pain that every perſon offending ſhall forfeit for every month 10 l. ſ. 36.

If any ſearcher or ſealer ſhall refuſe with convenient ſpeed to ſeal any leather ſufficiently tanned, wrought, and uſed, or allow that which ſhall be inſufficient, he ſhall forfeit 40 s. And if any ſearcher ſhall receive any bribe, or exact any other fee than is by this ſtatute limited, for the ſearching, ſealing, and regiſtering of leather, he ſhall forfeit 20 l. And if any perſon elected to the office of ſearching or ſealing of leather refuſe to execute the ſaid office, he ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 37.

All red tanned leather which ſhall be brought to London, or within three miles from the ſame, ſhall be brought to Leadenhall before it be houſed, and there viewed, and ſhall be regiſtered by the ſearchers, with half fees for ſuch tanned leather as ſhall be brought out of London, or three miles from the ſame, and ſhall be ſearched and ſealed before it be brought within the city; upon pain that every perſon houſing, or not bringing his leather to Leadenhall, ſhall forfeit for every hide or ſkin 6 s. 8 d. provided that this article ſhall not extend to leather bought in Bartholomew fair or Southwark market, being ſearched, ſealed and regiſtered. ſ. 38.

No tanned leather ſhall be ſold within London, or three miles diſtant from the ſame, before the ſame have been ſearched and ſealed; upon pain of forfeiture of all ſuch tanned leather, or the value thereof. ſ. 39.

If any perſon wilfully deny ſuch ſearch to be made, or will not ſuffer the maſters and wardens of the companies, or ſearchers ſo appointed, to enter into his houſe, or other place, to ſearch all tanned leather, and all ſhoes, boots, mails, ſaddles, coach-coverings and harneſs, and all wares made of leather, and to ſeize and carry away all ſuch leather, ſhoes and wares, as they ſhall find inſufficiently tanned, curried or wrought, or made of ill ſtuff, every perſon ſo denying, &c. ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 40.

Such ſearchers and ſealers ſhall keep one book, wherein they ſhall enter all bargains made for leather, hides or ſkins, during the time of fair or market, being required by the buyer or ſeller, and the prices, taking for ſearching, ſealing, and regiſtering of every ten hides, backs or buts, with the necks, wombs and dibbings, or other offal, of the ſeller, 2 d. and for every ſix dozen of calves-ſkins or ſheep-ſkins, 2 d. and of the buyer the ſame. ſ. 41.

No perſon ſhall ſell or put away any tanned leather, red and unwrought, except he regiſter the ſaid leather and the price thereof, upon pain of forfeiture of the value of the leather. ſ. 42.

It ſhall not be lawful to buy any tanned leather before the ſame be ſearched and ſealed, nor to carry out of the fair or market any leather till it be regiſtered; upon pain to forfeit the ſaid leather, or the value thereof. ſ. 43.

If any currier within London, or three miles of the ſame, curry any leather inſufficiently tanned, or do not curry ſuch leather as he ſhall curry, ſubſtantially; or if any ſhoemaker or cobler within London, or three miles of the ſame, put any tanned leather into ſhoes, or other things made of tanned leather, which ſhall not be well tanned, or put any curried leather into any boots, &c. which ſhall not be well tanned, curried and ſealed; or make boots, &c. of Engliſh tanned leather in other manner than is above ſpecified; or if any ſhoemaker, ſaddler, or other artificer, working leather, make any wares of leather inſufficiently tanned or curried, or do not make their wares ſubſtantially; every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit the ſaid wares and the value thereof. ſ. 44.

No perſon ſhall utter or ſell within London, or three miles of the ſame, any wares appertaining to the myſtery of an artificer uſing cutting of leather, but only in open ſhop, fair or market, upon forfeiture of the wares and 10 s. ſ. 45.

All perſons being free of London, and all foreigners dwelling within London, or three miles of the ſame, uſing any occupation of cutting or working of leather into made wares, ſhall be under the ſurvey of the maſters and wardens of ſuch companies of London, as the artificers uſing the ſame occupation, being freemen of London, be, and ſhall pay to the maſters and wardens as the artificers, being freemen, and of the ſame companies, ſhall pay; the ſame to be recovered by diſtreſs or action of debt in any of the king's courts of record: all which forfeitures of money (except ſuch as are by this act otherwiſe diſpoſed) ſhall be divided into three parts; one part to the king, and another part to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame, and the third part to the city, town or lord of liberties, where the offence ſhall be committed. And all ſuch leather, wares, or things made of tanned leather or curried leather, which ſhall be ſeized and found inſufficient, ſhall be forfeited and diſtributed as followeth, &c. ſuch ſtuff ſeized within London, or three miles of the ſame, to be brought to Guildhall to be prized, and the value thereof to be divided into three parts, whereof one to be to the ſeizor, and another part to the chamber of London, and the other part to the poor, as well within the hoſpital of St. Bartholomew as to poor houſholders in the circuit aforeſaid, at the diſcretions of ſuch perſons as the mayor and four aldermen ſhall appoint.

The mayor of London for the ſaid city and three miles compaſs, ſhall inquire of the premiſes, and hear and determine the ſame, and alſo examine all perſons ſuſpected to offend againſt this act. ſ. 50.

By 13 and 14 Car. 2. c. 7. The market for leather in Leadenhall in London ſhall be kept on the Tueſday. ſ. 9.

Every artificer cutting leather, or other perſon which ſhall buy any red tanned leather within London, or three miles thereof, ſhall before the next market-day give notice to one of the company of curriers then uſing the art of a currier in London, and three miles thereof, and within three weeks after ſuch notice ſhall deliver the leather, except ſuch part as ſhall be uſed for ſoals without being curried, tallowed or dreſſed, unto the currier to whom ſuch notice was given, that the ſame may be curried, tallowed or dreſſed, as by act 1 Jac. 1. c. 22. upon penalty of forfeiture of 6 s. 8 d. for every back, but, hide or calves-ſkin, ſo bought and not delivered. ſ. 13.

The maſter and wardens of the company of curriers, or ſuch as they ſhall aſſign, ſhall at all ſeaſonable times in the day-time enter into any warehouſe, ſhop, cellar, or other place, within the city of London, or three miles of the ſame, belonging to any cordwainer, ſadler, girdler, or other artificer cutting leather, and in the preſence of any two of them ſearch for and ſeize all leather prohibited to be uſed by ſtat. 1 Jac. 1. c. 22.; as alſo all wares made of ſuch leather; and if any ſuch artificers ſhall refuſe to permit the ſaid maſter and wardens, &c. to make ſuch ſearch or ſeizure, they ſhall forfeit 20 l.; and if any of the ſaid artificers refuſe to be preſent with the ſearchers when the ſame ſhall be deſired by the maſter and wardens of the company of curriers, or ſuch perſons aſſigned by them, the perſons ſo refuſing ſhall forfeit 10 l. as aforeſaid. ſ. 14.

By 1 Will. and Mar. ſtat. 1. c. 33. Every hide, ſkin, or piece of tanned leather, ſhaved or liquored, and well curried, according to 1 Jac. 1. c. 22. ſhall be adjudged made ware and manufacture of the currier, and ſubject to the view, ſearch and ſeizure, of the maſter and wardens; and ſhall be liable to the ſame penalties as other wares inſufficiently made of tanned leather. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this act ſhall give power to the maſter and wardens of the company of curriers to ſearch or ſeize any leather, hide or ſkin, but ſuch as ſhall be curried in London, or within three miles thereof, by ſome members of their own company; nor in any other place but the open market-place, or in the ſhops, houſes, or warehouſes of ſuch curriers. ſ. 4.

Malt.

By 17 Ric. 2. c. 4. The malt made in the counties of Huntingdon, Cambridge, Northampton, and Bedford, that ſhall be ſold and brought to London, ſhall be well ſifted before ſale, ſo that the buyers may have eight buſhels of clean malt for the quarter, and the mayor's bailiffs and wardens of towns where ſuch malt ſhall be ſold ſhall have power at every man's ſuit to ſearch the malt and make redreſs.

Market.

By 22 Car. 2. c. 11. No houſe, ſhed, or other building, ſhall ſtand upon the market-place at Newgate market, other than the market-houſe, without the conſent of the dean and chapter of St. Paul's. ſ. 61.

Mayor.

By 24 Geo. 2. c. 48. The ſolemnity of preſenting and ſwearing the mayors of London in the court of exchequer at Weſtminſter, after every annual election, in the manner heretofore uſed on the 29th of October, ſhall be obſerved on the 9th of November in every year, unleſs the ſame ſhall fall on a Sunday, and then on the day following. ſ. 11.

By 25 Geo. 2. c. 30. ſ. 4. The annual admiſſion and ſwearing of the mayor of London, at the Guildhall there, and all annual meetings for that purpoſe, ſhall be, in the accuſtomed manner, on the 8th of November in every year; being the day next preceding the 9th of November, whereon the preſenting and ſwearing the mayor of the ſaid city in the Exchequer is appointed by 24 Geo. 2. c. 48. ſ. 11.

Merchants.

Militia.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 3. His Majeſty's lieutenants for the militia of the city of London ſhall continue to liſt and levy the trained bands and auxiliaries of the ſaid city, in ſuch manner as was uſed; and it ſhall be lawful for his majeſty's lieutenants of the ſaid city, by warrant from his majeſty, to levy yearly ſo much money as they ſhall find needful for defraying the charge of thoſe that ſhall be raiſed, with the ammunition and other incident expences of their militia, in ſuch manner as the aſſeſſment is levied, and not exceeding in one year the proportion of one month's tax, which the city now pays towards the tax of 70,000 l. by the month, charged by 12 Car. 2. c. 29. viz. 4666 l. 13 s. 4 d. ſ. 27.

It ſhall be lawful for his majeſty's conſtable or lieutenant of the Tower, to continue to levy the trained bands of the diviſion or hamlets of the Tower, in ſuch manner as to the number and quality of perſons, as was obſerved in forming the preſent forces thereof. ſ. 31.

The act 12 Car. 2. c. 29. referred to in this act for the militia, directs the ſum of 70,000 l. to be raiſed for one month's aſſeſſment, according to the proportions, and in the manner mentioned in 12 Car. 2. c. 21. which directs a monthly aſſeſſment of 70,000 l. to be raiſed according to an ordinance of both houſes made in his majeſty's abſence, which is to the effect following, viz.

That the ſum of threeſcore and ten thouſand pounds by the month ſhall be aſſeſſed in the ſeveral counties and places within England, Wales, and Berwick, according to the proportions, and in ſuch manner as therein expreſſed, whereof the proportion of the city of London was 4666 l. 13 s. 4 d.

The commiſſioners were to cauſe the proportions to be equally aſſeſſed, and to appoint aſſeſſors in each pariſh, who are to aſſeſs the ſame by a pound-rate according to all eſtates, both real and perſonal, within the limits of their pariſhes.

The aſſeſſors are to deliver one copy of their aſſeſſments unto the commiſſioners; and the commiſſioners are to ſign and ſeal two duplicates, and the one to deliver to ſub-collectors, with warrant to collect; and the commiſſioners are to deliver the other of the duplicates to the receiver general, of whom ſecurity ſhall be taken by the commiſſioners.

Which receiver general ſhall be allowed one penny in the pound.

The ſub-collectors ſhall have one penny in the pound.

The head-collectors ſhall have one penny in the pound.

The receiver general (in caſe he hath received the duplicates of each pariſh) ſhall allow one penny in the pound for the commiſſioners clerks.

If any perſon ſhall neglect to pay any money whereat he ſhall be aſſeſſed, it ſhall be lawful for the collectors to levy the ſum by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, and to break open in the day-time any houſe, cheſt or box, where ſuch goods are, and to call to their aſſiſtance the conſtables, tithingman and headborough.

If any queſtion happen upon taking of ſuch diſtreſs, the ſame ſhall be determined by the commiſſioners.

If any perſon ſhall neglect to pay his aſſeſſment, and convey his goods, whereby the money cannot be levied, the commiſſioners are authoriſed to impriſon the perſon (except a peer) until the money and charges be paid; and the tenants which ſhall be rated are required to pay ſuch money, and deduct out of the rent ſo much as the landlord ought to pay.

If any difference ariſe between landlord and tenant concerning the rates, the commiſſioners ſhall ſettle the ſame as they ſhall think fit; and if any perſons find themſelves aggrieved in that the aſſeſſors have over-rated them, and ſhall within ſix days after demand complain to the commiſſioners who allowed their aſſeſſment, the commiſſioners ſhall have power to relieve ſuch perſons.

In caſe the proportions ſhall not be fully paid, or if any of the aſſeſſments ſhall be rated upon perſons not of ability to pay, or upon any empty houſe or land where the ſame cannot be levied, the commiſſioners are required to re-aſſeſs ſuch money.

If any perſon ſhall wilfully neglect to perform his duty in the execution of this ordinance, the commiſſioners have power to impoſe fines, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; provided that no fine ſhall for one offence exceed 20 l. and all fines ſhall be paid to the receivers general.

If any receiver general or collector ſhall neglect to pay any money by him received, the commiſſioners are empowered to impriſon and ſeize the eſtate, both real and perſonal, of ſuch receiver general, &c. their heirs, executors, or adminiſtrators.

The commiſſioners who ſhall ſeize the eſtate of any receiver general, &c. ſhall be empowered to appoint a time for the general meeting of the commiſſioners at the uſual place, and there there to cauſe public notice to be given ten days before; and the commiſſioners at ſuch meeting ſhall ſell eſtates.

At the expiration of the time preſcribed for the payment of the aſſeſſment, the commiſſioners ſhall call before them the collectors, to aſſure themſelves of the whole payment of the ſums charged upon the diviſion; and in caſe of any failure, the commiſſioners are to cauſe the ſame to be levied.

In caſe any controverſies ariſe concerning the aſſeſſments which concern any of the commiſſioners, the commiſſioners concerned ſhall have no voice, but ſhall withdraw.

No privileged place or perſon ſhall be exempted from the aſſeſſments.

Nothing in this ordinance ſhall charge any houſes or lands, belonging to Chriſt's hoſpital, Bartholomew, Bridewell, Thomas and Bethlehem hoſpitals in London and Southwark, in reſpect of any rents payable to the ſaid hoſpitals, being to be diſburſed for the immediate relief of the poor.

Provided that no tenants that hold any lands or houſes by leaſe from the ſaid hoſpitals, claim any exemption; but that all the houſes and lands which they hold, ſhall be aſſeſſed for ſo much as they are yearly worth over and above the rents reſerved.

Where any perſon inhabiting within the city of London hath his dwelling-houſe in one of the pariſhes or wards, and hath any office or merchandize in the other pariſhes, &c. ſuch perſon ſhall be aſſeſſed for ſuch office or merchandize where he dwelleth.

Where any perſon inhabiting without the city of London hath any office within the city, ſuch perſon ſhall be aſſeſſed in the place where he dwelleth.

In caſe the way of aſſeſſing by a pound-rate ſhall prove obſtructive to the ſpeedy bringing in of the aſſeſſment, the commiſſioners are authoriſed to direct the aſſeſſors to aſſeſs the ſums according to the moſt juſt and uſual way of rates practiſed in ſuch places.

Provided that the apportionment of the aſſeſſment ſhall not be drawn into precedent.

Nothing herein contained ſhall be drawn into example to the prejudice of the ancient rights belonging to the peers.

Confirmed by 12 Car. 2. c. 2.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 107. The ſeveral lieutenants who are or ſhall be commiſſioned for the militia of the city of London, ſhall continue to liſt and levy the train bands and auxiliaries of the ſaid city, in manner as heretofore. ſ. 110.

It ſhall be lawful for the conſtable or lieutenant of the Tower Hamlets to appoint deputy lieutenants, and to give commiſſions to officers to train and diſcipline the militia, to be raiſed within and for the ſaid hamlets, purſuant to 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 3. and to form the ſame into two regiments, of eight companies each, as the ſaid conſtable hath uſed to do; and for defraying the neceſſary charges of trophies, and other incident expences of the militia of the ſame hamlets, the ſaid conſtable may raiſe in every year a fourth part of one month's aſſeſſment of trophy money within the ſaid hamlets, in ſuch manner as he hath uſed to do, by virtue of ſaid act. ſ. 111.

When the lieutenant of the Tower Hamlets ſhall be out of the kingdom, the deputy lieutenants, or the major part of them, aſſembled at a public meeting called for that purpoſe, may do all acts relating to the militia of the hamlets, which might have been done by the lieutenant, and the ſame ſhall be good in law; and no commiſſion, warrant, or appointment, granted to any deputy lieutenant, or other perſon, for the militia of the Tower Hamlets, ſhall be vacated by the death or removal of the lieutenant. ſ. 112.

The conſtable of the Tower, or lieutenant of the Tower Hamlets, ſhall appoint a treaſurer of the trophy money, for receiving and paying ſuch monies as ſhall be levied by virtue of the 13 & 14 Car. 2. which ſaid treaſurer ſhall yearly account, in writing, and upon oath, for the ſame to the ſaid conſtable or lieutenant, or his deputy lieutenants, or three of them, which accounts ſhall be certified to the juſtices for the hamlets, at their next general or quarter ſeſſions; and the ſaid conſtable or lieutenant ſhall not iſſue out warrants for raiſing any trophy money, until the juſtices, or the major part at ſuch ſeſſions, ſhall have examined, and allowed the accounts of the trophy money collected for the preceding year, and certified the ſame under the hands and ſeals of four of ſuch juſtices, unleſs where it ſhall appear to ſuch juſtices that ſuch accounts cannot be paſſed. ſ. 113.

Nuiſance.

See 12 Ric. 2. c. 13. in general title, "Nuiſance."

Oaths.

By 11 Geo. 1. c. 18. There ſhall be omitted out of the oath of a freeman the words following, viz. [Ye ſhall know no foreigner to buy or ſell any merchandize with any other foreigner within the city or the franchiſe thereof, but ye ſhall warn the chamberlain thereof, or ſome miniſter of the chamber] and alſo the words following, viz. [Ye ſhall implead or ſue no freeman out of the city, whilſt ye may have right and law within the ſaid city] and after theſe words, [Ye ſhall take no apprentice] the words immediately following ſhall alſo be omitted, that is to ſay, [but if he be free-born, that is to ſay, no bondſman's ſon, nor the child of any alien] and for [no] and inſtead thereof theſe words [for any] ſhall be inſerted. ſ. 19.

Oil.

By 3 Hen. 8. c. 14. The mayor of London, with the maſter and wardens of the craft of tallow chandlers, ſhall have power to ſearch all oils brought to London to be ſold; and the mayor, with the maſter and wardens, ſhall overſee that the oils put to ſale be not mixt or altered from their right kinds; and it ſhall be lawful to the mayor, with the maſter and wardens, to caſt away all ſuch oils as they ſhall find defective, or deceivably mixed and altered, and to commit ſuch perſons as ſhall be found defective, for uſing ſuch deceit, to ward, and to puniſh them according to the laws and cuſtoms within the city uſed for other offenders. And the mayor in every city and town where a mayor is, or the governors or rulers of every other city, borough, and town corporate, ſhall have power to make like ſearch and correction of all oils being defective, or deceivably mixed and altered, as the mayor, maſter and wardens, of the city of London.

Orphans.

By 5 & 6 Will. & Mar. c. 10. Towards raiſing a perpetual fund to pay the yearly intereſt of four per cent. of all money due to any orphan of the city of London, or the executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, of ſuch, or any other creditors of the city, all the manors, meſſuages, lands, markets and fairs, and other hereditaments and income, of the mayor, commonalty, and citizens (except the lands, &c. of Chriſt's Hoſpital, St. Bartholomew, Bridewell, St. Thomas and Bethlehem Hoſpitals, or any other hoſpital in London or Southwark, and ſuch as are chargeable for the repairs repairs of London Bridge), ſhall be yearly charged for the raiſing the annual ſum of 8000 l. for ever free from deduction. ſ. 2.

The aqueducts and right of bringing water belonging to the mayor, commonalty, and citizens, and the rents and profits which ſhall ariſe by any aqueducts or right of bringing water (other than ſuch water as ſhall be for the ſupply of the public conduits, hoſpitals, halls, and priſons) ſhall be applied towards the payment of the ſaid money. ſ. 3.

The mayor, commonalty, and citizens, ſhall yearly raiſe 2000 l. by an equal aſſeſſment upon the perſonal eſtates of the inhabitants, to be yearly aſſeſſed and paid, or in default of payment diſtrained for, in ſuch manner as the mayor, &c. in common council or otherwiſe ſhall annually appoint. ſ. 4.

All profits which the mayor, commonalty, and citizens, may lawfully make by granting licenſes for the lighting the ſtreets, ſhall be appropriated to the uſes aforeſaid. ſ. 5.

Every perſon being free of any of the companies, who ſhall take any apprentice, ſhall bind his apprentice before the maſter or wardens of ſuch company whereof the maſter is a member, or their deputy; which apprentice at the time of his binding, ſhall pay to the maſter or wardens 2 s. 6 d. which they ſhall pay to the chamberlain twice in the year, viz. on the 15th of December and 18th of June, for the uſes aforeſaid: and every maſter or wardens ſhall keep in their halls books of vellum or parchment, in which ſuch ſum ſhall be entered; and every perſon may view the books between nine and twelve in the forenoon, without fee: and for every ſum which ſuch maſter or wardens ſhall receive, and ſhall not be tranſmitted to the chamberlain, ſuch maſter or wardens ſhall forfeit 5 l. to be recovered in the name of the chamberlain, in any of their majeſties courts of record. ſ. 6.

Every perſon who ſhall be admitted a freeman of the city, ſhall pay unto the mayor, commonalty, and citizens, 5 s. above the uſual fees. ſ. 7.

A duty of 4 s. per tun ſhall be impoſed upon all wines imported into the port of London, or the members thereof, by way of merchandiſe, which ſhall be paid by the importer unto the mayor, commonalty, and citizens, and appropriated towards raiſing the ſaid fund. ſ. 8.

Perſons ſhall be appointed by the mayor and court of aldermen, to collect the ſaid duty, during the pleaſure of the court; and the ſaid impoſition ſhall be collected as in 12 Car. 2. c. 4. (See title "Importation," &c.) ſ. 9.

For all coals brought into the port of London, or the river of Thames, within the liberty of the city, to be ſold by the chaldron or tun, there ſhall be paid according to the rates after mentioned, viz. for all ſuch coals or culm as are uſually ſold by the chaldron, for every chaldron 4 d. metage, over and above what is now paid for the metage; which ſum ſhall be paid in like manner as the preſent duty for metage, and paid to the mayor, commonalty, and citizens, by the officers receiving the metage. And for all ſuch coals or culm (over and above all other duties) the further ſum of 6 d. for every chaldron. And for ſuch coals as are ſold by the tun, for every tun 6 d. which impoſition of 6 d. ſhall continue from the 29th of September 1700, for the term of fifty years; and the ſaid impoſitions of 6 d. for every chaldron ſhall, during the continuance of the ſame, be paid unto the mayor, commonalty, and citizens, by the maſter of any ſhip, whereupon the ſame ſhall be laden, before they break bulk, or have a meter aſſigned; the ſame to be paid at ſuch places as by the mayor and court of aldermen ſhall be appointed within the city; and the impoſition of 6 d. per tun or chaldron ſhall be collected as by an act 19 Car. 2. c. 3. for the rebuilding the city of London, viz. the coal meter ſo ſoon as any ſhip ſhall be unladen, ſhall deliver a certificate to the officers appointed to receive the impoſition, of the ſorts and quantities meaſured or weighed from ſuch ſhip, on pain to be ſuſpended from his office for one year. And in caſe it ſhall appear that there was on board any ſuch ſhip a greater number of chaldrons or tuns than for which the impoſition ſhall have been paid, there ſhall be paid to the mayor and commonalty for every chaldron or tun concealed 5 s. for which ſuch ſhip or the tackle may be attached by warrant from the mayor: provided that if the importer, upon ſuch certificate delivered, ſhall within twenty-four hours give in his poſt-entry, and pay the whole duty, the penalty ſhall be diſcharged. All which impoſitions of 4 d. and 6 d. or additional duty in caſe of concealment, and all other money hereby appointed as part of the ſaid fund, ſhall be paid into the receipt of the chamber of the city of London, and appropriated towards the raiſing ſuch a fund, and applied to the diſcharge of the ſaid debts. ſ. 10.

The ſaid duties were continued by the acts 21 Geo. 2. c. 29. and 7 Geo. 3. c. 37. which ſee infra.

Every perſon concerned in the receipt of the ſums by this act appropriated, before he ſhall take upon him the execution of the office, ſhall be bound with ſureties to the mayor, commonalty, and citizens, for the faithful execution of ſuch office, in ſuch reaſonable ſum as by the mayor or court of aldermen ſhall be thought fitting. ſ. 11.

After the impoſition of 6 d. ſhall ceaſe, all the lands, &c. markets, fairs, and other revenues of the city, ſhall be charged with the yearly ſum of 6000 l. (over and above the ſaid yearly ſum of 8000 l.) to be applied to the ſame uſes. ſ. 12. (By 21 Geo. 2. c. 29. ſ. 2. to be charged with 2000 l. and by 7 Geo. 3. c. 37. with 1500 l. per annum only).

The ſaid rents ſhall (deducting reaſonable ſalaries and allowances as the mayor and court of aldermen ſhall think fit for collecting the ſame) in the firſt place be applied for the payment of the annual ſum of 4 l. for the intereſt of every 100 l. of the above mentioned debts; the ſaid payments to be made twice in every year on the feaſt days of St. Thomas the Apoſtle and St. John the Baptiſt, or within fourteen days after. ſ. 13.

The proviſion hereby made for the ſaid intereſt money for ever, ſhall be in full ſatisfaction of the debts; and the orphans and creditors ſhall according to cuſtom acknowledge ſatisfaction, paying to the officers ſuch fees as the mayor and court of aldermen ſhall appoint, not exceeding 13 s. 4 d. for every 1000 l. ſ. 14.

There ſhall be kept by the chamberlain books of vellum or parchment, in which all monies before mentioned ſhall be entered; and like books, wherein the accounts of payments ſhall be entered; and it ſhall be lawful for all perſons to view the ſaid books, between nine and twelve in the forenoon, without fee; and the receipts and payments of the monies aforeſaid ſhall be audited yearly upon oath, before one of the auditors of the impreſt, between the feaſt days of St. Michael and St. Thomas the Apoſtle; and the auditor ſhall receive of the chamberlain 20 s. for every 1000 l. the ſaid accounts ſhall amount to; which accounts ſhall be ſigned by the auditor, and allowed by the mayor and court of aldermen, and entered and remain in the chamber. ſ. 15.

If any perſon ſhall after receipt of any of the ſaid monies, miſapply the ſame, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit treble the ſum, which ſhall be recovered by any the orphans or creditors ditors that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of their majeſties courts of record. ſ. 16.

The chamberlain and common ſerjeant ſhall upon requeſt, give unto every of the orphans and creditors, a note of the principal and intereſt owing to ſuch orphan or creditor; and any perſon, to whom any money ſhall be payable by this act, may by writing transfer his intereſt, which being entered in a book to be kept by the mayor and court of aldermen, and the note of the debt being delivered up to the officer appointed by the court of aldermen, who ſhall give his note of the debt aſſigned to the party to whom ſuch aſſignment ſhall be made, ſuch aſſignee ſhall be entitled. ſ. 17.

No perſon ſhall be compelled by any cuſtom within the city, or by any order or proceſs of the court of orphans or otherwiſe, to pay into the chamber, any money or eſtate belonging to any orphan of any freeman. ſ. 18.

If any of the ſums by this act appropriated ſhall be miſapplied, the mayor, commonalty and citizens, ſhall be anſwerable for the ſame in any action to be brought by any of the orphans or other creditors, their heirs or aſſigns. ſ. 20.

All amercements, fines, iſſues, or diſtreſſes, againſt the mayor, commonalty, and citizens, levied upon account of ſuch actions, ſhall be applied to the uſes aforeſaid, nor ſhall the ſame be pardoned by any letters of ſignet, privy ſeal, or great ſeal. ſ. 21.

When any application ſhall be made to the mayor and court of aldermen, on behalf of any orphan of the city, by the executors or adminiſtrators of the father of ſuch orphans, to pay in any money of ſuch orphan in the ſaid chamber, and to have the benefit of the proviſion hereby made, it ſhall be lawful for the mayor and court of aldermen to order the chamberlain to pay off the like ſum to ſuch perſons entitled to the ſaid yearly payments as they think fit, not being orphans under the age of one-and-twenty years, and giving three months notice; at the end of which three months, upon payment or tendering of the principal and intereſt at the office of the chamberlain in Guildhall, the annual ſum payable to ſuch perſon ſhall ceaſe, and become due to ſuch orphans, who ſhall have paid in the monies for the ſame. ſ. 22.

This act ſhall not extend to the New River water. And nothing in this act ſhall hinder the governor and company of undertakers for raiſing the Thames water in York Buildings, from taking water out of the Thames, or from laying or repairing their pipes, according to a private act of parliament, 2 Will. & Mar. ſtat. 2.; provided that neither the ſaid governor and company, nor the ſaid mayor and commonalty, hinder each other in laying or amending their pipes. ſ. 26.

Nothing in this act ſhall hinder the governor and company of the water-works and water-houſes in Shadwell, of any right to take water out of the Thames, nor to obſtruct them in laying pipes in the ſtreets, or uſing any right which by an act 3 & 4 Will. & Mar. or by any other lawful ways they do enjoy. ſ. 27.

This act ſhall not extend to the water-works of Thomas Morris at London Bridge, which he holdeth by grant made to Peter Morris, from the mayor, commonalty, and citizens of the city of London, for 500 years, by indenture dated the 24th of November, in the 25th year of queen Elizabeth. ſ. 28.

If any action be proſecuted againſt any perſon for what he ſhall do in execution of this act, ſuch perſon may plead the general iſſue. ſ. 30.

By 21 Geo. 2. c. 29. The impoſition of 6*d.* for every chaldron or ton of coals imported into the port of London, or river Thames, within the liberty of the ſaid city, granted by 5 & 6 Will. & Mar. c. 10. to the mayor, commonalty, and citizens of London, during 50 years, from 29 September 1700, for the purpoſes therein mentioned, ſhall be continued for the further term of thirty-five years, from the expiration of the ſaid 50 years; all which monies received upon account of the ſaid impoſition, ſhall be paid into the chamber of London, and be appropriated to the purpoſes herein after declared. ſ. 1.

The court of mayor and aldermen of London, ſhall be impowered and directed to order the chamberlain, out of any monies in his hands, ariſing from the impoſitions appropriated to pay the intereſt on the debt due to the orphans, and other creditors of the ſaid city, after reſerving ſufficient monies to pay all intereſt at that time due, to any perſon the ſaid court ſhall think fit, ſuch ſum as ſhall be due to him or her for principal and intereſt, by virtue of the ſaid act, giving three months notice to the perſon ſo to be paid off, at the end of which three months, upon payment or tendering of the principal and intereſt, to the perſon to whom ſuch notice ſhall be given, at the office of the ſaid chamberlain in Guildhall, London, from thenceforth the intereſt payable to ſuch perſon ſhall ceaſe, nevertheleſs the monies ſo tendered ſhall be paid to ſuch perſon upon their demand, and giving a diſcharge. ſ. 3.

No perſon being an orphan of the city of London, under the age of 21 years, ſhall have the principal debt due to ſuch orphan paid off, ſo long as there ſhall be any perſon, not an orphan, under the age of 21 years, proprietor of any part of the ſaid principal debt. ſ. 4.

The chamberlain of London ſhall every year lay before each houſe of parliament, an account of the ſurplus ariſen in that year, to the 24th of June preceding; how much applied to the payment of the ſaid principal debt, and how much of the ſaid debt remains unpaid. ſ. 5.

If any action or information be commenced for any thing done in purſuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff or proſecutor become nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall recover coſts. ſ. 6.

By 7 Geo. 3. c. 37. For completing the bridge croſs the river Thames, from Black Friars, in the city of London, to the oppoſite ſide, in the county of Surrey, and the avenues thereto on the London ſide; for redeeming the tolls on the ſaid bridge, and on London Bridge; for rebuilding the gaol of Newgate, in the ſaid city; for repairing the Royal Exchange within the ſame; for embanking part of the north ſide of the ſaid river, within certain limits; the common council were impowered to raiſe 156,000*l.* upon the orphans fund. Contributors to be entitled to redeemable annuities at 3*l.* 10*s.* per cent. Common council to give bonds for ſuch annuities, aſſignable by indorſement. The orphan's fund charged with the ſaid 141,000*l.*

And for rendering the ſaid fund ſufficient to diſcharge not only the principal and intereſt of the debt remaining due to the orphans and other creditors of the city, but likewiſe of the ſaid ſum of one hundred and forty-four thouſand pounds, ſo charged thereon by this preſent act, and alſo to pay and redeem the annuities which will be payable in reſpect of the ſaid ſum of one hundred and fifty-ſix thouſand pounds borrowed upon the credit thereof; the ſaid impoſition of ſix pence for every chaldron or ton of coals or culm, by 5 & 6 Will. & Mar. granted during fifty years, and by 21 Geo. 2. further continued for thirty-five years, ſhall be continued for a further term of forty-ſix years from the expiration of the ſaid term of thirty-five years: and all powers in the ſaid two acts for collecting the ſaid impoſition, and all penalties thereby impoſed, and regulations therein made for preventing fraud, ſhall remain in force, and be exerciſed for collecting and recovering the ſaid impoſition, for the time by this act limited: and all monies received upon account of the ſaid impoſition, ſhall be paid into the receipt of the chamber of the ſaid city, towards the increaſe of the ſaid fund. ſ. 38.

"City revenues charged with 1500*l. per annum* to the ſaid "fund. Said fund appropriated to pay the intereſt of the or- "phans debt, and of ſaid 144,000*l.* and 156,000*l.* Surpluſſes "of ſaid fund to be applied, for the firſt four years, towards "diſcharge of the principal of the orphans debt; then of ſaid "144,000*l.* then of the remainder of the orphans debt, and "afterwards to redeem the ſaid annuities."

The court of mayor and aldermen ſhall give, or cauſe to be given, ſix months notice of their intention to pay off ſuch principal ſums, or to redeem ſuch annuities, to the perſons to whom the ſame ſhall belong; at the end of which ſix months, upon payment or tender of the ſums due, or for which ſuch annuities ſhall have been granted, to the perſons to whom ſuch notice ſhall be given, at the office of the chamberlain in Guildhall, the intereſt or annuity ſhall ceaſe: nevertheleſs, the monies ſo tendered ſhall be paid to ſuch perſon, upon demand, and giving a diſcharge. ſ. 42.

For four years from 24 June 1777, the ſurpluſſes of the ſaid fund ſhall be applied to the purpoſes aforeſaid yearly, at the end of each year; but after the expiration of the four years, at the end of every half year. ſ. 43.

If the ſaid fund ſhall at any time hereafter prove inſufficient to pay the intereſt of the principal debts, and annuities charged thereon; the ſum wanting ſhall be paid out of the chamber of the city, and made good out of the next ſurpluſſes of the ſaid fund. ſ. 44.

Paving, lighting, cleanſing, and watching.

By 10 Geo. 2. c. 22. The mayor, aldermen, and commons, of the city of London, in common council, ſhall in every year between the firſt of October and the 20th of November, order what number of watchmen and beadles ſhall be kept within the ſeveral wards for one year, commencing from the 25th of December, and ſhall direct how they ought to be armed, how long they are to watch, what wages ſhall be given them, and what number of conſtables ſhall attend every night in each ward; and ſhall make ſuch other regulations as the nature of each ſervice ſhall require. ſ. 1.

The common council ſhall direct what money ſhall be raiſed upon each ward for the purpoſes aforeſaid, and direct the alderman, deputy, and common council men of each ward, to make an equal rate (regard being had to the abilities of, and likewiſe to the rent paid by the inhabitants and occupiers), which rates ſhall be collected quarterly by the conſtables or beadles; and in caſe any ſhall neglect to pay, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch collectors, by warrant of the lord mayor, or the alderman of the ward, to levy by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and for want of diſtreſs, by like warrants, to commit the party to one of the counters for one month, or until payment. ſ. 2.

Any perſon aggrieved by ſuch rate may, within twenty days after the ſum ſhall be demanded, appeal to the court of lord mayor and aldermen. ſ. 3.

The alderman, deputy, and common council men, of each ward, or the major part of them, whereof the alderman or deputy to be one, ſhall, within 14 days after the number of watchmen ſhall be appointed, aſſemble and chuſe honeſt and able watchmen, and ſhall ſet down in writing, at what ſtands it is fit for the watchmen to be placed, and how often it ſhall be required of them to go their rounds, and ſhall then make ſuch other regulations concerning the watchmen and beadles, as the nature of each ſervice ſhall require; and it ſhall be lawful for the aldermen, with the conſent of their deputies and common council men, at any time to remove the watchmen and appoint more; and alſo to make further regulations for the government of the watchmen and beadles, as they ſhall think proper: provided that ſuch regulations be not repugnant to the regulations made by the common council. ſ. 4.

The orders made by the common council, and ſuch appointments and regulations as ſhall be made by the aldermen, deputies, and common council men of the reſpective wards, ſhall be ſigned by the alderman or his deputy, and the major part of the common council men of each ward, and delivered to the conſtables. And one or more of the conſtables of each ward, as ſhall be judged neceſſary by the common council, ſhall attend every night by turns, viz. from the tenth of March to the tenth of September, from ten till five, and from the tenth of September to the tenth of March, from nine till ſeven; and the conſtables ſhall uſe their beſt endeavours to prevent fires, murders, robberies, and other diſorders, and ſhall apprehend all night-walkers, malefactors, and ſuſpected perſons, who ſhall be found wandering or miſbehaving themſelves, and carry them as ſoon as conveniently may be, before a juſtice of peace, and ſhall twice or oftner every night go about their wards, and take notice whether all the watchmen perform their duties; and in caſe any ſuch watchman ſhall miſbehave himſelf, or neglect his duty, the conſtables ſhall give notice to the alderman or his deputy. ſ. 5.

If any of the conſtables ſhall wilfully neglect to attend in his turn, or ſhall not come at the hours appointed, or ſhall depart during the hours appointed by this act, or ſhall neglect to go about his ward, or otherwiſe miſbehave himſelf, he ſhall forfeit 20*s.* ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for the watchmen, in the abſence of the conſtable, to apprehend all night-walkers, malefactors, rogues, vagabonds, and diſorderly perſons, whom they ſhall find diſturbing the peace, or ſhall have juſt cauſe to ſuſpect of any evil deſigns, and to deliver them to the conſtable, who is to carry them before a juſtice of peace. ſ. 7.

If any collectors of the rates ſhall neglect the office they ſhall forfeit 10*l.* and ſhall continue liable to be appointed into the office again the year following; and it ſhall be lawful for the alderman, deputy, and common council men of ſuch ward, to appoint any perſons inhabiting in ſuch ward to be collectors in the room of ſuch who ſhall refuſe to take upon them the office, or ſhall die. ſ. 8.

The collectors ſhall enter in books the ſums which they ſhall receive, and the names of the perſons from whom; which books they ſhall upon demand ſhew to the deputies of their wards; and they ſhall pay the money to the deputy, ſo as that ſuch collector ſhall never have a ſum exceeding 5*l.* in his hands five days; and if the collectors neglect to make ſuch entries, or refuſe to ſhew the deputy the book, or retain in their hands more than 5*l.* longer than five days, they ſhall reſpectively forfeit 40*s.* and on payment of money to the deputy, ſuch collector ſhall take a receipt, which ſhall be produced to the alderman at the time he ſhall ſettle his yearly account; and the collectors ſhall, within twenty days after the end of every three months, deliver to the alderman of the ward, or ſuch as he ſhall appoint, the book of the rates, and a true account of ſuch perſons as ſhall have neglected to pay. ſ. 9.

Every freeman of London, liable to pay the rates, who ſhall have neglected to pay (the ſame having been demanded), or ſhall have deſired to be excuſed from paying, ſhall be under the ſame incapacity of voting at elections, as perſons now are who do not pay ſcot and lot. ſ. 10.

The deputy of each ward ſhall pay all draughts on him made by the alderman, with the advice of the major part of the common council men of each ward, in diſcharge of the watchmen and beadles, and incident charges in relation to the watching of ſuch ward; and the deputies ſhall keep a book for that purpoſe, which ſhall be produced yearly at the wardmote, if required; and the deputies ſhall have the account audited between the firſt of February and the firſt of March yearly, by the alderman and common council men of each ward. ſ. 11.

It ſhall be lawful for the lord mayor, or any two juſtices of peace, to hear and determine any offences puniſhable by pecuniary penalties by this act; and they are required, upon any complaint in that behalf within ten days after ſuch offence, to ſummon the parties and witneſſes; and in caſe the party accuſed ſhall not appear (and after oath made of the commiſſion of any of the offences by one witneſs) to iſſue a warrant for apprehending the party offending; and upon the appearance of the party accuſed, or his contempt in not appearing, to proceed to the examination of the witneſs, and to give ſuch judgment as ſhall be juſt; and it ſhall be lawful for ſuch lord mayor or juſtices, to iſſue warrants, for levying the penalties on the goods of the offender, and to cauſe ſale to be made, in caſe they ſhall not be redeemed in five days; and in caſe no goods can be found, it ſhall be lawful for the lord mayor or juſtices, to commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour, for any time not exceeding three months, or until ſuch penalty be paid. ſ. 12.

It ſhall be lawful for ſuch lord mayor or juſtices to mitigate the ſaid forfeitures, ſo as ſuch mitigation do not remit above one moiety. ſ. 13.

Any perſon unſatisfied in the judgment of the lord mayor or juſtices, may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 14.

The penalties ſhall be applied, one moiety to the perſon who ſhall inform, and the other moiety to the alderman of the ward towards defraying the charges of the nightly watch. ſ. 15.

In caſe there ſhall be a deficiency in any year's rate in any of the wards, the deficiency ſhall be paid out of the next year's rate; and if there ſhall be any ſurplus, ſuch ſurplus ſhall be carried on to the credit of the next year's rate. ſ. 16.

It ſhall be lawful for the alderman of each ward, with the conſent of his deputy and common council men, to rate the owners of ſuch houſes as ſhall be occupied by three or more tenants; which rate ſhall be paid by one or more of the occupiers; and in caſe any occupier ſhall refuſe to pay, the ſaid rate ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of his goods; and ſuch occupiers are to deduct the ſame out of the rent. ſ. 17.

No perſon, who ſhall be rated and pay in purſuance of this act, ſhall be liable to watch or ward by ſtat. Wincheſter, 13 Edw. 1. ſt. 2. or any other ſtatutes. ſ. 18.

If any action be brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act, the action ſhall be brought within ſix months after the fact, and ſhall be laid in London, and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff become nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 22.

By 11 Geo. 3. c. 29. The ſole power of ordering, deſigning, making, enlarging, widening, deepening, raiſing, altering, removing, repairing, cleanſing, and ſcouring, of all common ſewers, drains, and vaults; and of paving, cleanſing, and lighting the ſeveral ſtreets, lanes, ſquares, yards, courts, alleys, paſſages, and places, within the city of London and liberties thereof, ſhall be veſted in the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the ſaid city, to be executed by ſuch perſons as by the mayor, aldermen, and commons of the ſaid city, in common council aſſembled, ſhall, from time to time, be nominated, and under the common ſeal be appointed for that purpoſe, which ſaid perſons ſhall be commiſſioners for carrying this act into execution. ſ. 1.

The authority of the commiſſioners ſhall not be ſuſpended or taken away, ſave by the appointment of new commiſſioners; alſo the recorder and common ſerjeant for the time being, ſhall be two of the commiſſioners. ſ. 2.

The powers by this act granted, may be exerciſed by the major part of the commiſſioners preſent at a public meeting not being leſs than ſeven (except for the purpoſe of adjourning). ſ. 3.

The major part of the commiſſioners preſent at any public meeting (not being leſs than three) may adjourn ſuch public meeting, provided every commiſſioner ſhall have notice to attend at ſuch adjourned public meeting, by ſummons from the clerk to the commiſſioners. ſ. 5.

The mayor may appoint a public meeting, at any time and place within the city or liberties, notwithſtanding any adjournment or non-adjournment of the commiſſioners; and ſhall cauſe the commiſſioners to be ſummoned. ſ. 6.

The commiſſioners ſhall appoint clerks, ſurveyors, and officers, for the execution of this act (fourteen days notice of their intention to proceed to ſuch appointment having been firſt publiſhed in two daily papers, and notice thereof being alſo expreſſed in the ſummons); and the commiſſioners ſhall take ſecurity for the execution of ſuch offices; and may remove any of the officers, and appoint others: and the commiſſioners may, out of the monies ariſing by this act, pay ſalaries, gratuities, and allowances, to officers and others executing this act. ſ. 7.

If any clerk, ſurveyor, or other officer or ſervant, employed by the commiſſioners, ſhall take any fee (other than ſuch ſalaries, &c.) for any thing done, or for forbearing to do any thing, relative to the execution or non-execution of this act, or ſhall any way be concerned in intereſt, in any bargain made by the commiſſioners, for any of the purpoſes intended by this act, every perſon ſo offending ſhall for ever be incapable of being employed; and forfeit fifty pounds to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame, in any of the courts of record at Weſtminſter, or within the city, by action of debt, &c. within ſix months. ſ. 8.

All proceedings of the commiſſioners ſhall be entered in books, and ſhall be ſigned by their clerk; and ſuch entries ſhall be deemed originals; and ſuch books may be produced in evidence. ſ. 9.

The commiſſioners may employ perſons, whether free of the city or not, in the works to be performed by virtue of this act, and may contract for the performance of ſuch works, with any perſons whatſoever: and no perſon ſo employed or contracted with, nor any perſons under them, ſhall be liable to any action, &c. upon 5 Eliz. (ſee general title "Labourers") or for any breach of the cuſtom of London, &c. ſ. 10.

Previous to the making of any ſuch contract, notice ſhall be given in ſome of the daily papers, that the commiſſioners intend to make ſuch contract, and that all perſons willing to engage therein may make propoſals to the commiſſioners, at a certain time and place in ſuch notice ſpecified; and all contracts ſhall ſpecify the works to be done, and the prices, and the times when they are to be completed, together with the penalties for non-performance; and the ſame ſhall be ſigned by the clerk, and alſo by the perſon contracting, and ſhall be entered in a book. ſ. 11.

No member of the common council ſhall be, directly or indirectly, intereſted or concerned in any contract, concerning the works or any materials to be uſed therein, upon pain that ſuch contract ſhall be void; and the member of the ſaid court, intereſted therein, ſhall forfeit one hundred pounds to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame, in any of the courts of record at Weſtminſter, or in the ſaid city, by action of debt, &c. within ſix months; and every perſon againſt whom the ſaid penalty ſhall be recovered, ſhall for ever be diſabled from being elected a member of the ſaid common council. ſ. 12.

The commiſſioners may cauſe new ſewers, drains, and vaults, to be dug and made, in, along, or acroſs any of the ſtreets, lanes, ſquares, yards, courts, alleys, paſſages, and places, within the ſaid city and liberties, and alſo any of the ſewers, and public drains, and vaults, which now are, or hereafter ſhall be, within the ſaid city and liberties, to be enlarged, widened, deepened, raiſed, altered, removed, repaired, cleanſed, or ſcoured; and alſo may cauſe the ſaid ſtreets, lanes, ſquares, yards, courts, alleys, paſſages, and places, to be new-paved or repaired; and for the ſaid purpoſes may cauſe to be dug, carted, and carried out of, or brought into the ſaid ſtreets or places, gravel, ſtones, bricks, and other materials, and may cauſe the ground to be raiſed or lowered, the courſe of the channel to be altered, and the water pipes which now lie, or hereafter ſhall be laid under ground, to be taken up and new laid; and may cauſe poſts, bars, and chains to be removed; and likewiſe all ſteps, bulks, ſhew-glaſſes, ſhew-boards, balconies, windows, window frames, and ſtall boards, encroaching upon or extending over the foot-ways, and alſo all ſteps and doors opening or leading from the foot-ways into vaults or cellars, to be taken away, or altered. ſ. 13.

No new ſewer, drain, or vault, ſhall be made, nor ſhall any common ſewer, public drain, or vault already made, be enlarged, widened, deepened, raiſed, or altered, ſo as to communicate with, or any ways injure or affect any ſewer, &c. now belonging to the cathedral church of Saint Paul, ſituate in the church-yard, as well without as within the rails thereof, without the conſent of the truſtees for the fabric, and of the dean and chapter, firſt had in writing. ſ. 14.

The commiſſioners may cauſe all ſigns, ſign-poſts, ſign-irons, balconies, penthouſes, ſhew-boards, ſpouts, and gutters, projecting into any of the ſtreets, lanes, ſquares, yards, courts, alleys, paſſages, or places, and all other incroachments, projections, and annoyances whatſoever, within the ſaid city or liberties, to be taken down and removed, and ſhall cauſe all ſigns, &c. as they think fit, to be affixed on the fronts of the houſes, ſhops, warehouſes, or buildings; and for the future, all ſigns, ſign-boards, and gutters, ſhall be placed or fixed on the fronts of the houſes, and not otherwiſe; and if any perſon ſhall, at any time hereafter, hang, place, erect, or build any ſign, ſign-poſt, or other poſt, ſign-iron, balcony, pent-houſe, ſhew-board, ſpout, gutter, or other projection, obſtruction, or annoyance, contrary to the direction aforeſaid, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit five pounds, and the further ſum of 20*s.* for every day ſuch offence ſhall continue. ſ. 15.

Any perſon may keep or affix any crane to warehouſes, and make uſe of ſuch cranes, ſo as they be turned and kept cloſe to the walls when not in actual uſe. ſ. 16.

If any common ſtage waggon, or other waggon, or any cart, dray, or other carriage, ſhall, for loading or unloading, be ſuffered to ſtand in any of the ſtreets, lanes, ſquares, yards, courts, alleys, paſſages, or places, above one hour at one time; or if any cart, waggon, dray, or other carriage, ſhall be placed and ſuffered to ſtand acroſs any ſtreet or place, for loading or unloading, or any other purpoſe; or if any ſuch cart, waggon, dray, or other carriage, ſhall be ſuffered to ſtand in any part of any ſuch ſtreets or places, longer than is neceſſary for loading or unloading; or if any goods, materials, or things whatſoever, ſhall be laid and left in any ſuch ſtreet or place, ſo as to obſtruct the free paſſage thereof; then, in every ſuch caſe, any one of the commiſſioners, or one of their officers, to be by them appointed to remove nuiſances, ſhall ſeize, or cauſe to be ſeized, the carriage ſo placed or ſuffered to ſtand, together with the horſes, or the goods ſo laid, and remove the ſame to the common pound of the city, called The Green Yard, there to be kept until the owner or his ſervants ſhall claim the ſame, and pay to the perſon in whoſe cuſtody the ſame ſhall then be, 20*s.* together with the charges of removing and keeping; and in caſe the ſame ſhall not be claimed, and the ſaid 20*s.* and charges paid, within three days after ſeizure, the commiſſioners may cauſe the ſame or part to be appraiſed and ſold, for payment of the penalty and charges, returning to ſuch owner the goods not ſold, together with the overplus of the ſale. ſ. 17.

If any perſon ſhall erect any poſts, bars, rails, boards, or other things, by way of incloſure, for making mortar, or depoſiting bricks, lime, or other materials, for building or repairing any building or other works, within the city or liberties, in any other manner, or ſhall ſuffer the ſame to remain any longer time than neceſſary, or ſhall lay any rubbiſh within ſuch incloſure, or in any public ſtreet, paſſage, or place, and complaint thereof ſhall be made to the commiſſioners by two houſeholders, and the commiſſioners ſhall, upon view, or other proof of the complaint, find the ſame to be true; then ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 20*s.*; and the commiſſioners may cauſe ſuch incloſure to be pulled down and removed, and the materials thereof, as alſo all bricks, mortar, lime, or other valuable things contained within the ſame, or thereto belonging, to be depoſited in the Green Yard, there to be kept until the owner or his ſervants ſhall pay to the perſon in whoſe cuſtody the ſame ſhall be, the charges of pulling down and removing; and in caſe the ſame ſhall not be claimed, and the charges paid within eight days after ſeizure, the commiſſioners may order the ſame to be appraiſed and ſold, and the money ariſing therefrom ſhall be applied to the purpoſes of this act; and the commiſſioners are to remove ſuch rubbiſh to ſuch place as they think convenient, and every perſon laying ſuch rubbiſh, or cauſing the ſame to be laid, within, or on the outſide, or near to ſuch incloſure, or in any public ſtreet, paſſage, or place within the ſaid city or liberties, ſhall forfeit 20*s.* together with the expence of removing. ſ. 18.

No perſon ſhall ſlake lime in the foot or carriage-way of any of the ſaid ſtreets or places, or in any houſe within the ſame, upon pain to forfeit 40*s.* ſ. 19.

Nothing herein ſhall reſtrain any bricklayer or plaſterer from ſlaking lime within the yards or cellars of houſes, building or repairing, or within the yards or cellars belonging to the dwelling-houſe of any ſuch bricklayer or plaſterer, ſo that the ſteam of ſuch lime be conveyed into and through the chimney of ſuch houſe; and no lime be ſlaked in any cellar or yard after ſeven in the morning, from Lady-day to Michaelmas, nor after eight in the morning from Michaelmas to Lady-day; and if any lime ſhall be ſlaked contrary to this act, every perſon offending ſhall forfeit 40*s.* ſ. 20.

If any perſon ſhall carry, run, drive, roll, or draw, or cauſe to be carried, &c. any bier, or any wheel, empty caſk, ſledge, wheelbarrow, or other carriage whatſoever, or ſhall ride, lead, or drive any horſe, aſs, mule, or other cattle, coach, or other carriage whatſoever, along any part of the foot-pavements; then any perſon who ſhall ſee any ſuch offence committed, may ſeize and aſſiſt in ſeizing ſuch offender, and convey or deliver him into the cuſtody of a peace officer, in order to be conveyed before ſome juſtice; and the party accuſed being brought before him, ſuch juſtice ſhall examine upon oath any witneſſes touching ſuch offence, and if the party accuſed ſhall be convicted, either by his own confeſſion, or upon ſuch information, he ſhall forfeit 10*s.* for the firſt time of offending; 20*s.* for the ſecond; and 40*s.* for the third, and every other time of offending. ſ. 21.

The commiſſioners may cauſe to be painted, engraved, or deſcribed in ſtone, or otherwiſe, and to be affixed in a conſpicuous part of one or more houſes or buildings, at or near each end, corner, or entrance, of each of the ſaid ſtreets, &c. the name by which each ſtreet, &c. is called or known; and may alſo cauſe every houſe, ſhop, or warehouſe in the ſaid ſtreets, &c. to be numbered; and if any perſon ſhall deſtroy, pull down, obliterate, or deface any ſuch names or numbers, or any part thereof, or cauſe the ſame to be done, he ſhall forfeit 40*s.* ſ. 22.

No perſon ſhall, without authority from the commiſſioners, alter, or cauſe to be altered, the form of the pavement of any of the ſtreets, &c. or in any way incroach thereupon, upon pain to forfeit five pounds, over the expence of reinſtating the ſame, according to the directions of the commiſſioners; the ſaid forfeitures and expences to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any of the courts of record at Weſtminſter, in the name of the mayor and commonalty, and citizens, within ſix months. ſ. 23.

If any two houſekeepers within the city and liberties ſhall make complaint, in writing, under their hands, to the commiſſioners, of any defect of repair in any of the pavements of any of the ſaid ſtreets, &c. then the commiſſioners ſhall cauſe the pavement complained of to be inſpected by their ſurveyor; and if found defective, and ſo reported to be to the commiſſioners, unleſs ſuch defect ſhall appear to ariſe from a defect in the water-pipes under ſuch pavement, they the commiſſioners ſhall give orders to their contractor or pavior, to repair the ſame; and if the contractor or pavior ſhall not, within four days, repair the ſaid defective pavement, then he ſhall forfeit 20*s.* for every day that the ſaid pavement ſhall remain unrepaired, after the expiration of the four days. ſ. 24.

When any pipe belonging to any of the water companies, which lie under ground, in any of the ſaid ſtreets, &c. ſhall break, burſt, or decay, ſo as to require reparation, the ſurveyor of the commiſſioners, or ſuch perſon as the commiſſioners ſhall appoint, ſhall give notice thereof in writing, to the pavior of the water company to whom he apprehends the ſaid pipes belong, who is to take up the pavement, and open the ground where ſuch reparation ſhall appear to be wanting; and if the ſaid pavior ſhall, upon taking up ſuch pavement, and opening ſuch ground, diſcover that the pipes do not belong to the water company whoſe pavior he is; then he ſhall give notice thereof in writing, to the pavior of the company to whom the ſaid pipes belong, in which caſe, ſuch laſt mentioned pavior is, upon demand, to make ſatisfaction for the taking up ſuch pavement, and opening ſuch ground, to the pavior giving notice as aforeſaid; and the pavior of ſuch water company, to whom the ſaid pipes belong, is to cauſe the ſaid pipes to be repaired, and afterwards to fill up the ground, and ram down the ſame, within two days after ſuch notice; and as ſoon as ſuch pipe ſhall have been repaired, and the ground filled up and rammed down, he ſhall give notice thereof, in writing, to the pavior or contractor of the commiſſioners: and if the pavior of any of the water companies to or for whom ſuch notice ſhall be given or left, ſhall for two days after ſuch notice refuſe or neglect to take up ſuch pavement, and open ſuch ground; or if, upon diſcovering that the pipes do not belong to the company whoſe pavior he is, he ſhall not give immediate notice thereof in writing to the pavior of the company to whom they belong, or if the pavior of the water company to whom the ſaid pipes ſhall belong, ſhall for two days after ſuch notice, refuſe or neglect to cauſe ſuch pipes to be amended, or afterwards to fill up the ground, or to give notice of his having ſo done, to the pavior or contractor of the commiſſioners, then the perſon ſo refuſing or neglecting, ſhall forfeit five pounds; and if any pipes not belonging to any of the water companies, ſhall break, burſt, or decay, then the owners thereof ſhall cauſe the ground over the ſame to be opened, and ſuch pipes to be repaired, and notice thereof in writing to be given to the clerk of the commiſſioners, or, in caſe of refuſal or neglect ſo to do, ſhall forfeit five pounds; and if any pavement ſhall be broken or taken up, for making, repairing, or altering any vault or drain, or any other purpoſe, then the perſon taking up the pavement, ſhall, as ſoon as the work will permit, cauſe the ground to be filled up, and notice thereof in writing to be given to the clerk of the commiſſioners, or forfeit forty ſhillings; and the clerk ſhall, upon ſuch notice, tranſmit ſuch notice to the pavior or contractor of the commiſſioners; and if the ſaid clerk ſhall not in two days after ſuch notice, tranſmit ſuch notice to the ſaid pavior, or if ſuch pavior, to whom ſuch notice ſhall be ſo tranſmitted, ſhall, two days after ſuch notice, refuſe or neglect to relay and repair the pavement broken up; then the perſon ſo refuſing or neglecting ſhall forfeit 20 s. for every day ſuch pavement ſhall continue unrepaired, after the expiration of two days. ſ. 25.

If there ſhall be no fixed pavior of any of the water companies, ſuch notice ſhall be delivered to, or left at the office of the clerk of ſuch company, who ſhall, in ſuch caſe, be ſubſtituted in the room of ſuch pavior. ſ. 26.

The paviors employed by the water companies within the city or liberties ſhall, within three days after they ſhall be appointed, give notice in writing to the clerk of the commiſſioners, of their names and places of abode, and of the company whoſe paviors they are, and of the diſtrict to which they are appointed; and, in like manner, the clerk of the commiſſioners ſhall, within the time aforeſaid, give notice to the paviors of the water companies, of the paviors or contractors of the commiſſioners; and if the paviors, or clerk of the commiſſioners ſhall not give ſuch notice within the time aforeſaid, each of them ſhall forfeit 20 s. ſ. 27.

The expences of relaying the pavement taken up, for repairing pipes, ſhall be paid to the commiſſioners, by the water companies, or the owners thereof, and the expences of relaying the pavement taken up for repairing, cleanſing, or emptying any ſewer, public drain, or vault, or of making any new, or repairing old grates belonging to ſuch ſewer, &c. ſhall be paid out of the rates raiſed under this act, for repairing and cleanſing the ſaid ſewers: and if the clerk or treaſurer to any of the water companies, or the owner of ſuch pipes, liable to pay ſuch charges, ſhall not pay the ſame within ten days after demand in writing, ſigned by the clerk of the commiſſioners, and left at their dwelling houſes, or laſt places of abode, together with a bill to be annexed to ſuch demand, containing an account of ſuch charges; then the money expended may be recovered by the commiſſioners, by action of debt, &c. in any courts of record at Weſtminſter, in the name of the mayor, and commonalty, and citizens, within three months next after ſuch demand. ſ. 28.

If it ſhall be neceſſary for the purpoſes of making, enlarging, widening, deepening, raiſing, altering, repairing, or removing any ſewer or drain, or of new paving, or altering the pavement of any of the ſaid ſtreets, &c. to raiſe, ſink, or alter the poſition of any of the pipes or plugs, the charges attending the ſame ſhall be paid out of the monies ariſing by this act, for the purpoſes of paving, &c. ſ. 29.

The water companies ſhall within ſeven days after the appointment of any turnock, give notice in writing to the commiſſioners, of the names and places of abode of their turncocks, diſtinguiſhing the diſtricts to which they belong, upon pain to forfeit 40 s.; and the commiſſioners ſhall yearly cauſe to be printed and diſtributed through every ward within the city and liberties, to and amongſt the ſeveral houſeholders within the ſame, a liſt of the names and places of abode of the turncocks. ſ. 30.

The commiſſioners may cauſe the ſtreets to be watered, and any well to be ſunk in ſuch places as they think proper; and alſo any pump to be erected in or near ſuch places, and alſo any pumps now ſtanding, to be removed or altered, and to defray the expences out of the monies raiſed by this act, for paving, &c. ſ. 31.

The commiſſioners may cauſe moveable or fixed duſt boxes, duſt holes, or conveniencies, wherein duſt and aſhes may be depoſited for the ſcavengers or rakers, to be erected and placed in ſuch of the ſtreets, &c. as they judge neceſſary; and the occupiers of houſes or tenements are every day to cauſe all their duſt and aſhes to be depoſited in the ſaid boxes where any ſuch ſhall be; or, in default thereof, to keep all ſuch duſt and aſhes in their houſes, until the ſame ſhall be carried away by the rakers: and in caſe ſuch perſons ſhall depoſit any aſhes or duſt in any part of the ſaid ſtreets, &c. except in ſome of the duſt holes, &c. where ſuch ſhall be, or if any perſon ſhall depoſit in the ſaid duſt holes, &c. any dirt, dung, or filth, other than duſt or aſhes, or ſhall lay any dirt, dung, &c. in any of the ſaid ſtreets, &c. every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 10 s. ſ. 32.

Every occupier of any houſe or tenement, and (in houſes let to inmates) every houſe owner ſhall, every day, before ten in the forenoon, ſcrape, ſweep, and cleanſe the foot-way all along the front of their reſpective houſes or tenements, or forfeit 5 s. ſ. 33.

The commiſſioners may cauſe ſo many lamps to be ſet up in ſuch places within the city and liberties, and to be placed in ſuch manner, and at ſuch diſtances, as they ſhall judge neceſſary; and the commiſſioners ſhall order at what time the ſame ſhall be lighted, and how long they ſhall continue lighted; and ſhall give ſuch other orders as they think needful. ſ. 34.

If any perſon ſhall wilfully take away, break, or throw down, or damage any lamp, or wilfully extinguiſh the lights within the ſame, or damage the irons or other furniture thereof, any perſon who ſhall ſee ſuch offence committed may ſeize or aſſiſt in ſeizing the offender, and deliver ſiver him to a peace officer, in order to be conveyed before ſome juſtice of the city; and ſuch juſtice ſhall examine upon oath any witneſſes touching ſuch offence; and if the party accuſed ſhall be convicted, either by his own confeſſion, or ſuch oath, he ſhall forfeit twenty ſhillings for each lamp broken, thrown down, or damaged, or for every light extinguiſhed; and moreover, ſhall make full ſatisfaction to the commiſſioners for the damage by him done: and in caſe ſuch offender ſhall not on conviction pay ſuch forfeiture, and make ſuch ſatisfaction, ſuch juſtice is to commit him to Bridewell, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month, unleſs ſuch forfeiture and ſatisfaction ſhall be ſooner paid. ſ. 35.

In caſe any perſon ſhall careleſsly or accidentally break, throw down, or damage, any of the ſaid lamps, or the irons or furniture, and ſhall not immediately, upon demand, make ſatisfaction for the damage, then one juſtice may, upon complaint to him made, by one perſon upon oath, ſummon before him the party complained of; and, upon hearing the allegations and proofs, or upon the non-appearance of the party, award ſuch ſatisfaction for ſuch damage as ſuch juſtice ſhall think reaſonable; and in caſe of refuſal or neglect of the ſaid party to pay the money awarded within three days after demand, he may cauſe the ſame to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of his goods. ſ. 36.

All lamps put up by any perſon at his own private expence, ſhall be placed in ſuch manner as the commiſſioners direct. ſ. 37.

The property of the ſewers, and public drains and vaults, and of the pavements, and all materials, ſhall be veſted in the mayor and commonalty, and citizens; and the commiſſioners are to bring actions, in the name of the ſaid mayor and commonalty, and citizens, or prefer indictments againſt perſons who ſhall ſteal any part of ſuch materials; and if any perſon ſhall wilfully deſtroy, damage or ſpoil, any of the materials or any of the works, ſuch perſon being thereof convicted, by the oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice, ſhall forfeit twenty ſhillings for the firſt time of offending, forty ſhillings for the ſecond, and five pounds for every other time, together with all coſts, in reſpect of ſuch damage, as the commiſſioners ſhall be put unto, ſuch coſts to be recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter, by action of debt, in the name of the principal clerk to the commiſſioners. ſ. 38.

No perſon ſhall, without licence of the commiſſioners, make any drain into any of the public ſewers, drains, or vaults, upon pain to forfeit twenty pounds; to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, in the name of the principal clerk. ſ. 39.

All private drains which ſhall iſſue into any of the public ſewers, ſhall be repaired and cleanſed under the direction of the ſurveyor of the commiſſioners at the coſts of the owner. ſ. 40.

For defraying the expence of paving, cleanſing, and lighting the ſaid ſtreets, lanes, ſquares, yards, courts, alleys, paſſages, and places, and preventing annoyances therein, and of making, enlarging, widening, deepening, altering and removing, all or any the common ſewers, public drains, and vaults, within the ſaid city and liberties, one or more rates ſhall at ſuch times as the commiſſioners, or ſeven of them, ſhall think fit to order, by writing under their hands and ſeals, be made in the ſeveral wards of the city, by the aldermen or their deputies, and the major part of the common council men of each ward, upon all perſons who ſhall occupy any land, &c. and who ſhall be liable to be rated towards the relief of the poor, for raiſing ſuch money as the commiſſioners ſhall direct, ſo as ſuch rates do not in one year exceed one ſhilling and ſixpence in the pound of the yearly rents of the land or houſe ſituate in ſtreets, &c. actually begun to be new paved, and one ſhilling in the pound of the yearly rents of ſuch of the lands, houſes, as ſhall not be ſo ſituate; ſuch rates to be aſcertained by the land tax. ſ. 41.

The major part of the common council of each ward may compound with the owners of houſes, the annual rent whereof ſhall be under ten pounds, for the rate to be laid upon ſuch houſe, ſo as there be not remitted more than one half of the rate. ſ. 42.

The farmers or leſſees of markets ſhall, upon demand of the commiſſioners, or their principal clerk, pay into the chamber of London all ſuch money as the commiſſioners ſhall actually expend in paving, cleanſing, and lighting the ſaid markets; which ſaid money ſhall, in caſe of refuſal or neglect to pay the ſame, be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or within the city, in the name of the principal clerk. ſ. 43.

But the commiſſioners may compound with the farmers or leſſees for a certain ſum, in lieu of the ſums to be aſſeſſed, the account of which compoſition ſhall be entered in books. ſ. 44.

If any of the lands, houſes, &c. ſhall, at the time of making the rates, be empty, then the alderman or his deputy, with the major part of the common council men of the ward, may rate the ſaid premiſes; and in ſuch caſe, as well as in caſe the premiſes ſhall, after the making ſuch rate, become empty, one half of ſuch rate ſhall be charged on ſuch premiſes, and be paid by the firſt tenant who may deduct the ſame out of his rent, and the landlord is to allow ſuch deduction upon receipt of his rent, and the tenant ſhall be diſcharged for ſo much of his rent as the rate ſhall amount unto. ſ. 45.

It ſhall be lawful to rate the owner of all houſes let for leſs than ten pounds per annum, or occupied by two or more tenants, which rate ſhall be paid by the occupier, who is to pay ſuch money as ſhall be ſo rated upon the owner, and to deduct the ſame out of his rent, and the landlord is to allow ſuch deductions, and ſuch occupier paying ſuch aſſeſſment ſhall be diſcharged for ſo much of his rent; and in default of payment of the ſaid rate, the ſame ſhall remain a charge upon the premiſes, and may be recovered from the landlord by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or within the city, in the name of the principal clerk. ſ. 46.

As ſeveral manufactures, trades, occupations, and callings, require great room, and it may be a great hardſhip upon perſons to be rated to the full extent of their rents; and it may be reaſonable to excuſe ſome perſons from payment on account of poverty; in any of the ſaid caſes, any perſon may apply to the commiſſioners by petition, in writing, ſetting forth the circumſtances of his caſe, giving notice to the alderman or his deputy; and ſuch petition ſhall be taken into conſideration by the commiſſioners, at their next public meeting, of which the alderman or his deputy ſhall have notice: and upon hearing the petitioners, the commiſſioners are to award ſuch relief as they think juſt. ſ. 47.

If the alderman, or his deputy, or the major part of the common council men, think ſuch award unjuſt, or if the party concerned ſhall think himſelf aggrieved, any of them may appeal to the court of mayor and aldermen, who ſhall finally determine whether the petitioners are intitled to relief. ſ. 48.

No perſon ſhall, in reſpect of any wharf, or of any warehouſe, warehouſe, vault, or cellar upon any wharf, not fronting any ſtreet or lane, be rated, or be liable to pay more than two-thirds of the rates; but the alderman of the ward, or his deputy, and the common council men, or the major part of them, ſhall purſue ſuch determination as they ſhall receive from the commiſſioners, and which they are hereby to ſignify by their principal clerk in writing, as to what part of the ground ought to be deemed a wharf, and ſhall rate the ſame accordingly. ſ. 49.

The aldermen, or their deputies, and alſo the commiſſioners, may cauſe any of the books of the aſſeſſment of the land tax, and alſo any of the books of the aſſeſſments of the poor rates, to be brought before them, and to take copies without fee; and if any perſon, in whoſe cuſtody the ſaid books ſhall be, ſhall refuſe or neglect to attend with ſuch books, or to permit them to take copies; then ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings. ſ. 50.

It ſhall be lawful to rate all pariſh churches, church-yards, chapels, meeting-houſes, and other public buildings whatſoever, not charged to the land tax, and all void ſpaces of ground, except the cathedral church of Saint Paul in London, and the church-yards and ground within the iron rails encompaſſing the ſaid church, at ſuch rate as the commiſſioners, or any of them, by writing under their hands and ſeals, ſhall direct, for every ſquare yard of ſuch churches, &c. not exceeding four pence per ſquare yard; and alſo to rate all dead walls for every yard running meaſure, not exceeding ſixpence per yard; ſuch rates upon any pariſh church, church-yard, or chapel, to be paid by their church or chapel wardens; and the rates upon any meeting-houſe to be paid by the miniſter: and if ſuch perſon ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay the ſame upon demand, then ſuch rate ſhall be recovered from the perſon ſo required to pay the ſame, by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or within the city, proſecuted in the name of the principal clerk to the commiſſioners; and in default of payment of ſuch rate by the miniſter of ſuch meeting-houſe, the ſame ſhall be a charge upon ſuch meeting-houſe, and may be recovered by ſuch action againſt the landlord or owner thereof; and ſuch rate ſo made upon any public building (not an hoſpital), or upon any dead wall or void ſpace of ground, ſhall be paid by the owner; and in caſe he ſhall not be known or found, then the ſaid rate ſhall be advanced by the chamberlain of London out of the city caſh, and the ſaid ground ſhall be a ſecurity for repayment. ſ. 51.

The tenants of all lands, houſes, &c. belonging to hoſpitals, ſhall be aſſeſſed, and pay the rates. ſ. 52.

The pavement lying between the fence of the church-yard belonging to Saint Paul, and the channels of the ſtreets ſurrounding the ſaid church, containing two thouſand two hundred and forty ſquare yards, the alderman of the ward of Caſtlebaynard, or his deputy, with the major part of the common council of the ſaid ward, are to rate the cathedral church of Saint Paul, not exceeding one ſhilling and three pence by the year for every ſquare yard of the pavement now kept in repair; and ſuch rates ſhall be paid by the lord archbiſhop of Canterbury, lord biſhop of London, and lord mayor for the time being, or their treaſurer, out of the ſurplus monies of the duties on coals veſted in them. ſ. 53.

It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners to agree with the lord archbiſhop of Canterbury, biſhop of London for the time being, and lord mayor, truſtees for the fabric of the ſaid cathedral church, or any two of them, and with the dean and chapter for the time being (who are empowered to contract with the commiſſioners), for opening and laying into the public ſtreet all or any part of the ground, area, or ſpace, lying weſtward of the great ſteps leading up to the ſaid church (except that part encompaſſed with an iron rail, whereon the ſtatue of queen Anne is erected), and the commiſſioners are, out of the monies ariſing from the rates, to make ſuch compenſation for the ſame to the ſaid truſtees as ſhall be agreed for; and thereupon to cauſe the ſaid ground to be opened and laid into the public ſtreet. ſ. 54.

The alderman of Farringdon Ward Without, or his deputy, with the major part of the common council men of the ward, are to rate the inns of court and chancery herein-after named, in the ſeveral ſums herein-after mentioned, as a compoſition for the repairs of the pavements, viz. The Inner Temple, 2*l.* 2*s.* per annum; the Middle Temple, 6*l.* 6*s.* per annum; Serjeants Inn in Chancery Lane, 10*l.* per annum; Staples Inn, 14*l.* per annum; Furnival's Inn, 20*l.* per annum; Bernard's Inn, 6*l.* per annum; Clifford's Inn, 2*l.* 2*s.* per annum; which rates ſhall be paid by the treaſurer, principal, or other proper officer of the ſaid inns; and in default of payment may be ſued for, as the rates upon pariſh churches, &c. ſ. 55.

It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners to view any ſtreet, lane, ſquare, yard, court, alley, paſſage, or place, now or hereafter built, or building upon; and if they ſhall be of opinion that the ſame, or any part is fit to be paved, they ſhall order their ſurveyor, or other perſon appointed for that purpoſe, to give notice to the owner or leſſee of any land, houſe, &c. in any ſuch ſtreet, &c. or if no owner or leſſee can be found, then ſuch notice ſhall be ſtuck againſt the premiſes, which notice ſhall require ſuch owner, &c. to meet ſuch commiſſioners at a time not leſs than fourteen days from the date of ſuch notice, to compound for the paving, not exceeding three ſhillings for every ſquare yard of pavement, whether carriage or foot way, which compoſition the commiſſioners are authoriſed to make; and if ſuch owner or leſſee ſhall not attend, or ſhall not compound, the commiſſioners may order the ſame to be paved, and all charges ſhall be paid by the owner or leſſee, and may be recovered by action of debt in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or within the city, in the name of the clerk to the commiſſioners. ſ. 56.

Nothing in this act ſhall make void any contract between landlord and tenant; and in caſe any diſpute ſhall ariſe concerning ſuch contract, the court of mayor and aldermen ſhall finally determine the ſame. ſ. 57.

The commiſſioners may compound with any perſon, againſt whom they ſhall bring any action for any penalty contained in any contract, on account of any breach thereof, ſo as the ſum compounded for be not leſs than the injury ſuſtained, and all coſts, and ſo as ſuch compoſition doth not extend to remit more than one half of the penalty. ſ. 58.

If any perſon againſt whom complaint ſhall be made to one alderman for offence againſt this act, ſhall not, after three days notice ſerved upon him, attend ſuch alderman, he ſhall upon the oath of one witneſs forfeit twenty ſhillings. ſ. 59.

If any perſon liable to pay any rate ſhall become bankrupt, the aſſignees ſhall out of the effects, after paying the petitioning creditor his coſts, pay unto the chamberlain all rates due at the time of ſuing out the commiſſion, or as much as the effects will pay; and in caſe of non-payment for one month after demanded, the commiſſioners may commence actions in the name of the principal clerk, &c. againſt ſuch aſſignees. ſ. 60.

"Duplicates of rates are to be made." ſ. 61.

"Collectors

" Collectors are to be appointed, who are to take an " oath, that they will, according to the beſt of their ſkill " and knowledge, well and truly perform and execute the " office, and, on refuſal to take the oath, or ſerve, they " are to forfeit 50 l." ſ. 62.

" In caſe of refuſal or neglect to take the office or va- " cancy, the alderman, &c. of the ward, &c. may ap- " point others, who are to take the oath and ſerve, on " like penalty of 50 l." ſ. 63.

" Perſons not to ſerve who are by law exempted." ſ. 64.

" On refuſal or neglect of aldermen to do any act, com- " miſſioners empowered to execute the ſame." ſ. 65.

" If no collector appointed, commiſſioners to appoint." ſ. 66.

If any perſon ſhall come with any night cart, or begin to empty any bog-houſe, or to take away any night-ſoil within any of the ſtreets, &c. before eleven in the night, or ſhall continue to take away ſuch ſoil after five in the morning; or if any perſon ſhall put any ſuch ſoil, or wilfully or negligently permit the ſame to run out of any cart, tub, or pail, or otherwiſe into any of the ſaid ſtreets, &c. then it ſhall be lawful for any conſtable, beadle, or watchman (and they are enjoined ſo to do), and for any other perſon, to apprehend the perſon offending, and to carry him to one of the compters, and thereafter, as ſoon as may be, convey him before one of the aldermen, who, upon oath made of ſuch offence, ſhall commit ſuch offender to Bridewell, for not exceeding one month, nor leſs than ten days, there to be kept to hard labour; and the commiſſioners are to order not exceeding twenty nor leſs than five ſhillings, to be paid out of the rates to the perſon by whom the ſaid offender ſhall be detected, and conveyed to the compter. ſ. 67.

If any ſugar-baker, ſugar-refiner, ſoap-boiler, or ſoap-maker, or any other perſon, ſhall depoſit any lime or clay uſed in his trade, in any of the ſtreets, &c. and ſuffer the ſame to remain for any longer time than is neceſſary for carting away the ſame; or ſhall depoſit, or throw any ſuch lime or clay into any of the channels within the ſaid city or liberties; then ſuch perſon ſhall, for the firſt offence, forfeit twenty ſhillings; for the ſecond, forty ſhillings; and for the third, and every other offence, five pounds. ſ. 68.

For defraying the expence of repairing and cleanſing the public ſewers, drains and vaults, within the city and liberties, the commiſſioners, or ſeven of them, by writing under their hands and ſeals, may aſſeſs all perſons who ſhall inhabit any land, houſe, ſhop, warehouſe, cellar, vault, or other tenements or hereditaments, for raiſing ſuch money as the commiſſioners ſhall think needful, ſo as ſuch rates do not in one year exceed four pence in the pound of the real yearly rack rents of the ſaid lands, &c. and the tenants are to pay ſuch ſums as ſhall be rated upon them to ſuch perſon as the commiſſioners ſhall appoint, and to deduct the ſame out of their rent; and the landlord, mediate and immediate, are to allow ſuch payments upon receipt of the reſidue of their rents. ſ. 69.

" Commiſſioners are to appoint collectors." ſ. 70.

When the commiſſioners of ſewers have exerciſed the power of repairing ſewers, &c. and of aſſeſſing inhabitants, &c. they are authoriſed to order the repairing and cleanſing all ſuch ſewers as often as neceſſary, and alſo to make rates for defraying the expences thereof on the tenants, to be in like manner allowed to them by their landlords. ſ. 71.

If any ſugar-baker, or ſugar-refiner, ſoap-boiler, or ſoap-maker, or any other perſon, ſhall throw any lime or clay uſed in their trade, into any of the public ſewers, drains, or vaults, under the management of the commiſſioners, ſuch perſon ſhall, for the firſt offence, forfeit forty ſhillings; for the ſecond, five pounds; and for the third, and every other offence, ten pounds; and ſhall alſo pay all expences, which the commiſſioners ſhall be put unto for opening, cleanſing, cloſing up, and paving over the ſewer, &c. to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or within the city, in the name of the clerk to the commiſſioners. ſ. 72.

The commiſſioners ſhall keep an account of all money raiſed for cleanſing ſewers, &c. and of the expenditure thereof. ſ. 73.

If any perſon ſhall, for ten days after his aſſeſſment ſhall be due and demanded by the collector (ſuch demand being either perſonally made, or left in writing at the houſe *), then it ſhall be lawful for ſuch collector, having a warrant under the hand and ſeal of the commiſſioners, or three of them (which the collector is to apply for, and the commiſſioners, or three, are to grant), and, with the aſſiſtance of a conſtable, or other peace-officer, where the perſon refuſing or neglecting ſhall reſide, to enter his houſe or apartment, and diſtrain his goods; and if the ſame ſhall not be replevied, or ſuch rate paid, within five days after diſtreſs, together with coſts, then to appraiſe and ſell ſo much of the ſaid goods, as ſhall be ſufficient to pay the rate, with coſts, returning the overplus to the owner; the coſts to be ſettled by the commiſſioners. ſ. 74.

No ſuch diſtreſs ſhall be made out of the limits of the city and liberties, unleſs the warrant ſhall be firſt counterſigned by ſome magiſtrate of the county, &c. where ſuch diſtreſs is to be made, which warrant any magiſtrate who ſhall be applied to for that purpoſe ſhall counterſign without fee. ſ. 75.

The diſtreſs ſhall not be deemed unlawful, nor the parties making the ſame treſpaſſers, on account of any want of form, nor ſhall the parties be deemed treſpaſſers ab initio, on account of any irregularity; but the perſons aggrieved may recover ſatisfaction by any action on the caſe. ſ. 76.

But no plaintiff ſhall recover, if tender of amends ſhall be made, and if not, the defendant, by leave of the court before iſſue joined, may pay into court ſuch money as he ſhall think fit. ſ. 77.

If any collector ſhall refuſe or neglect to apply for ſuch warrant, or to make ſuch diſtreſs and ſale, except where diſpenſed with by the alderman or his deputy, and the major part of the common council men, by writing under their hands, in reſpect of the poverty of the party aſſeſſed, ſuch collector ſhall forfeit five pounds; and if any juſtice upon application to him made to counterſign ſuch warrant ſhall refuſe or neglect ſo to do, ſuch juſtice ſhall forfeit five pounds; and if any conſtable ſhall refuſe or neglect to aid in making ſuch diſtreſs and ſale, he ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings. ſ. 78.

If any freeman of London ſhall have neglected or refuſed to pay the rates, or any part thereof, after demand; or if any ſuch freeman ſhall, in reſpect of poverty or inability, have deſired to be excuſed, and accordingly ſhall have been excuſed from paying any ſuch rate; then every ſuch freeman ſhall be under the incapacity of voting at elections within the city. ſ. 79.

* So in the act at large.

Any

Any perſon aggrieved by any rate may, within thirty days after ſuch rate ſhall have been demanded, appeal to the commiſſioners, and they are to appoint a day for hearing ſuch appeal, and the party appealing ſhall give three days notice of the day appointed, to the alderman of the ward, or to his deputy; and ſuch notice having been given, the commiſſioners ſhall, upon the day appointed, determine ſuch appeal, which ſhall be final, and no fees ſhall be paid on ſuch appeal. ſ. 80.

If the alderman of any ward, or his deputy, with the major part of the common council men, ſhall neglect to rate any perſon liable, or any lands, or the occupiers thereof, within their ward, in proportion to the yearly rent of ſuch lands rated towards the land tax; then, upon complaint thereof made by any inhabitant of the ſaid city to the commiſſioners, they are to appoint a day for hearing ſuch complaint, and the party complaining ſhall give three days notice of the day appointed to the alderman of the ward, or to his deputy; and ſuch notice having been given, the commiſſioners ſhall determine ſuch complaint, and may ſummon witneſſes, and examine them upon oath; and if the commiſſioners ſhall judge the matter true, they ſhall make ſuch alterations in the rate as ſhall be juſt. ſ. 81.

Every collector ſhall pay the monies as he ſhall receive the ſame to the chamberlain; and, upon ſuch payment, the chamberlain, or one of his clerks, ſhall, without fee, give receipts in writing to ſuch collector; and if ſuch collector ſhall keep in his hands twenty pounds above two days (the chamber of London being within that time open to receive the ſame); then ſuch collector ſhall forfeit ten ſhillings for every day he ſhall retain the ſaid ſum beyond the ſaid two days. ſ. 82.

Every collector ſhall, upon three days notice in writing, given to or left for him, at his uſual place of abode, by the alderman of the ward, or his deputy, attend the ſaid alderman, or his deputy; or upon notice in writing given, or left as aforeſaid by the clerk to the commiſſioners, ſhall attend the commiſſioners, and then, if required, deliver to ſuch alderman, or his deputy, or to the commiſſioners, upon oath, or affirmation, a true account in writing, under the hand of ſuch collector, of all money received; and alſo a true liſt of the names of all perſons who ſhall have neglected to pay their rates, with a true account of the ſums which ſuch perſons ſhall be in arrear; and if any collector, after ſuch notices, ſhall not attend or deliver in his accounts, or produce vouchers, or account for any money collected, and pay the ſame as herein directed; then ſuch collector ſhall forfeit ſuch ſum of money as the rates which he ſhall have been authoriſed to collect ſhall amount unto, after deducting the ſum actually paid to the chamberlain; which forfeiture ſhall be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any court of record in the name of the clerk of the commiſſioners, in which action ſuch collector ſhall be held to ſpecial bail. ſ. 83.

If any collector ſhall have in his hands any of the rates collected, and ſhall refuſe to account for and pay the ſame, any juſtice for the city may by warrant cauſe ſuch collector to be brought before him, to determine the complaint in a ſummary way; and if upon the confeſſion of ſuch collector, or the teſtimony of any credible witneſs upon oath, it ſhall appear that any of the monies collected ſhall then be in the hands of ſuch collector, and that he refuſeth to pay the ſame according to this act, the ſaid juſtice is by warrant to cauſe ſuch money to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch collector; and if no goods can be found ſufficient to anſwer the ſaid money and charges of diſtreſs and ſale, then the ſaid juſtice may commit ſuch collector to one of the compters, until he ſhall pay the ſame, or ſuch compoſition as the commiſſioners ſhall agree to accept. ſ. 84.

Every collector ſhall, upon three days notice in writing, given to or left for him at his uſual place of abode, by the clerk of the commiſſioners, attend the commiſſioners, and, if required, anſwer upon oath or affirmation, touching any neglect of duty, or other complaint againſt him; and if ſuch collector ſhall refuſe or neglect to attend on ſuch notice, the commiſſioners, or three of them, are by warrant under their hands and ſeals, to cauſe ſuch collector to be brought before them, and to determine the complaint in a ſummary way; and if ſuch collector ſhall not ſhew good excuſe for his neglecting to attend, he ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and if no goods can be found ſufficient to anſwer the ſame, and the charges of ſuch diſtreſs and ſale, then the commiſſioners, by warrant, ſhall commit ſuch collector to any of the compters for not longer than one month, nor leſs than fourteen days. ſ. 85.

If any collector ſhall die, or become bankrupt, before he ſhall have paid all the money by him received, or ſuch compoſition as aforeſaid; then the executors or adminiſtrators of ſuch collector, or other perſons poſſeſſing his eſtate, ſhall, in the firſt place, out of ſuch eſtate pay unto the chamberlain all money in the hands of ſuch collector at the time of his death; and the aſſignees of his eſtate, in caſe of bankruptcy, ſhall, after paying to the petitioning creditor his coſts, in the next place pay unto the ſaid chamberlain all money in the hands of ſuch collector at the time of the ſuing out of any commiſſion of bankruptcy againſt him, or ſo much thereof as the ſaid eſtate will extend to pay; and in caſe of non-payment for one month after demand, the commiſſioners may commence actions for the ſame in the name of the clerk in any court of record. ſ. 86.

In caſe any collector ſhall become inſolvent, or embezzle any money collected, and the ſame ſhall not be paid by his executors; then ſuch money ſhall be again rated on the inhabitants. ſ. 87.

If any perſon ſhall obſtruct any of the commiſſioners, or any ſurveyor, or other officer, workmen, or perſons in the performance of their duty, ſuch perſon ſhall, for the firſt offence, forfeit five ſhillings; for the ſecond, twenty ſhillings; and for the third, and every other, five pounds. ſ. 88.

" Chamberlain to pay all ſums of money by order of the " commiſſioners, and to make entries. ſ. 89. Com- " miſſioners are empowered to borrow money upon the " credit of the rates. ſ. 90. Money by annuities on " lives may be borrowed. ſ. 91. If annuitants die, any " perſons may purchaſe annuities for their lives. ſ. 92. " Clerk to enter all ſecurities for monies borrowed, or an- " nuities granted. ſ. 93. Annuities ſhall not be liable " to taxes. ſ. 94. Securities may be aſſigned. ſ. 95. " Felony in caſe any perſon ſhall forge, &c. any aſſign- " ment, certificate, &c. of annuitants, or perſonate " them. ſ. 96. Annuities to be paid out of money " ariſing from the rates. ſ. 97."

The powers hereby veſted in the commiſſioners ſhall in all reſpects be executed within ſuch parts of Holborn, the Minories, and Alderſgate Street, as are, or ſuppoſed to be, out of the liberties of the ſaid city, and the courts and alleys leading into the ſame, or communicating therewith; and the inhabitants of the ſeveral places aforeſaid ſhall be rated by the alderman of the ward next adjoining ing to the ſame, or by his deputy, with the major part of his common councilmen; and ſuch rates ſhall be recovered as before directed. ſ. 98.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the liberty of St. Martin le Grand, belonging to the dean and chapter of Weſtminſter. ſ. 99.

The commiſſioners ſhall exerciſe all powers given to commiſſioners of ſewers. ſ. 100.

For increaſing the fund for paving, &c. there ſhall be paid to the receivers appointed as after mentioned, before any cattle or carriage ſhall paſs on a Sunday through any of the turnpikes herein-after mentioned, or through any turnpike to be erected by virtue of this or any other act near the ſame, viz. The turnpikes at Mile End; at Bethnal-green; at Hackney; at Kingſland; at Ball's Pound, or Pond, Iſlington; at Holloway; at the end of Saint John's Street; at the end of Goſwell Street; and the turnpike on the City Road, the following tolls:

For every coach, chariot, berlin, chaiſe, chair, calaſh, or other carriage, drawn by ſix or more horſes or mules, ten pence; by four, eight pence; by three or two, ſixpence.

For every chaiſe, chair, calaſh, or other carriage, drawn by one horſe or mule, three pence.

And for every horſe, mule, or aſs, not drawing, one penny.

Which money ſhall be taken in the name of a ſtreet-toll, excluſive of all other tolls collected upon the ſaid roads; and the monies ariſing therefrom ſhall be veſted in the mayor and commonalty, and citizens, and ſhall be diſpoſed of for the paving, cleanſing, and lighting the ſaid city and liberties, and making common ſewers, &c.; and the commiſſioners are by themſelves, or any perſon by them authoriſed, to levy the toll upon any perſon who ſhall, after demand, neglect to pay the ſame, or deny any paſſage through the ſaid turnpikes until payment thereof; which ſaid toll may be levied by diſtreſs of any horſes or cattle upon which the toll is impoſed, or upon any of the goods of ſuch perſon who ought to pay the ſame; and all ſuch horſes, cattle, or goods, may be detained until ſuch toll, with the charges of diſtreſs, ſhall be paid; and the perſon diſtraining, after four days, may ſell the horſes, cattle, or goods, rendering to the owner the overplus upon demand, after ſatisfaction of the toll and charges. ſ. 101.

The commiſſioners may erect turnpikes at the places afore-mentioned, for the purpoſe of collecting the tolls, and alſo erect a toll-houſe near each turnpike, and, from time to time, remove or alter the ſame; and the property of theſe ſhall be veſted in the mayor and commonalty, and citizens; and they are to bring actions in the name of the corporation, and prefer indictments againſt any perſons who ſhall injure the ſame, or diſturb them in the poſſeſſion thereof, or hold poſſeſſion thereof, after being required by order of the commiſſioners to deliver up the ſame. ſ. 102.

"Tolls may be collected at the turnpikes already "erected. ſ. 103."

No perſon ſhall pay the ſaid ſtreet-toll more than once for paſſing or re-paſſing at any time on the ſame day, with the ſame cattle and carriage; but every perſon, after having paid ſuch toll once as aforeſaid, ſhall, during the remainder of ſuch day, paſs toll-free, with reſpect to the ſaid ſtreet-toll, with the ſame cattle and carriages, through the gate at which ſuch toll was paid, and alſo through all other gates whereat the ſaid tolls are made payable, upon producing a ticket, denoting the payment of ſuch toll; which tickets the collector is to give gratis, on receipt of ſuch tolls. ſ. 104.

"Commiſſioners may leaſe, &c. the tolls. ſ. 105."

The commiſſioners may appoint collectors of the tolls, who are to pay the ſame into the office of the chamberlain of the ſaid city, in like manner as expreſſed concerning the rates; and ſhall alſo upon oath, from time to time, account for all monies received; and if ſuch collector ſhall not make, or ſhall refuſe to verify upon oath, any ſuch account, or to make payment as aforeſaid; then one juſtice upon complaint is to make inquiry concerning ſuch default, as well by confeſſion of the party as by the teſtimony of witneſſes upon oath; and if ſuch collector ſhall be convicted of the offence, ſuch juſtice ſhall commit ſuch offender to the common county gaol, until he ſhall account and pay, or until he ſhall have compounded with the commiſſioners, which compoſition the commiſſioners are empowered to make; and the commiſſioners ſhall out of the tolls make ſuch allowance unto their collectors as they ſhall think fit. ſ. 106.

The commiſſioners of any one of the ſaid turnpikes, or any three of the commiſſioners of each of the ſaid turnpikes, may agree with the commiſſioners conſtituted by this act for taking or farming any of the ſaid tolls. ſ. 107.

"Tolls may be aſſigned for money borrowed. Aſſign-"ments to be entered in a book. All creditors deemed "equal in degree. ſ. 108."

If any perſon ſhall forcibly or wilfully paſs with any horſe, beaſt, or carriage through any turnpike, without paying ſuch toll, or producing a ticket, or ſhall knowingly aſſault, interrupt, or obſtruct any of the collectors in the execution of his office, or ſhall forge or alter, or ſhall deliver to, or receive from any other perſon any ticket with an intent to avoid the payment of the ſaid tolls, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings, beſides ſuch damages as they ſhall be liable to by law; and the collectors, and all perſons required by them to aſſiſt, may ſeize any horſe, cattle or goods, belonging to, or under the care of any perſon offending, and take ſuch offenders before any juſtice, and before him make complaint of ſuch offence; and ſuch juſtice is to inquire into the ſame, as well by examination of the parties, as by the teſtimony of witneſſes upon oath; and if the ſaid juſtice ſhall ſee cauſe to convict the party complained of in the penalty, for non-payment thereof, and of the tolls that ſhall be due (though the ſame ſhall not be demanded), he by warrant under his hand and ſeal, may cauſe the ſaid horſes, cattle or goods, to be ſold for payment of the tolls, and the charges of ſeizing and keeping the ſame, and of ſuch ſale, rendering the overplus to the owner; and if no ſeizure can be made, then the penalty and tolls ſhall be levied by ſuch means, and applied in ſuch manner, as herein-after mentioned. ſ. 109.

The collectors who ſhall be aſſaulted or interrupted in the execution of their offices, and all perſons required by them to aſſiſt, may take ſuch offender before any juſtice, who is to inquire into the ſame in manner above directed; and (if he ſhall ſee cauſe) convict the party complained of in the penalty laſt mentioned; to be levied as hereafter directed. ſ. 110.

All monies raiſed by this act ſhall be veſted in the mayor and commonalty, and citizens, and ſhall be applied to the purpoſes of this act, and no other. ſ. 111.

No nomination, contract, bond, warrant, judgment, or other writing whatſoever relating to the execution of this act, ſhall be chargeable with any duty. ſ. 112.

The number of coaches to ſtand for hire between the end of Freeman's Court in Cornhill and the end of Cornhill eaſtward, ſhall be no more than ten at one time; and from the end of Bucklerſhury to the end of King-ſtreet, Cheapſide, Cheapſide, no more than five, and not to approach or continue nearer the one to the other than twenty feet; and every other coach, ſtanding for hire in any other ſtreet or place within the city and liberties, ſhall ſo ſtand, except where the ſtanding ſhall be againſt any dead wall, at the ſpace of eight feet from each other; and all coaches plying for hire within the ſaid city and liberties, ſhall give way to, and make room for all waggons, drays, carts, and other carriages, to paſs or repaſs along or acroſs any of the ſtreets, upon pain that the owner or driver in either of the caſes, ſhall forfeit twenty ſhillings; to be recovered and levied as any of the penalties incurred by hackney coachmen may be now recovered and levied. ſ. 113.

Within ſeven days after the owner of every hackney coach ſhall be licenſed by the commiſſioners appointed for licenſing hackney coaches, ſuch owner ſhall leave at the office of the commiſſioners under this act, at Guildhall, with the principal or aſſiſtant clerk to the commiſſioners, a true account in writing of his place of abode, with the number of each coach; and ſo from time to time, every licenſed hackney coachman ſhall, within ſeven days after his place of abode ſhall be changed, give the like account at the ſaid office, upon pain to forfeit twenty ſhillings. ſ. 114.

The juſtices may mitigate any of the ſaid penalties, to not leſs than one half thereof. ſ. 115.

Where any perſon ſhall, either upon confeſſion, or by the oath of one witneſs, be convicted before one juſtice, of any offence againſt this act, for which any penalty is enacted, the recovering whereof is not directed, ſuch juſtice is, upon the party's refuſal or neglect to pay down ſuch penalty, immediately to commit him to one of the compters, for not exceeding one month, and not leſs than fourteen days; and all penalties ſhall be paid into the chamber of the ſaid city, and applied to ſome of the purpoſes to which any of the rates are to be applied. ſ. 116.

No proceeding touching the conviction of any offender, or other thing done in the execution of this act, ſhall be quaſhed for want of form. ſ. 117.

No action ſhall be commenced againſt any perſon, for any thing done in purſuance of this act, until twenty-one days notice ſhall be thereof given in writing to the clerk of the commiſſioners, or after ſufficient ſatisfaction or tender thereof hath been made to the party aggrieved, or after ſix months; and ſuch action ſhall be laid, and tried where the cauſe of action ſhall ariſe; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff ſhall become nonſuited, &c. ſuch defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 118.

By 3 Hen. 8. c. 11. No perſon within London, nor within ſeven miles of the ſame, ſhall exerciſe as a phyſician or ſurgeon, except he be examined and approved by the biſhop of London, or by the dean of St. Paul's, calling to them four doctors of phyſic, and for ſurgery other expert perſons in that faculty, of them that have been ſo approved; upon the pain of forfeiture for every month, 5*l.* one half to the king, and the other half to any that will ſue. ſ. 1.

No perſon out of the ſaid city and precinct of ſeven miles, except he have been (as aforeſaid) approved, ſhall exerciſe as a phyſician or ſurgeon in any dioceſe; but if he be examined and approved by the biſhop or his vicar-general, calling to them ſuch expert perſons as their diſcretion ſhall think convenient, and giving their letters, teſtimonials, upon like pain. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to the univerſities. ſ. 3.

By 5 Hen. 8. c. 6. The wardens and fellowſhip of ſurgeons in London, ſhall be diſcharged of conſtableſhip, watch, and all manner of office bearing armour, and alſo of inqueſts and juries in London; and this act ſhall extend to all barbers ſurgeons admitted according to the ſtatute, ſo that they exceed not at one time the number of twelve.

By 14 & 15 Hen. 8. c. 5. The corporation of the commonalty and fellowſhip of the faculty of phyſic, erected by king Henry 8. and every thing contained in the letters patent of incorporation, are confirmed in parliament; and the ſix perſons in the letters patent named, chuſing to them two or more of the commonalty, ſhall be called elects, and the elects ſhall yearly chuſe one of them preſident; and as oft as any of the places of the elects ſhall be void by death or otherwiſe, the ſuperviſors of the elects (within forty days) ſhall chuſe more of the faculty in London, to ſupply the number of eight; ſo that they be firſt by the ſaid ſuperviſors ſtraightly examined after a form deviſed by the elects, and by the ſuperviſors approved. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall be ſuffered to practiſe in phyſic through England, until he be examined at London by the preſident and three of the elects, and have from them letters teſtimonials; except he be a graduate of Oxford or Cambridge, &c. ſ. 3.

By 32 Hen. 8. c. 40. The preſident of the commonalty and fellowſhip of phyſicians, and the commons and fellows of the ſame, ſhall be diſcharged to keep watch or ward in London, and ſhall not be choſen conſtable or any other officer in the city. ſ. 1.

The ſaid preſident, commons, and fellows, may yearly elect four of the ſaid commons and fellows; and the ſaid four perſons, after oath miniſtered by the preſident or his deputy, ſhall have power to enter the houſe of every apothecary within the city, to ſearch ſuch apothecary wares as they have in their houſes; and all ſuch drugs as the ſame four perſons ſhall find defective, the ſame four perſons, calling to them the wardens of the myſtery of apothecaries, or one of them, ſhall cauſe to be burnt, or otherwiſe deſtroy the ſame; and if the apothecaries do obſtinately or willingly refuſe the ſaid perſons to enter their houſes for the purpoſe before rehearſed, they ſhall forfeit 100*s.* the one half to the king, and the other half to him that will ſue for the ſame; and if the four perſons elected refuſe to be ſworn, or do obſtinately refuſe to make the ſearch once in the year, having no lawful impediment, for ſuch default every of the ſaid four perſons ſhall forfeit 10*s.* ſ. 2.

Any of the fellowſhip of phyſicians, being admitted by the ſaid preſident and fellowſhip, may practiſe the ſcience of phyſic including ſurgery. ſ. 3.

By 32 Hen. 8. c. 42. The two companies of ſurgeons, viz. both the barbers and the ſurgeons of London, ſhall be united and made one body corporate called by the name of maſters and governors of the myſtery and commonalty of barbers and ſurgeons of London. And all perſons of the ſaid ſaid company that ſhall be admitted to ſurgery after the ſtatute ſhall be exempt for bearing armour, or to be put in any watches or inqueſts; and they ſhall have the overſight and correction as well of freemen as of foreigners, for ſuch offences as they ſhall do againſt the good order of barbery or ſurgery, according to the rules by them made, and approved by the lord chancellor, treaſurer, and chief juſtices. ſ. 1.

The ſaid maſters or governors yearly at their pleaſure may take four perſons put to death for felonies for anatomies. ſ. 2.

No perſon within the city of London, and one mile compaſs of the ſame, uſing barbery or ſhaving, ſhall occupy any ſurgery, letting of blood or other thing belonging to ſurgery, drawing of teeth except. And whoſoever uſeth the craft of ſurgery within the circuit aforeſaid, ſhall not exerciſe the craft of barbery. And all perſons uſing ſurgery within the city and one mile compaſs of the ſame, ſhall have an open ſign on the ſtreet ſide where they dwell. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall keep any ſhop of barbery within London, except he be a freeman of the ſame corporation. ſ. 4.

At times accuſtomed there ſhall be choſen by the ſame company, four maſters or governors, of which two ſhall be expert in ſurgery, and the other in barbery; which maſters ſhall have power to have the overſight and correction of all defaults found among the ſaid company uſing barbery and ſurgery within the circuit aforeſaid; and if any perſon uſing barbery or ſurgery offend in any of theſe articles, then for every month he ſhall forfeit 5 l. one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to any that will ſue. ſ. 5.

Provided that the barbers and ſurgeons bear and pay lot and ſcot. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful to any of the king's ſubjects, not being a barber nor ſurgeon, to keep in his houſe as ſervant any perſon being a barber or ſurgeon, which may uſe thoſe arts in his maſter's houſe, or elſewhere by his maſter's licenſe. ſ. 7.

By 34 & 35 Hen. 8. c. 8. It ſhall be lawful to every perſon being the king's ſubject, having knowledge of the nature of herbs, roots, and waters, to miniſter to any outward ſore, wound, apoſtemations, ſwelling or diſeaſe, any herbs, ointments, baths, pulteſs and plaiſters, according to their experience, or drinks for the ſtone, ſtrangury or agues. ſ. 3.

By 1 Mar. ſtat. 2. c. 9. The ſtatute 14 Hen. 8. c. 5. ſhall continue in force. ſ. 2.

Whenſoever the preſident of the college of phyſic of London, or ſuch as the ſaid preſident and college ſhall yearly authoriſe to correct offenders in the ſaid faculty, ſhall commit any offenders to any gaol within the ſame city and precinct (the Tower of London except), the gaoler ſhall receive ſuch perſons, until ſuch offenders be diſcharged by the ſaid preſident, and ſuch perſons as by the ſaid college ſhall be authoriſed; upon pain that every ſuch gaoler doing the contrary ſhall forfeit the double of ſuch fines and amercements as ſuch offender ſhall be aſſeſſed to pay, ſo that the ſame be not at one time above 20 l. the moiety thereof to the queen, the other moiety to the preſident and college. ſ. 4.

The wardens of the grocers may go with the phyſicians in their ſearch, and every ſuch perſon as ſhall reſiſt ſuch ſearch ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 5.

All juſtices, mayors, ſheriffs, conſtables, and other officers, upon requeſt ſhall aſſiſt the preſident of the ſaid college, and all perſons by them authoriſed, for the due execution of the ſaid ſtatutes, upon pain to run in contempt of the queen's majeſty. ſ. 6.

By 6 Will. 3. c. 4. made perpetual by 9 Geo. 1. c. 8. All perſons uſing the art of an apothecary within the city of London, and ſeven miles thereof, being free of the ſociety of apothecaries of London, and who ſhall be examined and approved, ſo long as they ſhall uſe the ſaid art, ſhall be exempted from the offices of conſtable, ſcavenger, overſeer of the poor, and all other pariſh, ward, and leet offices, and from ſerving upon juries; and if any ſuch perſon ſhall be choſen into any of the ſaid offices, or returned to ſerve in any jury, ſuch perſon producing a teſtimonial under the common ſeal of the corporation, of ſuch his examination, approbation, and freedom, ſhall be diſcharged. ſ. 3.

All perſons uſing the ſaid art of an apothecary within any other parts of this kingdom, Wales or Berwick, and who ſhall be brought up and ſerve in the ſaid art as an apprentice ſeven years, ſhall likewiſe be exempted from the offices and duties aforeſaid, ſo long as they ſhall uſe the ſaid art. ſ. 4.

By 18 Geo. 2. c. 15. The union and incorporation of the barbers and ſurgeons of London, made by 32 Hen. 8. c. 42. ſhall be diſſolved; and ſuch of the members of the ſaid united company who are freemen and admitted ſurgeons within the rules of the ſaid company, and their ſucceſſors, ſhall be made a ſeparate and diſtinct body corporate, to be called by the name of Maſters, governors, and commonalty of the art and ſcience of ſurgeons of London; and by the ſame name ſhall implead and be impleaded, and purchaſe and take to them and their ſucceſſors, any lands or hereditaments not exceeding the yearly value of 200 l. without incurring the penalties of the ſtatutes of mortmain. ſ. 1.

The ſaid company may elect one principal maſter or governor, two other governors or wardens, ten examiners of ſurgeons, and 21 perſons to be the court of aſſiſtants of the ſaid company, to be qualified and admitted in ſuch manner, and to continue in the ſaid offices for ſuch time, as by the laws of the company ſhall be directed. ſ. 2.

The maſter and governors of the ſaid company, or two of them, with nine of the court of aſſiſtants, as often as to two of the ſaid maſter and governors ſhall ſeem meet, may hold courts to conſult about the rule and government of the ſaid company; and the maſter and governors and court of aſſiſtants, or the major part of them, may make or abrogate bye laws. ſ. 3.

Provided the ſeveral bye-laws made for the regulation of the united company relating to ſurgery only, and which on the 23d of June 1745, ſhall not be repealed by virtue of this act, ſhall continue and be obſerved by the company of ſurgeons until the ſame be repealed by virtue of this act. ſ. 4.

The maſter, governors, and court of aſſiſtants for the time being, of the company of ſurgeons, ſhall upon the 1ſt Thurſday in July in every year, meet at ſuch place as the maſter and governors, or two of them ſhall appoint; and elect out of their body, by the majority of votes of ſuch who ſhall be preſent, one principal maſter or governor, and two governors or wardens for the ſucceeding year; and elect out of their own body, ſuch other perſon to be examiner of ſurgeons, in the place of ſuch examiner, as ſhall have happened to die, or have been removed in the preceding year; and elect out of the freemen ſuch perſon to be of the court of aſſiſtants in the place of ſuch perſon who ſhall have happened to die or have been removed from the ſaid office. ſ. 7.

The company of ſurgeons and their ſucceſſors, and all freemen of the ſame company, ſhall enjoy the ſame liberties, privileges, franchiſes, powers, and authorities, as the members of the united company, being freemen, and admitted ſurgeons, within the rules of the ſaid company, could have had by 32 Hen. 8. c. 42. and the letters patent of Car. 1. and other royal grants and patents therein mentioned, ſo far as the ſame relate to ſurgery only: and they, and all ſuch who have been or ſhall be examined and approved, purſuant to the rules of the ſaid company, ſhall be entitled to practiſe ſurgery throughout his majeſty's dominions. ſ. 8.

The examiners of the company of ſurgeons eſtabliſhed by this act, ſhall upon requeſt examine every candidate to ſerve as a ſurgeon, or ſurgeon's mate, of any regiment, troop, company, hoſpital, or garriſon of ſoldiers in the ſervice of his majeſty, as they examine any ſurgeon appointed to ſerve on board any ſhip in the ſervice of his majeſty. ſ. 9.

All freemen of the company of ſurgeons incorporated by this act, who have been or ſhall be examined and approved purſuant to the rules of the ſaid company, for ſo long time as they ſhall uſe the art or ſcience of ſurgery, ſhall be exempted from the offices of conſtable, ſcavenger, overſeer of the poor, and all other pariſh, ward, and leet offices, and from ſerving upon any jury or inqueſt: and if any ſuch perſon ſhall be choſen into any of the ſaid offices, or returned to ſerve on any jury, leet, or inqueſt, or be diſturbed by reaſon thereof, ſuch perſon producing a teſtimonial, under the common ſeal of the ſaid corporation, of his examination, approbation, and freedom, to the perſon by whom he ſhall be ſo appointed, or by or before whom he ſhall be ſummoned, ſhall be diſcharged from the ſame. ſ. 10.

This act ſhall not extend to prejudice any of the privileges heretofore granted by any act or by any letters patent to the preſident and college, or commonalty, of the faculty of phyſic in London, ſ. 11.

Such of the members of the ſaid united company who are freemen of the ſaid company, and are not admitted ſurgeons, and their ſucceſſors, ſhall be a body corporate, to be called by the name of The maſter, governors, and commonalty of the myſtery of barbers of London; and by the ſame name may plead and be impleaded, and purchaſe and take to them and their ſucceſſors lands, not exceeding the yearly value of 200*l.* ſ. 12.

The maſter and governors of the company of barbers, or two of them, with 11 of the court of aſſiſtants, as often as to two or more of the ſaid maſter and governors ſhall ſeem meet, may hold courts at the hall of the ſaid company, to conſult about the rule and government of the ſaid company of barbers; and the maſter and governors and court of aſſiſtants, or the major part of them, may make bye-laws, and the ſame alter or repeal. ſ. 15.

Provided the ſeveral bye-laws made for the regulation of the united company, ſo far as the ſame do not relate to ſurgery, and which on the ſaid 23d of June ſhall not be repealed by virtue of this act, ſhall continue and be obſerved by the company of barbers incorporated by this act, until the ſame be repealed by virtue of this act. ſ. 16.

The maſter and governors of the ſaid company of barbers of London ſhall be yearly elected on the ſecond Thurſday in Auguſt, by the court of aſſiſtants, or the major part of them, or in ſuch manner as by the bye-laws of the ſame company ſhall be ordained; and as often as any member of the ſaid court of aſſiſtants ſhall die, or be removed, the ſurviving members of the ſaid court, or the major part, may elect one other perſon, being a freeman of the ſame company, to be a member of the ſaid court of aſſiſtants, in his room; and the perſon elected ſhall continue in the ſaid office for life, or until he be removed. ſ. 17.

The maſter, governors, and commonalty, of the myſtery of barbers of London, hereby incorporated, and their ſucceſſors, and all who ſhall be free of the ſame company, ſhall enjoy the ſame liberties, privileges, franchiſes, powers, and authorities, as the united company, with reſpect to every thing but ſurgery, and the members thereof occupying the craft of barbery or ſhaving, could have enjoyed by virtue of 32 Hen. 8. c. 42. and the letters patent of Car. 1. and other royal grants and patents therein mentioned, ſo far as the ſame do not concern ſurgery. ſ. 18.

The ſum of 510*l.* now veſted in the united company, and which was given to them by Edward Arris, for the uſe of the anatomy lectures on the muſcles, and alſo the annuity of 16*l.* given to them by the will of John Gale, gentleman, for one anatomy lecture, by the name of Gale's Anatomy, and charged upon certain tenements at Snow Hill, in London, ſhall be veſted in the company of ſurgeons; and the ſaid 510*l.* ſhall be accordingly paid by the company of barbers, out of the effects of the united company, within three months after the ſaid 24th of June; and the ſaid 510*l.* and the annuity of 16*l.* per annum, ſhall be held by the company of ſurgeons, upon truſt, to be applied for the purpoſes intended by the donors; and the barbers, and their ſucceſſors, ſhall be diſcharged thereof, and indemnified by the ſurgeons on account thereof; and all the reſidue of the real and perſonal eſtate of the united company, and the arms or enſigns armorial of the ſame company, ſhall be veſted in the company of barbers of London, for their ſeparate uſe. ſ. 19.

Such of the books, papers, and writings, which now belong to the united company, and relate to the ſurgeons or ſurgery only, ſhall be delivered to the company of ſurgeons, and the maſter, governors, and court of aſſiſtants of the company of ſurgeons, or any of them, or ſuch perſon as they ſhall by writing appoint, may upon notice inſpect in the hands of ſuch perſon as the company of barbers ſhall appoint to have the cuſtody thereof, all the reſt of the books, papers, and writings, and alſo all the charters and deeds which now belong to the united company; and may take ſuch copies or extracts of the ſame, as the ſaid maſter, governors, and court of aſſiſtants of the company of ſurgeons, or perſon appointed, ſhall deſire; and the company of barbers ſhall upon reaſonable notice produce the ſaid books, papers, writings, charters, and deeds, at the expence of the company of ſurgeons, upon any trial at law, or hearing in equity, or examination of witneſſes, or otherwiſe, where the company of ſurgeons ſhall have occaſion to make uſe thereof. ſ. 20.

Every perſon bound apprentice to any member of the united company, ſhall be admitted to his freedom in the company of ſurgeons, if his maſter was an examined ſurgeon; or elſe to his freedom in the company of barbers; and in either caſe ſhall be admitted to his freedom of London. ſ. 20.

Poor.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 12. There ſhall be one or more corporations or work-houſes within the cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the weekly bills of mortality, conſiſting of a preſident, a deputy preſident and a treaſurer. And the lord mayor of London ſhall be preſident of the workhouſes within the city, and the aſſiſtants ſhall be the aldermen aldermen of London, and fifty-two other citizens to be choſen by the common council; and the preſident and aſſiſtants may elect a deputy, preſident, and treaſurer, and all other neceſſary officers: and upon the vacancy of any aſſiſtant, the power to elect in their rooms ſhall be in the common council, and the election of the deputy, preſident, or treaſurer, and all other officers, in the preſident and aſſiſtants. And a preſident, deputy preſident, treaſurer and aſſiſtants, ſhall be nominated by the lord chancellor, out of the moſt fit perſons inhabiting in the city of Weſtminſter, for the workhouſes within the ſame. ſ. 4.

For the places within the bills of mortality, there ſhall be elected by the juſtices of peace in their quarter ſeſſions, out of the inhabitants and freeholders of the counties of Middleſex and Surrey reſpectively, a preſident, deputy preſident, treaſurer, and aſſiſtants, for the workhouſe of the places aforeſaid in Middleſex and Surrey; and upon the vacancy of the preſidents, deputy preſidents, treaſurers or aſſiſtants, in the city of Weſtminſter, and places aforeſaid in Middleſex and Surrey, the power to elect others ſhall be in the juſtices of peace. And at every quarter ſeſſions they ſhall take an account in writing of the receipts and diſburſements of the treaſurer of ſuch workhouſes, how many poor people have been imployed, and what ſtock is remaining. Which preſident, deputy preſident and treaſurer, ſhall be bodies politic and corporate, by the name of the preſident and governors for the poor of the reſpective places; and may without licenſe in mortmain purchaſe lands not exceeding the yearly value of 3000 l. of any perſons, who are hereby enabled to give the ſame; and each corporation, or any ſeven of them, ſhall have power to meet and keep courts at ſuch time and place as ſhall be appointed, by the preſident, his deputy, or the treaſurer, who are upon the deſire of any four of the corporation to cauſe a court to be warned. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for the ſaid preſident and governors, or any two of them, or any perſon appointed by them, to apprehend any rogues, vagrants, ſturdy beggars, or idle or diſorderly perſons, within the ſaid cities and places, and cauſe them to be ſet to work in the workhouſes. ſ. 6.

If the preſident and governors of any of the ſaid corporations ſhall certify under their common ſeal their want of ſtock, and what money they ſhall think fit for the ſame, to the common council of London, and the burgeſſes and juſtices of peace in their quarter ſeſſions of Weſtminſter, or the juſtices of Middleſex and Surrey in their quarter ſeſſions, the common council, the burgeſſes of Weſtminſter, and the juſtices, are required to aſcertain ſuch ſums of money, not exceeding one year's rate uſually ſet for the relief of the poor, and the ſame to proportion out upon the ſeveral wards and pariſhes; and the aldermen, deputies, and common council men, of every ward in London, and burgeſſes and juſtices of Weſtminſter, and juſtices of Middleſex and Surrey, ſhall have power equally to tax the inhabitants; with which tax, if the perſons find themſelves aggrieved, ſuppoſing the ſame to be unequal, they may make their complaint to the juſtices at the next ſeſſions. ſ. 7.

It ſhall be lawful for any alderman of London, or his deputy, or the burgeſſes and juſtices of Weſtminſter, or any two of them, or any two juſtices of peace of Middleſex and Surrey, by their warrant to authoriſe the church wardens or overſeers within the places aforeſaid, to gather ſuch ſums aſſeſſed; and for default of payment within ten days after demand, to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of goods. ſ. 8.

The preſident and governors, or any ſeven of them, ſhall have power to make bye-laws for the relieving, regulating, and ſetting the poor to work, and the apprehending and puniſhing of rogues, vagabonds, and beggars, &c. ſ. 11.

Provided the ſaid bye-laws be preſented to the quarter ſeſſions, to be confirmed by order of the court. ſ. 12.

The preſident and governors of any of the workhouſes, or any fourteen of them, ſhall have power to chooſe officers and others to be imployed in the premiſes, &c. ſ. 13.

All ſheriffs, bailiffs, conſtables, and other officers of juſtice, ſhall be aſſiſting to the ſaid corporations, and all officers imployed by them. ſ. 14.

This act ſhall not be to the prejudice of any franchiſes granted to the dean and chapter of the collegiate church of St. Peter Weſtminſter. ſ. 24.

Made perpetual 12 Ann. ſtat. 1. c. 18.

By 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 18. The officers of the corporations erected in purſuance of 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 12. and their treaſurers, ſhall give quarterly accounts to the juſtices of peace. ſ. 1.

No money to be levied upon the inhabitants of any of the ſaid pariſhes, according to the former or this act, ſhall in any year exceed one fourth part of the aſſeſſment to the poor for that year; which ſum ſhall be paid by the inhabitants at two payments, to the treaſurers for the ſaid corporations, viz. at St. Michael, and the annunciation, or within fourteen days after. ſ. 4.

No aſſeſſment ſhall be made on any of the pariſhes aforeſaid, after the 29th of September 1765. ſ. 5.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to the vacating any powers given by the ſaid act to the lord mayor and governors for the corporation within the city of London, or the pariſh of St. Margaret Weſtminſter. ſ. 6.

By 2 Geo. 3. c. 22. The churchwardens and overſeers of the poor of every pariſh within the bills of mortality, ſhall enter in the book * belonging to their pariſh, all infants under four years, which ſhall be in the workhouſe or other place provided for the maintenance of the poor, on 1ſt July 1762, or under their care, with the times when received, their names, age, and deſcription, as far as can be traced. ſ. 2.

After the ſaid firſt Jul. all infants under four years, brought to any workhouſe, ſhall be, by the churchwardens or overſeers, entered regularly in the book aforeſaid, with the times of their admittance, and all circumſtances relating to them. ſ. 3.

The firſt annual regiſter ſhall commence on the ſaid firſt Jul. and ſhall end on the thirty-firſt of Dec. enſuing; and after that time, the ſaid annual regiſter ſhall commence the firſt Jan. and end thirty-firſt Dec. ſ. 4.

After the expiration of each year, all infants under four years of age, then living and regiſtered, and not diſcharged, ſhall be transferred to the regiſters for the year enſuing, under the deſcription in the preceding regiſters, previous to any further entry; ſo that each annual regiſter ſhall contain a full regiſter of the number at that time, as well as the children received under the ſaid age, in the current year, without being intermixed with the deaths or diſcharges of the preceding years. ſ. 5.

The regiſters ſhall be ſigned within thirty days after the expiration of each year by the veſtry, or any five of them, and by the churchwardens, overſeers, veſtry clerk, and maſter of the workhouſe; and where there is no veſtry,

* The mode of keeping ſuch book was appointed by this act, but altered by 7 Geo. 3.

by the churchwardens, overſeers, and maſter of the workhouſe; and where there is no maſter of the workhouſe, by the churchwardens and overſeers. ſ. 6.

In caſe any infant is received before baptized, due care ſhall be taken to baptize the ſame within fourteen days after the reception of ſuch infant, ſo that the chriſtian and the true ſurname, if known, and, if not known, a ſurname to be given by the churchwardens and overſeers of the poor, be regularly entered in the books, and regiſtered in the pariſh regiſter: and in caſe of a difficulty of diſtinguiſhing children, ſome proper mark ſhall be affixed to the child's cloaths, or hung round his neck. ſ. 7.

Nothing herein contained ſhall extend to ſuch children whoſe parents receive money from the pariſh in aid of the maintenance of ſuch children, not being in the workhouſe. ſ. 8.

A copy of the regiſter wrote up, from time to time, ſhall, every month, be laid by the veſtry clerk, before the veſtries, or parochial meetings, to be reviſed by them. ſ. 9.

The ſaid copy of the regiſter being completed at the end of the year, ſhall be depoſited in the veſtry room, or other place of parochial meetings, to remain there for the uſe of the veſtry. ſ. 10.

The original veſtry book ſhall remain with the reſt of the pariſh books in the hands of the pariſh officers. ſ. 11.

All the pariſhes within the bills of mortality, by the hand of their veſtry clerk, or where there is no veſtry clerk, by the hands of the churchwardens, ſhall before 15 Feb. in every year, deliver fair copies of their regiſters, ſigned in manner hereby directed, into the hands of the clerk of the company of pariſh clerks, or ſuch perſon as the company ſhall appoint, he returning a receipt for the ſame ſigned by himſelf. ſ. 12.

The ſaid clerk, or other perſon appointed, ſhall receive the ſaid copies, and cauſe the ſame to be bound in a book, collecting and ranging together the regiſters of the ninety-ſeven pariſhes within London, thoſe of the ſeventeen pariſhes without, thoſe of the twenty-three pariſhes in Middleſex and Surrey, and thoſe of the ten pariſhes in the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, in alphabetical order; and in this order he ſhall, before the 25th March in every year, make out one general abſtract of the ſame. ſ. 13.

The ſaid regiſters, together with the ſaid general abſtract, being bound in a book together, ſhall remain in the cuſtody of the ſaid company of pariſh clerks. ſ. 14.

The ſaid clerk, or other perſon appointed by the company, ſhall print the general abſtract, and deliver ſix copies thereof to every veſtry clerk, or one of the churchwardens, of all the pariſhes within the bills, for the uſe of the pariſhioners and officers. ſ. 15.

Each pariſh ſhall, by the hands of the veſtry clerk or churchwardens, pay into the hands of the clerk, or other perſon appointed by the company of pariſh clerks, the ſum of 15*s.* at the time the copies of regiſters are delivered to him, he paſſing a receipt for the ſame. ſ. 16.

If any churchwarden, overſeer of the poor, veſtryman, clerk of the veſtry, maſter of the workhouſe, maſter or warden of ſuch company of pariſh clerks, or any clerk of ſuch company, or any other perſon, ſhall neglect his duty directed by this act, ſuch churchwarden, &c. ſhall for every offence, forfeit to the informer 40*s.*; to be recovered before one juſtice, and to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale, by warrant of ſuch juſtice. ſ. 17.

By 7 Geo. 3. c. 39. All children who ſhall be born in any workhouſe or pariſh houſe, or received by any ſelect veſtries, governors, directors, or managers, for parochial affairs, or by any churchwardens, overſeers of the poor, or other officers authoriſed by the ſeveral pariſhes following; that is to ſay, the ſeventeen pariſhes without the walls of London; the twenty-three pariſhes of Middleſex and Surrey, within the bills of mortality, and the liberty of the Tower of London; and the ten pariſhes within the city and liberty of Weſtminſter; ſhall be nurſed and taken care of in manner as after mentioned. ſ. 1.

All children who ſhall be born in or received into workhouſes or pariſh-houſes, not being ſuckled by the mother, under the age of two years, ſhall, within fourteen days after their birth or reception, be ſent into the country, not leſs than five miles from London or Weſtminſter; and all children received above the age of two, and under ſix years, ſhall, within fourteen days after their reception, be ſent into the country, not leſs than three miles from London and Weſtminſter, to be nurſed. ſ. 3.

For the nurſing and maintenance of each child ſo put out as aforeſaid, the ſums following ſhall be paid; viz. for the firſt ſix years of their age, not leſs than two ſhillings and ſixpence; and from that time until put out apprentice or returned to the workhouſe, not leſs than two ſhillings per week; and ſhall alſo over the ſaid charge, pay to every nurſe who ſhall have received any child of or under the age of nine months (the ſaid child being alive, and having been treated properly, and to the ſatisfaction of the guardians hereafter mentioned), after having been under her care twelve months, not leſs than ten ſhillings, as a reward for her pains: and the governors, directors, managers, or overſeers of the poor, ſhall find good, proper, and ſufficient cloathing, and ſhall defray the conveyance, medicines, burials, and all other neceſſary expences incurred on account of the ſaid children; and ſhall keep ſeparate and exact accounts of all expences in relation thereto. ſ. 4.

Five noblemen or gentlemen, inhabitants of each pariſh, ſhall be appointed guardians of the pariſh poor children; two or more of which ſhall be choſen out of the ſelect veſtry, or out of the governors, directors, or managers of the poor; and where there is no ſelect veſtry, governors, directors, or managers, then the ſaid five guardians to be appointed out of the noblemen and gentlemen inhabitants of each pariſh; and the election to be made upon Tueſday, or ſome other day in Eaſter week, by the veſtry: and in caſe there ſhall be no noblemen or gentlemen, or not a ſufficient number of ſuch noblemen or gentlemen who will accept of the office of guardians; then the ſaid guardians ſhall be choſen out of the principal inhabitants: and if any of the parties choſen ſhall refuſe to act, or ſhall afterwards reſign, or die, a further choice ſhall be made within fourteen days after. ſ. 5.

Such noblemen, gentlemen, or principal inhabitants, who ſhall be firſt appointed, ſhall continue in office till Eaſter one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy; and the guardians then choſen, or at any time thereafter to be choſen, ſhall remain in office for three years then next enſuing: and all appointments in future ſhall be once in three years only; except in caſes of death, reſignation, or refuſal. ſ. 6.

No churchwarden or overſeer ſhall be elected guardian. ſ. 7.

The guardians, or any one of them, ſhall have free admittance to viſit and ſee the pariſh poor children; and alſo have full liberty to examine all regiſters, books, and accounts, relating to the ſaid children: and in caſe the life or health of a child may appear to be in danger, to report the ſame to the ſelect veſtry, governors, directors, or managers, or to the churchwardens or overſeers: and if they do not take meaſures to remedy the evil complained of; then it ſhall be lawful for the guardians, or one of them, them, to inform one juſtice, and give evidence of the facts; and the ſaid juſtice is to give ſuch orders therein, as he ſhall think proper. ſ. 8.

The guardians ſhall be ſummoned by the veſtry clerk, once in ſix weeks, to meet at the veſtry room, or other convenient place: and two of the guardians ſhall make a quorum, either having the liberty of calling in one of the churchwardens or overſeers; and when only one of the guardians is preſent, he ſhall have liberty of calling in two, who ſhall attend; and when any number of the five guardians meet, they ſhall have liberty of calling in two, as the majority think proper. ſ. 9.

The ſelect veſtries, governors, directors, or managers, churchwardens, or overſeers, ſhall be at liberty to ſend their pariſh poor children, under the age of ſix years, to the hoſpital for the maintenance and education of expoſed and deſerted young children: and the ſelect veſtries, governors, directors, managers, churchwardens, or overſeers, are to agree with the governors and guardians of the hoſpital, for the ſupport and maintenance of each child. ſ. 10.

The ſums agreed to be paid for the admiſſion, maintenance, and education of ſuch pariſh poor children as ſhall be ſent to the ſaid hoſpital, ſhall be paid by the overſeer, out of the poors rate: and if not paid by ſuch overſeer to the perſon authoriſed by the governors to receive the ſame, it ſhall be lawful for one juſtice to ſummon the overſeer, and order immediate payment, together with coſts incurred, in conſequence of ſuch refuſal or neglect: and if the overſeer ſhall refuſe or neglect to obey the order of ſuch juſtice, the ſum directed to be paid thereby ſhall be recovered by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch overſeer, with coſts. ſ. 11.

At the death, diſcharge, or apprenticeſhip of any ſuch pariſh poor child, a certificate thereof ſhall be ſent by the ſecretary of the ſaid governors and guardians, to the veſtry clerk, or overſeers of the poor, of ſuch pariſh to which the child did belong. ſ. 12.

The hoſpital account ſhall be kept with each pariſh diſtinct, in a proper book, with marginal columns, according to ſchedule (A); and ſhall be ſigned by the ſecretary of the hoſpital. ſ. 13.

It ſhall be lawful to bind out boys as well as girls apprentices, for ſeven years, or till they attain the age of twenty-one years, and no longer. ſ. 14.

No ſuch pariſh child ſhall be bound out with leſs than four pounds two ſhillings as an apprentice fee; forty ſhillings whereof to be paid to the maſter or miſtreſs within ſeven weeks after executing the indentures, and the remaining forty-two ſhillings after the apprentice ſhall have ſerved three years of apprenticeſhip. ſ. 15.

The veſtries, governors, directors, managers, overſeers of the poor, or other officers, ſhall provide at the expence of the pariſhes wherein there is or ſhall be a workhouſe, hoſpital, or other place for the maintenance of the poor, a book of royal paper, which ſhall be ruled with diſtinct columns, and the title of each column ſhall be wrote or printed in ſuch page agreeable to the ſchedule (B); and the book belonging to each pariſh, where there is not any workhouſe, or place, ſhall in every page be ruled with diſtinct columns, and the title of each column ſhall be wrote or printed in ſuch page agreeable to ſchedule (C). ſ. 16.

There ſhall be mentioned at the foot of each regiſter, the groſs number of children remaining in the hands of mothers relieved by the pariſhes during the year, not entered in the regiſter; and the number of ſuch who are alive. ſ. 17.

The abſtract of the regiſter of the ſaid infant poor ſhall be according to ſchedule marked (D). ſ. 18.

A full liſt of all apprentices placed out ſhall be made out by the veſtry clerks, or other proper officer, and delivered, in the month of February in every year, to the company of pariſh clerks, to be written on royal paper according to ſchedule (E), to be bound up and depoſited by the company of pariſh clerks; and the ſaid company ſhall make out an abſtract thereof, diſtinguiſhing the number from each pariſh, and how many of them were born in the workhouſe, and ſhall cauſe the ſame to be printed: and ſend ſix copies of the abſtract to each pariſh. ſ. 20.

The ſaid annual regiſter and liſts ſhall commence the firſt day of January, and end the thirty-firſt day of December following. ſ. 21.

All expences incident to the nurſing, maintenance, education, placing out apprentice, or the matters herein contained, not herein particularly ordered, ſhall be paid out of the poors rates. ſ. 22.

If any churchwarden, overſeer, veſtryman, clerk of the veſtry, maſter of the workhouſe, or maſter or warden or clerk of ſuch company of pariſh clerks, or any other perſon, ſhall neglect his duty directed by this act, he ſhall forfeit to the informer five pounds; to be recovered before two juſtices, and levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the offender, by warrant of the juſtices, directed to any conſtable or peace officer; and the overplus ſhall be returned to the owner, after the charge of diſtreſs and ſale ſhall be deducted. ſ. 23.

Scavage.

Scavage.

By 19 Hen. 7. c. 3. The mayor, ſheriffs, and commonalty of London, ſhall have all ſuch ſums of money for ſcavage *, as by the king and council ſhall be determined.

Sewers.

By 3 Jac. 1. c. 14. The walls, ditches, banks, gutters, ſewers, cauſeways, bridges, ſtreams, and watercourſes, within two miles of the city of London, which waters fall into the Thames, ſhall be ſubject to the commiſſion of ſewers, as if the water had ebbed and flowed, and therein free paſſage with boats to the ſea had been uſed. ſ. 2.

Shoemakers.

By 9 Geo. 1. c. 27. If any journeyman ſhoemaker within the bills of mortality ſhall be accuſed by the maſter employing him, of having fraudulently purloined, ſold, pawned or exchanged, any boots, ſhoes, ſlippers, cut leather, lace, laſts, or other materials, not being the goods of the perſon accuſed; it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace where the offence ſhall be committed, or where the party accuſed ſhall reſide, on complaint on oath, to ſummon the party, or to iſſue his warrant to apprehend him; and on his appearance or default, to proceed to examine the fact, and on proof on the oath of one witneſs to convict the offender and award ſatisfaction; and upon neglecting to pay, to levy the ſame by warrant on the offender's goods, and for want of diſtreſs to cauſe the offender to be whipt in the place where the offence ſhall be committed; and in caſe of conviction for any ſecond or other offence, to commit the offender to the houſe of correction to hard labour, for any time not exceeding one month, nor leſs than fourteen days. ſ. 1.

Every perſon who ſhall buy, receive, or take in pawn, any boots, ſhoes, &c. or materials for making them, not being the proper goods of him that ſells or pawns them, ſhall (being convicted in manner aforeſaid) make ſuch recompenſe within two days after the fact ſhall be determined, as ſhall be awarded; or elſe be ſubject to ſuch diſtreſs, and be liable to like puniſhment, as is inflicted on journeymen ſo purloining, &c. ſ. 2.

Two juſtices dwelling within the bills of mortality, on complaint upon oath, may iſſue their warrant for ſearching in the day-time the houſe of ſuch perſon as they ſhall ſuſpect to have received or taken to pawn any ſuch goods ſo fraudulently imbezzled, and on refuſal, to break open any ſuch houſe; and every perſon oppoſing ſuch ſearch ſhall forfeit 10*l.* to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame within two months in the courts at Weſtminſter. And if it ſhall appear by the oath of one witneſs, or on ſearch of ſuch houſe, that ſuch perſon hath in his cuſtody any ſuch goods, the juſtices ſhall cauſe them to be reſtored to the owner, and oblige the party offending to make ſatisfaction; and the party refuſing ſo to do, ſhall be ſubject to the like puniſhment as is inflicted on ſuch journeymen, &c. ſo fraudulently imbezzling, &c.

Every perſon retained in the making up of any boots, ſhoes, &c. for any one maſter, and who ſhall neglect the performance thereof, by ſuffering himſelf to be retained by any other maſter, before he ſhall have finiſhed the work firſt delivered; ſuch offender, on conviction on oath before one juſtice, ſhall be ſent to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one month. ſ. 4.

Perſons aggrieved by any order made by ſuch juſtice, may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions, giving eight days notice, and the quarter ſeſſions have power to make ſatisfaction to either party, and their determination ſhall be final. ſ. 5.

Silk.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 15. Such laws as ſhall be made for government of the trade of ſilk throwers, ſhall be agreeable with the laws of the realm and the cuſtoms of the city of London. ſ. 4.

The maſter, wardens, aſſiſtants, and commonalty, of the trade, art, or myſtery of ſilk-throwers of the city of London, ſhall have, and may execute, within the cities of London and Weſtminſter, or within twenty miles compaſs of them, all ſuch privileges and authorities as by this act (ſee general title "Manufactures, § Silk,") or by the letters patent of the incorporation, are given for regulation of the trade. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for any freeman of the ſaid company, to ſet on work any perſons being native ſubjects to his majeſty, and no others, to turn the mill, tie threads, double ſilk, and wind ſilk, as formerly. ſ. 9.

The ſaid corporation of ſilk-throwers, ſhall not make any bye-laws to ſet prices upon the throwing of ſilk to bind their members to work at. ſ. 10.

By 20 Car. 2. c. 6. The company of ſilk-throwers in London are diſabled from making any bye-law which ſhall reſtrain the number of mills, ſpindles, or other utenſils, to be employed by any of the freemen of the ſaid company. ſ. 2.

No bye-law of the company ſhall limit any freeman to take a leſs number than three apprentices. ſ. 4.

By 13 Geo. 3. c. 68. The wages of journeymen weavers within the city of London, ſhall be ſettled by the lord mayor, recorder, and aldermen of the ſaid city; and in the county of Middleſex, by the juſtices for the county; and within the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, at the general quarter ſeſſions of the peace for the ſaid city; and within the liberty of the Tower of London, at the general quarter ſeſſions for the ſaid liberty, at their general quarter ſeſſions reſpectively; and the lord mayor, recorder, and aldermen, of the city of London, and the ſaid juſtices, are authoriſed upon application made to them for that purpoſe, to ſettle and declare the wages of the journeymen weavers working within their juriſdictions; and ſhall within fourteen days after making ſuch order, cauſe the ſame to be printed and publiſhed, at the expence of the perſons applying for the ſame, three times, in any two daily news-papers publiſhed in London or Weſtminſter; which publication ſhall be deemed notice; and afterwards, all weavers, and their journeymen, are to obſerve the ſame. ſ. 1.

If any maſter weaver ſhall give more or leſs wages to any of the journeymen weavers, for their work, than ſhall be allowed, and ſhall be convicted of the ſaid offences before two juſtices, on the oath of one witneſs, he ſhall forfeit fifty pounds; to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and the ſaid penalty, when recovered, ſhall be paid into the hands of the maſter of the weavers company, firſt deducting the expence of ſuch proſecution, to be diſtributed to any diſtreſſed journeymen weavers, or their families. ſ. 2.

* See general title "Importation, &c."

If any journeyman weaver ſhall aſk, or take more or leſs wages, or larger or leſs prices, or ſhall enter into any combination to raiſe the wages or prices of the work, or for this purpoſe ſhall decoy, ſolicit, or intimidate any journeyman, ſo that he or they quit their maſters for whom they ſhall then be employed; or ſhall aſſemble themſelves in numbers exceeding ten, in order to frame or deliver petitions touching their wages, except to the juſtices, or to the lord mayor, recorder, and aldermen, at the quarter ſeſſions, and ſhall be convicted of any of the ſaid offences, on the oath of one witneſs, before two juſtices, ſhall forfeit not exceeding 40*s.*: and if not immediately paid, the juſtices may commit the offender to the houſe of correction to hard labour, for not exceeding three months; the ſaid forfeiture, when recovered, to be applied as the forfeiture of fifty pounds. ſ. 3.

Two juſtices on information upon oath, that there is reaſon to ſuſpect that any maſter or journeyman hath been guilty of any of the offences, at the requeſt of ſuch informant, may iſſue their ſummons, in writing, ſigned by ſuch two juſtices, requiring any clerk, foreman, apprentice, ſervant, or other perſon employed by ſuch perſon ſuſpected or any other perſon whatſoever, to attend and teſtify concerning the premiſes: and if any perſon ſo ſummoned ſhall not attend, and proof ſhall be made of the ſervice of ſuch ſummons, either perſonally, or by leaving the ſame at the abode of ſuch perſon, ſuch two juſtices, or any other two juſtices, are (unleſs a reaſonable excuſe be made for ſuch non-attendance) to iſſue their warrant, for apprehending and bringing him before them, or ſome other two juſtices, to be examined touching the premiſes; and if ſuch perſon ſhall refuſe to be examined or give teſtimony, ſuch perſon ſhall by the ſaid juſtices be committed to the houſe of correction for one month, unleſs he ſhall ſooner ſubmit to be examined. ſ. 4.

If any maſter weaver reſiding within the limits, ſhall directly or indirectly, employ any journeyman out of the limits, with intent to evade this act, or ſhall give more or leſs wages than ſettled, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit fifty pounds; to be ſued for by action of debt, in any court of record at Weſtminſter, wherein coſts ſhall be paid; one moiety of which forfeiture ſhall be paid to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall ſue. ſ. 5.

Nothing in this act ſhall regulate the wages to be paid to ſervants, bona fide employed as foremen. ſ. 6.

No weaver within the diſtricts, ſhall have in his ſervice at one time, more than two apprentices, upon pain of forfeiting twenty pounds; to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, upon conviction, on the oath of one witneſs, before two juſtices; and the ſaid penalty ſhall be paid into the hands of the maſter of the weavers company, to be applied as aforeſaid; and the ſaid juſtices are to diſcharge every apprentice exceeding two. ſ. 7.

Any perſon convicted before two juſtices, may appeal to the next general quarter ſeſſions or general ſeſſions, giving immediate notice of ſuch appeal, and finding ſufficient ſecurity to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtices for being perſonally preſent at ſuch ſeſſions, and for proſecuting the appeal with effect, and abiding the judgment of the court; and ſuch ſeſſions ſhall finally determine the matter, and may award coſts to either party; and if ſuch conviction ſhall be affirmed at ſeſſions, ſuch appellant ſhall be committed to priſon for the time ſpecified in the conviction, and until payment of coſts. ſ. 8.

No action ſhall be brought againſt any perſon, for any thing done under this act, unleſs brought within ſix months. ſ. 9.

Perſons may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff ſhall become nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover coſts. ſ. 10.

Southwark.

By 28 Geo. 2. c. 9. No market ſhall be kept in the high ſtreet of the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, leading from London Bridge to St. Margaret's Hill. ſ. 1.

It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon to erect or uſe any ſtall, truſſel, block, or other ſtand, in the ſaid high ſtreet, or to expoſe to ſale any peas, beans, herbs, victuals, or other commodities, in any ſtall, &c. or carriage, in the ſaid high ſtreet in Southwark. ſ. 2.

Every erecting, placing, or uſing in any part of the ſaid high ſtreet, of any ſtall, truſſel, block, or other thing, and alſo the expoſing to ſale any commodities on them, and every ſtanding of any empty coach, cart, dray, or other carriage, in the ſaid high ſtreet (except only during the time of loading or unloading) ſhall be deemed a common nuiſance. ſ. 3.

It ſhall not be lawful for any coachman or driver to ſtand or ply for hire with any coach or other carriage in the ſaid high ſtreet, or for any driver of any carriage to ſtand with any cart or other carriage in the ſaid high ſtreet, except only during the time of loading and unloading; and no carriage ſhall ſtand to load or unload with its tail at or before any dwelling-houſe, ſhop, or warehouſe; and if any coachman, carman, or driver, offend herein, it ſhall be lawful for any conſtable or inhabitant of the place where the offence is committed, to apprehend and take every ſuch perſon ſo offending, before ſome juſtice of peace for the ſaid borough, or for the county of Surrey; and upon conviction, either by the confeſſion of the party, or the oath of one witneſs, before ſuch juſtice, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit for every ſuch offence, a ſum not exceeding 10*s.* nor leſs than 5*s.* as ſuch juſtice ſhall direct, to be applied to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence is committed; and in default of payment, the offender ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour, for any time not exceeding ſeven days, or until he have paid the ſame. ſ. 4.

By 28 Geo. 2. c. 23. and 30 Geo. 2. c. 31. the inhabitants of Saint Saviour Southwark, may hold a market not interfering with the high ſtreet, in a place called the Triangle.

By 6 Geo. 3. c. 24. For paving the ſtreets and lanes within Southwark; and for cleanſing, lighting, and watching the ſame; and for preventing annoyances therein. The ſeveral ſtreets, lanes, courts, yards, and other places, included in this act, ſhall be divided into two diviſions, viz. the pariſhes of Saint George, Saint Saviour, Saint Mary Newington, and ſo much of the high ſtreet of the ſaid borough as is in the pariſh of Saint Olave, ſhall make one diviſion, and be called the Weſt Diviſion; and the other parts of the ſaid pariſh of Saint Olave, the pariſhes of Saint John, and Saint Thomas, and the parts of the ſaid pariſh of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondſey, before mentioned, viz. Blackman Street, Kent Street, Bermondſey Street, and Snows Fields, ſhall be the other diviſion, and called the Eaſt Diviſion. ſ. 1.

Certain perſons therein named were appointed commiſſioners for putting this act in execution; and in caſe of death or removal, or refuſal to act, the ſurviving commiſſioners, or five of them, by writing under their hands and ſeals, may elect one other perſon, being an inhabitant within the pariſh where ſuch vacancy ſhall happen, to be a commiſſioner; but ten days notice of the meeting for ſuch election, ſhall be given in ſome news-paper publiſhed within the weekly bills of mortality. ſ. 2.

The members for Surrey and the borough of Southwark, the treaſurer of Saint Thomas's Hoſpital, Guy's Hoſpital, the bailiff of the borough, and the comptroller of the Bridge Yard for the time being, ſhall be commiſſioners. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a commiſſioner, unleſs he ſhall be in the actual poſſeſſion or receipt of lands, of the clear yearly value of fifty pounds, or poſſeſſed of a perſonal eſtate to the value of one thouſand pounds; and if any perſon not qualified, ſhall act, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit fifty pounds, to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be recovered in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. ſ. 4.

" Commiſſioners to divide themſelves at their firſt meeting; and afterwards adjourn and meet as they ſhall think proper. If a ſufficient number do not meet, clerk to appoint another meeting; on his neglect, &c. two commiſſioners may appoint one. Commiſſioners not to have ſhares in contracts, &c. ſ. 5. They may appoint officers, &c. and remove them and appoint others, and allow them ſalaries. Officers to give ſecurity to account; and deliver up all books, &c. ſ. 6. Commiſſioners may appoint officers, though not at a public meeting. ſ. 7. Officers taking any reward, other than their ſalaries, or being intereſted in any bargain made by the commiſſioners, are diſqualified from being employed under this act, and forfeit alſo 100*l.* ſ. 8."

Penalty on interrupting workmen, &c. For the firſt offence, to forfeit twenty ſhillings; for the ſecond, forty ſhillings; and for every other offence, three pounds. ſ. 9.

" Commiſſioners to appoint collectors and treaſurers of the tolls. Treaſurer to give ſecurity. Money to be paid into the Bank. Officers to account. ſ. 10."

The commiſſioners, or five, within their diviſions, ſhall have power to direct the ſtreets and lanes to be paved, repaired, raiſed, ſunk, or altered; and alſo to direct the ſaid ſtreets and lanes, and the ſeveral courts, yards, alleys, paſſages, and places, to be cleanſed, lighted, and watched, when and as they ſhall think fit. ſ. 11.

The commiſſioners ſhall cauſe the High Street from London Bridge to the ſtones end in Blackman Street to be paved with whyn quarry ſtone, or with rock ſtone, or with ſtone of a flat ſurface. ſ. 13.

" Materials may be dug out of, or brought into, the ſtreets, &c. ſ. 14. Commiſſioners may make contracts. ſ. 15. Scavengers, by conſent of the juſtices, may lodge their dirt, &c. in any vacant place; making ſatisfaction. ſ. 16."

Surveyors to inſpect the works. And in caſe the ſame ſhall not be performed according to the contract, or ſhall not be finiſhed within the time agreed, the commiſſioners may, in their own names, or in the names of two of them, bring an action in any court of law at Weſtminſter, to recover penalties or damages, which ſhall be applied for the purpoſes of this act. ſ. 17.

" Agreement between landlord and tenant, touching paving, &c. the ſtreets, &c. not vacated. ſ. 18. Perſons authoriſed by the commiſſioners to be allowed to inſpect, &c. parochial rates. Penalty of refuſal by veſtry clerk, &c. For the firſt offence, twenty ſhillings; for the ſecond, forty ſhillings; and for every other, three pounds. ſ. 19. Contracts made in each diviſion, free for the inſpection of commiſſioners in the other; and copies thereof may be taken, paying one ſhilling for every hundred words. ſ. 20."

The commiſſioners, or five, ſhall every year eſtabliſh ſuch number of watchmen, beadles, and other officers, as they ſhall judge proper to be kept in the ſaid ſtreets and other places, and appoint ſuch as they think beſt qualified; and ſhall likewiſe appoint, in writing, how and where the watchmen ſhall be ſtationed, and in what manner they ſhall be armed, how often they ſhall go their rounds, how long they ſhall continue upon duty, and what wages ſhall be allowed to ſuch watchmen, beadles, and other perſons; and ſhall alſo provide places for the reception of the watchmen, and ſhall make all ſuch orders in writing as the ſervice ſhall appear to require. ſ. 21.

True copies of ſuch nominations, orders, &c. ſhall be ſigned by the commiſſioners; and the ſaid watchmen ſhall keep watch and ward within the ſtreets, &c. for ſuch times, and in ſuch manner, as ſhall be appointed; and ſhall, in their watching, uſe their beſt endeavours to prevent all miſchiefs happening by fires, and all murders, burglaries, robberies, breaches of the king's peace, and all other outrages and diſorders; and ſhall arreſt and detain in the watchhouſe, or other place of ſecurity, all malefactors, diſturbers of the king's peace, and all ſuſpected perſons who ſhall be found wandering or miſbehaving themſelves, and ſhall carry them (ſo ſoon as conveniently may be) before one juſtice, to be examined and dealt with according to law; and the beadles and others ſhall, ſo often in every night as ſhall be ordered by the commiſſioners, go about their rounds, to take notice whether all the watchmen perform their duty; and in caſe any watchman ſhall miſbehave himſelf, or neglect his duty, the ſaid beadles ſhall give notice thereof to the treaſurer to the commiſſioners, who is to ſuſpend ſuch watchman, and appoint another, until the next meeting of the commiſſioners, when the treaſurer ſhall acquaint them with the complaint, in order for the commiſſioners to proceed to the examination of the offence; and ſuch watchman ſhall be liable to the penalty of five ſhillings for ſuch neglect, or be diſcharged. ſ. 22.

If the beadles neglect to attend in turn to keep watch and ward, or ſhall not come to keep watch and ward, as appointed by the commiſſioners, or ſhall depart from keeping watch and ward during the hours appointed for keeping the ſame, or ſhall otherwiſe neglect their duty, or miſbehave themſelves, they ſhall forfeit not exceeding twenty ſhillings. ſ. 23.

The watchmen, in the abſence of the beadle, are to apprehend all malefactors, diſturbers of the peace, and all ſuſpected perſons found wandering or miſbehaving themſelves; and to carry them before ſome juſtice, to be examined and dealt with according to law; and to keep ſuch perſon within the watch-houſe, or ſome other place of ſafety, in the mean time. ſ. 24.

" Property of all materials veſted in the commiſſioners. ſ. 25."

If any perſon ſhall wilfully break, throw down, or otherwiſe damage, any of the lamps, or any of the poſts, irons, or other furniture thereof, or extinguiſh any of the ſaid lamps when lighted; one juſtice is upon oath made of the commiſſion of ſuch offence, to iſſue a warrant for apprehending the party accuſed; or any perſon who ſhall ſee ſuch offence committed, may apprehend the offender, and convey him or deliver him into the cuſtody of a peace officer; and the party being brought before ſuch juſtice, or oath being made before him, that ſuch party cannot be found, ſuch juſtice ſhall proceed to examine upon oath any witneſs; and if the party accuſed ſhall be convicted either by his own confeſſion, or upon ſuch information, ſormation, he ſhall, for the firſt offence, forfeit ten ſhillings for each lamp broken, &c. and for the ſecond offence, fifteen ſhillings; and for every ſubſequent offence, twenty ſhillings; and full ſatisfaction ſhall alſo be made to the commiſſioners by ſuch offender for the damage done; and in caſe ſuch offender ſhall not upon conviction pay ſuch forfeiture, and make ſatisfaction, the juſtice is to commit him to the houſe of correction for not exceeding three months; and one moiety of the ſaid forfeitures ſhall be paid to the informer, and the other moiety ſhall be applied for the purpoſes of this act: and if any perſon ſhall negligently or accidentally break the ſaid lamps, &c. and ſhall not, upon demand, make ſatisfaction to the commiſſioners or their ſurveyor, for the damage done, any juſtice, upon complaint made by five commiſſioners, or their ſurveyor, is to ſummon the party; and upon his appearance, or making default (oath being made of ſuch ſummons), ſuch juſtice ſhall examine the complaint; and upon proof thereof either by confeſſion, or by the oath of one witneſs, ſhall order ſatisfaction to be made, and ſhall cauſe the ſum awarded, if not paid, forthwith to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods; and in caſe ſufficient diſtreſs cannot be found, ſuch juſtice ſhall commit the party complained of to the common gaol or houſe of correction, until he ſhall pay, or for not exceeding one month. ſ. 26.

" Commiſſioners may ſell the old materials, and apply " the money, &c. ſ. 27. Notice to be given to ſur- " veyor of taking up pavement for repairing, &c. any " vault or drain, &c. Commiſſioners to relay it, and be " reimburſed the expences. ſ. 28. Commiſſioners may " contract with the companies, &c. for relaying ſuch " pavements. ſ. 29. On refuſal of payment an action " may be brought for the money. ſ. 30. Commiſſion- " ers to pay for altering pipes. ſ. 31. Where any of " the water companies pipes break, notice to be given to " ſuch companies. When completed, notice to be given " to commiſſioners paviour. If it proves that the pipe " does not belong to the company who firſt opens the " ground, they are to be paid their charges by the company " to whom it does belong. ſ. 32."

Paviours to water companies to give notice to the ſurveyor or clerk of their names and abode, on pain to forfeit for the firſt offence, twenty ſhillings; for the ſecond, forty ſhillings; and for every other, three pounds. ſ. 33.

No alteration to be made in the form of the pavements without commiſſioners conſent, upon pain of forfeiting five pounds, over all expences incurred in reinſtating the ſame. ſ. 34.

" Courſe of gutters to be turned, if neceſſary, and " grates altered, &c. ſ. 35. Where it ſhall be neceſ- " ſary to make new grates, or repair old ones, commiſſion- " ers of ſewers to pay the expence. ſ. 36. Sewers to be " repaired, &c. by commiſſioners of ſewers. On their " neglect, the ſame to be done by theſe commiſſioners, and " paid for by commiſſioners of ſewers. ſ. 37."

No perſon ſhall lay any aſhes, duſt, dirt, ſoil, or other filth whatſoever, before any dwelling-houſe, ſhop, ſtable, building, or wall, in either of the ſtreets or lanes, or in any of the courts, yards, alleys, paſſages, or places; but ſhall keep the ſame in their houſes or yards, until the perſon contracted with to carry away ſuch aſhes, &c. do come by their houſes, &c. with a cart for carrying away the ſame, upon pain of forfeiting, for the firſt offence, five ſhillings; for the ſecond, ten ſhillings; and for every other offence, twenty ſhillings. ſ. 38.

If any perſon ſhall ſet out, lay, drive, or carry any coach, cart, dray, waggon, or other carriage, wheels, timber, ſtones, or any other thing, which may occaſion any annoyance, nuiſance, or obſtruction in the ſtreets, ſo as to obſtruct or endanger any perſon or carriages; or if any cart, waggon, or other carriage, with hay or ſtraw therein for ſale; or any cart, waggon, coach, or other carriage, intended to be worked for hire (except hackney coaches, which ſhall ſtand in ſuch part of the ſtreets as ſhall be appointed by the commiſſioners), ſhall be ſuffered to ſtand for any the purpoſes aforeſaid; or if any cart, waggon, or other carriage, or any wheel-barrow, ſhall be ſuffered to remain in the ſaid ſtreets, &c. longer than needful for loading or unloading; or if any cart, dray, or other carriage, ſhall be placed acroſs any part of the ſtreets, &c. for loading or unloading, the commiſſioners, or five, may cauſe the ſaid carts, &c. making ſuch annoyance, nuiſance, or obſtruction, to be removed, and depoſited in ſuch place as they ſhall appoint; there to remain until the offender ſhall have paid all coſts attending the carrying away and depoſiting the ſame; as alſo not exceeding forty ſhillings for each offence. ſ. 39.

If any perſon ſhall run, drive, or draw, on the foot pavements any wheel, ſledge, wheel-barrow, or any carriage whatſoever; ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit, for the firſt offence, ten ſhillings; for the ſecond, twenty ſhillings; and for every other offence, forty ſhillings. ſ. 40.

" Hoards, &c. may be made for building or repairing " with leave of the commiſſioners. ſ. 41. Commiſſion- " ers may order the ſtreets to be watered. ſ. 42. And " wells to be dug in proper places, and pumps erected. " ſ. 43."

Houſes to be numbered, and names of ſtreets, &c. affixed on the corner houſes; and if any perſon ſhall deface ſuch number, figure, name, or deſcription, and ſhall be convicted thereof by confeſſion, or oath of one witneſs, before one juſtice, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings. ſ. 44.

All ſigns, boards, ſpouts, or gutters, ſhall be placed on the fronts of houſes; and if any perſon ſhall place any ſign, &c. in any other manner, or ſhall in any manner occaſion any encroachment or annoyance in the ſtreets, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit five pounds. ſ. 45.

All ſteps projecting into the foot-ways of the ſtreets, and all ſteps and doors going down out of the foot-ways into any cellars, vaults, or other places, belonging to any houſe, as likewiſe all ſhew glaſſes or ſhew boards projecting over the areas, or into the foot-ways, and all other nuiſance, annoyance, encroachment, or obſtruction, in the ſtreets (either in the foot or carriage-way thereof), ſhall be, at the expence of the commiſſioners, from time to time, removed, fixed, placed, or altered, as they or their ſurveyors direct. ſ. 47.

As to the pavement of the other ſtreets within the limits (the preſentment of the leet juries being attended with delay), the ſurveyor to the commiſſioners, or other perſon appointed by them, ſhall, as often as directed by the commiſſioners, view the condition of the ſtreets, lanes, and paſſages, and all nuiſances, defects, and wants of repair, and preſent the ſame to the commiſſioners in their diviſions upon oath; and the commiſſioners ſhall thereupon ſend notice in writing to the houſe where ſuch nuiſance or defect ſhall be, requiring the ſame to be removed or amended within fourteen days; and if not done according to ſuch notice, the commiſſioners ſhall cauſe it to be removed or amended, and they ſhall be reimburſed by the tenant; and in caſe ſuch tenant ſhall not, within ſix days after demand, pay the charges; the perſon appointed to receive the ſame, may make complaint thereof to one juſtice, who is to iſſue a warrant to cauſe the party to be brought before him; and upon the party appearing, or not being found, to determine the matter in a ſummary way: and if upon the confeſſion of the party, or by the oath of one witneſs, it ſhall appear that ſuch charges have been incurred by the commiſſioners, and not paid, then ſuch juſtice may iſſue a warrant for levying the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch party. ſ. 48.

" Contracts between landlord and tenant not vacated. " ſ. 49."

Nothing in this act ſhall reſtrain the power of court-leets; but no perſon ſhall be puniſhed twice for the ſame offence. ſ. 50.

Rates ſhall twice in every year, or oftener, if needful, be made by the commiſſioners within their diviſions, upon all perſons who ſhall inhabit any land, houſe, &c. ſo as ſuch rates do not exceed in the whole two ſhillings in the pound in any one year, of the yearly rent of ſuch lands, houſes, &c. within the ſtreets and lanes, nor more than one half of ſuch rates within all wharfs; and the courts, yards, alleys, paſſages, and places, as aforeſaid, inns, and livery ſtables, the entrances or gateways only of which ſaid inns and livery ſtables are in the ſaid ſtreets or lanes. ſ. 51.

" Commiſſioners are to cleanſe, watch, and light, any " ſtreet, on application of two thirds of the inhabitants. " ſ. 54."

All rates ſhall be allowed and ſigned by two juſtices, who are alſo to grant a warrant for collecting the ſame; and the ſaid rates ſhall be collected half yearly by ſuch perſons as the commiſſioners appoint: and if any perſon ſhall not pay the money rated for ten days after demand, the collector is to levy the ſum by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch perſon: and in caſe no ſuch goods can be found, or in caſe ſuch goods ſhall be locked up or removed from the ſaid collector, ſo that he cannot diſtrain the ſame; then, upon information thereof given to two juſtices, ſuch juſtices are to commit the offender to the common gaol for not exceeding one month, or until the payment of ſuch rate and charges occaſioned by non-payment. ſ. 55.

The rates upon wharfs ſhall not exceed one half of the rates upon houſes. ſ. 56.

" Where houſes are let out in tenements, owners are " to be aſſeſſed, but tenants to pay; who may deduct it " out of their rents. ſ. 57."

Rates for houſes under twenty pound per annum may be compounded for; ſo as in ſuch compoſition there be not remitted more than one third of the rate. ſ. 58.

" Where houſes, &c. ſhall be unoccupied, owners to " be charged only one half of the rates, and the premiſes " to remain a ſecurity. ſ. 59. Tenants and occupiers " to pay the rates. ſ. 60. Pavements liable to be repaired " by any pariſh, &c. are to be repaired at their expence " by the commiſſioners paviours. ſ. 61. Or the com- " miſſioners may compound with ſuch pariſhes, &c. for " the ſame. ſ. 62."

The commiſſioners are to rate all pariſh churches, church yards, chapels, meeting houſes, ſchools, ware-houſes, hoſpitals, priſons, and all other public buildings whatſoever, and all dead walls, and void ſpaces of ground, at a rate not exceeding ſixpence for every ſquare yard, to be paid by the church or chapel wardens, owners, or proprietors. ſ. 63.

Where any perſon ſhall quit his houſe, &c. before he ſhall have paid the rate, and ſhall afterwards refuſe to pay the ſame when due and demanded, it ſhall be lawful for the collectors, by warrant of two juſtices, which the juſtices are to grant, in any place within the borough of Southwark, or county of Surrey; or, out of the limits thereof (ſuch warrant being firſt backed by ſome magiſtrate in the county, &c. where the diſtreſs is to be made), to diſtrain the goods of ſuch perſon neglecting or refuſing, and the ſame to ſell, rendering the overplus, after deducting the charges of diſtreſs and ſale, to the owner. ſ. 64.

Perſons paying this rate, exempted from all penalties for neglecting to pave, cleanſe, light, or watch. ſ. 65.

There ſhall be paid to the collectors appointed by the commiſſioners, before any cattle or carriage ſhall paſs on a Sunday through any of the turnpikes under-mentioned, viz. The turnpike at Symond's Corner, in the pariſh of Lambeth; or at any gate to be erected between the ſaid place and the ſtones end in Blackman Street; the turnpike at Newington Butts; any gate to be erected between The New Road; at the end of Kent Street, and Saint George's church; any gate to be erected at or near Starr Corner, in the pariſh of Bermondſey; and any gate to be erected between Dock Head and Folly Bridge; the following tolls, viz.

For every coach, chariot, berlin, chaiſe, chair, calaſh, or other carriage, drawn by ſix or more horſes, ten pence; by four horſes, eight pence; by three or two horſes, ſix pence.

For every chaiſe, chair, calaſh, or other carriage, drawn by one horſe, three pence.

For every horſe, mule, or aſs, not drawing, the ſum of one penny. ſ. 66.

" Tolls may be levied by diſtreſs, &c. Diſtreſs may be " ſold after four days. ſ. 67. Commiſſioners may erect " turnpikes and toll-houſes, ſ. 68. Turnpikes already " erected may be uſed for the purpoſes of this act. ſ. 69.

No perſon ſhall pay the ſaid ſtreet toll more than once for paſſing or repaſſing, at any time on the ſame Sunday, with the ſame cattle and carriage; but all perſons, after having paid ſuch toll once, ſhall, during the remainder of ſuch day, paſs toll-free, with reſpect to the ſaid ſtreet toll with the ſame cattle and carriage, through the gate at which ſuch toll was paid, upon producing a ticket, which the collectors are to give gratis. ſ. 70.

All perſons having paid the Sunday toll, granted by 5 Geo. 3. c. 13. (See § Weſtminſter, poſt.), at the turnpike neareſt to Weſtminſter Bridge, and producing a ticket denoting the payment thereof, ſhall in the ſame day paſs and repaſs with the ſame cattle and carriage through the gate whereat any toll ſhall be taken by virtue of this act, at Symond's Corner, or between the ſaid place and the ſtones end in Blackman Street, without paying any toll authoriſed by this act to be collected; and all perſons having paid the toll at Symond's Corner, &c. ſhall paſs and repaſs on the ſame day, through any gate near Weſtminſter Bridge, without paying any toll by the ſaid act. ſ. 71.

" No toll to be taken for going to or from Blackfriars " Bridge. ſ. 72. Commiſſioners may leaſe the tolls. ſ. 73. " Penalty on evading the tolls the ſame as in 11 Geo. 3. " c. 29. See § Paving, &c. ante. Commiſſioners may " borrow money on credit of the tolls. Securities may " be transferred. ſ. 75. No preference to be given in bor- " rowing money. ſ. 76. Monies raiſed, veſted in the " commiſſioners, to be applied for the purpoſes of this " act. ſ. 77."

Two third parts of the tolls, and of the money borrowed upon the credit thereof, ſhall be applied towards paving the weſtern diviſion; and the remaining one third part ſhall be applied towards paving the eaſtern diviſion:

but when the pavement of either diviſion ſhall be completed, and there ſhall remain any overplus of that diviſion, the ſame ſhall be paid over to the commiſſioners of the other diviſion, if the pavements within ſuch diviſion are not completed, to be applied towards completing the pavements. ſ. 78.

" Balance of money in hand, at receiver's death, to be paid by his executors, &c. within twenty-one days. ſ. 80."

Penalties may be mitigated, viz. for breach of any contract, as five commiſſioners ſhall think proper, ſo as the ſum be not leſs than the injury ſuſtained, and other forfeitures not above one moiety. ſ. 81.

Any perſon aggrieved may appeal to the general quarter ſeſſions within three months, giving twenty-one days notice in writing of his intention to bring ſuch appeal, and of the matter thereof, to the clerk or treaſurer to the commiſſioners; and, within two days after, entering into recognizance before ſome juſtice, with two ſureties, to try ſuch appeal, and abide the order of, and pay ſuch coſts as ſhall be awarded by the ſeſſions: and the juſtices, at ſeſſion, upon proof of ſuch notice, and of recognizance, ſhall determine ſuch appeal, and award coſts to the parties appealing, or appealed againſt, as they think proper; and the determination of ſuch ſeſſions ſhall be final. ſ. 82.

Penalties ſhall be recovered by diſtreſs and ſale of the offenders goods, by warrant of one juſtice, granted upon the confeſſion of the party, or upon the information of one witneſs upon oath, and the penalties when recovered, after rendering the overplus, ſhall be paid to the treaſurer to the commiſſioners, and be applied towards the purpoſes of this act; and in caſe ſufficient diſtreſs ſhall not be found, or ſuch penalties ſhall not be paid forthwith, ſuch juſtice is by warrant to cauſe ſuch offender to be committed to the common gaol, or houſe of correction, for not exceeding three months, nor leſs than fourteen days. ſ. 83.

The commiſſioners may apply part of the penalties, not exceeding one moiety, to the informer. ſ. 84.

" Commiſſioners to defray their own expences. ſ. 85. " Diſtreſs not to be deemed unlawful for want of form; " nor the party diſtraining to be deemed a treſpaſſer, ab initio. ſ. 86. Plaintiff not to recover if tender of amends " hath been made. ſ. 86. Writings to be without " ſtamps. ſ. 87. Proceedings to be entered in a book. " Books may be read in evidence. ſ. 88. Proceedings " not to be quaſhed for want of form; nor removable " by certiorari. ſ. 89."

No action ſhall be commenced for any thing done in purſuance of this act, until twenty-one days notice ſhall be thereof given in writing to the clerk or treaſurer to the commiſſioners, or after ſufficient ſatisfaction or tender thereof hath been made to the party aggrieved, or after ſix months; and ſuch action ſhall be laid and tried in the county where ſuch matters ſhall be committed, and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict ſhall be found for ſuch defendant, &c. he ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 90.

By 11 Geo. 3. c. 17. In caſe the commiſſioners for putting the former act in execution, or five of them, ſhall have occaſion to make any new or additional grates over any ſewer, or to repair or alter any of the old grates, or to make new, repair, alter, cleanſe, or empty any ſewer, under the direction of the commiſſioners of ſewers, ſituate in, or communicating with the ſtreets, &c. then the commiſſioners, or five of them, or their ſurveyor, or other perſon authoriſed by them, ſhall give or leave notice in writing for the clerk to the commiſſioners of ſewers of their intention to have any grates made, or to have ſuch reparation or alteration thereof, or to have any ſuch ſewer made new, repaired, altered, cleanſed, or emptied; and the ſaid clerk is to ſummon ſix commiſſioners of ſewers dwelling in Southwark, three whereof ſhall be of the quorum, to ſurvey the grates, ſewers, and drains, mentioned in ſuch notice, within ten days after receipt thereof; and they are within the time before limited, directed to ſurvey the ſame, and to cauſe grates, ſewers, and drains, to be reformed, and to inquire by a jury who ought to be contributory to the expence, &c. and to make a rate, according to 23 Hen. 8. (See general title, " Sewers"). ſ. 3.

Two parts in three of the monies to be raiſed by the inquiry and aſſeſſment aforeſaid, ſhall be collected upon the owners and occupiers of all meſſuages, &c. ſituate within the levels, called Bridgehouſe Sluice, Green Bank Mill Stream, Battle Bridge Mill Stream, Saint John of Jeruſalem Sluice, Bare Sluice, Boars-head Sluice, Black Lyon Sluice, and Whitewall Sluice, in the county of Surrey, and which are adjoining to any part of any other ſluice, common ſewer, or ſtream, running in or through any of the ſtreets, &c. compriſed in 6 Geo. 3.; and the other third part ſhall be collected upon the owners and occupiers of meſſuages, &c. lying in all the other levels within the limits, under the cognizance of the commiſſioners of ſewers. ſ. 4.

In caſe the commiſſioners of ſewers ſhall neglect to cauſe any ſuch grate, ſewer, or drain to be made new, corrected, repaired, amended, altered, cleanſed, or emptied, for fourteen days after delivery of ſuch notice as aforeſaid, then five of the commiſſioners, under 6 Geo. 3. may cauſe ſuch grate, &c. to be made new, &c. emptied, and reformed, the charges whereof ſhall be paid by the commiſſioners, who ſhall be reimburſed by the clerk to the commiſſioners of ſewers; and in caſe the ſaid clerk ſhall neglect to pay within three months after notice in writing, five of the ſaid commiſſioners are to bring actions, in the name of their clerk, againſt ſuch clerk of the commiſſioners of ſewers. ſ. 5.

The commiſſioners of ſewers ſhall keep accounts of all monies raiſed by any rates made in each level within the limits, and ſuch monies ſhall be applied in new-making, altering, cleanſing, and reforming the ſluices, ſewers, drains and grates within each level; and ſuch accounts may be inſpected by perſons charged to the payment of ſuch rate, who may take copies thereof, upon payment of ſixpence for every one hundred words. ſ. 6.

The commiſſioners of ſewers ſhall make new grates over ſewers, and repair and alter any of the old grates, and cleanſe, repair, and alter all common ſewers, in the levels within the limits, and levy the charges thereof, by an aſſeſſment on all the owners and occupiers of meſſuages, &c. within the levels. And the commiſſioners under 6 Geo. 3. and this act, ſhall rate all pariſh churches, church-yards, chapels, meeting-houſes, ſchools, hoſpitals, priſons, and all other public buildings whatſoever, and all dead walls and void ſpaces of ground, not exceeding ſixpence for every ſquare yard, lying between the fences and the middle of the carriage-way lying before ſuch pariſh churches, &c. But no owner or proprietor of ſuch public buildings ſhall be liable to pave or repair the pavements before ſuch public buildings. ſ. 7.

Actions for any thing done under this act ſhall be commenced within ſix months, and laid in the county where the cauſe of action ſhall ariſe, and the defendant may plead the general iſſue: and if the jury ſhall find a verdict for the defendant, &c. the defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 8.

By 2 Will. & Mar. ſtat. 2. c. 8. All perſons inhabiting in the pariſhes in Middleſex and Weſtminſter *, within the bills of mortality, and in Southwark, and Kenſington, ſhall twice every week (Wedneſday and Saturday) ſweep the ſtreets before their houſes, and the walls of churches and other public places, upon pain to forfeit 3 s. 4 d.; and no perſon ſhall ſuffer to be laid, any aſhes, or other filth, in any ſtreet or alley, before his dwelling-houſe, or the churches and other public places, on penalty of 5 s.; and no perſon ſhall lay any aſhes or ſoil before the houſes of any inhabitants of the places aforeſaid, or before any church, or into any common ſewer or highway within the places aforeſaid, or any other private ſink of any of the inhabitants; but ſhall keep the ſame until the raker come with his cart, and then ſhall carry the ſaid aſhes, &c. to the raker, upon pain to forfeit 20 s. ſ. 2. See 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 27.

No perſon ſhall hoop or cleanſe any caſks or veſſels in the ſtreets, nor ſet out any dung, rubbiſh, or empty coaches to mend, or rough timber or ſtones to be wrought in the ſtreets, on the penalty of 20 s. ſ. 4.

The rakers every day, except Sundays and holy-days, ſhall bring carts into their precincts, and by a bell or otherwiſe, make a loud noiſe, and ſtay a convenient time, that all perſons may bring forth their duſt, which the rakers ſhall daily carry away, upon pain to forfeit 40 s. ſ. 5.

All open ſtreets, lanes and alleys, which now are paved, within the places aforeſaid, ſhall be repaired at the coſts of the inhabitants; and where any houſes ſhall be empty, at the charge of the owners; every one to pave before his houſe, to the denter-ſtone or middle of the ſtreet; upon pain to forfeit 20 s. for every perch, and 20 s. a week until the ſame be amended. ſ. 6.

Within the pariſhes of St. Anne and St. James Weſtminſter †, the ſcavengers, rakers, and ſuch officers, ſhall be choſen, and the rates for ſcavengers raiſed by the pariſhioners, according to the cuſtom and uſage of the ſaid city: and the receivers of ſuch monies ſhall be accountable as they now are by law; and new tenements ſhall pay proportionable with others. And in all other places aforeſaid, upon Monday or Tueſday in Eaſter-week, the conſtables, church wardens, and overſeers of the poor, and ſurveyors of the highways of the ſaid pariſhes and places, calling together ſuch other ancient inhabitants as are uſually preſent at the election of pariſh officers, ſhall appoint two or more able perſons, tradeſmen of their pariſh, to be ſcavengers of each ward and diviſion within their pariſh, for the year enſuing, and until others be choſen; which perſons being confirmed under the hand of two juſtices of peace, ſhall within ſeven days after their election and confirmation, and notice thereof, take that office upon them, upon pain to forfeit 10 l. and in caſe of refuſal, other perſons ſhall be choſen and confirmed within ſeven days after ſuch refuſal: the ſaid penalties to be paid to the ſurveyors of the highways towards the mending of the highways and ſtreets of the pariſh, &c. and to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of one juſtice of peace directed to the conſtables or other officers of the pariſh, or two of them; and in default of diſtreſs or non-payment within ſix days after demand, or notice left in writing at the dwelling-place of the offender, by the conſtables, &c. the offender to be committed to the common gaol by warrant of ſuch juſtice, until payment. ſ. 9.

Within twenty days after the election and confirmation of the ſcavengers, the conſtables, church wardens, and overſeers of the poor, and ſurveyors of the highways of the pariſhes, calling together ſuch inhabitants as aforeſaid, ſhall make a rate according to a pound-rate ‡, upon the inhabitants for the year following, for the purpoſes aforeſaid; which being confirmed by two juſtices of peace, ſhall be quarterly paid by every inhabitant, upon demand made by the ſcavengers or officers appointed to collect the ſame; and in caſe of neglect, ſhall by warrant of two juſtices of the diviſion, be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, and for want of diſtreſs, by impriſonment, the offender not being a peer. ſ. 10.

Such money as ſhall be yearly collected for cleanſing the ſtreets, ſhall be yearly accounted for by the ſcavenger which collected the ſame, to two of the next juſtices of the peace, within eight-and-twenty days after the election of new ſcavengers; and any two ſuch juſtices may commit to priſon the ſcavengers which ſhall refuſe to account, until they have made account, and paid ſo much as ſhall be in hand. ſ. 11.

The ſcavengers ſhall have liberty, by order of the juſtices at their petit ſeſſions, to lodge their duſt in ſuch vacant and public places in or near the highways, as ſhall be thought convenient for the accommodation of the country carts returning empty, they giving ſatisfaction to the owners and occupiers of ſuch places; and in caſe of unreaſonable demands, ſuch juſtices in their petit ſeſſions ſhall determine the ſame; and any perſon aggrieved with any rate made by this act, or prejudiced by any determination of the juſtices in petit ſeſſions, may have recourſe to the quarter ſeſſions, and their determination ſhall be final. ſ. 12.

Aſſeſſments upon the inhabitants, owners, and occupiers of tenements, or perſonal eſtate uſually rateable to the poor within the ſaid pariſhes, ſhall be made by ſuch perſons as the juſtices at their quarter ſeſſions ſhall appoint; and the money ſhall be employed and accounted for according to the order of the ſaid juſtices for amending ſuch high-ways as need ſhall require; and the aſſeſſment ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods of every perſon not paying within fourteen days after demand: provided that no ſuch aſſeſſments in any one year, ſhall exceed 4*d.* in the pound, nor 8*d.* for every 20*l.* perſonal eſtate. ſ. 13.

* See the acts for paving, lighting, and cleanſing Weſtminſter and Southwark, whereby pariſhes within the limits of thoſe acts are exempted from the regulations contained in this act, and 19 Geo. 2.

† Theſe pariſhes are included in the Weſtminſter paving acts.

‡ The power of making rates for repairing the highways, repealed by 7 Geo. 3. c. 42.

All new ſewers ſince 12 Car. 2. made in any of the pariſhes in the liberty of Weſtminſter, ſhall be ſubject to the commiſſioners of ſewers, who ſhall have power to alter ſuch new ſewers, and to order the making of new ſewers, and to alter any channels in the ſtreets. ſ. 14.

Every houſeholder within any of the pariſhes or precincts in the counties of Middleſex and Surrey, and liberty of Weſtminſter, compriſed within the bills of mortality, whoſe houſe adjoins to, or is near the ſtreet, from Michaelmas to Lady-day yearly, ſhall every night ſet out candles or lights in lanthorns on the outſide of the houſe next the ſtreet, as it ſhall grow dark, until 12 o'clock, upon pain to forfeit 2*s.* for every default; excepting ſuch perſons as ſhall agree to make uſe of lamps, to be placed at ſuch diſtances in the ſtreet, as ſhall be approved of by two juſtices of peace. ſ. 15.

For the mode of recovering penalties, ſee ſ. 18. under § Hay, in p. 77.

The wheels of every cart or dray for the carriage of any thing from any place within the ſaid places, to any place in the ſaid cities and places where the ſtreets are paved, ſhall contain the breadth of ſix inches in the felley, and ſhall not be wrought about with iron, nor drawn with above two horſes after they are up the hills from the water-ſide; and the owners of any cart or dray to be uſed as aforeſaid, the wheels whereof ſhall not be ſix inches in breadth, or ſhall be ſhod with iron, or be drawn with above two horſes, ſhall forfeit 40*s.* ſ. 19. See 18 Geo. 2. c. 33.

This ſhall not extend to any country cart or waggon that ſhall bring goods to the cities aforeſaid, or ſhall carry any goods half a mile beyond the paved ſtreets. ſ. 20.

No perſon ſhall keep ſwine in the houſes or backſides of the paved ſtreets of the ſaid pariſhes where the houſes are contiguous, upon pain of forfeiting the ſame to the church wardens and overſeers of the poor, to the uſe of the poor; and it ſhall be lawful for any of the church-wardens, chapel-wardens, overſeers of the poor, conſtables, beadles, headboroughs, or tythingmen of the pariſhes, in the day-time, by warrant of the mayor of London, or any other of their majeſties juſtices of peace, to ſearch in all ſuch places for ſuch ſwine, and all that ſhall be found, to ſeize, drive away and ſell, and the money produced to deliver to the churchwardens or overſeers of the pariſh where ſuch ſwine ſhall be ſeized. ſ. 21.

It ſhall be lawful for the lord mayor and any alderman, upon his own knowledge or view, in the general ſeſſions, to make preſentment for any ſuch offence done within the ſaid city; and the lord mayor and juſtices ſhall at the ſame ſeſſions aſſeſs fines for ſuch offences, not exceeding 20*s.* for one offence; which fines ſhall be levied and paid to the chamberlain for the uſe of the city. ſ. 23.

If any action ſhall be commenced againſt any perſon for what he ſhall do in purſuance of this act, ſuch perſon may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff become nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 25.

By 3 Will. & Mar. c. 12. It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices of Middleſex, at their quarter ſeſſions, to make rates for paving the town of Kenſington, and to repair and cleanſe the ſame, in manner as by 2 Will. & Mar. ſt. 2. c. 8. is directed. ſ. 2.

Stat. 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 37. Every perſon inhabiting in the pariſhes of Middleſex and Weſtminſter, and in the borough of Southwark, or in any of the ſtreets compriſed within the bills of mortality, and the town of Kenſington, ſhall twice every week, on Wedneſday and Saturday, between ſix and nine o'clock in the forenoon, ſweep all the ſtreets before their houſes, and the buildings and walls of churches and other public places, to the end the dirt may be heaped ready for the ſcavenger; upon pain to forfeit 10*s.* for every offence, to be recovered as other penalties by 2 Will. & Mar. ſt. 2. c. 8. ſ. 1.

If any conviction upon this or the ſaid act ſhall be by the view of any juſtice of peace, one half of the penalty ſhall be to the poor, and the other moiety, if for a default of pavement, to be employed for paving and cleanſing the ſtreets, to be paid to the ſcavenger, or otherwiſe to the relief of the poor. ſ. 2.

In caſe any place within the bills of mortality ſhall be by the juſtices ordered to be paved, and the other ſide of the ſaid ſtreet be out of the bills of mortality, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices to cauſe the other part of the ſaid ſtreet to be alſo paved, by the inhabitants adjoining, in the ſame manner. ſ. 3.

The clauſe in 2 Will. & Mar. ſtat. 2. c. 8. ſ. 21. againſt keeping ſwine, ſhall be put in execution againſt all who ſhall keep ſwine within any part of the houſes or backſides of the paved ſtreets or lanes of the ſaid cities or pariſhes, ſo far as the contiguous buildings ſhall extend, or within fifty yards thereof. ſ. 4.

So much of the highway now built on both ſides, leading from Tottenham Court towards Tyburn, ſhall be paved and maintained by ſuch perſons as have uſed to pave or maintain the ſame, under the penalties aforeſaid. ſ. 6.

By 6 Geo. 1. c. 6. ſ. 1. No perſon ſhall carry at one load in London or Weſtminſter, or within ten miles thereof, in waggons or carts, having their wheels ſhod or bound with tire or ſtreaks of iron, more than ſeven hundred and a half of bricks; and any perſon offending herein ſhall forfeit any one of the horſes, together with the geers, to any perſon that ſhall ſeize or diſtrain the ſame, in ſuch manner as the penalties are directed to be levied and applied by 5 Geo. 1. c. 12.† viz. the perſon making ſuch ſeizure, ſhall deliver the horſes to the conſtable or other pariſh officer (who are to keep the ſame) till the perſons ſhall make proof on oath before ſome juſtice, of the offence committed, and the juſtice ſhall iſſue his precept to ſuch conſtable, &c. to deliver the horſes ſo forfeited to the party who ſeized, &c. paying ſuch reaſonable charge for keeping as the juſtice ſhall allow.

By 18 Geo. 2. c. 33. ſ. 2. It ſhall be lawful for any perſon to make uſe of any cart drawn by three horſes, on the paved ſtreets, within the bills of mortality, notwithſtanding 2 W. & M. ſt. 2. c. 8. ſ. 19.

Provided that in caſe any perſon make uſe of any ſuch cart drawn by more than three horſes, he ſhall be liable to all the penalties by the ſaid act inflicted upon perſons uſing carts drawn by more than two horſes. ſ. 3.

Taylors.

By 7 Geo. 1. c. 13. All contracts or agreements between perſons uſing the myſtery of a taylor or journeyman taylor in London or Weſtminſter, or within the weekly bills of mortality, for advancing their wages, or for leſſening their uſual hours of work, ſhall be illegal and void;

† This act has been repealed.

and if any taylor, &c. within the limits aforeſaid, ſhall keep up, enter into, or be knowingly concerned in any ſuch contract, &c. every perſon ſo offending being convicted on the oath of one witneſs, before two juſtices of peace, upon any proſecution, within three months after the offence, ſhall by order of ſuch juſtices, be committed to the houſe of correction, to be kept at hard labour not exceeding two months, or to the common gaol. ſ. 1.

Any two juſtices, upon complaint made for wages, may ſummon the party offending, and for non-payment, may iſſue their warrant for levying ſuch wages by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and for want of diſtreſs, commit the offender to gaol till he ſhall pay. ſ. 4.

If any perſon retained as a journeyman taylor within the limits aforeſaid, ſhall depart from his ſervice before the end of the term for which he is retained, or the work for which he was hired be finiſhed, or not being retained ſhall refuſe to enter into employment (after requeſt by any maſter taylor), unleſs it be for ſome reaſonable cauſe to be allowed by two juſtices of peace, he ſhall be ſent to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour not exceeding two months. ſ. 6.

Perſons aggrieved by the orders of two juſtices, may appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions, giving ſix days notice; and the quarter ſeſſions ſhall have power to award coſts. ſ. 9.

Any perſon convicted of any offence againſt this act, and who ſhall ſuffer for the ſame accordingly, ſhall not be otherwiſe puniſhed. ſ. 10.

By 8 Geo. 3. c. 17. The hours of work in the day for ſervants or journeymen, employed in the buſineſs of a taylor within the city of London, and five miles thereof, ſhall be from ſix in the morning until ſeven in the evening, with an interval of one hour only for refreſhment; and there ſhall be paid to every ſuch ſervant employed for his work, during the hours aforeſaid, the wages following; that is to ſay, any ſum not exceeding two ſhillings and ſeven pence halfpenny per diem, except during one month from the publication of any order for a general mourning by the earl marſhal, in the London Gazette, and during that ſpace, any ſum not exceeding five ſhillings and one penny halfpenny. ſ. 1.

If any maſter ſhall give, allow, or pay, directly or indirectly, in money, or otherwiſe, any more or greater wages than the wages aforeſaid, or ſuch other wages as ſhall from time to time be appointed by virtue of this act; or if any ſervant, journeyman, or other perſon, following the buſineſs of a taylor, within the limits aforeſaid, ſhall take, in any manner, directly or indirectly, by himſelf, or any other perſon to his uſe, any more or greater wages than as aforeſaid, in money, or otherwiſe; every perſon ſo offending, being convicted before two juſtices, either by confeſſion of the party, or upon the oath of one witneſs, upon proſecution commenced within three months, ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction, there to be kept to hard labour, or to the common gaol, for not exceeding two months, nor leſs than fourteen days. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices within the limits aforeſaid, and they are required, on information upon oath made before them, by any perſon whatſoever, that there is reaſon to ſuſpect that any perſon following the buſineſs of a maſter or journeyman taylor, hath given or received greater wages than as aforeſaid, to iſſue their ſummons, requiring any clerk, foreman, apprentice, ſervant, or other perſon employed by ſuch perſon ſuſpected to have offended, or any other perſon, whoſe attendance ſuch informant ſhall think neceſſary, for the purpoſe of giving evidence, to attend ſuch juſtices, or ſome other two juſtices acting for ſuch county or place, at a time and place in ſuch ſummons ſpecified, to teſtify concerning the premiſes; and if ſuch perſon ſo ſummoned ſhall not attend, and proof ſhall be made of the ſervice of ſuch ſummons, either perſonally, or by leaving the ſame at the laſt or uſual place of abode of ſuch perſon, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch two juſtices, or any other two juſtices acting for ſuch county or place, and they are required (unleſs a reaſonable excuſe be made, to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtices) to iſſue their warrant for the apprehending and bringing him before them, or ſome other two juſtices acting for ſuch county or place, to be examined touching the premiſes in the information contained; and if any ſuch perſon ſo attending, or being brought before ſuch juſtices, ſhall refuſe to be examined, or give teſtimony, ſuch perſon ſhall by the ſaid juſtices be committed to the houſe of correction, until he ſubmit to be examined and give teſtimony. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for the mayor, aldermen, and recorder of London, at their general quarter ſeſſions, or general ſeſſions of the peace aſſembled, and they are required from time to time, upon application made to them for that purpoſe, to alter, regulate, order, and appoint the wages to be paid or made to journeymen taylors and ſervants employed in the art of a taylor, in the making up men's and women's work within London, or five miles thereof, and the hours of work; and ſhall within fourteen days after making every ſuch order, cauſe the ſame to be printed and publiſhed, in ſuch manner as to them ſhall ſeem meet, at the reaſonable expence of the perſons applying for the ſame; and after publication thereof, all taylors and journeymen within the limits aforeſaid, are ſtrictly to obſerve the ſame. ſ. 4.

Advertiſing ſuch orders of ſeſſions three times in any two daily newſpapers, publiſhed in London or Weſtminſter, ſhall be deemed ſufficient notice and publication. ſ. 5.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to regulate the wages or hours of work of ſervants, bona fide employed as foremen; or to hinder the paying or receiving further wages (not exceeding ſixpence by the hour in times of general mourning, and threepence the hour at any other time) for working before or after the hours limited, ſo as ſuch overwork be not at any one time leſs than one hour, and be actually performed by ſuch journeyman; and ſo as ſuch retainer and payment be not made in fraud of the regulations. ſ. 6.

If any maſter reſiding within the limits aforeſaid, ſhall directly or indirectly, in any manner whatſoever, employ any ſervant, journeyman, or other perſon, uſing the buſineſs of a taylor, in making up men's or women's work out of the limits, with intent to evade this act, and ſhall pay directly or indirectly to ſuch journeyman, any more or greater wages than aforeſaid; every ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit five hundred pounds, to be ſued for in any courts of record at Weſtminſter; wherein coſts ſhall be paid; one moiety to the king, and the other to the perſon who ſhall ſue. ſ. 7.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon convicted before two juſtices, to appeal to the next general quarter ſeſſions, or general ſeſſions, giving immediate notice of ſuch appeal, and finding ſufficient ſecurity to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtices for being perſonally preſent at ſuch ſeſſions, and for proſecuting the appeal with effect, and abiding the judgment of the court; and ſuch ſeſſions ſhall finally determine the matter, and have power to award coſts to either party; and if the conviction ſhall be affirmed, ſuch appellant ſhall be committed to priſon for the time ſpecified in the ſaid conviction, and until payment of the coſts. ſ. 8.

Actions againſt any juſtice, conſtable, headborough, or other officer, or perſon, for any thing done under this act, ſhall be brought within ſix months. ſ. 9.

Perſons ſued may plead the general iſſue; and if judgment ſhall be given for the defendant, &c. he ſhall recover full coſts. ſ. 10.

Thames.

By 4 Hen. 7. c. 15. The mayor of London having the conſervation of the river Thames, from the bridge of Stanes to the water of Yendall and Medway, ſhall have like authority in breaches, iſſues, and creeks, and grounds overflown, as far as the water ebbeth and floweth, as touching the puniſhment for uſing unlawfully nets and engines in fiſhing, like as his predeceſſors have had in the river of Thames; provided that the mayor of London have not the conſervation in the ſaid breaches and grounds overflown within the king's ground, or within franchiſes of any perſon.

By 27 Hen. 8. c. 18. If any perſon do any thing in annoying of the ſtream in the river Thames, making of ſhelps by digging, caſting of rubbiſh or other thing, or take away any boards, ſtakes, or other thing, from the banks or walls (except it be to repair the ſame), or dig or undermine any banks or walls upon the water ſide, they ſhall forfeit 100 s. one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to the mayor and commonalty of London. ſ. 2.

If complaint be made to the lord chancellor, lord treaſurer, lord preſident, or lord privy ſeal, that any that ſhall have the office for ballaſting of ſhips, take ballaſt near the river of Thames, and do not take for parcel of the ballaſt the gravel and ſand of the ſhelps between Greenhithe and Richmond, or in places that ſhall be to the damage of the river; the lord chancellor, &c. calling the chief juſtices or one of them, ſhall have power to hear and determine ſuch complaint, and to put ſuch order for taking of ballaſt for ſhips, as ſhall ſeem moſt convenient for the conſervation of the river; and the parties offending ſhall ſuffer impriſonment, and make no leſs fine than 5 l. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful to every perſon to take ſand, gravel, or other thing upon any ſhelps, without interruption or paying any thing. ſ. 4.

Tithes.

By 37 Hen. 8. c. 12. Such order as ſhall be decreed by the archbiſhop, and other lords and knights, before the 1ſt of March next, concerning the payment of tithes, oblations, and other duties, within the city of London, and inrolled in the chancery, ſhall be as an act of parliament; and every perſon denying to pay tithes, or other duties, contrary to the decree, ſhall by commandment of the mayor, and in his default, by the lord chancellor, be committed to priſon, till he have agreed with the curate for his tithes and other duties. ſ. 1.

The decree.

The citizens and inhabitants of the ſaid city, ſhall yearly pay their tithes to the parſons, vicars, and curates of the ſaid city, after the rate following, viz. of every 10 s. rent by the year, of all houſes, ſhops, warehouſes, cellars and ſtables, within the city and liberty, 16 d. ob. ſ. 2.

Where any leaſe ſhall be made of any dwelling houſes, ſhops, warehouſes, cellars, or ſtables, by fraud, reſerving leſs rent than hath been accuſtomed, or without rent, by reaſon of any fine or income, or by any fraud or covin, the tenant ſhall pay for his tithes after the rate aforeſaid, according to the quantity of ſuch rent as the ſame houſes, &c. were laſt letten for. ſ. 3.

Item, Every owner of any dwelling houſe, &c. occupying the ſame himſelf, ſhall pay after the quantity of ſuch yearly rent as the ſame was laſt letten for. ſ. 4.

Item, If any perſon ſhall take any manſion by leaſe, and the taker ſhall inhabit in part thereof, and let out the reſidue, the principal farmer ſhall pay his tithes after the rate aforeſaid, according to his quantity, and his executors or aſſignees ſhall pay their tithes according to the quantity of their rent. ſ. 5.

If any perſon ſhall take divers manſion houſes, &c. in one leaſe, and let out one of the houſes, and keep one in his own hands, the ſaid taker ſhall pay his tithes according to the quantity of the yearly rent of ſuch manſion-houſes retained in his hands; and his aſſignees of the reſidue ſhall pay their tithes according to their rents. ſ. 6.

Item, If ſuch farmers, or their aſſignees, ſhall let over all the ſaid manſion-houſes in their leaſe, to one perſon, or to divers, the inhabitants ſhall pay their tithes after the rate of ſuch rents as they ſhall be charged withal, without fraud. ſ. 7.

Item, If any dwelling houſe ſhall be converted into a warehouſe, or if a warehouſe ſhall be converted into a dwelling houſe, the occupier ſhall pay tithes after the rate of manſion-houſe rents. ſ. 8.

Item, Where any perſon ſhall demiſe any dye-houſe or brewhouſe with implements, reſerving a rent as well in reſpect of ſuch implements as in reſpect of ſuch dye-houſe or brewhouſe, the tenant ſhall pay his tithes, the third penny abated. And every principal houſe, with key or wharf, having any crane belonging to the ſame, ſhall pay, the third penny abated. And other wharfs belonging to houſes having no crane, ſhall pay for manſion-houſes. ſ. 9.

Item, Where any manſion-houſe with a ſhop, ſtable, warehouſes, wharf with crane, timber yard, tenter yard or garden, ſhall be occupied together, if the ſame be hereafter ſevered, the occupiers ſhall pay ſuch tithes as is aboveſaid, after the rate of their ſeveral rents. ſ. 10.

Item, The ſaid citizens and inhabitants ſhall pay their tithes quarterly, at Eaſter, the nativity of St. John Baptiſt, the feaſt of St. Michael the archangel, and the nativity of our Lord. ſ. 11.

Every houſeholder paying 10 s. rent, or above, ſhall for himſelf be diſcharged of the four offering days; but his wife, children, ſervant, or others of their family, taking the rights of the church at Eaſter, ſhall pay 2 d. for their four offering days yearly. ſ. 12.

Provided that if any houſe which ſhall be letten for 10 s. rent, or more, ſhall be divided into ſmall parcels, yielding leſs yearly rent; the owners, if they dwell in any part of ſuch houſe, or elſe the principal leſſee, ſhall pay for his tithes after ſuch rate of rent, as the houſe was accuſtomed to be letten for, before ſuch diviſion; and the under leſſees ſhall be diſcharged of tithes for ſuch ſmall parcels, paying 2 d. a-piece yearly for their four offering days. ſ. 13.

For ſuch gardens as appertain not to any manſion-houſe, and which any perſon ſhall hold for pleaſure, or to his own uſe, the perſon holding the ſame ſhall pay no tithes; but if any perſon, which ſhall hold any ſuch garden containing half an acre or more, ſhall make an yearly profit thereof by way of ſale, he ſhall pay tithes for the ſame after ſuch rate of his rent as above ſpecified. ſ. 14.

If any ſuch gardens be by fraud divided into leſs quantities, then to pay tithe according to the rate aboveſaid. ſ. 15.

This decree ſhall not extend to the houſes of great men kept in in their own hands, and not letten, which in time paſt have paid no tithes, ſo long as they continue unletten, nor to any halls of crafts or companies ſo long as they be kept unletten, ſo that the ſame halls have not uſed to pay tithes. ſ. 16.

This decree ſhall not charge any ſheds, ſtables, cellars, timber yards nor tenter yards, which were never parcel of any dwelling houſe, nor have accuſtomed to pay tithes. ſ. 17.

Where leſs than ſixteen pence halfpenny in the 10*s. rent hath been accuſtomed to be paid for tithes; the ſaid citizens ſhall pay but after ſuch rate as hath been accuſtomed. ſ.* 18.

If any variance ariſe in the city for non-payment of tithes, or if any doubt ariſe upon the diviſion of any rents or tithes, or of any aſſeſſment thereof, or upon any other thing contained in this decree; upon complaint made by the party grieved, the mayor, by the advice of counſel, ſhall call the parties before him, and make a final end, with coſts to be awarded by the diſcretion of the mayor and his aſſiſtants, according to this decree. ſ. 19.

If the mayor make not an end thereof within two months, or if any of the parties find themſelves aggrieved, the lord chancellor, upon complaint to him made within three months next following, ſhall make an end in the ſame, with coſts. ſ. 20.

If any perſon take any tenement for a leſs rent than it was accuſtomed to be letten for, by reaſon of ruin or decay, ſuch perſon ſhall pay tithes only after the rate of his rent reſerved in his leaſe. ſ. 21.

By 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 15. ſ. 1. The annual certain tithes of the pariſhes within the city of London, and the liberties thereof, ſhall be as followeth; viz.

Which ſums to be paid in lieu of tithes ſhall be the reſpective certain annual maintenance (over and above glebes and perquiſites, gifts and bequeſts) of the reſpective parſons, vicars, and curates, legally inſtituted, inducted, and admitted into the reſpective pariſhes. ſ. 3.

The alderman of the ward wherein any of the ſaid pariſhes reſpectively lie, and his deputy, and the common council men of ſuch ward, with the churchwardens, and one or more of the pariſhioners of ſuch reſpective pariſh, to be nominated by ſuch alderman, deputy, common council men, and churchwardens, or five of them, whereof the alderman or his deputy to be one, ſhall before the 20th of May 1671 aſſemble, and proportionably aſſeſs upon all houſes, ſhops, warehouſes, and cellars, wharfs, keys, cranes, water-houſes, and toſts of ground remaining unbuilt, and all other hereditaments (except parſonage and vicarage houſes) the whole reſpective ſum by this act appointed, or ſo much of it as is more than what each impropriator is by this act enjoined to allow, in the moſt equal way; which aſſeſſments ſhall be finiſhed before the 24th of July then next enſuing. ſ. 4.

The ſaid aſſeſſors, within ten days after ſuch aſſeſſments made, and appeals determined, ſhall make three tranſcripts thereof in parchment, and ſubſcribe the ſame; and within 20 days after, one of the ſaid tranſcripts ſhall be returned to the lord mayor of London, to be kept among the records of the ſaid city; and another ſhall be returned into the regiſtry of the lord biſhop of London; and the other ſhall be kept in the veſtry of ſuch reſpective pariſh. ſ. 8.

Such reſpective ſums ſo aſſeſſed ſhall be paid to the reſpective parſons, vicars, and curates, at the four uſual feaſts, or within fourteen days after, by equal payments, to commence from ſuch time as the incumbent begins to officiate. ſ. 9.

In any pariſh where any impropriations be, the impropriators ſhall pay what really and bona fide they have uſed and ought to pay to the incumbent, at any time before the late fire in 1666, and the ſame ſhall be computed as part of the maintenance of ſuch incumbent. ſ. 10.

If any inhabitants in any pariſh refuſe or neglect to pay any ſum payable by this act (being lawfully demanded at the premiſes whereout the ſame is payable), it ſhall be lawful for the lord mayor of London, upon oath made before him of ſuch refuſal or neglect, to grant warrants for the officer or perſon appointed to collect the ſame, with the aſſiſtance of a conſtable in the day-time, to levy the ſame tithes or ſums of money by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the party refuſing or neglecting to pay. ſ. 11.

In caſe the lord mayor or court of aldermen neglect to execute any of the powers to them by this act granted, or to perform every thing relating to the aſſeſſing or levying the ſums aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for the lord chancellor, or any two or more of the barons of the exchequer, by warrant, to do what the ſaid lord mayor and court of aldermen ought to have done; and by ſuch warrant, either to impower any perſon to make the aſſeſſments, or to authoriſe the officers or perſons appointed to collect the ſums aforeſaid, to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of any perſon neglecting to pay. ſ. 12.

No court or judge eccleſiaſtical or temporal, ſhall hold plea for any ſum to be paid by virtue of this act, other than the perſons hereby authoriſed: nor ſhall it be lawful for any parſon, vicar, curate, or incumbent, to ſue any perſon neglecting to pay in any court, or before any judge, other than what are appointed by this act. ſ. 14.

It ſhall be lawful for the warden and minor canons of St. Paul's church London, parſon and proprietors of the rectory of the pariſh of St. Gregory, to receive and enjoy all tithes, oblations, and duties ariſing within the ſaid pariſh, as formerly they have, or lawfully might have done. ſ. 15.

Victuals.

By 31 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. c. 10. Every man that bringeth victuals to London, may freely ſell the ſame without being interrupted by fiſher, butcher, poulterer, or other; and the mayor and aldermen may redreſs the defaults of fiſhers, butchers, and poulterers, as of thoſe that ſell bread, ale or wine, notwithſtanding charters of franchiſe, ſtatutes, cuſtoms, or other privileges; and the mayor and aldermen ſhall do the ſame, upon the pain in 28 Edw. 3. c. 10. [ſee page 64.] ſo that the puniſhment be not made in reſpect of any ſingular profit.

By 6 Ric. 2. c. 10. Aliens being of the amity of the king, and coming within the city of London, and other cities and towns, with fiſh and other victuals, ſhall be under the ſpecial protection of the king; and they may ſell and make their profit at retail or in groſs.

By 1 Hen. 4. c. 17. The ſtatute of 6 Ric. 2. c. 10. ſhall be duly executed, notwithſtanding the letters patent granted to the contrary to the fiſhmongers of London, by the late king Richard.

Voucher.

By ſtat. Glouc. 6 Edw. 1. c. 12. If a man be impleaded for land in London, and doth vouch a foreigner to warranty, he ſhall come into the chancery and have a writ to ſummon his warrantor at a certain day before the juſtices of the bench; and another writ to the mayor and bailiffs, that they ſhall ſurceaſe in the matter until the cauſe of the warranty be determined before the juſtices of the bench; then ſhall he that is vouched be commanded to go to London to anſwer unto the chief plea, and a writ ſhall be awarded for the demandant by the juſtices unto the mayor and bailiffs, that they proceed in the plea; and if the demandant recover againſt the tenant, the tenant ſhall come before the juſtices of the bench, which ſhall direct a writ to the mayor and bailiffs, that if the tenant have loſt his land, they ſhall cauſe the land to be extended and valued, and ſhall return the extent at a certain day into the bench, and after it ſhall be commanded to the ſheriff of the ſhire (where the warranty was ſummoned) that he cauſe the party that doth vouch, to have as much of the land of the warrantor in value.

By 9 Edw. 1. If one, being impleaded in London, vouch a foreigner to warranty, the mayor and bailiffs ſhall adjourn the parties before the juſtices of the bench at a certain day, and ſhall ſend their record thither; and the juſtices ſhall cauſe the warrantor to be ſummoned, and ſhall try the warranty; and the mayor and the bailiffs in the mean time ſhall ſurceaſe in the matter, until the warranty be determined before the juſtices; and when the matter ſhall be determined, commandment ſhall be given to the vouchee to depart into the city, and to anſwer unto the firſt plea; and the demandant ſhall have a writ from the juſtices of the bench unto the mayor and bailiffs, that they proceed in the plea; and if the demandant recover, the tenant ſhall come to the juſtices of the bench, and have a writ to the mayor and bailiffs, that in caſe the tenant have loſt his land, they ſhall cauſe it to be extended, and return the extent to the bench, and it ſhall be commanded to the ſheriff of the ſhire where the warranty was ſummoned, that he cauſe the tenant to have of the lands of the warrantor to like value; and if the tenant make default at the day aſſigned in the bench, there ſhall go forth a writ from the juſtices to the mayor and bailiffs, to ſeize the land demanded into the king's hand by a petit cape, and to ſummon the tenant, that he be at the huſtings at a certain day, whereat the juſtices ſhall be adviſed to give judgment upon the default, if he cannot ſave it; and in caſe he can ſave it, the juſtices ſhall be certified thereof by their record.

Wager of Law.

By 38 Edw. 3. ſtat. 1. c. 5. Whereas people be attached in London, at the ſuit of people of the ſame city, ſurmiſing that they be debtors, and that they will prove by their papers, whereas they have no deed or tally, every man ſhall be received to his law by people ſufficient of his condition againſt ſuch papers.

Water.

By 35 Hen. 8. c. 10. It ſhall be lawful to the mayor and commonalty of London, to enter into the grounds, as well of the king as of every other perſon, where they ſhall find any ſprings (ſo that it be not into their houſes, gardens, orchards, or places incloſed within ſtone, brick, or mud-walls), and there to dig pits and ditches, to erect heads, lay pipes, and make vaults, and to do all things neceſſary for the conveyance of the water to the city. ſ. 1.

The mayor ſhall within one month after ſuch ground broken, pay unto the owners of the ground as much money as ſhall be adjudged by three or four indifferent men, to be aſſigned by the lord chancellor, by the king's commiſſion, at the coſts of the mayor and commonalty; and all ſuch ſums ſhall be paid within ten days after the taxation; upon pain the mayor to forfeit 13 s. 4 d. half of which forfeiture to be to the king, and the other moiety to the party grieved that will ſue for the ſame; and the party ſhall have an action of debt againſt the mayor for the debt ſo taxed. ſ. 2.

If the men named by the lord chancellor do not agree in making ſuch taxation, or the mayor do not tender a reaſonable amends, the party whoſe ſoil ſhall be broken, ſhall have his remedy againſt the mayor, by action of treſpaſs. ſ. 3.

If the mayor or his workmen be interrupted by any perſon, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 40 s. the half to the king, and the other moiety to the mayor and commonalty of London, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. ſ. 4.

It ſhall not be lawful to take away any water brought by pipes or trenches to the manſion of any perſons for the uſe of their houſehold, nor that any perſon ſhall undermine or abate any ſprings brought to the city; upon pain to forfeit feit to the party grieved treble damages, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. ſ. 5.

This act ſhall not give authority to enter or dig in any of the king's grounds without the king's licenſe. ſ. 6.

If the mayor and commonalty convey any water from any ſprings in Hampſtead Heath, they ſhall pay yearly to the biſhop of Weſtminſter, at the feaſt of St. Michael, one pound of pepper; and the mayor and commonalty ſhall, within three months after the erection of any heads and vaults upon the ſaid heath, make to the biſhop a grant, with clauſe of diſtreſs, within any their tenements in London, when the pound of pepper ſhall be unpaid ten days, and it be demanded upon any court day in Guildhall. ſ. 7.

The mayor and commonalty ſhall not meddle with the ſpring at the foot of the hill of Hampſtead Heath, cloſed in for the uſe of the inhabitants of Hampſtead. ſ. 8.

The ſaid biſhop may convey from any ſpring in any ground on the left ſide of the highway leading from Hampſtead, towards Hendon, to the manor place of Hampſtead, water ſufficient for the uſe of the manor place. ſ. 9.

By 3 Jac. 1. c. 18. The lord mayor, commonalty, and citizens of London, may lay out ground for the making a trench for a river from the ſprings of Chadwel and Amwel, at the breadth of ten foot, with the allowance of the commiſſioners hereafter mentioned, or any ſeven of them, leaving the inheritance of the new cut in the owners. ſ. 1.

The mayor, commonalty, and citizens, ſhall have liberty to dig the ground, and to lay the earth on either ſide of the river or cut. ſ. 2.

The mayor, commonalty, and citizens, ſhall make ſatisfaction to the owners of the grounds, and all ſuch perſons as ſhall ſuſtain damage in their mills ſtanding upon the ſtreams from which the water ſhall be taken; and in default of their agreement, ſuch recompenſe as ſhall be appointed by the commiſſioners, to be aſſigned by the lord chancellor by commiſſion under the great ſeal, or any nine of them, whereof four to be citizens of London. ſ. 3.

At the requeſt and charges of the mayor, commonalty, and citizens, commiſſions ſhall be granted to ſuch perſons as the lord chancellor ſhall appoint, whereof four ſhall be of Middleſex, four of Eſſex, four of Hertford, and four of London, every of them having lands of the yearly value of 40 l. which ſixteen, or any nine of them, whereof two to be of the city of London, ſhall have power to order what money ſhall be paid by the mayor, commonalty, and citizens, to the owners of the grounds and mills. ſ. 4.

If in the new cut there happen any breaches, the mayor and citizens ſhall ſtop the breaches, and make recompenſe to the party grieved for the damage riſing by their default. ſ. 5.

The mayor and citizens ſhall make and maintain convenient bridges for cattle and carriages over the New River. ſ. 6.

Before a full agreement with the owners of the premiſes, or a commiſſion returned into chancery, it ſhall not be lawful to the lord mayor and citizens to cut any ground. ſ. 7.

The New River ſhall be ſubject to the commiſſion of ſewers. ſ. 8.

The cleanſing and amending of the New River or cut, ſhall be at the charges of the mayor and commonalty; and all fines and amercements which ſhall be impoſed by the commiſſion of ſewers, for any wilful annoyances and offences committed to the hurt of the New River, ſhall be to the benefit of the mayor, commonalty, and citizens. ſ. 9.

By 4 Jac. 1. c. 12. The mayor and commonalty ſhall have liberty to make a vault of brick or ſtone, for the paſſage of the water of the New River (mentioned in 3 Jac. 1. c. 18.) to the north parts of the city. ſ. 2.

By 7 Jac. 1. c. 9. The provoſt and fellows of Chelſea College, in the fields between Lock-bridge near Hackney, and Bow-bridge, may cut from the River Lee a trench not exceeding in breadth ten foot, in ſuch ſort as the ſame may again open itſelf into the main river; upon which trench ſhall be erected water-wheels. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful to dig for the opening of ſprings, and to convey the water of the ſaid ſprings, and ſo much of the water in the trench as ſhall be neceſſary, unto the city of London. ſ. 4.

The lord chancellor (by commiſſion under the great ſeal) ſhall appoint ſeven perſons, whereof two ſhall be juſtices of peace of Middleſex, and two of the city of London, every of the ſaid perſons having lands of the yearly value of 40 l. which ſeven perſons, or any four of them, ſhall have power to order what money ſhall be paid for ſatisfaction of damages to the owners of the ſoil, or others intereſted in the waters. ſ. 8.

The ſaid water ſhall not be conveyed through the houſe, garden, or orchard, of any perſon, or through any corn-fields, while the corn is growing. ſ. 10.

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 26. Commiſſioners were appointed for ſupplying the city of Weſtminſter and parts adjacent with water from the Thames, by cuts to be made between Chelſea Hoſpital and the Neat Houſes. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſhall wilfully pull down or deſtroy any part of the works, or attempt ſo to do, or ſhall remove any of the works or materials, whereby the water-works may be damaged, ſuch offender ſhall forfeit to the commiſſioners treble damages, with coſts. ſ. 2.

His majeſty may incorporate the commiſſioners by the name of The governors and company of Chelſea waterworks; and they may purchaſe lands, &c. not exceeding 1000 l. per ann. and be under ſuch rules as his majeſty ſhall inſert in ſuch letters patent. ſ. 3.

The commiſſioners may make, repair, alter, and cleanſe their ſewers and other works, for conducting the waters through any roads or ſtreets, or through any ground which ſhall be purchaſed by them. ſ. 4.

It ſhall not be lawful to put into any of the water-courſes, ponds, pipes, &c. any dirt, gravel, ſtones, carrion, or other unwholeſome thing, nor to waſh any clothes or other noiſome thing, nor to make any drain into the water-courſes, &c. or to do any other annoyance thereto; on pain to forfeit 40 s. with double damages and coſts to the uſe of the company; and the commiſſioners ſhall have remedies by bill in chancery, to have diſcovery upon oath who cauſed to be done the treſpaſſes complained of; and ſhall have liberty within ſix months after diſcovery to commence any ſuit at law to recover ſatisfaction. ſ. 5.

The commiſſioners, before they meddle with the lands of any perſon, ſhall firſt agree with the owners or tenants; and in caſe they lay any pipes in any highway, they ſhall make good the highway as often as occaſion ſhall require. ſ. 6.

The commiſſioners may lay pipes in the ſtreets or common grounds, making good the ſame, and carrying away their rubbiſh. ſ. 7.

If the major part of the inhabitants of any ſtreet or other places into which the commiſſioners ſhall lay water-pipes, ſhall deſire to have pipes ſtanding upright, to be ready ready for the conveying water into engines for extinguiſhing fires, the commiſſioners ſhall ſet up ſuch pipes, upon which the commiſſioners may fix locks, and the keys ſhall be kept by the churchwardens, or ſuch perſons as the inhabitants ſhall appoint. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall not hinder the New River company, or the mayor, &c. of London, or the York Buildings company, or any other proprietors of water-works, from uſing, &c. all rights, &c. which they ſhall be entitled unto. ſ. 9.

If any action be brought for any thing done in relation to the premiſes, the defendant may plead the general iſſue, &c. and if the plaintiff become nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall have double coſts. ſ. 12.

Nothing in this act ſhall take away the juriſdiction of the mayor, commonalty, and citizens of London, upon the Thames. ſ. 13.

Watermen.

By 2 & 3 Phil. & Mar. c. 16. There ſhall be yearly appointed by the mayor and court of aldermen of London, eight perſons of the beſt ſort of watermen, being houſeholders, and occupying as watermen upon the river between Graveſend and Windſor, which election ſhall be yearly at the firſt court of aldermen, after the firſt of March; and the ſame perſons ſhall be called The overſeers and rulers of all the wherrymen and watermen that ſhall uſe rowing upon the Thames, betwixt Graveſend and Windſor; which overſeers and rulers ſhall keep good order amongſt the watermen. ſ. 3.

No two watermen in one boat betwixt Graveſend and Windſor, ſhall take any perſon into their boat, unleſs one of the watermen have been uſed in rowing upon the Thames two years before, and one of the watermen allowed by the rulers, by writing under their ſeal; upon pain that every perſon offending ſhall by the rulers be committed to one of the counters, there to remain one month or leſs. ſ. 4.

No perſons being ſingle men, not keeping houſehold, and not retained, ſhall uſe to row between Graveſend and Windſor, unleſs they be apprentices, or in ſervice retained with a maſter by the year, upon pain of like impriſonment. ſ. 5.

The lord mayor of London, and the aldermen, and the juſtices of peace within the ſhires next adjoining to the Thames, ſhall have power, upon complaint made by the rulers, or two of them, or the maſters of any ſuch ſervants, not only to examine, hear, and determine, all offences committed contrary to this act, and to ſet at large all perſons impriſoned by the ſaid rulers, if juſt cauſe ſhall appear ſo to do, but alſo to puniſh and reform the ſaid rulers that ſhall unjuſtly puniſh any perſon by colour of this act. ſ. 6.

If any perſon ſhall make any wherry, to the intent commonly to uſe carrying people upon the Thames, which ſhall not be two-and-twenty foot and a half in length, and four foot and a half broad in the midſhip, or which ſhall not be ſufficient to carry two perſons on one ſide tight, according to the old ſcantling and good proportion; the boats made contrary ſhall be forfeit; the one half to the king, and the other half to them that will ſue for the ſame, in any of the courts of record. ſ. 7.

If any perſons, which ſhall uſe the occupation of rowing betwixt Graveſend and Windſor, in the time of the execution of any commiſſion of preſſing for the ſervice of the king, ſhall willingly and obſtinately hide themſelves, and after when ſuch preſſing is over, ſhall return to the Thames, to row betwixt Graveſend and Windſor, and that duly proved by two witneſſes before the mayor and court of aldermen, or juſtices, and two of the rulers, they ſhall ſuffer impriſonment two weeks, and be baniſhed any more to row upon the river, by the ſpace of one year and day. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful to the rulers to call before them all perſons who ſhall uſe the trade of rowing betwixt Graveſend and Windſor, and regiſter the names of them that ſhall be by them allowed for watermen, and to take ſuch further order therein as ſhall ſeem meet; and the ſaid rulers ſhall ſurvey all boats that ſhall be made, before they be launched. ſ. 9.

If any perſon elected a ruler, happen negligently to exerciſe his place, or will obſtinately refuſe to take upon him the place of ruler, ſuch offender ſhall forfeit 5 l. the one half to the king, and the other half to him that will ſue for the ſame in any of the courts of record. ſ. 11.

The mayor and court of aldermen of London, ſhall ſet the price that every perſon ſo authoriſed to row ſhall take for his fare, and the ſame prices ſhall bring to the privy council; and after the prices ſhall be ſigned with the hands of two of the privy council, the mayor and court of aldermen ſhall cauſe the ſaid prices to be ſet up in tables in Guildhall, Weſtminſter Hall, and elſewhere; and every perſon that ſhall take for his fare above the prices aſſeſſed, ſhall forfeit 40 s. and ſuffer impriſonment one-half year; the one moiety of the forfeiture to be to the king, and the other moiety to him that will ſue for the ſame, in any of the courts of record. ſ. 11.

No perſon uſing any weſtern barge, ſhall take into his ſervice any ſingle perſon, not keeping houſe, but only ſuch as ſhall be retained with him by the whole year, and no houſeholder but ſuch as he will anſwer for, upon pain of 40 s. the one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to him that will ſue for the ſame, in any of the courts of record. ſ. 12.

By 8 Eliz. c. 13. All ſea faring men dwelling about the river of Thames, being thereto licenſed by the maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants of the Trinity Houſe, as well between their voyages as at other times, may freely exerciſe and row in wherries up and down the Thames, to apply and follow the carrying of the queen's people to and fro as other watermen uſe to do. And ſuch ſea-faring men ſhall not thereby be drawn under any other government than under the ſaid maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, as they were before. ſ. 4.

By 1 Jac. 1. c. 16. No waterman that ſhall row upon the Thames, and carry paſſengers or goods in any wherries, tilt-boats, or barges (other than weſtern barges, mill-boats, and other veſſels, ordinarily ſerving for other uſes than the carrying of paſſengers), ſhall take any ſervant or apprentice to ſerve him upon the river, unleſs the waterman ſhall have been an apprentice to a waterman five years; and no waterman upon the Thames ſhall take any perſon to ſerve him upon the river as his apprentice, unleſs the apprentice be bound to ſerve upon the river for ſeven years at leaſt; upon pain of 10 l. the one half whereof ſhall be to the king, and the other half unto any perſon that will ſue for the ſame in any of the courts of record. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not extend to the ſon of any waterman that ſhall be brought up in rowing, or accuſtomed to row. ſ. 2.

The eight rulers of the company of watermen, twice every year, viz. upon the firſt of September and the firſt of March, ſhall read and publiſh in the hall where they meet, all the orders made by the rulers, upon pain of 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* the one half to the king, and the other half unto any perſon that will ſue for the ſame in any of the king's courts of record. ſ. 3.

By 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 21. Every perſon being a lighterman or owner of any lighter, or keeping any lighter or other large craft, or working in the ſame, between Graveſend and Windſor, ſhall be of the ſame company with the wherrymen and watermen; and the ſaid wherrymen, watermen, and lightermen, are hereby made one ſociety and company. ſ. 1.

Every perſon who ſhall keep or work, or ſhall be employed in navigating any lighter or other great craft on the Thames (Trinity men, fiſhermen, ballaſt men, weſtern barges and mill-boats, chalk hoys, faggot and wood lighters, and other craft carrying the ſame, excepted) ſhall be regiſtered in books to be kept by the company of watermen and lightermen, and ſhall be liable to their orders for the government of the company. ſ. 2.

There ſhall be yearly choſen by the court of lord mayor and aldermen of London, eight of the beſt ſort of watermen, and three out of twelve perſons to be yearly nominated by the lightermen, of the beſt ſort of lightermen, being houſeholders, having two lighters or flat boats upon the river; which elections ſhall be at the firſt court of aldermen, after the 1ſt of June; and the eleven perſons ſo elected ſhall be called The overſeers and rulers of all the wherrymen, watermen, and lightermen, that ſhall uſe any rowing upon the river of Thames, betwixt Graveſend and Windſor; which rulers ſhall keep good orders amongſt the watermen and lightermen; and the rulers are authoriſed to call before them, at the hall of the company in London, every perſon which ſhall keep or uſe in rowing or navigating any lighter or other great craft (except as before excepted) betwixt Graveſend and Windſor, and ſhall regiſter the names of them for lightermen to row on the river, and take ſuch order therein as ſhall ſeem meet for the common benefit of his majeſty's ſubjects. ſ. 3.

The ſaid rulers and aſſiſtants ſhall on the firſt court day after the 1ſt of June yearly, appoint the watermen of the principal towns, ſtairs, and places of plying; and ſuch watermen ſhall chuſe one free waterman, being an houſeholder, to be of their aſſiſtants, ſo as they exceed not 60, nor be leſs than 40; and on the 1ſt of June, the lightermen which ſhall meet at the hall between eight and twelve in the morning yearly, ſhall chuſe nine lightermen, who, together with the watermen, ſhall be the aſſiſtants of the company, to adviſe and aſſiſt the rulers in the diſcovery and regulation of miſcarriages done on the river, for putting the laws in execution, and preſerving good government amongſt the company. And the rulers and aſſiſtants ſhall yearly on the 1ſt of July preſent to the court of lord mayor and aldermen for their approbation, five able watermen, and two able lightermen, to be auditors of the company, who ſhall audit the accounts of the rulers and others; and upon ſtating the accounts, the ſame ſhall be entered in a book, and ſigned by the auditors, or the major part of them, to be ſet in ſome public place of the hall, to be inſpected by any perſon concerned. And if any perſon which ſhall be elected ruler, aſſiſtant, or auditor, do after notice obſtinately refuſe to take upon him the place, or ſhall negligently exerciſe ſuch place, ſuch offender ſhall forfeit 5*l.* And the rulers, auditors, and aſſiſtants, being all duly ſummoned by ſummons in writing left at the place of their abode, ſhall for the better keeping good order amongſt the company, make rules and orders, with reaſonable penalties; which rules, &c. ſhall be laid before the court of lord mayor and aldermen, to be altered or approved, and afterwards confirmed or altered by the lord chief juſtice of either bench. ſ. 4.

The lord mayor of London, and the aldermen, and the juſtices of peace within the ſhires adjoining to the river Thames, between Graveſend and Windſor, ſhall have power, upon complaint made by the rulers, or two of them, to hear and determine by the oath of one witneſs, all offences done by any ſuch perſons contrary to this act, or any rule to be made purſuant to the authority hereby given; and by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of the lord mayor and aldermen, or one of the aldermen or juſtices, to cauſe to be levied all penalties touching watermen or lightermen. ſ. 5.

All perſons keeping or working any lighter or flat boats uſed for the lading or unlading goods to or from ſhips, who ſhall regiſter the names of themſelves and their ſervants, with their places of abode, on or before the 29th of September next, ſhall be deemed lightermen; and it ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſons, and no other (free watermen that ſhall be regiſtered as lightermen hereafter, and ſuch perſons who ſhall have been retained and ſerved apprenticeſhip with a lighterman excepted), to keep and work, or be employed in the working of lighters or other great craft; upon pain that every perſon doing the contrary, ſhall forfeit 5*l.* for every week. ſ. 6.

No perſons (except Trinity men) ſhall be allowed to work or ply on the river betwixt Graveſend and Windſor, in any boats or barge ordinarily ſerving for carrying paſſengers for profit, except ſuch as ſhall have ſerved apprenticeſhip to a waterman, or is a ſervant or apprentice to a waterman, and qualified as by former ſtatutes and this act; and all penalties in the ſaid former laws and this act ſhall be paid to the rulers of the watermen, &c. for the uſe of the poor, aged, decayed, and maimed, perſons of the company. ſ. 7.

It ſhall be lawful for the owners or occupiers of any keys betwixt Hermitage-bridge and London-bridge, to uſe their lighters or large crafts as heretofore, for carrying goods to and from their wharfs, and to and from ſhips, and to employ any watermen or lightermen duly qualified to work their craft; and it ſhall be lawful for any perſons who ſhall be woodmongers, and keep wharfs for retailing of fuel, to keep and row by themſelves or ſervants, any lighters, or other large craft, for carrying of their own goods, and none others; provided ſuch ſervants be watermen or lightermen. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall not prohibit any proprietors of layſtals to carry off the ſoil from the layſtals in ſuch lighters or veſſels, and by ſuch perſons, as have been accuſtomed, nor to prohibit any gardener from bringing to the markets of London and Weſtminſter, and the places adjacent, their own fruit and other products of their gardens, or ſoil and dung in their boats, and by their own ſervants as formerly. ſ. 9.

No perſon ſhall be puniſhed for any offence againſt this act, unleſs ſuch offender be proſecuted within 30 days after the offence. ſ. 10.

If any action be brought againſt any perſon for any thing he ſhall do by colour of this act, it ſhall be lawful for the perſon ſued to plead the general iſſue; or that what was done by him was done by virtue of this act, without ſaying more, and give this act in evidence; which act is declared to be a public act; and if the verdict ſhall paſs for the defendant, &c. he ſhall have double coſts. ſ. 11.

Where any offender ſhall be puniſhed by force of this act, he ſhall not incur the penalty of any other law. ſ. 12.

It ſhall be lawful for the rulers, auditors, and aſſiſtants, on their court days, to appoint any number of watermen, not exceeding 40, to work on every Lord's day, between Vauxhall above London-bridge, and Lime-houſe below bridge, at places convenient, for the carrying paſſengers croſs the river at 1*d.* each; and the watermen appointed ſhall on Monday morning pay unto the order of the rulers, auditors, and aſſiſtants, all ſuch money as by them ſhall be received on the Lord's day as aforeſaid; and the rulers, &c. ſhall pay to each waterman for his day's labour ſo much as they ſhall agree for; and the overplus ſhall be applied to the uſe of the poor, aged, decayed, and maimed, watermen and lightermen of the company and their widows; and if any perſon appointed to work ſhall neglect to pay on Monday to the order aforeſaid the money that he ſhall have earned on the day before, he ſhall forfeit to the order of the rulers, &c. 40*s.* ſ. 13.

This act ſhall not abridge any right claimed by the late duke of Richmond and Lenox, lord of the manor of Graveſend, for the holding the court of the water courſe for the better government of barges, boats, and veſſels, uſing the ferry or paſſage from Graveſend to London. ſ. 14.

This act ſhall not abridge any liberties or cuſtoms enjoyed by the mayor, jurats, and capital inhabitants of Graveſend and Milton, touching the paſſage and ferry upon the Thames from the ſaid villages to London. ſ. 15.

This act ſhall not hinder the watermen of the pariſh of St. Margaret, Weſtminſter, from working croſs the river from Weſtminſter-bridge [ſtairs] to Stangate, and from the Horſe-ferry to Lambeth-bridge, every Lord's day in their turns, as they have lately uſed to do; and the monies earned by them on that day are to be employed for the uſe of the poor, aged, decayed, and maimed, watermen and their widows of the pariſh of St. Margaret, Weſtminſter; and any two juſtices of peace of the pariſh are authoriſed to call the watermen ſo working to account for the monies earned, and to cauſe the ſame to be applied as aforeſaid; and the watermen of the ſaid pariſh ſhall chooſe two ſtewards and a clerk on the 23d April yearly, and ſuch watermen of the ſaid pariſh, which ſhall be preſent at a meeting of their ſociety, ſhall have power to appoint ſuch watermen of the pariſh as ſhall in their turns work on the Lord's day as aforeſaid. ſ. 16. Qu. If now in force?

By 4 & 5 Ann. c. 13. The clauſes in 1 Jac 1. c. 16. that reſtrain the taking of apprentices till they ſhall arrive to the ſeveral ages of eighteen and ſixteen years, and every rule made for reſtraining of any waterman or lighterman from taking of apprentices, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for the court of lord mayor and aldermen to review, alter or amend, all bye-laws which relate to apprentices of watermen and lightermen, and all other orders made for the government of the company; which alterations and amendments ſhall be ſubject to the approbation of the chief juſtice of the queen's bench. ſ. 2.

The two next are to the ſame effect, as ſ. 14. & 15. of 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 21. ante.

By 4 & 5 Ann. c. 19. Whereas in this time of war divers watermen, bargemen, lightermen, and wherrymen, belonging to the river, do abſcond and not enter themſelves into her majeſty's ſervice; and it being neceſſary that a convenient number of ſuch watermen, &c. ſhould be obliged to ſerve on board her majeſty's fleet; it is enacted, that in caſe ſuch a number of them as three commiſſioners for executing the office of lord high admiral ſhall give notice to the company of watermen there ſhall be occaſion for to ſerve her majeſty (being ſummoned by leaving notice in writing at the place of their uſual abode by the company), within ten days after ſuch ſummons ſhall not appear before the rulers to be ſent on board her majeſty's fleet, ſuch perſons, being convicted before the lord mayor and court of aldermen, or two juſtices of peace of the city and two of the rulers, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment one month, and be diſabled from rowing upon the Thames, and of enjoying any privileges of the company for two years. ſ. 18.

By 2 Geo. 2. c. 26. It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon who ſhall keep or work any wherry-boat, tilt-boat, barge or other veſſel, for carrying paſſengers or goods for hire upon the Thames between Graveſend and Windſor, to take or employ any apprentice or ſervant, unleſs he be a houſe-keeper, or have ſome known place of abode where he may entertain ſuch apprentice, &c. and ſhall regiſter with the clerk of the watermen's company the habitation, &c. where he ſhall reſide, upon pain that every perſon receiving any apprentice, &c. contrary to this act, and being convicted before the lord mayor, or any one juſtice of peace for the city, or for the county or place where the offenders ſhall be found, by the oath of two witneſſes, ſhall forfeit 10 l. to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods by warrant of ſuch lord mayor, &c. and for want of diſtreſs, he ſhall by like warrant be committed to the workhouſe or houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour not exceeding one month, nor leſs than fourteen days; and the clerk of the company ſhall regiſter the habitation, &c. of every ſuch waterman, &c. without fee; and in caſe of neglect, ſuch clerk ſhall forfeit 10 l. to be levied as any other penalty by this act. And if any waterman, &c. ſhall not regiſter his habitation, &c. and every removal thereof, ſuch apprentice bound to ſuch waterman, &c. ſhall, on application to the rulers at any of their public courts, be turned over to any other maſter or miſtreſs. ſ. 1.

It ſhall not be lawful for any apprentice to have the ſole care of any boat within the liberties aforeſaid, till ſuch apprentice ſhall have attained the age of ſixteen years, if he be the ſon of a waterman, and ſeventeen years, being the ſon of a landman; and unleſs he ſhall have worked on the river for two years at leaſt before his attaining of the ſaid ages; and if any apprentice under the ſaid years ſhall offend contrary to this act, and be convicted in manner aforeſaid, the maſter of ſuch apprentice ſhall forfeit 10*s.* to be levied, &c. as any other penalty in this act. ſ. 2.

In all caſes where diſtreſs cannot be found to ſatisfy the penalties inflicted by any rules, &c. of the company, oath being made of ſuch want of diſtreſs before the lord mayor, or any juſtice of peace for the place where the offender ſhall be found, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch lord mayor, &c. to commit ſuch offender to the workhouſe or houſe of correction, to be kept at hard labour not exceeding one month, nor leſs than fourteen days, ſuch offender being convicted according to this act, or the act 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 21. ſ. 3.

If any perſon, not having ſerved ſeven years to any waterman, &c. (except Trinity men, fiſhermen, ballaſtmen, and perſons employed in navigating weſtern barges, mill-boats, chalk-hoys, faggot and wood-lighters, dung-boats, and gardeners boats, in ſuch manner as hath been accuſtomed, and is allowed by 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 21.) ſhall row any boat or veſſel upon the river for hire between the limits aforeſaid, every ſuch offender being convicted in manner aforeſaid ſhall forfeit 10 l. to be levied as aforeſaid; and for want of diſtreſs, the lord mayor, or any juſtice of peace for the place where the offence ſhall be committed, is required by warrant to commit ſuch offender to the next public workhouſe or houſe of correction not exceeding one month, nor leſs than fourteen days. ſ. 4.

The number of aſſiſtants of the company ſhall be reduced to thirty. ſ. 5.

The two following clauſes are to the ſame effect as ſ. 14 & 15. in 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 21. ante.

It ſhall be lawful for the owners of any key between the Hermitage-bridge and London-bridge to uſe their crafts for the carrying of goods to and from ſhips, and to employ any watermen or lightermen duly qualified, as by 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 21. ſ. 8.

All the penalties incurred by virtue of this act ſhall be ſued for by the rulers of the company, or any two of them, in the manner directed by 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 21. and ſhall be paid to the rulers, and diſtributed for the uſe of the poor of the company, as the rulers ſhall think fit; and all proſecutions for the ſaid penalties ſhall be commenced within one month after the offence. ſ. 9.

All conſtables and headboroughs ſhall be aſſiſting in the execution of this act; and in caſe any ſuit be commenced for any thing done in purſuance of this act, or any former act relating to the water ſervice on the river, the action ſhall be commenced within thirty days after the fact; and the perſons ſued may plead the general iſſue, and on verdict, &c. ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 10.

By 4 Geo. 2. c. 24. Ferry-boats ſhall not be deemed large craft; and flat-bottomed boats and barges, navigated from Kingſton or Windſor, or places between the ſaid towns, to other places on the river, ſhall be deemed weſtern barges, and may navigate upon the river as far as London-bridge; and no perſons working ſuch ferry-boats between the ſaid towns, nor perſons navigating ſuch flat-bottomed boats or barges, ſhall be ſubject to any penalties impoſed by 2 Geo. 2. c. 26.

By 10 Geo. 2. c. 31. It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon (although free of the company) that ſhall keep or work any wherry, tilt-boat, barge, or other veſſel, for carrying paſſengers or goods for hire upon the Thames between Graveſend and Windſor, to take any perſon apprentice, until ſuch perſon arrive to the age of fourteen years, and not to exceed twenty years, which ſhall be made appear by certificate ſigned by the miniſter or church-wardens of the pariſh where ſuch perſon was born, or by the oath of two witneſſes, or their affirmation in caſe of quakers. ſ. 1.

Such apprentice ſhall be bound by indentures as uſual, and inrolled in the book of the company, to ſerve his maſter or miſtreſs upon the river for ſeven years at leaſt; upon pain that every perſon acting contrary ſhall upon conviction before the lord mayor, or any one juſtice of peace for the city, or for the place where the offender ſhall be found, or the offence committed, by the oath of one witneſs, forfeit 10 l. ſ. 2.

Apprentices bound contrary to this act ſhall not thereby obtain any freedom, but ſhall be liable to pay for every time they ſhall work any boat or other veſſel, being convicted in manner aforeſaid, 10 l. ſ. 3.

No freeman of the company, nor his widow, ſhall at one time take more apprentices than two, nor ſhall take the ſecond apprentice till the firſt hath ſerved four years, under the penalty of 10 l. ſ. 4.

It ſhall not be lawful for any waterman or lighterman, or his widow, to keep any apprentice, unleſs ſuch waterman, &c. be the occupier of ſome tenement wherein to lodge himſelf and his apprentices; and ſuch waterman, &c. ſhall keep ſuch apprentices to lodge in the ſame houſe wherein he doth lodge, upon pain of 10 l. ſ. 5.

If any perſon ſhall knowingly and wilfully produce any forged or falſe certificate, and ſhall be thereof convicted before the lord mayor, or any juſtice of peace for the city, by the oath of one witneſs, he ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 6.

Any watermen or lighterman being owner of twelve lighters, barges, or flat-bottomed boats, in his own right, may take two apprentices; and the owner of twenty lighters, &c. may take four apprentices; provided ſuch owner firſt take an oath before the lord mayor, or one juſtice of peace for London, Weſtminſter, Middleſex, Eſſex, Surrey, Kent, Bucks, or Berks, that he is bona fide the real owner of the numbers of lighters, &c. aforeſaid, and produce ſuch oath in writing under the hand and ſeal of the lord mayor, &c. to the rulers of the company at any of their public courts. ſ. 7.

It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon who ſhall work any tilt-boat, row-barge, or other boat, for gain, to carry in any ſuch boat more than thirty-ſeven paſſengers, and three more paſſengers only, if brought on board by the way; nor to carry in any other boat or wherry more than eight paſſengers, and two more only if called in by the way; nor to carry in any ferry-boat or wherry allowed to work on Sundays, more than eight paſſengers; and if any perſon ſhall carry in any ſuch tilt-boats, &c. a greater number, every perſon ſo offending, and being convicted by the oath of one witneſs, or by confeſſion, before the lord mayor of London, or one juſtice of peace for the place where the offence ſhall be committed, or the offender found, or on view of any ſuch juſtice, ſhall, for the firſt offence, forfeit 5 l. and for the ſecond offence, 10 l. one moiety to the informer, and the other moiety to ſuch uſes as the other penalties impoſed by this act; and every perſon who ſhall offend in the premiſes a third time, ſhall be diſfranchiſed for twelve months, from working any boat, &c.; and in caſe any greater number of perſons ſhall be carried in tilt-boats, &c. and any paſſenger ſhall be drowned, every perſon who ſhall work ſuch boats offending therein, and being convicted, ſhall be guilty of felony, and tranſported as felons. ſ. 8.

No perſon ſhall work any tilt-boat which ſhall not be of the burden of fifteen tons, nor any boats which ſhall not be of the burden of three tons, in the long ferry between London-bridge and Graveſend, except ſuch boat as ſhall be hired by any perſon for his own uſe, upon pain of 10 l. one moiety to the informer, and the other moiety to ſuch uſe as the other penalties. ſ. 9.

It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon to work any boat with a cloſe deck called Graveſend wherries, or with bails nailed to the boats, and which are not moveable, for the carrying of paſſengers for hire between London-bridge and Graveſend (tilt-boats only excepted), upon pain that every perſon offending, and convicted in manner aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit 10 l. one moiety to the informer, and the other moiety to ſuch uſes as the other penalties. ſ. 10.

As often as any watermen rowing in ſuch boats ſhall wilfully or negligently loſe their tide from Billingſgate to Graveſend, or from Graveſend to Billingſgate, by putting on ſhore for paſſengers (except as herein is directed), or by waiting by the way, by means whereof the paſſengers ſhall be landed ſhort by two miles; ſuch paſſengers ſhall be diſcharged from paying for their paſſages. ſ. 11.

The rulers of the company of watermen ſhall appoint officers, who ſhall give attendance every high water at London-bridge at Billingſgate, and the firſt of flood at Graveſend, who at high water, and the firſt of flood, ſhall ring a bell by the ſpace of fifteen minutes; and if after ſuch bell any boat plying for paſſengers, or having paſſengers on board, ſhall not immediately depart and proceed without lying by or putting on ſhore within two miles of Billingſgate or Graveſend for the taking in of goods or paſſengers; or if any ſuch boat ſhall not during the whole ferry be navigated by two able men, the younger thereof to be of the age of 18 years at leaſt; the owner of ſuch boat ſhall forfeit 5 l. being convicted on the oath of one witneſs before one of his majeſty's juſtices of peace of the place where the offence ſhall be committed, or the offender found, to be levied upon the boat and on the goods of the owners; one moiety to the rulers of the company, and the other moiety to the informer. ſ. 12.

In caſe the rulers of the company neglect to ſet up ſuch bells, and to appoint officers to ring the ſame, they ſhall forfeit 50 l. one moiety to the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, and the other moiety to ſuch perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 13.

In caſe any ſuch officer ſhall neglect to ring, he ſhall forfeit 40 s. ſ. 14.

All the penalties by this act, except ſuch as are otherwiſe directed, ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods by warrant of the lord mayor of London, or one juſtice of peace for the city, or for any place where the offence ſhall be committed, or the offender found; and for want of diſtreſs, it ſhall be lawful for the lord mayor, or any juſtice, &c. by warrant to commit ſuch offender to the next workhouſe or houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour not exceeding one month, nor leſs than fourteen days; and the penalties (except ſuch as are otherwiſe directed) ſhall be paid to the rulers of the company, and by them diſtributed to the poor aged and decayed freemen, and their widows; and all proſecutions for the ſaid penalties ſhall be commenced within one month after the offence. ſ. 15.

The penalties may be ſued for by the rulers of the company, or any two of them. ſ. 16.

Nothing herein ſhall hinder any perſons working any flat-bottomed boats or barges, entitled to work the ſame by 4 Geo. 2. c. 24. ſ. 17.

If any ſuit be proſecuted for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſuch ſuit ſhall be commenced within ſix months after the fact, and ſhall be brought in London, Middleſex, Surrey Eſſex, Kent, Bucks, or Berks; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 18.

By 2 Geo. 3. c. 28. If any perſon ſhall uſe, let out to hire, lend, or navigate, or ſhall be aiding in uſing upon the river Thames any bum-boat, or other boat, for the purpoſe of ſelling, bartering, exchanging, or expoſing to ſale, amongſt the ſeamen and labourers in veſſels, any liquors, ſlops, tobacco, brooms, or any fruit, greens, gingerbread, or other ſuch like ware; or ſhall ſell, barter, exchange, or expoſe to ſale as aforeſaid, any ſort of liquor, or any ſlops, tobacco, brooms, or any fruit, greens, gingerbread, or other ſuch like ware or things, in any bum-boat or other boat (except ſuch as ſhall be entered in the office of the maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants of the guild of the Trinity, in manner after mentioned, and ſhall be uſed for the purpoſes aforeſaid, in the day-time, between ſun-riſing and ſun-ſetting only); or if any perſon ſhall take in exchange, or ſhall unlawfully receive, or procure to be delivered to them, any ropes, cordage, tackle, apparel, furniture, ſtores, materials, or any part of any cargo or loading of any veſſels in the ſaid river; every ſuch perſon ſhall, upon conviction before any juſtice, upon the oath of one or more credible perſons, be deemed guilty of a miſdemeanor; and it ſhall be lawful for any perſon to apprehend and detain all perſons then on board ſuch boat, and alſo to ſeize, ſearch, and detain ſuch boat, and the tackle and loading; and the perſon ſo apprehended ſhall be (as ſoon as convenient) conveyed before ſuch juſtice; and ſuch boat, with the ſaid tackle and loading, ſhall, upon ſuch conviction, be forfeited. ſ. 1.

Every bum or other boat whatſoever, uſed for the purpoſes aforeſaid, upon the ſaid river, between London-bridge and the Lower Hope Point, ſhall be entered by the owner at the Trinity Houſe in Water-Lane, London, ſpecifying the name and abode of ſuch owner; to the intent that the maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, may regiſter ſuch entry, and deliver in writing to ſuch owner a number to be marked on every ſuch bum or other boat; and every ſuch owner ſhall cauſe the number delivered to be marked, together with his chriſtian and ſurname, and place of abode, upon ſuch part of the ſaid boat, in ſuch manner as the ſaid maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, ſhall direct. ſ. 2.

Every time the property of ſuch bum or other boat ſhall be altered, the new owner ſhall make a freſh entry, and cauſe the number delivered to be marked on the boat, with his chriſtian and ſurname, and place of abode, as before directed the firſt entering. ſ. 3.

The ſaid maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, ſhall receive and regiſter every ſuch entry in a book to be kept for that purpoſe, and deliver out a number in writing to ſuch owner to be marked on ſuch boat, in ſuch manner as ſhall be directed; for the regiſtering which entry, and delivering out ſuch number, the ſum of five ſhillings ſhall be paid, and no more; and the ſaid maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, are to make ſuch orders, rules and regulations as they think proper, for aſcertaining the part of ſuch boat, on which the number, and the names and abode of the owners, ſhall be marked, and in what manner, and of what dimenſions, the figures and letters ſhall be made, and how the ſame ſhall be renewed and kept legible; and all ſuch orders, after one publication thereof in the London Gazette, and printed copies of the ſame being affixed at Iron Gate, the Hermitage, Execution Dock, Shadwell Dock, Rotherhithe Old Stairs, Deptford, Ratcliffe Croſs, and Blackwall, ſhall be obſerved by every owner of ſuch boats entered. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for the ſaid maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, or ſuch perſon as they ſhall appoint, and for all owners or maſters of veſſels in the ſaid river, or for ſuch perſons as the ſaid owners and maſters, or any ſeven or more of them, by writing under their hands and ſeals, ſhall for that purpoſe nominate (and which it ſhall be lawful for them to do), to ſtop, ſearch and detain any boat, which there ſhall be reaſon to ſuſpect has any ropes, cordage, tackle, apparel, furniture, ſtores, materials, or any part of any cargo or lading, ſtolen or procured out of any veſſel in the river; and alſo to apprehend any perſon who may be reaſonably ſuſpected of having or conveying any ſuch goods, ſtores, or things, in ſuch boat; and ſuch perſon ſo apprehended ſhall be (as ſoon as may be) conveyed before one or more juſtices; and if ſuch perſon ſhall not produce the party from whom he bought or received ſuch things aforeſaid, or ſome credible perſon to depoſe, upon oath, the ſale or delivery thereof, or ſhall not give an account, to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, how he came by the ſame; then the ſaid perſon ſo apprehended, ſhall be deemed guilty of a miſdemeanor; and ſuch boat, with her tackle and loading, ſhall, upon ſuch conviction, be forfeited. ſ. 5.

Every conſtable, headborough, and beadle, and every watchman (during duty), ſhall and may apprehend and detain detain all perſons who may be ſuſpected of having or carrying any ropes, cordage, tackle, apparel, furniture, ſtores, materials, or any part of any cargo or lading, ſtolen or unlawfully procured out of any veſſel in the ſaid river Thames, and alſo ſhall and may ſeize and detain ſuch things aforeſaid, and ſhall, as ſoon as may be, convey the perſon before one or more juſtices; and if ſuch perſon ſhall not produce the party from whom he bought or received the ſame, or ſome credible perſon to depoſe upon oath the ſale or delivery thereof, or ſhall not give an account, to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, how he came by the ſame, then the ſaid perſon ſhall be deemed guilty of a miſdemeanor. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice, upon information on oath, by any credible perſon, that there is cauſe to ſuſpect that any merchandiſes (ſuſpected to have been ſtolen) are concealed in any place, by warrant to cauſe every ſuch place to be ſearched in the day-time; and if any ſuch merchandiſes or things ſhall be found therein, to cauſe the ſame to be depoſited in ſome place of ſafety; and alſo to cauſe the perſon in whoſe houſe, or other place, the ſame ſhall be found, to be brought before him, or any other juſtice; and if ſuch perſon ſhall not give an account to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, how he came by the ſame, or ſhall not within ſome reaſonable time, to be ſet by ſuch juſtice, produce the party from whom he bought or received the ſame, then the perſon in whoſe houſe, or other place, the ſame ſhall be found, ſhall be deemed guilty of a miſdemeanor. ſ. 7.

Upon any perſon being convicted of either of the laſt miſdemeanors, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice, before whom ſuch perſon was convicted, to cauſe ſuch merchandiſes or things to be depoſited in the cuſtody of the churchwardens, or overſeers of the poor (who are to receive the ſame), or in any other convenient place, for not exceeding thirty days; and to order ſuch churchwardens or overſeers, if within the bills of mortality, to inſert immediately an advertiſement in ſome public newſpaper; and if in any other pariſh, to cauſe notice to be immediately given by ſome public cryer, and by affixing on the church or chapel door a notice in writing, deſcribing ſuch merchandiſes or things, and where depoſited, to the end that perſons having loſt any ſuch, or any reputable perſon on their behalf, may claim the ſame, within thirty days from ſuch notice; and in caſe any perſon ſhall, within the thirty days, prove his property in the ſaid things, upon oath to the ſatisfaction of one or more juſtices, then ſuch juſtice ſhall order reſtitution to be made to the owner, after paying the charges of ſeizing, removing, depoſiting, and giving public notice, and alſo reaſonable compenſation to the perſon giving information; ſuch charges and compenſation to be ſettled by ſuch juſtice: but if at the end of the thirty days (notice having been given) no proof ſhall be made, the ſaid things ſhall be ſold by the churchwardens or overſeers; and after deducting the charges ſettled as aforeſaid, the remainder of the money ariſing from ſuch ſale ſhall be given, one moiety to the perſon apprehending or giving information as aforeſaid, and the other moiety to the poor of the pariſh. ſ. 8.

Every perſon to whom any goods, ſtores or things belonging to ſhips or veſſels ſhall be brought and offered to be ſold, pawned or delivered, ſhall (there being cauſe to ſuſpect that ſuch things were ſtolen, or unlawfully come by) apprehend, ſecure and carry before a juſtice the perſon ſo bringing or offering the ſame, and in the mean time ſecure ſuch things, and ſuch perſon ſo apprehended ſhall be dealt with, and ſuch things ſhall be depoſited and diſpoſed of, in the ſame manner as if he had been apprehended by the conſtable, headborough, beadle, or watchman, as aforeſaid. ſ. 9.

Every perſon deemed guilty of the miſdemeanors aforeſaid, ſhall, for every ſuch miſdemeanor, forfeit, for the firſt offence, forty ſhillings; for the ſecond, four pounds; and for every ſubſequent offence four pounds; all which forfeitures ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the offender, by warrant of any one or more juſtices before whom ſuch offender was convicted; which forfeiture ſhall be paid, one moiety to the perſon apprehending, or giving information, and the other to the ſaid maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, of the ſaid corporation, to be diſtributed among the poor decayed ſeamen and their widows, under the care of the ſaid corporation; and if the ſaid forfeitures ſhall not be paid, nor ſufficient diſtreſs be found to levy, then the ſaid juſtice ſhall commit ſuch offender to the common gaol, or other priſon or houſe of correction, without bail or mainprize, for one month for the firſt offence, for the ſecond two months, and for every ſubſequent offence, until ſuch offender ſhall be diſcharged by the general or quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 10.

Every conviction ſhall be certified by the juſtice to the next general or quarter ſeſſions, to be filed among the records of the ſeſſion; and ſuch conviction may be drawn up on parchment, and certified as follows: (that is to ſay), Middleſex, to wit, be it remembered, That on the ——— day of ——— in the year ——— A. B. was convicted before ——— of the juſtices of the peace for the county, city, diviſion, liberty, or place aforeſaid (as the caſe ſhall be), of a miſdemeanor in one or more of the inſtances before mentioned, ſpecifying the ſame, particularly in the words by which the ſame is or are deſcribed in and by this act, or in any other form of words to the like effect.

Given under ——— hand and ſeal the day and year aforeſaid.

Which ſaid conviction, in the ſame or like words, ſhall be good, and ſhall not be quaſhed, for want of any other form or words, nor be liable to be removed by certiorari, but ſhall be deemed final. ſ. 11.

Every perſon who ſhall buy or receive any part of the cargo or loading of, or any goods, ſtores, or things, of or belonging to any ſhip or veſſel in the ſaid river, knowing the ſame to be ſtolen or unlawfully come by; or ſhall privately buy or receive any ſuch goods, ſtores, or things, or any part of ſuch cargo or loading, by ſuffering any door, window, or ſhutter, to be left open or unfaſtened between ſun-ſetting and ſun-riſing for that purpoſe, or ſhall buy or receive the ſame at any time in a clandeſtine manner, from any perſon whomſoever, ſhall, being thereof convicted (although the principal felon or offender have not been convicted), be tranſported for fourteen years to any of his majeſty's plantations in America. ſ. 12.

If any perſon ſhall cut, damage, or ſpoil, any cordage, cable, buoys, buoy rope, headfaſt, or other faſt, fixed to any anchor or moorings belonging to any veſſel at anchor or mooring in the river Thames, or any rope uſed for mooring or raſting maſts or timber, or ſhall be aiding therein, with an intent to ſteal; ſuch perſon ſhall, being convicted thereof on the oath of two or more credible witneſſes, be tranſported to ſome of his majeſty's plantations in America. ſ. 13.

If any perſon out of priſon ſhall afterwards diſcover two or more perſons who ſhall have bought or received any ſtolen or unlawfully procured goods, ſtores, or things, or any part of any cargo or lading of any ſhip or veſſel in the the ſaid river, knowing the ſame to be ſtolen, or unlawfully procured, ſo as two or more of the perſons diſcovered ſhall be convicted; every perſon ſo diſcovering ſhall have the pardon of his majeſty, for all felonies by him committed before ſuch diſcovery made; which pardon ſhall be likewiſe a bar to any appeal for ſuch felony. ſ. 14.

If after the publication of any orders, rules and regulations by the ſaid maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, any perſon ſhall row or navigate, within the limits aforeſaid, any boat herein before directed to be entered, marked and numbered, not being ſo entered, marked and numbered, or having a falſe mark or number, or not having the real name and abode of the owner inſcribed thereon, or not having ſuch names and figures kept fair and legible, in ſuch manner as ſhall have been directed by ſuch orders; in each of the caſes every ſuch perſon, being thereof convicted before one or more juſtices, upon his own confeſſion, or the oath of one or more perſons, ſhall, for every offence, forfeit forty ſhillings; one moiety to be paid to the perſon who ſhall give information of, and proſecute to conviction, and the other moiety to the ſaid maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants: and it ſhall be lawful for any perſon, upon diſcovery of any ſuch offence, to ſeize and detain ſuch boat, with all her tackle, and ſhall thereupon, within forty-eight hours after ſeizure, give information to any one or more juſtices, who ſhall hear and determine, as ſoon as may be, upon ſuch information; and if ſuch forfeiture ſhall not be paid within twenty-four hours after conviction, then the ſame ſhall be raiſed by ſale of the boat and tackle; and every juſtice is to iſſue his warrant to the conſtable or peace officer, to cauſe ſale to be made thereof, and all her tackle with all ſpeed, for raiſing the money forfeited, and ſelling ſuch boat. ſ. 15.

The ſaid maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, ſhall, on any complaint made to them by any credible perſons, of any thefts, robberies, frauds, or other illegal practices being carried on, or ſuſpected, in any boat, numbered and marked as aforeſaid, ſummon the owner to appear before them, at the Trinity Houſe in Water Lane, or other uſual place of meeting; at which time and place the ſaid maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, or any five of them, ſhall inquire into the complaint in a ſummary way; and in caſe the complaint ſhall be proved, and they ſhall think fit, they may take away and totally aboliſh the ſaid number given to the ſaid boat, and alſo for the future refuſe to enter any boat of ſuch owner. ſ. 16.

Where any perſon ſhall be convicted of any offence, by which is incurred the forfeiture of any boat, with her tackle, and concerning which, after conviction, no proviſion is hereby made, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice, or any other juſtice, on conviction, and they are required to cauſe ſuch boat, with her tackle, to be totally burnt and deſtroyed, within ſix days next after conviction, by warrant directed to the conſtable or other peace officer; which ſaid officer ſhall thereupon cauſe ſuch boat to be burnt and deſtroyed. ſ. 17.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon by this act, and without any other warrant, to apprehend any offender by this act, and, with all ſpeed, to convey ſuch offender to a conſtable or peace officer, in order to be conveyed before ſome juſtice. ſ. 18.

In caſe any perſon acting in the execution of this act ſhall be obſtructed, every perſon, and all ſuch as act in their aſſiſtance, ſhall, being thereof convicted at the general or quarter ſeſſion, upon the oath of two or more perſons, be tranſported to any of his majeſty's plantations in America for ſeven years. ſ. 19.

In all actions and other proceedings, any member of the ſaid corporation, or any inhabitant of the pariſh, where offence or conviction ſhall be made, ſhall be admitted to give evidence, and be deemed a competent witneſs. ſ. 20.

In all caſes where an oath is directed, it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice, and he is required to adminiſter the ſame without fee. ſ. 21.

Actions againſt any juſtice, or the ſaid maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, or other officer or perſon, for any thing in purſuance of this act, ſhall be laid in Middleſex or London, and not elſewhere, and ſhall be commenced within ſix months next after cauſe of action accrued; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict ſhall be given for the defendant, he ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 22.

Wharfage.

By 22 Car. 2. c. 11. Such rates ſhall be taken for wharfage and cranage of goods, as by his majeſty with the advice of his privy council ſhall be aſſeſſed, a table of which ſhall be hanged up at every wharf; and if any ſhall demand more, or ſhall refuſe to ſuffer any goods to be landed or ſhipped at any wharf within the ſaid city, at the rates aforeſaid, ſuch offender ſhall forfeit 10 l. to the party grieved, to be recovered with coſts in any of his majeſty's courts of record at Weſtminſter, or within the city of London. ſ. 21.

There ſhall be left a track of ground from London-bridge to the Temple, of the breadth of 40 foot, from the north ſide of the Thames, to be converted to a public wharf; and there ſhall be no building (except cranes, ſtairs and docks) within the ſaid 40 foot of ground. ſ. 44.

The ſaid track of ground ſhall be open without any diviſion, and the bounds of each proprietor's ground ſhall be diſtinguiſhed only by denter-ſtones in the pavement; and the line of the wharf and the cranes and ſtairs within the ſame ſhall be aſcertained by the direction of the lord mayor and court of aldermen, and ſet out by their ſurveyor, with his majeſty's approbation, on or before the 24th of June 1670, and no lighter or other veſſels ſhall lie before the ſaid wharfs on the north ſide of the river, longer than ſhall be neceſſary for the lading or unlading, without the conſent of the wharfingers or proprietors. ſ. 45.

Any perſon may lade or unlade goods at the ſaid wharfs for wharfage or cranage, whereof every proprietor may demand ſuch rates as ſhall from time to time be appointed by his majeſty, with the advice of his privy council. ſ. 46.

If any action be brought for any thing done by virtue of this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue (not guilty) and if the plaintiff ſhall be nonſuit, the defendant ſhall recover double coſts. ſ. 83.

Weights and Meaſures.

By 10 Geo. 3. c. 23. The commiſſioners (of paving), or ſeven of them, are on 1 April, in every year, to make a liſt in writing of a ſufficient number of houſeholders reſiding within the pariſh of Saint Mary le Bone, whom they ſhall think qualified, and ſhall direct their clerk to iſſue ſummonſes, requiring ſuch houſeholders to appear before the commiſſioners; and ſuch commiſſioners ſhall appoint ſo many as they think proper, not exceeding the number of conſtables in the ſaid pariſh; and the ſeveral perſons ſo appointed ſhall be

inſpectors of weights, balances, and meaſures, within the ſaid pariſh, and ſhall take an oath,

That they will diligently inſpect the weights, balances, and meaſures, in the ſeveral houſes and ſhops in the pariſh, and will not preſent any perſon or thing through malice, nor leave the ſame unpreſented through favour. ſ. 81.

Any perſon who ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear according to the ſummons, or ſhall refuſe to take upon him the office, ſhall forfeit five pounds; which ſhall be ſet upon him by the commiſſioners. ſ. 82.

The inſpectors ſhall, once in every month at the leaſt, in the day, not being leſs than four in number, enter into every ſhop, houſe, or warehouſe, inn, or victualling-houſe, within the pariſh, or into any other houſe belonging to any perſon that deals by weight or meaſure, as well of milk as other meaſures; and if the inſpectors find any weight, balance, or meaſure defective, they are to deſtroy the ſame, and amerce the owner or perſon in whoſe poſſeſſion the ſame ſhall be found, ten ſhillings for the firſt offence, twenty ſhillings for the ſecond, and forty ſhillings for every other offence; and the commiſſioners are within one month after ſuch perſon is convicted of ſuch ſecond and every ſubſequent offence, to cauſe his name, abode, and addition, together with the nature of his offence, to be inſerted in the Daily Advertiſer; and the proprietor or printer is to print the ſame within three days after required by the commiſſioners, and he is indemnified for inſerting the ſame. ſ. 83.

No perſon ſhall ſerve the office of inſpector again in leſs than ſeven years. ſ. 84.

No perſon ſhall be compelled to ſerve who is of the age of ſixty. ſ. 85.

There ſhall be kept at the court-houſe in the pariſh a common balance, and common weights and meaſures ſealed, according to the ſtandard of the Exchequer. ſ. 86.

The commiſſioners may appoint perſons to attend at the court-houſe to mark weights and meaſures. ſ. 87.

Such commiſſioners may remove ſuch perſons, and appoint other perſons in their room. ſ. 88.

Such officers ſhall attend at the ſaid court-houſe every Monday, or oftner if needful, for the purpoſe of marking weights and meaſures; of which attendance they are to cauſe public notice to be given in and affixed upon the door of the pariſh church, four times in the year at leaſt. ſ. 89.

Such officers are to ſize and ſeal, and alſo mark or ſtamp, all weights and meaſures brought for that purpoſe, which ſhall be agreeable to the ſtandard; and the ſaid officers ſhall receive the fees following:

For every buſhel, 4 d.
Half buſhel, 2 d.
Peck, half peck, and quarter peck, 1 d.
Sack, 2 d.
Ale, beer, and milk meaſure, one farthing.
Hundred weight, 4 d.
Half hundred weight, 2 d.
Weight from half a hundred to one pound, one halfpenny.
Weight under one pound, one farthing.

And all weights and meaſures which ſhall not, within thirty days from ſuch public notice, be marked or ſtamped, ſhall be deemed unlawful; and the inſpectors, or four of them, are to deſtroy the ſame, and amerce the owner or perſon in whoſe poſſeſſion the ſame ſhall be found, not exceeding forty, nor leſs than five ſhillings. ſ. 90.

The officers, after charges attending the marking weights and meaſures deducted, ſhall, within one month next after the expiration of every half year, pay to the treaſurer to the commiſſioners one moiety of the clear money ariſing from marking. ſ. 91.

If any inſpector ſhall neglect or refuſe to execute the duty of his office, the commiſſioners are to fine ſuch inſpector forty ſhillings. ſ. 92.

Penalties ſhall be recovered by diſtreſs, by warrant under the hand and ſeal of a juſtice for Middleſex or Weſtminſter (which he is to grant upon the confeſſion of the party, or upon the information of one witneſs upon oath), and the informer is rendered a credible witneſs; and the penalties ſhall be paid to the treaſurer to the commiſſioners, and ſhall be applied to the purpoſes of this act. ſ. 124.

The commiſſioners may order their treaſurer to pay part of the penalties to the informer, not exceeding one half. ſ. 125.

No plaintiff ſhall recover in any action, or for any irregularity, treſpaſs, or other proceedings, if tender of ſufficient amends ſhall be made before action brought; and in caſe no tender ſhall have been made, the defendant may pay into the court ſuch ſum of money as he ſhall ſee fit.

Perſons aggrieved by any rate, or any other matter done in purſuance of this act, ſhall apply for relief to the commiſſioners, at any meeting to be held within one month next after demand made of ſuch rate, or next after any ſuch matter done; and the commiſſioners are to give relief; and if ſuch perſon ſhall not be ſatisfied with the determination of ſuch commiſſioners, he ſhall be obliged to pay ſuch rate, and to comply with ſuch order of the commiſſioners; and then may appeal to the quarter ſeſſion of the peace for Middleſex or Weſtminſter, within three months next after ſuch determination; ſuch appellant firſt giving twenty-one days notice, in writing, of his intention to appeal, and of the matter thereof, to the clerk or treaſurer to ſuch commiſſioners, and within two days next after ſuch notice, entering into a recognizance before a juſtice, with two ſureties, conditioned to try ſuch appeal, and to abide the order thereof, and to pay ſuch coſts as ſhall be awarded by the quarter ſeſſions; and the quarter ſeſſions ſhall determine the appeal in a ſummary way, and award coſts, and the determination of ſuch quarter ſeſſions ſhall be final. ſ. 128.

No rate, nor any proceeding or any order ſhall be quaſhed for want of form, or be removed by certiorari. ſ. 130.

No action ſhall be commenced againſt any perſon for any thing done in purſuance of this act, until twenty-one days notice ſhall be thereof given in writing to the clerk or treaſurer to the commiſſioners, or after ſufficient ſatisfaction or tender thereof hath been made to the party aggrieved, or after ſix months next after the fact committed; and all ſuch actions ſhall be laid in Middleſex or Weſtminſter, and the defendant may plead the general iſſue. ſ. 132.

Weſtminſter.

By a private act paſſed in 27 Eliz. continued indefinitely by 16 Car. 1. c. 4. The city of Weſtminſter ſhall continue divided into twelve wards. ſ. 2.

The dean of Weſtminſter, or the high ſteward, or his deputy, ſhall upon Thurſday in Eaſter week yearly, nominate twelve ſufficient perſons, being merchants, artificers or perſons uſing any trade of buying or ſelling, within the ſaid ſaid city, or ſuch other perſons as ſhall be willing, and inhabiting within the city, which ſhall be called burgeſſes; unto the government of which burgeſſes the twelve wards ſhall be appointed; which twelve ſhall continue one year, and from year to year during their lives, if they ſo long inhabit there, except for ſome offence, and for cauſe reaſonable proved, they ſhall be diſplaced by the dean or high ſteward; and if any reſiant ſo nominated ſhall refuſe to accept the ſaid room, he ſhall forfeit ten pounds to the uſe of the poor, to be levied by the bailiff of the liberties of the dean and chapter, by diſtreſs; which twelve burgeſſes ſhall receive the uſual oath of ſupremacy, as alſo a corporal oath, to be miniſtered by the high ſteward or his deputy, in open court, to do and execute all things to them appointed by this act. ſ. 3.

The dean, or the high ſteward, or his deputy, with the more part of the burgeſſes, ſhall, within ten days after the election of the burgeſſes, nominate twelve others, &c. to be aſſiſtants to the twelve burgeſſes; and they ſhall accept the charge upon payment of five pounds with like oaths, and ſhall be called aſſiſtants to the twelve burgeſſes; and every burgeſs with his aſſiſtant ſhall do in every thing as aldermen's deputies in London; and the aſſiſtants ſhall continue in their office for one year, if they ſhall continue their habitation within the city; and if any of the burgeſſes or aſſiſtants ſhall die or be removed, the dean, or the high ſteward, or his deputy, ſhall appoint another. ſ. 4.

The dean, or the high ſteward, or his deputy, yearly upon Thurſday in Eaſter week, ſhall appoint two of the twelve burgeſſes to be chief burgeſſes, to continue for one year; which office they ſhall accept upon pain of ten pounds. ſ. 5.

The dean, the high ſteward, or his deputy, as alſo the two chief burgeſſes, the other ten burgeſſes, or any three of them, whereof the dean, high ſteward, or his deputy, or one of the two chief burgeſſes, to be one, ſhall within the ſaid city, hear, examine, determine, and puniſh, according to the laws of this realm, or laudable and lawful cuſtom of the city of London, all matters of incontinencies, common ſcolds, and of inmates, and common annoyances; and they ſhall have authority to commit to priſon ſuch as ſhall offend againſt the peace, and thereof ſhall give notice within four-and-twenty hours after to ſome juſtices of peace of Middleſex. ſ. 6.

All good orders to be made by the dean and high ſteward, with the aſſent of the burgeſſes and aſſiſtants, for the government of the inhabitants, not repugnant to the queen's prerogative, nor the laws of this realm, ſhall ſtand in force. ſ. 7.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to the ſteward, marſhal, or coroner of the queen's houſehold, nor to the juſtices of peace of Middleſex, nor to the dean and chapter of Weſtminſter, nor to the high ſteward or his deputy, nor to the mayor, ſociety and clerk of the ſtaple, high conſtable, bailiff of the liberty, town clerks, nor to the clerk of the market, nor to any ſearch to be made by any other officer, not being contrary to this act. ſ. 8.

If the dean of Weſtminſter, and the high ſteward and his deputy, be negligent in chuſing burgeſſes, it ſhall be lawful for two juſtices of peace of Middleſex, one of the quorum, to chuſe the burgeſſes. ſ. 10.

Such burgeſſes ſhall not be compellable to remain in office above one year, and ſuch as ſhall for refuſal pay the ſums aforeſaid, ſhall not be nominated again to any of the ſaid places within five years. ſ. 11.

The chancellor or ſteward of the duchy ſhall have like power as the dean of Weſtminſter and the high ſteward, for the government of the inhabitants within the liberties of the duchy adjoining to Weſtminſter. ſ. 12.

This act ſhall not extend to the church or college of Weſtminſter, nor to the Cloſe; nor give any power to the burgeſſes, to hear, examine, and determine, any thing without the conſent of the dean, or of the high ſteward or his deputy, or in the abſence of the dean, high ſteward, or deputy, then with the preſence and conſent of the town clerk. ſ. 13.

The ſearcher of the ſanctuary ſhall have the execution of all proceſs within the ſanctuary. ſ. 15.

By 29 Geo. 2. c. 25. The dean of the collegiate church of St. Peter Weſtminſter, or the high ſteward of the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, or his deputy (calling to his aſſiſtance the burgeſſes of the ſaid city and liberty of Weſtminſter, if the ſaid dean, or high ſteward, or his deputy, think fit), ſhall at a court leet to be holden for the ſaid city and liberty, on Tueſday next following the feaſt of St. Michael the Archangel in every year, appoint eighty perſons reſiding within the ſaid city and liberty, being artificers, or perſons uſing any trade of buying or ſelling (alehouſe-keepers, victuallers, or perſons retailing ſpirituous liquors, only excepted), to be conſtables for the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, being preſented thereto in manner after mentioned. ſ. 1.

The conſtables appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall be choſen out of the ſeveral pariſhes in Weſtminſter as followeth; viz. there ſhall be yearly choſen out of the pariſh of St. Margaret, fourteen; out of St. John the Evangeliſt, four; out of St. Martin in the Fields, fourteen; out of St. George Hanover Square, twelve; out of St. James, fourteen; out of St. Anne, eight; out of St. Paul Covent Garden, ſix; out of St. Clement Danes, ſix; and out of St. Mary-le-Strand, two; and the conſtables ſo appointed ſhall take the uſual oath of office, and do all things appertaining to the office of a conſtable for one year, to commence from their appointment, or until other perſons be appointed in their ſtead; or ſhall find fit perſons to be approved of by the ſaid court leet, to ſerve and take the oath of the office of conſtable as their deputies; ſuch other perſons not being alehouſe-keepers, victuallers, or perſons retailing ſpirituous liquors. ſ. 2.

The ſaid dean of Weſtminſter, or the ſaid high ſteward or his deputy (calling to his aſſiſtance the burgeſſes of the ſaid city and liberty of Weſtminſter, if they think fit), ſhall iſſue out a precept within ſix weeks before the feaſt of St. Michael in every year, directed to the high bailiff of Weſtminſter, to empannel and return forty houſeholders and traders reſiding within the ſaid ſeveral pariſhes in Weſtminſter, in the proportions before mentioned, and to ſummon ſuch perſons to appear at ſuch time and place as in ſuch precept directed: and out of the perſons ſo returned, the ſaid dean, or high ſteward, or his deputy (calling to his aſſiſtance the burgeſſes of the ſaid city and liberty of Weſtminſter, if they think fit), ſhall at a court to be held by him for that purpoſe, nominate ſo many as he thinks fit, not exceeding thirty, taking care that one or more be nominated out of each of the ſaid pariſhes; and the perſons ſo nominated ſhall be called The Leet Jury, and be ſworn to preſent to the ſaid court fit perſons to be choſen conſtables for the city and liberty of Weſtminſter for the year enſuing; viz. the ſaid jury ſhall preſent to ſerve as conſtables for the pariſh of St. Margaret, twenty-eight; St. John the Evangeliſt, eight; St. Martin in the Fields, twenty-eight; St. George Hanover Square, twenty-four; St. James, twenty-eight; St. Anne, ſixteen; St. Paul Covent Covent Garden, twelve; St. Clement Danes, twelve; and St. Mary-le-Strand, four; out of which number ſo preſented, the ſaid court ſhall, at the time and in the manner before directed, appoint eighty to be conſtables: and the perſons ſo nominated to be The Leet Jury, ſhall continue in the ſaid office for one year, or till others are appointed and ſworn. ſ. 3.

In caſe any perſon ſummoned by the ſaid high bailiff, by any precept as aforeſaid, to take upon him the ſaid office of juryman, neglect to appear, or refuſe to take upon him the ſaid office, being thereunto appointed, or at any time refuſe to appear to preſent proper perſons to be conſtables, being ſummoned for that purpoſe, every ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 40*s.* to be ſet by way of fine by the ſaid court. ſ. 4.

All perſons preſented by the jury as fit perſons for the office of conſtable, ſhall by precepts from the ſaid court be ſummoned by the petty conſtables to whom ſuch precepts ſhall be directed, to appear at the ſaid court leet, to take upon them the ſaid office; and in caſe any perſon ſo ſummoned neglect to appear (proof being made of the ſervice of ſuch ſummons on oath), or refuſe to take upon him the office of conſtable, being thereunto appointed, or to find a fit perſon then to take upon him the ſaid office in his ſtead, every ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 8*l.* to be ſet by way of fine by the ſaid court. ſ. 5.

The ſaid dean, or high ſteward, or his deputy, ſhall adjourn the ſaid court leet from time to time, as he thinks fit. And in caſe any conſtable die, remove out of the pariſh for which he was appointed, or be diſcharged from his office, he ſhall at ſuch adjourned courts ſummon others, being firſt preſented by the jury: which ſaid jury the ſaid dean, or high ſteward, or his deputy, ſhall ſummon for that purpoſe, and appoint one or more of ſuch fit perſons to ſerve as conſtables in the ſtead of ſuch perſons as die, be removed, or diſcharged; and all perſons ſo ſummoned and appointed are to appear and take upon them, or find other fit perſons to take upon them the ſaid office; on pain of the like penalties as are before inflicted upon perſons refuſing to appear, or take upon them the execution of the office of conſtable at the annual leet. ſ. 6.

No perſon who hath ſerved, or ſhall ſerve by himſelf or deputy, the office of conſtable, ſhall be preſented again to the ſaid office, or be appointed to ſerve the ſame, in leſs than ſeven years after the end of ſuch former ſervice; and no perſon nominated and ſworn on the leet jury, and who hath ſerved or ſhall ſerve the ſaid office of juryman, ſhall be again appointed to ſerve the ſaid office in leſs than ſeven years after the end of ſuch former ſervice. ſ. 7.

The ſaid dean, or high ſteward, or his deputy, ſhall, at the ſaid court leet, to be holden on Tueſday next after the feaſt of St. Michael yearly, appoint an able perſon, being an artificer, or uſing ſome trade of buying and ſelling, and not being an alehouſe-keeper, victualler, or retailer of ſpirituous liquors, to be high conſtable of the ſaid city and liberty of Weſtminſter, being duly ſummoned for that purpoſe; who ſhall take the uſual oath of office, and do all things appertaining to the office of high conſtable for one year, to commence from his appointment, or until another perſon be appointed in his ſtead; and in caſe of the death or removal of ſuch high conſtable, the ſaid dean, or high ſteward, or his deputy, ſhall at ſome adjournment of the ſaid court leet appoint another perſon to ſerve in his room. ſ. 8.

No perſon ſhall ſerve the ſaid office of high conſtable for more than three years together; and every perſon ſo ſummoned and appointed is to appear and take upon him the execution of the ſaid office of high conſtable, on pain of forfeiting 20*l.* to be ſet by way of fine. ſ. 9.

The ſaid dean, or high ſteward, or his deputy, the two chief burgeſſes of Weſtminſter, and the other burgeſſes, or five of them, whereof the ſaid dean, high ſteward, or his deputy, or one of the ſaid two chief burgeſſes, to be one, ſhall twice in every year iſſue out their precepts under the common ſeal of their court directed to the high bailiff of Weſtminſter, to impannel and return eighty ſubſtantial houſholders and traders reſiding within the ſaid ſeveral pariſhes in Weſtminſter, in the proportions before mentioned, and to ſummon ſuch perſons to appear before them, at ſuch time and place as in ſuch precepts ſet forth; and out of the perſons ſo returned, the ſaid dean, high ſteward, or his deputy, the ſaid two chief burgeſſes, and the other burgeſſes, or five of them, whereof the ſaid dean, high ſteward, or his deputy, or one of the two chief burgeſſes, to be one, ſhall, at a court to be held for that purpoſe, nominate ſo many as they think proper, not exceeding forty-eight, taking care that one or more be nominated out of each of the ſaid pariſhes; and the ſeveral perſons ſo nominated ſhall be called The Annoyance Jury, and ſhall take an oath to the effect following: ſ. 10.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will diligently inquire and make true preſentment to this court of all ſuch public annoyances, and other offences that ſhall be committed in Weſtminſter during the time of my continuance in the office whereunto I am now appointed; and that I will preſent no perſon or thing through hatred or malice, nor leave any unpreſented, through love, favour, or affection.

So help me God.

In caſe any perſon ſummoned to take upon him the ſaid office of juryman neglect to appear, or refuſe to take upon him the ſaid office, being thereunto appointed, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 40*s.* to be ſet by the ſaid court by way of fine. ſ. 11.

The Jury of Annoyance to be appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall ſubdivide themſelves into ſmaller bodies, not being leſs than twelve in each body; and if any perſon abuſe or inſult any of the ſaid Jury of Annoyance, when they are in the execution of their office, or any way obſtruct them in executing the ſaid office, it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace for Weſtminſter, upon the fact being proved upon the oath of two witneſſes, to fine ſuch perſon ſo offending in not exceeding 40*s.* ſ. 12.

Their power of preſenting bad pavements was repealed by 3 Geo. 3. c. 23. ſ. 15.

The ſaid Annoyance Jury ſhall at all ſeaſonable times in the day-time enter into any ſhop, houſe, or warehouſe, within the ſaid city and liberty, belonging to any perſons that deal by weight or meaſure; and if the ſaid jury find any weight, balance, or meaſure, to be unlawful or defective, they ſhall deſtroy the ſame, and amerce the perſon ſo offending in ſuch ſum as they think proper, not exceeding 40*s.* for any one offence. ſ. 14.

No perſon nominated on the Annoyance Jury, and who hath ſerved or ſhall ſerve the ſaid office of juryman, ſhall be again ſummoned to ſerve the ſaid office in leſs than three years after the end of ſuch former ſervice. ſ. 15.

In caſe the ſaid high bailiff, or his deputy, or other officer acting under him, or under the order of the ſaid court, aſk or take any money or other gratuity for excuſing any perſon from appearing to ſerve, or for not ſummoning any perſon to ſerve the ſaid office of conſtable, or to ſerve on either of the juries aforeſaid, or on any other jury within the ſaid city and liberty of Weſtminſter; or if any perſon give any money, or other reward, to any ſuch officer for excuſing him from ſerving or being ſummoned to ſerve the office of conſtable, or to ſerve on ſuch juries; it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace for Weſtminſter, upon the fact being proved upon the oath of two witneſſes, to fine ſuch perſon ſo offending in any ſum not exceeding 40 s. ſ. 16.

Upon the non-payment of any fine or amerciament impoſed by this act, the high bailiff of Weſtminſter, or his deputy or deputies, ſhall, by warrant from the ſaid court leet, or by warrant under the common ſeal of the ſaid court of burgeſſes, or by warrant from the juſtices of peace before whom any ſuch perſon is convicted, levy ſuch fines and amerciaments by diſtreſs of the goods of the perſon fined, being then reſiant within the ſaid city or liberty of Weſtminſter, and cauſe ſale to be made thereof in caſe they be not redeemed within five days, rendering the overplus to the owner, after deducting the charges of diſtreſs and ſale; and if ſuch offender have not goods within the ſaid city and liberty, whereof ſuch fine can be levied, upon non-payment it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace by warrant to commit ſuch offender to one of his majeſty's gaols within the city or liberty of Weſtminſter for ten days, unleſs he ſooner pay the ſaid fine or amerciament. ſ. 17.

All fines impoſed by virtue of this act ſhall be paid by the high bailiff of Weſtminſter, or other perſon into whoſe hands the ſame come, within fourteen days next after the receipt thereof, to the overſeers of the poor of the ſeveral pariſhes in Weſtminſter reſpectively, out of which the ſame are recovered, who ſhall give a receipt for the ſame; and the ſaid overſeers are to apply the ſaid fines to the ſame uſes that the poor rates in the ſaid pariſhes are applied; and ſhall account upon oath for the ſame at the time and in the manner they account for all other ſums that come into their hands; and all amerciaments impoſed by the ſaid annoyance jury, and recovered by virtue of this act, ſhall be applied in manner following, viz. the ſaid high bailiff ſhall be entitled to one moiety, and the other moiety ſhall be applied by the ſaid court of burgeſſes to pay the expences of the execution of this act. ſ. 18.

If any ſuit be brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act, the action ſhall be commenced within ſix months next after the fact committed: and ſhall be brought in Middleſex, except the perſon againſt whom ſuch action is brought reſide in London; in which caſe the ſaid action ſhall be brought in London: and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff become nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 19.

This act ſhall not extend to the church or college of Weſtminſter, nor to the cloſe of Weſtminſter, nor to any perſon inhabiting within the precincts of the ſaid church, college, or cloſe, for any offence committed by them within the ſaid precinct. ſ. 20.

By 31 Geo. 2. c. 17. All weights and meaſures made uſe of by perſons dealing by weight or meaſure, within the ſaid city and liberty, ſhall be ſized and ſealed by the ſtandards belonging to the ſaid city, and alſo marked with a port-cullis by the officer already appointed for that purpoſe, or by ſuch other officer as may hereafter be appointed by the ſaid dean, high ſteward, or his deputy, the two chief burgeſſes, and the other burgeſſes of Weſtminſter, or any five of them, whereof the ſaid dean, high ſteward, or his deputy, to be one, at a court to be held for that purpoſe; which officer is upon application to ſeal and mark all weights and meaſures brought to him, which be agreeable to the ſtandards belonging to the ſaid city; and the ſaid officer ſhall receive for each weight and meaſure ſo ſealed and marked, the fees following, viz. for every buſhel, 4 d. for every half buſhel, 2 d. for every peck, half peck, and quarter peck, 1 d. for all half pecks or quarter pecks per dozen, 10 d. for every ſack, 2 d. for every ale and beer meaſure, one farthing, for every one hundred weight, 4 d. for every half hundred weight, 2 d. for all pound weights and all other weights under half a hundred weight, one halfpenny, for all ounce weights, and all other weights under a pound, one farthing: and all weights and meaſures belonging to perſons dealing by weight or meaſure within the ſaid city and liberty, not ſealed and marked in manner before directed, ſhall be deemed unlawful; and the ſaid annoyance jury, or any twelve of them, ſhall deſtroy all ſuch unlawful weights and meaſures, and amerce the owners or the perſons in whoſe poſſeſſion the ſame be found, in any ſum not exceeding 40 s. for any offence. ſ. 9.

The officer already appointed or to be appointed as aforeſaid, after all neceſſary charges attending the ſizing, ſealing, and marking ſuch weights and meaſures firſt deducted, ſhall half yearly, within one calendar month next after the 25th of March and the 29th of September in every year, pay or cauſe to be paid to the deputy ſteward of Weſtminſter for his trouble and expence in attending his office of deputy ſteward of Weſtminſter, one moiety of the clear money ariſing from ſuch ſizing, ſealing, and marking. ſ. 10.

If any annoyance juryman neglect or refuſe to execute the duty of his office of juryman, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid court upon complaint to fine ſuch juryman for every ſuch offence, in any ſum not exceeding 40 s. ſ. 11.

The high conſtable for the ſaid city and liberty is to obey all lawful orders which he receives from the ſaid dean, high ſteward, or his deputy, at any court holden for the ſaid city and liberty; and all petty conſtables are to be aſſiſting to the high conſtable in the execution of all ſuch orders; and if the ſaid high conſtable, or any petty conſtable, refuſe or neglect to obey ſuch orders, or miſbehave in their reſpective offices, the ſaid court ſhall fine any high and petty conſtable ſo offending, in any ſum not exceeding 40 s. for every ſuch offence. ſ. 12.

No perſon within the ſaid city or liberty of Weſtminſter ſhall be liable to ſerve as a conſtable, or to find a perſon to ſerve in his ſtead, who is of the age of ſixty-three years or upwards; nor ſhall any perſon be liable to ſerve either as a leet or annoyance juryman, who is of the age of ſeventy years or upwards. ſ. 13.

The ſaid dean, high ſteward, or his deputy, ſhall adjourn the court-leet held for the ſaid city and liberty, from time to time, as often as convenient: and if any leet juryman appointed or to be appointed by virtue of the 29 Geo. 2. cap. 25. neglect to attend the ſaid court leet as often as required by the ſaid court, or in any other manner neglect the duty of his office of juryman, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid court leet to fine ſuch juryman for every ſuch offence, in any ſum not exceeding 40 s. ſ. 14.

The ſaid high bailiff, or his deputy or deputies, ſhall forthwith execute all warrants which they receive, for levying any fine impoſed for any offences againſt the ſaid act or this act, from the ſaid court leet, or from the ſaid court of burgeſſes, or from any juſtice of peace before whom any perſon may be convicted for any offence againſt the ſaid acts; and in caſe the ſaid high bailiff, or his deputy or deputies, neglect to execute any ſuch warrant, or to pay over all ſuch fines as he receives by virtue of any ſuch warrant, according according to the ſaid act or this act, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid court leet, or court of burgeſſes reſpectively, to fine ſuch high bailiff, or his deputy or deputies, ſo offending, in any ſum not exceeding 5 l. for every ſuch offence; and if any fine impoſed upon the ſaid high bailiff, or his deputy or deputies, by the ſaid court leet, or court of burgeſſes, remain unpaid for one calendar month next after the ſame is ſo impoſed, the high conſtable of the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, ſhall by any warrant from the ſaid court leet, or court of burgeſſes reſpectively, directed to him for that purpoſe, levy ſuch fine ſo impoſed on the ſaid high bailiff, or his deputy or deputies, by diſtreſs of the goods of the ſaid high bailiff, or his deputy or deputies, and cauſe ſale to be made thereof, in caſe they be not redeemed within five days next after ſuch diſtreſs made, rendering the overplus if any to the owner, after deducting the charges of diſtreſs and ſale. ſ. 15.

It ſhall be lawful for the ſaid high bailiff, or his deputy or deputies, to retain in his hands one fourth part of the ſums levied by him or them, for the fines ſet by virtue of this or the ſaid act, in conſideration of their trouble and expence in levying the ſame. ſ. 16.

The remaining three fourth parts of the ſaid fines ſhall be paid over by the ſaid high bailiff, his deputy or deputies, to the reſpective overſeers of the ſeveral pariſhes in Weſtminſter, within the like time, and applied by them to the ſame uſes, as are directed by the ſaid act, with reſpect to the whole of ſuch fines. ſ. 17.

All fines and amerciaments impoſed upon any perſon by virtue of this act, ſhall be levied, recovered and applied, except where the ſame are directed to be otherwiſe levied, &c. by this act, in the ſame manner as the fines and amerciaments impoſed by the ſaid act. ſ. 18.

The ſaid high bailiff, or his deputy or deputies, ſhall from time to time tranſmit to the ſaid court of burgeſſes, an account of all fines and amerciaments by him levied or received, in purſuance of this or the ſaid act; and the clerk of the ſaid court of burgeſſes ſhall in a book make entry of all fines and amerciaments impoſed by virtue of this or the ſaid act, and an account of all monies received in purſuance thereof, and the application of the ſeveral ſums ſo received; which account the reſpective overſeers of the ſeveral pariſhes in Weſtminſter, ſhall have liberty to inſpect at all ſeaſonable times, upon application to the ſaid clerk, and take copies thereof ſo far as relates to the ſaid fines. ſ. 19.

If any ſuit be brought for any thing done in purſuance of this act, or in relation to the premiſes, the action ſhall be commenced within ſix months next after the fact committed, and ſhall be laid in the county of Middleſex, except ſuch perſon againſt whom ſuch action is brought, reſide in the city of London; in which caſe the ſaid action ſhall be laid in London; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff become nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 21.

This act ſhall not extend to the church or college of Weſtminſter, nor to the cloſe of Weſtminſter, nor to any perſon inhabiting within the precinct of the ſaid church, college, or cloſe, for any offence or miſgovernment committed within the ſaid precinct. ſ. 22.

Drawn by four horſes, 8*d.*

Drawn by three or two horſes, 6*d.*

And for every chaiſe, chair, calaſh, or other carriage, drawn by one horſe, 3*d.*

For every horſe, mule, or aſs, not drawing, 1*d.*

Which money ſhall and may be demanded and taken in the name of a ſtreet toll, over and above all other tolls; and the monies ſhall be veſted in the commiſſioners for putting the paving acts in execution; and the ſaid monies ſhall be applied for the ſeveral uſes mentioned in the ſaid acts. The ſaid commiſſioners are impowered by themſelves, or any other perſon authorized by them, to levy the toll upon any perſon who ſhall, after demand, neglect or refuſe to pay, or to deny paſſage through the ſaid turnpikes, until payment, which toll may be levied by diſtreſs of any horſe, or goods; and all ſuch horſes, or goods, may be detained until ſuch toll, with the charges of diſtreſs, ſhall be paid; and it ſhall be lawful for the perſon ſo diſtraining, after four days, to ſell the horſes, or chattels, diſtrained. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for the ſaid commiſſioners, to cauſe to be erected any turnpike, at or near any of the places aforementioned, for collecting the tolls, and to remove or alter the ſame: and the property and materials ſhall be veſted in the ſaid commiſſioners; and they are impowered to bring actions, or to prefer indictments. ſ. 2.

Tolls may be collected at the turnpikes already erected. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall be liable to pay the ſaid ſtreet toll more than once for paſſing or repaſſing on the ſame Sunday as aforeſaid, with the ſame cattle and carriage; but all perſons, after having paid ſuch toll once, ſhall, during the remainder of ſuch day, paſs toll-free, with the ſame cattle and carriages, through the gate at which ſuch toll was paid, and alſo through all other gates whereat the ſaid tolls are payable, upon producing a ticket denoting payment; which the collectors are to give gratis. ſ. 4.

The commiſſioners may, upon ten days notice in the London Gazette, leaſe by the year the tolls; provided that ſuch lettings be made in writing, and ſigned by the perſons farming ſuch tolls, and by the commiſſioners, and be not made for more than three years; and that the money to be paid for the ſaid tolls, ſhall be payable quarterly, and the perſon to whom let ſhall always pay one quarter in advance. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners to appoint collectors of the tolls if required; and all ſuch collectors ſhall pay the ſame to ſuch perſons as the commiſſioners appoint; and ſhall alſo, upon oath, give to the commiſſioners, or ſuch perſon as they ſhall appoint, a true account in writing; and if any collector ſhall not make and render, or refuſe to verify upon oath, any account, or to make payment, then it ſhall be lawful for one juſtice to make inquiry concerning ſuch default, as well by confeſſion of the party, as by witneſſes on oath to be adminiſtered without reward, and commit every offender to the common gaol, until he ſhall account and pay, or compound with the ſaid commiſſioners, and the commiſſioners are out of the tolls, or otherwiſe, to make allowances unto the collectors, for their care and pains. ſ. 6.

If any perſon ſhall forcibly or wilfully go or paſs through any turnpike without paying toll, or producing a ticket, or ſhall aſſault or obſtruct the collectors in the execution of their office, or ſhall forge or alter, or deliver to, or receive from, any other perſon, any ticket, with an intent to avoid the payment of toll; every perſon ſo offending ſhall for every offence forfeit 40*s.* beſides ſuch damages and puniſhments as they ſhall be liable to by law; and it ſhall be lawful for the collectors, and all other perſons by them required to aſſiſt, to ſeize any horſe or goods belonging to perſons offending, and the ſame to take before any juſtice, and ſuch juſtice may inquire into the ſame, by examination of the parties, or witneſſes, upon oath, to be adminiſtered without fee, and the ſaid juſtice may convict the parties offending, in the penalty aforeſaid; and for non-payment thereof, and of the tolls (though not demanded), by warrant under his hand and ſeal, cauſe the ſaid horſes, or goods, to be ſold for payment of the ſaid tolls and penalties, and the charges of ſeizing and keeping. ſ. 7.

Tolls may be aſſigned for money borrowed, &c. ſ. 8.

And all creditors ſhall be deemed equal in degree. ſ. 9.

Any perſon aggrieved, may appeal to the general quarter ſeſſion of the peace within ſix months, firſt giving ten clear days notice, in writing, and of the cauſe thereof, to the treaſurer or clerk to the commiſſioners, and within two days after notice entering into a recognizance before ſome juſtice, with two ſureties, conditioned to try ſuch appeal, and abide the order of the ſaid quarter ſeſſion; and the ſaid juſtices at their ſaid ſeſſion, ſhall finally determine ſuch appeal in a ſummary way, and may mitigate all or any of the ſaid penalties, or vacate any conviction, or confirm the ſame, and award coſts, and the determination of ſuch quarter ſeſſion ſhall be concluſive. ſ. 12.

Proceedings not to be quaſhed for want of form only; nor be removed by certiorari, into any court at Weſtminſter. ſ. 13.

Writings to be without ſtamps. ſ. 14.

No action ſhall be brought for any thing done by virtue of this act, till after eight days clear notice thereof in writing ſhall be given to the perſon againſt whom ſuch action ſhall be intended to be ſo brought, ſetting forth the cauſe of action, and every action ſhall be brought within ſix months, and the defendant may plead the general iſſue, and if ſufficient tender of amends ſhall have been made to the party aggrieved, and verdict ſhall be found for the defendant, the defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 15.

Additional com- " miſſioners to be houſeholders reſident within their pa- " riſh. ſ. 2."

Veſtrymen and inhabitants ſhall aſſemble in the veſtry, upon the ſecond Thurſday in February annually, between ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, and ſhall elect houſeholders, reſident in ſuch pariſh, not exceeding twenty-one, nor leſs than ſeven; and the perſons ſo elected, ſhall be a committee for carrying the purpoſes of the acts into execution, within their reſpective pariſhes, and for ſuperintending all works, and examining the bills relative thereto, and for certifying to the commiſſioners ſuch bills and other allowances for payment, as they ſhall find to be juſt, or objecting to the payment of ſuch as ſhall be found otherwiſe (the ſalaries allowed by the commiſſioners to their officers, and the contingent expences of the commiſſion only excepted); on which certificates, but not without, the commiſſioners ſhall, when they have approved of ſuch bills, order the ſame to be paid. ſ. 3.

No commiſſioner ſhall be capable of acting, unleſs he ſhall have a real eſtate of 300*l. per annum*, a perſonal eſtate of 10,000*l.* value, or be heir apparent of a peer; and no perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a committee-man, unleſs he ſhall have an eſtate of the value of 2000*l.* ſ. 4.

No commiſſioner or committee-man ſhall be capable of acting, who ſhall hold any office of profit, or have any ſhare, or be any way intereſted in, any contract or work to be done in purſuance of the acts; and in caſe any ſuch perſon not qualified, or diſqualified, ſhall act as a commiſſioner, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit five hundred pounds, to any perſon who will ſue; and as a committee-man, one hundred pounds, to any perſon who will ſue for the ſame; ſuch forfeitures to be recovered in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. and ſuch perſon ſhall prove he is qualified, or pay the penalties, upon proof given of his having acted. ſ. 5.

The maſter of the Rolls, and the dean of Weſtminſter, ſhall be commiſſioners, and their being ſuch ſhall be a ſufficient qualification. ſ. 6.

The committees ſhall meet in the veſtry-rooms, within fourteen days after choſen, and may adjourn as often as they think fit. ſ. 7.

The committees, not leſs than five being preſent, may appoint a clerk, and alſo collectors and inſpectors, and take ſecurity for the due execution of their reſpective offices, and may remove ſuch clerks, &c. and appoint others to them, and appoint ſalaries and alſo allowances to other perſons aſſiſting in the execution of this act; all which ſalaries and allowances ſhall be paid as hereinafter directed; but if any clerk, &c. ſhall take any fee whatſoever, other than ſuch ſalaries as ſhall be allowed, or ſhall be any-ways concerned in intereſt in any bargain, ſuch perſon ſhall be incapable of ever ſerving under this act, and ſhall forfeit one hundred pounds to any perſon who ſhall ſue by action of debt, &c. in any court of record, within ſix months. Inſpectors ſhall be elected annually, and the ſalary of each inſpector ſhall be allowed by the commiſſioners, or any five. ſ. 8.

" Proceedings of the committees to be entered in books. " ſ. 9. Commiſſioners may order what ſtreets ſhall be " paved, &c. and how, ſignifying the ſame to the commit- " tees. ſ. 10. Committees are to advertiſe for contrac- " tors; and to enter into contracts for paving, &c. Con- " tracts ſhall be binding until confirmed by commiſſioners. " ſ. 11. "

Where ſtreets, &c. are lying in two or more pariſhes, the commiſſioners may order the whole of ſuch ſtreets to be paved or repaired, lighted and cleanſed, under the direction of the committee of either of the ſaid pariſhes, and order what annual, quarterly, or other ſums ſhall be paid by the other committee, toward repairing, lighting, and cleanſing; and ſuch ſums ſhall be paid out of the rate hereby directed to be made. ſ. 12.

" Committees may advertiſe for contracts. ſ. 14. All " contracts to be made between 1ſt January and 1ſt July. " ſ. 15. "

Nothing in this or any of the former acts ſhall authoriſe the commiſſioners, or committee of any pariſh, to pave, cleanſe, or light the ſtreets, &c. ſituated before, or belonging to any royal palace, ground, or building. ſ. 17.

Nor

Nor to Golden Square, Red Lyon Square, or any other ſquare, ſtreet, or place, paved, under any particular act. ſ. 18.

But if any ſtreets exempted ſhall become ſo advanced in rents as that the inhabitants thereof ſhall, in the opinion of the commiſſioners, be of ability to contribute to the paving, &c. then ſuch places ſhall be ſubject to be paved. ſ. 20.

The ſtreets not ſubject to be paved ſhall ſtill remain ſubject to the powers of former acts. ſ. 21.

All inhabitants of houſes, &c. in ſtreets liable to be paved, &c. ſhall be diſcharged from the office of ſcavenger, and from hanging out lights, and all preſentments of annoyance jurors, conſtables, or other officers (other than the inſpectors hereby appointed), for dangerous pavement, defaults of lighting, and annoyances. And 2 W. & M. 19 Geo. 2. and all former acts, ſo far as they reſpect places under this act, are repealed. ſ. 22. Old pavements, and all materials, old and new, veſted in the committee. ſ. 23.

The ſaid committees, not leſs than five perſons being preſent, within their reſpective pariſhes, are to meet in the veſtry rooms, upon the ſecond Thurſday in June in every year, and at any other time, as often as occaſion ſhall require; and the major part of them ſhall make rates upon all who ſhall inhabit any land, ground, houſe, &c. within their reſpective pariſhes, for repairing, cleanſing, and lighting the ſquares, ſtreets, &c. within their pariſhes, &c. ſo as no rate within any ſquare ſhall exceed in the whole one ſhilling and three-pence in the pound; and within any ſtreet, &c. one ſhilling in the pound, in one year, according the poor rates, in 1770. ſ. 24.

Houſes hereafter built ſhall be rated as other houſes or buildings ſhall be then aſſeſſed. ſ. 25.

" Committees may make an additional rate of 6 d. if " neceſſary. ſ. 26. Committees may borrow money on " the credit of 5-6ths of the additional rate. ſ. 27. Mo- " ney received by the committee to be depoſited in the " bank, in the name of the commiſſioners, and ſhall be " iſſued and applied by the commiſſioners, or 5 of them, " for new paving, &c. ſ. 28. Clerks of committees to " keep books for entering ſecurities. ſ. 29. Surplus of " rates to be applied in reducing the debts. ſ. 30. Cre- " ditors may aſſign their ſecurities. ſ. 31. Houſes ſitu- " ated beyond turnpikes, or in any road not repaired or " lighted by this act, exempted from rates. ſ. 32. Firſt " rate to commence 25th March 1771. ſ. 33."

Where any of the lands, houſes, ſhops, warehouſes, wharfs, coach-houſes, ſtables, cellars, vaults, buildings, tenements, or hereditaments, ſhall be empty, then the committees may rate ſuch premiſes at one half of the rates during ſuch time only as ſuch premiſes ſhall be empty; and the ſaid rates, and all arrears due thereon, ſhall be paid by the owners, or leſſors, or by the firſt tenants; and ſuch tenants may deduct the ſame out of their rent, and the landlords are are to allow ſuch deductions. ſ. 34.

The leſſors, landlords, owners, or proprietors of all houſes let out to lodgers, ſhall be deemed the occupier thereof and ſhall be liable to the payment of the rates. ſ. 35.

Every perſon renting any ſeparate apartment ſhall be liable to the payment of the ſaid rates, and may deduct the ſame out of the next rent. ſ. 36.

Every rate, &c. which any ambaſſador or reſident agent, or other public miniſter of any foreign ſtate, or the ſervant of any ſuch ambaſſador, or other perſon not liable by law to pay ſuch rate, ſhall inhabit, ſhall be paid by the landlords. ſ. 37.

The committees within their pariſhes are to rate all pariſh churches, church yards, chapels, meeting houſes, ſchools, inns of court and chancery, halls, ſocieties, markets, warehouſes, wharfs, void ſpaces of ground, and all other public buildings whatſoever within their pariſhes, at not exceeding ſix-pence in any one year for every ſquare yard of pavement paved or repaired, cleanſed, and lighted, under this act, or the former acts, which rates ſhall be paid by the church or chapel wardens. ſ. 38.

In caſe any inhabitant, or the leſſee of any land, &c. ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay the money rated upon him, and all arrears due thereon, the collectors may levy ſuch rates, by warrant of two juſtices, and all arrears, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the party neglecting; and if within five days after ſuch diſtreſs made, the ſaid rates and arrears ſhall not be paid, with charges, the ſaid collectors ſhall cauſe the ſaid goods to be ſold to pay the rates and charges, returning the overplus to the perſon whoſe goods ſhall be diſtrained. ſ. 39.

Commiſſioners veſted with power to remove an- " noyances in ſtreets not paved, as by 2 Geo. 3. they are " in the ſtreets that have been paved. ſ. 65."

If any perſon ſhall come with any cart, or begin to empty any boghouſe, or to take away any night ſoil from any houſe within the limits before twelve o'clock at night, or ſhall continue to take away the ſame after ſix of the clock in the morning, from Michaelmas to Lady-day, or after five of the clock from Lady-day to Michaelmas; or if any perſon ſhall caſt out of any cart, tub, or otherwiſe, in or near any of the ſquares, ſtreets, &c. within the limits, or within half a mile thereof, any ſuch night ſoil, any conſtable, beadle, or watchman, or any other perſon whatſoever, may apprehend and carry him to ſuch watch-houſe as they ſhall think moſt convenient, there to be kept, and from thence conducted as ſoon as convenient before ſome juſtice, who, upon oath made of ſuch offence, ſhall commit ſuch perſon to the houſe of correction, for not exceeding three months, nor leſs than ten days: and the commiſſioners, at any meeting may order, not exceeding twenty, nor leſs than five ſhillings, to be paid to the perſon who ſhall detect, apprehend and convey before ſuch juſtice, any ſuch perſon guilty as aforeſaid, to be paid out of the rates. ſ. 66.

" The commiſſioners are to pay contingent expences " incurred, upon certificate thereof from the committees. " ſ. 67. Charges of obtaining this act, and of certain ap- " plications to parliament in the laſt ſeſſion, how to be " paid. ſ. 68. Proceedings not to be charged with ſtamp " duty. ſ. 69."

Any perſon aggrieved by any rate, may firſt apply for relief to the committee of the pariſh wherein complaint is ſuppoſed to have ariſen, at the firſt or ſecond meeting after demand made of ſuch rate; and the committees are to give relief; and in caſe the party ſhall not be ſatisfied with the determination of the committee, he may apply to the commiſſioners at their firſt or ſecond meeting, giving to the committee, or their clerk, ſix days notice of ſuch appeal; and the commiſſioners ſhall make order therein; and if the party ſhall be diſſatisfied with the order of the commiſſioners, yet he ſhall pay the rate, and may thereafter, and not before, appeal to the quarter ſeſſion, within three months after ſuch determination of the commiſſioners, giving ſix days notice thereof, in writing, and of the matter, to the clerk to ſuch committee, and within four days after notice entering into recognizance before ſome juſtice, with two ſureties conditioned to try ſuch appeal, and to abide the order of, and pay coſts at ſuch ſeſſion; and the ſaid ſeſſion, upon due proof of ſuch notice, and of the entering into ſuch recognizance, ſhall determine the appeal in a ſummary way, and award ſuch coſts to the parties appealing, or appealed againſt, as they ſhall think proper; and the determination of ſuch ſeſſion ſhall be final. ſ. 70.

" Diſtreſs not deemed unlawful. ſ. 71. No rate or " proceedings to be quaſhed for want of form. ſ. 72. " Plaintiff ſhall not recover, if ſufficient amends tendered. " ſ. 73."

No action ſhall be commenced for any thing done in purſuance of this act, until after twenty-one days next after notice given in writing to the clerk of the commiſſioners, or clerk to the committee, or after ſufficient ſatisfaction, or tender thereof, hath been made to the party aggrieved, or after ſix months; and the action ſhall be laid and tried in Middleſex, and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if a verdict ſhall be found for ſuch defendant, &c. he ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 74.

The powers for regulating the nightly watch and beadles, given to the veſtries of Saint James, and Saint George, Hanover Square, by 8 Geo. 2. c. 15. to the veſtry of Saint Martin in the Fields, by 9 Geo. 2. c. 8. within the pariſh of Saint Paul Covent Garden, to the veſtry of the ſaid pariſh, and certain other perſons, by 9 Geo. 2. c. 13. to the veſtries of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangeliſt, by 9 Geo. 2. c. 17. to the veſtry of Saint Anne, by 9 Geo. 2. c. 19. to the truſtees elected in purſuance of 10 Geo. 2. c. 25. within the liberty of Saffron Hill, Hatton Garden, and Ely Rents, in the pariſh of Saint Andrew Holborn, in the county of Middleſex; to the directors or governors of the nightly watch and beadles of Saint Clement Danes, by an act in 4 Geo. 3. to the governors and directors of the poor of the united pariſhes of Saint Andrew Holborn, above the bars, and Saint George the Martyr, by an act in 6 Geo. 3. and all private acts, are hereby continued, and may be exerciſed by ſuch veſtries, truſtees, directors, or governors of the watch, governors and directors of the poor, and other perſons within each pariſh, until the times for the appointment of watchmen and beadles. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for the veſtries, truſtees, directors, or governors of the watch, governors and directors of the poor, and other perſons choſen, within their reſpective pariſhes, liberty, precinct, and places, to place a ſufficient number of watch-boxes, in ſuch convenient parts of each pariſh, &c. as they at any of their public meetings reſpectively, ſhall judge neceſſary; which watch-boxes ſhall not be taken down or removed by any perſon, on any pretence whatever, whatever, without the order of the ſaid veſtries, truſtees, directors or governors. ſ. 2.

If any perſon ſhall wilfully break, take down, or remove, damage, or deſtroy, any of ſuch watch-boxes, every perſon being thereof convicted upon oath of one witneſs, or upon his own confeſſion, before one juſtice, ſhall forfeit, not exceeding twenty ſhillings, over the charges of replacing, repairing, or making good ſuch watch-box, or any damage done thereto. ſ. 3.

The inhabitants of the pariſh of Saint Mary le Strand are to meet together annually, on the firſt Wedneſday in June in every year, or within ten days following, between ten and twelve in the forenoon (notice being given in the church on the Sunday preceding), and there to nominate twelve truſtees for regulating the watch and beadles, within Saint Mary le Strand: and the inhabitants of the Savoy are to nominate ſeven truſtees, and the veſtrymen of the united pariſhes of Saint Giles in the Fields, and Saint George Bloomſbury, ſhall be truſtees for the ſaid pariſhes. ſ. 4.

The ſaid truſtees and other perſons ſhall, reſpectively, at their annual meetings appoint watchmen in each pariſh, for the year enſuing, ſpecifying particularly how many are to have certain beats and ſtands, and at what places, and how many of them are to patrol and have no certain ſtands, under the following limitatations; viz. in Saint Margaret, and Saint John the Evangeliſt, the number of watchmen having beats and ſtands to be forty, or more, and the watchmen to patrol to be ſix; and in Saint Martin in the Fields, the watchmen to have ſtands to be forty, and the watchmen to patrol to be ſix; in the pariſh of Saint James, the watchmen to have ſtands to be fifty, and the watchmen to patrol, eight, at the leaſt; in Saint George Hanover Square, the watchmen to have ſtands to be ſixty, and the watchmen to patrol, eight; in the pariſh of Saint Anne, the watchmen to have ſtands to be twenty, and the watchmen to patrol, four; in the pariſh of Saint Paul Covent Garden, the watchmen to have ſtands to be eighteen, and the watchmen to patrol, four; in the pariſh of Saint Clement Danes, the watchmen to have ſtands to be twenty, and the watchmen to patrol, five; in the pariſh of Saint Mary le Strand, the watchmen to have ſtands to be two, and one to patrol; and in the precinct of the Savoy to be one watchman; in the united pariſhes of Saint Giles in the Fields, and Saint George Bloomſbury, the watchmen to have ſtands to be thirty, and the watchmen to patrol to be ſix; in the united pariſhes of Saint Andrew Holborn, above the bars, and Saint George the Martyr, the watchmen to have ſtands to be thirty, and the watchmen to patrol, ſix; and in the liberty of Saffron Hill, Hatton Garden, and Ely Rents, the watchmen to have ſtands to be twelve, and the watchmen to patrol, two: and the ſaid truſtees, veſtries, and other perſons ſo met, ſhall direct, in writing, at what places particularly the watch-boxes ſhall be fixed, and the boundaries of the ſeveral beats; and ſhall alſo appoint beadles within each pariſh, in proportion to the extent of each pariſh, and to the monies which can be raiſed therein, by the rates; and ſhall alſo nominate honeſt and able-bodied men to be employed in the offices of beadles and watchmen; and alſo ſhall order what wages are to be paid to the ſaid beadles, and to the ſaid watchmen, as well patroles as others; and alſo ſhall order what pound rate ſhall be made for defraying the charges of ſuch nightly watch and beadles. ſ. 5.

The wages of every patrol ſhall not be leſs than one ſhilling and three-pence per night, and the wages of every watchman ſhall not be leſs than eighteen pounds five ſhillings in every year; and the wages of ſuch watchmen ſhall not be more than four weeks in arrear at one time. ſ. 6.

No aſſeſſment in any one year ſhall exceed ſix-pence in the pound, of the yearly value of the houſes aſſeſſed. ſ. 7.

Each of the watchmen, as well thoſe who ſhall be appointed to patrol as thoſe who ſhall have ſtands, ſhall be furniſhed with a rattle, and ſhall be armed with a ſtaff, or other weapons or arms, to be provided at the expence of each of the pariſhes; and each watchman appointed to a ſtand, ſhall provide himſelf a lanthorn, to be numbered ſo, as, from the light within, to make ſuch number diſtinguiſhable in the night-time; and each watchman appointed to a ſtand, ſhall be at his ſtand every night before ten, or ſuch earlier hour as the veſtries, truſtees, governors, or directors, ſhall appoint; and ſhall keep watch at his ſtand, or in his round, from the hour appointed, until five in the morning, during May, June, July, and Auguſt; and until ſix in the morning, during September, October, March, and April; and until ſeven in the morning, during November, December, January, and February; and every watchman ſhall be at the watch-houſe belonging to each pariſh half an hour before he is to be at his ſtand, to receive his rattle and arms, and ſhall return to the watch-houſe the next morning, when the time for his keeping watch is expired, to the end that both at night and morning his name may be called over, and the condition of his arms, rattle, and lanthorn, may be examined by the conſtable or beadle of the watch: and every patrol, ſhall appear at, and ſhall ſet out from the watch-houſe of the pariſh for which he is employed, in the evening of the firſt day of October, and every evening afterwards, until the laſt day of April, in every year, at eleven of the clock, and ſhall (not ſingly, but two together, and not more) patrol the whole of the pariſh, from that hour, until ſix in the morning, during December, January, and February, and until five, during October, November, March, and April, and until four during the other months. ſ. 8.

The patrol of Saint Mary le Strand, ſhall, in company with one of the patrol of Saint Clement Danes, patrol the pariſh of Saint Mary le Strand, and the Savoy, and ſuch part of Saint Clement Danes as lies weſtward of Saint Mary le Strand, and of the Savoy; and the truſtees for the watch for the Savoy, ſhall pay to the pariſh of Saint Clement Danes, one-fifth part of the wages of ſuch watchman of Saint Clement Danes, and alſo to the pariſh of Saint Mary le Strand, one-fifth part of the wages of ſuch watchman. ſ. 9.

The veſtries are not required to employ any patrol for any other parts of any year than during the months of October, November, December, January, February, March, and April, and within Saffron Hill, Hatton Garden, and Ely Rents, during November, December, January, and February only. ſ. 10.

If any perſon ſhall aſſault or reſiſt any watchman in the execution of his office, or ſhall encourage the ſame, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit, not exceeding five pounds. ſ. 11.

The conſtables of Saint Clement Danes, and Saint Mary le Strand, ſhall watch in the watch-houſes of the ſaid pariſh, as well within as without the limits of the Duchy of Lancaſter, alternately, in a rotation to be ſettled by the directors or governors of the watch for Saint Clement Danes, and the truſtees of Saint Mary le Strand, jointly; and ſuch conſtables in the ſaid watch-houſes, and in every other of the pariſhes, ſubjected to the powers of this act (the precinct of the Savoy only excepted), each of the conſtables and headboroughs ſhall watch, in the watch-houſe of the pariſh for which he ſhall ſerve as conſtable or headborough, alternately, in a rotation to be ſettled by the veſtries, &c. and ſhall continue ſo to do throughout the year, during all the hours herein appointed, for the watchmen having ſtands to continue on duty; and ſhall take charge, and diſpoſe of, according to law, all ſuch perſons as ſhall be brought before ſuch conſtables, by any of the watchmen or beadles, in manner herein directed. ſ. 12.

The high conſtable of Weſtminſter, and the high conſtable for Holborn diviſion, ſhall, within four days after the appointment of conſtables and headboroughs, return to the veſtry clerk of each pariſh, a liſt of the conſtables and headboroughs appointed for ſuch pariſh. ſ. 13.

Every watchman (except the patrol) ſhall, every night, twice in every hour, during his whole time of watching, go round his walk, and proclaim the time of the night or morning; and ſuch watchman, and every patrol, ſhall carefully obſerve and try whether the houſes, ſhops, warehouſes, or other buildings, are ſafe and well ſecured; and in caſe he ſhall diſcover any doors, ſhutters, windows, or other parts of any houſe not ſhut and faſtened, he ſhall forthwith give notice thereof to the occupier, that ſuch door, &c. may be ſecured, and ſhall give his aſſiſtance in ſecuring the ſame; and each of the watchmen, as well patroles as others, and every beadle ſhall, during his time of watching, to the utmoſt of his power, endeavour to prevent miſchiefs by fire, murders, burglaries, robberies, affrays, and other outrages and diſorders: and, to that end, during the time of watching, may arreſt all night-walkers, malefactors, rogues, vagabonds, and other looſe, idle, and diſorderly perſons, whom he ſhall find within his beat, or within any part of ſuch pariſh, diſturbing the public peace, or that he ſhall have cauſe to ſuſpect of any evil deſigns, and all perſons lying or loitering in any ſquare, ſtreet, court, lane, mews, yard, alley, paſſage, or place; and deliver the perſons apprehended to the conſtable or headborough of the night, at the watch-houſe, in order that ſuch perſon may be ſecured, until he can be conveyed before ſome juſtice, to be dealt with according to law. ſ. 14.

In caſe any watchmen ſhall want aſſiſtance, then any other watchmen of the ſame, or any adjoining pariſh, having notice thereof by the rattle, or other outcry, ſhall immediately repair and aſſiſt ſuch watchmen; but no watchman ſhall be abſent from his ſtand, on any pretence whatever, except on ſome ſuch occaſion as above, nor longer than neceſſity ſhall require; nor ſhall go into any ale-houſe, or other public-houſe, during the times of watching; unleſs called there on account of an affray, breach of the peace, or of the apprehending ſome malefactor or diſorderly perſon. ſ. 15.

Beadles, on every night of watching, ſhall, twice or oftener, go through all the ſquares, ſtreets, and places, in the pariſh, and ſhall ſee to the behaviour of the patroles and watchmen; and ſhall, twice or oftener in ſuch night of watching, make reports to the conſtable, headborough of the night, or to ſuch other perſon as ſhall be appointed to receive the ſame, of all miſbehaviours and neglects of duty of watchmen and patroles; and ſuch reports ſhall enter in a book, to be kept at the watch-houſe by ſuch beadle; and every patrol, ſhall, twice, or oftener, in every night, ſee to the behaviour of the other watchmen, and ſhall make reports to the conſtable, headborough, beadle, or other perſon appointed, of all neglects of duty, or other miſbehaviour of the watchmen; and ſhall enter ſuch returns in the ſaid book, which book ſhall be laid before the veſtries, &c. at every of their meetings, to the end all ſuch neglects and miſbehaviours may be puniſhed. ſ. 16.

The turncocks are to deliver, in writing, to one of the conſtables or headboroughs of each pariſh, an account of his name and place of abode, together with the names of the ſtreets and places within his duty, to ſupply with water; which name and place of abode, and other particulars, ſuch conſtable, &c. ſhall forthwith cauſe to be written, printed, or painted, in a plain manner, and affixed in ſome conſpicuous part of the watch-houſe, and in every watch-box within ſuch pariſh; and on every removal or change of reſidence of ſuch turncocks, they ſhall forthwith give notice of their new reſidence, &c. and in caſe of the death or diſcharge of ſuch turncocks, every ſucceeding turncock ſhall obſerve the foregoing rules: and if any conſtable, headborough, or turncock, ſhall neglect his duty, as directed by this act, or if any perſon ſhall wilfully remove or obliterate ſuch writing, printing, or painting, except on change of reſidence, death, or diſcharge, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit to the informer, not exceeding ten ſhillings, to be recovered before one juſtice. ſ. 17.

If any watchman miſbehave, or neglect his duty, upon complaint thereof made to the veſtries, &c. or to the committees to be appointed as herein directed at any of their meetings, he ſhall forfeit, not exceeding ten ſhillings, to be deducted out of his wages. ſ. 18.

If any victualler, or keeper of any public-houſe, or cellar, ſhall knowingly harbour, or permit any watchman, or patrol, to remain in his houſe or cellar during any part of the hours of watching; or if any conſtable or headborough ſhall make default of watching, and ſhall not abide in the watch-houſe during all the hours directed, ſuch victualler, and ſuch conſtable or headborough, being reſpectively convicted by his own confeſſion, or by oath of one witneſs before one juſtice, ſhall forfeit, viz. every victualler, &c. for the firſt offence, twenty ſhillings; for the ſecond, forty ſhillings; and for every ſubſequent offence, five pounds; and every conſtable, not exceeding twenty, nor leſs than five ſhillings. ſ. 19.

The forfeitures may be levied by warrant § of any juſtice; to be directed to a conſtable or headborough; and ſhall be paid to the collector of the rate, and be applied to the ſame uſes as the rates: and in caſe of no ſufficient diſtreſs to levy the penalties, ſuch juſtice may commit ſuch offender to the common gaol, or houſe of correction, to hard labour, for not exceeding three months. ſ. 20.

The juſtice ſhall cauſe ſuch conviction to be drawn up in the form, or to the effect following;

To wit, Be it remembered, that on this ——— day ——— in the ——— year of the reign of ——— A. B. (appearing, or being duly ſummoned and not appearing), is convicted before ——— of his majeſty's juſtices of the peace for the ſaid county of Middleſex, or for the city and liberty of Weſtminſter (as the caſe ſhall happen to be), of ——— and ——— do adjudge him (her, or them, as the caſe ſhall be) to pay and forfeit for the ſame ſum of ——— being the firſt (ſecond or third) offence (as the caſe ſhall be).

Given under ——— hand and ſeal, or hands and ſeals (as the caſe may be), the day and year aforeſaid.

And the ſaid juſtice ſhall cauſe the ſame to be written upon parchment, and tranſmitted to the next general or quarter ſeſſion, for Middleſex, to be filed amongſt the records: and any perſon aggrieved by ſuch conviction may appeal to any general or quarter ſeſſion, within three months after conviction, giving unto the juſtice ten days notice; and ſuch general or quarter ſeſſion, or any ſubſequent ſeſſion, may proceed to the determination of the ſaid appeal, and to make order therein, and award coſts to either party; which order ſhall be concluſive, and ſhall not be removed by certiorari. ſ. 21.

The evidence of any pariſhioner ſhall be admitted. ſ. 22.

§ The effects not mentioned.

No

No perſon ſhall be appointed a deputy conſtable in the city of Weſtminſter, or liberty thereof, who ſhall not at the time of appointment, be an houſeholder and reſident in the pariſh, for which he ſhall be appointed, and who ſhall not produce a certificate in writing, ſigned by the churchwarden or chapelwarden, ſignifying that he hath been approved at ſome veſtry, or other public meeting. ſ. 23.

The veſtrymen of Saint Giles in the Fields, and Saint George Bloomſbury, jointly, as one veſtry, or ſeven of them, and the truſtees for Saint Mary le Strand, or five of them, and the truſtees for the Savoy, or three of them, in the ſaid pariſhes and precinct ſeverally, ſhall exerciſe the like powers, to make rules, &c. to be obſerved by the conſtables, headboroughs, beadles, and watchmen, and to cauſe copies of ſuch rules, &c. to be written or printed, and ſigned by the veſtry clerk, and delivered to ſuch perſons, and to make and ſign aſſeſſments to be allowed in the ſame manner, and to appoint collectors thereof, and to order payment of any monies in the hands of collectors, and to apply any rates, &c. and to cauſe to be kept books of account concerning the watch, and to execute all other powers, concerning the watch and beadles, and the levying monies to diſcharge the charges thereof, within their ſeveral pariſhes and precinct, as the truſtees under 10 Geo. 2. may execute for the liberty of Saffron Hill, Hatton Garden, and Ely Rents. ſ. 24.

The directors or governors of the watch for Saint Clement Danes, and the truſtees for Saint Mary le Strand, if they, or the majority of them, ſhall think fit, may aſſemble together, attended by the veſtry clerks of both pariſhes, annually or oftener, in the veſtry-room of Saint Clement Danes, by ſummons or other notice; and the ſaid directors, or governors and truſtees, or the major part of them, ſo aſſembled, may, if they ſhall ſo think fit, join together, and, as one body, make, in writing, the ſame rules, to be obſerved in Saint Clement Danes, and St. Mary le Strand. ſ. 25.

The veſtries, truſtees, or other perſons, are to appoint collectors of rates, and out of the rates collected, to make allowances to ſuch collectors, not exceeding 6*d.* in the pound of the clear monies collected. ſ. 26.

" Collectors to find ſecurity. ſ. 27. Executors of " collectors to deliver up papers, &c. on pain of forfeiting 50*l.* over what ſhall be in his hands, which may " be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch executors, or repreſentatives, and ſhall alſo pay to ſuch perſons as the veſtries, &c. appoint all money remaining " due, and received by virtue of the office at the time " of his death." ſ. 28.

If any houſe ſhall be occupied in lodgings, by diſtinct lodgers, any one of ſuch lodgers, or the landlord of ſuch houſe, ſhall be charged with the whole aſſeſſment; and in caſe of nonpayment, the ſum aſſeſſed ſhall be levied upon ſuch landlord, or any one of the inhabitants of ſuch houſe. ſ. 29.

The goods of every perſon, being in any houſe let furniſhed, or any ſeparate apartment in any houſe let ready furniſhed, or let to ſeveral tenants, ſhall be liable to be diſtrained and ſold, for the payment of the aſſeſſment; and every perſon who ſhall pay ſuch aſſeſſment, or any perſon upon whoſe goods ſuch aſſeſſment ſhall be levied, may deduct the ſame out of the rent due to his landlord, and every receipt for the payment of ſuch aſſeſſment ſhall be a ſufficient diſcharge againſt ſuch landlord, for ſo much as ſhall have been ſo paid or levied. ſ. 30.

" Aſſeſſments on houſes occupied by ambaſſadors, &c. " to be paid by landlords." ſ. 31.

If any perſon aſſeſſed, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay the ſum rated upon him, ſuch collectors, by warrant under the hands and ſeals of two juſtices, may levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the party neglecting or refuſing, rendering to him the overplus. ſ. 32.

The goods of any perſon aſſeſſed, and refuſing or neglecting to pay, may, by ſuch warrant, be diſtrained, not only within the pariſh for which ſuch aſſeſſment was made, but in any other place within the county of Middleſex, or city of Weſtminſter; and if ſufficient diſtreſs cannot be found within the ſaid county, then on oath made thereof, and of the ſigning ſuch warrant, before any juſtice for any other county (which oath ſhall be certified under the hand of ſuch juſtice, by indorſement on the warrant), the goods of ſuch perſon ſhall, by ſuch collector, under ſuch warrant and indorſement thereof, be diſtrained, in ſuch other county, and ſold for ſatisfaction of the monies refuſed or neglected to be paid. ſ. 33.

In caſe any perſon ſhall come into any houſe, &c. out of which any other perſon aſſeſſed ſhall have removed, or which at the time of making ſuch rate was empty; then every perſon ſo removing from, and every perſon ſo coming into the ſame, ſhall reſpectively pay ſo much of the aſſeſſment as ſhall be in proportion to the time he ſhall occupy the premiſes aſſeſſed, which proportion, in caſe of diſpute, ſhall be aſcertained by two juſtices. ſ. 34.

No perſon who ſhall pay any rate, or who ſhall be choſen a patrol or watchman, ſhall gain any ſettlement in the pariſh; and no menial or hired ſervant ſhall be choſen a beadle, patrol, or watchman. ſ. 35.

The collectors of rates ſhall pay over the monies ariſing from the ſame to ſuch watchmen, beadles, or other perſons, at ſuch times, and in ſuch proportions, as the veſtrymen, directors, or governors of the watch, governors or directors of the poor, or truſtees ſhall appoint; and ſhall on ſuch day as the veſtrymen, truſtees, directors, or governors ſhall appoint, yield a true account of all money received and paid, and alſo pay all money as ſhall remain in their hands. ſ. 36.

The ſaid veſtries, truſtees, directors, or governors of the pariſh, in their ſeveral meetings for appointing watchmen, ſhall, if they think fit, nominate any of the ſaid veſtrymen, not exceeding ten, nor leſs than five, to be a committee for one year; and the ſaid veſtries, &c. ſhall meet four times in every year, or oftener, and the ſaid committee ſhall meet at the uſual place of meeting for tranſacting the public buſineſs of each pariſh, within the firſt week in every month, or oftener; and the ſaid veſtries, &c. at their quarterly, or other meetings, and the ſaid committees, at their monthly or other meetings, ſhall call before them all conſtables, headboroughs, beadles, patroles, and other watchmen, and examine into their behaviour reſpecting the watch, and reward or cenſure them accordingly; and hear and redreſs complaints, and give directions, and ſee to the payment of the wages to be given to ſuch patroles and other watchmen, and to encourage the attendance of ſupernumerary watchmen, to the end ſuch ſupernumeraries (if required) may go upon duty as watchmen inſtead of ſuch of the conſtant patroles, or watchmen, as by ſickneſs, or for other cauſe, ſhall not attend, by making to ſuch ſupernumerary watchmen, whether they ſhall be employed or not, ſuch pecuniary allowances as they judge fit. ſ. 37.

" Acts, &c. of the committee to be under control of " directors, &c. ſ. 38."

Every ſupernumerary watchman, during ſuch times as he ſhall watch and go upon duty, ſhall have like powers as are here given to other watchmen, and ſhall be ſubject to the ſame rules. ſ. 39.

The ſaid ſeveral veſtries, truſtees, directors or governors are to meet together as occaſion ſhall require, notice being given given in the church or chapel of the pariſh, and to make a rate upon all perſons who ſhall become occupiers of any houſe, &c. in the ſaid pariſhes, after the rate for that year or half year ſhall have been made and aſſeſſed, which rate being allowed by two juſtices, ſhall be collected as the before-mentioned rate. ſ. 40.

No perſon rated ſhall be liable to watch or ward by 13 Edw. 1. or any other ſtatute. ſ. 41.

If any perſon ſhall find himſelf aggrieved by any rate, then upon appeal to the next general quarter, or general ſeſſion for Middleſex, which ſhall be firſt held after fourteen days after notice of ſuch rate or demand thereof, notice of ſuch appeal being given to the collector, ſix days before the firſt day of ſuch ſeſſion, the juſtices in ſuch ſeſſion may make order therein, which ſhall be concluſive to all parties, and not removed by certiorari. ſ. 42.

All money collected, ſhall be applied to the defraying of the expences of the watch and beadles, and other charges incident thereto: and if any collector ſhall refuſe or neglect to give a juſt account, or to pay the monies remaining in his hands to any perſon authoriſed to receive the ſame, two juſtices, upon complaint by one of the veſtrymen, &c. to whom the ſaid collector ſhall be accountable, and proof thereof made upon oath by one witneſs, by warrant under their hands and ſeals, may commit ſuch collector to the common gaol, until he ſhall account, and have paid ſuch money, as upon the ſaid account ſhall appear to be in his hands. ſ. 43.

The diſtreſs ſhall not be unlawful, nor the party a treſpaſſer, on account of any want of form in the warrant or proceedings, nor be deemed a treſpaſſer ab initio, on account of any irregularity afterwards done; but the perſon aggrieved may recover ſatisfaction by action on the caſe. ſ. 44.

No rate, or any proceeding, touching any order relating to any complaint or appeal, or any determination thereon, ſhall be quaſhed for want of form, or be removed into any court of record at Weſtminſter, by certiorari. ſ. 45.

No plaintiff ſhall recover in any action for ſuch irregularity, &c. if tender of amends ſhall be made before action brought; and in caſe no ſuch tender ſhall have been made, the defendant may pay into court ſuch ſum of money as he ſhall ſee fit. ſ. 46.

Action for any thing done in purſuance of former acts, or this preſent act, ſhall be commenced within three months, and ſhall be laid in Middleſex; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff ſhall become nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 47.

Wine.

By 6 Ed. 1. c. 15. The mayor and bailiffs before the coming of the barons of the exchequer into London, ſhall inquire of wines ſold againſt the aſſiſe, and ſhall preſent it before them at their coming, and then ſhall they be amerced.

Wills.

By 11 Geo. 1. c. 18. All perſons who after the firſt of June 1725, ſhall become free of the city, and all who at that day ſhall be unmarried, and not have iſſue by any former marriage, may diſpoſe of their perſonal eſtate. ſ. 17.

If any perſon who ſhall be free of the city hath agreed, or ſhall agree, by writing, in conſideration of his marriage, or otherwiſe, that his perſonal eſtate ſhall be diſtributed according to the cuſtom of the city; or in caſe any perſon ſo free ſhall die inteſtate, his perſonal eſtate ſhall be ſubject to the cuſtom of the city. ſ. 18.

Wood.

By 23 Eliz. c. 5. No perſon ſhall convert to fuel for the making of iron in any iron mills, furnace, or hammer any wood or underwood, growing within twenty-two miles from London, upon pain to forfeit for every load 40 s. one half to the queen, and the other moiety to him that will ſue.

Longitude.

By 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 15. The lord high admiral, or the firſt commiſſioner of the admiralty, the ſpeaker of the houſe of commons, the firſt commiſſioner of the navy, the firſt commiſſioner of trade, the admirals of the red, white, and blue, ſquadrons, the maſter of the Trinity-houſe, the preſident of the royal ſociety, the royal aſtronomer of Greenwich, the Savilian, Lucaſian, and Plumian, profeſſors of the mathematics in Oxford and Cambridge, all for the time being, the honourable Sir Thomas Hanmer, Bart. and William Clayton, Eſq; are conſtituted commiſſioners for the diſcovery of the longitude at ſea, and for examining and judging of all propoſals and improvements relating to the ſame. ſ. 1.

After experiments made of any propoſal, the commiſſioners ſhall declare how far the ſame is found practicable. ſ. 2.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 25. The governor of Greenwich Hoſpital, the judge of the court of admiralty, the ſecretaries of the treaſury, the ſecretary of the admiralty, and the comptroller of the navy, ſhall be joined with ſuch of the commiſſioners appointed by 12 Ann. as are ſurviving.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 20. It ſhall be lawful for the commiſſioners to cauſe ſuch Nautical Almanacks, or other uſeful tables, to be conſtructed, and to print, publiſh, and vend, any Nautical Almanack, or other uſeful table, which they ſhall judge neceſſary and uſeful, in order to facilitate the method of diſcovering the longitude at ſea. ſ. 10.

No perſon ſhall print, publiſh, or vend, any Nautical Almanack, or other table conſtructed under the direction of the commiſſioners, without being firſt licenſed by the ſaid commiſſioners; and if any perſon not licenſed, or authoriſed by the perſon licenſed, ſhall print, publiſh, or vend, any ſuch Nautical Almanack, or other table, every ſuch perſon ſhall, for every copy printed, publiſhed, or vended, forfeit twenty pounds; to be recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter; and one moiety of ſuch penalty ſhall be to his Majeſty, and the other moiety to him that ſhall ſue. ſ. 11.

By 14 Geo. 3. c. 66. The acts 12 Ann. 14 Geo. 2. 26 Geo. 2. 2 Geo. 3. 3 Geo. 3. 5 Geo. 3. and 10 Geo. 3. except ſuch clauſes in each of them as relate to the appointment or authority of the commiſſioners, and alſo ſuch clauſes as relate to the conſtructing, printing, publiſhing, vending, and licenſing of Nautical Almanacks, and other uſeful tables, are repealed. ſ. 1.

The firſt author or diſcoverer, of each and every method of finding the longitude, his executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, ſhall be entitled to, and have the rewards here-in-after, viz. In caſe the method propoſed ſhall be, by means of a time-keeper, the principles whereof have not hitherto been made public, to five thouſand pounds, if ſuch method determines the longitude to one degree of a great circle, or ſixty geographical miles; to ſeven thouſand five hundred pounds, if it determines the ſame to two-thirds of that diſtance;

tance; and to ten thouſand pounds, if it determines the ſame to one half of the ſaid diſtance: which rewards ſhall be due and paid when ſuch method ſhall have been ſufficiently tried by the following experiments and voyages to be made and performed by ſuch perſons, and under ſuch reſtrictions, as the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall appoint, viz. When two time-keepers, of the ſame conſtruction, ſhall have been tried at the ſame time, for the ſpace of twelve months, at the royal obſervatory at Greenwich, then in two voyages round the iſland of Great Britain, in contrary directions, and in ſuch other voyages to different climates as the commiſſioners ſhall direct; and after their return from ſuch voyages, or any of them, for ſuch longer time, at the ſaid obſervatory, not exceeding twelve months, as the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall judge neceſſary; and alſo when the ſaid commiſſioners, or two-thirds of them, ſhall, after ſuch experiments and voyages, have declared and determined that ſuch method is generally practicable and uſeful, and ſufficiently exact to determine the longitude at ſea within the degrees aforeſaid, in all voyages for the ſpace of ſix months (impediments from cloudy and hazy weather excepted); and alſo when the principles and practice of ſuch method are fully diſcovered and explained to the ſatisfaction of the commiſſioners; and ſuch author or diſcoverer ſhall have delivered up and aſſigned over to the commiſſioners, for the uſe of the public, the abſolute property of ſuch time-keepers as ſhall have been tried by ſuch experiments and voyages, together with all plates, deſcriptions, theories, and explanations, relating to the ſame, and which ſhall contain the whole of ſuch diſcovery of the longitude; and in caſe the method propoſed ſhall be by means of improved ſolar and lunar tables; then the author of ſuch tables, his executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, ſhall have the reward of five thouſand pounds, if ſuch tables ſhall prove ſufficiently exact to ſhew the diſtance of the moon from the ſun and ſtars in the heavens, within fifteen ſeconds of a degree, anſwering to about ſeven minutes of longitude, after making an allowance of half a degree for the errors of obſervation; and when it ſhall appear to the ſatisfaction of the commiſſioners, that ſuch tables are conſtructed entirely upon the principles of gravitation laid down by Sir Iſaac Newton (except with reſpect to thoſe elements which muſt neceſſarily be taken from aſtronomical obſervations), and alſo when the truth of ſuch tables ſhall have been further confirmed and proved by compariſon with a ſeries of aſtronomical obſervations made during a period of eighteen years and a half, which is deemed the period of the irregularities of the lunar motions; which reward ſhall be due and paid, when the commiſſioners ſhall have determined, that ſuch tables are ſufficiently exact to ſhew the diſtance of the moon from the ſun and ſtars in the heavens, within the limits above; and alſo when the author of ſuch tables, his executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, ſhall have delivered up, and aſſigned over to the commiſſioners, for the uſe of the public, the abſolute right and property to the ſame, together with the theory relating thereunto: and in caſe any other method ſhall be propoſed for finding the longitude at ſea, beſides thoſe before mentioned, then, the firſt author or diſcoverer, his executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, ſhall have the reward of five thouſand pounds, if it ſhall determine the ſaid longitude within one degree of a great circle, or ſixty geographical miles; to ſeven thouſand five hundred pounds, if it ſhall determine the ſame to two-thirds of that diſtance; and to ten thouſand pounds, if it ſhall determine the ſame to one half of the ſame diſtance; which rewards ſhall be paid, ſo ſoon as the commiſſioners ſhall, after proper trial, made by their appointment and direction, have determined that ſuch method ſhall be generally practicable and uſeful for finding the longitude at ſea within the above limits. ſ. 2.

When ſuch method ſhall be tried and found practicable and uſeful at ſea, and ſufficiently exact to determine the longitude within any of the degrees aforeſaid, the commiſſioners ſhall certify the ſame, under their hands and ſeals, to the commiſſioners of the navy, together with the name of the author; and the commiſſioners of the navy are to make out a bill upon the treaſurer of the navy, for the money to which the author of ſuch propoſals ſhall be entitled by this act; which ſum the ſaid treaſurer is to pay out of any money in hand, unapplied to the uſe of the navy. ſ. 3.

The commiſſioners for the diſcovery of longitude at ſea, or five of them, ſhall have power to hear and receive any propoſal for diſcovering the ſaid longitude, or for making any other uſeful improvement in navigation; and in caſe they ſhall be ſo far ſatisfied of the probability of any ſuch diſcovery or improvements as to think it proper to cauſe experiments to be made thereof, they ſhall certify the ſame, together with the name of the author, to the commiſſioners of the navy, who are to make out bills upon the treaſurer for ſuch ſum as the commiſſioners for the diſcovery of longitude ſhall think neceſſary for making ſuch experiments; which the treaſurer is to pay out of any money in his hands unapplied. ſ. 5.

If any perſon ſhall make any diſcovery for finding the longitude at ſea, which, though not of ſo great uſe as to be entitled to any of the great rewards, ſhall nevertheleſs be adjudged by the commiſſioners to be of conſiderable uſe to the public, or ſhall make any other diſcovery or improvement, uſeful to navigation; then ſuch perſon ſhall have ſuch leſs reward as the commiſſioners ſhall think reaſonable; and certify accordingly to the commiſſioners of the navy, who are to make out bills upon the treaſurer for ſuch ſums, which the ſaid treaſurer is to pay out of any money in his hands unapplied. ſ. 6.

In caſe any reward ſhall not exceed one thouſand pounds, it may be certified to the commiſſioners of the navy, under the hands and ſeals of the commiſſioners for the diſcovery of longitude, or five of them; but if it ſhall exceed one thouſand pounds, then it ſhall be certified by the major part of them. ſ. 7.

In caſe any perſon who ſhall have received any reward, ſhall afterwards become entitled to any of the greater rewards on account of the ſame method, then ſuch money as he ſhall have received, ſhall be conſidered as part of ſuch greater reward, and deducted therefrom accordingly; and no perſon ſhall receive more in the whole for one method for diſcovering the longitude at ſea, than the greateſt reward appointed by this act. ſ. 8.

The commiſſioners for the diſcovery of longitude at ſea, or the major part of them, are impowered to adminiſter oaths for carrying this act into execution, which oaths two commiſſioners may adminiſter; and in caſe any perſon ſhall wilfully ſwear falſely, ſuch perſon ſhall be liable to the ſtatutes againſt perjury. ſ. 9.

By 21 Geo. 3. c. 52. The commiſſioners for the diſcovery of longitude have power, whenever they ſhall be ſatisfied of the probability of any propoſal for diſcovering the longitude, or making any other uſeful diſcovery and improvement in navigation, ſo as to think it proper to cauſe experiments to be made thereof, to certify the ſame to the commiſſioners of the navy; and alſo in caſe they ſhall adjudge any perſon to have made any diſcovery for finding the longitude at ſea, which, though not of ſo great uſe as to be entitled to any of the great rewards, yet of conſiderable uſe to the public, or to have made any other diſcovery, or improvement, uſeful to navigation, to certify ſuch leſs reward as they ſhall think reaſonable; and the commiſſioners of the navy are to make out bills upon the treaſurer for ſuch ſums certified, and the ſaid treaſurer is to pay immediately ſuch ſums out of any monies in his hands unapplied. ſ. 1.

Provided ſuch ſums do not altogether exceed five thouſand pounds. ſ. 2.

Such ſums ſhall be certified, and ſuch bills made out, and payment thereof made, under the ſame regulations as in 14 Geo. 3. ſ. 3.

Lords.

By 31 Hen. 8. c. 10. No perſons (except the king's children) ſhall ſit at any ſide of the cloth of eſtate in the parliament-chamber; and the king's vicegerent for the eccleſiaſtical juriſdiction ſhall ſit in all parliaments on the right ſide of the parliament-chamber, and upon the ſame form that the archbiſhop of Canterbury ſitteth on, and above the archbiſhop, and ſhall have voice in parliament as other lords. ſ. 2.

Next to the vicegerent ſhall ſit the archbiſhop of Canterbury, and next to him on the ſame form the archbiſhop of York, and next to him on the ſame form the biſhop of London, and next the biſhop of Durham, and next the biſhop of Wincheſter, then all the other biſhops ſhall ſit on the ſame ſide after their ancienties. ſ. 3.

The lord chancellor, lord treaſurer, lord preſident of the council, and the lord privy ſeal, being of the degree of barons, or above, ſhall ſit in all parliaments on the left ſide of the parliament-chamber, on the higher part of the form, above all dukes, except ſuch as ſhall be the king's ſon, the king's brother, the king's uncle, the king's nephew, or the king's brothers or ſiſters ſon. ſ. 4.

The great chamberlain, the conſtable, the marſhal, the lord admiral, the great maſter or lord ſteward, and the king's chamberlain, ſhall ſit after the lord privy ſeal, and above all other perſonages of the ſame degrees that they ſhall be of. ſ. 5.

The king's chief ſecretary, being a baron, ſhall ſit above all barons; and if he be a biſhop, he ſhall ſit above all other biſhops. ſ. 6.

Dukes, marquiſſes, earls, viſcounts and barons, not having any of the offices aforeſaid, ſhall ſit after their anciety. ſ. 7.

If the lord chancellor, lord treaſurer, lord preſident, lord privy ſeal, or chief ſecretary, be under the degree of a baron, they ſhall ſit at the uppermoſt part of the ſacks in midſt of the parliament-chamber, either upon one form or upon the uppermoſt ſack in order, as is above rehearſed. ſ. 8.

In trials of treaſons by peers, if any of the peers ſhall have any of the offices aforeſaid, they ſhall ſit according to their offices. ſ. 9.

In all other aſſemblies and conferences of council, the lord chancellor, the lord treaſurer, the lord preſident, the lord privy ſeal, the great chamberlain, the conſtable, the marſhal, the lord admiral, the grand maſter or lord ſteward, the king's chamberlain, and the king's chief ſecretary, ſhall ſit in ſuch order as is above rehearſed. ſ. 10.

Lotteries.

By 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 17. All lotteries are public nuiſances, and all patents for lotteries are void and againſt law. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall keep open, or draw, or throw at, any lottery, either by dice, lots, cards, balls, numbers, figures, or any other way whatſoever; and every perſon that ſhall open or ſhew, to be paid or drawn at, any lottery, ſhall forfeit 500*l.* one third part to his majeſty, one other third to the poor of the pariſh, and the other third with double coſts to the party that ſhall ſue for the ſame; and the parties offending ſhall likewiſe be proſecuted as common rogues. ſ. 2.

Every perſon that ſhall play, throw, or draw, at any lottery, ſhall forfeit 20*l.* one third part to his majeſty, one other third to the poor of the pariſh, and the other third with double coſts to the party that ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 3.

By 9 Ann. c. 6. Juſtices of peace, mayors, bailiffs, head officers, conſtables, and other her majeſty's civil officers, are required to uſe their utmoſt endeavours to prevent the drawing of any ſuch unlawful lottery; and every perſon who ſhall ſet up, or publiſh the ſetting up, any unlawful lottery, with intent to have ſuch lottery drawn, ſhall forfeit 100*l.* one third part to her majeſty, one other third to the poor of the pariſh, and the other third with coſts to the party who ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 5. See 9 Ann. c. 6. ſ. 57. under title "Inſurance."

By 10 Ann. c. 26. Every perſon who ſhall keep any office for making inſurances on marriages, births, chriſtenings, or ſervice, or any office under the denomination of ſales of gloves, of fans, of cards, of numbers, of the queen's picture, for the improvement of ſmall ſums, or the like offices, under the pretence of improving ſmall ſums, ſhall forfeit 500*l.* one third part to her majeſty, one other third to the poor of the pariſh, and the other third with coſts to the perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame; and every printer or other perſon who ſhall publiſh the keeping any ſuch office, ſhall forfeit 100*l.* to be diſtributed as the penalty laſt mentioned: and every perſon who in any office before the 24th of June 1712, ſet up for making inſurances on marriages, &c. or under any other the denominations aforeſaid, or any like denominations, for improvement of ſmall ſums, ſhall make or ſuffer to be made, any new inſurances on marriages, births, chriſtenings, or ſervice, or receive any payments for improvement of ſmall ſums, ſhall forfeit 100*l.* to be diſtributed in like manner. ſ. 109.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 9. All ſubſcriptions for ſale of the chances, or part of the chances, to ariſe on the tickets iſſued by virtue of the act of this ſeſſion, and all ſuch kinds of undertakings, ſhall be within the meaning of the acts againſt private lotteries, and the perſons buying, ſelling, ſubſcribing, or taking ſubſcriptions for the purchaſe of ſuch chances of any tickets made out in purſuance of any act for a public lottery, or on the numbers of ſuch tickets, without having the original tickets in their cuſtody and right, ſhall be liable to the penalties inflicted on ſuch as ſhall be concerned in private lotteries; and every ſuch offender ſhall for every ſuch chance ſo ſold or ſubſcribed forfeit 100*l.* over and above any former penalties; one moiety to the crown, the other to ſuch perſon as in his own right ſhall at the commencement of the drawing of ſuch lottery be poſſeſſed of the ticket on which ſuch chance ſhall be ſold or ſubſcribed for. ſ. 43.

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 2. Every perſon who ſhall ſet up or keep any office or place under the denomination of ſales of houſes, lands, advowſons, preſentations to livings, plate, jewels, ſhips, goods, or other things, for the improvement of ſmall ſums of money; or ſhall ſell or expoſe to ſale any houſes, &c. by way of lottery, or by lots, tickets, numbers, or figures; or ſhall make, print, advertiſe, or publiſh propoſals propoſals or ſchemes for advancing ſmall ſums of money by ſeveral perſons, amounting in the whole to large ſums, to be divided amongſt them by the chances of the prizes in any public lottery; or ſhall deliver out tickets to perſons advancing ſuch ſums, to entitle them to a ſhare of the money, according to ſuch propoſals or ſchemes; or ſhall make, print, or publiſh, any propoſal or ſcheme of the like kind, and ſhall be thereof convicted, on the oath of one witneſs, by two juſtices of peace, where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, or the offender found, the perſon ſo convicted, ſhall (over and above any former penalties) forfeit 500*l.* one third to the crown, one other third to the informer, and the remaining third to the poor of the pariſh where the offence ſhall be committed, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods by warrant of the juſtices, and ſhall alſo be committed to the county gaol for one year, and till the 500*l.* be paid. Perſons aggrieved may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 36.

All perſons who ſhall be adventurers in ſuch ſales or lotteries, or ſhall contribute to ſuch ſales or lotteries, ſhall forfeit double the ſum contributed, to be recovered with coſts; one moiety to the crown, the other to the informer. ſ. 37.

By 9 Geo. 1. c. 19. If any perſons ſhall by colour of any authority from any foreign prince or ſtate, ſet up or keep any lottery, or undertaking in the nature of a lottery, or ſhall make, print, or publiſh, any propoſal or ſcheme for ſuch lottery, or ſhall within this kingdom ſell or diſpoſe of any tickets in any foreign lottery, and ſhall be convicted on the oath of one witneſs before two juſtices, &c. where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, or the offender found, ſuch offender ſhall (over and above any former penalties) forfeit 200*l.* one third to the crown, one other third to the informer, and the remaining third to the poor of the pariſh, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods by warrant of the juſtices, and ſhall alſo be committed to the county gaol for one year, and till the ſaid ſum be ſatisfied. ſ. 4.

Perſons aggrieved by the judgment of the juſtices may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 5.

By 6 Geo. 2. c. 35. If any perſon ſhall ſell or deliver any ticket in any foreign lottery, and ſhall be convicted upon action or information, or upon oath or affirmation of one witneſs before two juſtices of peace, where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, or the offender found, the perſon ſo convicted ſhall forfeit 200*l.* one third part to his majeſty, one third to him who ſhall make information of the offence, and the remaining third to the poor of the pariſh, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and ſhall alſo be committed to the county gaol for one year, and from thence till the ſum of 200*l.* be paid. ſ. 29.

Any perſon aggrieved by the judgment of ſuch juſtices ſhall have liberty to appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 30.

By 12 Geo. 2. c. 28. For explaining and making more effectual 10 & 11 Will. 3. c. 17. 9 Ann. c. 6. and 8 Geo. 1. c. 2. If any perſon ſet up or keep any office or place, under the denomination of a ſale of houſes, land, advowſons, preſentations to livings, plate, jewels, ſhips, goods or other things, by way of lottery, or by lots, tickets, numbers or figures, cards or dice; or make, print, adverti ſe or publiſh, or cauſe to be made, &c. ſchemes for advancing ſmall ſums of money by ſeveral perſons, amounting in the whole to large ſums, to be divided among them by chances of the prizes in ſome public lottery allowed by act of parliament, or deliver or procure to be delivered tickets to the perſons advancing ſuch ſums, to intitle them to a ſhare of the money, according to ſuch ſchemes; or expoſe to ſale any houſes, &c. by any game or device to be determined by any lot or drawing, whether it be out of a box or wheel, or by cards or dice, or by any machine or device of chance of any kind; ſuch perſon being convicted before a juſtice for any county or diviſion, or before the m yor, or other juſtice for any city or town-corporate, upon the oath of one witneſs, or upon the view of ſuch juſtice, or on the confeſſion of the party, ſhall forfeit 200*l.* to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant of a juſtice; which forfeitures, after deducting the charges of proſecution, ſhall be applied, one third to the informer, and two-thirds to the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence is committed; excepting the ſaid two-thirds of forfeitures incurred by any perſon within the city of Bath, which two-thirds ſhall be applied to the uſe of the poor in the hoſpital, for poor perſons reſorting to the ſaid city for the benefit of the waters. ſ. 1.

The games of the ace of hearts, pharaoh, baſſet and hazard, are hereby declared to be games or lotteries, within the meaning of the ſaid acts; and all perſons who ſet up or keep the ſaid games, ſhall be liable to all the penalties by this act inflicted upon perſons keeping lotteries; and be proſecuted in like manner. ſ. 2.

Every perſon who ſhall be an adventurer in any of the ſaid games, lotteries or ſales, or ſhall play, ſet at, ſtake or punt, at either of the ſaid games of the ace of hearts, pharaoh, baſſet and hazard, ſhall forfeit 50*l.* to be recovered as aforeſaid. ſ. 3.

All ſales of houſes, lands, advowſons, preſentations to livings, plate, jewels, ſhips, goods or other things, by any game, lottery, or other device to be determined by chance or lot, are hereby declared to be void: and all ſuch houſes, &c. ſo expoſed to ſale, ſhall be forfeited to ſuch perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any court of record, or at the aſſizes for the county where the offence is committed; in which action no eſſoign, &c. ſhall be allowed. ſ. 4.

Any perſon aggrieved by the determination of any juſtice or mayor, may appeal to the next general quarter-ſeſſions; but the perſon appealing ſhall give reaſonable notice to the proſecutor, and enter into recognizance before ſome juſtices, with two ſureties, on condition to try ſuch appeal at the next quarter-ſeſſions, and every ſuch appeal ſhall by the ſaid next general quarter-ſeſſions be finally determined, and not afterwards; and in caſe ſuch judgment or conviction be affirmed, the party appealing ſhall pay unto the proſecutor his treble coſts. ſ. 5.

No ſuch conviction or judgment ſhall be ſet aſide by the quarter-ſeſſions for want of form, in caſe the facts alledged in the conviction be proved; nor ſhall ſuch conviction or judgment be removable by certiorari, or other proceſs, into any court of record at Weſtminſter, until judgment given thereupon by the quarter-ſeſſions. ſ. 6.

No writ of certiorari or other proceſs ſhall iſſue to remove the record of any ſuch conviction from the quarter-ſeſſions, or any proceedings upon ſuch conviction, into any court of record at Weſtminſter, until the party againſt whom ſuch conviction is made, before the allowance of ſuch writ of certiorari or other proceſs, find two ſureties to become bound to the proſecutor in 100*l.* with condition to proſecute the ſame with effect within ſix calendar months, and to pay unto the proſecutor his treble coſts, in caſe ſuch conviction be affirmed. ſ. 7.

If any perſon be convicted of ſetting up or keeping any of the ſaid lotteries or games, or therein adventure, and have not ſufficient goods whereon to levy the penalties, or do not immediately pay or give ſecurity for the ſame, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice before whom ſuch perſon is convicted, to commit such person to the common gaol of the county or place where such offence is committed, for any time not exceeding six months. s. 8.

If any justice or mayor neglect to do what is required of him by this act, he shall forfeit 10 l. for each offence; one moiety to any person who shall sue for the same, and the other moiety to the poor of the parish where such offence is committed; and shall be recovered with full costs in any court of record, or at the assize for any county; such prosecution being commenced within six months next after such refusal of such justices or mayor. s. 9.

Nothing in this act or in any former acts against gaming shall extend to hinder any person from gaming or playing at any of the games in this or in any former act mentioned, within any of his majesty's royal palaces where his majesty then resides. s. 10.

Nothing herein contained shall affect any estate or interest in any manors, honours, royalties, lands, tenements, advowsons, presentations, rents, services and hereditaments, hereafter legally allotted to or held by an allotment or partition by lots; but all persons who are or shall be truly seized as part-owners, joint-tenants, and tenants in common of any manors, &c. shall be capable to take such estates and interest in like manner as they might have done by lot, chance or allotment, had this act never been made. s. 11.

Any suit for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within three calendar months after the fact committed, and shall be laid in the county or place where the cause of action arises, and the defendant may plead the general issue; and if the plaintiff be nonsuited, &c. the defendant shall recover treble costs. s. 12.

By 13 Geo. 2. c. 19. The game of passage, and all other games with one or more dice, or with any other instrument or device in the nature of dice, having figures thereon (backgammon, and the other games now played with the backgammon tables, only excepted) shall be deemed games or lotteries by dice, within the meaning of 12 Geo. 2. c. 28.; and every person who shall set up or keep any office, table or place (save as in the said act declared) for the said prohibited games, shall forfeit the penalties by the said act inflicted upon persons who keep games or lotteries; and every person who shall play, set at, stake or adventure at, the said prohibited games, save as in the said act is declared, shall forfeit the penalties by the said act inflicted upon persons who play at the games in the said act mentioned; and every such offender shall be prosecuted and convicted, and the penalties sued for, and disposed of in like manner as by the said act is directed. s. 9.

If any action, &c. be brought on this act, no essoign, &c. shall be allowed; and over and above the penalties, the plaintiff or informer shall recover his double costs. s. 2.

By 29 Geo. 2. c. 7. If any offence against any act made in this kingdom for preventing private and unlawful lotteries, be committed in Ireland, the offender shall incur the like penalty, as if the offence was committed in this kingdom. And such penalties as by any of the said acts are directed to be recovered in any court of record at Westminster, shall in case of offences committed in Ireland, be recovered in any court of record at Dublin. s. 26.

By 22 Geo. 3. c. 47. It shall be lawful to buy and sell, within all parts of Great Britain (except Oxford and Cambridge), any tickets in any lotteries authorised by any Irish act of parliament, or any shares of tickets in such Irish lottery. s. 1.

No person shall, publicly or privately, open, set up, exercise, or keep, by himself or any other person, any office for buying, selling, or dealing in any tickets, or for registering the numbers of tickets in any lottery; or shall, by writing, printing, or otherwise, publish the setting up, or using any such office, without first taking out a licence from the commissioners for managing the duties upon stamped vellum, &c. s. 2.

The said commissioners, or three of them, are, by writing under their hands and seals, to grant a licence for an office for selling and dealing in lottery tickets, authorised by law, to every person applying for the same; but, previously to the delivery of such licence, and before it shall have any effect, there shall be paid, above all other payments, fifty pounds for every such licence, at the stamp office, at the time such licence shall be delivered; and such sum shall be applied towards defraying the expences of the stamp office in executing this act. s. 3.

Such licence shall set forth the true name and place of abode of the person taking out the same; and also the place where such dealing in lottery tickets shall be carried on; and such licence shall continue in force for twelve months from the date thereof, and no longer; and every person dealing after the expiration of such licence, without a new licence, shall be considered as an unlicensed person. s. 4.

No licence shall be granted for any lottery office within Oxford and Cambridge. s. 5.

Every person who shall open, set up, or keep, any office for buying, selling, or otherwise dealing in such lottery tickets, or any shares thereof, or for registering the numbers of such tickets, without such licence, or in any place besides that named in the licence, or in any other manner contrary to such licence, or this act, shall forfeit 100 l. s. 6.

Every person licensed shall cause the words, licensed to deal in lottery tickets, to be expressed, in legible characters, upon or near the door in the front of his office; and if any person shall deal in such tickets without complying with the said provision, he shall, for every day, forfeit 20 l. s. 7.

If any person shall counterfeit, or cause to be counterfeited, or assist in counterfeiting, any licence, or shall fraudulently alter, or cause to be altered, or assist in altering, such licence, or shall knowingly make use of any such counterfeited or altered licence, such person shall forfeit 500 l. one moiety to his majesty, and the other to him that shall sue for the same; to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Westminster; and shall also be subject to imprisonment, for not exceeding six months, as the court shall appoint. s. 8.

All persons to whom any licence shall be granted, shall give security by bond to his majesty, in 1000 l. with two sureties; of which bond the condition shall be, that if such person shall well and truly conform to and observe all the regulations and provisions of this act, so far as he shall be concerned therein, such bond shall be void, but otherwise to be and remain in full force; and the said commissioners, or three of them, are to take the said bond; and if at the end of the year it shall appear that the person hath acted in conformity to this act, then the said commissioners are to cause such bond to be delivered up and cancelled; but otherwise they shall (unless they see reason to forbear) cause every such bond to be prosecuted. s. 9.

If any person shall be convicted of any offence against this act, whether on prosecution of the bond, or for any penalty under this act, such conviction shall operate as a forfeiture forfeiture of ſuch licence, and the ſame ſhall be void; and the commiſſioners may refuſe to grant to the perſon convicted a licence in future. ſ. 10.

No office for lottery tickets, licenſed, ſhall be open for the tranſaction of buſineſs, before eight o'clock in the morning, nor after eight o'clock in the evening, except on the Saturday preceding the drawing of any lottery; and if wilfully kept open, contrary to this act, the perſon licenſed to keep ſuch office ſhall forfeit 50 l. ſ. 11.

If any perſon licenſed, ſhall ſell any ſmaller ſhare than a ſixteenth, or publiſh any propoſals for ſelling any ſmaller ſhare, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 50 l. and every ſuch ſale ſhall be void. ſ. 12.

It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon to ſell the chance of any ticket for a day, or any leſs time than the whole time of drawing, or to inſure for or againſt the drawing of ſuch ticket, or to receive any money or goods in conſideration of any agreement to repay any ſum, or to deliver the ſame, or other goods, if ſuch ticket ſhall prove fortunate or unfortunate, or on any other chance or event relative to the drawing of ſuch ticket, whether as to their being drawn fortunate or unfortunate, or the time of their being drawn, or otherwiſe howſoever; or under any pretence, device, form, denomination, or deſcription, whatſoever, to promiſe or agree to pay any ſum, or to deliver any goods, or to do or forbear doing any thing for the benefit of any perſon, whether with or without conſideration, on any event or contingency relative or applicable to the drawing of ſuch ticket, or to publiſh any propoſal for any of the purpoſes aforeſaid; and if any perſon ſhall offend in any of the matters aforeſaid, he ſhall forfeit 50 l. and the contract in every ſuch caſe ſhall be void. ſ. 13.

It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon to ſell any ſhare of any ticket without being the owner of ſuch ticket, or to ſell any ſhare beyond ſuch number of ſhares as, being added together, ſhall be equal to the whole ticket; and every perſon who ſhall offend in either of thoſe reſpects, ſhall forfeit 50 l. ſ. 14.

The ſaid commiſſioners ſhall eſtabliſh an office, in London or Weſtminſter, for the depoſit of tickets intended to be ſold in ſhares; and every ticket before it ſhall be divided into or ſold in ſhares, ſhall be brought to the ſaid office, and ſhall be there depoſited and left with the receiver general of ſtamp duties, or ſome perſon appointed by him to receive the ſame. ſ. 15.

Every agreement for the ſale of a ſhare of any ticket ſo depoſited, ſhall be on a piece of written or printed paper, &c. impreſſed with ſome ſtamp preſcribed by the commiſſioners: but the receiver general, or the perſon appointed by him, ſhall not deliver out, impreſſed with any ſtamp, more ſhares for one ticket than, being added together, ſhall amount to a whole ticket, nor ſhall ſo ſtamp any ſmaller ſhare than a ſixteenth, or any ſhare other than permitted by this act; and if ſuch receiver general, or perſon appointed by him, ſhall deliver out any ſhare, other than ſuch as he is authoriſed to have, impreſſed with any ſuch ſtamp, he ſhall forfeit 50 l. ſ. 16.

The ſaid receiver general, or perſon appointed by him, ſhall, upon the receipt of any tickets, give a receipt in writing for the ſame; which receipt ſhall expreſs the day of receiving the tickets, the lottery to which they belong, the numbers, and the name of the proprietor, and alſo that ſuch tickets are received in purſuance of this act, and doth remain to be diſpoſed of as is hereby directed. ſ. 17.

Every ticket ſo depoſited, ſhall remain in the poſſeſſion of the receiver general, or perſon appointed by him, until the expiration of three days after the drawing of ſuch ticket, and on the expiration of three days next after the drawing of ſuch ticket it ſhall be returned to the owner, upon producing the receipt for the ſame: and in caſe ſuch ticket ſo depoſited, ſhall remain unclaimed at the end of two years from the day of drawing thereof, the money (if any) to ariſe by the ſale of ſuch ticket ſhall be retained in the hands of the receiver general, and be applied in defraying the expences of executing this act. ſ. 18.

A book ſhall be kept by the receiver general, or perſon appointed, who ſhall regiſter in ſuch book the number of every ticket depoſited in the office, with the name of every perſon who ſhall depoſit ſuch ticket, and alſo the number of ſhares into which ſuch ticket ſhall be divided; and any perſon may inſpect ſuch book on payment of two pence, and the money ariſing from ſuch payment ſhall be applied in defraying the expences of executing this act. ſ. 19.

Upon depoſiting any ticket in the ſaid office, the perſon who ſhall depoſit the ſame ſhall pay for each ſhare into which ſuch ticket ſhall be divided, two pence; and the monies ariſing from ſuch fee ſhall be accounted for, and ſhall be applied towards the expence of keeping ſuch office for the depoſit of lottery tickets as aforeſaid, or in defraying any other expences in the execution of this act. ſ. 20.

If any perſon ſhall ſell, or agree to ſell, any ſhare of any ticket, otherwiſe than by a written or printed agreement, on a piece of paper ſtamped as by this act is before preſcribed, he ſhall forfeit 50 l. ſ. 21.

If any perſon ſhall forge, or cauſe to be forged, or aſſiſt in forging, any receipt on depoſit of any ticket to be divided in ſhares, or any ſtamp required to be put on ſhares; or ſhall alter, or cauſe to be altered, or aſſiſt in altering, ſuch receipt or ſtamped ſhare, whether by adding or taking away any word, letter, or figure, in ſuch receipt or ſtamped ſhare, or ſhall fraudulently make uſe of ſuch forged or altered receipt or ſtamped ſhare, ſuch perſon ſhall be guilty of felony. ſ. 22.

All fees which ſhall, under this act, be received at the ſtamp office, and of which the application is not before directed, ſhall be paid to the receiver general, and he ſhall keep a ſeparate account thereof, and thereout pay the expence of executing this act, and alſo the expence attending the commiſſion for managing the lottery eſtabliſhed by an act in this ſeſſion, in ſuch manner as the commiſſioners ſhall appoint; ſubject to ſuch orders as ſhall be given to the ſaid commiſſioners by the treaſury; and the reſidue of ſuch money the receiver general ſhall pay into the receipt of the exchequer, as the ſtamp duties are: and in the office of the auditor there ſhall be kept a book, in which all the monies paid under this act ſhall be entered apart from all other monies; and ſuch monies ſhall be reſerved for the diſpoſition of parliament. ſ. 23.

All penalties (except where before ſpecially preſcribed) ſhall be recoverable before two juſtices, upon proof of the offence, by the oath of one witneſs, or on the confeſſion of the offender; and one moiety of ſuch penalty ſhall belong to the informer, and the other to his majeſty, and in caſe of nonpayment, it ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale, by warrant of ſuch juſtices; and the overplus, after deducting the penalty and expences, ſhall be rendered to the owner; and for want of diſtreſs, the offender ſhall be ſent by ſuch juſtices to the houſe of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding ſix, nor leſs than three months. ſ. 24.

The ſaid juſtices may mitigate ſuch penalty, the coſts and charges of the officers or informers being allowed over ſuch mitigation, ſo as ſuch mitigation do not reduce the penalty to leſs than one moiety, over the ſaid coſts and charges. ſ. 25.

No perſon ſhall be liable to any proſecution for any pecuniary penalty, unleſs commenced within twelve months; and if any ſuit ſhall be proſecuted in England, againſt any perſon for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſuch perſon may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict ſhall paſs for the defendant, &c. he ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 26.

By 27 Geo. 3. c. 1. The acts 8 Geo. 1. c. 2. 12 Geo. 2. c. 28. and 22 Geo. 3. c. 47. not by this act altered or repealed, ſhall be put in execution. ſ. 1.

No pecuniary penalty incurred by any perſon offending againſt ſuch parts of the ſaid acts, as concern lotteries, ſhall be recovered before any juſtice, but ſhall be ſued for by any perſon, within ſix months, and recovered by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter; and one moiety of the ſaid penalties, ſhall go to his majeſty, and the other with coſts to the perſon who ſhall ſue; and upon every ſuch action, &c. a capias, ſhall iſſue the firſt proceſs; ſpecifying therein the amount of the penalty ſued for, whereof an affidavit ſhall be firſt made and filed; and the defendant ſhall, in ſuch caſe, be obliged to give bail, provided that the bail ſhall, in no caſe, exceed five hundred pounds. ſ. 2.

Every perſon who ſhall publicly or privately open, ſet up, continue, or keep, by himſelf, or by any other perſon, any office, for buying, ſelling, or otherwiſe dealing in any tickets, or ſhares of tickets, in any lottery eſtabliſhed by any Britiſh or Iriſh act, or for regiſtering tickets without a licence, and all perſons (except as herein-after) who ſhall, by himſelf, or by any other perſon, or for his account, or on the account, or as the ſervant, agent, or factor, of any other perſon, ſell, or cauſe to be ſold, the chance of any ticket, or any ſhare thereof, for a day, or part of a day, or any leſs time than the whole time of drawing then to come; or inſure, or cauſe any other perſon to inſure, for or againſt the drawing of any ſuch ticket; or ſhall receive any money or goods whatſoever, in conſideration of any agreement or promiſe to repay any ſum of money, or to deliver the ſame, or any plate, jewels, or other goods whatſoever, if any ſuch ticket ſhall prove fortunate or unfortunate, or upon any other chance, event, or contingency, relative to the drawing of ſuch ticket, whether as to the time of their being drawn, or otherwiſe howſoever, ſhall be deemed rogues and vagabonds, within 17 Geo. 2. and ſhall be puniſhable as ſuch; and all perſons found offending, may be apprehended and conveyed before ſome juſtice, as in the ſaid act is directed; and the juſtice before whom ſuch offender ſhall be brought, ſuch offender not having been ſued for the ſame offence, without covin or colluſion, in ſome court of record, ſhall, upon proof of the offence, in manner by the ſaid act directed, order ſuch offender to be ſent to the houſe of correction, there to remain until the next general or quarter ſeſſions, and ſuch ſeſſions ſhall enter upon the examination of the caſe, and proceed therein according to the directions of the ſaid act; and all juſtices, mayors, bailiffs, conſtables, neadboroughs, and other civil officers, are required to uſe their utmoſt endeavours to prevent the committing of any of the offences aforeſaid, by all lawful ways, and ſhall be indemnified in execution of this act. ſ. 2.

All other powers, puniſhments, and proviſions, for apprehending, ſecuring, and puniſhing rogues and vagabonds, not hereby altered, ſhall be carried into execution in relation to the perſons hereby declared to be rogues and vagabonds. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon actually poſſeſſed of any whole undrawn ticket, to make any inſurance on his ticket, for indemnifying himſelf againſt any loſs which he may ſuſtain by ſuch ticket, ſo as every contract for ſuch inſurance be reduced into writing (without ſtamps) before the time of ſuch ticket being drawn; and ſo as the name of the poſſeſſor, the number, the lottery, and the amount of the premium received thereon, be inſerted in ſuch agreement, and ſo as every inſurance be made upon a whole ticket, on condition to pay the full value thereof, and not otherwiſe. ſ. 4.

No ſuch inſurance ſhall be for a leſs time than ſhall remain of the drawing of the lottery; and every ticket inſured ſhall be depoſited, by the perſon inſuring the ſame, with the receiver general, or ſome perſon appointed by him to receive the ſame; but ſuch ticket may be aſſignable, together with ſuch inſurance. ſ. 5.

If any perſon not duly licenſed, ſhall grant, ſign, or underwrite any agreement for any ſuch inſurance, or ſhall take any premium, or conſideration for ſuch inſurance, ſuch perſon ſhall be ſubject to the like pains, as perſons keeping lottery offices without licence. ſ. 6.

No perſon ſhall be proſecuted by both the ways by this act preſcribed; nor ſhall any perſon againſt whom any action, &c. hath been carried on with effect, be liable to impriſonment as a rogue and vagabond for the ſame offence; and convicted and ſentenced to impriſonment as a rogue and vagabond, ſuch perſon ſhall not be liable afterwards to be proſecuted for any penalty for the ſame offence. ſ. 7.

All penalties and ſhares thereof, which ſhall belong to his majeſty, ſhall be paid into the hands of the receiver general of the ſtamp office, who ſhall keep a ſeparate account thereof, and thereout ſhall pay the expence the office ſhall be put to in executing this act; and the ſaid receiver general ſhall pay the reſidue into the receipt of the exchequer, as other penalties are payable. ſ. 9.

Perſons ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict ſhall paſs for the defendant, &c. he ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 10.

Lunatics.

By 11 Geo. 3. c. 20. In all caſes where any lunatic is intitled to renew any leaſe for life or lives, or term of years, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch lunatic, or his guardian, or committee of his eſtate, in his name, by the direction of the court of Chancery, ſignified by an order made on hearing all parties concerned, upon petition, in a ſummary way, from time to time, to accept of a ſurrender of ſuch leaſes; and to make and execute new leaſes of the premiſes compriſed in ſuch leaſe ſo to be ſurrendered, for ſuch number of lives, or term of years, as was mentioned in ſuch leaſe ſo ſurrendered, at the making thereof, or otherwiſe, as the court of Chancery, by any ſuch order, ſhall direct. ſ. 1.

All ſuch leaſes ſhall be valid, and effectual in the law, as if ſuch lunatic was of ſane mind, and had executed the ſame in his own proper perſon. ſ. 2.

All fines, premiums, foregifts, and money, which ſhall or may be received, or paid for renewing of ſuch leaſes, ſhall (after a deduction of expences) be paid to the guardian or committee, and be applied for the benefit of ſuch lunatic, in ſuch manner as the ſaid court ſhall direct: but, upon the death of ſuch lunatic, all ſuch money, or ſo much as ſhall remain unapplied, ſhall, as between the repreſentatives atives of the real and perſonal eſtates of all ſuch lunatics, be conſidered as real eſtate, unleſs ſuch lunatic ſhall be tenant for life only, and then as perſonal eſtate. ſ. 3.

By 14 Geo. 3. c. 49. made perpetual by 26 Geo. 3. c. 91. If any perſon in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall conceal, harbour, entertain, or confine, in any houſe or place, kept for the reception of lunatics, more than one lunatic at one time, without having ſuch licence as is herein-after directed (except ſuch as are committed by the lord chancellor, &c.) ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit five hundred pounds. ſ. 1.

The preſident and fellows of the Royal College of Phyſicians in London, at a general meeting of the college, to be held upon the laſt day of September, or if that falls upon Sunday, then upon the 1ſt Oct. in every year, ſhall elect five fellows for granting licences within London and Weſtminſter, and within ſeven miles of the ſame, and within the county of Middleſex, according to this act; and the ſaid five fellows ſhall be commiſſioners for granting ſuch licences for the year enſuing; provided that two of the fellows to be elected, ſhall not have acted as commiſſioners the preceding year; and no perſon ſhall be elected, or act as a commiſſioner, for more than three years ſucceſſively. ſ. 2.

In caſe at any election there ſhall not be a ſufficient number of fellows qualified or willing to act, the preſident and fellows are to elect from the licentiates. ſ. 3.

As often as any of the commiſſioners ſhall die, or refuſe to act, the preſident is to call a meeting of the fellows, within fourteen days, to elect a commiſſioner in room of the commiſſioner who ſhall die or refuſe to act. ſ. 4.

Every commiſſioner ſhall, within ten days after election, take the following oath; viz.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will faithfully and impartially execute all the truſts committed unto me, by virtue of an act of parliament, made in the fourteenth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled, An act for regulating madhouſes; and that I will not, directly or indirectly, give notice, or cauſe notice to be given to the keeper, or perſon having the care of any houſe or place licenſed for the reception of lunatics, of the time of viſitation of ſuch houſe or place.

So help me God.

Which oath the preſident may adminiſter; and in caſe any commiſſioner ſummoned by the preſident to attend to take the oath, ſhall refuſe or neglect to attend, or attending, ſhall refuſe to take the oath, he ſhall forfeit five pounds, to be applied to the uſe of the college. ſ. 5.

The commiſſioners, or three of them, ſhall meet in the hall, or other place in the college, as often as they think fit, ſo as ſuch meetings do not interfere with the board of cenſors, nor with any other general meeting of the college; and at all meetings in the college, the commiſſioner who is of the longeſt ſtanding, ſhall be the chairman. ſ. 6.

The treaſurer of the college ſhall be the treaſurer for the purpoſes of this act; and the commiſſioners, or three of them, ſhall, at ſome meeting, within fourteen days after they ſhall be elected, appoint a ſecretary for the year enſuing; and ſuch ſecretary ſhall be paid ſuch ſalary, by the ſaid treaſurer, as the commiſſioners ſhall direct; and ſuch ſecretary ſhall, at the next meeting of the commiſſioners after appointed, take the following oath: ſ. 7.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will faithfully execute all ſuch truſts as ſhall be committed to my charge, as ſecretary to the commiſſioners for executing an act of parliament, made in the fourteenth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled, An act for regulating madhouſes; and that I will keep ſecret all ſuch matters as ſhall come to my knowledge, in the execution of my office (except when required to divulge the ſame by legal authority).

So help me God.

The commiſſioners, or three, ſhall meet annually on the third Wedneſday in Oct. or within ten days afterwards, to grant licences to perſons for keeping houſes for the reception of lunatics for one year, from the 20th Nov. then next enſuing, within London and Weſtminſter, and within ſeven miles of the ſame, and within Middleſex; but notice of the place, and of the day and hour of every meeting for granting ſuch licences, ſhall always be publiſhed three ſeveral times in the London Gazette, before the day of meeting (which licences they are to grant to all perſons who ſhall deſire the ſame); and all licences ſhall be ſtamped with a five ſhilling ſtamp, and ſhall be under the hands and ſeals of three of the commiſſioners, for each of which licences there ſhall be paid to the ſecretary, by the perſon applying to take out the ſame, the ſums following, viz. for each houſe wherein there ſhall be kept any number of lunatics, not exceeding ten, 10*l.* and above ten, 15*l.* over what ſhall have been paid for the ſtamp; which money ſhall be paid over by the ſecretary to the treaſurer; and the further ſum of 6*s.* 8*d.* and no more, ſhall be paid on every licence to the ſecretary for his fee. ſ. 8.

No one licence ſhall authoriſe any perſon to keep more houſes than one; nor ſhall any licence continue in force for longer than one year. ſ. 9.

No commiſſioner ſhall be intereſted in keeping any houſe for lunatics, upon pain of forfeiting 50*l.* ſ. 10.

The preſident of the college ſhall cauſe ſummonſes to be ſent by the beadle to the commiſſioners, to attend at the firſt meeting after they ſhall be appointed. ſ. 11.

In caſe two commiſſioners ſhall think proper to call a meeting, they may themſelves cauſe the like notice to be given to the other commiſſioners, requiring their attendance. ſ. 12.

At all meetings of the commiſſioners, in caſe of equality of votes, the chairman ſhall have the caſting vote. ſ. 13.

The commiſſioners, or three of them, either by themſelves or with their ſecretary, ſhall once at leaſt in every year, and whenever required by the lord chancellor, &c. or by the chief juſtice of the court of King's Bench, or Common Pleas, inſpect all houſes licenſed by them, between eight and five in the day-time; and alſo at any other time within ſuch hours, as often as they ſhall think neceſſary, and ſhall have at ſuch times, power to continue in ſuch houſe, and examine the lunatics for ſuch time as they think proper. ſ. 14.

The commiſſioners, or their ſecretary, ſhall, at every ſuch viſitation, make minutes in writing, of the condition of ſuch houſes as to the care of the patients, and all other particulars as deſerve notice, with their obſervations thereupon; which minutes ſhall, within one week after ſuch viſitation, be by the ſecretary entered in a regiſter to be kept by him in the ſaid college, and the ſame ſhall be read to, and ſigned by the commiſſioners, or three of them, at their next meeting; but no minute which tends to impeach the character of any houſe ſhall be entered, unleſs ſuch minute ſhall have been previouſly ſigned by three commiſſioners preſent at ſuch viſitation; and in caſe the commiſſioners ſhall diſcover any thing that ſhall deſerve cenſure, they ſhall report the ſame; and ſuch part of their report ſhall be hung up in the cenſors' room, to be peruſed by any perſon who ſhall apply for that purpoſe. ſ. 15.

In

In caſe the keeper of any houſe for lunatics, ſhall refuſe the commiſſioners, at the time of viſitation, admittance into ſuch houſe, with or without their ſecretary, he ſhall forfeit his licence. ſ. 16.

The commiſſioners, or three of them, ſhall cauſe an exact account to be kept of their proceedings; and ſuch accounts ſhall be entered in the ſame regiſter as the minutes taken at viſitations; and the ſaid regiſter ſhall be lodged in the college in a ſtrong cheſt, which ſhall be under the care of the beadle or houſekeeper belonging to the college, and ſhall be carefully locked up by the ſecretary, and the key thereof kept by ſuch ſecretary; which regiſter ſhall belong to the commiſſioners, and the key ſhall be delivered over to every ſucceeding ſecretary, whenever the former ſhall go out of office. ſ. 17.

The preſident may inſpect the regiſter as often as he ſhall think proper at the college, and in the preſence of the ſecretary. ſ. 18.

If any perſon ſhall apply to one of the commiſſioners, to be informed whether any particular perſon has been confined in any of the licenſed houſes, and the commiſſioners ſhall permit ſuch inquiry to be made, and ſign an order directed to the ſecretary, he is to make ſearch: and if it ſhall appear, that the perſon inquired after has been confined, the ſaid ſecretary ſhall acquaint the perſons with the names of the keeper, and of thoſe by whoſe direction ſuch perſon has been confined. ſ. 19.

The ſaid treaſurer ſhall pay to each of the commiſſioners for every time they ſhall inſpect any licenſed houſe one guinea; and ſhall alſo pay ſuch expences as they ſhall incur in the execution of this act; and the treaſurer is to keep an account of all monies received and diſburſed, which ſhall be lodged in the cheſt where the regiſter is to be kept, which accounts ſhall be produced to the preſident, when required by the ſaid preſident and elects, to be examined and ſettled by them; and if, upon ſuch examination, the accounts appear juſt, the ſame ſhall be allowed and ſigned by the preſident, and four of the elects, and ſhall be by the preſident reported, together with the other accounts, at the next general meeting of the college; and the ſaid account ſo allowed, &c. ſhall be a diſcharge to the treaſurer. ſ. 20.

The keeper of every licenſed houſe is within three days after any patient ſhall be received into ſuch houſe (except pauper lunatics ſent by pariſh officers) to cauſe notice thereof to be given to the ſecretary, which ſhall contain the name of every perſon received as a lunatic into ſuch houſe, the name and place of abode of the perſon by whoſe direction ſuch lunatic was ſent, and alſo the name and place of abode of the phyſician, ſurgeon, or apothecary, by whoſe advice ſuch direction was given; all which notices ſhall be ſent ſealed up, directed To the ſecretary to the commiſſioners for licenſing houſes for the reception of lunatics, to be left with the beadle of the college of phyſicians in London; all which notices the beadle is to receive, and deliver to the ſecretary within two days, and the ſecretary is to file ſuch notices, and enter the ſame in the regiſter within two days; and every keeper who ſhall admit, or confine any lunatic, without having an order in writing, under the hand and ſeal of ſome phyſician, ſurgeon, or apothecary, that ſuch perſon is proper to be received into ſuch houſe as a lunatic, or ſhall receive any lunatic into ſuch houſe, having ſuch order, and ſhall not give notice thereof to the ſecretary, ſhall forfeit 100*l.* ſ. 21.

No houſe which is not within London, or within ſeven miles of the ſame, or within Middleſex, ſhall be kept for the reception of more than one lunatic, unleſs ſuch houſe ſhall be licenſed by the quarter ſeſſions for the county wherein ſuch houſe ſhall be ſituated. ſ. 22.

The juſtices at any general quarter ſeſſions, are to grant licences to ſuch perſons as ſhall apply, ſuch perſons paying for each licence, viz. for each houſe, wherein there ſhall be kept any lunatics, not exceeding ten, 10*l.* and above ten, 15*l.* and no one licence ſhall authoriſe any perſon to keep more houſes than one, nor ſhall ſuch licence be granted for longer than one year; and the ſaid juſtices ſhall, at the time of granting ſuch licences, appoint two juſtices, and alſo one phyſician, to inſpect ſuch houſes; and the ſaid juſtices and phyſicians appointed, or two of them, whereof the phyſician to be one, may viſit, in the day-time, every houſe licenſed, as often as they ſhall think fit. ſ. 23.

The ſaid juſtices and phyſician may, at every viſitation, if they think neceſſary, make minutes in writing, of the condition of every houſe which they ſhall viſit, as to the care of the patients, and ſuch other particulars as deſerve notice, with their obſervations thereupon; which minutes ſhall be entered in a regiſter to be kept by the clerk of the peace, a copy whereof ſhall be ſent by the ſaid clerk of the peace, to the ſecretary to the ſaid commiſſioners, to be by him inſerted in a ſeparate regiſter; which regiſter ſhall be kept in ſame box, and in the ſame manner, as the regiſter belonging to the ſaid commiſſioners; and the ſaid clerk of the peace ſhall be paid ſuch ſum for his trouble, as the juſtices ſhall direct; and all money to be paid for ſuch licences as ſhall be granted by the ſaid juſtices, ſhall be paid to the clerk of the peace, who ſhall keep an account thereof in a book, and ſhall account for the ſame to the juſtices, as often as required; and all expences attending the execution of this act (except within London and Weſtminſter, and ſeven miles thereof, and within Middleſex) ſhall be defrayed out of ſuch money, in ſuch manner as the juſtices ſhall direct. ſ. 24.

At ſuch general quarter ſeſſion, when ſuch juſtices and phyſician ſhall be appointed, the clerk of the peace ſhall take the like oath as is appointed to be taken by the ſecretary of the commiſſioners. ſ. 25.

In caſe the keeper of any houſe, &c. ſhall, in the day-time, refuſe the ſaid juſtices and phyſician, on ſuch viſitation, admittance into ſuch houſe, the keeper ſhall forfeit his licence. ſ. 26.

The keeper of any houſe not within London or Weſtminſter, or ſeven miles thereof, or within Middleſex, ſhall give ſuch notice as aforeſaid, of the receipt of every lunatic (except ſent there by pariſh officers) to the ſecretary to the commiſſioners at the college, within fourteen days; and every keeper who ſhall admit or confine any lunatic, without an order in writing, under the hand and ſeal of ſome phyſician, ſurgeon, or apothecary, that ſuch perſon is proper to be received into ſuch houſe as a lunatic, or ſhall receive any lunatic having ſuch order, and ſhall not give notice thereof to the ſecretary, ſhall forfeit 100*l.* ſ. 27.

No licence ſhall be granted either by the commiſſioners or juſtices, unleſs the perſon to whom ſuch licence is granted, ſhall enter into recognizance to the king in 100*l.* with two ſureties each in 50*l.* or one ſurety in 100*l.* for the good behaviour of ſuch perſon. ſ. 28.

The lord chancellor, or the lord chief juſtice of the King's Bench, or Common Pleas, may, by any written order directed to the commiſſioners, or to the juſtices and phyſician, appointed viſitors, require the ſaid commiſſioners, or three of them, or the ſaid viſitors, or two of them, to inſpect any houſe licenſed; and alſo to report to him or them touching ſuch matters as ſhall in ſuch orders be directed; and the ſaid chancellor or chief juſtice of the King's Bench, or Common Pleas, may, by a like order, ſend for and inſpect the regiſter; and may ſummon and examine all perſons concerned in the execution of this act, as often as neceſſary; and in caſe they ſhall not obey ſuch orders within two days, and not ſhew ſufficient cauſe to the contrary, they ſhall be guilty of a contempt of court. ſ. 29.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any public hoſpitals. ſ. 30.

In all proceedings under writ of habeas corpus, and in all indictments, informations, and actions, for confining or ill-treating any ſubjects, in any of the ſaid houſes, the parties complained of ſhall juſtify their proceedings, according to the courſe of the common law. ſ. 31.

All penalties within London or Weſtminſter, or ſeven miles of the ſame, or within Middleſex, may be recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter, by action of debt, &c. by the preſident of the college, in the name of the treaſurer, within ſix months, and all ſuch penalties ſhall be paid to the treaſurer, and applied (except otherwiſe directed), one moiety to the informer, and the other towards defraying the expences attending the execution of this act: and all penalties incurred not within the ſaid cities, &c. or county of Middleſex, may be recovered by action of debt, by and in the name of the clerk of the peace for the county where ſuch offence ſhall be committed; and ſuch penalties ſhall be applied, one moiety to the informer, and the other moiety for defraying the expences attending the execution of this act within ſuch county. ſ. 32.

Action for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſhall be commenced within ſix months, and laid in the county, &c. where cauſe of action ſhall have ariſen, and the defendant may plead ſpecially, or the general iſſue; and if the jury ſhall find a verdict for the defendant, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 33.

Madder.

By 31 Geo. 2. c. 35.

IF any perſon ſhall ſteal and take away, or wilfully and maliciouſly pull up or deſtroy any madder roots in any grounds belonging to any perſon, and be convicted before any juſtice of the peace of the county or place where the offence ſhall be committed, either by confeſſion or by the oath of any witneſs; every perſon ſo offending and convicted, ſhall for the firſt offence pay to the owner of the madder roots ſo ſtolen, pulled up or deſtroyed, ſuch ſatisfaction for his damage and within ſuch time as the juſtice ſhall appoint; and ſhall over and above pay upon ſuch conviction unto the overſeers of the poor of the pariſh where the offence was committed for the uſe of the poor, ſuch ſum, not exceeding 10*s.* as to the juſtice ſhall ſeem meet; and if any ſuch offender ſhall not make ſuch recompenſe, and pay ſuch ſum to the uſe of the poor, the juſtice ſhall commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction for any ſpace not exceeding one month, or order him to be whipped by the conſtable or other officer, as to the juſtice ſhall ſeem meet; and if ſuch perſon again commit the like offence and be convicted, then he or ſhe ſo offending the ſecond time and convicted, ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction for three months. ſ. 5.

No perſon ſhall be proſecuted for any ſuch offence of ſtealing, pulling up, or deſtroying, of madder roots, unleſs ſuch proſecution be begun within thirty days after the offence. ſ. 6.

Maintenance.

By ſtat. Weſtm. 1. 3 Edw. 1. c. 25. No officer ſhall maintain pleas in the king's courts to have part or profit thereof by covenant, and he that doth ſhall be puniſhed at the king's pleaſure.

By ſtat. Weſtm. 1. 3 Edw. 1. c. 28. None of the king's clerks, nor of any juſticer, ſhall receive the preſentment of any church, for which any plea is in the king's court, without licence of the king, upon pain to loſe the church and his ſervice. And no clerk of any juſticer or ſheriff ſhall take part in any quarrels depending in the king's court, nor ſhall work any fraud whereby common right may be delayed or diſturbed; and if any do, he ſhall be puniſhed by the pain aforeſaid, or more grievouſly.

By ſtat. Weſtm. 2. 13 Edw. 1. c. 36. Lords of courts and other that keep courts, and ſtewards, ſhall not to grieve their inferiors, procure other to move matters againſt them, and to put in ſurety and other pledges, or to purchaſe writs, and at the ſuit of ſuch plaintiffs compel them to follow the county, hundred, wapentake, and other like courts, until they have made fine with them. And if any be attached upon ſuch falſe complaints, he ſhall replevy his diſtreſs, and cauſe the matter to be brought before the juſtices, before whom if the ſheriff, bailiff, or other lord, will avow the diſtreſs lawful, by reaſon of ſuch complaints made unto them, and it be replied that ſuch plaints were moved maliciouſly againſt the party by the ſolicitation or procurement of the ſheriff, or other bailiffs or lords, the replication ſhall be admitted; and if they be convict hereupon, they ſhall make fine to the king, and reſtore treble damages.

By ſtat. Weſtm. 2. 13 Edw. 1. c. 49. The chancellor, treaſurer, juſtices, nor any of the king's council, nor clerk of the exchequer, nor of any juſtice or other officer, nor of any of the king's houſe, clerk or lay, ſhall not receive any church, nor advowſon, land nor tenement, in fee, by champerty nor otherwiſe, ſo long as the thing is in plea, nor ſhall take reward; and he that doth contrary ſhall be puniſhed at the king's pleaſure, as well he that purchaſeth as he that doth ſell.

Artic. ſuper chart. 28 Edw. 1. c. 11. No officer nor other, to have part of the thing in plea, ſhall take upon him buſineſs in ſuit; nor none upon any ſuch covenant ſhall give up his right to another. And if any do, and he be attainted thereof, the taker ſhall forfeit unto the king ſo much of his lands and goods as doth amount to the value of the part he hath purchaſed. And whoſoever will ſhall be received to ſue for the king before the juſtices before whom the plea hangeth. But hereby no perſon ſhall be prohibited prohibited to have counſel of pleaders for his fee, or of his next friends.

By ſtat. of champerty, 33 Edw. 1. ſt. 3. No pleaders, apprentices, attornies, ſtewards of great men, bailiffs, nor any other, ſhall take for maintenance, or the like bargain, any ſuit againſt other; and all ſuch as ſhall be attainted of ſuch bargains, and ſuch as conſent thereto, ſhall have impriſonment of three years, and ſhall make fine at the king's pleaſure. Conſpirators, inventors and maintainors of falſe quarrels, and partakers thereof, and brokers of debates, ſhall be attached, that they be before the king by this writ:

By 1 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 14. None of the king's counſellors nor of his houſe, nor none of his miniſters, nor no great man of the realm, by ſending of letters nor otherwiſe, nor none other, ſhall maintain quarrels nor parties in the country.

By 4 Edw. 3. c. 11. Where divers have made alliances to maintain parties, whereby divers have been diſinherited, and ſome ranſomed and deſtroyed, and ſome for fear to be maimed and beaten, durſt not ſue for their right, nor jurors give their verdicts; the juſtices of the one bench and of the other, and the juſtices of aſſizes, ſhall enquire, hear, and determine, as well at the king's ſuit, as at the ſuit of the party, of ſuch maintainers, bearers and conſpirators, and of them that commit champerty, as juſtices in eyre ſhould do. And that which cannot be determined before the juſtices upon the niſi prius, ſhall be adjourned into the place whereof they be juſtices.

By 20 Edw. 3. c. 4. None of the king's houſe, nor other which be towards the queen or prince, or towards the courts nor prelates, earls, barons, nor others, ſhall take in hand quarrels other than their own, nor the ſame maintain, for gift, promiſe, favour, nor fear; but every man may be free to ſue for, and defend his right according to law.

By 1 Ric. 2. c. 4. No counſellors, officers, nor any other, ſhall take any quarrel by maintenance in the country, nor elſewhere, upon a grievous pain, viz. the counſellors and the king's great officers, upon a pain which ſhall be ordained by the king himſelf, by the advice of the lords; and other officers and ſervants of the king, as well in the exchequer and all his other courts as of his own meiny, upon pain to loſe their offices, and to be impriſoned and ranſomed at the king's will; and all other perſons, upon pain of impriſonment, and to be ranſomed.

By 1 Ric. 2. c. 7. No livery ſhall be given for maintenance of quarrels, nor other confederacies, upon pain of impriſonment and grievous forfeiture. And the juſtices of aſſize ſhall enquire of all them that gather together in fraternities by ſuch livery to do maintenance.

Ordin. to prevent diſturbance, &c. 13 Ric. 2. ſt. 3. No man of the church, nor eſquire, nor other of lower eſtate, ſhall give livery of company; and no duke, earl, baron or baneret, ſhall give ſuch livery to knight or eſquire, if he be not retained with him for term of life for peace and war by indenture, or his menial abiding in his houſe; nor to any yeoman or other of lower eſtate, unleſs he be of his houſehold. And no lord nor other who hath people of his retinue, ſhall ſuffer any of them to be a maintainer, barretor, or procurer of quarrels. And if any lord turn away any ſuch maintainer, &c. for ſuch cauſe, no other lord ſhall receive him. And no man ſhall undertake or maintain any quarrel but his own. And this ordinance ſhall be kept, upon pain of impriſonment, fine and ranſom, or other puniſhment by conſideration of the king and his council.

By 32 Hen. 8. c. 9. No perſon ſhall buy, ſell or obtain, any pretenſed rights or titles, or take, promiſe or covenant, to have any right or title, of any perſon in or to any lands or hereditaments (except ſuch perſons which ſhall ſell, covenant, or promiſe, the ſame, or they by whom they claim, have been in poſſeſſion of the ſame, or of the reverſion or remainder thereof, or taken the rents or profits thereof, one year next before the bargain made), upon pain that he that ſhall make any ſuch ſale, promiſe, covenant or grant, to forfeit the whole value of the lands ſo bargained, &c. and the buyer knowing the ſame, to forfeit alſo the value of the ſaid lands; the one half to the king, and the other to the party that will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall unlawfully maintain, or procure any unlawful maintenance, in any action in the chancery or elſewhere, where any perſons have authority by commiſſion, patent, or writ, to hold plea of lands or any matter concerning the title of lands; and no perſon ſhall unlawfully retain for maintenance of any ſuit any perſon, or embrace any freeholders or jurors, or ſuborn any witneſs, by letters, rewards, promiſes, or other ſiniſter means, to maintain any cauſe, or to the hindrance of juſtice, or procurement of perjury by falſe verdict, or otherwiſe, upon pain to forfeit 10*l.* the one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to him that will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 3.

Provided that it ſhall be lawful to any perſons, being in lawful poſſeſſion by taking of the rents or profits of any tenements, to buy the pretenſed right of any other perſon to ſuch tenements. ſ. 4.

The juſtices of aſſize ſhall in every county, two times in the year, viz. in their ſittings, cauſe proclamation to be made, as well of this act as of all other ſtatutes againſt unlawful maintenance, champerty, embracery, or unlawful retainers. ſ. 5.

This act ſhall not charge any perſon with the penalties, except the perſon offending be ſued within one year after the offence committed. ſ. 6.

Malt.

By Stat. 2 Edw. 6. c. 10. continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. and 16 Car. 1. c. 4. No perſon ſhall make any barley malt (the months of June, July, and Auguſt excepted) but the ſame ſhall have in making, viz. in the fat, floor, ſteeping and drying, three weeks at leaſt; and no perſon in June, July, and Auguſt, ſhall make any barley malt, except the ſame have in the fat, floor, ſteeping, and drying, ſeventeen days; upon pain to forfeit for every quarter, which ſhall be made contrary to this act, 2*s.* And no perſon ſhall mingle any malt, not well made, or made of mow-burnt or ſpired barley, with good malt, and put the ſame to ſale, upon pain to forfeit for every quarter, 2*s.* ſ. 2.

If any perſon ſhall put to ſale any malt, not well trodden, rubbed and fanned, whereby there may be conveniently fanned out of one quarter half a peck of duſt, the perſon putting the ſame to ſale ſhall forfeit for every quarter, 20*d.* The moiety of which forfeitures to be to the king, and the other moiety to the party that will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 3.

The

The juſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, and the ſteward in every leet, ſhall have power to enquire, hear and determine, as well by preſentment of twelve men, as by information of witneſſes, of the offences and forfeitures aforeſaid, as well for the king as for the party. And the bailiffs and conſtables of every town where ſuch malt ſhall be made or put to ſale, ſhall have power to view ſuch malt; and if they find any malt ſo put to ſale, being evil made, or mingled with evil malt, they, with the advice of one juſtice of peace, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be ſold at ſuch price, under the price of the market, as ſhall ſeem expedient. ſ. 4.

This act ſhall not charge the making of malt for any man's proviſion for his family; neither any perſon, except he be ſued within one year after ſuch offence committed. ſ. 5.

See the general title " Exciſe," § Malt, in PART I.

Manufactures.

By 3 Ed. 4. c. 4. The maſters and wardens of every craft, in every city, town and village, and the mayor or bailiff of ſuch city, &c. and where no ſuch maſters nor wardens be, the maſters or wardens of the crafts of the city, town or village, next adjoining, and the conſtable of ſuch city, &c. ſhall have power to ſearch at all times reaſonable by day, at fairs and markets, ſhops open, and ware-houſes, all ſuch wares pertaining to their proper crafts, which ſhall be made within England, or ſhall be occupied by any of the ſaid crafts. ſ. 4.

Provided that the ſaid maſters, wardens, and other ſearchers, ſhall not enter any place exempted by privilege, franchiſe or cuſtom, to make ſearch, but by the overſight of ſome officer of ſuch place exempt; and if the ſearchers find that ſuch wares be not lawful and duly wrought, it ſhall be lawful to ſuch ſearchers to ſeize all ſuch wares as forfeit; the one half to the uſe of the king, and the other half to ſuch maſters or wardens; and this ſtatute ſhall be in force as long as it ſhall pleaſe the king. ſ. 5.

This act ſhall not be hurtful to the dean of the free chapel of the king of St. Martin le grand of London, nor to his ſucceſſors, nor to the dean and chapter of the ſame chapel, nor to any perſon dwelling within the precinct of the ſame. ſ. 6.

By 1 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 18. If any perſon employed in the working up the woollen, linen, fuſtian, cotton or iron manufactures within this kingdom, ſhall embezzle or purloin any wefts, thrums or ends of yarn, or any other materials of wool, hemp, flax, cotton or iron, with which he ſhall be entruſted to work, or ſhall reel ſhort or falſe yarn; being thereof lawfully convicted, by the oath of one witneſs, or by confeſſion, before one juſtice of peace, he ſhall forfeit double the value of the damages done, for the uſe of the poor of the pariſh; and in caſe the offender ſhall neglect to pay, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice to commit him to the houſe of correction, till ſatisfaction be made; and in caſe the offender is not able to make ſatisfaction, he ſhall be there publicly whipped, and kept to hard labour for any term not exceeding fourteen days. ſ. 1.

Every perſon buying or receiving wefts, thrums, ends of yarn, or other materials of wool, hemp, flax, cotton or iron, and being thereof convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall ſuffer the like penalties as for purloining and embezzling of the ſaid materials. ſ. 2.

All payments to workmen in the ſame manufacture ſhall be by lawful coin, and not by cloth, victuals or commodities; and all wool delivered out to be wrought up, ſhall be delivered with the declaration of true weight; on pain that every offender, in either of the ſaid caſes, ſhall forfeit to ſuch worker, double the value of what ſhall be due for ſuch work; and if any ſuch worker ſhall be guilty of any ſuch fraud in the work, ſuch worker ſhall anſwer to the owner of ſuch work double damages. ſ. 3.

All wages, demands and defaults of labourers in the woollen, linen, fuſtian, cotton, and iron manufactures, ſhall be heard and determined by any two juſtices of peace; but any perſon aggrieved by order of the juſtices, may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions; and in caſe the quarter ſeſſions ſhall give judgment againſt ſuch appellant, they ſhall order coſts.

Made perpetual by 9 Ann. c. 30.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 27. If any perſon ſhall contract with, entice or ſolicit, any artificer in wool, iron, ſteel, braſs, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the king's dominions, and ſhall be convicted thereof upon indictment or information, in any of the courts at Weſtminſter, or at the aſſizes or quarter ſeſſions, he ſhall be fined any ſum not exceeding 100*l.* for the firſt offence, and ſhall be impriſoned three months, and till the fine be paid. And if any perſon having been once convict, ſhall offend again, he ſhall be fined at the diſcretion of the court, and impriſoned twelve months, and till the fine be paid. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall be proſecuted for the ſaid offences, unleſs the proſecution be begun within twelve months after the offence. ſ. 2.

If any of the king's ſubjects, being ſuch artificers, ſhall go into any country out of his majeſty's dominions, to exerciſe or teach the ſaid trades to foreigners; and if any of the king's ſubjects in any ſuch foreign country, exerciſing any of the ſaid trades, ſhall not return into this realm within ſix months after warning given by the ambaſſador, miniſter or conſul, of Great Britain, in the country where ſuch artificers ſhall be, or by any perſon authoriſed by ſuch ambaſſador, &c. or by one of the ſecretaries of ſtate, and from thenceforth inhabit within this realm, ſuch perſon ſhall be incapable of taking any legacy, or of being an executor or adminiſtrator, and of taking any lands, &c. within this kingdom, by deſcent, deviſe, or purchaſe, and ſhall forfeit all lands, goods, &c. within this kingdom to his majeſty's uſe, and ſhall be deemed alien, and out of his majeſty's protection. ſ. 3.

Upon complaint made upon oath before any juſtice of peace, that any perſon is endeavouring to ſeduce any ſuch artificer, or that any ſuch artificer hath contracted, or is preparing to go out of his majeſty's dominions, for the purpoſes aforeſaid; ſuch juſtice may ſend his warrant to bring the perſon complained of before him, or before ſome other juſtice; and if it ſhall appear by the oath of one witneſs, or by confeſſion, that he was guilty of any the ſaid offences, ſuch juſtice may bind him to appear at the next aſſize or quarter ſeſſions; and if ſuch perſon ſhall refuſe to give ſecurity, the juſtice may commit him to gaol till the next aſſizes or quarter ſeſſions, and until he ſhall be delivered by due courſe of law; and if any ſuch artificer ſhall be convict upon indictment of any ſuch promiſe, contract or preparation, to go beyond the ſeas for the purpoſes aforeſaid, he ſhall give ſuch ſecurity to the king, not to depart out of his majeſty's dominions, as ſuch court ſhall think reaſonable, and ſhall be impriſoned till ſecurity given. ſ. 4.

If any of the above offences ſhall be committed in Scotland, the ſame ſhall be proſecuted in the court of juſticiary, or the circuits there. ſ. 5.

By 13 Geo. 2. c. 8. If any perſon hired or employed in the working up of any woollen, linen, fuſtian, or cotton, or iron manufactures, ſhall purloin, embezzle, ſecrete, ſell, pawn, exchange, or otherwiſe illegally diſpoſe of any the materials he ſhall be entruſted to work up ſuch manufactures, whether the ſame be or be not firſt wrought up, or ſhall reel falſe or ſhort yarn, the perſon ſo offending, and convicted as preſcribed by 1 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 18. ſhall forfeit double the value of the owner's damages, with ſuch coſts of proſecution as ſhall be adjudged reaſonable by the juſtice before whom convicted; and in caſe immediate payment be not made, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice to cauſe the offender to be committed to the houſe of correction, to be there whipped and kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding fourteen days; and in caſe of a ſubſequent offence, for embezzling any of the materials in the ſaid act mentioned, the perſon ſo offending ſhall for every ſubſequent offence, being convicted, forfeit four times the value of the damages, with ſuch coſts as ſhall be adjudged reaſonable by the juſtice; and in caſe immediate payment of the reſpective forfeitures and coſts be not made, ſuch juſtice, or any juſtice for the place where ſuch offence is committed, ſhall cauſe the offenders to be committed to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one month, and alſo during the time of ſuch commitment to be whipped at the market-place of the town where ſuch offender ſhall be committed, once or oftner. ſ. 1.

Every perſon who ſhall buy or receive, by way of gift, pledge or ſale, from any of the perſons herein, or in the ſaid act mentioned, any woollen, linen, fuſtian, cotton or iron manufactures, either before or after the ſame ſhall be wrought up, knowing the ſame to be embezzled, being convicted, ſhall ſuffer the like penalties as are by this or the ſaid act inflicted on perſons embezzling ſuch materials. ſ. 2.

The forfeitures incurred by the ſaid act, and by this act, ſhall be applied, one moiety to the party injured, and the other moiety to the poor of the pariſh only where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, with the like liberty of appealing as is given by the ſaid act. ſ. 3. For the mode of appealing to ſeſſions, ſee "Leather."

By 22 Geo. 2. c. 27.* ſ. 1. For rendering more effectual the 13 Geo. 2. c. 8. and extending the regulations to other manufactures, be it enacted, that if any perſon employed to make any felt or hat, or to prepare or work up any woollen, linen, fuſtian, iron, leather, furr, hemp, flax, mohair, or ſilk manufactures, or any of the ſaid materials mixed one with another, ſhall purloin, embezzle, ſecrete, ſell, pawn, exchange, or otherwiſe unlawfully diſpoſe of any of the materials with which he ſhall be entruſted, whether the ſame be or be not firſt wrought, and be convicted by the oath, or (if a Quaker) affirmation of the owner, or any other witneſs, or by confeſſion before two † juſtices of the peace of the county or place where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, or where the perſon charged ſhall reſide, it ſhall be lawful (by 17 Geo. 3. c. 56. ſ. 1.) for the juſtices by warrant to commit the perſon ſo convicted to the houſe of correction or public priſon, there to be kept to hard labour, in the caſe of a firſt offence for not leſs than fourteen days, nor more than three months; and in caſe of a ſecond or any ſubſequent offence, for any time not leſs than three nor more than ſix months; and may likewiſe for the firſt or any ſubſequent offence order the perſon convicted, to be once publicly whipped, if by the juſtices deemed proper.

If any perſon ſhall buy or receive from any perſon employed to make any of the manufactures aforeſaid, any thrums or parcels of yarn, or any other materials of wool, furr, hemp, flax, cotton, or iron, or any leather, mohair, or ſilk, whether the ſame be or be not wrought, knowing the perſon of whom he ſo receives the ſaid materials, to be ſo employed, and not having firſt obtained the conſent of the perſon employing him, or ſhall buy or receive from any other perſon any of the ſaid materials, whether wrought or not, knowing the ſame to be ſo embezzled, the perſon receiving, being convicted, ſhall for the firſt offence forfeit (by 17 Geo. 3. c. 56. ſ. 3.) not more than 40 l. nor leſs than 20 l. as the juſtices before whom the conviction ſhall be ſhall judge proper; and ſuch penalty ſhall be applied in manner following: in the firſt place, the expences of the proſecution ſhall be thereout defrayed, and then ſuch ſatisfaction ſhall be made thereout to the party injured, as the juſtices ſhall think proper; and afterwards ſo much of the ſaid penalty ſhall be paid to the informer as ſuch juſtices ſhall think fit, not exceeding, in any caſe, 10 l.; and the remainder, if any, ſhall be paid and diſtributed to and amongſt the poor of the pariſh, or for the uſe of ſuch public charity as ſuch juſtices ſhall appoint: and if ſuch penalty ſhall not be paid upon conviction, the ſaid juſtices ſhall commit the perſon convicted to the houſe of correction, or other public priſon, there to be kept to hard labour for not more than ſix, nor leſs than three months, unleſs ſuch penalty ſhall be ſooner paid; or the ſaid juſtices may ſend the perſon convicted to the houſe of correction or other public priſon, there to remain for three days, excluſive of the day of commitment, with an order that within the ſaid time, the perſon convicted ſhall be publicly whipped at ſuch market place or other public place as aforeſaid.

If any perſon ſhall be brought before any juſtices, charged upon oath, or affirmation, of having been guilty of buying, receiving, accepting, or taking by way of gift, pawn, pledge, ſale, or exchange, or in any other manner, and it ſhall appear that he hath been already convicted of the like offence, ſuch juſtices ſhall not proceed to convict ſuch perſon, but ſhall commit him to the houſe of correction, or ſome other public priſon, there to remain until the next general or quarter ſeſſions, or until ſuch offender ſhall have entered into a recognizance to anſwer for ſuch offence at the ſaid ſeſſions; and the juſtices in ſuch ſeſſions are to take cognizance thereof, and to hear and determine the ſame; and if ſuch perſon ſhall be convicted upon the oath, or affirmation, of one witneſs, he ſhall forfeit not more than 100 l. nor leſs than 50 l.; and ſuch penalty ſhall be applied by the ſeſſions in ſuch manner as the penalty for the firſt offence; and if ſuch penalty ſhall not be paid on conviction, the ſaid juſtices ſhall commit the perſon convicted to the houſe of correction, or other public priſon, there to be kept to hard labour for not more than ſix, nor leſs than three months, unleſs ſuch penalty ſhall be ſooner paid; or the ſaid juſtices may ſend the perſon convicted to the houſe of correction, or other public priſon, for three days, excluſive of the day of commitment, with an order, that within the ſaid time ſuch perſon ſhall be once publicly whipped at ſuch market-place, or other public place as aforeſaid. 17 Geo. 3. c. 56. ſ. 4.

If any perſon ſhall ſell, pawn, pledge, exchange, or otherwiſe unlawfully diſpoſe of, or offer to ſell, any ſuch materials, whether wrought or unwrought, mixed or unmixed, knowing them to have been purloined or embezzled, ſuch perſon ſhall be liable to the ſame puniſhment as on receiving purloined

When any perſon ſhall be brought or charged upon oath before two juſtices, with being ſuſpected of, or with having embezzled or received ſuch materials, whether wrought or unwrought, mixed or unmixed, knowing the ſame to have been embezzled, or received from ſome perſon or perſons not entitled to diſpoſe thereof, and it ſhall be made appear upon the oath or affirmation of one witneſs, that ſuch perſon hath purloined or embezzled, or received ſuch materials as aforeſaid, ſuch juſtices, or the general quarter ſeſſions, are, if they think fit, to convict ſuch perſon, although no proof be given to whom ſuch materials belong; and the perſon convicted ſhall be ſubject to the like penalties and puniſhments as perſons convicted of buying or receiving ſuch materials, knowing the ſame to have been embezzled. 17 Geo. 3. c. 56. ſ. 6.

By 22 Geo. 2. c. 27. The juſtices before whom the conviction ſhall be, may iſſue a warrant, impowering any perſon, in the preſence of a conſtable or headborough, and in the day time, to ſearch the houſes and other places belonging to the perſon convicted*, and to bring ſuch materials aforeſaid as ſhall be found, before the ſaid juſtice to be detained; and if within twenty-four days it ſhall appear to the juſtice, that the perſon from whoſe houſes, &c. the materials ſhall be ſo taken, is the owner and came to the poſſeſſion of them in an honeſt manner, then ſuch materials ſhall be reſtored to him; but if it ſhall not ſo be made appear within the time before limited, then the materials ſhall be deemed embezzled, and the juſtice may direct ſuch materials to be ſold, and the money ariſing from ſuch ſale (the charges of ſale being firſt deducted) to be equally diſtributed amongſt the poor of the pariſh where the perſon convicted reſides. ſ. 4.

Provided that the ſaid juſtice ſhall within three days after ſuch materials ſhall be brought to him, give notice under his hand and ſeal to the perſon convicted, appointing a time and place for him to prove his property; which time ſhall be within 21 days, and not leſs than 18 days after ſuch notice; and if the perſon ſo convicted be in any priſon, the juſtice ſhall cauſe a copy of the ſaid notice, atteſted under his hand and ſeal, to be delivered to the keeper of ſuch priſon, which keeper is to bring before ſuch juſtice the perſon named in ſuch notice, at the time and place ſpecified, if he be then in the cuſtody of ſuch keeper; and if any ſuch keeper neglect ſo to do, he ſhall forfeit to the perſon named in ſuch notice, the value of the materials ſo detained and ſold, to be recovered by diſtreſs and ſale of goods by warrant of the juſtice ſigning ſuch notice, in caſe the ſaid forfeiture be not immediately paid. ſ. 5.

If any perſon entruſted with the materials before-mentioned to work up, ſhall not uſe ſuch materials in manufacturing of the ſame, and ſhall neglect for eight days, by 17 Geo. 3. c. 56. ſ. 7. after ſuch materials ſhall be manufactured, to return (if required by the owner) ſo much as ſhall not be uſed, ſuch neglect ſhall be deemed an embezzling; and the perſon ſo neglecting being convicted, ſhall ſuffer the like puniſhment as perſons convicted of embezzling. ſ. 7.

Any juſtice of the peace of any county, &c. ſhall upon complaint upon oath, or (if a Quaker) affirmation, of any offence againſt this act within the ſame county, &c. iſſue his warrant for bringing before him, or any other juſtice of the ſame county, &c. the perſon charged with ſuch offence; and the juſtice before whom ſuch perſon ſhall be brought, is to determine ſuch complaint, and to proceed to conviction and judgment. ſ. 8.

* May ſearch the houſe of any other perſon. See 17 Geo. 3. c. 56. ſ. 10.

If any perſon hired or employed to work up any materials, whether mixed or unmixed, for any maſter, ſhall wilfully neglect or refuſe the performance thereof for eight days ſucceſſively; or having taken in any materials, whether mixed or unmixed, for manufacture, from one maſter, or two or more being co-partners, ſhall afterwards take in any materials, whether mixed or unmixed, for manufacture, from any other maſter, or ſhall procure, or permit himſelf to be employed in any other employment whatſoever, ſooner than eight days before the completion of the work firſt taken in; ſuch perſon, convicted by the oath, or affirmation, of one witneſs, before two juſtices, ſhall be ſent to the houſe of correction, there to be kept to hard labour not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one month. 17 Geo. 3. c. 56. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall not repeal any of the proviſions contained in 13 Car. 2. c. 15. or 20 Car. 2. c. 6. or 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 36. See "Silk." 22 Geo. 2. c. 27. ſ. 10.

Provided no perſon ſhall ſuffer puniſhment twice for the ſame fact. ſ. 11.

The 12 Geo. 1. c. 34. ſ. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, & 6. (ſee Woollen) and all the proviſions and penalties therein, ſhall extend to journeymen dyers, journeymen hot preſſers, and all other perſons employed in any of the woollen manufactures of this kingdom; and alſo to journeymen, and all perſons employed in the making of felts or hats, or in any of the manufactures of ſilk, mohair, fürr, hemp, flax, linen, cotton, fuſtian, iron, or leather, or of any of the ſaid materials mixed one with another. ſ. 12.

By 23 Geo. 2. c. 13. If any perſon ſhall contract with or endeavour to ſeduce any artificer in wool, mohair, cotton, or ſilk, or in iron, ſteel, braſs, or other metal, or any clockmaker, watchmaker, or any other artificer in any other of the manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this kingdom, or Ireland, into any foreign country, not within the dominions of the crown of Great Britain; and ſhall be convicted upon indictment or information in the King's Bench at Weſtminſter, or by indictment at the aſſizes or general gaol delivery for the county, &c. wherein ſuch offence ſhall be committed in England, or by indictment in the court of juſticiary, or in any of the circuit courts in Scotland, or by indictment or information in the King's Bench at Dublin (if ſuch offence be committed in Ireland), the perſon ſo convicted, ſhall for every artificer contracted with or ſeduced, forfeit 500*l.* and ſhall ſuffer impriſonment in the common gaol where convicted, for twelve months, and until ſuch forfeiture be paid; and in caſe of a ſubſequent offence, the perſon again offending ſhall forfeit for every perſon contracted with or ſeduced, 1000*l.* and ſuffer impriſonment in the common gaol where convicted, for two years, and until ſuch forfeiture be paid. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall be proſecuted unleſs ſuch proſecution be commenced within twelve months. ſ. 2.

By 17 Geo. 3. c. 56. If any perſon ſhall receive any of the materials mentioned in this act, and 22 Geo. 2. in a fictitious name, or in his own name, in order to be manufactured by himſelf, and afterwards deliver the ſame, or part, to any other perſon to be manufactured (without the conſent of the owner); or if any carrier, or perſon employed to deliver ſuch materials to any workmen to be wrought up, ſhall deliver the ſame to any other perſon than to whom ordered, every perſon offending ſhall be liable to proſecution, and to the ſame puniſhment, as is by this act directed in reſpect to perſons taking in materials to work, and neglecting the performance of their work. ſ. 9.

Two juſtices, upon complaint upon oath, by one perſon, or upon affirmation, that there is cauſe to ſuſpect that any embezzled materials, mixed or unmixed, wrought or unwrought, are concealed in any dwelling-houſe, outhouſe, yard, garden, or other place, may, by warrant under their hands and ſeals, cauſe ſuch place to be ſearched in the day-time: and if any ſuch materials ſhall be found therein, may cauſe the ſame, and the perſon in whoſe houſe the ſame ſhall be found, to be brought before two juſtices; and if the perſon ſhall not give an account how he came by the ſame, the ſaid perſon ſhall be deemed guilty of a miſdemeanor, and ſhall be puniſhed in manner after mentioned, although no proof ſhall be given to whom ſuch materials belong. ſ. 10.

Every peace officer, headborough, or tythingman, and every beadle, and every watchman, during ſuch time only as he is on duty, ſhall and may apprehend, or cauſe to be apprehended, all perſons who may reaſonably be ſuſpected of having or conveying, at any time after ſun-ſetting and before ſun-riſing, any materials, ſuſpected to be embezzled, and the ſame, together with ſuch perſons, convey before two juſtices; and if the perſon apprehended ſhall not produce the party from whom he bought or received the ſame, or ſome witneſs, to teſtify upon oath, or affirmation, to the ſale or delivery of the materials, or ſhall not give an account to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtices, how he came by the ſame, the ſaid perſon apprehended ſhall be deemed guilty of a miſdemeanor, and puniſhed as after-mentioned, although no proof ſhall be given to whom ſuch materials belong. ſ. 11.

In either of the two caſes laſt mentioned, when any perſon brought before two juſtices, ſhall requeſt time to produce the perſon from whom he bought or received the ſame, or ſome witneſs to prove the ſale or delivery thereof, the ſaid juſtices are to appoint ſuch reaſonable time, and to iſſue a ſummons to the conſtable or other peace officer where ſuch perſon or ſuch witneſs ſhall reſide, requiring him to appear before two juſtices, to be examined, and give evidence upon oath, or affirmation, of the matters aforeſaid; but ſuch perſon at the time of making ſuch requeſt, ſhall enter into a recognizance, with or without ſureties, as ſuch juſtices ſhall think proper, for his appearance, or for want of ſuch recognizance, ſhall be committed until the time appointed for the appearance of ſuch party or witneſſes; and if at ſuch appointed time ſuch perſon ſhall be convicted of any of the offences, then he ſhall ſuffer ſuch puniſhment as is inflicted on perſons guilty of ſuch offences. ſ. 12.

Where any perſon ſhall be convicted of a miſdemeanor in either of the two caſes laſt mentioned, the juſtices may cauſe the materials found or ſeized, to be depoſited in the hands of the churchwardens or overſeers, or in any other place, for not exceeding thirty days; and in the mean time may order the ſaid churchwardens and overſeers to inſert an advertiſement in ſome public newſpapers, or otherwiſe cauſe notice to be given by ſome public crier, and by fixing on the church or chapel door notice deſcribing ſuch materials, and where the ſame are depoſited, to the end that perſons having loſt ſuch materials may come and claim the ſame: and in caſe any perſon can prove his property in the ſaid materials upon oath, or affirmation, to the ſatisfaction of two juſtices, ſuch juſtices ſhall order reſtitution thereof, after paying the charges of removing, depoſiting, and giving notice; but if, before the end of the ſaid thirty days, no perſon ſhall prove his property, the ſaid juſtices ſhall order the ſame to be ſold, and after deducting ſuch charges, together with the charges of ſale, one moiety ſhall be given to the perſon who ſhall apprehend or proſecute the offender, and the other moiety, either to the poor of the pariſh, or to ſuch public charity as the juſtices ſhall appoint. ſ. 13.

Every perſon deemed guilty of a miſdemeanor, in having in his poſſeſſion materials ſuſpected to be embezzled, and not producing the party of whom he bought or received the ſame, nor giving a ſatisfactory account how he came by the ſame; or of a miſdemeanor in having, or conveying, of the ſaid materials ſuſpected, &c. ſhall forfeit, for the firſt offence, 20 l. for the ſecond, 30 l. and for every ſubſequent offence, 40 l. all which forfeitures ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods of ſuch offender, by warrant of the juſtices; of which forfeiture, one moiety ſhall be paid to the informer, and the other moiety to the poor, or to ſuch public charities as the juſtices ſhall appoint; and if no ſufficient diſtreſs ſhall be found, the ſaid juſtices ſhall commit ſuch offender to the common gaol, or other priſon, or houſe of correction, for one month, for the firſt offence; for the ſecond offence, for two months; and for every ſubſequent offence, for ſix months. ſ. 14.

The owner of ſuch materials may enter at all ſeaſonable hours in the day-time, into the ſhops or outhouſes of any perſon employed by him to work up any of the ſaid materials, and there inſpect the condition of ſuch materials; and in caſe of refuſal, by ſuch perſon employed, to permit ſuch entrance or inſpection, he ſhall forfeit, not exceeding forty, nor leſs than ten ſhillings, as the juſtices ſhall think proper, to be recovered and applied as directed for the miſdemeanor of being in the poſſeſſion of ſuch materials, without accounting ſatisfactorily for ſuch poſſeſſion. ſ. 15.

Every penalty or puniſhment directed by 22 Geo. 2. in reſpect to the materials, ſo far as the ſaid act is not varied by this, and all the proviſions therein, in reſpect to the materials, ſhall extend to any tools, or implements, with which any perſon ſhall be entruſted for manufacturing the materials, and alſo to any drugs, or ingredients, with which any perſon ſhall be entruſted, for dying, preparing, or manufacturing, the ſaid materials. ſ. 16.

If any journeyman dyer, or ſervant or apprentice, in the dying of any felt or hat, or any woollen, linen, fuſtian, cotton, leather, fur, flax, mohair, or ſilk materials, whether wrought or unwrought, or mixed or unmixed with other materials, ſhall, without the conſent of the maſter, wilfully dye any of the ſaid materials, wrought or unwrought, or mixed or unmixed, or without ſuch conſent ſhall wilfully receive any ſuch materials, for the purpoſe of dying the ſame, whether the ſame ſhall be dyed or prepared for dying, he ſhall, for the firſt offence, forfeit 10 s. for the ſecond, 20 s. and for every ſubſequent offence, 40 s.; or if any perſon ſhall procure any ſuch materials to be dyed by any journeyman, ſervant, or apprentice, without the conſent of his employer, or ſhall offer ſuch materials to any journeyman, ſervant, or apprentice, for the purpoſe aforeſaid, he being thereof convicted, by the oath, or affirmation, of one witneſs, before two juſtices, ſhall, for the firſt offence, forfeit 5 s. for the ſecond, 20 s. and for every ſubſequent offence, 4 l. and each of the ſaid penalties ſhall be paid to the informer, and in caſe of non-payment on conviction, the perſon convicted ſhall be committed, by the juſtices, to the common gaol or houſe of correction, for not exceeding one month. ſ. 17.

Any inhabitant of any pariſh in which any offence ſhall be committed contrary to 12 Geo. 1. and 22 Geo. 2. or this act, ſhall be a competent witneſs. ſ. 18.

One juſtice, upon complaint to him made upon oath, or affirmation, of any offence committed againſt this act, is to iſſue his warrant for apprehending and bringing before two juſtices the perſon charged with ſuch offence; and the juſtices before whom ſuch perſon ſhall be brought are to hear and determine the matter, and proceed to conviction. ſ. 19.

Any perſon aggrieved by the order or judgment of two juſtices before whom he ſhall have been convicted of any offence againſt 12 Geo. 1. and 22 Geo. 2. or this act, may appeal, and the ſaid juſtices are to make known to ſuch perſon, at the time of conviction, his right to appeal to the next general quarter-ſeſſions (ſuch perſon at the time of conviction, giving to ſuch juſtices notice in writing of his intention to appeal, and alſo entering into a recognizance, at the time of ſuch notice, with ſufficient ſureties, conditioned to try ſuch appeal, and to abide the judgment of, and pay ſuch coſts as ſhall be awarded by, ſuch ſeſſions); but if the perſon giving notice of appeal ſhall not enter into ſuch recognizance, then the juſtices may commit ſuch perſon to priſon, there to remain until the next ſeſſions, unleſs ſuch recognizance ſhall be ſooner entered into; and the ſaid juſtices before whom ſuch conviction ſhall have been made, or any two juſtices † of the ſame county are to take; and the juſtices at ſuch ſeſſions are upon proof of ſuch notice of appeal, to hear and determine the appeal, and award coſts, to be paid by either party; and if, upon the hearing of ſuch appeal, the judgment of the juſtices ſhall be affirmed, ſuch appellant ſhall, within forty-eight hours after, ſuffer ſuch corporal puniſhment as ſhall have been directed to be inflicted upon him, or ſhall immediately pay the ſum which he ſhall have been adjudged to forfeit, together with ſuch coſts as the ſeſſions ſhall award; or, in default of ſuch payment, ſhall be committed to the common gaol, or houſe of correction, in the ſame manner, and for the ſame time, to be computed from the affirmance of ſuch conviction, as ſhall be directed by the original conviction, unleſs the perſon convicted ſhall have been impriſoned under the original conviction, in which caſe the time for which ſuch perſon ſhall have been confined ſhall be included in the order of confirmation. ſ. 20.

The juſtices before whom any offender ſhall be convicted of any offence, either againſt 22 Geo. 2. or this act, ſhall cauſe the conviction to be certified to the next general or general quarter-ſeſſions, to be filed with the records of ſuch ſeſſions: and ſuch conviction ſhall be drawn up and written on parchment, and certified in the following form, as far as the name of the perſon and the nature of the caſe will admit. ſ. 21.

Middleſex (or any other place, as the caſe ſhall be) to wit. Be it remembered, that on the ——— day of ——— in the year of our Lord —— ——— A. B. was convicted before us —— ——— of his majeſty's juſtices of the peace in and for the ſaid county of ——— or, for the riding of the ſaid county of —— —— or, for the city, liberty, town, or place, aforeſaid, in the ſaid county — — (as the caſe ſhall be) of — — — [Here ſpecify the offence, and when and where the ſame was committed.]

Given under our hands and ſeals, the day and year firſt above written.

No order concerning any of the matters in this act, or any proceedings to be had touching the conviction of any offender againſt 22 Geo. 2. or this act, ſhall be quaſhed for want of form, or removable by certiorari into the King's Bench; and the juſtices ſhall cauſe the ſame, drawn up in the form aforeſaid, to be fairly written upon parchment, and tranſmitted to the next general or general quarter-ſeſſions, to be filed amongſt the records; and in caſe the perſon convicted ſhall appeal from the judgment of the juſtices to ſeſſions, the ſeſſions are, upon receiving the ſaid conviction drawn up in the form aforeſaid, to proceed to the determination of the appeal. ſ. 22.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to repeal any former laws now in being, except ſo far as is particularly expreſſed by this act; and no offender proceeded againſt upon this act, ſhall for the ſame offence be afterwards proceeded againſt upon any former law. ſ. 23.

Actions for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſhall be laid and tried in the county where the fact was committed; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue, &c. and if the jury ſhall find for the defendant, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 25.

Buttons.

By 10 Will. 3. c. 2. No perſons in England, Wales, or Berwick, ſhall make, ſell or ſet on any cloths, any buttons made of cloth, ſerge, drugget, freeze, camlet or any other ſtuffs of which cloths are uſually made; or any buttons made of wood only, and turned in imitation of other buttons; on forfeiture of 40 s. for every dozen of buttons ſo made, ſold or ſet on, and in like proportion for a leſſer quantity; one moiety to the king, the other to the proſecutor.

By 8 Ann. c. 6. No taylor or other perſon ſhall make, ſet on, ſell, uſe or bind on any cloths, any button or button-holes made or bound with ſerge or other ſtuff of which cloths are uſually made, on pain of 5 l. for every dozen of buttons or button-holes; one moiety to the crown, the other to him who will ſue for the ſame; or two juſtices may by warrant levy the penalty, upon the conviction of the offender by one witneſs; but the party aggrieved may appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions, and ſhall have coſts.

By 4 Geo. 1. c. 7. No taylor or other perſon ſhall make, ſell, ſet on, uſe or bind on any cloths, buttons or button-holes made of or bound with cloth, ſerges, drugget, frize, camlet or any ſtuffs that cloths are uſually made of, on forfeiture of 40 s. for every dozen of ſuch buttons and button-holes ſo made, &c. or in proportion for a leſſer quantity; and every perſon being thereof convicted upon oath of one witneſs ſhall forfeit as aforeſaid. ſ. 1.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to cloths made of velvet. ſ. 2.

Perſons inhabiting in any gaol or houſe of correction, or in any privileged place, offending againſt this act and being convicted, ſhall be ſubject to the penalties. ſ. 3.

Offences againſt this act ſhall be proſecuted within three months. ſ. 4.

Offences againſt this act ſhall be heard and determined by one juſtice of peace of the county, city, &c. where the ſame ſhall be diſcovered, or where the offender dwells (ſuch juſtice being not concerned in the matter), upon the oath of one witneſs. And one moiety of the forfeitures, the charges of conviction deducted, ſhall be paid to the informer, the other to the poor of the pariſh where the offence ſhall be diſcovered. And if any offender ſhall refuſe to pay the forfeitures, for fourteen days after conviction, ſuch juſtice ſhall iſſue his warrant to the conſtable, to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and for want of diſtreſs, to commit the offender to the common gaol, there to be kept three calendar months to hard labour. ſ. 5.

† So in the act.

If

If any perſon find himſelf aggrieved by the juſtice's order or warrant, he may appeal to the quarter-ſeſſions; and coſts ſhall be allowed to the party grieved, to be levied as in other caſes of appeals. ſ. 6.

If any action be commenced againſt any perſon ſo proſecuted, he may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 7.

All wearing garments made with buttons and button-holes of the ſame cloths, &c. and expoſed to ſale, ſhall be forfeited and ſeized, and applied to the uſes in this act. ſ. 8.

If any taylor or other perſon ſhall cauſe his ſervant to make any cloths contrary to this act, he ſhall be ſubject to the penalties; and this act ſhall be a public act. ſ. 9.

By 7 Geo. 1. c. 12. It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon to uſe or wear on any cloths, buttons or button-holes made or bound with cloth, ſerge, drugget, frize, camlet, or any ſtuffs, whereof cloths or wearing garments are uſually made: and if any perſon ſhall uſe or wear ſuch buttons or button-holes, ſuch perſon, being convicted in manner hereafter mentioned, ſhall forfeit for every dozen of ſuch buttons or button-holes, 40*s.* or in proportion for a leſſer quantity. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for one juſtice of peace of the county or place where any offence ſhall be committed againſt this act, or where ſuch offender ſhall inhabit, upon oath of one credible perſon to ſummon the party accuſed, and upon his appearance or contempt, to proceed to the examination of the matter, and on due proof made, either by confeſſion of the party, or ſuch oath, to determine the ſame, and to convict the offender; and to cauſe the penalties on the offender refuſing to pay the ſame on demand, by warrant to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, rendering the overplus; and one moiety of the forfeiture ſhall be to him on whoſe oath the perſon ſhall be convicted, and the other to the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall be committed. ſ. 2.

Perſons aggrieved by the order or warrant of ſuch juſtice, may appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions, giving eight days notice, which ſeſſions are to hear and determine the ſame, and their judgment ſhall be final. ſ. 3.

Offences againſt this act ſhall be proſecuted within one month after ſuch offence committed. ſ. 4.

This act ſhall not extend to cloths made of velvet. ſ. 5.

Perſons ſued may plead the general iſſue, &c. and on a verdict, &c. recover treble coſts. ſ. 6.

Cables and Cordage.

Clocks and Watches.

By 27 Geo. 2. c. 7. If any perſon employed by any perſon practiſing the trade of clock making or watch making, or any branch of ſuch trade, to make, finiſh, alter, repair or clean any clock or watch, or any part of a clock or watch, or entruſted by any perſon practiſing the ſaid trade with any gold, ſilver, or other metal or material, to be or that ſhall be in the whole or in part wrought for any part of a clock or watch, or any precious ſtone ſet or to be ſet in or about any clock or watch, ſhall purloin, embezzle, ſecrete, ſell, pawn, exchange, or otherwiſe unlawfully diſpoſe of any ſuch goods, and be convicted by the oath of the owner, or any other witneſs, or by confeſſion before any juſtice, every ſuch offender ſhall for the firſt offence forfeit 20*l.*; and in caſe the forfeiture be not forthwith paid, the juſtice ſhall commit the party convicted to the houſe of correction, or other public priſon, to be kept to hard labour for fourteen days, unleſs ſuch forfeiture be ſooner paid; and if within two days before the expiration of the fourteen days ſuch forfeiture be not paid, the ſaid juſtice is empowered to order the perſon convicted to be publicly whipped; and for a ſubſequent offence, the perſon again offending ſhall forfeit 40*l.* which if not forthwith paid, the juſtice ſhall commit the perſon again offending to the houſe of correction or other public priſon, to be kept to hard labour, not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one, unleſs the forfeiture be ſooner paid; and if within ſeven days before the expiration of the time for which ſuch offender is committed the forfeiture be not paid, the juſtice is empowered to order the perſon again offending, publicly to be whipped twice or oftener. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſhall buy, receive, or take by way of gift, pawn, or exchange, or in any other manner, any clock or watch, or any part of a clock or watch, or any gold, ſilver, or other metal or material as aforeſaid, wrought or not wrought, or any precious ſtone intruſted with any perſon hired or employed as aforeſaid, knowing the ſame to be ſo purloined and embezzled, being convicted in manner before preſcribed, he ſhall for the firſt offence forfeit 20*l.*; and in caſe the forfeiture be not forthwith paid, the juſtice before whom ſuch conviction is had, ſhall commit the party ſo convicted to the houſe of correction or other public priſon, to be kept to hard labour for fourteen days, unleſs the forfeiture be ſooner paid; and if within two days before the expiration of the ſaid fourteen days, the forfeiture be not paid, the juſtice is to order the perſon ſo convicted, to be publicly whipped once or oftener, as to ſuch juſtice appears reaſonable; and in caſe of a ſubſequent offence of the ſame kind, the perſon ſo again offending, being convicted, ſhall forfeit 40*l.* which if not forthwith paid, the juſtice ſhall commit the party to the houſe of correction, or other public priſon, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one, unleſs the forfeiture be ſooner paid; and if within ſeven days before the expiration of the time for which ſuch offender is committed, the forfeiture be not paid, the juſtice is to order ſuch offender to be publicly whipped twice or oftener; and the ſaid forfeitures when recovered, after ſatisfaction thereout to the party injured, with ſuch coſts as ſhall be adjudged by the juſtice, ſhall be applied to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where the perſon convicted reſides. ſ. 2.

If any perſon convicted as aforeſaid, of purloining, &c. or of receiving, &c. any of the goods before-mentioned, think himſelf aggrieved, ſuch perſon may appeal to the next general or quarter ſeſſions, and the execution of the judgment ſhall be ſuſpended, the perſon convicted entering into a recognizance at the time of conviction, with two ſureties, in double the ſum adjudged to forfeit, upon condition to proſecute ſuch appeal with effect, and to be forth-coming to abide the judgment of the ſeſſions; which recognizances the juſtice before whom ſuch conviction is had, is to take; and the juſtices in ſeſſions are finally to determine the appeal, and award coſts to be paid by either party; and if the judgment be affirmed, ſuch appellant ſhall immediately pay the ſum adjudged with coſts, or in default ſhall ſuffer the pains inflicted upon perſons who neglect to pay the forfeitures. ſ. 3.

The juſtice of peace before whom any perſon ſhall be convicted, ſhall cauſe ſuch conviction to be drawn up in the form following:

Middleſex,

Middleſex, } BE it remembered, that on the —— day of to wit. } —— in the —— year of his Majeſty's reign, A. B. was convicted before me (or us) —— of his Majeſty's juſtices of the peace for the ſaid county of —— or for the ——riding (or diviſion) of the ſaid county of—— or for the city, liberty, or town of —— in the ſaid county of —— (as the caſe ſhall be), of purloining, embezzling, ſecreting, ſelling, pawning, exchanging, or unlawfully diſpoſing of, or of buying, receiving, or taking to pawn, (as the caſe ſhall be) —— (ſpecifying the reſpective goods) the property of C. D. of —— in the county of —— Given under my hand and ſeal (or our hands and ſeals) the day and year aforeſaid.

Which conviction ſhall not be liable to be removed by certiorari, into the king's bench; and the juſtice before whom ſuch conviction is had, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be written upon parchment, and tranſmitted to the next general or quarter ſeſſions of the peace for the ſaid county or place wherein ſuch conviction was had, to be filed and kept amongſt the records. ſ. 4.

Any juſtice is, upon complaint upon oath, of any offence, to iſſue his warrant for bringing before him or any other juſtice of the ſame county, the perſon charged with ſuch offence; and the juſtice before whom ſuch perſon ſhall be brought is to hear and determine ſuch complaint. ſ. 5. See 5 Geo. 1. c. 27, in page 153. and 23 Geo. 2. c. 13. in page 155.

Flax and Hemp.

By 33 Hen. 8. c. 17. It ſhall not be lawful to water hemp or flax in any river, ſtream, or common pond, where beaſts be uſed to be watered, but only on the grounds or in pits, or in their ſeveral ponds; upon pain to forfeit 20*s.* the one half to the king, and the other half to the party aggrieved, or to any of the king's ſubjects that will ſue for the ſame in any court of record or leet. ſ. 2.

By 15 Car. 2. c. 15. It ſhall be lawful for any perſons in any place privileged or unprivileged, corporate or not corporate, to ſet up the trade of breaking, hickling, or dreſſing of hemp or flax, as alſo for making and whitening of thread; as alſo of ſpinning, weaving, making, whitening or bleaching of cloth made of hemp or flax only; as alſo the trade of making twine or nets for fiſhery, or of ſtoving of cordage; as alſo the trade of making tapeſtry hangings. ſ. 2.

All foreigners that ſhall ſet up and uſe any of the trades aforeſaid, three years in England, ſhall, taking the oaths of allegiance and ſupremacy, before two juſtices of the peace near their dwellings, enjoy all privileges as natural-born ſubjects. ſ. 3.

Such foreigners as ſhall exerciſe the trades aforeſaid, ſhall not be liable to any other taxes than ſuch as ſhall be paid by natural-born ſubjects, unleſs they ſhall uſe merchandiſe into and from foreign parts, in which caſe they ſhall be liable to pay cuſtoms as aliens during five years, and no longer. ſ. 4.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 43. The diſtribution and payment of the money which ſhall hereafter be kept apart, for the encouragement of raiſing and dreſſing hemp and flax in this kingdom, purſuant to the directions in 10 Geo. 3. and according to 7 Geo. 3. ſhall be put under the management and direction of the treaſury. ſ. 2.

For the encouragement of the growth of hemp and flax in England, there ſhall be applied, diſtributed, and paid, in bounties yearly, a ſum not exceeding (by 27 Geo. 3. c. 13. ſ. 65.) 6335*l.* 15*s. at the rate of three pence per ſtone for every ſtone of hemp of 14 lb. and four-pence for every like ſtone of flax, to be raiſed in England, in the year 1787, and in every ſubſequent year, during the ſpace of ſeven years, to be paid to the grower, or other perſon who breaks and properly prepares ſuch hemp or flax for market. ſ. 3.

* To be ſet apart in the exchequer, out of the duties on cuſtoms, 27 Geo. 3. c. 13. ſ. 65.

The perſon claiming and entitled to the ſaid bounty, ſhall ſign and exhibit his claim to one juſtice of the county where the hemp or flax has been raiſed, mentioning of what crop the ſame is, and the ground on which it grew; which claim ſhall be likewiſe atteſted by two of the pariſh officers, who ſhall certify, that they believe the truth of the particulars contained in ſuch claim; and which claim, when ſo atteſted, the ſaid juſtice is to counterſign and tranſmit to the clerk of the peace,, to be by him laid before the next general quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 4.

Every perſon who ſhall claim and receive any of the bounties, ſhall enter into a bond or ſecurity to the clerk of the peace, with two ſecurities, to be approved of at quarter ſeſſions, in the penal ſum of treble the bounty of the hemp or flax, with condition, that ſuch perſon is duly entitled to the bounty, according to this act; which bond ſhall be put in ſuit under the orders of the quarter ſeſſions, by the clerk of the peace, againſt ſuch perſons as the caſe ſhall require; and all money recovered ſhall be put into the hands of the treaſurer of the county, and be applied, in the firſt place, towards defraying the expences of proſecuting the ſame, and the execution of this act; and the remainder towards the fund out of which the bounties are to be granted. ſ. 5.

The juſtices in each county, at every general quarter ſeſſions, ſhall, before adjournment, advertiſe and publiſh the bounties by this act granted, and the conditions neceſſary to be complied with before the ſame can be received, with directions for all perſons claiming the bounties to deliver in their claims in the manner preſcribed. ſ. 6.

The juſtices ſhall, at their general quarter ſeſſions at Midſummer, in each year, before the ſame ſhall be adjourned, publiſh in like manner, the names and abodes of perſons claiming, and the quantities of hemp and flax for which the bounties are claimed; and ſhall direct enquiries to be made and methods to be purſued for diſcovering the truth of ſuch claims, and ſhall, at their next Michaelmas ſeſſions, finally determine, and publiſh the ſame as aforeſaid; and ſhall then make up a ſtate thereof, and of their judgments thereon, and tranſmit a certificate thereof to the treaſury, praying an iſſue of the amount of the bounties; and the treaſury ſhall thereupon iſſue, without fee, their warrants to the receivers of the land tax of the counties within which the hemp and flax has been raiſed, to pay, without deduction or reward, on the order of the quarter ſeſſions, the ſum appropriated for each county; and the juſtices ſhall forthwith pay, without fee, the ſame to the perſons entitled to the bounties. ſ. 7.

The perſon preparing hemp or flax for market, and who ſhall ſell any quantity within England, ſhall deliver to the buyer, along with ſuch hemp or flax, a particular account of the hemp and flax ſold, expreſſing the quantity, place where it grew, and the year of its growth; and the ſeller in like manner ſhall take of the buyer a receipt in writing, containing a duplicate of the quantity bought, the place where it grew, and the year of its growth. ſ. 8.

The treaſury ſhall annually make up an account of the quantities of hemp and flax certified to them to be raiſed, and of the monies paid to the quarter ſeſſions, and ſhall annually lay the ſame before both houſes of parliament. ſ. 10.

Such

Such reaſonable allowances ſhall be made to the clerks of the peace for what they ſhall do, as the quarter ſeſſions ſhall direct. ſ. 11.

The acts ſhall continue in force except where varied. ſ. 12.

This act ſhall continue for ſeven years, from the 25th March 1787, and from thence to the end of the next ſeſſion of parliament. ſ. 13.

Frame-work Knitters.

By 7 and 8 Will. 3. c. 20. No perſon ſhall put on board any ſhip any frame for knitting ſtockings and other wearing neceſſaries, or any part thereof, in order to be exported beyond ſea; upon pain to forfeit ſuch frames, &c. and 40 l. the one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall inform and ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. ſ. 8.

Every perſon which ſhall buy, ſell, or remove, any ſuch frame, or any part thereof, ſhall, within two months after, give notice in writing to the maſter and wardens of the company of Frame-work Knitters in London, or their deputies, to whom or what place the ſame was ſold or removed; on pain to forfeit 5 l. as aforeſaid. ſ. 9.

By 6 Geo. 3. c. 29. All frame-work knitted pieces, and ſtockings made of thread, cotton, worſted, or yarn, or any mixture of all or any of the ſaid materials, or of any materials of any other kind (except ſuch as ſhall be made of ſilk only), which ſhall contain three or more threads, ſhall be marked with the ſame number of iſlet-holes as there are threads; and ſuch iſlet-holes ſhall be made in a diſtinct manner, in one direct line, or in the ſame courſe, and ſhall not exceed three inches from the extreme iſlet-holes; and no ſuch iſlet-holes ſhall be placed within four inches of any letter, figure, mark, or other device, woven in ſuch goods; and all ſuch iſlet-holes ſhall be made within four inches of the top or end of every ſuch piece or pair of ſuch goods or manufactures; and no iſlet-hole or imitation thereof ſhall be made, except as directed by this act. ſ. 1.

Nothing herein ſhall prevent manufacturers from uſing remnants, or materials of any ſort, in the welts and tops of ſtockings only, not exceeding three inches, although the ſame ſhall not contain ſo great a number of threads as the legs of ſuch ſtockings. ſ. 2.

If any maſter frame-work knitter, or hoſier, or any other perſon, ſhall make, or cauſe to be made, any frame-work knitted goods or manufactures (except ſuch as ſhall be made of ſilk only), without being duly marked, every ſuch perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit 5 l. for every piece of ſuch frame-work knitted goods, or pair of ſtockings, and alſo all ſuch pieces and ſtockings. ſ. 3.

The penalty of 5 l. ſhall not extend to any journeyman, apprentice, ſervant, or perſon, not making ſuch goods on his own account. ſ. 4.

If any journeyman, apprentice, ſervant, or other perſon, employed in making any frame-work knitted manufactures, ſhall not duly mark every piece and pair according to this act, every ſuch journeyman, &c. ſhall forfeit a ſum not exceeding 40 s. nor leſs than 5 s. for each piece of frame-work knitted goods, or pair of ſtockings, which ſuch journeyman, &c. ſhall make and not mark. ſ. 5.

If any journeyman, apprentice, or ſervant, or other perſon, ſhall make it appear, to the ſatisfaction of the juſtice, that ſuch frame-work knitted pieces, or ſtockings, by him unduly marked, was ſo marked by direction of his maſter, then ſuch journeyman ſhall be exempted from any penalty. ſ. 6.

If any perſon ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, any frame-work knitted piece, or pair of ſtockings, of the aforeſaid materials, or any mixture thereof (except ſilk), which ſhall not be duly marked, every perſon ſhall forfeit 5 l. for every frame-work knitted piece, and for every pair of ſtockings ſo ſold, or expoſed to ſale, and alſo forfeit ſuch pieces and ſtockings. ſ. 7.

If any perſon proſecuted for ſelling, or expoſing to ſale, manufactures not duly marked ſhall diſcover the ſeller hereof, ſo as ſuch ſeller ſhall be convicted, and become liable to the penalties, then the perſon proſecuted for ſelling or expoſing ſuch manufactures, ſhall be diſcharged from any penalty by this act. ſ. 8.

If ſhall be lawful for one or more juſtices, not being a frame-work knitter, hoſier, or a proprietor of frames, to convict the party offending, upon the oath of one or more credible witneſſes, and upon ſuch conviction, in caſe ſuch penalties ſhall not be forthwith paid, to iſſue a warrant by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods; and in caſe no goods can be found, or there ſhall not be ſufficient to pay ſuch penalties, any one or more of ſuch juſtices, ſhall upon proof thereof upon oath, by the perſon who ſhall have the execution of ſuch warrant, commit the party offending to the common gaol of the county, riding, diviſion, city, town or place, where the offence ſhall be committed, there to remain for a time not exceeding three months, unleſs ſuch penalties ſhall be ſooner paid; and all penalties ſhall go, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the pariſh. ſ. 9.

Any perſon aggrieved, may appeal to the juſtices at any general quarter ſeſſions, giving ten days notice in writing of ſuch appeal, to ſuch juſtice or juſtices before whom he ſhall have been convicted, and within two days after ſuch notice, entering into a recognizance before ſome juſtice, with two ſureties, to try ſuch appeal at ſuch quarter ſeſſions; and the ſaid juſtices, at the ſaid ſeſſions, upon due proof of ſuch notice and recognizance, ſhall finally determine ſuch appeal in a ſummary way, and award coſts as they ſhall think proper; and the determination of ſuch quarter ſeſſions ſhall be concluſive. ſ. 10.

If any action ſhall be commenced for any thing done in purſuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if judgment againſt the plaintiff, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 11.

Nothing in this act ſhall abridge or take away any rights or privileges which the maſter, wardens, and aſſiſtants, of the company of Frame-work Knitters are entitled unto. ſ. 12.

By 28 Geo. 3. c. 55. If any frame-work knitter, who ſhall rent or take by the hire, any ſtocking frame, either with or without any machine or engine thereunto annexed, or therewith to be employed, from any perſon whomſoever, ſhall refuſe to re-deliver ſuch frame, with the machine or engine therewith let (if any ſuch there be), to the perſon of whom he ſhall rent the ſame, having received from ſuch perſon fourteen days previous notice for ſuch purpoſe, the perſon ſo offending, being thereof convicted by the oath or affirmation of the owner or employer of ſuch frame, or any other witneſs before one juſtice, ſhall forfeit 20*s.* to the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall be committed; and in caſe the ſaid forfeiture ſhall not be immediately paid, and the ſaid frame, with the machine therewith let, delivered up to the owner, within ſix days after ſuch conviction, the juſtice ſhall commit the party convicted to the common gaol, there to remain without bail, and be kept to hard labour, not exceeding three months, nor leſs than one. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſo renting or taking to hire any ſtocking frame, with or without ſuch machine, ſhall ſell or otherwiſe wiſe unlawfully diſpoſe of ſuch frame or machine, without the conſent of the owner, ſuch offender, being thereof convicted upon indictment, ſhall ſuffer ſolitary impriſonment in the common gaol, for not leſs than three, nor exceeding twelve months. ſ. 2.

If any perſon ſhall wilfully receive or purchaſe any ſuch frame, machine, or engine, ſo ſold or unlawfully diſpoſed of, and ſhall thereof be convicted by indictment, ſuch offender ſhall be ſubject to the like puniſhment as the perſon ſelling. ſ. 3.

Gold and Silver.

See the general title in Part I.

Hats.

By 17 Geo. 3. c. 55. Every maſter hatmaker ſhall employ one journeyman for every apprentice he ſhall employ in hatmaking, provided a ſufficient number of journeymen hatters, who have ſerved as apprentices to the ſaid trade, offer themſelves for that employment; or in default thereof, he ſhall for ever thereafter be diſabled from taking more than two apprentices to the ſaid trade. ſ. 2.

If any journeyman hatter, hat-maker, piece-maſter, ſervant, workman, or other perſon, employed in making or finiſhing of hats or felts, in any branch thereof, ſhall be convicted, in manner directed by 22 Geo. 2. c. 27. (ſee page 155) of having kept up, acted in, made, entered into, ſigned, ſealed, or having been knowingly concerned in, any contract, covenant, or agreement, bye-law, ordinance, rule, or order of any club, or combination, by the ſaid act declared to be illegal; or of preſuming or attempting to put any illegal agreement, &c. in execution; or of departing from his ſervice before the end of the time for which he was hired; or of quitting or returning his work before the ſame ſhall be finiſhed according to agreement; or of wilfully ſpoiling or deſtroying any goods or work; ſuch perſon ſo convicted before he ſhall be entitled to appeal to the quarter-ſeſſions againſt ſuch conviction, or before the proceedings ſhall be ſo ſuſpended, ſhall enter into recognizance, with two ſureties, the principal in ten pounds, and the two ſureties in five pounds each, before one juſtice, for the appearance of the perſon convicted at ſuch ſeſſions, to proſecute ſuch appeal, and abide the determination of ſuch ſeſſions; and the ſaid general quarter-ſeſſions are to hear and finally determine the appeal, and award coſts to either party: and if upon the hearing ſuch appeal, the judgment ſhall be affirmed, ſuch appellant ſhall immediately be committed to the common gaol or houſe of correction, in purſuance of the original order of conviction, there to remain for the time which ſhall have been ordered, and until the appellant ſhall pay the coſts awarded againſt him by the ſeſſions. ſ. 3.

If any perſon whomſoever (whether employed in the ſaid trade or not) ſhall attend any meeting, club, ſociety, or combination, by the ſaid act declared illegal; or ſhall ſummons or call upon any journeyman hatter, or other perſon employed in the ſaid trade, to attend ſuch meeting, or to pay any money as a fine, contribution, or ſubſcription, for the uſe of ſuch meeting; or who ſhall collect, demand, or receive, any ſum of money from any journeyman hatter, for any of the above purpoſes; or ſhall perſuade, entice, inveigle, or intimidate, or endeavour to perſuade, &c. any journeyman hatter, &c. to enter into, or be concerned in any ſuch meeting, or to turn out againſt, or quit the ſervice of the maſter; or if any perſon ſhall pay any money, or make or enter into any ſubſcription towards the ſupport or encouragement of ſuch illegal meeting, ſuch perſon being convicted before two juſtices, on the oath of one witneſs, ſhall, for every ſuch offence, be committed to the common gaol or houſe of correction, there to remain without bail, for not exceeding three months. ſ. 4.

So much of 5 Eliz. c. 4. as extends to reſtrain any perſon from ſetting up, and exerciſing, the craft of a maſter hat-maker, unleſs brought up as apprentice therein, is repealed. ſ. 5.

No maſter hat-maker, or felt-maker, ſhall be capable of acting as a juſtice in the execution of this or any other act relative to any journeymen hat-maker or apprentice. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall not repeal 22 Geo. 2. c. 27. ſ. 7.

Any perſon convicted before one or more juſtices, may appeal to the next general or quarter-ſeſſions, giving immediate notice of ſuch appeal, and finding ſecurity, to the ſatisfaction of the juſtices before whom conviction ſhall have been made, for the being preſent at ſuch ſeſſions, and for proſecuting the appeal with effect, and abiding the judgment of the court; and ſuch ſeſſions ſhall finally determine the matter, and ſhall have power to award coſts to either party; and if ſuch conviction ſhall be affirmed, ſuch appellant ſhall be committed to the common gaol or houſe of correction, for not exceeding three months. ſ. 8.

No action ſhall be brought for any thing done under this act, unleſs brought within three months. ſ. 9.

Perſons may plead the general iſſue, and if the plaintiff ſhall become nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover double coſts. ſ. 10.

Iron.

By 2 Edw. 6. c. 27. If any perſon make any gads of Bilbow iron like gads of ſteel, or put to ſale any ſuch gads of iron, he ſhall forfeit for every gad, 4 d. one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to them that will ſue for the ſame in any of the king's courts of record.

By 21 Jac. 1. c. 31. All perſons uſing to make knives, blades, cutlery wares and other manufactures of iron and ſteel, dwelling within the lordſhip of Hallamſhire in the county of York, or within ſix miles of the ſame, ſhall be one body politic and incorporate of one maſter, two wardens, ſix ſearchers and four and twenty aſſiſtants and commonalty of the company of cutlers of the lordſhip of Hallamſhire; and they by the name of maſter, wardens, ſearchers, aſſiſtants and commonalty of the company of cutlers of Hallamſhire in the county of York, may have perpetual ſucceſſion. And it ſhall be lawful to the ſaid maſter, wardens, ſearchers and aſſiſtants, upon the feaſt of St. Bartholomew yearly, or at any other convenient time, to elect and ſwear one maſter, two wardens, ſix ſearchers and four and twenty aſſiſtants, to be choſen out of the company, to govern the corporation during one year, and until there ſhall be other choſen. ſ. 1.

When any of the maſter, wardens or aſſiſtants, ſhall die or be removed (which ſhall be removable at the diſcretion of the greater part of the company), it may be lawful to the reſidue of the company within one month, other of the corporation to chooſe. ſ. 3.

Every maſter ſhall take his oath before the wardens and ſearchers, or two of them, and the aſſiſtants, or the greater part of them, for the true and faithful executing of that place. And the wardens ſhall be ſworn before the maſter, ſearchers and aſſiſtants, or the greater part of them, for the the due execution of their places. And the ſearchers ſhall be ſworn before the maſter, wardens and aſſiſtants, or the greater part of them, for the due execution of their places. And the aſſiſtants ſhall take their oaths before the maſter, wardens and ſearchers, or two of them, for the faithful execution of their places, before they take upon them the ſaid places. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for the maſter, wardens, ſearchers and aſſiſtants, or the greater part of them, to make ordinances for the government of the corporation, their apprentices and ſervants in their arts; and to impoſe penalties upon all offending, and the fines to levy to the uſe of the corporation, for the relief of the poor. ſ. 5.

No perſon uſing the occupation of a cutler within the ſaid compaſs, ſhall keep at one time more than one apprentice (beſides his own ſons), which hath not ſerved five years; nor ſhall take any apprentice, whoſe time ſhall be out before he be one and twenty years old; nor for any ſhorter time than ſeven years; nor ſhall take any other apprentice, in caſe he aſſign over any apprentice, till ſuch time as that apprentice ſhall have ſerved ſix years; nor ſhall take any apprentice, except he himſelf hath been an apprentice at the ſame trade ſeven years, or have been ſo long taught by his father, and be owner of the work himſelf, and of full age; upon pain to forfeit for every month 40*s.* to the corporation. Provided that this article ſhall not hinder any cutler from taking any apprentice, whoſe maſter dwelling within the ſaid compaſs ſhall die before he hath ſerved out ſeven years. ſ. 6.

No perſon uſing the ſaid arts within the ſaid compaſs ſhall make any knives, knife-blades, ſheers, ſciſſars or ſickles, except he put ſteel into the edges, upon pain of 10*s.* and the wares to be ſeized by the corporation. ſ. 7.

No perſon uſing the ſaid crafts within the ſaid compaſs ſhall uſe upon his wares more marks than one; and that to be ſuch as ſhall be firſt appointed him by the maſter, wardens and ſearchers, upon pain to forfeit all ſuch goods not ſo marked, and 40*s.* to the maſter and wardens. ſ. 8.

All penalties by this act ſhall be ſued for in his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, or in any court of record in the counties of York or Derby. ſ. 9.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 67. If any perſon ſhall contract with, entice, perſuade, or endeavour to ſeduce or encourage, any artificer or workman, employed, or who ſhall have been employed in the iron or ſteel manufactures in this kingdom, or in making or preparing any tools or utenſils for ſuch manufactory, to go out of Great Britain to parts beyond the ſeas (except Ireland), and ſhall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in the king's bench, or by indictment at the aſſizes, or general gaol delivery, or quarter-ſeſſions, or by indictment in the court of juſticiary, or circuit courts in Scotland; every perſon ſo convicted ſhall, for every artificer ſo contracted with, &c. forfeit 500*l.* and ſhall be committed to the common gaol for twelve calendar months, and until ſuch forfeiture ſhall be paid; and in caſe of a ſubſequent offence, the perſon again offending, ſhall forfeit for every perſon contracted with, &c. 1000*l.* and ſhall be committed to the common gaol for two years, and until ſuch forfeiture ſhall be paid. ſ. 6.

But no perſon ſhall be proſecuted, unleſs ſuch proſecution ſhall be commenced within twelve calendar months. ſ. 7.

Lace.

By 19 Geo. 3. c. 49. All lace merchants and dealers in lace, and all other perſons who ſhall employ any perſon in the making of bone or thread lace, or who ſhall buy any bone or thread lace of the maker, ſhall pay ſuch perſons for their labour, and for all the lace bought of them, in money only, and not with goods, or by way of truck, or in any other manner whatſoever, either in the whole or in part. ſ. 1.

If any lace merchant or dealer in lace, or other perſon, ſhall pay any perſon employed in making lace, in the whole or in part, for their labour, or for the purchaſe of any lace, with goods, or by way of truck, or in any other manner than with money only, ſuch lace merchant, dealer, or other perſon, ſo offending, ſhall forfeit 10*l.* to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the offender, by warrant, under the hand and ſeal of one juſtice; and ſuch forfeitures ſhall be paid to the party aggrieved; and for want of ſufficient diſtreſs, ſuch juſtice ſhall commit the offender to the common gaol for ſix months, unleſs ſuch penalty and charges attending the recovery ſhall be ſooner paid. ſ. 2.

If any money ſhall be due to any perſon employed in making lace, for labour, or for the purchaſe of ſuch lace, ſuch perſon may apply to any juſtice, and in caſe it ſhall, upon the oath of the party complaining, appear to ſuch juſtice that ſuch money is due, ſuch juſtice ſhall cauſe the ſame to be levied as the ſaid forfeiture. ſ. 3.

Any perſon aggrieved may appeal to the general quarter-ſeſſions within ſix months, firſt giving fourteen days previous notice to the perſon in whoſe favour the act ſhall be done, of his intention to appeal; and the quarter-ſeſſions are to hear and determine ſuch appeal, and make ſuch order therein, and award coſts to either party, and by warrant levy the coſts by diſtreſs and ſale; and the determination of the ſaid quarter-ſeſſions ſhall be concluſive upon all parties. ſ. 4.

Leather.

By 5 & 6 Edw. 6. c. 15. No perſons ſhall buy or ingroſs tanned leather, to ſell the ſame again, upon pain to forfeit the leather or the price thereof; one moiety to the king, and the other to him that ſhall ſeize or ſue. ſ. 1.

All ſadlers, girdlers, cordwainers and other artificers, ſuch as make males, bougets, leather pots, tankards, boar-hides, or other wares of leather, may buy tanned leather to be wrought by them. ſ. 2.

Every girdler, and other artificer before mentioned, may ſell their necks, wombs and ſhreds. ſ. 3.

Every perſon which ſhall have the king's licence to tranſport over the ſeas tanned leather, may buy in fair or market, ſuch leather as he ſhall be licenſed to tranſport; ſo that the licence be preſented to the chief officer of any city, town, fair or market, where the leather ſhall be bought; and ſo that the ſaid officer write upon ſuch licence how much leather he ſhall there have bought, and the day and place of buying. ſ. 4.

By 1 Mar. ſtat. 3. c. 8. The currier, ſhoemaker, girdler, ſadler, budget-maker, and all other artificers occupying the myſtery of leather buying, may buy tanned leather in fairs and markets, ſo that the ſaid curriers, &c. ſhall not buy any tanned leather to ſell again to any merchant or ſtranger, to be conveyed over ſea, nor ſhall ſend any leather beyond ſea, upon forfeiting all ſuch leather; the one half to the queen, and the other half to him that preſenteth the ſame; and the aforeſaid act 5 & 6 Edw. 6. c. 15. ſ. 1. ſhall be repealed concerning curriers and other artificers, occupying the myſtery of leather buying, curried and dreſſed. ſ. 2.

No

No currier ſhall curry any hides for any ſhoemaker, to make ſhoes or boots of, from the feaſt of St. James the apoſtle unto the five and twentieth of March, but ſuch ſhall be ſufficiently dipped twice in the pan; upon pain of forfeiture of ſuch leather; the half to the queen, and the other moiety to him that ſhall preſent the ſame; the penalties to be recovered by him that will ſue. ſ. 4.

When any ſhoemaker doth bring any leather ſufficiently tanned to any currier, delivering liquor for dreſſing, the ſame ſhall be by ſuch currier ſufficiently curried and made ready for the ſhoemaker within five days in ſummer, viz. from the firſt of March to the laſt of September, and within ten days in winter, viz. from the firſt of October to the laſt of February; upon pain to forfeit to the party grieved for every hide not curried in manner aforeſaid, 10*s.* ſ. 5.

This proviſo ſhall not extend to bind any currier to dreſs any leather which he is not able to dreſs within the times aforeſaid. ſ. 6.

This act was repealed, and 5 Edw. 6. c. 15. revived by 1 Eliz. c. 8. which is repealed by 5 Eliz. c. 8. and 1 Jac. 1. c. 22. Qu. therefore which is in force?

By 5 Eliz. c. 22. It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon to make pelts, viz. to take away the wool of any ſheep or lamb-ſkin, or to buy any ſkin of any ſtag, hind, buck, doe, goat, fawn or kid, or the pelts or ſkins of any of them, unleſs he cauſe to be made thereof tawed or tanned leather or parchment, or otherwiſe convert the ſame into ſemits, pannels, or other their own neceſſary uſes; upon pain that every perſon ſo making pelts, or buying ſkins, &c. contrary to this act, ſhall forfeit the value of all ſuch pelts or ſkins, and 2*s.* 6*d.* for every ſkin or pelt. ſ. 1.

By 1 Jac. 1. c. 22. No butcher ſhall gaſh or cut any hide of ox, bull, ſteer or cow, whereby the ſame may be impaired; upon pain of forfeiture for every hide, 20*d.*; and no butcher ſhall water any hide, except in June, July and Auguſt, nor ſhall put to ſale any hide being rotten; upon pain of forfeiture for every hide, 3*s.* 4*d.* ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall kill any calf to ſell under five weeks old, upon pain to forfeit 6*s.* 8*d.* ſ. 3.

No butcher ſhall uſe the myſtery of a tanner, during the time that he ſhall uſe the occupation of a butcher, upon forfeiture of 6*s.* 8*d.* for every day. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall tan leather, or have gain by tanning of leather, except ſuch as ſhall be brought up as apprentices or hired ſervants ſeven years in tanning leather, and except the wife and ſuch ſons of a tanner as have uſed tanning of leather four years, or the ſon and daughter of a tanner, or ſuch perſon who ſhall marry ſuch wife or daughter, to whom he ſhall leave a tan-houſe and fats; upon pain of forfeiture of all leather by them tanned, or whereof they ſhall receive any profit by tanning, or the value thereof. ſ. 5.

No perſon uſing tanning of leather ſhall, during the time that he ſhall uſe the ſaid myſtery, uſe the myſtery of a ſhoemaker, currier, butcher or any other artificer, cutting or working of leather; upon pain to forfeit all hides and ſkins by them wrought or tanned, or the value thereof. ſ. 6.

No perſon ſhall buy or beſpeak any rough hide, or calve-ſkin in the hair, but only ſuch as may uſe tanning of leather, and ſhall tan the ſame (except ſalt hides for the uſe of ſhips), upon pain to forfeit all hides and ſkins, ſo bought, or the value thereof. And no perſon ſhall foreſtall hides coming towards any fair or market, nor ſhall buy any hide other where than in open fair or market, unleſs it be of ſuch perſons as ſhall kill the beaſt for the proviſion of their houſes, upon pain of forfeiture for every hide 6*s.* 8*d.* ſ. 7.

No perſon ſhall buy, ſell, beſpeak or exchange, any tanned leather, not wrought into made wares, but only ſuch perſons as ſhall work the ſame into made wares; upon pain of forfeiture of the leather ſo bought, &c. or the value thereof. ſ. 8.

Sadlers and girdlers may ſell their necks and ſhreds red, without incurring any forfeiture. ſ. 10.

No perſon, which ſhall uſe tanning leather, ſhall ſuffer any hide or ſkin to lie in the limes till the ſame be overlimed, nor ſhall put any hides or ſkins into tan-fats before the lime be well ſokened and wrought out; nor ſhall uſe any ſtuff in the workmanſhip or tanning of leather, but only aſh-bark, oak-bark, tap-wort, malt, meal, lime, culver-dung, or hen-dung; nor ſhall willingly ſuffer his leather to be laid, or to hang, or to lie, wet in any froſt until the ſame be frozen; nor ſhall dry or parch leather with fire or ſummer ſun; nor ſhall tan any hide or ſkin being rotten; nor ſuffer the hides for utter ſole leather to lie in the woozes leſs than twelve months, nor the hides for upper leathers leſs than nine months; nor ſhall negligently work the hides in the woozes, but ſhall renew their woozes, as ſhall be requiſite; nor ſhall put to ſale any tanned hide or ſkin which ſhall be wrought in other ſort than by this ſtatute is appointed; upon pain of forfeiture of every hide or ſkin, or the value thereof. ſ. 11.

No perſons uſing the myſtery of tanning ſhall raiſe with any mixtures any hide, to be converted to backs, bend leather, clouting leather, or other ſole-leather, except the ſame hides be for largeneſs, ſtate and growth, fit for that uſe; upon pain of forfeiture of all ſuch hides. ſ. 13.

No perſon ſhall put to ſale, exchange or part with, any tanned leather red and unwrought, but in fair or market in the places accuſtomed, unleſs the ſame have been ſearched and ſealed; upon pain of forfeiture for every hide or piece of leather ſo ſold, &c. 6*s.* 8*d.* and for every dozen of calves-ſkin or ſheep-ſkins, 3*s.* 4*d.* and the hides, ſkins and leather, or the value thereof. ſ. 14.

If any perſon uſing the myſtery of tanning, ſhall put to ſale any leather which ſhall be inſufficiently tanned, or which ſhall not have been after the tanning thoroughly dried, every ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit ſo much leather as ſhall be found inſufficiently tanned, or not thoroughly dried, viz. the whole hide, or ſo much thereof as is not ſufficiently tanned, to be cut out by the triers. ſ. 15.

No perſons ſhall ſet their fats where the woozes or leather, that ſhall be put to tan in the ſame, ſhall take any unkind heats, or ſhall put leather into warm woozes, or ſhall tan any hide, calve-ſkin or ſheep-ſkin, with warm woozes; upon pain to forfeit 10*l.* and ſtand upon the pillory three market-days in the next market-town. ſ. 17.

No perſons ſhall regrate, ingroſs, or get into their hands, by buying or promiſe-taking, any oaken-bark, before it be ſtripped, or after, to the intent to ſell the ſame again; upon pain of forfeiture of all ſuch barks, or the value thereof. ſ. 19.

No perſon ſhall fell any oaken trees meet to be barked, where bark is worth 2*s.* a cart-load, over and above the charges of barking and pilling (timber to be employed for neceſſary building or reparations of houſes, ſhips or mills, excepted), but between the firſt of April and the laſt of June; upon pain of forfeiture of every ſuch oak-tree, or double the value. ſ. 20.

No perſon ſhall curry leather in the houſe of any other perſon, but only in his own houſe, ſituate in a corporate or market-town, nor ſhall curry any hide or ſkin not thoroughly dry, after his wet ſeaſon; in which wet ſeaſon he ſhall not uſe any ſtale or deceitful mixture, to hurt the ſame; nor ſhall curry leather meet for utter ſole leather, with other ſtuff than hard tallow, nor of leſs of that than the leather will receive, nor ſhall curry any leather meet for over leather and inner ſoles, but with good ſtuff, freſh and not ſalt, and thoroughly liquored till it can receive no more; nor ſhall burn or ſcald any hide or leather in the currying; nor ſhall ſhave any leather too thin; nor ſhall gaſh or hurt any leather; but ſhall work the ſame ſufficiently; upon pain of forfeiture for every offence (other than in gaſhing or hurting in ſhaving) 6*s.* 8*d.* and the value of every ſuch ſkin or hide; and for every offence in gaſhing or hurting by ſhaving, double ſo much to the party grieved, as the leather ſhall be impaired, by the judgment of the wardens of the curriers, and the warden of the company whereof the party grieved ſhall be. ſ. 22.

No perſon occupying the myſtery of a currier ſhall uſe the myſtery of a tanner, cordwainer, ſhoemaker, butcher or other artificer, uſing cutting of leather, during the time that he ſhall uſe the myſtery of a currier; upon pain of forfeiting 6*s.* 8*d.* for every hide or ſkin that he ſhall curry. ſ. 25.

No currier ſhall refuſe to curry any leather to him brought by any cutter of leather, the ſame artificer bringing ſtuff for liquoring the ſame: and the ſaid leather, in the preſence of the ſaid artificers (if they will be preſent), ſhall be liquored and curried perfectly; and if they will not be preſent, it ſhall be liquored and curried perfectly, with convenient ſpeed, not exceeding eight days in ſummer, and ſixteen in winter; upon pain to forfeit to the party grieved, for every hide or piece of leather, 10*s.* ſ. 26.

The wardens of the curriers, or ſuch perſons as they ſhall appoint, ſhall ſearch all curried leather, brought to any of their company to be curried; and ſhall with a ſeal, with convenient ſpeed, not exceeding one day after requeſt, ſeal ſuch leather as they ſhall find ſufficiently curried, taking after the rate of a penny for the dicker, and for every ſix dozen of calves-ſkins, 1*d.* to be paid by the currier; upon pain of forfeiture for every hide, 6*s.* 8*d.* ſ. 27.

No cordwainer ſhall make any boots, ſhoes, buſkins, ſtartops, ſlippers or pantofles, of Engliſh leather, wet curried (other than deer-ſkins, calve-ſkins or goat-ſkins, dreſſed like Spaniſh leather), but of leather well tanned and curried, or of leather well tanned only, and well ſewed with good thread, well twiſted and ſufficiently waxed with wax well roſined, and the ſtitches hard drawn with hand leathers, as accuſtomed, without mixing over-leathers, viz. part of the over-leather of neats-leather, part calves-leather; nor ſhall put into any ſhoes, &c. leather made of ſheep-ſkins, bull-hide or horſe-hide; nor in the upper-leather of any ſhoes, &c. or into the nether part of any boots (the inner part of the ſhoe excepted) part of any hide from which the ſole leather is cut, called the wombs, necks, ſhank, flank, poll or cheek; nor ſhall put in the utter ſole any other leather than the beſt of the ox or ſteer-hide, nor into the inner ſole any other leather than the wombs, neck, poll or cheek, nor in the treſwels of the double ſoled ſhoes, other than the flanks of the hides aforeſaid; nor ſhall make, or put to ſale, between the laſt of September and the twentieth of April, any ſhoes, &c. meet for any perſon to wear exceeding the age of four years, wherein ſhall be any dry Engliſh leather, other than calve-ſkins or goat-ſkins dreſſed like Spaniſh leather; nor ſhall put to ſale any ſhoes, &c. upon Sunday; upon pain of forfeiture for every pair of ſhoes, &c. 3*s.* 4*d.* and the value of the ſame. ſ. 28.

All mayors and other head officers in cities, boroughs and market-towns, and all lords of liberties, fairs and markets out of London or the compaſs of three miles thereof, ſhall, upon like penalty of 40*l.* appoint or ſwear yearly two or more perſons to ſearch within their liberties, which ſhall make like ſearch within their limits, (as in London, ſee page 82) and ſhall have a ſeal for that purpoſe. And if the ſearchers find any leather ſold, or offered to be ſold, or brought to be ſearched, which ſhall be tanned or uſed contrary to this ſtatute, or any leather inſufficiently curried, or any boots, ſhoes, bridles, or other thing made of tanned or curried leather, inſufficiently tanned, curried, or wrought, it ſhall be lawful to the ſearchers to ſeize all ſuch leather, ſhoes, or other wares, and to retain the ſame until the ſame be tried by triers. ſ. 32.

Every other mayor, or head officer, or lord of liberty, out of the ſaid compaſs of three miles, within whoſe liberties any ſuch ſeizure ſhall be, ſhall with convenient ſpeed, after notice of any ſuch ſeizure, appoint ſix men to try whether the ſame leather, boots, ſhoes, or other wares, be ſufficient or not; the ſame trial to be made openly upon ſome market day, and within 15 days after ſuch ſeizure made, upon the oaths of the triers. ſ. 34.

If the mayor, or head officer, or lord of any liberty, ſhall make default in the nomination of triers, he ſhall forfeit 5*l.* the one moiety to the king, and the other to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame, in any of the king's courts of record. And the perſons elected for trial of the ſaid leather, ſhoes, boots, or other wares, ſhall proceed therein without delay, upon pain to forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 35.

If any ſearcher or ſealer ſhall refuſe with convenient ſpeed to ſeal any leather ſufficiently tanned, wrought, and uſed, or allow that which is inſufficient, he ſhall forfeit 40*s.* And if any ſearcher ſhall receive any bribe, or exact any other fee than is by the ſtatute limited, for the ſearching, ſealing, and regiſtering of leather, he ſhall forfeit 20*l.* And if any perſon elected to the office of ſearching or ſealing of leather, refuſe to execute the ſaid office, he ſhall forfeit 10*l.* ſ. 37.

If any perſon wilfully deny ſuch ſearch to be made, or will not ſuffer the maſters and wardens of the companies, or ſearchers ſo appointed, to enter into his houſe, or other place, to ſearch all tanned leather, and all ſhoes, boots, mails, ſaddles, coach coverings, and harneſs, and all wares made of leather, and to ſeize and carry away all ſuch leather, ſhoes, and wares, as they ſhall find inſufficiently tanned, curried, or wrought, or made of ill ſtuff; every perſon ſo denying, &c. ſhall forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 40.

Such ſearchers and ſealers ſhall keep one book, wherein they ſhall enter all bargains made for leather, hides, or ſkins, during the time of fair or market, being required by the buyer or ſeller, and the prices, taking for ſearching, ſealing, and regiſtering of every ten hides, backs, or buts, with the necks, wombs, or dibbings, or other offal, of the ſeller, 2*d.* and for every ſix dozen of calves ſkins, or ſheep ſkins, 2*d.* and of the buyer the ſame. ſ. 41.

No perſon ſhall ſell or put away any tanned leather, red and unwrought, except he regiſter the ſaid leather, and the price thereof, upon pain of forfeiture of the value of the leather. ſ. 42.

It ſhall not be lawful to buy any tanned leather, before the ſame be ſearched and ſealed, nor to carry out of the fair or market any leather till it be regiſtered, upon pain to forfeit the ſaid leather or the value thereof. ſ. 43.

All which forfeitures of money (except ſuch as are by this act otherwiſe diſpoſed of) ſhall be divided into three parts; one part to the king, and another part to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame, and the third part to the city, town, or lord of liberties, where the offence ſhall be committed; and all ſuch leather, wares, or things made of tanned leather, or curried leather, which ſhall be found inſufficient, within any other city or place inſufficiently wrought, tanned, or curried, ſhall be brought to the common hall of every ſuch city and town, or to ſome open place, to be appointed by the lord of the liberty where no common hall is, there to be prized; one part of the value to be diſpoſed unto the poor, and in other deeds of charity, after the diſcretion of the mayors, bailiffs, headboroughs, and lords of liberties; another part to be delivered to the mayors, and other head officers, to the uſe of the commonalty of ſuch city, or town corporate, and where no ſuch officers be, to the lord of the liberty; and the third part to the ſeizer.

No perſon to whom any ſuch unlawful leather or ſtuff ſhall be given, ſhall give or ſell any ſuch leather or ſtuff to any perſon that ſhall ſell the ſame, upon pain that the buyer ſhall forfeit 3*s.* 4*d.* ſ. 47.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to the univerſities, concerning the ſearch of tanned leather, ſo as they obſerve ſuch order in ſearching, ſealing, and regiſtering of leather, as by this act is appointed, upon the pain therein contained. ſ. 48.

The hides and ſkins of ox, ſteer, bull, cow, calf, deer, red and fallow, goats, and ſheep, being tanned or tawed, and every ſalt hide, ſhall be reputed leather. ſ. 49.

Juſtices of aſſize, of gaol delivery, juſtices of peace, and ſtewards of leets, and all mayors, and head officers within their liberties, ſhall enquire of the premiſes, and hear and determine the ſame, and alſo examine all perſons ſuſpected to offend againſt this act. ſ. 50.

Where any manor or franchiſe appertaineth to the king, the ſteward ſhall have the powers, and bear the penalties, appointed to the lords of liberties. ſ. 51.

All dry currying and frizing ſhall be conſtrued to be dreſſing and currying of the manner of Spaniſh leather; and to all artificers (other than ſhoemakers, yearly, between the laſt of September and the 20th of April) it ſhall be lawful to uſe leather dreſſed and curried in that manner, ſo that the ſame be ſufficiently tanned and well dreſſed, curried, and frized. ſ. 52.

This act ſhall extend to Wales. ſ. 53. Extended to Scotland by 24 Geo. 3. ſeſſ. 2. c. 19. ſ. 2. See general title, "Scotland, leather."

By 3 Jac. 1. c. 9. No perſon ſhall dreſs in his houſe, or by any workmen, not being artizan ſkinners, any black coney ſkins of this kingdom, nor ſhall carry beyond the ſeas, nor pack or lade to the intent to carry beyond the ſeas, any black coney ſkins, of the breed of this realm, unleſs the ſame ſhall firſt be tawed and perfectly wrought, dreſſed, and packed, within this realm, by artizan ſkinners or tawers under the ſaid ſkinners, upon pain of forfeiture of ſuch ſkins, or the value thereof. ſ. 2.

No perſon uſing the trade of a merchant, ſhall buy or contract for any coney ſkins or lamb ſkins, called morkins, of the breed of this realm, or being within this realm, under the number of 1000 black coney ſkins, or 3000 grey coney ſkins, or 2000 lamb ſkins called morkins, at a time, to be delivered at one time (except it be to the artizan ſkinners), nor ſhall ſell the ſame within this realm in parcels, under the numbers aforeſaid, unleſs it be to the artizan ſkinner, upon pain of forfeiture of the ſkins or the value. ſ. 3

No perſon ſhall take or keep any ſervant, journeyman, or apprentice, to work with him therein, except the perſon uſing the ſaid trade have ſerved ſeven years as an apprentice, and uſe the trade of a ſkinner, upon pain of forfeiture of the double value of all ſuch ſkins or furs as ſhall be dreſſed or wrought by ſuch perſons or their ſervants. ſ. 4.

All forfeitures by this act ſhall be diſtributed, one moiety to the king, and the other to ſuch as ſhall ſeize the ſkins or furs, or ſue by action of debt, &c. ſ. 5.

By 4 Jac. 1. c. 6. No perſon ſhall incur any penalty for houſing, ſelling, or buying, of any tanned ſheep ſkins, unſearched or unſealed, ſo as the ſaid ſheep ſkins be wrought and converted into made wares within England, 1 Jac. 1. c. 22. notwithſtanding. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall utter or ſell by weight, any tanned leather, upon pain of forfeiture of the leather, or the value thereof, to be recovered in any of the king's courts of record, by action of debt, &c. the one moiety to the king, and the other to ſuch as ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 3.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2 c. 7. All red tanned leather, made of the hides or ſkins of any of the beaſts aforeſaid, (ox, ſteer, bull, cow, or calf), ſhall be bought only in open fair or market uſed for putting leather to ſale, and not in any houſe, tanner's yard, ſhop, or other place, on pain to forfeit the leather, or the value thereof; and the contract for the ſale thereof ſhall be void; and all ſuch leather ſhall be ſearched and ſealed before the ſame be put to ſale, and upon ſuch ſale ſhall be regiſtered, and entry thereof made by the buyer and ſeller, who are both to be preſent at ſuch regiſtering, on pain that every ſuch buyer and ſeller, that ſhall not do the ſame, ſhall forfeit the leather or the value thereof. ſ. 4.

Every tanner who ſhall ſhave, cut, and rake their upper leather hides, and the necks of their backs and buts, ſhall forfeit the leather, backs, buts, or calf ſkins ſo ſhaved, cut, or raked, or the value thereof; and it ſhall be lawful for the ſearchers and ſealers to ſeize the ſame. ſ. 8.

By 1 Will. & Mary, ſtat. 1. c. 33. Every hide, ſkin, or piece of tanned leather, ſhaved or liquored, and well curried according to 1 Jac 1. c. 22. ſhall be adjudged made ware and manufacture of the currier, and ſubject to the view, ſearch, and ſeizure, of the maſter and wardens; and ſhall be liable to the ſame penalties as other wares inſufficiently made of tanned leather. ſ. 3.

All perſons dealing or working in leather, may buy all ſorts of red tanned leather, in any open fair or market, curried or uncurried, the ſame being firſt ſearched and ſealed, and may ſell the ſame again in their ſhops, or convert it to other made ware, according to their trade. ſ. 5.

Any perſons may buy or ſell leather, hides, or ſkins, by weight. ſ. 6.

By 12 Geo. 2. c. 25. It ſhall be lawful for all leather ſellers, curriers, ſhoemakers, and other dealers in leather, to buy all ſorts of tanned leather, in any open market, whether curried or uncurried, ſuch leather being firſt ſearched and ſealed according to law; and to cut and ſell the ſame in ſmall pieces in their public ſhops. ſ. 1.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to give liberty to any perſons to make or procure to be made any boots, ſhoes, clogs, or ſlippers, or to ſew cloſe, or fit to the laſt, pieces of leather for making ſuch wares for ſale, other than perſons legally entitled to exerciſe the trade of a cordwainer, or ſuch perſons as ſhall be coblers and tranſlators. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall give a right to any leatherſeller, currier, ſhoemaker, or other perſon, to exerciſe their reſpective trades in any town corporate or place, where by law they cannot exerciſe the ſame. ſ. 3.

If

If any currier refuſe to curry any leather ſent to him for that purpoſe, by any leatherſellers, ſhoemakers, or other dealers in leather, or neglect to curry the ſame within ſixteen days, between the 28th of September, and the 25th of March following, and within eight days in the remaining part of the year, ſuch currier ſhall, for every ſuch offence, being convicted before one juſtice of peace, for the place where ſuch offence is committed, by the oath of one witneſs, forfeit 5 l. to be recovered by ſale of goods; one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the pariſh. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for the ſaid juſtice, where he ſhall ſee cauſe, to mitigate the penalties. ſ. 5.

If any perſon think himſelf aggrieved by the determination of the juſtice, it ſhall be lawful for him to appeal to the general quarter ſeſſions of the peace to be next held for ſuch place; and the determination of the juſtices or the major part of them there made, ſhall be final: and no certiorari ſhall be allowed to remove any determinations or proceedings as above directed. ſ. 6.

Nothing herein ſhall leſſen any privilege given to the company of curriers, by charter or grant, ſo far as they may exerciſe the ſame in the city of London or liberties thereof. ſ. 8.

By 13 Geo. 2. c. 8. If any perſon hired or employed in manufacturing of gloves, breeches, leather, boots, ſhoes, ſlippers, wares, or other goods or materials uſed in any of thoſe trades, ſhall fraudulently embezzle, ſecrete, ſell, pawn or exchange any of the materials with which he ſhall be entruſted to work, or ſhall embezzle, &c. any wares when made up, or do or permit any other act whereby to leſſen the value of ſuch wares, either before or after the ſame ſhall be made into wares, and be convicted by the oath or affirmation of the maſter or owner, or any other witneſs, or confeſſion before one juſtice of the peace, for the place where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, or where the party ſo charged ſhall reſide, ſuch juſtice ſhall award the perſon ſo offending to make a recompenſe to the parties injured, for the damage, ſo as the ſame do not exceed double the value of the goods embezzled, one half to go to the party grieved, and the other to the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, together with the charges of conviction, to be levied by warrant of ſuch juſtice by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; but if ſuch offender have not goods ſufficient to anſwer the forfeitures and charges, and ſhall not immediately pay the ſame, then the ſaid offender ſhall, by warrant of ſuch juſtice, be, for every diſtinct offence, committed to the houſe of correction, or public priſon of ſuch county or place, and there kept to hard labour for 14 days, and ſhall be there whipped, as the ſaid juſtice ſhall order; and in caſe of a ſubſequent offence, the perſon ſo offending, being convicted, ſhall forfeit four times the value of the damages, with coſts of proſecution; and in caſe immediate payment be not made, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice to commit the offender to the houſe of correction, or public priſon, to be there kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding three, nor leſs than one month, and alſo during ſuch commitment, ſhall cauſe the ſaid offender to be publicly whipped at the market-place of the town where he is committed, once or oftener. ſ. 4.

Every perſon who ſhall knowingly buy or receive from any perſon (except the owners), any of the ſaid gloves, &c. ſhall for every offence, being convicted, make ſatisfaction within two days after the matter is determined by any juſtice, or elſe be ſubject to ſuch diſtreſs, and for want of ſufficient diſtreſs, be liable to the like puniſhment as is inflicted on ſuch perſons as embezzle any gloves, &c. and ſo in like manner for every ſubſequent offence. ſ. 5.

All payments to any workmen for work done in ſuch manufactures, ſhall be in lawful coin only, and not by any victuals or commodities, except by their requeſt; and all materials delivered to be wrought up in the manufacture laſt mentioned, ſhall be delivered with a declaration of the weight, quantity, or tale thereof, on pain of forfeiting to ſuch worker, double the value of what ſhall be due for ſuch work; and if any ſuch worker ſhall be guilty of any fraud or neglect in the work, he ſhall anſwer to the owner double damages. ſ. 6.

All wages, demands, frauds, and defaults of workers, in the trades laſt mentioned, ſhall be determined by any two juſtices of the county or place, where the matter in controverſy ſhall happen. ſ. 7.

Every perſon who ſhall firſt be retained or employed, in the making up any gloves, or other wares aforeſaid, for one maſter, and ſhall neglect the performance thereof, by hiring himſelf to any other maſter, before he ſhall have completed the ſame, being convicted upon the oath or affirmation of one witneſs, before one juſtice where the offence ſhall be committed, ſhall be ſent to the houſe of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one month. ſ. 8.

If any perſon ſhall think himſelf aggrieved, by any judgment of the ſaid two juſtices, it ſhall be lawful for him to appeal to the juſtices of peace at their next general quarter ſeſſions (giving eight days notice of ſuch appeal to the perſon againſt whom it ſhall be brought); and ſuch juſtices, at their next general quarter ſeſſions, are finally to determine the appeal, and award to the party on whoſe behalf ſuch appeal is determined, reaſonable coſts; but no order made by the two juſtices ſhall be appealed from, or vacated for want of form only. ſ. 9.

No perſon ſhall ſuffer puniſhment twice for the ſame offence. ſ. 10.

The act 1 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 18. (ſee page 153) and this act ſhall extend to Scotland; and if any offence againſt this act be committed in Scotland, no warrant for poyndeing or diſtraining iſſued by any juſtice of peace, ſhall be ſtopped by any ſuſpenſion, ſiſt, or other proceſs, except an appeal entered to the quarter ſeſſions of the peace. ſ. 11.

Linen.

By 28 Hen. 8. c. 4. No perſon, Engliſh nor ſtranger, ſhall put to ſale any whole piece or half piece of Doulas or Lockeram, unleſs there be expreſſed upon the piece the number of yards or ells contained in ſuch piece, upon pain of forfeiture of the ſame, not containing the number of yards or ells mentioned upon the piece; one half of ſuch forfeiture to be to the king, and the other half to him that ſhall ſeize and will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, &c. ſ. 2.

By 1 Eliz. c. 12. If any perſon ſhall willingly uſe any means with linen cloth whereby the ſame ſhall be deceitful or worſe for uſe, the cloth ſhall be forfeited, and the offender puniſhed by one month's impriſonment, and ſhall pay ſuch fines as ſhall be aſſeſſed for his offence, by the juſtices before whom he ſhall be condemned. ſ. 1.

The juſtices of oyer and terminer, and juſtices of aſſizes, and juſtices of peace, or three of them, whereof one to be of the the quorum, ſhall have power to enquire, hear, and determine, the offences aforeſaid, in their ſeſſions, by information or indictment. ſ. 2.

If any perſon ſhall ſeize any ſuch deceitful linen cloth, he ſhall, at the next ſeſſions of the peace, or before two juſtices of peace, whereof one to be of the quorum, make information of the offence, and of the ſeizure of the cloth, or procure the offenders to be indicted; and ſhall be bound before the juſtices, to the uſe of the queen, in ſuch form as the juſtices ſhall think meet, to purſue the ſame matter with effect, and to give evidence, and alſo to pay the moiety of all that he ſhall recover, to the ſheriff or other accountant, to the uſe of the queen; the one half of all theſe forfeitures and fines to be to the queen, and the other moiety to him that ſhall make information, or procure indictments of the premiſes, and follow the ſame with effect. ſ. 3.

The juſtices before whom any ſuch matter ſhall be tried ſhall certify the ſame by their eſtreat, into the exchequer yearly at Michaelmas, and the barons of the exchequer ſhall have power to make proceſs for ſo much as ſhall appertain to the queen. ſ. 4.

By 22 Geo. 3. c. 60. If any perſon ſhall contract with, entice, perſuade, or endeavour to ſeduce or encourage, any artificer or workman concerned or employed, or who ſhall have worked at, or been employed in, printing callicoes, cottons, muſlins, or linens of any ſort, or in making or preparing any blocks, plates, engines, tools, or utenſils, for ſuch manufactory, to go out of Great Britain, to parts beyond the ſeas, and ſhall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in the king's bench at Weſtminſter, or by indictment at the aſſizes or general gaol delivery where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, or the offender ſhall reſide, or by indictment in the court of juſticiary, or circuit courts in Scotland; every perſon ſo convicted ſhall, for every artificer ſo contracted with, &c. forfeit 500 l. and ſhall be committed to the common gaol, for twelve months, and until ſuch forfeiture ſhall be paid; and in caſe of a ſubſequent offence of the ſame kind, the perſon ſo offending ſhall, upon the like conviction, forfeit for every perſon contracted with, &c. 1000 l. and ſhall be committed to the common gaol for two years, and until ſuch forfeiture ſhall be paid. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall be proſecuted for any of the offences aforeſaid, unleſs ſuch proſecution ſhall be commenced within twelve months after offence committed. ſ. 2.

By 27 Geo. 3. c. 38. Every perſon who ſhall invent, deſign, and print, or cauſe to be invented, &c. and become the proprietor of any new and original pattern for printing linens, cottons, callicoes, or muſlins, ſhall have the ſole right of printing and reprinting the ſame for two months, from the day of the firſt publiſhing thereof, which ſhall be truly printed with the name of the printer or proprietor at each end of every piece; and if any callicoe printer, linen draper, or other perſon whatſoever, ſhall print, work, or copy, ſuch original pattern, or cauſe to be printed, &c. or ſhall print or reprint any ſuch pattern, and ſhall publiſh, ſell, or expoſe to ſale, or in any other manner diſpoſe of, any linen, cotton, callicoe, or muſlin, ſo printed without the conſent of the proprietor thereof, firſt had in writing, ſigned by him in the preſence of two witneſſes, knowing the ſame to be ſo printed or reprinted without the conſent of the proprietor, ſuch proprietor ſhall, if the offence be committed in England, by a ſpecial action upon the caſe, recover damages, together with coſts; and if the offence be committed in Scotland, ſuch proprietor ſhall, by an action brought before the court of ſeſſion, or any judge competent to try civil cauſes, recover damages with full coſts; but any perſon who ſhall purchaſe any plate, or blocks, for printing, from the original proprietors, may print, reprint, and expoſe for ſale, from the ſaid plates or blocks, without being liable to any action on that account. ſ. 1.

Actions againſt perſons for any offence committed againſt this act, ſhall be brought within ſix months, and the defendant, if in England, may plead the general iſſue, and if a verdict ſhall be given for the defendant, &c. he ſhall have full coſts; and if ſuch action be brought in Scotland, and not inſiſted in, or if the defender be aſſoilzied, then the defender ſhall be entitled to full coſts. ſ. 2.

This act, by 29 Geo. 3. c. 19. ſhall continue in force until July 1, 1794.

No perſon ſhall make or work any felts or thrummed hats, or weave or make any coverlets or dornecks, within the city of Norwich or county of Norfolk, unleſs he be licenſed by the mayor, recorder, ſteward, and two juſtices of peace of the city, or four of them, or have been apprentice to the occupation ſeven years. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall make felts or hats, dornecks or coverlets, in any place of Norwich within Norfolk, but only in a corporate or market-town, upon pain of forfeiting, as well the felts, &c. as alſo 10*s.* for every half dozen of felts or hats, and 3*s.* 4*d.* for every coverlet, and 6*s.* 8*d.* for every ſix yards of dornecks, the one half to the king, and the other half to the perſon that ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame in the court of Guildhall of Norwich, or in any other the king's courts of record. ſ. 3.

Provided that ſuch perſons as ſhall dwell and exerciſe the myſtery of dornecks and coverlets making, within the pariſh of Pulham, may exerciſe the ſame as heretofore. ſ. 4.

If the mayor, recorder, ſteward, or juſtices of peace of the ſaid city, ſhall take reward for admitting of any perſon to uſe the myſteries aforeſaid, the perſon offending ſhall forfeit 5 l. one half to the king, and the other half to him that ſhall ſue. ſ. 5.

By 9 Geo. 1. c. 9. All makers of ſtuffs made of wool, or wherein there is any mixture of wool, and all makers of worſted into yarn (who are not journeymen or ſervants), maſter-weavers and maſter-wool-combers, and all perſons dealing or employing ſervants and journeymen in ſuch manufactures, living in Norwich, ſhall on their requeſt at any aſſembly of the corporation be made free of the city, paying not exceeding 5 l. ſ. 1.

If any perſon (except ſervants and apprentices) who ſhall be any ſuch manufacturer or dealer, &c. ſhall exerciſe any of the ſaid manufactures, not being made free, and being convicted on a proſecution commenced within ſix months after the fact, he ſhall forfeit 10 l. for every calendar month after the third quarterly aſſembly of the corporation, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. brought by the chamberlain for the uſe of the city. ſ. 2.

Sail Cloth.

By 1 Jac. 1. c. 24. No perſon within this realm ſhall make any cloth for ſails, called mildernix and powledavies, but but ſuch as ſhall be apprentices in the trade of making the ſaid cloths ſeven years; upon pain to forfeit 20*s.* for every month. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall make the ſaid cloths of any other ſtuff than of good hemp, nor of leſs length than 33 yards, nor of leſs breadth than three quarters; nor ſhall ſell or offer to ſell the ſaid cloths, before the ſtuff be well beaten, ſcoured, bleached, and the cloth well driven with a brazen or iron ſhuttle, upon pain to forfeit for every piece 5*s.* ſ. 4.

One moiety of the forfeitures ſhall be to the king, and the other moiety to ſuch as will ſue for the ſame in any of the king's courts. ſ. 5.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 10. made perpetual by 9 Ann. c. 21. So much Engliſh made ſail cloth, as ſhall be fit for the ſervice of his majeſty's navy, ſhall have the preference of foreign ſail-cloth. And the commiſſioners of the navy are required, during the continuance of this act, to contract for ſuch Engliſh ſail-cloth, and to allow the makers 2*d. per* yard above what they pay for foreign cloth of equal goodneſs. ſ. 14.

By 4 Geo. 2. c. 27. Every manufacturer of ſail-cloth ſhall affix at the end of every piece of ſuch ſail-cloth a ſtamp, containing the name and place of abode of ſuch manufacturer; and if any manufacturer ſhall expoſe to ſale any piece of ſail-cloth without being ſtampt, ſuch manufacturer, convicted upon oath of one witneſs before one juſtice of peace, ſhall forfeit 5*l.* for every piece; and if any perſon ſhall wilfully or maliciouſly cut off or obliterate any ſtamp ſo affixed, or ſhall affix any ſtamp on which ſhall be marked the name and place of abode of any other perſon, ſuch perſon being convicted ſhall forfeit 10*l.* both which forfeitures ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of two juſtices of the peace, to the uſe of the informer. ſ. 8.

By 9 Geo. 2. c. 37. Every maker of ſail-cloth ſhall affix on every piece by him made a ſtamp, containing the name and place of abode of ſuch maker, in words at length; and if any perſon ſhall expoſe to ſale, or work up into ſails, any piece of Britiſh ſail-cloth without being ſtamped, ſuch perſon being convicted upon oath of one witneſs before one juſtice of the peace, ſhall forfeit 10*l.* for every piece; and if any perſon ſhall wilfully or maliciouſly cut off or obliterate any ſtamp ſo affixed (except in tarring or working up the ſame) or ſhall affix any ſtamp on which ſhall be the name or place of abode of any other perſon, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 5*l.* which ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of two juſtices of peace, and ſhall go to the informer. ſ. 3.

Every ſhip which ſhall be built in Great Britain, and every ſhip built in his majeſty's plantations in America, ſhall, upon her firſt ſetting out, have one complete ſet of ſails made of cloth manufactured in Great Britain; and in caſe ſuch ſhip ſhall not be fitted as aforeſaid, the maſter ſhall forfeit 50*l.* ſ. 4. See 19 Geo. 2. & 17. ſ. 11. poſt.

No perſon ſhall make into ſails or tarpawlins, any foreign ſail-cloth imported after the 24th of June 1731, not ſtamped; and in caſe any perſon ſhall make up foreign ſail-cloth other than as aforeſaid, ſuch ſails and tarpawlins ſhall be forfeited, and ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 20*l.* ſ. 5.

All ſail-cloth made in Great Britain, ſhall be made in manner herein mentioned, viz. every piece or bolt of Britiſh ſail-cloth, twenty-four inches in breadth, and thirty-eight yards in length, ſhall weigh according to the numbers and weights hereafter mentioned. ſ. 6.

In caſe any bolt of Britiſh ſail-cloth ſhall be made of a different breadth or length, ſuch bolt ſhall be in weight in proportion, and ſhall be marked with ſuch number as ſhall be agreeable to the weight; and the warp or chain of the firſt ſix numbers ſhall be wholly of double yarn, and ſhall contain in every bolt, that ſhall be 24 inches in breadth, 560 double threads, and in every bolt 30 inches in breadth, 700 double threads, and in every bolt of any other breadths in proportion; and the warp and ſhoot-yarn in every bolt of the firſt four numbers ſhall be of long flax, without any mixture of ſhort or bar-flax, or of long flax, or Italian hemp or Braack hemp; and all the flax and hemp that ſhall be uſed in making the warp and ſhoot-yarn of ſuch ſail-cloth, of the ſaid four numbers, ſhall be of a ſtrong ſtaple, good in its kind and well dreſſed, and the yarn ſhall be well cleanſed, even ſpun, and well twiſted; and all the ſhoot-yarn of each bolt of the ſaid four numbers ſhall be as ſtrong as the warp-yarn, and cloſe ſtruck, with four ſhoots of treble threads at the diſtance of every two feet; and both the warp and ſhoot-yarn ſhall be as ſtrong as the warp and ſhoot-yarn that are uſually wrought in the ſaid ſail-cloth of thoſe four numbers, that are made for his majeſty's navy; and no flax-yarn wrought in Britiſh ſail-cloth ſhall be whitened with lime, on forfeiture of 6*d. per* yard, or be worked up into new ſails in Great Britain, any ways eſſentially different, or inferior to the aforeſaid directions. ſ. 7.

Every maker ſhall cauſe this act, or an abſtract thereof, to be put up in ſome public part of the loft or work-houſe, where his trade is carried on, under the penalty of 40*s.* ſ. 8.

The forfeitures herein impoſed ſhall be recovered in any of his majeſty's courts in Great Britain, or in ſuch of his majeſty's plantations wherein ſuch offence ſhall be committed; which forfeitures ſhall be one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall continue, by 26 Geo. 3. c. 53. ſ. 3. to 29 Sept. 1792, &c.

By 19 Geo. 2. c. 17. continued until 24 June 1795, &c. by 29 Geo. 3. c. 55. ſ. 6. No perſon in Great Britain or America ſhall work up into ſails or tarpawlins, any foreign made ſail cloth, or canvas not ſtamped according to this act (ſee general title, "Importation," &c.); and in caſe any ſhall work up into ſails or tarpawlins, any foreign ſail-cloth or canvas other than as aforeſaid, ſuch ſails and tarpawlins ſhall be forfeited; and every perſon ſo offending, and convicted upon the oath of one witneſs before a juſtice of peace for the county or place where the offence is committed, ſhall forfeit 50*l.* for every ſail or tarpawlin by him ſo made, not being ſtamped as aforeſaid; which penalty ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods by warrant of two juſtices, and ſhall go to the uſe of the informer; and for want of ſuch diſtreſs, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch juſtice by warrant to commit ſuch perſon to the gaol of the county or place where ſuch offence was committed, mitted, for ſix months, or until he pays the penalty. ſ. 7.

Every perſon who ſhall make up into ſails any foreign-made ſail-cloth or canvas, ſhall place the ſtamps impreſſed on ſuch foreign ſail-cloth or canvas, in the moſt conſpicuous part of ſuch ſails, viz. on the after ſide of ſuch ſails, and in ſuch manner, that the number of ſtamps may appear proportionably to the number of bolts or pieces in the ſail; and in caſe any perſon make up any foreign-made ſail cloth or canvas in any other manner, ſuch ſails ſhall be forfeited, and the offender ſhall for every offence forfeit 10*l.* ſ. 8.

No perſon ſhall alter or mend any ſail made of foreign-made ſail-cloth or canvas not ſtamped; and in caſe any perſon ſhall alter or mend any ſail not ſtamped, he ſhall for every ſail ſo altered or mended forfeit 20*l.* ſ. 9.

Every ſail-maker in Great Britain and America ſhall affix on every new ſail a ſtamp of eight inches diameter, containing the name and place of abode of ſuch ſail-maker; which ſtamp, to make the impreſſion durable, ſhall be dipped in a liquor made with lamp black mixed with linſeed oil boiled; and in caſe any perſon make any new ſail and deliver the ſame not ſtampt with his name and place of abode as aforeſaid, every ſuch ſail ſhall be forfeited, and he ſhall for every ſail ſo delivered not ſtamped forfeit 10*l.* ſ. 10.

As doubts have ariſen about the meaning of 9 Geo. 2. c. 37. ſ. 4. Every ſhip built in Great Britain, and every ſhip built in his majeſty's plantations in America, ſhall upon her being firſt navigated be furniſhed with one complete ſet of new ſails bona fide belonging to ſuch ſhip, made of ſail-cloth manufactured in Great Britain; and in caſe ſuch ſhip ſhall not be ſo furniſhed the maſter ſhall forfeit 50*l.* ſ. 11.

The penalties herein impoſed (not otherwiſe directed and applied) ſhall be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any court of record in Great Britain, or in ſuch of the plantations wherein ſuch offence ſhall be committed; in which ſuit no eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed; which forfeitures ſhall be applied one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 12.

Silk.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 15. No perſon ſhall uſe the art or myſtery of a ſilk-thrower, unleſs ſuch as ſhall be apprentices to the ſaid trade, or ſhall have ſerved ſeven years apprenticeſhip thereunto; upon pain that every perſon offending ſhall forfeit 40*s.* for every month he ſhall uſe the trade, one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to ſuch as ſhall ſue for the ſame in any court of record, or before any juſtices of oyer and terminer, or the juſtices of peace at their quarter-ſeſſions, by action of debt, &c.

Every ſilk-winder and doubler who ſhall embezzle, pawn, ſell or detain, any ſilk delivered to them to wind or double, as well the winder or journeyman offending, as the receivers of ſuch ſilk, being thereof convicted by confeſſion, or by one witneſs upon oath, before one juſtice of peace, or before the mayor or chief officer of a city or town corporate, they are impowered finally to hear and determine the offences aforeſaid, and to give the parties grieved ſuch ſatisfaction for their damage and charges, as by the juſtices or chief officers ſhall be ordered. ſ. 6.

Provided that no more damage be awarded than the party grieved ſhall prove he is damnified, and hath expended in looking after the ſame; and if the party offending ſhall not make ſatisfaction within fourteen days after conviction, for the firſt offence he ſhall be whipped, or ſet in the ſtocks, in the place where the offence is committed, or in ſome market-town in the county near the place; and for the ſecond offence incur ſuch further puniſhment by whipping, or being put in the ſtocks, as the juſtices or chief officers ſhall think fit. ſ. 7.

Every receiver of any ſilk purloined contrary to this act ſhall make ſatisfaction within the time aforeſaid, or be ſubject to like puniſhment as the perſon purloining ſuch ſilk. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for any freeman of the ſaid company to ſet on work any perſons being native ſubjects to his majeſty, and no others, to turn the mill, tie threads, double ſilk, and wind ſilk, as formerly. ſ. 9.

The ſaid corporation of ſilk-throwers ſhall not make any by-laws to ſet prices upon the throwing of ſilk to bind their members to work at. ſ. 10.

By 20 Car. 2. c. 6. If any ſilk-winder or doubler ſhall be found faulty in embezzling, pawning, ſelling or detaining, any ſilk committed to his truſt, any juſtice of peace, mayor or chief officer, of any county, liberty or corporation, ſhall upon conviction by confeſſion of the party, or upon the oath of one witneſs, commit to priſon or to the houſe of correction the offender, till ſatisfaction be given to the party wronged, or puniſhment inflicted, as by 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 15. ſ. 3.

Thread.

By 28 Geo. 3. c. 17. The reel uſed in reeling or making up ounce or nun's thread, ſhall be one yard, or thirty-ſix inches in circumference; and ſuch perſon who ſhall uſe, in reeling or making up ounce or nun's thread, any leſs reels, and ſhall be convicted thereof, ſhall forfeit the reels uſed, which ſhall be broken, burnt, and deſtroyed, and ſhall alſo pay for ſuch offence, to the perſon who ſhall inform, 5*l.* ſ. 1.

All ounce or nun's thread manufactured in Great Britain, ſhall be made up in hanks, ounces, quarters, and pounds, avoirdupois, each hank containing thirty threads or rounds of the ſaid reel, of the ſame quality and fineneſs; and each ounce containing a particular number of ſuch hanks entire, of the ſame quality and fineneſs, and no fractions or broken parts of a hank; and each quarter containing four ſuch ounces, of the ſame quality and fineneſs; and each pound containing four ſuch quarters, of the ſame quality and fineneſs; and the cover of each pound or ſmaller package of ſuch thread, ſhall be marked with a ſtamp, aſcertaining the contents of ſuch package to be ounce thread, and ſpecifying the number of hanks in each ounce, and expreſſing the manufacturer's name and abode: and no perſon whatſoever ſhall reel or make up any ſuch thread in any other manner than as aforeſaid, or ſell or expoſe to ſale any ounce thread manufactured in Great Britain, but ſuch as is reeled, made up, and ſtamped in manner aforeſaid; and ſuch perſon who ſhall reel or make up ſuch thread in another manner, or who ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, ſuch thread ſo reeled or made up in another manner, knowing the ſame to be improperly reeled, ſhall forfeit to the perſon who ſhall inform, the thread, and 10*l.* for each pound. ſ. 2.

Perſons who ſhall imitate or counterfeit the mark or ſtamp uſed by any manufacturer, to make the thread therewith ſtamped paſs for the manufacture of the perſon whoſe ſtamp is counterfeited, or who ſhall mark any thread with a ſtamp ſo counterfeited, or who ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, any thread ſo marked with a counterfeit ſtamp, knowingly, ſhall forfeit all ſuch ſtamps, to be broken and deſtroyed, and alſo to the perſon whoſe ſtamp is counterfeited the thread ſo ſtamped, and the ſum of 10 l. ſ. 3.

Two juſtices may hear and determine all offences againſt this act; and ſuch juſtices are on information or complaint in writing to ſummon the party accuſed, and alſo the witneſſes on either ſide, and to examine into the matter, and upon proof made thereof, either by the voluntary confeſſion, or by examination of the party accuſed, or by the oath of two witneſſes, to give judgment for the forfeitures and penalties by this act directed, and to iſſue their warrant for carrying ſuch ſentences into execution, and for levying the penalties by diſtreſs and ſale (if not redeemed within ten days) of the offender's goods, rendering the overplus, if any, after deducting charge of diſtreſs and ſale, to the owner; and in caſe goods cannot be found ſufficient for payment of the penalties, then to commit the offender to gaol for three months, unleſs ſuch penalties be ſooner paid; and any perſon aggrieved by the judgment of any ſuch juſtices, may, upon giving ſecurity to make good the ſentence, and to pay ſuch coſts as ſhall be ordered in caſe ſuch judgment ſhall be affirmed, appeal to the next general quarter-ſeſſions, who are to ſummon and examine witneſſes upon oath, and finally to determine the ſame; and in caſe the judgment ſhall be affirmed, ſuch juſtices may order the appellant to pay coſts occaſioned by ſuch appeal. ſ. 4.

The ſaid juſtices, and alſo the ſeſſions, may mitigate the penalties, but not below one half, and the full coſts of proſecution. ſ. 5.

If any perſon ſummoned as a witneſs before ſuch juſtices, either on the part of the proſecutor, or the perſon accuſed, ſhall not appear at the time and place appointed, without a reaſonable excuſe, to be allowed by ſuch juſtices, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit to the proſecutor 5 l. to be levied as other penalties, beſides being liable to be compelled to appear and give evidence by another ſummons, under the like penalty. ſ. 6.

When any thread ſhall be ſeized in purſuance of this act, and it ſhall be alledged to be foreign manufacture, the onus probandi ſhall lie upon the owner of ſuch thread; and if he fail in ſuch proof, the thread ſeized ſhall be forfeited, and the owner liable to the penalty. ſ. 7.

Woollen.

By 11 Edw. 3. c. 5. The cloth-workers of ſtrange lands which will come into England, Ireland, Wales and Scotland, within the king's power, ſhall come ſafely, and ſhall be in the king's protection and ſafe conduct. And the king will grant them franchiſes.

By 18 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 3. Every man, as well ſtranger as privy, may buy wools. And the ſea ſhall be open to all merchants, to paſs with their merchandize where it ſhall pleaſe them.

By 27 Edw. 3. ſtat. 1. c. 4. There ſhall be no cloths forfeited although they be not of aſſiſe; but of as much as the cloth which is bought for cloth of aſſiſe ſhall be found to be leſs than the aſſiſe, viz. cloth of ray 28 yards long and ſix quarters broad, and coloured cloth 26 yards long and 6 quarters and a half broad, allowance ſhall be made to the buyer.

By 31 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. c. 3. Proclamation ſhall be made, that no merchant do covin to abate the price of wool, upon a grievous forfeiture; and if any do againſt the ſame after the proclamation, the king ſhall aſſign juſtice to inquire at the ſuit of the party of all that do ſuch covin, and to hear and determine for the king and for the party. And certain balances and weights of ſack, half ſack and quarter, pound, half pound and quarter, according to the ſtandard of the exchequer, ſhall be ſent to all ſheriffs, and they ſhall make proclamation, that every man that will have ſuch balances and weights ſhall come to the ſheriff to make their balances and weights according to the ſtandard, without any thing giving to the ſheriff for aſſay of the ſaid balances and weights, and none ſhall ſell nor buy by other weight; and if any do againſt the ſame, he ſhall be puniſhed by fine at the king's will.

By 34 Edw. 3. c. 19. The canvas in which wool is packed, with the corners, ſhall be allowed without cuſtom.

By 36 Edw. 3. c. 11. Confirmed by 45 Edw. 3. c. 4. Nothing ſhall be demanded of the commons but only the ancient cuſtom of half a mark, and no ſubſidy nor charge ſhall be ſet upon wools by the merchants nor other without the aſſent of parliament.

By 50 Edw. 3. c. 7. No woollen cloths ſhall be carried out of England before they be fulled.

By 13 Ric. 2. c. 11. No plain cloth tacked nor folded ſhall be ſet to ſale within Somerſet, Dorſet, Briſtow and Glouceſter, upon pain to forfeit them; and the workers ſhall put their ſeals to every cloth: provided that after the merchants have bought cloths, they may fold them for carriage.

By 17 Ric. 2. c. 2. Every man may make and ſell cloths of ſuch length and breadth as him pleaſe; and no man ſhall make deceit in cloths of kerſeys, upon pain of forfeiture of the ſame.

By 8 Hen. 6. c. 22. No ſtranger ſhall cauſe to be forced, clacked nor barded, any wools to carry them out of the realm, upon pain of forfeiture of the wools with the double value, and impriſonment. And no woolpacker ſhall make but good and due packing. And no man ſhall make within the fleece at the winding of his wools, nor put in the ſame, locks, peltwool, tar, ſand, earth, glaſs nor dirt; and if any do, he that is grieved ſhall have his action of treſpaſs and deceit.

By 4 Edw. 4. c. 1. Every whole broad cloth ſet to ſale, after watering and tentering, ſhall contain in length 24 yards, and to every yard an inch, to be meaſured by the creſt of the cloth; and in breadth 7 quarters at leaſt within the liſt; and if the cloth be longer, the buyer ſhall pay for as much as doth exceed ſuch meaſure. ſ. 1.

Every kerſey put to ſale, after the watering and tentering, ſhall contain in length 18 yards and their inches, and in breadth one yard and a nail, or at leaſt one yard, within the liſt. ſ. 3.

Every half cloth ſhall keep his meaſure after the rate. And no perſon which ſhall make woollen cloth to ſell, ſhall put in the cloth any lamb's wool, flocks or cork; upon pain to forfeit 20 s. for every cloth or half cloth wherein ſuch lamb's wool, &c. ſhall be put; the one half to the king, and the other half to him that ſhall ſeize the cloth: except he ſhall make of lamb's wool by itſelf without mingling with other wool; except alſo that cork may be uſed in dying upon woaded wool, and in dying of cloth made of woaded wool, ſo that the wool and cloth be perfectly boiled and maddered; except alſo that cork may be put upon cloth perfectly boiled and maddered. ſ. 4.

Every of the ſaid cloths and demy cloths ſhall follow one order of workmanſhip, from one end to the other: alſo cloth-makers ſhall pay to the carders, ſpiniſters, and all other labourers, money for their wages; and deliver wools to be wrought according to the due weight; upon pain pain of forfeiture to the labourer the treble of his wages not paid; and alſo to forfeit to the labourer for every delivery of exceſſive weight to be wrought, 6*d.* for every default. ſ. 5.

Every carder, ſpiniſter, weaver, fuller, ſheerman and dyer, ſhall duly do his labour; upon pain to yield to the party grieved double damages; and every fuller in fulling, rowing or taſeling of cloth, ſhall exerciſe taſels and no cards; upon pain to yield to the party grieved double damages. And every juſtice of peace out of cities and towns where any mayor, maſter, warden or bailiffs be, and every mayor where there is no maſter, and every maſter where there is no mayor, and every bailiff where there is no mayor nor maſter, and every portreve where no mayor, maſter or bailiff is, and every conſtable of hundred, and every ſteward keeping wapentake or leet out of city or borough, ſhall have power to hear and determine the complaints of every ſuch cloth-maker and labourer, by examination of parties, and to commit the offenders to the next gaol within the county till the duties, forfeitures and damages be paid. And the ſaid juſtices of peace, mayor, maſter, warden, bailiff, portreve and ſteward, upon information of any other perſon which is not grieved, ſhall have power within his juriſdiction to cauſe the party to come before him, and to examine them. And if the party by examination or due proof be found guilty, he ſhall forfeit to the king, or to ſuch perſons which be intitled to have fines or amercements, 3*s.* 4*d.* And the juſtices of peace, and other officers, ſhall have power to make like proceſs againſt the party, to cauſe him to appear to be examined, as juſtices of peace have upon information made for ſurety of peace, without any fee to be taken. ſ. 6.

All woollen cloths made in any other region, brought into England and ſet to ſale, ſhall be forfeited to the king, except cloths made in Wales and Ireland, and cloths taken by any of the king's people upon the ſea. ſ. 7. See the general title, IMPORTATION, &c. in Part I.

By 7 Edw. 4. c. 1. The worſted-makers in Norwich ſhall have power every year the Monday after Pentecoſt to chuſe four wardens; and the artificers of the ſame craft out of the city within the county of Norfolk ſhall have power every year at the ſame day to chuſe four wardens; the ſaid wardens to come before the mayor of the ſaid city, upon the Monday after Corpus Chriſti, to be ſworn before the mayor and the ſteward of the duchy, within the ſaid county, if preſent; and the ſaid wardens, or the greateſt part of them, ſhall have power for the year following, to ſurvey the workmanſhips of the artificers, and to ordain ſuch rules and ordinances as ſhall ſeem neceſſary for the amendment of the worſteds; ſuch rules to be obeyed by the artificers. ſ. 1.

Four of the wardens, calling to them ſix of the artificers within the city, and ſix within the county, by the diſcretion of the mayor and ſteward, or one of them, ſhall puniſh the artificers which do contrary to any of their rules. And every piece of worſted ſhall be through the piece of lawful making, and ſhall hold the length and breadth as the aſſiſe, viz. beds of the greateſt aſſiſe, 14 yards in length, and four in breadth; and beds of the mean aſſiſe, 12 yards in length, and three in breadth; and beds of the leaſt aſſiſe, ten yards in length, and five quarters in breadth; and monks cloths, of the one aſſiſe ſix yards in length and two in breadth, and of the other aſſiſe five yards in length and ſeven quarters in breadth; and double motlies ſeven yards in length, and five quarters in breadth; and ſingle motlies ſix yards in length, and five quarters in breadth; and double worſted ten yards in length, and five quarters in breadth; and half double worſted ſix yards in length, and five quarters in breadth; and the roll of worſted thirty yards in length, and half a yard in breadth; and no lambs wool ſhall be put in the worſteds. And the wardens of the craft, and every of them, ſhall have power to ſeize all ſuch cloths and ſtuff being defective; and the mayor and ſteward, and every of them, by twelve of the artificers of the city and county, ſhall have power to inquire, hear and determine of all ſuch as do againſt the ſaid ordinances. ſ. 2.

The mayor and ſteward, or one of them, ſhall call before him the twelve artificers, and charge them to be ſworn to make rightful ſearch, as well in the ſtuff as in the working by the ſaid eight wardens to be wrought. ſ. 3.

The wardens ſo found defective, or in execution of their office in ſearch of other artificers, or in their own ſtuff, ſhall be corrected by the mayor or ſteward; and the wardens in the city of Norwich, and in the counties of Norfolk, Suffolk and Cambridge, ſhall have power to ſearch all worſteds, as well in the looms as out of the looms, wrought within the city of Norwich, or county of Norfolk. ſ. 4.

If any man before the mayor and ſteward be found defective, he ſhall be corrected, and the ſtuff found defective ſhall be forfeited; the one half of ſuch forfeiture in the ſaid city to be to the mayor, and in any other place to the mayor or bailiffs of the cities and towns, or the chief lords of the fee, and the other half to the wardens; and no man ſhall make any worſted, unleſs he put his mark upon the ſame, or elſe the worſted to be forfeited to the king. ſ. 5.

The eight wardens, the Monday after Corpus Chriſti yearly, ſhall aſſign a place or two within the city, and certain days by the week; and another place or more in the county of Norfolk, and certain days by the week, to the intent that every piece of worſted be brought before the wardens to one of the ſaid places; and if the wardens find the worſteds well made, a mark ſhall be ſet by the wardens, without fee; and ſuch as they find defective, the mayor and ſteward of the duchy, or one of them, by the aſſent of the wardens and twelve artificers, ſhall have power to ſet ſuch correction as ſhall ſeem reaſonable. And for every piece of worſted ſold not marked, the firſt ſeller ſhall forfeit the price of the piece to the king. ſ. 6.

All mayors and other officers ſhall be attending to the wardens in their ſearch, as often as reaſonably required. ſ. 7.

By 7 Edw. 4. c. 2. The inhabitants in the three hundreds (Leſtome, Taveſtock and Rowburgh in Devon) may make all manner of woollen cloth, and to the ſame put ſuch quantity of flocks as ſhall be profitable. And all the cloths to be made with flocks within the ſaid three hundreds may be ſold without forfeiting.

By 7 Edw. 4. c. 3. No perſon ſhall carry into parts beyond the ſea any woollen yarn or cloth not fulled. And all cloth ſhall be fulled and fully wrought within the realm before it be carried out; upon pain of forfeiture of the value of all ſuch yarn unwoven and cloth not fulled; the one half to the king, and the other half to him that maketh proof of ſuch unwoven yarn or cloth not fulled carried beyond the ſea.

By 1 Ric. 3. c. 8. No perſon ſhall put to ſale any broad cloths, unleſs the ſame be fully watered. ſ. 1.

Every whole cloth and broad cloth, after it be fully watered, ſhall contain in length 24 yards, and to every yard an inch, to be meaſured by the creſt of the cloth, and ſhall contain in breadth two yards within the liſts. ſ. 2.

Every half cloth, after his full watering, ſhall contain 12 yards in length with the inches, and two yards in breadth within the liſts; ſo that the half cloth do not exceed 16 yards; upon pain of cutting the whole cloth in three pieces, and the half cloth in two pieces; and alſo to loſe for every whole cloth 6 s. 8 d. and for every half cloth 3 s. 4 d.; and if the whole cloth be longer than 24 yards and the inches, and the half cloth longer than 12 yards with the inches, the buyer ſhall pay for as much as it doth exceed, ſo that the half cloth do not paſs 16 yards. ſ. 3.

Every kerſey, after the full watering, ſhall contain in length 11 yards and the inches, and in breadth one yard and a nail within the liſts; upon pain of cutting the kerſey in two, and to loſe 3 s. 4 d.; the ſaid forfeitures to run upon the ſellers: and every the ſaid cloths ſhall be duly made throughout. ſ. 5.

No perſon ſhall ſet nor draw in length or breadth any woollen cloth after it be fully watered, by tentering or otherwiſe; upon pain to forfeit the cloth. ſ. 7.

No man ſhall ſet, caſt or put upon any cloth, any flocks or other like deceitful thing; upon pain of 40 s. for every cloth. ſ. 8.

No perſon ſhall ſet or caſt upon any white cloth or kerſey any chalk, upon like pain. ſ. 9.

Alſo, no ſheerman or other ſhall ſheer nor cancel any cloths, except ſuch cloth be before fully watered; upon pain to forfeit 40 s. for every cloth. ſ. 10.

No perſon ſhall ſend any woollen cloth over the ſea, unleſs the ſame be fully watered; and after the ſame be watered, it ſhall in no wiſe be ſet nor drawn in length nor breadth; upon pain of 40 s. for every cloth. ſ. 11.

No perſon ſhall retale any woollen cloth, lining nor other, except it be fully watered; and after it be watered, it ſhall in no wiſe be ſet nor drawn in length or breadth; upon pain to forfeit the cloth or the value. The ſame pain to run upon the ſeller of ſuch cloths. ſ. 12.

No perſon ſhall keep any tenter, or any other thing in his houſe, whereby woollen cloths may be drawn out in length or breadth; upon pain to forfeit 20 l.; but all tenters uſed for due ſtretching of cloth after it cometh from the mill, and before it be rowen, ſhall be ſet in open places. And every mayor of London, and all other mayors, bailiffs and governors of cities, towns and villages, ſhall diligently ſurvey, that all cloths put upon tenters ſhall not be drawn out in length and breadth, otherwiſe than before rehearſed. ſ. 13.

No perſon ſhall dye woollen cloth with orchel or cork called jarrock; upon pain to forfeit 40 s. for every cloth. Nor no perſon ſhall put to ſale any ſuch cloth dyed with orchel or cork called jarrock; upon pain of forfeiture of ſuch cloth. Theſe pains to run upon the ſeller, except that cork made within England may be uſed in dying upon woolwards, and in dying of cloth made only of woolwards, ſo that the ſame wool and cloth be perfectly boiled and maddered. ſ. 15.

Cork made within this realm may be put upon cloth that is perfectly boiled and maddered. Alſo, no dyer ſhall dye any cloth, except he dye the cloth and the liſt with one colour, without tacking any bulruſhes or ſuch like thing upon the liſts; upon pain to forfeit 40 s. for every cloth. And no perſon ſhall put to ſale any cloth deceitfully dyed; upon pain to forfeit the cloth or the value. The ſame forfeiture always to run upon the ſeller. ſ. 16.

If any happen to ſeize woollen cloth, otherwiſe made or dyed than aforeſaid, he ſhall bring the ſame before the mayor, bailiffs, or other governor, of the cities, towns or villages, where ſuch ſeizing ſhall be made, to judge by the diſcretion of the mayor, &c. calling to him ſuch perſons as ſhall ſeem convenient, whether the cloth be otherwiſe made, wrought or dyed, than according with the acts. And if it be judged that the cloth is made or dyed contrary to the acts, the cloths ſhall be cut in three pieces in preſence of the mayor, &c. to the uſe of the commonalty. The one half of all the other penalties to be to the king, and the other half to the king's ſubjects that ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame. ſ. 17.

This act ſhall not extend to the making of any woollen cloth called ray, nor to any cloth made in Wincheſter or Saliſbury, uſed to be joined with ray; the cloth whereof commonly uſed to be ſold at 40 s. or within; nor to the making of any cloth called verviſe, otherwiſe plonkets, turkins or celeſtrins, with broad liſts; nor packing whites nor veſſes, cogware or worſteds; nor Florences with cremil liſts; nor to cloths called baſtards; nor Kendals; nor to cloths called ſailing ware, with cremil liſts, broad liſts or ſmall liſts; nor to friſe ware. ſ. 18.

So that the ſame cloths for the king's honour and profit of this realm be truly made. ſ. 19.

By 3 Hen. 7. c. 11. No ſtranger nor denizen ſhall carry out of this realm any woollen cloths, but they before be barbed, rowed and ſhorn, within this realm, for the ſetting on work of the poor commons; upon pain of the forfeiture limited in the ſtatute 7 Edw. 4. c. 3. Provided that cloths called veſſes, rays, ſailing cloths, and all other cloths ſold at 40 s. or under, be not compriſed in this act. ſ. 2.

By 12 Hen. 7. c. 1. Every perſon of the occupation of making of worſteds, ſays, and ſtamins, in the county of Norfolk, which the four wardens of the ſaid occupation within the ſaid county ſhall enable to keep a prentice, ſhall be at liberty to keep apprentices any perſons put to the ſaid occupation, ſo that he paſs not two at once.

By 3 Hen. 8. c. 7. Cloths called veſſes, rays, ſailing cloths, and other cloths commonly ſold at four marks or under, ſhall not be compriſed in any of the acts, but may be carried out of this realm, not barbed, rowed nor ſhorn. ſ. 2.

And no perſon ſhall uſe mark on his cloths, ſuch as any other hath uſed before; upon pain of forfeiture of the cloths, the one half to the king, and the other half to him that ſeizeth the cloths.

By 5 Hen. 8. c. 4. Made perpetual 25 Hen. 8. c. 5. No perſon ſhall dry calander any worſted, upon pain to forfeit for every worſted 100 s. No perſon ſhall wet calander any worſteds, but only ſuch as have been bound apprentices to perſons of the ſame craft ſeven years, or approved and admitted by the mayor of Norwich, and the two maſters of the craft within the ſaid city, or in the county of Norfolk, of the craft of wet calandring; upon pain to forfeit for every piece ſo calandred 100 s. one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to the maſters of the ſaid occupation; and it ſhall be lawful to the maſters to ſue for the one moiety by writ at the common law, or by bill, or plaint, after the cuſtom of ſuch city, port or town, where ſhall happen any ſuch forfeiture, or by information in the exchequer. ſ. 2.

By 6 Hen. 8. c. 8. No perſon ſhall make any white ſtraits, nor ruſſet ſtraits, without that they (being raw) be of the breadth and length in 5 Hen. 8. c. 2. and marked, and ſo being raw to weigh 14 lb. at leaſt; upon pain of forfeiture of the cloths, the one half to the king, and the other half to him that ſeizeth the ſame.

By

By 6 Hen. 8. c. 9. The wool which ſhall be delivered by the clothier, for breaking, kembing, carding or ſpinning, ſhall be by even weight of avoirdupois, ſealed by authority, not exceeding in weight after the rate of 12 lb. of ſeimed wool, above one quarter of a pound for waſte. And the breaker or kember ſhall deliver again to the clothier the ſame wool ſo broken and kembed; and the carder and ſpinner ſhall deliver again to the clothier yarn of the ſame wool by the ſame weight (the waſte excepted) without more oil, water, or other thing put thereunto deceivably; upon pain to forfeit to the lord of the leet 12 l. upon proof of ſuch deceit, by diſcretion of the mayor, bailiff, or other head officer of the city or town where the deceit ſhall appear; the ſame mayor, &c. calling to him ſuch perſons as ſhall ſeem convenient. ſ. 1.

The weaver ſhall work into the web all the ſame yarn as the clothier ſhall deliver to the weaver with his uſed mark, and reſtore the ſurplus if any be, and without any more oil, brine, moiſture, duſt, ſand, or other thing, deceivably putting to the web; upon pain to forfeit 3 s. 4 d. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall buy any coloured wool or coloured yarn of any carder, ſpinner or weaver, but only in open market; upon pain of forfeiture of ſuch wool and yarn. ſ. 3.

The walker and fuller ſhall truly walk, full, thick and work every web of woollen yarn, without any flocks or other deceit; and ſhall not row nor work any cloth or web with cards; upon pain to forfeit 6 s. 8 d. ſ. 4.

The clothier ſhall not put any cloth to ſale, which when it ſhall be full wet, ſhall ſhrink more than one yard in the length, and one quarter of a yard in the breadth; and cloths called narrows or ſtraits after the rate; upon pain to forfeit for every cloth 6 s. 8 d. and beſide to deduct of his price after the rate. ſ. 5.

The buyer of woollen cloths ſhall not draw in length, nor ſtrain in breadth the ſame cloths, by tenter or wrinch, or other means; upon pain of forfeiture for every cloth 5 l. ſ. 6.

Provided that if ſuch buyer of woollen cloths, for proof cauſe the ſame to be wet, he may draw and ſtrain them for evening of them only, ſo that he exceed not one yard in length more than it ſhall be when full wet. ſ. 7.

No perſon ſhall work upon woollen cloths, flocks or other deceivable thing; upon pain to forfeit for every cloth, 20 s. ſ. 8.

No perſon ſhall buy or ſell woollen cloths by other meaſure than after the true content thereof, to be meaſured by the yard, adding to every yard one inch; upon pain to forfeit for every cloth 100 s. the one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to the perſon which ſhall ſue, &c. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall not extend to Kendals nor carpenel whites, made for lining for hoſen, nor to Taveſtokes made in Devonſhire, nor to cloth made in Cornwall, nor for cottons or plain lining, or frieſe made in Wales, Lancaſhire and Cheſhire. ſ. 10.

By 14 Hen. 8. c. 11. Cloths called veſſes, otherwiſe ſet cloths, not being above the value of 40 s. a cloth, ſhall not be forfeited for that they lack in length and breadth when they be wet, after ſale; the act 6 Hen. 8. c. 9. notwithſtanding. ſ. 5.

By 14 & 15 Hen. 8. c. 3. The worſted weavers in Great Yarmouth ſhall have power to elect yearly for ever, in the Monday after Pentecoſt, one of the ſame myſtery, being an houſholder in the town, and having goods to the value of 10 l. or lands of freehold to the yearly value of 20 s. to be warden of the ſame craft; which man ſo elected ſhall appear before the mayor of Norwich, the Monday after Corpus Chriſti to be ſworn as the four wardens of Norwich, by virtue of 7 Edw. 4. c. 1. And if the mayor be abſent, the warden elect, within four days after, ſhall come before the bailiffs of Yarmouth, and receive an oath for the true exerciſing of the office. ſ. 1.

The ſaid warden of Yarmouth may appoint a ſeal, with this letter Y. and ſearch and ſeal in lead all worſteds, ſays, and ſtamins, within the ſaid town made, as the wardens of Norwich and the wardens of the county of Norfolk do. ſ. 2.

No perſon in Yarmouth ſhall weave any worſteds, ſays, or ſtamins, within the town, except he be an Engliſhman born, and have been apprentice to the occupation, and without he weave there ſuch mark as ſhall be appointed by the warden, upon pain of forfeiture thereof to the king; and every warden of the ſaid town ſhall limit marks to every worſted weaver; the ſame marks by the warden to be regiſtered. ſ. 3.

Whenſoever the town of Lynn ſhall be inhabited with ten houſholders or more, uſing the craft of worſted weavers, it ſhall be lawful to the ſame inhabitants yearly on the Monday after Pentecoſt, to elect one warden of the ſaid craft of the value aforeſaid, who ſhall be ſworn at Norwich; or in default of the mayor of Norwich, before the mayor of Lynn, as before; and the ſaid warden of Lynn may ſeal with this letter L. and ſearch, ſeize, and ſeal in lead, all worſteds, &c. within the ſaid town made. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall make any worſteds, ſays, or ſtamins, within the ſame town, except he be an Engliſhman born, and have been apprentice to the ſame occupation, and without he weave therein ſuch mark as ſhall be appointed by the warden of the town, upon forfeiture thereof to the king; and every warden of the ſaid town ſhall limit diſtinct marks to the worſted weavers; the marks by the warden to be regiſtered. ſ. 5.

When that number of ten houſholders ſhall fail in Lynn, the wardens of Norwich ſhall cauſe one of themſelves, or one of the wardens of the county of Norfolk, to come every 28 days to Lynn, or within ſix days after every ſuch 28 days, and there to continue ſo long as he may ſearch and ſeal all ſuch worſteds, &c. made in the town; and the ſaid worſted weavers of Lynn ſhall pay the ſaid warden of Norwich or Norfolk, for every time that he ſhall come between the feaſt of St. Michael and the annunciation of our lady, 3 s. and for every time that he ſhall ſo come between the annunciation and St. Michael, 2 s.; and if the worſted weavers of Lynn do not pay the warden in form aforeſaid, they ſhall forfeit to the ſaid warden for every default, 40 s. And if one of the wardens of Norwich and Norfolk come not to Lynn in manner above remembered, the wardens of Norwich ſhall forfeit to the ſaid inhabitants of Lynn for every ſuch default, 40 s. For recompenſe of which forfeits, the warden of Norwich or Norfolk, being thereunto entitled, with this addition, unus gardianorum, or nuper unus gardianorum artis ſive miſterii textorum panni lanei vocati Worſtedes in civitate Norwich, vel. comitat. Norfolk, ſhall have action of debt againſt the ſaid inhabitants of Lynn; and the ſaid inhabitants, with this addition textor. panni lanei voc. Worſtedes, inhabitan. villoe de Lynn, ſhall have like actions againſt the wardens of Norwich by the name of Gardiani artis ſive miſterii textorum pannorum laneorum voc. Worſtedes infra civitatem Norwic. vel com. Norfol. ſ. 6.

All cloths of worſteds, ſays, and ſtamins, made within Lynn and Yarmouth, and marked as ſhall be limited to the makers, and ſealed by any of the wardens, may be put to ſale without any other ſealing by any other wardens. ſ. 7.

Every

Every craftſman of the ſaid myſtery, dwelling within Lynn and Yarmouth, may take apprentices (being male) of the age of 14 years and upward, and being the king's natural ſubjects, for ſeven years, and not under, ſo that none of them exceed two at once. ſ. 8.

The mayor of Norwich, and wardens of the ſaid city and county, may uſe all powers in 7 Edw. 4. c. 1. as well for the ſealing, and correction of the wardens, to be elect by this act, as all other inquiries, ſearches, ſealings, and reformations, for the true making of worſteds, ſays, and ſtamins, as well within the towns of Lynn and Yarmouth, as without. ſ. 9.

The worſted weavers of Lynn and Yarmouth, or any other perſons which ſhall buy any worſteds, &c. made within the ſaid towns, and ſealed by the wardens, ſhall not ſheer, dye, or put in colour, or calandar any worſteds, &c. made within the ſaid towns, in any other place but Norwich, upon pain of forfeiture of the ſame, or the value thereof; one half to the king, and the other half to ſuch as ſhall ſeize the ſame; ſo that the worſteds brought to Norwich may be ſhorn, dyed, coloured, and calandared, at convenient price. ſ. 11.

No perſon ſhall convey beyond ſea, any cloths or worſteds, before the ſame be ſhorn, dyed, coloured and calandared, upon pain of the value thereof; the one half to the king, and the other half to the party that will ſue in any of the king's courts. ſ. 12.

Made perpetual by 26 Hen. 8. c. 16. See 6 Ann. c. 9.

By 23 Hen. 8. c. 17. made perpetual by 13 Eliz. c. 25. No perſon ſhall wind any fleece of wool not ſufficiently waſhed, nor wind within any fleece, clay, lead, ſtones, ſand, tails, deceitful locks, cot call, combre, lambs wool, or any other things whereby the fleece may be more weighty, to the deceit of the buyer; upon pain to forfeit for every fleece (by 28 Geo. 3. c. 38. ſ. 79.) 2*s.*; one moiety to the king, the other to the finder and prover of the ſame deceit, by action, &c. ſ. 1.

This act concerning waſhing of wool ſhall not extend to any ſhire, the inhabitants whereof have not uſed to river or waſh their ſheep afore they be ſhorn, nor ſhall be hurtful to any perſons that have uſen to ſell their wool by tale, and not by weight. ſ. 2.

By 25 Hen. 8. c. 5. No perſon uſing the craft of dying of worſteds, ſtamins, or ſays, ſhall uſe to calander any worſteds, ſtamins, or ſays, or any other commodities made of worſted yarn, upon pain to forfeit for every piece ſo dyed and calandered, 40*s.*; to be divided into three parts, one to the king, one other to the mayor, and the third part to him that will ſue for the ſame, in any of the king's courts. ſ. 2.

By 25 Hen. 8. c. 18. No perſon ſhall make within the ſhire of Worceſter, any woollen cloths to be ſold, except ſuch perſons as ſhall be dwelling within the city of Worceſter, the towns of Eveſham, Droitwich, Kidderminſter and Bromeſgrove; upon pain of forfeiture for every broad-cloth, 40*s.* ſ. 2.

The owners of tenements within the ſaid city or towns, ſhall at no time let any tenement ſufficiently repaired, within the ſaid city or towns, to any perſons that ſhall inhabit in the ſaid city or towns, and exerciſing the ſaid craft, at any higher rent than was given for the ſame within 20 years next before the making of this act. ſ. 3. Rep. 21 Jac. 1. c. 28.

Provided that this act be not hurtful to any perſon for making cloths for their own, their children, or ſervants wearing. ſ. 4.

Provided that in the ſaid city and every borough afore-ſaid, there ſhall be due ſearch made of every ſuch cloth; and that they be meeted both length and breadth, being wet from the mill and before they be ſet upon the rack; and that they be ſealed with the ſeal of the ſearcher, which ſhall have a ſtamp containing the true numbers for length and breadth of the cloth being wet; in pain of forfeiting for every cloth put to ſale not having the ſeal, 20*s.* and the ſealer to forfeit for every cloth by him ſearched and ſealed contrary to this act, 6*s.* 8*d.* the one half to the king, and the other half to the party that will ſue, &c. And the ſearcher ſhall have for ſearching and ſealing of every cloth, a penny. ſ. 5.

By 27 Hen. 8. c. 12. Every clothier ſhall weave his mark in every cloth, kerſey, and other cloths made to be ſold. And when any ſuch cloth ſhall be made and dreſſed to be put to ſale, the clothier ſhall ſet his ſeal of lead unto the ſame, in which ſeal ſhall be contained the length of the cloth, as it ſhall be found by every buyer, upon proof thereof, to be tried by the water. And in caſe of ſuch proof, there be found leſs length than is ſpecified in the ſeals, the clothier ſhall forfeit to ſuch buyer the double value of ſuch cloth as ſhall want of his length, at the judgment of any two indifferent perſons. And every clothier putting cloths to ſale before the cloths be ſealed, ſhall forfeit his cloths, the one half to the king, and the other to him that will ſue, &c. ſ. 1.

Every broad cloth ſhall contain in breadth ſeven quarters of a yard, within the liſts at leaſt, and hold the ſame content always, if it be proved at the water. And every kerſey ſhall contain in breadth one yard within the liſt proved in water; upon pain to forfeit for every broad cloth, 3*s.* 4*d.* and for every kerſey, 20*d.* to be recovered to the uſe of the king, and of any other that will ſue, &c. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not extend to cloths called ſet cloths, made in Suffolk, not exceeding the price of 46*s.* 8*d.* the cloth, nor to cloths called Taveſtokes, weſtern dozens, frizes, Kendals, cottons, and all coarſe cloths made for linings. ſ. 3.

No buyer of cloths or kerſeys ſealed, ſhall draw or ſtretch the ſame, otherwiſe than to make them even after they be wet, and to agree with the contents ſpecified in the ſeal as near as they can; upon pain to forfeit the double value of every cloth or kerſey ſo miſuſed, to the uſe of the king, and of any other that will ſue. ſ. 4.

Provided that all cloth made to be ſold within the city of Worceſter, the towns of Droitwich, Eveſham, Kidderminſter, and Bromeſgrove, in the county of Worceſter, ſhall be ſealed with the ſeal of the ſearchers there; and that the owners of cloths made within the ſaid city and towns ſhall not be compelled to put their ſeals to any cloths there made. ſ. 5.

By 27 Hen. 8. c. 13. If any perſons ſend beyond ſea any coloured cloth, above the price of 3*l.* unrowed, unbarbed, and unſhorn, the perſons offending ſhall forfeit the value of the cloths; the one moiety to the king, and the other to him that will ſue, &c. ſ. 2.

By 33 Hen. 8. c. 3. Welſh called whites, ruſſets, and kennets, made in North Wales and Orcheſter hundred, brought to any markets or fairs to be ſold, ſhall be folded either in pleats or cuttles, as the cloths of other countries. And every piece of the ſaid cloths which ſhall be brought to any markets and fairs to be ſold, contrary to the forms aboveſaid, ſhall be forfeited; the one moiety to the king, and the other to him that will ſue, &c.

By 33 Hen. 8. c. 16. made perpetual 1 Edw. 6. c. 6. No perſon ſhall buy within the city of Norwich, or county of Norfolk, any worſted yarn ſpun in the ſaid city or county, but only weavers, or other artificers, which ſhall weave or work, or cauſe to be woven or otherwiſe wrought, the ſaid yarn in the city of Norwich, or ſome other market town, or elſewhere within the county of Norfolk; upon pain of forfeiting for every pound of worſted yarn, 40*s.* one half to the king, and the other to him that ſhall take the yarn, or ſue for the ſame. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſhip to convey beyond the ſea any worſted yarn, not made in cloth, ſo ſuch yarn be ſpun in England, he ſhall forfeit for every pound 40*s.* one half to the king, and the other to him that will ſue for the ſame in any court of record. ſ. 2.

By 33 Hen. 8. c. 19. ſ. 2. No perſons ſhall ſhip any coloured cloth, above the value of 3*l.* unrowed, unbarbed, or unſhorn, to be conveyed beyond the ſea; upon pain of forfeiture of the cloths, or the value thereof, to be recovered as mentioned in 27 Hen. 8. c. 13.

By 34 & 35 Hen. 8. c. 10. No perſons dwelling within the county of York, or nigh the ſame, ſhall make any coverlets or covering to be put to ſale, unleſs ſuch perſons be inhabiting within the city of York, upon pain of forfeiture of every ſuch coverlet, or the value thereof. ſ. 2.

No perſons of the occupation of coverlet-makers, dwelling in York, or within the county, ſhall go as hawkers, or put to ſale any coverlets in any other place out of the city, but only in the open markets and fairs, upon pain of forfeiture of the coverlets, or the value; half of the ſaid forfeitures, if it be in any city, borough, or town corporate, to be to the commonalty of ſuch city, &c. and the other to ſuch as ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame, in any court of record. ſ. 3.

If the forfeiture be out of the city, &c. the moiety to be to the king, and the other moiety to ſuch as will ſue. ſ. 4.

The wardens and ſearchers of the ſaid occupation in York ſhall have power to ſearch in all fairs and markets, from Trent northward, all ſuch coverlets put to ſale, not being well wrought, and made of ſufficient ſtuff, or not containing the aſſiſes, viz. the beſt, 3 yards in length, and in breadth 2¼; the ſecond ſort, in length 3 yards, and in breadth 2; and the loweſt ſort 2½ yards in length, and in breadth, 1¾; and to ſeize the ſame as forfeited; one moiety, if out of the cities, &c. to be to the king, and the other to the ſearchers. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful to every perſon dwelling in the county of York, to make coverlets of what aſſiſe or ſtuff they will, for their own uſe, or for their lords to whom they be tenants, ſo that the ſame be not put to ſale. ſ. 6.

When the ſearchers or wardens ſhall make ſearch in any franchiſes within the county, they ſhall require the head officer of the franchiſe to be aſſiſting; and if he refuſe, the ſearchers or wardens to make ſearch themſelves. ſ. 7.

Lords of franchiſes, where any ſuch ſearches ſhall be made, ſhall have ſuch forfeitures. ſ. 8.

By 1 Edw. 6. c. 6. All perſons dwelling within the county of Norfolk, and city of Norwich, may buy wools growing within the county of Norfolk, ſo that they ſell the ſame again in the common market or open place within the county of Norfolk, or city of Norwich, to any perſons within the ſaid county and city, that ſhall ſpin the ſame within the ſaid county and city. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be lawful for every hatmaker in Norwich to buy middle-wooff yarn, ſo that the ſame be uſed in hat making within the city; notwithſtanding 33 Hen. 8. c. 16. ſ. 7.

By 3 & 4 Edw. 6. c. 2. Every clothier ſhall ſet his ſeal of lead to his cloth, declaring thereby the juſt length to be tried by water. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall ſtrain or ſtretch any ſet cloths, or other cloth, above one yard and a half in length, and a quarter of a yard in breadth, upon pain to forfeit 40*s.* ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall, upon pain laſt remembered, put to ſale any cloth, which, when it ſhall be wet, ſhall ſhrink more than one yard and a half in the length, and a quarter of a yard in breadth; and narrow ſtraits and kerſeys ſhall not be ſtretched above a yard in length, and half a quarter of a yard in breadth, upon pain of 20*s.* nor ſhall put to ſale any cloth, narrow, ſtrait, or kerſey, the pieces whereof being wet ſhall ſhrink more than after the ſame rates, upon pain to forfeit 20*s.* ſ. 3.

No perſons occupying the feat of dying, ſhall dye or alter into colours, any woollen cloths, as brown, blue, pewkes, tawnies, or violets, except the ſame cloths be perfectly boiled, grained, or maddered upon the woad, and ſhot with good cork or orchel, according to the ancient workmanſhip, upon pain to forfeit 20*s.* ſ. 4.

Nor any perſon ſhall dye any wool, to be converted into cloth called ruſſets, muſters, marbles, grays, roys, and ſuch like colours, or to be made into hats or caps, unleſs the ſame wool be perfectly woaded, boiled and maddered; upon pain of forfeiture for the falſe dying of every ſuch cloth, or of as much wool as ſhall ſerve for the making of every cloth, 40*s.*; nor ſhall dye with braſel to make a falſe colour in cloth nor wool, hats nor caps, upon pain to forfeit 20*s.* ſ. 5.

Every perſon in whoſe hands ſuch defective cloth ſhall be found, ſhall have his remedy by action, &c. againſt every perſon by whoſe defaults ſuch cloth ſhall be ſo found faulty. ſ. 38.

PART II.

As well the ſaid mayor of London, as every other mayor, bailiff, portreve, or other head officer, of every city, town coporate, or port-town, ſhall cauſe to be prepared a ſeal of lead, wherein, as well the arms as the name of every ſuch city, town corporate, or port-town, ſhall be graven, which the ſearchers ſhall cauſe to be fixed to every cloth that they ſhall find ſufficiently dreſſed, dyed, and preſſed with the cold preſs, without any deceits, and ſhall have for the ſealing of every cloth, 2*d.* ſ. 39.

If any ſearcher find any of the cloths, being coloured or dyed, either cockly, purſey, bandy, ſqually, or rowy, or evil burled, or waſted in the mill, or full of holes or bracks, the ſame ſearcher ſhall, beſides the ſeal of the city or town, put another ſeal of lead at every end of the cloth, wherein ſhall be graven the letter F. and ſhall alſo ſet a mark in the liſt againſt the faults, with the print of a letter or mark of an inch compaſs at leaſt. ſ. 40.

If any of the ſearchers ſhall ſet the ſeal of any city or town to any coloured cloth, which ſhall not be ſufficiently dreſſed, dyed, preſſed, and wrought, the mayor and commonalty, or corporation of the townſhip, ſhall forfeit the value of the cloth. ſ. 41.

If any of the ſearchers ſet the ſeal of the city or town to any cloth which ſhall be cockly, purſey, bandy, ſqually, rowy, evil burled, watted in the mill, or full of holes, and not ſet at any end of the cloths, one ſeal, with the letter F. and alſo declare by the liſts where the faults be, the mayor and commonalty, or other corporation of ſuch city or town, ſhall forfeit 5*l.* ſ. 42.

No perſons which uſe to retail cloth or kerſey, ſhall put to ſale any cloth being dreſſed, dyed, and preſſed, except there be fixed at every end the ſeal of ſuch city or town where the cloth ſhall be ſo dyed, dreſſed, or preſſed, or the ſeveral ſeal of every ſuch city or town, to remain at the laſt end of the cloths during all the time that any remnant of ſuch cloth is to be ſold; upon pain of forfeiture of the value of ſuch cloth. ſ. 43.

Every mayor, bailiff, or other head officer of any city, &c. in which any ſuch cloth ſhall be made, dyed, dreſſed, or preſſed with the cold preſs, which doth not appoint ſo many ſearchers as ſhall be requiſite, ſhall forfeit 10*l.* ſ. 44.

If any of the ſaid ſearchers, being a freeman of the city, having no reaſonable excuſe, refuſe to take upon him to be a ſearcher, and do not uſe the office, he ſhall forfeit for every refuſal, 5*l.* the one half to the king, and the other to the commonalty; and remain in ward till he hath made payment, or put in ſufficient bond for the ſame. ſ. 45.

No perſon ſhall preſs cloth with the hot preſs, or in other deceivable manner, but only with the cold preſs, upon pain of forfeiture of the cloth, or the value thereof. ſ. 47.

If any perſon (but ſuch as are permitted by this act) ſet to, or take away from, any of the cloths, &c. aforeſaid, any of the ſeals above recited, he ſhall for the firſt offence (being thereof convicted by verdict, by two witneſſes, or by confeſſion) forfeit 40*l.* and for the ſecond offence ſhall be ſet in the pillory, and forfeit to the king all ſuch goods (his debts being paid) as he had at the time of conviction. ſ. 48.

The moiety of all forfeitures before expreſſed, and not otherwiſe appointed, ſhall be to the king, and the other moiety to him that will ſue, &c. ſ. 51.

This act ſhall not extend to any cloths made in Taveſtoke in Devonſhire, or elſewhere within the ſaid county, called Taveſtoke cloths. ſ. 52.

It ſhall not be lawful to boil any wools, to be converted into broad cloth or kerſeys, with galls, rinds, barks of trees, or ſawduſt, upon pain to forfeit all ſuch wool, or the value thereof. ſ. 53.

By 5 & 6 Edw. 6. c. 22. No perſons ſhall uſe gig-mills, for the working of woollen cloth; upon pain of forfeiture for every cloth ſo wrought 5 l. the moiety to the king, and the other to him that will ſue.

By 1 Mar. ſtat. 3. c. 7. ſ. 2. Every perſon inhabiting in any market-towns where cloth-making hath been uſed, may make all manner of broad cloths, and put them to weaving, walking, fulling, dying, and ſheering, without any impediment, ſo the ſame cloths be ſubſtantially made, bearing lawful length, breadth, and weight, according to the ſtatute 5 Edw. 6. c. 6.

By 1 & 2 Phil. & Mar. c. 14. The ruſſels ſattens, ſattens reverſes, and fuſtian of Naples, made in Norwich, may be called Norwich ſattens, and Norwich fuſtians. And the mayor and other citizens of the ſame city ſhall be a fellowſhip, and ſhall yearly, the third of February, chooſe of their fellows four wardens in the ſame city; and they ſhall be wardens of the ſame fellowſhip one year, and ſhall come before the mayor the Monday after the third of February, and be ſworn, diligently to ſearch all the ruſſels ſattens, ſattens reverſes, and fuſtian of Naples, made within the city; and ſuch ruſſels, &c. as ſhall be truly wrought, ſhall ſeal with lead, bearing the arms of the city of Norwich. ſ. 2.

The wardens and fellowſhip ſhall be a body corporate, by the name of wardens and fellowſhip of the myſtery of ruſſels ſattens, ſattens reverſes, and fuſtian of Norwich making, within the ſaid city of Norwich. And if any default be found in any of the ſaid ruſſels, &c. by the wardens, the ſame ſhall be reformed, and the offenders puniſhed, according to ſuch rules as ſhall be made within the city, by the fellowſhip, and the defaults ſhall be inquired of and tried before the mayor, by the oaths of 12 of the fellowſhip. ſ. 3.

The four wardens ſhall have power to do and reform all things concerning the ſaid myſtery, within the city; and it ſhall be lawful to the mayor and the fellowſhip and wardens of the ſame myſtery, to make laws for the good order and governance of the ſaid myſtery, and for the true making of the ſaid ruſſels, &c. the ſame to be obeyed by all the inhabitants of the city, and to be put in execution by the maſter and wardens. ſ 4.

Such makers of ruſſels, &c. ſhall not occupy the ſaid myſtery within the ſaid city, before they be made free of the city, and admitted of the ſaid fellowſhip by the mayor, warden, and fellowſhip. And no perſon ſhall occupy out of the city, the ſaid myſtery of making ruſſels, &c. before he have been prentice ſeven years, or elſe admitted by the mayor and fellowſhip, upon pain of forfeiture of the ruſſels, &c. ſ. 5.

Provided that the maſter and wardens ſhall not take any reward to their own uſes, for the admitting of any perſons, upon pain of treble the value. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful to the wardens and every of them, to make ſearch for all the ſaid ruſſels, &c. that ſhall be defective. ſ. 7.

It ſhall be lawful to the wardens to ſeize the ſaid ruſſels, &c. and preſent the ſame to the mayor, to the intent that twelve men of the fellowſhip being ſworn before the mayor, may preſent the manner of the ſaid defaults before the mayor; and all perſons that ſhall uſe the myſtery contrary to this act, and the rules that ſhall be made for the continuance of the true and perfect making of the ſaid ruſſels, &c. ſhall forfeit ſuch fines, amerciaments and pains, as ſhall be aſſeſſed and affeered by 12 men of the fellowſhip, to be ſworn before the mayor and wardens, to inquire and make true verdict and preſentment of ſuch defaults; the one half of which forfeiture to be to the mayor, and the other moiety to the wardens, by action of debt, &c. in any court of record. ſ. 8.

In caſe any of the ſaid ruſſels, &c. ſhall lack of ſuch lengths and breadths, or of the true making or ſorting of the yarn, as ſhall be appointed by the rules, the ſame ſo found defective by verdict of 12 men of the fellowſhip, before the mayor and wardens, the ſaid ruſſels, &c. ſhall be cut in two, and to pay ſuch fines as ſhall be affeered by the 12 men. ſ. 9.

If any warden ſhall ſeal any ruſſels, &c. not well wrought, he ſhall forfeit the value of every ſuch piece; the one half to the king, and the other moiety to ſuch as ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of the king's courts of record. ſ. 10.

By 2 & 3 Phil. & Mar. c. 11. No perſon uſing the myſtery of cloth-making, and dwelling out of a city, borough, market-town, or corporate town, ſhall keep in his houſe or poſſeſſion, above one woollen loom, nor ſhall take profit by letting or ſetting any loom, or any houſe wherein any loom is uſed, which ſhall be together by him let, upon pain of forfeiture for every week, 20*s.* ſ. 2.

No woollen weaver dwelling out of a city, &c. ſhall have above two woollen looms, or receive profit as aforeſaid by more than two looms, upon pain to forfeit for every week, 20*s.* ſ. 3.

No perſon which ſhall uſe the myſtery of a weaver, and not cloth-making, ſhall keep any tucking-mill, or uſe the myſtery of a tucker, fuller, or dyer, upon pain to forfeit for every week, 20*s.* ſ. 4.

No perſon which ſhall uſe the myſtery of a fuller or tucker, ſhall keep any loom, or take any profit by the ſame, upon pain to forfeit for every week, 20*s.* ſ. 5.

No perſon ſhall cauſe to be made any broad white woollen cloths, but only in a city, &c. or where ſuch cloths have been commonly made ten years before this act, upon pain of forfeiture of every cloth otherwiſe made, 5 l. ſ. 6.

It ſhall not be lawful to any weaver, dwelling out of a city, &c. to have in his ſervice above two apprentices, upon pain of 10 l. ſ. 7.

It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon to ſet up weaving, unleſs he have been apprentice to the ſame, or exerciſed the ſame ſeven years, upon pain of 20 l. the one moiety of all which forfeitures ſhall be to the king, &c. and the other to him that will ſue, &c. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall not extend to any that ſhall dwell in the counties of York, Cumberland, Northumberland, and Weſtmoreland. ſ. 9.

The clauſe in 5 Eliz. c. 2. ſ. 32. is repealed by 5 Will. & Mar. c. 9.

By 2 & 3 Phil. & Mar. c. 12. ſ. 2. No perſon inhabiting within the county of Somerſet, ſhall put to ſale any cloths, called Bridgwater, Taunton, and Chard cloths, or cloths of like ſort made within the ſaid county, except ſuch cloths be firſt ſearched in one of the towns aforeſaid, and ſealed with the ſeal of one of the ſaid towns, upon pain that every perſon offending ſhall forfeit the ſaid cloth ſold, or the value thereof; the moiety to the king and queen, &c. and the other to him that will ſue, &c.

By 2 & 3 Phil. & Mar. c. 13. It ſhall be lawful to any perſon inhabiting within the pariſh of Halifax, to buy wool at ſuch times as the clothiers may buy the ſame, other than by engroſſing and foreſtalling, ſo that the perſons buying do carry the wools to Halifax, and there ſell the the ſame to ſuch poor folks of that and other pariſhes adjoining, as ſhall work the ſame in cloth of yarn (to their knowledge), and not to the rich and wealthy clothier, nor to any other to ſell again. And if either the wool driver ſhall ſell his wools at any other place, or if any ſuch as ſhall buy their wools at Halifax, ſhall ſell their wools again unwrought, in yarn or cloth, every ſuch offender ſhall forfeit the double value of ſuch wool; one moiety to the king, and the other to him that will ſue for the ſame in any of the king's courts of record, or before the juſtices of peace in their ſeſſions. — This act was made to take off the reſtriction in 5 & 6. Edw. 6. c. 7. which is repealed by 21 Jac. 1. c. 28.

By 4 & 5 Phil. & Mar. c. 5. Every white cloth called long Worceſters, and all like cloth, ſhall weigh 75 pounds. ſ. 2.

Every white cloth made in Wiltſhire, Glouceſter, and Somerſet, or of like making, ſhall weigh 61 pounds. ſ. 3.

Every broad cloth made in Kent and Suſſex, or at Reading, or of like making, ſhall weigh 86 pounds. ſ. 4.

Every coarſe ſhort cloth made in Suffolk, Norfolk, and Eſſex, or of like ſort, and every coarſe cloth made in Kent, not exceeding the price of 6*l.* ſhall contain, thorow wet, 6 quarters and ½ within the liſts. ſ. 5.

Every yard of cloth called handy-warp, ſhall weigh 2 pounds and ½. ſ. 6.

No perſons ſhall add unto any cloths ſuch liſts as are added to handy-warps, except the warp be ſpun upon the rock, or diſtaff; upon pain of forfeiture of the cloths, or the value thereof. Provided that the cloth-makers within the city of Worceſter may make ſuch liſts as heretofore. ſ. 7.

No perſons inhabiting within the weſt-riding of the city of York, ſhall make any broad cloths called pewks, tawneys, violets, or greens, except the wool, before it be converted into yarn, be firſt dried, litted, and coloured, with the coloured blue, of the value of 2*d.* a pound; upon pain of forfeiture of every ſuch coloured cloth, or the value thereof. ſ. 8.

Every ordinary kerſey ſhall contain in length in the water, 16 yards, yard and inch; and being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, dreſſed, and dried, ſhall weigh 19 pounds. And every ſorting kerſey ſhall weigh 22 pounds. ſ. 9.

The ſeal of every borough ſhall be fixed to all cloth being well made, within ſuch borough, which cloth ſo ſealed ſhall not be ſearched by any ſearcher or ſealer of any other town. ſ. 21.

Every perſon not dwelling within any city or town corporate, and making any of the cloths or kerſeys aforeſaid, may bring the ſame to the next city, borough, or town corporate, where ſuch cloth or kerſeys be commonly made, there to be ſealed as before expreſſed. ſ. 22.

If any ſearcher or ſealer ſhall ſet the ſeal of any city or town to any cloth which ſhall not contain ſuch length, weight, and breadth, as is appointed, the mayor and commonalty, or other corporation of the townſhip, ſhall forfeit the value of the cloth. ſ. 23.

The ſaid ſearchers or ſealers ſhall have power in the daytime to enter into all houſes where they ſhall think meet, to ſearch all cloths, kerſeys, frizes, and rugs, and the ſame to try by water and weight. ſ. 24.

If any perſon ſhall deny any cloths, kerſeys, frizes and rugs, from the ſealers and ſearchers, or will not ſuffer them to enter into their ſhops, houſes, or places where their cloths, &c. ſhall be, every ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 10*l.* ſ. 25.

It ſhall not be lawful to ſearch any woollen cloth, or kerſey, whereunto the ſeal of a city or town corporate ſhall be fixed, within the common cloth market of London, called Blackwell-hall, or in any cloth fair, or market, of any other city or town corporate. ſ. 26.

Every clothier ſhall cauſe every cloth which he ſhall put to ſale, to be marked with the letter M. crowned, wrought in cloth, upon pain to forfeit, 20*s.* for every cloth. ſ. 29.

No perſon ſhall make any woollen cloths, or kerſeys, to be ſold, unleſs ſuch perſons ſhall have been apprentice to the occupation of making, weaving, and rowing, of cloth and kerſeys, or have been exerciſed therein by the ſpace of ſeven years before, upon pain of forfeiture of ſuch cloth or the value thereof. ſ. 33.

All penalties of this ſtatute, or of the ſaid former act, being not otherwiſe appointed, ſhall be equally divided into two parts, whereof the one ſhall be to the queen, and the other to him that will ſeize or ſue for the ſame. ſ. 34.

It ſhall be lawful to all perſons which ſhall dwell in North Wales or South Wales, Cheſhire, or Lancaſhire, Weſtmorland, Cumberland, Northumberland, biſhoprick of Durham, Cornwall, Suffolk, Kent, the town of Godalmin in Surrey, or Yorkſhire, being not within 12 miles of the city of York, or in any the towns and villages near adjoining the water of Stroud, in the county of Glouceſter, where cloths have been uſually made by the ſpace of twenty years, and having been prentice to the occupation of cloth-making, or exerciſed in the ſame ſeven years, to uſe the myſtery of making, weaving, or rowing of cloth, out of a city, borough, or market town, as heretofore. ſ. 36.

By 1 Eliz. c. 14. It ſhall be lawful to all perſons which ſhall dwell in the towns of Bocking, Weſtbarfold, Cockſhall, and Dedham in Eſſex, that ſhall uſe the myſtery of making, weaving, or rowing, of cloth or kerſeys, by ſeven years, or have been apprentice thereto for ſeven years, to dwell in the ſaid town, and to uſe the making, weaving, or rowing, of cloth or kerſeys, as before they might; 4 & 5 Phil. & Mar. c. 5. or any other law notwithſtanding. ſ. 4.

By 8 Eliz. c. 6. For every nine cloths unwrought, to be carried beyond the ſeas, contrary to any ſtatute heretofore made, by force of any licenſe, the party ſhall carry over alſo one like woollen cloth of like ſort, length, breadth, and goodneſs, ready wrought and dreſſed, viz. rowed, barbed, firſt courſed and ſhorn, upon pain to forfeit for every ſuch nine cloths, 10*l.* ſ. 2.

Such tenth cloth ſhall not be accounted any of the cloths permitted to be tranſported by ſuch licenſe. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall ſhip or carry beyond the ſeas, contrary to any ſtatute, any cloth called Kentiſh cloth, or Suffolk cloth, made in Kent or Suffolk, unwrought and undreſſed, viz. not rowed, barbed, firſt courſed and ſhorn, upon pain to forfeit for every ſuch cloth, 40*s.* ſ. 4.

No licenſe for tranſporting cloth ſhall extend to Kentiſh or Suffolk cloth. ſ. 5.

All forfeitures appointed by this ſtatute, ſhall be one half to the queen, the other moiety to the maſter and wardens of the company of cloth-workers, to the relief of the poor of the ſaid company. ſ. 6.

By 8 Eliz. c. 7. No perſons dwelling in Shrewſbury, other than ſuch as ſhall have ſerved as apprentices in the occupation of drapers, or be free of the ſaid myſtery, ſhall uſe the trade of buying Welſh cloth, or lining, cottons, frizes, and plains, upon pain to forfeit for every piece, 6*s.* 8*d.* ſ. 3.

No perſon dwelling as aforeſaid, and uſing the trade of buying of frizes, cottons, or plains, ſhall uſe the faculty of frizing or cottoning, upon pain to incur like forfeitures; the moiety of which forfeitures ſhall be to the queen, and the other moiety to ſuch as will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 4.

Every perſon uſing the trade of buying and ſelling Welſh cloth, and linings, and who ſhall deliver any Welſh cloth or linings to be cottoned, frized, dreſſed, or wrought, to any ſheerman, cottoner, or frizer, ſhall pay ready money for all his work, and ſhall not deliver any ware or other thing in ſatisfaction of his work; upon pain to loſe all liberties which he hath as one of the company of drapers, and alſo ſhall be diſabled to uſe the ſaid trade of buying or ſelling of Welſh cloths or linings. ſ. 6.

By 8 Eliz. c. 12. No perſon ſhall put to ſale within the county of Lancaſter, or convey out of the ſaid county, any cloths, cottons, frizes, or rugs, made within the ſaid county to be ſold, before the owner or maker ſhall fix to every ſuch cloth, &c. one ſeal of lead, having the mark of ſuch clothier engraved on one ſide, and the length of every ſuch cloth, being wet, on the other ſide; upon pain of forfeiture of all ſuch cloths, cottons, frizes, and rugs; the one moiety to the queen, and the other to ſuch perſons that ſhall ſeize or will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 2.

Every of the ſaid cottons, being ſufficiently milled or thickened, clean ſcoured, well wrought, and fully dried, ſhall weigh 11 pounds, and ſhall contain in length 20 goads at leaſt, and in breadth at moſt three quarters, or within one nail of three quarters of a yard at leaſt. And every of the ſaid frizes or rugs being thicked and fully dried, ſhall weigh 43 pounds, and ſhall contain in length, betwixt 35 and 37 yards, in breadth at the moſt three quarters of the yard, or within one nail of three quarters at the leaſt, and not to be ſtrained upon the tenters above one nail in breadth. And if any of the ſaid cottons, frizes, or rugs, be of greater length, every goad or yard exceeding the ſaid length, ſhall weigh after ſuch rate, upon pain of forfeiture for every goad or yard, not weighing after ſuch rate, 12*d.* ſ. 6.

If any of the ſaid cottons, frizes, and rugs, ſhall be of leſs weight, then all ſuch perſons that ſhall offer to be ſold any ſuch cotton, frize, or rug, ſhall forfeit for every pound lacking under three pounds, 12*d.*; and for every pound lacking above three pounds, 5*s.*; the one half to the queen, and the other half to ſuch perſons that ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 7.

Every clauſe contained in any other acts of parliament before made, concerning the ſealing and making of the ſaid cottons, frizes, and rugs, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 8.

Provided that this act ſhall not be prejudicial unto any liberty of any borough, or town corporate, within the county of Lancaſter. ſ. 9.

By 27 Eliz. c. 17. Made perpetual by 35 Eliz. c. 7. No perſon ſhall be charged for any default, in any of the cloths mentioned in this act, (viz. whites and reds made in Wiltſhire, Glouceſter, and Somerſet, and all other whites) for want of breadth of ſeven quarters, ſo that the ſame contain in breadth, being thoroughly wet, ſix quarters and a half at leaſt within the liſts, unwrought and liſted according to cuſtom. ſ. 3.

If any of the ſaid cloths ſhall not contain ſix quarters and a half within the liſts, every perſon offending in that behalf, ſhall for every cloth be ſubject to ſuch pains as were by force of the ſtatute 5 & 6 Edw. 6. c. 6. to have been forfeited for want of breadth of ſeven quarters. ſ. 4.

If any cloth made within the ſaid counties or elſewhere, of like making, called narrow-liſted whites, being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, and fully dried, ſhall contain in weight leſs than threeſcore and one pounds; or if any cloth of like making, called broad-liſted whites, being well ſcoured, &c. ſhall contain in weight leſs than threeſcore and three pounds, the clothiers therein offending ſhall incur double the penalties for every pound wanting, as by the ſtatute 4 & 5 Phil. & Mar. c. 5. is provided. ſ. 5.

By 27 Eliz. c. 18. The branch in 5 Edw. 6. c. 6. which prohibiteth putting of hair, flocks, or yarn made of lamb's wool, into any cloth or frize, having regard unto the cloths called plain white ſtraits, and pinned white ſtraits, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful to all inhabiting the counties of Devon and Cornwall, to make plain white ſtraits, and pinned white ſtraits, and to uſe in making the ſaid cloths, flocks, hair, and yarn of lamb's wool, and to uſe in their houſes three looms, and not above, for making of the cloths aforeſaid, and to make the ſame cloths of ſuch length, weight, and breadth, as the merchant ſhall like. ſ. 5.

By 35 Eliz. c. 9. No perſon ſhall be charged for any default which ſhall be in any broad plunkets, azures, blues or other coloured cloths, for want of breadth of ſeven quarters, ſo that the ſame contain in breadth, being thoroughly wet, ſix quarters and an half at leaſt within the liſts, unwrought and liſted according to cuſtom; the ſtatute 5 & 6 Edw. 6. c. 6. notwithſtanding. ſ. 1.

If any of the ſaid cloths ſhall not contain ſix quarters and an half within the liſts, every perſon offending ſhall be ſubject to ſuch penalties as by ſtatute 5 & 6 Edw. 6. c. 6. for want of breadth. ſ. 2.

If any of the ſaid broad plunkets, azures, blues or other coloured cloths, being well ſcoured, thicked, milled and fully dried, ſhall contain in weight leſs than threeſcore and eight pounds, the clothiers offending ſhall incur double ſuch penalties for every pound wanting, by the ſaid ſtatute 5 & 6 Edw. 6. c. 6. ſ. 3.

If any cloths made within the county of Somerſet, or elſewhere of like making, called plunkets, azures and blues, being well ſcoured, thicked, milled and fully dried, ſhall contain in weight leſs than threeſcore and eight pounds, the clothiers offending ſhall incur double ſuch penalties for every pound wanting, as by the ſtatute 5 & 6 Edw. 6. c. 6. are to ſuch defaults limited. ſ. 4.

By

By 35 Eliz. c. 10. Continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. & 16 Car. 1. c. 4. Each kerſey called Devonſhire kerſey or dozen, made within the county of Devon or any other county next adjoining, being raw, unſcoured, untucked and unwet, as it comes from the weavers beam, and being made of clean ſtuff, viz. of wool ſhorn, cleanſed and thoroughly waſhed or ſcoured after the ſhearing and before the weaving, without any fraud or any ſtuff thereunto deceitfully added for increaſe of the weight, ſhall weigh in the market 15 lb. ſ. 2.

Every raw Devonſhire kerſey or dozen, made in the county of Devon or any of the counties adjoining, being a Rudgewaſh kerſey, viz. made of fleece wool waſhed only on the ſheeps back, and the wool not being cleanſed, waſhed and ſcoured after it is ſhorn, ſhall (without fraud or addition of ſtuff) weigh in the market 17 lb. being raw as it cometh off the beam, and each of the ſame Devonſhire kerſeys or dozens ſo being raw (without racking, ſtretching or other device) ſhall contain between 15 and 16 yards, by yard and inch. ſ. 3.

If any weaver ſhall make any of the ſaid kerſeys of leſs weight or meaſure, he ſhall forfeit for every quarter of a pound in weight which the ſaid raw kerſeys or dozens, brought to any market or offered to be ſold, ſhall want of their weight, 12 d. and for every quarter of a yard wanting in length, 12 d. And each ſort of the ſaid kerſeys or dozens ſhall be ſewantly woven of well and like ſorted yarn. And no weaver ſhall uſe any diverſity in the bigneſs and goodneſs of his yarn in the ſaid kerſeys, ſaving only in the liſts, nor uſe any other practice in edging or weaving of the ſame, to make the ſame ſeem finer near the edge than in other part. ſ. 4.

Each weaver ſhall weave his ſhop-mark of ſome coloured yarn in the end of every kerſey, and ſhall at each end weave one purrel of coloured yarn, of the breadth of three quarters of an inch at leaſt; and if any weaver ſhall uſe deceit in mingling his yarn, or ſhall omit his ſhop-mark, or ſhall not weave in every kerſey two purrels, &c. he ſhall forfeit 10 s. ſ. 5.

No perſon ſhall put to ſale any raw kerſeys called dozens, before the ſame have been viewed, weighed and marked, in ſome city or market-town; upon pain to forfeit for every cloth 10 s. the one half to her majeſty, and the other half to the principal officer or magiſtrate of the city or market-town next adjoining to the working place, if the ſame officer or magiſtrate ſhall firſt make ſeizure thereof, or elſe to the principal officer of that city or market-town where the ſame ſhall be offered to be ſold, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. with coſts in any court of record. ſ. 6.

The principal officer or magiſtrate in every city or market-town, where any Devonſhire kerſeys or dozens ſhall be woven or put to ſale, ſhall every year appoint two or more known ſearchers, which ſhall be ſworn truly to view, weigh and mark, each kerſey called a dozen, in ſuch city or town made or put to ſale, and to preſent each offence or defect contrary to this ſtatute; every which ſearcher ſhall have power to enter in the day-time into all ſhops and other places convenient, to ſee whether any kerſey or dozen be made or offered to be ſold contrary to this act; taking for the weighing and marking of every kerſey, a farthing, to be payed by the ſeller. ſ. 7.

If ſuch ſearchers ſhall not be yearly appointed and attendant at all times convenient, or ſhall neglect their duties, or ſhall mark any kerſey which wants of his weight; the chief magiſtrate of ſuch city and town ſhall forfeit for every ſuch offence of their ſearchers, 20 s. and for every market-day they ſhall want one ſuch ſearcher, 40 s. ſ. 8.

No perſon ſhall buy any raw kerſey called Devonſhire kerſey or dozen, unleſs the ſame be tried, weighed and marked; upon pain of forfeiture of every ſuch kerſey ſo bought or put to dreſſing. ſ. 9.

No perſon ſhall cut or diminiſh the length of any Devonſhire kerſey or dozen, and after put the ſame to ſale as a whole kerſey or dozen, upon pain of 20 s.; the one half of which forfeitures, not before appointed, ſhall be to the queen, and the other half to him that will ſue for the ſame in any court of record; the plaintiff to recover coſts. ſ. 10.

By 39 Eliz. c. 14. Continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. and 16 Car. 1. c. 4. and inforced by 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 19. No perſon ſhall bring into this realm any cards for wool to be ſold, upon pain to forfeit ſuch cards in whoſe hands ſoever they be found, or the value thereof; the one half to the queen, and the other moiety to him that will ſeize the ſame or ſue in any court of record of the queen.

By 39 Eliz. c. 20. No perſon within the counties of York, Lancaſter, and other on the north ſide of Trent, ſhall ſtretch or ſtrain any cloths, kerſeys, peniſtones, rugs, frizes, Kighley whites, plain greys, or other cloths, made within the ſaid counties on the north of Trent, upon pain to forfeit 5 l. ſ. 1.

No perſons within the counties aforeſaid ſhall have any tenter or wrinch, rope or other engines, to ſtretch or ſtrain any cloths, &c. wrought within the ſaid counties, upon pain to forfeit 20 l. ſ. 2.

Every perſon within the counties aforeſaid, which ſhall make any cloths, &c. ſhall make the ſame of ſuch weights, lengths and breadths, as by the ſtatutes is provided; and before the ſame be offered to be ſold, ſhall ſet his ſeal of lead unto every of the ſame cloths, &c. in which ſeal ſhall be contained the length and weight of every ſuch cloth, &c. as it ſhall be found by due proof by water or weight; upon pain to forfeit every cloth, &c. whereunto ſuch ſeal ſhall not be ſet; and in caſe upon proof any ſuch cloths, &c. ſhall be found of leſs weight or length than is ſpecified in the ſeal, the perſons in whoſe hands ſuch cloths, &c. ſhall be found, ſhall forfeit for every yard wanting, 4 s. and for every pound wanting, 2 s. ſ. 3.

In every pariſh, village and hamlet, within the ſaid counties where any cloths, &c. ſhall be made or ſold, the juſtices of peace of the ſhire, &c. or two of them, and in every city or town corporate, the head officers of the ſame, together with ſome one or two of the juſtices of peace of the ſhire, &c. next adjoining, ſhall have power once every year, and as often as they ſhall think good, to call before them 2, 4, 6 or 8, or more of the moſt honeſt and able men of every ſuch city, village, hamlet or pariſh, where any cloth ſhall be made or ſold, and them ſhall conſtitute overſeers for one year, or ſix months, or ſhorter time, within the city, &c. and ſhall take them ſworn and bound in recognizance of 40 l. a-piece, to her majeſty, to do their beſt endeavour to ſee this ſtatute obſerved within the limits of their charge; and the ſame overſeers, or two of them, ſhall once every month, or ſo often as they ſhall think fit, viſit all houſes, ſhops or rooms, of any clothiers, drapers, cloth-workers, or other perſons, where any of the ſaid cloth ſhall be, and there make ſearch and view the ſame, and try, as well by weight, water or other way, the ſaid cloths, &c. and if any cloths aforeſaid ſhall not be found ſealed with a ſeal, containing the length and weight, then the clothier and owner of the cloth ſhall forfeit every ſuch cloth, &c. and the overſeers ſhall ſeize and carry away the ſame, and preſent the ſame to the juſtices of peace at the next quarter-ſeſſions. ſ. 4.

If

If the overſeers ſhall find any falſe ſeal ſet upon any cloth aforeſaid, or ſhall upon ſearch find the ſame cloths ſtretched or ſtrained, they ſhall preſent the ſame defaults unto the juſtices at the next quarter ſeſſions, and the names of the owners or poſſeſſors of ſuch cloths, &c. and if any perſon ſhall deny or withhold any cloth, &c. from the overſeers, or will not ſuffer them to enter into the houſes or other places where ſuch cloths ſhall be, ſuch perſons ſhall for the firſt offence forfeit 10 l. and for the ſecond offence 20 l. and for the third offence, being thereof convicted by verdict and two witneſſes, ſhall ſtand upon the pillory in the next market-town; and if any of the perſons commanded to appear to be made overſeers, and having no reaſonable excuſe, refuſe to come and take upon them to be overſeers, every ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit for every refuſing 5 l. the one half to her majeſty, and the other half to the juſtices of peace or other head officers, and the overſeers ſo offending to remain in ward of the ſheriff or other head officer, until he hath made payment, or put in bond for the ſame. ſ. 5.

The ſaid overſeers ſhall fix unto every kind of the cloths aforeſaid, a ſeal of lead, containing the length and weight of every ſuch cloths, together with this word (ſearched), which cloth ſo ſealed ſhall not be ſearched by any other ſearcher of any other city, &c. ſ. 6.

If any perſons, but ſuch as are appointed by this act, or their ſervants or deputies, do counterfeit or ſet to or take away from any the ſaid cloths, &c. any of the ſeals ſo to be fixed, every perſon ſo offending ſhall for the firſt offence forfeit 10 l. and for the ſecond offence, being convicted by verdict and two witneſſes, ſtand upon the pillory and forfeit to her majeſty 20 l. ſ. 7.

Every juſtice of peace, head conſtable, or other the overſeers aforeſaid, ſhall have power to enter any of the houſes or grounds of any perſon, to ſearch for tenters, or any ropes, rings, heads, wrinches, or other engines, whereby deceit may be uſed in the ſtretching and ſtraining of the ſaid cloths, &c. and if they find any ſuch tenters, &c. they ſhall deface the ſame. And if any perſon with whom ſuch ſhall once have been found, ſhall after that be known to have any ſuch tenter, &c. the ſaid juſtices, head conſtables or overſeers, ſhall take and ſell the ſame to the beſt value, and by the conſent of two juſtices of peace diſpoſe the money to the poor of that pariſh where the ſame ſhall be taken; and upon information given of any ſuch tenter, &c. to any juſtice of peace, he ſhall within ſeven days repair to the place and execute this law; and if any perſon ſhall reſiſt any ſuch juſtice of peace or head officers in the premiſes, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit as for reſiſting the overſeers. ſ. 8.

If any juſtice of peace ſhall make default in any thing touching this ſtatute, ſuch juſtice ſhall forfeit 5 l. And all forfeitures by this act ſhall be one third to the overſeers, one third to the queen, and one other third to the poor, to be employed as the juſtices in their quarter-ſeſſions to be holden next after judgment ſhall appoint. ſ. 9.

The juſtices of peace in their quarter-ſeſſions ſhall hear and determine every offence contrary to this act (except offences committed by the juſtices) by preſentment, bill, or information, and upon proof by two witneſſes and thereupon preſentment made by the jury, to give order for the execution of this ſtatute, and for the recovery of the penalties. ſ. 10.

The juſtices of aſſiſe ſhall hear and determine every offence done by any juſtice of peace contrary to this act, and upon proof by two witneſſes and by preſentment of the jury, ſhall give order for recovery and employment of the penalties, and for default of juſtice to be done by the juſtices of peace or juſtices of aſſiſe, the one moiety of ſuch forfeitures to be one half to her majeſty, the other to him that will ſue for the ſame in any court of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 11.

All cloths aforeſaid, which ſhall be brought to London to be ſold, ſhall be brought into Blackwell-hall to be ſearched dry, without wetting, and out of market-times, by the ſearchers of the city; upon pain that every owner ſhall forfeit for every ſuch cloth not ſo brought into the market, 40 s. and upon pain that every ſearcher, that ſhall ſearch in the market-times to the diſturbance of the ſale of ſuch cloths, ſhall forfeit 5 l. which forfeitures ſhall be the one moiety to the queen, the other to ſuch perſons as ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 12.

By 43 Eliz. c. 10. Continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. and 16 Car. 1. c. 4. No perſon ſhall put any hair, flocks, thrums or yarn of lamb's wool, or other deceivable thing, in any broad woollen cloth, half cloth, kerſey, frize, dozen, peniſtone or cotton, Taunton cloth, Bridgewater, Dunſter cotton (which Dunſter cotton ſhall be of like weight, length and breadth, as Taunton and Bridgewater cloth or other cloth of what kind ſoever), made or offered to be ſold; upon pain to forfeit every ſuch cloth, &c. and upon pain that every perſon which ſhall buy, gather or procure, any hair, flocks, thrums, yarn or lamb's wool, or other deceivable thing for that intent, to forfeit the ſame hair, &c. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall have any tenter, inſtrument, engine, or other device, with any lower bar, pin, ring, or other device, wherewith any rough and unwrought woollen broad cloth, &c. may be ſtretched or ſtrained in breadth, or ſhall have any wrinch, ringhead, growm, rope or other engine, to ſtretch or ſtrain any rough and unwrought woollen cloth, &c. in length, made to be ſold; upon pain that every offender ſhall forfeit 20 l. the one half to the queen, and the other half to him that will ſue, &c. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall ſet any wrought woollen broad cloth, &c. made for ſale, upon any tenter, &c. to ſtretch or ſtrain the ſame; otherwiſe than the whole wrought woollen broad cloth one yard in length, and one half quarter in breadth; and the half cloth one half yard in length, and one half quarter in breadth; and the kerſey, cotton, dozen, peniſtone, frize and rug, one half yard in length, and one nail in breadth; or ſhall utter any wrought woollen cloth, &c. tentred, ſtrained or ſtretched, otherwiſe than aforeſaid; upon pain to forfeit every ſuch wrought woollen cloth, &c. ſ. 3.

No woollen broad cloth, &c. ſhall (being well ſcoured, thicked, milled and fully dried, offered to be ſold) exceed the lengths heretofore limited, upon pain of forfeiture of every ſuch broad woollen cloth, &c. ſ. 4.

Every woollen broad cloth, &c. ſhall (being well ſcoured, thicked, milled and fully dried) weigh the weight heretofore appointed, ſaving that Taunton cloths, Bridgewaters and other of like ſort, limited to weigh 34 pounds, may from henceforth weigh only 30 pounds; and ſaving that Suffolk, Norfolk, Eſſex and northern cloth, may be abated for the workmanſhip of the whole cloth four pounds, and for the half cloth two pounds. ſ. 5.

If any of the ſaid broad woollen cloths, &c. ſhall lack of the weight above three pounds in any whole broad cloth, or above one pound and half in one half broad cloth, Taunton cloth, Bridgewater, or other cloth of like ſort, or above one pound in one kerſey, cotton, dozen, peniſtone, frize, rug, or other woollen cloth, the offender ſhall forfeit for one pound wanting more than as aforeſaid, 10 s. and for

for two pounds, 20 s. and for three pounds, 40 s. and ſo double the forfeiture for every pound wanting, unleſs the party offending will yield the cloth, &c. forfeited. ſ. 6.

One ſtatute 39 Eliz. c. 20. as concerning views, ſeals, ſearchers, overſeers, penalties, &c. for northern cloths, ſhall extend to all woollen broad cloths, &c. ſ. 7.

Every broad woollen cloth, &c. ſealed by the overſeers, ſhall not be ſearched by any other ſearcher and overſeer of any other city, town or hamlet. ſ. 8.

The ſeveral branches of the ſeveral acts, viz. 5 Edw. 6. c. 6. and the act 4 & 5 Phil. & Mar. c. 5. and in the act 27 Eliz. c. 17. and in the act 35 Eliz. c. 9. concerning the exceeding of length of cloths, mentioned in the ſaid ſtatute 5 Edw. 6. ſhall be repealed, as concerning the over-lengths, and one other branch in 4 & 5 Phil. & Mar. concerning certificates of faulty cloths, ſhall be likewiſe repealed. ſ. 9.

No merchant, which ſhall tranſport beyond the ſeas any broad woollen cloth, &c. by reaſon of any clothier's or ſeller's hand to ſuch buyer's book or ticket, touching any defects, ſhall take any advantage. ſ. 10.

Every clauſe in any act concerning the ſaid abuſes in this act mentioned, and contrariant to this act, ſhall be void. ſ. 11.

All ſuch as ſhall offend againſt the act 39 Eliz. c. 20. obſerving this act, ſhall not incur any penalty mentioned in the act 39 Eliz. c. 20.; the moiety of all which forfeitures (not otherwiſe by this act appointed) ſhall be to the ſearchers and overſeers that ſhall find the ſame, and in their default, to him that ſhall find the ſame, and the other half to the poor of the pariſh. ſ. 12.

If any unwrought cloth, &c. tranſported beyond the ſeas, ſhall be found to have been tentered and ſtretched, by conſent of the maker or ſeller, ſuch buyer may at his own coſts return the ſame, and deliver it unto the maker or ſeller, with the ſeals fixed, and thereupon ſhall recover the value by action of debt, &c. againſt the maker or ſeller, by whoſe means the ſame was tentered. ſ. 14.

By 1 Jac. 1. c. 25. No perſon ſhall incur any penalty for want of length, breadth or weight, of Welſh cottons, under the price of 15 d. the yard, or 2 s. the goad, ſo as they be not mixt with hair or other deceitful ſtuff; nor for any others above that price, except they be mixt as aforeſaid, or ſhall ſhrink above half a yard in 12 yards, or weigh leſs than 14 ounces the yard, or hold not full three quarters of a yard broad. ſ. 28.

By 3 Jac. 1. c. 16. Continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. and 16 Car. 1. c. 4. Ordinary kerſeys ſhall not exceed 24 yards, yard and inch; and every ordinary kerſey of the length of 24 yards, being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, dreſſed and fully dried, ſhall weigh 28 pounds and one half; and ſorting kerſeys ſhall not exceed the length aforeſaid; and every ſorting kerſey of the length of 24 yards, being well ſcoured, &c. ſhall weigh 32 pounds and one half; and every kerſey of a ſhorter length ſhall weigh proportionably, viz. every ordinary kerſey one pound and three ounces for every yard, and every ſorting kerſey one pound three ounces and one half for every yard. ſ. 3.

If any kerſey ſhall either exceed the ſaid length of 24 yards, or ſhall not weigh according to the proportions aforeſaid, every perſon that ſhall make the ſame for ſale ſhall forfeit for every yard exceeding 24 ſuch yards, 5 s. only; and for every pound weight that ſhall be wanting, 2 s. and no more; the one moiety to the king, and the other moiety to them that will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 4.

By 4 Jac. 1. c. 2. And every broad cloth called Tauntons, Bridgewaters and Dunſters, made in the weſtern parts of Somerſetſhire, or of like making, ſhall contain, being wet, between 12 and 13 yards and inches, and in breadth 7 quarters; and being well ſcoured, &c. ſhall weigh 30 pounds. And every narrow cloth of like ſort ſhall contain in length, being wet, between 24 and 25 yards and inches, and in breadth one yard within the liſts, and liſted with a narrow liſt; and well ſcoured, &c. ſhall weigh 30 pounds; and the half cloth to be of a proportionable length and weight, and of like breadth. And all ſuch broad cloths and narrow cloths made within the county of York into whites and reds, the broad cloth to hold the ſame lengths, breadth and weight, but the narrow cloths to contain between 17 and 18 yards, and in weight proportionable. ſ. 7.

All Devonſhire kerſeys, called dozens, ſhall contain in length at the water between 12 and 13 yards and inches; and being well ſcoured, &c. ſhall weigh 13 pounds. And all check kerſeys, ſtraits and plain grays, ſhall contain in length at the water between 17 and 18 yards and inches, and in breadth one yard; and being well ſcoured, &c. ſhall weigh 24 pounds. And all ordinary peniſtones, or foreſt whites, ſhall contain in length in the water between 12 and 13 yards and inches, and in breadth five quarters and a half; and being clean ſcoured, &c. ſhall weigh 28 pounds. And ſorting peniſtones ſhall contain in length in the water between 13 and 14 yards and inches, and ſhall be in breadth ſix quarters and a half; and being clean ſcoured, &c. ſhall weigh 35 pounds. ſ. 8.

All cogware Kendal and Carptmeales ſhall be made as ſhall pleaſe the buyer, and ſhall not be ſearched or ſealed, or ſubject to any other penalty than ſuch as was impoſed thereon before the 39 Eliz. ſo as they ſhrink not above one yard for every twenty. ſ. 9.

All kerſeys called waſhers or waſh-whites, made in the counties of York, Lancaſter, or elſewhere, of like making, ſhall contain in length at the water, being half thicked, between 17 and 18 yards, and being quarter thicked, ſhall contain between 18 and 19 yards and inches; and being clean ſcoured and dried ſhall weigh 17 pounds. And no cloth-worker, ſheerman or fuller, ſhall raiſe or row any cloths or kerſeys with any greaſes or oils, but ſhall ſheer the cloth or kerſey plain and ſtrait, without laying in any oils or other liquid or moiſt thing, but only upon the edge of the ſheers with ſemet or oils, upon pain to forfeit 13 s. 4 d. And no cloth-worker, ſheerman or fuller, ſhall raiſe, full or row, or ſheer the liſts and ſides of cloths and kerſeys better than the midſt, but ſhall work all alike, upon pain of forfeiting for every cloth, kerſey, plain and ſtrait, done contrary, 13 s. 4 d. ſ. 10.

No perſon ſhall have for the cutting or taking away of the wool from the back ſides of any cloths and kerſeys any knife, rubſter, pumis-ſtone, or other device, but only to ſheer the back ſide with a pair of ſheers, upon pain of forfeiting for every piece wherein the ſame ſhall be ſo done, 13 s. 4 d. ſ. 11.

No perſon ſhall blow, ſpout or bedew any broad cloth or kerſey on the ſides near the liſts with water or other moiſt thing, whereby the edges may ſhew better than it is in the ridge, creſt or midſt, upon pain to forfeit 13 s. 4 d. And if any perſon ſhall blow, ſpout, wet or bedew with any liquid, any cloth or kerſey for increaſe of weight, to deceive the buyers or ſearchers, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 40 s. ſ. 12.

All the ſaid white cloths and coloured cloths, which by this act are not limited to be wrought, dreſſed and ſhorn, ſhall have allowance for the dying, dreſſing, rowing and ſheering, for every ſuch ſhort broad woollen cloths four pounds in weight, and the long cloths five pounds, and after that rate in every half woollen cloth, kerſey and other woollen cloth. ſ. 13.

Provided that where flannels, wadnals, and coverlets or blankets, are uſually made, the ſame may be made as heretofore. ſ. 16.

If any of the ſaid cloths mentioned in this act, made to be ſold, ſhall be more in length than is appointed in this act, every perſon ſelling the ſame, ſhall forfeit for every yard and inch exceeding the length appointed, 10 s. and no more. ſ. 17.

If any ſuch cloth ſhall not weigh proportionably to the weight appointed, the perſon ſelling the ſame ſhall forfeit for every pound weight that ſhall be wanting above two pounds, 10 s. and no more. ſ. 18.

If any ſuch cloth, not exceeding the lengths limited, and holding the weight, do want of the breadth, the perſon ſelling the ſame ſhall forfeit for every cloth falling narrow through the whole cloth, 20 s. and throughout half the cloth, 10 s. and under half the cloth, 5 s. only. ſ. 19.

If any cloths ſhall upon trial, within convenient time after ſale, in preſence of the party that ſold the ſame, or if he will not be preſent, having reaſonable notice, then in his abſence, be found of leſs length than the ſeals fixed purport, the owner, or perſon ſelling the ſame, ſhall forfeit to the perſon that ſhall have bought the ſame, for ſo much as ſhall be wanting of the length ſpecified in the ſeal, 6 s. 8 d. for every yard over and beſides the value of ſo much cloth as ſhall be found wanting. ſ. 20.

Every clauſe in any former ſtatute, whereby any other length, breadth or weight, of the cloths before mentioned, or any other penalty concerning the length, breadth or weight, of the aforeſaid cloths, or any other offence by this act intended to be reformed, is limited, or whereby any penalty for the offences in this bill mentioned are given to any other perſons, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 21.

None of the cloths aforeſaid which ought to be ſealed, being ſealed by the overſeers authoriſed by ſtatute of 39 Eliz. c. 20. as alſo by ſtatute 43 Eliz. c. 10. ſhall afterwards be ſearched or watered by any other, but only by the perſon to whom the ſame ſhall be ſold: and if any woollen cloth, upon the ſearch by the ſearchers or overſeers of the places where ſuch cloth is made, ſhall be found either to exceed the length, or to want of the weight, the ſaid ſearchers or overſeers certifying the ſaid over-length, and the weight that ſhall want by their ſeal, ſhall have one moiety of all forfeitures by this ſtatute given for exceſs of length or want of weight, and may ſue for the ſame, and the king ſhall have the other moiety. ſ. 22.

If any woollen cloths aforeſaid ſhall after ſuch ſearch in the country be found faulty in any thing not certified by the perſons buying the ſame, upon trial within convenient time after the ſale, in preſence of the party that ſold the ſame, or if he will not be preſent, having notice, then in his abſence, the perſon that bought the ſame, and no other, ſhall have one moiety of the penalties incurred, and not become due to the overſeers and ſearchers; and may ſue for the ſame in any court of record at Weſtminſter; and his majeſty ſhall have the other moiety. ſ. 23.

If

It ſhall be lawful for every clothier of what town or county ſoever, where clothing hath been uſed, to make any true woollen cloth, of what name or making ſoever, albeit the ſame do bear the name of ſome other county or town. ſ. 25.

By 7 Jac. 1. c. 7. Every lewd perſon who ſhall unjuſtly or deceitfully embezzle, ſell, or detain, any wool or yarn delivered by any perſon making cloths or ſtuffs, to any ſorter, carder, kember, ſpinſter, or weaver, as well the ſorter, &c. ſo offending, as the buyers and receivers, knowing the ſame, being convicted by confeſſion, or by one witneſs upon oath, before two juſtices of peace, or if within a town corporate, before the mayor or chief officer and one of the aldermen or moſt ſubſtantial perſons of the town, ſhall make the party grieved ſuch ſatisfaction, as by the juſtices, &c. ſhall be ordered. And if the parties offending, ſhall not be thought ſufficient, or do not make ſatisfaction, they ſhall for the firſt offence be apprehended and whipped, or ſet in the ſtocks, in the place where the offence was committed, or in ſome market town in the county; and for the ſecond offence incur the like or further puniſhment, by whipping or ſtocks. ſ. 2.

Every receiver of wool or yarn embezzled or purloined contrary to this act, knowing the ſame to be embezzled, &c. ſhall be ſubject to like puniſhment. ſ. 3.

Every ſpinner in Eſſex, that ſhall receive wool to be ſpun into yarn for any clothier, or maker of bays, ſays, or other ſtuffs, dwelling in Coggſhal, Bocking, Braintree, Halſteed, Wittam, or Colcheſter, and ſhall deliver back the yarn by any ſhorter reel than hath been there uſual, viz. two yards about, ſhall be ſubject to like puniſhment. ſ. 4.

By 7 Jac. 1. c. 16. All cogware, Kendals, coarſe cottons, and Carptmeales, made in Cumberland and Weſtmorland, or within the towns and pariſhes of Carptmeale, Hawkſhead, and Broughton, in the county of Lancaſter, whereof the dozen ſhall not exceed the price of 13 s. 4 d. ſhall be made as may pleaſe the buyer, and ſhall not be ſearched or ſealed. ſ. 2.

By 21 Jac. 1. c. 18. continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. and 16 Car. 1. c. 4. No perſon ſhall put any flocks noiles, thrums, hair, or other deceivable thing, into any broad woollen cloth, upon pain to forfeit 5 l. and no more, for every ſuch cloth, to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where ſuch cloth ſhall be made. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for any overſeer or ſearcher of cloth to enter into any houſes, ſhops, mills, or rooms, of any perſon ſuſpected to have made deceivable cloth, to ſearch all their cloths, and the mixture of their wools; and it ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices of peace, upon information or ſuſpicion of any ſuch offence, to grant their warrant to call before them any perſons that ſhall be thought fit to diſcover ſuch offence, and to examine upon oath ſuch perſons; and if it ſhall be found by teſtimony of two witneſſes, or by confeſſion of the party, that any ſuch offences have been committed, the party ſhall remain convicted: and it ſhall be lawful for the two juſtices to certify ſuch offence unto the churchwardens and overſeers of the poor of the pariſh where ſuch deceivable cloth ſhall be made. ſ. 4.

After ſuch certificate delivered, and warrant made to the ſaid overſeers and churchwardens, for the levying of the forfeiture, it ſhall be lawful to levy the ſum forfeited by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, and in defect of diſtreſs, it ſhall be lawful for the two juſtices to commit the party to the common gaol until payment of the ſum forfeited. And if any action be brought againſt any perſon for taking of ſuch diſtreſs, or any thing concerning the ſame, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſon to plead the general iſſue, and to be allowed double coſts. ſ. 5.

PART II.

The overſeers and ſearchers authoriſed to ſearch and weigh cloths, ſhall certify the ſame by their ſeals affixed to ſuch cloths, and with the word faulty thereon ſtamped, if there be cauſe. And none of the ſaid cloths, being formerly ſearched, weighed, and ſealed by the overſeers and ſearchers of the pariſh or place where made, ſhall afterwards be ſearched or weighed by any other officer; upon pain of forfeiture of 5 l. to the party grieved, who may ſue for the ſame at the quarter ſeſſions for the county or town corporate wherein ſuch offence ſhall be committed. ſ. 7.

Provided that all woollen cloths woven in any city or town corporate, ſhall be ſearched, tried, and ſealed, by the reſpective overſeers of cloth for the places where the ſame ſhall be woven, before ſuch cloths ſhall be offered to be ſold. ſ. 8.

No tenters for broad cloths made in the county of York to be ſold ſhall have any further chaſe to the under bar of ſuch tenters than half a quarter of a yard; and no tenters for narrow cloths, made within the ſaid county to be ſold, ſhall be allowed any farther liberty for the under bar, than half of a half quarter of a yard; and the overſeers and ſearchers of cloth within the county of York ſhall upon the penalties of their recognizances make due ſearch of the tenters; and if they find any tenter uſed contrary to this act they ſhall deface ſuch tenters. ſ. 9.

If any perſon whoſe tenters ſhall be once defaced ſhall eftſoons offend, ſuch perſons ſhall for every their offence forfeit 40 s. to the uſe of the poor. ſ. 10.

Every overſeer of cloth appointed to fix a ſeal of lead, ſhall upon the penalty of their recognizance engrave upon their ſeals, their chriſtian and ſurname; and no cloths ſealed with any ſeal which ſhall want ſuch engraving, ſhall be allowed ſufficiently ſealed. All preſſing of cloths with deceitful means, with any heat of fire, ſhall be adjudged to be preſſing with a hot preſs, and puniſhed with the like forfeitures. ſ. 11.

All penalties for want of length, breadth, and weight of cloth, ſhall be diſtributed into three parts, whereof one third ſhall be to the overſeers and ſearchers, finding the default, to be recovered by them, at the general quarter-ſeſſions, by actions of debt, &c. and the other parts ſhall be to the poor of the pariſh where the cloth ſhall be made, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods, by the churchwardens and overſeers of the poor of ſuch pariſh. ſ. 12.

By 21 Jac. 1. c. 28. ſ. 5. and 3 Car. 1. c. 4. ſ. 26. No perſon ſhall incur any penalty for want of length, breadth, or weight of Welſh cottons, under the price of 15 d. the yard, or two ſhillings the goad; nor for others above that price, except they be mixed with hair, or other deceitful ſtuff, or ſhall ſhrink above half a yard in 12, or weigh leſs than 14 ounces the yard, or hold not full three quarters of a yard broad.

By 12 Car. 2. c. 22. The governors of the Dutch Bay-hall in Colcheſter and the Dutch people there, ſhall exerciſe the free trade of making bays, ſays, and other foreign draperies in Colcheſter, and be permitted to govern the ſaid trade in as ample manner as they have enjoyed the ſame by virtue of any grant made by queen Elizabeth, king James, or the late king Charles. ſ. 1.

If any perſons ſhall weave in Colcheſter any bay known by the name of four and fifties, ſixties, ſixty-eights, eighties, and hundred bays, and ſhall not within two days after ſuch weaving, carry ſuch bay to the Dutch Bay-hall called the Raw-hall, to be viewed and ſearched before the ſaid bay ſhall be carried to be ſcoured and thicked; or if any fuller or thicker ſhall receive any ſuch bay to be fulled and thicked, before the ſaid bay hath been carried to the Raw-hall and ſtamped; every ſuch weaver, fuller, and thicker, ſhall forfeit for the firſt offence 40*s.* to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and ſuch forfeitures, in caſe ſuch bay be made by an Engliſh maſter-maker, to be accounted for to the mayor and commonalty of the town for the benefit of the poor; and in caſe ſuch bay be the bay of a Dutch maſter-maker, the ſame to be diſpoſed of by the governors of the Dutch Bay-hall, for the uſe of the poor of the Dutch congregation; and for the ſecond offence ſhall forfeit 5 l. in manner aboveſaid; and for the third offence not to be permitted to work any more in Colcheſter. ſ. 2.

If any perſon ſhall buy any of the aforeſaid bays, or carry ſuch bay out of Colcheſter before the ſaid bay hath been viewed, ſearched, ſtamped, and meaſured, by the ſworn officers of the Dutch Bay-hall, the ſaid bay ſhall be confiſcated; the one moiety to him that ſhall ſeize the ſame, and the other moiety to the poor of the pariſh where the ſaid bay ſhall be taken. ſ. 3.

If any perſon ſhall counterfeit any of the ſeals uſed by the corporation or congregation of the Dutch Bay-hall in Colcheſter, or ſhall, not being the officer by the corporation appointed, affix any ſuch ſeal to any Colcheſter bays, every perſon ſo offending, ſhall, for his firſt offence, forfeit to the uſe of the governors of the Dutch Bay-hall, 20 l. to be recovered in any of his majeſty's courts of record, or in the town-court of Colcheſter; and for the ſecond offence ſhall ſtand in the pillory in the market or moſt public place where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, for one hour; and for the third offence ſhall ſuffer as a felon; and if any bays ſhall be taken carrying out of Colcheſter without the mark of the maker, all ſuch bays ſhall be forfeited. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for the governors of the Dutch Bay-hall or their officers, in the day-time, to ſearch any cart, waggon, or pack, wherein they ſhall ſuſpect any ſuch deceitful bays to be; and alſo with a conſtable to make ſearch in any houſe, ſhop, or warehouſe, where they are informed any ſuch deceitful bays to be, and to ſeize and carry the ſame to the Dutch Bay-hall, and ſuch bays ſhall be diſpoſed as the forfeitures before-mentioned. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for the governors of the Dutch Bay-hall to make by-laws. ſ. 6.

Provided that no ſuch by-law be made in diminution of the prerogative, or the laws be executed, until the ſame have been approved by the lord chancellor, lord treaſurer, or chief juſtice of either bench or any three of them, or before both the juſtices of aſſize in their circuit in the county of Eſſex, upon pain of 20 l. ſ. 7.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 5. There ſhall be twelve wardens and thirty aſſiſtants, which are to be maſter-weavers, within the county of the city of Norwich, and county of Norfolk; ſix of which wardens, and fifteen of the aſſiſtants, ſhall be choſen on the next Monday after Pentecoſt, by the maſter-weavers of Norwich; and the other ſix wardens, and fifteen aſſiſtants, ſhall be choſen upon the ſame day within the city of Norwich, or county of Norfolk, by the maſter-weavers of Norfolk. And the ſaid wardens ſhall, within fourteen days after they ſhall be choſen, and notice thereof given, take the oath enſuing, to be adminiſtered by the mayor of the city, and the ſteward of the duchy within the ſaid county, or before the ſaid mayor only, viz. I A. B. do ſwear, that I will well, faithfully, and honeſtly perform and diſcharge the office of a warden of the trade of worſted-weavers, according to the beſt of my ſkill, power and knowledge. And the aſſiſtants, within the time aforeſaid, ſhall take the like oath; and if any of the wardens ſo choſen ſhall refuſe to take the oath, or die before the end of the year, it ſhall be lawful for the maſter-weavers of the city and county reſpectively, to chuſe others. ſ. 2.

The wardens and aſſiſtants, or thirteen of them, whereof ſeven to be wardens, ſhall meet and conſult for the benefit of the trade, ſo often as ſhall ſeem expedient, or when it ſhall be deſired by eight aſſiſtants, at Weavers-hall in the ſaid city, or ſuch other place as they ſhall think fit; and any thirteen of the wardens and aſſiſtants, whereof ſeven to be wardens, ſhall have power to make by-laws for the regulation of the worſted and other ſtuffs, which ſhall be made within the ſaid city and county, both in length, breadth and goodneſs, and of ſuch other particulars as ſhall be adjudged requiſite for the better regulating the trade and the artificers, which by-laws being confirmed by the mayor and two juſtices of peace of Norwich, and three juſtices of peace of Norfolk (whereof one of the quorum), ſhall be publiſhed four times in the year, at four public aſſemblies for the trade, and ſhall be obeyed by the ſeveral perſons under the ſaid regulation. ſ. 3.

The ſaid wardens and aſſiſtants ſhall have power to impoſe a fine or penalty upon any perſon under ſuch regulation as ſhall not conform to ſuch rules. ſ. 4.

Provided that the fine or penalty ſhall not exceed 10*s.* for one offence. ſ. 5.

The wardens and aſſiſtants of Norwich ſhall give perſonal notice unto the wardens of Norfolk, or two of them, of the time when they intend to conſider of the making of by-laws, and ſhall ſet it up upon the door of their ſealing-hall, 14 days before they ſhall proceed to the making the ſame. ſ. 6.

All yarns uſed by the worſted-weavers ſhall be made without fraud, and ſhall be reeled on a reel of a full yard about, and every reel-ſtaff ſhall contain fourteen leas, and every lea forty threads, twelve of which reel-ſtaffs ſhall make a dozen, and twelve of theſe dozens a groſs; and in caſe any perſon ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, any of the ſaid yarns, made and reeled in other manner, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit the moiety of the value of the yarns, to the uſe of the trade after charges of ſuit deducted, which forfeiture ſhall be recovered by action in any of the king's courts of record. ſ. 7.

It ſhall be lawful for the wardens and aſſiſtants, or two of them, to view and ſearch in all fairs and markets, and other public places of ſale of yarns, within the city of Norwich and county of Norfolk, all yarns expoſed to ſale; and ſuch as they find defective, it ſhall be lawful for them to ſeize, and bring the ſame, within twenty days after ſeizure, to trial by a jury, in ſuch manner as is limited for defective ſtuffs; which jury ſhall have power to ſet fines upon the yarns, the ſame not to exceed the moiety of the yarn, and to go to the poor of the trade. ſ. 8.

No perſon ſhall be doubly puniſhed for one offence touching yarns. ſ. 9.

All ſorts of ſtuffs, whether woven of woollen only, or of wool and other materials, within the city of Norwich and county of Norfolk, and the makers of the ſame, ſhall be under the regulation of the wardens and aſſiſtants; except ſuch ſtuffs as are under the regulation of the wardens and fellowſhip of the myſtery of ruſſel-ſattens, ſattens reverſes, and fuſtians of Norwich-making, within the city of Norwich: and all ſtuffs made under the regulation aforeſaid, before the ſame ſhall be put to ſale, ſhall be brought to Weavers-hall in Norwich, to be viewed and ſearched by the wardens; and if the ſame be found well made, ſuch ſtuffs ſhall be ſealed and allowed, without any money paid; and if any ſuch ſtuffs ſhall be found defective, ſuch defective ſtuffs ſhall be ſeized by the wardens, and tried by a jury jury of worſted-weavers, ſix of the city of Norwich, and ſix of the county of Norfolk, who ſhall be impanelled by a precept of the mayor of Norwich; and if any ſo impanelled ſhall fail in appearance, the number to be made up either of the maſter-weavers of Norwich, or of the county of Norfolk, by a precept from the mayor; which jury ſhall try the ſtuffs, and find whether they be made according to this act, and the by-laws made by virtue thereof, and ſhall have power to impoſe a fine, not exceeding the moiety of the value of the defective ſtuffs, the ſame fines to go to the uſe of the trade; and thoſe ſtuffs found defective, to be detained until the fines be paid; which if the owner ſhall not pay to the wardens within forty days after the trial, the ſtuffs to be ſold by any two of the wardens. ſ. 10.

If any warden ſhall ſeal any ſtuffs, which ſhall afterwards be diſcovered to be defective, and found ſo to be by a jury of twelve artificers, before the mayor and the ſteward of the duchy, if preſent, they ſhall have power to ſet a fine upon the wardens offending, for every piece of defective ſtuff ſo ſealed, not exceeding 40*s.* which ſhall be to the uſe of the king; and any ſuch jury ſhall likewiſe inquire into all other frauds and abuſes of the wardens and aſſiſtants in their offices, and puniſh them in ſuch manner as other offenders. ſ. 11.

If the wardens be unjuſtly moleſted, and if ſuch ſtuffs be found by the jury to be good, or that they or the aſſiſtants are not guilty of any ſuch frauds or abuſes as they are complained of for, the perſons ſo cauſeleſly moleſting, ſhall pay to the wardens or aſſiſtants double damages. ſ. 12.

It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon to buy any piece of ſtuff, before the ſame be ſealed; and if any piece of ſtuff be found in the poſſeſſion of any perſon unſealed, except the maker, the perſon in whoſe cuſtody the ſame ſhall be found, ſhall be adjudged guilty of deceit, and ſhall forfeit for every ſuch piece, 4*s.* and the maker and ſeller of the ſame, who ſhall deliver the ſame, ſhall likewiſe forfeit 4*s.* to the poor of the trade. ſ. 13.

If any perſon ſhall counterfeit any ſeal of the trade, or ſhall ſeal any piece of ſtuff under the regulation with any counterfeit ſeal, or ſhall remove a ſeal off one piece and ſet it to another which hath not been ſealed by the wardens, every perſon being thereof convicted by confeſſion, or by oath of two witneſſes, before the mayor, or any juſtice of peace of Norwich, or county of Norfolk, ſhall forfeit 20*l.* to the king. ſ. 14.

No perſon ſhall uſe the ſame trade as a weaver, unleſs he hath ſerved as an apprentice ſeven years, upon pain of 40*s.* for every month; the one half to the king, and the other half to the perſon who will ſue in any of his majeſty's courts of record. ſ. 15.

Every perſon under the ſaid regulation ſhall weave his ſtuff-mark into every piece at the head-end, upon pain of 3*s.* for every piece that ſhall be woven without ſuch mark, to the uſe of the poor of the trade. ſ. 11.

The wardens and aſſiſtants, or two of them, ſhall have power to enter into, and ſearch the houſes and work-houſes of any artificers within the city of Norwich, and county of Norfolk, under the regulation of the ſaid wardens and aſſiſtants, and the ſhops, houſes and warehouſes of any merchant, common buyer, and retailer of the ſaid ſtuffs, and the houſe and work-houſe of any dyer, ſheer-man, calender, or other workman's houſe and place of ſale, and dreſſing of the ſaid ſtuffs, at all times of the day, and uſual times of working, and may there ſearch the ſtuffs; and if any ſuch ſtuff ſhall be found faulty, they ſhall ſeize the ſame to be brought to trial, and proceeded againſt in manner before mentioned. ſ. 17.

Whatſoever perſon under the regulation of the ſaid trade, ſhall employ two apprentices, ſhall likewiſe employ two journeymen; and no maſter-weaver under the regulation, ſhall have above two apprentices, or any week-boy, to weave in a loom in worſted-weaving; upon pain for every month of 5*l.* to the king. ſ. 18.

If any perſon will not permit the wardens or aſſiſtants to execute their office, every perſon ſo offending, being convicted by the oath of one witneſs before the mayor, or one juſtice of peace of Norwich or Norfolk reſpectively, ſhall forfeit 40*s.* ſ. 19.

If any perſon ſummoned upon any jury, according to this act, ſhall neglect to appear, he ſhall forfeit 5*s.* to the poor of the trade, which penalties appointed to the poor of the trade, the recovery of which is not otherwiſe provided, ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant of the mayor or any juſtice of peace of Norwich or Norfolk, or by action in any his majeſty's courts of record. ſ. 20.

No weaver ſhall ſet any loom on work for the weaving of any ſtuffs under the ſaid regulation in the time of harveſt, from the 15th of Auguſt until the 15th of September, upon pain of 40*s.* for every loom. ſ. 21.

An account ſhall be made at the four aſſemblies by the wardens before the mayor and one of the juſtices of Norwich, and two juſtices of Norfolk, of all forfeitures belonging to the trade, and of the diſburſements touching the trade, and the overplus ſhall be divided into two parts, one moiety to be diſpoſed of by the wardens and aſſiſtants of Norwich, and the other by the wardens and aſſiſtants of Norfolk, for the uſe of the poor, in ſuch manner as the mayor and juſtices reſpectively ſhall order. ſ. 22.

All mayors, &c. ſhall be aſſiſting to the wardens and aſſiſtants, and in all actions brought for acting according to this act, the perſons may plead the general iſſue of not guilty, and ſhall recover double coſts. ſ. 23.

This act ſhall not extend to compel the weavers of Yarmouth and Lynn, to bring their wares to Norwich to be ſealed, or deprive them of ſuch liberties as are granted by 14 Hen. 8. c. 3. or any other grant. ſ. 24.

By 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 8. ſ. 2. There ſhall be choſen one preſident, four wardens and eight aſſiſtants, all maſter weavers within the borough of Kidderminſter in the county of Worceſter, the firſt Monday after Penteceſt yearly at ſome public place, by the maſter weavers of the ſaid borough; and the ſaid preſident, wardens and aſſiſtants, ſhall within fourteen days after they be elected, and notice thereof, take the following oath, which any juſtice of peace of the borough is required to adminiſter, viz.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will well, faithfully, and honeſtly perform and diſcharge the office of preſident, &c. mutatis mutandis, of the trade of clothiers and ſtuff-weavers within the borough and pariſh of Kidderminſter, according to the beſt of my ſkill, power, and knowledge.

If the ſaid preſident, &c. ſhall refuſe to take the oath, or ſhall die before the end of the year, it ſhall be lawful for the maſter-weavers to chuſe another preſident, &c. ſ. 3.

The ſaid preſident, wardens and aſſiſtants, or any ſeven of them, whereof the preſident and three wardens to be preſent, ſhall meet and conſult for the good of the trade, and make by-laws for regulation of the trade and artificers of the ſame, and make ſeals for ſealing ſtuffs; which by-laws being confirmed by the juſtices of aſſize for the county of Worceſter, ſhall be publiſhed twice in the year at two public aſſemblies, and ſhall be obeyed by the perſons uſing the ſame trade under the ſaid regulation. And the ſaid preſident, ſident, wardens, &c. ſhall have power to impoſe a fine or penalty upon ſuch perſons not conforming to ſuch by-laws ſ. 4.

Provided that the fine or penalty exceed not 40 s. for one offence. ſ. 5.

If any perſon choſen preſident, warden or aſſiſtant, and notice given by the bailiff of the borough, ſhall neglect to execute the place or to take the oath; ſuch perſon ſhall be fined at the diſcretion of the bailiff or any one juſtice of peace of the borough, ſuch fine not to exceed 5 l. which fine ſhall be levied by warrant under the hands and ſeals of the bailiff and one juſtice on the goods of the offender by diſtreſs and ſale, and ſhall be employed to the uſe of the poor artificers of the trade at the diſcretion of the bailiff and any one juſtice. ſ. 6.

All linen yarn reeled and uſually bought by the lea, uſed by the ſtuff-weavers within the ſaid borough, ſhall be made without deceit, and openly bought in ſome market-place, on the market-day within the borough, to be appointed by the bailiff; and before the ſame be expoſed to ſale, ſhall be reeled on a reel four yards about, every lea containing two hundred threads. ſ. 7.

In caſe any perſon ſhall expoſe to ſale any the yarns aforeſaid, made or reeled in other manner; it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid preſident, &c. or any two of them, to ſeize all ſuch defective yarns, which within twenty days after ſhall be tried by a jury of twelve artificers, ſummoned by a precept under the hands and ſeals of the bailiff and any one juſtice of peace, to appear at the Guildhall of the ſaid borough: and if the jury ſhall find the ſaid yarns not made and reeled according to this act and the by-laws made by virtue thereof, the ſaid bailiff and juſtice ſhall impoſe fines upon the owners of defective yarns, not exceeding the value of the moiety of ſuch defective yarns; which fines the owners ſhall pay to the preſident, to be diſpoſed of as to the preſident, wardens and aſſiſtants ſhall ſeem meet at their next public meeting within thirty days after the trial; and in default thereof the ſaid yarns to be ſold by the preſident and two of the wardens, and the overplus reſtored to the owners. ſ. 8.

All cloths and ſtuffs woven with wool within the ſaid borough, ſhall be under the regulation of the preſident, wardens and aſſiſtants. ſ. 9.

All cloths and ſtuffs made under the ſaid regulation, before the ſame be put to ſale, ſhall be brought to ſome place within the borough to be appointed by the preſident and wardens, to be viewed by the preſident and one warden, or two wardens; and if the ſame be found well made, they ſhall be ſealed and allowed; and if they be conceived not to be well made, they ſhall be ſeized and brought to trial, and the owners fined, as before limited for linen yarn. ſ. 10.

The preſident, wardens, and aſſiſtants, or any two of them, ſhall have power to enter and ſearch the houſes of any artificer, under the ſaid regulation, at uſual times of working, and the houſes of any dealer in the ſaid cloths and ſtuffs, and there view the ſaid cloths, ſtuffs, and yarns, and if any be found defective, to carry away the ſame to be tried. ſ. 11.

It ſhall not be lawful to buy any cloths or ſtuffs made within the ſaid borough, before the ſame be ſealed; and if any be found unſealed (except in poſſeſſion of the firſt owner), the perſons in whoſe cuſtody the ſame ſhall be found, ſhall be adjudged guilty of deceit, and ſhall forfeit for every piece 4 s. and the maker ſhall forfeit other 4 s. to the uſe of the poor of the trade. ſ. 12.

If any perſon ſhall counterfeit any ſeal of the trade, or ſhall remove a ſeal off one piece and ſet it to another which hath not been ſealed; every perſon ſo offending and convict by confeſſion or oath of two witneſſes, by any juſtice of peace of the borough, ſhall forfeit 20 l. ſ. 13.

Every perſon under the regulation of the ſaid trade, who ſhall employ two apprentices, ſhall likewiſe employ two journeymen, upon pain to forfeit 20 s. a month. ſ. 14.

One moiety of all penalties in this act, not otherwiſe appointed, ſhall be to the king, the other to the uſe of the poor of the trade; and ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, by warrant under the hands and ſeals of the bailiff and one juſtice, or be recovered by action of debt, &c. ſ. 15.

All officers ſhall be aſſiſting to the preſident, wardens, and aſſiſtants; and in all actions brought for what ſhall be done in purſuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue, not guilty; and ſhall recover double coſts. ſ. 16.

By 7 Ann. c. 13. Every broad cloth made in Yorkſhire, and well ſcoured and fully milled, ſhall be five quarters and a half in breadth, within the liſts, in water. An end or half cloth fully wet ſhall not exceed 23 yards in length. Every long or whole cloth, being fully wet, ſhall not exceed 46 yards in length. And whole thick kerſeys, and whole thick plains, ſhall be 17 yards and a half long, and three quarters and a half broad when fully wet. ſ. 1.

Any perſon making or expoſing to ſale any of the ſaid cloths, not made according to the ſaid breadths and lengths, and being convicted by the oath of any ſearcher of cloth in Yorkſhire, or by the oath of one witneſs, before one juſtice of peace (no trader in the woollen manufacture), ſhall, for every inch wanting in the breadths, and for every yard the long or whole cloths ſhall exceed 46 yards, and the end or half cloths ſhall exceed 23 yards, and for every half yard the whole thick kerſeys or whole thick plains, ſhall be leſs in length than ſeventeen yards and a half, forfeit 20 s. ſ. 2.

The occupier of every fulling-mill in Yorkſhire, where the ſaid cloths ſhall be milled or fulled, ſhall, before it is carried from the mill, fix at each end of the cloth a ſeal of lead, riveted and ſtamped with his name, with the number of yards and inches, which the cloths contain in length and breadth when wet, ſcoured, and milled, for which the owner ſhall pay a penny. ſ. 3.

The fuller neglecting to fix ſuch ſeal, or any perſon defacing or altering the figures, before the cloth is exported or ſold to the retailers, or ſtretching or ſtraining any piece of the woollen cloth more than an inch in breadth in a quarter of a yard, or any piece of the broad cloths more than a yard in 20 yards in length, or the whole thick kerſeys, and whole thick plains, more than half a yard in every 17 yards and a half, or if any fuller ſhall mill or full in any one ſtock, at the ſame time, more than one whole broad cloth, or two half broad cloths, and being convicted as aforeſaid, he ſhall forfeit 20 s. ſ. 4.

One moiety of the forfeitures ſhall be to the informer, the other moiety to the poor of the place where the offence was committed. And an offender neglecting to pay in ſeven days after conviction, the juſtice before whom he was convicted may grant a warrant to the conſtable to levy by diſtreſs; and if no ſufficient diſtreſs can be had, then to commit him to the houſe of correction or gaol, to be kept to hard labour, for any time not exceeding one month for one offence. ſ. 5.

Provided that the penalties ſhall be inflicted within ten days next after the offences are diſcovered. ſ. 6.

If any ſuch cloths, without the wilful default of the maker, maker, ſhall in ſome parts be leſs than the reſpective breadth, not exceeding in the whole one fifth part in length, yet ſuch may be ſold without incurring the penalty. ſ. 7.

The party grieved by the conviction of the juſtice, may appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions, and if the ſeſſions ſhall confirm or diſannul the juſtice's order, they may allow coſts. ſ. 8.

If any action is brought for putting this act in execution, the defendant may plead the general iſſue, and ſhall recover treble coſts. And this act ſhall be a public act. ſ. 9.

All acts relating to the aſcertaining the length, breadth, or weight of woollen cloths, within the Weſt Riding of York, were repealed by 5 Geo. 3. c. 51.

By 10 Ann. c. 16. All mixture or medley broad cloth ſhall be meaſured at the fulling mill after it is milled, ſcoured, and thoroughly wet, by the maſter of the mill, who muſt take oath before ſome neighbouring juſtice, that he will truly perform ſuch meaſuring; and the juſtice ſhall give him a certificate that he hath made ſuch oath; and the fuller ſhall fix a leaden ſeal at the head of every cloth, before it ſhall be carried from the mill, which ſeal the owner of the cloth ſhall provide; and the fuller ſhall rivet the ſeal on the cloth, and ſtamp his name on it, mentioning in figures the length and breadth thereof, the owner of the cloth paying him a penny. And the length and number of yards ſo ſtamped on the ſeal ſhall be a rule of payment by the buyer of the cloth. Provided that if after the cloth hath been milled, ſealed, and ſtamped, any part ſhall by accident be damaged and taken off, the remaining part ſhall be again meaſured, ſealed, and ſtamped. ſ. 1.

The fuller neglecting to fix the ſeal, or any perſon taking off or altering the figure before the cloth is ſold, and if the buyer ſhall refuſe to accept the ſame, according to the meaſures hereby directed, the perſon offending, and convicted by oath of one witneſs, ſhall forfeit 20 s. for every cloth. ſ. 2.

No clothier or clothworker ſhall, after any medley broad cloth is fully wet, ſealed, and ſtamped, ſtretch the ſame above one yard in twenty, or above one nail in the breadth; the offender being convicted before the cloth is ſold, or expoſed to ſale, ſhall forfeit 20 s. ſ. 3.

Every mill-man and fuller ſhall have in his mill a table 12 foot long and 3 foot wide, whereon the cloth ſhall be doubled and laid plain, with the length of a yard nailed thereon, to which ſhall be added one inch, ſo that the ſame contain 37 inches. Perſons neglecting to keep ſuch table forfeit 10 l. ſ. 4.

Every perſon concerned in the woollen manufacture ſhall pay their workmen in money and not in goods, under the penalty of 20 s. for every offence. ſ. 6.

Offences againſt this ſtatute ſhall be heard and determined by one juſtice of peace, upon the oath of one witneſs, ſo as the juſtice of the peace be not concerned in the matter of complaint; and one moiety of the forfeitures ſhall be to the informer, and the other to the poor of the pariſh where the offence is committed: if the offender neglect to pay the forfeitures 14 days after conviction, the juſtice of peace may iſſue his warrant to the conſtable to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and if no diſtreſs can be had, then to commit him to the gaol or houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour not exceeding three months for one offence. ſ. 7.

Provided that the proſecution be within 30 days after the offence is diſcovered. ſ. 8.

Perſons aggrieved by the warrant or order of the juſtice may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions, giving notice; and if the ſeſſions ſhall vacate or confirm the order or warrant, they may allow coſts to the party aggrieved. ſ. 9.

Any perſon ſued for any thing done in execution of this act, may plead the general iſſue, and ſhall have treble coſts. And this act ſhall be a public act. ſ. 10.

This act ſhall not extend to any cloth made in the county of York, nor to invalidate any of the powers contained in an act, 7 Ann. c. 13. ſ. 11.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 15. All mixed or medley broad cloth ſhall, at the inſtance of the buyer, be put into water, and then meaſured by two indifferent perſons, to be choſen, one by the buyer, and another by the ſeller; and if they diſagree, in aſcertaining the length and breadth, then the admeaſurement ſhall be made by a third perſon, choſen by the two perſons appointed as before; and if the ſaid two perſons ſhall not in two hours chuſe ſuch third perſon, or if being choſen, he will not take upon him the admeaſurement, then, if in London, it ſhall be finally determined by the keeper of Blackwell-hall, who ſhall be ſworn before ſome juſtice of peace, truly to perform ſuch meaſuring; and ſuch admeaſurement ſhall be concluſive to all parties, and be the rule of payment to the buyer; and if elſewhere than in London, the ſaid cloth ſhall be meaſured by any two indifferent perſons, as aforeſaid, and if they diſagree, or refuſe to make the admeaſurement, or to appoint a third perſon, then a fit perſon ſhall be appointed by the chief magiſtrate of ſuch city, &c. where the cloth ſhall be ſold, who ſhall ſwear ſuch perſon, and he determining the meaſure of ſuch cloth, ſhall receive 6 d. for each piece meaſured, to be paid by the buyer. And if on ſuch admeaſurement there be found a leſs quantity in length or breadth than is mentioned in the ſeal directed by the act 10 Ann. c. 16. to be fixed to ſuch cloth by the maſter, &c. of the fulling-mill, then the ſeller of ſuch cloth ſhall forfeit the ſixth part of the value thereof; and the ſaid forfeiture ſhall be paid by the buyer, and by him deducted out of the price of the cloth, on certificate thereof by any of the perſons meaſuring the ſame, and making oath thereof before a juſtice of peace, who is to give the ſaid perſon a certificate without fee: and all ſuch money as the ſeller of ſuch cloth ſhall pay, on account of ſuch fraudulent ſeal, ſhall on demand be repaid by the maſter, &c. who affixed the ſeal, to the owner of ſuch cloth. ſ. 1.

If any maſter, &c. of a fulling-mill, ſhall neglect to take the oath directed by the act 10 Ann. c. 16. or to fix a ſeal at the head-end of every medley broad cloth before it be carried from the mill, or to enter the ſame in a book; or if any perſon ſhall take off, deface, counterfeit, or alter ſuch ſeal, or add any other before the cloth is ſold, he ſhall, being convicted by oath of one witneſs, forfeit 20 l. in diſcharge of the 20 s. that may be incurred by virtue of the ſaid former act. ſ. 2.

The hall-keeper of Blackwell-hall ſhall, at the charge of Chriſt's Hoſpital, have in the ſaid hall a table 30 yards long, to each of which yards ſhall be added one inch, ſo that each yard ſhall conſiſt of 37 inches, and ſhall be diſtinguiſhed by a mark along the table, and three foot wide, whereon the cloth ſhall be doubled and laid at length, where the ſaid admeaſurement of any medley broad cloth, if in London, ſhall be made, and the cloth ſhall be there put in water before ſuch admeaſurement. ſ. 3.

The buyer of medley broad cloths ſhall, within ſix days after delivery, give two days notice to the ſeller, or his factor, of the time when ſuch cloth is to be wetted, unleſs it be by conſent of the buyer and ſeller in writing; and if the ſeller or his factor doth not appoint an indifferent perſon, nor attend the admeaſurement, which ſhall be made within within eight days after delivery, then the buyer or his agent may prove the cloth by water at Blackwell-hall, and the hall-keeper ſhall meaſure the ſame on the table, and aſcertain the true meaſure, and make a certificate thereof; which certificate ſhall, within ten days after ſuch admeaſurement, be filed with the clerk of the peace, who is to file the ſame among the records of the county, &c. and for ſo doing he ſhall have 1 s. and ſuch certificate ſhall be the rule of payment to the buyer, and ſhall be deemed a ſpecial conviction of the parties offending, to make them forfeit as aforeſaid. And the clerk of the peace or his deputy is to give an atteſted copy of ſuch certificate to any perſon demanding the ſame, for which he ſhall have 1 s.; which atteſted copy is to be a ſufficient authority to the clothier, &c. to demand of the maſter, &c. of the fulling-mill, the forfeitures deducted out of the price of any of the cloths aforeſaid, for want of length or breadth contained in the ſeals. ſ. 4.

All medley broad cloths, which ſhall be expoſed to ſale in England, ſhall be ſtamped with the watch-meaſure thereof, on the ſeal of the maſter, &c. of the fulling-mill, by whom the cloth was wetted, fulled, and milled; and every clothier putting to ſale ſuch cloth before ſealed and ſtamped, on which ſeal ſhall be ſpecified the name of the ſaid maſter, &c. of the fulling-mill, the length and breadth of the cloth, with a crown on the rivet of the ſeal, ſhall forfeit the ſixth part of the cloth. ſ. 5.

All offences againſt this act ſhall be determined by one juſtice of the county, &c. (not being concerned in the matter of complaint) where the ſame ſhall be diſcovered, or the offender inhabits, upon the oath of one witneſs. And all the forfeitures by this act ſhall be paid (after charges of conviction deducted), if in London, to the uſe of Chriſt's Hoſpital; if in any other place, to the poor of the pariſh, &c. where the offence ſhall be diſcovered: and if any offender refuſe to pay the forfeitures (being lawfully demanded) 30 days after conviction; or if the owner, &c. of the fulling-mill refuſe to pay the forfeiture for want of length or breadth of admeaſurement, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice before whom the conviction was made, or where ſuch owner, &c. inhabits, to iſſue his warrant to the conſtable where ſuch offender dwells, or can be found, to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, and where no diſtreſs can be found, to commit the offender to the common gaol or houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour three calendar months. ſ. 7.

All offences committed againſt this act, ſaving in the caſe of the mill-man, on refuſal of payment of the forfeitures for want of length and breadth, ſhall be proſecuted in 40 days after the offence diſcovered. ſ. 8.

If any action ſhall be commenced againſt any perſon authoriſed to put this act in execution, he may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuit, &c. the defendant ſhall have treble coſts. And this act ſhall be a public act. ſ. 9.

If any perſon finds himſelf aggrieved by any warrant or order made by any juſtice on any ſuch conviction, he may appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions, giving notice; and the determination of ſuch quarter-ſeſſions ſhall be final; and the juſtices there ſhall allow coſts. ſ. 10.

Nothing herein ſhall affect any factor or his agent, who ſhall be only employed in the ſale of medley broad cloth. ſ. 11.

Every clothier, &c. ſhall make payment in ready money to all perſons employed in the woollen manufacture, and ſhall not deliver any goods for ſuch work: and in caſe any perſon, in lieu of money, impoſe on any workmen ſuch goods, &c. he ſhall forfeit 40*s.* ſ. 12.

No other than the clothier or the owner of the cloth ſhall be capable of ſuing the factor, on account of not demanding notes purſuant to the act 8 Will. 3. c. 9. (which ſee in "London," Blackwell-hall), and no proſecution ſhall be commenced for any forfeitures mentioned in the ſaid act, unleſs within 12 months after the offence committed. ſ. 13.

Any thing herein contained ſhall not extend to any cloth made in the county of York, or to repeal any of the authorities mentioned in the act 7 Ann. c. 13. ſ. 14.

Yorkſhire cloths, whole thick kerſeys, whole thick plains, huggabags, and broken quilted kerſeys, ſhall not be made under 18 yards in length, and not leſs than three quarters and a half in breadth, when fully wet; and ſhall be contented and ſealed as Yorkſhire cloths are directed to be by the ſame act under the penalties therein mentioned: and if any perſon ſhall expoſe to ſale any Yorkſhire cloths not according to the ſame length and breadth, and be thereof convicted as offenders by the ſame are to be, he ſhall for every inch the ſaid cloths ſhall be leſs than the breadth, and for every half yard they ſhall be leſs in length than the 18 yards, forfeit 20*s.* and if any perſon ſhall ſtretch any of the ſaid Yorkſhire cloths more than one inch in every quarter of a yard in breadth, or more than half a yard in every 18 yards in length; or ſhall offer to ſale any Yorkſhire cloths mentioned in the ſame act, that are not contented and ſealed as they are thereby directed to be, every ſuch offender ſhall forfeit 20*s.* and if any maker of Yorkſhire cloth, or other perſon concerned in that manufacture, ſhall fix any other mark on his cloth than his own chriſtian and ſurname, and place of reſidence, or the firſt letters of the ſame, he ſhall upon conviction forfeit 40*s.* All which forfeitures ſhall be levied and paid as forfeitures incurred by the ſame act are to be; and for want of diſtreſs, the offender ſhall be liable to ſuch impriſonment and hard labour as offenders by the ſame act are liable to. ſ. 15.

Provided that the penalties incurred by the ſame act, or this, relating to Yorkſhire cloths, be inflicted within 21 days after the offence diſcovered; and if any perſon find himſelf aggrieved by any order or warrant of any juſtice, he may appeal to the quarter-ſeſſions, whoſe determination ſhall be final; and the juſtices there ſhall allow coſts. ſ. 16.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 41. It ſhall be lawful for any perſon who hath ſerved an apprenticeſhip in Colcheſter for ſeven years, without intermiſſion, to any branch of the woollen manufacture, i. e. either to a bay-weaver, wool-comber, wool-beater, or a bay-rower, or the ſons of ſuch who live and exerciſe the trade of bay-making in Colcheſter, to uſe the ſaid trade, any by-law notwithſtanding. ſ. 1.

Saving to the governors of the Dutch Bay-hall in Colcheſter their right of halling and ſealing of bays, and all other rights, except only that of reſtraining the perſons hereby empowered to exerciſe the ſaid trade. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon reſiding in Colcheſter, who hath uſed the trades of bay-making, bay-weaving, wool-combing, wool-beating, and bay-rowing, or either of them, in the ſaid town for ſeven years before the making of this act, to uſe the ſaid trade of bay-making in the ſaid town to the Dutch Bay-hall, notwithſtanding he hath not ſerved his apprenticeſhip in Colcheſter. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall not prejudice the right of any perſons entitled to exerciſe the ſaid trade within the town of Colcheſter. ſ. 4.

By

By 12 Geo. 1. c. 34. All contracts, by-laws or orders, in unlawful clubs and ſocieties, made by or between perſons brought up in or exerciſing the art of a wool-comber or weaver, or journeyman wool-comber or journeyman weaver, for regulating the ſaid trade, or for ſettling the prices of goods, or for advancing their wages, or for leſſening their uſual hours of work, are declared to be illegal and void; and if any wool-comber or weaver, &c. or other perſon concerned in the woollen manufactures, ſhall keep up, ſign, or be knowingly concerned in, any contract, by-law or order, of any club or combination by this act declared to be illegal, or ſhall attempt to put any ſuch illegal agreement, &c. in execution, the offender, being convicted on the oath of one witneſs before two juſtices of peace upon any proſecution within three calendar months after the offence, ſhall by order of ſuch juſtices be committed either to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour not exceeding three months, or to the common gaol of the county, &c. there to remain not exceeding three months. ſ. 1.

If any perſon retained as a wool-comber or weaver, or as a ſervant in either of theſe arts, ſhall depart from his ſervice before the end of the term, or ſhall quit or return his work before it is finiſhed, unleſs for reaſonable cauſe to be allowed by two juſtices, every perſon ſo offending, being convicted before two juſtices as aforeſaid, ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour, not exceeding three months; and if any perſon employed in the art of a wool-comber or weaver, ſhall wilfully damnify or deſtroy (without conſent of the owner) any goods or work committed to his care, he ſhall, being convicted as aforeſaid, forfeit to the owner double the value, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods by warrant of two juſtices, who, for want of diſtreſs, ſhall commit him to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour, not exceeding three months, or till ſatisfaction be made. ſ. 2.

Every clothier, ſerge-maker, or woollen or worſted ſtuff-maker, or perſons employed in making any woollen cloths, ſerges or ſtuffs, or concerned in employing woolcombers, weavers, or other labourers in the woollen manufactory, ſhall pay all perſons by them employed, the full wages agreed on in money, and not in goods, or in any other manner, or make any deduction on account of any goods ſold previous to ſuch agreement; and it ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices of peace, on complaint made, to ſummon the parties offending, and for non-payment of the wages in money, to iſſue their warrant for levying the wages by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and for want of diſtreſs, to commit the offender to the common gaol for ſix months, or till he ſhall pay the wages, or give ſatisfaction to the party. ſ. 3.

If any clothier, &c. ſhall pay any wages either in goods or by way of truck, or in any other manner than in money, the offender ſhall forfeit 10 l. one moiety to the informer, the other to the party aggrieved, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale, &c. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon aggrieved by any order of the two juſtices, to appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions, giving notice of ſuch appeal; and if it ſhall appear that reaſonable notice was not given, they ſhall adjourn the appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions, and they ſhall have power to award coſts. ſ. 5.

If any perſon ſhall aſſault any maſter wool-comber, or maſter-weaver, or other perſon concerned in the woollen manufactures, whereby ſuch maſter, &c. ſhall receive any bodily hurt, for not complying with any ſuch illegal bylaws, &c.; or if any perſon ſhall write or ſend any letter or meſſage threatning hurt to any ſuch maſter, &c. or to burn or deſtroy their houſes, or to cut down their trees, or to maim or kill their cattle, for not complying with any demands of his workmen, or for not ſubmitting to any ſuch illegal by-laws, &c.; every perſon knowingly and wilfully offending in the premiſes, being convicted upon an indictment to be found within twelve calendar months after ſuch offence committed, ſhall be guilty of felony, and ſhall be tranſported for ſeven years. ſ. 6.

If any perſon ſhall enter by force into any houſe or ſhop with intent to cut or deſtroy any ſerge, or other woollen goods in the loom, or any tools employed in the making thereof, or ſhall maliciouſly cut or deſtroy any ſuch ſerges or woollen goods in the loom, or on the rack, or ſhall burn, cut or deſtroy, any rack on which any woollen goods are hanged to dry, or ſhall maliciouſly break or deſtroy any tools uſed in the making ſuch ſerges, &c. not having the conſent of the owner, every ſuch offender being convicted ſhall be guilty of felony without benefit of clergy. ſ. 7.

This act ſhall extend to combers of jerſey and wool, to frame-work knitters and makers of ſtockings, and to all perſons concerned in any of the ſaid manufactures. ſ. 8.

By 13 Geo. 1. c. 23. It ſhall not be lawful for any maker of mixed, medley, or white cloth, to uſe any warping bars, but only ſuch as ſhall be of the meaſure following, viz. every long warping bar ſhall be in length three yards and three inches, and no more; and every round warping bar ſhall be four yards and four inches round, and no more; the three inches on the long bar, and the four inches on the round bar, being in lieu of the over-meaſure uſually allowed in cloths: and the thrums at the end of the warping bars ſhall not exceed eight inches in length; and if any maker of ſuch cloth ſhall uſe any warping bar of other length, or with thrums exceeding eight inches in length, he ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 1.

Every maker of ſuch cloth or goods mixed with wool ſhall give out all wool, yarn and other materials, by weight of 16 ounces to the pound, and ſhall receive back the ſame by the ſame weight, without fraud, upon pain of 5 l. for every offence. ſ. 2.

No clothier or maker of woollen cloth, druggets or other woollen goods, or goods mixed with wool, ſhall uſe any end of yarn, wefts or other refuſe of cloths, &c. (flocks and pinions only excepted) by working the ſame up again into any goods, on the penalty of 5 l. ſ. 3.

All proſecutions for offences contrary to this act ſhall be heard by two juſtices of peace, upon information given on oath within three calendar months after the offence; and the juſtices are empowered to hear and determine the ſame, and on conviction to iſſue their warrants to levy the penalties by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the pariſh; and for want of diſtreſs, to commit the offender to the county gaol for any time not exceeding three months, or till ſatisfaction be made. ſ. 4.

All diſputes relating to work, wages or damages, between any clothier and weaver, or other perſon employed in ſuch manufacture, ſhall be heard and determined by two juſtices of peace; who are required, on complaint, to ſummon the parties, and to hear and examine on oath, and adjudge ſatisfaction; and to give coſts and damages, and to iſſue their warrants to levy ſuch coſts and damages, by diſtreſs and ſale of goods of ſuch perſons who ſhall refuſe for ten days to pay the coſts and damages; and for want of diſtreſs, to commit the party to the county gaol, or houſe of correction, not exceeding three months, or till ſatisfaction be made. ſ. 5.

Perſons aggrieved by any order of the juſtices may appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions, giving ſix days notice; and the juſtices in quarter-ſeſſions are required to make ſuch order, and to award ſuch coſts and damages, as ſhall ſeem reaſonable, and to levy, by their order or warrants, the coſts and damages, by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and for want of diſtreſs, to commit the party to the county gaol or houſe of correction for any time not exceeding three months, or till ſatisfaction be made: and ſuch order of ſeſſions ſhall be final; nor ſhall the proceedings of any juſtices, in purſuance of this act, be removed by certiorari or other proceſs. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for any one juſtice of peace, upon information upon oath, that any perſons are ſuſpected to be guilty of any of the ill practices aforeſaid, to iſſue his warrant to any conſtable or other peace-officer, or to any church-warden or overſeer, directing him in the day-time to enter into any houſe, or other ſuſpected place, to ſearch for all ſuch bars and weights as ſhall be made uſe of by any clothier or maker of woollen goods; and if ſuch clothier, &c. ſhall interrupt ſuch officer, he ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 7.

If any end-gatherers ſhall be found buying or carrying ends of yarn, wefts, thrums, ſhort yarn, or other refuſe of cloth, drugget, or other woollen goods, or goods mixed with wool (flocks and pinions only excepted), it ſhall be lawful for any conſtable or peace-officer, by warrant of one juſtice, to ſearch ſuch perſon and his bags; and if the conſtable, &c. find any ſuch ends of yarn, &c. he ſhall carry ſuch perſon before any juſtice of peace; which perſon, upon conviction of any of the ſaid offences on the oath of one witneſs, or by confeſſion, ſhall be deemed a dangerous and incorrigible rogue or vagrant, and ſhall be puniſhed, as by 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 23. ſ. 8. See 17 Geo. 2. c. 5. ſ. 4. under title "Vagrants."

Every maker of mixed, medley, or white broad cloth, ſhall pay the weavers employed by him according to the number of yards that the chains are laid on the warping bars, and not otherwiſe, on pain of forfeiting 5 l. Qu. If this clauſe be in force ſince 30 Geo. 2. c. 12.?

Every owner of tenters or racks for medley broad cloth within the counties of Glouceſter, Wilts and Somerſet, ſhall meaſure ſuch tenters or racks, and mark in figures the length of yards of each tenter or rack upon the top bar on the foreſide, each yard to contain 36 inches, to which ſhall be added one inch in lieu of the over-meaſure; and if any ſuch tenter or rack be found not meaſured or marked, the owner ſhall forfeit 5 l. for each tenter, &c. And the juſtices of peace in their quarter-ſeſſions next after Eaſter, yearly, ſhall appoint ſkilful men within the ſaid counties to be inſpectors for the year enſuing, and may allow each of them a ſalary, not exceeding 30 l. out of ſuch money as ſhall be received by the treaſurers of the ſaid counties, as is herein after directed; which inſpectors ſhall have power at all ſeaſonable times in the day-time (Sundays excepted) to enter and inſpect all mills, ſhops, out-houſes and tenter-grounds, of every clothier, millman, or other perſon, concerned in the making and milling of mixed or medley broad cloth, and they are to meaſure the length of every tenter or rack, and the length and breadth of every cloth there, and ſtamp his name on a lead ſeal, to be furniſhed by the maker, and affix the ſame at the head end of every cloth, and ſhall keep books, in which ſhall be ſet down the clothier's, millman's, or other perſon's name, and the number, length and breadth, of every cloth which ſhall be made within their reſpective diviſions, and ſhall at every quarter-ſeſſions give in a copy of ſuch regiſter, with an account of what penalties have been levied by virtue of this act within their reſpective diviſions. And no inſpector ſhall enter upon his office before he hath taken the following oath before a juſtice of peace. ſ. 10.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will well and truly execute the office of an inſpector of mixed or medley woollen broad cloth within this county, according to the laws and ſtatutes of this realm, and according to the beſt of my ſkill and knowledge.

So help me God.

If any perſon within the ſaid counties ſhall refuſe the inſpector entrance, he ſhall forfeit 10 l. ſ. 11.

If any inſpector ſhall act againſt his oath, and be convicted, he ſhall forfeit 20 l. ſ. 12.

Every maker of mixed or medley broad cloth ſhall pay to the inſpectors 2 d. per cloth, before the cloths be ſent from the mills; and the inſpectors ſhall every three months, or oftener, pay the money to the treaſurer of the county, to be applied by direction of the juſtices at their quarter-ſeſſions towards the ſalaries of inſpectors. ſ. 13.

If any millman within the ſaid counties ſhall ſend home to any clothier any cloths before they are inſpected and meaſured, he ſhall for every piece forfeit 40 s. ſ. 14.

Nothing in this act ſhall repeal any power formerly given to the corporation of clothiers in Worceſter. ſ. 15.

Every proſecution upon 12 Geo. 1. c. 34. for any clothier or other perſon concerned in making cloths, ſerges or ſtuffs, or in employing workmen in the woollen manufactures, paying any perſons ſo employed in goods or by way of truck, or in any other manner than in money, ſhall be commenced within three months after the offence. ſ. 17.

If any perſon is ſued for any thing done in purſuance of this act, he may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 18.

By 11 Geo. 2. c. 28. Every maker of narrow woollen cloth within the weſt-riding of the county of York ſhall ſet in the head of every piece by him made (except white kerſeys and cloths called half thicks) the initial letters of his name; and every piece of narrow woollen cloth made, milled or expoſed to ſale, in the ſaid weſt-riding (except as before) ſhall be meaſured at the fulling-mill, when it is fully wet, both by the millman and by the ſearcher, who ſhall meaſure the ſame down the middle for the length, and within the liſts for the breadth; and every millman ſhall affix at one end of every cloth, a ſeal of lead, to be furniſhed by the clothier; and ſhall rivet the ſame, and ſtamp his own name at length, and the length and breadth of ſuch cloth in figures, upon the ſeal; and every ſearcher ſhall alſo affix a ſeal at the other end, whereon he ſhall ſtamp his name, and the length and breadth; and the millman and ſearcher ſhall reſpectively keep books, wherein they ſhall enter the day and year when every ſuch piece of cloth is fulled or milled, and the name and place of abode of the owner, and the length and breadth. ſ. 1.

If any maker of ſuch cloth ſhall neglect to ſet the letters of his name in the head of each cloth; or if any millman or ſearchers ſhall neglect to fix ſuch ſeals at the end of every ſuch cloth, before it be carried from the mill, or to make entries as before directed, or ſhall refuſe to permit any buyer to inſpect ſuch entries, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit the ſums after mentioned, viz. every maker ſhall forfeit 20 s. and every millman and ſearcher 5 l. ſ. 2.

The

The juſtices of peace for the weſt-riding ſhall, at their quarter-ſeſſions after Eaſter, yearly, appoint ſo many men of good character within the riding, who have ſerved apprenticeſhip to the trade of making narrow cloth, or who ſhall have exerciſed ſuch trade three years, as they ſhall think reaſonable, to be ſearchers for the year enſuing, and may allow to each of them ſuch ſalary as they ſhall think fit; which ſearchers ſhall have power at all ſeaſonable times, to enter into and inſpect all mills, ſhops, warehouſes and tenter grounds, of makers, merchants, or dealers in narrow cloth, and to meaſure any cloth which they ſhall ſuſpect to be over-ſtretched or ſtrained; and every ſuch ſearcher, before he enter upon his office, ſhall take the following oath before one of the juſtices. ſ. 3.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I will well and truly execute the office of a ſearcher of narrow woollen-cloth within the weſt-riding of the county of York.

So help me God.

If any perſon appointed ſearcher ſhall die during the year, or ſhall by ſickneſs or accident be rendered incapable of the office, it ſhall be lawful for any one juſtice of the riding, living near the place where ſuch ſearcher ſhall reſide, to appoint ſome other proper perſon to ſupply the place of ſuch ſearcher until the next quarter-ſeſſions, to be there confirmed or another appointed in his place. ſ. 4.

Every piece of ſuch narrow cloth ſhall be meaſured by the maker after it is brought from the mill and before it be ſet upon the tenter; and if ſuch maker finds ſuch cloth to be leſs than the meaſure ſtamped at the mill, or if ſuch cloth by lying wet in an improper ſeaſon ſhall fall ſhort of the meaſure, the maker or owner ſhall ſend the ſame to the millman and the ſearcher who meaſured the ſame, to be re-meaſured; and in caſe any maker or owner of ſuch cloth ſhall neglect ſo to do, he ſhall forfeit 5 s. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for the maker or owner of ſuch cloth, to ſtretch every ſuch piece one inch in every yard in length, and two inches in every three quarters of a yard in breadth; but if any maker, buyer, dreſſer or dealer in ſuch narrow cloth, ſhall ſtrain or ſtretch any ſuch cloth above the proportions before-mentioned, he ſhall forfeit for the firſt half yard in length, or firſt inch in breadth, 10 s. and for every other half yard in length or half inch in breadth, 20 s. ſ. 6.

If any perſon ſhall take off, alter, deface, counterfeit or cut out, any of the ſaid ſeals or any letters ſet in ſuch cloth, before the ſame ſhall be ſold or cut by the retailer, or exported beyond the ſeas, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 40 s. ſ. 7.

A ſum not exceeding 3 d. for every ſuch narrow cloth made or milled within the weſt-riding (which ſum ſhall be ſettled by the juſtices at their quarter-ſeſſions after Eaſter, yearly) ſhall be paid by every maker or owner of ſuch cloth, before the ſame is carried from the fulling-mill, to ſuch perſons as the juſtices ſhall appoint; and all money ſo raiſed ſhall be applied to pay the ſalaries of ſearchers, and to defray the other neceſſary expences of putting this act in execution, as the juſtices at their quarter-ſeſſions ſhall direct. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be lawful for ſuch millman or ſearcher, or ſuch other perſon as the juſtices ſhall appoint to receive the money, to detain ſuch cloth at the fulling-mill till the money be paid; and in caſe the owner of ſuch cloth ſhall neglect to pay for the ſpace of eight days after the ſame is demanded, it ſhall be lawful for the perſon appointed to receive the money to ſell one or more pieces of the cloth, and to retain ſo much as ſhall be due from the owner of the cloth. ſ. 9.

The offences in this act ſhall be enquired of, heard and determined, by any one juſtice of peace in the riding, not being a dealer in woollen cloth, upon the oath of one witneſs, notice being given to the perſon accuſed; and all ſuch penalties ſhall be paid into the hands of the juſtice, who ſhall (after the charges of conviction deducted) pay one moiety to the informer, and the other to the treaſurer of the weſt-riding, at the next quarter-ſeſſions, towards the expences of this act; and if any offender ſhall ten days after conviction (notice being given at his laſt place of abode) neglect to pay any penalty, or ſhall not appeal to the quarter-ſeſſions, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice, or any other juſtice for the riding, not being a dealer, &c. upon certificate of ſuch conviction to iſſue warrants to the conſtable of the place, or the bailiff of the liberties where ſuch offender ſhall inhabit, to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and if no ſufficient diſtreſs can be found, to commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction, to be kept to hard labour for one month. ſ. 10.

All informations and proſecutions againſt any millman or ſearcher ſhall be commenced within eight days after the cloth ſhall be removed from the fulling-mill; and all informations againſt any clothier or dealer ſhall be commenced within one month after the cloth is delivered; and all proſecutions againſt any other perſons for any of the penalties in this act ſhall be commenced within one month after the offence. ſ. 11.

Any perſon aggrieved by any order or warrant in purſuance of this act may appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions, to be held after fourteen days from ſuch conviction, giving ten days notice to the perſon diſcovering the offence; and the quarter-ſeſſions ſhall allow coſts to the party aggrieved. ſ. 12.

It ſhall be lawful for every clothier in the weſt-riding to make narrow woollen cloth (except as before) of ſuch length and breadth as he ſhall think fit. ſ. 13.

Narrow coloured cloths made in the weſt-riding, and milled in the counties of Lancaſter, Cheſter or Derby, ſhall before they are dried and tentered be brought to the neareſt millman and cloth ſearcher in the weſt-riding, and by them meaſured, and have their lengths and breadths ſtamped, and ſhall be in every other reſpect conformable to the ſame regulations, as ſuch cloths are which are made and milled in the weſt-riding. ſ. 14.

If any action ſhall be brought againſt any perſon by this act authorized to put the ſame in execution, the action ſhall be laid in the county of York; and ſuch perſon may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff ſhall be nonſuited, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 15.

By 15 Geo. 2. c. 27. In caſe any cloth or woollen goods remaining upon the rack or tenters, or any woollen yarn, or wool left out to dry, be ſtolen or taken away in the night-time, it ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace of the ſame county or place, upon complaint made within ten days after ſuch goods have been ſtolen, by the owner, by warrant to authorize any conſtable, headborough, or other peace officer in the day-time, to enter into, and ſearch the houſes, out-houſes, or other places of every perſon whom the owner of ſuch goods, upon his oath, declares he ſuſpects to have ſtolen or received the ſame; and in caſe ſuch conſtable, &c. find any cloth, woollen goods, or wool, which from the information of the perſon making ſuch oath, he has reaſon to ſuſpect to be ſo ſtolen or received, he ſhall apprehend every perſon in whoſe cuſtody ſuch goods be found, and carry him before ſome juſtice of the peace of the ſame county, diviſion, or town; and if the perſon ſuſpected and carried before the ſaid juſtice give not a ſatisfactory account, how he acquired the property or poſſeſſion of ſuch goods, or within ſome convenient time to be ſet by the ſaid juſtice, produce not the party of whom he received the ſame, or ſome other witneſs to depoſe upon oath ſuch property or right to the poſſeſſion of the ſaid goods, the perſon ſo ſuſpected, and not giving ſuch ſatisfactory account, nor producing ſuch witneſs, ſhall be deemed convicted of the ſaid offence of ſtealing, or taking away the ſaid cloth, woollen goods, woollen yarn, or wool; and ſhall for the firſt offence forfeit to the owner treble the value; and in default of payment, in the time appointed by ſuch juſtice, ſuch juſtice ſhall iſſue forth his warrant to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods; and in default of ſuch diſtreſs, ſhall commit the offender to the common gaol of the place where he is apprehended, for three months, or until he pay the ſame; and if ſuch perſon again commit the ſaid offence, and be thereof convicted, then he ſhall, over and above the forfeiture of treble the value to be levied as aforeſaid, be committed to the common gaol for ſix months; and if ſuch perſon again commit the ſaid offence, and be thereof convicted, the juſtice before whom he is ſo convicted ſhall iſſue his warrant to commit the ſaid offender to the common gaol, there to remain till the next aſſizes or great ſeſſion, where he ſhall be tried; and in caſe ſuch offender ſhall not, by producing the party of whom he acquired the property or poſſeſſion of ſuch goods, or otherwiſe, prove to the ſatisfaction of the jury, that he lawfully obtained the property or poſſeſſion of the ſame, he ſhall be adjudged guilty of felony, and ſuffer tranſportation for ſeven years, and be liable to the ſame puniſhment, and to the like methods of proſecution, trial, and conviction for returning from ſuch tranſportation, as other felons tranſported are liable unto. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſo ſuſpected and apprehended, find himſelf aggrieved by the judgment of any juſtice, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſon (unleſs he has twice before been convicted) to appeal unto the juſtices of peace in their next general quarter-ſeſſions, who are to give ſuch relief, and make ſuch order therein, as to them ſeems meet; and ſuch judgment or order by them made upon the ſaid appeal, ſhall be final. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not alter or repeal any law for the puniſhment of perſons ſtealing or receiving ſuch cloth, woollen goods, woollen yarn, or wool, except in ſuch caſes where the proof is laid upon the offender. ſ. 3.

By 29 Geo. 2. c. 33. If any clothier, ſerge-maker, woollen or ſtuff-maker, worſted or woollen yarn ſtocking-maker, or perſon concerned in making any woollen clothes, ſerges, ſtuffs, worſted or woollen yarn ſtockings, or any other perſon concerned for himſelf or another, in employing weavers, combers of jerſey, or wool, worſted combers, ſpinners, knitters, or other labourers, in the woollen manufactures, ſhall pay any perſon employed by him, his wages, or other price, in goods, or by way of truck, bill, or note, or in any other manner than in money, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit 20 l. ſ. 3.

The penalties made payable by this act, may be recovered by action of debt, by any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame, or may be levied upon conviction, before any two juſtices of peace for the county or place where the offence is committed, either by the confeſſion of the party, or upon the oath of one witneſs, in caſe the ſame be not paid within 14 days after ſuch conviction, by diſtreſs and ſale of goods of the offender, by warrant of ſuch juſtices, returning the overplus, after all charges paid; and for want of ſufficient diſtreſs, the ſaid juſtices ſhall commit the offender to the houſe of correction, for any time not exceeding three months, or until ſatisfaction be made. ſ. 4.

If any of the penalties be levied upon conviction before the juſtices of peace, one moiety ſhall be paid to the poor of the pariſh where the offence was committed, and the other moiety to the informer. ſ. 5.

In caſe any action of debt be brought for any of the penalties, the defendant ſhall not be liable to any conviction before the juſtices of peace for the ſame offence; nor in caſe of information laid before the juſtices and conviction, ſhall the perſon offending be liable to an action of debt, for the penalties incurred by the ſame offence for which he hath been convicted before the juſtices. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon who thinks himſelf aggrieved by any order of ſuch juſtices, to appeal to the next general or quarter-ſeſſions, for the county or diviſion where ſuch order is made; ſuch perſon ſo appealing having firſt entered into a recognizance, with ſecurity before ſuch juſtices, to proſecute and abide by the order made on ſuch appeal, and giving eight days notice in writing of ſuch appeal to the party in whoſe favour ſuch order hath been made; and the juſtices in ſeſſions are to determine ſuch appeal, and to make ſuch order, and to award ſuch coſts and damages by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of any perſon refuſing to pay the ſame; and for want of ſufficient diſtreſs, to commit the party to the common gaol of the ſaid county or diviſion, for any time not exceeding three months, or until ſatisfaction be made; and ſuch order of the juſtices ſhall be final; and no proceedings of any ſuch juſtice out of ſeſſions, or of the juſtices in ſeſſions, in purſuance of this act, ſhall be liable to be removed by certiorari, or other proceſs of law. ſ. 7.

All proſecutions for offences againſt this act ſhall be commenced within three months after the offence committed. ſ. 8.

By 30 Geo. 2. c. 12. So much of 29 Geo. 2. c. 33. as enacts, that it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices of peace at any general or quarter-ſeſſions next after Michaelmas, yearly, to make rates for the payment of wages to weavers, and others employed in the woollen manufactures, according to the number of yards that the chains are laid upon the warping bars, and not otherwiſe, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 1.

All contracts or agreements made between any clothier or maker of mixed, medley, or white broad cloth, and the weavers employed by ſuch maker, in reſpect to any wages, ſhall be valid. ſ. 2.

The aforeſaid contracts or agreements ſhall extend only to the prices of workmanſhip or wages to be paid, and not to the payment thereof in any other manner than in money. ſ. 3.

If any clothier or maker of any mixed, medley, or white broad cloth, neglect to pay to the weavers employed by him their wages or price agreed on in money, within two days next after the work is performed and delivered to ſuch employer, or ſome perſon on his behalf (the ſame being demanded), every ſuch clothier or perſon ſo offending, ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit 40 s.; to be recovered in ſuch manner, and diſpoſed of, as the penalties made payable by 29 Geo. 2. c. 33. ſ. 4.

By 5 Geo. 3. c. 51. The acts made in 11 Geo. 1. and 7 and 14 Geo. 2. and ſo much of all other acts heretofore made for aſcertaining the length, breadth, or weight of woollen cloths within the weſt-riding of York, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 1.

The

The juſtices of the peace for the ſaid weſt-riding of the county of York (not being dealers in woollen cloth, or occupiers of any fulling-mill), at their general quarter ſeſſions, to be holden next after Eaſter, ſhall appoint ſo many men, having been brought up in the manufacture of woollen cloth in the ſaid riding, and being under the age of 60 years, as they ſhall think convenient, to be ſearchers and meaſurers of cloth within the ſaid riding, at ſuch mills and other places, as ſhall ſeem meet; and ſhall aſſign, allow, and appoint, to the ſaid ſearchers and meaſurers, appointed, ſuch yearly ſalaries, as the juſtices at their general or adjourned ſeſſions ſhall think proper. ſ. 2.

Such ſearchers and meaſurers ſhall, at the fulling-mills, where ſtationed, meaſure all the cloths, and ends or half-cloths, which ſhall be there milled at the times, and in manner after-mentioned; that is to ſay, ſuch cloths or ends as ſhall be ſtreamed or waſhed in the goit or mill-ſtream ſhall be meaſured within ſix, and not ſooner than four hours after ſtreamed or waſhed; and ſuch as ſhall not be ſtreamed or waſhed, within four hours after the ſame ſhall come out of the ſtock; and every ſuch ſearcher and meaſurer ſhall affix on one end of every cloth, before carried from the mill, a ſeal of lead, to be furniſhed by the maker, and ſhall rivet the ſeal, ſo to be affixed, and ſtamp, in words and figures, upon the ſeal or rivet, his name, and the length and breadth of every cloth, with the number of each of ſuch cloths, milled at ſuch mill ſucceſſively, beginning at number one, on every 25th day of March, and proceeding progreſſively in numbers during the year then enſuing; and immediately after the cloth ſhall be meaſured, ſealed, and ſtamped as aforeſaid, the ſaid ſearcher and meaſurer ſhall enter in a book, to be provided by the treaſurer, and kept by ſuch ſearcher or meaſurer, the name and place of abode of the maker, and the colour or ſort, together with the length, breadth, and number, on the ſeal; and ſhall give, once in every month, to the ſuperviſor, an account of all cloths milled, meaſured, and ſtamped, at ſuch mill during ſuch months; and the owner or maker ſhall pay to the ſaid ſearcher and meaſurer, for meaſuring and ſealing,

For the ſeal of every whole or long cloth, containing in length 35 yards or upwards, 6*d.*

And for every end or half-cloth, containing leſs than 35 yards, and more than 30 yards in length, 4*d.*

And for every end or half-cloth, leſs than 30 yards in length, 3*d.*

Which ſums ſhall be accounted for and paid by ſuch ſearcher or meaſurer, to the treaſurer of the weſt riding, to be applied for ſuch purpoſes as after directed. ſ. 3.

If any ſearcher or meaſurer ſhall neglect or refuſe to meaſure and ſtamp any ſuch cloth, or to give ſuch monthly account, or give a falſe account, ſuch ſearcher or meaſurer thereof, convicted on the oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice, ſhall, for the firſt offence, forfeit 20*s.* one moiety to the informer, and the other to the treaſurer; and for the ſecond offence, ſhall forfeit his office, and be incapable of being appointed a ſearcher or meaſurer. ſ. 4.

No cloth-maker ſhall take away his cloth from any mill, in caſe the ſame hath been ſtreamed or waſhed, before the ſame hath laid ſix hours after ſtreamed, or before it hath lain four hours after it hath come out of the ſtock (in caſe it ſhall not be waſhed or ſtreamed), unleſs ſuch cloth ſhall be ſooner meaſured or ſtamped. And if any cloth-maker ſhall take away his cloth before meaſured and ſtamped, or before the money for meaſuring, ſealing, and ſtamping, be paid, or ſhall take away his cloth after nine in the evening, or before five in the morning, unleſs meaſured and ſtamped, every perſon ſo offending, convicted upon the oath of ſuch ſearcher or meaſurer, or of the inſpector or ſuperviſor herein after directed to be appointed, or of any other witneſs, before one juſtice (not being a dealer in the woollen manufacture, or occupier of a fulling mill), ſhall forfeit 20*s.* one moiety to the informer, and the other to the treaſurer of the weſt riding. ſ. 5.

Every maker of broad-cloth, after brought from the fulling-mill, and before the ſame ſhall be put upon the tenter, ſhall meaſure the ſame, and affix, on the other end of every ſuch cloth, one other ſeal of lead, and ſhall rivet the ſame, and ſtamp upon ſuch ſeal or rivet, in figures, the length and breadth. ſ. 6.

The juſtices, for the weſt riding (not being dealers in woollen cloth, or occupiers of any fulling-mill) at their quarter-ſeſſions, to be holden after Eaſter, yearly, ſhall appoint 12 inſpectors of all broad woollen cloths, and the work-ſhops, tenters, tenter-grounds, and ware-houſes of the merchants or dreſſers, where ſuch cloths, made and milled within the ſaid riding, ſhall be dreſſed or tentered, and to appoint the ſaid inſpectors to inſpect ſo many workſhops, &c. and in ſuch manner as the juſtices at their general or adjourned ſeſſions ſhall think proper; and alſo the ſaid juſtices at their ſaid ſeſſions ſhall appoint four ſuperviſors of the fulling-mills within the ſaid riding, and of the conduct and behaviour of the ſearchers and meaſurers, and of all broad woollen cloths, and the workſhops, &c. of the merchants or dreſſers, and of the conduct and behaviour of the inſpectors; and to ſtation the ſuperviſors in ſuch places, in ſuch manner as they ſhall think proper, to prevent falſe ſtamping, and undue ſtretching of woollen cloths, and to enforce this act; and ſhall appoint to the inſpectors, yearly or other ſalaries, not leſs than 20*l.* for one year; and alſo ſhall appoint to the ſuperviſors, yearly or other ſalaries, not leſs than 40*l.* and 10*l.* more if their duty require them to keep a horſe for one year; and every ſearcher and meaſurer, inſpector and ſuperviſor, before he enter upon his office, ſhall take the following oath before one juſtice for the ſaid riding. ſ. 7.

" That I will well and truly, to the beſt of my ſkill and " power, execute the office of a ſearcher and meaſurer, or " an inſpector or ſuperviſor, (as the caſe may be) of wool- " len cloth, within the weſt riding of the county of " York."

The ſaid ſuperviſors ſhall be daily employed in viſiting the mills, tenters, tenter-grounds, work-ſhops, and places within their diſtricts, and ſhall meaſure and mark with a ſeal of lead, whereon ſhall he impreſſed the name of ſuch ſuperviſor, ſo many of ſuch cloths as they conveniently can, and keep a regular account, and tranſmit the ſame, together with the accounts by them received from the ſearchers and meaſurers, to the juſtices at every quarter ſeſſions; and if any of the inſpectors or ſuperviſors ſhall be negligent or remiſs in his duty, or ſhall tranſmit a falſe account, he ſhall forfeit his office. ſ. 8.

If any ſearcher and meaſurer, or an inſpector or ſuperviſor ſhall die, during the year in which he was appointed, or ſhall be removed from his office, or ſhall, by ſickneſs or other accident, be incapable of executing the office, it ſhall be lawful for one juſtice to appoint ſome other ſearcher and meaſurer, inſpector or ſuperviſor, until the next Eaſter ſeſſions, to be there confirmed, or another perſon appointed in his place, or during the incapacity of ſuch ſearcher and meaſurer, inſpector or ſuperviſor. ſ. 10.

It ſhall be lawful for the treaſurer to deduct the ſums forfeited by the ſearchers and meaſurers, inſpectors and ſuperviſors, out of their yearly ſalaries. ſ. 16.

Every clothier and maker of cloth ſhall, at the time of making thereof, weave or ſew into the head of the cloth, in diſtinct letters or words, plain to be read, at length, the name and place of abode of ſuch clothier and maker; and if any clothier or maker ſhall expoſe to ſale any cloth without ſuch name and place of abode ſo woven and ſewed into ſuch cloth, being thereof convicted on the oath of one witneſs, before any juſtice (being no dealer in cloth, or occupier of any mill), he ſhall forfeit 40 s. for every piece expoſed to ſale without ſuch name and place of abode ſo ſewed or woven into the ſame as aforeſaid. ſ. 18. See 6 Geo. 3. c. 23. ſ. 13.

For every yard of cloth, exceeding the length of 58 yards, whether in one cloth, or in two ſhort cloths or ends, which ſhall be milled in one ſtock, at one time, the owner ſhall pay to the miller one halfpenny per yard, for every yard ſuch cloth ſhall exceed the length of 58 yards, over and above the uſual price for milling a ſtockful, or 58 yards. ſ. 19.

All diſputes and demands between the makers of cloths, and the occupiers of mills, relating to the wages for fulling, milling, or ſcouring, ſhall, in caſe ſuch occupiers deſire the ſame, and the matter in diſpute ſhall not exceed 2 l. be determined by one juſtice (not being a trader or dealer in the woollen manufacture, farmer or occupier of a mill) who upon complaint may ſummon the parties, and examine upon oath, and adjudge ſuch damages, and give coſts, not exceeding 10 s. and levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods and chattels of ſuch perſon who ſhall refuſe for 10 days to pay ſuch coſts or damages. ſ. 20.

Every owner of any tenter in the ſaid weſt riding of York, ſhall meaſure ſuch tenter, and mark in figures, plain and fair to be ſeen, the true length of yards (computing 37 inches to each yard) of each tenter, beginning at number one, and ſo continuing it to the end thereof, marking each yard diſtinctly, to be ſeen upon the top bar on the foreſide, upon pain of 5 l. for each tenter not numbered and marked. ſ. 22.

If any perſon ſhall uſe, in dreſſing of cloth, any cards made with wire, or with teeth of iron, or other metal, he ſhall forfeit 40 s. ſ. 23. See 6 Geo. 3. c. 23. ſ. 16.

This act ſhall extend to all woollen cloth made and milled in the weſt riding of York, except ſuch narrow cloths as are mentioned in 11 Geo. 2. c. 28. ſ. 27.

Action for any thing done in purſuance of this act ſhall be commenced within ſix months, and ſhall be laid in the county of York, and not elſewhere; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue, and recover treble coſts. ſ. 30.

By 6 Geo. 3. c. 23. The juſtices for the weſt riding of the county of York (not being dealers in woollen cloth, or occupiers of any mill) at their general quarter ſeſſions to be holden next after Midſummer yearly at Bradford, ſhall appoint ſo many perſons, brought up in the manufacture of woollen cloth in the ſaid riding, and under the age of 60 years, to be ſearchers or meaſurers of cloth at the fulling-mills, and to be inſpectors and ſuperviſors for the purpoſes in 5 Geo. 3. c. 51. as they ſhall think proper; which ſearchers or meaſurers, inſpectors and ſuperviſors, ſhall have all the powers, and be ſubject to the reſtrictions in the ſaid act given or limited, except as by this act otherwiſe ordered, directed, or provided for. ſ. 1.

The ſearchers or meaſurers ſhall, at their reſpective fulling mills, where ſtationed, meaſure all the cloths and half-cloths there milled, at the times and in manner in the former act mentioned; and every ſuch ſearcher and meaſurer ſhall, on one end of every ſuch cloth, before carried from the mill, affix and rivet ſuch ſeal of lead, and ſtamp in words and figures, upon every ſuch rivet, his name, and the name of the mill; and upon the reſidue of ſuch ſeal, the length and breadth of every ſuch cloth, together with the number of each cloth milled at ſuch mill ſucceſſively, beginning at number one, and proceeding progreſſively as in the former act mentioned. ſ. 2.

If any inſpectors or ſuperviſors ſhall find any cloth, or end, or half cloth, falſely ſtamped by any meaſurer, above one inch in breadth, in more than one-third part of the length thereof, or above half a yard in length, ſuch inſpector or ſuperviſor ſhall, within ſeven days, give information thereof to one juſtice (not being a dealer in woollen cloth, or occupier of any mill), and on conviction, ſuch ſearcher or meaſurer ſhall forfeit 10 s. ſ. 3.

If the merchant or buyer of any ſuch cloth ſhall ſuſpect the lengths and breadths of ſuch cloth not to be the ſame as ſtamped on the ſeal, then it ſhall be lawful for the merchant or buyer, within 40 days after ſale and delivery of ſuch cloth (and before the ſame ſhall have been raiſed, rowed, dreſſed, dyed, or put in water), to put ſuch cloth into cold water for not exceeding four hours; and after the ſame ſhall be fully wet and taken out of ſuch water, to hang the ſame acroſs a plain rail or horſe-tree, for not leſs than two hours, nor more than four, and then immediately to cauſe the ſame to be meaſured by ſome ſworn ſearcher, inſpector, or ſuperviſor: and if there ſhall be found a leſs quantity in length or breadth, in more than one-third of the length thereof, than is mentioned on any of the ſeals, the ſearcher, inſpector, or ſuperviſor, who laſt meaſured ſuch cloth, ſhall within three days give information to one juſtice (not being a dealer in woollen cloth, or occupier of any fulling mill) that the ſearcher, meaſurer, or ſuperviſor, who before meaſured and ſtamped the ſaid cloth, did wilfully affix ſuch falſe ſeals; and ſuch meaſurer or ſuperviſor, being thereof convicted, before ſuch juſtice, upon the oath of ſuch ſearcher, inſpector, or ſuperviſor, who laſt meaſured the ſaid cloth, or any other credible witneſs, ſhall forfeit, for the firſt inch in breadth, or half-yard in length, that ſuch cloth, or end of cloth, ſhall fall ſhort of the meaſure marked on the ſeals, 5 s. and for every other inch in breadth, or half-yard in length, the further ſum of 10 s.: the ſaid penalties, after deducting thereout the coſts, to be paid, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the treaſurer of the weſt riding: and in caſe any ſearcher, inſpector, or ſuperviſor, who laſt meaſured ſuch cloth, ſhall neglect, for three days, to give ſuch information as aforeſaid, being convicted before ſuch juſtice, ſhall forfeit 40 s. and from thenceforth be for ever diſabled to exerciſe any office under this act. ſ. 4.

In all caſes upon ſuch admeaſurement of cloth, where the ſame ſhall be found to be of leſs length or breadth than mentioned on the ſeals, the ſearcher, inſpector, or ſuperviſor, who laſt meaſured the ſame, ſhall affix on every ſuch cloth, or end, a new ſeal, and rivet the ſame, and ſhall ſtamp on ſuch rivet his own name, adding the words inſpector or ſuperviſor; and on the ſame ſeal the true length (accounting thirty-ſeven inches to the yard in length) and the breadth between the liſts in inches, and the length and number of yards ſo ſtamped on ſuch ſeals ſhall be the rule of payment for ſuch cloth by the buyer; only ſuch buyer (to diſcourage the ſale of ſuch cloth with defective ſeals) ſhall and may deduct to himſelf, out of the price, double the value of ſo many yards or parts thereof, as the ſaid cloth, or end, ſhall fall ſhort in the length and breadth impreſſed on the former fraudulent ſeal, unleſs the maker or ſeller ſhall, within three days after notice of deficiency, accept the ſame again, and repay to the buyer all money received in payment for ſuch cloth, together with ſuch expences as he ſhall have been put unto, on account of ſuch defective cloth. ſ. 5.

In

In caſe any buyer or ſeller of cloth ſhall be diſſatisfied with any admeaſurement to be made by any ſuch laſt-mentioned ſearcher, inſpector, or ſupervisor, and ſhall ſuſpect the true length and breadth not to agree with the ſeal, then ſuch buyer or ſeller ſhall and may, within 7 days after, give information thereof, before one juſtice (not being a dealer in woollen cloth); and every ſuch ſearcher, inſpector, or ſupervisor, having wilfully meaſured ſuch cloth, and being convicted, upon the oath of one witneſs, before any ſuch juſtice, ſhall, for ſuch offence, forfeit, for the firſt inch in breadth, or half-yard in length, that ſuch cloth, or end, ſhall exceed or fall ſhort of the meaſure marked on the ſeals, 20*s.*: and in caſe ſuch cloth, or end, ſhall exceed or fall ſhort more than two inches in breadth, or one yard in length, of the meaſure marked, then ſuch ſearcher, inſpector, or ſupervisor, upon ſuch conviction as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit his office, and be diſcharged therefrom by ſuch juſtice, and ſhall from thenceforth be for ever diſabled to exerciſe any office under this act. ſ. 6.

In caſe any inſpector ſhall ſuſpect that any cloth ſhall be in the poſſeſſion of any buyer, dreſſer, or clothworker, not truly ſtamped and meaſured at the fulling-mill; then the ſaid inſpector ſhall give notice to ſuch merchant, buyer, dreſſer, or cloth-worker, of his ſuſpicion, deſcribing the cloth by the maker's name or ſeal thereon; after which notice, ſuch merchant, dreſſer, or cloth-worker, ſhall give two hours notice to ſuch inſpector, of the time at which he intends to put ſuch cloth into water, in order that ſuch inſpector may attend the wetting and meaſuring; and if he ſhall, without, or contrary to ſuch notice, put ſuch cloth into water, and be thereof legally convicted, he ſhall forfeit 20*s.* ſ. 7.

If any ſupervisor or inſpector ſhall wilfully refuſe or neglect to attend for meaſuring and ſtamping, for two hours after notice, he ſhall forfeit 20*s.* ſ. 8.

Every ſearcher, meaſurer, inſpector, or ſupervisor, ſhall, before he enters upon his office, at his own expence, give and execute a bond to the treaſurer of the weſt riding, with a ſurety, to be approved by the juſtices appointing, in the penalty of 50 l. conditioned for accounting for, and paying the money received by virtue of his office. ſ. 9.

It ſhall not be lawful for any inſpector or ſupervisor, to enter into any houſe, warehouſe, or outhouſe (unleſs ſuch places ſhall be made uſe of for dreſſing, tentering, or keeping of wet or undreſſed cloth), under pretence of ſearching for or examining any woollen cloth, which he ſhall ſuſpect to be falſely ſtamped, or unduly ſtretched, or to ſearch or examine any cloth after put up in papers for preſſing, or ſent to be frized, or otherwiſe fully manufactured, or fitted for exportation or home conſumption. ſ. 10.

If any perſon ſhall willingly take off, alter, or counterfeit, deface, obliterate, or cut out, any ſeal, or the figures, letters, and words thereon ſtamped, made or ſet, or therein woven or ſewed, before the cloth be put in papers for the preſs, or into the frizing-mill: or if any inſpector or ſupervisor ſhall find any woollen cloth, after the times directed for ſealing the ſame, without the ſeal, or find ſuch ſeal defaced, counterfeited, or altered (except accidentally loſt or maliciouſly taken off), or ſhall find any ſuch cloth, or end, which ſhall appear by the ſeal affixed, by the ſearcher, meaſurer, inſpector, or ſupervisor, who laſt meaſured the ſame, to be overſtretched, or that the loom mark, ſpecifying the name and place of abode of the maker, ſhall be cut out or altered; in ſuch caſe, every perſon ſo offending, or the merchant, dreſſer, clothier, or owner, in whoſe cuſtody any ſuch cloth ſhall be found, ſhall forfeit, not exceeding 40*s.* nor leſs than 20*s.* ſ. 11.

Any perſon againſt whom any information ſhall be made by any merchant, buyer, ſeller, owner, or dreſſer of cloth for falſe ſealing or ſtamping any cloth, ſhall and may within two days of ſuch information to him given, go to the houſe of ſuch merchant, owner, or dreſſer, and requeſt to ſee the cloth, to examine whether the charge be juſt, and whether any frauds have been committed by the merchant, dreſſer, or owner; and the merchant, dreſſer, buyer, or owner, refuſing to permit ſuch offender to ſee or examine ſuch cloth (unleſs put in papers for preſſing, or ſent to be frized), ſuch proſecution ſhall ceaſe, and any conviction thereupon ſhall be void; and in caſe of wilful refuſal to ſhew ſuch cloth, ſuch merchant or buyer ſhall loſe all benefit of deduction out of the price, as aforeſaid. ſ. 12.

Every clothier and maker of cloth, who ſhall weave or ſew into the head of every cloth, and end, his name and place of abode, either in diſtinct letters or words, or in ſome common or known abbreviation, ſufficient to be read or underſtood, before he ſhall expoſe the ſame to ſale, ſhall not be ſubject to be proſecuted for the penalty inflicted by 5 Geo. 3. c. 51. for not inſerting the ſame in diſtinct letters or words, plain to be read at length. ſ. 13.

If any perſon ſhall ſtretch or ſtrain any whole or long cloth, or end, or half-cloth, more than one yard (conſiſting of 37 inches) in every 20 yards of the length thereof, and in the like proportion for cloths of greater or leſs length, or more than one inch in every 12 of the breadth thereof, beyond the length and breadth marked upon the ſtamp or ſeal thereon fixed by the ſearcher, ſupervisor, or inſpector, who laſt meaſured the ſame, then every perſon ſo offending, convicted by the oath of one witneſs, before one juſtice as aforeſaid, ſhall, for the firſt half yard in length, overſtretched, forfeit 5*s.* and alſo for every quarter of a yard, above ſuch half yard, 10*s.* and for the firſt inch in breadth, 5*s.* and alſo for every inch above the firſt inch, 10*s.* ſ. 15.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon in the ſtriking or plaining of cloth, upon the tenters only, to uſe cards called Fine Hatters Cards, for the better laying the wool, and manufacturing the cloth, without being ſubject to the penalty in ſ. 23. of 5 Geo. 3. c. 51. ſ. 16.

In caſe any of the officers to be appointed, or who ſhall enjoy any place under this or the former act, ſhall keep a public houſe for the ſelling of ale, beer, or other liquors, or ſhall be concerned in the making, buying, or ſelling, any wool, woollen manufactures, or goods commonly made uſe of in dying, or be guilty of any miſbehaviour or neglect of duty, and ſhall be thereof convicted by the oath of one witneſs, before two juſtices; it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices, at the quarter ſeſſions next after conviction, on producing the ſame, or due proof thereof, to diſcharge ſuch officer and appoint another perſon in his room; and ſuch perſon ſo convicted and removed, ſhall be from thenceforth for ever diſabled to exerciſe any office under this or the former act. ſ. 17.

The appointment of all officers by the recited act directed to be made at the quarter ſeſſions held next after Eaſter, ſhall hereafter be made by the ſaid juſtices at the quarter ſeſſions held for the ſaid riding at Bradford, next after Midſummer, yearly. ſ. 18.

All informations relating to any offences againſt this or the former act (except where otherwiſe provided for) ſhall be made within 10 days after offence diſcovered; and all offences ſhall be determined, and conviction thereon made, upon oath of one witneſs, by one juſtice (not a dealer in woollen cloth, nor occupier of a mill), notice being firſt given of the charge to the perſon therewith charged; and all penalties or forfeitures, by this or the former act, ſhall, after deducting the charges of conviction, go, one half to the perſon who ſhall give information, on which the conviction

ſhall be made, and the other half to the treaſurer of the ſaid weſt-riding; and ſuch part as ſhall belong to the treaſurer, ſhall be received by the juſtice, and by him immediately paid to ſome inſpector or ſupervifor; and ſuch juſtice ſhall alſo within three months after any convictions, ſend an account thereof to the ſaid treaſurer. ſ. 19.

If any offender ſhall, for 10 days after convicted, and notice thereof to him given, at his dwelling-houſe, or laſt place of abode, refuſe or neglect to pay any forfeiture by him incurred, by this or the ſaid act, or ſhall not give notice of appeal, then, and not before, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtice, before whom ſuch conviction ſhall be made, or any other juſtice, upon a certificate of ſuch conviction ſent to him, to iſſue warrant or warrants, to the conſtable or bailiff, to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods; and where no diſtreſs can be found, to commit the offender to the houſe of correction, for not exceeding three months. ſ. 20.

Perſons aggrieved by any order or determination made by any juſtice, in purſuance of this act, may appeal to the next quarter-ſeſſions, which ſhall not be held within fourteen days after the cauſe of appeal ſhall ariſe, giving ten days notice to the party in whoſe favour ſuch determination ſhall be made; and if the quarter-ſeſſions either confirm or diſannul the orders or proceedings of the juſtice, they ſhall allow ſuch coſts as they think reaſonable, to be levied and paid as is uſual in caſes of appeal from any order of the juſtices to the ſeſſions, whoſe order herein ſhall be final. ſ. 21.

The juſtices before whom any conviction ſhall be made, by virtue of this act, as alſo the inſpectors and ſupervifors, ſhall, at the four general quarter-ſeſſions return and tranſmit to ſuch ſeſſions, a perfect account in writing, of all convictions in purſuance of this act, that ſhall happen within their knowledge; and of all penalties and forfeitures inflicted or levied, which, by this or the former act, are made payable to the treaſurer; and the ſaid inſpectors and ſupervifors ſhall pay to the treaſurer within three months after receipt thereof, all money by them received on account of ſuch convictions; and every perſon neglecting or refuſing to return and tranſmit ſuch account, within twenty days next after any of the ſaid ſeſſions, or to pay ſuch money, for three months next after receipt thereof, and being thereof convicted, upon the oath of one witneſs, before any two juſtices (not being dealers in cloth, or occupiers of any fulling-mill), ſhall forfeit 10*l.* above the ſums by him received. ſ. 22.

This act ſhall extend to all woollen cloths made and milled within the weſt-riding of York, except ſuch narrow cloths as are mentioned in 11 Geo. 2. c. 28.; and alſo except ſuch woollen goods as are made for blanketing, and ſtriped duffel'd blankets. ſ. 23.

The treaſurer of the weſt-riding ſhall, out of the money now in his hands, or which ſhall hereafter be received by him, on account of the duties and forfeitures herein, or by the former act, directed to be paid to ſuch treaſurer, firſt pay the charges remaining unpaid on account of obtaining the former act, and afterwards the charges of obtaining this act, together with ſuch intereſt, for ſuch charges, as the juſtices at their general quarter-ſeſſions, next after June 24th 1766, ſhall order; and the ſaid treaſurer ſhall afterwards apply the ſaid duties and penalties received, in payment of the ſalaries of the ſearchers, meaſurers, inſpectors, and ſupervifors, in ſuch proportions, and manner, as the juſtices at their general quarter-ſeſſions, yearly, to be held next after Midſummer, ſhall direct. ſ. 24.

After all the money to be expended in obtaining this act, and yet remaining due of the expences of the ſaid recited act, ſhall be totally diſcharged, it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices at their general quarter-ſeſſions held next after Midſummer, yearly, to make orders for the increaſing or diminiſhing the rates to be paid for meaſuring, ſtamping, and ſealing, ſo as the ſame ſhall never exceed the ſeveral rates herein before, or by the former act, directed to be paid. ſ. 25.

Action for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſhall be commenced within ſix months; and ſhall be laid and tried in the county of York; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and upon judgment againſt the plaintiff, may recover treble coſts. ſ. 26.

By 14 Geo. 3. c. 25. If any picker, ſcribbler, ſpinner, or weaver, or other perſon, employed in manufacturing of woollen cloth, or in preparing materials for that purpoſe, ſhall not return all working tools, wool, yarn, chain, woof, or abb, delivered out to be manufactured, and all materials wherewith he ſhall be entruſted, or give a ſatisfactory account touching the ſame to his employer, or ſhall fraudulently ſteam, damp, or water the wool or yarn delivered to him to be worked up; or if any perſon ſhall take off, cut, or pick out, the liſt, forrel, or other mark of any piece of cloth, and ſhall be convicted of any ſuch offence before ſome juſtice, either by confeſſion, or the oath of one witneſs, ſuch perſon ſhall be committed to the houſe of correction for one month. ſ. 1.

If any perſon ſo employed, and who ſhall have been entruſted with any tools, wool, or other materials, ſhall not have delivered or accounted for the ſame, ſhall abſcond, or ſhall ſell, or otherwiſe diſpoſe of the ſame; or if any perſon ſhall fraudulently buy or receive ſuch tools, or materials; or if any perſon ſhall be ſuſpected of, and charged on ſuch ſuſpicion, with having embezzled and kept back, by damping, ſteaming, or watering the wool and yarn delivered out to him; or with having ſold, bought, or received the ſame, and oath ſhall be made thereof before one juſtice, ſuch juſtice ſhall iſſue his warrant to any conſtable, or peace officer, to enter into and ſearch, in the day-time, the reſidence of ſuch perſon offending, and alſo ſuch other place of which the clothier, his clerk, or ſervant, ſhall make oath, that he have juſt cauſe to ſuſpect, it appearing to the ſaid juſtice to be reaſonable ſuſpicion that the ſaid working tools, or materials, or part thereof, may be ſecreted and lodged: and if upon ſearch, any of the ſaid working tools, wool, yarn, chain, woof, or abb, or any cloth with the liſt, forrel, or other marks, taken off, cut, or picked out, ſhall be found, the ſaid conſtable or peace officer ſhall ſeize the ſame, and apprehend the perſon in whoſe poſſeſſion the ſame ſhall be found, and bring him before the ſame, or ſome other juſtice; and unleſs ſuch perſon can give a good account how he came by the ſame, to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, ſuch perſon ſhall be thereof convicted, and ſuffer ſuch puniſhment as is inflicted on perſons not returning the tools or materials; and all ſuch tools, wool, yarn, chain, woof, or abb, or ſuch cloth, ſo ſeized, and not accounted for, ſhall, upon ſuch conviction, be delivered over to the churchwardens or overſeers, to be by them ſold; and the monies ariſing by ſuch ſale, after defraying the expences of ſuch ſale, ſhall be applied to the uſe of the poor. ſ. 2.

In caſe the perſon accuſed ſhall requeſt of ſuch juſtice to appoint a reaſonable time to produce the perſon from whom he bought or received the ſame, or ſome witneſs to prove the ſale or delivery; the ſaid juſtice is to appoint ſuch time, and to iſſue a ſummons to the conſtable where ſuch perſon perſon or witneſs ſhall reſide, requiring him to appear before ſuch juſtice to be examined and give evidence, on oath, of the matters; but ſuch perſon at the time of making ſuch requeſt, ſhall enter into a recognizance, with or without ſureties, as ſuch juſtice ſhall think proper, for his appearance at the time ſet, or, for want of ſuch recognizance, ſhall be committed until the time that ſhall be appointed for the appearance of ſuch party or witneſſes: and if at ſuch appointed time ſuch perſon ſhall be convicted of any of the offences, he ſhall ſuffer ſuch puniſhment as is before directed. ſ. 3.

Any juſtice, upon information on oath, by any credible perſon, that there is juſt cauſe to ſuſpect that any ends of yarn, wefts, thrumbs, ſhort yarn, or other refuſe of cloth, drugget, or of other woollen goods, or of goods mixed with wool (flocks and pinions only excepted), have been collected and received, and are lodged or concealed, in any place, by warrant under his hand and ſeal, is to cauſe ſuch place to be ſearched in the day-time; and if ſuch ends of yarn, &c. (flocks and pinions only excepted), above three pounds, ſhall be found therein, to ſeize the ſame; and alſo to cauſe the perſon in whoſe houſe the ſame ſhall be found, to be brought before him, or ſome other juſtice, and on proof being made thereof upon oath before ſuch juſtice, that ſuch ends, &c. (flocks and pinions only excepted) were found in the dwelling-houſe, or other place of ſuch perſon, ſuch perſon not exculpating himſelf to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, ſhall thereupon ſuffer ſuch puniſhment as is before directed for perſons not returning the tools, and the materials found in the cuſtody of ſuch perſon ſhall, by order of ſuch juſtice, be burnt or deſtroyed. ſ. 4.

If upon any information made upon oath before any juſtice againſt any perſon offending againſt this act, it ſhall appear to ſuch juſtice, that ſuch perſon hath been before convicted of any offence againſt this act; ſuch juſtice ſhall not proceed to convict ſuch offender, but ſhall commit him to the houſe of correction until the next general quarter-ſeſſion, or until ſuch offender ſhall have entered into a recognizance, with ſureties, to appear at ſuch ſeſſions, and abide the order of ſuch ſeſſion; and ſuch juſtice ſhall bind over the informer to proſecute the offender at the ſaid ſeſſions, and the ſeſſions ſhall enquire into and determine the ſame in a ſummary way; and if ſuch perſon ſhall be found guilty of the ſaid offence, the ſaid juſtices ſhall commit ſuch offender to the houſe of correction for not exceeding three months. ſ. 5.

If it ſhall appear to the juſtices at their general quarter-ſeſſions, that ſuch perſon hath been convicted at ſome ſeſſions of any offence againſt this act; the ſaid juſtices ſhall, upon a like enquiry and conviction, in a ſummary way, direct the offender to be committed to the houſe of correction, for not exceeding ſix months, and alſo to be once publicly whipped at ſuch time and place as ſuch ſeſſions ſhall direct. ſ. 6.

Any perſon aggrieved by the judgment of any juſtice may appeal; and the juſtice is to make known to ſuch perſon, at the time of conviction, his right to appeal to the next general quarter-ſeſſions, the perſon, at the time of convicton, giving to ſuch juſtice notice in writing, ſignifying his intention to appeal, and alſo entering into a recognizance at the time of ſuch notice, with ſureties conditioned to try ſuch appeal, and to abide the judgment of, and pay ſuch coſts as ſhall be awarded by the ſeſſions; and the ſeſſions are upon proof of ſuch notice and recognizance, to hear and determine the appeal in a ſummary way, and award coſts to the party appealing or appealed againſt, if they think proper; but if upon ſuch hearing the judgment of the juſtice, before whom ſuch appellant ſhall have been convicted, ſhall be affirmed, ſuch appellant ſhall ſuffer ſuch puniſhment, in conſequence of ſuch conviction, as is before directed for not returning tools. ſ. 7.

The juſtice before whom any offender ſhall be convicted, ſhall cauſe the conviction to be made out in form following; ſ. 8.

Be it remembered, that on the —— —— day of —— —— in the year of our Lord —— —— A. B. is convicted before me (us), —— of his majeſty's juſtices of the peace in and for the county, diviſion, liberty, or place (as the caſe may be), of having (here ſpecify the offence, and the time and place where the ſame was committed). Given under my hand and ſeal, or our hands and ſeals (as the caſe may be), the day and year aforeſaid.

And ſhall cauſe the ſaid conviction to be fairly wrote over, upon parchment; and alſo to be returned to the next general quarter-ſeſſion, to be filed by the clerk of the peace, and kept among the records of ſeſſions. ſ. 9.

No perſon ſhall be proceeded againſt for any of the offences againſt this act, unleſs information ſhall be made upon oath, before one juſtice, within three months; and no order, &c. ſhall be quaſhed for want of form, or be removed by certiorari into any court of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 10.

By 14 Geo. 3. c. 44. If any perſon ſhall reel falſe or ſhort yarn, and ſhall be thereof convicted by the oath or affirmation of the owner, or of any other credible witneſs, or by the confeſſion of the perſon charged with ſuch offence, before one juſtice, ſhall for the firſt offence forfeit, not exceeding twenty, nor leſs than five ſhillings; for the ſecond offence, not exceeding five pounds, nor leſs than forty ſhillings; and for every other offence, ſuch juſtice may commit the perſon convicted to the houſe of correction to be kept to hard labour for one month, and alſo order the perſon convicted to be once publicly whipped at the neareſt market town to where the offence was committed, and upon a market day; all which penalties ſhall go to the party aggrieved. ſ. 2.

The juſtice ſhall cauſe the conviction to be made out in the manner following;

Be it remembered, that on the —— —— day of —— —— in the year of our Lord —— —— A. B. is convicted before me, or us, —— —— of his majeſty's juſtices of the peace for —— —— [ſpecifying the offence, and the time and place when and where the ſame was committed, and alſo ſpecifying that it was the firſt, ſecond, or third offence againſt this act, as the caſe ſhall be.]

Given under my hand and ſeal, or our hands and ſeals, the day and year aforeſaid.

Which the ſaid juſtice ſhall cauſe to be fairly wrote on parchment, and returned to the next general quarter-ſeſſion to be filed by the clerk of the peace, and remain among the records. ſ. 3.

Any clerk of the peace where ſuch conviction ſhall be filed, is, upon application, to cauſe a copy of any conviction filed by him under this act, to be delivered to ſuch perſon upon payment of one ſhilling for every copy. ſ. 4.

Any perſon convicted may, at the time of conviction, enter into a recognizance conditioned to try ſuch appeal, abide the order of, and pay ſuch coſts as ſhall be adjudged by the ſeſſions; and the ſeſſions ſhall take cognizance of ſuch appeal, and may affirm ſuch conviction, and award ſuch coſts as they think proper: and in caſe the ſame are not paid, according to the order of the juſtices, ſuch coſts may be recovered by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the perſon who ought to pay the ſame, by warrant under the hand and ſeal of any juſtice; and if no goods can be found, ſufficient to pay the coſts and charges of diſtreſs, the ſaid juſtices may cauſe the perſon to be committed to the common gaol for three months; and the determination of the ſeſſions ſhall be final: and no order or other proceedings ſhall be quaſhed for want of form, or removed by certiorari into any court of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 5.

By 15 Geo. 3. c. 14. The pecuniary penalties inflicted by 14 Geo. 3. upon perſons convicted of reeling falſe or ſhort yarn, together with the coſts attending ſuch proſecutions, ſhall (if not paid according to the order of the juſtice) be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the offender, by warrant, under the hand and ſeal of the juſtice, together with the coſts of diſtreſs and ſale; and if no goods can be found ſufficient to anſwer the penalties, with coſts of diſtreſs, then ſuch juſtice ſhall cauſe ſuch offender to be committed to the common gaol for one month, unleſs ſuch penalties and charges of diſtreſs ſhall be ſooner paid. ſ. 1.

Any perſon aggrieved may appeal to the next general or quarter-ſeſſions; and the juſtices in their ſaid ſeſſions are to hear and determine the appeal, and make order therein; which determination ſhall be concluſive. ſ. 2.

By 17 Geo. 3. c. 11. A general meeting of the manufacturers of combing wool, worſted yarn, and goods made from worſted, in the counties of York, Lancaſter, and Cheſter, ſhall be held at Halifax, in Yorkſhire; at which general meeting the ſaid manufacturers preſent, by themſelves, or proxies appointed by writing, ſhall have votes; and having firſt choſen a chairman, the Yorkſhire manufacturers ſhall appoint eighteen perſons from amongſt themſelves, and the Lancaſhire and Cheſhire manufacturers nine perſons; which eighteen and nine perſons ſo elected, ſhall be a committee of the manufacturers until another committee ſhall be choſen, in manner after provided, and ſo as often as there ſhall be occaſion; which committee are to recommend two perſons, to be licenſed by the juſtices of the weſt-riding of York, at any of their quarter-ſeſſions, or adjournment thereof, to be inſpectors for the purpoſes after mentioned, and alſo to have the direction of all proſecutions of offenders againſt this and the acts 22 Geo. 2. 14 Geo. 3. and 15 Geo. 3. and the management of the fund herein-after to be created, and to do all other matters neceſſary for carrying this act into execution, in ſuch manner as the committee of manufacturers, or ſeven of them, at a public meeting ſhall judge beſt. ſ. 1.

The ſaid committee are to appoint a clerk, which ſhall attend the meetings, and in books enter true accounts of all proceedings; and each of the manufacturers may inſpect ſuch books gratis, and have copies thereof, paying two pence for every one hundred words; and if the clerk ſhall refuſe to permit ſuch manufacturer to inſpect, or refuſe to make copies, he ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 2.

In every year a meeting of the committee ſhall be held, on the Monday before Midſummer-day, on the Monday before Michaelmas-day, on the Monday before the Epiphany, and on the Monday before Eaſter-day, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, who ſhall have power to adjourn; three of which quarterly meetings ſhall be held within the county of York, and the other quarterly meeting within the county of Lancaſter. A chairman to be choſen. And all matters ſhall be determined by a majority; and if an equality of votes, the chairman to have a caſting vote. ſ. 3.

"No buſineſs to be done, unleſs ſeven members preſent. "ſ. 4. Three committee men may call a ſpecial meet-"ing. ſ. 5."

In caſe one or more of the committee ſhall die, or decline buſineſs, or go to reſide in any diſtant part of the kingdom, or ſhall wilfully abſent himſelf from the quarterly meetings for the ſpace of one year, or refuſe to act, the ſaid committee are to chooſe another manufacturer in his place. ſ. 6.

If it ſhall appear to fifty manufacturers that the committee neglect to diſcharge their duty; and ſuch fifty ſhall, in writing under their hands, make complaint thereof to the juſtices for the weſt-riding, in any general or quarter-ſeſſions; ſuch juſtices in ſuch ſeſſions are (if they think proper, after hearing the complaint) to appoint a general meeting of the manufacturers, and cauſe notice to be given of ſuch meeting in the Leeds and Mancheſter weekly newſpapers, not leſs than twenty-one days after ſuch notice, which ſhall be continued in the ſaid papers until ſuch meeting ſhall be held; and ſuch manufacturers then preſent may appoint a committee, conſiſting of the ſame number of perſons, and in like manner, and under the like directions, before laid down for the election of the firſt committee. ſ. 7.

The juſtices for the weſt-riding, at their next ſeſſions after Midſummer next after paſſing this act, ſhall appoint ſuch perſons within the counties of York, Lancaſter, and Cheſter, as ſhall be recommended to them by the ſaid committee, to be inſpectors of worſted yarn, within the counties of York, Lancaſter, and Cheſhire. ſ. 8.

The ſaid committee ſhall ſtation ſuch inſpectors for ſuch diſtricts in the ſaid counties as they ſhall think proper; and ſhall pay to the ſaid inſpectors ſuch ſalaries as they think proper, to be paid out of the fund herein-after mentioned; and alſo may remove ſuch inſpectors. ſ. 9.

The ſaid inſpectors ſhall, in the diſtricts allotted to them, uſe all diligence for bringing to juſtice all offenders againſt this and the former acts; and alſo ſhall as often as required by the committee, inſpect the reels of all ſpinners of worſted yarn, and alſo the hanks of worſted yarn, to ſee that the directions herein-after laid down for reeling ſuch yarn be complied with; and alſo ſhall when they detect any perſon offending, lodge informations againſt ſuch offender before the proper juſtice, and proſecute ſuch offender to conviction: and ſuch inſpector may demand entrance, at all ſeaſonable hours, into the dwelling-houſe or dwelling-houſes, ſhop, or outhouſes of any agents, or perſons employed to put out wool to be ſpun, to inſpect the yarn in the cuſtody of any ſuch agent, where he has any information of, or ſuſpects any falſe or ſhort-reeled yarn; and in caſe of refuſal to permit ſuch inſpection, he ſhall forfeit not exceeding 10 l. nor leſs than 5 l. as ſuch juſtice ſhall think proper. ſ. 10.

Every perſon employed, or undertaking to ſpin or reel worſted yarn for hire, in the counties of York, Lancaſter, and Cheſter, or any of them, ſhall reel, or cauſe the ſame to be reeled, either upon a yard reel of thirty-ſix inches, or a two-yard reel of ſeventy-two inches, round; and when reeled, each hank ſhall contain ſeven raps or leas, and each rap or lea eighty threads. ſ. 11.

If any perſon employed in the combing of wool, or in the ſpinning, reeling, winding, or weaving, of worſted yarn, or in the preparing or working up any of the materials uſed in the ſaid manufactures, in the ſaid counties, ſhall reel, or cauſe to be reeled, any worſted yarn contrary hereto, or ſhall conceal, embezzle, ſell, or otherwiſe diſpoſe of, any wool, or other materials, entruſted with him to ſpin, or other purpoſes, and ſhall of ſuch offences be convicted, before one juſtice, upon the oath of the owner, or of any one witneſs, or by the confeſſion of the perſon charged with ſuch offences, ſhall for each offence be ſubject to the penalties and puniſhments inflicted by former acts, ſo far as they are unrepealed; all which penalties ſhall be recovered, and puniſhments inflicted, in the manner directed by the ſaid acts, and ſhall be publicly diſtributed by the conſtable, in the preſence and under the direction of the inſpector, amongſt the poor. ſ. 12.

No part of ſuch penalties ſhall be given to ſuch offenders or their families. ſ. 13.

If any agent, or perſon employed to put out wool to be ſpun, ſhall have in his poſſeſſion any worſted yarn not reeled according hereto, and ſhall refuſe, or not give in evidence before the juſtices, what perſon was the reeler of ſuch falſe or ſhort-reeled yarn, or who was employed to reel the ſame, ſo that the perſon may be convicted, he being convicted upon the oath of any perſon before ſuch juſtice, ſhall forfeit 5 s. for every parcel of yarn made up for a pound, ſo falſe or ſhort reeled, which ſhall be found in his cuſtody; all which penalties ſhall be recovered as the penalties by former acts, and ſhall go to the poor as before mentioned. ſ. 14.

If any perſon appointed inſpector ſhall die, or be removed, the juſtices of the weſt-riding in quarter-ſeſſions aſſembled are to licenſe ſome other proper perſon upon the like recommendation, and in manner before mentioned. ſ. 15.

In caſe any inſpector ſhall receive from any perſon offending againſt this or the former acts, any money, or other thing whatſoever, to ſcreen from juſtice, or to prevent ſuch perſon being convicted, and being thereof convicted upon the oath of two witneſſes, before one juſtice, ſuch juſtice is to commit ſuch inſpector to the houſe of correction for one month. ſ. 16.

The collectors, or ſupervifors, or other perſons employed in the collection of the duties on ſope, within the ſaid counties, and who are to pay the drawback of the duties on ſope to manufacturers of wool, &c. are required to deduct two-pence out of every ſhilling, to which any perſon, being a maſter manufacturer of combing-wool, worſted yarn, or goods made from worſted, reſiding within the ſaid counties, ſhall be entitled, and of which he ſhall demand payment for the duties of ſope conſumed in combing of wool, making of worſted yarn, or any kind of goods made from worſted, or preparing the wool for the ſame, in the ſaid counties; and ſuch collectors, ſupervifors, or other perſons, ſhall pay unto the treaſurer of the weſt-riding (demand being made thereof), all money by him ſo retained under this act. ſ. 17.

The ſaid treaſurer for the weſt-riding ſhall, out of the money, pay the charges of obtaining this act, and the expences relative thereto, together with intereſt for ſuch expences, the ſalaries of the inſpectors and clerk, the expences of all proſecutions in ſupport of this and the former acts, and ſuch other expences as may be incurred for the ſupport of the ſaid manufactory, as the ſaid committee, or four of them, in committee aſſembled, ſhall by writing appoint; and the ſaid treaſurer is not to pay any money received by him to any perſon without ſuch direction in writing; and ſuch treaſurer ſhall, every year, at the quarterly meeting of the committee, on the Monday before Michaelmas, return to ſuch committee a true account of all money come to his hands, or paid by him, ſince the laſt yearly account; which account ſhall be laid before the juſtices for the weſt-riding, at their general quarter-ſeſſions, held next after Michaelmas, by adjournment, at Leeds. ſ. 18.

In caſe the monies directed to be paid into the hands of the treaſurer, ſhall, after payment of all expences before ordered to be paid thereout, amount to 600 l.; then the juſtices for the weſt-riding, at their general quarter-ſeſſions at Leeds, upon application by the committee, or by application made to them by fifty manufacturers, by writing, ſhall make orders for reducing the two-pence per ſhilling which the collectors of exciſe are to retain, to three halfpence, one penny, or a halfpenny per ſhilling, until ſuch fund ſhall be reduced to 300 l.; and from time to time, upon like application, may advance or reduce the ſame, ſo as the fund in the treaſurer's hands ſhall not exceed 600 l. nor be reduced to leſs than 300 l. and ſo as the ſame ſhall never exceed the rate of two-pence per ſhilling. ſ. 19.

The juſtice before whom any offender ſhall be convicted, ſhall cauſe the conviction to be made out in the manner following:

Be it remembered, that on the —— —— day of —— —— in the year of our Lord —— —— —— A. B. is convicted before me [or us] —— —— of his majeſty's juſtices of the peace for —— —— —— [ſpecifying the offence, and the place where the ſame was committed; and alſo ſpecifying that it was the firſt, ſecond, or third offence, againſt this act, as the caſe ſhall be].

Given under my hand and ſeal [or our hands and ſeals] the day and year aforeſaid.

Which ſhall be fairly wrote on parchment, and returned to the next general quarter-ſeſſion, to be filed by the clerk of the peace, and kept among the records of the county. ſ. 20.

Any perſon aggrieved by any order or warrant by any juſtice, or upon any conviction, may appeal to the next general quarter-ſeſſions for the county where the offence ſhall be committed, which ſhall not be held within fourteen days next after the cauſe of appeal ſhall ariſe, giving ten days notice of ſuch appeal to the perſon diſcovering the offence on which the conviction was made; and if the ſeſſions either confirm or diſannul the orders, they ſhall allow coſts as uſual in caſes of appeal, whoſe order therein ſhall be final. ſ. 21.

The perſon appealing ſhall give ſecurity, to the ſatisfaction of the juſtice, to proſecute ſuch appeal, and to pay coſts, in caſe ſuch order or judgment be affirmed; and the ſeſſions are to hear and determine ſuch appeal, and make order therein, and to award ſuch coſts as to them ſhall appear juſt; which order ſhall be concluſive to all parties, and not removed by writ of certiorari into any court of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 22.

No order or proceedings ſhall be quaſhed for want of form only. ſ. 23.

Actions for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſhall be commenced within ſix months, and laid and tried in York, Lancaſter, and Cheſter, as the caſe ſhall happen; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue, and if the jury find for the defendant, &c. the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 24.

By 24 Geo. 3. ſ. 2. c. 3. * A like general meeting of the manufacturers of combing wool, worſted yarn, and goods made from worſted, in the county of Suffolk, ſhall be held at Stow Market in the ſaid county; at which the manufacturers preſent by themſelves, or proxies appointed by writing, and having firſt choſen a chairman, ſhall appoint fifteen perſons from amongſt themſelves to be a committee of the ſaid manufacturers, and until another ſhall be appointed in manner after provided; which committee are to recommend two perſons to be licenſed by the juſtices of the county of Suffolk at any of their quarter-ſeſſions, to be inſpectors for the purpoſes after mentioned, and alſo to have the direction of all proſecutions of offenders againſt this and the former acts, and the management of the fund herein-after to be created, and to do all matters neceſſary for carrying this act into execution, in ſuch manner as the committee or five of them at a public meeting ſhall think beſt. ſ. 1.

The committee to appoint a clerk, &c. as in 17 Geo. 3. c. 11. ſ. 2.

" Quarterly meetings appointed. Chairmen to be choſen. " And queſtions to be determined by a majority. ſ. 3. " No buſineſs to be done at quarterly meetings unleſs five " preſent. ſ. 4. Three committeemen may call a ſpe- " cial meeting. ſ. 5. New committeemen to be choſen " in caſe of death, &c. ſ. 6."

If committee neglect their duty, juſtices may, on complaint thereof by 15 manufacturers, in writing, call a general meeting, &c. of the manufacturers within the county of Suffolk, and ſhall alſo cauſe notice to be given of ſuch general meeting in the Ipſwich and Bury weekly newſpapers, not leſs than twenty-one days after ſuch notice in the ſaid papers; and ſuch manufacturers at ſuch general meeting may appoint a committee of the ſame number of perſons, and ſubject to the directions before ordered for the election of the firſt committee. ſ. 7.

" Juſtices to appoint inſpectors of yarn, &c. Com- " mittee to ſtation inſpectors, and allow them ſalaries. ſ. 9. " Inſpectors to uſe diligence in convicting and bringing " offenders to juſtice, &c. ſ. 10."

Every perſon employed or undertaking to ſpin or reel worſted yarn for hire in the county of Suffolk, ſhall reel, either upon a yard reel of thirty-ſix inches, or a ſeven quarter reel of ſixty-three inches, or a two yard reel of ſeventy-two inches round; and when reeled, each hank or ſkain reeled on a yard reel, ſhall contain ſeven raps or leas; each eighty threads of worſted yarn; and each hank or ſkain reeled on a ſeven quarter or a two yard reel, ſhall conſiſt of ſix raps or leas; each to contain eighty threads. ſ. 11.

If any perſon employed in combing of wool, or in ſpinning, reeling, winding, or weaving worſted yarn, or in preparing or working up any of the materials uſed in the ſaid manufactures in Suffolk, ſhall reel contrary to the directions before laid down, or ſhall conceal, embezzle, ſell, or otherwiſe diſpoſe of, any wool or other materials entruſted with him to ſpin, or other purpoſes, and ſhall be convicted before one juſtice upon the oath or affirmation of the owner, or inſpector, or one witneſs, or by the confeſſion of the perſon charged with ſuch offences, ſuch perſon ſhall, for each offence, be ſubject to the ſame penalties as are inflicted by the former acts, ſo far as they are unrepealed; which penalties ſhall be recovered and puniſhments inflicted in the manner directed by the ſaid acts; and which penalties ſhall be publicly diſtributed by the conſtable, in the preſence and under the direction of the ſaid inſpector, amongſt the poor. ſ. 12.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the ſubjecting any proſecutor to any charges of conveying offenders to priſon; but ſuch expences ſhall be paid by the conſtable; and ſuch conſtable ſhall be reimburſed ſuch expences in like manner as he is reimburſed any other charges of his office. ſ. 13.

No ſhare of ſuch penalties to be given to ſuch offenders or their families. ſ. 14.

" Penalty on agents refuſing to diſcover perſons guilty " of falſe reeling yarn, the ſame as in ſ. 14. in 17 " Geo. 3. c. 11. ſ. 15."

Penalties incurred by any married woman ſhall be recovered by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the huſband. ſ. 16.

" Upon the death, &c. of inſpectors, others to be ap- " pointed. ſ. 17. Puniſhment of inſpector ſcreening " offenders from juſtice the ſame as in ſ. 16. of 17 Geo. " 3. c. 11. ſ. 18."

The collectors, or ſupervifors, or other perſons employed in the collection of the duties on ſope within Suffolk, and who are to pay the drawback of the duties on ſope to manufacturers, are to retain four-pence out of every ſhilling, to which any maſter manufacturer of combing wool, worſted yarn, or goods made from worſted, reſiding within Suffolk, ſhall be entitled, and of which he ſhall demand payment under the acts for the duties of ſope conſumed in combing wool, making of worſted yarn, or any kind of goods made from worſted, or preparing the wool for the ſame, in the ſaid county of Suffolk; and ſuch collectors, or ſupervifors, or other perſons, ſhall pay unto the treaſurer of the diviſion of Bury Saint Edmunds (demand being made thereof), all money by him retained under this act. ſ. 19.

The treaſurer ſhall, out of the money received by him, pay the expences of obtaining this act, with intereſt, the ſalaries of the inſpectors and clerk, the expences of proſecutions, and ſuch other expences as may be incurred for the ſupport and encouragement of the manufactory, as the ſaid committee ſhall, by writing, direct; and the ſaid treaſurer is not to pay any money without ſuch order in writing; and ſuch treaſurer ſhall, every year, at the quarterly meeting of the committee, held on the Thurſday before Michaelmas-day, tranſmit to ſuch committee a true account of all money come to his hands, or paid, ſince the laſt yearly account; which ſhall be laid before the general quarter ſeſſions, yearly to be held next after Michaelmas, by adjournment, at Bury Saint Edmunds, in Suffolk. ſ. 20.

In caſe the monies directed to be paid into the hands of the treaſurer ſhall, after payment of expences before ordered to be paid thereout, amount to 50*l.* only, then the juſtices at their quarter-ſeſſions, holden by adjournment at Bury Saint Edmunds, upon application made to them by the committee, or five of them, or by fifteen manufacturers, by writing, ſhall make orders for increaſing the four-pence per ſhilling to eight-pence, or eleven-pence per ſhilling, as they think neceſſary, until ſuch fund ſhall amount to 400*l.* and from time to time, upon like applications, to reduce the ſame to three-pence, or to two-pence per ſhilling, ſo as the funds in the treaſurer's hands ſhall not exceed 400*l.* nor be reduced to leſs than 50*l.* and ſo as the ſame ſhall never exceed the rate of eleven-pence per ſhilling. ſ. 21.

The juſtices ſhall cauſe convictions to be made in the ſame manner and form as in 17 Geo. 2. c. 11. ſ. 20.

The remaining clauſes, ſ. 23, 24, 25, and 26. are to the ſame effect as ſ. 21, 22, 23, and 24, of 17 Geo. 3. c. 11.

By 25 Geo. 3. c. 40. A general meeting of the manufacturers of combing wool, worſted yarn, and goods made from worſted, in the counties of Bedford, Huntingdon, Northampton, Leiceſter, Rutland, and Lincoln, and the Iſle of Ely, ſhall be held at Kattering, in Northampton, who are to chooſe eighteen perſons from amongſt themſelves, in manner following; viz. from the county of

Bedford

Bedford three; from the county of Huntingdon three; from the county of Northampton three; from the county of Leiceſter two; from the county of Rutland two; from the county of Lincoln three; viz. one from the parts of Lindſey, one from the parts of Holland, and one from the parts of Keſteven; and from the Iſle of Ely two; which eighteen perſons ſhall be a committee of the ſaid manufacturers, until another committee ſhall be appointed; which committee are to recommend proper perſons for the ſaid counties, and the Iſle of Ely, to be licenſed by the juſtices of the ſaid counties, and the ſaid Iſle of Ely reſpectively, at any of their quarter-ſeſſions, or any adjournment, or if no adjournment, then by two juſtices, to be inſpectors; and the ſaid committee ſhall alſo have the direction of all proſecutions of offenders. ſ. 1.

The committee, or the majority of them, to appoint a clerk, &c.. ſ. 2.

" ſen. Queſtions to be determined by a majority, &c.
" ſ. 3. No buſineſs to be done at quarterly meetings un-
" leſs ſeven members are preſent. ſ. 4."

If after the expiration of two years from the paſſing of this act, the ſaid committee ſhall judge it ſufficient to meet half-yearly only, inſtead of quarterly; then the ſaid committee ſhall not afterwards be obliged to hold their meetings oftener than twice in every year, which meetings ſhall be holden upon the Monday before Michaelmas-day, and the Monday before Eaſter-day; and the committee at ſuch half-yearly meeting ſhall be ſubject to the like regulations, and have the like powers as mentioned with reſpect to the quarterly meetings. ſ. 5.

" Three committeemen may call a ſpecial meeting.
" ſ. 6. New committeemen to be choſen upon vacan" cies at any of their meetings. ſ. 7."

If committee neglect their duty, the juſtices may, on complaint thereof by 60 manufacturers, call a general meeting of the manufacturers, and ſhall alſo cauſe notice to be given of ſuch general meeting in the Northampton, Cambridge, Stamford, and Lincoln newſpapers, the ſame not being leſs than twenty-one days after ſuch notice; and ſuch manufacturers, at ſuch general meeting, may appoint a committee, conſiſting of the ſame number as is ordered for the election of the firſt committee. ſ. 8.

The juſtices are to appoint ſuch perſons within the counties and the Iſle of Ely as ſhall be recommended by the committee, in writing, to be inſpectors of worſted yarn within the ſaid counties and the Iſle of Ely. ſ. 9.

" Committee to ſtation inſpectors, and allow them ſala-
" ries. ſ. 10."

" Inſpectors to uſe diligence in convicting and bringing " offenders to juſtice, &c. ſ. 11."

Every perſon employed, or undertaking to ſpin or reel worſted yarn, for hire, in the ſaid counties, and the Iſle of Ely, ſhall reel, or cauſe the ſame to be reeled, either upon a yard reel of 36 inches, or a ſeven-quarter reel of 63 inches, or a two-yard reel of 72 inches round; and when reeled, each hank or ſkain reeled ſhall contain ſuch a number of raps or leas, each containing 80 threads of worſted yarn, as after ſpecified: The worſted yarn ſpun in the county of Bedford, ſhall be ſix or ſeven leas reeled on the yard reel, and ſix leas reeled on the ſeven-quarter reel, and ſix leas reeled on the eight-quarter or two-yard reel, according to the cuſtom of that county. The worſted yarn ſpun in the county of Huntingdon ſhall be ſix or ſeven leas reeled upon the yard reel, and ſix leas reeled on the ſeven-quarter reel, and ſix leas reeled on the eight-quarter or two-yard reel, according to the cuſtom of that county. The worſted yarn ſpun in the county of Northampton, ſhall be ſix or ſeven leas to the ſkain, reeled on the yard reel, according to the cuſtom of that county. The worſted yarn ſpun in the county of Leiceſter, ſhall be ſix or ſeven leas reeled upon the yard reel, according to the cuſtom of that county. The worſted yarn ſpun in the county of Rutland, ſhall be ſix or ſeven leas reeled upon the yard reel, according to the cuſtom of that county. The worſted yarn ſpun in the county of Lincoln, ſhall be ſeven leas, reeled upon the yard reel, or two-yard reel: and the worſted yarn ſpun in the Iſle of Ely ſhall be ſeven leas reeled upon the yard reel, and ſix leas reeled on the ſeven-quarter reel, and ſix leas reeled on the eight-quarter or two-yard reel. ſ. 12.

All perſons employed to put out wool for ſpinning, ſhall confine themſelves to ſix or ſeven lead yarn, but ſhall by no means put out both from the ſame place; nor ſhall any ſuch perſon take in, or have in his poſſeſſion, at one time, the wool or yarn belonging to more than one manufacturer; and every perſon who ſhall put out wool, or take in yarn, otherwiſe than above, ſhall pay 40 s. upon conviction of ſuch offence, by the oath or affirmation of one witneſs, which penalty ſhall be paid into the hands of the neareſt inſpector, and ſhall be levied by warrant under the hand and ſeal of the juſtice, for the benefit of the perſons intereſted in the fund herein-after directed to be eſtabliſhed; and the ſaid committee ſhall give inſtructions to the ſpinners, or agents employed to put out wool for ſpinning, that every hank or ſkain ſhall be the work of one ſpinner only; and if any perſon ſhall be ſuſpected of having mixed the work of two or more ſpinners in one hank, and it ſhall be made appear before one juſtice, by oath or affirmation of the inſpector, that in his opinion the ſuſpected hank is of ſuch different degrees of fineneſs as will be prejudical to the ſaid manufacturers, then the ſaid juſtice is to convict the perſon who ſhall have delivered in the ſame hanks, of having mixed the ſame as aforeſaid; and ſuch perſon, for every hank, ſhall forfeit ſixpence; and if a pound of yarn, more or leſs, be wrapt about with a ſkain of yarn, it ſhall be equal in goodneſs, and contain the ſame number of leas as the hanks in the pound, and the leas be divided, viz. three double leas and a ſingle lea for the ſeven leas, and three doubles for the ſix-lead yarn: provided that every ſpinner, to whom any wool or yarn ſhall be put out by any manufacturer, who ſhall keep the ſame in his cuſtody more than four months, before it is wrought or delivered back, ſhall be deemed guilty of embezzling the ſame. ſ. 13.

If any perſon employed in the combing of wool, or in the ſpinning, reeling, winding, or weaving of worſted yarn, or in the preparing or working up any of the materials uſed in the ſaid manufactures, in the ſaid counties, or the Iſle of Ely, ſhall reel, or cauſe to be reeled, or tie up, any worſted yarn, contrary to the directions before laid down, for the reeling and tying up ſuch yarn, or ſhall conceal, embezzle, ſell, or otherwiſe diſpoſe of any wool, or other materials entruſted with him, and ſhall of any of ſuch offences be convicted, before one juſtice, upon the oath or affirmation of the owner, inſpector, or one witneſs, or by confeſſion of the perſon charged, ſuch perſon ſhall, for each offence, be ſubject to the ſame penalties and puniſhments as are inflicted by the former acts unrepealed, &c. ſ. 14.

" Proſecutors not liable to charges of conveying offenders
" to priſon. ſ. 15."

" No part of penalties to be given to offenders or their " families. ſ. 16."

" Penalty on agents refuſing to diſcover perſons guilty
" of falſe reeling, the ſame as in 17 Geo. 3. c. 11.
" ſ. 17."

" Goods of huſbands whoſe wives offend, liable to diſtreſs " and ſale. ſ. 18."

" Upon the death of inſpectors, others to be appointed. " ſ. 19."

" Puniſhment of inſpectors ſcreening offenders from " juſtice, the ſame as in 17 Geo. 3. c. 11. ſ. 20."

The collectors or ſupervifors, or other perſons employed in the collection of the duties on ſoap, are to deduct 4 d. out of every 1*s.* to which any maſter manufacturer, reſiding within the counties aforeſaid, or the Iſle of Ely, ſhall be entitled, and of which he ſhall demand payment under the acts for the duties of ſoap conſumed in the combing of wool, making of worſted yarn, or any kind of goods made from worſted, or preparing the wool for the ſame; and ſuch collectors ſhall ſeverally pay, into the hands of the treaſurer appointed by the committee, at their quarterly meeting, (demand being made thereof) all money ſo deducted, under this act, ſuch treaſurer giving ſecurity, to the ſatisfaction of the committee, for all ſums received by him. ſ. 21.

The drawback of the duties on ſoap conſumed within the county of Leiceſter, in preparing and combing of wool, and making of worſted yarn, uſed in the ſtocking manufacture, and in fitting wove ſtockings for ſale, ſhall, upon oath or affirmation being firſt made that the ſoap was ſpent, employed, and conſumed in the ſaid ſtocking-manufactory, be entirely exempted from the above-mentioned deduction; which oath or affirmation any juſtice is to adminiſter. ſ. 22.

The committee ſhall repay all manufacturers of haroteens that make their own yarn, within the county of Northampton, whoſe rate of ſpinning does not exceed 10 ſkains or hanks in a pound on the average, ſix leas to the hank or ſkain on the yard reel, half of the money which ſhall have by them been paid out of their drawback on ſoap the preceding year, ſuch manufacturers certifying the ſame to the committee on oath or affirmation, which any juſtice is to adminiſter; but if a manufacturer makes any other ſort of goods beſides haroteens, or any other ſort of yarn beſides that which is uſed in the manufacturing of haroteens, he ſhall be ſubject to the ſame deduction out of the drawback, as any other maker of worſted yarn. ſ. 23.

The ſaid treaſurer ſhall, out of the money received by him pay the expences of obtaining this act, with intereſt, the ſalaries of the inſpector and clerk, the expences of proſecutions, and ſuch other expences as may be hereafter incurred for the ſupport of the ſaid manufacture, as the committee ſhall, by writing, direct; and the ſaid treaſurer is not to pay any money without ſuch direction; and ſuch treaſurer ſhall lay the account before the committee for examination, whenever they require the ſame, and ſhall tranſmit to ſuch committee a true account of all money come to his hands, or paid by him, as often as the committee ſhall require. ſ. 24.

If the monies herein-before directed to be paid into the hands of the treaſurer, ſhall, after payment of all expences before directed, amount to 200 l. only, then the committee, by writing, may make orders for increaſing the four-pence per ſhilling, not exceeding ſix-pence in the ſhilling, until the fund ſhall amount to 500 l. and from time to time, upon like application, reduce the ſame to three-pence, two-pence, or one penny, ſo as the fund in the treaſurer's hands ſhall not exceed 500 l. nor be reduced to leſs than 200 l. and ſo as the ſame ſhall not exceed the rate of ſix-pence per ſhilling. ſ. 25.

All machines wherein worſted yarn is ſpun by a water-mill, ſhall be exempted from the proviſions of this act, and no order of any of the committees ſhall extend to the draw-back on ſoap uſed in the waſhing of wool to be ſpun in the ſaid machines; provided that all perſons poſſeſſed of ſuch machines, who ſhall give out wool to be ſpun by hand, ſhall cauſe the wool intended for ſpinning by hand to be waſhed in ſome place different and diſtant from that whereat they ſhall waſh the wool for any ſuch machine, and ſhall from time to time exhibit to the collectors or ſupervifors, and to the committee, if required, a ſeparate account of the wool waſhed in each place, and intended for each purpoſe herein mentioned, which account ſhall be verified upon oath or affirmation of the owner or conductor of ſuch machines, which any juſtice is to adminiſter. ſ. 26.

Such of the members of the committee as ſhall be appointed for, or reſide within any of the ſaid counties, or the ſaid Iſle of Ely, or the majority of them, are, whenever they judge neceſſary, to appoint ſuch a number of perſons to be additional inſpectors within their counties, or the Iſle of Ely, the expences attending ſuch appointment to be paid out of the money ſubſcribed or to be ſubſcribed, as after mentioned, and alſo to make ſuch regulations, and do ſuch acts as they ſhall think proper, for carrying the purpoſes of this act into execution within their reſpective counties, or the ſaid Iſle of Ely (except the removing of inſpectors to be nominated by the ſaid committee); and ſuch additional inſpectors (being approved of by the juſtices) ſhall have the ſame powers as are before given to the inſpectors nominated by the ſaid committee in purſuance of this act; and all ſuch regulations ſo to be made ſhall be as valid as if made by the ſaid committee, until the next quarterly meeting, at which, report ſhall be made of ſuch regulations; and the ſaid committee, at ſuch quarterly meeting, ſhall take ſuch report into conſideration, and allow or diſallow or alter ſuch report and the regulations therein mentioned as they think proper; provided, that nothing herein ſhall extend to the appointment of any additional inſpectors, or to any regulation in reſpect to the management of the private ſubſcription fund within any county, or the Iſle of Ely. ſ. 27.

All money which hath or ſhall be ſubſcribed by any perſon, not being a manufacturer, towards encouraging the ſaid manufacture within the ſaid county, or the Iſle of Ely, ſhall be paid to ſuch perſon as ſhall be appointed to receive the ſame, by ſuch of the members of the ſaid committee as ſhall be appointed for, or reſide within ſuch county, or Iſle; and ſuch members of the committee, acting for, or reſiding within ſuch county, or Iſle, are to apply ſuch money in paying and making proper ſalaries to additional inſpectors, and for the encouraging the ſaid manufacture in ſuch manner as they think proper, and to no other uſe whatſoever. ſ. 28.

The powers veſted in the juſtices ſhall, as to the county of Lincoln, and the city and county of the city of Lincoln, be veſted in the juſtices for the ſouthern diviſion of the parts of Lindſey within the ſaid county. ſ. 29.

The juſtice ſhall cauſe conviction to be made out in the ſame manner and form as in 17 Geo. 3. c. 11. ſ. 20.

The clauſes in this act (31, 32, 33, and 34) as to appealing, limitation of actions, &c. are to the ſame purport as ſec. 21, 22, 23, and 24 of 17 Geo. 3. c. 1.

The city and county of the city of Lincoln ſhall, for the purpoſes of this act only, be deemed to be part of the county of Lincoln, and to be within the parts of Lindſey in the ſaid county. ſ. 35.

By 28 Geo. 3. c. 38. Every perſon offending againſt 23 Hen. 8. c. 17. and 13 Eliz. c. 25. ſhall, in lieu of every ſixpence which by the ſaid acts might be recovered, forfeit 2*s.* the whole whereof ſhall be paid to the finder or prover prover of the deceits; and the offences againſt the ſaid acts ſhall be heard and determined by one juſtice in a ſummary way; and ſuch juſtice ſhall cauſe the perſon or perſons, againſt whom any information ſhall be laid, to be ſummoned at a certain time and place, to be fixed by ſuch juſtice, and he is upon the appearance or default of ſuch perſon, to examine into, and give judgment in the premiſes. ſ. 79.

If it ſhall appear, to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtice, that the matter complained of was not done with intent to deceive the buyer of ſuch wool, or that any clay, ſand, or earth, found in ſuch fleece, was not intentionally put there to make the fleece more weighty, but became mixed or connected with the ſame by reaſon of the neceſſary paſturing, folding, or keeping of the ſheep, whereon ſuch fleece ſhall have been grown ſubſequent to the rivering or waſhing of ſuch ſheep, ſuch juſtice is empowered to diſcharge ſuch complaint, and acquit the perſon accuſed from the payment of any penalty on account of the matter therein alledged. ſ. 80.

In caſe the penalty hereby inflicted for falſe winding of wool, or ſelling thereof, ſhall not be paid within ſix days after conviction, the penalties ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch offender, by warrant of the juſtice. ſ. 81.

It ſhall be lawful for the ſeller of wool, touching which any complaint or information ſhall have been made, and which ſhall be then pending, immediately after he ſhall have received ſuch ſummons, to apply to the juſtice, and require him, upon information having been given for that purpoſe, to ſummon the perſon who actually wound or folded the wool, complained of as being falſely wound or folded, to appear at the time and place mentioned in ſuch original ſummons, or at ſuch other time and place as ſuch juſtice ſhall think proper (of which notice ſhall be given by the ſeller, to the perſon complaining), when the ſaid juſtice ſhall, whether the perſon charged as the actual winder of the wool complained of ſhall appear or not (proof being made that he had been ſummoned), hear and determine the complaint; and if it ſhall then appear, to the ſatisfaction of the ſaid juſtice, that the wool complained of had been actually wound or folded falſely by the perſon charged by the ſeller, and that without the privity or conſent of ſuch ſeller, then the perſon who actually wound or folded ſuch wool (and not the ſeller) ſhall be ſubject to the penalties impoſed upon the ſeller of wool deceitfully wound or folded; and ſuch remedies for the recovery of the ſame as are before mentioned; but if it ſhall, upon hearing, appear otherwiſe to ſuch juſtice, or if it ſhall appear and be determined otherwiſe upon hearing of the appeal which is herein-after given, then the ſeller ſhall remain ſubject to ſuch penalties and remedies; and in caſe of non-payment of ſuch penalties by, or that the ſame cannot be recovered from the perſon convicted, ſuch perſon ſhall be committed to the common gaol, or houſe of correction, for not exceeding 3 months, nor leſs than 21 days, unleſs the penalty and coſts (if any) ſhall be ſooner paid. ſ. 82.

Any perſon aggrieved by the judgment or determination of ſuch juſtice, may appeal to the next general or quarter ſeſſions, giving, within five days next after conviction, notice in writing, to the reſpondent in ſuch appeal, and ſhall at the time of making ſuch appeal, with two ſureties, enter into recognizance before the ſaid juſtice, to appear and proſecute ſuch appeal at the ſaid ſeſſions, and abide by the order or determination of the court, and to pay the coſts and charges thereby awarded againſt ſuch perſon (if any); and ſuch appeal ſhall, by the ſaid ſeſſions, be examined, and the circumſtances of the caſe fully enquired into, and the matter heard and determined; and the ſaid ſeſſions are to award coſts, to be paid by either party. ſ. 83.

No conviction ſhall be ſet aſide in any court for want of form, or miſtating any fact, provided the material facts alledged in ſuch conviction, and upon which the ſame ſhall be grounded, be proved to the ſatisfaction of the court. ſ. 84.

The juſtices at general quarter ſeſſions within Great Britain, or any adjournment thereof, are empowered to adminiſter to every perſon as ſhall be deſirous of becoming a ſworn winder of wool, and ſhall produce a certificate under the hands of two growers of wool, teſtifying to the ſatisfaction of ſuch juſtices, that ſuch perſon is properly qualified to become a ſworn winder of wool, an oath to the following purport:

I A. B. do ſwear, That I will truly and juſtly, without deceit, wind and fold all and ſingular the wool which I ſhall take upon me to wind and fold, without leaving or putting any clay, lead, ſtones, ſand, tails, deceitful locks, lambs wool, or any other thing, whereby the fleece may be made more weighty, to the deceit and loſs of the buyer; and that I will not uſe any other deceit, craft, guile, or fraud, in the winding or folding of any ſuch aforeſaid wool.

So help me GOD.

An entry of the adminiſtering and taking of which oath ſhall be made in the records of the ſeſſions, and a certificate thereof ſhall be delivered by the clerk of the peace, to the perſon who ſhall have taken the ſame. ſ. 85.

Provided that nothing herein ſhall prevent any one from employing any perſon in winding or folding of wool, although ſuch perſon ſhall not have been ſworn. ſ. 86.

Marque and Repriſal.

By 4 Hen. 5. c. 7. Of all attempts made by enemies upon any of the king's people, againſt the tenor of any truce, the king will grant marque in due form to all that feel themſelves grieved; and if they that feel them grieved againſt the tenor of ſuch truce upon the ſea, or in parts beyond the ſea, ſhall complain to the keeper of the privy-ſeal, he ſhall make to the party (if he require it) letters of requeſt under the privy-ſeal; and if after ſuch requeſt made, the party required do not make within convenient time due reſtitution or ſatisfaction to the party grieved, the chancellor ſhall cauſe to be made to the party grieved (if he demand it) letters of marque under the great ſeal.

By 10 Hen. 6. c. 3. If the goods of any of the king's lieges ſhall be taken by the king of Denmark, or any of his lieges, the keeper of the privy ſeal ſhall make to the party grieved, letters of requeſt without other purſuit: and if reſtitution be not made by ſuch letters, the king, by advice of his council, ſhall provide fit remedy.

Marriages.

By 32 Hen. 8. c. 38. revived by 1 Eliz. c. 1. as to ſo much as is not repealed by 2 & 3 Edw. 6. c. 23. All ſuch marriages as within the church of England, ſhall be contracted between lawful perſons (as all perſons be lawful that be not prohibited by God's law to marry) being contract and ſolemnized in the face of the church, and conſummate with bodily knowledge and fruit of children, ſhall be lawful and indiſſoluble, notwithſtanding any diſpenſation, preſcription, or other thing. And no reſervation or prohibition (God's law except) ſhall impeach any marriage, without the Levitical degrees. And no perſon ſhall be admitted in the ſpiritual courts to any proceſs contrary to this act. ſ. 2.

By 2 & 3 Ed. c. 23. As concerning pre-contracts, the ſtatute 32 Hen. 8. c. 38. ſhall be repealed, and reduced to the ſtate of the king's eccleſiaſtical laws. ſ. 2.

By 1 Jac. 1. c. 11. If any perſon married, do marry any perſon, the former huſband or wife being alive, ſuch offence ſhall be felony, and the perſon offending ſhall ſuffer death; and the parties offending ſhall receive like trial and execution in ſuch county where ſuch perſons ſhall be apprehended, as if the offence had been committed in ſuch county. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not extend to any perſon, whoſe huſband or wife ſhall be continually remaining beyond the ſeas ſeven years together; or whoſe huſband or wife ſhall abſent him or herſelf ſeven years together within his majeſty's dominions, the one of them not knowing the other to be living within that time. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not extend to perſons that ſhall be divorced by any ſentence in the eccleſiaſtical court, or where the former marriage ſhall be by ſentence in the eccleſiaſtical court declared void; nor to any perſons for any former marriage to be had within age of conſent. ſ. 3.

No attainder for this offence ſhall work corruption of blood, loſs of dower, or diſinheriſon of heirs. ſ. 4.

By 6 & 7 Will. 3. c. 6. No perſon ſhall be married at any place pretending to be exempt from the viſitation of the biſhop, without a licence, except the bans be publiſhed and certified: and every parſon, vicar and curate, who ſhall marry any perſons contrary to the meaning hereof, ſhall forfeit 100*l.* to be recovered in any of his majeſty's courts of record; one moiety to the king, and the other to the informer; and ſhall for the ſecond offence be ſuſpended ab officio et beneficio for three years. ſ. 52.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 35. Every parſon, vicar, or curate, who ſhall marry any perſon without publication of bans, or without licences, ſhall forfeit 100*l.* ſ. 2.

Every parſon, vicar, or curate, who ſhall ſubſtitute, or knowingly permit any other miniſter to marry any perſons in any church or chapel to ſuch parſon, &c. belonging, without publication of bans or licences, ſhall forfeit 100*l.* to be recovered in any of his majeſty's courts of record; one moiety to his majeſty, and the other to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame. ſ. 3.

Every man married without licence or publication of bans ſhall forfeit 10*l.* to be recovered with coſts as aforeſaid by any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame; and every ſexton or pariſh clerk who ſhall knowingly aſſiſt at ſuch marriages ſhall forfeit 5*l.* to be recovered with coſts as aforeſaid by any perſon who ſhall ſue. ſ. 4.

By 10 Ann. c. 19. Every parſon, vicar, or curate, or other perſon in holy orders, who ſhall marry any perſon without publication of bans, or without licence from the proper ordinary, ſhall forfeit 100*l.* to be recovered with coſts in any of her majeſty's courts of record at Weſtminſter; one moiety to the queen, and the other moiety to him who ſhall ſue for the ſame: and if ſuch offender be a priſoner in any priſon (other than a county gaol) and ſhall be convicted of ſuch offence by action or information, upon oath made of ſuch impriſonment made before any judge of her majeſty's courts of record at Weſtminſter, and upon producing a copy of the record of ſuch conviction, proved upon oath, the judge is required to grant his warrant to the keeper of the gaol where ſuch offender is a priſoner, to remove ſuch offender to the gaol of the county; and if any gaoler ſhall knowingly permit any marriage to be ſolemnized in his priſon, before publication of bans, or licence obtained, he ſhall forfeit 100*l.* as aforeſaid. ſ. 176.

Saving to all archbiſhops, biſhops, and other ordinaries, &c. all eccleſiaſtical juriſdiction. ſ. 177.

The ſaid proviſion for marriages ſhall not extend to Scotland. ſ. 178.

By 26 Geo. 2. c. 33. All bans of matrimony ſhall be publiſhed in an audible manner in the pariſh church, or in ſome public chapel, in which bans of matrimony have been uſually publiſhed, belonging to ſuch pariſh or chapelry wherein the perſons to be married dwell, according to the form preſcribed by the rubric prefixed to the office of matrimony in the book of common prayer; upon three Sundays preceding the ſolemnization of marriage, during the time of morning ſervice, (or of evening ſervice, if there be no morning ſervice in ſuch church or chapel upon any of thoſe Sundays) immediately after the ſecond leſſon: and when the perſons to be married dwell in divers pariſhes or chapelries, the bans ſhall be publiſhed in the church or chapel belonging to ſuch pariſh or chapelry wherein each of them dwell; and where both or either of the perſons to be married dwell in any extra-parochial place having no church or chapel wherein bans have been uſually publiſhed, then the bans ſhall be publiſhed in the pariſh church or chapel belonging to ſome pariſh or chapelry adjoining to ſuch extra-parochial place: and where bans ſhall be publiſhed in any church or chapel belonging to any pariſh adjoining to ſuch extra-parochial place, the parſon, vicar, miniſter, or curate, publiſhing ſuch bans, ſhall under his hand certify the publication thereof, in ſuch manner as if either of the perſons to be married dwelt in ſuch adjoining pariſh; and all other rules preſcribed by the ſaid rubric, concerning the publication of bans and the ſolemnization of matrimony, not hereby altered, ſhall be obſerved. And in all caſes where bans ſhall have been publiſhed, the marriage ſhall be ſolemnized in one of the pariſh churches or chapels where ſuch bans have been publiſhed. ſ. 1.

No parſon, vicar, miniſter, or curate, ſhall be obliged to publiſh the bans of matrimony between any perſons, unleſs the perſons to be married ſhall ſeven days before the time required for the firſt publication of ſuch bans, cauſe to be delivered to ſuch parſon, &c. a notice in writing of their chriſtian and ſurnames, and of their reſpective abodes, within ſuch pariſh, chapelry, or extra-parochial place, and of the time during which they have dwelt in ſuch houſes reſpectively. ſ. 2.

No parſon, &c. ſolemnizing marriages between perſons, both or one of whom ſhall be under the age of 21 years, after bans publiſhed, ſhall be puniſhable by eccleſiaſtical cenſures, for ſolemnizing ſuch marriages without conſent of parents or guardians, whoſe conſent is required by law, unleſs ſuch parſon, &c. have notice of the diſſent of ſuch parents or guardians. And in caſe ſuch parents or guardians, or one of them, publicly cauſe to be declared, in the church or chapel, where the bans ſhall be publiſhed, at the time of ſuch publication, their diſſent to ſuch marriage, ſuch publication of bans ſhall be void. ſ. 3.

No licence of marriage ſhall be granted by any perſon having authority to grant ſuch licences, to ſolemnize any marriage in any other church or chapel, than in the pariſh church or public chapel belonging to the pariſh or chapelry within which the uſual place of abode of one of the perſons to be married ſhall have been for four weeks, immediately before before the granting ſuch licence; or where both or either of the parties to be married dwell, in any extra-parochial place having no church or chapel wherein bans have been uſually publiſhed, then, in the pariſh church or chapel belonging to ſome pariſh or chapelry adjoining to ſuch extra-parochial place. ſ. 4.

All pariſhes where there ſhall be no pariſh church or chapel, or none wherein divine ſervice ſhall be uſually celebrated every Sunday, may be deemed extra-parochial places for the purpoſes of this act. ſ. 5.

Nothing herein contained ſhall deprive the archbiſhop of Canterbury and his officers of the right which hath hitherto been uſed, in virtue of 25 Hen. 8. c. 21. of granting ſpecial licences, to marry at any convenient time or place. ſ. 6.

No ſurrogate deputed by any eccleſiaſtical judge, who hath power to grant licences of marriages, ſhall grant any ſuch licence, before he hath taken an oath before the ſaid judge, faithfully to execute his office according to law, to the beſt of his knowledge, and hath given ſecurity, by his bond, in the ſum of 100*l.* to the biſhop of the dioceſe, for the faithful execution of his office. ſ. 7.

If any perſon ſhall ſolemnize matrimony in any other place than a church or public chapel, where bans have been uſually publiſhed, unleſs by ſpecial licence from the archbiſhop of Canterbury, or ſhall ſolemnize matrimony without publication of bans, unleſs licence of marriage be firſt obtained from ſome perſon having authority to grant the ſame; every perſon ſo offending, and convicted, ſhall be judged guilty of felony, and ſhall be tranſported to ſome of his majeſty's plantations in America for 14 years, according to the laws for tranſportation of felons. And all marriages ſolemnized in any other place than a church or ſuch public chapel, unleſs by ſpecial licence as aforeſaid, or without publication of bans, or licence of marriage from a perſon having authority to grant the ſame, ſhall be void. ſ. 8.

All proſecutions for ſuch felony ſhall be commenced within three years after the offence committed. ſ. 9.

After the ſolemnization of any marriage, under a publication of bans, it ſhall not be neceſſary, in ſupport of ſuch marriage, to give any proof of the dwelling of the parties in the reſpective pariſhes or chapelries wherein the bans were publiſhed; or where the marriage is by licence, it ſhall not be neceſſary to give any proof that the uſual place of abode of one of the parties, for four weeks as aforeſaid, was in the pariſh or chapelry where the marriage was ſolemnized; nor ſhall any evidence, in either of the ſaid caſes, be received to prove the contrary in any ſuit touching the validity of ſuch marriage. ſ. 10.

All marriages ſolemnized by licence, where either of the parties, not being a widower or widow, ſhall be under the age of 21 years, which ſhall be had without the conſent of the father of ſuch of the parties ſo under age, if living, or, if dead, of the guardians of the perſon of the party ſo under age, or one of them; and in caſe there be no ſuch guardian then of the mother, if living and unmarried; or if there be no mother living and unmarried, then of a guardian of the perſon appointed by the court of Chancery, ſhall be void. ſ. 11.

In caſe any ſuch guardian or mother, or any of them, whoſe conſent is made neceſſary, ſhall be non compos mentis, or beyond the ſeas, or ſhall refuſe their conſent to the marriage, it ſhall be lawful for any perſon deſirous of marrying, in any of the before-mentioned caſes, to apply by petition to the lord chancellor, who is hereby empowered to proceed upon ſuch petition in a ſummary way; and in caſe the marriage propoſed appear proper, the lord chancellor ſhall judicially declare the ſame to be ſo by an order of court, and ſuch order ſhall be deemed as good as if the guardian or mother of the perſon ſo petitioning, had conſented to ſuch marriage. ſ. 12.

In no caſe ſhall any ſuit or proceeding be had in any eccleſiaſtical court, to compel a celebration of any marriage in facie eccleſiæ, by reaſon of any contract of matrimony, whether per verba de præſenti or per verba de futuro, entered into after the 25th of March 1754. ſ. 13.

The churchwardens and chapelwardens of every pariſh or chapelry ſhall provide books of vellum, or durable paper, in which all marriages and bans of marriage reſpectively, there publiſhed or ſolemnized, ſhall be regiſtered: and every page thereof ſhall be marked at the top with the number of ſuch page, beginning at the ſecond leaf with number one; and every leaf or page ſo numbered, ſhall be ruled with lines at proper and equal diſtances: and all bans and marriages publiſhed or celebrated in any church or chapel, or within any ſuch pariſh or chapelry, ſhall be regiſtered, printed, or written upon, or as near as may be to ſuch ruled lines; and ſhall be ſigned by the parſon, vicar, miniſter, or curate, or by ſome other perſon in his preſence, and by his direction: and ſuch entries ſhall be made on or near ſuch lines in ſucceſſive order, where the paper is not damaged or decayed, until a new book ſhall be neceſſary; and then the directions aforeſaid ſhall be obſerved in every ſuch new book. And all books provided as aforeſaid, ſhall belong to every ſuch pariſh or chapelry reſpectively, and ſhall be carefully preſerved for public uſe. ſ. 14.

All marriages ſhall be ſolemnized in the preſence of two witneſſes, beſides the miniſter who ſhall celebrate the ſame. And immediately after the celebration of every marriage, an entry thereof ſhall be made in ſuch regiſter; in which it ſhall be expreſſed, that the ſaid marriage was celebrated by bans or licence; and if both or either of the parties married by licence be under age, with conſent of the parents or guardians, as the caſe ſhall be; and ſhall be ſigned by the miniſter with his proper addition, and alſo by the parties married, and atteſted by ſuch two witneſſes; which entry ſhall be in the form or to the effect following. ſ. 15.

A. B. of { the / this } Pariſh and C. D. of { the / this } Pariſh were married in this { Church / Chapel } by { Bans / Licence } with conſent of { Parents / Guardians } this day of in the year by me J. J. { Rector. / Vicar. / Curate. }

This marriage was ſolemnized between us A. B. / C. D. in the preſence of E. F. / G. H.

If any perſon ſhall with intent to elude this act, wilfully inſert, or cauſe to be inſerted, in the regiſter book of ſuch pariſh or chapelry any falſe entry of any thing relating to any marriage; or falſely make, alter, forge, or counterfeit, or cauſe to be falſely made, &c. or aſſiſt in falſely making, making, &c. any ſuch entry in ſuch regiſter; or falſely make, &c. or cauſe to be falſely made, &c. or aſſiſt in falſely making, &c. any ſuch licence of marriage as aforeſaid; or publiſh as true any ſuch falſe, altered, forged, or counterfeited regiſter, or a copy thereof, or any ſuch falſe, &c. licence of marriage, knowing ſuch regiſter or licence of marriage reſpectively to be falſe, &c.; or if any perſon ſhall wilfully deſtroy, or cauſe to be deſtroyed, any regiſter book of marriages, or any part of ſuch regiſter book, with intent to avoid any marriage, or to ſubject any perſon to any of the penalties of this act; every perſon ſo offending, and being convicted, ſhall be adjudged guilty of felony, and ſhall ſuffer death. ſ. 16.

This act ſhall not extend to the marriages of the royal family. ſ. 17.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to Scotland; nor to any marriages amongſt Quakers, or amongſt perſons profeſſing the Jewiſh religion, where both the parties to ſuch marriage ſhall be Quakers, or perſons profeſſing the Jewiſh religion; nor to any marriages ſolemnized beyond the ſeas. ſ. 18.

By 21 Geo. 3. c. 53. All marriages ſolemnized before Auguſt 1ſt, 1781, in any church or public chapel, in England, Wales, and Berwick upon Tweed, erected ſince 26 Geo. 2. and conſecrated, ſhall be as valid in law as if ſolemnized in pariſh churches or public chapels having chapelries annexed, and wherein bans had been uſually publiſhed before or at the time of paſſing the ſaid act. ſ. 1.

All parſons, vicars, miniſters, and curates, who, before 10th July 1781, ſhall have ſolemnized any of the marriages which are hereby enacted to be valid, ſhall be indemnified againſt the penalties inflicted by the ſaid act upon perſons who ſolemnize marriages in any other place than a church or public chapel in which bans had been uſually publiſhed before or at paſſing the ſaid act. ſ. 2.

The regiſters of marriages hereby enacted to be valid, or copies thereof, ſhall be received in all courts as evidence. ſ. 3.

The regiſters of all marriages, ſolemnized in any public chapels which are hereby enacted to be valid, ſhall, within twenty days after 1ſt Auguſt 1781, be removed to the pariſh church of the pariſh in which ſuch chapel ſhall be ſituated; and in caſe ſuch chapel ſhall be ſituated in an extra-parochial place, then to the pariſh church next adjoining to ſuch place, to be kept with the marriage regiſters of ſuch pariſh, and as marriage regiſters are directed to be kept by the ſaid act. ſ. 4.

Marſhalſey.

Artic. ſuper chart. 28 Edw. 1. c. 3. The ſteward and marſhal ſhall not hold plea of freehold, nor of debt nor covenant, nor of any contract, but only of treſpaſs done within the king's houſe or within the verge, and of contracts and covenants that one of the king's houſe maketh with another of the ſame houſe and within the houſe; and they ſhall plead no plea of treſpaſs, except the party were attached before the king departed from the place; and ſhall plead them ſpeedily from day to day, ſo that they may be pleaded and determined before the king depart out of the verge; and if they cannot be determined within the verge, the pleas ſhall ceaſe before the ſteward, and be determinable at common law; and the ſteward ſhall not take cognizance of debts, nor other thing, but of ſuch only as be of the king's houſe; and if they attempt any thing contrary to this ordinance, it ſhall be holden as void. In caſes of the death of men, whereof the coroner's office is to make a view and inqueſt, it ſhall be commanded to the coroner of the county, that he with the coroner of the king's houſe ſhall do his office, and inrol it: and that which cannot be determined before the ſteward ſhall be remitted to the common law, ſo that outlawries and preſentments ſhall be made thereupon in the eyre by the coroner of the county.

By 5 Edw. 3. c. 2. Where inqueſts be to be taken before the ſteward and marſhal of the king's houſe, ſuch inqueſts ſhall be taken by men of the country, and by no men of the king's houſe, except it be of the contracts, covenants or treſpaſſes, made by men of the king's houſe of either part, and that in the ſame houſe. And error before the ſteward, &c. ſhall be redreſſed before the king in his place.

By 10 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2. c. 3. Where a man will complain of errors before the ſteward and marſhal, he ſhall have a writ to cauſe the record to come before the king in his place, and there the error ſhall be redreſſed.

By 9 Ric. 2. c. 5. Prieſts and other people of holy church taken in the Marſhalſea of the king's houſe ſhall pay ſuch fees as lay people pay.

By 13 Ric. 2. ſtat. 1. c. 3. The court of the ſteward and marſhal of the king's houſe, ſhall not paſs the ſpace of twelve miles to be counted about the lodging of the king.

By 2 Hen. 4. c. 23. Whereas the marſhal of the Marſhalſea of the court of the king's houſe was wont to take of every perſon that cometh by capias to the court, 4 d. and if he be let to mainpriſe till his day, 2 d. more; and of every perſon which is impleaded of treſpaſs, and findeth mainpernors to keep his day to the end of the plea, 2 d. and of every perſon committed to priſon by judgment of the ſteward, 4 d. and of every perſon delivered of felony, and of every felon let to mainpriſe, 4 d.; if the marſhal or his miniſters take other fees, they ſhall loſe their offices, and pay treble damages, and the party grieved ſhall have his ſuit before the ſteward of the court. ſ. 1.

No ſervitor of bills that beareth a ſtaff of the ſame court ſhall take for every mile from the court to the place where he ſhall do his ſervice more than 1 d. and to ſerve a venire facias, or a diſtringas, out of the court, the double; and if any of the ſaid ſervitors of bills do the contrary, he ſhall be puniſhed by impriſonment, and make fine to the king after the diſcretion of the ſteward of the court, and be forejudged the court. And the ſteward ſhall have power to make proclamation, at his coming to the court in every country, of the articles aforeſaid. ſ. 2.

By 15 Hen. 6. c. 1. In every ſurety againſt defendants to be taken in the Marſhalſea, they ſhall not be ſtopped by ſuch record to ſay, that they or the plaintiffs in the ſame record were not at the time of the plea commenced of the king's houſe, as by the record is ſuppoſed.

Merchants.

Mag. chart. 9 Hen. 3. c. 30. All merchants ſhall have ſafe conduct to depart, to come, to tarry in and go through England to buy and ſell without evil tolls by the old cuſtoms, except in time of war; and if they be of a land making war, and be found in the realm at the beginning of the wars, they ſhall be attached without harm of body or goods, until it be known how our merchants be treated in the land making war; and if our merchants be well treated there, theirs ſhall be likewiſe with us.

By 2 Edw. 3. c. 9. All merchant-ſtrangers and privy may go and come with their merchandizes after the tenor of the great charter, and writs thereupon ſhall be ſent to all ſheriffs of England, and to mayors and bailiffs of good towns, where need ſhall require.

By

By 9 Edw. 3. c. 1. All merchants and other that will buy or ſell corn, and other things vendible, may freely ſell them as well to foreigners as denizens, except the enemies of the king. And if any diſturbance be done to any merchant or other, for the ſale of ſuch things in any city, town, port, or other place, which hath franchiſe, and the mayor or other which hath the rule of ſuch franchiſe, being required to provide remedy, do not, and be thereof attainted, the franchiſe ſhall be ſeized into the king's hands, and he which hath done diſturbance ſhall be bound to reſtore to the merchant his double damages: and if ſuch diſturbance be done in places where no ſuch franchiſe is, and the lord or his bail required to do right, do not, and thereof be attainted, they ſhall yield to the party his double damages; and the diſturbers ſhall have one year's impriſonment, and be ranſomed at the king's will. No alien or denizen upon the ſame pain ſhall be troubled, but that he may freely buy ſuch things, and carry them where it pleaſeth him; ſaving that ſuch merchants aliens ſhall carry no wine out of the realm. And the things aforeſaid ſhall be obſerved in every city, town, port, &c. notwithſtanding charters of franchiſe granted to them to the contrary; ſaving to the king and other the cuſtoms due. The chancellor, treaſurer and juſtices aſſigned to hold the king's pleas, ſhall enquire of ſuch diſturbances, and the ſame ſhall puniſh; and the king ſhall aſſign by commiſſion certain perſons, where and when it ſhall pleaſe him, to enquire of ſuch diſturbances, and the ſame to puniſh.

By 14 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2. c. 2. All merchants, denizens and foreigners (except thoſe which be of enmity) may ſafely come into England with their goods, and tarry and return, paying the cuſtoms and other profits; ſo that franchiſes granted to the city of London, and other cities and good towns, be ſaved.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſtat. 4. c. 2. Every merchant or other, as well alien as denizen, that bring wines, fleſh, fiſh, or other victuals, cloths, woolfels, avoir du pois, or other merchandizes, to London, or other cities and good towns, or ports, may freely ſell in groſs or at retail, notwithſtanding any franchiſes. And no mayor, bailiff nor other, ſhall meddle with the ſale of any victual vendible. And the king thereupon ſhall cauſe to be aſſigned his juſtices at all times that ſhall pleaſe him, and need be, to enquire of thoſe that ſhall offend againſt this ordinance, and to puniſh them; and every perſon that will ſue againſt ſuch ſhall have a writ in the chancery to attach him by his body, as a diſturber of the common profit, to cauſe him to come to make anſwer in the king's court.

By 27 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2. c. 2. Merchants-ſtrangers, which be not of enmity, may under ſafe conduct come and dwell where they will, and return with their ſhips and merchandiſes, and freely ſell their merchandiſes, paying the cuſtoms. Qu. If in force ſince the loſs of the ſtaple.

By 27 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2. c. 13. If any merchant, privy or ſtranger, be robbed of his goods upon the ſea, and the goods come within the realm, and he will ſue for the goods, he ſhall be received to prove the goods to be his own by his marks, or by his cocket, or by lawful merchants, privy or ſtrangers; and by ſuch proofs the goods ſhall be delivered to the merchants without ſuit at the common law. And in caſe any ſhips going out of the realm, or coming into the ſame, by misfortune break upon the ſea-banks, and the goods come to land, which may not be called wreck, they ſhall be preſently delivered to the merchants, or their ſervants, paying to them that have ſaved and kept the ſame for their travel, viz. by diſcretion of the ſheriffs and bailiffs, or other miniſters in places guildable, and by advice of four or ſix of the moſt diſcreet men of the country; and if within the franchiſe of other lords, by the ſtewards and bailiff, or wardens of the franchiſes, and by advice of four or ſix diſcreet men of the country.

By 27 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2. c. 17. No merchant-ſtranger ſhall be impeached for another's treſpaſs or debt whereof he is not debtor, pledge or mainpernor; provided that if the liege people, merchants or other, be endamaged by any lords of ſtrange lands or their ſubjects, and the ſaid lords (duly required) fail of right, the king ſhall have the law of marque, and of taking them; and in caſe debate riſe with lords of ſtrange lands, the people and merchants of the ſaid lands ſhall not be ſuddenly ſubdued becauſe of ſuch debate, but warned, and proclamation publiſhed, that they void the realm within forty days after the proclamation; and in caſe that for evident cauſe they cannot avoid the realm within ſo ſhort a time, they ſhall have other forty days.

By 27 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2. c. 19. No merchant nor other ſhall forfeit goods for the treſpaſs of his ſervant, unleſs he do it by the procurement of his maſter, or that he hath offended in the office in which his maſter hath ſet him, or in other manner that the maſter be holden to anſwer for the deed of his ſervant by the law-merchant. And ſpeedy right ſhall be to them done from day to day, and from hour to hour, according to the laws uſed in ſtaples elſewhere. Qu. If in force.

By 27 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2. c. 20. If any outrage or grievance be done to merchants-ſtrangers in the country out of the ſtaple, the juſtices of the place ſhall do ſpeedy juſtice to them after the law-merchant from day to day, and from hour to hour, without driving them to ſue at the common law; and if any be convict that he hath grieved the merchants, he ſhall be puniſhed for the contempt, in as much as ſhall be adjudged to the merchants for their damages; and to the merchants-ſtrangers their double damages ſhall be judged.

By 28 Edw. 3. c. 13. confirmed by 20 Ric. 2. c. 4. No ſhip ſhall be compelled to come to any port of England, nor to abide, againſt the will of the maſter, or of the merchants whoſe the goods be. And if ſuch ſhips come of their good will, or be driven by misfortune, to any port in England, and the maſters or merchants will ſell part of their merchandizes, it ſhall be lawful for every man to buy ſuch merchandizes, albeit the ſame be not put to land to ſell; ſo that no merchant nor other go to meet ſuch ſhips to foreſtal the merchandizes; ſo that the maſters and merchants, after they have ſold that which pleaſeth them, and paid the cuſtom, may freely depart. And none ſhall diſturb any ſhip to come to any port of England, but to the port where the maſters and merchants will of their free will arrive, nor ſhall meddle with the ſale of the merchandizes, nor diſturb the merchants; and if any ſet diſturbance, he ſhall incur a grievous forfeiture to the king. ſ. 3.

By 36 Edw. 3. c. 7. The mayors and conſtables of the ſtaples ſhall have cognizance only of debts, covenants and contracts, and other pleas touching merchandize and ſurety of merchandize, betwixt merchants which be merchants known; and proceſs of felonies, and all other pleas, as well wthin the ſtaple as without, ſhall be at the common law; ſaving that merchants aliens (be they plaintiffs or defendants) may ſue their plaints and quarrels, as well of treſpaſs as other, before the mayor of the ſtaple, by the law of the ſtaple, or at the common law. And the king and other lords ſhall enjoy their franchiſes; ſo that the mayor of the ſtaple have power to take recognizances of debts of every perſon, be he merchant or other.

By 38 Edw. 3. c. 2. All merchants, as well aliens as denizens, may ſell and buy all manner of merchandizes, and freely carry them out of the realm, paying the cuſtoms; except that Engliſh merchants ſhall not paſs out of the realm with wools or woolfels; and that none carry out of the realm gold nor ſilver in plate nor money, ſaving the victuallers of fiſh, who fiſh, and they that bring fiſh in ſmall veſſels, which meddle not with other merchandizes, and that according to the arbitrement of the chancellor.

By 2 Ric. 2. ſtat. 1. c. 1. All merchants aliens, of the amity of the king, may ſafely come within the realm, and in all cities, boroughs, ports, fairs, markets, or other places, within the franchiſe and without, and abide with their goods, under the protection of the king, as long as ſhall pleaſe them. And every of them that will buy or ſell corn, fleſh, fiſh, and other victuals, and alſo all ſpiceries, fruit, fur, and all manner of ſmall wares, as ſilk, gold wire, or ſilver wire, coverchiefs, and other ſuch ſmall wares, may freely, as well in London as in all cities, boroughs, ports, fairs, markets, and other places, ſell and buy to whom and of whom them pleaſe, except the king's enemies; except that all wines ſhall be ſold by the ſaid ſtrangers in groſs, and by whole veſſels, as they be brought into the realm, and not at retail, by any in the ſaid cities and towns franchiſed, but only by the inhabitants and freemen; and as to all other great wares, as cloth of gold and ſilver, ſilk, drapery, linen cloth, canvas, and all other great merchandizes, as well aliens as denizens, as well in London as in other cities, ports, towns, fairs, markets, and elſewhere, within franchiſe and without, may ſell the ſame in groſs to every perſon, foreign or denizen (except to the king's enemies), by the bale or by whole pieces, and not at retail, upon pain of forfeiture of the ſame, but only the citizens and burgeſſes in their own cities and boroughs; and it ſhall be lawful for them to unfold and cut in their proper cities and boroughs the great merchandizes, and the ſame there to ſell in groſs and at retail, paying the cuſtoms. And the merchants that will buy and ſell their merchandizes at fairs and markets ſhall not be reſtrained by this ſtatute to ſell or buy in groſs, or at retail, as they were wont to do. And if diſturbance be made to any merchant or other upon the ſale of ſuch things againſt this ordinance, and the mayor, bailiffs, or other, that have the keeping of ſuch franchiſe, required to make remedy, do not the ſame, and thereof be attainted; the franchiſe ſhall be ſeized in the king's hands, and they that have done ſuch diſturbance ſhall yield to the plaintiff his double damages: and if ſuch diſturbance be made where no franchiſe is, and the lord or his bailiff be required to do right, and do not, and thereof be attainted, they ſhall yield to the plaintiff double damages: and the diſturbers, as well within franchiſes as without, ſhall have one year's impriſonment, and be ranſomed at the king's will. And the chancellor, treaſurer, and juſtices aſſigned to hold pleas of the king, ſhall diligently enquire of ſuch diſturbances, and do puniſhment.

By 5 Ric. 2. c. 1. All merchants ſtrangers of the amity of the king freely may come within the realm, as well within franchiſes as without, and there merchandiſe, and tarry as long as them liketh, and return without diſturbance.

By 11 Ric. 2. c. 7. If any ſtatute or judgment be made to the contrary of the ſtatutes 9 Edw. 3. c. 1. and 25 Edw. 3. c. 2. it ſhall be repealed.

By 14 Ric. 2. c. 1. Every alien that bringeth merchandiſe into England, ſhall find ſurety before the cuſtomers, to buy other merchandiſe to the value of the moiety of the merchandiſe ſo brought, as wool, leather, woolfels, lead, tin, butter, cheeſe, cloths, or other commodities of the land.

By 14 Ric. 2. c. 9. Merchants ſtrangers repairing into the realm, ſhall be courteouſly and rightfully uſed and governed.

By 4 Hen. 4. c. 15. All merchant ſtrangers and denizens, which bring merchandiſes and the ſame do ſell within the realm, and receive Engliſh money, ſhall beſtow the ſame money upon other merchandiſes, without carrying gold or ſilver out of the realm, upon pain of forfeiture of the ſame, ſaving their reaſonable coſts.

By 5 Hen. 4. c. 7. confirmed by 4 Hen. 5. c. 5. Merchant ſtrangers ſhall be demeaned within the realm as the merchants denizens be in the parts beyond the ſeas, upon pain of forfeiture to the king of all the goods of ſuch merchant ſtranger, and upon pain of impriſonment.

By 5 Hen. 4. c. 9. confirmed by 4 Hen. 5. c. 5. In every city, town, and port, where merchants ſtrangers be repairing, hoſts ſhall be aſſigned them by the mayors, ſheriffs, or bailiffs, of the cities, &c. and the ſaid merchants ſtrangers ſhall dwell in none other place but with their hoſts ſo aſſigned, and the hoſts ſhall take as accuſtomed.

By 6 Hen. 4. c. 4. Merchants ſtrangers ſhall not carry out of the realm any merchandiſes brought within the realm by merchant ſtrangers.

By 7 Hen. 4. c. 9. As well cloth makers and cloth ſellers, as other merchants with their merchandiſes, as wine, iron, oil, and wax, and other things, ſhall be free to ſell in groſs their merchandiſes, as well to the king's liege people as to the citizens of London, notwithſtanding any franchiſe.

By 3 Hen. 7. c. 8. Every merchant of Ireland, Jerſey, or Guernſey, that bringeth any merchandiſes into this realm, ſhall employ the money received for the ſame (his expences deducted), upon the commodities of this land, or put the ſame money in payment within this realm; the ſaid employment or payment to be proved as by ſtat. 17 Edw. 4. c. 1. viz. by writing, to the ſatisfaction of the cuſtomer and the mayor, upon pain of forfeiture of the value of the merchandiſe; and every cuſtomer or comptroller ſhall take ſurety of the merchant or other ſtranger, to employ the value of the merchandiſes, or to put the money in payment, upon pain of forfeiture of the value of the merchandiſes, the one half to the king, and the other half to the party that will ſue..

By 4 Hen. 7. c. 23. No perſon dwelling within this realm, ſhall pay or deliver wittingly, to any perſon born out of the king's obeiſance, any gold or ſilver, coined, wrought, or unwrought, upon pain to forfeit the double value; one half to the king, and the other half to any of his ſubjects that will ſeize or ſue for it.

By 12 Hen. 7. c. 6. Every Engliſhman ſhall have free recourſe into the coaſts of Flanders, Holland, Zealand, Brabant, or other places adjoining, under the obeiſance of the archduke, to the marts there, with his merchandiſes to buy, ſell, and make exchanges, without exaction by any Engliſh perſon, except 10 marks; upon pain of 20 l. and to forfeit to the party grieved, ten times ſo much as he taketh, and the trial to be had in ſuch place where the action is ſued.

By 3 Jac. 1. c. 6. It ſhall be lawful for all his majeſty's ſubjects of England and Wales, to have free trade into the dominions of Spain, Portugal, and France, any charter to the contrary notwithſtanding. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not give liberty to any perſon to go over ſea without licence, who by any law or ſtatute ſhall be reſtrained. ſ. 2.

By

By 4 Jac. 1. c. 9. The act 3 Jac. 1. c. 6. ſhall not diſſolve or impeach the charter granted to the governors, conſuls, and ſociety of the merchants adventurers of Exeter. ſ. 3.

Meſne.

By 13 Edw. 1. c. 9. So ſoon as the tenant in demeſne (having a meſne between him and the chief lord) is diſtrained, the tenant ſhall purchaſe his writ of meſne; and if the meſne having land in the ſame county, abſent himſelf until the great diſtreſs, the plaintiff ſhall have ſuch day in his great diſtreſs, afore the coming whereof two counties may be holden, and the ſheriff in two full counties ſhall cauſe to be proclaimed, that the meſne do come at the day contained in the writ, to anſwer his tenant; and if he do not come he ſhall loſe the ſervices of his tenant, and from thenceforth the tenant ſhall anſwer unto the chief lord for ſuch ſervices and cuſtoms as the meſne uſed to do: neither ſhall the chief lord diſtrain ſo long as the tenant doth offer him the ſervices and cuſtoms due; and if the chief lord exact more than the meſne ought to do, the tenant ſhall have againſt him all ſuch exceptions as the meſne ſhould: and if the meſne have nothing, the tenant ſhall nevertheleſs purchaſe his writ of meſne to the ſheriff, and if the ſheriff return, that he hath nothing, &c. then ſhall the tenant ſue his attachment, and if the ſheriff return that he hath nothing to be attached by, he ſhall ſue his writ of great diſtreſs, and proclamation ſhall be made; and if the meſne have no land in the ſhire where the diſtreſs is taken, but hath land in ſome other ſhire, a writ original ſhall iſſue to ſummon the meſne unto the ſheriff of the ſhire where the diſtreſs is taken; when it is returned that he hath nothing in his ſhire, a writ judicial ſhall iſſue, to ſummon the meſne unto the ſheriff of the ſhire in which it ſhall be teſtified that he hath land, and ſuit ſhall be made until the great diſtreſs and proclamation as aboveſaid; and nevertheleſs ſuit ſhall be made in the ſame ſhire where he hath nothing, until the proceſs come to the great diſtreſs and proclamation, and after proclamation made in both counties, the meſne ſhall be fore-judged of his fee and ſervice. And where the tenant in demeſne is infeoffed to hold by leſs ſervice than the meſne ought to do, when after proclamation the tenant hath attorned to the chief lord, and the meſne being excluded, the tenant muſt of neceſſity anſwer to the chief lord for all ſuch ſervices and cuſtoms as the meſne was wont to do: and after that the meſne is come into court, and hath confeſſed that he ought to acquit his tenant, or be compelled by judgment to acquit, if after confeſſion or judgment it is complained, that the meſne doth not acquit his tenant, then ſhall iſſue a writ judicial, that the ſheriff ſhall diſtrain the meſne to acquit the tenant and to be at a certain day before the juſticers, to ſhew why he hath not acquitted him; and when they have proceeded unto the great diſtreſs, the plaintiff ſhall be heard: and if the plaintiff can prove that he hath not acquitted him, he ſhall yield damages, and by award of the court, the tenant ſhall go quit from the meſne, and ſhall not attorn unto the chief lord: and if he come not at the firſt diſtreſs, a writ ſhall go to diſtrain him again, and proclamation ſhall be made, and as ſoon as it is returned, they ſhall proceed in judgment. And by this ſtatute tenants are not excluded, but they ſhall have a warranty of the meſnes and their heirs, if they be impleaded for their tenements, as they have had before; nor ſhall the tenants be excluded, but that they may ſue againſt their meſnes as heretofore, if they ſee that the proceſs be more available. And by this ſtatute no remedy is provided to any meſnes, but only where there is but one meſne between the lord that diſtraineth and the tenant, and but of ſuch caſe where the meſne is of full age, and where the tenant may attorn unto the chief lord without prejudice of any other than of his meſne; which is ſpoken for women holding in dower, and tenants by the curteſy, or for life, or in fee-tail, unto whom remedy is not yet provided.

Militia.

By 1 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 5. No man ſhall be charged to arm himſelf, otherwiſe than he was wont in the time of the king's progenitors; and no man ſhall be compelled to go out of his ſhire, but where neceſſity requireth, and ſudden coming of ſtrange enemies.

By 1 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 7. Whereas commiſſions have been awarded, to prepare men of arms, and convey them to the king into Scotland, or elſewhere, at the charge of the ſhires; the king hath not before given wages to the ſaid preparers and conveyors, nor ſoldiers, whereby the commons of the counties have been at great charge: it ſhall be done ſo no more.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſt. 5. c. 8. No man ſhall be conſtrained to find men of arms, hoblers, nor archers, if it be not by common aſſent in parliament.

By 26 Geo. 3. c. 107. His majeſty ſhall, from time to time, appoint lieutenants for the counties, ridings, and places herein after mentioned, who ſhall call together, arm, array, and cauſe to be trained and exerciſed, ſuch perſons, and in ſuch manner as herein-after directed, once in every year; and the ſaid lieutenants ſhall appoint perſons qualified as after directed, being within their counties, to be deputy-lieutenants (the names of ſuch perſons having been firſt preſented to and approved by his majeſty), and ſhall alſo appoint colonels, lieutenant-colonels, majors, and other officers, qualified as after directed, to train, diſcipline, and command the perſons ſo to be armed and arrayed, according to the directions herein-after mentioned, and ſhall certify to his majeſty the names and ranks of all ſuch officers appointed; and in caſe his majeſty ſhall, within 14 days after ſuch certificate ſhall have been laid before him, ſignify his diſapprobation of any of the perſons appointed, the ſaid lieutenants ſhall not grant a commiſſion to any perſon ſo diſapproved, but commiſſions ſhall be granted to all who ſhall not be diſapproved; and the officers ſo appointed for the militia, ſhall rank with the officers of forces liable to ſerve out of Great Britain, as youngeſt of their rank. ſ. 1.

When the lieutenant of any county, &c. ſhall be out of Great Britain, or when there ſhall be no lieutenant, his majeſty may authoriſe any three deputy lieutenants to grant commiſſions to officers upon any vacancy that ſhall then happen, as ſuch lieutenant could, and to do all other acts which might have been done by the lieutenant. ſ. 2.

No commiſſion of any deputy lieutenant, nor of any officer in the militia, already granted or to be granted, by any lieutenant or deputy lieutenants, ſhall be vacated by revocation, expiration, or diſcontinuance of the commiſſion by which any lieutenant or deputy lieutenants were appointed. ſ. 3.

The lieutenants of every county ſhall have the chief command of the militia within the county, &c. to which he is appointed, and 20 deputy lieutenants ſhall be appointed within every county, &c. if ſo many can be found qualified; but if not, then as many perſons qualified as can be found, ſhall be appointed deputy lieutenants. ſ. 4.

All deputy lieutenants, or officers of militia (except within the counties of Cumberland, Huntingdon, Monmouth, and Weſtmorland, the Iſle of Ely in the county of Cambridge, the counties within Wales, and ſuch cities and towns as are counties within themſelves), ſhall be qualified as follows, viz. a deputy lieutenant ſhall be ſeiſed or poſſeſſed, either in law or equity, for his own uſe, of a freehold, copyhold, or cuſtomary eſtate for life, or for the life of his wife, ſhe having a freehold, copyhold, or cuſtomary eſtate for life, or for ſome greater eſtate, or of an eſtate for ſome long term of years, determinable on one or more life or lives, in manors, meſſuages, lands, tenements, hereditaments, in England, Wales, or the town of Berwick upon Tweed, of the yearly value of 200 l. or ſhall be heir apparent of ſome perſon who ſhall in like manner be ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly value of 400 l.:—Every colonel of a like eſtate, of yearly value of 1000 l. or heir apparent of 2000 l.:—Every lieutenant-colonel a like eſtate of the yearly value of 600 l. or heir apparent of 1200 l.:—Every major, or a captain, a like eſtate of the yearly value of 200 l. or heir apparent of 400 l. or a younger ſon of ſome perſon who ſhall be, or at the time of his death was, ſeiſed of a like eſtate of the yearly value of 600 l.:—Every lieutenant a like eſtate of the yearly value of 50 l. or poſſeſſed of a perſonal eſtate alone of 1000 l. or ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of real and perſonal eſtate together, to the value of 2000 l. or ſon of ſome perſon who ſhall be or at the time of his death was ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like eſtate, of the yearly value of 100 l. or who ſhall be, or who at the time of his death was, poſſeſſed of a perſonal eſtate alone, of 2000 l. or of real and perſonal eſtate together, to the value of 3000 l.:—Every enſign a like eſtate of the yearly value of 20 l. or poſſeſſed of a perſonal eſtate alone of 500 l. or ſeiſed and poſſeſſed of a real and perſonal eſtate together, to the amount of 1000 l. or ſon of ſome perſon ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like eſtate of the yearly value of 50 l. or of a perſonal eſtate alone of 1000 l. or of real and perſonal eſtate together to the amount of 1500 l.; of which ſaid eſtates, required as qualifications for deputy lieutenants, colonels, lieutenant-colonels, majors, and captains, one moiety ſhall be ſituate or ariſing within the counties in which they ſhall be appointed to ſerve. ſ. 5.

Within the counties of Cumberland, Huntingdon, Monmouth, Weſtmorland, and Rutland, and within every county and place in Wales, a deputy lieutenant ſhall in like manner be ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly value of 150 l. or heir-apparent to 300 l.:—A colonel a like eſtate of the yearly value of 600 l. or heir-apparent of 1200 l.:—A lieutenant colonel, or major commandant, a like eſtate of the yearly value of 400 l. or heir-apparent of 800 l.:—A major, or captain, a like eſtate of the yearly value of 150 l. or ſon of a perſon ſeiſed and poſſeſſed of a like eſtate of the yearly value of 300 l.—A lieutenant, a like eſtate of the yearly value of 30 l. or perſonal eſtate alone to the amount of 600 l. or real and perſonal eſtate together to the amount of 1200 l. or ſon of a perſon ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like eſtate of the yearly value of 60 l. or perſonal eſtate alone to the amount of 1200 l. or real and perſonal eſtate together, to the value of 2400 l.—An enſign a like eſtate of the yearly value of 20 l. or a perſonal eſtate alone to the amouut of 300 l. or real and perſonal eſtate together, to the value of 600 l. or ſon of a perſon ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly value of 30 l. or of a perſonal eſtate alone to the amount of 600 l. or real and perſonal together to the value of 1200 l.:—Of all which eſtates (except lieutenants and enſigns) one moiety ſhall be ſituate or ariſing within the counties in which ſuch officers ſhall be appointed to ſerve. ſ. 6.

In the Iſle of Ely, a deputy lieutenant ſhall be in like manner ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly value of 150 l. or heir-apparent of 300 l.:—A captain, a like eſtate of the yearly value of 100 l. or heir-apparent of 200 l. or younger ſon of ſome perſon ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly value of 300 l.:—A lieutenant, a like eſtate of the yearly value of 30 l. or poſſeſſed of a perſonal eſtate to the amount of 600 l. or ſon of ſome perſon ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like eſtate of the yearly value of 60 l. or poſſeſſed of a perſonal eſtate to the amount of 1200 l.:—An enſign, a like eſtate of the yearly value of 20 l. or poſſeſſed of a perſonal eſtate to the amount of 300 l. or ſon of ſome perſon ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly value of 30 l. or poſſeſſed of a perſonal eſtate to the amount of 600 l.—Of all which eſtates (except lieutenants and enſigns) one moiety ſhall be within the ſaid Iſle of Ely, or county of Cambridge. ſ. 7.

In all cities and towns, counties within themſelves, and heretofore empowered by law or ancient uſage, to raiſe a ſeparate militia, and which are united with any county raiſing militia only, the lieutenant of every ſuch city or town, or where there is no lieutenant appointed, then the chief magiſtrate, ſhall appoint the deputy lieutenants, and alſo officers of the militia, whoſe number and rank ſhall be proportionable to the number of militia men which ſuch city or town ſhall raiſe as their quota towards the militia of the county to which ſuch city or town is united; and all proviſions by this act, with reſpect to counties at large, and the regiſtering herein-after directed of the qualifications of deputy lieutenants and officers, ſhall take place, with reſpect to the ſaid cities, &c. and the militia thereof, and the regiſtering of the ſaid qualifications; and the value of the qualifications of deputy lieutenants and officers ſhall be; every deputy lieutenant ſhall be ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of a like eſtate as aforeſaid, of the yearly value of 150 l. or poſſeſſed of a perſonal eſtate alone, or real and perſonal together, to the value of 3000 l.:—Every field officer a like eſtate of the yearly value of 300 l. or a perſonal eſtate alone, or real and perſonal eſtate together, to the value of 5000 l.:—A captain, a like eſtate of the yearly value of 150 l. or perſonal eſtate alone, or real and perſonal together, to the value of 2500 l.:—A lieutenant, a like eſtate of the yearly value of 30 l. or perſonal eſtate alone to the value of 750 l.:—An enſign, a like eſtate of the yearly value of 20 l. or perſonal eſtate alone to the value of 400 l.:—Of all which real eſtates (except lieutenants and enſigns) one moiety ſhall be within ſuch city or town, or within the county to which ſuch city or town is united. ſ. 8.

The immediate reverſion or remainder of and in manors, &c. leaſed for one life, or two or three lives, or term of years, determinable upon lives on reſerved rents, and which are to the leſſee of the clear yearly value of 300 l. ſhall be deemed equal to an eſtate before required as a qualification of the yearly value of 100 l. and ſo in proportion to the other qualifications required. ſ. 9.

A perſon poſſeſſed, either in law or equity, for his own uſe, of an eſtate for a certain term, originally granted for 20 years, or more, of an annual value (over all rents and charges payable out of the ſame) equal to the value of ſuch an eſtate as is required for the qualification of a deputy lieutenant and commiſſioned officer of the militia, and ſituate as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſufficiently qualified to act in the execution of this act. ſ. 10.

No perſon ſhall be appointed deputy lieutenant of any county, &c. or to a higher rank in the militia than that of lieutenant, until he ſhall have delivered in to the clerk of the peace, or (in his abſence) to his deputy, a ſpecific deſcription in writing, ſigned by himſelf, of his qualification, ſtating the pariſh in which the eſtate is ſituate; and the clerk of the peace, or his deputy, ſhall tranſmit to the lieutenant of the county, &c. a copy of ſuch deſcription; and no commiſſion granted for a higher rank than lieutenant, ſhall be valid, unleſs it be declared in the commiſſion, that the officer hath delivered in his qualification as above. ſ. 11.

"Commiſſions already granted to be void, unleſs qua"lifications are delivered in before January 1, 1787.
"ſ. 12."

The clerk of the peace ſhall enter the qualifications tranſmitted to him according to this act, upon a roll, kept for that purpoſe, and cauſe to be inſerted in the London Gazette, the dates of the commiſſions, and names and rank of the officers, together with the names of the officers in whoſe room they are appointed, as commiſſions in the army are publiſhed from the war office, and he is to charge the expence of ſuch inſertion to the treaſurer of the county, who is to pay the ſame; and the ſaid clerk of the peace or his deputy, ſhall, in January every year, tranſmit to one of the ſecretaries of ſtate, a complete account of the qualifications left with him, and the ſecretary ſhall cauſe copies thereof to be annually laid before both houſes of parliament; and every deputy lieutenant, and commiſſioned officer, not having taken and ſubſcribed the oaths, and made, repeated, and ſubſcribed the declaration, as required by this act, ſhall, at ſome general quarter ſeſſion of the peace, or in a court of record at Weſtminſter, within ſix months after he ſhall have accepted his commiſſion, take the oaths appointed to be taken by 1 Geo. 1. and 6 Geo. 3. and ſhall alſo make, repeat, and ſubſcribe the declaration in 1 Geo. 1. ſ. 13.

If any perſon ſhall execute any of the powers directed to be executed by deputy lieutenants, colonels, lieutenant colonels, or majors, not qualified, or without having delivered in his qualification as before required, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 200 l.; captains, 100 l.; one moiety whereof ſhall go to the uſe of the perſon who ſhall ſue; and in every action, &c. the proof of his qualification ſhall lie upon the perſon againſt whom the ſame is brought: but nothing in this act ſhall reſtrain any peer in this realm, or heir-apparent of ſuch peer, from being appointed, or acting as a deputy lieutenant, or a commiſſioned officer, in the militia, within the county, &c. wherein he ſhall have ſome place of reſidence, although he may not have the qualification required; or to oblige any peer, or his heir-apparent, who ſhall be appointed a deputy lieutenant or commiſſioned officer, to leave with the clerk of the peace any qualification in writing. ſ. 14.

The lieutenant of any county, &c. with three deputy lieutenants, and on the death or removal, or in the abſence of ſuch lieutenant, five deputy lieutenants, may, at the end of every five years, at their annual meetings, in caſe the militia ſhall not be then embodied, diſcharge one field officer of each regiment or battalion, and ſuch a number of officers of each inferior rank, in each regiment, &c. as ſhall be equal to the number of perſons who ſhall have given notice in writing to the lieutenant, one month before ſuch meeting, that they are willing to ſerve as field officers, captains, lieutenants, or enſigns; provided that the vacancies to be made by diſcharging ſuch officers ſhall not exceed one-third of ſuch who ſhall have ſerved five years in each rank; and nothing herein ſhall prevent any officer ſerving, or who has ſerved in an inferior rank, from offering himſelf to ſerve in a higher rank, if qualified. ſ. 15.

The lieutenant ſhall appoint a clerk of the general meetings, and may diſplace ſuch clerk and appoint another in his room; and the deputy lieutenants within their ſubdiviſions, ſhall alſo appoint a clerk for their ſubdiviſions, and may diſplace and appoint another. ſ. 16.

General meetings of the lieutenancy of every county, &c. ſhall be holden in ſome principal town of every ſuch county; and ſhall conſiſt of the lieutenant, with two deputy lieutenants, or, on the death, &c. of the lieutenant, of three deputy lieutenants of every county, &c.; and one ſuch meeting ſhall be holden within every county, &c. upon the laſt Tueſday before the 24th October in every year; and the lieutenant, with two deputy lieutenants, or (on the death, &c. of the lieutenant) three deputy lieutenants, as often as they find neceſſary, may ſummon other general meetings, on days to be fixed by ſuch ſummons, of which notice ſhall be given in the London Gazette, and alſo in any weekly newſpaper circulated in ſuch county, &c. fourteen days before the holdi g ſuch meetings; and in caſe any annual or other general meeting ſhall not be attended by the lieutenant and two deputy lieutenants, or three deputy lieutenants, the lieutenant, or one deputy lieutenant, may adjourn the ſame; and in caſe no deputy lieutenant ſhall attend, then the clerk, or his deputy, ſhall adjourn ſuch meeting. ſ. 18.

Meetings of the deputy lieutenants within the ſubdiviſions of their counties, &c. ſhall be holden; which ſhall conſiſt of two deputy lieutenants: and where two deputy lieutenants do not attend, one, together with one juſtice, may do all acts, matters, and things, by this act directed to be done by deputy lieutenants at ſubdiviſion meetings; and all ſuch acts, &c. ſo done, ſhall be valid. ſ. 19.

The clerks of the ſubdiviſion meetings ſhall, after ſuch ſubdiviſion meeting ſhall have been appointed, give notice in writing of the time and place of meeting to the deputy lieutenants, reſident within ſuch ſubdiviſion, and alſo to the commanding officer of the regiment, if on actual ſervice, or (if not) to the colonel, or (in his abſence from Great Britain) to the next commanding officer within Great Britain, and an account of the days fixed for receiving liſts, and ballotting, and inrolling the militia men within ſuch ſubdiviſion; and ſhall, as ſoon as the militia men are inrolled, tranſmit to the colonel or commanding officer a liſt ſpecifying the names, trades, and abode of all ſuch militia men as are inrolled, and where there are ſubſtitutes, the names, trades, and abode of the perſons in the room of whom they were inrolled as ſubſtitutes. ſ. 20.

If there ſhall not appear at any ſubdiviſion meeting two deputy lieutenants or one, and one juſtice, the clerk ſhall, by notice to be given in writing to all the deputy lieutenants within ſuch ſubdiviſion, appoint another meeting within fourteen days, at the ſame place, ſuch notice being given five days previous thereto. ſ. 21.

The lieutenant and deputy lieutenants, or the deputy lieutenants, at every annual meeting, ſhall appoint the firſt meetings of the deputy lieutenants within the ſubdiviſions, which ſhall be appointed to be held as early after the 24th October as convenient; and may appoint a ſecond general meeting, and ſhall iſſue orders to the chief conſtables, and where there is no chief conſtable, to ſome other officer of the hundreds, &c. within their counties, &c. requiring ſuch conſtable, &c. to iſſue an order under his hand to all conſtables, tythingmen, headboroughs, or other officers of every pariſh, &c. within their reſpective hundreds, &c. to return to the deputy lieutenants within their ſubdiviſions, at the places and on the days appointed at the firſt general meeting in every year, liſts in writing of the names of all men dwelling within their pariſhes, &c. between eighteen and forty-five years, diſtinguiſhing their occupations, and where true names cannot be procured, the common appellation of ſuch perſons, and diſtinguiſhing which of the perſons returned labour under any infirmity likely to incapacitate them from ſerving, having firſt affixed a true copy of ſuch liſt on the door of the church or chapel belonging to ſuch pariſh, or (if no church or chapel) on the door of the church or chapel adjoining, on ſome Sunday morning before they make ſuch return, which Sunday ſhall be three days before the meeting, and alſo notice in writing, at the bottom of the copy of every ſuch liſt, of the day and place of meeting, and that all perſons aggrieved may then appeal, and that no appeal will be afterward received; and on the days, and at the places appointed for the returns of liſts, the conſtables, &c. ſhall attend and verify the returns upon oath; and the deputy lieutenants, or two of them, in their ſubdiviſions, ſhall (after hearing any perſon aggrieved by having his name inſerted in ſuch liſt, or by omiſſion of any other name) direct ſuch liſt to be amended, and ſhall alſo direct the names of all perſons excepted from ſerving to be ſtruck out of the liſt, and appoint the times and places for their ſecond meetings, within their ſubdiviſions, and ſhall return to the clerk of the general meetings, for the uſe of the general meetings, certificates under their hands of the number of men in each pariſh, &c. ſpecified in the liſt ſo amended, and the ſame ſhall be filed by the clerk for the uſe of the general meetings. ſ. 22.

The general meeting may alter the appointed ſubdiviſions, if they ſee occaſion; and alſo may alter the eſtabliſhed allotment of the number of men in each hundred, &c. to ſerve in the militia, towards raiſing the number by this act directed to be raiſed for ſuch county, &c. according to the numbers contained in the certificates laſt received from the ſubdiviſion meetings. ſ. 23.

The deputy lieutenants at their ſecond meeting, within any ſubdiviſion, ſhall appoint what number ſhall ſerve for each pariſh, &c. within ſuch ſubdiviſion, in proportion to the number laſt appointed, in manner before directed, at a general meeting, to ſerve for each hundred, &c. and ſhall appoint another meeting to be holden, within three weeks, within the ſame ſubdiviſion, and ſhall iſſue out an order to the chief conſtables, or other officers of the hundreds, &c. requiring them to give notice to the conſtable, &c. of every pariſh within their hundreds, &c. of the number of men appointed to ſerve for ſuch pariſh, &c. and of the time and place of the next ſubdiviſion meeting; and the deputy lieutenants, or two of them, aſſembled in purſuance of ſuch appointment, ſhall cauſe the number appointed to ſerve to be choſen by ballot out of the liſt returned for every pariſh; and ſhall appoint another meeting to be holden within three weeks in the ſame ſubdiviſion, and ſhall iſſue out an order to the chief conſtables of the hundreds, &c. to direct the conſtable of every pariſh, &c. to give notice to every man choſen to ſerve, to appear at ſuch meeting, which notice ſhall be given or left at his place of abode, ſeven days before ſuch meeting; and ſuch conſtable, &c. ſhall attend ſuch meeting, and make a return upon oath of the days when ſuch notice was ſerved; and every perſon choſen by ballot ſhall, upon ſuch notice, appear at ſuch meeting, and there take the following oath:

I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſwear, that I will be faithful, and bear true allegiance to his majeſty king GEORGE; and I do ſwear, that I am a proteſtant, and that I will faithfully ſerve in the militia, within the kingdom of Great Britain, for the defence of the ſame, during during the time of five years for which I am inrolled, unleſs I ſhall be ſooner diſcharged.

And ſuch perſon ſhall be inrolled (in a roll) to ſerve in the militia as a private militia man for five years: provided, that if any perſon choſen ſhall produce for his ſubſtitute a man of the ſame or ſome adjoining county fit for ſervice, who ſhall have not more than one child born in wedlock, and who ſhall be approved by the deputy lieutenants, or two of them, ſuch ſubſtitute ſhall be inrolled to ſerve for five years, and alſo for ſuch further time as the militia ſhall remain embodied, if, within the ſpace of five years, his majeſty ſhall order the militia to be drawn out and embodied; and ſuch ſubſtitute ſhall take the following oath:

I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſwear, that I will be faithful, and bear true allegiance to his majeſty king GEORGE; and I do ſwear, that I am a proteſtant, and that I will faithfully ſerve in the militia, within the kingdom of Great Britain, for the defence of the ſame, during the time of five years, or for ſuch further time as the militia ſhall remain embodied, if, within the ſpace of five years, his majeſty ſhall order and direct the militia to be drawn out and embodied, unleſs I ſhall be ſooner diſcharged.

And any perſon choſen by ballot, for whom ſuch ſubſtitute ſhall have been produced, &c. ſhall be exempt from ſervice in the militia, as if he himſelf had ſerved. ſ. 24.

If through the neglect or miſtake of any chief conſtables, conſtables, or other officers, or from any other cauſe, the full number of men appointed for any ſubdiviſion ſhould not be duly inrolled at the meeting appointed for that purpoſe, then the deputy lieutenants, or two of them, may cauſe the liſts to be amended, and to proceed to a freſh ballot, and to adjourn, or appoint other meetings, and repeat the amending of the liſts; and one deputy lieutenant may adminiſter the oath to any perſon ballotted, or to any perſon offering as a volunteer under this act, or to any ſubſtitute; and ſuch deputy lieutenant is to direct the clerk of the ſubdiviſion to inroll the name of every ſuch perſon, together with the day on which the oath was adminiſtered, in the roll of ſuch ſubdiviſion. ſ. 25.

If any perſon choſen by ballot, according to this act, to ſerve in the militia (not being a quaker), ſhall refuſe or neglect to appear and take the oath, and ſerve, or to provide a ſubſtitute, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 10*l.* and at the expiration of five years be liable to ſerve again, or provide a ſubſtitute; and in default of payment, or for want of effects whereon to levy the ſame, the name of ſuch perſon ſhall be entered on the roll; and ſuch perſon ſhall be delivered over to ſome proper officer of the regiment, &c. for which he was ballotted, and ſhall be compelled to ſerve, and ſhall be ſubject to the ſame puniſhments, for afterwards deſerting, as in caſe he had appeared, and been duly ſworn and inrolled. ſ. 26.

No peer of this realm, nor any commiſſioned officer in any regiment, &c. nor any non-commiſſioned officer or private man, ſerving in any other forces, nor any commiſſioned officer ſerving, or who has ſerved four years in the militia, nor any member of either of the univerſities, nor any clergyman, nor licenſed teacher of any ſeparate congregation, nor any conſtable or other peace officer, nor any articled clerk, apprentice, ſeaman, or ſeafaring man, nor any perſon employed in his majeſty's docks, &c. or employed in his majeſty's ſervice in the tower of London, Woolwich warren, the gun wharfs at Portſmouth, or at the powder mills, magazines, or other ſtorehouſes, under the ordnance, nor any perſon free of the company of watermen of the river Thames, nor any poor man who has more than one child born in wedlock, ſhall be liable to ſerve perſonally, or provide a ſubſtitute; and no perſon having ſerved perſonally, or by a ſubſtitute, ſhall ſerve again, until by rotation it ſhall come to his turn; but no perſon who has ſerved only as a ſubſtitute ſhall be exempted from ſerving again, if choſen by ballot. ſ. 27.

The deputy lieutenants or two within their ſubdiviſions, may add together the liſts for two or more pariſhes, and proceed thereupon as if returned for one pariſh, &c. ſo as to make the choice of militia men within every ſubdiviſion as equal as poſſible. ſ. 28.

If the liſt of any pariſh, &c. ſhall be loſt or deſtroyed, the ſaid deputy lieutenants, or two of them, may cauſe a new liſt to be made and returned to them at their next ſubdiviſion meeting. ſ. 29.

The deputy lieutenants within any ſubdiviſion, or two of them, may iſſue their warrant under their hands and ſeals, requiring the attendance of the conſtable of any pariſh, &c. and if ſuch conſtable, &c. ſhall refuſe or neglect to appear according to ſuch warrant, or if any chief conſtable of any hundred, or any conſtable, &c. of any pariſh ſhall refuſe or neglect to return ſuch liſt as before directed, or to comply with ſuch orders as he ſhall receive from the deputy lieutenants, or ſhall in making ſuch return be guilty of any fraud or wilful partiality, or groſs neglect, in his duty, the ſaid deputy lieutenants are to commit the perſon ſo offending to the common gaol for one month, or to fine ſuch perſon, not exceeding 5*l.* nor leſs than 40*s.* ſ. 30.

Any perſon who ſhall endeavour to prevail on any chief conſtable, conſtable, &c. to make a falſe return of any liſt for any pariſh, &c. or to eraſe or leave out the name of any perſon who ought to be returned to ſerve, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 50*l.*; and if any perſon ſhall refuſe to tell his chriſtian and ſurname, or ſhall falſely tell a chriſtian or ſurname, pretending the ſame to be true, or ſhall refuſe to tell the chriſtian or ſurname of any man lodging within his houſe, or ſhall knowingly tell any falſe name, pretending it to be true, to any conſtable, &c. ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 10*l.* ſ. 31.

Every perſon choſen by ballot to ſerve, ſhall be liable to ſuch ſervice, although he may have removed, provided he was reſiding in ſuch place at the time when the liſt was prepared; and every perſon liable to ſerve, having more than one place of reſidence, ſhall ſerve for the county, &c. where his name ſhall have been firſt inſerted in ſuch liſt; and the clerk to the ſubdiviſion ſhall, if required, grant a certificate gratis under his hand, that ſuch perſon's name was inſerted in ſuch liſt, ſpecifying the time when made and returned. ſ. 32.

Where any pariſh ſhall lie in two counties, the inhabitants ſhall ſerve in the militia of that county wherein the church is ſituated. ſ. 33.

If two deputy lieutenants ſhall at their ſubdiviſion meetings receive information, or ſhall ſuſpect, that any perſon inſerted in any liſt, and deſcribed as an apprentice, has been fraudulently bound to avoid ſerving in the militia, it ſhall be lawful for them to make enquiry thereof, and to ſummon and examine perſons on oath; and in caſe it ſhall appear that ſuch binding was fraudulent, ſuch deputy lieutenants may appoint ſuch perſon to ſerve, if there ſhall be a vacancy; and if not, then upon the firſt vacancy that ſhall happen; and the perſon to whom ſuch apprentice ſhall have been bound ſhall forfeit 10*l.* ſ. 34.

If any quaker ſhall be choſen to ſerve, and ſhall refuſe or neglect to appear, and to take the oath and ſerve, or to provide a ſubſtitute, then two deputy lieutenants ſhall, if they think proper, upon as reaſonable terms as may be, hire hire a fit perſon to ſerve as a ſubſtitute for ſuch quaker, and ſuch ſubſtitute ſhall take the oath, and ſubſcribe his conſent to ſerve; and two deputy lieutenants may, by warrant under their hands and ſeals, levy by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch quaker, ſuch money as ſhall be neceſſary to defray the expences of providing ſuch ſubſtitute, rendering the overplus (if any), after deducting the charges; and if no goods can be found ſufficient to levy, and it ſhall nevertheleſs appear to ſuch deputy lieutenants, that ſuch quaker is of ſufficient ability to pay the ſum of 10 l. then ſuch deputy lieutenants may commit ſuch quaker to the common gaol for three months, or until he ſhall have paid ſuch money as ſuch deputy lieutenants ſhall have agreed to pay to ſuch ſubſtitute; and in caſe any meaſures ſhall be uſed in making diſtreſs, which may be oppreſſive, ſuch quaker may complain to the deputy lieutenants at their next meeting, who are to hear and finally determine the ſame. ſ. 35.

Where any rate ſhall have been made for providing of volunteers, according to this act, and the churchwardens or overſeers ſhall make complaint to a juſtice, that any quaker refuſes to pay the money he ſhall be rated at, ſuch juſtice ſhall order ſuch charges to be paid for levying ſuch diſtreſs, not exceeding 10 s. on each of the quakers, where there are no more than two, and where there are a greater number than two, not exceeding 5 s. on each. Provided, that no man ſhall be deemed a quaker, unleſs he produce at ſome ſubdiviſion meeting, a certificate under the hands of two houſekeepers quakers, acknowledging ſuch man to be of their perſuaſion. ſ. 36.

Whenever it ſhall appear at any ſubdiviſion meeting, that any perſon choſen is unable, by infirmity, or is not the full height of five feet four inches, or otherwiſe unfit for the ſervice, and is not ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of an eſtate in land, goods, or money, of the clear value of 100 l. and who ſhall make oath that he is not ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of ſuch eſtate, ſuch deputy lieutenants ſhall diſcharge ſuch perſon, and immediately amend the liſt, and cauſe another perſon to be choſen in his ſtead. ſ. 37.

Whenever any militia man, after ſworn and inrolled, ſhall become unfit for ſervice, the colonel or commanding officer, with two deputy lieutenants, if the regiment ſhall then be within the county, or the commanding officer only, if the regiment ſhall be abſent therefrom, may diſcharge any militia man; but another man ſhall not be ballotted for, in the room of ſuch militia man diſcharged, until ſuch diſcharge ſhall be confirmed under the hands of two deputy lieutenants at the ſubdiviſion meeting. ſ. 38.

When any militia man ſhall die, or be appointed a ſerjeant, corporal, or drummer, or be diſcharged by a court-martial, the vacancy ſhall be filled up by a freſh ballot, except as before excepted. ſ. 39.

Two deputy lieutenants, at ſubdiviſion meetings, ſhall ballot for militia men in the room of all militia men actually ſerving, whoſe terms will expire before the 20th Nov. then next enſuing ſuch ſubdiviſion meetings, and ſhall at a following meeting inroll the ſaid ballotted men, or their ſubſtitutes; and the commanding officer of every regiment is to diſcharge any man whoſe time will expire before 20th Nov. then next enſuing, and to receive any other militia man in his room, who ſhall have taken the oath, and been inrolled; and every man ſo diſcharged, if ſerving for himſelf, ſhall be entitled to the ſame immunity from further ſervice as if he had ſerved his full term; and if ſuch man ſo diſcharged was ſerving as a ſubſtitute, then the perſon for whom he ſerved ſhall be entitled to the like immunity. ſ. 40.

In caſe any perſon not poſſeſſed of an eſtate in land, goods, or money, of the clear value of 500 l. and who ſhall make oath that he is not poſſeſſed of ſuch eſtate, ſhall be choſen to ſerve when the militia is ordered out for actual ſervice, and ſuch perſon ſhall be ſworn and inrolled, or ſhall provide a ſubſtitute; the churchwardens or overſeers of the pariſh ſhall, on receiving an order under the hands of two deputy lieutenants, pay ſuch perſon, not exceeding the ſum which ſuch deputy lieutenants ſhall adjudge to be one half of the current price then paid for a volunteer in the county where ſuch perſon was choſen, which money ſhall be taken out of the poor's rate to be made as hereinafter directed for providing volunteers, or in caſe no volunteers ſhall be provided by the churchwardens or overſeers, then out of a rate, to be made and collected agreeable to the poor's rate, as herein after directed; and in caſe any churchwarden or overſeer ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay ſuch money, upon demand, and the producing of ſuch order, ſuch churchwarden or overſeer ſhall forfeit 5 l. one half to the perſon choſen, in lieu of the ſum ordered to be paid to him: but if any man choſen and ſerving for himſelf, ſhall, within one month after his inrollment, be diſapproved of, and diſcharged by the officer commanding the regiment, ſuch ſum ſhall not be paid to the perſon choſen, but ſhall be paid to the next perſon choſen in his ſtead; and if any ſubſtitute be diſapproved and diſcharged, then no ſuch ſum ſhall be paid to the man choſen, whoſe ſubſtitute ſhall have been diſapproved, unleſs he ſerve himſelf, or find another ſubſtitute. ſ. 41.

If the churchwardens or overſeers ſhall, with the conſent of the inhabitants, taken at a veſtry, or other meeting, for the calling of which three days public notice ſhall be given, ſpecifying the cauſe, provide and produce to the deputy lieutenants, at any ſubdiviſion meeting, any volunteers who ſhall be approved by ſuch deputy lieutenants, ſuch volunteers ſhall be then and there ſworn in and inrolled, to ſerve as ſubſtitutes; and the deputy lieutenants ſhall cauſe only ſuch number of perſons to be choſen by ballot out of the liſt returned for ſuch pariſh as ſhall be then wanted to make up the whole number for ſuch pariſh, &c.; and if ſuch churchwardens or overſeers ſhall give to ſuch volunteers any money, not exceeding 6 l. each, to ſerve for ſuch pariſh, ſuch churchwardens or overſeers may make a rate upon the inhabitants according to the poor rate, which (being approved by a juſtice) ſuch churchwardens or overſeers may collect, and reimburſe themſelves ſuch money as they ſhall have paid to ſuch volunteers, and the overplus (if any) ſhall be applied as the poor's rate; and if any perſon ſhall refuſe to pay ſuch rate, any juſtice, upon complaint by ſuch churchwarden or overſeer, by warrant under his hand and ſeal, may levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, returning the overplus (if any), after the rate and charges paid; but no perſon who ſhall have ſerved in the militia, either by himſelf, or ſubſtitute, or who ſhall be then ſerving, ſhall be liable to ſuch rate: provided, that any perſon aggrieved by ſuch rate, may appeal to the next general or quarter-ſeſſions, as againſt rates for the relief of the poor. ſ. 42.

If any ſervant, hired by the year, or otherwiſe, ſhall be inrolled as a militia man, and any diſpute ſhall ariſe between his employer and him, touching any money due on account of his ſervice, before ſuch ſwearing and inrollment, or to ſuch time as he ſhall be obliged to quit the ſervice, on complaint made thereof, within three months from the time of quitting the ſaid ſervice, to any juſtice, ſuch juſtice may hear and determine ſuch complaint, and examine upon oath ſuch ſervant, or any other witneſs, touching the ſame, and make order for the payment of wages in proportion to the ſervice performed, provided the ſum in queſtion do not exceed 20 l.; and in caſe of refuſal or non-payment by the ſpace of twenty-one days after ſuch determination, ſuch juſtice ſhall iſſue his warrant to levy the ſame, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of ſuch employer, rendering the overplus, after payment of the charges of diſtreſs and ſale. ſ. 43.

Any perſon who ſhall receive money from any other to ſerve as his ſubſtitute, or from any churchwardens or overſeers, to ſerve as a volunteer, and ſhall neglect to appear at the meeting appointed for ſwearing the men, or before one deputy lieutenant, to be ſworn according to this act, ſuch perſon being convicted thereof before any deputy lieutenant, or juſtice, ſhall return the money to the perſon from whom he received it, and alſo forfeit to ſuch perſon, not exceeding 20 s.; and if ſuch offender ſhall not immediately return the money, and likewiſe pay the penalty, he ſhall be committed to the common gaol or houſe of correction for fourteen days. ſ. 44.

If any perſon choſen to ſerve ſhall have engaged any or other to ſerve as his ſubſtitute, or if any churchwardens overſeers ſhall have engaged any perſon to ſerve as a volnuteer, and the perſon ſo choſen, or ſuch churchwardens or overſeers, ſhall have agreed to pay to the perſon engaged, a certain ſum for ſuch ſervice, and ſhall, after ſuch perſon has been inrolled, refuſe to pay, one juſtice, on application made to him, is to order ſuch money to be immediately paid; and ſuch juſtice ſhall proceed therein according to 20 Geo. 3. c. 19. (See general title "LABOURERS.") ſ. 45.

Whenever any body of militia ſhall be embodied, and abſent from the county to which it belongs, the commanding officer ſhall apply to every man whoſe time ſhall be within four months of expiring, and who, in his judgment, ſhall be fit to ſerve, and inquire if he is willing to continue in the ſervice, and for what price; and ſuch commanding officer ſhall, on the 1ſt Jan. 1ſt March, 1ſt May, 1ſt July, 1ſt Sept. and 1ſt Nov. tranſmit to the clerk of the general meeting, a liſt of all ſuch men as he ſhall find willing to continue in the ſervice, in which liſt ſhall be ſet down the ſums they are willing to continue for, and which liſt ſhall be ſigned by every ſuch militia man, and made in the following form; viz.

And the ſigning of the ſaid roll ſhall be binding upon the perſons ſigning. ſ. 46.

In caſe any officer, ſerjeant, or other perſon, ſhall knowingly inliſt any man to ſerve in other forces, who at the time of inliſting ſhall be engaged to ſerve in the militia, ſuch inliſting ſhall be void; and in caſe any militia man, at the time of offering to inliſt, ſhall deny to the officer, &c. that he is (at the time of offering to inliſt) a militia man then actually engaged to ſerve (which the ſaid officer is to aſk), or ſhall offer himſelf to be inrolled and ſerve in any other regiment of militia, every militia man ſo offending ſhall, on conviction thereof, upon the oath of one witneſs before one juſtice, be committed to the common gaol, or houſe of correction, for not exceeding ſix months, over any penalty or puniſhment to which ſuch perſon ſhall be otherwiſe liable; and every perſon ſo offending, from the day on which his engagement to ſerve in the militia ſhall end, and not ſooner, ſhall belong, as a ſoldier, to ſuch corps into which he ſhall have been ſo inliſted; and if any officer, &c. ſhall inliſt any man belonging to the militia, to ſerve in other forces, knowing him to belong to the militia, or without aſking him if he belongs to the militia, ſuch officer, &c. ſhall forfeit 20 l.; and if any perſon actually ſerving in any other forces ſhall offer to ſerve and be inrolled as a ſubſtitute in the militia, every perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit to the perſon informing, 10 l. or be committed to the common gaol or houſe of correction, for not exceeding three months. ſ. 47.

If any perſon ſhall give orders to any ſerjeant, drummer, or other perſon ſerving in the militia, to beat up for volunteers to ſerve in the militia, the perſon who ſhall give ſuch orders ſhall, upon proof thereof, and of ſuch beating up, upon oath, before any juſtice, forfeit 20 l.; one moiety to the uſe of the perſon who ſhall make information thereof before any juſtice; and if ſuch ſerjeant, &c. ſhall refuſe to declare upon oath, before ſuch juſtice, from whom he received ſuch orders, ſuch juſtice is, by warrant, to commit him to the houſe of correction, for not exceeding three months. ſ. 48.

The clerks of all ſubdiviſion meetings ſhall, within fourteen days after every ſubdiviſion meeting, tranſmit to the clerk of the general meeting copies of ſuch rolls as ſhall be ſigned at ſuch meeting. ſ. 49.

The lieutenant of every county ſhall tranſmit to the privy council, annually, an account in writing of the number of perſons fit and liable to ſerve in the militia for ſuch county, &c.; and afterwards the privy council ſhall forthwith fix the number of militia men who ſhall for the future ſerve for each county, by the proportion which the numbers returned bear to the whole number of men by this act directed to be raiſed, and tranſmit accounts of the numbers ſo fixed, to the lieutenants of the counties, &c.; and where the number ſo fixed ſhall be greater than the number by this act appointed to ſerve for any county, &c. then the lieutenant, with two deputy lieutenants, and on the death or removal, or in the abſence of the lieutenant, three deputy lieutenants, ſhall, at a general meeting holden for that purpoſe, appoint what number ſhall ſerve for each hundred; and the additional number, to make up the whole ſo fixed, ſhall be choſen as other militia men are by this act to be choſen; and all the additional men ſo choſen, or their ſubſtitutes, and alſo all volunteers, ſhall take the oath, and ſhall be inrolled, or ſign their conſent to ſerve as directed by this act, and in caſe of refuſal, ſhall be ſubject to the ſame penalties as in like caſes: but where the number fixed ſhall be leſs than the number appointed to ſerve for any county, &c. then the ſaid lieutenant, with two deputy lieutenants, or (on the death, &c. of the lieutenant) three deputy lieutenants, ſhall, at a general meeting held for that purpoſe, diſcharge by ballot, proportionably out of each hundred, &c. ſo many men as ſhall exceed the number fixed. ſ. 50.

The money ariſing by penalties incurred for refuſing to ſerve or find ſubſtitutes, ſhall be applied by two deputy lieutenants, within their ſubdiviſions, in providing ſubſtitutes for the perſons who ſhall have paid ſuch penalties, which ſubſtitutes ſhall be ſworn in and inrolled to ſerve for the ſame term, and on the ſame conditions, as before provided; and if any ſurplus ſhall remain, the ſame ſhall be paid to the colonels or commanding officers of the regiments in which ſuch perſons ought to have ſerved, and applied as part of the regimental ſtock. ſ. 51.

When any matter is to be examined into upon oath before any lieutenant, deputy lieutenant, or juſtice, ſuch lieutenant, &c. is to adminiſter ſuch oath; and all other oaths to be taken in purſuance of this act ſhall be adminiſtered by any lieutenant or deputy lieutenant. ſ. 52.

In the counties, ridings, and places, where the number of men is ſufficient, the militia ſhall be formed into regiments, of not more than twelve, nor leſs than eight companies, of eighty private men to a company at the moſt, and ſixty at the leaſt; and the field officers of ſuch regiments ſhall be, one colonel, one lieutenant colonel, and one major; and where the number ſhall be eight, and not leſs than five companies, ſuch militia ſhall be formed into a battalion, and the field officers ſhall be one lieutenant colonel, and one major only; and where the number ſhall amount to five, and not leſs than three companies, ſuch militia ſhall be formed into a battalion with one lieutenant colonel, or major, and no other field officer; and in each regiment or battalion there ſhall be one captain, one lieutenant, and one enſign to each company: provided, that every battalion of five companies may have one company of grenadiers or light infantry, to which two lieutenants ſhall be appointed inſtead of one lieutenant and one enſign; and every regiment of eight companies may have one company of grenadiers, and one company of light infantry, to each of which two lieutenants ſhall be appointed, inſtead of one lieutenant and one enſign. ſ. 53.

In counties, &c. where the number of men ſhall not be ſufficient to form a regiment or battalion, according to this act, the militia ſhall be formed into independent companies, each of eighty private men at the moſt, and ſixty at the leaſt, with one captain, one lieutenant, and one enſign, to each company; and his majeſty may join together ſuch independant companies, and form battalions, or incorporate them with any other regiment or battalion, provided the number of companies in ſuch regiment or battalion be not thereby made to exceed the number of companies of which a regiment or battalion is to conſiſt. ſ. 54.

The lieutenant of any county may act as colonel or commanding officer of any regiment, during ſuch time as there ſhall not be any colonel or commanding officer, but not at any one time, as colonel or commanding officer to more than one body of militia, whether regiment, battalion, or independent company; and where the lieutenant ſhall take the command of any body of militia not deemed a regiment, he ſhall rank colonel, except when the company ſhall be formed into battalion as aforeſaid, but ſhall receive no greater pay than the commanding officer would be entitled to. ſ. 55.

When any colonel or other commanding officer ſhall be abſent from Great Britain, all the powers by this act given to ſuch officer ſhall be exerciſed by the next officer in command, reſiding within Great Britain, until ſuch commanding officer ſhall return, and ſhall notify his arrival to the clerk of the peace of the county, and the clerk is, upon receipt of ſuch notification, to tranſmit an account thereof to the officer next in command; and all acts done by ſuch officer next in command ſhall be valid. ſ. 56.

When a battalion is commanded by a lieutenant colonel, who ſhall have been commandant of the ſame for five years, the lieutenant, with the conſent of his majeſty, may give to ſuch lieutenant colonel commandant a commiſſion of colonel. ſ. 57.

In all counties where the number of men are ſufficient to form ſix companies, but not a regiment, the lieutenant may appoint three perſons, qualified to ſerve, with the rank of colonel, lieutenant colonel, and major, but with no higher pay than if appointed lieutenant colonel, major, and captain; and where the number ſhall be ſufficient to form four companies, but not ſix, the lieutenant may appoint two perſons to ſerve, with the rank of lieutenant colonel and major, but only one of them ſhall be entitled to any higher pay than that of captain; and where the number is not ſufficient to form more than two companies, the eldeſt captain ſhall rank as major, but only be entitled to pay of captain. ſ. 58.

Any perſon qualified as a lieutenant may be appointed to the rank of captain lieutenant in any regiment or battalion, conſiſting of not leſs than ſix companies; but no captain lieutenant ſhall, by the date of his commiſſion or otherwiſe, be entitled to rank above, or to command any captain of a company in the militia. ſ. 59.

His majeſty may appoint one perſon from ſome of his majeſty's other forces, or militia that has been drawn out and embodied, to be an adjutant to each regiment, battalion, or independent company, in every county, and ſuch adjutant, if appointed out of other forces, ſhall, during his ſervice in the militia, preſerve his rank in the army as if he had continued in that ſervice; and the lieutenant may give any ſuch adjutant a commiſſion of a lieutenant or enſign, although he may not have the qualifications required by this act; and the lieutenant of any county, on the recommendation of the commanding officer of any regiment of militia, of not leſs than ſix companies, may appoint the adjutant to the rank of captain by brevet, provided ſuch adjutant has ſerved five years in the rank of lieutenant, whether in the militia, or other forces, although ſuch adjutant may not have the qualifications required for captains: no ſuch appointment to the rank of captain ſhall be valid, unleſs in the inſtrument granting the ſame it be ſpecified in what regiment, and whether of the militia or other forces, ſuch adjutant hath ſerved lieutenant, and what was the date of his commiſſion: and no adjutant ſo appointed to the rank of captain ſhall, by the date of ſuch appointment, or otherwiſe, rank above, or command any captain of a company in the militia, nor be entitled to any greater pay than a lieutenant, together with his pay as adjutant. ſ. 60.

The colonel, or (where there is no colonel) the commanding officer of every regiment, of more than two companies, when not in actual ſervice, may appoint a regimental or battalion clerk, who ſhall execute the office of paymaſter; but where the number of men ſhall not be ſufficient to form more than two companies, no clerk ſhall be allowed, but the receiver general of the land tax ſhall pay the money neceſſary for ſuch number of men to the commanding officer, who ſhall account with the receiver general for the ſame. ſ. 61.

No adjutant, ſurgeon, regimental or battalion clerk, or quarter maſter in the militia, ſhall be appointed captain of a company; and no captain an adjutant, ſurgeon, regimental, or battalion clerk, or quarter-maſter: but any battalion clerk may be appointed captain lieutenant in any regiment entitled by this act to have a captain lieutenant. ſ. 62.

No officer entitled to half-pay, ſhall forfeit ſuch half-pay during the time he ſhall ſerve as lieutenant, enſign, adjutant, battalion clerk, paymaſter, quarter-maſter, or ſurgeon, in any regiment, &c. of militia, but the ſame ſhall continue;

continue; and inſtead of the oath directed by the mutiny act, ſuch officer ſhall take the following oath:

I A. B. do ſwear, that I had not, between the —— —— any place or employment of profit, civil or military, under his majeſty, beſides my allowance of half-pay as a reduced —— —— in —— —— late regiment of —— —— ſave and except my pay as lieutenant, enſign, adjutant, battalion clerk, paymaſter, quarter-maſter, or ſurgeon [as the caſe may be], for ſerving in a regiment of militia.

And the taking the ſaid oath ſhall entitle ſuch perſon to receive his half-pay. ſ. 63.

When not in actual ſervice there ſhall be one ſerjeant and one corporal to every thirty men, and when drawn out into actual ſervice, an addition ſhall be made, ſo that there ſhall be one ſerjeant and one corporal to every twenty men, and when not in actual ſervice, there ſhall be one drummer to every company, with an addition of one drummer for each flank company of regiments of ſix or more companies, and when drawn out into actual ſervice, there ſhall be an addition of one drummer to every company; and the daily pay of every ſerjeant, corporal, and drummer, ſhall be, to every ſerjeant 1 s. corporal 8 d. and drummer 6 d.; and ſuch ſerjeants, corporals, and drummers ſhall be new-clothed, when not in actual ſervice, once in two years: and all ſerjeants and corporals ſhall take the following oath:

I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſwear, that I will be faithful, and bear true allegiance to his majeſty king GEORGE; and I do ſwear that I am a proteſtant, and that I will faithfully ſerve as a ſerjeant, or corporal [as the caſe ſhall be], in the militia within the kingdom of Great Britain, for the defence of the ſame, until I ſhall be legally diſcharged.

And the colonel of every regiment or battalion, or (where there is no colonel) the commanding officer of every battalion of four companies, may appoint a ſerjeant major out of the ſerjeants, and a drum major out of the drummers; and all ſerjeants, corporals, and drummers, having received any pay as ſuch, ſhall be deemed to be engaged, and compellable to ſerve until they ſhall be legally diſcharged: provided, that no perſon who ſhall keep any houſe of public entertainment, or who ſhall ſell ale or wine, or brandy, or other ſpirituous liquors by retail, ſhall be appointed ſerjeant, corporal, or drummer: and if in any regiment or battalion there ſhall be a ſurplus of fifteen men, after the apportionment of one ſerjeant and one corporal to every thirty men, ſuch regiment ſhall have one additional corporal, when not in actual ſervice, for ſuch ſurplus number. ſ. 64.

Any ſerjeant, corporal, or drummer, may be diſcharged by the colonel, or (where no colonel) by the commanding officer (with the conſent of the captain of the company); and the captain (with the approbation of the commanding officer) may appoint any perſon in the room of every ſerjeant, corporal, and drummer, who ſhall die, deſert, or be diſcharged, all which ſhall take the like oath as before. ſ. 65.

In caſe his majeſty's lieutenants for any county, or the commanding officer of any regiment, &c. ſhall be deſirous of keeping up a greater number of drummers than one per company, to be employed as fifers or muſicians for the uſe of the regiment, and ſhall be willing to defray the expence of ſuch additional drummers, the commanding officer may retain any number of drummers, over the number of one drummer per company eſtabliſhed by this act, to act as fifers or muſicians; and ſuch drummers ſhall be deemed drummers of militia within this act, and ſhall be ſubject to the ſame regulations, penalties, and puniſhments, as other drummers, and ſhall continue to ſerve as drummers ſo long as they receive pay and clothing, and no longer. ſ. 66.

Any ſerjeant on the eſtabliſhment of Chelſea Hoſpital, at the allowance of twelve pence a day, appointed to ſerve in the militia, ſhall receive the ſaid allowance, together with his pay from the militia; and any perſon who ſhall have ſerved as a ſerjeant in the militia for fifteen years, or as a corporal or drummer for twenty, and who ſhall be diſcharged on account of age or infirmity, ſhall, on the recommendation of the commanding officer, and the lieutenant, and two deputy lieutenants, or on the death, removal, or abſence of the lieutenant, by the commanding officer, and three deputy lieutenants, be entitled to examination at the Chelſea board, and capable to be placed on the penſion of five pence per diem, if the board judge him deſerving thereof: provided, no perſon appointed a ſerjeant in the militia after paſſing this act ſhall be entitled to ſuch recompence, until he ſhall have ſerved in the militia, or in the army and militia, for twenty years. ſ. 67.

The militia ſhall be trained and exerciſed once in every year for twenty-eight days together, at ſuch time and place as ſhall be leaſt inconvenient to the public, to be appointed by a general meeting of the lieutenancy, as before directed, within every county, or in default of ſuch meeting, by the lieutenant of the county, or three deputy lieutenants, authoriſed to act when the lieutenant ſhall be out of Great Britain; and during ſuch time as the militia ſhall be aſſembled to be trained and exerciſed, all matters in the mutiny act ſhall be in force with reſpect to the militia, ſo that no puniſhment extend to loſs of life or limb. ſ. 68.

Notice of the time and place of exerciſe of the militia men of each pariſh ſhall be ſent by the clerk of the general meetings, to the chief conſtables of the hundreds, &c. with directions to forward the ſame to the conſtables, &c. within their hundreds; which conſtables, &c. ſhall cauſe ſuch notice to be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels, or (if no church or chapel belonging thereto) on the door of the church or chapel of ſome pariſh adjoining; and all ſuch militia men ſhall attend according to ſuch notice. ſ. 69.

The clerks of the ſubdiviſion meetings ſhall, ten days before the annual exerciſe, cauſe a liſt, ſpecifying the name and date of the inrollment of all the perſons inrolled (within each ſubdiviſion) to ſerve, to be tranſmitted to the commanding officer, or the perſon appointed by ſuch officer to receive the ſame; and ſhall in like manner cauſe a duplicate of ſuch liſt to be tranſmitted to the adjutant. ſ. 70.

At the firſt meeting for annual exerciſe appointed after paſſing this act, the commanding officer of each regiment ſhall, on the firſt day on which ſuch regiment is to aſſemble, and in the preſence of the deputy lieutenants and officers aſſembled, cauſe ſuch a number of the perſons inrolled to ſerve in ſuch regiment to be choſen by ballot out of the liſt returned for each ſubdiviſion, as ſhall be equal to two thirds of the complete number that ought to be inrolled: provided, that where the number cannot be divided into three equal parts, the two thirds, to be choſen by ballot as aforeſaid, ſhall be computed upon the next higheſt number that can be divided into three parts. ſ. 71.

On the day next after ſuch ballot, the commanding officer ſhall cauſe the regiment, &c. to be muſtered according to the ſubdiviſion for which each perſon ſhall have been inrolled to ſerve, and ſhall cauſe the roll of each ſubdiviſion to be publicly called; and as the name of each perſon therein ſhall be read, he ſhall declare whether ſuch perſon is or is not balloted out of ſuch roll. ſ. 72.

If any vacancy ſhall happen by the death or diſcharge of any perſon ſo balloted, or by the expiration of the term for which he ſhall have been inrolled to ſerve, the commanding officer ſhall, at the next annual exerciſe, proceed to ballot in manner before directed, for ſuch further number as ſhall be wanting to complete the proportion of two-thirds. ſ. 73.

Every perſon the commanding officer ſhall declare to have been balloted out of ſuch roll, ſhall be trained and exerciſed in manner before directed, during every year for which ſuch perſon is inrolled to ſerve; and every perſon the commanding officer ſhall declare to have been not balloted, ſhall be diſcharged from further attendance during the remainder of the annual exerciſe. ſ. 74.

Every perſon diſcharged ſhall, during the time he ſhall remain in the place where ſuch regiment is aſſembled, be ſubject to the ſame orders, as perſons choſen to be exerciſed, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall be uſually reſident in ſuch place. ſ. 75.

All perſons diſcharged ſhall appear at any ſubſequent time or place of exerciſe, of which due notice ſhall be given, and ſhall, on default of appearance, be ſubject to the ſame penalties and puniſhments as other perſons inrolled to ſerve. ſ. 76.

If any inrolled perſon, not choſen by ballot, ſhall offer himſelf as a volunteer to be trained and exerciſed in the room of any perſon choſen by ballot, the commanding officer may accept ſuch volunteer in the room of ſuch perſon balloted; and ſuch perſon ſo accepted ſhall be trained and exerciſed as if he had himſelf been choſen. ſ. 77.

All mayors, bailiffs, conſtables, tythingmen, headboroughs, and other chief magiſtrates, and officers of cities, towns, pariſhes, tythings, and places, and in their default or abſence, one juſtice, are to quarter and billet the officers, non-commiſſioned officers, and the private men ſerving in the militia, at the times when they ſhall be called out to annual exerciſe, in inns, livery ſtables, alehouſes, victualling houſes, and all houſes of perſons ſelling brandy, ſtrong waters, cyder, wine, or metheglin by retail, upon application made to any ſuch mayor, &c. by his majeſty's lieutenant, or by the colonel or commanding officer where they ſhall be called out to exerciſe; and when the militia is not embodied, all mayors and other chief magiſtrates, and officers aforeſaid, or in their default or abſence, one juſtice, may order and provide convenient lodging in ſuch houſes for the ſerjeants, corporals, and drummers. ſ. 78.

In caſe any militia man ſhall on his march, or at annual exerciſe, be diſabled, by ſickneſs or otherwiſe, one juſtice, or any mayor or chief magiſtrate, where ſuch man ſhall be, may, by warrant, order him relief, and the ſame ſhall be given by the officers of the pariſh; and the officers giving ſuch relief ſhall, upon producing an account of the expences thereof to the treaſurer of the county, for which ſuch man ſhall ſerve (ſuch account being firſt allowed under the hand of a juſtice), be reimburſed ſuch expences by ſuch treaſurer, and he ſhall be allowed the ſame in his accounts. ſ. 79.

When the militia ſhall be called out to be trained and exerciſed, any juſtice may, being required by an order from the lieutenant, or deputy lieutenant, or from the colonel, or other chief commiſſioned officer of the regiment, being within ſuch county, iſſue his warrant to the chief conſtables of hundreds, or to the conſtables, &c. of the pariſhes, from, through, near, or to which any ſuch regiment or detachment ſhall be ordered to march, requiring them to provide carriages, to convey the arms, clothes, accoutrements, powder, match, bullets, and other ſtores, with able men to drive ſuch carriages, as ſhall be mentioned in the order; and in caſe ſuch carriages and men cannot be provided within ſuch county, hundred, &c. pariſh, or place, then any juſtice, for any adjoining county, ſhall, upon ſuch order being ſhewn him, iſſue his warrant to the chief conſtables of any hundred, &c. within ſuch adjoining county, for the purpoſes aforeſaid, to make up ſuch deficiencies of carriages and men; and ſuch lieutenant, deputy lieutenant, or colonel, or other chief commiſſioned officer, requiring ſuch carriages and men to be provided, ſhall pay to ſuch chief conſtable, conſtable, &c. for the uſe of the perſon who ſhall provide ſuch carriages and men, 1 s. for every mile any waggon with five horſes, and any wain with ſix oxen, or with four oxen and two horſes ſhall travel, and 9 d. for every mile any cart with four horſes ſhall travel, and ſo in proportion for any carriages drawn by leſs horſes or oxen; for which ſums every chief conſtable, conſtable, &c. receiving the ſame, is to give a receipt to the perſon paying the ſame; and ſuch chief conſtable, conſtable, &c. ſhall order ſuch perſons, having carriages within their hundreds, pariſhes, &c. as they think proper, to furniſh ſuch carriages and men according to the warrant; and every perſon ſo ordered is to provide the ſame for one day's journey, and no more: and in caſe any ſuch chief conſtables, conſtables, &c. ſhall be at any charges for ſuch carriages, over the money received, ſuch overplus ſhall be borne by every county where ſuch additional expence ſhall be incurred, and be repaid to them without fee, by the treaſurer of ſuch county, out of the public ſtock. ſ. 80.

The colonel, or other commanding officer of every regiment, &c. ſhall, when the regiment ſhall be called out to annual exerciſe, return to the lieutenant of the county, a true ſtate of ſuch regiment; and in caſe he ſhall refuſe or neglect for ſix months after annual exerciſe ſo to do, he ſhall forfeit 100 l. ſ. 81.

Every militia man (not labouring under any infirmity incapacitating him) who ſhall not appear at annual exerciſe, according to this act (notice having been publiſhed as this act requires), ſhall be deemed a deſerter, and if not taken until after the time of exerciſe, ſhall forfeit 20 l.; and every militia man who, having joined the regiment, ſhall deſert or abſent himſelf during annual exerciſe, and ſhall not be taken until after ſuch exerciſe, ſhall forfeit 20 l. and if ſuch penalty ſhall not be paid, the juſtice before whom he ſhall be convicted, ſhall commit him to the common gaol, for ſix months. ſ. 82.

In caſe any militia man ſhall deſert, and not return, or be taken within three months after his deſerting, then upon certificate thereof from the commanding officer, to the deputy lieutenants, at the ſubdiviſion meeting, ſuch deputy lieutenants, or two of them, are to hold a ſubdiviſion meeting, and to ballot for another to ſerve in the room of ſuch militia man; and in caſe ſuch militia man ſhall at any time return or be taken, he ſhall notwithſtanding ſerve in the ſame manner and for the ſame term as if no perſon had been choſen in his room. ſ. 83.

If any perſon, ſworn and inrolled to ſerve as a ſubſtitute, ſhall deſert, ſuch perſon ſhall ſerve for the full term for which he ſhall have been inrolled, to be computed from the day on which he ſhall be apprehended, and ſhall alſo be ſubject to ſuch other puniſhment as ſhall be inflicted upon him by this act; and the commanding officer ſhall cauſe notice to be given to the clerk of the ſubdiviſion, of the day on which he was apprehended, and ſuch clerk ſhall make an entry in the roll, of the name of ſuch perſon, and alſo of the time of his being apprehended. ſ. 84.

All

All muſkets ſhall be marked with the letter (M), and the name of the county, &c. to which they belong; and in caſe any militia man ſhall ſell, pawn, or loſe any of his arms, clothes, or accoutrements, or neglect or refuſe to return the ſame in good order to his captain, or to the perſon appointed to receive the ſame, ſuch militia man ſhall forfeit, not exceeding 3 l. and if he ſhall not immediately pay ſuch penalty, the juſtice before whom he ſhall be convicted, ſhall commit him to the houſe of correction for not exceeding three months. ſ. 85.

If any perſon ſhall knowingly buy, take in exchange, conceal, or otherwiſe receive any arms, clothes, or accoutrements, belonging to any militia man, contrary to this act, he ſhall forfeit 5 l. which if not immediately paid, and there are not ſufficient goods to levy ſuch penalty, the juſtice ſhall commit him to the common gaol, for three months, or ſhall cauſe ſuch offender to be publicly whipped. ſ. 86.

When any regiment, &c. ſhall be aſſembled for the purpoſe of being trained and exerciſed, the captain, or commanding officer of every company may put the men under ſtoppages, not exceeding 6 d. per day, for the purpoſe of providing them with linen, ſtockings, and other neceſſaries, and for defraying the expence of repairing any arms broken or damaged by ſuch man's neglect: provided, that every ſuch officer ſhall account with each man for ſuch ſtoppage, and after having deducted what ſhall have been laid out for neceſſaries, and repairing the arms, ſhall pay the ſum remaining to the militia man before diſmiſſed from exerciſe. ſ. 87.

Every adjutant, ſerjeant major, ſerjeant, corporal, drum major, and drummer, ſhall be ſubject to the mutiny act, and to the articles of war, under the command of the colonel, or commanding officer; and the colonel, or (where no colonel) the commanding officer, may direct the holding of courts-martial, whenever ſuch regiment ſhall be embodied, for the trial of any ſerjeant major, &c for any offence committed during the time ſuch regiment was not embodied, ſo that no puniſhment extend to the loſs of life or limb. ſ. 88.

Any ſerjeant or corporal may, by ſentence of a court martial, be reduced to a private, to ſerve as ſuch not exceeding fifteen months; after which time, if not re-appointed, he ſhall be diſcharged. ſ. 89.

The arms belonging to every regiment, &c. when not embodied, ſhall be kept in ſuch place as the colonel or commanding officer ſhall direct, with the approbation of the lieutenant of the county. ſ. 90.

One third of the ſerjeants, corporals, and drummers, in every regiment, &c. ſhall conſtantly be reſident within the place where the arms are kept, and ſhall be under the command of the adjutant, who ſhall act under the orders of the colonel, or commanding officer; and in his abſence the ſerjeant major ſhall make a monthly return of the ſerjeants, corporals, and drummers, to the lieutenant of the county, and the commanding officer, in default of which, on each neglect, ſuch adjutant or ſerjeant major ſhall be ſubject to ſuch puniſhment as a court martial ſhall adjudge; and no ſerjeant, corporal, or drummer, ſhall be abſent from ſuch place without furlough from his colonel, or commanding officer; and every ſerjeant, &c. who ſhall abſent himſelf without furlough, ſhall be liable to be apprehended as a deſerter; and ſuch adjutant ſhall never abſent himſelf from ſuch place, without leave of his colonel, or commanding officer: provided, that whenever ſuch adjutant ſhall be abſent, then ſuch ſerjeants, &c. ſhall be under the command of the ſerjeant major, or ſerjeant appointed by the adjutant, with the approbation of the colonel or commanding officer. ſ. 91.

If any militia man ſhall not join the regiment to which he belongs, at annual exerciſe, or ſhall deſert during annual exerciſe, and ſhall not be apprehended before the expiration of ſuch exerciſe, and if the commanding officer or adjutant, or commanding officer of the company to which ſuch offender belongs, ſhall receive information of the place where he ſhall be, ſuch commanding officer or adjutant may, by writing under his hand, deſcribe the perſon of ſuch offender, and alſo certify that he did not join the regiment at annual exerciſe, or that he deſerted during annual exerciſe; and ſend the ſame by a ſerjeant, corporal, or drummer, to the adjutant, or ſerjeant major of the regiment of the county wherein ſuch offender is ſuppoſed to be; and the adjutant, or ſerjeant major to whom ſuch certificate ſhall be ſent, ſhall direct a party of ſerjeants, corporals, or drummers, to aſſiſt in apprehending ſuch offender, and in conveying him before ſome juſtice; and if, by his confeſſion, or the teſtimony of any witneſs upon oath, or the knowledge of ſuch juſtice, it ſhall appear that ſuch perſon is guilty of ſuch offence, ſuch adjutant, or ſerjeant major, ſhall order a party of ſerjeants, &c. to convey ſuch offender to the head quarters of the regiment of the next county, in the way to the county to which ſuch offender belongs, and deliver him into the cuſtody of the adjutant or ſerjeant major of ſuch regiment, who ſhall cauſe him to be conveyed in like manner to the adjutant or ſerjeant major of the regiment of the next county, and ſo in like manner, until ſuch offender ſhall be delivered into the cuſtody of the adjutant or ſerjeant major of the regiment to which he belongs, who ſhall take him before a juſtice to be dealt with as this act directs in caſes of militia men deſerting; and from the time of his being apprehended, until he is brought before ſuch juſtice, ſuch offender ſhall be ſubſiſted at 6 d. per day, from the ſtocks of the county, &c. to which ſuch regiment belongs, for which ſubſiſtence ſuch juſtice is to make an order upon the treaſurer of the county, &c. And if any ſerjeant, corporal, or drummer, ſhall deſert, any headborough, conſtable, or other officer, of the place where any perſon who may be ſuſpected to be ſuch deſerter ſhall be found, may cauſe ſuch perſon to be apprehended and taken before any juſtice, who is to examine ſuch ſuſpected perſon; and if, by his confeſſion, or the teſtimony of any witneſs, upon oath, or by the knowledge of ſuch juſtice, it ſhall appear that ſuch perſon is ſuch deſerter, ſuch juſtice ſhall forthwith cauſe him to be conveyed to the common gaol, there to remain until demanded by ſome perſon authoriſed to receive him, and ſhall tranſmit an account thereof to the clerk of the general meetings of the county to which ſuch deſerter belongs; and the keeper of ſuch gaol ſhall receive the full ſubſiſtence of ſuch deſerter, for his maintenance, during the time he ſhall continue in cuſtody, but ſhall not be entitled to any fee, on account of his impriſonment; and ſuch clerk of the general meetings receiving ſuch account, ſhall immediately tranſmit a copy thereof to the colonel, or commanding officer of the regiment, and alſo to the adjutant, or other officer commanding the ſerjeants, &c. and where there are more than one regiment, ſuch clerk ſhall ſend ſuch copy to all the colonels or commanding officers, and alſo to all the adjutants, or officers commanding ſerjeants, &c. within his county; and the colonel, or commanding officer of the regiment to which ſuch deſerter ſhall be found to belong, or the adjutant, or officer commanding the ſerjeants, &c. ſhall immediately on receiving ſuch copy as aforeſaid, ſend any ſerjeant, corporal, or drummer, or any party of the ſerjeants, &c. to the place where ſuch deſerter ſhall be confined, and ſhall alſo ſend by ſuch ſerjeant, &c. or the ſerjeant commanding ſuch party of ſerjeants, &c. an order, under his hand and ſeal, to the keeper of the gaol, &c. requiring him to deliver ſuch deſerter to the perſon therein named, which he is to do; and the ſerjeant, &c. to whom ſuch deſerter is ordered to be delivered, in caſe one only ſhall be ſent on ſuch duty, ſhall apply to the adjutant or ſerjeant major of the regiment of the county where ſuch deſerter ſhall be confined, and ſuch adjutant or ſerjeant major ſhall order a ſufficient party of the ſerjeants, &c. under his command, to aſſiſt in conveying ſuch deſerter, and he ſhall be conveyed to the adjutant or ſerjeant major of the regiment to which he belongs, as before directed with reſpect to conveying private men; and ſuch adjutant or ſerjeant major ſhall take ſuch deſerter before a juſtice, who ſhall cauſe him to be conveyed to the common gaol, where he ſhall remain until the regiment ſhall be embodied for annual exerciſe or actual ſervice; and the colonel or commanding officer ſhall then iſſue an order, under his hand and ſeal, to the keeper of the gaol, requiring him to deliver ſuch deſerter to the perſon therein named, which he is to do; and ſuch colonel or commanding officer is to hold a court martial for the trial of ſuch deſerter, in ſuch manner as ſhall be directed by any mutiny act; and if upon any ſuch trial, ſuch deſerter ſhall be found guilty, it ſhall be lawful to puniſh ſuch deſerter in ſuch manner as ſuch court martial ſhall think fit, according to the powers of ſuch act, and of the articles of war, ſo that no ſuch puniſhment extend to life or limb: and all gaolers ſhall, if required ſo to do by any ſerjeant, &c. confine ſuch offender for not exceeding 24 hours; and every gaoler who ſhall refuſe ſo to do, ſhall forfeit, 20*s.*; and all ſuch ſerjeants, &c. while employed in executing ſuch duty, ſhall be billetted as ſerjeants, &c. belonging to his majeſty's other forces employed in apprehending deſerters are. ſ. 92.

The juſtice before whom any deſerter ſhall be convicted, ſhall iſſue his warrant to the clerk of the regiment, or where there is no clerk, to the commanding officer, requiring ſuch clerk to pay out of the ſtock of ſuch regiment 20*s.* to the perſon who ſhall have apprehended ſuch deſerter; and ſuch clerk, &c. is required to pay the ſame upon demand. ſ. 93.

If any perſon ſhall conceal, or aſſiſt any deſerter, knowing him to be ſuch, he ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 94.

In caſes of actual invaſion, or imminent danger thereof, and in caſes of rebellion or inſurrection, his majeſty (the occaſion being firſt communicated to parliament, if ſitting, or declared in council, and notified by proclamation, if no parliament be ſitting) may direct the lieutenants of the counties, or on the death, &c. of any of them, three deputy lieutenants, to draw out and embody all the regiments of militia within their counties, or ſo many of them as his majeſty ſhall judge neceſſary and as beſt adapted to the danger, and to put the ſaid forces under the command of ſuch general officers as his majeſty ſhall appoint; and may direct the ſaid forces to be led by their officers into any parts of this kingdom, for repelling of any invaſion, and for the ſuppreſſion of any rebellion within Great Britain; and the officers, non-commiſſioned officers, drummers, and private men of the ſeveral regiments, ſhall, until they be returned again, by his majeſty's orders, to their reſpective pariſhes, remain under the command of ſuch general officers; and during ſuch time all the proviſions in any mutiny act, ſhall extend to all officers, non-commiſſioned officers, drummers, and private men of the militia, in all caſes whatſoever. ſ. 95.

Neither the whole, or any part of the militia, ſhall on any account go out of Great Britain. ſ. 96.

Whenever his majeſty ſhall cauſe the militia to be drawn out and embodied, his majeſty ſhall iſſue a proclamation for the meeting of parliament, within 14 days, and it ſhall accordingly meet upon ſuch day, and continue to ſit and act as if it had ſtood adjourned or prorogued to the ſame day. ſ. 97.

The lieutenant of every county, or on his death, &c. any three deputy lieutenants, to whom any ſuch order from his majeſty ſhall be directed, ſhall iſſue orders to the chief conſtables of the hundreds, with directions to forward the ſame to the conſtables of the pariſhes within their hundreds; and ſuch conſtables are, upon receipt thereof, forthwith to cauſe notice in writing to be given to the militia men, or left at their uſual place of abode, within their pariſhes, to attend at the time and place mentioned in ſuch order; and if any man ſo ordered to be drawn out (not labouring under any infirmity incapacitating him) ſhall not appear and march in purſuance of ſuch order, ſuch militia man ſhall be liable to be apprehended and puniſhed as a deſerter, according to any mutiny act; and if any perſon ſhall harbour any militia man when ordered out into actual ſervice, knowing him to be a militia man, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 5 l. ſ. 98.

No officer in the militia ſhall ſit in any court martial upon the trial of any officer or ſoldier, ſerving in any other forces; nor ſhall any officer in other forces ſit in any court martial, upon the trial of any officer or private in the militia. ſ. 99.

When any regiment ſhall be drawn out into actual ſervice, and during the time of actual ſervice, the colonel, or commanding officer, ſhall appoint an agent to ſuch regiment, and take ſecurity from him; and ſuch colonel or commanding officer ſhall be liable to make good all deficiencies that may happen, from the ſaid agent or himſelf, upon account of the pay, clothing, or public ſtock of ſuch regiment, &c. ſ. 100.

When the militia ſhall be ordered out into actual ſervice, the receiver general of the land tax ſhall pay to the captain or commanding officer of every company, one guinea, for the uſe of every private man belonging to his company; and the receiver general ſhall alſo pay to every captain or commanding officer of a company, one guinea for every recruit, after ſuch recruit ſhall have joined his company, while in actual ſervice (all which money paid by the receiver general ſhall be allowed in his account), and the money ſo received by any captain or commanding officer (or ſo much thereof as he ſhall think proper) ſhall be laid out in the manner he ſhall think moſt advantageous for the militia men; and ſuch officer ſhall, before any man receives his diſcharge, account to him how the ſaid guinea hath been applied, and ſhall pay the remainder (if any) to the ſaid man. ſ. 101.

In caſe the term of ſervice of any man balloted and enrolled for any regiment, ſhall be prolonged beyond the five years, the receiver general of the land tax for the county ſhall pay to the captain or commanding officer of each company, one guinea for every perſon whoſe term ſhall be prolonged; and if prolonged for more than three years, then at the expiration of three years he ſhall pay the farther ſum of one guinea for every perſon whoſe term ſhall be further prolonged; and in like manner, at the expiration of every additional three years, pay the further ſum of one guinea (all which ſhall be allowed him in his account); and the money ſo received by any captain, ſhall be laid out in the manner he ſhall think moſt advantageous for each man; and ſuch captain, &c. ſhall account to ſuch militia man how the ſaid ſums have been applied; and ſhall, before ſuch man receives his diſcharge, pay over to him the remainder which ſhall not have been applied. ſ. 102.

From the date of his majeſty's warrant for drawing the militia out into actual ſervice, the officers and private men ſhall be entitled to the ſame pay as the officers and private men of his majeſty's other regiments of foot; and if any non-commiſſioned officer or private man of the militia, ſhall be maimed or wounded in actual ſervice, he ſhall be entitled to the benefit of Chelſea Hoſpital. ſ. 103.

When the militia, having been drawn out, ſhall be again diſembodied, and the officers and privates diſmiſſed, the officers, non-commiſſioned officers, drummers, and privates, ſhall be ſubject to the ſame directions and engagements only as they were ſubject to under this act, before they were drawn out. ſ. 104.

All powers by this act, with reſpect to Northumberland, ſhall extend to Berwick upon Tweed, and the liberties thereof (except only where by this act otherwiſe provided for); and out of the perſons returned in the liſts for Berwick upon Tweed, a number ſhall be choſen by ballot to ſerve for the ſaid town, in proportion with the privates appointed to ſerve for the other hundreds within Northumberland; and if perſons can be found within the ſaid town and liberties thereof, with ſuch qualifications as are required for deputy lieutenants and officers, within cities which are counties of themſelves, the chief magiſtrate of Berwick upon Tweed ſhall appoint five deputy lieutenants, and officers, proportional to the number which the ſaid town ſhall raiſe as their quota, towards the militia of Northumberland; and the lieutenant of the county, and deputy lieutenants, and all other officers and perſons acting in the execution of this act, for raiſing the militia within the ſaid county, are to put this act into execution within the ſaid town, and the liberties thereof, but ſubject to ſuch penalties as are inflicted upon deputy lieutenants, and other officers, for acting, not being duly qualified; and the militia men for the ſaid town ſhall join the militia of the county, and be exerciſed together, and ſhall then, and in actual ſervice, be deemed part of the militia of Northumberland. ſ. 105.

After the number of perſons which the Iſle of Wight is to furniſh to the militia of the county of Southampton ſhall have been appointed by his majeſty's lieutenant and deputy lieutenants, or by the deputy lieutenants of the ſaid county, the governor of the ſaid iſland ſhall appoint the officers, and ſhall act in the execution of this act as the lieutenants of counties, and ſhall appoint five or more deputies to act with him for the ſaid iſland; which deputies and offiers ſhall be qualified in the ſame manner, and are to act in the execution of this act, as deputy lieutenants and officers in the ſeveral counties within Wales are; and the militia of the ſaid iſland ſhall be raiſed as the militia of the county of Southampton, and ſhall be deemed a part of the militia of the ſaid county: and after the ſame ſhall be raiſed, the ſaid governor, lieutenant governor, and deputies, ſhall direct the training and exerciſing the ſaid militia within the ſaid iſland, in the ſame manner as the lieutenants and the deputy lieutenants are to do within England; and the militia raiſed within the ſaid iſland ſhall remain within the ſaid iſland as an internal defence thereof, unleſs his majeſty ſhall otherwiſe direct. ſ. 106.

The conſtablery of Craike, parcel of the county of Durham, ſhall be deemed part of the north riding of Yorkſhire; and that part of the pariſh of Maker which lies in Cornwall ſhall be deemed part of the county of Cornwall; and Wokingham ſhall be deemed part of Berks; and the townſhip of Filey, part of the eaſt riding of York; and Threapwood, part of the pariſh of Worthenbury, in Flint; and Saint Martin, called Stamford Baron, in the ſuburbs of Stamford, on the ſouth ſide of the waters called Welland, part of the county of Lincoln; and ſhall be ſubject to the juriſdiction and authority of the lieutenants, deputy lieutenants, juſtices, and other officers of the reſpective counties within which ſuch towns are hereby deemed ſituate. ſ. 108.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the tinners in Devon and Cornwall; but the warden of the ſtannaries, in purſuance of his majeſty's commiſſion, and ſuch as he ſhall authoriſe under him, ſhall array, aſſeſs, arm, muſter, and exerciſe the ſaid tinners, as hath been heretofore uſed according to the ancient cuſtoms of the ſtannaries. ſ. 109.

For the regulations reſpecting the London militia, ſee LONDON ("Militia.")

The warden of the cinque ports, two ancient towns, and their members, and in his abſence, his lieutenant, ſhall put in execution, within the ſaid ports, &c. all the powers given by this act, as lieutenants of counties, &c. and ſhall continue the uſual number of ſoldiers in the ſaid ports, &c. unleſs he find cauſe to leſſen the ſame; and the militia of the ſaid ports, &c. ſhall remain ſeparate from the militia of the counties within which the ſaid ports, &c. are ſituate; and the ſaid warden, or his lieutenant, in purſuance of orders from his majeſty, in the manner preſcribed by 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 3. (ſee LONDON, "Militia,") notwithſtanding one or more months pay advanced be not reimburſed, may draw out the ſoldiers into actual ſervice, and cauſe the perſons charged, as by the ſaid act, to provide their ſoldiers with pay in hand, not exceeding one month's pay, in ſuch manner as if all the pay advanced had been reimburſed; and may uſe the like powers, and array, aſſeſs, arm, muſter, and exerciſe the ſaid ſoldiers, and make aſſeſſments, and iſſue warrants for the aſſeſſments for raiſing any trophy money, and for defraying the neceſſary charges of trophies, and other incident expences of the militia of the ſaid ports, &c. as hath been heretofore uſed, according to their ancient cuſtoms. ſ. 114.

His majeſty's lieutenant, or on his death, &c. three deputy lieutenants, of the counties of Suſſex and Kent reſpectively, ſhall iſſue orders to the chief conſtable of the ſeveral hundreds, in the rapes in the ſaid counties where their ſubdiviſions may be appointed, directing ſuch chief conſtables to iſſue precepts to the churchwardens or overſeers of the poor of each pariſh within their hundreds, to return to the deputy lieutenants within their ſubdiviſions, liſts, in writing, of the names of all men dwelling within their pariſhes, between 18 and 45, diſtinguiſhing their occupations, and for ſuch other purpoſes as are by this act directed to be done by the conſtables of each pariſh; and the churchwardens and overſeers to whom ſuch orders ſhall be iſſued, ſhall be deemed the officers of ſuch pariſh, and ſhall be inveſted with all authorities, and be liable to the ſeveral pains as the conſtables of any pariſh are for refuſing or neglecting to return ſuch liſts, or being guilty of fraud or partiality in making thereof, or not attending the orders iſſued by the lieutenant, or three deputy lieutenants, or for other offences. ſ. 115.

The lieutenant, or three deputy lieutenants of every county where the militia ſhall be raiſed, according to this act, ſhall, on 25th Dec. in every year, tranſmit a certificate to the clerk of the peace, containing an account of the names, number, and rank of the officers and privates in that year, and the time during which ſuch militia hath been trained and exerciſed; and ſuch clerk ſhall deliver ſuch certificate to the juſtices at their general quarter ſeſſion to be held next after 25th Dec. in every year, on the day on which ſuch ſeſſion ſhall be opened, and the ſame ſhall be filed among the records of ſuch ſeſſion; but where no ſuch certificate ſhall be received by the clerk of the peace, he ſhall certify the ſame under his hand and ſeal to the juſtices; and ſuch certificate ſhall be filed among the records of ſuch ſeſſion. ſ. 116.

In every county where no ſuch certificate ſhall be tranſmitted to the clerk of the peace, five pounds ſhall be annually paid for every private directed to be raiſed within the ſame county; and the juſtices ſhall at their ſaid ſeſſion, aſſeſs 5*l. per* man upon every county, in ſuch manner and according to ſuch proportions upon every town within ſuch county, and the ſame ſhall be levied, paid, and accounted for as county rates. Provided, that no perſon reſiding or having an eſtate within ſuch county, who ſhall have ſerved as an officer in any body of militia raiſed within this kingdom for four years, or who ſhall be then actually ſerving as an officer, ſhall be liable to pay any ſuch rate; provided ſuch perſon ſhall have delivered a certificate of ſuch ſervice to the clerk of the peace for the county wherein he ſhall claim ſuch exemption, and alſo a liſt of his tenants, and the places of their abode, which certificate and liſt ſhall be ſigned by ſuch perſon, and ſuch clerk of the peace ſhall forthwith file ſuch certificate and liſt amongſt the records of the ſeſſion; and whenever the ſaid rate ſhall be ordered to be raiſed within ſuch county, ſuch clerk of the peace ſhall certify to the high conſtables the names of all perſons whoſe certificate ſhall have been ſo filed, and who ſhall have claimed ſuch exemption, and the names of their tenants inſerted in ſuch liſt; and ſuch high conſtables are to tranſmit ſuch certificate and liſt to the petty conſtable of every townſhip wherein the lands of ſuch perſon claiming to be exempted are ſituate, in order that the ſame may not be aſſeſſed to ſuch rate. ſ. 117.

Where a certain number of militia men are directed to be raiſed for any county, together with any city, being a county of itſelf, and the militia ſhall not be raiſed for ſuch county, the payment of the ſaid 5*l. per* man ſhall be divided between ſuch county and ſuch city in ſuch proportion as the quotas paid to the land tax for ſuch county and city bear to each other, unleſs the appointment of the number ſhall actually have been made in purſuance of the liſts directed to be returned by this act, in which caſe the 5*l. per* man ſhall be borne by ſuch county, and by ſuch city, in ſuch proportions as the numbers apportioned to be raiſed by ſuch county and city bear to each other. ſ. 118.

Where the militia ſhall not be raiſed within any city, &c. not rated to the county rate, the proportion of the ſaid 5*l. per* man, ſhall be raiſed by a ſeparate rate in like manner as the rates for the relief of the poor can, by the churchwardens and overſeers, who are to pay the ſame over to the treaſurer of the county with which ſuch city ſhall be joined. ſ. 119.

Where any town lies in two counties, the proportion of the ſaid money to be paid for ſuch town, in lieu of raiſing the militia, ſhall be paid to the treaſurer of the county wherein the church is ſituate. ſ. 120.

If any money which ought to be paid by any city not rated to the county rate, ſhall not be paid to the treaſurer of the county before the 1ſt of June in every year, the juſtices for ſuch county ſhall, at their next Midſummer quarter ſeſſion, iſſue an order to the overſeers of every pariſh within ſuch city, requiring them to certify and return at the next Michaelmas quarter ſeſſion, the quotas that every pariſh within ſuch city pays to the land tax for that year, and ſuch overſeers are to make ſuch certificate and return and being made, the juſtices at Michaelmas ſeſſion, by warrant directed to any conſtable of ſuch pariſh, are to cauſe the ſame to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods of the churchwardens or overſeers, rendering the overplus (if any) to the owners, after ſuch money, and the charges of diſtreſs and ſale, ſhall be paid; and all churchwardens and overſeers ſhall be reimburſed the money levied on them by the ſame ways as overſeers are reimburſed money expended for the relief of the poor. ſ. 121.

The treaſurer for every county who ſhall receive the ſum of 5*l. per* man, is to pay all the money he ſhall ſo receive to the receiver general of the land tax for ſuch county within one month; and every receiver general to whom ſuch money ſhall be paid, ſhall give a receipt, which ſhall be a diſcharge for ſuch payment; and when the whole ſum directed to be raiſed in any county ſhall be paid into the hands of the receiver general, ſuch payment ſhall be a full diſcharge to ſuch county for the neglect in raiſing the militia for the year in reſpect whereof ſuch payment ſhall be made; and every ſuch receiver general ſhall, within 10 days, certify ſuch receipt to the treaſury, and forthwith pay the ſame into the exchequer, and the money ſo paid into the exchequer ſhall be kept ſeparate from all other money, and be accounted for yearly to parliament, and diſpoſed of as parliament ſhall direct, and no fee ſhall be given to any officer of the exchequer for receiving or iſſuing ſuch money; and the treaſury are to allow to the receiver general, upon clearing his accounts, ſuch ſalary for his trouble as they think proper, not exceeding two pence in the pound for ſo much money as he ſhall pay into the exchequer. ſ. 122.

The treaſurer of every county, as a recompenſe for his trouble in collecting and paying the money raiſed in ſuch county, ſhall be allowed one penny in the pound upon the whole ſum received and paid; which allowance he may detain in his hands out of the money received by him before payment made to the receiver general; and every high conſtable, petty conſtable, churchwarden, and overſeer, who ſhall act in collecting the ſaid money, ſhall reſpectively be allowed by ſuch treaſurer, one penny in the pound, and ſuch treaſurer is to deduct the ſame out of the money received by him, and to pay the proportions thereof to ſuch high conſtables and other officers. ſ. 123.

The clerk of the peace for every county ſhall, within 14 days next after the ſeſſion held after the 25th Dec. yearly, tranſmit to the treaſury, and alſo to the receiver general of the land tax for ſuch county, a copy, ſigned by ſuch clerk, of every certificate which he ſhall have received from the lieutenant, or three deputy lieutenants of ſuch county; and where ſuch certificate ſhall be omitted to be delivered, the clerk ſhall certify ſuch omiſſion to the treaſury, and alſo to the receiver general, and that ſuch clerk hath certified the ſame to ſuch ſeſſion, and required ſuch juſtices to proceed according to this act; and ſuch clerk ſhall alſo certify what proceedings have been had at ſuch ſeſſion, in relation to the aſſeſſing and raiſing the ſaid money, where the militia ſhall not have been raiſed; and in caſe ſuch juſtices ſhall not proceed to raiſe the ſaid money, according to this act, then the clerk ſhall, within 14 days next after ſuch ſeſſion, certify to the ſolicitor of the treaſury, ſuch omiſſion of ſuch juſtices, and the names of the juſtices preſent at ſuch ſeſſion; and the ſolicitor is, on receipt of ſuch certificate, to proceed to compel ſuch juſtices to pay obedience to this act, and cauſe the money to be raiſed. ſ. 124.

If the 5*l. per* man ſhall not be levied and paid into the exchequer, in manner before directed, the ſolicitor of the trea-treaſury is, upon knowledge or information thereof, to proceed to compel the levying of ſuch money, and payment thereof into the exchequer. ſ. 125.

If any clerk of the peace ſhall refuſe or wilfully neglect to receive, deliver, file, make, record, or tranſmit ſuch certificates, according to this act, ſuch clerk ſhall forfeit 100*l.* and alſo his office, and be rendered incapable of having any office of truſt, civil or military, under the crown; and if any receiver general, treaſurer, chief conſtable, petty conſtable, or other officer, who ought to act in the raiſing the ſaid money, ſhall wilfully omit, or neglect, or refuſe to act, ſuch receiver general, or treaſurer, ſhall forfeit 200*l.*; every chief conſtable, 50*l.*; and every petty conſtable, 20*l.*: and the ſolicitor of the treaſury ſhall proſecute with effect all ſuch juſtices, receivers general, treaſurers, and other officers who ſhall not perform the duty required by this act, touching the raiſing the ſaid money; and in caſe the ſolicitor ſhall wilfully omit or delay to proceed againſt ſuch juſtices, &c. he ſhall forfeit 500*l.* ſ. 126.

The proviſions of 24 Geo. 2. c. 44. (See general title, JUSTICES OF PEACE), ſhall extend to all lieutenants, and deputy lieutenants, acting in execution of this or any other act relating to the militia. ſ. 127.

A commiſſion in the militia ſhall not vacate the ſeat of any member in parliament; and no officer of the militia ſhall be compelled to ſerve ſheriff. ſ. 128.

No officer of the militia, or private, ſhall be liable to any penalty for abſence during the time he ſhall be going to vote at any election of a member in parliament, or during the time he ſhall be returning therefrom. ſ. 129.

No ſerjeant, corporal, or drummer, nor any private, from the time of his enrollment, until diſcharged, ſhall be compelled to ſerve as a peace or pariſh officer, or to perform any highway duty, or to ſerve in any ſea forces. ſ. 130.

Every perſon having ſerved in the militia when drawn out into actual ſervice, being a married man, may ſet up any trade in any town within Great Britain, as ſoldiers may under act 22 Geo. 2. c. 44. (See SOLDIERS.) ſ. 131.

All penalties which ſhall exceed 20*l.* ſhall be recovered by action, &c. in any court of record at Weſtminſter, or great ſeſſion in Wales, or the counties palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter, and Durham, wherein no eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed; and all penalties which ſhall not exceed 20*l.* ſhall, on proof upon oath of the offence before any juſtice, be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hand and ſeal of ſuch juſtice, rendering the overplus on demand, after deducting charges of diſtreſs and ſale, to the perſon whoſe goods ſhall have been diſtrained; and for want of diſtreſs, ſuch juſtice is, where no particular time of commitment is before directed, to commit ſuch offender to the common gaol where offence committed, for not exceeding three months; and the money ariſing by all ſuch penalties, the application whereof is not otherwiſe directed, ſhall be paid to the clerks, or (where no clerks) to the commanding officers of the regiments of the counties where offences ſhall have been committed, and ſhall be made part of the public ſtock of ſuch regiments. ſ. 132.

No order or conviction made by any lieutenant of any county, or by two deputy lieutenants, or by one deputy lieutenant, with one juſtice, or by any juſtice by virtue of this act, ſhall be removed by certiorari; and no writ of certiorari ſhall ſuperſede execution or other proceedings upon ſuch order. ſ. 133.

Actions for any thing done in purſuance of this act, ſhall be commenced within ſix months, and laid in the county where the cauſe of complaint did ariſe; and the defendant may plead the general iſſue; and if the jury ſhall find for the defendant, &c. he ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 134.

All former acts relating to the militia of this kingdom, (except only ſuch as relate to the militia of London, the Tower Hamlets, and the Cinque Ports, and the two ancient towns and their members) ſhall be repealed. ſ. 135.

"But not to annul commiſſions already granted under "them, where the parties are legally qualified, &c. Pro- "ceedings of meetings held under former acts to be valid. "ſ. 136."

The pay and clothing of the militia is provided for by a bill which paſſes annually, generally to the following effect:

In every county, &c. within England, where the militia is or ſhall be raiſed, the receiver general of the land tax ſhall iſſue the ſums required for the uſes hereinafter mentioned, viz. for the pay of the ſaid militia, for four calendar months in advance, at the rate of 6*s.* a day for each adjutant, where an adjutant is appointed; and 1*s.* a day for each ſerjeant, with the addition of 2*s.* 6*d.* a week for each ſerjeant-major, where a ſerjeant-major is appointed; and 6*d.* a day for each drummer, with the addition of 6*d.* a day for each drum-major, where a drum-major is appointed; and at the rate of 8*d.* a day for each corporal, and 4*d.* a month for each private man and drummer; for defraying the contingent expences of each regiment, &c. 1*d.* whereof ſhall be applied for defraying the hoſpital expence of each regiment, &c. during annual exerciſe, and alſo for half a year's ſalary for the clerk of each regiment, &c. at the rate of 50*l.* a year; and alſo for the reſpective allowances to the clerk of the general meetings, and clerks of the ſeveral ſubdiviſion meetings, at the rates following, viz. to the clerk of the general meetings 5*l.* 5*s.* for each meeting; and to the ſeveral clerks of the ſubdiviſion meetings 1*l.* 1*s.* for each meeting; and alſo for the clothing of the militia for ſuch county, &c. at the rate of 3*l.* 10*s.* for each ſerjeant; 2*l.* for each drummer, with the addition of 1*l.* for each ſerjeant-major, and drum-major; and 2*l.* for each corporal (where ſuch perſons have not been clothed within two years); and where the militia hath not been clothed within three years, at the rate of 1*l.* 12*s.* for each private man. 29 Geo. 3. c. 15. ſ. 1.

All ſuch ſums granted for the pay of the militia (except ſuch as ſhall be due to the ſeveral clerks of the meetings aforeſaid, and on account of the clothing) ſhall, where the militia has never been embodied, be paid by the ſaid receivers general to the clerks of the regiments, &c. upon their producing their warrants of appointment under the hand and ſeal of his majeſty's lieutenants for ſuch county, &c.; and where the militia has been embodied, into the hands of the clerks of the regiments, &c. upon producing their warrants of appointment under the hand and ſeal of the colonel or commanding officer, notwithſtanding ſuch militia ſhall have been diſembodied; and where the militia ſhall be formed into independent companies, ſuch ſums ſhall be paid by the ſaid receivers general to the reſpective captain of each independent company, or to ſuch perſon as ſuch captain ſhall authoriſe, according to 26 Geo. 3. c. 107.; and ſuch receivers general ſhall, within 14 days after the expiration of the third calendar month from the time of the firſt payment, make a ſecond payment for four calendar months in advance; and within 14 days after the expiration of the third calendar month from the time of the ſecond payment, make a third payment for four calendar months in advance: and the receipts of ſuch clerks and of ſuch captains of independent companies, or perſons authoriſed, ſhall be a ſufficient diſcharge to ſuch receivers general of the land tax. ſ. 2.

The clerk of each regiment or battalion ſhall forthwith, after the receipt of ſuch money, pay one calendar month's pay in advance to the adjutant; and to the captain or commanding officer of each company two months pay in advance for the ſerjeants, drummers, and corporals, and alſo to the officer commanding the company to which the ſerjeant-major and drum-major ſhall belong, two months pay in advance for ſuch ſerjeant and drum-major; and ſo from time to time ſo long as any money ſhall remain in his hands: which pay every ſuch captain or commanding officer is to diſtribute to each perſon belonging to his company entitled to the ſame, as it ſhall become due: and the captain of each independent company is to diſtribute to each perſon entitled thereto, ſuch money as he ſhall receive; and ſuch captain or officer commanding ſhall, once in every year, give to the clerk of the regiment or battalion, or if captain of an independent company, to the receiver general, an account of the ſeveral payments made, according to the following form:

County of	Dr.	Per contra	Cr.
To caſh received of Mr. —— regimental or battalion clerk, or receiver general [as the caſe ſhall be] for two months pay in advance,		Paid ſerjeant —— for ——days pay, from the—of—to the —of——following — Ditto as ſerjeant-major (if one in the company) —— Paid ſerjeant ——for —days pay, from the —of—to the—of—— following — Paid —drummer — days, at ſixpence, from the —of—to the—of—following Ditto as drum-major (if one in the company) — — Paid —drummer — days, from the—of ——to the—of—— following — — Paid — corporal — days, from the—of —to the—of—following — —

And ſhall pay back to the ſaid clerk, or to the receiver general, the ſurplus (if any) then remaining in his hands. ſ. 3.

In caſe the commanding officer ſhall certify in writing to the clerk, that he hath diſcharged any ſerjeant or drummer as unfit for ſervice; no pay ſhall be iſſued for the perſon diſcharged, until another be appointed; and no payment ſhall be made to any ſerjeant or drummer who hath been diſcharged, or not previouſly approved of by the commanding officer. ſ. 4.

The clerk of each regiment or battalion, out of the money directed to be iſſued to him for defraying the contingent expences of each regiment, ſhall every year pay to the colonel or officer commanding, one penny a month for each private man and drummer, for defraying the hoſpital expences of each company, during annual exerciſe; and ſhall iſſue ſuch money as may be neceſſary for the repair of arms, and the carriage and removal thereof, upon an order in writing, ſigned by the colonel or officer commanding; and after payment of ſuch ſums as ſhall be drawn on him by ſuch colonel or commanding officer, as aforeſaid, he ſhall every year make up an account of all ſuch money, and the expenditure thereof, and of the balance remaining in his hands, which balance ſhall form a ſtock purſe for the uſe of the regiment, and tranſmit the ſame to the colonel or commanding officer, to be by him examined, allowed, and ſigned; and the account ſo allowed and ſigned ſhall be the proper voucher and acquittal of ſuch clerk for ſuch money. ſ. 5.

The money hereby directed to be iſſued for the contingent expences of each independent company, ſhall be applied to the particular uſe of ſuch independent company by the captain; and ſhall yearly be accounted for to the receiver general of the land tax; whoſe allowance of ſuch account ſhall be the proper voucher for the expenditure and diſpoſition thereof. ſ. 6.

The regimental or battalion clerk may retain to his own uſe, out of the money ſo received, ſuch further ſums as ſhall complete the allowance for his ſalary. ſ. 7.

Whenever his majeſty's lieutenant, or three deputy lieutenants, of any county, ſhall have fixed the days of exerciſe for the militia, they ſhall certify the ſame to the receiver general, ſpecifying the number of men, and the number of days ſuch men are to be abſent on account of ſuch exerciſe; and ſuch receiver general general is, within fourteen days after receipt of ſuch certificate, to iſſue to the clerks of the regiments, at the rate of 7 s. 6 d. per day for the captain of each company, 3 s. 6 d. per day for each lieutenant, and 3 s. per day for each enſign; and alſo 1 s. per day for each private militia man, who ſhall have been choſen by ballot to be trained and exerciſed, for the number of days ſuch officers and men ſhall be abſent from home on account of ſuch exerciſe; and alſo at the rate of 1 s. per day for each private militia man who ſhall attend the place of annual exerciſe, but who ſhall not have been choſen by ballot to be trained and exerciſed, for any number of days not exceeding five, during which ſuch men ſhall be abſent from home on account of their attendance at ſuch annual exerciſe; and in counties where there ſhall be independent companies only, the receiver general ſhall iſſue to the captains of the independent companies 7 s. 6 d. per day for each captain, 3 s. 6 d. for each lieutenant, and 3 s. for each enſign; and alſo at the rate of 1 s. per day for each private militia man who ſhall have been choſen to be trained and exerciſed, for the days ſuch officers and men ſhall be abſent from home on account of ſuch exerciſe; and alſo at the rate of 1 s. per day for each private militia man who ſhall attend the annual exerciſe, but who ſhall not have been choſen, for not exceeding five days, during which ſuch men ſhall be at annual exerciſe; and the ſaid regimental or battalion clerks are forthwith to pay to each captain of the ſaid regiments or battalions the proportion of pay belonging to each captain, and likewiſe the pay belonging to their companies. ſ. 8.

The captain of each company ſhall make up an account of all monies received and paid, according to the following form:

County

County of	Dr.	Per contra	Cr.
To caſh received of — the regimental or battalion clerk, or — receiver general [as the caſe ſhall be] for — days pay of — men.		By my pay as captain Paid lieutenant — Paid enſign — — Paid — militia men — days — — Paid — militia men — days, for their attendance at the place of exerciſe.

Which account ſhall be ſigned by the ſaid captain, and counterſigned by the commanding officer; and ſuch captain ſhall, within ten days after ſuch exerciſe is finiſhed, deliver ſuch account, and pay the balance, if any, to the regimental or battalion clerk, or, if captain of an independent company, to the receiver general; and ſuch accounts ſhall be allowed as vouchers in the paſſing of the accounts of ſuch receiver general, by the auditor of the exchequer. ſ. 9.

Where any regiment, &c. ſhall be embodied, or called out into actual ſervice, and thereby the officers and privates ſhall be entitled to the ſame pay as the other regiments of foot, all pay from the receivers general, whether to adjutants, ſerjeants, privates, or others, and all money allowed as aforeſaid for contingent expences, and alſo the allowance to the clerk of ſuch regiment, ſhall, during actual ſervice, and until ſuch regiment ſhall be diſembodied and return home, ceaſe, and not be paid. ſ. 10.

The receivers general ſhall pay to the clerk of the general meetings his allowance of 5 l. 5 s. for each meeting, upon producing an order from the lieutenant, or three deputy lieutenants; and the clerks of the ſubdiviſion meetings their allowances of 1 l. 1 s. for each meeting, upon producing an order from one deputy lieutenant; which order ſhall be to the receivers general a diſcharge, and allowed in their account. ſ. 11.

The clerk of each regiment, &c. ſhall give ſecurity to the receiver general, by a bond to his majeſty, in the penalty of one half of the ſum required for the whole year's charge of the regiment, &c. to which ſuch clerk ſhall belong, for duly paying ſuch ſums as he ſhall have received, and for accounting for the ſame, and for performance of the truſt in him repoſed; which bond ſhall be lodged in the hands of the receiver general, who, in caſe the clerk ſhall not duly perform the conditions compriſed in the ſaid bond, ſhall put the ſaid bond in ſuit, in the name of his majeſty; the coſts of which ſuit, in caſe judgment ſhall be given againſt ſuch clerk, ſhall be paid by him to the receiver general, who ſhall likewiſe receive to his own uſe, at the rate of 5 l. per centum out of all ſuch monies as ſhall be by him recovered; and ſhall account for the reſidue with the proper auditor of his majeſty's revenue; charging himſelf therewith, upon the next account of the land tax. ſ. 12.

The clerk of every regiment or battalion, and the captain of every independent company ſhall, between the 25th March, and the 24th June, 1789, deliver to the receiver general of the county, to which ſuch regiment ſhall belong, a fair account in writing, of all monies received and diſburſed for the ſervice of the preceding year, with vouchers; and ſhall pay back to the ſaid receiver general any ſurplus then in his hands; which account, ſigned by ſuch regimental or battalion clerk, or by ſuch captain of an independent company, ſhall be tranſmitted by the receiver general into the office of the proper auditor of the revenue. ſ. 13.

All penalties, coſts and charges of ſuit, and all money for which any perſon is by this act anſwerable, ſhall be recovered in any court of record at Weſtminſter, by action, &c. ſ. 14.

No fee ſhall be given or paid for any warrant or money iſſued in purſuance of this act. ſ. 15.

Any perſon on half pay, or entitled to any allowance as having ſerved in any of the two troops of horſe guards, or regiment of horſe reduced, and ſerving in the militia, may take the ſubſiſtence money by this act directed to be paid to captains, lieutenants, or enſigns; and the receiving ſuch ſubſiſtence money ſhall not prevent ſuch perſon from receiving his half pay, or ſuch allowance; and ſuch perſon ſhall take the following oath before ſome juſtice:

I A. B. do ſwear, that I had not, between the —— —— any place or employment of profit, civil or military, under his majeſty, beſides my allowance of half pay as a reduced —— in —— late regiment of —— —— (or allowance as —— in —— late troop of horſe guards, or —— regiment of horſe reduced), ſave and except my ſubſiſtence as a captain, lieutenant, or enſign [as the caſe may be], for ſerving in the militia of the county of —— —— ——

And the taking the ſaid oath ſhall be ſufficient to entitle ſuch perſon to receive his half pay, or allowance, without taking any other oath. ſ. 16.

The receiver general, as ſoon as he ſhall receive a warrant under the hand of the colonel or commanding officer, certifying the receipt of the clothing, and an order from the colonel or commanding officer for the money due on account of the ſame, payable to the perſon who furniſhed the ſaid clothing, ſhall pay the ſum mentioned in ſuch order: and ſuch warrant and order, together with the receipt of the perſon receiving the ſaid money, ſhall be a diſcharge to ſuch receiver general. ſ. 17.

No man inrolled before the 1ſt Nov. 1786, ſhall be required to join the regiment to which he belongs, unleſs ſuch regiment ſhall be called into actual ſervice before the expiration of his term. ſ. 18.

No man inrolled for three years only, and of whom no ſervice, nor any attendance for the purpoſe of being trained and exerciſed, has been required, ſhall be deemed to be entitled to pay or clothing, nor ſhall have any claim upon his colonel, or commanding officer, for any pay, or any coat, hat, or other article of clothing, either during, or at the expiration of the term for which he was inrolled. ſ. 19.

In caſe any regiment ſhall ceaſe during the continuance of this act, the ſum of 3 s. per diem ſhall be paid to ſuch perſon as has actually ſerved as adjutant to ſuch regiment, from the time ſuch regiment ſhall ceaſe, to the 25th March 1790. ſ. 20.

By 29 Geo. 3. c. 40. All deputy lieutenants and officers in the militia, who ſhall, on or before the 1ſt Sept. 1789, deliver in their qualifications in the manner directed by 26 Geo. 3. c. 107. ſhall be indemnified from all penalties and diſabilities incurred for not having tranſmitted a ſpecific deſcription of their qualifications for ſuch commiſſion to the clerk of the peace. ſ. 8.

And perſons proſecuted and hereby indemnified, may plead the general iſſue. ſ. 9.

Mills.

Ordinance for bakers, incerti temporis, c. 4. The toll of a mill ſhall be taken according to the cuſtom, and according to the ſtrength of the water-courſe, to the twentieth or four and twentieth corn; and toll ſhall be taken by the raſe, and not by the heap; and in caſe the farmers find the millers their neceſſaries, they ſhall take nothing beſides their due toll; and if they do otherwiſe they ſhall be grievouſly puniſhed.

Mines.

By 1 Will. & Mar. ſtat. 1. c. 30. No mine of copper, tin, iron, or lead, ſhall be adjudged a royal mine, although gold or ſilver may be extracted out of the ſame. ſ. 4.

By 5 Will. & Mar. c. 6. All proprietors of mines, wherein any ore ſhall be found, in which there is copper, tin, iron, or lead, ſhall hold and enjoy the ſame, notwithſtanding that ſuch mines or ore ſhall be claimed to be royal mines. ſ. 2.

Provided that their majeſties, and all claiming royal mines under them, may have the ore of ſuch mines (other than tin ore in the counties of Devon and Cornwall) paying to the proprietors, within thirty days after the ore is laid upon the banks, and before the ſame be removed, the rates following, viz. for all ore waſhed wherein is copper, 16*l. per* ton; and for all ore waſhed wherein there is tin, 40*s. per* ton; and for all ore waſhed wherein there is iron, 40*s. per* ton; and for all ore waſhed wherein there is lead, 9*l. per* ton; and in default of payment, it ſhall be lawful for the proprietors to diſpoſe of the ore. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this act ſhall alter the charters granted to the tinners of Devon and Cornwall, or any of their liberties, or make void the laws of the ſtannaries. ſ. 4.

By 9 Ann. c. 24. The governor of the company of Mine Adventurers, ſhall be annually choſen out of the members, having 10 of the 6012 ſhares; and no member ſhall be governor above one year in four; and every member entitled to one ſhare ſhall have a vote at all general meetings, and for the election of a governor, deputy governor, and directors; and every member having ſix ſhares ſhall be capable to be deputy governor; and every member having four ſhares ſhall be capable of being a director; but no member, unleſs entitled to ten ſhares, ſhall vote by proxy, and ſuch proxies ſhall be members; and no perſon ſhall continue deputy governor above one year, or be deputy governor above one year in four, and four of the directors ſhall be every year changed, and no perſon ſhall continue a director above three years; and if any perſon ſhall ſerve three years together as a director, he ſhall not be a director again for two years; and the governor, deputy governor, and directors, are required annually, within three months after the expiration of their offices, to make a ſtate of the affairs of the company, and ſubſcribe the ſame, and preſent it at a general meeting; and to all books of the company every member may have free reſort two days in every week, viz. Tueſdays and Thurſdays, between nine and twelve in the forenoon; and if the deputy governor and directors omit to make ſuch ſtate, they ſhall be incapable of transferring their ſhares, or of receiving any profit thereof, or of ſerving as governor, deputy governor, or director, till they have made ſuch ſtate. ſ. 8.

The governor and company are reſtrained from calling in upon their members any ſums exceeding in the whole 40*s. per* ſhare. ſ. 9.

Monaſteries.

By 27 Hen. 8. c. 28. His majeſty ſhall have all religious houſes which have not in tenements above the yearly value of 200*l.* and all the manors, meſes, lands, tithes, penſions, churches, advowſons, rights, and hereditaments, appertaining to every ſuch monaſtery. Alſo his highneſs ſhall have all monaſteries, which within one year have been granted to his majeſty, or ſuppreſſed or diſſolved; to hold unto the king's majeſty, his heirs and aſſigns for ever. ſ. 1.

All perſons which have any letters patent of the king, of any of the ſites, lands, tithes, penſions, portions, churches, advowſons, conditions, or other hereditaments, which appertained to any monaſteries ſuppreſſed or diſſolved, ſhall enjoy the ſame in like manner as the abbots and governors of religious houſes. ſ. 2.

Saving to every perſon (other than the abbots, &c. and the founders, patrons, or donors of ſuch houſes) all right, &c. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall not extend to any monaſteries certified to have above the ſaid yearly value of 200*l.* concerning cells belonging to their monaſteries. ſ. 7.

Saving unto founders, patrons, or donors of religious houſes, all ſuch right, fees, offices, commons, and other profits which they ſhould have had otherwiſe than by reaſon of the diſſolution. ſ. 8.

By 31 Hen. 8. c. 13. All monaſteries, colleges, hoſpitals, and other religious and eccleſiaſtical houſes, which ſhall be diſſolved, ſuppreſſed, relinquiſhed, forfeited, or by another mean come to the king, and the ſites, precincts, manors, lands, tithes, penſions, portions, parſonages appropriate, vicarages, churches, advowſons, conditions, commons, and other hereditaments, belonging to the ſame, as ſoon as they ſhall be diſſolved, &c. ſhall be veſted in the actual ſeiſin and poſſeſſion of the king. ſ. 3.

Saving to all perſons (other than the abbots, &c. and the founders, patrons, or donors of ſuch monaſteries, &c.) all right, &c. rents, ſervices, and ſuits except. ſ. 4.

All perſons which ſhall have any monaſteries, &c. or any manors, meſſuages, parſonages appropriate, tithes, penſions, portions, or other hereditaments, which belong unto the monaſteries, &c. ſhall hold the ſame diſcharged of tithes, in as ample manner as the abbots, &c. held the ſame at the days of their diſſolution, &c. ſ. 21.

Saving to the king all rents and other duties. ſ. 22.

Such of the late monaſteries, &c. and all churches and chapels to them belonging, which before the diſſolution, &c. were exempted from the viſitation and juriſdiction of the ordinary, ſhall be within the juriſdiction and viſitation of the ordinary within whoſe dioceſe they be ſituate, or of ſuch perſons as by the king ſhall be appointed. ſ. 23.

By 32 Hen. 8. c. 20. All the ſame liberties and temporal juriſdictions, which the late owners of the ſites and lands of monaſteries had, or by themſelves or their officers might have uſed in three months next before the ſaid ſites, &c. came to the poſſeſſion of the king, ſhall be revived in like manner as they were lawfully uſed before they came to the poſſeſſion of the king. ſ. 1.

Sites of monaſteries, and other hereditaments, which become to the king by attainders of high treaſon, ſhall be revived, and in the king, and ſhall be in the ſurvey of the king's general ſurveyors. ſ. 2.

The ſtewards, bailiffs, and other officers of the ſame, ſhall be obedient to all other the king's courts, as well for all executions and returns of writs and precepts, as for their perſonal appearances, and other duties of their offices, like as the officers of the late owners ſhould have done. And no ſheriff or officer ſhall intromit in the premiſes, otherwiſe than they lawfully might have done before the premiſes did come to the poſſeſſion of the king. ſ. 3.

Provided

Provided that all perſons ſhall have all liberties which they now have by letters patent or otherwiſe. ſ. 4.

The king's general attorney ſhall have power to take to the uſe of the king, knowledges of concords for fines to be recorded in the court of common place of all manors, lands, and hereditaments, under the ſurvey of the court of augmentations, without fee. ſ. 5.

The ſaid attorney ſhall have power to take knowledge for inrolments of deeds made to the uſe of the king, of any lands and tenements, and of all obligations to be made to the king, or to other perſons to the uſe of the king, for any matter concerning the court of augmentations, or concerning the ſaid manors, lands, and tenements, without fee. ſ. 6.

Provided that whereſoever the king ſhall come within the verge accuſtomed to his grace's court during his abode, the ſteward, or great maſter of his grace's houſehold, the marſhal, coroner, clerk of the market, and all other his miniſters, ſhall keep their courts for juſtice, and exerciſe their offices, as well within liberties as without; and his grace's clerk of the market, and none other, during the ſame time, ſhall exerciſe the office of clerk of the market within the ſaid verge. ſ. 7.

Provided that this article be not prejudicial to the city of London. ſ. 8.

The ſites of the late monaſtery of Furnes, and of the late monaſteries and priories of Cartemele, Coningſhead, Buſtough and Holland, and the honours, manors, lands, and other hereditaments, late appertaining to the ſaid late monaſteries, ſhall be in the ſurvey of the chancellor and officers of the county palatine and duchy of Lancaſter. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall not diminiſh any liberties, juriſdictions, or profits, belonging to any the king's caſtles, lands, or other poſſeſſions, of his county palatine and duchy of Lancaſter. ſ. 11.

This act ſhall not be hurtful to any of the liberties of the five ports or the members of the ſame. ſ. 12.

By 34 & 35 Hen. 8. c. 19. If any occupier of any lands or other hereditaments of the late monaſteries, out of which any portions, penſions, corodies, indemnities, ſynodies, proxies, or other profits, have been paid to any archbiſhops, biſhops, archdeacons, and other eccleſiaſtical perſons, wilfully deny the payment, whereof the ſaid archbiſhops, &c. were in poſſeſſion within 10 years before the diſſolution of ſuch monaſteries, &c. it ſhall be lawful for the ſame archbiſhops, &c. to make ſuch proceſs, as well againſt every ſuch perſon as ſhall ſo deny payment as againſt the churches charged with the ſame, as heretofore they have lawfully done; and if the defendant be convict according to the eccleſiaſtical laws, the plaintiff ſhall recover the thing in demand, and the value thereof in damages, with coſts. ſ. 4.

If the cauſe be determinable at common law, the party grieved ſhall ſue at common law; and if the defendant be condemned, the plaintiff ſhall recover the thing in demand, and the value thereof in damages, with coſts. ſ. 5.

By 1 Edw. 6. c. 14. It ſhall not be lawful to any perſon by reaſon of any remainder, uſe, or condition, to enter into and claim any lands or tenements, for the not doing, not naming, or not finding, of any chantry prieſt, or poor folks mentioned in the act (viz. poor perſons entitled to profits out of lands, of colleges, free chapels or chantries, granted to the king by the act), obit, anniverſary, light or lamp, to be founded or done. ſ. 38.

Whoſoever contrary to law ſhall moleſt any perſon for any manors, lands, &c. of monaſteries, chantries, chapels, biſhoprics, &c. granted to king Hen. 8. or king Edw. 6. ſhall incur the danger of the act of præmunire, 16 Ric. 2. c. 5. ſ. 40.

Money.

Stat. de moneta, 20 Edw. 1. It ſhall be cried through the realm, that no man upon grievous forfeiture diſpend or receive money of other coin than of the king of England, of Ireland, and of Scotland. ſ. 1.

That none ſhall bring money into this country but for his expences, neither arrive in England but at common ports; and he ſhall ſhew his money to him that ſhall be aſſigned by the king without concealment, upon pain of forfeiture of his body and that which he hath. ſ. 2.

That upon the ſame forfeiture, no man ſhall ſend money in bales or other manner whereof ſuſpicion may be of concealment; and if there be any ſuch found, he which found the ſame ſhall have 4 d. of the pound, and the reſt to be to the king. ſ. 3.

That if any find money of other coin, he ſhall pierce the ſame, and none ſhall gainſay upon pain of grievous forfeiture; and he which findeth the ſame falſe ſhall break the ſame; the pierced money ſhall be given to him who oweth it, and the falſe money broken without reſtoring; and the body of him in whoſe hands falſe or clipped money appeareth, ſhall be taken, until he find ſurety, if he be a ſuſpicious man. ſ. 4.

He which ought to receive or pay money ſhall receive and pay the ſame by weight of 5 s. by the tumbrel delivered by the warden of the exchange, marked with the king's mark; and it ſhall be lawful to any man to pierce money which ſhall not weigh the tumbrel, and the money of other coin. ſ. 5.

The weights ſhall be as well marked by the warden of the exchange as the tumbrel. ſ. 6.

The viewer and the warden of money ſhall weigh the ſame, and if he find of new money that the pound weigheth not 20 s. and if he ſee money which is much uſed, if in the pound it want but 6 d. it ſhall be delivered to him who brought the ſame, and if it want more it ſhall be done as of the reſt. ſ. 7.

By 27 Edw. 1. ſtat. 3. None ſhall bring pollards and crockards, &c. into the realm, on forfeiture of life and goods; ſo always that all people may ſafely bring to the exchange all money of good ſilver, of whatſoever foreign coin. And ſtrict guard ſhall be kept upon the coaſts and at the ports by lawful jurats, who ſhall arreſt thoſe that bring bad money, and ſend them to whom the king ſhall appoint. And the commonalty of every port ſhall elect two good men of the ſame port, for whom they will anſwer, who with the bailiffs of the ports ſhall arreſt and ſearch all that arrive, and ſhall ſend the bodies of ſuch as bring falſe money to the chief priſon of the county. And the wardens ſhall ſend the money to the king's great exchange, and anſwer for their other goods at the exchequer. And all that bring ſterlings into the realm, ſhall put them under the ſeals of the wardens of the ports, who ſhall ſend them to the next aſſayers; and if they be found falſe, the bodies of thoſe that bring them ſhall be in the king's will. None ſhall ſell or ſend out of the realm, wool, leather, ſkins, lead, or tin, but for good ſterling, or for ſilver plate aſſayed and marked at the king's great exchange, or in exchange of good and lawful merchandize; and if any do otherwiſe, and be thereof attaint by the ſaid wardens or other the king's miniſters, the things ſo ſold, &c. ſhall be forfeited. No ſilver coin or plate ſhall be carried out of the realm without the king's ſpecial leave, under the pain aforeſaid. The wardens ſhall ſwear before the ſheriffs, or before their chief wardens, where they are not anſwerable to the ſheriffs, that they ſhall without negligence do what belongs to their office. If they releaſe any for gift or for favour, or otherwiſe, and be thereof attaint, they ſhall be in forfeiture of life and of all that they have. All who bring money out of the dominion of the king of France, ſhall carry it to the table at Dover, and receive current money of this realm; and if they be found with it elſewhere, the money ſhall be forfeited.

By 9 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2. c. 1. No man ſhall carry any ſterling out of the realm, nor ſilver in plate, nor veſſel of gold nor ſilver, upon pain of forfeiture of the money, plate, or veſſel, without licence.

By 9 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2. c. 2. No falſe money ſhall be brought into the realm, upon forfeiture of ſuch money; ſo that all people may ſafely bring to the exchanges, bullion, ſilver in plate, veſſel of ſilver, and money of ſilver.

By 9 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2. c. 3. No ſterling, halfpenny, nor farthing, ſhall be molten to make veſſel or any other thing, upon forfeiture of the money ſo molten; and the goldſmith which hath molten ſuch money, ſhall be committed to priſon till he hath yielded the one half of that which he hath molten.

By 17 Edw. 3. The ſterling money ſhall not be carried out of the realm. ſ. 1.

Men ſhall be aſſigned in the ports and elſewhere, to ſee that no ſilver be carried out of the realm, except that great men when they go out may have ſilver veſſels to ſerve their houſes. And none ſhall bring falſe money into the realm on pain of forfeiture of life and member. And exchanges ſhall be made, with them that paſs the ſea, of gold for their good ſterling to the value. ſ. 2.

The ſearchers ſhall have the third part of all the falſe money that they find, and the third of the good money that they find paſſing out of the realm. And if they be negligent, their lands and goods ſhall be ſeized, and their bodies impriſoned until they have made fine. And in caſe they be aſſenting to the bringing in falſe money, or wittingly ſhall ſuffer ſilver to be tranſported out of the realm, they ſhall have judgment of life and member. ſ. 3.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſtat. 5. c. 12. It ſhall be lawful for every man to exchange gold for ſilver, or ſilver for gold; ſo that no man hold a common exchange, nor take profit for making ſuch exchange, upon pain of forfeiture of the money exchanged, except the king's exchangers.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſtat. 5. c. 13. The money of gold and ſilver ſhall not be impaired in weight nor in allay, but put in the ancient ſtate as in the ſterling.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſtat. 5. c. 20. The moneyers, and other wardens and miniſters of the money, ſhall receive plate of gold and ſilver by weight, and deliver the money when made by weight.

By 27 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2. c. 14. Merchants may ſafely bring plate of ſilver and billets of gold, and all other gold, and money of gold and ſilver, to the king's bullion or exchanges, at the ſtaples and elſewhere; and if any will take good money of gold and ſilver, of other coin than of the king's in payment, he ſhall take the ſame without impeachment, ſo that none be compelled. ſ. 1.

No money ſhall have common courſe within the realm but the king's coin; and none ſhall carry out of the realm the old ſterling, nor other money but the new money, except merchants ſtrangers that bring money and employ it within the realm, who may re-carry into their country all money not employed, ſo that good ſearch be made thereof in the ports; and all money that every merchant ſtranger ſhall bring, ſhall be put in writing by the ſearchers. ſ. 2.

None by colour of ſuch ſearch ſhall diſturb any merchant ſtranger unduly; and all the falſe money, that may be found in deceit of good money, ſhall be forfeited. ſ. 3.

By 5 Ric. 2. c. 2. No people, upon pain of as much as they may forfeit, ſhall carry out of the realm any gold or ſilver in money, bullion, plate, or veſſel, but the wages of the king's fortreſſes beyond the ſea, and except prelates, lords, and others of the realm, to whom it behoveth to make payments beyond the ſea, that of the ſame payments only they make exchanges in England by merchants to pay beyond the ſea, and leave had of the king, as well for the exchangers as for the perſon which ought to make the payments. And the merchants that ſhall make the exchanges ſhall be ſworn, that they ſhall not ſend beyond ſea any gold or ſilver. And if any perſon be attainted, that he hath ſent beyond ſea gold or ſilver againſt this reſtraint, he ſhall forfeit to the king. The king defendeth the paſſage of all people, upon pain of forfeiture of all their goods, except lords and other great men, and notable merchants, and the king's ſoldiers. Every perſon which ſhall paſs out of the realm without licence (which licence ſhall not be made but in the ports underwritten, viz. London, Sandwich, Dover, Southampton, Plymouth, Dartmouth, Briſtow, Yarmouth, St. Botolph, Kingſton upon Hull, Newcaſtle upon Tine, and the other ports towards Ireland, and the iſles pertaining to the realm) ſhall forfeit to the king as much as he hath in goods, and the maſter of the ſhip ſhall forfeit the veſſel to the king. If any ſuch ſearchers or wardens of the ports, ſuffer wittingly to be done the contrary, touching money, and paſſages of people, and be convict, he ſhall forfeit to the king his office and all his goods, and his body ſhall be committed to priſon a year; and whoſoever proveth any thing done againſt theſe articles ſhall have half the forfeiture.

This act concerning the reſtraint of paſſage is repealed by 4 Jac. 1. c. 1. ſ. 22.

By 14 Ric. 2. c. 2. For every exchange made by merchants to the court of Rome or elſewhere, the merchants ſhall be bound in chancery to buy within three months, merchandizes of the ſtaple to the value of the ſum exchanged, upon pain of forfeiture of the ſame. Qu. If not obſolete.

By 17 Ric. 2. c. 1. No gold nor ſilver of lands beyond the ſea ſhall run in payment, but ſhall be brought to the bullion, to be molten in the coin of England, upon pain of forfeiture of the ſame, and of impriſonment, fine, and ranſom.

By 2 Hen. 4. c. 5. If any ſearcher find gold or ſilver in the keeping of any that is paſſing out of the realm, without the king's licence, all that gold or ſilver ſhall be forfeit to the king, ſaving his reaſonable expences, which he ſhall be bound to diſcover preſently, after he is warned by the ſearcher, or elſe all the money concealed ſhall be forfeit; provided that merchants ſtrangers, that ſell their merchandize within the realm, and the one half of the money received do employ upon other merchandizes of the realm, may freely carry out the other half by the king's licence.

By 11 Hen. 4. c. 8. The chancellor ſhall every 15 days ſend the eſtreats of writs of exchange into the exchequer; and the treaſurer and barons ſhall have power to examine the cuſtomers, and to puniſh thoſe whom they find guilty contrary to the ſtatute 14 Ric. 2. c. 2.

By 17 Edw. 4. c. 1. It is enacted, that no perſon carry out of the realm, coin, plate, veſſel, bullion, or jewels of gold or ſilver, without the king's licence, on pain of felony; and this act was by 7 Edw. 6. c. 6. continued for 20 years, and is now expired. Qu. therefore, if many of the foregoing ſtatutes are not obſolete.

By 3 Hen. 5. c. 6. revived by 5 Eliz. c. 11. Clipping, waſhing, and filing of money ſhall be adjudged treaſon.

By 3 Hen. 5. c. 7. revived by 1 Eliz.. c. 11. The juſtices aſſigned to take aſſizes ſhall have power to hear and determine, as well of the counterfeiting, and of the bringing of falſe money into the realm, as of clipping, waſhing, and every other falſity, of the money. And the juſtices of peace ſhall have power to enquire of all ſuch matters, and thereupon to make proceſs by capias only againſt thoſe which ſhall be thereof indicted.

By 9 Hen. 5. ſtat. 1. c. 11. None ſhall receive gold in payment, but by the king's weight.

By 1 Hen. 6. c. 1. The lords of the king's council may aſſign maſters and workmen to make money of gold and ſilver, and to hold the exchanges of money, in York, Briſtol, and as many places as ſhall ſeem neceſſary.

By 2 Hen. 6. c. 6. No gold nor ſilver ſhall be carried out of the realm, unleſs it be for payment of the king's ſoldiers, upon pain of forfeiture of the value of the money carried out, to be levied of him that ſhall carry it out. And he which thereof giveth knowledge to the council, or to the treaſurer, ſhall have the fourth part of the forfeiture. Except ranſoms of Engliſh priſoners, and the money that the ſoldiers ſhall carry for their reaſonable coſts, ſo that the money be not carried without the king's licence. And merchants aliens ſhall find ſurety in chancery, every company for their company, that none of them ſhall carry out of the realm any gold or ſilver, or the value of the ſame. And if any of them do the contrary, and be gone over the ſea, the pledges of his company ſhall pay the king the forfeiture, whereof he that ſhall give notice ſhall have the fourth part.

By 2 Hen. 6. c. 12. The maſter of the mint ſhall keep his allay according to his indenture. And ſhall receive of every perſon that ſhall bring ſilver to the mint, the ſame money at the true value as it is worth; according to the allay, upon pain to pay double damages; and the king's aſſayer and the controller of the mint ſhall be preſent, when any bullion of ſilver is brought to the mint, that the aſſayer may ſet the value, in caſe of variance betwixt the maſter and the merchant, and the controller to control, as well ſilver that is brought to the mint, as carried out, every two days, without reward, other than the fee which they ſhall take of the king, upon pain to yield double damages. And the aſſayer and controller ſhall be expert men, having perfect knowledge in the myſtery of goldſmiths, and of the mint. And neither the maſter of the mint, nor the exchanger, ſhall ſell gold, nor ſilver, or bullion, brought to the mint, or to the exchange, but apply the ſame only to the money, according to the indenture.

By 8 Hen. 6. c. 24. No merchant alien ſhall bind any of the king's people, by promiſe, covenant, or bond, to make payment in gold for any debt, nor refuſe to receive payment in ſilver, upon pain of the double value. And no Engliſhman ſhall ſell to any merchant alien any merchandiſes, but for ready payment, or elſe in merchandiſes to be contented in hand, upon pain of forfeiture of the ſame. ſ. 2.

By 9 Hen. 6. c. 2. Merchants might ſell their cloths to aliens for ready payment, or for money or merchandiſe to be paid from ſix months to ſix months, without farther day giving, on pain of forfeiture thereof; and that the ordinance ſhould endure as long as ſhould pleaſe the king. And this latter ſtatute is ſaid to be a repeal of 8 Hen. 6. c. 24. 10 Hen. 7. fol. 7. b.

By 3 Hen. 7. c. 6. No man ſhall make exchange without the king's licence, nor make exchange of money to be paid within the land, but ſuch as the king ſhall depute thereto, upon the pains in the ſtatute of king Richard contained. Said to be repealed by 37 Hen. 1. c. 9. but qu.

By 4 Hen. 7. c. 2. All letters patent, and grants of offices belonging to the mint, with fees thereto belonging, ſhall be void. ſ. 3.

By 19 Hen. 7. c. 5. Groats or pence clipped or impaired, except reaſonable wearing, ſhall not be current, but it ſhall be lawful to any perſon, having ſuch groats or pence clipped or miniſhed, to bring the ſame to the king's mint to be changed, or convert the ſame into plate. And if the warden or controller of the mint execute not their office in ſearching the coin, before it paſs from the mint, they ſhall forfeit their office, and make fine at the king's pleaſure. No perſon ſhall convey out of this realm any bullion, plate, or coin, of gold and ſilver, into Ireland, above the ſum of 6 s. 8 d. nor convey any ſuch bullion, plate, or coin, into any ſhip, upon pain to forfeit the ſame, and to have impriſonment, and make fine and ranſom at the king's will.

By 5 & 6 Edw. 6. c. 19. If any perſon exchange coined gold, ſilver, or money, receiving or paying more in value for it, than the ſame ſhall be declared by the king's proclamation to be current for; the money ſo exchanged ſhall be forfeit, and the parties offending ſhall ſuffer impriſonment one year, and make fine at the king's pleaſure; the one moiety of the coin forfeited to be to the king, and the other moiety to the party that ſeizeth the ſame, or will ſue for it. ſ. 2.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 31. No perſon ſhall melt any current ſilver money, upon pain of forfeiture of the ſame and of the double value, the one half to his majeſty, the other half to the informers, in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter; and the perſons offending (if they be freemen of any city or corporation) ſhall, upon conviction, be diſfranchiſed; and if they ſhall not be freemen, they ſhall ſuffer impriſonment ſix months next enſuing their conviction.

By 18 Car. 2. c. 5. made perpetual by 9 Geo. 3. c. 78. Whatſoever perſon, native or foreigner, ſhall bring any foreign coin, plate, or bullion, or any manufacture of gold or ſilver, into his majeſty's mint to be coined, ſhall have the ſame aſſayed and coined with all convenient ſpeed, without any diminution or charge for the aſſaying, coinage or waſte; ſo as that for every pound troy of crown or ſtandard-gold, there ſhall be delivered out a pound troy of current coin of crown gold; and for every pound troy of ſterling or ſtandard-ſilver, there ſhall be delivered out a pound troy of current coins of ſterling. ſ. 1.

There ſhall be no preference in point of aſſaying or coinage; but the gold and ſilver brought in and coined ſhall be in the ſame order delivered to the bringers, without preference of one before the other; and if any undue preference be made by any officers of the mint, the party offending ſhall be liable to pay the value of the gold or ſilver brought in, and not entered and delivered according to this act, with damages and coſts, to the party grieved, and ſhall be fore-judged from his place; and if ſuch preference be unduly made by any deputy or clerk, without privity of his maſter, ſuch deputy or clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch action, and be for ever uncapable of bearing office in any mint. ſ. 2.

It ſhall not be any undue preference if the officers ſhall deliver out monies coined, to any perſons that demand the ſame upon ſubſequent entries, before others that did not come to demand their monies in their courſe, ſo as there be money reſerved for them. ſ. 3.

The maſter-worker of his majeſty's mint ſhall, at the time of the delivery and entry of any gold or ſilver, give the bringers a bill denoting the weight, fineneſs, and value, together with the day and order of its delivery. ſ. 4.

No confiſcation or reſtraint ſhall be made in the mint, of any gold or ſilver brought in to be coined, for any imbargo, breach of the peace, letters of mark or repriſal, or war with any foreign nation, or upon any other pretence. ſ. 5.

No monies leviable by this act* ſhall be applied to any uſe, other than the defraying the charge of the mints, and the encouragement of the bringing in of gold and ſilver to be coined: nor ſhall any of the ſaid monies be iſſued out of the exchequer, but by warrant of the treaſury, to the maſters and workers of the mints, and mentioning that they are for the ſervice aforeſaid; to be kept in his majeſty's office of receipt in the mints, under the uſual keys of the warden, maſter and worker, and controller, and iſſued out according to the courſe of the mints. ſ. 9.

There ſhall not be iſſued out of the exchequer, of the ſaid monies, in any one year, for the ſalaries of officers of the mints, and towards the repairing of the buildings, and other neceſſaries for aſſaying and coining, above 3000 l. and the overplus ſhall be employed for the expence, waſte and charge of aſſaying, melting down, and coinage, and buying of gold and ſilver to coin. ſ. 10. But ſee 27 Geo. 2. c. 11. poſt.

By 6 & 7 Will. 3. c. 17. If any perſon ſhall at any one time receive or pay any ſilver money unclipt for more than the ſame ought to go for, he ſhall forfeit 10 l. for every 20 s. and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſſer ſum; one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be recovered with coſts. ſ. 2.

If any perſon ſhall buy or ſell, and knowingly have in his cuſtody, any clippings or filings of the coin, he ſhall forfeit the ſame, and 500 l.; one moiety to his majeſty, and the other to the informer; and ſhall be alſo branded in the right cheek with the letter R. ſ. 4.

Every perſon who ſhall apprehend any who have counterfeited the coin, or that for gain have diminiſhed the ſame, or brought into this kingdom any clipt or counterfeit coin, and proſecute ſuch perſons until they be convicted, ſhall have from the ſheriff for every offender convicted, 40 l. without fee, within one month after conviction and demand made, by tendering a certificate to the ſheriff under the hands of the judge or juſtices before whom ſuch offenders ſhall be convicted; and in caſe any diſpute ſhall ariſe between the perſons apprehending and proſecuting ſuch traitors, the judge or juſtices ſhall in their certificate appoint the reward to be paid amongſt the parties, in ſuch proportions as ſhall ſeem juſt; and if default of payment ſhall be made, ſuch ſheriff making default, ſhall forfeit to the perſons to whom ſuch money is due, double the ſum he ought to have paid, to be recovered by them or their executors, &c. in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, with treble coſts. ſ. 9.

All ſheriffs upon producing ſuch certificates and the receipts for the money, ſhall be allowed upon their account all monies which they ſhall diſburſe, as aforeſaid, without fee. ſ. 10.

If there ſhall not be money ſufficient in the hands of ſuch ſheriffs to re-imburſe them, they ſhall have the ſame repaid by the treaſury upon certificate from the clerk of the pipe. ſ. 11.

If any perſon, being out of priſon, ſhall be guilty of clipping, coining, counterfeiting, or diminiſhing the coin, and diſcover perſons who ſhall commit any of the ſaid crimes, ſo as two or more ſhall be convicted; ſuch diſcoverer ſhall have his majeſty's pardon for all ſuch crimes; and if he be an apprentice, he ſhall be free. ſ. 12. For the reſt of this act, ſee "Gold," &c.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 10. No perſon ſhall receive or pay any guineas at a higher rate than 26 s. for each, and the ſame proportion for half guineas, double guineas, and five pound pieces; and in caſe any perſon offend herein, he ſhall forfeit double the value of the gold received or paid, and 20 l.; one moiety to his majeſty, and the other to the perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame; to be recovered with coſts. And nothing in this act ſhall compel any perſon to receive guineas at the ſaid rate. ſ. 18.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 19. No perſon ſhall utter or receive guineas at a higher rate than 22 s. each, and proportionably for every greater or leſſer piece of coined gold; and whoſoever ſhall offend, ſhall incur the penalties provided in ſtat. 7 Will. 3. c. 10. ſ. 12.

By 8 Will. 3. c. 1. The maſter worker, and other officers, of his majeſty's mint in the Tower, ſhall ſet apart one or more mills, with other conveniences, to be in the firſt place employed in the coinage of gold, brought thither by any perſons, to be received, coined, and delivered, as by the ſtatute 18 Car. 2. c. 5.; ſo that the courſe in coinage of gold and ſilver be kept in diſtinct accounts, and ſuch coining and delivering out gold in a diſtinct courſe, although there be ſilver remaining uncoined, ſhall not be interpreted any undue preference. ſ. 3.

By 9 Will. 3. c. 2. No hammered ſilver coin ſhall be reputed lawful coin of this realm. ſ. 1.

By 9 & 10 Will. 3. c. 21. It ſhall be lawful for any perſon to whom ſilver money ſhall be tendered, any piece whereof ſhall be diminiſhed, otherwiſe than by reaſonable wearing, or that by the ſtamp, colour, or weight thereof, he ſhall ſuſpect to be counterfeit, to cut or deface ſuch piece; and if any piece ſo cut, &c. ſhall appear to be counterfeit, the perſon tendring the ſame ſhall bear the loſs; but if the ſame ſhall be of due weight, and lawful money, the perſon that broke or defaced the ſame, ſhall take the ſame at the rate it was coined for; and if any queſtion ariſe whether the piece be counterfeit, it ſhall be heard and determined by the mayor, bailiff, or other chief officer, of any city or town corporate, where ſuch tender ſhall be made; and if out of any city, &c. then by the next juſtice of peace. ſ. 1.

The tellers of the receipt of exchequer, their deputies and clerks, and the receivers general of every branch of revenue, ſhall break or deface every piece of counterfeit or unlawfully diminiſhed ſilver money, that ſhall be tendred to them to the uſe of his majeſty; and the tellers and receivers general, &c. ſhall weigh in whole ſums, or otherwiſe, all ſilver money by them received, and if the ſame appear counterfeit, or unlawfully diminiſhed, the ſame ſhall not be received in the exchequer, nor allowed them upon their accounts. ſ. 2.

By 4 Ann. c. 22. It ſhall be lawful for the treaſury, by warrants, to iſſue out of the coinage duty the yearly ſum of 500 l. over and above the yearly ſum of 300 l. mentioned mentioned in 19 Car. 2. c. 5. for the ſalaries of officers of the mints, and towards repairing the buildings and other neceſſaries.

* See the ſum in 27 Geo. 2. c. 11. and 27 Geo. 3. c. 13.

By 7 Ann. c. 24. Over and above the ſums not exceeding 3000*l.* and 500*l. per annum* mentioned in 18 Car. 2. c. 5. and 4 Ann. c. 22. it ſhall be lawful for the treaſury, by warrants, to iſſue out of the coinage duties yearly, ſuch ſum as they ſhall think neceſſary, not exceeding 1200*l.* for the ſalaries of officers of the mints in Scotland, and towards the providing buildings, and other neceſſaries for aſſaying, melting down, and coining in the mints of Scotland. ſ. 3.

Over and above the ſums mentioned in the former acts, for the uſes of the mint, it ſhall be lawful for the treaſury, by warrants, to iſſue out of the coinage duty yearly, any ſums not exceeding 400*l.* for the charges of officers, and others employed in the proſecution of offences concerning the coin in England. ſ. 4. See 15 Geo. 2. c. 28. ſ. 10.

By 15 Geo. 2. c. 28. If any perſon utter or tender in payment any falſe or counterfeit money, knowing the ſame to be ſo, and be convicted, he ſhall ſuffer ſix months impriſonment, and find ſureties for his good behaviour for ſix months more; and if the ſame perſon be convicted a ſecond time, he ſhall ſuffer two years impriſonment, and find ſureties for his good behaviour for two years more; and if the ſame perſon offend a third time, and be convicted, he ſhall be adjudged guilty of felony without benefit of clergy. ſ. 2.

If any perſon utter or tender in payment any falſe or counterfeit money, knowing the ſame to be ſo, and either the ſame day, or within ten days then next, utter, &c. any more, or other falſe or counterfeit money, knowing the ſame to be ſo, or at the time of ſuch uttering have about him in his cuſtody, one or more pieces of counterfeit money, beſides what was ſo uttered, ſuch perſon ſhall be deemed a common utterer of falſe money; and being convicted ſhall ſuffer a year's impriſonment, and find ſureties for his good behaviour for two years more; and if ſuch perſon again utter, &c. any falſe or counterfeit money, knowing the ſame to be ſo, being convicted, he ſhall be adjudged guilty of felony without benefit of clergy. ſ. 3.

The perſons convicted of any of the treaſons (See general title TREASON) and felonies before mentioned ſhall ſuffer death: but the blood of his heirs ſhall not be corrupted, nor his wife forfeit her dower. ſ. 4.

Perſons guilty of any of the treaſons, felonies, or crimes, aforeſaid, ſhall be indicted, arraigned, tried, and convicted, by ſuch like evidence, and in ſuch manner as is now uſed againſt any offenders for counterfeiting the lawful coin. Provided, there be no proſecution for any of the offences made treaſon or felony by this act, unleſs commenced within ſix months next after ſuch offence committed. ſ. 5.

If any perſon make, coin, or counterfeit, any braſs or copper money, called a halfpenny, or a farthing, ſuch perſon and his aiders, abetters, and procurers, being convicted, ſhall ſuffer two years impriſonment, and find ſureties for his good behaviour for two years more. ſ. 6.

Whoever ſhall apprehend any perſon who has committed any of the offences hereby made high treaſon or felony, or made or counterfeited any of the copper money aforeſaid, and ſhall proſecute ſuch offender until he be convicted, ſuch proſecutor ſhall receive from the ſheriff of the county or city where ſuch conviction ſhall be, for every ſuch offender convicted of any of the treaſons or felonies aforeſaid, 40*l.* and for every perſon ſo convicted of counterfeiting any of the ſaid copper money, 10*l.* without paying any fee for the ſame, within one month after ſuch conviction, and demand made by tendering a certificate to the ſheriff or under-ſheriff, under the hands of the judge or juſtices before whom ſuch conviction was made, certifying ſuch conviction, and that the offender was apprehended and proſecuted by the perſons claiming the reward, and directing in what ſhares the reward ſhall be divided; which certificate the ſaid judge or juſtices are to give without delay or fee. And if the ſheriff ſhall not pay the reward within the time aforeſaid, he ſhall forfeit to ſuch proſecutors ſeverally, double the ſum by the certificate directed to be ſeverally paid to them, to be recovered by them, or their executors or adminiſtrators, in any court of record at Weſtminſter, by action of debt, &c. with treble coſts. And ſuch ſheriff ſhall be allowed ſuch rewards upon his accounting, without fee; and if he ſhall not on paſſing ſuch account have money ſufficient to anſwer what has been paid for ſuch rewards, then the ſame ſhall be repaid by the treaſury out of the revenues of the crown, on certificate from the clerk of the pipe. ſ. 7.

Whoever being out of priſon ſhall commit any of the offences aforeſaid, and diſcover two or more perſons, who have committed any of the ſaid offences, ſo as they be convicted, ſuch diſcoverer ſhall have his majeſty's pardon. ſ. 8.

If any perſon be convicted of uttering or tendering any falſe or counterfeit money as aforeſaid, and afterwards be guilty of the like offence in any other county or city, the clerk of the aſſiſe, or clerk of the peace for the county, &c. where ſuch conviction was, ſhall, at the requeſt of the proſecutor, or any other on his majeſty's behalf, certify the ſame by a tranſcript, containing the effect of ſuch conviction; for which certificate 2*s.* 6*d.* and no more ſhall be paid; and ſuch certificate being produced in court, ſhall be proof of ſuch former conviction. ſ. 9.

The commiſſioners of the treaſury ſhall order out of the money ariſing by the coinage duty ſuch ſums, for defraying the future expences of the proſecutions of offenders againſt the laws relating to the coin, as they ſhall ſee fit, provided the ſaid expences do not in one year exceed 600*l.* ſ. 10.

By 27 Geo. 2. c. 11. ſ. 2. It ſhall be lawful for the treaſury to cauſe ſo much money to be applied as ſhall be neceſſary for defraying the expences of the mints of England and Scotland, by way of impreſt, ſo as the ſame do not exceed in one year 15,000*l.*

By 27 Geo. 3. c. 13. ſ. 64. The treaſury are to iſſue their warrant to the proper officer of the exchequer for payment of any ſum they think proper, out of any of the duties of cuſtoms, to be applied to the purpoſes of 27 Geo. 2. provided the ſums do not exceed in one year 15,000*l.*

By 13 Geo. 3. c. 71. It ſhall be lawful for any perſon to whom any gold money ſhall be tendered, any piece whereof ſhall be diminiſhed otherwiſe than by reaſonable wearing, or that by the ſtamp, colour, or weight thereof he ſhall ſuſpect to be counterfeit, to cut or deface ſuch piece; and if any piece ſo cut, &c. ſhall appear to be diminiſhed (otherwiſe than by reaſonable wear) or counterfeit, the perſon tendering the ſame ſhall bear the loſs thereof; but if the ſame ſhall be of due weight, and appear to be lawful money, the perſon that cut, &c. ſhall receive the ſame at the rate it was coined for; and if any queſtion ariſe, whether the piece be counterfeit or diminiſhed, it ſhall be heard and determined by the mayor, bailiff, or other chief officer, of any city or town corporate where ſuch tender ſhall be made; and if out of any city, &c. then by the next juſtice of peace; and the ſaid mayor, &c. ſhall have power to adminiſter an oath to any perſon for determining any queſtions relating to the piece. ſ. 1.

The tellers at the receipt of exchequer, their deputies and clerks, ſhall cut, break, or deface, every piece of counterfeit or unlawfully diminiſhed gold money that ſhall be tendered in payment to them, to the uſe of his majeſty, or in reſpect of any part of the revenue; and the ſaid tellers, their deputies and clerks, ſhall weigh in whole ſums, or otherwiſe, all gold money by them received; and if the ſame appear to be counterfeit, or unlawfully diminiſhed, the ſame ſhall not be received in the exchequer, nor be allowed them upon their accounts. ſ. 2.

By 14 Geo. 3. c. 92. It ſhall be lawful for the warden, maſter, and comptroller of the mint, with the aſſiſtance of the aſſay maſter, and they are to make one weight of the guinea, and alſo one weight of the ſhilling, according to the eſtabliſhed ſtandard of the mint, and alſo other weights, parts and multiples of the guinea and ſhilling; which weights, together with their report of the accuracy thereof, they are hereby to tranſmit to the clerk of his majeſty's council in waiting, to be laid before his majeſty in council; and in caſe the ſaid weights ſhall be approved of by his majeſty in council, the ſame ſhall be the ſtandard weights of the gold and ſilver coin of this realm, and the ſame ſhall be lodged in the joint cuſtody of the warden, maſter, and comptroller of the mint. ſ. 1.

The ſaid warden, maſter, and comptroller, with the aſſiſtance of the aſſay maſter, ſhall make exact duplicates, or copies, of the ſaid ſtandard weights, and of the parts and multiples thereof; and if any of the ſaid duplicates ſhall hereafter, by any accident, be deſtroyed, loſt, or impaired, the warden, &c. with the aſſiſtance of the aſſay maſter, are, in like manner, to make other exact duplicates, or copies, of ſuch ſtandard weights, &c.; all which duplicates, or copies, ſhall be laid before his majeſty in privy council, as before directed; and in caſe the ſame ſhall be approved of by his majeſty in council, they ſhall then, by the ſaid maſter, &c. be lodged in the cuſtody of an officer, to be appointed by his majeſty under his ſign manual, during his royal pleaſure, with a ſalary not exceeding 250 l. per ann. to be iſſued by the warden out of the coinage duties. ſ. 2.

It ſhall be lawful for the warden, maſter, and comptroller, once, or oftener, in every year, by warrant under their hands, to ſummon ſuch officer, ſo appointed by his majeſty, to appear before them, and produce the duplicates, or copies, and the ſame to examine and compare with the ſtandard weights lodged in the cuſtody of the warden. ſ. 3.

All weights to be made uſe of for weighing the ſaid gold and ſilver coin, ſhall be regulated by the duplicates of the ſtandard weights in the cuſtody of the officer before mentioned; and after having been tried and compared therewith, and found to be juſt, ſhall, in teſtimony thereof, be marked by the ſaid officer with a ſtamp, to be approved of by the maſter of the mint; which ſtamp the ſaid officer is to provide: and that the impreſſion may be known, the ſaid officer is to publiſh a deſcription of the ſame, by advertiſements, in the London Gazette, three times at leaſt before the 31 Dec. 1774; and the ſaid officer is, upon application made to him, at all ſeaſonable hours, to ſtamp all weights to be uſed for weighing gold and ſilver coin which ſhall be brought to him for that purpoſe, and which he ſhall find to be juſt, without delay: and no other weights but ſuch as ſhall be juſt, according to the weights hereby directed, and ſhall be marked as before mentioned, ſhall be reputed to be true, or of any effect for determining the weight of the gold or ſilver coin. ſ. 4.

If any perſon ſhall counterfeit any ſtamp to reſemble any ſtamp uſed in purſuance of this act, or ſhall counterfeit the impreſſion of ſuch ſtamp on any weight; or ſhall utter or ſell any ſuch weight with the impreſſion of ſuch counterfeit ſtamp thereupon, knowing the ſame to be counterfeited; or ſhall wilfully increaſe or diminiſh ſuch weight after it has been ſtamped; or ſhall make uſe of any ſuch weight in weighing the gold and ſilver coin, knowing the ſame to have been increaſed or diminiſhed; ſuch perſon ſhall, upon conviction before two juſtices, forfeit, not exceeding 50 l. at the diſcretion of the juſtices; one moiety to his majeſty, and the other to him that ſhall inform, &c.; and, on default of payment, ſuch juſtices may commit ſuch offender to the common gaol, for not exceeding three months. ſ. 5.

Nothing herein ſhall take away or abridge any rights granted by Jac. 1. by letters patent, to the maſter, wardens, and commonalty of the myſtery of founders of London, and which they may lawfully claim or enjoy, with reſpect to the ſizing and marking of all manner of braſs weights made within London, or three miles thereof, or which ſhall be ſold or kept for ſale within London, or three miles thereof. ſ. 6.

Provided the weights before directed to be made uſe of for weighing the gold and ſilver coin, after having been ſized and marked according to the directions of the ſaid charter, be carried to be aſcertained and marked, as before directed, by the officer appointed by his majeſty, in purſuance of this act. ſ. 7.

By 15 Geo. 3. c. 30. It ſhall be lawful for the officer appointed in purſuance of 14 Geo. 3. c. 92. to demand and receive from every perſon bringing weights to be ſtamped in purſuance of the ſaid act, not exceeding one penny for every twelve weights ſo ſtamped, before he delivers the ſame.

Monopolies.

By 21 Jac. 1. c. 3. All monopolies, grants, and patents, made or to be made, for the ſole buying, ſelling, making, or uſing, of any thing within this realm, or of any other monopolies, or of power to diſpenſe with any, or to give licence to do any thing againſt any law, or to give any warrant for any diſpenſation, or to compound for any forfeitures limited by ſtatute, or of any grant or promiſe of the benefit of any forfeiture before judgment, and all proclamations, and other things countenancing the ſame, are contrary to law, and void. ſ. 1.

All monopolies, and all ſuch grants, &c. ſhall be determined by the common law. ſ. 2.

All perſons ſhall be diſabled to have any monopoly, or any ſuch grants, &c. as aforeſaid. ſ. 3.

If any perſon ſhall be diſturbed by pretext of any monopoly, or other matter aforeſaid, he may have his remedy at common law by action upon this ſtatute, wherein he ſhall recover three times the damages ſuſtained, and double coſts; and if any perſon, after notice given that the action is grounded upon this ſtatute, ſhall procure the ſame to be ſtayed before judgment by any order, ſave only the court where ſuch action ſhall be depending, or after judgment ſhall procure the execution to be ſtayed, ſave only by writ of error or attaint, the perſons ſo offending ſhall incur the penalties provided by the ſtatute of præmunire, 16 Ric. 2. c. 5. ſ. 4.

Any declaration before mentioned ſhall not extend to any patents of privilege for 14 years or under, to be made of the ſole working of any new manufactures to the firſt inventors, ſo as they be not contrary to law, nor miſchievous to the ſtate, by raiſing prices of commodities, or hurt of trade, or inconvenient. ſ. 6.

This act ſhall not extend to any privy ſeal to be made to the juſtices of king's bench, common pleas, barons of the exchequer, and other juſtices having power to hear and determine offences done againſt any penal ſtatute, to compound for the forfeitures of any penal ſtatute, depending in queſtion before them after plea pleaded. ſ. 8.

This act ſhall not extend to the city of London, or to any city, or town corporate, for charters to them made, or concerning any cuſtoms uſed by them, or unto any corporations or fellowſhips of any trade, or to any company of merchants erected for the ordering of any trade. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall not extend to any patents of privilege concerning printing, or the making of ordnance, or ſhot for ordnance, nor to any grant of any office now in being, other than ſuch as have been decried by his majeſty's proclamations. ſ. 10.

This act ſhall not extend to any privilege of digging or making of allum. ſ. 11.

This act ſhall not extend to any cuſtom, franchiſe, or privilege, claimed by the governors and ſtewards and brethren of the fellowſhip of the hoaſtmen of the town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, concerning the venting of ſea-coals, or to a grant made to the ſaid fellowſhip of hoaſtmen to the late queen Elizabeth, of any duty to be paid for ſuch coals; nor to any grants for licenſing of the keeping of taverns, or retailing of wines, or any compoſitions for ſuch licences, ſo as the benefit of ſuch compoſitions be reſerved for the uſe of his majeſty. ſ. 12.

This act ſhall not extend to a grant for the making of glaſs, made to Sir Robert Manſel, nor to a grant made to James Maxewel, Eſq. concerning the tranſportation of calves ſkins. ſ. 13.

This act ſhall not extend to a grant for the making of ſmalt made to Abraham Baker, nor to a grant for the melting of iron ewer, and of making the ſame into caſt-works, or bars, with ſea-coals or pit-coals, made to Edward lord Dudley. ſ. 14.

Mortgages.

By 4 & 5 Will. & Mar. c. 16. If any perſon ſhall, for any valuable conſideration, acknowledge judgment, ſtatute, or recognizance, and ſhall after mortgage his lands to a ſecond creditor, or in truſt for him, and ſhall not give notice of the ſaid judgment, &c. under his hand before the execution of the mortgage, unleſs ſuch mortgager, upon notice given by the mortgagee under his hand and ſeal, atteſted by two witneſſes, of ſuch former judgment, &c. ſhall within ſix months pay off and cauſe the ſame to be vacated by record, the mortgager ſhall have no remedy againſt the mortgagee in equity or elſewhere for redemption of the lands. ſ. 2.

If any perſon, who ſhall mortgage lands for ſecurity of money due, or for other valuable conſiderations, and ſhall again mortgage the ſame lands to any other perſon for valuable conſiderations (the former mortgage being in force) ſhall not diſcover to the ſecond mortgagee the former mortgage under his hand, the mortgager ſhall have no equity of redemption againſt the ſecond mortgagee. ſ. 3.

If there be more than one mortgage at the ſame time of the ſame lands, the late or other mortgagees ſhall have power to redeem any former mortgages. ſ. 4.

Nothing in this act ſhall bar any widow of any mortgager from her dower, who did not legally join with her huſband in ſuch mortgage, or otherwiſe lawfully bar herſelf from her dower. ſ. 5.

By 7 Geo. 2. c. 20. Where any action ſhall be brought on any bond for payment of money ſecured by mortgage, or performance of the covenants therein contained, or where any ejectment ſhall be brought by any mortgagee, and no ſuit ſhall be depending in equity for foreclоſing or redeeming ſuch mortgaged lands; if the perſon having right to redeem, and who ſhall appear and become defendant, ſhall, pending ſuch action, pay unto ſuch mortgagee, or in caſe of refuſal bring into court the principal and intereſt due on ſuch mortgage, and all ſuch coſts as have been expended in any ſuits of law or equity upon ſuch mortgage (ſuch principal, intereſt, and coſts, to be aſcertained by the court where ſuch action is depending, or by the proper officer by ſuch court to be appointed) the monies paid to ſuch mortgagee, or brought into ſuch court ſhall be in ſatisfaction of ſuch mortgage, and the court ſhall diſcharge ſuch mortgager or defendant from the ſame, and ſhall by rule of court compel ſuch mortgagee, at the coſts of ſuch mortgager, to re-convey ſuch mortgaged lands, and deliver up all writings in his cuſtody relating to the title. ſ. 1.

Where any bill ſhall be filed in equity by any perſon claiming intereſt in lands under any mortgage, to compel the defendant claiming right to redeem, to pay the plaintiff the principal and intereſt due on ſuch mortgage, or the principal and intereſt together with any money due on any incumbrance chargeable on the equity of redemption thereof, and in default of payment to foreclоſe; the court of equity upon application by the defendant having right to redeeem, and upon his admitting the title of the plaintiff, ſhall at any time before ſuch cauſe ſhall be brought to hearing, make ſuch decree therein as ſuch court might have made in caſe ſuch cauſe had been regularly brought to hearing. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not extend to any caſe where the perſons againſt whom redemption ſhall be prayed, ſhall (by writing delivered, before the money ſhall be brought into court, to the attorney or ſolicitor for the other ſide) inſiſt, either that the party praying redemption has not a right to redeem, or that the premiſes are chargeable with other ſums than what appear on the face of the mortgage; nor to any caſe where the right of redemption ſhall be controverted between different defendants; nor ſhall be any prejudice to ſubſequent mortgagees or incumbrancers. ſ. 3.

By 14 Geo. 3. c. 79. All mortgages and ſecurities which, by any of his majeſty's ſubjects, already have been made and executed in Great Britain of or concerning any lands, tenements, hereditaments, ſlaves, cattle, or other things, lying in Ireland, or in any of the colonies, plantations, or dominions, or any eſtate or intereſt therein, to any of his majeſty's ſubjects, for ſecuring the repayment of money thereon really lent, with intereſt for the ſame; and all bonds, covenants, and ſecurities, for payment of the ſame, and all transfers or aſſignments which have been made in Great Britain of ſuch mortgages, ſecurities, or bonds, to any of his majeſty's ſubjects, ſhall be as valid, as if the ſame had been made in the kingdom, iſland, plantation, country, or place, where the lands, &c. ſeverally lie; and none ſhall be ſubject to any of the penalties in 12 Ann. by taking intereſt for the money advanced on ſuch mortgage, &c. at the rate of intereſt allowed by the law of the kingdom, colony, plantation, country, or place, wherein the mortgaged premiſes lie. ſ. 1.

All mortgages and ſecurities which ſhall be made and executed in Great Britain, concerning lands, &c. lying in Ireland, or in any of the ſaid colonies, &c. to any of his majeſty's ſubjects, for ſecuring the repayment of money thereon bona fide lent, with intereſt for the ſame; and all bonds, &c. for payment of the ſame, and all tranſfers or aſſignments which ſhall be made and executed in Great Britain, of ſuch mortgages, &c. to any of his majeſty's ſubjects, ſhall be as valid as if the ſame were executed in the kingdom, &c. where the lands, &c. ſeverally lie; and none of his majeſty's ſubjects in Great Britain ſhall be ſubject to any of the penalties in the ſaid act of 12 Ann. by receiving intereſt for money advanced on any ſuch mortgage, &c. ſo as the intereſt ſo received do not exceed ſix per cent. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not make good any mortgage, &c. where the lender of any money has knowingly advanced, or ſhall knowingly advance more money than the lands, &c. were or ſhall be, at the time of advancing ſuch money, bona fide worth, to be ſold. ſ. 3.

Every perſon borrowing money under this act, upon ſuch lands, &c. as aforeſaid, exceeding the value which the ſame ſhall be, at the time of borrowing ſuch money, really worth, to be ſold over all incumbrances which ſhall then affect the ſame, ſhall forfeit treble the value of the ſum borrowed; one half to the informer, the other to the treaſurer of Greenwich hoſpital, for the uſe of the hoſpital. ſ. 4.

All ſuch mortgages, &c. under this act, ſhall be regiſtered within the kingdom, iſland, colony, plantation, country, or place, where the lands, &c. ſeverally lie, within the time limited by the laws of ſuch kingdom, &c. otherwiſe the ſame ſhall be ſubject to the proviſions and penalties contained in 12 Ann. in ſuch manner as the ſame would have been if this act had never been paſſed, unleſs the mortgagee, or other perſon for whoſe behoof ſuch mortgage ſhall have been made, ſhall have, bona fide, uſed his endeavour to cauſe the ſame to be regiſtered within the time before limited. ſ. 5.

Mortmain.

Magna Charta, 9 Hen. 3. c. 36. It ſhall not be lawful to give lands to any religious houſe, and to take the ſame land again to hold of the ſame houſe. If any man ſo give his lands to any religious houſe, and be convict, the gift ſhall be void, and the land ſhall return to the lord of the fee.

By Stat. of Mortmain, 7 Edw. 1. No perſon ſhall preſume to buy or ſell lands, or by any craft or engine to appropriate lands, under pain of forfeiture of the ſame, whereby ſuch lands may come into mortmain: if any perſon offend againſt this ſtatute, it ſhall be lawful to lords of the fee to enter into the ſame within a year from the time of the alienation, and to hold it in fee; and if the chief lord immediate will not enter within the year, it ſhall be lawful for the next chief lord to enter within half a year next; and ſo every lord mediate may enter, if the next immediate lord to him be negligent: and if all the lords of ſuch fees, which be of full age, within the four ſeas, and out of priſon, be negligent, the king, after the year accompliſhed, ſhall take ſuch lands, and enfeoff others therein by ſervices for the defence of the realm; ſaving to the lords their eſcheats and ſervices.

By Stat. Weſtm. 2. 13 Edw. 1. c. 32. Whereas eccleſiaſtical perſons do implead, and the party maketh default whereby he ought to loſe the land, it is ordained, that after the default made it ſhall be enquired by the country, whether the demandant had right, and if it be found that he had, he ſhall recover ſeiſin; and if he had no right, the land ſhall incur to the lord of the fee, if he demand it within a year from the time of the inqueſt taken; and if he do not demand it, it ſhall incur to the next lord above, if he demand it within half a year; and ſo every lord after the lord immediate ſhall have half a year, until it come to the king; and to challenge the jurors of the inqueſt the lords of the fees ſhall be admitted, and likewiſe for the king; and after judgment given, the land ſhall remain in the king's hands until it be deraigned by the demandant, or ſome other chief lord, and the ſheriff ſhall anſwer therefore at the exchequer.

Stat. Quia emptores terrarum, 18 Edw. 1. ſtat. 1. c. 3. By the purchaſes permitted by this ſtatute, (ſee "Tenures",) ſuch lands ſhall in no wiſe come into mortmain.

Stat. of amortizing lands, 34 Edw. 1. ſtat. 3. Touching the grant of the king to be obtained upon inqueſts returned for lands to be put in mortmain, nothing ſhall be done where there ſhall be any lords meſne, except the religious perſons can ſhew the king their aſſent under their patents; and nothing ſhall paſs where the donor retaineth nothing to himſelf: and where inquiſitions be made without warrant, viz. without the writ original returned with the inquiſition, and except the writ make mention of every thing according to the new ordinance. See "Franchiſes," 27 Edw. 1. ſtat. 2.

By 18 Edw. 3. ſtat. 3. c. 3. If prelates or clerks beneficed, which have purchaſed lands, and the ſame have put to mortmain, be impeached before, and they ſhew a charter of licence, and proceſs thereupon made by inqueſt of ad quod dampnum, &c. they ſhall be let in peace; and in caſe they cannot ſhew that they have entered by due proceſs, they ſhall be received to make reaſonable fine.

By 15 Ric. 2. c. 5. Whereas ſome ſpiritual perſons have entered in lands adjoining to their churches, and of the ſame by ſufferance of the tenants have made churchyards, and by bulls of the biſhop of Rome, have hallowed the ſame without licence of the king and of the lords; it is declared, that it is within the ſtatute 7 Edw. 1. and no purchaſe ſhall be made, ſo as ſpiritual perſons take the profits, upon pain of forfeiture; and the ſtatute ſhall be kept of all lands, advowſons, and other poſſeſſions, to be purchaſed to the uſe of fraternities; and mayors, bailiffs, and commons of cities and towns, that have a perpetual body, and others which have offices perpetual, ſhall not purchaſe, upon the pain contained in the ſtatute.

By 23 Hen. 8. c. 10. All uſes, &c. to the uſe of pariſh churches, churches, chapels, churchwardens, guilds, companies, or brotherhoods, made of devotion, or by aſſent of the people, without any corporation, and alſo to the intents to have any continual ſervice of a prieſt for threeſcore years, or other like uſes, ſhall be void. ſ. 2.

Provided that it ſhall be lawful to every perſon being ſeiſed of lands, &c. to ordain any of the uſes above ſpecified, ſo that none ſuch uſes be made to continue above 20 years after the making. ſ. 3.

If any perſons, in fraud of this ſtatute, bind their heirs, or any other perſons, that they ſhall ſuffer ſuch uſes to continue contrary to this act, upon penalties of loſs of any other lands or things, or attempt by any other colour to make make ſuch uſes contrary to this act, to continue for any longer time than above, every ſuch penalty and thing ſhall be void; and this ſtatute ſhall be interpreted beneficially to the avoiding of ſuch uſes. ſ. 4.

Provided that in cities and towns corporate, where, by ancient cuſtoms they have authorities to deviſe into mortmain tenements within the ſame, this act ſhall not be prejudicial to ſuch cuſtom. ſ. 5.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 37. It ſhall be lawful for the king to grant to any perſon licence to alien in mortmain, and to purchaſe and hold in mortmain any lands and hereditaments. ſ. 1.

Lands ſo aliened, or acquired and licenſed, ſhall not be ſubject to forfeiture. ſ. 2.

By 9 Geo. 2. c. 36. No manors, lands, advowſons, or other hereditaments, nor any money or other perſonal eſtate, to be laid out in lands, &c. ſhall be given to any bodies politic or otherwiſe, or any ways charged in truſt, for charitable uſes, unleſs ſuch gift (other than ſtocks in the public funds) be made by deed indented, in preſence of two witneſſes, twelve calendar months before the death of ſuch donor, and be enrolled in chancery within ſix calendar months after execution; and unleſs ſuch ſtocks be transferred ſix calendar months before the death of ſuch donor; and unleſs the ſame be made to take effect in poſſeſſion immediately from the making, and be without power of revocation. ſ. 1.

Nothing herein relating to the ſealing and delivery of any deed, 12 calendar months before the death of the grantor, or to the transfer of ſtock, ſix calendar months before the death of the grantor, ſhall extend to any purchaſe for a full and valuable conſideration. ſ. 2.

All gifts of lands, &c. or of any charge affecting lands, or of any ſtock or perſonal eſtate to be laid out in lands, &c. for charitable uſes, which ſhall be made in any other manner, ſhall be void. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall not make void diſpoſitions of any lands to either of the univerſities, or the colleges or houſes within either of them, or to the colleges of Eaton, Wincheſter, or Weſtminſter, for the better ſupport of the ſcholars upon the foundation. ſ. 4.

No ſuch college or houſe which ſhall hold ſo many advowſons as are equal in number to one moiety of their fellows, or where there are no fellows, to one moiety of the ſtudents upon the foundation, ſhall be capable of purchaſing any other advowſons; the advowſons of benefices annexed to the headſhips of colleges or houſes not being computed. ſ. 5.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to Scotland. ſ. 6. (See "Union.")

Mortuaries.

By 21 Hen. 8. c. 6. No ſpiritual perſon, nor their leſſees, ſhall take for any perſon dying, any mortuary or corſe-preſent, more than is hereafter mentioned; nor ſhall call any perſon before any judge ſpiritual for the recovery of ſuch mortuaries, more than is hereafter mentioned; upon pain to forfeit ſo much in value as they ſhall take above the ſum limited, and 40 s. to the party grieved. ſ. 2.

No mortuary ſhall be taken of any perſon which at his death hath in moveable goods under the value of 10 marks; alſo no mortuary ſhall be demanded, but in ſuch place where mortuaries have been uſed to be paid; nor ſhall any perſon pay more than one mortuary; nor no parſon ſhall, for any perſon dying, being at his death of the value in moveable goods of 10 marks, or more, above his debts, and under 30 l. take for a mortuary above 3 s. 4 d. and for a perſon of the value of 30 l. or above, and under 40 l. no more than 6 s. 8 d. and for any perſon of the value of 40 l. or above, no more than 10 s. ſ. 3.

For no woman, being covert baron, nor child, nor for any perſon not keeping houſe, ſhall any mortuary be paid, or for any way-faring man, but the mortuary of ſuch way-faring perſons ſhall be anſwerable in the places where ſuch perſons had their dwelling. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful to all ſpiritual perſons to take any money, or other thing which ſhall be bequeathed unto them, or to the high altar of the church. ſ. 5.

No mortuaries ſhall be demanded in Wales or Berwick, but only in ſuch parts of Wales, &c. where mortuaries have been accuſtomed to be taken; and in thoſe places no mortuaries ſhall be demanded but after the manner above ſpecified. ſ. 6.

In places where mortuaries have been accuſtomed to be taken of leſs value than aforeſaid, no perſon ſhall be compelled to pay more for any mortuary than hath been accuſtomed. ſ. 8.

By 12 Ann. ſtat. 2. c. 6. All cuſtom of paying any mortuary or corſe-preſent, upon the death of any clergyman within the dioceſes of Bangor, Landaff, St. David's, and St. Aſaph, ſhall be aboliſhed; and no mortuary ſhall be paid to any biſhop of the ſaid dioceſes. ſ. 1.

As a recompence to the biſhop of St. Aſaph, the rectory ſine cura in his collation that firſt became vacant after 24 1714, was annexed to the biſhopric. This ſinecure was Northopp.

To the biſhop of Bangor, the rectory ſine cura in his collation that firſt became vacant after paſſing the act. This was Llanynis in Denbyghſhire.

To the biſhop of Landaff, the treaſurerſhip with the prebend thereto annexed in the cathedral church of Landaff.

To the biſhop of St. David's, the prebend of Langamarch, in the collegiate church of Brecon.

By 28 Geo. 2. c. 6. All cuſtom of paying any mortuary or corſe-preſent, upon the death of any clergyman within the archdeaconry of Cheſter, ſhall after the firſt vacancy of the rectory of Waverton, alias Wareton, in the ſaid archdeaconry, be aboliſhed: and no mortuary ſhall be paid to any biſhop of Cheſter, either as dioceſan, or archdeacon. ſ. 1.

As a recompence to the biſhop of Cheſter, who is alſo archdeacon, the rectory of Wareton is annexed to the biſhopric.

Naturalization.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſtat. 2.

THE law of the crown of England is, that the children of the king, in whatſoever parts they be born, be able to bear inheritance after the death of their anceſtors. And all children inheritors, born without the ligeance of the king, whoſe fathers and mothers at the time of their birth be at the faith and ligeance of the king, ſhall have the ſame benefits, to bear inheritance within the ligeance, as other inheritors; ſo always that the mothers of ſuch children paſs the ſea by licence of their huſbands. And if it be alledged againſt any ſuch born beyond the ſea, that he is a baſtard, in caſe where the biſhop ought to have conuſance of baſtardy, it ſhall be commanded to the biſhop of the place where the demand is, to certify.

By 7 Jac. 1. c. 2. No perſon of the age of 18 years or above ſhall be naturalized or reſtored in blood, unleſs he have received the Lord's ſupper within one month before any bill exhibited for that purpoſe, and alſo ſhall take the oath of ſupremacy and allegiance in the parliament houſe, before his bill be twice read; and the lord chancellor, if the bill begin in the upper houſe, and the ſpeaker of the commons houſe, if the bill begin there, ſhall have authority during the ſeſſion to miniſter ſuch oaths.

By 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 6. All perſons, being the king's natural-born ſubjects, may inherit as heirs, and make their titles by deſcent from any of their anceſtors, lineal or collateral, although the father and mother, or other anceſtor of ſuch perſons, through whom they derive their title, be born out of the king's allegiance.

By 7 Ann. c. 5. The children of natural-born ſubjects, born out of the ligeance of her majeſty, ſhall be deemed natural-born ſubjects. ſ. 3.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 4. The clauſe in 12 Will. 3. c. 2. (See "LIBERTIES" in page 8), whereby it is enacted, that no perſon born out of the kingdoms, though he be naturalized, except ſuch as are born of Engliſh parents, ſhould be capable to be of the privy council, &c. ſhall not extend to diſable any perſon who at or before his majeſty's acceſſion to the crown was naturalized. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall be naturalized, unleſs in the bill exhibited for that purpoſe there be a clauſe to declare, that ſuch perſon ſhall not be enabled to be of the privy council, or a member of either houſe of parliament, or enjoy any office of truſt, or have any grant from the crown; and no bill of naturalization ſhall be received without ſuch clauſe. ſ. 2.

By 4 Geo. 2. c. 21. Children born out of the allegiance of Great Britain, whoſe fathers ſhall be natural-born ſubjects, ſhall by virtue of the act 7 Ann. c. 5. and of this act, be natural-born ſubjects. ſ. 1.

Provided that nothing in 7 Ann. c. 5. or in this act, ſhall make any children, born out of the ligeance of the crown, to be natural-born ſubjects, whoſe fathers at the time of the birth of ſuch children, were or ſhall be attainted of high treaſon, either in this kingdom or in Ireland, or were liable to the penalties of high treaſon or felony, in caſe of their returning into this kingdom or Ireland, without licence of his majeſty, or were or ſhall be in the ſervice of any foreign ſtate then in enmity with the crown of Great Britain.

If any child, whoſe father, at the time of the birth of ſuch child, was attainted of high treaſon, or liable to the penalties of high treaſon or felony, in caſe of returning without licence, or was in the ſervice of any foreign ſtate in enmity with the crown (excepting all children of ſuch perſons who went out of Ireland in purſuance of the articles of Limerick) hath come into Great Britain or Ireland, or any other of the dominions of Great Britain, and hath continued to reſide within the dominions aforeſaid, for two years, at any time between the 16th of November 1708, and the 25th of March 1731, and during ſuch reſidence hath profeſſed the proteſtant religion; or hath come into Great Britain, &c. and profeſſed the proteſtant religion, and died within Great Britain, &c. at any time between the ſaid 16th of November 1708, and the 25th March 1731, or hath continued in the actual poſſeſſion or receipt of the rents of any lands in Great Britain, &c. for one year, at any time between the ſaid 16th of November 1708, and the 25th of March 1731, or hath, bona fide, ſold or ſettled any lands in Great Britain or Ireland; and any perſon claiming title thereto under ſuch ſeal or ſettlement, hath been in the actual poſſeſſion or receipt of the rents thereof for ſix months between the ſaid 16th of November 1708, and the 25th of March 1731, every ſuch child ſhall be deemed a natural-born ſubject of the crown of Great Britain. ſ. 3.

By 13 Geo. 2. c. 7. All perſons born out of the ligeance of his majeſty, who ſhall reſide ſeven years in any of his majeſty's colonies in America, and ſhall not have been abſent out of the ſaid colonies for more than two months at one time, during the ſaid ſeven years, and ſhall take and ſubſcribe the oaths and declaration appointed by 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. "OATHS," or, being Quakers, make and ſubſcribe the declaration of fidelity, and affirm the effect of the abjuration oath appointed by 8 Geo. 1. c. 6. NONCONFORMISTS, and make and ſubſcribe the profeſſion of his chriſtian belief, appointed by 1 W. & M. ſtat. 1. c. 18. NONCONFORMISTS, before the chief judge, or other judge of the colony wherein ſuch perſons reſide, ſhall be deemed his majeſty's natural-born ſubjects; which oath or affirmation and ſubſcription, ſhall be taken and made before ſuch judge in open court, between the hours of 9 and 12 in the forenoon; and ſhall be entered in the ſame court, and alſo in the ſecretary's office of the colony wherein ſuch perſon reſides: and every chief judge, or other judges of every reſpective colony, ſhall make an entry thereof in a book, for the doing whereof 2 s. and no more ſhall be paid, under the penalty of 10 l. of lawful money money of Great Britain for every neglect: in like manner every ſecretary of the colony ſhall make an entry thereof in a book kept in his office, upon notification to him by the judge, under the like penalty. ſ. 1.

No perſon, except quakers, or ſuch as profeſs the Jewiſh religion, ſhall be naturalized by this act, unleſs ſuch perſon have received the ſacrament of the Lord's ſupper in ſome proteſtant congregation in Great Britain, or ſome of the colonies in America, within three months next before his taking the oaths, &c.; and at the time of taking the oaths, &c. produce a certificate ſigned by the perſon adminiſtering the ſacrament, and atteſted by two witneſſes; whereof an entry ſhall be made in the ſecretary's office of the colony, as alſo in the court where the oaths are taken, without fee. ſ. 2.

Whenever any Jew ſhall preſent himſelf to take the oath of abjuration, in purſuance of this act, the words upon the true faith of a chriſtian ſhall be omitted. ſ. 3.

A teſtimonial under the ſeal of the colonies, of any perſons having reſided ſeven years within ſome of the ſaid colonies to be ſpecified in ſuch certificate, with the time of reſidence in each colony, (whereof the colony under the ſeal of which ſuch certificate is given to be one) and of his having taken the oaths, &c. and in caſe of a quaker, made the declaration of fidelity, and affirmed the effect of the abjuration oath, and in caſe of a Jew, taken the oath of abjuration, within the ſame colony, under the ſeal whereof ſuch certificate is given, ſhall be deemed proof thereof, and of his being a natural-born ſubject of Great Britain. ſ. 4.

Every ſecretary of the reſpective colonies ſhall at the end of every year, to be computed from the 1ſt of June 1740, tranſmit to the office of the commiſſioners for trade and plantations in London or Weſtminſter, a liſt of the names of all perſons who have entitled themſelves to the benefit of this act; under the penalty of 50 l. of lawful money of Great Britain, for every neglect: all which liſts ſo tranſmitted ſhall be entered by the ſaid commiſſioners in a book to be kept in their office for public inſpection. ſ. 5.

No perſon who ſhall become a natural-born ſubject by virtue of this act, ſhall be of the privy council, or a member of either houſe of parliament, or capable of taking any office of truſt in Great Britain or Ireland, civil or military, or any grant from the crown to himſelf, or any other in truſt for him, of any lands or hereditaments in Great Britain or Ireland. ſ. 6.

By 20 Geo. 2. c. 44. All foreign proteſtants, who conſcientiouſly ſcruple the taking of an oath, and who are born out of the ligeance of his majeſty, who have or ſhall reſide for ſeven years in any of his majeſty's colonies in America, and ſhall not have been abſent out of ſome of the ſaid colonies longer than two months at one time during the ſaid ſeven years, and ſhall make and ſubſcribe the declaration of fidelity, and affirm the effect of the abjuration oath preſcribed by 8 Geo. 1. c. 6. (NONCONFORMISTS,) and ſubſcribe the profeſſion of chriſtian belief preſcribed by 1 W. & M. c. 18. (NONCONFORMISTS) before the chief judge, or other judge of the colony wherein they reſide, ſhall be deemed natural born ſubjects of this kingdom, and the taking ſuch affirmation, and making ſuch declaration, ſhall be in ſuch manner and place, and at ſuch times, and ſuch entries made thereof, and for the ſame fees, and under the ſame penalties, as in 13 Geo. 2. c. 7.; and liſts of the perſons who ſhall take the benefit of this act, ſhall be tranſmitted to the commiſſioners of trade and plantations, in like manner, and under the ſame penalties, as liſts of the perſons taking the benefit of the ſaid act. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall be naturalized by virtue of this act, unleſs he have received the ſacrament of the Lord's ſupper, in ſome proteſtant congregation, within ſome of the colonies in America, within three months next before his making ſuch affirmation and declaration, and at the time of making ſuch affirmation, &c. produce a certificate ſigned by the perſon adminiſtering the ſacrament, and atteſted by two witneſſes; whereof an entry ſhall be made in the ſecretary's office of the colony wherein he reſides, as alſo in the court where the affirmation is taken, without fee. ſ. 2.

The proviſions contained in the 13 Geo. 2. c. 7. with regard to certificates of reſidence, and of having made the ſaid declaration and affirmation, and as to ſuch certificates being evidence in the courts of Great Britain and Ireland, and in the colonies, and all other benefits of the ſaid act, ſhall extend to foreign proteſtants who ſcruple the taking of an oath, and ſhall be qualified as aforeſaid. ſ. 3.

The ſaid foreign proteſtants ſhall enjoy the privileges of natural-born ſubjects, and all the benefits of this act, and the 13 Geo. 2. c. 7.—ſ. 4.

Provided, no perſon who ſhall become a natural-born ſubject by this act, ſhall be of the privy council, or a member of either houſe of parliament, or capable of taking or enjoying any office of truſt in Great Britain or Ireland, civil or military, or any grant from the crown to himſelf, or to any other in truſt for him, of any lands or hereditaments in Great Britain or Ireland. ſ. 5.

Nothing in this act, or 13 Geo. 2. c. 7. ſhall naturalize any perſon who by 4 Geo. 2. c. 21. is declared not entitled to the benefit of 7 Ann. c. 5. but all ſuch perſons ſhall remain in the ſame condition as they would have been in, if 13 Geo. 2. c. 7. or this act, had never been made. ſ. 6.

By 22 Geo. 2. c. 45. Every perſon born out of the ligeance of his majeſty, being a proteſtant, who ſhall ſerve three years on board any ſhip ſo fitted out as is directed by the 6 Geo. 2. c. 33.† or by this act, and employed in the whale fiſhery in the Greenland ſeas, or Davis's ſtreights, and the adjacent ſeas, and who ſhall take the oaths, and ſubſcribe the declaration appointed by 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. in any of the courts of Chancery, King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer, in term time in England, or before the lords of the council and ſeſſion, or lords juſticiary, or barons of the Exchequer in Scotland, or at ſome general quarter-ſeſſions of the peace for the county where ſuch perſon inhabits, between nine and twelve in the forenoon; the taking which oaths and declaration, ſhall be entered on record in the ſame courts, for the doing whereof, only 1 s. ſhall be paid; every ſuch perſon ſhall be deemed a natural-born ſubject of this kingdom. ſ. 8.

No perſon ſhall be naturalized by virtue of this act, unleſs he have received the ſacrament of the Lord's ſupper in ſome proteſtant or reformed congregation in his majeſty's dominions, within three months next before his taking ſuch oaths, &c. and at the time of his taking ſuch oaths, &c. produce a certificate ſigned by the perſon adminiſtering the ſacrament, and atteſted by two witneſſes, whereof an entry ſhall be made in the court where ſuch oaths are taken, without fee, and alſo produce a certificate at the ſame time, under the hands of the owner and maſter of the ſhip in which he ſerved, of his integrity and good behaviour. ſ. 9.

No perſon who ſhall become a natural-born ſubject by virtue of this act, ſhall be of the privy council, or a member of either houſe of parliament, or capable of taking any office in Great Britain or Ireland. ſ. 10.

† An act expired.

Nothing

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to naturalize any perſons who by 4 Geo. 2. c. 21. are declared not entitled to the benefit of the 7 Ann. c. 5.—ſ. 11.

If any perſon ſo naturalized by this act, ſhall go out of Great Britain or Ireland, or the plantations in America, for more than 12 months at one time, he ſhall loſe the benefit of this act. ſ. 12.

By 25 Geo. 2. c. 39. The 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 6. ſhall not extend to give any right to any perſon to inherit as heir or coheir to any perſon dying ſeiſed of any manors, lands, or hereditaments, in poſſeſſion, reverſion, or remainder, by enabling any ſuch perſon to derive his pedigree through any alien anceſtor, unleſs the perſon ſo claiming or deriving his title as heir was in being, and capable to take the ſame eſtate as heir by virtue of the ſaid ſtatute, at the death of the perſon who ſhall ſo laſt die ſeiſed, and to whom he ſhall ſo claim to be heir by the ſaid ſtatute. ſ. 1.

Provided, that in caſe the perſon who ſhall be in being, and capable to take at the death of the anceſtor ſo dying ſeiſed, and upon whom the deſcent ſhall be caſt by virtue of this, or of the ſaid act, ſhall be daughter of an alien; and the alien father or mother, through whom ſuch deſcent ſhall be derived, ſhall afterwards have a ſon born within any of his majeſty's dominions, the deſcent ſo caſt upon ſuch daughter ſhall be diveſted in favour of ſuch ſon; and ſuch ſon ſhall inherit and take the eſtate as is allowed by the common law of this realm, in caſes of the birth of a nearer heir; or in caſe ſuch father or mother ſhall have no ſon, but ſhall have one or more daughters afterwards born within any of his majeſty's dominions, the daughters ſo born afterwards ſhall inherit and take in coparcenary with the daughter, upon whom the deſcent ſhall be caſt at the death of the anceſtor laſt ſeiſed. ſ. 2.

By 2 Geo. 3. c. 25. All foreign proteſtants, as well officers as ſoldiers, who have ſerved, or ſhall hereafter ſerve, in the royal American regiment, or as engineers in America, for two years, and ſhall take and ſubſcribe the oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the declaration appointed by 1 Geo. 1. and ſhall at the time produce certificates of their having received the ſacrament within Great Britain, or within ſome of the colonies in America, within ſix months before, ſhall be deemed to be his majeſty's natural-born ſubjects of this kingdom; and no eſtate purchaſed by them in any of his majeſty's colonies in America, ſince 29 Geo. 2. c. 5. ſhall be liable to ſeizure into the hands of his majeſty, or their titles thereto be impeached by reaſon of their having been aliens at the time of purchaſe.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to naturalize any perſon, who, by virtue of an act made in the fourth year of the reign of his late majeſty king George the firſt †, are declared not to be entitled to the benefit of 7 Ann.; but all ſuch perſons ſhall remain in the ſame ſtate as if this act had never been made.

No perſon who ſhall become a natural-born ſubject by this act, ſhall be enabled to be of the privy council, or a member of either houſe of parliament, or be capable of enjoying any office or place of truſt within Great Britain or Ireland, either civil or military; or of taking any grant from the crown of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, within the kingdoms aforeſaid.

By 13 Geo. 3. c. 21. All perſons born out of the ligeance of the crown of England, or of Great Britain, whoſe fathers were, by 4 Geo. 2. entitled to all rights and privileges of natural-born ſubjects of England, or of Great Britain, ſhall be natural-born ſubjects of Great Britain, as if born in this kingdom. ſ. 1.

Nothing in this act ſhall make any perſons born out of the ligeance of the crown of England, or of Great Britain, to be natural-born ſubjects, contrary to 4 Geo. 2. or to repeal, abridge, or alter the ſame. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall repeal, abridge, or alter, 5 Geo. 1. nor repeal, abridge, or alter, any law, ſtatute, cuſtom, or uſage, concerning aliens, duties, cuſtoms, and impoſitions, nor to cauſe any privilege, exemption, or abatement relating thereto, in favour of any perſon naturalized by this act, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall come into this realm, and there reſide, and ſhall take and ſubſcribe the oaths, and make, repeat, and ſubſcribe the declaration appointed by 1 Geo. 3. and alſo receive the ſacrament according to the church of England, or in ſome proteſtant or reformed congregation within Great Britain, within three months before their taking the oaths in the ſaid act mentioned; and ſhall, at the time of taking the ſaid oaths, &c. produce a certificate ſigned by the perſon adminiſtering the ſacrament, atteſted by two witneſſes, whereof an entry ſhall be made of record in the court wherein ſuch oaths ſhall have been taken, without fee. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall be enabled hereby to defeat any eſtate, right, or intereſt, on the laſt day of this ſeſſion veſted in any other perſon, or to demand any eſtate or intereſt, which ſhall hereafter accrue, unleſs ſuch demand be made within five years next after the ſame ſhall accrue. ſ. 4.

By 13 Geo. 3. c. 25. Every perſon that ſhall become natural-born ſubjects by 13 Geo. 2. and 2 Geo. 3. ſhall be capable of taking and holding any office of truſt, either civil or military, and of taking any grant of lands, &c. from the crown, as well under the great ſeal as otherwiſe (except offices and grants within Great Britain and Ireland).

By 14 Geo. 3. c. 84. No perſon ſhall be naturalized, unleſs in the bill there be a clauſe to declare that ſuch perſon ſhall not thereby obtain, within any foreign country, any of the immunities or indulgences in trade which are enjoyed by natural-born Britiſh ſubjects, by treaty, or otherwiſe, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall have reſided within Great Britain, or the dominions thereunto belonging, for ſeven years ſubſequent to the firſt day of the ſeſſion of parliament in which the bill of naturalization ſhall have paſſed, and ſhall not have been abſent out of the ſame longer than two months at one time, during the ſaid ſeven years; and no bill of naturalization ſhall be received, in either houſe of parliament, unleſs ſuch clauſe be firſt inſerted therein.

By 20 Geo. 3. c. 20. It is declared, that 13 Geo. 2. ſhall be deemed to have continued; and any foreign mariner or ſeaman, who, during the laſt war, or the preſent hoſtilities, ſince the 25th March 1777, ſhall have ſerved on board any of his majeſty's ſhips of war, or any merchant or other trading ſhip, or privateer (which at the time of ſuch ſervice belonged to any of his majeſty's ſubjects), for two years, ſhall be deemed a natural-born ſubject, and ſhall have all the privileges which by the ſaid acts are given to foreign ſeamen who ſerved on board any Britiſh ſhip for the like time during the then war.

By 2 Ric. 2. ſt. 1. c. 5. Of counterfeits of falſe news of prelates, dukes, earls, barons, and other nobles and great men of the realm, and alſo of the chancellor, treaſurer, clerk of the privy ſeal, ſteward of the king's houſe, juſtices of the one bench or of the other, and other great officers of the realm; it is defended, that none contrive or tell any falſe things of prelates, lords, and of other aforeſaid, whereof diſcord or ſlander might riſe within the realm; and he that doth the ſame ſhall be impriſoned till he hath brought him forth that did ſpeak the ſame.

By 12 Ric. 2. c. 11. When any ſuch mentioned in the ſtatute Weſtm. 1. c. 34. and 2 Ric. 2. c. 5. is taken and impriſoned, and cannot bring him forth that did ſpeak the ſame, he ſhall be puniſhed by the advice of the council.

Niſi prius.

By 27 Edw. 1. ſt. 1. c. 4. Inqueſts and recognizances determinable before juſtices of either bench, ſhall be taken in time of vacation before any of the juſtices before whom the plea is brought, being aſſociate with one knight of the ſame ſhire, unleſs it be an inqueſt that requireth great examination. And in taking ſuch inqueſts the juſtices ſhall do as to them ſhall ſeem expedient, notwithſtanding the ſtatute 13 Edw. 1. c. 30. See "JUSTICES OF ASSISE."

Stat. of York, 12 Edw. 2. ſt. 1. c. 3. Inqueſts and juries in pleas of land, that require not great examination, ſhall be taken in the country before a juſtice of the place where the plea is, accompanied with a ſubſtantial man of the country, knight, or other, ſo that a certain day be given in the bench, and a certain day and place in the country, in the preſence of the parties, if the demandant require it. And inqueſts and juries in pleas of land, that require great examination, ſhall be taken in the country before two juſtices of the bench.

Stat. of York, 12 Edw. 2. c. 4. The juſtices of niſi prius ſhall have power to record nonſuits and defaults in the country, but this ſtatute extendeth not to great aſſiſes. And one juſtice being aſſociate with a diſcreet man of the country, at the requeſt of the plaintiff, ſhall take inqueſts, and have power to record nonſuits, and take inqueſts upon defaults. And as to inqueſts upon writs of quare impedit [See Weſtm. 2. 13 Edw. 1. c. 30. tit. Juſtices of aſſiſe] the juſtices ſhall have power to record nonſuits and defaults, and to give judgment thereupon as in the bench, and there to report what they have done, to be inrolled. And if the juſtices aſſigned to take ſuch inqueſts do not come, the parties and thoſe of the inqueſts ſhall keep their day in the bench.

By 2 Edw. 3. c. 16. All ſuch inqueſts in plea of land ſhall be taken as well at the requeſt of the tenant as of the demandant.

By 14 Edw. 3. c. 16. Whoſoever demandeth the niſi prius in the king's bench, as well at the ſuit of the defendant as the plaintiff, the niſi prius ſhall be granted, before any juſtice of the place where the plea dependeth, if any of the ſame place may well go into thoſe parts; and if not, then before any juſtice of the common bench, at a certain day, and the tenor of the record ſhall be ſent to him under the ſeal of the chief juſtice; at which day he ſhall take the inqueſt, and return the verdict under his ſeal with the writ, the tenor, and the panel, which ſhall be received in the king's bench and inrolled, and judgment given. And in the ſame manner in the common bench, if none of the juſtices of the ſame place go, the niſi prius ſhall be granted before any juſtice of the king's bench. And if none of the juſtices of the one bench nor the other may come in the country, the niſi prius ſhall be granted before the chief baron of the exchequer, if he be a man of the law. And in caſe none of the juſtices, nor the chief baron come, the niſi prius ſhall be granted before the juſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes in thoſe parts; ſo always that one of the ſaid juſtices aſſigned be juſtice of the one bench or the other, or the king's ſerjeant ſworn. And if the party demand the tenor of the record to have with him to deliver to the juſtices, another tenor ſhall be delivered to the other party, if he the ſame require. And the juſtices of niſi prius in pleas of aſſiſes of darrein preſentment and quare impedit ſhall have power to give judgments in the country, according to the ſtatute of York, 12 Edw. 2. ſt. 1. c. 4.

By 7 Ric. 2. c. 7. In all pleas where a niſi prius is grantable of office, after the great diſtreſs returned and three times ſerved againſt the jurors, and the parties demanded, if none of the parties will purſue, or if the parties refuſe, to have a writ of niſi prius, then at the ſuit of any of the jurors preſent a writ of niſi prius ſhall be granted, and that as well in the exchequer as elſewhere.

By 14 Hen. 6. c. 1. The juſtices of niſi prius ſhall have power in caſes of felony and treaſon to give judgment, as well where a man is acquit as where he is attainted, at the day and place where the inqueſts be taken, and to award execution.

By 18 Eliz. c. 12. The chief juſtice of England, upon iſſues joined in the king's bench or in chancery, the chief juſtice of the common pleas, upon iſſues joined in the common pleas, and the chief baron of the exchequer, upon iſſues joined in the exchequer, or in their abſence two other judges or barons, may in Weſtminſter-hall, or where the court of exchequer is kept, as juſtices of niſi prius for the county of Middleſex, within the term, or within four days after the end of term, try all iſſues joined in the ſaid courts, which ought to be tried by an inqueſt of the county of Middleſex; and it ſhall be lawful, upon warning given to the adverſe party as accuſtomed, to ſue forth writs and records of niſi prius in Middleſex as in any other county, as is uſed for trial in the city of London or any other county.

By 12 Geo. 1. c. 31. It ſhall be lawful for the chief juſtice of the king's bench, the chief juſtice of the common pleas, and the chief baron of the exchequer, and in their abſence, for any other judge or baron of the ſaid courts, as juſtices of niſi prius for the county of Middleſex, within the term, or within eight days after term, to try all ſuch iſſues as by the act of 18 Eliz. c. 12. they are enabled to try. ſ. 1.

All ſheriffs, parties, witneſſes, jurors, &c. ſhall be obliged to give their attendance, &c. ſ. 2.

By 24 Geo. 2. c. 18. It ſhall be lawful for the chief juſtice of the king's bench, the chief juſtice of the common pleas, and the chief baron of the exchequer, and in the abſence of any of them, for any other judge or baron of the ſaid courts, as juſtices of niſi prius for the county of Middleſex, at any time within 14 days after the end of any term, to try all ſuch iſſues as by the 18 Eliz. c. 12. & 12 Geo. 1. c. 31. they are enabled to try. ſ. 5.

Nonconformiſts.

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 1. If any perſons who maintain that the taking of an oath (although before a magiſtrate) is unlawful and contrary to the word of God, ſhall wilfully and obſtinately refuſe to take an oath, where by law he ſhall be bound to take the ſame, being duly tendered, or ſhall endeavour to perſuade any other perſon, to whom ſuch oath ſhall be duly tendered, to refuſe the taking the ſame, or ſhall, by printing, writing, or otherwiſe, go about to maintain that the taking of an oath in any caſe is altogether unlawful; and if the perſons called quakers ſhall depart from their habitations, and aſſemble to the number of five, of the age of 16 years, under pretence of joining in a religious worſhip not authoriſed by the laws of this realm; the party offending, being convict by verdict or confeſſion, or by the notorious evidence of the fact, ſhall forfeit to the king for the firſt offence ſuch ſum as ſhall be impoſed, not exceeding 5 l.; and if any perſon being once convicted ſhall again offend therein and be convicted, he ſhall for the ſecond offence forfeit to the king ſuch ſum as ſhall be impoſed, not exceeding 10 l.; the ſaid penalties to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods by warrant of the parties before whom they ſhall be ſo convicted; and for want of diſtreſs or non-payment of the penalty within one week after conviction, the parties convicted ſhall for the firſt offence be committed to the common gaol or houſe of correction for three months; and for the ſecond offence, during ſix months, to be kept at hard labour; which monies to be levied ſhall be paid to ſuch perſons as ſhall be appointed by thoſe before whom they ſhall be convicted, to be employed for the increaſe of the ſtock of the houſe of correction. And if any perſon, after he hath been twice convict, ſhall offend the third time, and be thereof in form aforeſaid convict, he ſhall for his third offence abjure the realm, or it ſhall be lawful for his majeſty to cauſe him to be tranſported to his majeſty's plantations. ſ. 2.

Every juſtice of oyer and terminer, juſtices of aſſiſe and gaol delivery, and the juſtices of peace, ſhall have power in their ſeſſions to enquire, hear, and determine, all the ſaid offences, and to make proceſs as againſt any perſon indicted of treſpaſs. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for any juſtice of peace, mayor, or other chief officer of any corporation, to commit to the common gaol, or bind over to the quarter ſeſſions, any perſons offending in the premiſes. ſ. 4.

If any of the ſaid perſons ſhall, after conviction, take ſuch oath for which he ſtands committed, and give ſecurity to forbear to meet in any unlawful aſſembly, ſuch perſon ſhall be diſcharged from the penalties. ſ. 5.

Lords of parliament for every third offence againſt the tenor of this act ſhall be tried by their peers. ſ. 6.

By 17 Car. 2. c. 2. It ſhall not be lawful for any perſon as ſhall not frequent divine ſervice eſtabliſhed by law, and carrying himſelf reverently there, to teach ſchool, or take boarders that are taught by him or any other, upon pain to forfeit 40 l. one third to his majeſty, another to the poor of the pariſh, and the other to ſuch as will ſue for the ſame. ſ. 4.

By 22 Car. 2. c. 1. If any perſon of the age of 16 years or upwards, being a ſubject of this realm, ſhall be preſent at any meeting, under pretence of any exerciſe of religion in other manner than according to the liturgy and practice of the church of England, at which there ſhall be five perſons aſſembled beſides thoſe of the houſehold; any juſtice of peace, or the chief magiſtrate of the place, are required upon proof made of ſuch offence, either by confeſſion of the party, or oath of two witneſſes, or by notorious evidence, to make a record of ſuch offence under their hands and ſeals, which record ſhall be a conviction of every ſuch offender; and thereupon the juſtices, &c. ſhall impoſe a fine of 5 s. for ſuch offence, which record ſhall be certified at the next quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 1.

If ſuch offender ſhall again commit the like offence, and be convicted, ſuch offender ſhall incur the penalty of 10 s. which fines ſhall be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; or in caſe of the poverty of ſuch offender, upon the goods of any other perſons then convicted of the like offence at the ſame conventicle, at the diſcretion of the juſtice, &c. ſo as the ſum to be levied on any one perſon amount not to above 10 l. the monies to be delivered to the juſtice, &c. to be diſtributed; one third to the uſe of the king, which the juſtice ſhall pay into the court of quarter ſeſſions, which court ſhall deliver the ſame to the ſheriff, and the other to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh, and the other to the informers, as the juſtice ſhall appoint. ſ. 2.

Every perſon who ſhall preach in any ſuch meeting, and ſhall be convicted, ſhall forfeit for the firſt offence 20 l. and if his name be not known, or he be thought unable to pay, the juſtices, &c. are to levy the ſame upon the goods of any perſon preſent at the ſame conventicle; and if ſuch offender ſhall again commit the like offence, he ſhall incur the penalty of 40 l. ſ. 3.

Every perſon who ſhall willingly ſuffer ſuch conventicle to be held in his houſe or backſide ſhall forfeit 20 l. as aforeſaid. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall be liable to pay above 10 l. for any one meeting, in regard of the poverty of other perſons. ſ. 5.

Where the penalty charged upon any offender exceeds 10 s. it ſhall be lawful for him within one week after the penalty paid or levied, to appeal in writing to the quarter ſeſſions, to whom the juſtices, &c. ſhall return the money, and certify the evidence; whereupon ſuch offender may plead, and have his trial by a jury; and the juſtices ſhall give treble coſts againſt ſuch offender for his unjuſt appeal, and no other court ſhall intermeddle. ſ. 6.

Upon delivery of ſuch appeal, the appellant ſhall enter before the perſon convicting into a recognizance, to proſecute the appeal with effect; which recognizance the perſon convicting, is required to certify to the quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 7.

Such appeal ſhall be left with the perſon convicting, at the time of the making thereof. ſ. 8.

The juſtices of peace, or the conſtables and tythingmen, by warrant, may, after refuſal to enter, break open any houſe where they ſhall be informed ſuch conventicle ſhall be held, and take into their cuſtody the perſons there aſſembled; and the lieutenants, or any commiſſion officer of the militia, or other his majeſty's forces, and alſo the ſheriffs and other magiſtrates, on certificate of any juſtice of peace, may diſſipate or prevent all ſuch meetings, and take into their cuſtody ſuch of the perſons aſſembled as they ſhall think fit. ſ. 9.

Provided that no dwelling houſe of any peer, where he or his wife ſhall be reſident, ſhall be ſearched but by warrant from his majeſty, under his ſign manual, or in the preſence of the lieutenant, or one deputy lieutenant, or two juſtices of peace, and one of the quorum. ſ. 10.

If any conſtable, tythingman, churchwarden, or overſeer of the poor, ſhall know, or be informed of, any ſuch meetings held within his precinct, and ſhall not give information to ſome juſtice of peace, and endeavour the conviction of the parties, he ſhall forfeit 5 l. as aforeſaid; and if any juſtice of peace ſhall wilfully omit the performance of his duty in execution of this act, he ſhall forfeit 100 l., one moiety to the informer, to be recovered by action. ſ. 11.

Any

Any perſon ſued for putting in execution any of the powers in this act, otherwiſe than upon appeal, may plead the general iſſue; and if the plaintiff be nonſuit, &c. ſhall have treble coſts. ſ. 12.

This act ſhall be conſtrued beneficially for the ſuppreſſing of conventicles; and no record or warrant made by virtue of this act, or any proceedings thereupon, ſhall be reverſed by reaſon of any default in form; and in caſe any perſon offending, ſhall fly into any other county, the juſtice before whom he ſhall be convicted, ſhall certify the ſame to any juſtice of ſuch other county, which juſtice is required to levy the penalties. ſ. 13.

No perſon ſhall be puniſhed for any offence againſt this act, unleſs he be proſecuted within three months; and no perſon puniſhed by virtue of this act, ſhall be puniſhed for the ſame offence by any other law. ſ. 14.

Every alderman of London ſhall have the ſame power within London, which any juſtice of peace hath by this act in any county. ſ. 15.

If the perſon convicted be a feme covert cohabiting with her huſband, the penalties of 5 s. and 10 s. ſhall be levied upon the goods of the huſband. ſ. 16.

No peer ſhall be impriſoned by virtue of this act. ſ. 17.

This act ſhall not invalidate his majeſty's ſupremacy in eccleſiaſtical affairs. ſ. 18.

RECUSANTS; and except 30 Car. 2. ſtat 2. PAPISTS; ſhall extend to any perſons diſſenting from the church of England, that ſhall take oaths of allegiance and ſupremacy, and ſhall make and ſubſcribe the declaration mentioned in 30 Car. 2. ſtat. 2. which the juſtices of peace at the general ſeſſions where ſuch perſon ſhall live are required to adminiſter to ſuch as ſhall offer to take and ſubſcribe the ſame, and thereof to keep a regiſter; and none of the perſons aforeſaid ſhall pay to any officer belonging to the court above 6 d. nor that more than once, for their entry of his taking the oaths, and making and ſubſcribing the declaration; nor above the further ſum of 6 d. for any certificate of the ſame. ſ. 2.

Perſons that ſhall take the ſaid oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the declaration, ſhall not be liable to any penalties in 35 Eliz. c. 1. RECUSANTS; nor in 22 Car. 2. c. 1.; nor ſhall be proſecuted in any eccleſiaſtical court for their nonconforming to the church. ſ. 4.

If any aſſembly of perſons diſſenting from the church ſhall be had in any place for religious worſhip with the doors locked, barred, or bolted, during any time of ſuch meeting, all perſons at ſuch meeting ſhall be liable to the penalties of all the ſaid laws. ſ. 5.

Nothing herein contained ſhall exempt any perſons from paying tythes or other parochial duties, or any other duties to the church or miniſter. ſ. 6.

If any perſon diſſenting from the church of England, ſhall be appointed to bear the office of high conſtable, petty conſtable, church warden, overſeer of the poor, or any other parochial or ward office, and ſuch perſon ſhall ſcruple to take upon him the ſaid offices in regard of the oaths, or any other thing, ſuch perſon may execute ſuch office by a deputy that ſhall comply with the laws, provided the deputy be approved as ſuch officer ſhould have been. ſ. 7.

No perſon diſſenting from the church of England, in holy orders, or pretended holy orders, nor any preacher or teacher of any congregation of diſſenting proteſtants, that ſhall make and ſubſcribe the declaration, and take the ſaid oaths, at the quarter ſeſſions for the county, &c. where ſuch perſon lives, and ſhall alſo declare his approbation of and ſubſcribe the articles of religion mentioned in 13 Eliz. c. 12. SERVICE AND SACRAMENTS, except the 34th, 35th, and 36th, and theſe words of the 20th article, viz. [The church hath power to decree rites or ceremonies, and controverſies of faith; and yet) ſhall be liable to the penalties in 17 Car. 2. c. 2. nor the penalties in 22 Car. 2. c. 1. for preaching at any meeting for the exerciſe of religion; nor to the penalty of 100 l. mentioned in 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 4. SERVICE AND SACRAMENTS, for officiating in any congregation for the exerciſe of religion allowed by this act. ſ. 8.

Provided that the making and ſubſcribing the ſaid declaration, and the taking of the oaths, and making the declaration of approbation and ſubſcription to the ſaid articles, be entered of record, for which 6 d. ſhall be paid to the clerk of the peace, provided that ſuch perſon ſhall not preach in any place but with the doors not locked, &c. ſ. 9.

Every perſon in pretended holy orders, or preacher, that ſhall ſubſcribe the articles, except before excepted, and alſo except part of the 27th article touching infant baptiſm, and ſhall take the oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the declaration, ſhall enjoy all the benefits which any other diſſenting miniſter might enjoy by this act. ſ. 10.

Every miniſter of a congregation, that ſhall take the oaths herein required, and make and ſubſcribe the declaration, and ſubſcribe ſuch of the articles as are required by this act, ſhall be exempted from ſerving on any jury, or from being choſen to the office of churchwarden, overſeer of the poor, or any other parochial or ward office, or other office in any hundred, city, town, &c. ſ. 11.

Every juſtice of peace may require any perſon that goes to any meeting for exerciſe of religion, to make and ſubſcribe the declaration, and to take the ſaid oaths, or declaration of fidelity herein-after mentioned, in caſe ſuch perſon ſcruples the taking of an oath; and upon refuſal, ſuch juſtice is required to commit ſuch perſon to priſon, and to certify his name to the next quarter ſeſſions; and if ſuch perſon ſhall, upon a ſecond tender at the quarter ſeſſions, refuſe to make and ſubſcribe the declaration, ſuch perſon refuſing ſhall be recorded, and he ſhall be taken for a popiſh recuſant convict, and incur all the penalties of the ſaid laws. ſ. 12.

Diſſenters who ſcruple the taking any oath ſhall make and ſubſcribe the declaration of fidelity, which ſee afterwards in 8 Geo. 1. c. 6. and ſhall ſubſcribe a profeſſion of their chriſtian belief in theſe words:

I A. B. profeſs faith in God the Father, and in Jeſus Chriſt his eternal Son, the true God, and in the Holy Spirit, one God, bleſſed for evermore; and do acknowledge the holy ſcriptures of the Old and New Teſtament to be given by divine inſpiration.

Which declaration and ſubſcription ſhall be made and entered upon record at the quarter ſeſſions; and every ſuch perſon that ſhall make and ſubſcribe the two declarations and profeſſion, being thereunto required, ſhall be exempted from the penalties of all the ſaid ſtatutes againſt popiſh recuſants, or proteſtant nonconformiſts, and alſo from the penalties of an act 5 Eliz. c. 1. ROME, for refuſing to take the oath mentioned in the act, and alſo from the penalties of 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 1. and enjoy all other the benefits which any other diſſenters ſhall enjoy by this act. ſ. 13.

In caſe any perſon ſhall refuſe to take the ſaid oaths when tendered, which every juſtice of peace is empowered to do, ſuch perſon ſhall not be admitted to take and ſubſcribe the two declarations, unleſs he can, within 31 days after ſuch tender of the declarations, produce two proteſtant witneſſes, to teſtify upon oath that they believe him to be a proteſtant diſſenter, or a certificate under the hands of four proteſtants who are conformable to the church of England, or have taken the oaths and ſubſcribed the declaration, and ſhall alſo produce a certificate under the hands and ſeals of ſix men of the congregation to which he belongs, owning him for one of them. ſ. 14.

Until ſuch certificate be produced, &c. the juſtice of peace ſhall take a recognizance with two ſureties in the ſum of 50 l. for his producing the ſame; and if he cannot give ſuch ſecurity, commit him to priſon until he has produced ſuch certificates, &c. ſ. 15.

All the laws for the frequenting of divine ſervice on the Lord's day, ſhall be executed againſt all perſons that offend againſt the ſaid laws, except they come to ſome congregation of religious worſhip allowed by this act. ſ. 16.

This act ſhall not give any advantage to any papiſt or popiſh recuſant, or any perſon that ſhall deny in his preaching or writing the doctrine of the bleſſed Trinity, as it is declared in the articles of religion. ſ. 17.

If any perſon ſhall willingly and of purpoſe, maliciouſly or contemptuouſly, come into any cathedral or pariſh church, chapel, or other congregation permitted by this act, and diſquiet or diſturb the ſame, or miſuſe any preacher, ſuch perſon, upon proof thereof before any juſtice of peace, by two witneſſes, ſhall find two ſureties in the ſum of 50 l. and in default of ſuch ſureties ſhall be committed to priſon till the next quarter ſeſſions; and upon conviction of the offence at the quarter ſeſſions, ſhall ſuffer the penalty of 20 l. to the uſe of the king. ſ. 18.

Provided that no congregation for religious worſhip ſhall be allowed by this act, until the place of ſuch meeting be certified to the biſhop of the dioceſe, or to the archdeacon, or to the quarter ſeſſions of the peace, and regiſtered in the biſhop's or archdeacon's court, or recorded at the quarter ſeſſions; and the regiſter or clerk of the peace is to give certificate thereof to ſuch as ſhall demand the ſame, for which there ſhall be taken 6 d. ſ. 19.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 34. made perpetual by 1 Geo. 1. c. 6. Every quaker who ſhall be required upon any lawful occaſion to take an oath, ſhall, inſtead of the uſual form, be permitted to make his ſolemn affirmation. See 8 Geo. 1. c. 6. ſ. 3.

If any quaker, making ſuch affirmation, ſhall be convicted wilfully, falſely, and corruptly, to have affirmed any matter, which if the ſame had been in the uſual form, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt perjury, ſuch quaker ſhall incur the penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury. ſ. 3.

Where any quaker ſhall refuſe to pay or compound for tythes, or to pay any church rates, it ſhall be lawful for the two next juſtices of peace (other than the patron of the church, or intereſted in the tythes) upon the complaint of any parſon, farmer, or proprietor of tythes, or churchwardens who ought to receive the ſame, by warrant to convene before them ſuch quaker, and to examine upon oath the juſtice of the complaint, and to aſcertain what is payable by ſuch quaker, and by order to appoint payment, ſo as the ſum ordered do not exceed 10 l. and upon refuſal to pay, it ſhall be lawful for one of the juſtices by warrant to levy the money by diſtreſs and ſale of goods of ſuch offender, his executors or adminiſtrators, neceſſary charges of diſtraining being allowed by the juſtice. And any perſon aggrieved may appeal to the next quarter ſeſſions: and if the juſtices find cauſe to continue the judgment given by the two juſtices, they ſhall give coſts againſt the appellant; and no proceedings by virtue of this act ſhall be removed by certiorari or other writ, unleſs the title of ſuch tythes be in queſtion. ſ. 4.

No warrant of diſtreſs ſhall be granted until after ſuch plea be determined. ſ. 5.

Provided that no quaker ſhall be by this act permitted to give evidence in any criminal cauſes, or ſerve on any juries, or bear any office of profit in the government. ſ. 6.

By 10 Ann. c. 2. The toleration granted to proteſtant diſſenters by 1 Will. & Mar. ſtat. 1. c. 18. is confirmed, and ſhall be inviolably obſerved. ſ. 7.

If any perſon diſſenting from the church of England (not pretending to holy orders, nor preacher of any congregation), who ſhould have been entitled to the benefit of the ſaid act if any ſuch perſon had duly qualified himſelf, ſhall be proſecuted upon any of the penal ſtatutes, and ſhall, during ſuch proſecution, take, make, and ſubſcribe, the oaths and declaration, or being of the quakers, ſhall make and ſubſcribe the declarations, and ſubſcribe the profeſſion of their chriſtian belief, according to the act, or before any two juſtices of peace (who are required to take and return the ſame to the next quarter ſeſſions to be recorded), ſuch perſon ſhall be entitled to the benefit of the ſaid act, and ſhall be diſcharged from the penalties. ſ. 8.

Any preacher qualified according to the ſaid act, ſhall be allowed to officiate in any congregation, although the ſame be not in the county wherein he was qualified; and ſuch preacher ſhall, if required, produce a certificate of his having ſo qualified himſelf, under the hand of the clerk of the peace; and ſhall alſo, before any juſtice of peace of ſuch county where he ſhall officiate, make and ſubſcribe ſuch declaration, and take ſuch oaths as are mentioned in the act, if required. ſ. 9.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 6. The remedy provided by the act 7 Will. 3. c. 34. for the recovery of tythes and church rates, may be uſed againſt any quaker, for the recovering of any tythes or rates, or any cuſtomary or other rights, &c. belonging to any church or chapel, which ought to be paid for the maintenance of any miniſter, &c.; and any two juſtices of peace, other than the patron of ſuch church, or intereſted in the tythes, on complaint of any parſon, &c. are to ſummon, by reaſonable warning, ſuch quaker, and after his appearance, or in default thereof, the ſaid ſummons being proved upon oath, to proceed to hear and determine the complaint; and alſo to order ſuch coſts as they ſhall think reaſonable, not exceeding 10 s. which order, on appeal to the quarter ſeſſions, may be reverſed or affirmed, and ſhall not be removed into any other court, unleſs the title of ſuch tythes, &c. be in queſtion. ſ. 2.

So much of this act as relates to the affirmation to be made by quakers, ſhall be extended to Scotland. ſ. 4. The affirmation is altered by 8 Geo. 1. c. 6.

By 5 Geo. 1. c. 4. If any mayor, bailiff, or other magiſtrate, ſhall knowingly or wilfully be preſent at any meeting for religious worſhip, other than the church of England, as by law eſtabliſhed, in the gown or other peculiar habit of, of, or attended with the enſigns belonging to ſuch his office, every ſuch mayor, &c. being thereof convicted, ſhall be diſabled to hold ſuch office, and be adjudged incapable to bear any public office. ſ. 2.

By 8 Geo. 1. c. 6. In all caſes where any quaker is required or permitted to make and ſubſcribe the declaration of fidelity by 1 Will. & Mar. c. 18. or make the ſolemn affirmation preſcribed by 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 34. or to take the effect of the abjuration oath preſcribed in 1 Geo. 1. c. 6. ſuch quaker ſhall make and ſubſcribe a declaration of fidelity in the following words, viz.

I A. B. do ſolemnly and ſincerely promiſe and declare, that I will be true and faithful to king George; and do ſolemnly, ſincerely, and truly profeſs, teſtify, and declare, that I do from my heart abhor, deteſt, and renounce, as impious and heretical, that wicked doctrine and poſition, that princes excommunicated or deprived by the pope, or any authority of the ſee of Rome, may be depoſed or murdered by their ſubjects, or any other whatſoever. And I do declare, that no foreign prince, perſon, or prelate, ſtate, or potentate, hath, or ought to have, any power, juriſdiction, ſuperiority, preheminence or authority, eccleſiaſtical or ſpiritual, within this realm.

And inſtead of the ſolemn affirmation preſcribed by 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 34. ſuch quaker ſhall make the ſolemn affirmation following, viz.

I A. B. do ſolemnly, ſincerely, and truly declare and affirm.

And inſtead of the form preſcribed by 1 Geo. 1. c. 6. for the effect of the abjuration oath, ſuch quaker ſhall take the effect thereof in the following words, viz.

I A. B. do ſolemnly, ſincerely, and truly, acknowledge, profeſs, teſtify, and declare, that king George is lawful and rightful king of this realm, and of all other his dominions and countries thereunto belonging. And I do ſolemnly and ſincerely declare, that I do believe the perſon pretended to be the prince of Wales, during the life of the late king James, and ſince his deceaſe, pretending to be, and taking upon himſelf the ſtile and title of, king of England, by the name of James the third, or of Scotland, by the name of James the eighth, or the ſtile and title of king of Great Britain, hath not any right or title whatſoever to the crown of this realm, nor any other the dominions thereunto belonging; and I do renounce and refuſe any allegiance or obedience to him. And I do ſolemnly promiſe, that I will be true and faithful, and bear true allegiance to king George, and to him will be faithful againſt all traiterous conſpiracies and attempts whatſoever, which ſhall be made againſt his perſon, crown, or dignity. And I will do my beſt endeavour to diſcloſe and make known to king George, and his ſucceſſors, all treaſons and traiterous conſpiracies, which I ſhall know to be made againſt him, or any of them. And I will be true and faithful to the ſucceſſion of the crown againſt the ſaid James, and all other perſons whatſoever, as the ſame is and ſtands ſettled by an act entitled, An act declaring the rights and liberties of the ſubject, and ſettling the ſucceſſion of the crown, to the late queen Anne and the heirs of her body being proteſtants; and as the ſame by one other act entitled, An act for the limitation of the crown, and better ſecuring the rights and liberties of the ſubject, is, and ſtands ſettled and entailed, after the deceaſe of the ſaid late queen, and for default of iſſue of the ſaid late queen, to the late princeſs Sophia, electreſs and ducheſs dowager of Hanover, and the heirs of her body, being proteſtants. And all theſe things I do plainly and ſincerely acknowledge, promiſe and declare, according to theſe expreſs words by me ſpoken, and according to the plain and common ſenſe and underſtanding of the ſame words, without any equivocation, mental reſervation, or ſecret reſervation whatſoever. And I do make this recognition, acknowledgment, renunciation, and promiſe, heartily, willingly, and truly.

If any perſon making ſuch affirmation, ſhall be convicted of wilful, falſe, and corrupt affirming any matter, which, if ſworn in the common form, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt perjury; ſuch offender ſhall ſuffer the penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury. ſ. 2.

All clauſes in the recited acts, not hereby altered, ſhall be of force as before. ſ. 3.

By 22 Geo. 2. c. 30. Every member of the proteſtant epiſcopal church, known by the name of Unitas Fratrum, or the United Brethren, who ſhall be required to take an oath, ſhall, inſtead of the uſual form, be permitted to make his ſolemn affirmation in theſe words following:

I A. B. do declare in the preſence of Almighty God, the witneſs of the truth of what I ſay.

Which affirmation ſhall be of the ſame force in all courts of juſtice, and other places where by law an oath is required in Great Britain or Ireland, and in his majeſty's dominions in America, as if ſuch perſon had taken an oath in the uſual form. ſ. 1.

Any perſon making ſuch affirmation, who ſhall be convicted, wilfully, falſely, and corruptly, to have affirmed any thing, which if depoſed on oath, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt perjury, ſhall incur the ſame penalties as perſons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury. ſ. 2.

No perſon being of the ſaid church ſhall by this act be qualified to give evidence in any criminal cauſes, or to ſerve on juries. ſ. 3.

Every member of the ſaid church, who ſhall reſide in any of the colonies in America, and be ſummoned to bear arms, or do military ſervice, in the ſaid colonies, ſhall, on application to the governor or commander in chief of the ſaid colony, or to ſuch officer by whom he is ſummoned, be diſcharged from ſuch perſonal ſervice; provided he contribute ſuch ſum as ſhall be aſſeſſed on him in lieu of ſuch perſonal ſervice, ſo as ſuch ſum be in ſuch proportion as is uſually paid by other perſons reſiding in the ſame colony, who are by age, ſex, or other infirmity, unable to do perſonal ſervice, and are poſſeſſed of eſtates of the ſame nature as the perſons deſiring ſuch diſcharge. ſ. 4.

Every perſon who ſhall claim the benefit of this act, ſhall, when he makes ſuch claim, produce a certificate ſigned by ſome biſhop of the ſaid church, or by the paſtor of ſuch church or congregation neareſt to the place where ſuch claim is made; and ſhall be examined concerning the ſaid certificate, and the execution thereof; and ſuch perſon ſo affirming to the beſt of his knowledge and belief in manner before mentioned, or proving by the teſtimony of other legal witneſs that the ſaid certificate was duly executed by ſuch biſhop or paſtor, and affirming that he is a member of the ſaid church, ſhall be deemed a member of the ſaid church, and be entitled to the benefit of this act. ſ. 5.

Any perſon convicted of having wilfully, falſely, and corruptly affirmed that ſuch certificate was duly executed, or that he is a member of ſuch church, ſhall incur the ſame penalties as perſons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury. ſ. 6.

The advocate of the ſaid church ſhall lay before the commiſſioners for trade and plantations, to remain in their office, a liſt of all the biſhops of the ſaid church appointed by them to grant certificates, with their hand writing, and uſual ſeal; and the ſaid advocate ſhall ſend to the commiſſioners for trade and plantations, the names, hand-writing, and ſeals of any biſhops hereafter conſecrated and appointed as aforeſaid, and the names of paſtors authoriſed by the ſaid advocate or biſhops to give certificates in any of the colonies in America. ſ. 7.

By 22 Geo. 2. c. 46. In all caſes wherein by any act of parliament now in force, or hereafter to be made, an oath is required, the affirmation of a quaker in the form preſcribed by 8 Geo. 1. c. 6. ſhall be allowed inſtead of ſuch oath; although no expreſs proviſion be made for that purpoſe in ſuch act: and if any perſon making ſuch affirmation, ſhall be convicted of having wilfully, falſely, and corruptly affirmed any thing, which if depoſed upon oath would have amounted to wilful and corrupt perjury, he ſhall incur the like pains and penalties as by law are inflicted on perſons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury. ſ. 36.

Provided, that no quaker ſhall by virtue of this act be qualified to give evidence in any criminal caſes, or to ſerve on juries, or to bear any office or place of profit in the government. ſ. 37.

By 19 Geo. 3. c. 44. Every perſon diſſenting from the church of England, in holy orders, or pretended holy orders, or pretending to holy orders, being a preacher or teacher of any congregation of diſſenting proteſtants, who, if he ſcruple to declare and ſubſcribe according to 13 Eliz. c. 12. (ſee SERVICE AND SACRAMENTS) ſhall take the oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the declaration againſt popery, required by 1 Will. & Mar. and ſhall alſo make and ſubſcribe a declaration in the words following; viz.

I A. B. do ſolemnly declare, in the preſence of Almighty God, that I am a chriſtian and a proteſtant, and as ſuch, that I believe that the ſcriptures of the Old and New Teſtament, as commonly received among proteſtant churches, do contain the revealed will of God; and that I do receive the ſame as the rule of my doctrine and practice.

ſhall be entitled to all the exemptions, benefits, privileges, and advantages, granted to proteſtant diſſenting miniſters by 1 Will. & Mar. and 10 Ann.; and the juſtices at the general ſeſſion of the peace are to tender and adminiſter the ſaid laſt mentioned declaration to ſuch miniſter, upon his offering himſelf to make and ſubſcribe the ſame, and thereof to keep a regiſter; and ſuch miniſter ſhall not give as a fee to any officer belonging to the court, above 6 d. for his entry of ſuch miniſter's making and ſubſcribing the ſaid laſt declaration, and taking the oaths, and making and ſubſcribing the declaration againſt popery, required by 1 Will. & Mar.; nor above 6 d. for any certificate thereof to be made out and ſigned by the officer of the ſaid court; and every perſon qualifying himſelf as aforeſaid, ſhall be exempted from ſerving in the militia; and ſhall alſo be exempted from any impriſonment, or other puniſhment, by 13 & 14 Car. 2. or 15 Car. 2. (ſee SERVICE AND SACRAMENTS) for preaching or officiating in any congregation of proteſtant diſſenters, for the exerciſe of religion permitted by law. ſ. 1.

No diſſenting miniſter, nor any other proteſtant diſſenting from the church of England, who ſhall take the aforeſaid oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the above-mentioned declaration againſt popery, and the declaration before mentioned, ſhall be proſecuted, for teaching and inſtructing youth as a tutor or ſchool-maſter. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the enabling of any perſon diſſenting, to hold the maſterſhip of any college or ſchool of royal foundation, or of any other endowed college or ſchool for the education of youth, unleſs the ſame ſhall have been founded ſince 1 Will. & Mar. for the immediate uſe of proteſtant diſſenters. ſ. 3.

Nonplevin.

By 9 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. c. 2. The king hath put out nonplevin of land, and the pain that was wont to enſue, in caſe the land was not replevied in due time; alſo, none ſhall loſe land becauſe of nonplevin.

Nonſuit.

By 2 Hen. 4. c. 7. If the verdict paſs againſt the plaintiff, he ſhall not afterwards be nonſuited.

By 14 Geo. 2. c. 17. Where any iſſue is joined in any action at law in any court of record at Weſtminſter, the court of great ſeſſion for the principality of Wales, the court of great ſeſſion for the county palatine of Cheſter, the court of common pleas for the county palatine of Lancaſter, or the court of pleas for the county palatine of Durham, and the plaintiff ſhall neglect to bring ſuch iſſue on to be tried according to the courſe of the ſaid courts, it ſhall be lawful for the judges of the ſaid courts reſpectively, upon motion in open court (due notice having been given thereof) to give the like judgment for the defendant as in caſes of nonſuit; unleſs the judge ſhall upon reaſonable terms allow further time for the trial of ſuch iſſue; and if the plaintiff neglect to try ſuch iſſue within the time allowed, then the judge ſhall give ſuch judgment as aforeſaid. ſ. 1.

All judgments given by virtue of this act, ſhall be of the like effect as judgments upon nonſuit. ſ. 2.

The defendant ſhall upon ſuch judgment be awarded his coſts, in any action where he would upon nonſuit be entitled to the ſame. ſ. 3.

No indictment, information, or cauſe ſhall be tried at niſi prius before any judge of aſſize, or niſi prius, or at the ſittings in London or Weſtminſter, where the defendant reſides above 40 miles from the ſaid cities reſpectively, unleſs notice of trial in writing has been given 10 days before. ſ. 4.

In caſe any party ſhall have given ſuch notice of trial, and ſhall not afterwards duly countermand the ſame in writing ſix days before ſuch intended trial, every ſuch party ſhall be obliged to pay unto the party to whom ſuch notice was given, the like coſts as if ſuch notice had not been countermanded. ſ. 5.

Northern Borders.

By 2 Hen. 5. ſt. 1. c. 5. If any perſon of the franchiſes of Tyndal and Examſhire do any murders, treaſons, manſlaughters, or robberies, or conſent to them, out of the ſaid franchiſes, proceſs ſhall be made againſt him by the common law, until he be outlawed. And after outlawry pronounced and returned, the juſtices ſhall make certificate to ſuch miniſters of the franchiſes, as to them ſhall ſeem beſt. And ſuch felons ſhall be taken by ſuch miniſters, and their lands and goods within the franchiſe ſeized into the hands of the lords as forfeit; and the other lands and goods of ſuch felons, being out of the franchiſes, ſhall remain to the king and other lords. Saving to the king the forfeitures of ſuch murderers, &c. of the right of his crown.

By 9 Hen. 5. c. 7. Such proceſs ſhall be made againſt ſuch murderers, &c. and offenders, abiding within the franchiſe franchiſe of Rideſdale, for their offences done out of the franchiſe, and ſuch forfeitures ſhall run in all points, as was ordained for the offenders of Tyndale and Examſhire, by the ſtatute 2 Hen. 5. ſt. 1. c. 5.

By 23 Hen. 6. c. 6. The ſheriff of Northumberland's levying to the ſum of 40 l. called headpence, every third year, and every fourth year, ſhall be put out for ever, upon pain of 100 l.; the one half to the king, and the other half to the party which will ſue againſt the ſheriff.

By 11 Hen. 7. c. 9. The lordſhip of North and South Tindale ſhall be gildable, and part of the ſhire of Northumberland, and no franchiſe. And no perſon ſhall let to farm any lands in North and South Tindale, but the leſſee ſhall find ſurety, at leaſt two, having lands in Northumberland, not being within the ſaid lordſhip, to the yearly value of 40 s. by recognizance to the king in 20 l. before two juſtices of peace of Northumberland, one of the quorum, upon condition, that if the leſſee, within eight days warning, perſonally, or at his own houſe, or in his pariſh-church, given by any of the juſtices and the ſheriff, appear not before the juſtices of peace at any ſeſſion or gaol delivery, to anſwer all ſuch treaſons, felonies, murders, and treſpaſſes, by them done, then the ſaid 20 l. ſhall be forfeit; the one half to the king, and the other half to him that will ſue, giving thereof to the juſtices, before whom the recognizance is taken, after execution, 40 s. And all juſtices of peace ſhall have authority to enquire thereof, and to make preſentments thereupon, and to award proceſs and execution for the ſame ſum, in as ample form as the king's juſtices of his bench may do, for any recognizance taken afore them for the keeping of the peace. And any perſon taking upon him to let any lands within the ſaid lordſhip where no ſuch ſurety is found, ſhall for every acre and every dwelling-place forfeit 40 s.; the one half to the king, and the other to him that will ſue; and the juſtices of peace ſhall have like authority in this forfeiture, as in the recognizance afore expreſſed. And if any perſon occupy any lands within the ſaid lordſhip, not being his own inheritance, without ſurety found, except he be a lord ſpiritual or temporal, he ſhall have impriſonment a year, and till he have found ſurety to the king, to be of good abearing.

By 2 & 3 Edw. 6. c. 34. The ſheriff of Northumberland, before he receive his patent, ſhall put in ſureties into the exchequer, as all other ſheriffs do, upon pain of forfeiture to the king 100 l. ſ. 2.

Such ſheriff ſhall not be accountable but for his own time, neither ſhall be charged in account with any arrearages due to the king by his predeceſſors. ſ. 3.

By 14 Eliz. c. 13. The franchiſe of Hexham and Hexhamſhire ſhall be part of the county of Northumberland, and the ſheriff and other officers of the county may execute proceſs within Hexham and Hexhamſhire, in as ample manner as within any other part of the county: ſaving to the bailiff of the liberties, or other officers of Hexham and Hexhamſhire, all liberties of return of writs, &c.

By 43 Eliz. c. 13. Whoſoever ſhall without lawful warrant take any of her majeſty's ſubjects againſt their will, and carry them out of the counties of Cumberland, Northumberland, Weſtmorland, and Durham, or to any other place within the ſaid counties, or detain or impriſon them againſt their wills, to ranſom them, or to make a prey or ſpoil of their perſon or goods, upon deadly feud or otherwiſe; or whoſoever ſhall be privy or aſſiſting unto any ſuch taking, &c.; or whoſoever ſhall take or carry, to the uſe of himſelf, or wittingly to the uſe of any other, any money, corn, cattle, or other conſideration, called Black-mail, for the protecting of them or their lands or goods from ſuch thefts and robberies; or whoſoever ſhall give any ſuch Black-mail, or ſhall wilfully and of malice, burn, or cauſe to be burned, or aid or conſent to the burning, any barn or ſtack of corn within the ſaid counties, and ſhall be indicted and convicted, or ſhall ſtand mute, or ſhall challenge peremptorily above twenty, before the juſtices of aſſiſe, of oyer and terminer, or juſtices of peace at their ſeſſions, ſhall be adjudged felons without benefit of clergy. ſ. 2.

Every clerk of the peace within the ſaid counties, ſhall within two months after any outlawry, deliver under his hand the names of all ſuch as are outlawed within their counties, to all the ſheriffs of the ſaid counties; and the ſheriffs ſhall proclaim them to be outlawed in their county courts, and in the city of Carliſle, the towns of Penrith and Cockermouth in Cumberland, and in Appulby and Kendal in Weſtmorland, and Newcaſtle upon Tyne, and in Morpeth, Alnwick and Hexham in Northumberland, and Dureſme, Darlington, Biſhop Awcland, and Bernard Caſtle in the biſhopriek of Dureſme, and in Berwick upon Tweed; and the ſheriffs ſhall once in the month at the court proclaim the ſaid perſons outlawed, until they yield their bodies to priſon. And the mayors, bailiffs, aldermen, and other chief officers within the ſaid cities and towns, ſhall proclaim the like at every fair, and once every ſix weeks at their markets. ſ. 4.

If any perſon inhabiting within the ſaid counties, ſhall wittingly and willingly relieve, entertain, or confer with, any ſuch perſon outlawed for any ſuch murder, robberies, burglaries, or other felonies, having knowledge of the outlawries, and ſhall not do his beſt endeavour to take ſuch perſons, he ſhall ſuffer impriſonment ſix months, and be bound with two ſureties for his good behaviour for one year after. ſ. 5.

The juſtices of aſſiſe, juſtices of gaol-delivery, juſtices of oyer and terminer, or juſtices of peace, within the ſaid counties, at their ſeſſions, ſhall have power to enquire, hear and determine, the offences and defaults of the ſheriffs, mayors, bailiffs, aldermen, and other officers, and of the clerks of the peace, and proceed againſt them by information, and puniſh them by fine, impriſonment, or otherwiſe. ſ. 6.

By 7 Jac. 1. c. 1. If any perſon ſhall commit any offence within the realm of Scotland, which by the laws of England is adjudged petty treaſon, murder, manſlaughter, felonious burning of houſes and corn, burglary, robbing of houſes by day, robbery, theft, or rape, and ſhall eſcape into the realm of England, and ſhall be apprehended within the counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmorland, or within the parts on the north of the Tine called Bedlingtonſhire, Norhamſhire and Iſlandſhire, the towns of Newcaſtle and Berwick; it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices of aſſiſe or one of them, or the juſtices of gaol-delivery or four of them, or the juſtices of peace in quarter-ſeſſions or four of them, to remand ſuch offender into the realm of Scotland. ſ. 3.

Continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. and 16 Car. 1. c. 4. and revived by 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 22. for ſuppreſſion and puniſhment of the Moſs-troopers flying out of England into Scotland, or out of Scotland into England. Qu. how far it is in force ſince the union?

By 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 22. made perpetual by 31 Geo. 2. c. 42. ſ. 1. For five years it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices of peace of the counties of Northumberland and Cumberland at any general ſeſſions, to make an order of ſeſſions, for charging the inhabitants of the reſpective counties, counties, for the ſecuring of the ſaid counties from violence of the Moſs-troopers. ſ. 2.

Provided, that the county of Northumberland be not charged above 500 l. in the year; nor the county of Cumberland above 200 l. in the year; and the juſtices of peace are empowered at their quarter-ſeſſions to appoint perſons to have the command of a number of men, not exceeding thirty men in Northumberland and twelve in Cumberland, whereby the malefactors aforeſaid may be apprehended; and the ſaid juſtices of peace are further empowered to iſſue their warrants for the levying any ſums ordered to be paid for the ſecuring of the ſaid counties, and to give power to the conſtables and other officers, to collect the money by diſtreſs and ſale of goods; and the ſaid juſtices, or any one of them, are authoriſed to examine any complaint againſt the collectors, or any other refractory perſons, that ſhall fail to give obedience to this act, and to bind over ſuch perſons to the next quarter-ſeſſions. ſ. 3.

The juſtices of peace are further empowered to appoint a treaſurer to receive the monies collected, and to pay over the ſame according to the orders from the ſeſſions; and the juſtices are empowered to agree with ſuch perſon yearly, and to take ſecurity of them. ſ. 4.

In caſe any perſon ſhall be employed in the border-ſervice, and ſhall wilfully and corruptly forbear to diſcover or apprehend any of the Moſs-troopers, and ſhall be convicted thereof; they ſhall be made incapable of the ſaid employment, and ſuffer fine and impriſonment, as the ſeſſions ſhall think fit. ſ. 5.

It ſhall be lawful for the juſtices of peace of either of the ſaid counties to leſſen the ſaid charge. ſ. 6.

By 18 Car. 2. c. 3. revived by 6 Geo. 2. c. 37. ſ. 9. and made perpetual by 31 Geo. 2. c. 42. ſ. 1. The benefit of clergy ſhall be taken away from great, known, and notorious thieves and ſpoil-takers in Northumberland or Cumberland, who ſhall be convicted for theft done within the ſaid counties; or it ſhall be lawful for the juſtices of aſſiſe, and oyer and terminer, or gaol-delivery, to tranſport them into any of his majeſty's dominions in America, not to return. ſ. 2.

By 29 & 30 Car. 2. c. 1. revived by 6 Geo. 2. c. 37. ſ. 9. and made perpetual by 31 Geo. 2. c. 42. ſ. 1. The juſtices of peace of the ſaid counties ſhall at their quarter-ſeſſions take ſecurity of the perſons employed for the preſervation of the counties from theft and rapine, to anſwer the damages ſuſtained by their neglect, and to pay the ſame within four months after proof thereof made by oath of one witneſs at the next quarter-ſeſſions, ſo as the goods ſtolen be entered in the books within forty-eight hours after the ſame ſhall be gone; and books ſhall be kept for that end in every market-town, and at ſuch other places as the ſeſſions ſhall appoint. ſ. 2.

The quarter-ſeſſions ſhall yearly, or every two years at fartheſt, appoint perſons for the ſaid counties reſpectively, to be employed in the ſaid ſervice. ſ. 3.

Provided, that every perſon employed for the preſervation of the ſaid counties, or as treaſurer for the ſaid ſervice, do receive the ſacrament of the Lord's ſupper in ſome public church upon ſome Lord's day, within three months after they enter upon ſuch employment, and deliver a certificate thereof to the next quarter-ſeſſions, and take the oaths of allegiance and ſupremacy, and make and ſubſcribe the declaration, under the penalties appointed. ſ. 4.

By 6 Geo. 2. c. 37. ſ. 10. The ſaid acts, for preventing theft and rapine upon the northern borders, ſhall be deemed public acts.

Nuſance.

By 12 Ric. 2. c. 3. Writs of nuſances called vicountiels ſhall be made at the election of the plaintiff in the nature of old times uſed, or elſe in the nature of aſſiſes determinable before the king's juſtices of the one bench or the other, or before the juſtices of aſſiſe, to be taken in the county.

By 12 Ric. 2. c. 13. Proclamation ſhall be made as well in London as in other cities and towns, that none caſt any annoyance, dung, intrails, nor any other ordure, into the ditches, rivers, waters, and other places: and if any do, he ſhall be called by writ before the chancellor, at his ſuit that will complain; and if he be found guilty, he ſhall be puniſhed after the diſcretion of the chancellor.

The oaths and declarations appointed by this act ſhall be taken and ſubſcribed by ſuch perſons as were required to take the ſaid abrogated oaths of ſupremacy and allegiance. ſ. 3.

Every ſuch perſon who ſhall neglect to take the ſame, ſhall incur the ſame penalties as by any ſtatute was appointed. ſ. 5.

If any ſuch other perſon ſhall refuſe to take the oaths tendered, the perſon tendering ſhall commit the perſon refuſing to the common gaol or houſe of correction for three months, unleſs ſuch offender ſhall pay to the perſon tendering ſuch ſum, not exceeding 40 s. as he ſhall require ſuch offender to pay; which money ſhall be paid to the churchwardens or overſeers for the relief of the poor of the pariſh where ſuch offender did laſt inhabit: and if at the end of three months the perſon ſo refuſing ſhall again refuſe to take the oaths when lawfully tendered, the perſons tendering ſhall commit the perſon refuſing to the common gaol or houſe of correction for ſix months; unleſs ſuch offender pay down to the perſons tendering ſuch ſum, not exceeding 10 l. nor under 5 l. as they ſhall require, for his ſecond refuſal, to be diſpoſed in manner aforeſaid; and unleſs ſuch offender become bound with two ſureties, with condition to be of the good behaviour, and to appear at the next aſſiſes or gaol-delivery; at which the oath ſhall be again tendered by the juſtices of aſſiſes, &c. and if the offender then refuſe to take the oaths, he ſhall be incapable of any office, civil or military, and ſhall be bound to the good behaviour, until he take the oaths; and in caſe ſuch perſon ſhall refuſe alſo to make the declaration in 30 Car. 2. ſt. 2. Papiſts, ſuch perſon ſhall ſuffer all penalties as a popiſh recuſant convict. ſ. 9.

Every commiſſion officer, and non-commiſſion or warrant officer, employed in their majeſties ſervice by ſea or land, ſhall before the delivery of ſuch commiſſion or warrant take the oaths, and make the declaration, before the commiſſioners of the admiralty, or their deputies, or ſuch perſon as ſhall iſſue ſuch commiſſion or warrant, or ſuch others as ſhall be authoriſed to adminiſter the ſame; and every ſuch officer that ſhall refuſe to take the oaths, &c. ſhall be incapable of ſuch office. ſ. 10.

Note, other oaths are appointed by ſubſequent acts inſtead of thoſe appointed by this act.

By 1 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 25. If any commiſſion for a military employment ſhall be granted to any perſon at a diſtance from London exceeding twenty miles, ſuch perſon may take the oaths, &c. at the next muſter after the receipt of the commiſſion, before the commiſſary of the muſters or his deputy, who are required to ſend up a certificate thereof to the perſon who iſſued ſuch commiſſion. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the militia. ſ. 4.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 24. If any perſon ſhall act as ſerjeant at law, counſellor, barriſter, advocate, attorney, ſolicitor, proctor, clerk, or notary, by practiſing as ſuch in any court, not having taken in the chancery or king's bench, or quarter-ſeſſions where he lives, the oaths, and made the declarations, ſuch perſons ſhall incur all penalties in the ſtatute of præmunire, 16 Ric. 2. c. 5.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 27. Every perſon who ſhall refuſe to take the oaths when tendered by perſons lawfully authoriſed, or ſhall neglect to appear when ſummoned in order to have the oaths tendered, ſhall, until he take the oaths, be liable to the penalties inflicted upon popiſh recuſants convict; and the perſons tendering the oaths ſhall upon every ſuch refuſal or default of appearance record the names and place of abode of the perſons refuſing or not appearing, with the time of ſuch tender or default, and certify the record to the juſtices of aſſiſe, oyer and terminer, or gaol-delivery, at their next ſeſſion, who ſhall certify the ſame into the exchequer. ſ. 1.

Quakers who ſhall make and ſubſcribe the declaration of fidelity in 1 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 18. [ſee Nonconformiſts] and ſhall produce ſuch witneſſes and certificates as are by the ſaid act required, and ſhall own king William to be rightful and lawful king of theſe realms, are exempted from the penalties provided by this act for ſuch as refuſe to take the oaths. ſ. 12.

The penalties to be incurred by any perſons as popiſh recuſants, convict by this act for not taking the oaths, may be pardoned by the king under the privy ſeal. ſ. 15.

No perſon who ſhall refuſe to take the oaths, or being quakers, ſubſcribe the declaration of fidelity (which oaths and ſubſcription, the ſheriff or chief officer taking the poll at any election of members to ſerve in parliament, at the requeſt of any one of the candidates, are required to adminiſter), ſhall be admitted to give any vote for the election of any knight, citizen, burgeſs, or baron, to ſerve in parliament. ſ. 19.

By 13 Will. 3. c. 6. Every perſon that ſhall bear any office, civil or military, or ſhall receive any pay by reaſon of any grant from his majeſty, or ſhall have command or place of truſt under his majeſty, or by authority derived from him, within England, Wales, or Berwick, or in his majeſty's navy, or in Jerſey or Guernſey, or ſhall be of the houſhold, or in the ſervice of his majeſty, and all eccleſiaſtical perſons, members of colleges and halls in either univerſity, that ſhall be of the foundation (being of the age of eighteen years), and all perſons teaching pupils, and all ſchool-maſters and uſhers, and all preachers of ſeparate congregations, and every perſon that ſhall act as a ſerjeant at law, counſellor, barriſter, advocate, attorney, ſolicitor, proctor, clerk, or notary, by practiſing as ſuch in any court, ſhall within three months after they ſhall enter upon ſuch office, or take upon them ſuch practice, in the court of chancery, king's bench, common pleas, or exchequer, or at the quarter-ſeſſions, in open court, between the hours of nine and twelve in the forenoon, take the oath herein mentioned, viz. the oath of abjuration, altered by ſubſequent ſtatutes; and ſhall ſubſcribe his name or mark, and during the time of taking the ſaid oath all pleas ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 1, 2, 3.

Every perſon aforeſaid that ſhall neglect to take the oath, ſhall be ipſo facto incapable to enjoy the office, &c. ſ. 5.

All who ſhall neglect to take the oath, and yet ſhall by himſelf, or his deputy or truſtee, execute any of the ſaid offices, &c. and being thereof convicted upon information or indictment in any of the king's courts at Weſtminſter, or at the aſſiſes, ſuch perſons ſhall be diſabled to proſecute any ſuit, or to be guardian of any child, or executor or adminiſtrator of any perſon, or capable of any legacy or deed of gift, or to be in any office within England, Wales, or Berwick, and ſhall forfeit 500 l. to be recovered by him that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 6.

Upon due tender of any perſon to take the oath, the courts are required to adminiſter the ſame; of the taking and ſubſcribing whereof, the like regiſter ſhall be kept as by the act 25 Car. 2. c. 2. was directed. ſ. 7. See RECUSANTS.

Provided, that any perſon who by any neglect or refuſal, according to this act, ſhall loſe any office, may be capable of a new grant of the ſame, ſuch perſon taking the oath, ſo as ſuch office be not enjoyed by ſome other perſon at the time of the regranting. ſ. 8.

No peer of this realm ſhall vote or make his proxy in the houſe of peers, or ſit there during any debate, nor any member of the houſe of commons ſhall vote in the houſe, or ſit there during any debate, after their ſpeaker be choſen, until ſuch peer or member ſhall take the oath, and ſubſcribe the ſame, viz. the oath ſhall be made and ſubſcribed between nine in the morning and four in the afternoon, by every ſuch peer, at the table in the middle of the houſe, before he take his place, and whilſt a full houſe is there, with their ſpeaker in his place; and by every member of the houſe of commons, at the table in the middle of the houſe, and whilſt a full houſe is there ſitting, with their ſpeaker in his chair. ſ. 10.

If any peer, or member of the houſe of commons ſhall vote, or make his proxy, not having taken the oath and ſubſcribed the ſame, ſuch peer or member ſhall be adjudged a popiſh recuſant convict, and ſhall be diſabled to hold any place of profit or truſt, civil or military, and to ſit or vote in either houſe of parliament, or make a proxy in the houſe of peers, or to ſue any action in law, or to proſecute any ſuit in equity, or to be guardian of any child, or executor or adminiſtrator of any perſon, or capable of any legacy or deed of gift, and ſhall forfeit 500 l. to be recovered by him that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 11.

This act ſhall not take away any office of inheritance, ſo as ſuch perſon having an office of inheritance appoint his deputy, according to a proviſo in 25 Car. 2. c. 2. and ſo as ſuch deputy take the oath in this act, and ſo as ſuch deputy be approved of by the king under his privy ſignet. ſ. 12.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſons authoriſed to adminiſter the oaths appointed in an act 1 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 8. to tender the oath herein appointed to any perſon; and if any perſon to whom the oath ſhall be tendered, ſhall neglect to take the ſame, the perſon tendering the oath ſhall certify the refuſal to the next quarter-ſeſſions; and the refuſal ſhall be recorded, and certified by the clerk of the peace into the chancery or king's bench. ſ. 13.

This

This act ſhall not extend to the office of high conſtable, petty conſtable, tithingman, headborough, overſeers of the poor, churchwardens, ſurveyors of the highways, or any like inferior civil office, or to any office of foreſter or keeper of any park, chace, warren, or game, or bailiff of any manor or lands, nor to any like private offices, nor to any perſon having only like offices. ſ. 14.

By 1 Ann. ſt. 1. c. 22. All perſons who in the chancery, king's bench, or quarter ſeſſions, may take the oaths mentioned in 1 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 8. and make the declaration mentioned in 25 Car. 2. c. 2. ſee RECUSANTS, may take the ſaid oaths and make the declaration, and deliver the certificates of receiving the ſacrament, &c. in the common pleas, or exchequer. ſ. 5.

All perſons, who are to take the oaths within three months after they ſhall be admitted into or enter upon any preferments, benefices, or places, or come into any capacity, or take upon them any ſuch practice in the former act mentioned, may in the next term, or at the next quarter ſeſſions after they ſhall be admitted, &c. (though it be after the expiration of three months), take the oaths in any of the four courts of Weſtminſter or quarter ſeſſions. ſ. 7.

By 6 Ann. c. 14. It ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices of peace, whereof one of the quorum, or any other perſons by her majeſty appointed by order in privy council, or by commiſſion under the great ſeal, to ſummon all ſuch perſons as they ſhall ſuſpect to be diſaffected, and tender the oath of abjuration, and at the next quarter ſeſſions certify the names and places of abode of all perſons refuſing to take the oath, to be certified by the clerk of the peace into the queen's bench, and by the clerk of the peace in Scotland into the court of ſeſſion; and if the perſon certified ſhall not within the next term or ſeſſion appear in the chancery, queen's bench, or ſeſſion, where ſuch certificate ſhall be returned, and take the oath, and enter his ſo doing upon the certificate returned, he ſhall be adjudged a popiſh recuſant convict, and undergo ſuch penalties as a popiſh recuſant convict ought to do by the laws in England. ſ. 7.

By 6 Ann. c. 23. If any quaker ſhall refuſe to take the oath, being tendered to him, in purſuance of 6 Ann. c. 14. but ſhall inſtead thereof declare the effect of the ſaid oath upon his ſolemn affirmation, as directed by 7 Will. 3. c. 34. ſuch quaker ſhall not be liable to any penalties mentioned in 6 Ann. c. 14. ſ. 14.

By 8 Ann. c. 15. Perſons in any office, civil or military, in Scotland, ſhall take and ſubſcribe the oath of abjuration in 6 Ann. c. 14. and the oath of allegiance, and ſubſcribe the aſſurance, within three months after his admittance into ſuch office, either in her majeſty's courts of ſeſſion, juſticiary, or exchequer, in Scotland, or at the quarter ſeſſions there, or in any other aſſembly where the oaths have uſually been adminiſtered in Scotland, or in her majeſty's courts of chancery, queen's bench, common pleas, or exchequer, at Weſtminſter. ſ. 1, 2.

The courts of chancery, queen's bench, common pleas, and exchequer, at Weſtminſter, ſhall adminiſter to ſuch perſons as ſhall tender themſelves, the foreſaid oaths; and ſhall give to every perſon taking the ſame a certificate, for which there ſhall be paid 2*s.* ſ. 3.

Every perſon who ſhall be employed in any office civil or military, in Scotland, and who takes the oaths in the chancery, queen's bench, common pleas, or exchequer, at Weſtminſter, ſhall be obliged to tranſmit within three months, to the courts of ſeſſion, juſticiary, or exchequer, in Scotland, or to any the principal clerks of ſeſſion, the principal clerk of juſticiary, or the queen's remembrancer in the exchequer, the certificate they ſhall receive; where the ſaid certificates ſhall be kept, and to which all perſons ſhall have acceſs without fee. ſ. 4.

Every ſuch perſon who ſhall neglect to take the oaths, and ſubſcribe the aſſurance, and ſhall after ſuch neglect execute any office, in reſpect to which the oaths and aſſurance ought to be taken, ſhall incur the penalties in 6 Ann. c. 14. ſ. 5.

Every ſuch perſon who having taken the oaths and aſſurance in the chancery, queen's bench, common pleas, or exchequer, at Weſtminſter, ſhall, within the three months, neglect to tranſmit the certificate, ſhall forfeit his office, and alſo 100*l.* to be recovered by ſuch perſon as ſhall ſue for the ſame by ſummar proceſs in the court of ſeſſion. ſ. 6.

It ſhall be lawful for any perſon employed in any office in Scotland, to take the oath de fideli, or oaths of office, before one of the judges of England. ſ. 7.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. All perſons that ſhall bear any office civil or military, or receive any ſalary, &c. by reaſon of any patent, &c. from his majeſty, or who ſhall have any command or place of truſt under his majeſty, or by his authority, in Great Britain or in the navy, or in Jerſey, or Guernſey, or ſhall be of the houſehold or ſervice of his majeſty; and all eccleſiaſtical perſons, heads and other members of colleges and halls in any univerſity, that are of the foundation, or enjoy any exhibition (being 18 years old), and all perſons teaching or reading to pupils, and all ſchoolmaſters and uſhers, and preachers of ſeparate congregations, all conſtables, and every ſerjeant and counſellor at law, barriſter, advocate, attorney, ſolicitor, writer in Scotland, proctor, clerk, or notary, practiſing in any court, ſhall take the following oaths, viz.

I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſwear, that I will be faithful, and bear true allegiance to his majeſty king George. So help me God.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I do from my heart abhor, deteſt, and abjure, as impious and heretical, that damnable doctrine and poſition, that princes excommunicated or deprived by the pope, or any authority of the ſee of Rome, may be depoſed or murdered by their ſubjects, or any other whatſoever. And I do declare, that no foreign prince, perſon, prelate, ſtate, or potentate, hath, or ought to have, any juriſdiction, power, ſuperiority, pre-eminence, or authority, eccleſiaſtical or ſpiritual, within this realm. So help me God.

The oath of abjuration was altered by 6 Geo. 3. c. 53.

Unto which oaths every perſon taking the ſame ſhall ſubſcribe his name; and if he cannot write, make his mark; and while the oaths are taking, all pleas ſhall ceaſe. ſ. 1.

Every perſon who ſhall be admitted into any office, civil or military, &c. in England, &c. [as above in the laſt ſection], or who ſhall be admitted into any the beforementioned preferments, &c. ſhall within three months after they ſhall be admitted, &c. take the ſame oaths in one of the ſaid courts at Weſtminſter, or at the quarter ſeſſion of the county, &c. where he reſides. ſ. 2.

All perſons, who by virtue of any acts made ſince the union, were bound to take the oath of allegiance, ſubſcribe the aſſurance, and take and ſign the abjuration, on account of any office, or other occaſion, in Scotland, ſhall take and ſubſcribe the oath of abjuration, and the oath of allegiance, and ſubſcribe the aſſurance in the words following, viz.

I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſwear, that I will be faithful, and bear true allegiance to his majeſty king George. So help me God.

The aſſurance is altered by 6 Geo. 3. c. 53.

Every perſon, who ſhall refuſe to take the oath of abjuration, or being a quaker, ſhall refuſe to declare the effect thereof, as directed by 7 Will. 3. c. 34. (which oath and declaration the member laſt elected for any county or ſtewartry in Scotland, or in his abſence, the ſheriff or ſtewart's clerk, till a perſon be choſen to proceed in the meetings of free elections in Scotland, according to the directions in the 21ſt act of the third parliament of Car. 2. held in Scotland, is authoriſed to adminiſter, at the requeſt of any candidate, &c.) ſhall not be capable of giving any vote for the election of a preſident of the meeting, making up the rolls, or of any member to ſerve in the houſe of commons for any place in Scotland, or commiſſioner to chooſe a burgeſs for any place there; and it is declared, that by no words in the ſaid oaths, it was meant to oblige any of his majeſty's ſubjects to any acts inconſiſtent with the eſtabliſhment of the church of Scotland. ſ. 4.

All heads and members of colleges, halls, or claſſes, in the univerſities of St. Andrew, Glaſgow, Aberdeen, and Edinburgh, and all probationers or licentiates of divinity, before they enter on their trials or obtain licenſes to preach, and all ſchoolmaſters in Scotland, ſhall take the oaths, and ſubſcribe the aſſurance appointed to be taken in Scotland, and obtain ſuch certificates, as by this, or the acts herein referred to is directed. ſ. 5.

All perſons aforeſaid, that ſhall neglect to take the oaths, ſhall be adjudged incapable to enjoy ſuch offices, &c. ſ. 7.

Every perſon, who ſhall neglect to take the oaths, and after ſuch neglect ſhall execute, by himſelf or deputy, any the ſaid offices, &c. being convicted upon information or indictment, ſhall be diſabled to ſue, &c. or to be guardian or executor, or capable of any legacy or deed of gift, or to be in any office, or to vote at any election for members of parliament, and ſhall forfeit 500 l. to him that will ſue for the ſame in any of the courts at Weſtminſter, and by way of ſummar complaint, before the court of ſeſſions, or proſecution before the court of juſticiary in Scotland. ſ. 8.

The proper officer ſhall have of every perſon taking the oaths, 2 s. and a regiſter ſhall be kept of all perſons who have taken the oaths, to be inſpected without fee. ſ. 9.

It ſhall be lawful for two juſtices of peace, or any other perſons appointed by his majeſty, by order in council, or by commiſſion under the great ſeal, to tender the oaths to any perſon whom they ſhall ſuſpect to be diſaffected; and if any perſon refuſe to take them, ſuch juſtices, &c. ſhall certify the refuſal to the next quarter ſeſſions, to be recorded there, and ſhall from thence be certified by the clerk of the peace into the chancery, king's bench, court of ſeſſion, or of juſticiary in Scotland, there to be recorded; and every perſon neglecting to take the ſaid oaths, ſhall be adjudged a popiſh recuſant convict. ſ. 10.

Any two juſtices of peace, or other perſons, &c. may, by writing, ſummon any perſon to take the oaths; which ſummons ſhall be ſerved on ſuch perſon, or left at his place of abode with one of the family; and if ſuch perſon ſhall not appear, then on oath of ſerving the ſummons, ſuch juſtices, &c. are to certify the ſame to the next quarter ſeſſions, to be entered on the rolls; and if ſuch perſon ſhall not appear there and take the oaths, his name ſhall be publicly read at the firſt meeting of the ſeſſions, and he ſhall be eſteemed a popiſh recuſant convict, and the ſame ſhall be certified by the clerk of the peace into the chancery, &c. ſ. 11.

If any member, or head of any college or hall in Oxford or Cambridge, that are of the foundation, or enjoy any exhibition, being of the age of 18 years, ſhall refuſe the ſaid oaths, or to produce a certificate of his having taken them, and cauſe it to be entered in the regiſter of ſuch college or hall, within one month after his having taken them; and if the perſons to whom the right of election ſhall be, do not elect ſome other perſon in his place within 12 months after ſuch refuſal, the king, under the great ſeal or ſign manual, may nominate ſome perſon qualified according to the ſtatutes of the college to ſucceed; and ſuch perſon ſhall enjoy ſuch place as if he had been choſen by the electors of ſuch college or hall. ſ. 12.

If the head of any college or hall, &c. refuſe to admit ſuch perſon nominated as aforeſaid, ten days after ſuch admiſſion demanded, the viſitor is to admit him in one month after it ſhall be demanded; and if ſuch viſitor refuſe, the king's bench may iſſue out a mandamus to ſuch viſitor, to admit ſuch perſon. ſ. 13.

Any perſon who by any neglect ſhall forfeit his office, may be capable of a new grant of the ſame, or any other office, on taking the oaths, ſo as ſuch office be not granted to another. ſ. 14.

No peer ſhall vote or make his proxy, or ſit in the houſe of peers during any debate; nor any member of the houſe of commons ſhall vote or ſit there during any debate, after the ſpeaker is choſen, till he has taken the abjuration oath aforeſaid. ſ. 16.

If any member of either houſe ſhall vote, or make his proxy, not having taken the oaths, &c. he ſhall be diſabled to ſue in any court of law, or to proſecute any ſuit in equity, or to be guardian, executor, or adminiſtrator, or be capable of any legacy or deed of gift, or to be in any office in Great Briatin, or vote at any election for members of parliament, and ſhall forfeit 500 l. to him who will ſue for the ſame in any court at Weſtminſter, or by way of ſummar complaint before the court of ſeſſions or juſticiary in Scotland. ſ. 17.

Nothing in this act ſhall take away any office of inheritance, ſo as the perſon having ſuch office ſubſtitute a deputy, and ſuch deputy qualify himſelf according to 25 Car. 2. c. 2. RECUSANTS, and take the oaths, and be approved of by the king under his privy ſignet. ſ. 18.

No office of inheritance in Scotland, ſhall be forfeitable, otherwiſe than according to the laws in force there. ſ. 19.

This act ſhall not extend to the office of tithingman, headborough, overſeers of the poor, churchwardens, ſurveyors of the highways, or any like inferior civil office, or to any foreſter, or keeper of any park, &c. or bailiff of any manor, &c. nor to any like private offices. ſ. 20.

All perſons, who by law are obliged to receive the ſacrament, and ſubſcribe the declaration againſt tranſubſtantiation, ſhall continue obliged to receive, &c. together with the oaths appointed by this act, in ſuch manner, and under ſuch penalties, in caſe of ſuch neglect, as is required by any former law. ſ. 22. See 16 Geo. 2. c. 30. ſ. 3.

Provided that any perſons who by this act ſhall become popiſh recuſants convict, and ſhall thereafter take the oaths, &c. ſhall be diſcharged from ſuch conviction. ſ. 26.

The oath of abjuration and the aſſurance in this act ſhall ſhall in all caſes be taken in lieu of the abjuration and aſſurance formerly appointed. ſ. 27.

No ſeaman or ſoldier, under the degree of a commiſſion or warrant officer, ſhall pay any fee on taking the oaths. ſ. 31.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the office of lord great chamberlain of England, ſo as he ſubſtitute a deputy, who ſhall take the oaths. ſ. 32.

The oath of abjuration by this act appointed ſhall be the oath to be taken in Ireland. ſ. 33.

By 13 Geo. 1. c. 29. Nothing in the act 25 Car. 2. c. 2. nor in 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. ſhall extend to any perſon who ſhall be in his majeſty's fleet, or in his ſervice beyond the ſeas, at ſuch time as any office, ſalary, or wages, ſhall be granted to him, or who by virtue of the ſaid acts ought to receive the ſacrament, or take the oaths, ſo as ſuch perſon do, within three calendar months after his return into Great Britain, receive the ſacrament, take the ſaid oaths, and make the declaration. ſ. 1.

The ſpace of three months limited for receiving the ſacrament, &c. ſhall be taken to be three calendar months. ſ. 4.

If any officer on board the fleet, or in the ſervice beyond the ſeas, or if any of his majeſty's ſubjects, who ought to receive the ſacrament, &c. ſhall make default in ſo doing, every perſon ſo making default, ſhall incur all ſuch penalties as by the acts are provided. ſ. 6.

By 2 Geo. 2. c. 31. So much of the act 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. as requires perſons to take the oaths within three months, &c. ſhall be repealed. ſ. 3.

All perſons that ſhall be admitted into any office civil or military, or ſhall receive any pay by reaſon of any grant from his majeſty, or ſhall have command or place of truſt under his majeſty, or by authority derived from him, in England, or in his majeſty's navy, or in Jerſey or Guernſey, or that ſhall be admitted into any office in the houſehold of his majeſty, or of the prince of Wales, or any other of his majeſty's iſſue; and all eccleſiaſtical perſons, heads, and other members of colleges and halls in the univerſities, that are of the foundation, or enjoy any exhibition, being of the age of 18 years; and all perſons teaching or reading to pupils, and all ſchoolmaſters and uſhers, and all preachers of ſeparate congregations, high conſtables, and every perſon who ſhall act as a ſerjeant at law, counſellor, barriſter, advocate, attorney, ſolicitor, proctor, clerk, or notary, by practiſing as ſuch in any court in England; who ſhall after the 21ſt of January 1728, be admitted into any of the above-mentioned preferments, &c. or ſhall come into any ſuch capacity, &c. ſhall take the oaths appointed by 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. as by the ſaid ſtatute is directed, in the chancery, king's bench, common pleas, or exchequer, at any time before the end of the next term after he ſhall be admitted, &c. or before the end of the next quarter ſeſſions where ſuch perſons ſhall reſide. ſ. 4.

This act ſhall not extend to any perſon beyond the ſeas, ſo as ſuch perſon within four months after his return to England take the oaths, &c. and receive the ſacrament, and make the declaration againſt tranſubſtantiation, in caſes where they ought. ſ. 5.

Every perſon who ſhall neglect to take the oaths according to this act, ſhall incur all ſuch penalties as by the act 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. are provided. ſ. 6.

All the proviſions in the act 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. relating to the taking the oaths ſhall be in force, ſaving as to the alteration made in reſpect of the times limited for taking the oaths. ſ. 7.

So much of the act 30 Car. 2. c. 2. PAPISTS, as requires the king's and queen's ſworn ſervants to repeat and ſubſcribe a declaration againſt tranſubſtantiation ſhall be repealed. ſ. 9.

By 9 Geo. 2. c. 26. Perſons that ſhall be admitted into office, civil or military, &c. ſhall take the oaths appointed by the ſtatute 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. within ſix months after they ſhall be admitted into ſuch preferment, &c.; and alſo perſons who by 25 Car. 2. c. 2. RECUSANTS, are required to make the declaration againſt tranſubſtantiation, ſhall make the ſaid declaration at the ſame time. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any perſon beyond the ſeas, ſo as ſuch perſon do within ſix calendar months after his return to England, take the oaths, and receive the ſacrament, and make the declaration againſt tranſubſtantiation, in caſes wherein the ſacrament ought to have been received, and the declaration made. ſ. 4.

Perſons that ſhall neglect to take the oaths, or to make the declaration, ſhall incur the penalties in 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. or 25 Car. 2. c. 2. ſ. 5.

All powers in the ſaid act, touching the taking the oaths, and making the declaration, ſhall be in force, except only as to the alteration in reſpect of the time. ſ. 6.

By 6 Geo. 3. c. 53. The oath of abjuration is to be adminiſtered in ſuch manner and form as herein after preſcribed; (that is to ſay),

I A. B. do truly and ſincerely acknowledge, profeſs, teſtify, and declare, in my conſcience, before God and the world, that our ſovereign lord king George is lawful and rightful king of this realm, and all other his majeſty's dominions and countries thereunto belonging. And I do ſolemnly and ſincerely declare, That I do believe, in my conſcience, that not any of the deſcendants of the perſon who pretended to be prince of Wales, during the life of the late king James the IId. and, ſince his deceaſe, pretended to be, and took upon himſelf the ſtile and title of king of England, by the name of James the third, or of Scotland, by the name of James the eighth, or the ſtile and title of king of Great Britain, hath any right or title whatſoever to the crown of this realm, or any other the dominions thereunto belonging: and I do renounce, refuſe, and abjure, any allegiance or obedience to any of them. And I do ſwear, that I will bear faith and true allegiance to his majeſty king George, and him will defend to the utmoſt of my power, againſt all traiterous conſpiracies and attempts whatſoever, which ſhall be made againſt his perſon, crown, or dignity. And I will do my utmoſt endeavour to diſcloſe and make known to his majeſty, and his ſucceſſors, all treaſons and traiterous conſpiracies, which I ſhall know to be againſt him or any of them. And I do faithfully promiſe, to the utmoſt of my power, to ſupport, maintain and defend, the ſucceſſion of the crown, againſt the deſcendants of the ſaid James, and againſt all other perſons whatſoever, which ſucceſſion, by an act entitled, An act for the further limitation of the crown, and better ſecuring the rights and liberties of the ſubject, is, and ſtands limited to the princeſs Sophia, electreſs and ducheſs dowager of Hanover, and the heirs of her body being proteſtants. And all theſe things I do plainly and ſincerely acknowledge and ſwear, according to theſe expreſs words by me ſpoken, and according to the plain common ſenſe and underſtanding of the ſame words, without any equivocation, mental evaſion, or ſecret reſervation whatſoever. And I do make this recognition, acknowledgment, abjuration, renunciation, and promiſe, heartily, willingly, and truly, upon the true faith of a Chriſtian.

And

And the aſſurance, in ſuch manner as after preſcribed; that is to ſay,

I A. B. do, in the ſincerity of my heart, aſſert, acknowledge, and declare, that his majeſty king George is the only lawful and undoubted ſovereign of this realm, as well de jure, that is, of right king, as de facto, that is, in the poſſeſſion and exerciſe of the government. And therefore I do promiſe and ſwear, that I will with heart and hand, life and goods, maintain and defend his right, title, and government, againſt the deſcendants of the perſon who pretended to be prince of Wales during the life of the late king James, and ſince his deceaſe, pretended to be, and took upon himſelf the ſtile and title of king of England, by the name of James the third, or of Scotland, by the name of James the eighth, or the ſtile and title of king of Great Britain, and their adherents, and all other enemies who, either by open or ſecret attempts, ſhall diſturb or diſquiet his majeſty in the poſſeſſion and exerciſe thereof.

And all perſons who are enjoined to adminiſter, take, or ſubſcribe the oath of abjuration, and the aſſurance, in the above-mentioned acts contained, ſhall reſpectively adminiſter, take, and ſubſcribe the ſame according to the form in ſuch courts, within ſuch time, in ſuch manner, and with obſervance of the ſame requiſites, and with benefit of the ſame ſavings, proviſoes, and indemnities, as by the acts are directed; and in caſe of neglect or refuſal, they ſhall be liable to the ſame penalties and diſabilities as by the laws aforeſaid are enacted. ſ. 1.

The oath of abjuration by this act ſhall be the oath to be taken in Ireland, and the reſt of his majeſty's dominions; and the indemnities given by 1 Geo. 1. ſhall continue as to Ireland, as if this act had never been made. ſ. 2.

By 29 Geo. 3. c. 40. Every perſon who ſhall on or before Dec. 25, 1789, take and ſubſcribe the oaths, declarations, and aſſurance, in ſuch caſes wherein by law the ſaid oaths, declarations, and aſſurance, ought to have been taken by 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. or by any other act; and receive the ſacrament of the Lord's ſupper, and make the declaration againſt tranſubſtantiation, in ſuch caſes wherein the ſacrament ought to have been received, and the declaration made; or take and ſubſcribe the oath directed by 18 Geo. 2. c. 20. concerning the qualifications of juſtices of peace, in ſuch caſes wherein the ſaid oath ought to have been taken, ſhall be indemnified from all penalties incurred by any former neglect of taking the ſaid oaths, &c. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not indemnify any perſon againſt whom final judgment ſhall have been given in any action of debt, &c. in any court of record for any penalty incurred by having neglected to qualify himſelf. ſ. 2.

Nor exempt any juſtice from the penalties to which he is ſubject for acting without being poſſeſſed of the qualification required by law. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall not reſtore any perſon to any office or thing already avoided by judgment of any court of record, already filled up by any other perſon. ſ. 4.

Odio et atia.

Magna Charta, 9 Hen. 3. c. 26. Nothing ſhall be given for a writ of inquiſition, nor taken of him that prayeth inquiſition, of life or of member, but it ſhall be granted freely.

By Stat. Weſtm. 1. 3 Edw. 1. c. 11. Inqueſts taken by the ſheriff, and by writ of odio et atia, concerning men indicted of murder, ſhall be taken by lawful men choſen by oath (of whom two at leaſt ſhall be knights), which by no affinity with the priſoners, nor otherwiſe, are to be ſuſpected.

Officers.

By 12 Ric. 2. c. 2. The chancellor, treaſurer, keeper of the privy ſeal, ſteward of the king's houſe, the king's chamberlain, clerk of the rolls, the juſtices of the one bench and the other, barons of the exchequer, and all other that ſhall be called to name juſtices of peace, ſheriffs, eſcheators, cuſtomers, comptrollers, or any other officer of the king, ſhall be ſworn, that they ſhall not name juſtices of peace, &c. nor other officer, for gift nor brocage, favour nor affection, nor that any which purſueth to be in any office, ſhall be put in the ſame office, or any other, but that they make all ſuch offices of the beſt and lawfulleſt men to their knowledge.

By 2 Hen. 6. c. 10. Officers made by the king's letters patent within the courts, which have power by their offices to make clerks and miniſters within the courts, ſhall be ſworn to make ſuch clerks and miniſters for whom they will anſwer.

By 5 & 6 Edw. 6. c. 16. If any perſon bargain or ſell any office or deputation, or any part of them, to receive money or other profit, or take any promiſe or aſſurance to have any money or profit for any office or deputation, or any part of them, or to the intent that any perſon ſhould have any office or deputation, or any part of them, which office ſhall in any wiſe touch or concern the adminiſtration or execution of juſtice, or the receipt, controlment, or payment, of any of the king's treaſure, revenue, auditorſhips, or ſurveying of lands, or the king's cuſtoms, or any adminiſtration or neceſſary attendance in the cuſtom houſes, or the keeping of any of the king's fortreſſes, or which ſhall concern any clerkſhip in any court of record wherein juſtice is to be miniſtered; every ſuch perſon that ſhall bargain or ſell any of the ſaid offices or deputations, or that ſhall take any money or profit, &c. ſhall not only loſe all his right and eſtate in the office, or the gift or nomination of the office, but alſo ſuch perſon that ſhall give any money, or make any promiſe or aſſurance for the offices, &c. ſhall be adjudged a diſabled perſon to have the ſaid office, &c. ſ. 2.

All ſuch bargains, agreements, and aſſurances, ſhall be void. ſ. 3.

This act ſhall not extend to any office whereof any perſon is ſeiſed of any eſtate of inheritance, nor to any office of parkerſhip, or of the keeping of any park, houſe, manor, garden, chace, or foreſt. ſ. 4.

If any perſon offend contrary to this act, yet all acts done by ſuch perſon by authority of the office or deputation, before ſuch perſon be removed from the office, ſhall be good. ſ. 5.

This act ſhall not extend to the chief juſtices of the king's bench or common place, or to any juſtices of aſſize, but that they may do concerning offices to be granted by them, as they might have done before. ſ. 7.

Artic. ſuper chart. 28 Edw. 1. c. 19. Where the eſcheator or ſheriff ſhall ſeize the lands into the king's hands, and afterwards it be removed out of his hands, by reaſon that he hath no cauſe to ſeize, the iſſues ſhall be reſtored to him to whom the land ought to remain, and which hath ſuſtained the damage.

Outlawry.

By 5 Edw. 3. c. 12. Where he againſt whom damages be recovered ſhall be outlawed at the king's ſuit, no charter of pardon ſhall be granted of this outlawry, except the chancellor be certified, that the plaintiff is ſatisfied of his damages. And in caſe a man be outlawed before appearance, no ſuch charter ſhall be granted, except the chancellor be certified, that ſuch perſon hath yielded himſelf to priſon before the juſtices; and if the writ of exigent iſſued from juſtices of oyer and terminer, and they be riſen, he ſhall yield him in the king's bench; and the ſaid juſtices before whom they ſhall yield them, ſhall cauſe the plaintiff to be warned at a certain day, at which day if the warning be fully witneſſed, and the plaintiff appear, they ſhall plead upon the firſt original as though no outlawry had been; and if the plaintiff come not, he that is outlawed ſhall be delivered by his charter. And all ſuch charters ſhall be of the grace of the king, as before.

By 5 Edw. 3. c. 13. If any will defeat any outlawry pronounced upon him by witneſſing impriſonment, he ſhall yield himſelf to priſon, and the juſtices of the king's bench ſhall cauſe the party, at whoſe ſuit the outlawry was pronounced, to be warned to be before them at a certain day; at which day, if the party will verify, that the witneſſing is untrue, his averment ſhall be received. And in like manner the king's ſerjeant or attorney, or other that will ſue for the king, ſhall be received to the ſame averment, where ſuch outlawry is pronounced at the king's ſuit.

By 18 Edw. 3. ſt. 1. Of receivers of the king's money, which the ſame detain; of lay miniſters which receive the king's money, and the ſame retain; alſo of conſpirators, confederators, and maintainers of falſe quarrels; alſo of them that bring routs into the preſence of juſtices, or other the king's miniſters, or elſewhere in counties, in affray of the people; and of them which bring in falſe money in deceit of the people; againſt all theſe in caſe they may not be found, nor brought in to anſwer by attachment or diſtreſs, the exigent ſhall be given.

By 18 Edw. 3. ſt. 2. c. 5. No exigent ſhall go where a man is indicted of treſpaſs, if it be not againſt the peace, or of things contained in the laſt parliament.

By 25 Edw. 3. ſt. 5. c. 17. Like proceſs ſhall be made in writ of debt, detinue of chattels, and taking of cattle, by writ of capias and proceſs of exigend, as is uſed in the writ of account.

By 1 Hen. 5. c. 5. In every original writ of actions perſonals, appeals, and indictments, in which the exigent ſhall be awarded to the names of the defendants, additions ſhall be made of their eſtate, and of the towns and counties of the which they were converſant; and if omitted, utlagaries pronounced ſhall be void; and before pronounced the writs and indictments ſhall be abated by the exception of the party. But though the ſaid writs be not according to the records and deeds, by the ſurpluſage of the additions aforeſaid, for that cauſe they be not abated; and the clerks of the chancery, under whoſe names ſuch writs ſhall go forth, ſhall not leave out the additions upon pain to be puniſhed, and to make a fine to the king by the diſcretion of the chancellor.

By 6 Hen. 8. c. 4. If any writ of exigent ſhall be awarded at the ſuit of the king, or other perſon, in any action perſonal, againſt any perſon called of any ſhire, or city being a ſhire of itſelf, or late of any ſhire, &c. other than ſuch ſhire whereinto ſuch exigent ſhall be awarded; and in every writ of exigent, in action perſonal, whereof the proceſs ſhall be directed into London or Middleſex, the defendant being called late of London, or late of Middleſex, and at the time of the exigent awarded not dwelling in London nor Middleſex; the juſtices, where the exigent ſhall not be directed into London nor Middleſex, ſhall award a writ of proclamation to the ſheriff of the county, where it doth appear by the uſing of ſuch action, that the defendant is, or lately was dwelling, if the king's writ there be current, and elſe to the next adjoining; and in every action, whereof the exigent ſhall be directed into London or Middleſex, and the defendants called late of London or Middleſex, and at the time of the exigent awarded not having their dwelling in London or Middleſex, the writ of proclamation ſhall be awarded unto the ſheriff of the ſhire, where the defendant ſhall have his dwelling, or in caſe where the king's writ runneth not, unto the next ſhire; the which writ of proclamation ſhall contain the effect of the action, and that the ſheriff make three proclamations within his county, viz. two in the full ſhire court, and the third at the general ſeſſions, that the defendant yield himſelf to the ſheriff, ſo that the ſheriff may have the body before the juſtices. ſ. 1.

Every ſuch writ of proclamation ſhall have the ſame day of return as the writ of exigent, and ſhall be delivered of record to the ſheriff, and the ſheriff ſhall execute the ſame and make due return, upon pain to forfeit ſuch amerciament as by the diſcretion of the juſtices ſhall be ſet. ſ. 2.

The officer, in whoſe office the exigent is taken, ſhall make out the ſaid writs of proclamation. ſ. 3.

The officer ſhall take no more for making ſuch writ of proclamation and entering the ſame of record, but 6*d.* ſ. 4.

If any outlawry be had in any action perſonal in any foreign county, and no writ of proclamation as aforeſaid awarded and returned; ſuch outlawry ſhall be void, and all outlawries contrary to this act ſhall be avoided by averment, without writ of error. ſ. 5.

By 31 Eliz. c. 3. In every action perſonal, wherein any writ of exigent ſhall be awarded, one writ of proclamation ſhall be made out, having day of teſte and return as the writ of exigent ſhall have, directed and delivered of record to the ſheriff of the county where the defendant ſhall be dwelling, which writ of proclamation ſhall contain the effect of the action. And the ſheriff ſhall make three proclamations, viz. one in the open county court, one other at the quarter ſeſſions, and one other one month at leaſt before the quint. exact. at or near the moſt uſual door of the church or chapel of that town or pariſh where the defendant ſhall be dwelling; and if the defendant ſhall be dwelling out of any pariſh, then in ſuch place of the pariſh, in the ſame county next adjoining, to the place of the defendant's dwelling, and upon a Sunday immediately after divine ſervice. And all outlawries had, and no writs of proclamations awarded and returned, according to this ſtatute ſhall be void. And the officer in whoſe office ſuch writs of exigent and proclamation ſhall be made, may take ſuch fees as by the ſtatute 6 Hen. 8. c. 4.

is limited; and the ſheriff for the making the proclamation at the church door, ſhall have 12*d.* ſ. 1. See ſ. 2. under title "Proceſs."

Before allowance of any writ of error, or reverſing of any outlawry be had, by want of any proclamation according to this ſtatute; the defendant in the original action ſhall put in bail, not only to appear and anſwer the plaintiff in the former ſuit in a new action, but alſo to ſatisfy the condemnation, if the plaintiff ſhall begin his ſuit before the end of two terms after the allowing the writ of error, or avoiding of the outlawry. ſ. 3.

By 4 & 5 Will. & Mar. c. 18. No perſon outlawed in the king's bench for any cauſe (treaſon and felony excepted), ſhall be compelled to appear in perſon, but may appear by attorney and reverſe the ſame without bail, except where ſpecial bail ſhall be ordered by the court. ſ. 4.

If any perſon outlawed in the ſaid court, other than for treaſon and felony, ſhall be taken upon any capias utlagatum, it ſhall be lawful for the ſheriff, where ſpecial bail is not required by the court, to take an attorney's engagement under his hand, to appear for the defendant, and reverſe the outlawries; and thereupon to diſcharge the defendant: and where bail is required, the ſheriff may take ſecurity of the defendant by bond with one ſurety, in double the ſum for which bail is required, for his appearance by attorney, and to do ſuch things as ſhall be required by the court. ſ. 5.

If any perſon taken upon a capias utlagatum ſhall be committed to gaol for default of ſecurity, whenſoever the priſoner ſhall find ſecurity for his appearance by attorney at ſome return in the term then next following, to reverſe the outlawries, &c. it ſhall be lawful for the ſheriff to diſcharge the priſoner. ſ. 6.

By 4 & 5 Will. & Mar. c. 22. made perpetual by 7 Will. 3. c. 36. Upon the iſſuing of any exigent for any criminal matter before judgment or conviction, there ſhall alſo iſſue a writ of proclamation, bearing the ſame teſte and return, to the ſheriff of the county, &c. where the perſon in the record is mentioned to be, according to ſt. 31 Eliz. c. 3. which writ ſhall be delivered to the ſheriff three months before the return. ſ. 4.

Oyer and terminer.

By Stat. Weſtm. 2. 13 Edw. 1. c. 29. The writ of treſpaſs to hear and determine ſhall not be granted before any juſtices, except the juſtices of either bench and juſtices in eyre, and only for a great treſpaſs, where haſty remedy is required: neither ſhall be granted a writ to hear and determine appeals before juſtices aſſigned, but in ſpecial caſe, and when the king ſhall command; but ſuch appellees and indictees may have a writ of odio et atia, as in magna charta. Confirmed 2 Edw. 3. c. 2.

By 33 Hen. 8. c. 23. If any perſons, being examined by the king's council, or three of them, be vehemently ſuſpected of treaſon, miſpriſion of treaſon or murder; by the king's command, his majeſty's commiſſion of oyer and terminer under his great ſeal, ſhall be made to ſuch perſons, and into ſuch ſhires, as ſhall be appointed by the king. ſ. 1.

If any peer ſhall be indicted of the offences aforeſaid, he ſhall have his trial by his peers. ſ. 3.

Palaces.

By 28 Hen. 8. c. 12.

THE great manſion-houſe purchaſed by the king, late parcel of the poſſeſſions of the archbiſhop of York, and the park, and the ſoil of the ancient palace at Weſtminſter, ſhall be the king's whole palace at Weſtminſter; and ſhall extend in all the ſtreet leading from Charing-croſs to the Sanctuary-gate at Weſtminſter, and in all the tenements on both ſides of the ſtreet from the ſaid croſs to Weſtminſter-hall, ſituate between the Thames on the eaſt, and the park wall on the weſt. ſ. 1.

The ſaid palace ſhall have within the precinct before expreſſed all prerogatives to the king's palace belonging. Saving to all perſons all right, &c. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not be prejudicial to the keeper of the palace of Weſtminſter, his heirs or aſſigns. ſ. 3.

By 33 Hen 8. c. 12. All treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons, murders, manſlaughters, bloodſheds, and other malicious ſtrikings, by reaſon whereof blood is ſhed, againſt the king's peace, which ſhall be done within any the palaces or houſes of the king, or any other houſe at ſuch time as his majeſty ſhall be then abiding in perſon, ſhall be enquired of, tried, heard and determined, within any the king's palaces or other houſes, where his majeſty ſhall repair unto, or be abiding, in manner following; viz. before the lord great maſter or lord ſteward of the king's moſt honourable houſhold, and in his abſence, before the treaſurer and controller of the houſhold, and ſteward of the marſhalſey, or two of them, whereof the ſteward of the marſhalſey to be one, without any commiſſion other than this act; which ſteward of the marſhalſey ſhall be appointed by writing, under the ſeal of the lord great maſter or lord ſteward. And where the king ſhall be removed from the palace where ſuch offences were done, yet ſuch offences ſhall be enquired of, tried, heard and determined, before the officers before named, by the inquiſition and verdict of his highneſs's houſhold ſervants in his check-roll, and at ſuch palace or houſes where his majeſty ſhall be abiding. ſ. 1.

All returns of proceſs, and all executions and judgments concerning the premiſes, ſhall be done by the officers. ſ. 2.

All inquiſitions upon the view of perſons ſlain within any the king's palaces or houſes aforeſaid, ſhall be taken by the coroner of the houſhold, without any aſſiſting of another coroner of any ſhire, by the oath of twelve of the yeomen officers, returned by the two clerks controllers, the clerks of the check, and the clerks marſhals, or one of them, them, to whom the coroner of the houſhold ſhall direct his precept, which coroner ſhall be aſſigned by the lord ſteward; and the coroner of the houſhold ſhall certify all ſuch inquiſitions upon the view of dead bodies ſlain within the ſaid palaces or houſes before the lord ſteward, and in his abſence, before the treaſurer, controller, and ſteward of the marſhalſey, or two of them, whereof the ſteward to be one. ſ. 3.

The ſaid two clerks controllers, clerks of the check, and clerks marſhals, or one of them, upon a precept made by the lord great maſter, &c. ſhall have power to ſummon and return twenty-four yeomen officers of the houſhold in the check-roll, to enquire of ſuch treaſons, miſpriſion of treaſons, murders, man-ſlaughters, and other malicious ſtrikings, by reaſon whereof blood is ſhed againſt the king's peace, before the lord great maſter, &c. ſ. 4.

And if any be indicted before them as aforeſaid, or by inquiſition before the coroner, and certified before the lord great maſter, &c. the ſaid lord great maſter, &c. ſhall arraign ſuch perſons indicted; and after iſſue joined the ſame day and place, or any other day and place, at the pleaſure of the lord great maſter, &c. ſhall make another precept to the clerks controllers, clerks of the check, and clerks marſhals, or one of them, to ſummon and return one other jury of 24 perſons, of the ſervants and gentlemen officers of the king's chamber, and of the houſhold, which take wages by the check-roll; and the lord grand maſter, &c. ſhall cauſe 12 of the jury to be ſworn, without any challenge to be allowed, malice only excepted; and if any ſuch perſon be found guilty of treaſon, miſpriſion of treaſon, murders or manſlaughters, he ſhall have judgment of life and member, and forfeit lands and goods, as if found guilty of the ſaid offences by the order of the common law without benefit of clergy. ſ. 6.

If any perſon ſo arraigned be found guilty for malicious ſtriking, by reaſon whereof blood is ſhed againſt the king's peace within the ſaid palace or other houſe, ſuch perſon ſhall have judgment by the ſaid lord great maſter, &c. to have his right hand ſtricken off before the lord great maſter, &c. the execution to be done by ſuch as the lord great maſter, &c. ſhall appoint, and alſo ſhall have judgment to have perpetual impriſonment, and ſhall pay fine and ranſom at the king's pleaſure. ſ. 7.

The ſerjeant ſurgeon, or his deputy, ſhall be ready at the execution to ſear the ſtump, when the hand is ſtricken off. ſ. 8.

The ſerjeant of the pantry to give bread to the party. ſ. 9.

The ſerjeant of the cellar with a pot of red wine, to give the party drink. ſ. 10.

The ſerjeant of the ewry with cloths for the ſurgeon to occupy. ſ. 11.

The yeoman of the chandry ſhall have ſeared cloths for the ſurgeon. ſ. 12.

The maſter cook ſhall bring a dreſſing knife, and deliver it to the ſerjeant of the larder, who ſhall hold it upright till execution be done. ſ. 13.

The ſerjeant of the poultry ſhall be ready with a cock for the ſurgeon to wrap about the ſtump. ſ. 14.

The yeoman of the ſcullery to make a fire of coals, and make ready ſearing-irons. ſ. 15.

The ſerjeant ſerror ſhall bring the ſearing-irons. ſ. 16.

The groom of the falcery ſhall be ready with vinegar and cold water. ſ. 17.

The ſerjeant of the wood-yard ſhall bring a block, with a betil, a ſtaple, and cords to bind the hand. ſ. 18.

If any perſon ſo indicted of treaſon, miſpriſion of treaſon, murder, manſlaughter, or malicious ſtriking by reaſon whereof blood is ſhed, and thereof be arraigned and obſtinately refuſe to anſwer, he ſhall be convict, and have judgment as if he were found guilty by verdict; and the clerks controllers, clerks of the check, and clerks marſhal, ſhall appoint a crier. ſ. 19.

Provided, that the trial of peers for any offences beforementioned, ſhall be as in time paſt. ſ. 20.

The juriſdiction of the marſhalſey court and circuit of the verge ſhall be uſed by the officers of the ſame as heretofore, for murders, felonies, offences, and all treſpaſſes, contracts, and other ſuits. ſ. 21.

The limits of the houſes within which the offences aforeſaid, ſhall be puniſhed as aforeſaid, ſhall be within any edifices, courts, places, gardens, orchards, or houſes, within the porter's ward, or within any gardens, privy walks, orchards, tilt-yards, wood-yards, tennis-plays, cock-fights, bowling-alleys, near adjoining to the houſes, and being part of the ſame, or within two hundred foot of the ſtandard of any outward gate of the houſes commonly uſed. ſ. 24.

This act concerning malicious ſtrikings ſhall not extend to any perſon that ſhall ſtrike his ſervants within the palace with his hands, or with any ſmall ſtick, for correction for any offences; nor to any of the king's officers that in executing of their office ſhall ſtrike any perſon with their hands, or with any ſmall ſtick, or with a tip-ſtaff; nor to any other that in doing ſervice at any triumph, or any other time of ſervice, by the king's command, or of any of his council, or other his head officers, ſhall for the executing of their ſervice, ſtrike any perſon with their hands or any ſmall ſtaff or tip-ſtaff; except the perſon ſtricken die of the ſame within one year. ſ. 26.

Papiſts.

By 3 Car. 1. c. 3. In caſe any perſon under the obedience of the king ſhall go or ſend any child, or other perſon, beyond the ſeas, to the intent to be trained up in any abbey, popiſh univerſity or ſchool, or houſe of jeſuits, or in any private popiſh family, and ſhall be there by any popiſh perſon inſtructed in the popiſh religion, to profeſs the ſame, or ſhall ſend any money or other thing under the name of alms, towards the relief of any abbey or religious houſe; every perſon ſo ſending, and every perſon ſent, being convicted upon any information or indictment, ſhall be diſabled to ſue any action in law or ſuit in equity, or to be committee of any ward, or executor or adminiſtrator to any perſon, or capable of any legacy or deed of gift, or to bear any office, and ſhall forfeit all his goods and chattels, and all his lands during life. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſent as aforeſaid, that ſhall within ſix months after his return conform to the church of England, and receive the ſacrament, ſhall incur the penalties. ſ. 2.

Offences againſt this ſtatute may be enquired, heard and determined, before the juſtices of the king's bench, or juſtices of aſſiſe, or gaol-delivery, or of oyer and terminer, of ſuch counties where the offenders did laſt dwell, or whence they departed out of this kingdom, or where they were taken. ſ. 3.

If any perſon ſo ſent ſhall after his return conform to the church of England, and receive the ſacrament, he ſhall have his lands reſtored. ſ. 4.

By 30 Car. 2. ſt. 2. No peer ſhall vote or make his proxy in the houſe of peers, or ſit there during any debate; nor any member of the houſe of commons ſhall vote in the houſe, or ſit there during any debate, after their ſpeaker is choſen; until ſuch peer or member ſhall firſt take the oaths of allegiance and ſupremacy, and ſubſcribe and repeat this declaration following:

I A. B. do ſolemnly and ſincerely, in the preſence of God, profeſs, teſtify and declare, that I do believe, that in the ſacrament of the Lord's ſupper there is not any tranſubſtantiation of the elements of bread and wine into the body and blood of Chriſt at or after the conſecration thereof by any perſon whatſoever, and that the invocation or adoration of the Virgin Mary, or any other ſaint, and the ſacrifice of the maſs, as they are now uſed in the church of Rome, are ſuperſtitious and idolatrous. And I do ſolemnly, in the preſence of God, profeſs, teſtify and declare, that I do make this declaration, and every part thereof, in the plain and ordinary ſenſe of the words read unto me, as they are commonly underſtood by Engliſh proteſtants, without any evaſion, equivocation, or mental reſervation whatſoever, and without any diſpenſation already granted me for this purpoſe by the pope, or any other authority or perſon whatſoever, or without any hope of any ſuch diſpenſation from any perſon or authority whatſoever, or without thinking that I am, or can be, acquitted before God or man, or abſolved of this declaration, or any part thereof, although the pope, or any other perſon or perſons, or power whatſoever, ſhould diſpenſe with or annul the ſame, or declare that it was null and void from the beginning.

Which oaths and declaration ſhall be made betwixt nine in the morning and four in the afternoon, by every ſuch peer, at the table in the middle of the houſe, and whilſt a full houſe of peers is there with the ſpeaker in his place; and by every member of the houſe of commons, at the table in the middle of the houſe, and whilſt a full houſe of commons is there ſitting with their ſpeaker in his chair; and the ſame ſhall be done in either houſe in like order, as each houſe is called over. ſ. 2.

Every peer of this realm and of the kingdom of Scotland, or of Ireland, being of the age of 21 years, not having taken the ſaid oaths and made the declaration; and every member of the houſe of commons, not having taken the oaths and made the declaration; and every perſon convicted of popiſh recuſancy, who ſhall come adviſedly into, or remain in the preſence of the king or queen, or ſhall come into the houſe where they reſide, ſhall incur the penalties in this act; unleſs ſuch peer, member, or perſon convicted, do in the next term take the oaths and make the declaration in chancery between nine and twelve in the forenoon. ſ. 3.

If any peer of this realm, or member of the houſe of commons, ſhall offend in any the caſes aforeſaid, ſuch peer and member ſhall be adjudged a popiſh recuſant convict, and ſhall be diſabled to hold any office or place of profit or truſt, civil or military, in England or Ireland, Wales or Berwick, or in any of his majeſty's iſlands or plantations, and ſhall be diſabled to ſit or vote in parliament, or make a proxy in the houſe of peers, or to ſue in law or equity, or to be guardian of any child, or executor or adminiſtrator of any perſon, or capable of any legacy or deed of gift; and ſhall forfeit for every wilful offence 500 l. to be recovered by him that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for the houſe of peers and houſe of commons to order the members to take the oaths, and make the declaration; and if any peer ſhall, contrary to ſuch order, preſume to ſit without taking the oaths, &c. ſuch peer ſhall be diſabled to ſit in the houſe, and give any voice by proxy or otherwiſe, during that parliament. And if any member of the houſe of commons ſhall, contrary to ſuch order, preſume to ſit without taking the oaths, &c. ſuch member ſhall be diſabled to ſit in the houſe of commons, or give any voice during that parliament. ſ. 5.

Where any member of the houſe of commons ſhall by this act be diſabled to ſit or vote, a new writ ſhall iſſue by warrant from the ſpeaker for the election of a new member to ſerve in the place of ſuch member ſo diſabled. ſ. 6.

During the time of taking the ſaid oaths, &c. all other matters in the ſaid houſes of parliament ſhall ceaſe; and the oaths, declaration and ſubſcription, with a ſchedule of the names of the perſons who ſhall by this act take the ſame, ſhall be filed in parchment rolls by the clerk of the houſe of lords, and the clerk of the houſe of commons; and none of the peers or members ſhall pay to any ſuch clerk above 12 d. for the entry of his taking the oaths; which rolls the clerks are without fee to ſhew to any perſon deſiring the ſame. ſ. 9.

This act ſhall not prejudice any perſon for coming into the preſence of the king or queen, who have a licence ſo to do by warrant of ſix privy councillors, by order of council, upon urgent occaſion therein to be expreſſed; ſo as ſuch licence exceed not ten days, and be firſt filed in the petty-bag for any body to view without fee; and no perſon to be licenſed for above thirty days in one year. ſ. 10.

If any offender, contrary to this act, ſhall take the oaths, &c. in chancery, ſuch perſon ſhall be diſcharged of all penalties of this act; ſo as ſuch diſcharge extend not to reſtore ſuch perſon to any office, nor to any other office, till after one year, nor to diſcharge the forfeiture of 500 l. ſ. 11.

By 1 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 9. It is required, that the lord mayor of London, and every juſtice of peace of London and Weſtminſter and Southwark, and of Middleſex, Surrey, Kent and Suſſex [Eſſex, by 1 Will. & Mar. c. 17.], cauſe to be arreſted and brought before him every perſon (not being a merchant foreigner within the ſaid cities or ten miles of the ſame) reputed to be papiſts, and tender him the declaration in 30 Car. 2. ſt. 2.; and in caſe ſuch perſon refuſe to make the declaration, and ſhall after ſuch refuſal continue within the ſaid cities, or ten miles diſtance from the ſame, he ſhall ſuffer as a popiſh recuſant convict. ſ. 2.

Every juſtice of peace ſhall certify every ſubſcription before him taken, and the names of every perſon refuſing, into the king's bench next term, or at the next quarter-ſeſſions; and if the perſon ſo refuſing and certified, ſhall not within the next term or ſeſſions appear in the king's bench or ſeſſions, where ſuch certificate ſhall be returned, and make the declaration, and indorſe his ſo doing upon the certificate, he ſhall be adjudged a popiſh recuſant convict. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this act ſhall relate to any foreigner that ſhall be menial ſervant to any ambaſſador or public agent. ſ. 5.

By 1 Will. & Mar. c. 15. It ſhall be lawful for any two juſtices of peace, to tender to any perſon known or ſuſpected to be a papiſt, the declaration in 30 Car. 2. ſt. 2. and if ſuch perſon ſhall not make the ſaid declaration, or ſhall forbear to appear before the juſtices, upon notice to him given or left at his place of abode, by any perſon authoriſed by warrant of the two juſtices, ſuch perſon ſhall be ſubject to the penalties in this act. ſ. 2.

The juſtices ſhall certify the name and place of abode of every perſon who ſhall refuſe to make the declaration, or to appear before them, as alſo of every perſon who ſhall make the declaration, at the next quarter-ſeſſions to be recorded. ſ. 3.

No papiſt or reputed papiſt refuſing or making default as aforeſaid, ſhall have any arms, gunpowder, or ammunition, tion, other than ſuch neceſſary weapons as ſhall be allowed him by order of the quarter-ſeſſions for the defence of his houſe or perſon. And any two juſtices by warrant may authoriſe any perſons in the day time, with the conſtable, tithingman or headborough, to ſearch for arms or ammunition which ſhall be in the cuſtody of any ſuch papiſt or reputed papiſt, and ſeize the ſame for the uſe of their majeſties, which juſtices ſhall at the next quarter-ſeſſions deliver the arms and ammunition in open court. ſ. 4.

Every papiſt or reputed papiſt, who ſhall not within ten days after ſuch refuſal or default as aforeſaid deliver to ſome of the juſtices of peace all arms or ammunition which he ſhall have, or ſhall hinder any perſon authoriſed by two juſtices, to ſearch for and ſeize the ſame, ſuch perſon ſhall be committed to gaol, by warrant of two juſtices, for three months; and ſhall alſo forfeit the arms, and treble the value of them to their majeſties, to be appraiſed by the juſtices at the next quarter-ſeſſions. ſ. 5.

Every perſon who ſhall be privy to the concealing the arms or ammunition of any perſon ſo refuſing or making default, or ſhall hinder any perſon authoriſed in ſearching for and ſeizing the ſame, ſhall be committed to gaol by two juſtices for three months, and forfeit treble the value of the arms to their majeſties. ſ. 6.

If any perſon ſhall diſcover any concealed arms, &c. belonging to any refuſing or making default as aforeſaid, ſo as the ſame may be ſeized, the juſtices upon delivery of the ſame at the quarter-ſeſſions, ſhall by order of ſeſſions allow him a ſum of money amounting to the value of the arms, &c. to be aſſeſſed by the ſeſſions, and levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the perſon offending. ſ. 7.

If any perſon, who ſhall have refuſed or made default as aforeſaid, ſhall deſire to ſubmit and preſent himſelf before the juſtices at the quarter ſeſſions, and ſhall in open court make the declaration, and take the oaths in 1 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 1. viz. of allegiance and ſupremacy, he ſhall be diſcharged of all diſabilities and forfeitures. ſ. 8.

No papiſt, or reputed papiſt, refuſing or making default as aforeſaid, ſhall have any horſe above the value of 5 l. and any two juſtices of peace by warrant may authoriſe any perſon, with the aſſiſtance of the conſtable, tithingman, or headborough, to ſearch for and ſeize for the uſe of their majeſties all ſuch horſes, which are declared to be forfeited. ſ. 9.

If any perſon ſhall be aſſiſting in the concealing any ſuch horſe belonging to any papiſt, or reputed ſo, refuſing or making default as aforeſaid, ſuch perſon ſhall be committed to priſon as aforeſaid by three months, and ſhall forfeit to their majeſties treble the value of ſuch horſes, to be ſettled as aforeſaid. ſ. 10.

By 1 Will. & Mar. c. 17. The powers by 1 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 9. given to the juſtices of peace of Suſſex are declared to extend to the juſtices of peace of the county of Eſſex. ſ. 2.

By 1 Will. & Mar. c. 26. Every perſon who ſhall refuſe to make the declaration mentioned in 1 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 15. or ſhall refuſe to appear for the making thereof, and ſhall thereupon have his name certified and recorded at the quarter-ſeſſions, ſhall be diſabled to make preſentation, donation, or grant of avoidance, of any eccleſiaſtical living, as fully as if he were a popiſh recuſant convict [ſee Recuſants]; and the chancellor and ſcholars of the univerſity of Oxford and of Cambridge ſhall have the preſentation in the reſpective limits in the act 3 Jac. 1. c. 5. ſ. 2.

Where any perſons are ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of any advowſon of any eccleſiaſtical living, free ſchool or hoſpital, in truſt for any papiſt or popiſh recuſant, ſuch perſons ſhall be diſabled to preſent, or to grant any avoidance; and the reſpective univerſities ſhall have the preſentations; and in caſe any truſtee or mortgagee, or grantee of any avoidance, preſent any perſon to ſuch eccleſiaſtical living, &c. without giving notice of the avoidance in writing to the vice-chancellor of the univerſity, to whom the preſentation ſhall belong, within three months after the avoidance, he ſhall forfeit 500 l. to the reſpective univerſities, to be recovered in any of their majeſties courts of record. ſ. 3 & 4.

The univerſities ſhall not preſent to any eccleſiaſtical living any perſon as ſhall then have any other benefice with cure; and if any ſuch preſentation ſhall be, the ſame ſhall be void. ſ. 5.

If any perſon ſo preſented to any benefice with cure ſhall be abſent above ſixty days in one year, the benefice ſhall become void. ſ. 6.

If any ſuch perſon ſhall preſent himſelf before the juſtices at the quarter-ſeſſions where his name was recorded, and make the declaration, and take the oaths of ſupremacy and allegiance, he ſhall be diſcharged of the diſability. ſ. 7.

By 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 4. The 100 l. mentioned in 3 Jac. 1. c. 5. [ſee Recuſants] ſhall be to the ſole uſe of him who ſhall diſcover and convict any perſon ſo offending. ſ. 6.

If any parent, in order to the compelling his proteſtant child to change his religion, ſhall refuſe to allow ſuch child a fitting maintenance, upon complaint, it ſhall be lawful for the lord chancellor to make ſuch order therein as ſhall be agreeable to this act. ſ. 7.

By 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 14. Every papiſt, or perſon making profeſſion of the popiſh religion, and every child, not being a proteſtant, under the age of 21 years, of every ſuch papiſt, &c. and every mortgagee or truſtee for any papiſt, &c. or ſuch child, ſhall be diſabled to preſent to any eccleſiaſtical living, ſchool, hoſpital or donative, or to grant any avoidance; and every ſuch preſentation and grant, and every admiſſion, inſtitution and induction thereupon, ſhall be void; and the univerſity of Oxford and of Cambridge ſhall reſpectively have the preſentation in the reſpective limits in the act 3 Jac. 1. c. 5. ſ. 1.

When any preſentation ſhall be brought to any ordinary from any perſon who ſhall be reputed to be, or whom ſuch ordinary ſhall have cauſe to ſuſpect to be, a papiſt, or truſtee of any perſon making profeſſion of the popiſh religion, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch ordinary to tender to ſuch perſon, if preſent, the declaration againſt tranſubſtantiation in 25 Car. 2. c. 2. "Recuſants;" and in caſe ſuch perſon be abſent, the ordinary ſhall, by notice in writing to be left at the place of habitation of ſuch perſon, appoint when and where ſuch perſon ſhall appear before ſuch ordinary, or perſons authoriſed under his ſeal of office; and upon appearance, the ordinary ſhall tender the declaration to the perſon making ſuch preſentation; and in caſe ſuch perſon refuſe to make ſuch declaration, or to appear, ſuch preſentation ſhall be void; and ſuch ordinary ſhall within ten days ſend a certificate under his ſeal of office of ſuch neglect or refuſal to the vice-chancellor of that univerſity to whom ſuch preſentation would belong; and it ſhall be lawful for ſuch univerſity to preſent. ſ. 2.

When the preſentation ſhall be brought to any ordinary, he is required, before he give inſtitution, to examine the perſon preſented, upon oath, whether to the beſt of his knowledge and belief, the perſon who made ſuch preſentation be the true patron, or be not truſtee for papiſts, or the children of ſuch, or any other perſon; and if ſuch perſon preſented ſhall not anſwer directly, ſuch preſentation ſhall be void. ſ. 3.

It ſhall be lawful for the reſpective univerſities to whom the preſentation ſhould belong, and their clerks, to exhibit their bill in equity againſt ſuch perſons preſenting, and ſuch as they have reaſon to believe to be the ceſtuy que truſt, or any other who they have cauſe to ſuſpect may be able to make any diſcovery of ſecret truſts, to which bill the defendants ſhall anſwer; and in caſe they neglect to anſwer, the bill ſhall be taken pro confeſſo; provided that every perſon having fully anſwered, and not knowing of any ſuch truſt for a papiſt, or other perſon diſabled, ſhall be entitled to his coſts to be taxed. ſ. 4.

It ſhall be lawful for the court where any quare impedit ſhall be depending, at the inſtance of either of the univerſities by motion, to make any rule requiring ſatisfaction upon the oath of ſuch patron and his clerk who ſhall conteſt the right of the univerſity, by examination in court, or by commiſſion, or by affidavit, as the court ſhall find proper; and in caſe it ſhall appear that the patron is but a truſtee for other perſons, then the patron and his clerk ſhall diſcover who ſuch perſons are, and where they live; and upon their refuſal to make ſuch diſcovery, they ſhall be puniſhed as perſons guilty of a contempt; and in caſe ſuch patron or his clerk ſhall diſcover the perſon for whom the patron is a truſtee, the court, upon motion, ſhall make a rule, that the perſon for whom the patron is a truſtee ſhall in court, or before commiſſioners, make the declaration againſt tranſubſtantiation, and likewiſe give ſuch further ſatisfaction upon oath touching the truſt, as the court ſhall think fit; and ſuch perſon required to make the declaration, and neglecting ſo to do, ſhall be eſteemed a popiſh recuſant convict in reſpect of ſuch preſentation. ſ. 5.

The anſwer of ſuch patrons, and the perſon for whom they are entruſted, and their clerk, and their examinations and affidavits taken by order of court, or by any ordinary, or the commiſſioners, as aforeſaid (which examinations ſhall be reduced into writing, and ſigned by the party examined), ſhall be evidence againſt ſuch patron and his clerk. ſ. 6.

Provided that no ſuch bill, nor any diſcovery to be made by any anſwer thereto, or to any examination as aforeſaid, ſhall be made uſe of to ſubject any perſon making ſuch diſcovery, or not anſwering ſuch bill, to any penalty other than the loſs of the preſentation. ſ. 7.

In caſe of any ſuch bill of diſcovery exhibited by either of the univerſities, or their preſentee, no lapſe ſhall incur, nor plenarty be a bar, till after three months from the time that the anſwer ſhall be put in, or the bill be taken pro confeſſo, or the proſecution deſerted, provided ſuch bill be exhibited before any lapſe incurred. ſ. 8.

The univerſities are entitled to ſue any writ of quare impedit, by the name of chancellor and ſcholars of the univerſity of Oxford and of Cambridge reſpectively, or by their proper names of incorporation, at their election. ſ. 9.

In caſe of any truſt for a papiſt diſcovered by anſwer to ſuch bill, or ſuch examination as aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for the court to inforce the producing of the deeds relating to the truſts. ſ. 10.

Nothing herein before ſhall extend to Scotland. ſ. 11. See "SCOTLAND."

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 55. All perſons having any eſtate in lands in England, Wales or Berwick, who ſhall be a popiſh recuſant, or papiſt, or educated in the popiſh religion, or whoſe parent ſhall be a papiſt, ſhall within ſix months after they attain the age of 21 years, take the oaths appointed by 1 Geo. 1. c. 13. and repeat the declaration in 30 Car. 2. ſt. 2. in the chancery, common pleas, king's bench, or exchequer, or at the quarter-ſeſſions, where ſuch lands, &c. lie, between nine and twelve in the forenoon; or ſhall within ſix months after they ſhall come into the poſſeſſion of the profits of any lands, &c. regiſter their names and lands, and who are the poſſeſſors thereof, and what intereſt they have in the ſame, and the yearly rent reſerved, if the ſame are let, and if upon leaſe, by whom ſuch leaſe was made, and what fine was paid for ſuch leaſe, in a parchment roll, to be kept by the clerk of the peace; and every perſon whoſe name and eſtate ought to be regiſtered, is to take care that his name be ſubſcribed to ſuch regiſtry in the preſence of two juſtices of peace in open ſeſſions, or by his lawful attorney authoriſed under hand and ſeal; two of the witneſſes to which letter of attorney ſhall make proof of ſuch execution on oath at the quarter-ſeſſions, and two of the juſtices ſhall ſubſcribe their names to ſuch entry, and in default thereof each of the juſtices preſent ſhall forfeit 20*l.* to the king. And the clerks of the peace are to keep rolls, and regiſter the names of all who ſhall come to be regiſtered, or who ſhall ſend any writing to ſuch clerk deſiring him to regiſter their names; and ſhall alſo regiſter the eſtate of ſuch perſons, provided they pay the fees appointed, and apply to enter ſuch regiſtry ten days before the ſeſſions where the entries are to be ſubſcribed; which books, &c. they ſhall carry to the quarter-ſeſſions, that all thoſe whoſe names ſhall be regiſtered, or their attornies, may come to the quarter-ſeſſions, and ſubſcribe the names of the perſons regiſtered; and ſuch clerk, &c. ſhall alſo keep alphabetical tables of their names, and of the places where the lands lie, and ſhall keep all ſuch warrants of attorney on a file, and enter ſuch warrants on record, and ſhall have for ſuch regiſtering and entry 3 d. for every 200 words, and 4 d. for every ſearch; and ſuch clerk is to give copies of ſuch regiſters ſubſcribed to every perſon deſiring the ſame, and tendering the fees; and ſhall ſuffer ſuch perſons to examine the ſame with the rolls, and ſhall take 3 d. for every 200 words in ſuch copy; and if any clerk of the peace ſhall neglect to do any thing hereby appointed, and be convicted, he ſhall forfeit his office. And if any perſon required to take the oaths, &c. or regiſter his name and eſtate, ſhall neither take the ſaid oaths, &c. nor regiſter, he ſhall forfeit the inheritance of all ſuch lands, &c. not regiſtered, or fraudulently regiſtered, of which he, or any in truſt for him, was ſeiſed at the time of ſuch default, and the full value of the inheritance of all ſuch lands whereof he was not ſeiſed in fee-ſimple; two-thirds to the king, and the other to ſuch perſon, being a proteſtant, as will ſue for the ſame in any the courts at Weſtminſter, or in chancery. And the perſon ſuing in chancery ſhall be entitled to ſuch diſcoveries as if he were a purchaſer of the eſtate ſued for, to which bill the defendant ſhall anſwer; and the perſon ſuing for ſuch real eſtate may bring an ejectment upon his own demiſe; and if it ſhall appear on trial that the eſtate ſued for is the eſtate of the perſon neglecting to regiſter, and the defendant ſhall not make it appear that he took the oaths, and repeated the declaration, or that he regiſtered his name and the eſtate ſued for, a verdict ſhall be for the leſſor of the plaintiff, and the leſſor of the plaintiff ſhall have coſts; and by ſuch judgment two third parts of the lands recovered ſhall be veſted in the king, and the other third in the leſſor of the plaintiff. ſ. 1.

In caſe ſuch perſon making default, or committing fraud in regiſtering, ſhall before ſuit brought, for a valuable conſideration convey or incumber any ſuch lands, &c. the perſons ſo purchaſing, &c. not knowing the offender to be within this act, ſhall not be prejudiced; but the offender ſhall forfeit the value of the lands, &c. ſ. 3.

This

This act ſhall not compel any perſon to regiſter, &c. till he or his truſtees have been ſeiſed, and have notice thereof, or poſſeſſed, or in receipt of the rents, for ſix months. ſ. 4.

Nor ſhall it compel any perſon to regiſter lands, &c. whereof he ſhall be only farmer at a rack-rent, or which he ſhall hold by leaſe whereon two thirds of the yearly value are reſerved. ſ. 5.

Nor ſhall it prejudice any proteſtant or other creditor who hath any charge on any real eſtate, but the perſon making default ſhall forfeit the value of ſuch charge; one third to the perſon who will ſue, the other two thirds to the crown. ſ. 6.

By 3 Geo. 1. c. 18. No ſuit for any forfeiture contained in the foregoing act for refuſing to regiſter, or for any fraud in ſuch regiſtry, ſhall be commenced after two years after the offence committed. ſ. 2.

Where any lands or entire farms lie in more counties than one, the regiſtering in the county where the manſion-houſe doth lie, taking notice that the ſame extend to ſuch other county, ſhall be a ſufficient regiſter. ſ. 3.

No ſale for a full conſideration by reputed owners, or perſons in poſſeſſion of the rents and profits to be made only for the benefit of proteſtants, ſhall be avoided for any of the diſabilities in 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 4. or in 1 Jac. 1. c. 4. [ſee Recuſants], or other acts made againſt papiſts, unleſs the perſon entitled to take advantage of ſuch diſability ſhall have recovered, &c. or given notice of his claim to ſuch purchaſer, or before the contract for ſuch ſale ſhall have claimed by reaſon of ſuch diſability, and have entered his claim at the ſeſſions of the peace, and with due diligence purſued his remedy. ſ. 4.

The clauſe in 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 4. by which papiſts are diſabled from purchaſing, ſhall not be hereby altered. ſ. 5.

No manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, or intereſt therein, or rent or profit thereof, ſhall paſs from any papiſt by any deed or will, except ſuch deed within ſix months after date, and ſuch will within ſix months after the teſtator's death, be inrolled in one of the courts of record at Weſtminſter, or in the county where ſuch manors, &c. lie, by the cuſtos rotulorum and two juſtices and the clerks of the peace, or two of them, whereof the clerk of the peace to be one. ſ. 6. And by 21 Geo. 3. c. 51. the deputy clerk of the peace ſhall have the like power as the clerk of the peace.

By 11 Geo. 2. c. 17. Every perſon, being reputed owner, or in poſſeſſion of, any lands or hereditaments, who having been a papiſt, or educated in the popiſh religion, hath conformed, or ſhall conform to and profeſs the proteſtant religion, and take the oaths of allegiance, ſupremacy and abjuration, and ſubſcribe the declaration in 30 Car. 2. ſt. 2. (which ſhall be recorded in one of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, or quarter-ſeſſions); and all perſons being proteſtants claiming under ſuch perſons conforming, and not for the benefit of any papiſt, ſhall hold and enjoy ſuch lands, &c. freed from the diſabilities incurred by ſuch owners, or by any other perſons through whom the title ſhall be derived, unleſs the perſon entitled to take advantage of ſuch diſability ſhall recover ſuch lands, &c. by judgment or decree in ſome ſuit to be commenced ſix calendar months at leaſt before the making of ſuch record, and to be proſecuted with diligence. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not prejudice the right of any perſon entitled to take advantage of ſuch diſability, who now is in poſſeſſion, or ſhall have, precedent to the making of ſuch record, been in poſſeſſion, of ſuch lands, &c. two calendar months. ſ. 2.

If any ſuch perſon conforming ſhall return to the popiſh religion, ſuch perſon ſhall for ever afterwards be diſabled from having any benefit of this act, and ſhall be liable to the ſame diſabilities as if he had not taken the oaths, &c. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this act ſhall prejudice the right of any perſon entitled to any remainder or reverſion, in caſe ſuch perſon ſhall purſue his right by ſuit to be commenced within twelve calendar months after the eſtate on which ſuch remainder or reverſion depends ſhall be determined, or within twelve calendar months after the 29th of September 1738, if ſuch precedent eſtate be already determined by the death of any perſons whoſe deaths have been concealed from the perſon entitled, by reaſon of their having been buried beyond the ſeas or in a private manner, and ſhall proſecute ſuch ſuit with diligence. ſ. 4.

Every grant of any advowſon of any eccleſiaſtical living, ſchool, hoſpital or donative, and every grant of any avoidance thereof, by any papiſt or perſon making profeſſion of the popiſh religion, or any mortgagee or perſon entruſted for any papiſt, &c. ſhall be void, unleſs ſuch grant ſhall be made bona fide, and for a full conſideration, to a proteſtant purchaſer, and only for the benefit of proteſtants; and ſuch grantee ſhall be deemed a truſtee for a papiſt, and they and their preſentees ſhall be compelled to make ſuch diſcovery relating to ſuch grants and preſentations, as by the act 12 Ann. ſt. 2. c. 14. are directed; and every deviſe to be made by any papiſt of any ſuch advowſon, &c. with intent to ſecure the benefit thereof to the heirs or family of ſuch papiſt, ſhall be void; and ſuch deviſees, and perſons claiming under ſuch deviſees, and their preſentees, ſhall be compelled to diſcover whether ſuch deviſes were not made with the ſaid intent. ſ. 5.

By 18 Geo. 3. c. 60. So much of 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 4. as relates to the apprehending or proſecuting popiſh biſhops, prieſts, or jeſuits, or that ſubjects them, or papiſts keeping ſchool, or educating or boarding youth in the realm, to perpetual impriſonment, or that diſables papiſts to inherit, or take by deviſe or limitation, any eſtate, and gives the ſame to the next of kin, being a proteſtant, and ſo much of the ſame act as diſables papiſts to purchaſe, and makes void all eſtates therein, was repealed.

Every perſon having or claiming any lands, &c. under titles not hitherto litigated, ſhall enjoy the ſame as if the ſaid act had not been made. ſ. 2.

Nothing herein ſhall affect any action now depending, which ſhall be proſecuted with effect, and without delay. ſ. 3.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to any perſon but ſuch who ſhall, within ſix calendar months, after the paſſing of this act, or of accruing of his title, being of the age of 21 years, or who, being under the age of 21 years, ſhall, within ſix months after he ſhall attain the age of 21 years, or being of unſound mind, or in priſon, or beyond the ſeas, then within ſix months after ſuch diſability removed, take and ſubſcribe an oath in the following words:

I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſwear, that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to his majeſty king George the third, and him will defend to the utmoſt of my power, againſt all conſpiracies and attempts whatever, which ſhall be made againſt his perſon, crown, or dignity. And I will do my utmoſt endeavour to diſcloſe and make known to his majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, all treaſons and traiterous conſpiracies, which may be formed againſt him or them: and I do faithfully promiſe to maintain, ſupport, and defend, to the utmoſt of my power, the ſucceſſion of the crown in his majeſty's family, againſt any perſon or perſons whatſoever; hereby hereby utterly renouncing and abjuring any obedience or allegiance unto the perſon taking upon himſelf the ſtyle and title of prince of Wales, in the lifetime of his father, and who ſince his death, is ſaid to have aſſumed the ſtyle and title of, king of Great Britain, by the name of Charles the third, and to any other perſon claiming or pretending a right to the crown of theſe realms: and I do ſwear, that I do reject and deteſt, as an unchriſtian and impious poſition, that it is lawful to murder or deſtroy any perſon or perſons whatſoever, for or under pretence of their being heretics; and alſo that unchriſtian and impious principle, that no faith is to be kept with heretics. I further declare, that it is no article of my faith, and I do renounce, reject, and abjure the opinion, that princes excommunicated by the pope and council, or by any authority of the ſee of Rome, or by any authority whatſoever, may be depoſed or murdered by their ſubjects or any perſon whatſoever: and I do declare, that I do not believe that the pope of Rome, or any other foreign prince, prelate, ſtate, or potentate, hath, or ought to have, any temporal or civil juriſdiction, power, ſuperiority, or pre-eminence, directly or indirectly, within this realm. And I do ſolemnly, in the preſence of God, profeſs, teſtify, and declare, that I do make this declaration, and every part thereof, in the plain and ordinary ſenſe of the words of this oath, without any evaſion, equivocation, or mental reſervation, whatever and without any diſpenſation already granted by the pope, or any authority of the ſee of Rome, or any perſon whatever; and without thinking that I am or can be acquitted before God or man, or abſolved of this declaration, or any part thereof, although the pope, or any other perſons or authority whatſoever, ſhall diſpenſe with or annul the ſame, or declare that it was null or void.

Which oath the court of chancery, or any court of record at Weſtminſter, the courts of great ſeſſions within Wales, and county palatine of Cheſter, the courts of chancery or common pleas within the counties palatine of Lancaſter and Durham, or any court of general or quarter ſeſſions in England or Wales, may adminiſter, and they are to adminiſter the ſame accordingly: of the taking and ſubſcribing of which oaths a regiſter ſhall be kept in manner preſcribed by the laws requiring oaths from perſons taking offices and employments. ſ. 4.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any popiſh biſhop, prieſt, jeſuit, or ſchoolmaſter, who ſhall not have taken and ſubſcribed the above oath in the above words, before he ſhall have been apprehended, or any proſecution commenced againſt him. ſ. 5.

By 29 Geo. 3. c. 36. Every deed and will made ſince the 29th of September 1717, to paſs any hereditaments from any perſon profeſſing the popiſh religion, though not enrolled, ſhall be good, provided the ſame be enrolled on or before the 1ſt of December 1789, in ſuch manner as by the 3 Geo. 1. c. 18. is directed. ſ. 1.

Nothing herein ſhall make good any ſuch deed, will, or leaſe, of the want of enrollment whereof advantage ſhall have been taken, on or before 1ſt January 1789. ſ. 2.

No purchaſe made for full conſideration of any hereditaments, by any proteſtant for the benefit of proteſtants, ſhall be impeached by reaſon that any deed or will through which the title thereto is derived, hath not been enrolled, ſo as no advantage was taken of [*the want of] enrollment thereof before ſuch purchaſe was made, and ſo as no decree or judgment hath been obtained for want of the enrollment of ſuch deeds or wills. ſ. 3.

* Not in the act.

Nothing herein ſhall make good any grant, leaſe, or mortgage of the advowſon, or right of preſentation to any benefice, prebend, or eccleſiaſtical living, ſchool, hoſpital, or donative, or any avoidance thereof, made by any papiſt in truſt for any papiſt, whether ſuch truſt hath been declared in writing or not. ſ 4.

Pardon.

By 2 Edw. 3. c. 2. Charters of pardon for manſlaughters, robberies, felonies, and other treſpaſſes againſt the peace, ſhall not be granted, but only where the king may do it by his oath, viz. where a man ſlayeth another in his own defence, or by misfortune.

Confirmed 4 Edw. 3. c. 13. and 10 Edw. 3. c. 3.

By 14 Edw. 3. c. 15. No pardon of the death of a man, nor of other felony, ſhall be granted, but where the king may do it ſaving the oath of his crown; and if any charter be granted againſt the ſaid ſtatute, the ſame ſhall be holden for none.

By 27 Edw. 3. ſtat. 1. c. 2. In every charter of pardon of felony granted at any man's ſuggeſtion, the ſuggeſtion, and the name of him that maketh it, ſhall be compriſed in the charter; and if the ſuggeſtion be found untrue, the charter ſhall be diſallowed; and the juſtices before whom ſuch charters ſhall be alledged ſhall enquire of the ſuggeſtion.

By 13 Rich. 2. ſtat. 2. c. 1. No pardon ſhall be allowed for murder, or for the death of a man ſlain by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, treaſon, or rape of a woman, unleſs the ſame murder, &c. be ſpecified in the charter; and if a charter of the death of a man, be alledged before any juſtices, in which it is not ſpecified, that he of whoſe death any ſuch is arraigned, was murdered or ſlain by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, the juſtices ſhall enquire by inqueſt, if he were murdered or ſlain by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, and if they find that he was, the charter ſhall be diſallowed.

Confirmed by 16 Ric. 2. c. 6.

By 5 Hen. 4. c. 2. Becauſe divers thieves being indicted of felonies become provers, to the intent that by brocage they might have their pardons; if any perſon purſue for ſuch thief, attainted by his own confeſſion, to have a pardon, the name of him that purſueth ſhall be put in the charter; and if he to whom ſuch charter is granted, becometh a thief again, the perſon which did purſue, ſhall incur the pain of 100 l. to the king's uſe.

By 5 & 6 Will. & Mar. c. 13. If any charter of pardon be pleaded by any perſon for any felony, the juſtices before whom ſuch pardon ſhall be pleaded, may, at their diſcretion, remand or commit ſuch perſon to priſon, until he enter into a recognizance with two ſureties, for his good behaviour for any time not exceeding ſeven years. ſ. 4.

If ſuch pardon be pleaded by a feme covert, or infant, ſuch feme covert, or infant, may find two ſureties, who ſhall enter into a recognizance for him or her being of the good behaviour. ſ. 5.

Parliament.

By 4 Edw. 3. c. 14. A parliament ſhall be holden every year once, or more often if need be.

By

By 36 Edw. 3. c. 10. A parliament ſhall be holden every year as ordained by ſtatute.

By 5 Ric. 2. ſt. 2. c. 4. All perſons and commonalties, which ſhall have ſummons of parliament, ſhall come to the parliaments as hath been accuſtomed of old times. And every perſon which ſhall have the ſummons (be he archbiſhop, &c. duke, earl, baron, baneret, knight of the ſhire, citizen, burgeſs, &c.) and do abſent himſelf, (except he can reaſonably excuſe himſelf to the king) ſhall be amerced and otherwiſe puniſhed, as of old times hath been uſed. And if any ſheriff be negligent in making his return of writs of the parliament, or leave out any cities or boroughs which of old times were wont to come to parliament, he ſhall be puniſhed as accuſtomed.

By 12 Ric. 2. c. 12. The levying of the expences of the knights for the commons of the counties ſhall be made as hath been uſed; and if any lord have purchaſed lands that were wont to be contributory, the ſame ſhall be contributory as before.

By 5 Hen. 4. c. 6. In caſe of a menial ſervant of a knight of parliament, being horribly beaten and maimed in time of parliament, proclamation ſhall be made that the offender render himſelf in the king's bench within a quarter of a year, and if he do it not, he ſhall be attainted of the fact, and ſhall pay to the party his double damages, to be taxed at the diſcretion of the judges, or by inqueſt, if need be, and ſhall make fine and ranſom at the king's will.

By 7 Hen. 4. c. 15. The elections of knights of ſhires ſhall be made as followeth, viz. at the next county after delivery of the writ, proclamation ſhall be made of the day and place of the parliament, and that all that be preſent ſhall attend to the election of their knights; and then in full county they ſhall proceed to the election freely. And after they be choſen, the names of the perſons ſhall be written in an indenture under the ſeals of them that did chooſe them, and tacked to the writ, which indenture ſhall be the return. And in the writs of parliament this clauſe ſhall be put: and your election in your full county made, you ſhall without delay, diſtinctly and openly certify, under your ſeal, and the ſeals of them who were concerned in that election, to us in our chancery, at the day and place in the writ contained.

By 11 Hen. 4. c. 1. The juſtices aſſigned to take aſſizes, ſhall have power to enquire of returns made contrary to 7 Hen. 4. c. 15. and if it be found by inqueſt and due examination, that any ſheriff hath made return contrary to the ſtatute, the ſheriff ſhall incur the pain of 100 l. to be paid to the king, and the knights ſo unduly returned ſhall loſe their wages of old time accuſtomed.

By 6 Hen. 6. c. 4. The knights and ſheriffs ſhall have their anſwer and traverſe againſt inqueſts and offices taken before the juſtices of aſſizes, by 11 Hen. 4. c. 1. and the ſaid knights and ſheriffs ſhall not be indamaged by any ſuch inqueſt till they be duly convict.

By 8 Hen. 6. c. 7. The knights of the ſhires ſhall be choſen by people dwelling in the ſame counties, whereof every one ſhall have free land or tenements to the value of 40 s. by the year. And ſuch as have the greateſt number of them that may expend 40 s. by the year, ſhall be returned by the ſheriffs by indentures ſealed betwixt the ſheriffs and the chooſers. And every ſheriff ſhall have power to examine upon the evangeliſts every chooſer, how much he may expend by the year. And if any ſheriff return knights, contrary to the ſaid ordinance, the juſtices of aſſizes ſhall have power to enquire; and if by inqueſt the ſame be found before the juſtices, and the ſheriff be duly attainted, the ſheriff ſhall incur the pain of 100 l. and alſo have impriſonment by a year; and the knights returned contrary to the ſaid ordinance, ſhall loſe their wages. Provided that he that may not expend 40 s. by year, ſhall in no wiſe be chooſer of the knights of parliament; and in every writ to chooſe knights for the parliament, mention ſhall be made of the ſaid ordinances.

By 11 Hen. 6. c. 11. If any aſſault or affray be made to any lord, knight of ſhire, citizen, or burgeſs, come to the parliament or other council of the king, by his command, and there being and attending the parliament or other council; proclamation ſhall be three ſeveral days in the moſt open place of the town where the aſſault or affray ſhall be, that the party offending render himſelf before the king in his bench, within a quarter of a year after the proclamation, if it be in term time, or elſe at the next day in term following the ſaid quarter; and if he do it not, he ſhall be attainted of the fact, and pay to the party grieved his double damages, to be taxed by the diſcretion of the juſtices, or by inqueſts, and make fine and ranſom at the will of the king. And if he come, and be found guilty by inqueſt, examination, or otherwiſe, he ſhall pay to the party grieved his double damages found by the inqueſt, or taxed by the diſcretion of the juſtices, and make fine and ranſom at the king's will.

By 23 Hen. 6. c. 10. The ſheriff in the next county court after the deliverance of the writs for levying the knights wages, ſhall make proclamation, that the coroners and every chief conſtable of the peace, and the bailiffs of every hundred, and all other which will be at the aſſeſſing of the wages, ſhall be at the next county; and the ſheriff, under-ſheriff, coroners, or bailiffs, ſhall be there at the ſame time, upon pain of forfeiture to the king of 40 s. at which time the ſheriff, in the preſence of them that ſhall come, and of the ſuitors of the counties, in full county, ſhall aſſeſs every county to pay a certain ſum for the wages of the knights, ſo that the whole ſum of all the hundreds, do not exceed the ſum which ſhall be due to the knights: and after that in the ſame county ſhall aſſeſs every village to a certain ſum, ſo that the whole ſum of all the towns within any hundred do not exceed the ſum aſſeſſed upon the hundred. And the ſheriffs, nor none other officer, ſhall levy more of any village, than that whereunto they were aſſeſſed; and if they do aſſeſs any hundred or village otherwiſe than aforeſaid, they ſhall forfeit to the king 20 l. and to any man which will ſue 10 l. ſ. 1.

The ſheriffs ſhall levy the money aſſeſſed upon the villages, as haſtily as they well may, and the ſame ſhall deliver to the knights, upon the ſaid pains: and he that will ſue, ſhall have a ſcire facias; and if the defendant, duly warned, make default, or appear or be convict, the plaintiffs ſhall recover 10 l. to their own uſe, over the ſaid 20 l. with treble coſts. ſ. 2.

The juſtices of the king's bench and of the common pleas, juſtices of aſſizes and gaol delivery, and juſtices of peace, ſhall have power to enquire, hear, and determine, of all the ſaid defaults, as well by enquiry at the king's ſuit, as by action at the ſuit of the parties. And ſuch expences of knights ſhall not be levied of any other places, but where they have been levied before. ſ. 3.

In every writ to levy the wages of the knights this act ſhall be comprehended. ſ. 4.

By 23 Hen. 6. c. 14. Every ſheriff, after the delivery of the writ, ſhall make a precept under his ſeal, to every mayor and bailiff of the cities and boroughs, reciting the writ, commanding them by the precept, if it be a city, to chooſe by citizens of the ſame city citizens, and in the ſame manner manner if it be a borough, by the burgeſſes of the ſame burgeſſes, to come to the parliament; and the mayor and bailiffs ſhall return the precept to the ſheriffs, by indentures between the ſheriff and them, of the ſaid elections, and of the names of the citizens and burgeſſes choſen, and thereupon every ſheriff ſhall make return of ſuch writ, and of every return by the mayors and bailiffs to him made. And every ſheriff that doth contrary to any ſtatute for the election of knights, citizens, and burgeſſes, ſhall incur the pain contained in the ſtatute 8 Hen. 6. c. 7. and moreover ſhall forfeit to every perſon choſen knight, citizen, or burgeſs, in his county, and not duly returned, or to any other which in default of ſuch knight, citizen, and burgeſs, will ſue, 100*l.* with coſts; and any mayor and bailiffs, &c. who ſhall return other than thoſe which be choſen by the citizens and burgeſſes, ſhall forfeit to the king 40*l.*, and moreover ſhall forfeit to every perſon choſen citizen or burgeſs, and not returned, or to any other which in default of ſuch citizen or burgeſs will ſue, 40*l.* with coſts. ſ. 1.

Every ſheriff that maketh not due election of knights, in convenient time, viz. every ſheriff in his full county between the hours of eight and eleven before noon; and every ſheriff that maketh not true return of ſuch elections, ſhall forfeit to the king 100*l.* and alſo ſhall incur the pain of 100*l.* to him that will ſue againſt him, his executors or adminiſtrators, with coſts. ſ. 2.

Provided that every knight, citizen, and burgeſs choſen and not returned, ſhall begin his action of debt within three months after the parliament commenced, to proceed in the ſame effectually, and if he do not, another that will ſue ſhall have the action. And if any knight, citizen, or burgeſs, returned by the ſheriff, after ſuch return be put out, and another put in his place, ſuch perſon ſo put in his place, if he take upon him to be knight, citizen, or burgeſs, at any parliament, ſhall forfeit to the king 100*l.* and 100*l.* to the knight, citizen, or burgeſs, returned by the ſheriff, and put out: and the knight, citizen, or burgeſs, ſo put out ſhall have an action of debt of the ſame 100*l.* againſt ſuch perſon ſo put in his place, his executors or adminiſtrators; provided that he begin his ſuit within three months after the parliament commenced; and if he do not, then he that will ſue ſhall have an action of debt of the ſame 100*l.* againſt him which is put in place of him that is put out after return, his executors or adminiſtrators; and ſuch proceſs ſhall be in the actions aforeſaid, as in a writ of treſpaſs againſt the peace at common law. ſ. 3.

By 6 Hen. 8. c. 16. None of the knights, citizens, burgeſſes, and barons, in any parliament, ſhall depart from parliament, nor abſent himſelf from the ſame, till the parliament be ended or prorogued, except they have licence of the ſpeaker and commons, and the ſame licence to be entered of record in the book of the clerk of the parliament for the commons houſe, upon pain to loſe their wages; and the counties, cities, and boroughs, whereof any ſuch perſon ſhall be elected, ſhall be diſcharged of the wages againſt the ſaid perſons and their executors.

By 33 Hen. 8. c. 21. The king's royal aſſent by his letters patent under his great ſeal, and aſſigned with his hand, and notified in his abſence to the lords ſpiritual and temporal, and to the commons, aſſembled together in the high houſe, is of as good force as though the king had been perſonally preſent, and had aſſented openly to the ſame. ſ. 3.

By 34 & 35 Hen. 8. c. 13. The county palatine of Cheſter ſhall have two knights, and likewiſe two citizens to be burgeſſes for the city of Cheſter, to be choſen by proceſs, to be awarded by the chancellor of England, unto the chamberlain of Cheſter, his lieutenant or deputy; and like proceſs to be made by the chamberlain, &c. to the ſheriff of Cheſter; the election to be made under like form as is uſed within the county palatine of Lancaſter, or any other county and city; which ſhall be knights and burgeſſes in parliament. ſ. 1.

By 35 Hen. 8. c. 11. The ſheriffs of every of the 12 ſhires in Wales, and in the county of Monmouth, ſhall have power to levy the knights fees and wages, and the ſame ſhall pay to ſuch knights or their aſſigns, within two months after ſuch knights ſhall deliver the writ de ſolutione feodi militis parliamenti, and every ſheriff making default, to forfeit 20*l.* one moiety to the king, and the other to his uſe that will ſue for the ſame; and if any ſheriff in the ſaid 12 ſhires and county of Monmouth, make default, by a longer term than two months, ſuch ſheriff to forfeit for every month 20*l.* ſ. 1.

Every mayor and bailiff, and other head officers of cities and towns in the ſaid 12 ſhires, and county of Monmouth, within like ſpace of two months after the receipt of the writ de ſolutione feodi burgenſium parliamenti, ſhall levy and pay the wages to their burgeſſes, under like pain as before mentioned. ſ. 2.

The burgeſſes of the ſaid cities and towns, which be contributory to the burgeſſes wages of the ſhire towns, ſhall be admoniſhed by proclamation, or otherwiſe, by the mayors, bailiffs, or other head officers, to come and give their elections for the ſaid burgeſſes, at ſuch time and place reaſonable, as ſhall be aſſigned by the mayors, &c. of the ſhire town, in which elections the burgeſſes ſhall have like voice to elect the burgeſſes of the ſhire towns, as the burgeſſes of the ſhire towns have. ſ. 3.

Provided that two juſtices of the peace in every ſhire in Wales, and in the county of Monmouth, ſhall have power to tax every city and town within the ſhire in Wales, and in the county of Monmouth, for the rates that the ſaid cities and boroughs ſhall pay towards the burgeſſes within the ſhire towns in Wales and the county of Monmouth; which rates ſhall be again rated on the inhabitants of every the ſaid cities and boroughs, by four or ſix diſcreet and ſubſtantial burgeſſes thereunto named by the mayor, bailiffs, or other head officers; and thereupon the mayor, &c. to collect the ſame, and make payment as aforeſaid, to the burgeſſes of the parliament. ſ. 4.

By 1 Jac. 1. c. 13. If any perſon being arreſted in execution, and by privilege of either houſe of parliament ſet at liberty, the party at whoſe ſuit ſuch execution was purſued, his executors or adminiſtrators, after the privilege of that ſeſſion of parliament, in which ſuch privilege ſhall be granted, ſhall ceaſe, may ſue forth a new writ of execution, as if no ſuch former execution had been ſerved. And no ſheriff or officer, from whoſe cuſtody ſuch perſon arreſted ſhall be delivered by privilege, ſhall be charged for delivering out of execution any ſuch perſon by privilege of parliament ſet at liberty. ſ. 2.

This act ſhall not diminiſh any puniſhment, to be by cenſure in parliament inflicted on any perſon, which ſhall make or procure ſuch arreſt. ſ. 3.

By 16 Car. 2. c. 1. The ſitting and holding of parliaments ſhall not be intermitted above three years. ſ. 3.

By 25 Car. 2. c. 9. The county palatine of Durham may have two knights for the county, and the city of Durham two citizens to be burgeſſes for the ſame city, to ſerve in parliament, to be elected by writ awarded to the lord biſhop of Durham, or his chancellor of the county, and precept thereupon by the lord biſhop, or his temporal chancellor, to the ſheriff; the elections of the knights to be made by the greater number of freeholders, as in other counties, and the election of the burgeſſes for the city of Durham, to be made by the major part of the mayor, aldermen, and freemen; which knights and burgeſſes ſhall be returned by the ſheriff, into the chancery, upon the like pains as the ſheriffs of any other county.

By 2 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 1. All the acts made in the parliament aſſembled the 13th of Feb. 1688, are laws of this kingdom. ſ. 2.

By 2 Will. & Mar. ſt. 1. c. 7. Whereas the lord wardens of the cinque ports have claimed as of right a power of nominating to each of the cinque ports, the two ancient towns and their members, one perſon whom they ought to elect as a baron or member of parliament, contrary to the ancient uſage and freedom of elections. ſ. 1.

It is declared that all ſuch nominations are contrary to law and void. ſ. 2.

By 5 & 6 Will. & Mar. c. 7. No member of the houſe of commons ſhall be concerned, or any other in truſt for him, in the collecting or managing any of the duties granted by this act, viz. duties on ſalt and an additional exciſe, or that ſhall be granted by any other act of parliament; except the commiſſioners of the treaſury, and the officers and commiſſioners for managing the cuſtoms and exciſe, not exceeding the preſent number. ſ. 57.

By 5 & 6 Will. & Mar. c. 20. No collector, ſupervifor, gauger, or other perſon employed in the collecting or managing the duties of exciſe, ſhall, by word, meſſage, or writing, or in any other manner, endeavour to perſuade any elector to give, or diſſuade any elector from giving his vote, for the choice of any knight, citizen, burgeſs, or baron, to ſerve in parliament, and every perſon offending therein ſhall forfeit 100*l.* one moiety to the informer, the other moiety to the poor of the pariſh, to be recovered by any perſon that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter; and every perſon convict on any ſuch ſuit, ſhall become diſabled of bearing any office relating to the duty of exciſe, or any other place under their majeſties. ſ. 48.

By 6 Will. & Mar. c. 2. A parliament ſhall be holden once in three years at leaſt. ſ. 1.

Within three years after the determination of every parliament, writs ſhall be iſſued by directions of their majeſties for calling another new parliament. ſ. 2.

By 7 Will. 3. c. 4. No perſon to be elected to ſerve in parliament for any place after the teſte of the writ of ſummons, or after the ordering of the writs of election upon the calling of any parliament, or after ſuch place becomes vacant in time of parliament, ſhall before his election give or allow to any perſon having voice in ſuch election, any money, meat, drink, entertainment, or proviſion, or make any preſent or entertainment, or any promiſe or engagement, to give or allow any money, &c. to any ſuch perſon in particular, or to ſuch place in general, in order to be elected. ſ. 1.

Every perſon ſo giving or allowing, promiſing, or engaging, ſhall be diſabled upon ſuch election to ſerve in parliament for ſuch place. ſ. 2.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 7. All falſe returns wilfully made of any member to ſerve in parliament are againſt law; and in caſe any perſon ſhall return any member to ſerve in parliament, for any place contrary to the laſt determination in the houſe of commons, of the right of election in ſuch place, ſuch return ſhall be a falſe return. ſ. 1.

Every perſon that ſhall be duly elected to ſerve for any place, on falſe return may ſue the officers and perſons making or procuring the ſame, or any of them, and ſhall recover double damages with coſts. ſ. 2.

If any officer ſhall wilfully, falſely, and maliciouſly, return more perſons than are required to be choſen by the writ or precept, the like remedy may be had againſt him and the parties that willingly procure the ſame, by the party grieved. ſ. 3.

All contracts and ſecurites given to procure any return of any member ſhall be adjudged void; and whoever makes ſuch contract or ſecurity, or any gift or reward, to procure ſuch falſe or double return, ſhall forfeit 300*l.* one third part to his majeſty, another third part to the poor of the county or place concerned, and one third part to the informer with coſts, to be recovered in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 4.

The clerk of the crown ſhall enter in a book every ſingle and double return which ſhall come to his hands, and every alteration as ſhall be made by him or his deputy in every ſuch return, to which book all perſons ſhall have free acceſs to ſearch and take copies, paying a reaſonable fee; and the parties proſecuting ſuch ſuit may give in evidence ſuch book, or a copy thereof, relating to ſuch falſe or double return, and ſhall have the like advantage of ſuch proof as they might have had by producing the record itſelf. And in caſe the clerk of the crown ſhall not within ſix days after any return ſhall come to his hands, make ſuch entry, or ſhall make any alteration in any return, unleſs by order of the houſe of commons, or give any certificate of any perſon not returned, or ſhall wilfully neglect to perform his duty in the premiſes, he ſhall forfeit to the party grieved 500*l.* and loſe his office, and be for ever incapable of holding the ſame. ſ. 5.

Every information or action grounded upon this ſtatute ſhall be brought within two years after the cauſe of action ſhall ariſe. ſ. 6.

Made perpetual, 12 Ann. ſtat. 1. c. 15.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 15. Any parliament ſhall not determine by the death of his majeſty, but ſhall continue ſix months, &c.

By 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 25. When any new parliament ſhall be ſummoned, there ſhall be 40 days between the teſte and return of the writs; and the lord chancellor ſhall iſſue out the writs for election of members with as much expedition as may be. And as well upon the calling a new parliament, as in caſe of vacancy during parliament, the writs ſhall be delivered to the officer to whom the execution thereof doth belong, and no other perſon; and ſuch officer upon receipt of the writ ſhall, upon the back thereof, indorſe the day he received the ſame, and forthwith make out the precept to each borough or place; and within three days after the receipt of the writ ſhall deliver ſuch precepts to the proper officer of every ſuch borough, &c. and to no other perſon; and ſuch officer upon the back of the precept ſhall indorſe the day of the receipt thereof in the preſence of the party from whom he received ſuch precept, and ſhall forthwith cauſe public notice to be given of the time and place of election, and ſhall proceed to election thereupon within eight days after his receipt of the precept, and give four days notice at leaſt of the day appointed for the election. ſ. 1.

Neither the ſheriff nor his under-ſheriff, nor the mayor, bailiff, conſtable, portreeve, or other officer, of any borough, &c. to whom the execution of any writ or precept for electing members doth belong, ſhall pay or take any fee for the making out, receipt, delivery, return, or execution, of any ſuch writ or precept. ſ. 2.

Upon every election of any knight of the ſhire, the ſheriff ſhall hold his county court for the election at the moſt public and uſual place of election, and where the ſame has moſt uſually been for 40 years, and ſhall there proceed to election at the next county court; unleſs the ſame fall out to be held within ſix days after the receipt of the writ, or upon the ſame day, and then ſhall adjourn the court to ſome convenient day, giving ten days notice of the time and place of election. And in caſe the election be not determined upon the view, but a poll ſhall be required, the ſheriff or under-ſheriff, with ſuch others as ſhall be deputed by him, ſhall forthwith proceed to take the poll in ſome open place or places; and the ſheriff or under-ſheriff, or ſuch as he ſhall depute, ſhall appoint ſuch number of clerks as ſhall ſeem meet for taking thereof; which clerks ſhall all take the poll in the preſence of the ſheriff, or his under-ſheriff, or ſuch as he ſhall depute; and before they begin to take the poll, every clerk ſhall, by the ſheriff or under-ſheriff, be ſworn truly and indifferently to take the ſame, and to ſet down the names of each freeholder, and the place of his freehold, and for whom he ſhall poll, and to poll no freeholder who is not ſworn, if required by the candidates: and the ſheriff, &c. ſhall appoint for each candidate ſuch one perſon as ſhall be nominated by each candidate to be inſpectors of every clerk. ſ. 3.

The ſheriff, &c. or ſuch as he ſhall depute, ſhall proceed to the polling all the freeholders preſent, and ſhall not adjourn the county court to any other place without the conſent of the candidates, nor ſhall by any unneceſſary adjournment protract the election, but ſhall duly proceed from day to day. ſ. 5.

Every ſheriff, under-ſheriff, mayor, bailiff, and other officer, to whom the execution of any writ or precept ſhall belong for electing members, ſhall forthwith deliver to ſuch as ſhall deſire the ſame a copy of the poll, paying a reaſonable charge for writing the ſame; and every ſheriff, &c. and other officer to whom the execution of any writ or precept for electing of members doth belong, for every wilful offence, contrary to this act, ſhall forfeit to every party grieved 500 l. to be recovered by him or his adminiſtrators with coſts. ſ. 6.

No perſon ſhall have any vote in electing members, for any truſt-eſtate or mortgage, unleſs ſuch truſtee or mortgagee be in actual poſſeſſion or receipt of the rents; but the mortgager, or ceſtui que truſt, in poſſeſſion, may vote for the eſtate. And all conveyances of any hereditaments, in order to multiply voices, or to ſplit the intereſt in any houſes or lands among ſeveral perſons, to enable them to vote at elections of members, are declared to be void, and no more than one voice ſhall be admitted for one houſe or tenement. ſ. 7.

No perſon under the age of 21 years ſhall be admitted to give his voice for election of any member. And no perſon ſhall be capable of being elected a member who is not of the age of 21 years; and if any ſuch minor ſhall ſit or vote in parliament, he ſhall incur ſuch penalties as if he had preſumed to ſit and vote without being choſen or returned. ſ. 8.

All county courts for the county of York, or any other county courts which uſed to be held on a Monday, ſhall be begun upon a Wedneſday. ſ. 9.

The ſheriff of the county of Southampton, at the requeſt of one of the candidates for that county, ſhall adjourn the poll from Wincheſter, after every freeholder there is polled, to Newport in the Iſle of Wight. ſ. 10.

By 10 & 11 Will. 3. c. 7. The ſheriff or other officer having the execution and return of any writ for the choice of a member, ſhall, on or before the day that any parliament ſhall be called, and with all convenient expedition, not exceeding 14 days after election, make return of the ſame to the clerk of the crown in chancery, to be filed; and the ſheriff, &c. ſhall pay to the clerk of the crown the ancient fees of 4 s. for every knight of a ſhire, and 2 s. for every citizen, burgeſs, or baron of the cinque ports, and have allowance thereof in his account. ſ. 1.

The proper officer of the cinque ports ſhall be allowed ſix days from the receipt of ſuch writ for the delivery of the precept, according to 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 25. ſ. 2.

Every ſheriff, &c. who ſhall not make the returns according to this act ſhall forfeit 500 l. one moiety to his majeſty, and the other moiety to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 3.

By 11 & 12 Will. 3. c. 2. No member of the houſe of commons ſhall be capable of being a commiſſioner, or farmer of the duty of exciſe upon beer, &c. or a commiſſioner for appeals concerning the ſaid duty, or controlling or auditing the account of the ſaid duty, or of holding in his own name, or in truſt for his uſe, any office or employment touching the farming, collecting, or managing the ſaid duty. ſ. 150.

If any member of the houſe of commons ſhall enjoy or execute any office or employment touching the farming, managing, or collecting, the ſaid duty, or determining appeals, or controlling or auditing the accounts of the ſame; ſuch perſon is declared incapable of ſitting, voting, or acting, as a member of the houſe of commons, in ſuch parliament. ſ. 151.

By 12 & 13 Will. 3. c. 3. Any perſon may proſecute any ſuit in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, or chancery, or exchequer, or the duchy court, or in the court of admiralty, and in all cauſes matrimonial and teſtamentary in the court of arches, the prerogative courts of Canterbury and York, and the delegates, and all courts of appeal, againſt any lord of parliament, or any of the knights, citizens, and burgeſſes, of the houſe of commons, or their ſervants, or any other perſon entitled to privilege of parliament, at any time immediately after the diſſolution or prorogation of parliament, until a new parliament ſhall meet, or the ſame be re-aſſembled, and immediately after any adjournment of both houſes for above 14 days, until both houſes ſhall meet; and the ſaid courts may, after ſuch diſſolution, prorogation, or adjournment, proceed to give judgment, and to make final decrees and ſentences, and award execution thereupon, any privilege of parliament notwithſtanding. ſ. 1.

Provided, that this act ſhall not ſubject the perſon of any of the knights, citizens and burgeſſes, or any other perſon entitled to privilege of parliament, to be arreſted during the time of privilege; nevertheleſs, if any perſon having cauſe of action or complaint againſt any peer, ſuch perſon, after any diſſolution, prorogation or adjournment as aforeſaid, or before any ſeſſions of parliament, may have ſuch proceſs out of his majeſty's courts of king's bench, common pleas, and exchequer, againſt ſuch peer, as he might have had out of time of privilege; and if any perſon have cauſe of action againſt any of the knights, citizens, or burgeſſes, or any other perſon entitled to privilege of parliament, after any diſſolution, prorogation, or ſuch adjournment, &c. ſuch perſon may proſecute ſuch knight, citizen or burgeſs, or other perſon entitled to privilege, in his majeſty's courts of king's bench, common pleas, or exchequer, by ſummons and diſtreſs infinite, or by original bill and ſummons, attachment and diſtreſs infinite, which the ſaid reſpective courts are empowered to iſſue until they enter a common appearance, or file common bail; and any perſon, having cauſe of ſuit or complaint, may in the times aforeſaid, exhibit any bill or complaint againſt any peer, or againſt any of the ſaid knights, citizens or burgeſſes, or other perſon entitled to privilege, in the chancery, exchequer, or duchy court, and proceed thereupon by letter or ſubpœna as uſual, and upon leaving a copy of the bill with the defendant, or at his laſt place of abode, may proceed thereon; and for want of an appearance or anſwer, or for non-performance of any order or decree, may ſequeſter the eſtate of the party, as is uſed where the defendant is a peer; but ſhall not arreſt the body of any of the ſaid knights, citizens and burgeſſes, or other privileged perſon, during the continuance of privilege of parliament. ſ. 2.

Where any plaintiff ſhall by reaſon of privilege of parliament be ſtayed from proſecuting any ſuit commenced, ſuch plaintiff ſhall not be barred by any ſtatute of limitation, or nonſuited, diſmiſſed, or his ſuit diſcontinued for want of proſecution, but ſhall upon the riſing of the parliament be at liberty to proceed. ſ. 3.

No ſuit or proceeding in law or equity againſt the king's original and immediate debtor for the recovery of any debt originally and immediately due unto his majeſty, or againſt any perſon liable to render account unto his majeſty for any part of his revenues, or other original or immediate duty, or the execution of any ſuch proceſs, ſhall be impeached or delayed by privilege of parliament; yet ſo that the perſon of ſuch debtor or accountant, being a peer, ſhall not be liable to be arreſted, or being a member of the houſe of commons, ſhall not, during the continuance of privilege, be arreſted by any ſuch proceedings. ſ. 4.

This act ſhall not give any juriſdiction to any court to hold plea in any real or mixt action, in other manner than ſuch court might have done before. ſ. 5.

By 12 & 13 Will. 3. c. 10. No member of the houſe of commons ſhall be capable of being a commiſſioner or farmer of the cuſtoms, or of holding or enjoying in his own name, or in truſt for him, any place or employment touching the farming, collecting, or managing the cuſtoms. ſ. 89.

If any member enjoy or execute ſuch place or employment, ſuch perſon is declared incapable of ſitting or voting in ſuch parliament. ſ. 90.

No commiſſioner, collector, or other perſon, concerned in collecting or managing the cuſtoms, ſhall by word, meſſage, writing, or in other manner, endeavour to perſuade any elector to give, or diſſuade him from giving, his vote for the choice of any knight of the ſhire, citizen or burgeſs; and every perſon offending therein ſhall forfeit 100 l.; one moiety to the informer, the other to the poor of the pariſh, to be recovered in any of his majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter; and every perſon convict on ſuch ſuit ſhall become diſabled of ever bearing any office relating to the cuſtoms, or any other place of truſt under his majeſty. ſ. 91.

By 2 & 3 Ann. c. 18. Any ſuit may be commenced and proſecuted in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter againſt any officer or perſon employed in the revenue, or any other place of public truſt, for any miſdemeanor or breach of truſt relating to ſuch office of truſt, or any penalty impoſed by law to inforce the due execution thereof; and no ſuch ſuit or execution thereupon, although ſuch officer be a peer, or of the houſe of commons, or otherwiſe entitled to privilege of parliament, ſhall be ſtayed by privilege. ſ. 1.

Nothing in this act ſhall ſubject the perſon of ſuch officer, being a peer, to be arreſted; nor ſubject the perſon of ſuch officer, being of the houſe of commons, to be arreſted during the time of privilege; and againſt ſuch perſon, being of the houſe of commons, ſhall be iſſued ſummons and diſtreſs infinite, or original bill, ſummons, attachment, and diſtreſs infinite, which the reſpective courts are empowered to iſſue, until the party appear. ſ. 2.

By 6 Ann. c. 7. Any parliament ſhall not be diſſolved by the death of her majeſty, her heirs or ſucceſſors, but ſhall continue, if ſitting, for ſix months, unleſs ſooner prorogued or diſſolved by ſuch perſon to whom the crown ſhall come according to the acts for ſettling the ſucceſſion; and if prorogued, it ſhall meet and ſit on the day unto which it ſhall be prorogued, and continue for the reſidue of the ſaid ſix months, unleſs ſooner prorogued or diſſolved. ſ. 4.

If there be a parliament in being at the time of the death of her majeſty, her heirs or ſucceſſors, but the ſame happens to be ſeparated by adjournment or prorogation, ſuch parliament ſhall immediately after ſuch demiſe meet and ſit for ſix months, unleſs ſooner prorogued or diſſolved. ſ. 5.

In caſe there is no parliament in being at the time of ſuch demiſe that has met and ſat, then the laſt preceding parliament ſhall immediately convene and ſit at Weſtminſter, as if the ſaid parliament had never been diſſolved, but ſubject to be prorogued and diſſolved. ſ. 6.

Nothing in this act ſhall abridge the power of the queen, her heirs or ſucceſſors, to prorogue or diſſolve parliaments, nor repeal the act 6 Will. & Mar. c. 2. ſ. 7.

The lords juſtices appointed by the act and by the perſon next in ſucceſſion to queen Ann, to continue the government from her death till her ſucceſſor's arrival, before they act, ſhall take the oaths mentioned in 1 W. & M. ſt. 1. c. 8. and the oath expreſſed in this act, viz. the abjuration; which oaths ſhall be taken before the privy council appointed to continue by this act [See King]: and all the members of both houſes of parliament, and every member of the privy council, and all officers, civil or military, who ſhall be by this act continued, ſhall take the ſaid oaths, and do all other acts requiſite to qualify themſelves to continue in their offices, in ſuch time and manner, and under ſuch penalties, as they ought to do, had they been newly put into ſuch offices. ſ. 18.

This clauſe has been held to relate to after-times beyond the acceſſion of Geo. 1. for it is repealed by 1 Geo. 2. ſt. 1. c. 5. ſ. 7. as to its requiring the taking oaths of office; and by 1 Geo. 2. ſt. 1. c. 23. ſ. 7. as to its requiring the taking the oaths or doing other acts requiſite to qualify perſons for offices. But it is not repealed with reſpect to the members of parliament.

No perſon who ſhall have in his own name, or in truſt for him, any new office or place of profit under the crown, which ſince the 25th of October 1705, have been created, or hereafter ſhall have been created; nor any perſon who ſhall be a commiſſioner or ſub-commiſſioner of prizes, ſecretary or receiver of the prizes; nor any controller of the accounts of the army, nor any commiſſioner of tranſports, nor any commiſſioner of the ſick and wounded, nor any agent for any regiment, nor any commiſſioner for wine-licences, nor any governor or deputy-governor of the plantations, nor any commiſſioner of the navy employed in the out-ports, nor any perſon having any penſion from the crown during pleaſure, ſhall be capable of being elected, or of ſitting or voting as a member of the houſe of commons. ſ. 25.

If any perſon being choſen a member of the houſe of commons, ſhall accept of any office of profit from the crown, his election ſhall be void, and a new writ ſhall iſſue for a new election; provided, that ſuch perſon ſhall be capable of being again elected. ſ. 26.

No greater number of commiſſioners ſhall be made for the execution of any office than have been employed in the execution of ſuch office before the firſt day of this parliament. ſ. 27.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to any member of the houſe of commons, being an officer in her majeſty's navy or army, who ſhall receive any new commiſſion in the army or navy. ſ. 28.

If any perſon hereby diſabled to ſit or vote in parliament ſhall be returned for any county, &c. ſuch election and return are declared to be void; and if any perſon diſabled by this act ſhall ſit or vote as a member, ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit 500 l. to be recovered by ſuch as ſhall ſue for the ſame in England. ſ. 29.

All the foregoing clauſes in this act were enacted before the union by 4 & 5 Ann. c. 8.

By 6 Ann. c. 23. Every perſon who ſhall refuſe to take the oath of abjuration, or being a quaker, to declare the effect thereof (which oath the ſheriff, preſident of the meeting, or chief officer taking poll, at any election of members, at the requeſt of any candidate or other perſon preſent, are required to adminiſter), ſhall not be capable of giving any vote for the election of ſuch member. ſ. 13.

By 9 Ann. c. 5. No perſon ſhall be capable to ſit or vote as a member of the houſe of commons for any county, city, borough, or cinque port, within England, Wales and Berwick, who ſhall not have an eſtate, freehold or copyhold, for his own life, or ſome greater eſtate in law or equity for his own benefit, in lands or hereditaments, over and above what will clear all incumbrances that may affect the ſame, within England, Wales and Berwick, of the reſpective annual value hereafter limited, viz. the annual value of 600 l. for every knight of a ſhire, and of 300 l. for every citizen, burgeſs or baron, of the cinque ports; and if any perſon who ſhall be elected or returned, as a knight, citizen, burgeſs, &c. ſhall not at the time of ſuch election and return be ſeiſed of, or entitled to, ſuch eſtate, ſuch election and return ſhall be void. ſ. 1.

Nothing in this act ſhall make the eldeſt ſon, or heir apparent of any peer, or of any perſon qualified to ſerve as knight of a ſhire, uncapable of being elected. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to either of the univerſities. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall be qualified within the meaning of this act, by virtue of any mortgage, whereof the equity of redemption is in any other, unleſs the mortgagee ſhall have been in poſſeſſion ſeven years before his election. ſ. 4.

Every perſon (except as aforeſaid) who ſhall appear as a candidate, or be propoſed to be elected, ſhall upon reaſonable requeſt (at the time of ſuch election, or before the day prefixed in the writ of ſummons) by any other candidate, or by any two perſons having right to vote at ſuch election, take an oath to the effect following:

I A. B. do ſwear, that I truly and bona fide have ſuch an eſtate in law or equity, to and for my own uſe and benefit, of or in lands, tenements or hereditaments (over and above what will ſatisfy and clear all incumbrances that may affect the ſame), of the annual value of 600 l. above reprizes, as doth qualify me to be elected and returned to ſerve as a member for the county of ——— —— according to the tenor and true meaning of the act of parliament in that behalf; and that my ſaid lands, tenements or hereditaments, are lying or being within the pariſh, townſhip or precinct, of ——— or, in the ſeveral pariſhes, townſhips or precincts, of ——— ——— in the county of ——— ——— or, in the ſeveral counties of ——— ——— (as the caſe may be). And in caſe ſuch candidate is to ſerve for any city, borough or cinque port, then the oath ſhall relate only to the value of 300 l. per annum. ſ. 5.

The oaths aforeſaid may be adminiſtered by the ſheriff or under-ſheriff of any county, or by the mayor, bailiff, or other officer, for any city, borough or port, to whom it ſhall appertain to take the poll, or make the return, or by any two juſtices of peace within England, Wales and Berwick; and the ſaid ſheriff, &c. who ſhall adminiſter the oaths, are required to certify the taking thereof into chancery or queen's bench within three months, under penalty of 100 l.: one moiety to the queen, and the other moiety to ſuch as will ſue for the ſame, to be recovered with coſts in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter; and if any of the candidates ſhall wilfully refuſe to take the oath, the election and return of ſuch perſon ſhall be void. ſ. 6.

No fee ſhall be taken for adminiſtering ſuch oath, or making or filing the certificate, except 1 s. for adminiſtering the oath, and 2 s. for making the certificate, and 2 s. for filing the ſame, under penalty of 20 l. to be recovered as aforeſaid. ſ. 7.

By 10 Ann. c. 19. No commiſſioner, officer, or other perſon concerned in the collecting or managing any of the duties granted by this act, viz. duties on ſope and paper, printed ſilk, &c. certain ſtamp duties and additional hackney-coaches, ſhall by word, meſſage or writing, or in other manner, endeavour to perſuade any elector to give, or diſſuade any elector from giving, his vote for choice of any knight of the ſhire, commiſſioner, citizen, burgeſs, or baron, for any county, &c. and every perſon offending therein, ſhall forfeit 100 l.; one moiety to the informer, the other moiety to the poor of the pariſh, to be recovered by any perſon that ſhall ſue for the ſame in her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter, or in the exchequer in Scotland; and every perſon convict on ſuch ſuit ſhall become diſabled of ever bearing any office or place of truſt under her majeſty. ſ. 182.

By 10 Ann. c. 23. All eſtates made to any perſon in any fraudulent manner, on purpoſe to qualify him to give his vote at elections of knights of the ſhire (ſubject to agreements to defeat ſuch eſtate, or to reconveying the ſame), ſhall be againſt thoſe who executed the ſame free and abſolute, and all ſecurities or agreements for the redeeming or defeating ſuch eſtates, or the reconveying thereof, ſhall be void; and every perſon who ſhall make ſuch conveyance, or being privy to ſuch purpoſes, ſhall prepare the ſame, and every perſon, who by colour thereof ſhall give any vote at any election of knights of a ſhire, ſhall forfeit 40 l. to any perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be recovered with coſts in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 1.

No perſon ſhall vote for any knight of a ſhire within England, in right of lands which have not been charged to the public taxes, church-rates and pariſh-duties, in ſuch proportion as other lands of 40 s. per annum within the ſame pariſh or townſhip; and for which ſuch perſon ſhall not have received the rents or profits, or be entitled to have received the ſame, to the value of 40 s. to his own uſe for one year before ſuch election; unleſs ſuch lands came to ſuch perſon by deſcent, marriage, marriage-ſettlement, deviſe, or preſentation to ſome benefice, or by promotion to ſome office. And if any perſon ſhall vote in ſuch election, contrary to the meaning hereof, he ſhall forfeit 40 l.; one moiety to the poor of the pariſh or pariſhes where the lands lie, and the other moiety to the perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of her majeſty's courts at Weſtminſter. ſ. 2.

Repealed as to diſabling from voting for lands not taxed, by 18 Geo. 2. c. 18. ſ. 2. and 19 Geo. 2. c. 28. ſ. 2. infra.

In taking the poll, the ſheriff, or his under-ſheriff and clerks, ſhall enter, not only the place of the elector's freehold, but alſo the place of his abode, and ſhall alſo enter jurat againſt the name of every ſuch voter who ſhall take the oath (which oath is altered by 18 Geo. 2. c. 18.). And the ſheriff, or returning officer, ſhall, within twenty days after ſuch election, deliver over upon oath (which oath the two next juſtices of peace, one of the quorum, are to adminiſter) unto the clerk of the peace, all the poll books of ſuch elections, without any alteration; and in ſuch counties where there are more than one clerk of the peace, the original poll-books to one of ſuch clerks of the peace, and atteſted copies thereof to the reſt, to be kept among the records of the peace. ſ. 5.

The ſheriff of the county of York ſhall appoint ſeven tables for taking the poll upon any election of knights of the ſhire, at the coſts of the candidates. ſ. 6.

The ſheriff of the county palatine of Cheſter againſt every election of knights of the ſhire, ſhall cauſe ſeven tables, and no more, to be made at the coſts of the candidates, within the ſhire-hall of the county, for taking the poll, viz. two at the upper end, two at each ſide, and one at the lower end of the hall. ſ. 7.

If any quaker ſhall upon ſuch election, if required by the candidates, declare the effect of the oath required of electors upon his ſolemn affirmation, ſuch quaker ſhall be admitted to vote, and the ſheriff ſhall enter affirmat againſt the name of ſuch quaker; and in caſe ſuch quaker ſhall be convicted wilfully, falſly and corruptly to have affirmed any thing, which, if the ſame had been in the uſual form, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt perjury, ſuch quaker ſhall incur the penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury. ſ. 8.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 38. All parliaments ſhall have continuance for ſeven years and no longer, to be computed from the day on which, by the writ of ſummons, any parliament ſhall be appointed to meet; unleſs ſuch parliament ſhall be ſooner diſſolved by his majeſty.

By 1 Geo. 1. c. 56. No perſon having any penſion from the crown for any term of years, either in his own name, or in truſt for him, ſhall be capable of being elected a member of any houſe of commons. ſ. 1.

If any perſon, who ſhall have ſuch penſion, ſhall preſume to ſit or vote, he ſhall forfeit 20 l. for every day in which he ſhall ſit or vote there, to him who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of the courts at Weſtminſter, with coſts. ſ. 2.

By 2 Geo. 2. c. 24. Upon every election for any member to ſerve for the commons in parliament, every freeholder, citizen, freeman, burgeſs, or perſon having right to vote, ſhall, before he is admitted to poll, take the following oath (or being a quaker, make the ſolemn affirmation), in caſe the ſame be demanded by either of the candidates, or any two electors, viz.

I A. B. do ſwear (or being of the quakers, I A. B. do ſolemnly affirm) I have not received or had, by myſelf, or any perſon whatſoever in truſt for me, for my uſe and benefit, directly or indirectly, any ſum or ſums of money, office, place or employment, gift or reward, or any promiſe or ſecurity for any money, office, employment or gift, in order to give my vote at this election; and that I hav not been polled at this election.

Which oath, &c. the officer taking the poll is to adminiſter gratis, on pain to forfeit 50 l. to the perſon that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any court at Weſtminſter; and if the offence be committed in Scotland, to be recovered by ſummary action or complaint before the court of ſeſſion, or by proſecution before the court of juſticiary there. And no perſon ſhall be admitted to poll until he has taken the oath, if demanded, before the returning officer, or others legally deputed by him. ſ. 1.

If any ſheriff, or other returning officer, ſhall admit any perſon to be polled without taking ſuch oath, &c. if demanded, ſuch returning officer ſhall forfeit 100 l. with coſts; and if any perſon ſhall vote without having firſt taken the oath, &c. if demanded, he ſhall incur the ſame penalty. ſ. 2.

Every ſheriff, or other returning officer, ſhall, immediately after reading the writ or precept for the election, take and ſubſcribe the following oath, viz.

I A. B. do ſolemnly ſwear, that I have not directly or indirectly received any ſum or ſums of money, office, place or employment, gratuity or reward, or any bond, bill or note, or any promiſe or gratuity whatſoever, either by myſelf, or any other perſon to my uſe, or benefit or advantage, for making any return at the preſent election of members to ſerve in parliament; and that I will return ſuch perſon (or perſons) as ſhall to the beſt of my judgment appear to me to have the majority of legal votes.

Repealed as to Scotland by 16 Geo. 2. c. 11. ſ. 38.

Which oath any juſtice of peace of the county, city, corporation or borough, where the election ſhall be made, or in his abſence any three of the electors, are required to adminiſter; and the oath ſhall be entered among the records of the ſeſſions. ſ. 3.

Votes ſhall be deemed legal, which have been ſo declared by the laſt determination in the houſe of commons; which determination concerning any county, city, borough, cinque port or place, ſhall be final to all purpoſes. ſ. 4. repealed by 28 Geo. 3. c. 52. which ſee infra.

If any returning officer, elector, or perſon taking the oath, &c. ſhall be guilty of wilful perjury, or of falſe affirming, and be thereof convicted, he ſhall ſuffer the pains of wilful and corrupt perjury. ſ. 5.

No perſon convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury, or ſubornation of perjury, ſhall be capable of voting in any election of a member to ſerve in parliament. ſ. 6.

If any perſon, who ſhall claim a right to vote in any ſuch election, ſhall receive any money or other reward, or agree for any money, gift, office, employment, or other reward, to give his vote, or to forbear to give his vote, in any ſuch election; or if any perſon ſhall, by any gift or reward, or by any promiſe or ſecurity for any gift or reward, corrupt or procure any perſon to give his vote, or to forbear to give his vote; the offender ſhall forfeit 500 l. to be recovered with coſts; and any perſon offending in the ſaid caſes, after judgment obtained againſt him in any action of debt, &c. or ſummary action or proſecution, or being otherwiſe lawfully convicted, ſhall be for ever diſabled to vote in any election of members to ſerve in parliament; and ſhall be for ever diſabled to hold or enjoy any office or franchiſe, as a member of any city, borough or cinque port. ſ. 7.

If

If any perſon offending againſt this act ſhall, within 12 months after ſuch election, diſcovet any other perſon offending againſt this act, ſo that the perſon diſcovered be convicted, the perſon diſcovering, and not having before been convicted, ſhall be indemnified from all penalties and diſabilities which he ſhall then have incurred by any offence againſt this act. ſ. 8.

Every ſheriff, or other officer, to whom the execution of any writ or precept for electing any member ſhall belong, ſhall, at the time of ſuch election, immediately after the writ or precept, cauſe to be read before the electors this act, and the ſame ſhall alſo be read once every year at the quarter-ſeſſions next after Eaſter for any county or city; and at the election of the chief magiſtrate in any borough, town corporate or cinque ports, and at the annual election of magiſtrates and town councellors for every borough in Scotland. ſ. 9.

Every ſheriff, under-ſheriff, and other officer, to whom the execution of any writ or precept for the electing of members doth belong, ſhall, for every wilful offence contrary to this act, forfeit 50 l. to be recovered with coſts. ſ. 10.

No perſon ſhall be liable to any incapacity or penalty by this act, unleſs proſecution is commenced within two years after ſuch incapacity, &c. ſhall be incurred, and carried on without delay. ſ. 11.

This act is extended by 16 Geo. 2. c. 11. ſ. 33. to electors of commiſſioners for chuſing burgeſſes in Scotland.

By 6 Geo. 2. c. 23. Any county court holden on, or adjourned to, a day not prohibited by this act (the days prohibited were Monday, Friday or Saturday), or 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 25. may be adjourned over from day to day, though the ſame may happen on a Monday, Friday or Saturday. ſ. 2.

This clauſe is ſuperſeded by 18 Geo. 2. c. 18. ſ. 11.

By 8 Geo. 2. c. 30. As often as any election of peers to repreſent the peers of Scotland in parliament, or of any member to ſerve in parliament, ſhall be appointed to be made, the ſecretary at war, or ſuch perſon who ſhall officiate in the place of ſecretary at war, ſhall, before the day appointed for ſuch election, ſend orders in writing for the removal of every regiment, troop or company, or other number of ſoldiers, quartered in any city, borough, town or place, where ſuch election ſhall be to be made, one day at leaſt before the day appointed for ſuch election, to the diſtance of two miles from ſuch city, &c. and not to make any approach until one day after the poll ſhall be ended. ſ. 1.

In caſe the ſecretary at war, or ſuch perſon who ſhall officiate in the place of ſecretary at war, ſhall neglect to ſend ſuch orders, and ſhall be thereof convicted upon any indictment to be preferred at the next aſſizes, or ſeſſions of oyer and terminer, for the county where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, or on an information to be exhibited in the court of king's bench within ſix months after ſuch offence, ſuch ſecretary at war, &c. ſhall be diſcharged from their offices, and ſhall be diſabled to hold any office or employment in his majeſty's ſervice. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the city of Weſtminſter or the borough of Southwark, in reſpect of the guards of his majeſty; nor to any place where his majeſty, or any of his royal family, ſhall reſide at the time of ſuch election, in reſpect of ſuch troops only as ſhall be attendant as guards to his majeſty, or to ſuch other of the royal family as aforeſaid; nor to any caſtle or fortified place, where any garriſon is uſually kept, in reſpect of ſuch garriſon. ſ. 3.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to any officer or ſoldier, who ſhall have a right to vote at ſuch election. ſ. 4.

The ſecretary at war, &c. ſhall not be liable to any forfeiture for not ſending ſuch order upon any election on a vacancy, unleſs notice of the making out any new writ ſhall be given to him by the clerk of the crown; which notice he is required to give with all convenient ſpeed. ſ. 5.

By 9 Geo. 2. c. 38. No perſon ſhall be liable to any penalty by the act 2 Geo. 2. c. 24. For preventing bribery, &c. unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall be legally arreſted, or ſerved with proceſs, within two years after any offence againſt the ſaid act committed; ſo as the ſervice of ſuch proceſs be not prevented by ſuch perſon abſconding.

By 11 Geo. 2. c. 24. Any perſon may commence and proſecute in Great Britain or Ireland, any ſuit in any court of record or of equity, or of admiralty, and in all cauſes matrimonial and teſtamentary in any court having cognizance, againſt any peer of Great Britain, or againſt any of the knights, citizens and burgeſſes of the houſe of commons of Great Britain, or againſt their menial or other ſervants, or any other perſon entitled to the privilege of the parliament of Great Britain, immediately after the diſſolution or prorogation of any parliament, until a new parliament ſhall meet, or the ſame be re-aſſembled, and immediately after any adjournment of both houſes for above 14 days, until both houſes ſhall re-aſſemble. ſ. 1.

This act ſhall not ſubject the perſon of any of the houſe of commons, or any other perſon entitled to privilege of parliament, to be arreſted during the time of privilege; nevertheleſs, it ſhall be lawful for any of the courts of great ſeſſions in Wales, courts of ſeſſion in the counties palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter and Durham, courts of king's bench, common pleas and exchequer, in Ireland, after any diſſolution, prorogation, or ſuch adjournment, or before any ſeſſion of parliament, or meeting of both houſes, to uſe ſuch proceeding, and to iſſue the like proceſs againſt any ſuch peer, or againſt any of the knights, citizens and burgeſſes, or other perſons entitled to the privilege of the parliament of Great Britain, as the courts of king's bench, common pleas and exchequer, in England, are by 12 & 13 Will. 3. c. 3. empowered to uſe; and it ſhall be lawful for the chancery of Ireland, and the court of equity in the exchequer there, to uſe ſuch proceeding, and to iſſue the like proceſs, againſt the perſons aforeſaid, as the chancery of Great Britain and the exchequer in England are by the ſaid act empowered to uſe; and it ſhall be lawful for any of the other courts before deſcribed, the proceſs whereof is not particularly directed by the ſaid act, or by this act, after any diſſolution, prorogation, or ſuch adjournment, as aforeſaid, or before any ſeſſion of parliament, or meeting of both houſes, to iſſue like proceſs againſt any ſuch peer, or any of the ſaid knights, citizens or burgeſſes, or other perſon entitled to the privilege of parliament, as ſuch courts may now lawfully iſſue againſt perſons not liable to be arreſted. ſ. 2.

Where any plaintiff ſhall by privilege of parliament be ſtayed from proſecuting any ſuit commenced, ſuch plaintiff ſhall not be barred by any ſtatute of limitation, or nonſuited, diſmiſſed, nor his ſuit diſcontinued for want of proſecution, but ſhall upon the riſing of the parliament be at liberty to proceed to judgment and execution. ſ. 3.

No proceeding in law or equity againſt the king's original and immediate debtor for the recovery of any debt originally and immediately due unto his majeſty, or againſt any perſon liable to render account unto his majeſty for any part of his revenues, or other original and immediate duty, ſhall be ſtayed in any court in Great Britain or Ireland land by privilege of the parliament of Great Britain; yet ſo that the perſon of ſuch debtor or accountant, being a peer of Great Britain, ſhall not be liable to be arreſted upon ſuch ſuit, or being a member of the houſe of commons of Great Britain, ſhall not, during the continuance of the privilege of parliament, be arreſted upon any ſuch proceedings. ſ. 4.

This act ſhall not give juriſdiction to any court to hold plea in any real or mixt action, in other manner than ſuch court might have done before. ſ. 5.

By 13 Geo. 2. c. 20. The proviſions contained in 10 Ann. c. 23. ſhall be extended to tenements in reſpect of which any perſon ſhall vote for the election of any member to ſerve in parliament, for any city or town being a county of itſelf in England, wherein perſons have a right to vote in reſpect of hereditaments of the yearly value of 40*s.* And if any perſon ſhall vote for the election of any ſuch member, as a freeholder, not having ſuch an eſtate for one year before the ſame election, he ſhall be ſubject to the like penalties as are by 10 Ann. c. 23. impoſed on perſons voting for knights of ſhires, not having the qualifications thereby required. See 19 Geo. 2. c. 28. ſ. 2. infra.

By 15 Geo. 2. c. 22. No perſon who ſhall be commiſſioner of the revenue in Ireland, or commiſſioner of the navy or victualling offices, nor any deputies or clerks in any of the ſaid offices, or in any of the offices following, viz. the office of lord high treaſurer, or the commiſſioners of the treaſury, or of the auditor of the receipt of his majeſty's exchequer, or of the tellers of the exchequer, or of the chancellor of the exchequer, or of the lord high admiral, or the commiſſioners of the admiralty, or of the paymaſters of the army, or of the navy, or of his majeſty's principal ſecretaries of ſtate, or of the commiſſioners of the ſalt, or of the ſtamps, or of appeals, or of wine licences, or of hackney coaches, or of hawkers and pedlars; nor any perſons having any office, civil or military, within the iſland of Minorca, or in Gibraltar, other than officers having commiſſions in any regiment there only, ſhall be capable of being elected, or of ſitting or voting as a member of the houſe of commons. ſ. 1.

If any perſon hereby diſabled ſhall be returned as a member to ſerve in parliament, ſuch election and return are hereby declared void. And if any perſon diſabled by this act to be elected, ſhall preſume to ſit or vote as a member of the houſe of commons, he ſhall forfeit 20 l. for every day in which he ſhall ſit or vote in the ſaid houſe, to ſuch perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any court at Weſtminſter; and the money ſo forfeited ſhall be recovered with coſts by action of debt, &c. in which no eſſoign, &c. ſhall be allowed; and ſhall from thenceforth be incapable of taking or holding any office of honour or profit under his majeſty. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall exclude the treaſurer or comptroller of the navy, the ſecretaries of the treaſury, the ſecretary to the chancellor of the exchequer, or ſecretaries of the admiralty, the under ſecretary to any of his majeſty's principal ſecretaries of ſtate, or the deputy paymaſter of the army; or to exclude any perſon having any office or employment for life, or for ſo long as he ſhall behave himſelf well in his office. ſ. 3.

By 18 Geo. 2. c. 18. Upon every election in England or Wales of any knight of the ſhire to ſerve in parliament, every freeholder, inſtead of the oath preſcribed by 10 Ann. c. 23. before he is admitted to poll, ſhall (if required by any of the candidates, or any perſon having a right to vote) firſt take the oath (or being a quaker, the affirmation) following, viz.

You ſhall ſwear (or being a quaker, ſolemnly affirm) that you are a freeholder in the county of ——— and have a freehold eſtate, conſiſting of ——— ——— (ſpecifying the nature thereof, and if it conſiſts in meſſuages, lands or tythes, in whoſe occupation the ſame are; and if in rent, the names of the owners or poſſeſſors of the tenements out of which ſuch rent is iſſuing, or of ſome of them), lying or being at ——— in the county of ——— of the clear yearly value of forty ſhillings, over and above all rents and charges payable out of, or in reſpect of the ſame; and that you have been in the actual poſſeſſion or receipt of the rents and profits thereof, for your own uſe, above twelve calendar months, or that the ſame came to you, within the time aforeſaid, by deſcent, marriage, marriage ſettlement, deviſe, or promotion to a benefice in a church, or by promotion to an office; and that ſuch freehold eſtate has not been granted or made to you fraudulently, or purpoſe to qualify you to give your vote; and that the place of your abode is at ——— in ——— and that you are twenty-one years of age, as you believe; and that you have not been polled before at this election.

Which oath (or affirmation) the ſheriff, under ſheriff, or ſuch ſworn clerk as ſhall be by him appointed for taking the poll, is to adminiſter. And in caſe any perſon taking the ſaid oath or affirmation ſhall thereby commit wilful perjury, and be convicted; and if any perſon do corruptly procure or ſuborn any perſon to take the ſaid oath or affirmation in order to be polled, whereby he ſhall commit ſuch wilful perjury, and ſhall be convicted; they for every ſuch offence ſhall incur ſuch penalties as in 5 Eliz. c. 9. & 2 Geo. 2. c. 25. "PERJURY." ſ. 1.

So much of the 10 Ann. c. 23. ſ. 1. & 12 Ann. ſt. 1. c. 5. as diſables any perſon to vote for knights of ſhires, in right of any lands or tenements which have not been aſſeſſed as therein mentioned, ſhall be repealed. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall vote for the electing of a knight of the ſhire to ſerve in parliament in England or Wales, in right of any meſſuages, lands, or tenements, which have not been aſſeſſed towards ſome aid granted to his majeſty by a land-tax twelve calendar months next before ſuch election. ſ. 3.

Provided, that this act ſhall not reſtrain any perſon from voting in right of any rents, or any chambers in the inns of court or inns of chancery, or any meſſuages or ſeats belonging to any offices, by reaſon that the ſame have not been uſually aſſeſſed to the land-tax; and that the acting commiſſioners of the land-tax or three of them, at their meetings for the reſpective diviſions, ſhall ſign and ſeal one other duplicate of the copies of the reſpective aſſeſſments after all appeals determined, and the ſame deliver to the clerks of the peace for their reſpective counties, to be kept amongſt the records of the ſeſſions, to which all perſons may reſort and inſpect the ſame, paying 6*d.*; and the ſaid clerks of the peace or their deputies ſhall give copies of the ſaid duplicates to any perſon requiring the ſame, paying after the rate of 6*d.* for every 300 words. ſ. 4.

No perſon ſhall vote in any ſuch election, without having a freehold eſtate in the county for which he votes of the yearly value of 40*s.* over and above all rents and charges payable out of the ſame, or without having been in the actual poſſeſſion or in receipt of the rents and profits thereof, for his own uſe, above 12 calendar months, unleſs the ſame came to him within the time aforeſaid by deſcent, marriage, marriage ſettlement, deviſe, or promotion tion to any benefice in a church, or by promotion to an office; or ſhall vote in right of any freehold eſtate, which was made to him fraudulently, on purpoſe to qualify him to give his vote; or ſhall vote more than once at the ſame election; and if any perſon vote in any ſuch election contrary to the meaning hereof, he ſhall forfeit to any candidate for whom ſuch vote ſhall not have been given, and who ſhall ſue for the ſame, 40*l.* to be recovered by him, his executors or adminiſtrators, with coſts, by action of debt in any court of record at Weſtminſter, wherein no eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed; and in every ſuch action the proof ſhall lie on ſuch perſon againſt whom the ſame was brought, unleſs the fact on which ſuch action is grounded be the having polled more than once at the ſame election. ſ. 5.

No public or parliamentary tax, county, church, or pariſh rate, or any other tax to be aſſeſſed upon any county or diviſion, ſhall be deemed any charge, payable out of any freehold eſtate, within the meaning of this act, or of the oath or affirmation before directed. ſ. 6.

At every election in England and Wales, the ſheriff, or in his abſence the under-ſheriff or ſuch as he ſhall depute, ſhall appoint or erect, at the expence of the candidates, ſuch number of booths or places for taking the poll, as any of the candidates ſhall three days at leaſt before the commencement of the poll deſire; ſo as the ſame do not exceed the number of rapes, lathes, wapentakes, wards, or hundreds within the ſaid county, and not exceeding in the whole the number of 15: and ſhall affix on the moſt public part of each, the name of the rape, &c. for which ſuch booth is deſigned; and the ſheriff, &c. ſhall appoint a clerk or clerks at each booth to take the poll (who ſhall, at the expence of the candidates, be paid, not exceeding one guinea per day each clerk); and the ſheriff or under-ſheriff ſhall alſo make out a liſt for each booth of all the towns, villages, pariſhes, and hamlets, lying wholly or in part in the rape, &c. for which ſuch booth is deſigned; and ſhall upon requeſt deliver a copy thereof to any of the candidates, or their agents, taking for each copy 2*s.* and no more. ſ. 7.

No ſheriff, under-ſheriff, or clerk, appointed to take the poll at any of the ſaid booths, ſhall admit any perſon to vote for any freehold eſtate ſworn to be at ſome pariſh or place not mentioned in the liſt ſo made out for ſuch booth, unleſs ſuch eſtate lie in ſome place not mentioned in any of the liſts. ſ. 8.

The ſheriff, or in his abſence the under-ſheriff, or ſuch as he ſhall depute, ſhall at every ſuch election allow a cheque book for every poll book for each candidate, to be kept by their reſpective inſpectors at every place where the poll ſhall be taken. ſ. 9.

When the county court falls out to be held within ſix days after the receipt of the writ, or upon the ſame day, no ſheriff ſhall adjourn ſuch court for longer than 16 days. ſ. 10. See 7 & 8 Will. 3. c. 25. ſ. 3. ante.

The 6 Geo. 2. c. 23. which prohibits the adjourning a county court to a Monday, Friday, or Saturday, is repealed. ſ. 11.

In caſe any ſheriff or under-ſheriff, who ſhall preſide at any election of any ſuch knight of the ſhire in England and Wales, ſhall wilfully offend againſt this act, he ſhall be proſecuted by information or indictment in the court of king's bench, or in the courts of great ſeſſions in Wales, or at the ſeſſions for the county palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter, and Durham, or at the aſſizes for the place where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, in which no noli proſequi or ceſſet proceſſus ſhall be granted. ſ. 12.

It ſhall be ſufficient for the plaintiff in any action of debt given by this act, to ſet forth in the declaration, that the defendant is indebted to him in the ſum of ——— and to alledge the particular offence for which ſuch action is brought, and that the defendant hath acted contrary to this act; without mentioning the writ of ſummons to parliament, or the return thereof: and it ſhall be ſufficient in any indictment or information for any offence contrary to this act, to alledge the particular offence, and that the defendant is guilty thereof, without mentioning the writ of ſummons to parliament or the return thereof: and upon trial of any iſſue in any ſuch action, indictment, or information, the plaintiff, proſecutor, or informer, ſhall not be obliged to prove the writ of ſummons to parliament, or any warrant to the ſheriff grounded upon ſuch writ of ſummons. ſ. 13.

Every action, indictment, or information, given by this act, ſhall be commenced within nine calendar months after the fact upon which the ſame is grounded. ſ. 14.

All the ſtatutes of jeofails ſhall extend to all proceedings, in any action, indictment, or information, given by this act. ſ. 15.

In caſe the plaintiff or informer, in any action, indictment, or information, given by this act, diſcontinue or be nonſuited, or judgment be given againſt him, the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 16.

By 19 Geo. 2. c. 28. Every perſon demanding to vote for the election of any member to ſerve in parliament, for any city or town being a county of itſelf, in England, in reſpect of any freehold eſtate of 40*s.* a year, ſhall, before he is admitted to poll (if required by any of the candidates, or other perſon having a right to vote) take the oath (or being a quaker, the affirmation) following, viz.

You ſhall ſwear (or being a quaker, you ſhall ſolemnly affirm) that you have a freehold eſtate, conſiſting of (ſpecifying the nature of ſuch freehold eſtate; and if it conſiſts in meſſuages, lands, or tithes, then ſpecifying in whoſe occupation the ſame are; and if rent, then the names of the owners or poſſeſſors of the tenements out of which it iſſues, or of ſome of them) lying or being in the city and county or town and county (as the caſe may be) of ——— of the clear yearly value of 40*s. over and above all rents and charges payable out of, or in reſpect of the ſame; and that you have been in the actual poſſeſſion or receipt of the rents and profits thereof, for your own uſe, above* 12 calendar months, or that the ſame came to you within the time aforeſaid, by deſcent, marriage, marriage ſettlement, deviſe, or promotion to a benefice in a church, or by promotion to an office; and that ſuch freehold eſtate has not been granted or made to you fraudulently, on purpoſe to qualify you to give your vote; and that the place of your abode is at ——— in ——— and that you are 21 years of age, as you believe, and that you have not been polled before at this election.

Which oath the ſheriff or under-ſheriff, or ſuch ſworn clerk as ſhall be by him appointed for taking the poll, is to adminiſter; and in caſe any perſon taking the ſaid oath or affirmation, ſhall thereby commit wilful perjury, and be convicted, and if any perſon corruptly procure or ſuborn any perſon to take the ſaid oath, in order to be polled, whereby he ſhall commit wilful perjury, and ſhall be convicted, they for every ſuch offence ſhall incur ſuch penalties as are inflicted by 5 Eliz. c. 9. & 2 Geo. 2. c. 25. "PERJURY." ſ. 1.

So much of the 13 Geo. 2. c. 20. as extends thoſe proviſions of 10 Ann. c. 23. & 12 Ann. ſtat. 1. c. 5. which diſable perſons from voting for electing a knight of the ſhire, in reſpect of tenements which had not been aſſeſſed to the public taxes, church rates, or pariſh duties, to ſuch cities and towns as are counties of themſelves in England, is repealed. ſ. 2.

No perſon ſhall vote for the electing a member to ſerve in parliament for ſuch a city or town, being a county of itſelf, in England, in reſpect of any freehold meſſuages, lands, or tenements, of the yearly value of 40*s.* which have not been aſſeſſed towards ſome aid granted to his majeſty by a land tax in Great Britain, 12 calendar months next before ſuch election. Provided that nothing herein ſhall reſtrain any perſon from voting in any ſuch election for cities and towns counties of themſelves, in reſpect of any rents, or any meſſuages or ſeats belonging to any offices, by reaſon that the ſame have not been uſually aſſeſſed to the land tax: and the acting commiſſioners of the land tax, or any three of them, at their meetings, ſhall ſign and ſeal one other duplicate of the copies of the aſſeſſment delivered to them by the aſſeſſors, after all appeals determined; and the ſame ſhall deliver to the perſons officiating as clerks of the peace within the diſtricts of the ſaid cities and towns being counties of themſelves, to be by them kept among the records of the ſeſſions, to which all perſons may reſort and inſpect the ſame, paying 6*d.* and the ſaid perſons officiating as clerks of the peace, or their deputies, ſhall give copies of the ſaid duplicates or any part thereof to any perſon who ſhall require the ſame, paying after the rate of 6*d.* for every 300 words. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall vote in ſuch election of a member to ſerve in parliament for any city or town being a county of itſelf, and in which perſons have a right to vote in reſpect of lands or hereditaments, of the yearly value of 40*s.* unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall have a freehold eſtate in the city and county, or town and county, for which he votes, of the clear yearly value of 40*s.* over and above all rents and charges payable out of the ſame; and ſhall have been in the poſſeſſion or receipt of the rents and profits thereof, for his own uſe, above 12 calendar months, except the ſame came to him within the time aforeſaid by deſcent, marriage, marriage ſettlement, deviſe, or promotion to any benefice in the church, or by promotion to an office; and no perſon ſhall vote in reſpect of any freehold eſtate which was made to him fraudulently, on purpoſe to qualify him to give his vote, or ſhall vote more than once at the ſame election: and if any perſon vote in any ſuch election contrary to the intent hereof, he ſhall forfeit to any candidate for whom ſuch vote ſhall not have been given, and who ſhall firſt ſue for the ſame, 40*l.* to be recovered by him, or his executors or adminiſtrators, with coſts, by action of debt in any court of record at Weſtminſter, wherein no eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed: and in every ſuch action the proof ſhall lie on ſuch perſon againſt whom the ſame was brought, unleſs the fact on which ſuch action is grounded, be the having polled more than once at the ſame election. ſ. 4.

No public or parliamentary tax, church or pariſh rate, or any other tax, rate, or aſſeſſment, to be levied within ſuch cities or towns being counties of themſelves, ſhall be deemed any charge payable out of any freehold eſtate within the meaning of this act, or of the oath or affirmation herein before mentioned. ſ. 5.

The ſheriff or ſheriffs of any county or town being a county of itſelf, in England, or in his abſence the under-ſheriff or under-ſheriffs, or ſuch perſon as he ſhall depute, ſhall at every election of any member to ſerve in parliament, allow a checque book for every poll book for each candidate, to be kept by their reſpective inſpectors at the place where the poll ſhall be taken. ſ. 6.

The ſheriff or ſheriffs of every city or town being a county of itſelf, and having a right to elect a member of parliament, by virtue of the writ iſſuing out of chancery, without any precept thereupon, in England, ſhall forthwith, upon the receipt of the writ, cauſe public notice to be given of the time and place of election; and proceed to election within eight days next after that of his receipt of the writ, and give three days notice thereof at leaſt, excluſive of the day of the receipt of the writ and of the day of election. ſ. 7.

In caſe any ſheriff or under-ſheriff, preſiding at any election of a member to ſerve in parliament for any ſuch city or town being a county of itſelf, in England, ſhall wilfully offend againſt the meaning of this act, he ſhall be liable to be proſecuted by information or indictment in the king's bench in Weſtminſter, or at the aſſizes for the city or town where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, in which no noli proſequi, or ceſſat proceſſus ſhall be granted. ſ. 8.

It ſhall be ſufficient for the plaintiff in any action of debt given by this act, to ſet forth in the declaration, that the defendant is indebted to him in the ſum of ———, and to alledge the particular offence for which the action is brought, and that the defendant hath acted contrary to this act; without mentioning the writ of ſummons to parliament, or the return thereof: and it ſhall be ſufficient in any indictment or information for any offence contrary to this act, to alledge the particular offence, and that the defendant is guilty thereof, without mentioning the writ of ſummons to parliament or the return thereof: and upon trial of any iſſue in any ſuch action, indictment, or information, the plaintiff, proſecutor, or informer, ſhall not be obliged to prove the writ of ſummons to parliament, or the return thereof, or any warrant to the ſheriff grounded upon ſuch writ of ſummons. ſ. 9.

Every action, indictment, or information, given by this act, ſhall be commenced within nine calendar months after the fact upon which the ſame is grounded. ſ. 10.

All the ſtatutes of jeofails ſhall extend to all the proceedings in any action, indictment, or information given by this act. ſ. 11.

In caſe the plaintiff or informer, in any action, indictment, or information given by this act, ſhall diſcontinue or be nonſuited, or judgment be given againſt him, the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 12.

This act, or any thing therein contained (except ſuch clauſes as are made for allowing cheque books, or for notice of the time and place of election, and proceeding to election thereupon) ſhall not extend to any city or town being a county of itſelf, or to any perſon, where the right of voting for any member of ſuch city or town is in reſpect of burgage tenure; or where the right of voting in reſpect of a freehold does not require the ſame to be of the yearly value of 40*s.* ſ. 13.

By 31 Geo. 2. c. 14. No perſon who holds his eſtate by copy of court roll ſhall be entitled thereby to vote at the election of any knight of a ſhire in England and Wales: and if any perſon vote in any ſuch election contrary to the intent hereof, every ſuch vote ſhall be void; and every perſon ſo voting ſhall forfeit to any candidate for whom ſuch vote ſhall not have been given, and who ſhall firſt ſue for the ſame, 50*l.* to be recovered by him, his executors, and adminiſtrators, with coſts, by action of debt in any court of record at Weſtminſter, wherein no eſſoin, &c. ſhall be allowed; allowed; and in every ſuch action the proof ſhall lie on the perſon againſt whom ſuch action ſhall be brought. ſ. 1.

It ſhall be ſufficient for the plaintiff, in any ſuch action of debt, to ſet forth in the declaration that the defendant is indebted to him in the ſum of 50 l. and to alledge the offence for which the action is brought, and that the defendant had acted contrary to this act, without mentioning the writ of ſummons to parliament or the return thereof: and upon trial the plaintiff ſhall not be obliged to prove the writ of ſummons to parliament, or the return thereof, or any warrant to the ſheriff grounded upon any ſuch writ of ſummons. ſ. 2.

Provided that every ſuch action be commenced within 9 calendar months next after the fact upon which the ſame is grounded. ſ. 3.

All the ſtatutes of jeofails ſhall extend to all proceedings in any ſuch action. ſ. 4.

In caſe the plaintiff in ſuch an action diſcontinue or be nonſuited, or judgment be given againſt him, the defendant ſhall recover treble coſts. ſ. 5.

By 33 Geo. 2. c. 20. Every perſon (except as herein after excepted) who ſhall be elected a member of the houſe of commons, ſhall, before he preſumes to vote in the houſe of commons, or ſit there during any debate, after their ſpeaker is choſen, deliver in to the clerk of the ſaid houſe, at the table in the middle of the houſe, and whilſt the houſe of commons is there duly ſitting, with their ſpeaker in the chair, an account, ſigned by ſuch member, containing the names of the pariſhes, townſhips, or precincts, and of the counties in which the lands or hereditaments lie, whereby he makes out his qualification, declaring the ſame to be of the annual value of 600 l. above reprizes, if a knight of the ſhire; and of the annual value of 300 l. above reprizes, if a citizen, burgeſs, or baron of the cinque ports; and ſhall at the ſame time take and ſubſcribe the following oath. viz.

I A. B. do ſwear, that I truly and bona fide have ſuch an eſtate in law or equity, and of ſuch value, to and for my own uſe and benefit, of or in lands, tenements, or hereditaments, over and above what will ſatisfy and clear all incumbrances that may affect the ſame, as doth qualify me to be elected and returned to ſerve as a member for the place I am returned for, according to the tenor and true meaning of the acts of parliament in that behalf; and that ſuch lands, tenements, or hereditaments, do lie as deſcribed in the paper or account ſigned by me, and now delivered to the clerk of the houſe of commons.

So help me God.

And the houſe of commons is hereby impowered and required to adminiſter the ſaid oath and ſubſcription according to this act to every perſon duly demanding the ſame, immediately after ſuch perſon ſhall have taken the oaths of allegiance, ſupremacy, and abjuration, at the ſaid table. And the ſaid oath and ſubſcription ſhall be entered in a parchment roll, to be provided by the clerk of the houſe of commons; and the accounts ſo ſigned and delivered to the ſaid clerk ſhall be filed and kept by him. ſ. 1.

If any perſon elected to ſerve in any future parliament as a knight of the ſhire, or as a citizen, burgeſs, or baron of the cinque ports, preſume to ſit or vote as a member of the houſe of commons, before he has delivered in ſuch account, and taken and ſubſcribed ſuch oath, or ſhall not be qualified according to 9 Ann. c. 5. and this act; his election ſhall be void, and a new writ ſhall be iſſued to elect another member. ſ. 2.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to the eldeſt ſon or heir apparent of any peer, or of any perſon qualified to ſerve as a knight of the ſhire, or to the members for either of the univerſities in England, or to the members for Scotland. ſ. 3.

By 3 Geo. 3. c. 15. No perſon claiming as a freeman to vote at any election of members to ſerve in parliament for any city, town, port, or borough, in England, Wales, and Berwick upon Tweed, where ſuch voter's right is as a freeman only, ſhall be admitted to vote, unleſs ſuch perſon ſhall have been admitted to the freedom 12 months before the firſt day of election: and if any perſon ſhall preſume to give his vote contrary to this act, he ſhall forfeit 100 l. to him who ſhall inform; and the vote given ſhall be void. ſ. 1.

Nothing herein ſhall extend to any perſon entitled to freedom by birth, marriage, or ſervitude, according to the cuſtom of ſuch city, &c. ſ. 2.

If any mayor, or other officer of any corporation, or other perſon whatſoever, ſhall wilfully antedate, or cauſe to be antedated, any admiſſion, ſuch mayor, &c. ſhall forfeit 500 l. to him who ſhall inform. ſ. 3.

The mayor, or any other officer of any corporation, having the cuſtody of the records, ſhall, upon the demand of any candidate, or his agent, or two freemen, on the payment of one ſhilling, permit ſuch candidate, agent, or freeman, between nine in the morning and three in the afternoon, at any time before, and within one month after ſuch election, to inſpect the books and papers wherein the admiſſion of freemen ſhall be entered; and to have copies of the admiſſion of ſo many as ſuch candidate, &c. ſhall think fit, upon paying to ſuch officer, a reaſonable charge for writing the ſame; and ſuch books and papers ſhall, if demanded by ſuch candidate, be produced by ſuch officer, at every election, and be referred to, in caſe any diſpute ſhall ariſe touching the right of any perſon to give his vote: and if ſuch officer ſhall refuſe, &c. the inſpection of ſuch books, &c. or to have copies thereof, or ſhall refuſe or neglect to produce ſuch books, &c. at any election, if demanded and paid for, ſuch officer ſhall forfeit 100 l. to him who ſhall inform. ſ. 4.

All forfeitures impoſed by this act, ſhall be recovered with coſts, by action of debt, &c. at Weſtminſter. ſ. 5.

No perſon ſhall be liable to any forfeiture unleſs proſecution be commenced within one year. ſ. 6.

The returning officer ſhall read, or cauſe to be read openly, this act, at the time of election of members to ſerve for cities, &c. where the right of election is in the whole, or in part, in freemen, immediately after the reading of 2 Geo. 2. for preventing bribery. ſ. 6.

Nothing in this act ſhall extend to London or Norwich. ſ. 7.

By 3 Geo. 3. c. 24. No perſon ſhall vote for electing any knight of a ſhire, citizen, or burgeſs of any city or town in England, in reſpect of any annuity or rent charge, iſſuing out of freehold lands or tenements, and granted before the 1ſt June 1763, unleſs a certificate upon oath ſhall have been entered 12 months before the firſt day of ſuch election, with the clerk of the peace for the county, or with the clerk of the peace, town clerk, or other public officer, having the cuſtody of the records, as follows, viz.

I A. B. of ——— am really and bona fide ſeiſed of an annuity or rent charge for my own uſe and benefit, of the clear yearly value of 40*s. above all rents and charges payable out of the ſame, wholly iſſuing out of freehold lands, tenements, or hereditaments, belonging to* C. D. of ——— ſituate,

ſituate, lying, and being in the pariſh, townſhip, or place, or in the pariſhes, townſhips, or places of E. in the county of ——— without any truſt, agreement, matter, or thing to the contrary notwithſtanding; and I, or the perſon or perſons under whom I claim, was or were ſeiſed of the ſaid annuity or rent charge, before the 1ſt day of June 1763.

No perſon ſhall vote for the electing any knight of the ſhire, or for a citizen or burgeſs of any city or town in England, in reſpect of any annuity or rent charge, iſſuing out of freehold lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which ſhall come to ſuch perſon by deſcent, marriage, deviſe, or preſentation to a benefice in a church, or promotion to an office within 12 months before ſuch election, unleſs a certificate upon oath, or affirmation, ſhall have been entered with the clerk of the peace or other officer as aforeſaid, before the 1ſt day of ſuch election, viz.

I A. B. of ——— am really and bona fide ſeiſed of an annuity or rent charge, to my own uſe and benefit, of the clear yearly value of 40*s. a year above all rents and charges payable out of the ſame, wholly iſſuing out of freehold lands, tenements, or hereditaments, belonging to* C. No perſon ſhall vote for any annuity or rent charge to be granted after the 1ſt of June 1763, unleſs a memorial of the grant ſhall have been regiſtered with the clerk of the peace of the county, &c. or with the clerk of the peace, town clerk, or other public officer, having the cuſtody of the records, within ſuch city or town, 12 months before the firſt day of ſuch election; which memorial ſhall be wrote on parchment, and directed to ſuch clerk of the peace or other officer, under the hand and ſeal of the grantor, atteſted by two witneſſes, one whereof to be one of the witneſſes to the execution of ſuch grant; which witneſs ſhall on oath before ſuch clerk, &c. prove the ſealing and delivering of ſuch grant, and the ſigning and ſealingof ſuch memorial; and which memorial ſhall contain the date, and the names, additions, and abodes of the parties and witneſſes, and all the lands and tenements out of which the annuity or rent charge iſſues, and the place where ſuch lands lie; and every ſuch grant regiſtered, ſhall, at entering the memorial, be produced to ſuch clerk of the peace or other officer, who ſhall thereon indorſe a certificate. ſ. 3.

No perſon ſhall vote at any election of any ſuch city or town, by reaſon of an aſſignment of any annuity or rent charge made before 1ſt June 1763, unleſs a certificate of ſuch aſſignment upon oath ſhall have been entered with ſuch clerk of the peace or other officer, 12 months before the election; and no perſon ſhall vote by reaſon of an aſſignment made after 1ſt June 1763, unleſs a memorial of ſuch aſſignment, and alſo of the grant, ſhall have been atteſted and regiſtered 12 months before the election, in the ſame manner as an original grant. ſ. 4.

The clerk of the peace, or other officer, ſhall keep a book for entering ſuch certificate and memorial, and ſhall be allowed for the entry of every certificate 1*s.* and of every memorial 2*s.* and for every ſearch 1*s.* and any perſon may inſpect the certificates, memorials, and entries; and ſuch clerk of the peace or officer is to give a copy to any perſon who ſhall deſire the ſame, paying for ſuch copy, if it contains not more than 200 words, 6*d.*; and ſo in proportion for any greater number of words; and ſuch clerk of the peace, or other officer, may adminiſter an oath in all caſes where required, and true copies of the certificate and memorials atteſted by clerks of the peace, or other officer, ſhall be legal evidence. ſ. 5.

A memorial of ſuch grant or aſſignment as ſhall be executed in any place not within 40 miles of the office of the clerk of the peace or other officer, ſhall be regiſtered by ſuch clerk of the peace, &c. in caſe an affidavit ſworn, or affirmation, before one of the judges at Weſtminſter, or a maſter in chancery, ordinary or extraordinary, be brought with the memorial, wherein one of the witneſſes to the grant or aſſignment ſhall ſwear that he ſaw the ſame executed. ſ. 6.

The clerk of the peace, or other officer as aforeſaid, ſhall, upon notice, attend at any election with the book of entries of every ſuch certificate and memorial, at the requeſt of any candidate, he making ſatisfaction for ſuch attendance. ſ. 7.

Clerk of the peace or other officer guilty of any wilful neglect, miſdemeanor, or fraudulent practice, contrary to this act, ſhall forfeit 100*l.* to the perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame, in any court of record at Weſtminſter. ſ. 8.

No perſon ſhall be liable to any forfeiture unleſs proſecution be commenced within 12 months after incurred. ſ. 9.

By 10 Geo. 3. c. 16. made perpetual by 14 Geo. 3. c. 15. Whenever a petition, complaining of an undue election, or return of a member or members to ſerve in parliament, ſhall be preſented to the houſe of commons, a day and hour ſhall by the ſaid houſe be appointed for taking the ſame into conſideration, and notice thereof in writing ſhall be forthwith given by the ſpeaker, to the petitioners and the ſitting members, or their agents, accompanied with an order to attend the houſe, at the time appointed, by themſelves, their counſel, or agents. ſ. 2.

The houſe may alter the day and hour ſo appointed, and appoint ſome ſubſequent day and hour, giving to the parties the like notice of ſuch alteration, and order to attend as aforeſaid. ſ. 3.

At the time appointed for taking ſuch petition into conſideration, and previous to the reading the order of the day for that purpoſe, the ſerjeant at arms ſhall be directed to go with the mace to the places adjacent, and require the immediate attendance of the members, and after his return the houſe ſhall be counted, and if there be leſs than 100 members preſent, the order ſhall be immediately adjourned to a particular hour on the following day (Sunday and Chriſtmas day always excepted); and the houſe ſhall then adjourn to the ſaid day, and the proceedings of all committees, ſubſequent to ſuch notice from the ſaid ſerjeant, ſhall be void: and on the ſaid following day the houſe ſhall proceed in the ſame manner, and ſo from day to day till there be an attendance of 100 members at the reading the order of the day. ſ. 4.

If after ſummoning the members, and counting the houſe, 100 members ſhall be preſent, the petitioners by themſelves, their counſel, or agents, and the counſel or agents of the ſitting members, ſhall be ordered to attend at the bar; and then the door of the houſe ſhall be locked, and no member ſhall be ſuffered to enter into or depart from the houſe, until the petitioners, their counſel or agents, and the counſel or agents for the ſitting members, ſhall be directed to withdraw as after mentioned; and when the door ſhall be locked as aforeſaid, the order of the day ſhall be read, and the names of all the members of the houſe, written or printed on diſtinct pieces of parchment or paper, being all of equal ſize, and rolled up in the ſame manner, ſhall be put in equal numbers into ſix boxes or glaſſes, to be placed on the table, and ſhall there be ſhaken together; and then the clerk or clerk aſſiſtant ſhall publicly draw out of the ſaid ſix boxes or glaſſes alternately, the ſaid pieces of parchment or paper, and deliver the ſame to the ſpeaker, to be by him read to the houſe; and ſo ſhall continue to do, until 49 names of the members then preſent be drawn. ſ. 5.

If the name of any member who ſhall have given his vote at any election, or who ſhall be a petitioner complaining, or againſt whoſe return a petition ſhall be then depending, or whoſe return ſhall not have been brought in 14 days, ſhall be drawn; his name ſhall be ſet aſide, with thoſe who are abſent. ſ. 6.

If the name of any member of 60 years or upwards be drawn, he ſhall be excuſed from ſerving on the ſelect committee, if he require it, and verify the cauſe of ſuch requiſition upon oath. ſ. 7.

If the name of any member who has ſerved in ſuch ſelect committee during the ſame ſeſſion be drawn, he ſhall, if he requires it, be excuſed from ſerving again, unleſs the houſe ſhall before have reſolved, that the number who have not ſerved on ſuch ſelect committee in the ſame ſeſſion, is inſufficient. ſ. 8.

No member, who after having been appointed ſhall, on account of inability or accident, have been excuſed from attending throughout, ſhall be deemed to have ſerved. ſ. 9.

If any other member ſhall offer and verify upon oath, any other excuſe, the ſubſtance of the allegations ſo verified ſhall be taken down by the clerk, that the ſame may be afterwards entered on the journals, and the opinion of the houſe ſhall be taken thereon; and if the houſe ſhall reſolve that the ſaid member is unable to ſerve, or cannot without great detriment, he alſo ſhall be excuſed. ſ. 10.

Inſtead of the members ſet aſide and excuſed, the names of other members ſhall be drawn, until the whole number of 49 not liable to be ſet aſide or excuſed ſhall be complete; and the petitioners or their agents ſhall then name one, and the ſitting members or their agents another, from among the members then preſent, whoſe names ſhall not have been drawn, to be added to thoſe who ſhall have been ſo choſen by lot. ſ. 11.

Either of the members ſo nominated may be ſet aſide, for the ſame cauſes as thoſe choſen by lot; or ſhall, if he requires it, be excuſed from ſerving on the ſaid ſelect committee; and the party who nominated the member ſo ſet aſide or excuſed, ſhall nominate another until his nominee is admitted. ſ. 12.

As ſoon as the 49 members ſhall have been choſen and the two members nominated, the door ſhall be opened, and the houſe may proceed upon other buſineſs; and liſts of the 49 members ſhall then be given to the petitioners, their counſel or agents, and the counſel or agents for the ſitting members, who ſhall immediately withdraw, together with the clerk appointed to attend the ſelect committee; and the ſaid petitioners and ſitting members, their counſel or agents, beginning on the part of the petitioners, ſhall alternately ſtrike off one of the ſaid 49 members until the number ſhall be reduced to 13; and the ſaid clerk, within one hour at fartheſt from the time of the parties withdrawing from the houſe, ſhall deliver in to the houſe the names of the 13 members then remaining; and the ſaid 13 members, together with the two members nominated, ſhall be ſworn at the table, well and truly to try the matter of the petition referred to them, and a true judgment to give according to the evidence; and ſhall be a ſelect committee to try and determine the merits of the return or election appointed by the houſe to be that day taken into conſideration; and the houſe ſhall order the ſaid ſelect committee to meet at a certain time to be fixed by the houſe, within 24 hours of the appointment of the ſaid ſelect committee, unleſs a Sunday or Chriſtmas day ſhall intervene; and the place of their meeting and ſitting ſhall be ſome convenient room adjacent to the houſe of commons or court of requeſts. ſ. 13.

On the parties withdrawing, the houſe ſhall continue ſitting; and the ſaid 51 members, ſo choſen and nominated, ſhall not depart the houſe, till the time for the meeting of the ſaid ſelect committee ſhall be fixed. ſ. 14.

If upon the drawing out the name of any member, the petitioners or ſitting members, or their agents, ſhall declare, that ſuch member is intended to be one of the two nominees, and if ſuch member ſhall conſent to ſuch nomination, the name of ſuch member ſo drawn, ſhall be ſet aſide, and unleſs objected to as aforeſaid, he ſhall ſerve as ſuch nominee, and the name of another ſhall be drawn to ſupply his place, to complete the 49; and if the petitioners or ſitting members, or their agents, ſhall not nominate a member then preſent, who ſhall be admitted according to the directions of this act, then the want of ſuch nomination ſhall be ſupplied, by drawing out inſtead thereof, the name of one or two members as the caſe ſhall require, who ſhall be drawn in like manner, and ſubject to the like objections and excuſes, as the other 49 members drawn by lot, and ſhall be added to the liſts of the ſaid 49 members, and ſhall be liable to be ſtruck off in the ſame manner; leaving always 15 members and no more, as a ſelect committee. ſ. 15.

The names of all the members ſo written and rolled up as before directed, ſhall, previous to the day appointed for taking any ſuch petition into conſideration, be prepared by the ſaid clerk or clerk aſſiſtant, and by him put into a box or parcel in the preſence of the ſpeaker, together with an atteſtation, ſigned by the ſaid clerk or clerk aſſiſtant, purporting that the names of all the members were by him put therein the ——— day of ——— in the year ——— which ſaid box or parcel the ſpeaker ſhall ſeal with his own ſeal; and to the outſide thereof ſhall annex an atteſtation ſigned by himſelf, purporting, that the ſaid box or parcel was on the ——— day of ——— in the year ———; made up in his preſence, in the manner directed by this act; and that as ſoon as the parties ſhall be withdrawn as aforeſaid, and before the houſe ſhall enter on any other buſineſs, any member may require, that the names of all the members which remain undrawn, ſhall be drawn and read aloud by the clerk. ſ. 16.

The ſelect committee ſhall, on their meeting, elect a chairman from among the members choſen; and if, in the election, there be an equal number of voices, the member whoſe name was firſt drawn ſhall have a caſting voice; ſo in caſe there ſhall be occaſion for electing a new chairman, on death or neceſſary abſence. ſ. 17.

The ſelect committee ſhall have power to ſend for perſons, papers, and records, and ſhall examine all the witneſſes who come before them upon oath; and ſhall try the merits of the return, or election, or both; and ſhall determine by a majority of voices whether the petitioners or the ſitting members, or either of them, be duly returned or elected, or whether the election be void; which determination ſhall be final: and the houſe, on being informed thereof by the chairman of the ſaid ſelect committee, ſhall order order the ſame to be entered in their journals, and give the neceſſary directions for confirming or altering the return, or for the iſſuing a new writ, or for carrying the ſaid determination into execution. ſ. 18.

The ſaid ſelect committee ſhall ſit every day (Sunday and Chriſtmas day only excepted), and ſhall never adjourn for longer than twenty-four hours, unleſs a Sunday or Chriſtmas day intervene, without leave firſt obtained from the houſe, upon motion, and ſpecial cauſe aſſigned for a longer adjournment; and in caſe the houſe ſhall be ſitting at the time to which the ſaid ſelect committee is adjourned, then the buſineſs of the houſe ſhall be ſtayed, and a motion ſhall be made for a further adjournment, for any time to be fixed by the houſe, not exceeding twenty-four hours. ſ. 19.

Where the time preſcribed by this act for the meeting, ſitting, or adjournment of the ſelect committee, ſhall, by the intervention of a Sunday or Chriſtmas day, exceed twenty-four hours, ſuch meeting, ſitting, or adjournment, ſhall be within twenty-four hours from the time of appointing or fixing the ſame, excluſive of ſuch Sunday or Chriſtmas day. ſ. 20.

No member of the ſelect committee ſhall abſent himſelf, without leave obtained from, or an excuſe allowed by the houſe at the next ſitting, on ſpecial cauſe ſhewn and verified upon oath; and the ſaid committee ſhall never ſit, until all the members to whom ſuch leave has not been granted, nor excuſe allowed, are met; and in caſe they ſhall not all meet within one hour after the time to which the committee ſhall have been adjourned, a farther adjournment ſhall be made in manner before directed, and reported, with the cauſe thereof, to the houſe. ſ. 21.

The chairman of the ſelect committee ſhall, at the next meeting of the houſe, always report the name of every member who ſhall have been abſent without leave or excuſe; and ſuch member ſhall be directed to attend the houſe at the next ſitting, and ſhall then be ordered into the cuſtody of the ſerjeant at arms for ſuch neglect, and otherwiſe puniſhed or cenſured at the diſcretion of the houſe; unleſs it ſhall appear to the houſe, by facts ſpecially ſtated and verified upon oath, that ſuch member was, by a ſudden accident, or by neceſſity, prevented from attending the ſaid ſelect committee. ſ. 22.

If more than two members of the ſelect committee ſhall on any account be abſent therefrom, the ſaid committee ſhall adjourn in manner before directed; and ſo, from time to time, until thirteen members are aſſembled. ſ. 23.

In caſe the number of members able to attend ſhall, by death or otherwiſe, be reduced to leſs than thirteen, and ſhall ſo continue for three ſitting days, the ſaid ſelect committee ſhall be diſſolved, and another choſen to try and determine the petition; and all proceedings of the former committee ſhall be void. ſ. 24.

If the ſelect committee ſhall come to any reſolution, other than the determination above-mentioned, they ſhall, if they think proper, report the ſame to the houſe for their opinion, at the time that the chairman ſhall inform the houſe of ſuch determination; and the houſe may confirm or diſagree with ſuch reſolution, and make ſuch orders as to them ſhall ſeem proper. ſ. 25.

If any perſon ſummoned by the ſelect committee, ſhall diſobey ſuch ſummons; or if any witneſs ſhall prevaricate, or otherwiſe miſbehave in giving, or refuſing to give evidence; the chairman of the committee, by their direction, may, during the courſe of their proceedings, report the ſame to the houſe, for the interpoſition of their authority or cenſure, as the caſe ſhall require. ſ. 26.

Whenever the ſelect committee ſhall think it neceſſary to deliberate amongſt themſelves, upon any queſtion which ſhall ariſe in the courſe of trial, or upon the determination thereof, or upon any reſolution concerning the matter of the petition referred to them as aforeſaid; as ſoon as the ſaid committee ſhall have heard the evidence and counſel on both ſides relative thereunto, the room wherein they ſhall ſit ſhall be cleared, if they ſhall think proper, while the members conſider thereof; and all ſuch queſtions, as well as ſuch determination, and all other reſolutions, ſhall be by a majority of voices; and if the voices ſhall be equal, the chairman ſhall have a caſting voice. ſ. 27.

Provided, no ſuch determination ſhall be made, nor any queſtion be propoſed, unleſs thirteen members ſhall be preſent; and no member ſhall have a vote who has not attended during every ſitting. ſ. 28.

The oaths by this act directed to be taken in the houſe, ſhall be adminiſtered by the clerk; and the oaths before the ſelect committee, ſhall be adminiſtered by the clerk attending the ſaid committee; and all perſons guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury in evidence before the houſe, or the ſaid ſelect committee, in conſequence of the oath taken, ſhall, on conviction, incur the like pains and penalties to which any other perſon, convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury, is liable by the laws. ſ. 29.

By 10 Geo. 3. c. 50. Any perſon may, at any time, commence and proſecute any action or ſuit in any court of record, or court of equity, or of admiralty, and in all cauſes matrimonial and teſtamentary, in any court having cognizance of cauſes matrimonial and teſtamentary, againſt any peer or lord of parliament of Great Britain, or any of the knights, citizens, and burgeſſes, and the commiſſioners for ſhires and burghs of the houſe of commons of Great Britain, or againſt their menial or other ſervants, or any other perſon entitled to the privilege of parliament of Great Britain; and no ſuch action, ſuit, or other proceſs or proceeding thereupon, ſhall be impeached, ſtayed, or delayed, under colour of any privilege of parliament.

This ſhall not ſubject the perſon of any of the knights, citizens, and burgeſſes, or the commiſſioners of ſhires and burghs of the houſe of commons of Great Britain, to be arreſted or impriſoned upon any ſuch ſuit or proceedings. ſ. 2.

The court out of which the writ (diſtringas) proceeds, may order the iſſues levied to be ſold, and the money ariſing thereby to be applied to pay coſts to the plaintiff, and the ſurplus to be retained until the defendant ſhall have appeared, or other purpoſe of the writ be anſwered. ſ. 3.

When the purpoſe of the writ is anſwered, the ſaid iſſues ſhall be returned: or, if ſold, what ſhall remain, ſhall be repaid to the party diſtrained upon. ſ. 4.
